Chapter 2401: Chapter 2401: Old Ge retired to look for Gu Nianzhi

Translator: 549690339

GE Junjian's words were like an atomic bomb that exploded on the spot. Just as the sound of the explosion faded, the six members of Team King, who had thought that they would receive a new mission, were shocked to the spot.

"What? Officer Ge, you... You Can't lead us anymore?" Chu Ning took a long time to recover from the shock. Only then did she react to the news that GE Junjian could not lead team king anymore.

"Yes, this is an order from the higher-ups. Remember, when you first joined the team, I told you that we must obey the orders of the higher-ups to the death. The country will be protected by us! This is the purpose of our special forces!"

GE Junjian stood in a military posture respectfully. He repeated what he had said to Chu Ning and the others. His imposing manner was imposing and did not lose the heroic bearing of a soldier at all.

After he said this, GE Junjian paused for a moment. His voice became softer, but his imposing manner did not decrease at all:

"This is also my last request to you as your superior officer!"

Although the words coming out of GE Junjian's mouth were solemn and extremely serious, Chu Ning and the others felt tears welling up in the corners of their eyes for a moment when they heard his words.

GE Junjian received a call not long ago that he was going to retire from the special forces.

The special forces were different from other military positions. Ge Junjian was not young anymore, he would be halfway through his career in two years.

The country gave the best treatment to military personnel in this regard!

After retiring, GE Junjian could still receive a very high pension.

However, GE Junjian had been in the military for decades and suddenly retired. His feelings for this position were no longer just a job to make a living.

It was a kind of responsibility, an obligation that he could not part with! And an honor!

“Team king, Listen Up!” Just when Chu Ning, Chu Xiangnan and the others were so touched by GE Junjian’s words that they could not speak, Liu Shiyun, the captain of team king, suddenly shouted loudly.

Hearing this, the five members of team king, except for Liu Shiyun, stood still and looked at GE Junjian.

“Salute to our officer Ge!” After saying that, Liu Shiyun took the lead and held back the tears at the corner of his eyes. He gave a military salute to GE Junjian.

...

There was no banquet in the world that did not end. There was no perfect ending in life.

For example, GE Junjian’s retirement was a good thing for GE Junjian, but also a regret.

The retired GE Junjian could retire with his pension, but unfortunately, he had to leave the army that he had stayed in for half of his life.

A few days had passed since this incident. During this time, Si Luo had already forgiven Xue Ying. Xue Ying had risked being beaten up by Ling Wei, Adam, and Molson. He had abandoned his position in the dark soul organization and brought Si Luo on a trip.

At this moment, at the green glaze family home.

“Hey, you guys say that all of you are in pairs. It’s just me. I’m all alone. If you have nothing to do in the future, don’t show off in front of me! Otherwise, I’ll... I’ll... I’ll...”

Gu Nianzhi held an electric mosquito swatter in her hand and waved it around. She gestured at Qingyan, Leng Mei, and Lorberry.

“What are you going to do? Huh?” Qingyan’s fists touched, and she glanced at Gu Nianzhi with a fierce look.

“I’ll just go outside and give you the room.” Gu Nianzhi instantly deflated. She pouted and twisted her body to admit defeat.

“Look at you!” Qing Yan shot Gu Nianzhi a look of disdain.

Just as Gu Nianzhi shrunk back and collapsed on the sofa like a deflated balloon, the doorbell rang outside the door.

"I'll get the door!" Upon hearing this, Luo Lei ran over to open the door diligently.

Lan Su had given the child to Adam this afternoon and said that she was going out to go shopping with them.

Hence, Lorraine was extremely excited.

The moment she opened the door, what entered her eyes was not a plain-clothed Lan Su, but a clean and delicate-looking youth. It was God, Rinong.

Seeing that the person who had opened the door was a girl he did not know, Rinong smiled politely and asked directly,

"Hello, May I ask if Gu Nian lives here?"

Time passed quickly, and in the blink of an eye, another three months had passed.

Today, it happened to be seven months since the "Disappearance" of the cloud tablet after the incident in Puluo City.

Other than the members of the ancient kill mercenary group and the dark soul organization, everyone else in the world thought that the cloud tablet had disappeared, or that it had died in the incident in Puluo City.

Although there was no trace of the cloud note, the police found a student ID at the scene.

The two-inch photo on the student ID showed a beautiful girl's face without any makeup. Beside the student ID was the name of the cloud note.

The name of the Academy was Jiang City University of Electronics and technology.

Furthermore, Jiang City University of Technology's cloud note had taken a leave of absence and disappeared. Therefore, everyone thought that the cloud note had run to the Royal Emperor Academy and died at the scene along with the person who had died that day.

