

The Schoolgirl Secret Agent - Chapter 2501 - 2514

Chapter 2501: Chapter 2501 breast-feeding a baby, Si Yi is bad

This toy gun was given to the little guy by Si Yi and was conveniently picked up by Yun Jian.

At that time, everyone was in a trance. Ma Aihua and Zhang Xuanyi were just scared away by a harmless toy gun?

At this moment, a black line flashed in front of everyone's eyes.

If nothing went wrong, there would be news after the new year that Ma Aihua and Zhang Xuanyi were scared away by Zhang Meihua's granddaughter's toy gun.

They would even be treated as a joke.

However, this was something that would happen in the future.

After visiting a few relatives in Xinjiang town, they returned to Longmen City.

Qin Yirou's family didn't have many relatives, and some distant relatives had already stopped communicating with each other.

So, after visiting these few families, they returned to Longmen City.

In the evening, Qin Yirou made handmade dumplings.

With the dough, she used a fixed tool to print the large and thin circular surface into small dumpling skins.

All of this was handmade by Qin Yirou.

Along the way, Yun Jian also went over to help.

"To make dumplings, you must wrap them like this. When you wrap them diagonally, you must wrap them tightly when you wrap them diagonally! Otherwise, when you cook the dumplings later, the dumpling skins will not stick firmly and the fillings in the dumpling skins will also become a mess!"

Qin Yirou demonstrated while patiently teaching Yun Jian how to wrap dumplings.

Unfortunately, to Yun Jian, wrapping dumplings was a profound knowledge.

The dumplings she wrapped were either crooked or scattered. Before she could pick up the dumplings, the celery, tofu, and meat filling in the dumplings had already spread out.

"It's Okay, Mom will fix it for you..."Qin Yirou turned her head and stifled a few laughs. Then, she turned her head back and reached out to take the few shapeless dumplings wrapped in Yun Jian. She helped Yun Jian fix the appearance of the dumplings.

Although the dumplings that Qin Yirou had fixed were much better looking than the ones that Yun Jian had wrapped by himself, they still looked rather ugly. However, they could at least be forced into the pot to cook.

Si Yi and GE Junjian were sitting on the sofa in the living room at the moment.

A color TV was installed in front of the living room sofa. At the moment, a movie about the special forces was playing on the color TV.

There were many foam mats on the floor between the sofa and the color TV. Little Yunzhu, Duan Li, Duan Ya, Qin yirou, and Ge Junjian's children were all sitting on the foam mats, except for Little Yunzhu and the other two, a few children were crawling on the foam mats.

At this time, Yun Jian brought out the dumplings she made from the kitchen.

She originally wanted to bring the dumplings to the little guy and the little girl to eat, but she didn't expect Si Yi to reach out and snatch them away halfway.

"That's..."the ones I made weren't delicious. Yun Jian pursed her red lips.

Qin Yirou helped to reorganize the dumplings. After she put them into the pot and boiled them, the dumplings still scattered. The filling was a mess, and they were all cooked until there was no taste.

Coincidentally, the little guy and the little girl were at this age, so they should eat things that were chopped up. Yun Jian wrapped it just right.

Therefore, Yun Jian brought it over and gave it to the little guy and the little girl to eat.

She didn't expect that it would be scooped away by Si Yi.

"Delicious."Not long after, Si Yi finished all the dumplings in the bowl, including the filling and soup.

The corner of Yun Jian's mouth twitched, and she ignored Si Yi. She walked over to pick up the little guy and the little girl who were rolling on the ground and brought them back to the bedroom to breastfeed the two children.

Although the little guy and the little girl could eat some more delicate food, the source of nutrition was still breast milk.

After the two children finished their breast milk, they fell asleep unknowingly.

Yun Jian had just put on her clothes and walked out of the house. She had just walked out of the house when Si Yi stopped her halfway.

"They are sleeping," Yun Jian said to Si Yi.

"Yes," Si Yi answered, but he did not let her go. He stared straight at her... .. look.

The cloud paper understood Si Yi. She soon knew that Si Yi was staring at the place where she had fed the breast milk of her two children just now because he wanted to...

In the end, the cloud note still fulfilled Si Yi's perverted request.

When he went downstairs and walked to the stairs, the cloud note deliberately tugged at his clothes, afraid that others would see something fishy.

Si Yi, on the other hand, put one hand in his pocket as if nothing had happened and grabbed the cloud note's hand as he went downstairs.

He looked as if he was afraid that outsiders would not know what a shameful thing he had just done.

Underneath that handsome face that was enough to make people beat him up and anger both gods and men, a smile of satisfaction appeared on his handsome face.

"Xiao Jian, Yuan Yuan and Ming Ming are both asleep?" Qin Yirou asked Yun Jian as she cleaned up the bowls and chopsticks.

"Yes, they are already asleep." Yun Jian nodded.

"After I clean up the bowls and chopsticks, I will accompany the children to sleep. The dumplings will be stuffed in the pot for you. They are still warm. Go and eat quickly. They won't taste good when they are cold later," Qin Yirou said.

“Okay.” Yun Jian nodded and went into the kitchen with Si Yi to fill qin Yirou’s dumplings in the pot.

...

Other than Qin Yirou’s house being so lively, Qingyan’s house was also very lively.

Yun Yi was currently in Qingyan’s house. He wore a scarf on his chest and stood at the kitchen faucet to wash the dishes.

“Beat him up! beat him up! Scumbag! I’ll give you a box of my latest drugs! It’s not painful or itchy. I’ll send you to hell with one bite!”

Yun Yi was washing the dishes for the candlelit dinner that night. He turned his head and saw the bear doll in his arms sitting on the living room sofa. While he was beating up the bear doll, he was angrily watching a melodramatic love story on the television, the wailing green glaze.

He smiled knowingly and stood in front of the kitchen sink, skillfully washing the dishes.

Yun Yi had been staying at Qingyan’s house for the past two days, alone with Qingyan.

If he had to ask Gu Nian, Leng mei, and the others where they had gone, Yun Yi had, of course, chased them away.

It was the new year, and he couldn’t let this group of eyesores ruin his chance to be alone with Qingyan.

...

Blood doll organization.

Di Lin, the leader of the blood doll organization, was sleeping on his bed at the moment. He was holding a newspaper in one hand and reading the international news reports in the newspaper.

Outside the blood doll organization.

Leng Mei rushed in angrily.

“Leng Mei, why are you back?” Ruoyin, the Sharpshooter of the blood doll organization, asked when she saw Leng Mei.

Leng Mei had quarreled with Di Lin some time ago, so Leng Mei went to Qingyan’s house angrily.

When she left, Leng mei shouted, "I will never come back. I don't want to see that idiot di Lin again." She didn't expect Leng Mei to come back.

"Humph, that guy dared to chase me away and even used sister Jian as a threat. So what if he is my sister Jian's brother? I will kill him next time!" Leng Mei clenched her fists and said fiercely.

As soon as she finished her angry words, Leng Mei suddenly moved closer to Ruoyin's ear and asked, "Ruoyin, where is the leader?"

...

