

Schoolgirl 581

Chapter 581: Playful Yun Jian. Are You Interested?

“Yun... Yun Jian, are you going to kill us?” Shao Weiming was the first to ask carefully, shaking from fear.

Regarding Yun Jian, Shao Weiming had gone from his initial disdain to shock and terror. He was really intimidated right now, especially when Yun Jian told them something like this. She was saying that it would be easy for her to kill them!

Ge Junjian looked at Yun Jian with complex feelings. His frown was locked in place as he gazed up at Yun Jian who looked nonchalant standing at the third floor’s staircase. He did not believe that Yun Jian would kill them because doing so would mean that the Gu Sha Mercenaries under her were officially declaring war with Country Z.

More importantly, Ge Junjian could see from Yun Jian’s past behavior and actions that she cared about Qin Yirou. Little Yun Zhu was her world too. Since she had kept him here in Country Z, how would she turn them into enemies?

“Maybe?” Yun Jian grinned at Shao Weiming downstairs, flashing her pearly whites.

Her grin made Shao Weiming feel worse. Once he thought about how he had despised Yun Jian, he felt feeble like Yun Jian was hacking his head away anytime.

Yun Jian was Slaying God! If she wanted all their heads, it took only a word from her.

Just as the atmosphere around them sank into grimness, Yun Jian cracked a smile suddenly, looking nothing more than a prankster of a young girl. “I was just tricking all of you!”

Her gaze gleamed right after that, eyes savage and oozing belligerence. She trained her eyes on everyone there and her tone switched. “Premise, though, is that you guys don’t breathe a word of what happened today. If you can do that, we’ll still be troops. However, if I hear even one word of a rumor, I’ll pronounce you dead without anyone knowing!”

“I know that you believe that I can do it.” Yun Jian finished with an unsettling smile.

Currently, she looked like a grim reaper holding a scythe to reap souls to the men.

“Yun Jian, I, Ge Junjian, won’t disclose it!” Ge Junjian was the first to answer.

“Mm, me too!”

“We won’t tell!”

...

Even Shao Weiming voiced his promise aloud in the end. If he did not respond, Yun Jian would probably kill him first. The man was honestly petrified.

Receiving their assurance, Yun Jian nodded.

“Inferno Ring is taken down successfully! Teams, pack up outside and prepare for return!” Ge Junjian commanded sternly.

“Yes, sir!” The ten Advanced Special Forces team ran out of Inferno Ring’s headquarters at the command.

Yun Jian and Si Yi had already come down from the third floor by then. When they were heading out, Ge Junjian stopped the girl. “Yun Jian, hold on!”

“Hmm?” Yun Jian turned but remained quiet looking at Ge Junjian.

Si Yi stayed standing beside Yun Jian, eyes wondering for a beat as he heard the older man.

“I have something to ask you.” Ge Junjian fell into a two-second silence creasing his brows.

Since he was not talking, Yun Jian stayed silent as well.

After a soundless two-seconds of anticipation, Ge Junjian spoke again, “I have all your data with me. You’re Yirou’s child and grew up in Xinjiang Town.”

“Yun Jian, I’ve also heard from Yirou that you seemed to have suddenly transformed into someone else since the school reopened one Friday in ninth grade. You called yourself Slaying God today. But how did you become Slaying God and complete various missions if you’ve never left Xinjiang Town?”

“I only have one question. You’re the fake Yun Jian, right? What about the actual Yun Jian? Where’s she?”

Ge Junjian was feeling rather scared. Qin Yirou loved her daughter so much. What would become of her if she discovered the truth? Anguished? Heartbroken? Agonized?

“I...” Yun Jian grinned out of the blue. She asked Ge Junjian in retort, “Officer Ge, tell me if you’re interested in my mom first? I won’t answer you otherwise.”

Chapter 582: Junjian’s Feelings. I’ll Go In Your Place

Yun Jian added at the end. “You must be honest. Otherwise, I still won’t answer you.”

Crossing her arms in front of her, Yun Jian tilted her head in staring at Ge Junjian. Her semi-smirk made Ge Junjian, who began the topic of conversation, shift to a blush.

