

The Schoolgirl Secret Agent - Chapter 2611 - 2642

2611 Chapter 2611. She picked the best

Yun Jian came to this casino in Jiang City with only one purpose, which was to buy the best weapons as soon as possible.

She wanted to go to the forbidden area of the dragon-concealing mountain alone.

She would kill gods and devils when she encountered them!

She would kill anyone who stood in her way!

“Nice Talk! Good girl! Haha!” Just as Yun Jian finished speaking, a burly man who was 1.78 meters tall walked over from the side of the casino.

This middle-aged man who was 1.78 meters tall, wore a gray vest, and his arms were so muscular that it was obvious that he had a long beard. He looked even older than his actual age.

After the middle-aged man came to the front and back of the cloud note, he immediately said to the cloud note, “Then young lady, what do you want to buy from me?”

After that, the middle-aged man narrowed his eyes and looked at the cloud note.

“It depends on what you have here!” The cloud paper’s expression did not change at all.

After she finished speaking, she raised her leg and kicked the stool in front of her. The empty stool crashed into the greasy old man who was sitting on the stool that had been hit by Grandpa Mao’s backpack.

“Bang!” The two stools collided with each other.

The greasy uncle had not recovered from the shock just now.

At this moment, the bag that contained Grandpa Mao had not even been emptied by Grandpa Mao before it was accurately thrown in front of the middle-aged man.

From the moment Yun Zhi kicked the stool until now, she had not even moved her eyes away from the middle-aged man.

However, she had grasped the strength of her leg to the extreme. Without any deviation, she had used the stool to throw Grandpa Mao to the feet of the middle-aged man!

When the surrounding gamblers, including the greasy uncle and the middle-aged man, saw this, their pupils constricted and they were shocked!

“This money is all yours. Bring me the best equipment you have here.”

Yun Jian's cold words made the middle-aged man blink his eyes.

Her backpack was half the size of her body. The total amount of Grandpa Mao in this backpack should be at least a million.

The middle-aged man used his right thumb to lightly press his lips together. He smiled and his sharp gaze was fixed on Yun Jian. However, he spoke to his subordinate standing behind him:

“Go, take out the best guy in the warehouse!”

The middle-aged man's subordinate immediately agreed and turned around to run towards the warehouse.

When the casino's gamblers saw this scene, especially the group of gamblers who were teasing Yun Jian led by the greasy uncle, they were all stunned with all kinds of shocked faces.

First of all, how did this teenage girl know that this casino sold equipment privately? ?

Second of all, she was just a little girl. What was the use of spending so much money to buy arms? ?

Just as everyone was puzzled, the middle-aged man's subordinate had already returned from the warehouse. At the same time, he placed a large pile of weapons on an empty chess table.

“You can choose for yourself.”The middle-aged man gestured to Yun Jian.

All the gamblers in the casino stopped in their tracks and stared at Yun Jian.

Everyone watched as Yun Jian walked towards the pile of firearms — various types of pistols, rifles, submachine guns, automatic rifles, assault rifles, and so on.

If Yun Jian could distinguish the best weapons among so many, then he must be someone who knew a lot about firearms.

Everyone was waiting to see Yun Jian's decision.

Unexpectedly, Yun Jian walked up to the pile of guns and picked out two handguns, one rifle, and ten handbullets. He put them into his schoolbag and left without saying anything.

A group of gamblers who didn't know anything about guns saw this and were shocked.

Suddenly, they saw the middle-aged man looking at Yun Jian's back as he left. He shook his head and said in a funny tone, "Yun Jian..."

"The only two high-performance pistols and a top-notch rifle that I have here were taken away by her just like that. Back then, in order to bring these three things back to the country, I had to put in a lot of effort..."

2612 Chapter 2612: you actually want to go to the top of the dragon-concealing mountain

The middle-aged man's words made all the gamblers present feel a kind of shock towards Yun Jian Teng.

He came and went in a hurry. This was the case for small-scale arms deals.

...

It was already 1:30 in the afternoon when Yun Jian returned to the martial arts club.

After she returned to the martial arts club, she placed her backpack on the long table in the martial arts club.

At this moment, Mo Bufan walked over.

"President, I've already helped you contact the tour group. You can set off tomorrow. You just need to ask for a leave from school." After Mo Bufan finished his important words, he paused for a moment before continuing:

"A friend that I know just happens to be going to the dragon veiling mountain this time. He's the tour guide. Tell him where you're going. He's quite familiar with the Dragon Veiling Mountain and will guide you there."

Mo Bufan's words made Yun Jian purse her red lips and nod lightly. "Thank you."

"Hey, what's there to thank? You're from the martial arts club, so you're family. There's no need to thank me!" Mo Bufan chuckled.

Mo Bufan, who was highly sought after by the girls of Jiang City University of electronics and technology, and even the female university students who used knowing him as a way to show off, was submissive to Yun Jian.

If people knew about this, they would be half-dead envious.

...

Early the next morning, Yun Jian went to sign up for a tour group.

Those who followed tour groups usually went with a group. If they were going to travel to a certain place, it was best not to go with a tour group because there were many restrictions on traveling in a group. Basically, they would not enjoy themselves too much.

One advantage of following a tour group was that they would not find the wrong place to travel.

Yun Jian was not a tourist. She only needed to find the right place and not take any detours, so she chose to follow a tour group.

At this time, before everyone had arrived, Yun Jian sat on a bench at the side and waited silently.

“They’re here! Everyone has gathered here!” Until the tour guide waved to everyone and signaled for them to gather.

On the way to the cloud province’s dragon-concealing mountain.

Yun Jian sat in the last row of seats on the bus.

There were groups of people in groups of twos and threes all around, chattering and shouting excitedly.

Yun Jian sat at the back, looking a little lonely.

Originally, Yun Jian decided to go with Lan Su to the dragon-concealing mountain. However, after learning the truth, she decided to go alone.

“Are you the girl called Yun Jian that Bu fan entrusted me to take care of? Hello, I’m the tour guide for this trip. My surname is Gu. You can call me big brother Gu like everyone else!”

“Sister, you can tell me anything you need along the way. I can give you directions wherever you want to go. Bu fan entrusted me to take care of you. There’s no need to be polite with me!”

Yun Jian, who was looking out of the window, suddenly heard a male voice.

When she heard this, she turned her head to look.

She saw a young man in his thirties with a tiger tattoo on his arm smiling at her.

Brother Gu was mo bu fan's friend from the tour group.

"Hello, thank you," Yun Jian replied briefly.

"Brother Gu, quick! Look for the plastic bag! Someone is going to vomit!" Someone in front of the bus shouted anxiously.

Hearing this, Big Brother Gu quickly said goodbye to Yun Jian and ran towards the bus.

...

The journey was very smooth.

When they arrived at the hotel, everyone checked into the hotel under Big Brother Gu's arrangement.

This hotel in Yun province was built with bamboo, very much in line with the unique atmosphere of the ethnic minorities in Yun Province.

When the foot stepped on the hotel stairs, it could make a light creaking sound.

After the arrangements were made, everyone returned to the hotel after dinner. Yun Jian went straight to the front desk.

Standing at the front desk was a young girl who was about the same age as Yun Jian. This young girl was wearing the service of her own people in Yun Province. She wore a Miao hat on her head and many small jewelry hung on her clothes.

When she walked, these small jewelry would make a crisp rustling sound when they collided with each other.

"Hello..." the young girl smiled when she saw Yun Jian walking toward her.

"I'd like to inquire about how to get to the top of Dragon Veiling Mountain," Yun Jian said directly.

Unexpectedly, when the young girl heard Yun Jian's words, her hand paused. In the next second, the abacus in the young girl's hand suddenly slipped from her hand onto the table. Her face was full of fear as if she had recalled something horrifying. She exclaimed loudly,

"You want to go to the top of the dragon-concealing mountain!"

2613 Chapter 2613. Welcome to the team. There were five of them now

When the girl heard Yun Jian's words, her face was filled with fear, as if she had been scared out of her wits.

Seeing this, Yun Jian's expression remained the same.

She naturally knew the reason why the girl was so shocked and frightened.

It was as if someone had cursed the mountaintop of dragon veiling mountain.

It was rumored that those who entered the mountaintop were either dead or crippled!

Many adventurers and explorers had gone to the mountaintop of Dragon Veiling Mountain to search for the truth, but all of them had lost their lives here.

While the young girl was still in shock, a woman who was more mature than the young girl and dressed similarly to the young girl pulled the young girl behind her and smiled at Yun Jian:

"I'm sorry, because some time ago, a few adventurers went to the top of Dragon Veiling Mountain, but only one person returned here, and that person...

"Has gone mad."

"My daughter was scared by the person who came back from the Dragon Veiling Mountain, so when she heard the news about the top of the Dragon Veiling Mountain, she lost control."

This woman was obviously much more mature than the young girl.

Hearing this, Yun Jian nodded slightly.

"I suggest that you don't go to the top of the dragon veiling mountain. It's definitely not a fun place. Look at the young man sitting on the bench at the door. He was the only one who came back alive when he went to the top of the dragon veiling mountain last time. In the end, he went mad."

The woman pointed at the young man sitting on a bench at the entrance, shaking his head and body.

When the tourists who came here with Yun Jian heard the woman's words, they looked at the young man sitting at the entrance with fear and curiosity.

They saw the young man counting his fingers again and again, staring at his eyes that were bigger than a dead fish. He shook his head in fear and muttered,

"It's dead! It's... It's dead! It's a big monster! There's a big monster! It's scary... Run! Run! Quickly run! !!"

The young man, who should be no different from a normal person, had completely gone mad!

He kept repeating the movements of his hands and the words that came out of his mouth over and over again.

"Thank you for the Reminder." Seeing this, Yun Jian narrowed his eyes slightly.

In the end, she turned around and walked out of the door with her backpack on her back. Just as she was about to walk out of the door, she turned to look at the woman and said,

"But I have to go to the top of Hidden Dragon Mountain."

The woman shook her head when she saw how persistent Yun Jian was. In the end, she sighed and said, "Alright, then be careful! I have a map here that leads to the entrance to the top of Hidden Dragon Mountain."

After getting the map, Yun Jian left the hotel without hesitation. He didn't even inform Big Brother Gu and went all the way to the entrance to the top of the Veiled Dragon Mountain.

This was a cave that stretched as far as the eye could see. No one knew what was on the other side of the cave.

Just as Yun Jian was about to step forward, a voice came from behind him.

"Wait! Are you going to the top of the Veiled Dragon Mountain Too? Let's Be Partners!"

A voice sounded, and Yun Jian turned around.

He saw a few familiar faces.

"Ha, we came with you on the tour bus. When we came, I saw you looking at the window, so you probably didn't pay much attention to us. Hello, my name is Zhou Ba Pi, also known as 'Zhou Ba Pi'. You can call me brother Ba Pi."

The Fat Man Standing at the front, who was about 1.69 meters tall and weighed 160 kilograms, patted his belly and said.

"If you are going to the top of the dragon-concealing mountain, just one," a handsome man standing at the side, who was 1.8 meters tall and looked cold, said to Yun Jian.

The only girl in the team blinked at Yun Jian and said with a smile, "Welcome to join us! This way, there will be five of us!"

2614 Chapter 2614 snakes blocked the way

The Man and the last girl were called Zhang Xunfei and Wang Lei.

Zhang Xunfei, Wang Lei, Zhou Bapi, and another man all welcomed Yun Jian's participation.

Zhang Xunfei was obviously the leader of this group of four.

As for the last person, his name was Dong Wenming. Dong Wenming specialized in electronic devices. He was good at using electronics to connect signals, maintain contact with the outside world, or use electronics to solve riddles.

Therefore, Dong Wenming wore a pair of eyes and had a cultured look on his face.

Yun Jian originally did not want to team up with anyone, but Zhang Xunfei and the others told him that they had a specific route map to the top of the dragon-concealing mountain, so Yun Jian decisively agreed.

The group walked toward the pitch-black cave.

After both parties met once, they became familiar with each other.

Wang Lei, the girl who invited Yun Jian to join them just now, pointed her flashlight at the route and asked Yun Jian with interest,

"Hey, Yun Jian, why did you insist on going to Hidden Dragon Mountain?"

Wang Lei's question didn't get a response.

"This kind of thing, it's good that everyone knows about it. If there's nothing else, don't ask. The girl might be like us, and have some unspeakable secrets." Fatty Zhou Bawu gently pushed Wang Lei and said.

"That's right, that's right! It was me who asked carelessly, Haha!" Wang Lei did not mind Yun Jian not replying at all.

However, after a moment of silence, Wang Lei still could not help but say, "Yun Jian, you came here alone. If you didn't meet us, wouldn't you have entered the mountain alone? Aren't you afraid?"

"I'm not afraid," Yun Jian replied at this time.

“Do you think everyone is like you? Are You Afraid?”Fatty Zhou Ba interrupted again.

“Okay, okay, okay! I got it. If it wasn’t for... I wouldn’t have come to this damn place. It’s so scary,”Wang Lei said.

Then, for a long time, no one spoke.

When everyone was halfway there, Zhang Xunfei, who was walking in the front, suddenly shone his flashlight on a black thing.

Yun Jian’s eyes moved. She had noticed it long ago.

“PFFT! PFFT! PFFT!”At this moment, the object that was shone on in the darkness suddenly flew up, giving everyone a fright.

“What, what is it!”Wang Lei’s face changed in fright.

“Black bat. It perches at the top of the cave. This kind of bat won’t bite people. It just looks a little scary. Don’t bother about it,”yun Jian said indifferently when Wang Lei and the others were all severely frightened.

After saying that, she replaced Zhang Xunfei, who was the leader, and was the first to walk forward.

As soon as she came out of the cave, she saw a large paradise.

There were flowers and grass, and because no one was in charge of it, it was abnormally beautiful.

“Is this... really the dragon-concealing mountain that everyone said was full of dangers?!”Wang Lei ridiculed in disbelief.

“Alright, stop lamenting. We need to hurry.”Fatty Zhou Bawu urged.

Just as everyone took two steps forward.

“Lizard lizard –”

A terrifying sound came from the bushes.

When everyone heard this, their expressions changed.

This...

This sound was...

“Snake! It’s a snake!”Zhou Bawu’s expression changed.

As if responding to Zhou Bawu’s voice, countless huge snakes that were as big as a person’s arm suddenly flew out from the bushes. Following that, more and more snakes flew out from the bushes.

The snake groups that flew out from the bushes one after another gave everyone present a huge fright.

“Lizard lizard –“at this moment, the snake groups stuck out their tongues and surrounded everyone present in a circle.

“Cobras! These are cobras! There are more than a hundred of them!”Fatty Zhou Bawu was given a huge fright and shouted loudly.

“It’s over! How did we encounter a group of Cobras as soon as we entered the mountain! Do We still have a chance to survive...”Wang Lei’s expression changed drastically.

“Don’t panic. Listen to my command. We’ll run together later!”Zhang Xunfei narrowed his eyes. The sweat on his forehead revealed his panic at this moment.

