After thinking for a long time, she decided to provoke the female agent like this. She had already updated most of the chapters. As for the rest that had not been written, she basically did not know how to write them anymore. In fact, there were some things... if she wrote too much, she would not feel the same as before.

In addition, the female agent decided not to update the chapters every day from today onwards. She would update every day for the next few days. In fact, she had really reached her limit. In addition, there were about a few chapters that would be written when she had inspiration, the time was uncertain, so everyone should not deliberately wait! Or they could randomly refresh the chapters to see if there were any updates. If they finished the chapters, they would end the last few chapters before July.

If they still wanted to finish the last chapter, then everyone could come to see it in July. By then, they would definitely have finished the chapters.

I really, really thank everyone. I thank all of you who have supported me! My life is full of laziness. Because of you, I want to move forward bravely!

Because I don't have to worry about having to think about the female agent's chapter every day, I'm afraid that you won't be able to update it. So, I persisted a while ago. Now that I've released the announcement, I'm greatly relieved, this means that I can put my heart and soul into preparing the new book.

In addition, I had also thought about the female protagonist of the new book. This role, in fact, was something that I had always wanted to write since grade one, grade two, but I didn't have the opportunity to write it (grade one, grade two, I wrote a short story on paper) .

Even, I was very nervous. I didn't know if I could grasp this role that made me happy, but I wanted to try.

Even if I do not know you have supported me would like to go along with me, but I will always remember, the most beautiful you.

June, is the high school entrance exam or final exam, determine your fate of the month, I hope you can put down your cell phones, will determine the fate of the cogs rotating to their most satisfactory place, there, is your bright future.

Goodbye for one June, see you in July.

The date of the new book opening on July 11 will not change.

I want to be with each and every one of you and let out different fireworks again.

Chapter 2758 had been premeditated for a long time

Yun Zhu, who heard Duan Li's low voice at the entrance of the infirmary, frowned suddenly.

In the infirmary, Duan Li quickly covered her mouth, which was telling the truth.

"Oh..." Bai Shanshan looked as if she had heard some shocking gossip. She stood up and glanced at Duan Li with a sinister smile.

"Hey, Little Chestnut, tell me the truth. The person who kissed you just now, was it Yun Zhu from class nine... HMM?" She said with a nasal voice, as she spoke, Bai Shanshan even elbowed Duan Li.

Duan Li pouted and patted Bai Shanshan, trying hard to pretend that nothing had happened. "How is that possible... I, I'm not talking about me!"

Duan Li and Bai Shanshan's conversation made Yun Zhu, who was leaning against the wall of the infirmary, darken his eyes. He turned around and left the corridor of the infirmary, climbing over the wall at the back of the school.

On Friday, Duan Li picked up her school bag and the clothes she had changed for the past week and boarded the bus from Baoding City to Longmen City.

The long-distance bus was not crowded. Duan Li sat in the back seat and looked out of the window of the bus, which had yet to depart. She sighed softly.

She thought for a long time, but she really could not understand why Yun Zhu did that.

Just as Duan Li was puzzled, she placed her school bag, which she regarded as important to her, on her lap and hugged it tightly. She looked out of the window.

Duan Li suddenly felt her hand being grabbed by a person who came from the bus aisle. The school bag on her lap fell to the ground because she was suddenly grabbed by her wrist and stood up.

Duan Li was turning her head when her beautiful eyes met Yun Zhu's eyes.

"You..."didn't he go home first because he violated school rules?

Before Duan Li could say anything, Yun Zhu interrupted her. "Follow me."

After saying that, he grabbed Duan Li's wrist and pulled her out of her seat.

"Wait! My Things!"Duan Li pulled her hand back. She bent down and hurriedly hooked her school bag and daily necessities, but she was already dragged away by Yun Zhu.

Yun Zhu took Duan Li to another bus and headed to another city in the opposite direction of Longmen City.

Looking at the flowers and trees that flashed past the window, she didn't know how long she had been sitting there before the bus finally arrived.

Yun Zhu brought Duan Li all the way to the slums of this city. After bypassing countless low-rise buildings, they finally stopped in front of the shabbiest low-rise building.

Yun Zhu had not let go of Duan Li's hand since the start of the bus. At this moment, she grabbed Duan Li's hand and walked to the front of the low-rise building. She knocked on the door of the low-rise building.

The door opened and an old man in his forties walked out. The corners of the man's brows were distinct, and one could vaguely see his youthful handsomeness.

