

Schoolgirl 571

Chapter 571: Her High Profile. Come On Out

From the top, the steep surrounding cliff made it feel like an abysmal valley. Yet, looking up from the bottom of Taini Island's mountain, it was covered in trees and bushes. Just looking out from around the island, however, there was nothing out of the ordinary that could be sighted.

Taini Island was a special island. Initially, no one expected this mountain that seemed no more different than other mountains to have an enormous pit in its center.

Inferno Ring's headquarters had not been here in the past either. It was once when its members flew past the top of this island's mountain in a helicopter that they discovered the place.

Copses of trees grew in the ginormous pit. Because the sun could shine in through the cliff, the greenery here thrived.

Located in the middle of the ocean, Taini Island actually had a copious source of freshwater. Hence, Inferno Ring moved its headquarters here. There was a saying that the most dangerous place was also the safest place—that was probably what Inferno Ring thought as well.

"Is the headquarters of Inferno Ring really here in this wilderness?"

The troop climbed up from the bottom of the mountain with rock-climbing equipment and finally landed in the huge pit surrounded by the ridge.

The lush woodland was undeniably a good hiding place. In spite of it, there was no other sound except the birds and insects occasionally.

"Mn." Yun Jian nodded. She was the first to keep the hiking tools and led the way.

"Yun Jian, move quietly. This is Inferno Ring's headquarters. They'll hear us if you walk so loudly! I don't want to die even when you want to!" Shao Weiming could not help crying out when he saw how Yun Jian trekked forward carelessly without hiding herself, his tone brimming with fear of death.

Yun Jian ignored him.

Ge Junjian thought that she must have her reason for doing so.

Taini Island was not a large place but the gigantic pit that sat openly in the cliff was still a long distance to cover by foot.

"We're close." Yun Jian pressed her lips together. She pressed on the Browning pistol clipped at her hips then at her butterfly knife hidden around her waist before marching forward.

She had picked the Browning pistol in the military before they departed. Other than the butterfly knife, in her last life, she was most familiar with the Browning pistol made in the USA.

Not too long after Yun Jian had spoken, the troop was greeted by a massive base concealed by a stretch of forest in front of them. It looked similar to the houses one would see usually but it was dozens of times larger than them.

Yun Jian knew that this base housed everything. It mixed everything together, like the training ground for assassins or the meeting room for Inferno Ring's executive members.

This was not all that Yun Jian knew. She also knew that going in through the side door on the south would take her to the daily meeting room of Inferno Ring's executive members.

She gestured with her hands and the ASF knew instantly that she was intruding through the southern door. The squad of ASF led by Ge Junjian tried their best to stay silent as they inched as close as they could to the southern door. Each of them held a gun as they stayed close to the wall awaiting Officer Ge's instruction.

This was what Special Forces accustomed to.

Then, Yun Jian came to the targeted door in a high profile and kicked it. As everyone else gasped and cursed, she kicked the southern door open—simple and brutal!

Goodness! What was Yun Jian trying to do! The ASF could not help sucking in a breath. They had never seen someone do it like her!

Would they all not die if this alarmed the Inferno Ring?

Just then, they saw Yun Jian standing tall and proud at the door, shouting audaciously, "Job, come on out with everyone in Inferno Ring!"

Job—the pseudonym of Inferno Ring's boss.

Chapter 572: Avoiding The Machine Gun And Advancing Straight

Yun Jian had met Job before. When she was still Slaying God in her past life, she attended the international assassin organization event with a disguise. It was just that she had been staying beside Snake.Lizard and Tiger.Leopard, so no one recognized her to be Gu Sha Mercenaries' boss.

In addition, she had been young. Even before her rebirth, she was only a year older than her current body's age, turning 17 years old after Lunar New Year.

How was the chart-topper of international secret agent ranking, Slaying God, only 17 years old?

Even when she had attended the event, no one imagined her to be Slaying God. In fact, Yun Jian had only been 16 years old in her past life. Perhaps this was the age of a child to many but she had spent 11 years in the secret agent business.

Her achievements were not more outstanding than others and she was not more gifted compared to them. She was just scared of dying, so others had to die before she did!