In the bedroom, Di Lin put down the newspaper in his hand and was about to get off the bed.

The door was suddenly opened.

He pressed his forehead. Di Lin thought that it was his subordinate who came to bring him supper. He said, "Put the things by the door."

Last time, he didn't do anything. Leng Mei was angry. She shouted angrily, "I will never come back. Don't ever see that fool di Lin again. If you dare to look for me, I will be angry with you." Then she ran away.

Di Lin still didn't know what he had done wrong.

He rubbed his head, closed his eyes, and opened them.

The person who opened the door suddenly came in and locked the door.

"Didn't you hear me at the door of the east and west rooms..." just when di Lin raised his voice and looked over with an annoyed face.

He saw Leng Mei taking off her coat seductively.

She was wearing a sexy red gauze underneath her coat.

She wasn't wearing anything underneath.

She tugged on the red gauze and placed her hand on her red lips. She made a seductive gesture and walked over barefoot.

Di Lin was mesmerized by her.

Just as Di Lin was mesmerized by her, Leng Mei gently flipped over and sat on Di Lin's body seductively across the blanket...

“Lord Leader, I miss you so much.”

As she said this, Leng Mei stretched out a finger and gently tapped on Di Lin’s chest. She pushed di Lin, who was sitting on the bed, onto the bed charmingly.

Although Leng Mei was still quite active, she was unusually active today.

Moreover, didn’t she say that she didn’t want to see him again?

Of course, Di Lin knew that Leng Mei would definitely return. Otherwise, he would have gone to look for her long ago.

Leng Mei’s initiative made di Lin a little uncomfortable.

Di Lin grabbed Leng Mei’s wrist. On his handsome face, there was an uncontrollable urge to ask, “Where did you go?”

The good atmosphere was completely ruined by di Lin just like that.

Leng Mei’s face darkened. She flipped off Di Lin’s body and slept on the other side of the double bed. She pouted.

“How boring.” As she said that, she leaned over again and placed one hand on the blanket. She took the cup that Di Lin had just drunk and placed it on the bedside table. She drank a few mouthfuls of water.

“I’m so angry. I was chased out in the early morning yesterday and I didn’t even finish my saliva. Leader is still the best. I don’t have to worry about food and shelter here.”

Leng Mei placed the empty cup on the bedside table. She became paralyzed and collapsed into a “Big” shape, occupying the entire bed.

A hand and a leg were placed on di Lin’s body through the blanket.

“Hey, I’ve been on a plane all night. I’m exhausted. Let Me Rest for a while.”

As she said that, Leng Mei closed her eyes and really intended to sleep.

However, before Leng Mei could fall asleep, di Lin grabbed her wrist.

“You want to run away after flirting with me? There’s no such thing in this world!” Di Lin turned over and pressed Leng Mei, who was wearing nothing but a red veil, under his body.

“AH, yes, leader, leader, what are you doing? be gentle, be gentle, yes...”

...

The night was long.

Longmen City, Zhejiang province.

At midnight, Yun Jian left the warm bed and handed the two children to Si Yi. Then, she got up and walked out.

After leaving the villa forest, Yun Jian arrived at a garden not far away from the villa forest in a flash.

The snake lizard was standing there with its hands behind its back.

Hearing the sound, the snake lizard turned to look at Yun Jian.

“Sister Jian!”

“Yes.” Yun Jian nodded and asked in return, “Have you prepared the detailed information of the shareholders in the International Intelligence Platform Center who refused to revoke the curbs on our Gu Sha mercenary group?”

The last time at the International Intelligence Platform Center, Yun Jian had used Diane’s hands to demonstrate to the important figures in the International Intelligence Platform Center.

The Intelligence Group of the ancient kill mercenary group had been suppressed at the International Intelligence Platform Center.

If the force behind Diane’s intelligence group wasn’t the ancient kill mercenary group, those old geezers would probably be even more ruthless.

Some time ago, the chairman of the International Intelligence Platform Center had held an emergency shareholders meeting and requested to immediately revoke the deduction from the ancient kill mercenary group’s intelligence group. However, some stubborn shareholders refused.

Today, Yun Jian planned to make those old guys pay the price.

The reason why those stubborn shareholders refused to back down was because they felt that Sha Shen would definitely not interfere in this matter.

Otherwise, they would have long gone to do something.

There were always some people in this world who thought that their luck would not be so bad.

“It’s ready. It’s all here.” Snake lizard handed a stack of documents to Yun Jian.

At this moment, cloud paper had already taken off her coat, revealing the tight-fitting clothes that she used to wear when she was on missions in her previous life.

After equipping herself with the weapon that snake lizard later handed to her, cloud paper gently raised her hand and wiped her red lips.

Her other hand was playing with a Beretta M92F silenced pistol. She narrowed her eyes and looked into the distance through the aiming line of the Beretta M92F silenced pistol. At the same time, she was extremely calm, but her words were enough to change the world’s situation, suddenly, she spoke again:

“Immediately send a message to the international agent assassin website.

“I, Sha Shen, will return to the International Agent Assassin Circle and return to carry out the mission!”

Chapter 2504: Chapter 2504 shareholders received an assassination notification

Translator: 549690339

Ever since her rebirth, although Yun Jian had always been at the peak of the world as Sha Shen, she had never accepted any high-priced missions offered by international assassin websites.

In other words, although Yun Jian had always been there, in the years since her debut, she had completed 1,027 assassination missions and destroyed 109 assassin organizations. All of her accomplishments were completed before her rebirth.

If she did not accept missions on the international assassin websites, it meant that she was Sha God. All of her achievements that had been recorded in the records were completed by her a few years ago.

In the following years, Sha God had never accepted a bounty mission. In the international assassin circle, it could be considered as a true retreat from the circle.

In other words, no matter how much money you gave her, she would not accept this mission.

The god of brakes had retired for many years.

Letting the snake lizard say this meant that Yun Zhi would return to the circle of secret agents and carry out the mission!

“Yes! Sister Jian!”The snake lizard heard Yun Zhi’s words and replied loudly.

After Yun Zhi had prepared all the equipment, she raised her hand and held a pair of sunglasses in her hand. She gently put them on.

“Get ready to set off.”After putting the sunglasses on her nose, Yun Jian walked to the Ferrari sports car not far away with a calm expression. She opened the door of the driver’s seat and sat down easily.

Snake lizard also followed Yun Jian and sat in the passenger seat of the Ferrari sports car.

The Fiery Red Ferrari Laferrari flew out like lightning.

As the center of the International Intelligence platform, this group of shareholders had provoked many people.

And on the International Agent Killer website, there were many people who offered high rewards, wanting to get rid of this group of shareholders.

However, there were very few assassin agents who had the ability to assassinate this group of shareholders of the International Intelligence Platform Center!

“Chi –”

The sports car sped along the highway at lightning speed. Occasionally, it would pass by a bend, and the reflection in the mirror would reflect the red arc of the rising clouds.

She, Sha Shen, accepted the order from the shareholders of the International Intelligence Platform Center with a heavy reward!

...

There was an unwritten rule when Sha Shen went on a mission.

