Chapter 2371: Chapter 2371 Wei Min did something evil and caused her to have a miscarriage

Translator: 549690339

“What!”

Initially, she thought that she would hear about the scandal regarding Yun Jian, such as her having an unspeakable sexually transmitted disease. However, when she heard doctor Jiang’s words, Wei Min’s expression changed drastically.

It was only when she realized that she had shouted too loudly just now that Wei Min had finished shouting, that she reached out and covered her mouth. Her eyes widened in disbelief.

Wei Lin... was actually pregnant!

With who! ?

Whose Child! ?

What had she experienced before she returned to the Wei family! !

Could it be that the child... ! ... was that man who was so handsome that he could make people forget to breathe, and was even tens of times more handsome than her handsome brother! !

No! How could it be!

Why! ? Why was even a man, Wei Lin’s, more outstanding than hers! ?

After hearing the news, Wei Min grabbed her long hair with both hands and frowned.

“She’s really... pregnant! ?”Wei Min gritted her teeth and repeated.

Yun Jian and Wei Min were already college students.

It was just that the school rules of the Imperial College made the lives of college students look more similar to those of high school students.

It was no longer strange for college students to get pregnant in this society.

There were even some rural people who married off their daughters at the age of 15 or 16. At the age of 18, they should be the mothers of two children!

In 2003, there were not many people who managed to get into university in this era. In the previous era, there were a lot of people who did not get into high school, not to mention going to university.

If the time was pushed forward to the last century, in Qin Yiruo's era, even elementary school to junior high school had to be based on exam results.

At that time, half of the students couldn't even get into elementary school to junior high school.

In that era, they couldn't go to school early, what could they do? Naturally, they went out to look for a job.

They went out to work early, met people early, got married and had children early.

In 2003, in this era, there were many people who got married and got pregnant early. However, to apply for a marriage certificate from the Civil Affairs Bureau, one had to be of the legal age.

Although Wei Min was shocked, it was not to the point of disbelief.

"I've been practicing medicine for so many years, and I used to be in the gynecology department. In terms of stomach touching and pregnancy testing skills, even the gynecologists in the People's Hospital of Puluo City can't compare to me. Don't worry, I'm sure of this."

As soon as Wei Min finished speaking, doctor Jiang spoke again.

After saying this, doctor Jiang frowned again and spoke with some doubt:

"But the strange thing is that the two of them just jumped down from the third floor of the palace. That was the height of a six-story building equivalent to an ordinary residential building!

"The scary thing is not that the two of them are completely fine. After all, during the first three months of a normal girl's pregnancy, that is the critical period of protection!

"In the end, that girl jumped down from a height equivalent to six stories, and the baby in her stomach was completely fine! If it were anyone else, they would have had a miscarriage long ago!

"It's not an exaggeration to say that her stomach is as hard as metal! "It's as if she wasn't pregnant at all. For a girl to be able to do this, no matter what, her body should be strong enough to beat up a man who came out of the special forces... “This is too scary!”

Doctor Jiang’s words made Wei Min gasp.

Then, Wei Min asked doctor jiang, “Is there a way to make her miscarry?”

After doctor Jiang Heard Wei Min’s words, he was silent for two seconds before he said,

“This... isn’t easy to make! That Girl’s body is too strong. It’s very difficult to miscarry... but... There’s a way...”

Wei Min never expected Yun Jian’s physique to be so good!

Even a man from the special forces could not defeat her!

However, after listening to the second half of doctor Jiang’s words, Wei Min curled her lips and thought, HMPH, Wei Lin, you’re dead meat!

...

Yun Jian and Si Yi did not stay in the school infirmary for long before they left.

The reason why Yun Jian hid the blood bag on her body was because she had deduced that someone would make a move on her in the near future.

It was to test her strength.

She originally wanted to pretend that she was stabbed and had no strength to fight back, so her blood splattered everywhere.

However, she had predicted that scene. Before that scene could happen, when Si Yi pressed her down and kissed her in the car, the blood bag broke...

Then, without waiting for the Yun Zhi to explain, Si Yi carried her in a panic and rushed to the school’s medical room. Only then did that scene happen.

In fact, the Yun Zhi did not tell Si Yi at the first moment because he wanted to see how much Si Yi cared about her. Later, the Yun Zhi clearly saw that when he found out that the pool of blood was actually a blood bag, the sweat on Si Yi's forehead completely stopped flowing.

He reached out and grabbed a handful of black hair. He walked to the front of Yun Jian and hugged him. "Little Jian, don't scare me in the future!"

He was really afraid. He was afraid that something had happened to his little jian.

For someone he cared about, even if the other party had the slightest bit of injury, he would care to death. He was afraid that the other party would make a mistake.

Si Yi cared about Yun Jian more than his own life. That was why his first reaction when he saw the blood on Yun Jian was fear.

However, Si Yi did not show his fear on his face.