Anyway, the Advanced Special Forces were not paying attention to this. They had no idea about it. What they did know was that Yun Jian had gone crazy right now!

Inferno Ring was an assassin organization and they had come for an ambush this time to uproot them! They had not discussed it but everyone knew that they came in secret, so the matter of course was to sneak in.

Yun Jian, however, had blatantly kicked the door to Inferno Ring open?

Was she declaring war openly?

“Yun Jian, come back!” Ge Junjian shouted in worry. Since they had exposed themselves, the fear had vanished along with it. Watching Yun Jian stand at the southern door and kick it open, what if people in Inferno Ring strafed her with guns?

This was Inferno Ring, an assassin organization people were terrified of! Yun Jian was going to die doing this!

Bang, bang, bang...

Words had just rolled off Ge Junjian’s tongue when a series of machine gun raking could be heard from the door. The continuous blitz of bullets attacked from the inside of the southern door—their target was Yun Jian who stood at the door!

“No! Come back, Yun Jian!” Ge Junjian was shocked witless and sprinted for the girl. He would save her even if he had to die for it.

“Damn it! She doesn’t want to live and she wants Officer Ge to die with her?!” Shao Weiming growled aloud, not forgetting to lambast Yun Jian even during this critical moment.

Everyone in the ASF gripped their guns to move closer to Yun Jian. Yet, as Ge Junjian took two steps toward her and was still hidden from view since he had yet to reach the door where Yun Jian was, he saw Yun Jian quirk her lips up.

In the next second, an astonishing scene unfolded before the ASF...

Yun Jian turned slightly before pouncing to the side and rolled on the floor, avoiding the machine gun strafing just in time!

What dropped their jaws was not this.

While Yun Jian rolled, she pulled out the butterfly knife and Browning pistol from her hips. Her left hand gripped the butterfly knife with its blade angled downward and her right hand held the pistol as she sprinted inside the door like a gust of wind after standing up from her rolling.

The rest of the soldiers had only heard her terse command, “Move!”

At Yun Jian’s direct order, everyone went feverish with gallantry. Yun Jian’s earlier moves served as a catalyst. She could not have done it so smoothly without at least a decade of practice!

“She avoided the strafing machine guns! Oh my god!” Someone exclaimed but when all of them reacted to it, Yun Jian was long gone from the south door.

The base covered a spacious area of land. Yun Jian had already charged in and guns were heard firing incessantly from inside of the house.

Worried that something would happen to Yun Jian, Ge Junjian led his men toward the door at once.

Just as they came to the south door, they could see straight into the inside of the base. What greeted them, however, was a mass of people lying in blood—the backs of their hands were adorned with Inferno Ring’s unique symbol, the golden rose—while Yun Jian was nowhere to be found.

Chapter 573: Kill The Intruder! A Bloodshed

If Ge Junjian and others could recognize it, they would realize that the people who succumbed in the pool of blood were part of Inferno Ring's executive members!

Going into Inferno Ring's base from the south door was the meeting room of Inferno Ring's executive members. When Slaying God struck, they did not even have the time to react before they were instantly murdered.

As for the raking of gunfire after Yun Jian kicked the door open just now, it was by part of Inferno Ring's subordinates who guarded here. It was unfortunate that they would not have expected to die being killed by a teenage girl even when they were on the brink of death.

It was also in luck that Ge Junjian and the rest of the ASF had not followed her immediately. Otherwise, they would witness something even more baffling—Yun Jian's slaying movements that flowed with practiced ease with one hand holding a butterfly knife and another gripping a pistol!

Holding the pistol and loading the bullets with one hand, she continued killing people with the butterfly knife in her other hand without any hindrance—using both hands simultaneously.

Who else in this world could kill a floor of people within several seconds like Slaying God?

As for now, Yun Jian had dashed up the stairs of Inferno Ring's base and was sprinting toward the third floor of this gigantic building. Her steps were light on the staircase, landing without any sound.

Clever as Ge Junjian was, he snapped out of the shock and waved his hand, gesturing the ASF behind him to keep up with him.