This matter had been suppressed, so the six members of the King's team did not know about it.

At that time, the six members of the King's team had just met with a new senior military officer.

The new senior military officer was called Liu Cheng. Liu Cheng was a high-level special forces soldier who had been transferred back from overseas.

In this era, any scientist or graduate student who had been transferred back from overseas sounded particularly arrogant.

Of course, some people would be proud of themselves because they were returned students from overseas, and some people would be very low-key and unknown.

However, Liu Cheng was a very high-profile and arrogant person.

Before returning to his country, Liu Cheng had always been serving other countries, and he had no intention of returning.

Finally, he had no choice but to return overseas to develop.

Liu Cheng worked in the Air Force overseas before joining the Special Forces training program. He was recruited into the major force of Interpol and sent to the special forces training base for a decade of secret training.

After finishing his studies, he refused to return to China and stayed in country M. he participated in countless anti-terrorism operations and won many awards.

This also made Liu Cheng Proud and even looked down on the special forces trained by his home country.

When he saw Chu Ning and the other six, Liu Cheng frowned and glanced at them with a nonchalant expression:

"I heard you guys are... from the king's team?"

"Yes, Officer Liu!" Captain Liu Shiyun responded on behalf of the King's team.

"Call me officer Liu from now on, Don't forget it!" Liu Cheng suddenly shouted.

The six members of the King's squad obediently shouted again.

Only then did Liu Cheng nod his head slightly in satisfaction, and then said, "I don't know how your former officers trained you, but you must remember that in the future, all of your combat methods must follow my instructions.

“So please forget all of your previous combat plans! In my place, the slightest mistake is not allowed. Otherwise, pack up and leave. Do You Hear Me? !”

Liu Cheng was a high-level special forces soldier who had returned from overseas. His strength was indeed not ordinary, and his military rank was higher than GE Junjian's.

On this point, Liu Cheng's sense of superiority was already very obvious.

“Yes!”Hearing Liu Cheng's words, the six members of the King's squad could only respond.

“In addition, I brought back two special forces squads from overseas that are similar to your age. Because you are still young, your three squads will fight together in the future!

“It's not a difficult mission, I'll send you to complete it together.

“Also, the strength of your king squads should be the weakest of the three squads. I hope you can work harder in the future. The other two squads graduated from the top special forces schools in the world, while you guys are only students studying in the military schools in the country.

“I hope you know who's stronger and who's weaker!”

Liu Cheng came back from overseas. Once he returned to the country, with his past achievements, he would be assigned to the position of an officer and lead the team of six.

It had been a long time since Yun Jian participated in the team of King's mission.

Team of king was very famous in Z country, but Liu Cheng, who came back from overseas, knew nothing about it.

Liu Cheng was even more unaware. Even without Yun Jian, Chu Ning and the other six members of team king were still young, but with their abilities and experience, it was enough for them to complete the mission alone without working with any other teams.

Furthermore, their efficiency in completing missions could be considered quite impressive.

Before they could even compare, the newly-arrived officer from overseas, Liu Cheng, had already belittled them to be inferior to the other two teams that had returned from overseas, just like Liu Cheng.

Chu Ning was the first to lose her cool. She stood up and said to Liu Cheng, “Captain Liu, you can’t deny the strength of our team! We won’t deny the strength of the other two teams who came back from overseas, but our team is not weak either.

“Moreover, we haven’t even competed with the two teams you mentioned. How would we know the strength of them? !”

Chu Ning had always been straightforward and would not play any tricks. She would always say what she had to say and did not know how to beat around the bush.

“Chu Ning!”The team leader, Liu Shiyun, was standing beside her. He lowered his voice and shouted at Chu Ning.

His shout was to shut Chu Ning up and not provoke the new officer.

Sometimes, it was the best way to fight back when one was treated unfairly.

Chu Ning also realized that she had acted rashly when she heard Liu Shiyun’s words.

Chu Ning lowered her head and did not say another word.

She initially thought that most of the senior officers would pretend that they did not hear anything and let the matter pass.

Liu Cheng’s sharp eyes flashed fiercely when he heard Chu Ning’s words.

“I heard that Asura is the strongest member of Your Team King?”Liu Cheng had read through the information of team king, so he naturally knew.

“Yes.”Liu Shiyun answered.

“Where is she? As a member of the King’s squad, she wasn’t there today?”Liu Cheng asked.

“Jian... Asura will only come to assist us when our King’s squad is on a mission.”Liu Shiyun blinked and said with some concealment.

In fact, Yun Jian hadn’t gone on a mission with the six members of the King’s squad for a long time.

When he was in GE Junjian’s hands, he was allowed to do so.