"Little Zhu? The school should be on holiday today. Why are you here..."just as the man was about to call Yun Zhu into the building, he suddenly caught a glimpse of a slender young girl standing beside Yun Zhu. She looked a lot like him.

When Duan Li saw the man, the impulse deep in her heart was completely broken and she roared. She opened her mouth and wanted to blurt out the word "Father", but she couldn't.

The man was Duan Li's biological father, Duan Shi.

Duan Shi's daughter, Duan Li and Duan Ya, was sentenced to two years in prison for domestic violence. After he was released from prison, he changed his mind and didn't want to disturb his daughter's new life anymore. He left Longmen City, he moved into this shabby old slum.

From Duan Shi's address to Yun Zhu, it was obvious that this wasn't the first time Yun Zhu came here.

Duan Li looked at her old father, who used to be with a rich woman. Although the family wasn't good, his father, who used to be well-dressed and beautiful, looked like this now, and she couldn't stop her tears from flowing down.

"How did you... Live Here..." Duan Li thought that Duan Shi, who had been released from prison, could still lead a good life.

After all, he was Duan Shi's biological father. The hatred he had for Duan Shi a few years ago had long been ground to a pulp by the passing of time.

"Eh..." Duan Shi stroked his stubble that had not been shaved clean, and a bitter smile appeared on his weathered face. "Let's not talk about this. Quickly enter the house and have a seat..."

"Oh right, Li... Li Li, how is Yaya Doing Now?" Duan Shi could not help but ask when he thought of his youngest daughter.

"My younger sister is doing very well. She is studying very well. The teacher said that she will be able to get into a good high school in the future if she keeps her grades stable," Duan Li said as she looked at Duan Shi.

"That's good... come in first. The house is a little shabby, you..." Duan Shi slowly moved his body. He was about to bring Duan Li and Yun Zhu into the house when Yun Zhu grabbed his hand.

He turned his head in a daze, but he heard Yun Zhu bow deeply to him in front of Duan Li:

"Father-in-law, please hand over Little Chestnut's future to me, I like her!"

A long-planned liking.

[PS: the last chapter will have an extra ending, and the last chapter should have a little more words. In addition, it has been so long since the last chapter was updated, and the last two chapters are free. Thank you for Your Company and waiting, I love you!]! When Yun Jian got the news that Yun Zhu and Duan Li were dating, it was already a year later.

When he found out about this, Yun Jian wasn't surprised at all. He only slightly curled his lips.

Qin Yirou, on the other hand, jumped up from her seat in shock.

"What! The two of them actually fell in love right under my nose! At such a young age! They didn't study hard, yet they did all this stuff! How are they going to study hard in the future, get into a good high school, a good university!"

Hearing this, Qin Yirou cried out in surprise from the table, but she accidentally flipped over the stool.

"Alright, Alright. The children have already grown up, and it's no longer necessary for us to do everything ourselves. Don't think that the children are young. When we reach that age, we will all be sensible. The children have their own limits. We adults, don't follow them blindly!"

Although GE Junjian had retired, his skills were still there. He pulled back the stool that Qin Yirou had almost flipped over. With his other hand, he stabilized Qin Yirou and said with a kind smile,

"The children don't like to listen to our nonsense. Just like when we were young, they don't like their parents to Nag at us. It's not a bad thing for us to be sensible parents!"

GE Junjian's words made sense to Qin yiruo. She nodded slightly and didn't say anything else.

Yun Jian, who was sitting across from her, picked up an ink-colored ceramic teacup and took two sips of the water in the Teacup. He curved his lips slightly and didn't say anything from the beginning to the end.

As for how Yun Zhu managed to woo Duan Li, Yun Jian didn't know either.

Two months later, all the members of Falcon Palace officially emigrated overseas.

Five months later, Xinqi Company went from a small company in Longmen City of Zhejiang province in country Z to one of the top ten international multinational corporations.

Although Xinqi company only climbed to the top ten of the international top ten multinational corporations, the fact that it was able to become one of the top ten multinational corporations in just a few years was enough to prove that its future was immeasurable.

Eight months later, the ancient death mercenary group and the dark soul group officially announced the merger and removed the dark soul group's title. The two internationally renowned assassin groups were collectively named the ancient death mercenary group.

According to internal sources, after the former leader of the dark soul group married the BOSS of the ancient death mercenary group, he handed over all his assets to his wife.