"Go." He turned back and mouthed soundlessly, to which his subordinates nodded and followed.

Inside this meeting room, they saw a spiral staircase made of steel. Peering up from the bottom, they could still see Yun Jian springing and bouncing agilely, arriving at the third floor in a flash.

"Someone's barged in! Kill the intruder!" There were already a number of Inferno Ring members who discovered Yun Jian at the corner of the third floor's staircase and the foreigners cried out urgently.

These people picked up the submachine guns right away and opened fire at Yun Jian.

There was a huge pillar blocking Ge Junjian and the squad, so the Inferno Ring members did not notice them.

The soundproofing of rooms in the base was excellent. When Yun Jian shot some of the executive members in the meeting room earlier, no one in the base realized that they were now dead.

"We move up as well!" Ge Junjian swiped the tip of his nose with his hand and gritted his teeth before charging out as the first with his firearm.

The Advanced Special Forces had worn bulletproof vests. As long as their organs were not shot from a close distance or that their head was struck, they would not die. They would sustain some light injury at most!

The bulletproof vests were effective but no matter how fine the quality was, no one could survive being shot from a close distance. If that happened, no bulletproof vest could take the bullet's momentum no matter its quality and effectiveness.

Just as Ge Junjian and his comrades dashed out, the north door of Inferno Ring's base was kicked open too. Those who entered held machine guns and blitzed the inside of the base in a frenzy.

With his sharp perception, Ge Junjian noted that these people were most probably from An Hun Group or Gu Sha Mercenaries.

There was no mark of a skull on these north-door intruders, so it was evident that they were under An Hun!

Ge Junjian and his men took cover and hid once An Hun Group struck. At the same time, they fired at Inferno Ring's men in support of An Hun's people staying obscured.

It was instantaneous bloodshed. The Inferno Ring sent batches of people but none escaped the doom of death.

Chapter 574: An Annihilation, Like A Lamb To The Slaughter

The reason Ge Junjian was certain that these people charging in through the north door were from An Hun Group was because the person who led them in with a silver pistol—Mo Sen.

There were plenty of people in Inferno Ring's base and these people were just slightly above average in terms of their status in the organization.

Usually, top performers in an organization were treated separately. Some were not even at the base. The executive members Yun Jian had killed just now were just a part of the Inferno Ring.

Said girl was already on the staircase to the third floor and was turning onto it when someone suddenly appeared in front of her from the corner.

Yun Jian's frown smoothed out the moment she saw who it was.

It was none other than Si Yi who was currently walking toward her with his long legs.

Yun Jian was not startled by Si Yi's appearance. Looking down, her gaze landed on the person Si Yi was grabbing. Si Yi had caught a short man who was nude except for a towel and was coming toward her with him.

"Job!" Yun Jian clenched her jaw when she spotted the man, her eyes were murderous.

She was standing on a flat surface of the spiral stairs. When Si Yi came to her, he loosened his grip on Job, throwing the naked man on the floor.

It was not difficult to deduce what Job had been doing just now based on his lecherous appearance.

All Inferno Ring members who were downstairs in the base were completely killed at this moment. With An Hun Group's efficiency and assistance from Ge Junjian's ASF, Job was now the only one alive in Inferno Ring within the short few minutes.

Other than Job—if one must be clear—there was probably also...

“No! Please! Don’t kill me! Don’t kill me! Sob, sob...” A naked woman with thick makeup walked out barefooted from Job’s room. She only had a towel wrapped around her too, so at least she was covered.

The woman’s legs were going numb from fear, staggering as she walked but she dared not stop because Ya Dang had a gun pointed to the back of her head.

The man looked away in disdain, keeping his check on the woman out of the corners of his eyes, as he forced her to go toward Yun Jian.

It was obvious what Job and the woman were doing in the room just now.

When Ya Dang and Si Yi entered the room earlier, the mess and stench in it were revolting. Poor Ya Dang had to pull the couple away forcefully and toss Job to Si Yi.

Ya Dang had to get his hands dirty since Si Yi would become nauseous whenever he came close to other women. The latter, on the other hand, exited the room after grabbing Job, leaving Ya Dang to force the woman out with a gun pointed at her.