GE Junjian's request was very simple. When he went out on a mission, he was not allowed to lower his guard at all! During normal training, he was very strict. Other than that, he would not interfere with ordinary trivial matters.

However, Liu Cheng was the exact opposite.

Liu Cheng's request was that every member of the team must be in position every day, and not a minute less was allowed!

He didn't care how well they trained, but every day, he had to have all the members present and report.

Therefore, after hearing Liu Shiyun's words, Liu Cheng was very unhappy:

"The army stresses discipline! Rules! Not playing house. If Asura doesn't come, then pack up and leave! Remember what I said today and tell her exactly the same thing!"

As he said this, Liu Cheng looked at the six members of the King's team with a hopeless expression. In the end, he shook his head.

"Who is the second strongest member of Your King's Team?" Liu Cheng asked again.

"Me," Jiang Weiwei replied.

"Come here," Liu Cheng said.

When Jiang Weiwei saw this, although she was puzzled, she still walked over.

However, just as Jiang Weiwei walked in front of Liu Cheng.

Liu Cheng made his move. His left hand grabbed Jiang Weiwei's wrist, and his right hand brought Jiang Weiwei's two wrists together. He raised his leg and kicked Jiang Weiwei from behind, causing her to kneel on the ground. Then, he subdued her with the way the police used to capture people.

"You haven't competed? How do you know the strength of you and the other two teams that returned from overseas?"

"Ha! This is Haitang, the second strongest in your King's team? !?"

"Weak! So weak that you can't even withstand a single blow! How can you compare to the other two teams that returned from overseas? !"

Haitang was Jiang Weiwei's code name.

In Liu Cheng's case, he never used his real name, only his code name.

Unless he had a good relationship with Liu Cheng.

Jiang Weiwei had never thought that her commander, Liu Cheng, would attack her. After she was subdued, she struggled with all her might, but to no avail.

Originally, the six members of the King's team weren't this angry, but when they saw Liu Cheng's action and his words, their anger instantly rose to the highest point.

However, because Liu Cheng was their current commanding officer, no one dared to do anything.

Liu Cheng was, after all, a commanding officer, and he was already thirty-eight years old this year. After all, he had been recruited into the major force of the International Criminal Police Force. Later, he was sent to the special forces training base for a secret training that lasted for ten years.

It was normal that Jiang Weiwei was no match for him.

"Is there anyone who disagrees with my arrangement? !" Liu Cheng changed one hand to grab Jiang Weiwei's shoulders, and the other hand grabbed Jiang Weiwei's wrists. He used the posture of a police officer catching a criminal to press Jiang Weiwei to the ground.

Before Jiang Weiwei could react, Liu Cheng had already attacked her.

Moreover, Liu Cheng pressed Jiang Weiwei to the ground almost continuously. This press did not have any weight.

Jiang Weiwei's shoulder was pressed so hard that she could not breathe.

Seeing Jiang Weiwei's pained expression, Liu Shiyun, as the team leader, could only submit temporarily:

"No." These words were against his heart.

"That's good." Liu Cheng let go of Jiang Weiwei. After saying a few words, he left and let the six members of Team King practice on their own.

A few days later, Chu Ning and the others were sitting in a coffee shop as if they were paralyzed.

"I'm so tired. I Miss Yun Jian 'er too." Chu Ning wiped off her sweat and sighed.

Tiredness was caused by training.

In fact, under Liu Cheng's command, they did not train much. However, it was Liu Shiyun and the rest who pressured them to be so tired.

Because they were not convinced!

They wanted to strengthen their own abilities!

"Order a cup of coffee. We'll continue training after we finish," said Liu Shiyun, the team leader.

Everyone agreed.

At this time, Chu Ning saw a newspaper on the table. She turned a page and was suddenly attracted by a big headline.

As she read it, Chu Ning could not help but read it out loud. "Amazing! Lin Nada, the female doctor with the highest delivery success rate in the obstetrics and gynecology department in the world, has been missing for a few days!"

"What are you reading?" Chu Xiangnan heard this and poked his head over to read the newspaper.

At this time, Chu Ning had already finished reading the reporter's description of the incident. She said,

"Oh my God, this female doctor named Lin Nada is from the world's first-class obstetrics and gynecology department. She seems to have been kidnapped. Is that kidnapper crazy? He actually kidnapped a female doctor from the obstetrics and gynecology department, Huh?"

...

On an uninhabited island that Chu Ning and the others did not know about.

In a simple and tidy room.

Si Yi placed his big hand on the back of Yun Jian's head. He tried his best not to touch Yun Jian's stomach that was as big as a ball. His handsome lips kissed her lips hungrily, to the point of forgetting himself.