Just when everyone thought that they would definitely be bitten by the group of snakes and planned to run all the way and gamble wildly, Yun Jian suddenly took out a bottle of diesel from her backpack and a grenade from her backpack, while everyone was looking at her in shock until her face turned green, she poured the diesel into the snakes that had surrounded them. Then, she easily bit open the grenade and calmly said to Zhang Xunfei and the others who were already dumbfounded,

“If you want to live, in three seconds, run as fast as you can towards the south. If these snakes dare to block my way, don’t even think about living!”

2615 Chapter 2615: Human Bones by the roadside

Zhang Xunfei, Wang Lei, Dong Wendong, and Zhou Bapi were not ordinary people. They were different from ordinary people.

The four of them listened to Yun Jian’s words, and the surrounding snakes were burned to death by Yun Jian with diesel fuel.

They had been worried that they would run into a group of snakes when they ran.

After all, there were hundreds of snakes coming out of the bushes!

Now that there were no obstacles, the four of them started to run.

Only when they reached the open area did Zhang Xunfei and the other two heave a sigh of relief.

“Where’s Yun Jian? Is she here yet?” After running to a relatively open area where there were fewer weeds, Wang Lei looked behind her and her face darkened when she didn’t see Yun Jian following them.

“Didn’t you notice that she’s following us?” Fatty Zhou Ba gasped the loudest. He bent down to support his knees as he panted.

The other two shook their heads when they heard that.

“I’m going back to save her.” After waiting for about ten minutes, Yun Jian still didn’t catch up to them. Zhang Xunfei, the leader of the four, turned around and was about to leave.

Wang Lei was one step faster than Zhang Xunfei. She reached out and grabbed the corner of Zhang Xunfei’s shirt:

“No! You Can’t forget why we came here! If the mission fails, we’ll die, but we’re not the only four of us!

“Those people have taken control of our family. If we don’t get what we want, won’t our family...”

Wang Lei’s voice became softer and softer.

Just as Wang Lei finished speaking, a series of sounds came from the direction where the four of them had come from.

Yun Jian carried her large backpack and walked over without a trace of filth on her body.

“Yun Jian! You... You Heard Everything?” Wang Lei’s expression changed slightly.

Zhang Xunfei, Zhou Bapi, and the others also swallowed hard.

Wang Lei, Zhang Xunfei, and the others had secrets.

If it was a normal girl, after hearing Wang Lei’s words, she would have rushed up and asked why Wang Lei and the others did not turn back to save her.

Or perhaps, after knowing that Wang Lei and the others had secrets, she would pester Wang Lei and the others to reveal their secrets.

However, Yun Jian did not. She carried a backpack on her back and bypassed Wang Lei and the others without any change in her expression. "It's time to continue on our journey."

"Yun Jian, aren't you angry?" Wang Lei looked at Yun Jian and turned around following his footsteps. She asked with some shock.

"If it were me, I would do the same." Yun Jian did not turn around. She only lightly replied.

Wang Lei was really speechless after hearing this. She opened her mouth but did not say anything in the end. The group of people carried their own luggage and continued to walk.

Other than the hundreds of cobras that suddenly appeared after entering the cave, there was no other danger along the way.

Although the mountain path wasn't easy to walk on, the group spent two hours and finally arrived at a place not far from the top of the dragon-concealing mountain.

For the next hour, the group walked quite smoothly. However, they saw many animal bones being thrown into the grass as they climbed up the slope.

"What? There's no danger! Why do people outside say that those who enter the mountain are either dead or disabled? I really don't understand!"

Fatty Zhou Ba was a lively person. He held a weed in his mouth out of boredom and walked up the mountain while panting.

"Fatty, shut up. Remember to stay alert at all times!" Zhang Xunfei berated him. Then, he looked at the cloud note and said to him,

"I think it's eerily quiet here. Did you find anything else?"

Yun Jian did not respond to Zhang Xunfei's question at first.

Everyone had followed Yun Jian all the way, so they knew her personality.

She did not reply, which meant that she did not want to bother with him.

Just when everyone thought that Yun Jian would not speak, Yun Jian suddenly pursed her red lips and said something that made everyone's hair stand on end:

"What was randomly placed in the grass by the mountain road was not an animal, but a human skeleton."

2616 Chapter 2616 the black-robed man appeared. She was the woman

Suddenly, the voice of the cloud note rang out. Along the way, it was so quiet that it was frightening. Zhang Xunfei, Zhou Bapi, Wang Lei, and Dong Wenming stopped in their tracks, with a cold expression, they looked at the bones that had been randomly thrown into the grass by the side of the mountain road.

Those bones had all fallen apart. They could only vaguely see that they were a pile of scattered bones.

Under normal circumstances, when one saw this pile of bones, coupled with the fact that they were on a mountain, normal people would think that it was a pile of animal bones.

Yun Jian's words immediately shocked everyone.

"What did you say? ! All we've seen along the way... are all human bones!" Wang Lei cried out in shock.

"Yun Jian, why did you say that they were human bones? !" As the leader, Zhang Xunfei turned his head to look at Yun Jian with a fierce frown.

Although the Fatty Zhou Bapu was also terrified, he was clearly much calmer than Wang Lei.

At that time, Zhou Bapu looked at Yun Jian and said, "If these are all human bones, then these bones... could they be the bones of the people who died in dragon veiling mountain when they entered Dragon Veiling Mountain!"

After Zhou Bapu said this, everyone's faces sank. They were completely shocked by Zhou Bapu's prediction.

At this moment, Yun Jian pointed at a huge skull beside the mountain road. Before everyone was sure that the skull beside the mountain road was actually a human skull, he said calmly,

"That's a human skull, a human skull and an animal skull. You should be able to distinguish them, right?"

After Yun Jian said this, Wang Lei directly grabbed the arm of the Fatty Zhou Bawu, who was closest to her, and cried out in fear,

"Ah! Ah Ah Ah! It's a human! That, that's a human head! What we saw along the way must be a human skeleton! What kind of place is this! How could this be..."

Wang Lei's exclamation made the other three people, except for Yun Jian, feel suffocated.

Just as Wang Lei and the other three were trembling in fear, Yun Jian suddenly flipped over and entered the grass that was filled with human skeletons.

This scene thoroughly frightened Wang Lei and the other three.

She was a young girl, wasn't she afraid of the skeletons in the bushes? !

Just thinking about it made their hair stand on end. As for Yun Jian...

She actually directly jumped into the bushes filled with human skeletons!

At first, Wang Lei still felt that she and Zhang Xunfei had an unspeakable secret, and it was hard to believe that something had happened to them.

But now, Yun Jian's strange actions were so mysterious that it was surprising.

What kind of past had she encountered? !

Wang Lei and the others were stunned.

While they were stunned, Yun Jian had already jumped out of the grass filled with the corpses of the dead. She rubbed her right hand gently, as if she was feeling the bones that she had touched just now.

"Yun Jian, did you just... ?" Wang Lei asked.

As soon as Wang Lei said this, Yun Jian spoke first, "The owners of these bones suffered serious injuries when they were alive."

"You actually know how to perform an autopsy that only a forensic doctor can do! ?" Dong Wenming, who had been holding a laptop in his hand and was silent, suddenly raised his head in shock and looked at Yun Jian as he asked in a daze.

"Yes." Yun Jian nodded slightly.

Then, led by Yun Jian, the group continued to move up the mountain.

However, because of what had happened previously, when the group continued to move up the mountain, a feeling of horror suddenly rose in their hearts.

Except for Yun Jian, the expressions of the other four people all changed.

After another half an hour, the five people finally arrived at the top of the dragon-shielding mountain.

The journey to the dragon-shielding mountain did not seem to be very dangerous, but it gave off a creepy feeling.

It was as if something shocking was waiting for them.

At the peak of the dragon-shielding mountain, there was a huge palace, and in front of the palace, there was a large-scale arena.

The architectural style of this large-scale arena was similar to the Xianxia Game Arena in modern online games.

If everything here looked so ordinary, as ordinary as the peak of an ordinary mountain, then the dried blood on this large-scale arena.., gave people a sense of fear that came from the depths of their souls.

This large-scale arena was covered in countless amounts of blood. Because no one cleaned it up all year round, the dried blood not only turned black and red.., one could even smell the rotten smell and bloody smell of the dried blood on this large-scale battle arena from afar.

“Urgh –“Wang Lei could not help but turn her head and retch when she saw this scene.

At this moment, everyone saw more than ten black-robed men who wore black robes from head to toe appearing directly in front of the large-scale battle arena!

And in front of the black-robed men stood a woman with an enchanting figure.

That woman was clearly the leader of this group of black-robed men!

Under the gaze of Yun Jian, Wang Lei, and the others, the woman slowly turned around.

The moment he saw the woman’s face, Yun Jian frowned fiercely in front of Wang Lei and the others and called out to the woman, “Shen Ji!”

“Shen Ji!”

2617 Chapter 2617 was trapped in the circle and came to seek revenge

The moment the woman turned around, Yun Jian’s eyes moved slightly, but the corners of his brows could not help but furrow.

That's right, this woman was Shen Ji, who came out of the dark soul organization with Yun Jian!

The leader of the soul-devouring organization, Shen Ji!

She was Shen Ji, who had gone to the battlefield with Yun Jian not long ago!

"Yun Jian, do you know this... This Woman?" Wang Lei resisted the nausea that she wanted to retch. She half-covered her mouth, looked at Shen Ji with a surprised expression, and asked Yun Jian.

Zhou Bapi, Zhang Xunfei, and Dong Wenming were also stunned.

Could Yun Jian know this woman standing in front of them?

Just as Wang Lei and the other three were starting to be shocked that Shen Ji and the dozen black-robed men would suddenly appear and suspect Yun Jian's identity, Yun Jian ignored Wang Lei and walked toward Shen Ji, who was standing in front of the dozen black-robed men.

Yun Jian's expression had only changed slightly when she first saw Shen Ji, but it returned to normal at this moment. As she walked, she heard a calm voice coming from her throat as usual:

"Are you in cahoots with them?"

They were naturally referring to the mysterious man.

Wang Lei and the other three did not know why, but their hearts skipped a beat. Immediately after, they saw Shen Ji curl up her cold lips and look at Yun Jian as well. She spoke to Yun Jian in public:

"006, you are still the same as before. You can still maintain your initial calmness after learning such a shocking thing."

These words could be considered as silently agreeing with Yun Jian's guess.

Hearing this, Yun Jian narrowed his eyes.

In the next second, she let go of her tightly knitted brows and laughed lightly.

The moment she saw Shen Ji, she even gave up on using the nickname of Shen Ji as usual.

"So, you are waiting for me here."

Under the gaze of Wang Lei and the others, Yun Jian walked lightly and slowly came to the circle of the large-scale arena. She raised her eyes and looked straight at Shen Ji. Even Wang Lei and the others could see the murderous intent reflected in Yun Jian's eyes.

What puzzled Wang Lei and the others was the meaning of Yun Jian's words...

She knew this woman?

And what did 006 mean?

Why was this woman called Yun Jian 006?

"That's right." In front of everyone, Shen Ji stared at Yun Jian and walked into the large-scale arena.

"006, I said that I would surpass you. In terms of strength, I will surpass you one day! I will definitely fulfill what I said!"

The moment Shen Ji walked into the large-scale arena, she glared at Yun Jian and said.

Yun Jian narrowed his eyes. She slipped the backpack on her shoulder and threw it out of the large-scale arena.

The backpack was thrown out of the large-scale arena by Yun Jian and dropped on the ground.

At this time, Wang Lei and the others were surprised to find that Yun Jian flipped his hands and saw two shiny butterfly knives appear by her side.

"You know, I never allow betrayal." Yun Jian had just raised his head slightly, and under his bangs, his originally pitch-black eyes were suddenly dyed red with blood!

"I will not lose!" After the fairy finished speaking, a long knife suddenly appeared in her hand, and she ran crazily towards Yun Jian.

The butterfly knife and the long knife brushed past each other, emitting a series of sparks and the sound of friction.

This scene caused an uproar among Wang Lei and the other three.

However, the dozen or so mysterious people on the opposite side did not show the slightest change in their expressions.

“Tutututututu!” At this moment, countless blades suddenly appeared around this large-scale martial arts arena. These blades surrounded this large-scale martial arts arena.

“006, you can’t escape.” Shen Ji’s eyes darkened. She suddenly put away the long knife and stood back.

A powerful spiritual power came out from this large-scale battle arena. The huge spiritual power was like a thin film, forming a semicircle that wrapped around the huge battle arena, trapping Yun Jian in the circle and preventing him from leaving.

Yun Jian’s eyes moved fiercely, and she took two steps back.

“Hehehe!” At this moment, a sinister laughter suddenly sounded.

A mysterious person suddenly stood up from where the dozen or so mysterious people were. He looked at the cloud token with endless hatred in his eyes.

“You, do you still remember me? No, you haven’t seen me, but you must have seen my elder brother, Lord Jiuhuang. He was killed by you!”

Therefore, this black-robed person was here to seek revenge on the cloud token!

2618 Chapter 2618: The Death of Shen Ji

There was indeed a third divine artifact hidden in the Dragon Shield Mountain.

However, based on the current situation, the third divine artifact hidden in the Dragon Shield mountain had definitely been taken away by the mysterious person.

And this place had also been set up with an inescapable net.

All they had to do was wait for the cloud tablet to arrive and catch it all in one fell swoop!

After the cloud tablet entered this large-scale arena, a thin layer of spiritual energy barrier emerged around the semi-circular arena. This was enough to prove that the mastermind behind everything was the mysterious person.

And waiting for Yun Jian here were Shen Ji and the younger brother of Lord Jiuhuang, who claimed that his head had been twisted off by Si Yi some time ago!

The black-robed man who claimed to be Lord Jiuhuang’s younger brother was called Lin Wu.

When Lin Wu saw Yun Jian standing inside the semi-circular barrier that was wrapped in spiritual energy and leaning back, he once again laughed out loud:

“This is the spiritual power that my lord has newly bestowed upon me. With the combination of ten thousand times the amount of medicinal liquid, even if you are the sorcerer God of the Imperial Dragon Continent, you won’t be able to break free! Today, you’re dead meat!”

From the faint spiritual power barrier that obviously did not belong to earth that had trapped Yun Jian, to everything that happened after that.

They were all informing Wang Lei, Zhou Bapi, Zhang Xunfei, and Dong Wenming that what they were seeing was already out of reality and out of science!

This was like a sci-fi movie in a Movie! No, it was even scarier than a sci-fi movie in a Movie!

Wang Lei and the other three were so scared that their faces were twitching.

“Master Lin Wu, you don’t need to do anything to kill her. I alone Am Enough!” Shen Ji, who was standing in the barrier with Yun Jian, said at this moment.

Shen Ji looked at Yun Jian with a strong killing intent in her eyes.

“Good! Since you’ve already obtained a portion of my spiritual power, then it’s up to you, Shen Ji, to defeat her!” Lin Wu narrowed his eyes and looked at Yun Jian as if he was looking at a dead person.

Shen Ji had obtained a portion of Lin Wu’s spiritual power, and it was given to her by Lin Wu.