This was also why Yun Jian had led the Advanced Special Forces to charge in without meeting up with An Hun Group first. The phone call from earlier she received was from Si Yi.

Si Yi and Ya Dang had sneaked into Inferno Ring ahead of them to catch Job, asking Yun Jian to make a ruckus in the organization, the bigger the better—because it would make their mission easier in that case.

As expected, the men who were guarding Job ran downstairs after Yun Jian barged in. Job was not exactly skilled, he depended on his underlings for protection.

His best subordinate was someone called Metal King Kong. Metal King Kong was not around, so the current Job was like a lamb to the slaughter—he was thoroughly powerless.

It also made Yun Jian curious. How did someone incapable like Job become Inferno Ring’s leader?

Previously, she had not launched an attack on Inferno Ring—not because the boss Job was profound, he was actually incredibly weak—but because it was due to Inferno Ring’s years of influence and force.

Currently, however, Snake.Lizard had sent Gu Sha Mercenaries to cut the limbs of the Inferno Ring off.

With three sides working together, Inferno Ring was like a lamb to the slaughter!

Chapter 575: You Have To Die. You’re Slaying God

“Kneel down!” Ya Dang growled, thrusting the gun at the woman’s head once more.

“Ah! No, no! Don’t kill me!” The woman plopped down in a kneel in front of Yun Jian and Si Yi, dignity be damned.

Ge Junjian and the army came out from hiding as well. Exchanging a greeting with Mo Sen, they then watched whatever that was happening on the third floor from downstairs.

Yun Jian stalked toward Job who was quivering on the floor, step after intimidating step.

“Look up at me!” Yun Jian ordered soft and terse. As she spoke, she flicked a blade out and stabbed it into Job’s thigh without hesitation.

Pierce!

The sound of the blade penetrating flesh was loud and clear. It made Job, who was sitting on the floor, cry out in agony, “Ow!”

Yun Jian smirked in contempt before keeping her pistol and held her butterfly knife snug in her palm. Walking to Job again, she came to him in a flash and perched the butterfly knife against his neck.

“Ow... Wh-who are you! Who are all of you! What grudge does Inferno Ring have against you? Why are you doing this to me!” Job’s short form was shriveled as he rolled around clutching his leg.

“Grudge?” Yun Jian chuckled. She hurled another violent stab on Job’s leg with the butterfly knife before resting the blade stained with Job’s blood at his neck, wearing an eerie smile.

“It’s not just a grudge. Haha, I’ll pick your tendon, skin you, and cut off your head today. You can watch how you die a slow, torturous death in my hands!” Yun Jian slapped the bloodied butterfly knife against Job’s face.

Then, she swung the knife into Job’s thigh again.

She was taking revenge for Xiao Zhu today! She was letting Job have a taste of how inhumane Xiao Zhu had died in his previous life!

Yun Jian was not someone to be stepped over.

“Ah!” Job hollered again.

The man was sweating profusely from his forehead as he wailed, “Why? Why! Did I offend you? Young lady, what did I ever do to you? I beg you, let me go! You can have the Inferno Ring, take it all. It’s not mine to start with. It hasn’t been mine anyway. Just take the Inferno Ring if that’s what you want!”

Yun Jian’s fiendish actions gave Ge Junjian and the soldiers who were standing underneath chills.

Watching Yun Jian lunge stab after stab into Job’s thighs, the cruel tactic should not even be caught being performed by a young girl. Yet, why were they perceiving a vehement resentment toward Inferno Ring and Job from Yun Jian?

Shao Weiming was shaking like a leaf. Recalling how he had picked at Yun Jian from the beginning, his terror of her now was as deep as his prejudice earlier.

This was how ruthless Yun Jian could be!

Si Yi, on the contrary, stood aside with his eyes glued on Yun Jian and a small smile adorning his handsome face.

Yun Jian stood up suddenly. She lifted her leg and stepped on the wounds she had just made on Job’s thigh, digging in with the ball of her foot. It was like rubbing salt on the open wounds. Job nearly passed out from the pain but Yun Jian had kicked him back into consciousness.