"Okay." Yun Jian's Red Arc rose slightly after hearing Si Yi's words. She crossed her arms and hugged Si Yi.

As Yun Jian was sitting on the examination bed with his legs on the ground, Si Yi bent down and hugged her.

With this arc, Yun Jian could place his chin on his shoulder.

...

When doctor Jiang came in again, Wei Min had already left.

She did not mention what doctor Jiang said to Wei Min in front of Yun Jian and Si Yi.

As for Yun Jian's pregnancy, doctor Jiang pretended that she did not know anything about it. She quietly prescribed two sets of ordinary medicine for Yun Jian and did not say much.

"Take the medicine on time. Alright, you can leave now," doctor Jiang said.

1

When Si Yi heard this, he grabbed Yun Jian's little hand and turned around to leave.

...

Doctor Jiang, who was sitting in the school's infirmary, immediately shook his head when he saw Yun Jian and Si Yi leaving.

Ai, who did they offend? They actually offended Wei Min.

It seemed that this young couple would not last long!

At this moment, doctor Jiang had no idea that the future Wei Min, as well as her, would be completely ruined because of this decision today.

After returning home, Si Yi went upstairs to take a shower.

Yun Jian informed Wei Xiao that he would not be returning to the Wei residence today.

This was a temporary suite that Si Yi had bought. Since Si Yi had come to Puluo City, Yun Jian was naturally unwilling to return to the Wei residence.

Because the blood in the blood bag was chicken blood, Si Yi had a slight mysophobia.

Other than Yun Jian, he disliked anyone else's blood. After knowing that the blood left behind was chicken blood from the blood bag, Si Yi went to take a shower.

Yun Jian personally cooked the dishes in the kitchen. She cooked all kinds of dishes herself —

Pickled cabbage soup, pickled cabbage fish, pickled cabbage fried bamboo shoots, pickled cabbage pig's blood soup...

Every dish could not do without pickled cabbage.

When the dishes were almost done, Yun Jian turned around, turned off the gas, and was about to walk into the living room.

However, the moment she turned around, Yun Jian suddenly bumped into a wall of meat.

"Xiao Jian..." Si Yi conveniently hugged her.

After taking a shower, Si Yi had a refreshing smell all over his body, and it smelled very good.

Yun Jian unconsciously wrapped his arms around his strong chest, and a certain pair of plump feet involuntarily bumped into his chest.

This was mistaken by a certain big pig trotter as a sign of love.

How could the upright young si yi endure it.

In the next second, Si Yi lifted Yun Zhi's buttocks and placed her on the cooking table in the kitchen.

Who knew that just as he placed Yun Zhi next to the cooking table, Yun Zhi was stunned for a moment before he wrapped his arm around her neck. This action could be considered as completely admitting his bad thoughts.

Si Yi, who was already unable to withstand such a response from Yun Zhi, tore off her pants and...

After the passion in the kitchen, Yun Jian collapsed in Si Yi's arms. Si Yi carried her to the bathroom and took a shower. By the time Si Yi carried her back to the bedroom, Yun Jian was already asleep.

At this moment, Si Yi had no idea that Yun Jian had a ball in her stomach.

Yun Jian herself had no idea that there was a new life in her stomach.

Maybe it was because there was a new life in Yun Jian's stomach, or maybe it was because of Si Yi's company, Yun Jian had completely relaxed her vigilance. This sleep made her sleep exceptionally deep and very stable.

1

Since Si Yi had entered the Royal Emperor Academy with Yun Jian, he naturally wouldn't leave for a short period of time.

The next day, Si Yi arrived at the Royal Emperor Academy with his little hands clasped together.

After entering the school gate, Si Yi did not avoid the opinions of outsiders at all.

Fortunately, the students of the imperial college were from wealthy families and had high statuses. The teachers usually did not dare to criticize the students, so even if a teacher saw them on the way, they would not say anything.

Furthermore, because today was the annual fencing competition, the school did not have to attend classes for the entire day.

The students had arrived at the Imperial College's Gymnasium early in the morning and sat in the audience seats in the gymnasium, waiting for the start of the competition.

In the spectator stands of the stadium, the place closest to the temporarily built fencing field was the VIP seats.

Usually, the people sitting in the VIP seats were either the leaders of the college, the leaders of the higher-ups, or the important figures of the school board.

At that time, after accompanying Yun Jian to the waiting area for the fencing competition, Si Yi put one hand in his pocket and walked directly to the VIP seats in the spectator stands.

He then randomly picked a seat for the guest seat and sat down with his legs crossed. Above his handsome face, his eyes were as bright as the stars as he stared at Yun Jian's afterimage that had just disappeared from the waiting area for a long time.

He did not participate in the competition.

The waiting area for the fencing competition.

The students who were about to participate in the competition were already standing in the waiting area.

The competition had yet to begin.