Basically, when an assassin agent went on a mission, they would usually kill the target without anyone knowing.

And when Sha Shen went on a mission, she never hid.

On the contrary, she would send an assassination notice to the target in advance.

She would tell the target in advance that she was coming to kill them.

The real reason that the international bigwigs and business politicians were afraid of Sha Shen was because even if Sha Shen sent them an assassination notice and told them to prepare for an inescapable net, it would still be useless!

This was the most terrifying part.

In the conference room of the International Intelligence Platform Center.

“What, what’s going on! Sha Shen is really... really going to make a move on us!”

A short and fat middle-aged man stood up, trembling. He looked at the director of the International Intelligence Platform Center who was sitting in the center. In his hand was an assassination notice written by Sha Shen.

“Sha Shen, who hasn’t been on a mission for a few years... .. how can this be ? How can this be ? Director, I don’t want to die ! I don’t want to ... Director, we revoke our deduction of the information group of the ancient assassin mercenary group! We don’t want that money anymore! Please save us! Save Us!”

Another shareholder who was successful in business also held an assassination notice in his hand. He was so scared that he sat down on the ground, trembling non-stop.

However, the director who was sitting at the top frowned and suddenly opened his eyes. With a gloomy face, he said to the shareholder who was sitting below and had received the assassination notice, “Previously, I asked you to revoke the deduction from the intelligence group of the ancient assassin mercenary group. You didn’t listen to me. Now, it’s too late to revoke the deduction!

“Don’t you know that ever since Sha Shen debuted, he has issued 1,027 assassination notices. Not a single person who was targeted survived until the next day!”

Chapter 2505: Chapter 2505 couldn’t withstand it. She had ten minutes

Translator: 549690339

The director of the International Intelligence Platform Center had foresight. Not only did he completely revoke his share of the deduction from the ancient assassin mercenary group's intelligence group, he even personally apologized to the ancient assassin mercenary group some time ago.

At this moment, there was one director and ten shareholders.

There were a total of four shareholders who revoked the deduction from the ancient assassin mercenary group's intelligence group. Other than the director and the four shareholders, the other six shareholders had received assassination notices from Sha Shen.

Everyone knew that Sha Shen had carried out 1,027 assassination missions and issued 1,027 similar assassination notices.

Receiving an assassination notice from Sha Shen was equivalent to stepping on a coffin.

Before this, no one in the world had been able to escape Sha Shen's assassination.

"Director! Director! We know we were wrong! I... .. I, I, I, I can hand over all my shares in the company to Sha Shen ! I don't want all of my family property ! Please, please help me, I don't want to die"

The short and fat middle-aged man was paralyzed on the ground. He looked blankly ahead and suddenly crawled towards the director's position in a dog-like manner.

He reached out and grabbed the director's trouser legs. The frequency of his hands shaking was even more violent than when the springs were being flicked.

Fear, fear, shock, all these emotions were mixed in the eyes of the short and fat middle-aged man.

"Where have you been? If you had listened to me earlier and revoked the deduction, would this have happened!"The director shouted.

"We thought, thought that Sha Shen would never return! Director, please save me. As long as you save me, I will give all my shares to you! ..."

The fat middle-aged man's words caused the director to Blink.

The director waved his hand. "Forget it, forget it. I will help you contact the Interpol main force. Coincidentally, I know a very powerful person inside.

"However... whether or not you can survive under Sha Shen's hands will depend on your luck."

...

Country M, in a large villa on the outskirts of the International Intelligence Platform Center.

This villa was the home of the director of the International Intelligence Platform Center, who knew the captain of the Interpol unit, Bernie Austin.

Bernie Austin, or Bernie for short.

The name of a foreigner usually followed by his surname, so Bernie was his name.

Bernie knew the director of the International Intelligence Platform and was entrusted with the task, so he had his home surrounded.

Because Bernie's house had many agencies, and there were many patrols and special police patrolling nearby, it was difficult for even a fly to sneak in from the outside.

As for the six shareholders of the International Intelligence platform who had received the notice of the assassination of Sha Shen, they were placed in the living room of his villa by Bernie.

Bernie walked around the outside and entered the house. He stood in the living room and said to the six shareholders who had received the notice of the assassination, "Everything seems to be normal at the moment. All of you stay where you are and don't go to the toilet alone!"

The six shareholders nodded immediately.

When Bernie was young, about twenty years ago, he had successfully saved a target who had received an assassination notice from a top-ranked assassin.

This made Bernie famous in one fell swoop.

With the addition of the Bernie Special Police Force, it was no exaggeration. It was a rather powerful team.

Therefore, the six shareholders heaved a sigh of relief. Their previously tense Hearts were now slightly relieved.

At this moment, a 20-year-old young woman, one of Bernie's immediate relatives, asked Bernie in a questioning voice:

"Uncle, is the Sha God you spoke of really that powerful? Does he need you and so many outstanding elites to stand up to him?"

This young woman was Bernie's niece, Beryl Austin.

Bernie had been pampered since he was young, and he had always admired his own uncle Bernie. He had even thought that his uncle Bernie was the most powerful person in the world.

That was why he said these words.

After Bernie finished speaking, he rubbed his forehead and said solemnly to Bernie, “He’s more than powerful! Today, I used the members of three major criminal police forces, and he’s the most outstanding member of our Interpol’s main force!

“It’s still unknown whether they can withstand the brake god for ten minutes...”

2506 Chapter 2506: Target killed. Written by Sha Shen himself

Bernie’s words made beryl scream, “Uncle, your criminal police force is so powerful! Can’t they stop her alone?”

Beryl couldn’t believe it.

Bernie Sighed, shook his head, and didn’t say anything else.

At this time, the director of the International Intelligence platform walked in from outside the villa.

“Bernie, how is she?”The director asked worriedly.

“So far, I haven’t found any news. There are surveillance cameras everywhere inside and outside my villa. Unless Sha Shen comes down from the sky, no matter how capable she is, my subordinates will definitely find her before she enters the living room!”

On this point, Bernie was very confident.

...

On the roof of Bernie’s villa.

A petite figure had just taken a helicopter and jumped down from thousands of meters in the air.

That petite figure controlled the wind speed, humidity, and any factors and conditions that would affect the accuracy of her landing destination.

Within five seconds before landing, she opened the parachute and landed on the roof of Bernie’s villa with perfect accuracy.

After landing on the roof, Yun Jian kept the parachute as fast as she could. She moved silently and stuck herself to the wall of the roof.

There was only one special police officer on patrol on the roof of the house.

When Yun Jian landed, she had timed it perfectly. When she landed, she stuck herself to the wall and the special police officer walked to the side. The shadow of Yun Jian was the blind spot that the special police officer could not see.

Bernie was indeed not a simple person.

This kind of thing like landing from the sky and sneaking in was almost unheard of on the road. However, for the sake of safety, Bernie still sent a special agent on patrol to walk around the eaves of the villa.

Yun Jian leaned against the wall and followed behind the special agent, walking around the barrier.

Just when the special agent just happened to walk to the place where the group of special agents patrolling under the villa could not see, Yun Jian silently rolled toward the special agent's location.