It had been nine months. Si Yi had read through all the information about the obstetrics and gynecology department over the past few months. He realized that Yun Jian's stomach was even bigger than that of a normal pregnant woman.

Just like at this moment, when he kissed her, he had to hide his stomach.

Finally, as they kissed, Si Yi's lips landed on Yun Jian's neck, moving down from his neck...

"Little Jian..."he called out softly.

Si Yi had not dared to touch Yun Jian for two months. As his stomach grew bigger, he did not even dare to press on Yun Jian.

"Mm,"yun Jian replied Si Yi and allowed him to do whatever he wanted.

However, the moment Si Yi kissed Yun Jian's neck, she suddenly felt something sticky flowing out of her lower body, and her stomach started to hurt...

"It hurts."Yun Jian suddenly covered his round belly with his hand.

"Is it time to give birth? Xiao Jian, am I going to be a father?"Si Yi was delighted.

The next second, Si Yi's roar of delivering a child resounded throughout the entire island.

...

Another five months passed.

It was winter now. It had already been a whole year since the incident that happened at the Royal Emperor Academy.

It was winter again, and the end of the year was approaching.

There was only a month left, and it would be the New Year's Eve of 2004.

The weather in winter was still extremely cold.

The six members of the King's team had already passed five months under Liu Cheng's leadership.

These five months were extremely difficult for the six members of the King's team.

At the same time, the six members of the King's team had already met with the members of the other two teams.

Today, Liu Cheng had gathered all three teams together.

"We'll set off tomorrow. You guys will complete the first cooperative mission together. The difficulty of this mission is a little high, but I believe that with the Tyrannosaurus team and the strongest team leading the way, this mission will definitely not be a problem!"

Liu Cheng said to the members of the three teams.

"Commander Liu, do you mean that our King's team... will act as a cover?" As soon as Liu Cheng finished speaking, even Liu Shiyun, who had always been calm, became excited.

The three teams were all of the same age, and they had joined the army around the same time.

Now, Liu Cheng was saying that apart from the king's team's Tyrannosaurus team and the most awesome team, they would be the vanguard.

In this way, the King's team could only act as a cover.

As long as the mission was successful, all the honor would be taken away by the members of the Tyrannosaurus team and the most awesome team.

And the King's team would at most receive verbal praise from their superiors.

In short, the leader of a squad was very important.

"Yes, is there a problem?" After Liu Cheng heard Liu Shiyun's words, he said as if nothing had happened.

Liu Shiyun clenched his fists tightly at the same moment.

Even Liu Shiyun, who had always been calm, could not hold it in at this moment.

“Your King Squad is all students studying in the domestic military academy. To provide cover for people like us who have returned from overseas, that is already flattering you! Be Content!”

The captain of the most awesome team was called Zhu Yao. The latter part of Zhu Yao’s name looked a little like a foreigner’s name. That was because Zhu Yao’s family hoped that he could become a student who had returned from overseas.

Now that Zhu Yao had lived up to everyone’s expectations, he was naturally very proud.

“What are you saying!” When Jiang Weiwei heard Zhu Yao’s words, she almost immediately burst out in anger.

“I say, your King’s squad has never been to an international military academy or Special Forces training before, right? To be able to cover for us, that would be flattering you! What? Did I not say it in detail enough?”

When Zhu Yao heard this, she spoke again.

Because of Liu Cheng’s protection, Zhu Yao and the members of the most awesome squad were very proud.

However, the members of the Tyrannosaurus squad were very friendly to the king’s squad.

Thus, the captain of the tyrannosaur squad stepped forward to speak up for the king’s squad, “Zhu Yi, don’t say things that are too...”

“What did I do? ! This is the truth!” Zhu Yi raised her head and shouted loudly.

After this exchange, for some unknown reason, they started quarreling.

While they were quarreling, Zhu Yi still wanted to take the opportunity to use her knife. However, her hand slipped and the knife flew far away.

“Stop arguing! Are you not satisfied with my arrangements? Whoever isn’t satisfied, come and defeat me! Who will come? Who Dares!” When Liu Cheng saw this, his shout made the noisy crowd stop.

However, everyone knew that Liu Cheng was targeting the king’s squad.

“Me!” Just as everyone lowered their heads and no one dared to make a sound, a beautiful female voice suddenly sounded.

When this familiar female voice sounded, the six members of the King’s squad suddenly turned to look in that direction.

Liu Cheng and the members of the other two squads also turned to look in that direction.

They saw a beautiful young girl standing straight in front of everyone. The young girl's hand was holding the knife that the red jacket had accidentally thrown out, and she was playing with it freely.