Keeping her eyes on the man, Yun Jian's grin was wicked. "Yeah, you offended me. Of all the things you could've done, you shouldn't have abducted my younger brother and asked Wolf.Kill to blackmail me for the sandalwood box. And then, you guys killed him before I gave you the box! Job, you have to die today."

She was unafraid of exposing her identity. She wanted Job to die in terror and panic. She wanted to skin him alive and snap his muscles!

Yun Jian was not brutal—she was even more bloodthirsty in her past life! This was her nature as a secret agent!

"You-you... You're Slay... Slaying... Slaying God!" Job clutched his leg, snapped out of his painful haze by Yun Jian's words. His withered voice resonated in the building at once.

Chapter 576: She's Slaying God, So He's...
She's Slaying God?!

Coincidental listeners to the conversation between Yun Jian and Job, everyone else in the building broke out in cold sweat.

Slaying God? What other Slaying God could there be?

Which other Slaying God, if not the number-one on the international secret agent chart, to paint fear on the face of Inferno Ring's boss?

It matched what Yun Jian said just now. It was Slaying God who had stolen the sandalwood box back then—but how was Yun Jian possibly Slaying God?

"Slaying God? What! How's this possible? My gosh, Yun Jian's Slaying God! Is this a joke? Why—How is this..." Shao Weiming yelped in panic. He blanched. The shock on his face could only be described as terrifying consternation.

How could she be Slaying God? The Slaying God who topped the chart of the international secret agent ranking? How could that be her?

Nonetheless, the person who was the most bewildered was not Shao Weiming, Yu Fengcheng, or anyone from Champ Squad and Flying Dragons. It was Ge Junjian who was standing downstairs with them.

Other than Ge Junjian and Si Yi, Ya Dang as well as Mo Sen, no one knew about Yun Jian's family background.

Was she not Qin Yirou's daughter? Having spent time with Qin Yirou, Ge Junjian had heard stories from the woman. He had heard how Yun Jian was like in the past and the change she had gone through now—like Yun Jian's grade being awful when she started ninth grade and was even ranked last in the school, but somehow, her daughter's transformation during that period, be it her personality or oddly proficient skills, was baffling.

Qin Yirou used to feel suspicious but her Xiao Jian still looked the same. She also thought that Yun Jian's change must be due to her feeble powerlessness, so she let it go ultimately.

Right now, however, Ge Junjian was dumbfounded that if Yun Jian was Slaying God, how could Qin Yirou have taken care of her at home for over a decade!

Realizing this, Ge Junjian did not point out the jarring incongruity directly. There were still a lot of people standing around, after all. He kept a light frown but he stayed silent.

Other than Si Yi, even Ya Dang and Mo Sen, as well as those from An Hun Group whom they had brought along were astonished.

“Slaying God—Slaying, no, no! It wasn’t me! I didn’t kill your brother! No...” Job said and tried to roll his short self to the side. His gaze was genuinely fearful.

“Not you? Who else, then? Hah...” Yun Jian moved whilst stepping on Job’s wounds. Two steps later, she lifted her leg and stomped it down on the man’s wound as she said abruptly, “You must die! But I’ll make death a sweet escape you can’t have!”

“Mo Sen.”

Si Yi peeled his eyes off Yun Jian and looked down at Mo Sen who was standing downstairs right after the girl spoke. Mo Sen understood his superior and left the base at once.

It was then that Ge Junjian was caught with a realization.

Ya Dang and Mo Sen were from An Hun Group but why were they following Si Yi waiting for his order just now? They were An Hun’s commanders.

It was said that An Hun Group had four commanders, Ya Dang, Mo Sen, Snow Eagle, and Lin Wei. Four of them worked separately, in charge of different roles.

Lin Wei was responsible to train secret agents and assassins in the organization while Snow Eagle was the public face, attending various events representing An Hun. Ya Dang and Mo Sen stuck around the leader, so wherever they were, there the boss of An Hun Group was!

Yun Jian was Slaying God, so Si Yi was...

Chapter 577: It Comes From Another World

Was he An Hun Group’s ringleader—the leader of the world’s top assassin organization which was more terrifying than Gu Sha Mercenaries?