Its main purpose was to allow Shen Ji to use the spiritual power he had given her to escape after she had brought Yun Jian into the large-scale martial arts arena.

Only the sorcerer God of the Imperial Dragon Continent would die in this large-scale martial arts arena!

Moreover, Lin Wu had spent all his spiritual power on setting up the enchantment. If the cloud paper managed to escape from the enchantment, or if he were to deal with the cloud paper alone, he would really be beaten up by the cloud paper!

“006, this is my last challenge to you.” Shen Ji raised her hands and placed the long saber on her shoulder as she looked at the cloud paper.

Yun Jian held the two butterfly knives in her hands and said happily, “I accept your challenge.”

At this moment, this scene was similar to the battle between Shen Ji and Yun Jian in the dark soul organization. Only one of them could live.

Just like before, they were trapped in a large cage. Only the person who died in the battle had the right to leave the cage alive.

However, the cage had become a barrier cast with spiritual power.

Other than that, it was the same battle as before, the same situation as before, and the same battlefield where only one person would survive.

Shen ji brandished her long saber and started the battle without any warning. She slashed the long saber at Yun Jian's body.

Yun Jian dodged to the side to avoid Shen Ji's slash.

She turned around and wrapped her arm with a backhand.

Shen Ji turned around and flipped to the back.

Both of them were from the dark soul organization. In a real battle, their strengths were on par.

After all, while Shen Ji regarded Yun Jian as her only opponent in the world, Yun Jian also regarded her as his only opponent.

The two of them had grown into the strongest secret agent assassins under such competitive conditions!

The killer moves one after another shocked Wang Lei, Zhang Xunfei, and the others!

The two of them exchanged blows for a full five minutes.

Lin Wu saw Yun Jian roll over and Dodge Shenji's attack. He went behind Shenji and tried to insert the butterfly knife into her back. He had no time to care about other things. Shenji was about to lose the battle.

Lin Wu raised his hand and used his spiritual power to manipulate the blade inside the barrier to attack where Yun Jian was!

The blade after blade was enough to kill Yun Jian when Yun Jian had no time to care about other things!

Lin Wu's smile grew deeper.

"Oh my God! Yun Jian, run!" Wang Lei cried out in fear.

However, the blade was already close to Yun Jian's side.

Just when everyone thought that Yun Jian would die here, Shen Ji suddenly turned around and fiercely grabbed Yun Jian's wrist. She held the long blade in her hand and fiercely stabbed it at Yun Jian's neck!

The long knife came to Yun Jian's neck and was about to pierce into Yun Jian's body.

Shen Ji used the spiritual power that she used to open the enchantment to open a passage that was only enough for one person to leave. She threw the long knife away with her other hand and grabbed the Yun Jian, throwing it out of the passage that was enough for one person to leave.

At the moment when her heart was pierced by thousands of arrows, Shen Ji revealed a regretful smile to Yun Jian.

As if she had confidently said "I will surpass you" to Yun Jian countless times, the corner of her mouth slightly rose under her seductive face.

Countless blades pierced through her internal organs. She looked at Yun Jian who was safely sent out of the barrier. She licked the blood flowing out of the corner of her mouth and said regretfully to Yun Jian,

"I lost.

"I've been out of the organization for so many years, but I still can't surpass you.

"It seems that... I'll never have the chance to challenge you again in this life.

"But... I still want to say something to you.

"006, I'll definitely surpass you! ! If there's an afterlife... I'll definitely..."

2619 Chapter 2618 the beginning of fate, the end of life

If Lin Wu didn't cheat midway, Yun Jian's knife would have pierced into Shen Ji's back.

Lin Wu cheated Midway, and Shen Ji could have used this to sneak an attack and win against Yun Jian.

She had a choice, a chance to win against Yun Jian.

But she didn't have the confidence.

Perhaps in Shen Ji's values, only if she won against Yun Jian Fair and square one-on-one would it be considered a victory.

However, she had pursued a short life, and at the end of her life, she still could not surpass Yun Jian.

She knew that if Lin Wu did not intervene, she would not even be able to get close to Yun Jian.

However, she had lost the last battle.

It was such a pity that she did not have a chance.

Shen Ji felt that her internal organs were in extreme pain. She felt that her eyelids were very heavy, as if she was going to fall asleep at any moment.

Yun Jian was thrown out of the barrier. She half-knelt on the ground with one knee. Her pupils contracted slightly, and the thing in her hand rubbed her palm, causing it to spurt out endless blood.

Because the force of holding the thing in her hand was too fierce, the palm of Yun Jian's hand flowed with thick blood. The blood that flowed out of her palm seemed to never stop, looking from afar, Wang Lei, Zhang Xunfei, and the others' hearts jumped.

They had thought that it was just a show of betrayal of a friend, but who would have thought that such a huge reversal would happen in the end.

Just as Wang Lei, Zhang Xunfei, and the others took a deep breath, thinking that Yun Jian would collapse and cry after seeing this scene like a normal teenage girl.

Yun Jian suddenly stood up. She still maintained her expressionless face. She raised her eyes to look at Shen Ji in the large-scale martial arts arena. Suddenly, she hooked up a smile that made the world lose its luster.

Just as Wang Lei, Zhang Xunfei, and the others were surprised that Yun Jian could still smile at such a moment and felt that she was so heartless, Yun Jian took two steps forward. Three seconds before Shen Ji closed her eyes..., she learned from the first time she met Shen Ji and refuted her words:

"No matter how many lives you live, you will always be my defeated opponent!"

"I will wait for You and remember your promise. You are the only opponent for me, 006!"

Yun Jian had never admitted that she considered Shen Ji as her opponent in front of Shen Ji.

It was also because of this that Shen Ji was unwilling. She wanted to surpass Yun Jian. After she surpassed Yun Jian, she wanted Yun Jian to say that she considered herself as his opponent.

Just to fight for her honor, Shen Ji had fought for her short life. She had nothing else in her life, and she only hoped that Yun Jian would recognize her personally.

In this way, she would die with no regrets...

Shen Ji had a dream, a very, very long dream that would never wake up again.

In the dream, two girls, who were only seven or eight years old, met for the first time in an iron cage.

The first time they met was when their blades were facing each other. They had no choice.

In the dream, she pointed her blade at the other party and swore loudly, "The person who can walk out of this cage today is me!"

In the dream, the girl, who was covered in blood like her, had a cold look in her eyes. It was as if her body was covered in blood and wounds.

That was the first time she heard her speak. She was expressionless and her voice was very cold as she pointed at the pile of corpses outside the cage and said to her,

"One minute later, you will be like them. You will only be defeated by my blade!"

Because of this sentence, she had changed the fate of her entire life in her dream.

Defeated. These four words had exhausted her entire life.

It was the beginning of fate, and also the end of life.

...

2620 Chapter 2619, what method of death do you want to try

"Cloud note..." seeing that the cloud note was tightly clutching something that couldn't be seen from its appearance, Wang Lei opened her mouth in worry.

The current state of the cloud note made Wang Lei afraid.

If the appearance of the cloud note made Wang Lei and the others feel that she was just an innocent teenage girl when they entered the cave tunnel, then at this moment, there were endless doubts about the cloud note.

Wang Lei and the other three had their own motives. Wang Lei and the other three originally thought that they had a very mysterious secret, so it would be hard to believe if they said it out loud.

However, after seeing this scene, Wang Lei and the other three were shocked.

Yun Jian, the secret on her was probably something that the four of them could not compare to!

...

Shen Ji had never betrayed her, never.

The thing in Yun Jian's hand was an ancient bronze wooden hairpin.

The wooden hairpin was something that women used to wear in their hair in ancient times.

And the thing in Yun Jian's hand was the third divine weapon besides the wooden sandalwood box and wooden fan!

It was secretly stuffed into Shen Ji's hand when she threw the yun jian out of the large arena that was covered by a huge barrier during the battle with Shen Ji just now.

As soon as the wooden hairpin entered his hand, the cloud paper felt a strong spiritual power. It was Xing Feng's aura!

"Damn it! Damn it! Damn it! Shen Ji, how dare you betray my Lord! You deserve to die!"

Seeing this scene, Lin Wu was so angry that he was driven mad. He clenched his fists tightly, and a spiritual power that was obviously not as strong as before flew out of his body and rushed into the large arena that was covered by the barrier.

"Puff! Puff! Puff!"

The corpse of Shen Ji, who was trapped in the large-scale martial arts arena by this powerful barrier, was stabbed by more blades, and her body was completely disfigured!

"How dare you betray my Lord! How dare you betray me! Die! Die! Die!" Lin Wu seemed to have gone crazy, and he began to destroy Shen Ji's body crazily.

The Lord that Lin Wu mentioned was undoubtedly the mysterious person.

However, on the third second when Lin Wu was destroying Shen Ji's body, his spiritual power seemed to have been suddenly intercepted Midway and suddenly stopped at the same spot.

Lin Wu's expression changed drastically.

"Damn it, it's You!"

Just as Lin Wu raised his head, he suddenly saw the girl who was standing in the distance slowly walking over.

Blood dripped down from her palm and splashed all over the way, but Yun Jian seemed to have lost her sense of pain. Her face was expressionless, and the drops of blood dripped wherever she went.

Lin Wu's heart tightened.

The dozen or so black-robed men standing beside Lin Wu attacked Yun Jian one after another.

At this moment, Yun Jian's other hand, which was not holding a wooden hairpin, suddenly lifted up into the air.

"Boom! Boom! Boom!" A spiritual power that was many times stronger than Lin Wu condensed in front of Wang Lei and the others!

"She! She! She! She!" Wang Lei and the other three were so scared that their faces suddenly changed.

However, at the moment when Wang Lei and the other three were so scared that their faces turned green.

That powerful spiritual power had already swept up more than ten black-robed men. At the same time, it crushed the bodies of more than ten black-robed men, except for Lin Wu, like a red tomato, it instantly exploded into a river of blood!

Not even a bone was left!

"Who is she?!"

Zhang Xunfei's expression could not be described with words. Zhang Xunfei, who was the calmest among the four, shouted in surprise.

At this moment, Yun Zhi looked at Lin Wu as blood dripped down. He was still expressionless as he said in a dark voice,

"It's your turn. How Do You Want to Die?"

2621 Chapter 2620: Ten Thousand cuts to vent his anger

Yun Jian's words were extremely terrifying. It shocked Zhang Xunfei and the others, as well as Lin Wu.

Lin Wu had never encountered such a dangerous moment. He felt a sense of fear spreading from the bottom of his heart. A fear that came from the depths of his soul lingered in his body.

Such terrifying strength!

If it weren't for Shen Ji fighting with Yun Jian in the large-scale martial arts arena, it would be even harder to kill Yun Jian than ascending to the heavens!

He had overestimated himself!

He had underestimated Yun Jian!

Even if it wasn't Shen Ji who had attacked just now, Yun Jian might not have died!

Lin Wu took two steps back. Then, he turned around and wanted to escape in a flash.

Just as Lin Wu was about to turn around and run away, a surge of overwhelming spiritual power enveloped the entire world.

Lin Wu had no way to escape from this place.

He widened his eyes in fear.

"You... you..." Lin Wu's pitch-black eyes flashed with an extremely terrifying luster.

His pupils shrank to a point at this moment!

The second Lin Wu saw the cloud tablet slowly approach him.

The cloud tablet that was at least ten meters away from him suddenly approached him.

The cloud tablet did have the ability to make immortal cultivators lose all their spiritual power within three meters.

However, the mysterious man had long developed a potion that could deal with her physique, so it was no longer effective against the mysterious man.

Lin Wu's pupils were constricting violently. He was about to attack Yun Jian again.

The god-destroying blade that suddenly appeared in Yun Jian's hand had already pierced into Lin Wu's body.

She said faintly, but she said something that made Wang Lei and the others tremble in fear:

“Since you don’t choose to die, then I’ll cut your flesh into pieces one by one.”

...

The cloud paper had the upper hand, and in Longmen City, Ye Zhi had just come home from school.

“Mom! Mom! The teacher praised me in class today!” Ye Zhi shouted as soon as she entered the door.

At home, Ye Zhi, Qin yiruo, and Ge Junjian could communicate with each other in normal language.

But in school, she was still afraid of her classmates. The fear of people from the depths of her soul and her inherent timidity could never be changed for ye Zhi.

After all, her birth was unnecessary.

She was lucky to be able to live like this.

“Your parents went out.” The moment ye Zhi rushed into the house, the rich voice of a man suddenly came from the side.

The next second, Yuan Purlin, who was wearing a ghost mask, appeared in front of ye Zhi.

“Oh...” ye Zhi was stunned, then ran to the sofa. She threw her bag aside and left the yuan purlin.

Seeing this, Yuan Lin blinked and followed.

When they arrived at Lan Su’s house, Yezhi entered first. She hugged Lan Su as soon as she entered, then walked to Zhou Yiran’s small room.

The little guy and the little girl were playing with Zhou Yiran.

Yuan Lin saw Yezhi walk into Zhou Yiran’s room and followed her in.

Lan Su didn’t see him.

At this time, Zhou Yiran was taller than the little guy. He pushed the little guy aside with one foot, and held the little girl with the other hand. He held the little girl in his arms very intimately.

“See what delicious food I brought for you!” Yezhi took out a few cookies from her arms and handed them over with a smile.

Yuan Lin looked at the pitiful little guy who was held by Zhou Yiran's toes. He suddenly remembered what Xingfeng had said to him when he traveled back to the present from the future:

"If you see Zhou Yiran, remember to capture him and beat him up. I was bullied by him when I was young!"

2622 Chapter 2621 honorable burial

If he had not guessed wrongly, this little fellow who had been crushed by Zhou Yiran's foot was Xingfeng, who had later taken charge of his own side and traveled through space and time with him unswervingly, never giving up! ?

"Cough!"

Yuan purlin almost chuckled when he saw the little fellow being pressed against the foot of the bed by Zhou Yiran's foot and compared it to Xingfeng's image.

But in the end, Yuan Lin held back his laughter and coughed lightly.

He walked over and picked up Zhou yiran like Xing Feng had instructed.

"What are you doing? ! Are you bullying a child? ! Let Go! Let Go!"Ye Zhi saw Yuan Lin attack Zhou Yiran for no reason. She walked over and grabbed Yuan Lin's sleeve, desperately trying to drag him out of the door.

Yuan Lin had no choice but to let go of ye Zhi's hand.

When he first met ye Zhi, ye Zhi was still very afraid of him.

He did not expect ye Zhi to be bold enough to use her hand to drag him.

Yuan Lin narrowed his eyes. Just as he let go of Zhou Yiran's hand, Zhou Yiran slid back to the bed and kicked Yuan Lin's wrist angrily.

With this kick, Yuan Lin's hand was kicked, and it landed on ye Zhi's plump chest!

Because she did not react at all, when she grabbed Yezhi's chest, Yuan Lin's hand reflexively squeezed!

The air was quiet for a while.

Yuan Lin and Yezhi were both stunned.

Until Yezhi reacted, she reached out and pushed Yuan Lin's hand away. She whispered and ran out. "Pervert! Pervert!"