Under everyone's eyes, the young girl suddenly closed her faintly discernible curved lips. Her hand was nimble as she skillfully swung the small knife and walked over. At the same time, her clear voice also spread in all directions:

"It's me, Asura. I'm not satisfied with your arrangements and intend to use my strength to make you shut your filthy mouth!"

Translator: 549690339

Seeing this stunning beauty suddenly appear in front of him, Liu Cheng did not know why, but he had an illusion that he was momentarily stunned.

The girl was currently walking over.

With every step she took, her aura was enough to make everyone present suck in a deep breath.

It was as if the person walking over was not one of his subordinates, but his superior, his superior!

From the girl, Liu Cheng seemed to see an aura that those foreign high-ranking special forces soldiers with outstanding military achievements did not possess!

Liu Cheng took a deep breath, and then he began to look at Yun Zhi seriously.

Yun Zhi's appearance was delicate and pretty. Now 19 years old, Yun Zhi was a bit more enchanting than before. His chest was even Fuller, and his butt was just right. Together with his movements, he emitted a powerful aura.

This was the dream of all men!

“This little beauty is the god of death in Your King’s squad? Do you have a boyfriend?” When Zhu Yao saw Yun Jian, his eyes were wide open. He whistled and looked at Yun Jian walking toward him in a daze.

Zhu Yao was 1.8 meters tall. He was not short, and he was tall and handsome. At least in foreign countries, he was a hot commodity in the eyes of girls.

Especially with his height, coupled with his identity as a special forces soldier, he was simply a fantasy object in the hearts of the girls.

When Zhu Yao’s words rang out, no one paid any attention to him.

At this moment, Yun Jian was already standing in front of everyone.

At the age of nineteen, she had already given birth to a child. Just from her appearance alone, let alone whether she had gained weight or not, her figure was better maintained than before. Her skin was smooth and tender, and her face was full of collagen, she was like a young girl who had just been born, ignorant of the mortal world and sinister.

However, it was such a beautiful girl who was holding a small knife that had been accidentally thrown away by her red jacket. She nimbly held the small knife in her hand and stood in front of the crowd.

Her beautiful eyes that were as clear as still water turned to Liu Cheng. Her beautiful eyes turned to Liu Cheng and sneered:

“You are the new military officer?”

These imposing words sounded like a question from a superior to a subordinate.

Liu Cheng did not know why, but when he heard Yun Jian’s words, he suddenly shivered. Then, he forced himself to look into Yun Jian’s eyes. “Yes!”

He did not care that Yun Jian did not call him ‘Sir’.

“Just attack,” Yun Jian suddenly said.

“What?” Liu Cheng was stunned.

“Beat me, or you’ll Shut Up!” Yun Jian glared at Liu Cheng fiercely and said with narrowed eyes.

How was this the tone of a subordinate speaking to a superior? ?

Everyone present was dumbfounded after hearing that.

Just when everyone thought that with Liu Cheng's temper, he would really fight with Yun Jian, Liu Cheng suddenly changed his words. "What are you fighting for? ! Return to the team! We're leaving tomorrow to complete the mission! Go and train by yourself!"

After that, Liu Cheng left.

It was not until Liu Cheng left that Chu Ning and the rest of the team surrounded Yun Jian.

"Ahhh, Yun Jian 'er, you're finally back! !!"Chu Ning hugged Yun Jian tightly.

"Yun Jian 'er, you have no idea how much this officer has gone overboard..."Chu Ning and the rest of Team King started talking at the same time.

The members of the most awesome team saw this and did not stir up any trouble. They wanted to leave.

When they were leaving, Yun Jian brushed the knife in his hand past Zhu Yao's cheek and threw it to the ground. He said to Yun Jian, "Your knife is very dirty. Take it back."

The members of the most awesome team were not convinced at first, but Zhu Yao stopped them in the end.

"HMPH, it's just a girl. There's no need for more. Don't tell me the King's team can turn things around with you. Just wait and see!"A girl from the most awesome team spat at Yun Jian before she turned around and left with the most awesome team.

After the training ended, Yun Jian left the place.

Just as she walked out of the gate of the military region, she saw a Lamborghini sports car parked not far away. Beside the car stood a man who was so handsome that both gods and men were outraged.

The man was holding...

"Ma-ma-yi! Ma-yi..."

Chapter 2407: Chapter 2407 the child was carried into the car

Translator: 549690339

In the hands of a handsome man, a child wearing a little red hat was carried.

The child was only five months old, but he already knew how to speak.

If a normal child wanted to learn how to speak, it would take at least eight to nine months. Some would even babble for a year before they could say something that was not standard.

This child, five months old will squeak "Ma Ma", this if some of the family children very late to learn to speak of the parents to see, estimated to be envious of faint

Of course, it's a joke.