Yun Jian walked over and picked out the sword she had picked out from the pile of swords. Just as she turned around, she saw Luo Jiajun, Wei Ze, Wei Min, and Hong Ling.

Just as she was about to walk past Luo Jiajun and the others, Luo Jiajun suddenly called out to her, "Wei Lin!"

After saying that, Luo Jiajun was silent for a moment before saying, "Be careful!"

Si Yi's appearance was something that Luo Jiajun had never expected, but he was still unconvinced.

He had just looked around the waiting area, but Luo Jiajun did not find any trace of Si Yi. He had already gone to investigate previously, and Si Yi had signed up to participate in the fencing competition.

This could also explain one thing, and that was that Si Yi did not have the ability and did not dare to go on stage!

Now that he saw Yun Jian, Luo Jiajun had nothing to say. He could only play the emotional card and tell her to be careful in the competition.

However, after Yun Jian heard his words, he walked past her as if he did not hear anything.

When he saw Yun Jian walk past him in such an arrogant manner, he even tried to seduce her brother Jiajun when he was pregnant!

Wei Min clenched her hands and stared at Yun Jian's stomach for a long time with her sharp eyes.

Not far from the audience stands, someone had already started a bet.

"Come, come, come! The bet is on! The bet is on! Who Do you think will win first place in this year's fencing competition? Hurry up and place a bet! For this year's fencing competition, if you're right, we'll return the bet to you by ten times the amount of RMB!"

Someone sat on a short stool next to the set-up bet and picked up a pen to register the name of the person who placed the bet. He then called for people to continue betting.

The students here were all second-generation rich. They could still afford to play a small gambling house.

"I heard that there's a very beautiful girl who also participated in the fencing competition this year! She even said that she wanted to get first place. It's Wei Lin, the youngest daughter that the Wei family had just found and lost for ten years! Heh! Let's bet on which place she'll get!"

"A girl? No matter how beautiful a girl is, it doesn't mean that she's strong. She's even lost for ten years. She's completely just going on stage for a show. What kind of strength can she have! I bet that her fencing result this year will definitely be within the third from the bottom!"

The discussions in the venue were endless.

The staff member who set up the gambling house also kept writing with the pen in his hand.

However, just as the staff member who set up the gambling house drew the last line on the registration book, the registration book in his hand was suddenly taken away. Even the black pen in his hand was also taken away.

Then, a man who was so handsome that everyone was furious saw him holding a black pen and making a tick next to the name "Wei Lin" under the eyes of the people around him, then, he threw the registration book and the Black Pen back to the staff member's desk.

At the same time, a black card fell from the handsome man's hand into the staff member's notebook.

Then, a mellow voice came out from his thin lips, which made the faces of the people around them turn pale:

"First place, one billion dollars."

When the black card slipped out of Si Yi's hand and landed in front of the table of the staff working at the gambling house, not only the staff working at the gambling house, but even the students from the surrounding rich families and second-generation rich kids saw it, they were all stunned on the spot!

They were not mistaken!

Si Yi had just placed a tick next to the name "Wei Lin", which meant to place a bet on Wei Lin.

One billion US dollars!

When converted into RMB, it was a total of six billion US dollars!

In this era, this amount of money was enough to rank on the national rich list!

One had to know that no matter how rich the second generation of the rich was, they would already be able to reach the sky if they had a few hundred thousand a month's pocket money in their hands!

However, this handsome man who was wearing the Royal Emperor Academy's uniform and did not accept any rebuttal placed a bet of one billion US dollars! ?

This was simply an unbelievable thing!

"You... You, you..."the gambling staff stared at Si Yi with his round dead fish eyes and stuttered. After a pause, he took a deep breath and continued,

"You really have... No, you really want to use one billion US dollars... to place a bet!"

The staff of the gambling house thought Si Yi had gone crazy!

He must have gone bankrupt to place a bet!

And he even placed a bet on a girl!

Crazy! Crazy!

The fencing competition had a history of 50 years in the Royal Imperial College, and there was no record of a girl winning the championship!

And he actually wanted to use one billion US dollars, a huge sum of money that outsiders did not even dare to imagine, to bet on a girl!

The probability of losing was unusually high!

And after placing the bet, when the competition ended and the bet was wrong, it was equivalent to the entire one billion US dollars being wasted!

"You can't place a bet?"After hearing the stuttering and hesitating words of the gambling staff, Si Yi frowned, clearly unhappy.

"No, no, no! This amount is quite large, I'll go and ask the higher-ups for their opinion before making a decision! You, please wait a moment!"The staff member hurriedly called his higher-ups on the spot.

In just a few minutes, he received a response.

"The higher-ups have already agreed! May I know your, May I know your surname?"When the staff member received a response, he quickly spoke to Si Yi in an extremely respectful tone.

However, Si Yi did not pay attention to him. He only left an extremely indifferent sentence and turned around to leave:

“One million dollars. Remember to transfer it to this black card.”