He quickly placed his hand on Yun Jian's head like an eagle's claw, and the other hand covered his mouth from behind.

In almost a second, the Hand Yun Jian placed on his head slid over his neck, and with a crack, it bent his neck.

After dragging him to a dark place, Yun Jian stuck his hand on the corner of the wall to check the sound of the stairs.

After confirming that there was no one there, Yun Jian climbed onto the wall with one hand and hung his body in the air by the window under the eaves. With the other hand, he unlocked the locked window at lightning speed and rolled into the window.

With Yun Jian's action just now, if the special police on patrol heard the sound of the wind and grass, they would be discovered.

However, at this moment, no one heard a sound.

...

In the living room of the villa.

Bernie was still standing there.

At this moment, the sound of the special police shouting came from outside the house, "It's, it's the Sha God! The Sha God is here! The Sha God has been discovered! ! !"

Hearing this, Bernie turned around and instructed the six shareholders, "Stay here and don't move." He held his pistol and rushed out of his villa at the fastest speed.

"Captain! It's not the Sha God! Go back! We've fallen into a trap!" Just as he rushed to the scene where the sound came from, the screaming special police officer was holding a butterfly knife in his hand. He widened his eyes and screamed.

Bernie roared and ran back to the living room as fast as he could in his life. He only saw his niece, Belil, and the director of the International Intelligence Platform Center paralyzed on the ground, their bodies trembling.

The six target Shakyamuni, the six shareholders of the International Intelligence Platform Center, had already fallen in the waves of blood, their eyes wide open.

On the wooden table, there was a piece of white paper with words written on it. The white paper was nailed to the wooden table by a dagger.

Bernie's heart trembled. He quickly walked forward, only to see the words written in red ink on the white paper. The words were free and easy, but they gave people a sense of fear and horror:

'target killed, hand-written by the Sharpshooter.'

2507 The mission for Chapter 2507 had been completed, and he had finally returned

He had heard of the way Sha Shen went on missions, and he had also heard that when Sha Shen went on missions, ordinary people would not even be able to see her shadow.

Bernie had originally thought that he would be able to face Sha Shen head-on, even if he could not defeat her, he would at least be able to hold her back for ten minutes!

However, Bernie had not expected that he would be utterly defeated when facing Sha Shen head-on.

Not to mention ten minutes, not even a second had passed!

He could not even see the shadow of the Sha God!

When his subordinate shouted "The Sha God is coming" just now, Bernie did not even have time to confirm the time and rushed out.

Furthermore, unless the Sha God really came down from the sky! Otherwise, even if she had the ability to reach the heavens, she could only launch an attack from outside the door!

This was also the reason why Bernie, the captain of the most outstanding criminal police force in the world, fell into the trap.

Not only was she powerful, but she also knew People's hearts!

From the moment she created the illusion that she had sneaked in from outside the house, she had already guessed that according to Bernie's personality, he would definitely rush out of the house!

"Did you guys see the Sha God just now? !" Bernie raised his voice and looked at his niece, belil, and the director who were cowering on the ground as if they were paralyzed from fear.

"No, I didn't see it. They... uncle and the others suddenly died. In just a blink of an eye, when I opened my eyes, they were dead. They died..."

Belil was so scared that he hugged his body tightly. He was trembling non-stop, and there was a hint of sobbing in his voice. He was so scared that he could not feel anything anymore.

"Then what about this flying knife? Where did it come from?" Bailey did not wait for Bailey to finish crying and asked immediately.

"I... I saw it! The stairway! It came from upstairs!" The director pointed at the top of the stairs with a trembling finger. He used all the strength he had left in his life to say these words that scared him out of his wits.

"The stairway... upstairs... In the sky... In the sky! She came down from the sky! !!"

Bernie suddenly realized something. He held his pistol and rushed out of the door of the villa. However, he just happened to see a girl in the sky who was holding the rope hanging down from the helicopter with one hand. She was wearing a pair of sunglasses, so his face could not be seen clearly.

Holding the rope hanging down from the helicopter with one hand, Yun Jian, who was being pulled higher and higher by the helicopter, was not afraid at all. She wiped her red lips and suddenly gave Bernie a provocative smile.

In the next second, she grabbed the rope with her other hand. With a few quick climbs, she climbed from the bottom of the rope to the highest point of the rope.

With a light somersault, the helicopter had already flown hundreds of meters above the ground. Just like that, she took the opportunity to somersault into the helicopter.

Her movements were extremely smooth. It was so easy that it was unbelievable that one person could do it.

Bernie trembled violently.

He watched as Yun Jian left, but he could do nothing.

...

The next day, news agencies of all sizes spread the news.

The world's number one spy, Sha Shen, had made a comeback!

He had killed the six shareholders of the Gu Sha mercenary group that the International Intelligence Platform Center had secretly and maliciously withheld.

Once this matter came out, it instantly replaced the media's coverage of the entertainment stars, and they all turned their attention to this matter.

In the next few months, all the companies and companies that secretly withheld the Gu Sha mercenary group's external cooperation projects not only returned the amount of money they had withheld in the past to the Gu Sha mercenary group.

There were even some companies and companies that, after hearing this news, not only returned the part of the Gu Sha mercenary group that they withheld, but they even handed over hundreds of millions of dollars in cash to show their sincerity, they learned from the directors of the International Intelligence Platform Center and took the initiative to apologize.

In an instant, the word 'Sha God'swept through all the major international news media. Even all the programs that reported the news of the entertainment circle completely stopped broadcasting and became the programs that reported Sha God.

...

At this moment, Yun Jian, who had caused a global storm, was sitting in a coffee shop in Jiangcheng University Town.

Outside the coffee shop, Mo Bufan and the others from the martial arts club, who had just arrived at the university and received news of the return of the cloud jian, seemed to be gathering together to fight. Under the watchful eyes of passers-by, they rushed into the coffee shop and rushed to the front of the cloud jian:

“President, you’re finally back!”

2508 Chapter 2508 martial arts club, national competition

It had been fifteen or sixteen days since the first day of the Lunar New Year and the incident.

It was time for the students to return to school.

Jiangcheng University Town in Jiangcheng City had more than a dozen universities. The university students there generally went to school earlier.

Jiangcheng city in Zhejiang province paid more attention to their studies, so the school opened early. The school holidays during the winter and summer holidays were very late.

Of course, this was not a good thing for the students.

At that time, Mo Bufan led a group of people into the coffee shop as if they were about to fight. They surrounded Yun Jian.

Yun Jian was holding a cup of coffee in his hand and tasting it carefully. He did not turn his head to look at Mo Bufan and the others.

“How was the result of the martial arts competition last year?”She asked casually. Yun Jian had suspended school a year ago. At that time, the martial arts club was about to hold a martial arts competition.

Before she left, Yun Jian had trained Mo Bufan and the other members of the martial arts club.

“Of course it was a complete victory! President, you don’t know that after our martial arts club won a complete victory last year, we represented all the universities in Jiangcheng City to participate in the province’s martial arts competition. We also obtained outstanding results in the top three!