"Mama, Mama, Mama, Mama, Mama."

A child in a very lovely little red hat, with a rosy, pink face, looked from a distance, and the little hands of an adult, the size of two fingers, waved up and down, she was shouting out words that were not clear.

When she saw the cloud paper, the cute child naturally stretched out her hand towards the cloud paper and spoke in an unclear baby voice.

Because she was happy, the child sat on Si Yi's hand. She was so excited that she lifted her butt and her body swayed along with her hand.

The moment she saw the child, the cloud paper's gaze softened. She curled her lips slightly and arrived in front of Si Yi in two or three steps.

"Mama, Mama, Mama, Mama,"the child jumped and reached out to Yun Jian, revealing a mouth without teeth. Her two dimples were very obvious.

Her pink and tender little face and facial features were very delicate and beautiful. At first glance, one could tell that the child looked very similar to Yun Jian.

It was a girl.

"Mama, Mama, Yiyi, Yiyi,"yun Jian had just reached out his hand when the child sat on Si Yi's hand. She leaned forward and pounced toward Yun Jian.

Yun Jian conveniently hugged the child from Si Yi's arms.

The child had yet to be named.

Yun Jian recalled the entire year he spent on the uninhabited island.

Ever since she found out that she was pregnant and was almost miscarried by the mysterious man, Si Yi had used up five hundred years of his spiritual power to save her and the child after he brought her to the uninhabited island.

Later on, Si Yi was afraid that something would happen to her again, so he directly raised her on the uninhabited island. He even had to carry her along the stairs.

It had to be said that Yun Jian was fatter than a year ago.

However, she was not fat, but fat on her chest.

The furrow that was so full that it could squeeze through her shirt was so big that Si Yi could not even grab her with one hand.

Cough!

Later on, she gave birth to a child. It was also a natural birth, and it went very smoothly.

During these five months, when she had just given birth, Si Yi refused to let her get up. He even came to fetch her tea and water.

He said that she had to go through confinement. After giving birth, she had to go through confinement and rest for a long period of time. If she did not recuperate well, her body would collapse.

This year, Si Yi had memorized almost all the information in the gynecology and obstetrics department. He had a deeper understanding of gynecology than the world's best gynecologist and Lin Nada, who had the highest success rate in delivering babies.

Not long ago, Si Yi had already sent Lin Nada back.

Before he went back, the world's first-class gynecologist, Lin Nada, was still shaking her head, with a face full of disbelief, she shouted at Si Yi a few times, "The experience that I have learned in my entire life is not as good as your understanding in a year! Come and work in our gynecology and obstetrics department! Young Man! I will give you a bonus! You must come!"

Yun Jian hugged the little girl who had a face full of excitement. At this moment, she pouted her lips and puffed up her chest. She reached out and pinched her little face.

"Huff! Huff!" At this moment, Si Yi carried a five-month-old boy with one hand and walked towards the Lamborghini sports car.

The five-month-old boy looked at Yun Jian, the little girl in Yun Jian's arms, and then looked at Si Yi. With a confused expression, Si Yi carried the back of his clothes and carried him into the car... ..

The little boy looked pitiful. After being carried into the car by Si Yi, he was directly thrown into the back seat of the Lamborghini sports car.

“Be gentle, he will fall and hurt.” Yun Jian saw it and quickly said.

“He won’t die from falling.” Si Yi threw the innocent-looking little boy into the narrow seat at the back. He walked over and carefully took the little girl from Yun Jian’s hands. Then, he sat in the driver’s seat.

Yun Jian pursed her red lips. Seeing that the little girl was thrown into the back seat of the Lamborghini by Si Yi and started to play with her clothes without crying, she heaved a sigh of relief. Then, she walked around the car to the passenger seat and got into the car.

Si Yi carefully placed the little girl on his lap. He turned his head to carefully fasten Yun Jian’s seatbelt and handed the little girl to Yun Jian.

Yun Jian lovingly hugged her in his arms.

The little guy in the back seat had been pinching his clothes and playing around. Sometimes, he even stretched out his finger to put it in his mouth and sucked twice.

After sucking on his finger for a while, Yun Jian turned his body sideways and stretched out his hand to gently pat off the little guy’s finger that was sucking in his mouth. He said, “Dirty.”

“Scum, scum...” the little guy was very smart. After listening to Yun Jian’s words, he imitated the pronunciation of Yun Jian and muttered a few sentences.

Then, the little guy reached out his hand and stuffed the little finger into his mouth. He sucked twice and made a “TSK tsk” sound.