Yuan Lin, who was standing where she was, was surprised.” ..”but the touch was soft and felt... .. cough, very comfortable.

...

Lin Wu was cut into pieces by Yun Jian after spending an hour.

Wang Lei and the other three were already sitting on the ground, completely shocked by the bloody scene in front of them.

After cutting Lin Wu into pieces, Yun Jian did not even look at Wang Lei and the other three. She took Shen Ji's body away and soon disappeared in front of Wang Lei and the other three.

It was as if she had never been to the dragon-concealing mountain.

...

Shen Ji was from Z country just like Yun Jian.

Yun Jian spent three hours to find Shen Ji's hometown.

She still remembered that there was one time, and it was the only time, when she and Shen Ji leaned shoulder to shoulder and chatted all night.

Shen Ji said that besides surpassing her, she also had a dream, which was to be buried in her hometown after she died, like a normal person, and be buried in the genealogy.

Yun Jian was kidnapped when he was young and entered the dark soul organization.

As for Shen Ji, she ran away from home and voluntarily joined the dark soul organization.

Shen Ji was born into a family that prioritized sons over daughters. Her parents treated her as a slave when she was young and even called her an adopted daughter that they picked up outside.

When she was young, she couldn't take it anymore and ran away from home.

By chance, she entered the dark soul organization.

However, when she joined the dark soul group, she didn't know how cruel the dark soul group was.

Hai Dao Town, Qinghai city.

Hai Dao town was completely different from Xinjiang town. Most of the residents of Hai Dao Town lived by fishing. Although it was a town, it was rich in seafood. Plus, it was a coastal city, so the economic conditions were not bad.

Yun Jian held an urn in his hand and knocked on the door of a courtyard house in sea island town.

The Shenji family still retained the style of an ancient courtyard house, and their lifestyle was still three generations in one. Mother-in-law and daughter-in-law were in the same house, and uncle and sister-in-law were in the same house.

Yun Jian had seen the woman who opened the door in the information. She was the mother of Shenji, Yun Hua.

“You are?” Yun Hua glanced at Yun Jian and saw that it was a girl who knocked on the door, so he asked casually.

Yun Zhi also glanced at Yun Hua. After saying that, he was about to enter the door. “I will bring your daughter into the ancestral hall!”

The ancestral hall was the place where the clansmen worshiped their ancestors or ancestors in ancient times. It was also the place where the patriarch exercised the authority of the clan. If the clansmen violated the rules of the clan, they would be educated and punished here.

Obviously, the style of the Divine Ji family was still the same as in the last century.

Entering the ancestral hall meant that for the clansmen of such a family, they would be buried honorably and recorded in the genealogy.

However, after Yun Zhi finished saying “Her daughter”, Yun Hua’s expression suddenly changed. With a swoosh, she stood in front of Yun Zhi and said with an extremely ugly expression,

“Who are you? ! I’ve never given birth to a daughter before. My family only has three sons, so how can there be a daughter? If you go to someone else’s house and talk nonsense, I’m going to call the police!”

2623 Chapter 2622 doesn’t have the right to enter my ancestral hall

When Yun Hua said this, his eyes flickered, as if someone had exposed something that he had been hiding for many years.

As he said this, he reached out to hold the door, wanting to close the cloud paper outside.

Just as the door was slowly closed by Yun Hua until only a tiny crack was left.

A slender and straight leg suddenly stretched out and pressed against the crack of the door, not allowing Yun Hua to completely close and lock the door.

“What’s going on? Why Are You So Strange? It’s one thing for you to run into someone else’s house and spout nonsense, but do you still want to break into someone else’s house? !”

The first time Yunhua met his eyes, Yunhua was not the kind of unreasonable shrew.

Every person had a bottom line. Perhaps Yun Jian’s words had touched Yunhua’s reverse scale, which caused him to panic.

It was the feeling of a secret that had been hidden for many years suddenly being exposed in front of others.

It was the same feeling that Yunhua had when she was playing on her phone at school and was suddenly discovered by her mother.

Yun Jian, who had her foot pressed against the crack of the door, raised her eyes slightly. Her eyes were cold. Only then did Yunhua look directly into Yun Jian’s eyes. Her heart could not help but tremble violently.

Her eyes were too cold!

“As long as her memorial tablet is placed in the ancestral hall and her name is recorded in the family tree, I will leave.” This was Yun Zhi’s last wish.

Seeing Yun Zhi’s unwilling expression, Yun Hua was afraid that this matter would blow up and cause the old master and old lady in charge to rush out after hearing the news.

Yun Hua swallowed her saliva. She opened the door and walked out. She closed the door half-closed and looked around. Seeing that no one was passing by, Yun Hua counted five hundred RMB from her bosom and placed it on the urn that Yun Jian was holding, she pleaded with Yun Jian:

“It’s not that I’m heartless as a mother. Our Cheng family is only allowed to give birth to boys and not girls. Whoever gives birth to a daughter will be looked down upon by her husband and bullied by her mother-in-law and father-in-law.

“I was also desperate. When the child was lost, I was also afraid. On the day she left, I followed her all the way.

“In the end, I saw her leave with someone who gave her bread. Only then did I feel at ease. Take this money. I really don’t have any money on me. If the daughter-in-law of the Cheng family hides money in her hands, she will be punished by the family law!

“I know I have let my child down, but I have no choice... Please...”

Shen Ji’s surname was originally Cheng.

The Cheng family that Yunhua mentioned was Shen Ji’s family.

In fact, Yunhua’s upper and lower lips were trembling when she heard the news of Shen Ji’s death.

However, after marrying into a feudal ideological family, she did not dare to divorce and was even more afraid of losing everything that she had now.

As the saying goes, a husband follows his wife. Even if Yunhua herself was not a man who valued sons over daughters, she could only obey her in-laws because she was afraid that she would not have a good life in her husband’s family.

Yunhua thought that if she gave Yun Zhi money, Yun Zhi would leave.

Unexpectedly, Yun Zhi held the ashes of Shen Ji with one hand and threw the RMB that Yunhua gave back to her with the other. She said coldly, “I don’t want money.”

“I only want her to enter the Cheng Family Ancestral Hall!”

Yun Jian’s persistence made Yunhua anxious.

Just as Yunhua was anxious, the strong male voice of the Cheng family’s old master came from behind the door:

“Who do you want to enter the Cheng Family Ancestral Hall?”

The half-closed door behind him was opened. An old man in his 70s with Bright Eyes and the aura of a feudal landowner in ancient times was seen, he walked out of the courtyard with a walking stick in his hand.

Behind him was a large group of descendants. They were all men.

The Cheng family’s old man looked at the Yun Zhi with an imposing manner. Under everyone’s gaze, he spoke to the Yun Zhi again:

“Our Cheng family does not have a daughter who is wandering outside! Moreover, she is just a woman. She is not the matriarch of the family. How can she have the right to enter our Cheng family’s ancestral hall?”

2624 Chapter 2623: Yunhua acknowledged her identity as a divine concubine

“Furthermore, who knows what’s in the urn in your hand? !”

The old man’s words carried a powerful aura as he spoke. Even those who didn’t know the situation felt that the old man’s words were reasonable when they heard his words.

In a family, one person valued sons over daughters. If they gave birth to a daughter, there would be no peace.

If both father-in-law and mother-in-law valued sons over daughters, then it would be over!

And you could never imagine how terrifying a family that retained its feudal ideology valued sons.

In all honesty, no old woman from the countryside that Yun Jian had met in the past could compare to the Cheng family’s value of sons.

In the Cheng family, if a daughter-in-law couldn’t give birth to a son, then the men of the Cheng family had the right to find another woman to give birth to a son!

Even the national policy couldn’t do anything about this.

Under the pressure and prestige of the Cheng family’s old master, the descendants of the Cheng family, including Yun Hua, all thought that Yun Jian would turn around and leave.

However, Yun Zhi stepped forward expressionlessly. She didn’t even give the old master a glance. She just walked past the old master and the Cheng family directly into the courtyard house.

“I said, I want her to enter the Cheng Family Ancestral Hall!”

“Cheng Ziyin, on August 6th, 1984, she was born on a rainy night. I want her to be buried in the most glorious form of your Cheng family. The memorial tablet will be placed in your Cheng family ancestral hall and recorded in your Cheng Family Genealogy!”

Yun Zhi held the casket of Shen Ji’s ashes and spoke one word with every step she took. She was very calm and spoke each word as if she had a cold conversation with Shen Ji before. She spoke these heavy words.., to everyone present.

Cheng Ziyin was Shen Ji’s original name. She had long abandoned her surname and name.

Today, Yun Zhi picked up her surname and name and brought her back to the Cheng Family!

She would fulfill the wish of the god Ji and let her be buried as an ordinary person!

After Yun Jian finished speaking, her words were more dignified and arrogant than Cheng family's old man.

After she finished speaking, everyone in the Cheng family let out a huge sigh.

They thought that Cheng family's old man would get angry again after Yun Jian finished speaking.

However, they didn't expect him to suddenly widen his eyes, he stared at the Yun Jian. "You! How did you know that on the rainy night of August 6th, 1984, Yun Hua had a child! Those who knew about it had been fired and left the Cheng family for more than ten years..."

"Besides, isn't that child a dead baby... how..."

Only a few people knew about what happened more than twenty years ago.

But how old was the cloud note, and she could actually find out what happened more than twenty years ago! All of it!

"Plop!"

Just as the old man was puzzled.

Yun Hua suddenly knelt down to the crowd.

"That child, the child is mine! It's mine! Back then, I gave birth to a girl, Ziyin. Ziyin is my biological daughter! She wasn't adopted by me later, she's my biological daughter..." at the end of her sentence, Yunhua suddenly burst into tears.

Twenty years ago, Yunhua gave birth to Shenji. When he found out that he had given birth to a daughter, he found a wet nurse and brought back a dead baby born on the same day. He lied to the Cheng family and told them that the child was dead.

In less than two days, he went to adopt another child. The adopted child was actually Yunhua's biological child, Shenji.

Later, Shenji couldn't bear it anymore and ran away from home. She never came back.

Everyone in the Cheng family was stunned by Yunhua's sudden admission.

“I have let down my child! But what can I do? What can I do? If you knew that I had a girl, would I still have a place in the Cheng Family?”

2625 Chapter 2624 is it enough to enter the Cheng Family Ancestral Hall

Yes, if Yun Hua was exposed about a girl, the Cheng family would only think that she was a sow who could not give birth to a son.

In such a feudal family, once you were judged to be a woman who could not give birth to a son, your husband would leave you and find another woman. Father-in-law, mother-in-law, the whole family looked down on you.

For her own selfish reasons, Yun Hua chose to abandon Shen Ji.

She herself did not value sons over daughters, but she married into a family that valued sons over daughters. She had no other choice.

In ancient times, there were even more families like the Cheng family, and it was not surprising.

Was this a corruption of morality or a lack of humanity?

Originally, Yun Hua would not say it even if she was beaten to death, but since Yun Jian had said it to this extent, Yun Hua understood her father-in-law. She knew that according to the old man’s personality, he would definitely investigate the things that happened back then.

Once he found out, her life would be even worse.

Therefore, Yunhua chose to admit it personally.

“Yunhua, you...” Yunhua’s husband, who was also Shen Ji’s biological father, was also stunned when he heard Yunhua’s words.

The old man and everyone present were shocked.

No one expected that Yunhua, as the biological mother of her child, would actually do such a cruel thing for her own selfish desires!

“I don’t care about your family’s affairs, but today’s ancestral hall is in meditation.” Yun Jian held the casket of Shen Ji’s ashes and listened to the arguments around her, but she didn’t move at all. She walked toward the Cheng family ancestral hall.

“Stop!” The old man didn’t even have time to settle this matter. After hearing Yun Jian’s words, he rushed to Yun Jian with his walking stick and stopped in front of Yun Jian:

“Even if she is really my granddaughter, I won’t allow her to enter this ancestral hall!

“My Cheng family has the Cheng family’s rules. The only people who can enter the ancestral hall are all the men in the Cheng family and the woman who is the mistress of the Cheng Family!”

This sentence was clearly a blatant discrimination against women.

All the men in the Cheng family could enter the ancestral hall and be worshipped by their descendants. However, only one of the women in the Cheng family was qualified to enter the ancestral hall.

Yun Jian’s eyes were filled with awe.

However, this was not the end.

Seeing that Yun Jian was listening to him, the old man added,

“Since ancient times, when men went out to earn money, daughters followed the path of womanhood at home. If daughters can make a name for themselves outside like men, then I have nothing to say about entering the ancestral hall!

“However, in the six hundred years of our Cheng family, there has never been a record of a woman making a name for herself outside! So...”

What the old man meant was that a daughter had no other use than to give birth, get married, and abide by the rules of womanhood at home.

This was because his Cheng family had been living like this for six hundred years.

The old man thought that Yun Jian should stop after hearing this.

But unexpectedly, Yun Jian raised his eyes slightly and looked at everyone who was looking at the old man. “You mean, if she has this achievement, she can enter the ancestral hall!”

The old man was stunned, but he nodded. “Yes! But she is a girl, how can...”

As soon as the old man said this, Yun Jian said coldly, “Come out.”

As soon as he said this, many people suddenly appeared on the roof of the courtyard house. These people jumped down from the roof and stood beside Yun Jian.

At that time, everyone in the Cheng family was shocked. Just when everyone in the Cheng family was confused, Yun Jian suddenly said to everyone in public,

“They are all the subordinates of God Ji.”

“The ACE assassin of the world’s largest assassin organization, codenamed God Ji. The total amount of assets under her name is 30.9 billion US dollars. Is this achievement enough to enter your Cheng family’s ancestral hall?”

2626 Chapter 2625 and she came from the same place

The ACE assassin of the world’s largest assassin organization!

The total amount of assets under their names was 30.9 billion US dollars!

With this achievement, not to mention whether they could enter the Cheng family ancestral hall.

They could even enter and leave the Cheng family ancestral hall tens of thousands of times without any problem!

The Cheng family had never had an outstanding descendant with a total of 30.9 billion US dollars under their names!

That was equivalent to tens of trillions of RMB!

They hadn’t even seen what 100 million looked like!

Yun Jian’s words, coupled with the fact that they had been guarding every corner of the courtyard house since the beginning, no one had noticed their sudden appearance. They were like the ancient assassins who appeared and disappeared without a trace.

Everyone in the Cheng family, including the Cheng family’s old man, were shocked to the core and their faces were pale.

“What... What did you say? !” Old Master Cheng slammed his walking stick on the ground and shouted.

Old Master Cheng couldn’t believe Yun Jian’s words.

“This old man is sister Ji’s grandfather?”

Just when Old Master Cheng Thought Yun Jian was looking for someone to pretend to be her subordinate so that she could enter the Cheng family ancestral hall.

A man who had just jumped off the roof of the courtyard house pulled off the black mask that covered his face.

A young boy's face that looked like he was only seventeen or eighteen years old was revealed.

Although he looked like he was only seventeen or eighteen years old, he was actually twenty-five years old, even older than Shen Ji.

He called Shen Ji "Sister Ji" only because he worked under Shen Ji.