“If nothing unexpected happens, the school will arrange for us to represent Zhejiang province to participate in the national competition in the next few days. President, since you’re back, you can join us!”

Before Mo Bufan could speak, Zhou Juntao rushed to speak from the cloud.

“I won’t participate.”The cloud pursed its red lips.

After that, the cloud handed Mo Bufan and the others an invitation letter one by one. Then, it stood up and said to them,

“On April 1st, I will be holding an engagement banquet on Harper Island. There will be a private car to pick me up. This is an invitation letter.”

This invitation letter had only been produced recently. Yun Jian had already sent out invitations to quite a number of people.

April 1st was Yun Jian’s birthday, April 1st. Even without looking at the tone, it could still be translated as Si Yi.

Perhaps it was fate that made her be together with Si Yi.

“Sure, President!” An engagement party was held on Harper Island! That Harper Island was voted as the sexiest beach in the world by the M Nation’s Newsweek Magazine! Along the beach, there was a luxurious resort made up of 25 colorful villas.

“Furthermore, Harper Island is most famous for its pink beach. The beach is yellow, while Harper Island’s beach is pink. It’s truly made up of pink sand!

“This is so F * cking romantic!”

Zhou Juntao said to the cloud note with a face full of admiration.

The cloud note pursed its red lips and said to the few of them, “Remember, on the night of March 31st, there will be a special car to send you to Harper Island.”

“Okay! Even if I forget to take a shit, I won’t miss such a good thing! A free vacation to Harper Island, Haha!” Zhou Juntao smiled with a wretched face.

“Alright, Wipe Your Drool.” As a well-educated young master, Mo Bufan couldn’t stand it anymore. He took a tissue and handed it to Zhou Juntao.

When the other members of the martial arts club heard this, they all laughed out loud.

...

It was almost the middle of February. There was still about a month and a half before the engagement party.

That day, after Zhou Juntao invited Yun Jian to participate in the national martial arts competition with them, less than a week later, the school indeed sent out a notice, asking Zhou Juntao, Mo Bufan, and the others to pack their luggage overnight, they were rushing to participate in the national competition.

Because of the prior notice, it was not considered very rushed.

Although Yun Jian did not participate, he was invited by Mo Bufan and the others to watch the competition.

The venue for this competition was in Liao Province.

Liao province was not close to Zhejiang province, so the group took a train for nearly twenty hours to get there.

The winter in Liao province was much colder than Zhejiang province.

That was the north, so it was naturally incomparable to the south of Zhejiang province.

After arriving at the competition venue in Liao Province, Mo Bufan and the others planned to familiarize themselves with the competition venue first.

“It’s the people from the Shinto society. Hey!” Just as Mo Bufan and the others arrived, a group of members who also had the name of the martial arts society walked over from the opposite side and greeted Mo Bufan and the others.

This group of people who also came from the martial arts society were the martial arts society that Zhejiang Province sent to participate in the National Martial Arts Society. Other than the martial arts society formed by Mo Bufan and the others who were in the top three of the provincial competition, the other martial arts society that was in the top three of the provincial competition.

The Shinto society was the name of the club that Yun Jian had chosen.

And this group of people who walked over was the martial arts club that was in second place in the provincial competition, the martial arts club.

The captain of the martial arts club was a stout and fat man named Diao Chizhan.

Diao Chizhan’s nickname was very interesting. His companions called him “Headmaster.”

It could be understood as him running around with the headmaster in his mouth.

At that time, Diao Chizhan walked over and gave Mo Bufan a high-five. After he glanced around and saw Yun Jian, who had not appeared in the previous competition, he asked Mo Bufan in public in surprise, “Mo Bufan, is this your little girlfriend?”

After hearing this, Mo Bufan hurriedly shook his head. Then, he said something that shocked Diao Chizhan and the others:

“She is the one I told you about. She is the strongest president of our martial arts club!”

2509 Chapter 2508 had seen Sha Shen in person

“She’s the President of Your Martial Arts Club! ? She’s the Valiant female president that you told us about the last time at the provincial tournament... in order to avenge you, she directly kicked away the door of your club that bullied you?”

After Diao Chiao Zhan heard Mo Bufan’s words, he was stunned for a moment before he said those words in a daze.

After he finished speaking, Diao Chiao Zhan rubbed his nose and looked at Yun Jian’s thin and weak little figure with a surprised expression:

“From your previous description, I thought she was a strong and burly girl. I didn’t expect that... Haha, You Really Can’t judge a book by its cover!”

“Come, come, come. We’re all friends, we’re all on the same side. After we parted during the provincial competition last time, we haven’t gathered together for quite some time. There are people selling grilled sausages outside the competition venue. I’ll stop them and let us have a small meal first.”

“Because we’re going to gather later, it’s not good for us to run far. We’ll go to the restaurant later in the evening. Big Brother will treat you to a meal!”

Diao Chizhan didn’t say much about Yun Jian. He was also considered a rather bold and big fatty. After saying this, he ran out to stop the old lady selling grilled sausages.

After a short while, Diao Chizhan ran back again with a large pile of grilled sausages in his hands. “Come, come, come! I’ll treat you to a meal!”

Yun Jian didn’t argue and took the grilled sausages.

At this moment, Diao Chizhan and Mo Bufan started talking like old friends.

In fact, Diao Chizhan and Mo Bufan had only met once during the provincial competition.

But some people, although they had only met once, could be like old friends who had been together for half of their lives.

In fact, this was the destined friendship between bosom friends.

“Hey, it’s the lobster club from the same province as us!” At this time, a girl from the standing martial arts club saw a group of people walking by not far away and said to the crowd.

“Hey! You guys are here too!” After the girl said this to the crowd, she even stretched out her hand to greet the people from the lobster club.

In this martial arts competition, only three martial arts clubs from each province were qualified to participate in the national competition.

The top three of the Zhejiang province provincial competition had all arrived.

The group of people who passed by was the Lobster Club, which ranked first in the Zhejiang province competition last time, and the winner of the Zhejiang Province competition that time.

Logically, when everyone came out to participate in the national competition and met people from the same province, they would always feel a little close.

However, the female president of the Lobster Club took the lead and shouted loudly, “HMPH!” Then she glanced at her head and walked away.

The girl’s hand instantly stopped in mid-air, and the air froze in that instant.

“F * ck, who bullies people like that? How could they...” when Zhou Juntao saw this, he was the first to be displeased.

“It’s fine, it’s fine.” The girl hurriedly stopped Zhou Juntao.

This girl’s name was Yuan Pingping. She was very honest and friendly. Her looks weren’t bad either. Although she wasn’t on the level of an unparalleled beauty, she was still pleasing to the eye.

“The president of the Lobster Society is called Long Xinyan. I heard that she likes to eat crayfish very much, so she named her society this. Her society doesn’t like to talk to people,” Mo Bufan explained to Yun Jian.

Yun Jian had never participated in a competition before, so she naturally didn’t know anything.

“Mm.” At that time, Yun Jian nodded his head.

Ten minutes later, all the martial arts societies gathered here.

“They’re here, the judges are here!” Someone shouted at this time.