When the cloud paper saw this, it was about to turn its head to pull the little guy’s hand out of its mouth. However, it did not expect the little guy to reach out his other hand. He imitated the way the cloud paper swatted his hand away just now and reached out his hand to pat away the hand he was sucking in his mouth, then, he let out a voice that was not exactly pronounced, “Dregs!”

Yun Jian: "..."

From the rearview mirror, he saw the little guy's well-behaved appearance, the little girl in Yun Jian's arms, and the girl that he couldn't love enough. Si Yi smiled a smile that was enough to make the world lose its luster.

The next second, he stepped on the accelerator, and the Lamborghini sports car flew out almost instantly and disappeared at the entrance of the Military District.

Ge Jun built his home.

Adam and Morson were given a mission by Si Yi.

A very great, mission-bearing, and very dangerous mission!

"Oh my God! How are we going to choose this name? It's already been five months, and we still haven't picked a name yet! It really is! Young master is making things difficult for the two of us! We might as well be like that Stinky Brat in my house, and pick a random name! "Let us pick, what kind of damn name can we come up with!"

Adam was flipping through the thick Xinhua dictionary in his hand out of boredom. There were also a bunch of "Baby name books", "Birth five elements baby name books", "The best-sounding baby name books" and so on.

He had been flipping through the books for the past two days.

"The task given to us by young master, say less and do more. We must complete it," Morson said to Adam with a straight face.

Adam rolled his eyes at the sky again. Then, he reached out and flipped through a pile of books in boredom. "Good, good, good! Name It!"

"I cut some oranges, but they are very sweet. You guys eat some first and then continue with your work." At this moment, Lorberry from the kitchen came over with a plate of fruit.

"Good, good, good!" Adam's eyes were almost blurry from reading the pile of books. When he saw Lorraine come out with the fruit, he threw the book aside and ate the fruit first.

Morson was still flipping through the books.

Adam, who had eaten a mouthful of oranges, suddenly said, "Oh right, I thought of a very nice and domineering name!"

“Huh?” Morson raised his head to look at him.

Adam said confidently, “Girls will be called the best, and boys will be called the Invincible!”

After hearing Adam’s words.

Morson:”...”

Lorraine was sitting next to Morson. She had just sneaked a sidelong glance at Morson. She reached out and stuffed an orange into her mouth, chewing it gently.

When she heard Adam’s words, Lorraine suddenly reacted. Her brain was faster than her hand speed. Before she could turn her head, the mouthful of orange sprayed onto Morson’s pant leg.

Lorraine’s face turned red. She quickly reached out to retrieve the orange from Morson’s trouser leg.

However, she accidentally bumped into an unspeakable place...

This time, Lorraine’s face could almost be compared to a red apple.

She lowered her head and could not help but laugh at Adam’s name. She was afraid that Morson would find out how embarrassed she was just now, so she lowered her head and tried her best not to let Morson find out about her embarrassing move just now.

That Fair and shiny hand also held the orange that she had accidentally spat out from her mouth and secretly pulled back.

However, just as lorry’s hand pulled back two inches, a slender hand grabbed her wrist one step ahead of her.

Did he notice the embarrassing scene just now!

Lorry’s face instantly turned red like a strawberry.

Unexpectedly, Morson reached out his hand and took the orange that lorry had already taken a bite of, and then stuffed it into his mouth.

“Hey, that’s what I’ve eaten...”Lorraine was stunned. When she realized that Morson had eaten what she had eaten, her face turned red instantly.

“Hahaha! What do you think? What do you think of my name? Is It Cool Enough? Look at you two! Are you two so excited? is my talent in naming so good?”

Adam had no idea how terrible his name was. He stepped on the bench and looked at Lorraine and Morson with confidence.

After two seconds of silence, Adam said calmly, “When young master and Young Madam come back, I will tell them this name!”

“You can go and pack your clothes.”Morson looked up and looked at Adam calmly as usual.

“What?”Adam was stunned when he heard Morson’s words. A cloud of doubt flashed in front of his eyes.

Tidying up his clothes? What are you doing?

“Young master will tell you what to do with your clothes.”Morson glared at Adam. Then, he lowered his head and continued to flip through the information in his hands.

...

At that time, the cool Lamborghini sports car was slowly parked at the entrance of a baby training base in Longmen City.

In order to prevent being recognized by an acquaintance and causing unnecessary trouble, Yunjian wore a pair of sunglasses.

This pair of black sunglasses covered Yun Jian’s face and covered her eyes, but it could not hide her tender skin that was exposed.

Perhaps because she had given birth, Yun Jian’s skin was becoming more and more tender. It was so tender that water could be squeezed out.

Even if she stood together with the little girl and the little guy, Yun Jian’s skin was not inferior at all.