What he meant was that the girl named “Wei Lin” would definitely not be the champion in this fencing competition!

Everyone present was shocked by Si Yi’s words. The crowd could not calm down for a long time.

Si Yi, who was the main culprit behind the chaos, had already left.

Three statues were placed on the fencing field of the fencing competition.

On the eve of the competition, Yun Jian and the other students who participated in this year’s fencing competition were invited to stand side by side on the fencing field. They listened to the host introduce the three statues that represented the history of fencing in front of the entire school’s teachers and students:

“Of those three statues, one of them is the dean of our Royal Emperor College, John, who founded our Royal Emperor College in the last century.

“The taller male statue is a fencing genius from the last century who graduated from our Royal Emperor College. His talent in fencing has spread all over the world. He once sat on the seat of the world’s number one fencing champion. For a full twenty years, no one could shake his position of the first seat until his death!

“And the owner of that female statue is Bojas, the famous female fencer of the last century. She is famous all over the world in the field of fencing. She is even more famous than that male fencer! “She is a legend in the field of fencing! “No one has been able to surpass her since ancient times!

“Do you see the foil in her hand? It is said that as long as you have that foil, you will never be defeated in the fencing competition!

“And the owner of that statue of a woman, the legendary fencer Boaz, after a shipwreck, the legendary foil that the one who owned it, the one who won the fencing competition, disappeared with its owner. From then on, no one ever saw that legendary foil again... .

Bothya, a female fencer in the last century, had defeated countless world fencing champions, causing those male fencers who looked down on female fencers to lose face. Ever since she entered the fencing circle, she had never lost!

As for her legendary foil, as long as she held it in her hands, she would never lose. It was spiritual.

It was said that the foil sword with a spirit would only follow one master in its entire life.

The legendary foil sword weighed 500 kilograms!

Ordinary people didn't even have the ability to lift the foil sword! Not to mention holding such a heavy foil sword to compete with others!

And that legendary foil sword would only follow one master in its entire life. Unless its master died, it would choose another master.

However, the legendary foil sword chose a new master. The most fundamental condition was that the new master must be able to lift the foil sword that weighed 500 kilograms!

But since ancient times, only three people in the history of this world had been able to lift the foil sword!

One of the three people was Boya Si, the last master of the foil sword!

It was said that countless people had challenged the legendary foil that weighed up to 500 kilograms, but all of them failed miserably!

It was not until the foil followed its last owner, Boya Si, that it completely disappeared after the shipwreck.

That was in 1942, a long time ago.

After the host finished speaking, Wei Min glanced at Yun Jian with a strange look. Then, she sneered at Yun Jian and said to the host in front of the entire school's teachers and students,

"My brother, Brother Jiajun, and brother Hong Ling have participated in fencing competitions since we were young. We've heard a lot about the legendary female fencer, Boya Si.

"This year, the foil swords of the four of us were forged from the legendary foil sword of the female fencer. It weighs 50 kilograms! I believe our ranking this year will not be bad!"

Wei Min said this with great confidence.

As she said this, she turned her head and glanced at the cloud paper once again. Her eyes were filled with pride that could not be ignored.

"Oh my God!"! As expected of the eldest daughter of the Wei family, Wei Min, and the young masters of the three great families in Puluo City. With a foundation, it was amazing! She could even imitate the legendary foils of the female fencer, Boya Si, and forge a different foils! "He's really amazing!"

Someone said immediately.

Ordinary foil was very light.

And when ordinary people used foil, they would usually choose a lighter foil to participate in the competition.

Of course, only when experts fought, the heavier the foil, the greater the chance of winning. Of course, the prerequisite was that the heavy foil had to be flexible and flexible.

When Luo Jiajun heard the surrounding people praise the four of them, he turned his head to look at the cloud paper with some pride.

He even tried to see envy or respect on the cloud paper's face.

However, Luo Jiajun did not see any envy on the cloud paper's face.

He saw the cloud paper standing in front of him raise its eyebrows slightly, and then raise its eyebrows to ask the host in front of everyone,

"The legendary flower sword you mentioned weighs 500 kilograms, and its whole body is made of pure gold. Is it the one with a golden rose engraved on the hilt of the flower sword?"

The host was stunned for a moment before nodding. "That's right! According to the rumors, as well as the drawings left behind in the book, it was also drawn like this!"

"Lin 'er, what are you pretending to know if you don't know? ! This time, I didn't expect you to participate in the fencing competition, so I didn't prepare the sword that we copied from the legendary sword. But you don't know, and I know, so don't..."

Wei Min pretended to be her good sister again. She had just finished speaking to Yun Jian.

However, Yun Jian interrupted Wei Min's words in front of everyone present. He curved his back coldly and said,

"I'm sorry, that legendary foil sword is now in my hands. It's one of my collectibles."