This young man's name was Huan.

Huan looked at the old man rudely and called him "Old Thing" in public.

When the people around heard Huan address the old man, they were slightly shocked and terrified.

The old man was a well-known and serious person in all the villages. If this young man who looked like a seventeen or eighteen-year-old boy was just someone Yun Jian found to put on an act for everyone to see, then...

"There's no need to talk nonsense with such an old man. My Sister Ji is unrivaled in the circle of assassins. She was unwilling to enter the ancestral hall of the Cheng Family!

"If you refuse again, I'll find someone to bomb their ancestral hall!"

Huan swept his eyes in front of the old man and the others. As he spoke, he pulled open the corner of his clothes and took out a revolver from the corner of his clothes. He pointed the muzzle of the revolver at the old man and was about to press his finger on the trigger.

"This gun can't be fake, right?" A man from the Cheng family who thought he was smart and had studied guns in books glanced at the revolver in Huan's hand and couldn't help but ask.

"Damn it, I'll show you the power of this gun!" Huan was so angry that he pulled the trigger when he heard that his gun was being questioned.

Before anyone in the Cheng family could react, a bullet was fired from the muzzle of Huan's gun.

Everyone in the Cheng family was stunned.

Gun!

It was a real gun!

It was a gun that could shoot bullets!

Everyone in the Cheng family was so scared that their faces turned pale. They watched as the bullet shot toward the head of the Cheng family's old master at Lightning Speed!

A bright light flashed in front of everyone's eyes.

In the next second, the bullet collided with a butterfly knife in midair!

The butterfly knife collided with the bullet, and the friction between the two created a fierce spark in the air! In the next second, the impact was neutralized and stopped in midair. Then, both of them fell to the ground with a thud!

Seeing this shocking scene, everyone lost their composure. They all looked in the direction where the butterfly knife had appeared...

Yun Jian walked to the spot where the butterfly knife had collided with the bullet in front of everyone. She picked up the butterfly knife from the ground and turned around to look at the Cheng family members as if nothing had happened. Her words were as cold as ever:

"Don't waste my time. You Can't afford it. Don't think that she's dead. Even if she was once an ace killer, she wouldn't be able to resist you."

"I'm sorry. I'm from the same place as her!"

2627 Chapter 2626: I'll burn them for you

When Huan shot out that gun just now, even if the Cheng family didn't believe that Shenji was an ace assassin from the world's largest assassin organization, they still had to believe that Shenji's assets totaled up to 30.9 billion US dollars.

Huan, he had a gun!

A real gun!

And the cloud note said that Huan was Shenji's subordinate!

This was enough to prove the authenticity of Shen Ji's identity.

Because no ordinary person could carry a gun at any time.

Because Shen Ji was already dead, the Cheng family members felt lucky for a moment.

After all, this person was already dead. No matter how powerful she was in the past, she couldn't do anything to them.

But before they could completely relax, Yun Jian used a butterfly knife to block a bullet!

Using a knife! To do something that an ordinary person couldn't even imagine!

She even stood there and boasted shamelessly that she came from the same place as Shen Ji!

Wasn't Yun Jian's identity the same as Shen Ji's...

"Ha!" Huan sneered when he saw Yun Jian's action, which allowed the stubborn Cheng family's old master to escape.

"Move the things in." Immediately after, when Cheng family's old master, Yun Hua, and everyone in the Cheng family were shocked by the scene in front of them, Yun Jian's indifferent voice sounded.

Move in? Move what?

Everyone present was shocked.

However, as soon as she said this, the people who had been waiting outside the gate entered the Cheng family with box after box of funerary goods.

Yun Jian ignored the Cheng family. She held the casket of Shen Ji's ashes and placed the memorial tablets that had been prepared for Shen Ji on the highest spot in the ancestral hall under the shocked expressions of everyone in the Cheng Family!

"Wait! Wait! We've discussed this and agreed to sacrifice her memorial tablet into the ancestral hall. We'll bury her in glory and record her in the family tree."

"But our Cheng family also has our own rules. The highest spot in the Cheng family's ancestral hall is reserved for the current head of the Cheng Family!"

"After all, she's only a direct descendant and a female..."

Just as the cloud tablet was holding Shen Ji's memorial tablet and placing it on the highest spot in the ancestral hall, a weak middle-aged man's voice sounded.

The weak middle-aged man was none other than Shen Ji's biological father, and also Yunhua's husband, Cheng Bing.

Cheng Bing's status in the Cheng family was very low, and because he was the seventh son of the Cheng family's old master, he had too many sons and couldn't care about him at all.

In addition, Cheng Bing himself was weak and incompetent, so he was practically a dispensable person in the Cheng family.

This time, Cheng Bing spoke out because he was called over by Old Master Cheng.

Towards his father, Old Master Cheng, Cheng Bing didn't dare to disobey.

“OH.”After hearing Cheng Bing's words, the cloud tablet didn't wait for Cheng Bing to finish speaking before it lightly responded.

Hearing this, the Cheng family members all heaved a huge sigh of relief.

Thinking that although this divine concubine's friend displayed terrifying strength, it shouldn't be to the extent of being ruthless and unreasonable.

As for the Cheng family's ancestral hall, where the tablets were placed, the highest position was always reserved for the current head of the Cheng family.

In other words, only when the old master of the Cheng family passed away would he have the right to place his tablet at the highest position.

At the moment when everyone thought that Yun Jian had compromised.

Yun Jian reached out his hand to take Shen Ji's tablet.

He attempted to take Shen Ji's tablet from the highest position.

Everyone smiled in satisfaction when they saw this.

However, when Yun Jian's hand was about to touch the position of the deity's tablet that she placed at the highest point, the slender and well-defined hand suddenly turned around.

“Bang, Bang, Bang!”

Immediately after, a series of sounds rang out.

Everyone only saw that in front of the ancestral hall, other than the position of the deity's tablet that was placed at the highest point, the other positions of the ancestors of the Cheng family were all smashed to the ground by Yun Jian!

When the eyes of the Cheng family members flashed with shock.

The cold voice of the cloud tablet suddenly sounded:

“Since these rules were set by the ancestors of the Cheng family, I will burn them for your Cheng Family!”

“I want this position!”

2628 She was the only one left in chapter 2627

Yun Jian had always kept her word. As soon as she finished speaking, she raised her hand and sprinkled the oil in front of the memorial tablets on all the tablets that had fallen to the ground. A lighter immediately appeared in her hand. She didn't even look at it, she opened the lighter with the thumb of her right hand and was about to throw the lighter on the ground.

"No! Don't Burn It! Don't Burn It!"

As the lighter in Yun Jian's hand slowly fell to the ground, the Cheng family's old man pounced forward almost immediately.

Although the Cheng family's old man was more stubborn in his preference for sons over daughters, he was very concerned about the ancestral tablet.

His body, which was already in his seventies, pounced forward almost immediately and reached out to grab the lighter that quickly fell to the ground and lit the flame.

Old Master Cheng ignored the burn on his hand. He grabbed the lighter and threw it out of the house.

The lighter that had no burning material quickly extinguished the fire.

Old Master Cheng's hand was slightly burned by the lighter, but he didn't care about his own burned hand. Instead, he stared at the paper and his lips trembled violently.

It wasn't until three minutes later that Old Master Cheng was forced into a helpless situation. He waved his hand and made his final reply:

"If you want her tablet to be placed on the highest spot, then so be it! It's our Cheng family that has let her down!"

Old Master Cheng didn't have a conscience, but he was pressured by Yun Jian.

"Old Master! You..."

"Dad... ?"

"Grandpa!"

...

As soon as Old Master Cheng finished speaking, everyone in the Cheng family, including the servants who worked in the Cheng family, his son and daughter-in-law, as well as his descendants, all hurriedly spoke out, wanting to stop Old Master Cheng's plan.

"Enough! Enough! Stop talking! It's decided!" Old Master Cheng shouted and interrupted everyone when everyone in the Cheng family refuted him.

Shen Ji's memorial tablet had successfully entered the Cheng family ancestral hall!

As an ancient feudal family, a female junior who was not the grandmother of the Cheng family was able to enter the ancestral hall and even be recorded in the family tree. This was definitely the first time in the existence of the Cheng Family!

Other than the funerary items given by Yun Jian, Yun Jian followed the words that Shen Ji had said in the dark soul organization many years ago and buried her in the most common form.

It was already said that once a person died, there would be nothing left.

They would turn into a pile of ashes, as if they had never appeared before.

This was the fate of an agent killer. When you were alive, you were glorious.

Dead...

If Yun Jian had not gone to summon Huan and the others, no one would have known that Shen Ji had died.

It was like fireworks exploding in the dark night. There was only a moment of glory.

Shen Ji, may you be reborn as a human and live the life of an ordinary person.

Yun Jian stood in front of the tomb built for Shen Ji and burned a thick book page by page.

This book was a plan that Yun Jian had made when he was in the dark soul organization to escape.

But in the end, with Shen Ji's departure, she was the only assassin agent who had entered the dark soul organization with Yun Jian.

The winner survived and the weak were eliminated. If they could not keep up with the world, they would be thrown into the abyss by the secular world.

This was the fate of assassin agents.

Looking at this thick little notebook, which was burned page by page, the cloud note seemed to see all the children gathering together to discuss countermeasures when they had just entered the assassin organization.

However, it was only that one time.

All the children were discussing countermeasures together.

In the survival game where they had to kill their friends and teammates to survive, everyone had forgotten their original intentions.

For them, death might be the true relief.

2629 Chapter 2628, International No. 1, Special Agent Sha Shen

Before leaving the Cheng family, Yun Jian said that as long as she was alive, if the Cheng family dared to move Shen Ji's tablet or go back on their words, she would definitely make a move.

Since Yun Jian had once said such words, the Cheng family naturally did not dare to refute.

After all, Yun Jian's identity was very likely to be the same as Shen Ji...

Or perhaps she was even more powerful than Shen Ji!

...

Country J.

Country J was a small country. The people here did not live well. Moreover, due to the poor geographical environment, this place often suffered from floods and droughts.

Even some of the surrounding powerful countries could take country J as their own with a raise of their hands. They were too lazy to make a move because a mere country J's geographical environment was really unattractive.

However, such a country had the headquarters of an international agent killer website, as well as most of God Ji's forces.

The International Agent Killer website was a platform for agents to communicate with their employers and accept missions.

There must be someone behind such a website.

And its headquarters was in such an outdated country.

Moreover, Shenji was very familiar with the chief BOSS of the International Agent Assassin website, so all of Shenji's forces were distributed in Country J.

Although the Soul Eater organization was not in country J, to Shenji, the soul eater organization was really not that powerful.

All the money that Shenji had spent her life to take on missions over the years was all in country J, distributed in the assets in every corner.

...

The headquarters of the International Agent Assassin website.

There were no tall buildings around. Only this thirty-story tall building was very eye-catching.

And here, many international elites and talents all worked in this thirty-story tall building.

In the meeting room headquarters, the chief BOSS of the International Agent Assassin website was standing in the middle of the meeting room. He was holding a document in his hand.

"Shenji is dead,"the chief BOSS said after whistling.

The death of an agent or an assassin was nothing out of the ordinary for the headquarters of the International Agent Killer website.

The death of an agent killer also signaled the end of her era.

As mentioned earlier, no matter how powerful an agent was, once she was found dead, all her past would be forgotten by people and no one would remember her.

What's more...

"BOSS, aren't you close with that girl, Shenji? Isn't it sad that she's dead?"Someone below raised his eyebrows and looked happy.

"Am I Sad? I don't see how sad you guys are."The BOSS gently raised his hand on the table, tugged at his suit and tie, and walked to the side.

"That girl, Shenji, trusted me when she was alive. All of her assets and industries are headquartered in country J,"the BOSS said in front of his subordinates.

“BOSS, what do you mean?” Someone at the bottom of the floor drooled. He licked his saliva and looked at the BOSS with anticipation.

“No matter what her past achievements are, she will turn into dust after she dies. As usual, we will take everything.” The BOSS snapped his fingers. As he spoke, he opened the door of the conference room and walked out:

“Pack your things and follow me to snatch the property left by Shen Ji when she was alive. I think there are already many people in the world eyeing this piece of fat meat left by Shen Ji. First Come, first served. We can not fall behind!”

After the BOSS finished speaking, his hand had already opened the door of the meeting room.

However, just as the BOSS opened the door of the meeting room, everyone suddenly saw a teenage girl standing in front of them. She looked like a ghost.

The girl had a good figure. She stood in front of everyone and raised her head slightly when she saw them leave.

Under her bangs, her black eyes were so sharp that it made people scared.

“You are?” The chief BOSS asked.

However, the girl said indifferently and coldly said something that made everyone’s heart jump, “Number one on the international spy rankings, Sha Shen.”

2630 Chapter 2629 Cloud Note’s disguise, competing for the plan

When they suddenly heard Cloud Note’s identity being revealed, the group of high-ranking officials of the International Agent Killer website all narrowed their eyes and an unnatural look of surprise flashed across their faces.

“Brake God! ?” The chief BOSS glanced sideways at cloud note and asked with an extremely unnatural expression.

Although the International Agent Killer website was a communication platform that was directly tied to the agent killer in a certain aspect, in reality, they did not know any of the agents and assassins who received missions from their employers on their website.

Agents and killers were high-risk professions.

Sometimes, even if you had met each other, you would put yourself in a dangerous situation.

The International Agent Killer website was a platform that provided the employers and the agents to know each other and to trade.

The staff of the website, including the high-level staff, was the chief BOSS, and the group of people standing behind the chief BOSS.

All of them relied on the money that the secret agent killer earned from taking on missions on the International Secret Agent Killer website.

In other words, the more missions the secret agent killer took on on the website, the greater the bounty on the missions, and the more money they earned.

As the number one on the international secret agent ranking, although the chief BOSS and the group of people received a small share from Yun Jian, with Yun Jian's starting price of 100 million US dollars for each mission, even if they received 0.1% of the share..., the International Spy Killer website also made a huge profit.

Therefore, to the international spy killer website, Yun Jian was undoubtedly the biggest player in the entire website.

"Cough!" However, the total BOSS quickly reacted. He coughed lightly and looked at Yun Jian. He immediately used the most standard posture to bend Yun Jian's body. His attitude was extremely respectful:

"You are looking for us. Is there anything you need to tell us in person?"

...

J Nation, the capital, downtown, a bar that was filled with red wine.

The colorful lights of the bar were so strange that it made people's eyes blur.

The people who were dancing crazily in the flashing lights seemed to have been injected with stimulants. They shook their heads crazily and jumped and cheered.

In the crowd, no one noticed that a nineteen-year-old girl from Z Nation, who was in her prime, was carrying two bottles of liquor concocted by the pharmacist and walking toward a corner of the bar.

In this corner of the bar sat more than a dozen adult men in their 30s and 40s. On their hands, faces, or the skin half-exposed outside their vests, there were creepy tattoos that made one's hair stand on end.

The girl who was carrying the liquor came to this place.

These more than a dozen adult men in their 30s and 40s were still talking without any restraint.