At that time, Yun Jian was carrying the little girl while Si Yi was carrying the little guy. The two of them walked into the main gate of the infant training base.

When they reached the main gate of the infant training class, Si Yi handed the little guy to Yun Jian.

Yun Jian held one in each hand.

"I'll wait for you in the car." Si Yi looked at Yun Jian with a gentle gaze and said.

"Okay." Yun Jian nodded and then carried the two children into the infant training class.

This was a place where mothers were taught how to take care of their children, such as how to give birth, give their babies a bath, give massages, and so on.

Moreover, adult males were not allowed to go in during the class.

Because they would also be properly taught about the process of feeding the children.

This was also Yun Jian's first time bringing two children here.

Just as they entered the door of the baby training class, a mother carrying a naughty boy immediately came over and greeted Yun Jian, "Hello, are you here alone? Let's be partners."

Looking around the baby training class, most mothers were in groups of two or three.

In other words, the housewives who had the money to attend the baby training class and had the time were usually over 30 years old.

Looking around the baby training class, there were very few mothers over 25 years old.

This was not to say that Yun Jian was the only one who gave birth early, but before the age of 25, even if a married couple had a child, they would definitely not be able to afford the money to go to the baby training course.

After the age of 30, people would realize the importance of taking good care of their bodies after giving birth. In addition, the family already had enough money to spend, so they naturally came to sign up for the baby training course, they would have a better understanding of how to take care of their children.

In fact, people in the countryside relied on the experience of the older generation to teach them how to take care of their children and then take care of them randomly.

Some women in the cities who had long realized the importance of taking care of their bodies after giving birth would come here to learn.

Moreover, generally, people over the age of 30, friends and classmates of the same age had given birth.

Therefore, they would usually form groups of three to five to study together in the infant training class.

As for Yun Jian, the young mother who was carrying a naughty boy came alone.

The young mother who greeted Yun Jian was not very old. Her real age was only 23, which was only four years older than Yun Jian.

“Yes, that’s fine.”After hearing the young mother’s words, Yun Jian nodded and carried the two children inside.

The little girl had been tightly clutching the hem of Yun Jian’s clothes as she looked around in fear.

The little guy, on the other hand, looked around indifferently. The moment the little girl turned her head away, he reached out and gently poked his sister’s cheek.

So smooth and tender!

The Little Guy was the older brother, and the little girl was the younger sister.

When the two of them were born, the little guy squeezed out of the mother’s womb before the little girl, so he became the older brother.

Yun Jian promised this young mother for no other reason. It was because she could use the fastest speed to learn how to kill people. She could kill people in one move without leaving a trace, and her decisiveness in killing spread all over the world.

However, she did not know how to change the diapers and clothes of her child.

Therefore, she needed to be taught hand-in-hand.

After the young mother heard Yun Jian’s words, she said in surprise, “That’s great!”Then, she hugged her child tightly and said to Yun Jian,

“My child’s name is Wang Dongdong, and he’s already nine months old. My name is Wang Xiaolan, and I’m a single mother. I take care of my own child. What about you?”

What's Your Name? "And the two babies in your arms are really cute. They don't look like mine. They look like monkeys!"

Wang Xiaolan couldn't put her hands down as she gently poked the little guy and the little girl's cheeks. Then, she complained that her child was ugly.

"Yunjian, they don't have a name yet," Yunjian said briefly.

"I see. Haha, I See That You're very young. You gave birth at such a young age. But with your figure, after giving birth, you haven't changed at all? Before I gave birth, I weighed about 90 kilograms. Now, I weigh 120 kilograms..."

Wang Xiaolan was the kind of person who liked to talk, so she quickly talked about the same thing as Yunjian.

Yun Jian kept listening.

The infant training class was actually a teacher holding a fake baby to demonstrate some simple movements to everyone, and then let the mothers follow suit.

Yun Jian followed the instructions and changed the diapers for the little guy and the little girl. The diapers were changed upside down, and in the end, Wang Xiaolan helped Yun Jian change the diapers and then carefully guided Yun Jian.

Yun Jian also learned to change a diaper for the little fella.

However, halfway through the change, before he could change the diaper, the little fella suddenly raised his leg uncomfortably and accidentally kicked Yun Jian's sunglasses.

This kick caused Yun Jian's sunglasses to fall off.

Just as Yun Jian was about to put his sunglasses back on, a figure suddenly sounded:

"It's really you! I thought you looked familiar just now. I didn't expect it to really be you!"

Hearing this voice, Yun Jian narrowed his eyes and turned his head.

He just happened to see the person who spoke. It was none other than the girl from the most awesome team that Yun Jian said to wait and see in the military district just now.