He was a safe wife.

However, after the merger of the Dark Soul Organization and the ancient death mercenary group, the organization was divided into two regions. The forces of the former dark soul organization and the former ancient death mercenary group were in charge of their respective regions.

In other words, other than the name being different and the fact that there was only one BOSS of the organization after the merger, cloud note, nothing else moved.

The two regions were called the ancient death mercenary group and the dark soul mercenary group respectively. Their respective territories were also the respective regions of the former ancient death mercenary group and the former Dark Soul Organization.

This matter had just been exposed and had attracted the attention of the international bigwigs.

When the ancient massacre mercenary group and the dark soul group were independent, they were two existences that stood side by side and never collapsed.

This was great, the two organizations that never collapsed had merged!

In the future, who would dare to act Rashly?

Every year after that, on the day of Liu Shiyun's death, there would be six people gathered in front of the tombstone.

It was the six members of the King's team.

Every year on the day of his death, no matter how busy he was, he would find time to visit him. As usual, he would tell him about the achievements of the king's team after he left, as well as the major and minor events that had happened in the past year.

It was as if he had never left.

What was unbelievable was that on this day every year, two dandelions would float down from the tombstone.

After the king's team left, they would float away with the wind.

However, from the beginning to the end, the two dandelions that were as white as snowflakes were nestled together, as if they were announcing to the world that they would never be separated again!

Yun Jian's younger sister, Yun Lian, who was a brake god, finally confessed to the boy she liked, Zhou Zawa.

She thought that a tomboy like Yun Lian should at least be in a relationship with the boy he liked for a few years before moving on to the next step.

However, she didn't expect that once the two of them announced their relationship, they would go and get a certificate every month. After two months, Yun Biao would get pregnant and the child would grow up. The relationship between the two of them couldn't be any better.

In short, everything was fine. Everyone's lives were gradually on the right track.

Zhejiang city, Z country.

Today, Yun Jian returned to her alma mater to get her graduation certificate. This graduation certificate was something that she should have gotten two years ago. Unfortunately, she had too many things to deal with in the past two years, so she couldn't get away.

For example, Falcon Palace, New Start Company, ancient death mercenary group, and dark soul organization, including the later development of rongyao company, were all done by Yun Jian alone.

Today, she finally had time to go back to her alma mater to get her graduation certificate.

The two-year graduation certificate in the President's office was finally taken away by Yun Jian after the president made hundreds of calls.

The president of Jiangcheng University of electronic technology heaved a sigh of relief and immediately made a call, asking all the professors and teachers of Jiangcheng University of electronic technology to gather in an emergency and hold an emergency meeting.

The name of the meeting was: How to let students take their graduation certificate on time on the day of graduation.

Of course, Yun Jian knew all of this.

At this time, Yun Jian was holding the graduation certificate in one hand and leaving the president's office, passing through rows and rows of campus streets.

From junior high to senior high, she could not leave campus life after her rebirth. Now that she had received her graduation certificate, it meant that her campus life was completely over.

Yun Jian walked slowly in Jiangcheng University of Electronics and technology.

When she passed by the Library of Jiangcheng University of Electronics and technology, she suddenly stopped, as if she was attracted by some kind of attraction. She turned around and stepped into the rarely-visited library.

The library was very quiet. It was so quiet that one could hear a pin drop on the ground.

She passed through rows of bookshelves until she came to the most inconspicuous corner on the left side of the bookshelf. She raised her eyes and suddenly saw a book that was completely different from other books. It did not even have a back cover.

She raised her slender hand and took the book from it. She flipped through a few pages and found that the book, including the book cover, was completely blank!

Yun Jian patiently flipped through the book from beginning to end.

The entire book, which was five times thicker than a junior high school math textbook, was completely blank pages!

This made Yun Jian involuntarily frown.

When she flipped to the last page, a large black character appeared in front of her eyes:

Death Note!

At the bottom right corner of the large character, an eye-catching title also bloomed on the white page, announcing the title of the book:

Death, Moli!

(foreign ending over!)! All the way to today, the female agent would like to say goodbye to everyone, thank you for your support, I really appreciate it, the story of the cloud note has ended, but our story of the Doomsday Fireworks has just begun, July 11th, new book Q Reading, let's renew the predestined relationship! The button number of a certain stupid author: 2625702229 if you have questions or don't understand, you can add me OH ~ Love You ~ (tent 3) excellent?