At this time, a few judges wearing very eye-catching clothes entered the venue one after another.

The competition was not going to be held immediately today. The judges had arrived because they looked familiar.

At this time, a few judges entered the venue.

When he saw one of the foreign women in her twenties, Yun Jian narrowed his eyes.

This person was none other than Bernie's niece, Beryl, who was the captain of the International Criminal Police Force last time.

However, Yun Jian was not surprised.

Bernie's niece was learning martial arts from country Z. Yun Jian had seen a brief introduction of Bernie on Bernie's detailed information.

When Bernie entered the venue, Long Xin, the president of the lobster club, looked at Yun Jian and the others staring at Bernie. She suddenly raised her voice in a somewhat smug manner and spoke to her companions in a smug tone, showing off her vast knowledge:

"Did you see that? That judge is the niece of the captain of the International Criminal Police Force. My parents once brought me to her house to be a guest! That's why I know so much about her.

"Did you know that recently, there has been a lot of commotion? The first mission of the international top-ranked spy, Sha Shen, after he returned to the spy circle was related to Bailey.

"Belial, that's someone who has seen the true face of the top-ranked international spy, Sha Shen!"

2510 The signature of chapter 2509 was very similar

Long Xinyan said this very loudly, as if she was afraid that the people from the martial arts club standing next to her couldn't hear her loud voice.

Long Xinyan's lobster club was indeed very powerful. The martial arts club that won first place in the Zhejiang martial arts competition was certainly powerful, not much weaker.

"Sister Xinyan, so you know that Judge? The one who saw Sha Shen's real face!" A female member of the Lobster Club looked at long xinyan with excitement and caution and asked.

Long Xinyan saw the members of the shrine and the martial arts club looking at her. She pursed her lips and said confidently, "Of course!"

In fact, Long Xin Yan had gone to a ball organized by the Bailey family with her parents a few years ago. She had seen Bailey from a great distance just like this time.

In fact, she had never had the chance to talk to Bailey before.

However, it was enough for her to brag in front of other students like her.

Yun Jian heard long Xinyan's bragging. However, at this moment, Yun Jian was sitting in the empty auditorium. From a distance, she looked at the martial arts clubs that had gathered to listen to the judges and the organizers.

On the day of the national competition, there would be a live recording of the live broadcast. In other words, everyone's every move would be displayed in front of the national audience.

Therefore, the organizers placed great importance on this national martial arts competition.

The gathering place was the national martial arts competition venue.

At that time, Long Xinyan had just finished boasting when Bailey, who was about to speak, cleared his throat with a high and mighty expression.

She used fluent Chinese, which was in stark contrast to the frightened look on her face that day. She proudly said to the crowd,

"Hello, I'm the judge this time, Beryl Austin. You can call me beryl..."

Beryl could speak fluent Chinese. Although his pronunciation was sometimes in English, it was already very impressive for him to be able to speak.

After the judges finished speaking, the organizers said a few more words and dismissed the crowd.

After the crowd had dispersed, the judges had already left. Seeing Bellier leave, Long Xin Yan became even bolder and bragged:

"I heard that on that day, Bellier saw the real face of the Sha God. Moreover, when she saw the real face of the Sha God, she didn't even have the slightest bit of panic or fear. It was said that when the Sha God saw Bellier, he was given a big fright by Bellier!"

The more Long Xin Yan spoke, the more excited she became. That was because she saw all the members of the war society and the war society staring at her. That kind of feeling made long xin Yan extremely proud.

“Sister Xin Yan, you know so much! Quickly tell us what happened!”The members of the lobster society were the most excited. A large group of people quickly surrounded Long Xin Yan.

It was as if from Long Xinyan’s words, they could see the scene where Sha Shen had appeared that day.

When Long Xinyan saw that the members of the shrine and the combat club were still listening to her, she started making up stories even more wantonly.

Yun Jian, on the other hand, ignored her.

At that time, Yun Jian received a text message from snake lizard. She told Mo Bufan and the others, “A friend is looking for me, I need to go out for a while.”Then, she walked out of the competition arena.

Before she walked out of the competition arena, she bumped into snake lizard, who had just entered the game.

Snake lizard was looking for her because he needed her to personally sign a return agreement with an international agent killer website.

At this time, Long Xinyan happened to catch a glimpse of Yun Jian and snake lizard bumping into each other. For a moment, she looked at them in confusion.

Seeing Long Xinyan looking over there and stopping to tell the story that everyone was very interested in, everyone turned their heads to look over.

However, they saw that the cloud paper took a black pen from snake lizard’s hand and signed a big name under a thick contract in front of everyone...

Look at the strokes that the cloud paper wrote when it signed the big name... It was very similar to the name of the person they were talking about at the moment... ..

2511 Chapter 2510 had been premeditated for a long time. Someone had killed her

But similarity was similarity. Long Xinyan took a glance at it and then looked away.

To Long Xinyan, she remembered that this girl should have accompanied the people from the shrine to participate in the competition, right?

She was just an insignificant girl. Long Xinyan didn’t care.

“Let’s go, let’s go. It’s my treat. I’ll take you guys to have afternoon tea!”At this time, the Fat Diao Chizhan waved at his club and the people from the cloud paper club and walked out of the competition venue.

He soon arrived beside the cloud note.

Although Long Xinyan didn't care about the cloud note, she was still somewhat suspicious of the name that the cloud note had signed on the contract. She could sense it from her handwriting.

Especially for a young girl like her, why was she signing a contract?

There was definitely something fishy going on!

When Long Xinyan brought her club members over, Mo Bufan, Diao Chizhan, and the others just happened to arrive at the Cloud Note's place and quickly left the arena.

At this time, the cloud note just finished signing the contract and put away its pen.

Snake lizard also conveniently took the opportunity to take back the contract.

"Hey, wait a minute. The thing you just signed is a contract, right? Can you show it to me?" Long Xinyan reached out her hand with great interest, wanting to stop snake lizard from taking back the contract.

Looking at this, Long Xinyan didn't give Mo Bufan, Diao Xiozhan, and the others face. However, because of this contract, she felt that the cloud note was a different person from Mo Bufan and the others, therefore, she even had the thought of having a relationship with Yun Zhi.

Even if she didn't understand Yun Zhi.

Her tone wasn't bad either.

"No." Unexpectedly, Yun Zhi rejected her.

Snake lizard was also one step ahead of Long Xin Yan. She kept the contract and walked out.

"TSK, if you can't, then you can't." Long Xin Yan was stunned. Then, she immediately rolled her eyes. As she rolled her eyes, the corner of her mouth twitched.

Long Xin Yan's martial arts were indeed recognized as powerful, but she didn't know how to be a person. Sometimes, she was even like an underage girl, putting all her feelings on her face.

...

Diao Chizhan was treating, so he wasn't stingy. He directly brought everyone to a crayfish restaurant and ordered ten plates of crayfish.

Crayfish were very expensive. This plate might cost an ordinary person two days' salary.

From this, it could be seen that Diao Chizhan's family was definitely not bad. Otherwise, he would not have eaten so much.