After the cloud note finished speaking.

The surroundings instantly became silent.

Over a thousand students were sitting in the audience seats. At this moment, the originally noisy scene became completely silent because of the cloud note's words. It was so quiet that even the audience could hear the sound of breathing.

She... What did she say! ?

That legendary flower sword was in her hands now! ?

One of her... Collectibles! ?

"What did you say! ! That legendary flower sword is one of your collectibles! ? That one ... That flower sword wasn't from the last century. As early as 1942, it had already disappeared along with its original owner, Boya Si, in a nautical accident!"

Wei Min could not suppress her dark face at this time. She even disregarded her status as a "Good sister" and exclaimed in front of everyone present.

The host also stared at Yun Jian. Her hands were trembling violently. "Is that legendary sword really in your... In your hands! ?"

Yun Jian didn't reply to the host directly. She just narrowed her eyes and said, "Since my good sister can bring her own sword, can I also bring it?"

"Yes! Yes! Yes!" The host said three times after hearing Yun Jian's words.

Not only the host, but everyone present, including Wei Min, wanted to see with their own eyes whether what Yun Jian said was true!

Was the legendary foil sword in her hands? !

However, it was not until Yun Jian's men spent 45 minutes to transport the legendary foil sword to the scene by air that everyone present took a deep breath

The foil sword in front of them, which only took 10 people to forcibly move into the scene, was golden in appearance and could be seen at a glance. It was made of pure gold, and it was the legendary foil sword that disappeared in 1942, the legendary foil sword that disappeared with Bothya!

People came to move the foil and left, also because of moving all the way foil, out of breath.

"This, this is really the legendary foil sword..."

Luo Jiajun was stunned. He could not help but walk forward, thinking that if he could lift this 500-kilogram foil in front of the cloud paper and break the record of the fourth person in history to lift this legendary foil, would the cloud paper be completely attracted to him!

He did as he was told. Luo Jiajun immediately reached out to lift the flower sword.

However, as everyone expected, Luo Jiajun used all his strength. This legendary flower sword did not show any signs of being moved.

When the dozens of burly men joined hands to carry this flower sword in, they were already sweating profusely. One could imagine how heavy this flower sword was!

"Found it! The foil sword that has disappeared from this world for more than half a century! It has appeared once again! It's too amazing! Too Amazing!" Even the host dropped the microphone in his hand in shock and rushed over to touch the foil sword.

It was made of pure gold!

However, just as everyone was attracted by the foil sword, a petite figure walked towards the legendary foil sword in front of everyone present.

"Is she trying to lift the sword?"

"She's just a girl!"

"Oh my God! Even if she's the collector of this sword, she definitely can't lift it..."

...

People around immediately realized Yun Jian's intention and shouted.

Wei Min saw that Yun Jian immediately stood at the peak of everyone's attention. Even Luo Jiajun looked at Yun Jian with a different gaze. She immediately rushed over unhappily and tried to hold onto Yun Jian.

She said that she was trying to hold onto Yun Jian, but Wei Min wanted to rush over and use the angle to secretly push Yun Jian to make a fool of herself!

People who were flustered would come up with stupid ideas!

However, just as Wei Min wanted to rush up and Grab Yun Jian's hand and use the angle to secretly push Yun Jian to the ground, Yun Jian turned sideways and avoided Wei Min's push in front of thousands of people, he directly stood beside the legendary foil sword.

Then, a scene that caused the entire crowd to boil appeared!

Yun Jian reached out and grabbed the hilt of the foil sword. In front of everyone present, it was as if he was lifting something that weighed less than 10 kilograms. He lifted the foil sword that weighed 500 kilograms!

Everyone present cheered at the same time!

Shock filled the entire place!

However, just as everyone stared at Yun Jian in horror, unable to believe that Yun Jian could actually lift the 500 kilograms foil sword and become the fourth person in the world to lift the legendary foil sword.

Yun Jian flung the foil sword towards Wei Min's head like an arrow.

Then, everyone saw the foil sword fly past Wei Min's face by a millimeter! Finally, it stabbed into the white wall behind Wei Min! It nailed the white wall until it cracked!

This move scared Wei Min so much that she fell to the ground paralyzed. It was as if she had just come back from hell after being tortured. Her face was extremely pale.

The scene instantly fell silent.

At this moment, Yun Jian's cold and ethereal voice, which was like the grim reaper walking on the edge of hell, suddenly sounded in front of thousands of people:

“Don’t think that I don’t know your tricks. This flowery sword can help me win today’s competition, and it can also help me kill people!

“Using a 500-kilogram flowery sword to stab a person’s heart to death. I really want to try this kind of killing method!”

The current Yun Zhi was on a completely different level from the girl who had initially appeared in front of everyone, who had delusional thoughts of becoming the champion of this fencing competition.