Rumors had it that no one had ever heard of the ringleader of An Hun, the best assassin organization in the world. He had no pseudonym. People only knew that he was mysterious, much more so than Slaying God, the boss of Gu Sha Mercenaries!

As long as An Hun Group did not invade the country’s territory, the security bodies like the police had to nod in deference even if they were to meet this presence more enigmatic than Slaying God—forget about wiping out An Hun like they were uprooting Inferno Ring!

Ge Junjian remembered that he had been told about the two powerful existences in this world that one must not offend when he just got into the Advanced Special Forces. One was An Hun Group and another was Gu Sha Mercenaries.

Today, however, he was suddenly told that the leaders of these two organizations were his best subordinate and the young man he saw as his best subordinate's man.

How could Ge Junjian not be shocked?

It was fortunate that while An Hun and Gu Sha were assassins and secret agent organizations, they had never done anything to Country Z, so they remained indifferent to each other with the nation.

This meant that the military did not have to confront An Hun Group and Gu Sha Mercenaries no matter how other countries or regions were at odds with them.

It was precisely the reason Zhe Province's military chiefs allowed Ge Junjian to work with An Hun and Gu Sha. Otherwise, it would be too much of a terror to work with the biggest assassin organization and mercenaries.

Ge Junjian calmed down gradually.

He had so many things to ask Yun Jian privately but this was not the right time or place.

Then, Mo Sen entered the base with a burner.

When they looked over, the big burner Mo Sen held contained coals made from wood. It was obvious that the charcoal was retrieved from the kitchen in Inferno Ring's base.

Mo Sen brought with him a pair of tongs for the charcoal too.

Those who were present were curious. What were these things for?

"Young master, I've only managed to find these," Mo Sen spoke as he carried the burner up the third floor.

What was he going to do?

Si Yi had only shifted his eyes away when Mo Sen placed the burner in front of him. His cutting gaze glared at Job but he spoke to Yun Jian, "These are nice for you to skin him."

Si Yi's words horrified everyone there.

If Yun Jian's stabs on Job's thighs were frightening, Si Yi's current words sounded like they came from the devil in the deepest pit of hell. It was traumatizing and terrorizing!

Shao Weiming was already squatting on the floor in fear. No one could understand how petrified he was. His lifetime's worth of fear was all poured out here.

Yun Jian lifted her leg, giving Job a glimpse.

"These are just enough to skin him." Yun Jian chuckled and went over to pick up the blazing charcoal with the tongs.

"No! No! I didn't kill your brother! Slaying God! It's not me! I didn't ask for it to be done either! Don't kill me! Don't kill me! I'll tell you a secret! I'll tell you a secret if you don't kill me! It's about the sandalwood box—about the sandalwood box... It's from another world! Don't kill me, I'll tell you guys everything!" Job shrieked when he saw Yun Jian approaching him with the burning charcoal.

Chapter 578: A Disagreement. You Don't Have The Right

The sandalwood box was something from another world. Yun Jian and Si Yi knew that. Both of them also knew that it was something from Yulong Mainland.

What they knew about the sandalwood box and Yulong Mainland was far more than what Job knew—because Lan Su was from the aforementioned world.

In spite of it, Yun Jian was still jolted when she heard about the sandalwood box from the Inferno Ring's leader. It was not that she was surprised about its origin or alarmed by Job who was in front of her. She wondered how Job knew that the sandalwood box came from another world.

Back when Job's men abducted Yun Zhu, their request to Yun Jian was direct. She must acquire the sandalwood box within three days and pass it to them at the meeting location or her younger brother would die.

That was why Yun Jian would risk her life for the sandalwood box and met them at the agreed location.

If Yun Jian did not know why Job and others from Inferno Ring wanted her to seize the sandalwood box previously, she had her guess now. The item came from Yulong Mainland, after all, and it possessed infinite power.

Now that she heard what Job said, she could suddenly connect his words now with Inferno Ring's request for the sandalwood box in her past life. Yun Jian could perceive from Job's expression that he was not lying either.

Did he really not ask Wolf.Kill to kill her baby brother?