"Come, come, come! Everyone, eat quickly. Don't stand on ceremony! Today, it's my treat. I'll treat all of you to crayfish. Eat that D * MN Chairman of the Crayfish Club to death. He's so silly. He's making himself look like he's extremely powerful!"

Diao Chizhan's humorous words caused everyone to burst into laughter.

Yun Jian pursed her red lips and rested her chin on her hand. Suddenly, she was attracted by a baby shop across from the crayfish shop.

Next to the baby shop's signboard was a line of "Original draft design for baby clothes". Through the glass window, she could see the design of the clothes in the baby shop or the baby products. They were all very novel.

Thinking of the two guys at home, Yun Jian stood up and said to the crowd, "I'll go and have a look", then walked out.

Just as she reached the gate, she unexpectedly met Long Xinyan and her group.

Long Xinyan liked crayfish the most, so she named her martial arts club the Crayfish Club. In the nearby area, only this crayfish club had better decorations, and it looked cleaner inside and outside, therefore, it was not strange to meet Long Xin Yan here.

Seeing Yun Zhi, Long Xin Yan snorted coldly, turned around, and entered the crayfish club. She found a round table and sat down with her martial arts club members.

The wall of the crayfish club on the side of the street was transparent glass, so Yun Zhi could see the specialty baby shop at a glance.

At that time, Long Xin Yan was sitting in front of her seat sullenly. After a while, she looked up through the glass and looked at Yun Zhi, who was crossing the road and was about to cross the road to the baby shop across the street. Suddenly, an overweight truck was next to her, it was rampaging and seemed to have planned for a long time to crash into the cloud note!

"Ah!" A female member of the Lobster Club also saw it, and she was so scared that she cried out in surprise.

This cry of surprise attracted everyone's attention.

At this time, the overweight truck was less than a meter away from the cloud note!

However, at the moment when everyone thought that the cloud note would be like a kite with its string cut off and be knocked away by the sudden arrival of the big truck, a scene that everyone was so scared that their faces turned pale and they would never forget for the rest of their lives..., suddenly, they were shocked

2512 Chapter 2511 locked onto the truck and blasted it

The overweight truck suddenly rampaged towards the cloud tablet.

Without even giving the cloud tablet a second to react, the truck had already crashed into the cloud tablet.

There weren't many such coincidences in this world. Even if someone stood up and said that the truck was out of control and that it wasn't intentional murder, the audience wouldn't believe it.

Because the intention of the truck's deliberate murder was too obvious!

However, when the overweight truck was only half a meter away from the cloud note, everyone had already imagined that the cloud note would be flung dozens of meters away and fall heavily to the ground. Its head was bleeding, and its life was in danger.

The cloud note did not even turn around to face the truck. As if she had a premonition of what was going to happen, she jumped lightly with one leg and touched the hood of the truck with her right hand. Just as the truck was about to hit her..., with a flip, she stood on the hood of the Big Truck!

She was just 0.1 seconds away!

Based on the speed of the big truck, if Yun Jian was 0.1 seconds later, this move would have increased the probability of her injury being more serious!

She would definitely die from that hit!

However, jumping on the hood of the big truck wasn't enough.

After she flipped onto the hood of the big truck, she reacted within a second. Then, she lightly jumped onto the top of the big truck. After running for two steps, she lightly jumped..., she jumped from the back of the truck to the ground.

This series of actions was easy to say, but to actually do it was extremely difficult.

The truck was still flying. It jumped onto the hood, jumped onto the roof, and ran for a few steps. Then, it jumped onto the back of the truck and landed on the ground.

This series of actions not only had to consider the fact that the truck was still moving crazily, the wind speed and resistance it would bring, but also whether she would be thrown out if she did this series of actions on such a fast truck.

Obviously, whether it was the timing or the various factors, the accuracy was so accurate that not a single mistake was made.

Moreover, this was done within three seconds!

That's right, three seconds!

Within three seconds, the cloud note completed this series of actions that were almost impossible for an ordinary person to complete!

Furthermore, it landed steadily on the ground!

If it were anyone else, they would have been flung away long ago!

"Yun Jian!" Mo Bufan and the others were so frightened that their faces turned green. With Mo Bufan as the leader, they stood up and pushed aside the chairs, running out of the crayfish restaurant with their long legs.

Mo Bufan and the others had not spent much time with Yun Jian.

However, Mo Bufan and the others had truly treated Yun Jian as a friend.

Not only was Yun Jian the president of their martial arts club, but she was also their friend! They were on the same side!

Mo Bufan took big strides. Because he ran too fast, he almost fell. However, he supported himself on the ground and stood up. He ignored his twisted leg and was the first to rush out.

Zhou Juntao, Zhou Dun, and other members of the Yun Jian Martial Arts Club also rushed out of the crayfish restaurant crazily. They ran to Yun Jian and asked if she was injured and if she wanted to go to the hospital.

They were nervous, afraid, and terrified because they treated Yun Jian as their best friend!

It had nothing to do with love, family, or gender-neutral friendship!

"I'm fine," Yun Jian said calmly.

At this moment, the members of the Lobster Club and the martial arts club rushed out of the lobster restaurant and came to Yun Jian's side.

When they saw Yun Jian's extremely calm expression, long xinyan, Diao Xiozhan, and the others, who were already shocked and terrified by Yun Jian's amazing skills, were completely stunned.

It took a long time for everyone to react to Yun Jian's shocking performance.

"Chi — Bang!" At this moment, the speeding truck suddenly crashed into a building in front of them.

The owner of the truck obviously did not get off the truck and call the police to solve the problem. On the contrary, he failed to hit Yun Jian. After he crashed into the building, he quickly backed off as if he was afraid that Yun Jian would find him, he ran away at a high speed.

The truck wasn't injured, which meant that the driver didn't escape.

But he drove away, so what he did just now was definitely a deliberate murder!

Diao Xiozhan, Long Xinyan, and the others hadn't reacted yet. At that time, they looked at the truck in a daze and saw the whole process of the truck escaping.

"My God, you... you just... just... how could you..." Long Xinyan was so scared by the truck that she stuttered.

Before Long Xin Yan could finish her sentence, Yun Jian saw that the big truck had left her field of vision. In everyone's imagination, she should have been so frightened that her face turned pale. She didn't look pale at all.

On the contrary, she reached out her hand and took out her cell phone in front of everyone. She dialed a number and said something that shocked everyone to the extreme:

"Lock onto a truck with the license plate of LIAOB · U3616 on the first street of South Road. You have one minute. Before it leaves the first street of South Road, fire at it!"

2513 Chapter 2513 shouldn't be involved, so don't bother about it

"Fire the cannon and bombard it." These simple words caused long xinyan, Diao Chizhan, the other members of the Lobster Society, the combat society, and even Mo Bufan and the others, who had already witnessed the strength of the cloud tablet, to be stunned.

"You, who did you call? Fire the cannon and bombard it... I admit that the big truck that I saw just now seemed to have really charged over on purpose to hit you, but... fire the cannon and bombard it is not something that can be said carelessly!"