“Big Brother, when are we going to do it!” One of them, who looked like he was in his 20s, hugged an enchanting woman in her 20s who was sitting on his lap, a man with a tattoo on his chest across from him spoke.

“What’s the rush? ! “It should be ours, it must be ours!”! “That woman, Shen Ji, is dead. In this world, other than the MAD Dragon who came from the dark soul organization together with her, there are also a few big shots who have never appeared because of such a small matter. No one has the ability to compete with us!”

The middle-aged man who was called Big Brother had a cigarette in his mouth, and he held two beautiful women in his left and right hands.

As he said that, the middle-aged man patted the butt of the blonde beauty sitting on his right side, half-propped himself up, and narrowed his eyes:

“Moreover, I just talked to the people from the International Agent Assassin website. This time, we will work together to seize the assets under Shenji’s name! Believe me, this is something that can be obtained easily!”

As he spoke, the middle-aged man reached out and grabbed the breasts of the two beauties on both sides of him with an indifferent expression. “You don’t have any newcomers here? It’s always these few people, there’s no sense of novelty at all...”

Just as the middle-aged man frowned, he suddenly saw a nineteen-year-old young girl carrying two bottles of liquor walking over. The words that came out of the young girl’s mouth made the middle-aged man swallow hard:

“Excuse me, this is the whiskey and liquor that the Gentlemen ordered. Do you need me to pour the liquor into the cups for the Gentlemen?”

2631 Chapter 2630 addressed her as ‘you’, hunting and killing

Her sweet voice carried a hint of a young girl’s soft voice. It was as if a voice of nature had suddenly appeared, causing one to feel as if they had lost themselves in it for no reason.

Even the middle-aged man who was petting the two beauties and grumbling impatiently about wanting a new product had his eyes fixed on her.

“A newcomer?” The middle-aged man glanced at the young girl and rested his elbow on his thigh. He looked at the young girl with an eager expression.

The young girl blinked her big glasses and pinched the tray in her hand. She took two steps back and pursed her lips:

“Yes... I Am...”

The middle-aged man whistled.

The blonde beauty sitting on the right side of the middle-aged man rolled her eyes. She just remembered that the young girl came to her bar yesterday to apply for a position. She said that because her family was too poor, she could do anything.

Thinking that the young lady did not have enough social experience, the blonde beauty touched her face and quickly suggested to the middle-aged man:

“Big Brother, her name is Xiao Qing. She’s new to the bar.”

After saying this, the blonde beauty stretched out her sexy buttocks and thighs, then raised her legs to the middle-aged man’s thighs and rubbed them on a certain part of the middle-aged man...

Then, she gently placed her red lips, which were redder than a monkey’s butt, next to the middle-aged man’s ear. She blew on them and said softly,

“We’ve already asked this girl. Based on her appearance when she first entered society, she should still be a virgin!”

After saying this, the blonde beauty brushed her blonde hair and moved to the side. She crossed her arms and looked at the young girl.

When working in a bar, there were no companions to speak of. There were only benefits.

Some people would use methods to expose their companions for their own sake.

Some girls who had just entered society and were incomparably pure met all kinds of people after entering the bar. Even if she was good in nature, after experiencing some betrayal and torture, she would still be led astray.

The Blonde Beauty had secretly interjected with the middle-aged man. No one else heard her.

As soon as he finished speaking, the middle-aged man crossed his arms and looked at the young girl:

“Pour the wine and pour the wine!”

When the young girl saw this, she put the tray on the table and poured the wine for the dozen or so men one by one.

One of the men wanted to reach out and Pat the young girl's Butt, but the young girl dodged it without any flaws.

"Little Qing, come, come quickly, come to Big Brother!" The blonde beauty waved at the young girl at this time.

The other middle-aged man and the people sitting beside them had already drunk the wine that the young girl poured.

The blonde beauty waved at the young girl, and the young girl immediately followed.

At this moment, the middle-aged man picked up the cup of wine that the young girl poured. His eyes were fixed on the young girl, and he wanted to finish the wine in the cup in one gulp.

However, at the moment when the middle-aged man put the cup of wine on the tip of his nose and smelled it lightly.

He suddenly pushed away the blonde beauty who was leaning against him, picked up the pistol in his waist case, and shot at the young girl. At the same time, he shouted:

"You can't drink this wine! This woman has drugged you!"

As he said this, the middle-aged man shot the young girl.

"Ah! Ah Ah Ah Ah!" The blonde beauty suddenly saw this scene and covered her ears at the same time as the other beauty. She was so frightened that her face turned pale.

At the moment when everyone was so scared that their faces turned pale, they thought that the young girl holding the tray would definitely die on the spot.

The young girl's eyes narrowed. In the next second, she sidestepped to the side of the middle-aged man. She wrapped her hand around the middle-aged man's wrist and grabbed the middle-aged man's wrist.

She sidestepped and dodged the bullet that the middle-aged man shot out. At the same time, she controlled the handle of the gun in the middle-aged man's hand and forcefully aimed the muzzle of the gun at the middle-aged man and the group of people who had long drunk the wine, the place where one of his subordinates who had fainted in an instant was!

"Bang!" The middle-aged man's subordinate was shot in the head by the middle-aged man's gun in his sleep!

This shot was supposed to hit Yun Jian!

But this move only took Yun Jian a short second.

In the next second, she circled around the middle-aged man's wrist and smashed his wrist joint with one hand. With the other hand, she snatched the pistol in the middle-aged man's hand at a speed of 0.5 seconds.

She lifted her leg and kicked the middle-aged man to the ground.

The blonde beauty and the hostess who was sitting beside her were all stunned.

They did not expect that the weak girl who came to apply for the job yesterday, who looked like a young girl who had just entered society, would actually...

But, this was not the end.

A few gunshots sounded at the door and then fell.

Then, a group of people rushed in, led by the chief BOSS of the International Spy Killer Platform.

When the middle-aged man saw the chief BOSS, he immediately called for help, "B... ."

But before he could call out the chief BOSS, he saw the chief BOSS stand in front of the cloud paper in fear, and said with a trembling voice,

"You... . . Do you want all of God Ji's property?"?

"For you! For You! Take all of it!"!

"The rest of the survivors who want to compete with you for the property, our spy killer website will hunt them down for you!"

2632 Chapter 2631: three artifacts, a surprising change

International Agent Killer website!

These eight words represented absolute power and status in country J.

Country J's economy was not developed. In addition, its geographical location was not good. This was a small country that could easily take in a powerful country, but because of its geographical location, it was too lazy to even make a move.

Then, there was no doubt that the influence of God's concubine and the International Agent Killer website was more prominent here.

And now that God's concubine was dead, the International Agent Killer website was the most important existence.

But what was the situation now?

The chief BOSS of the International Agent Killer website actually turned to cloud note...

Not only did he offer the huge amount of wealth left by God's concubine to cloud note, he also said that he wanted to help cloud note hunt down the survivors who wanted to compete with cloud note for God's concubine's wealth?

After the gunshot, the blonde beauty and the other beauties were already hiding in the corner.

But at this moment, the blonde beauty's heart was filled with a huge wave of shock.

Who was this little girl! !

Wasn't she a poor person who came to apply for a job! !

How could she poison her big brother, and...

She also had such terrifying skills.

In addition, she even had the ability to make the chief BOSS of the International Agent Killer website Bow down to her!

Just as the blonde beauty, everyone in the bar, including the middle-aged man who was stepped on by Yun Jian, were puzzled.

Yun Jian suddenly told the BOSS that everyone was shocked:

"Donate all the properties under God's concubine in the name of God's concubine to the poor children in various countries who need help.

"Not a single cent less.

"Those who defy my orders will be killed without mercy!"

This was Shen Ji's wish and Yun Jian's plan.

After Yun Jian finished speaking, he turned around and left without even looking at the people present.

It was as if he had never appeared before.

...

Country Z, Longmen City.

After everything was over, Yun Jian returned to the place where the gears of fate began to turn.

She brought the wooden sandalwood box, wooden fan, and wooden hairpin back to this place.

The moment she entered the house, she saw Qin Yirou and a few children playing on the Sponge Mat downstairs.

"Xiao Jian, you're back? Have you eaten? There's still food at home. Do you want mom to heat it up for you?" Qin Yirou asked.

"No need, I've eaten." Yun Jian shook his head, paused, and asked Qin yirou, "He..."

Just as he spoke, Qin Yirou pointed upstairs. As if she knew Yun Jian would ask Si Yi where he had gone, she said with an aunt-like smile, "Upstairs."

Yun Jian replied and went upstairs.

Just as he entered the room, Yun Jian was hugged by a certain someone.

After being pulled and intimate for a while, Yun Jian gave Si Yi the three divine artifacts she brought back this time.

She also told Si Yi about the conversation she had with Yuan Purlin.

Si Yi only frowned slightly. Then, he put the wooden fan and the wooden hairpin into the empty box in the wooden sandalwood box.

After putting the three divine weapons together, Si Yi tidied up the things and planned to hide them in a hidden spot.

However, just as Si Yi was about to put the three divine weapons away, a ray of light suddenly flashed from the wooden sandalwood box and refracted into a corner of the room where the curtains were originally drawn.

Then, something amazing happened!

After the three divine artifacts were placed together, a ball of extremely powerful spiritual energy spiraled out of the wooden sandalwood box and solidified together. Then, it spun in the air above the room, in a corner of the curtains.

Immediately after, an illusion appeared in front of Yun Jian and Si Yi with a hazy appearance.

And the owner of the illusion that seemed to be a projection was...

Xingfeng!

2633 Chapter 2631 on the eve of the Great War, retching again - GrandrFinalenalePartpart 1)

The human figure that was projected was like a shadow projected by high-tech in a sci-fi movie.

When Yun Jian and Si Yi saw this scene, they looked at each other and stared at the human figure that was projected in front of them.

At this moment, the human figure that was projected seemed to be in a deep sleep. His eyes were closed and he didn't move at all.

The moment the projection projected him, his long eyelashes flashed up and down.

In the next moment, the pupils that seemed to have been in a deep sleep for half a lifetime slowly opened.

What entered his eyes was a young man in his early twenties. His appearance was 80% similar to Si Yi's. He looked like a handsome young man that had walked out of a manga.

That skin was even more delicate than a baby's. It looked as if it could be broken with a flick of a finger. However, because the delicate skin had inherited Si Yi's excellent genes, it did not seem to lack the charm of a man, it was also unlike those men who were like women.

It could be said that because he had inherited Yun Jian and Si Yi's respective strengths, Xingfeng's appearance had even reached the point where it was shocking to the world at a glance.

When Xingfeng saw Yun Jian and Si Yi's faces, he became excited. He wanted to walk over to where Yun Jian and Si Yi were.

"Rustle..."the moment Xing Feng walked towards Yun Jian and Si Yi, the anklet under his feet stopped Xing Feng from moving forward.

“Father! Mother!” Xing feng shouted at Yun Jian and Si Yi. As he spoke, a trace of sincere tears flowed down from the corners of his perfect face.

Without even looking, everyone knew that this was the little fellow who had grown up, Si Ming!

Seeing Xingfeng’s anklet fastened on his feet, Yun Jian and Si Yi’s faces darkened again and again.

Xingfeng wanted to say something else, but he suddenly thought of something. He did not have much time to reminisce about the past. In order to save his future parents from repeating the same mistake and leaving the world, Xingfeng Chong Yun Jian and Si Yi said loudly,

“I believe that Yuan Purlin should have told you about my identity. I was taken away by the mysterious person and am now locked in a place where I do not know my location.

“Since you can see me, you must have used the three divine artifacts I left behind. This conversation can only last for ten minutes. I’ll make it short...”

Ten minutes later, Xingfeng disappeared from her sight.

Seeing Xingfeng disappear, Yun Jian’s heart tightened. She clenched her fists and looked at Si Yi.

Si Yi saw this and nodded slightly at her.

Yun Jian and Si Yi already knew the exact location where the mysterious person was holding Xingfeng!

This was going to be a life and death battle, but for the sake of the child, Yun Jian had to go.

As for whether he would come back alive, this was an unknown.

Yun Jian and Si Yi agreed that three days later, the two of them would go to the battlefield together.

This time, they had to completely eradicate the mysterious person from this world.

The next day, Yun Jian was called out by Chen Xinyi.

She was about to leave. After knowing her future fate, she did not know if she would be able to return alive.

However, Yun Jian still went to Chen Xinyi's appointment.

"Jian Jian, what should we do? My family found out that Shao Feng and I are in a relationship. They want me to break up with Shao Feng..." Chen Xinyi said to Yun Jian with a distressed look.

As she spoke, she took a bite of the chicken leg in her hand.

Seeing that Yun Zhi looked troubled and did not say anything, Chen Xinyi was stunned. She handed a chicken leg to Yun Zhi and asked, "Zhizhi, do you want to eat it?"

Yun Zhi, who was frowning, suddenly felt nauseous when she smelled the chicken leg that Chen Xinyi handed to the tip of her nose. She covered her mouth, turned her head, and retched again...

2634 Chapter 2632 thought that he was a domestic violence man - GrandrFinalenalePartpart 1)

"Jian Jian, what's wrong? Are you feeling unwell?"

Seeing Yun Jian suddenly turn his head to the side, as if he had been stimulated by some kind of taste, he started to retch. Chen Xinyi could not even care about her own troubles. She hurriedly stood up and walked over to Yun Jian's seat, with a worried frown, she patted Yun Jian's back.

"Nothing." Yun Jian took the hand that Chen Xinyi handed over, but his heart slightly trembled.

Ever since she gave birth to the little guy and the little girl, she had done that with him and already knew how to prevent pregnancy.

She wasn't the little girl who was new to relationships back then, and already knew how to protect herself.

Moreover, she wouldn't repeat the same mistake of being plotted against by the mysterious person because she didn't know that she was pregnant.

"Eh? Jian Jian, don't tell me you have it again?" Chen Xinyi suddenly remembered Yun Jian's symptoms.

Chen Xinyi studied medicine in university. Although she had not graduated, as a future career doctor, if she did not understand the general knowledge, then it would be a waste to choose this major.

Yun Jian paused when he heard Chen Xinyi's words.

At this moment, Chen Xinyi waved her hand at Yun Jian as if she had forgotten her own worries. She smiled and reached out to take Yun Jian's hand. As she spoke, she pressed her index and middle fingers on Yun Jian's wrist like a calm old Chinese doctor, she pinched Yun Jian's wrist lightly:

"HMM, let me see. This pulse is..."

"Yo, this pulse is throbbing non-stop. I think there's a high chance that it's there!"

"Yun Jian, it's not wrong for you to believe me! After all, I'm also someone who came from medical school!"

...

The scene changed. Longmen City People's Hospital, outpatient department.

"Your symptoms are only because the food you ate recently was too oily. In addition, you ate like a wolf. You must have swallowed it without chewing carefully, right?"

"Eat more light food these few days. Remember, you must chew and swallow slowly in the future!"

"This is the medical record book. You can go and prescribe medicine."