"Speak!" Yun Jian barked at Job as she stopped what she was doing and threw the tongs and coal back into the burner.

Those who were standing downstairs were frowning as they listened.

What sandalwood box? What was that?

Job also said that this sandalwood box came from another world? Was there another world aside from Earth?

It was absurd! They were not in an ancient feudal society anymore—how could there be another world?

Assuming that Yun Jian was interested, Job put a hand over his thighs that were painfully numbed and straightened himself up.

"I'll tell you if you let me go!" This was Job's goal.

Other than staying alive, there was nothing else he cared for right now. He was going to be killed. What more could he pay attention to? He still had plenty of pretty girls to sleep with and the abundant wealth he accumulated over the years that he had yet to spend. There was no way he was dying!

He had just started the fun with the woman who was currently held at gunpoint by Ya Dang when said man forced them apart when he barged in. Tsk, that feeling was really... He was not sated yet.

“Tell me.” Yun Jian narrowed her eyes and looked maliciously at Job.

She was never one to go soft out of kindness. Her identity must not be forgotten—Slaying God, the best of international secret agents, always kept her words.

Bang!

Si Yi picked up an exquisite silver-made pistol and shot Job’s thigh.

The resounding shot made sweat pour out of everyone. Other than Yun Jian, Si Yi was probably the only here who would shoot someone out of a disagreement and stay nonchalant about it afterward.

“You have no right to negotiate. You can die if you’re not telling,” Si Yi said faintly. He blinked his deep eyes, pointing the pistol in his hand to Job’s heart.

Ya Dang, who stood behind Si Yi, was innocent. His young master snatched his pistol at the slightest disagreement, causing him to have to kick the trembling woman who was kneeling on the floor and pushed a knife against her neck.

Chapter 579: The Mysterious Person. Coming Clean

“I’ll say it! I’ll tell you!” Job nearly passed out when the same part of his thigh was shot.

The first stab Yun Jian made went straight into the base of Job’s thigh before she continued to stab the limb with her butterfly knife repeatedly. Furthermore, she stepped on Job’s wound with her foot. Each advance felt fatal!

Given an ordinary person, they would have fainted several times because of it. Job was not exactly the best in the field of assassination but he had gone through special training. In his past he was a hitman, after all, so he was still equipped with as much ability.

Job was not excellent but he reached the standard of an average assassin. As Inferno Ring’s leader, he would not have any following if he was truly useless.

For Job to take the place of Inferno Ring’s leader with only the capability of an average assassin, this made Yun Jian suspicious if there was someone else behind Job.

What Job said just now told her enough—from his expression—that he was not lying. This meant that Job, who knew that the sandalwood box was from another world, was not the killer who asked for her brother to be killed.

“I’m not sure about the details. I just know that the sandalwood box comes from another world... Hmm... A world called Yulong Mainland!” Not daring to keep anything to himself, Job endured the pain and spoke through gritted teeth.

The man was already too weak to move. The wounds from the knife and gun, in addition to Yun Jian’s steps, were debilitating his legs! If he was not treated in time, he might not be able to stand ever again.

Afraid that Si Yi would actually shoot him, Job continued to speak, spilling out as much of what he knew to prove his innocence.

“Inferno Ring isn’t actually mine either! What you heard from the outside is wrong. The truth is nothing like that!”

“I became Inferno Ring’s boss in the last two years. You might have thought that I’ve been one for years, right?”

“That’s not even the truth!”

“Two years ago, I was still just an assassin who was just starting out. My moniker wasn’t even Job. A mysterious person found me out of the blue and said that he could make me the boss of Inferno Ring, the person who could have all the girls to himself and be above everyone in the organization!”

“Heh heh, how could I not agree to something fantastic like this? I told him yes instantly!”

“I actually became Inferno Ring’s leader after that and the mysterious person asked Metal King Kong to help me with managing the organization.”

“But I realized that there was someone named Job before me and that person was the previous boss of Inferno Ring! I found out unintentionally that he was killed by that mysterious person!”