Long Xinyan had already been completely shocked by Yun Jian's shocking actions just now, as well as those words that were extremely unbelievable.

At this moment, she started to speak incoherently to Yun Jian.

Yun Jian ignored long Xinyan. After she finished speaking, she hung up the phone.

After leaving a message for Mo Bufan and the others, "You guys go back and eat first," she flashed across the road and walked into the baby store as if nothing had happened in front of the shocked and confused people.

Everyone present could clearly see how terrifying that scene was.

The slightest carelessness would result in Yun Jian's death on the spot.

If it was a normal girl, shouldn't she be immediately frightened and wail like a ghost or call the police?

What...

When that call was made, not only was it not a call to the police, but she even used a commanding tone to tell the other party to bombard that big truck just now...

"She's too arrogant! And who did she call? ! She said she would bombard it? And why did she go to the baby store? ! Does she have a child?"

"What a strange person..."

Long Xinyan let out a series of exclamations.

She was shocked and confused just now.

Not only was she shocked by Yun Jian's amazing strength, but she also felt that Yun Jian's words and actions were meaningless.

How could there be a cannon here? and he even fired a cannon at her!

She didn't have a child! Why would she go to the baby's store where the baby's mother was!

"Yun Jian must have her reasons for doing this. Let's go back first." Mo Bufan was very obedient as he spoke to his own club's members.

After hearing Mo Bufan's words, everyone walked towards the small lobster restaurant.

However, just as everyone turned around, Long Xin wasn't certain that Yun Jian was just teasing her. Perhaps Yun Jian was just a delusional patient, so she didn't say anything else.

"Boom!" A huge explosion rang out from the place where the huge truck had fled to a distance away from this street.

The huge explosion shook the place, which was hundreds of meters away from the scene, violently.

After the loud "Boom", everyone suddenly widened their eyes.

Especially Long Xinyan. She was already sure that Yun Jian was just spouting nonsense.

What about the truck with the license plate number? She gave you one minute to bombard it. This was all nonsense!

She probably wanted to show off better in front of them!

Long Xinyan thought so at first.

It wasn't until the explosion that even the ground shook violently.

Long Xinyan finally reacted.

Could it be...

Could it be that it was as Yun Jian said...

An hour later, the relevant personnel had rushed to the scene.

At this time, Long Xinyan and the others had also heard the news of the scene.

For some reason, the truck almost hit someone and ran away when the body of the truck suddenly exploded.

The truck was destroyed and the person died.

According to witnesses, the truck suddenly exploded without any warning. Other than the truck itself and the owner, no one was injured.

As if God had given him a punishment for escaping, no traces of the truck being tampered with were found at the scene.

When they heard the news, Long Xinyan, Diao Chizhan, Yuan Pingping, and everyone else at the scene were so shocked that they slammed the table and stood up.

Long Xinyan widened her eyes in shock. She looked at the cloud note that had bought a lot of baby products from the baby store in horror and said in a disbelieving tone in front of everyone,

“Just now! It wasn’t you... It was you...”

Halfway through her words, long xinyan deflated. She sat back in her seat as if she was paralyzed. She was so scared that her face turned pale.

Didn’t Yun Jian just make a phone call before exploding? . How did it end up...

She had a premonition that if she dared to complete her sentence, the ending wouldn’t be any better than the owner of the truck!

And at this moment, just as long Xinyan was so scared that her whole body was covered in cold sweat, she clearly saw Yun Jian looking at her from the corner of his eyes. He curled up a cold smile and opened his red lips, he silently said something that made long Xinyan’s spine go numb:

“Don’t care about what you shouldn’t care about. Otherwise... the next one to die will be you.”

2514 Chapter 2514 Shenji’s call. Liaoning province is waiting for you

Long Xinyan was so frightened by Yun Jian’s silent words that her upper body trembled violently. She sat on the bench and almost slipped to the ground.

Fortunately, Long Xinyan stabilized herself in the end, so she didn’t sit on the bench and really slipped to the ground.

“Sister Xinyan, What’s Wrong?” Seeing Long Xinyan’s body tremble violently as if she was threatened by someone, a girl sitting next to Long Xinyan asked.

Long Xinyan suddenly came back to her senses as if she had just been called back to reality. Her eyes blinked for a second.

When she turned around, she found that Yun Jian was already peeling the lobsters as if nothing had happened while she was sitting next to Long Xinyan.

Even the warning words Yun Jian said to her seemed to have never happened.

This feeling made Long Xin Yan’s back feel slightly cold. She took a deep gulp. The crayfish that she loved so much had become dull and tasteless.

It was too scary. This woman was really too scary!

Long Xin didn't dare to think about Yun Jian anymore. She closed her eyes fiercely and didn't dare to say anything about what happened just now.

...

Obviously, no one saw Yun Jian's silent warning to Long Xin Yan.

At that time, Diao Zhan was eating crayfish in big mouthfuls as he gave Yun Jian a thumbs up:

"As expected of the President of the Shura Society. You are so awesome! I saw the provincial competition last year. If you led the Shura Society to participate in the competition, then the first place in the provincial competition would really belong to Your Shura Society?"

"I heard that before the start of the national martial arts competition this time, people can be added in Midway. President of the Shura Society, Why Don't You Bring Your Society to participate in the competition?"!

"I reckon that with your two moves just now, you can easily take the top three positions in the national martial arts competition."

Diao Chizhan was also telling the truth.

"Yeah, such a good opportunity to perform. Why Don't you participate in the competition?" After someone from the combat society heard Diao Chizhan's words, he also spoke with some pity for Yun Jian.

Yun Jian only pursed her lips slightly in response to the questions from the combat club members. She didn't say anything.

Diao Chizhan and the others were very smart and didn't press her.

Although they didn't say anything about the shocking farce, they still couldn't react to the shock in their hearts for a long time.

...

That baby store was indeed worth visiting. It was different from other baby stores. The baby toys and clothes in that baby store were all designed by the owner.

The two little guys would definitely like it.

When she returned to her place at night, the mysterious fairy actually called her.

“Hehe, I didn’t expect to actually get through. You Bastard, you actually returned to the spy circle and even re-signed the agreement with the website.”

“006, do you know that after you came back, the base price for my mission dropped from 50 million US dollars to 30 million US dollars!”

“Tell me, how do you want to calculate the 20 million US dollars that you lost? !”

As soon as Shenji called the cloud note, she started to Grumble angrily.

Hearing this, the Cloud Note’s Red Arc slightly curved. She turned the phone in her hand around and suddenly said, “Then what do you want?”

“Fight with me! I have recently developed a few new moves, 006. I will definitely surpass you this time. Do you believe it or not? !”

It had been so many years since Shen Ji, Mad Dragon, and Sha Shen had come out of the dark soul organization. Shen Ji still had not given up on her dream of surpassing Yun Jian. She kept bringing up this matter.

Hearing Shen Ji’s words, Yun Jian’s faint red arc of a smile rose slightly. She said,

“Alright. Tomorrow evening at 6:00 p.m. , I’ll wait for you at the entrance of the global martial arts competition venue in Liao Province, country z. the loser will treat.”