The outpatient department doctor who wore a pair of heavy and heavy heavy glasses reached out his right hand and gently lifted the frame of his glasses. His left hand pushed the medical record book to the cloud paper.

Chen Xinyi stood at the side and pursed her lips.

She had some real skills. Because Chen Xinyi wanted to inherit the old profession passed down from her ancestors, she chose to major in medicine in university.

But looking at the current situation...

She had clearly learned the ancient Chinese medical method from her grandfather. Why was she still unable to grasp it?

Cough, cough, cough!

Of course, it was better not to let others know about this kind of miscalculation and embarrassing scandal!

After all, she was someone who aspired to become a famous doctor in the future!

Chen Xinyi took the medicine with Yun Jian before walking out of the hospital.

These days, the heavenly cloud tablet indeed did not have any appetite, so she also wolfed down her food and carelessly settled the matter.

Only when Si Yi was around would she chew and swallow slowly.

As soon as she left the hospital, she saw two people walking toward her.

It was Zhang Shaofeng and Ling Yichen.

“Xinyi, why are you in the hospital? Are you injured? or?” Zhang Shaofeng asked Chen Xinyi loudly as soon as he walked over.

The two of them had been separated by their families for the past two days, and they had not seen each other for a few days.

“It’s not me, it’s Jian...” Chen Xinyi muttered.

“Are You Alright?” Ling Yichen, who was standing beside Zhang Shaofeng, scratched his head and asked Zhizhi as a friendly friend.

“I’m fine.” Zhizhi shook his head.

“Zhizhi, you must take good care of yourself. The Doctor said that if you don’t take care of your stomach, you will have a big problem in the future...” Chen Xinyi looked at Zhizhi worriedly with a worried look on her face.

However, as soon as Chen Xinyi heard her words, she saw a tall and handsome man walking across the road.

He was still extremely handsome, but there was a hint of gloominess on his handsome face.

The person who came was Si Yi.

At that time, Si Yi came here with long and slender steps. He seemed to have heard some important news and grabbed Yun Zhijian’s wrist and dragged him away with a look of uncertainty, thinking that it was a domestic violence man who was about to abuse his wife...

This action scared the two old men who were wearing hospital uniforms and supporting each other as they were about to walk out of the hospital. They rushed over to Si Yi:

“Hey, Young Man! Let’s talk nicely! You Can’t hit a Woman! Let Go! Let Go!”

2635 Chapter 2633 this way of feeding in broad daylight (finale 3, Part 1)

It was not to be blamed that the two old men who were supporting each other and wearing hospital uniforms, who were about to go out to bask in the sun, misunderstood Si Yi.

Indeed, Si Yi's entire body was exuding a thick and violent aura. From the looks of it, it was as if he was really going to commit domestic violence in the street.

Moreover, the two old men were about to spend the rest of their lives. They had seen far more than ordinary people. For example, they had seen many things like couples quarreling after marriage, and husbands beating their wives.

The two old men were good people, so the moment they saw Si Yi grab the Yun Zhi's wrist and walk away, they thought that Si Yi was going to hit the Yun Zhi.

The old man among the two old men thought that Si Yi was going to hit the Yun Zhi. He was originally supporting the old lady, but after receiving the old lady's instructions, he staggered over and tried to pull Si Yi away to stop the fight:

"Young man, young man, a man should learn to tolerate! Look at your wife, she's so beautiful. Can you do it?"?

"Listen to me! Have a good time with your wife! What's wrong? Communicate with each other and don't make a move!"

The old man's words not only made Si Yi's eyes sink deeper, even Chen Xinyi, Zhang Shaofeng, and Ling Yichen couldn't help but stifle their laughter.

"Of course I can do it." Si Yi raised his eyebrows and suddenly smiled evilly.

However, when the old man saw his expression, he thought that Si Yi was really going to abuse Yun Jian.

"You can't! You Can't, Young Man, you can't..."

The old man was afraid that Si Yi would really attack Yun Jian, so he quickly stretched out his dry and old hand to hold Si Yi.

But before the old man could reach out his hand, Si Yi stretched out his well-defined, exquisite and beautiful hand, which was enough to make the hand controllers excited, and threw it at Yun Jian's cheek

At the moment when it was about to touch Yun Jian's cheek, Si Yi's hand suddenly went around the top of Yun Jian's head and pressed on the back of Yun Jian's head.

Then, in front of everyone, he slightly bent his body and leaned his head on the front of Yun Jian's face. Without saying anything, he heavily kissed Yun Jian's small mouth.

There was even a “Ba Ji” sound!

This sound scared the old man so much that he took two steps back.

The Old Woman’s heart skipped a beat.

She only kissed Yun Jian’s small mouth heavily for three seconds. Three seconds later, Si Yi grabbed Yun Jian’s wrist again in the position that he was previously mistaken for a domestic violence man. He left behind an evil sentence that seemed to contain both anger and a deeper meaning:

“If you don’t take good care of yourself, I’ll do it myself. I’ll definitely teach her a good lesson!”

Who would say such a small train of words on the tip of their tongue to show off?

Si Yi’s words nearly gave the two elders a heart attack.

Zhang Shaofeng and Chen Xinyi were stunned on the spot.

By the time everyone present reacted, Si Yi had already left with Yun Jian.

...

In the next two days, the cloud tablet was guarded by Si Yi. He wanted her to chew the food carefully and eat it slowly.

If she didn’t comply...

In the bedroom on the second floor.

The little guy and the little girl were taken away by Qin Yirou.

The cloud tablet was carried on Si Yi’s lap and fed by Si Yi bit by bit.

“Chew a bit more. If I find anything wrong with your body in the future...”

As Si Yi spoke, his body moved.

This movement made the cloud paper unable to hold back and let out a muffled cry.

However, the curtains on the second floor were tightly shut. In front of the desk, the cloud paper was grabbed by Si Yi and sat on his lap.

This was not the main point. The main point was that the two of them... And he actually used such a shameful method to make her chew her food slowly... “...”.

“... I'm full. Let Me Down!”

“But I'm not full yet...”

2636 Chapter 2635 looking for the road to the future -GrandrFinalenalePartpart 1)

Yun Jian admitted that if this kind of thing was known to others, she would probably be so embarrassed that she would die.

He actually thought of such a way to make her chew the rice slowly!

Yun Jian couldn't even see through him. Where was his original coldness? Where did he go?

Why did he actually...

“AH... mmm...”

The day was still long, but at this time and place, the spring scenery was endless.

...

On the third day of the agreement, Yun Jian and Si Yi went to Qin Yiruo's house first. They looked at the little guy and the little girl and kissed their foreheads while they were still sleeping. Then, they left quietly.

Just as Yun Jian and Si Yi sat in Si Yi's Lamborghini sports car, a magnetic male voice sounded behind them:

“Is it convenient to join us?”

The two of them turned around and saw Yuan Purlin, who was wearing a ghost mask, standing beside the Lamborghini. Yuan purlin gently patted the Lamborghini sports car and smiled at Yun Jian and Si Yi.

Yun Jian tilted his head to the back seat of the Lamborghini and pursed his lips:

The difference between Yun Jian's Ferrari sports car and the Lamborghini sports car was that the Ferrari sports car did not have a single seat in the back seat.

Although the Lamborghini sports car did not have a backseat door, the backseat still had a tiny narrow seat.

With a body like the little guy and the little girl's, other than the space for them to move around being smaller than an ordinary car, the backseat of the Lamborghini sports car did not have any effect at all.

However, Yuan Lin, who was about 1.8 meters tall, sat on the back seat of the Lamborghini Sports Car and became —

Yuan Lin curled his body, and he couldn't even straighten his back. He was like a person who was put into a large box for performing acrobatics. Other than his feet and hands that could move a little, his neck was crooked when he entered, he just remained crooked and couldn't move at all.

Just imagine what it would be like for a 1.8-meter-tall, cold man wearing a ghost mask to enter the back seat of a sports car that was so narrow that it was hard to describe.

"No, are you guys going to let me sit in a car like this for more than 20 hours?" Yuan Lin was stunned when he saw that he was sitting in the back seat of the Lamborghini sports car and could not extend his arms. Then, he said with a stunned voice as if he was resisting.

"I'll get out of the car and find a car that can drive to follow you guys." Yuan Lin rolled his eyes.

Although the Lamborghini sports car had a back seat, the structure of the sports car was that it could be as short as it wanted to be. The bottom was very low, so the back seat was not suitable for designing doors.

If Yuan Lin wanted to go out, he had to step on the driver's seat and the front passenger's seat.

"Once you're in the car, you're not allowed to get out." Yun Zhi, who was sitting in the front passenger seat, smiled evilly.

As if in response to Yun Zhi's words, he locked the door and the car sped towards the road at the fastest speed possible.

Yuan Lin was left with a furious roar:

"No wonder my father said that the two of you are simply devils! Devils!"

...

Si Yi drove for more than 20 hours. Along the way, he passed countless cars and finally arrived at his destination.

When Yuan Lin got off the car, his back was hunched.

"It's here." Yun Jian pointed to a forest by the roadside and said.

Since they had arrived at their destination, Yuan Purlin's eyes became deep.

"I don't know the exact route, but there must be someone who is acting strangely nearby. As long as we find the person who is acting strangely, we will be able to find the way to the future!"

That's right, they were heading to the future world!

Because the mysterious person came here from the future world!

2637 Chapter 2636: All Mysteries will be revealed -GrandrFinalenalePartpart 1)

Initially, they were still in a state of doubt about the origin of the mysterious person.

However, after talking to Xingfeng for a while, Yun Jian and Si Yi finally understood everything.

They understood something that even the Yuan Purlin did not understand.

This matter was very complicated.

It was not a coincidence that Xing Feng and Yuan Lin could come here from the future world.

After all, Yun Jian and Si Yi were so powerful that they could not directly travel through space-time.

The reason why Yuan Lin could open the space-time door was because there was a strange power in the depths of this forest.

As long as you had a little bit of spiritual power, you could open the space-time door.

Only the strong could control the space-time you wanted to go to.

Xingfeng was a strong spiritual power user, so he could control the space-time he wanted to go to.

Yun Jian and Si Yi couldn't find the mysterious man's hiding place because the mysterious man wasn't from this world!

He, like Xingfeng, came from the future!

However, before the mysterious person became the mysterious person, he was still a very ordinary person.

In other words, in the future world, the mysterious person had traveled to an era where the ruler of the God continent had yet to be born. No matter how many years had passed, he could return to the origin of the future world.

If you wanted to say that Yun Jian and Si Yi could find and kill the mysterious person in the current world before the mysterious person became the mysterious person, that was indeed possible.

If they could find and kill him in the current world before he became a mysterious person, then everything that happened after the mysterious person traveled through time and space to the divine continent would not have happened.

However, the mysterious person was very cunning. He seemed to have known that he would expose his identity, so he had always appeared in black robes.

No matter how powerful Yun Jian and Si Yi were, they could not find out what kind of existence he was on Earth before he became the mysterious man.

Therefore, in order to find the source of everything, they had to go to the future world!

Only then could they solve all the mysteries! And kill the mysterious man completely!

...

"I'll go around and ask around to see if anyone knows about the abnormal phenomena in this forest." Yuan Lin raised his hand and shook his head left and right. The bones that he was resting on made a crisp cracking sound.

"Okay." Yun Jian nodded.

Hearing this, Yuan Lin walked towards a nearby village.

This was a foreign country, a border area that did not belong to any country.

The people living here were all living in groups in the form of tribes. They lived in thatched huts.

This forest did not have any other name. For the time being, it was called the space-time forest.

Fifteen minutes later, Yuan Lin brought back the residents of a nearby village. After the residents of this village rushed here, the first thing the village chief said was:

“Strange things did happen here! This forest near us! From ancient times until now, it has been very safe! There were no wild beasts going in and out. Everyone went into the forest to cut firewood!

“But last week, Ah Hui entered the forest and never came back. We thought it was strange, so we sent three more people to look for him. There was no news and all of them disappeared.

“Everyone thought that this was the Forest God’s wrath and God’s punishment for our village...”

When the village chief said this, his entire body was trembling violently.

But just as he said this, a villager suddenly ran out from the side and shouted at everyone in a terrified voice:

“Village, village, village, village chief! I found Ah Hui and the others near the forest! They... They were covered in blood and were thrown on the outskirts of the forest!”

2638 Chapter 2637 transcending the future, year 2019(Finale 6, Part 1)

“What!”The village chief’s expression changed drastically when he heard this villager’s words. He couldn’t even care about Yun Jian, Si Yi, and Yuan Lin. He turned around and walked forward:

“Where did we find Ah Hui and the rest! Hurry up and lead the way!”

A group of villagers followed the village chief’s anxious footsteps and left quickly.

Yun Jian and Si Yi only needed to look at each other to know what the other was thinking. They both followed closely in the direction where the villagers left.

Yuan Lin tsked and chased after them.

..

When the villagers who found Ah Hui and the rest led them to a small stream at the periphery of the forest.

Suddenly, they saw another group of villagers standing in front of them. They were dressed similarly to the village chief of this tribe and the villagers. From the looks of it, they were obviously more ferocious.

Yun Jian had just arrived when he heard the villagers leading the way shout at the village chief when they saw the group of villagers who were obviously not from this tribe:

“Village chief, they are from the Halasu tribe!”

The village chief who spoke to Yun Jian and the other two was from the Zhanshan Ridge tribe.

This was a region that did not belong to any country.

And in a place like this, it was very similar to the country of the primitive people.

The people here lived in groups.

Moreover, because of tribal conflicts, the relationship between tribes and tribes was usually one of old age and death.

The relationship between the Halashu tribe and the Zhanshan Ridge tribe was very unfriendly.

At this moment, the people of the Halashu tribe were one step ahead of the village chief and the rest, capturing the people of the Zhanshan Ridge tribe.

“Zhanshan Ridge tribe, how dare you people from your tribe come to our territory! You’re simply courting death!”

At this moment, the chief of the Harashu tribe bared his teeth at the village chief.

It turned out that Ah Hui and the others, who had disappeared into the depths of the forest, had mistakenly entered the Harashu tribe.

Therefore, Ah Hui and the others were caught by the people of the Harashu tribe before the village chief and the others.

“Chief Harashu, our Zhanshan Ridge Tribe has not interfered with your Harashu tribe for more than two years. Our tribesmen only have no intention of entering your tribe’s jurisdiction.

“Moreover, they are only juniors. They have nothing to do with the grudges we had in the past. Please release our tribesmen. I will send you a gift and thank you in the future!”

The village chief cupped his hands at the other tribe leader and made a further concession.

Yun Jian’s eyes narrowed, but his vision fell on Ah Hui and the others who were captured by the other tribe.

If she guessed correctly, Ai Hui and the others were covered in wounds and were thrown outside the forest because they had traveled through the time-space tunnel and went to the future world!

Moreover, they might have met the mysterious person's subordinates!

She thought that the other tribe's leader would deliberately make things difficult for them, but who knew that the other tribe's leader would be willing to release them after only two requests.

One of the requests was for Ah Hui and the others to bring the three youths of their tribe to the world that Ah Hui and the others had just gone to — the future.