At this moment, the Yun Zhi could even easily lift the legendary 500-kilogram foil sword!

She had lifted the legendary foil sword, which only three people had ever lifted since ancient times!

This action made everyone present believe Yun Jian’s words!

Along with Yun Jian holding the legendary foil sword, she threw the foil sword at Wei Min and plunged it into a huge wall behind Wei Min!

When everyone saw this scene, they stood up from their seats and stared at the scene in front of them.

“You, you, you... sister, how could you do this to me! I was just worried that you would hurt yourself if you touched that foil sword! That’s why I wanted to stop you from touching that foil sword!”

Wei Min heard Yun Jian’s words and quickly changed her words.

As she spoke, a vicious glint flashed in Wei Min’s eyes.

Yun Jian had already seen through Wei Min. She walked to the wall in front of everyone and pulled out the foil sword in front of everyone. Then, she held the foil sword that weighed 500 kilograms in her hand and walked towards Wei Min.

“Wei Lin, I saw it too. Your sister just wanted to stop you from holding the foil. We are sisters. Quickly put down the foil in your hand. The competition is about to start!” When Luo Jiajun saw this.., he also stood up and spoke to Yun Jian in a very reasonable tone.

Luo Jiajun indeed did not see Wei Min’s small actions. Therefore, he spoke up for Wei Min. He only wanted to create the image of a very reasonable person.

Unexpectedly, Yun Jian ignored him. She raised her foil and walked towards Wei Min.

“Wei Lin, you... I’m your sister... I’m your sister... I’m your sister!”

Wei Min was so scared that she backed off again and again. Only when she was about to leave the fencing field did she yell at Yun Jian with a cold shiver.

However, when all the teachers and students in the audience seats thought that Yun Jian would definitely not do the terrifying thing that she had just said.

Yun Jian suddenly threw the 500-kilogram foil sword in his hand at Wei Min!

This scene shocked everyone to the point that their faces froze!

However, just as everyone thought that the foil sword would really stab into Wei Min’s heart like Yun Jian had said!

The foil sword actually sliced through Wei Min’s chest with a 0.01 mm difference and was thrown back into the wooden box that contained the foil sword five meters away.

The dozen or so burly men who had carried the foil sword to the scene had placed the foil sword in the wooden box and carried it into the scene.

The foil sword, which weighed 500 kilograms, was thrown back into the wooden box with a loud bang.

The thousands of people on the scene were shocked by Yun Jian’s actions just now. At this moment, everyone sucked in a deep breath and stared at the fencing field without exception. That petite and beautiful figure looked sideways with a shocked expression.

After the foil was thrown back into the wooden box by Yun Zhi, she turned her head to look at the people who had gone up the stage with her and participated in the fencing competition together with her.

After two seconds of silence, she swept her gaze past Luo Jiajun, Hong Ling, and Wei Min. That slightly raised arc intensified in front of the thousands of people present. Then, she said coldly,

“I won’t use this foil that was used by Boya Si, the female fencer from the last century. I’ll still be the champion of this year’s fencing competition!”

After she finished speaking, Yun Jian ignored the opinions of the others and looked askance at the dozen or so men who had moved the foil sword to the side.

When the dozen or so men saw this, they immediately stepped forward and sensibly moved the foil sword away from the fencing field.

For a time, the news of the reappearance of the legendary foil sword that had been rumored to have disappeared since 1942 spread like a storm and lightning.

Yun Jian’s frivolous words shocked everyone present.

She didn’t need to use the legendary invincible foil sword! was she stupid?

However, it was because of Yun Jian’s words that made everyone in the audience look forward to it even more. She, Yun Jian, was a woman. Based on her own strength, how far could she go!

The host was someone who was used to storms and storms. When he came back to his senses, he quickly suppressed the crowd:

“Haha! Haha! Just now, it was a pre-match entertainment performance that our academy’s students self-directed and performed for us! Everyone, please don’t take it to heart!”!

“Then, I announce that our academy’s annual fencing competition has officially begun!”

Due to the large number of students participating in the fencing competition, the fencing competition’s progress was carried out in an elimination format.

There were at least ten small fencing fields that could be used for the fencing competition. In other words, one-on-one fencing competitions could be held in the ten small fencing fields at the same time.

The students would use the method of drawing lots to enter the fencing competition with the person who had drawn the corresponding number. The loser would be eliminated, and the winner would enter the next round of drawing lots to continue the competition with the person who had drawn the corresponding number.

When there were only ten people left, the final match of the fencing match would officially begin.

During the final match, the ten small fencing fields would all be suspended, and the final ten people, one-on-one matches, would be held in the largest fencing field.

In other words, there wasn't much to see in the previous elimination matches. If the ten small fencing fields were to be held together, the audience would be overwhelmed.

Only when there were ten people left would all the small fencing arenas be closed. One on one, each match would be played one by one. This was the most interesting moment.

The match was about to begin.