“I was scared witless but I dared not make a fuss out of it. Since you guys have exposed me today, it doesn’t matter anymore. Let’s work together. I don’t want to get killed by that mysterious person and I’m not the Job you think I am. The Job you have in your mind might have long been dead! I don’t know how many people called Job have taken the title as Inferno Ring’s boss!”

“Oh, the mysterious person was the one who asked me to send Wolf.Kill to seize the sandalwood box. He came up with the plan too.”

“The fact that the sandalwood box is something from another world is told by the mysterious person as well. He seems to be executing some sort of plan.”

“I’m telling you all of this because I want to work with you guys. Don’t kill me, I’ve told you everything I know!”

Job came clean and looked at Yun Jian and Si Yi pleadingly.

Chapter 580: It’s A Snap. Wiping Out Witnesses

To stay alive, Job spilled everything that he knew. There was no doubt that he was scared to die. He had unintentionally realized that the previous boss, the last to the previous boss, and even the third previous boss of Inferno Ring were all named Job. More importantly, all these Jobs had never shown themselves to the outsiders.

This meant that, without him, the mysterious person could still get more people named Job to replace him.

That said enough about the most terrifying fact—he could be killed anytime like the rest of the Jobs in the past.

Now that Yun Jian and others were invading and wiping out the Inferno Ring, Job thought he could come clean. He was not scared anymore—he would die either way. He might as well tell Yun Jian and Si Yi everything and begged for himself to be spared.

Job wanted to stay alive to toy with more beautiful women and spend his inexhaustible savings. After all, he had embezzled a lot of money from the organization within these two years! The reason Job had agreed to the mysterious person back then was because he could obtain what he was unable to in the past.

“Are you done?” Yun Jian asked with an arched brow.

Job nodded nursing his wounded thigh. “Yeah, I’m done. I’ve told you everything I know! Let me go, I’m innocent. It’s the mysterious person who asked me to do this. All the bad things weren’t my intention!”

Si Yi raised a brow at what Job said while Yun Jian continued to ask, “So the mysterious person’s the one who asked you to send Wolf.Kill to abduct my brother?”

Before Job could say anything, Yun Jian added curtly. “Be honest. Don’t even think about lying to my face or I’ll slit your throat right away!”

The intimidation of Slaying God was something Job was unable to challenge. He shrunk into himself, terrified of Yun Jian.

“Ye-Yes...” Job had his little tricks. He told Yun Jian softly before glancing up at her in fright, scared that Yun Jian would run the butterfly knife across his neck.

Job did not see Yun Jian doing anything but Si Yi who stood behind her pulled out his pistol suddenly and aimed it at him. Just as Job made half a sound, a shot was fired at his temple with a bang.

When the bullet went into his temple and he was falling back, Job heard Si Yi’s superior and biased words. “Do you think you can still live to see tomorrow’s sun?”

Even when the order to kill Yun Zhu in his past life was not given by Job, he was the one who relayed the instruction to Wolf.Kill.

Did he think he could get out of this alive?

The beloved biological baby brother of Si Yi’s woman was killed by an order Job had passed along. How could Si Yi allow him to live till the next sunrise?

“Ah!” The woman who kneeled on the floor screeched but a kick from Ya Dang knocked her out.

“Young master, Mo Sen and I will uproot the remaining forces of the Inferno Ring with the others,” Ya Dang turned to tell Si Yi as he stood in front of him respectfully.

“Mm.” The singular sound Si Yi replied with was deep and buzzing.

Ya Dang and Mo Sen left with An Hun’s people swiftly while Gu Sha Mercenaries’ members had been slaying the organization’s remaining forces in other locations of the Inferno Ring.

The scene was left with a great deal of corpses, alongside Yun Jian, Si Yi, and the hundred over men of Advanced Special Forces. Other than as support, these ASF soldiers did not even do anything—there was no casualty to be mentioned either.

Ge Junjian looked at Yun Jian with a complicated gaze.

Yun Jian stood up with one leg and looked down at the ASF soldiers who were downstairs. “It’s a snap for me to kill all of you.”

What did she mean?

The Advanced Special Forces members who stood behind Ge Junjian were alarmed. Was Yun Jian wiping out witnesses who found out that she was Slaying God?