Ah Hui and the others confessed to the leader of the other tribe that they had unintentionally gone to the future!

After knowing where Ah Hui and the others had gone to, the village chief was also stunned for a few minutes.

Only then did the village chief react. Then, he turned his head to look at Yun Jian and the other two who had been silent the entire time:

“Could it be that you're asking about the strange events because you want to go to the future world?”

The old village chief was very smart. He was able to tell everything in a single sentence.

When Yun Jian heard this, his eyes blinked slightly, but he also nodded without any reservations. “Yes.”

After the group of people discussed, they decided to go together.

...

February 4th, 2019.

Fifteen years later, the future Earth.

Compared to 2004, the Earth in 2019 had undergone tremendous changes.

If the Z Nation in 2004 could still afford a phone at home, a mobile phone, or a car at home, even if they were very rich, then today in 2019.., almost every family could afford a phone and a car.

By the roadside, a group of boys and girls were gathered at the entrance of a coffee shop.

“Hey, have you heard? Two days ago, a girl who dressed like the girl from 2000 came to our school. Everyone called her tuba lu behind her back.”

“PFFT, there’s someone with such good taste? is that person pretty?”

“She’s very pretty, but I think there’s no such thing as a natural beauty now. It’s most likely a plastic surgery monster from some plastic surgery hospital!”

2639 Chapter 2638 show me what you look like (Top)

A group of young men and women dressed fashionably, with their hair dyed in various colors, gathered together, drinking milk tea by the side of the road, openly dating, going out to play, and singing at KTV.

A group of young men and women dressed fashionably, dressed gorgeously, talked to each other, went to a large KTV, asked for a large box, and sang for five hours.

They sang for five hours until six in the evening.

Today was the New Year’s Eve. Most people stayed at home and enjoyed the warmth of their families.

Or like this group of young men and women, they invited some good friends to go to KTV to have fun. They played all night and only went home in the middle of the night.

Some girls even didn’t go home at all and stayed at their boyfriends’houses.

Compared to 2004, boys and girls in this era were many times happier.

Most families were more or less not poor, so students who went to college were especially fond of playing.

And at a certain university.

A girl who was dressed like she was in 2000 and wore a black mask, except for her perfect figure, walked out of the university gate.

At the University Gate, a man who was 1.85 meters tall, wearing a matching outfit with a girl, but wearing a cap on his head that was enough to cover his handsome face, came over to hold the girl’s hand when he saw her walk out of the university gate, he left the university quietly.

That’s right, the girl was Yun Jian.

The man was Si Yi.

They found a space-time tunnel to the future in the space-time forest and opened the space-time gate to the present 15 years later!

That was 2019!

“We didn’t find any abnormal students in the school these two days,”yun Jian said.

What she meant was that she didn’t find the mysterious person in the school.

Yun Jian and Si Yi now faced a very serious problem — in this world, they had no money or power.

In other words, they had no money or power to investigate the whereabouts of the mysterious person.

From Yuan Lin’s mouth, Yun Jian and Si Yi were already dead in the future world.

They died in the battle with the mysterious person three years ago, in 2016.

After Yun Jian and Si Yi perished together with the mysterious person, all the forces in the future world instantly collapsed and fell apart.

All the forces that had lost their masters began to fall apart.

The ancient killing mercenary group, the Dark Soul Organization, and the forces that were once led by Yun Jian and Si Yi were all split up by the international bigwigs.

This was the future.

But Yun Jian and Si Yi had returned.

Since they had come to the future world, they would definitely change the situation and kill the mysterious man with their own hands!

In this life, Xingfeng had given up on her normal life and returned to such a long time ago, wanting to change the fate of Yun Jian and Si Yi dying together with the mysterious man in the future.

In that case, her yunjian would definitely not let down her son! Si Ming was Xingfeng’s sustenance!

She must personally send the mysterious man to hell!

Si Yi covered his face with a cap and pulled the Yunjian with one hand. When they reached a fork in the road, they were blocked by a group of people with their hands on their waists, as if they were going to fight a group of people.

Si Yi did not want to stir up trouble, so he turned around and took a detour with the cloud paper.

However, this group of people blocked the cloud paper and Si Yi again. The leader of the group looked at the cloud paper from the beginning to the end and said with a ruffian look,

“Little girl, I heard that you dress very rustically in school? It’s only been two days and you’re already famous! The people in the school are all talking about you crazily now. Hurry up and take off your mask so that brother can see what you look like!”

2640 Chapter 2639: Don't fight, don't know each other -GrandrFinalenalePartpart 1)

The leader, the ruffian, shook his legs. It was obvious that he was not a student of this university. He was most likely a street thug.

There were no more gangs in this new year.

Therefore, this ruffian, at most, would pull his buddy along. If he did not like people, he would fight with others and show off.

Yun Jian’s sharp eyes flashed above the black mask.

Seeing that Yun Jian and Si Yi were silent, the leader of this ruffian-like guy laughed and walked over to forcefully pull the mask off Yun Jian’s face.

However, his hand had just reached out.

Halfway through, he was blocked by a long and slender palm.

Then, two cracking sounds of bones breaking could be heard clearly.

“OW ow ow ow!” This ruffian boy howled in pain.

“F * ck! Are you all F * cking watching me get bullied? Go! F * ck!”

This ruffian boy’s wrist was grabbed by Si Yi, and the bones in his palm were broken. He let out a pig-like roar as he shouted for his companions to come over and help.

When the boy shouted, the surrounding ten or so boys were also furious. They rushed towards Yun Zhi and Si Yi to surround them.

One minute later.

The male students were all thrown to the ground by Yun Jian and Si Yi. The male students let out a howl that was like a dozen pigs that covered the sky and earth.

In 2019, public security was very good.

From the moment the male student led a group of people to surround Yun Jian and Si Yi, someone had already called the police.

Ten minutes later, everyone was sitting at a nearby police station.

“Name?” A policewoman held a black pen and spun it in a circle. She asked the boy who was leading the group to surround Yun Jian and Si Yi.

“Zhang Xiaosan.” The boy touched his hand that had been broken by Si Yi and replied dejectedly.

“Phahahahahahaha!” The boy, who was one of Zhang Xiaosan’s best friends, could not help but laugh out loud again the moment he heard his name.

“F * ck, what are you laughing at!” Zhang Xiaosan glared at his brother with a dispirited look.

Zhang Xiaosan touched his hand at this time and brought people to surround them again.

“I have never been beaten up like this in my entire life!” Zhang Xiaosan led his men to surround him again. This was the first thing he said.

Including Zhang Xiaosan, the rest of Zhang Xiaosan’s brothers were all beaten black and blue by Yun Jian and Si Yi.

“Brother! Sister! I, Xiao San, will definitely recognize you as my brother!” Zhang Xiaosan patted his chest with his hand that had not been broken by Si Yi. Suddenly, he shouted at Yun Jian and Si Yi.

Yun Jian glanced at Zhang Xiaosan with his sharp eyes, but he did not say a word.

He did not intend to pay any attention to him.

However, Zhang Xiaosan's next sentence attracted Yun Jian's attention:

"Brother, Sister! From now on, the two of you will be my ancestors! Not to mention, within a radius of a hundred miles, I, Zhang Xiaosan, will definitely be one of the top forces! If there's anything you need, feel free to ask!"

After saying this, Yun Jian and Si Yi looked at each other, and Yun Jian nodded at Zhang Xiaosan.

In this era, Yun Jian and Si Yi no longer had any power.

Everything started from scratch.

However, as the kings of the past...

Even if they started from scratch, they could still return to the peak of the world!

Under Yun Jian's request, Zhang Xiaosan quickly helped to search for information about the mysterious person.

2641 Chapter 2640 died three years ago. That God of Destruction (Finale 9, Part 1)

Speaking of which, Zhang Xiaosan's influence wasn't small at all. He contacted a group of his buddies and friends, and they actually searched the entire Zhejiang province.

"Hey, I heard a piece of news! I heard that near our university, there was an abandoned teaching building. There was a person wearing a black robe who only revealed a pair of pitch-black eyes!

"I don't know if he's the one you're looking for, brother, sister! If you want to go, I'll lead the way for You!"

Zhang Xiaosan patted his shoulders and said.

"Go." Yun Jian simply nodded.

At this time, Zhang Xiaosan ran out of the door as if he was dealing with his own business.

"Xiaosan, thank you." Just as Zhang Xiaosan was about to step out of the door, Yun Jian's "Intimate" address scared Zhang Xiaosan so much that he slipped and fell to the ground.

“Sis! In the future, you can call me San San or Zhang Zhang. Can you remove this small word? I’m begging you, SIS!”Zhang Xiaosan said with a bitter face.

Yun Jian just nodded slightly and didn’t say anything.

7 pm.

Yun Jian met up with Zhang Xiaosan and the others alone.

Yuan Purlin had a little power in this world. Si Yi planned to use this little power to forcefully take back the power that had been torn apart because of the death of Yun Jian and Si Yi in the future world.

Don’t ask, Si Yi really had the ability to do so.

Using a small power to swallow a large power.

Starting from zero, Si Yi was still the king!

The ruler of the God continent, a divine Lord!

Because the search for the mysterious person could not be limited to the Zhejiang province or the Z country.

That required connections, financial resources, and power.

Yun Zhi and Si Yi came here, but they did not plan to become fat in one bite and find the mysterious person in one go.

Since they had confirmed that the mysterious person was here, it was only a matter of time before they found him!

...

Yun Jian met with Zhang Xiaosan and the others alone.

“SIS, you’re here! ?”Zhang Xiaosan chuckled at Yun Jian.

Yun Jian nodded and took the lead to walk toward the abandoned teaching building.

“Why are you here! ?”Just as Yun Jian was walking toward the abandoned teaching building, he heard Zhang Xiaosan standing behind him and shouting at him.

"You're here, why can't he come?" A female university student's voice came from behind.

Yun Jian turned his body sideways and glanced at him.

The person who came was actually one of the girls in the group of girls who had talked about their university's rustic style in front of the coffee shop not long ago. They were dressed the same as the girls from 2000.

This girl was called Fang Lingli. She was a girl with a very sharp tongue.

A group of girls followed behind Fang Lingli. It seemed that they were all here to join in the fun.

Coincidentally, Fang Lingli was Zhang Xiaosan's girlfriend.

At this moment, Fang Lingli saw Yun Jian. She couldn't help but squint her eyes. She took the lead and pointed at Yun Jian. She said to Zhang Xiaosan,

"Why did you call her over? Don't you know? This is a weirdo from our school!"

As Fang Lingli spoke, she grabbed Zhang Xiaosan's clothes and took two steps back.

But just as Fang Lingli and the others finished speaking, Yun Jian suddenly saw a figure walking over from behind a group of people.

The owner of that figure, she was...

Seeing this, Yun Jian's eyes moved slightly. Without saying anything, she suddenly took off her black mask in front of everyone present.

Three years ago, when the news of Sha Shen's death, who was ranked number one on the international spy rankings, spread, everyone in the world knew about it.

Even though Sha Shen had died three years ago, her reputation had never faded!

It was said that the existence of assassin agents was like fireworks after her death, dazzling and declining.

However, Sha Shen's death told people and a shocking conclusion in the assassin spy circle.

No matter how many years had passed, her existence was enough to make people tremble in fear!

She had already become an immortal legend in the assassin circle!

Moreover, when Sha Shen had died, all the major international newspapers had been covered by her appearance for an entire year.

Yun Jian took off her black mask and when everyone saw Yun Jian's appearance.

With Zhang Xiaosan and Fang Lingli as the leaders, everyone stared at Yun Jian. Suddenly, their pupils dilated as they exclaimed,

"You, you, you, you! Aren't you the No. 1 spy on the international spy rankings who died three years ago?"

2642 Chapter 2641 long knife and Dagger, meet again in the next life (finale 10, Part 1)

The moment God, who had already died in 2016 and was the number one assassin on the international spy list that had shocked the world!

Although Fang Lingli and the others were students of the same school as Yun Jian, they had just been discussing the appearance of Yun Jian in front of the coffee shop.

But in fact, no one had seen the appearance of Yun Jian.

This was because Yun Jian had been wearing a black mask ever since he had transferred to university.

It was just that one could vaguely tell from his appearance that Yun Jian was not ugly.

That was why people said that he must have gotten plastic surgery from somewhere.

However, when the black mask that had been covering Yun Jian's face was removed, everyone was stunned.

Yun Jian ignored the shock of the people around her. She hung the black mask by her ear and took two steps forward with her slender legs.

However, she saw a woman standing behind Zhang Xiaosan, Fang Lingli, and the others.

This woman was wearing hot clothes and looked sexy and seductive.

The woman was tall and slender. In 2019, she was already in her thirties. She and Yun Jian, who was not even twenty years old, looked at each other in front of Zhang Xiaosan, Fang Lingli, and the others without any sense of dissonance.

After recovering from the shock, Fang Lingli, Zhang Xiaosan, and the others comforted themselves in their hearts. Yun Jian looked similar to a dead person. It was probably just a coincidence.

When Yun Jian and the woman in her thirties looked at each other, Zhang Xiaosan, Fang Lingli, and the others were shocked again.

Why did Yun Jian and the woman look at each other? Why did it feel like they had crossed time and space?

“Who is it, this woman?” Glancing at the woman in her thirties, Fang Lingli used her manicured hand to gently stroke her hair.

“She should be a friend of my sister. Watch quietly, don’t blindly compare!” Zhang Xiaosan grabbed Fang Lingli and called Yun Jian a sister.

Perhaps because of Yun Jian’s terrifying face, Fang Lingli and the group of female college students with Fang Lingli really shut their mouths.

At this moment, Zhang Xiaosan and the group of female university students saw Yun Jian suddenly stop when he was about three meters away from the woman in her thirties.

They thought that they were old friends who hadn’t seen each other for a long time. Like normal young girls, they stretched out their long arms and hugged each other tightly.

This was something that normal people would do.

However, when Yun Jian was three meters away from the woman.

She suddenly took out a fruit knife from her waist, replacing the butterfly knife that she was good at, and rushed toward the woman.

Seeing this scene, Zhang Xiaosan, Fang Lingli, and the others’ hearts jumped.

“AIYO, damn! Sister! Be careful! If the knife doesn’t have eyes, people will die!” Zhang Xiaosan was so scared that he kept shouting.

This was not a meeting of old friends!

This was clearly a meeting of enemies, and they were especially jealous!

Fang Lingli and the others were all students. In this peaceful era of 2019, how could there still be people who used knives and guns?

The average person held a fruit knife in their hand and carefully held it as they walked, afraid that it would pierce the person.

Yun Jian was risking his life!

However, just as Yun Jian's fruit knife was about to pierce the woman's heart.

The knife flashed and a long knife was pushed out from the woman's wrist.

The long knife smoothly blocked Yun Jian's fruit knife.

When the two collided, there was a flash of flame after friction.

At this moment, the corner of the Yun Jian suddenly rose. She said, "You're still alive."

The woman opposite also laughed heartily and replied with the words that shocked everyone present. "You too."

The woman in her thirties was no one else.

She was the god Ji who had died in 2004!