Yun Jian drew the number six in the first round. It seemed that she was really fated to be with six.

However, after the boy who had competed with her the first time saw her, he remembered that Yun Jian had lifted the foil that weighed 500 kilograms. Before the match had even begun, he had already admitted defeat.

Yun Jian: "..."

In the next few knockout matches, the opponents that Yun Jian met either admitted defeat in fear, or defended against Yun Jian's foil for fear that it would touch their bodies.

Fencing was a competitive sport in which two people held a special steel sword and wore protective gear to fight in a stabbing or chopping motion within a specified venue, time, and number of swords.

During the competition, one side used the tip of the sword to stab the opponent. The tip of the sword accurately stabbed the effective part. In the end, the side with the most effective hits won.

In layman's terms, it was to use the tip of the foil to hit the effective part of the opponent, and the side with the most hits won.

As for Yun Jian's body, let alone whether the opponent could hit it or not, her attacks were usually a combo.

There was even a student who participated in the fencing competition who was hit in the effective parts by Yun Jian's foil sword tip. He was forced to retreat, not daring to open his eyes. In the end, he accidentally slipped and fell to the ground, he was so scared that he hugged his head to avoid Yun Jian's foil sword tip's Stab.

That comical look caused even the judges to laugh out loud.

Yun Jian's initial fencing style was not particularly outstanding. On the contrary, the fencing style used by Luo Jiajun, Wei Min, and Hong Ling was showing off in the preliminary competition.

Hence, at the start, they were still a little interested in Yun Jian. They felt that Yun Jian had said so much earlier, so the audience who had some ability must have instantly shifted their attention away.

Unknowingly, only ten people were left in the fencing competition.

This also meant that the most intense ranking ranking, the finals, had officially begun!

"I don't think the youngest daughter of the Wei family, Wei Lin, is going to make it! She was so arrogant and cool earlier, but she hasn't surprised anyone in the past few rounds!"

"It's the eldest daughter of the Wei family, Wei Min, whose strength has improved a lot compared to last year! Could it be that Wei Lin is trying to stand out by bragging about everything she has done before?"

Someone in the audience could not help but grumble loudly.

Hearing this, the audience all looked towards the cloud paper on the fencing field.

There were also a few people who had already noticed that the cloud paper did not have any astonishing performance from the beginning to the end, so they all started to talk.

“I think she doesn’t have much strength. Could it be that the legendary foil sword just now was also used to put on a show?”?

“I think that Wei Lin has been very close to Luo Jiajun’s younger brother, Luo Jiachen. Luo Jiachen begged his brother, Luo Jiajun, to help him put on a show that he couldn’t move the foil sword. Then, he would put on a few more shows. It’s not impossible!”

Some people even suspected that Yun Jian’s every move just now was something that he had already discussed with others and used to put on a show.

“Hey, people these days are capable of anything!”

“That’s right! But just wait and see! So what if Wei Lin reaches the finals? Luo Jiajun will help her put on a show, but he won’t give her the title of champion in the finals! We’ll know the truth in a while.”

...

The students in the audience seats ridiculed him with their experienced words. At that time, everyone was looking at the grand fencing field in the center of the stadium with great interest.

The draw for the finals had also ended.

Yun Jian drew a 5.

She narrowed her eyes.

The one who drew a 1 was Wei Min and a strong male student. In the end, Wei Min won the competition with her unique moves.

Hong Ling and Luo Jiachen accidentally met. The two of them matched moves, and in the end, Luo Jiachen won. Hong Ling grabbed his symbolic red-haired head and ended up regretfully.

The two who drew the number 5...

They were...

When Yun Jian and Luo Jiajun walked onto the stage from the left and right sides of the grand fencing field, the entire stadium was in an uproar.

This wasn’t the final battle yet! Yun Jian and Luo Jiajun had already clashed!

Yun Jian, this girl who kept boasting that she would win the championship of this year’s competition!

And Luo Jiajun, who had been the champion of this year's fencing competition for several years!

It must be known that in the entire 50 years of the fencing competition, not a single woman had ever won the championship!

Yun Jian, this girl, could she really break the record of not being able to win the championship for 50 years and being looked down upon by the male students!

Just as the crowd began to cheer, the moment the crowd boiled over, Yun Jian and Luo Jiajun were already fighting against each other.

When he saw Yun Jian, Luo Jiajun's expression changed. He grabbed his fencing helmet and said to Yun Jian,

"You're just a girl. A girl shouldn't be participating in this kind of boy's competition. Hurry up and stop."

In Luo Jiajun's heart, these words were for Yun Jian's good.

After all, he didn't want to hurt her.

But when Yun Jian heard these words, he gave a cold arc.

In the next second, the referee's voice rang in his ear, announcing the start of the competition.

Without waiting for Luo Jiajun to speak, Yun Jian mercilessly held the foil in front of thousands of spectators and flashed in front of Luo Jiajun.

The moment Luo Jiajun raised his hand to block, the tip of the foil in her hand had already landed on Luo Jiajun's helmet.

A hit counted as one.

Luo Jiajun reacted and was about to flick away the foil that Yun Jian had used to hit his helmet.

Yun Jian made a backhand move and sent the foil to Luo Jiajun's torso, legs, hands, and arms 15 times in a row.

In the elimination round, 15 fencing moves were carried out in nine minutes. The person who had hit the opponent the most times would be considered to have won.

However, the match had just started, and the stopwatch had only passed 10 seconds.

Yun Jian had already nimbly used her foil to hit Luo Jiajun's effective parts 15 times in a short span of 10 seconds.

Before the people present could react, she had already turned around, pulled off her helmet, threw down her foil, and walked down the stage. At the same time, she left Luo Jiajun with a sentence that shocked everyone present:

"15 consecutive fencing strikes, completed in 10 seconds. You, the former champion of the fencing competition, are truly a waste in name only."

The competition had only just begun and it was already over! Yun Jian, she had really broken the record of never having a female student win the championship in the past 50 years!

One had to know that the match between Yun Jian and Luo Jiajun just now represented the winner of this year's fencing competition!

Everyone present was waiting for Yun Jian and Luo Jiajun to have a life and death battle! They were waiting for Yun Jian and Luo Jiajun to have a soul-stirring battle for the championship!

After all, Luo Jiajun was the genius who had been ranked first in the fencing competition for many years in the Royal Emperor Academy!

He was the representative and symbol of the Royal Emperor Academy!

But it was such a person who was praised as a genius! In just 10 seconds, he didn't even have the chance to fight back and was defeated!

He was utterly defeated! Everyone present saw it clearly!

"This? How is this possible! ? Brother Jiajun... Brother Jiajun lost?" When Wei Min saw the scene in front of her, her eyes widened in shock and she was stunned on the spot.

Her brother Jiajun, the person who never lost, was actually defeated by her sister, Wei Lin, whom she despised the most and had been separated from for ten years!

No! This was impossible!

“What the F * ck! Jun actually lost! He lost without any room for retaliation!” Hong Ling gripped his short red hair tightly with both hands. He stared at the scene in front of him with a terrified expression on his face. He was extremely shocked.

“My invincible Big Brother actually lost. This doesn’t make sense...” Luo Jiachen was also staring at the scene in front of him in a daze. He couldn’t come back to his senses for a long time.

The audience stared at the scene in front of them in a daze, their expressions changing again and again.

Even the host, who was holding the microphone, was unable to say a word for a long time.

Everyone forgot to breathe and stared at the scene in front of them, their faces turning green and purple.

Yun Jian against Luo Jiajun, Yun Jian’s victory meant that Yun Jian’s title as champion was already well-deserved.

This was indeed the case. The people who would compete with Yun Jian in the future would either admit defeat or go head to head with Yun Jian.

As for Luo Jiajun, due to the rules of the elimination round, he was defeated by Yun Jian early on. He wasn’t even ranked in the top three!

...

After the competition ended, Yun Jian walked out of the stadium without waiting for the host to finish his long speech.

Si Yi also followed him.

Yun Jian did not deliberately bring the legendary foil sword to the venue.

The foil sword had been injected with an unusual amount of spiritual energy from the continent.

As long as the mysterious man or his subordinates were in Puluo City, they would definitely appear. As soon as the mysterious man appeared, Si Yi would be able to sense his presence and find the entrance to the tunnel.

And the spiritual energy from the continent that was injected into the foil sword was the aura of something that the mysterious man could not wait for!

Of course, the mysterious person wasn't stupid enough to show up in the stadium, so Yun Jian and Si Yi quickly left the stadium.

Yun Jian and Si Yi left the stadium because Si Yi had already sensed the entrance that the mysterious person had opened when they were in the stadium.

"It's over there." After the two of them left the stadium, Si Yi smiled and said.

Yun Jian nodded and planned to walk there quietly with Si Yi.

However, before Yun Jian and Si Yi could walk over, a hateful female voice sounded from behind them:

"Wei Lin, stop right there!"

Hearing this, Yun Jian's eyes moved.

Needless to say, it was obvious that the owner of these words was Wei Min.

Yun Jian didn't listen.

Si Yi couldn't be bothered with her. All he cared about was Yun Jian.

Si Yi grabbed Yun Jian's small hand and ignored Wei Min. He continued to walk forward.

Wei Min, who was behind him, seemed to be angered by Yun Jian and Si Yi's actions. Wei Min stood behind Yun Jian and Si Yi and suddenly shouted at Yun Jian:

"Hehe, Wei Lin, you're already pregnant and have a bastard child! You still want to snatch my man? Does the handsome man standing beside you know about your indiscretions? Do you have any shame?!"