“Uh...” Ge Junjian’s response had only further confirmed what Yun Jian had in her mind.

Si Yi who stood beside Yun Jian stayed close to her. He was also staring at Ge Junjian mirthfully. This was his mother-in-law’s happiness for the latter half of her life. It was no joking matter.

There was no doubt that Si Yi knew about Qin Yirou’s restless life and her past hardships. He could feel how Yun Jian cared for Qin Yirou and loved her too. He was also not blind to Ge Junjian and Qin Yirou’s interaction when he was in Xinjiang Town. It was fate that they got along.

Ge Junjian was flustered under Yun Jian’s interrogating stare.

In the end, he spoke bashfully under Yun Jian and Si Yi’s unwavering gaze, “I... To Yirou... Ay, Yun Jian, you know that I was married. I haven’t been spending a long time with Yirou but I think we get along quite well, so...”

“So you like her?” Yun Jian interrupted Ge Junjian.

She did not mind that Ge Junjian had been married. After all, her mother had been married too. Since both of them had gone through their first marriage, a lot of conflicts would be snipped in the bud. Moreover, both of them understood each other without much words.

Yun Jian did not wish to see Qin Yirou spending the rest of her life alone. She wanted her to find a partner who would treat her well. Obviously, Ge Junjian was a man with a sense of responsibility. He was in the military and did not have much free time, but he was unlike Yun Gang who gambled, borrowed from the loan sharks, and had an affair.

Ge Junjian was at a loss for words from Yun Jian's question but he nodded, blushing furiously.

"I agree to it," the girl said suddenly while Ge Junjian was incredibly flustered.

Then, Yun Jian sounded like she was marrying her daughter off as she spoke to Ge Junjian seriously, "Officer Ge, you're my superior now but you must treat my mother well if you're going to be together. Otherwise, I won't let you get away with it!"

Ge Junjian was quick to look up straight into Yun Jian's eyes at her words. He sounded sincere and a little delighted. "Yun Jian, don't worry. You know what I'm like. I can vow before you, if I, Ge Junjian, mistreat Yirou the slightest, I'll die the worst death!"

"Alright, I know." Yun Jian beamed.

Ge Junjian was clear about his feelings for Qin Yirou. On the contrary, the latter had yet to figure out what she felt for Ge Junjian. They had only spent such a short time together. Nonetheless, Qin Yirou had no idea that her daughter had sold her out.

As Yun Jian diverted the topic, Ge Junjian had instantaneously forgotten his initial goal. Fortunately, Yun Jian was not trying to get away with it. She revisited Ge Junjian's question earlier.

"Regarding what you asked just now, Officer Ge, I'm sorry I can only tell you this. I'm not the real Yun Jian but I don't know where she's gone to either."

"But you don't have to be worried. If I had the slightest ill intention about my mom, I'd die a miserable death!"

Yun Jian's vow creased Ge Junjian's brows before it smoothed out swiftly.

"You're not allowed to die. I'll die in your place if you have to." Yun Jian had just stuck three fingers up to swear when Si Yi grabbed her hand and said looking at her.

Chapter 583: A Huge Third Wheel. Calling Her By Her Nickname

Yun Jian had vowed so because since her rebirth, Qin Yirou had become the most important person to her. She could never do anything that would harm the woman as she had long taken her as her own mother.

In her previous life, Yun Jian was abducted at the age of five. Fending for herself all the way to the age of 16, she had never experienced a mother's embrace. It was said that a mother's love was the greatest and most selfless, but it was a pity that she had never felt it.

Since her rebirth, however, she got a taste of a mother's love, through Qin Yirou's concern and care. Even when the latter had never told her something direct such as "I love you, baby", her love and concern showed through her daily actions.

Yun Jian was a secret agent in her past life, even killing her closest friends to stay alive, but she was not someone heartless. She saw Qin Yirou, Yun Yi, and Yun Zhu as equals—they were her most beloved family and the only people who mattered to her currently.

It came as a surprise that Si Yi had taken her vow seriously. Despite that, it was undeniable that his words elicited a stream of warmth within Yun Jian.

"Don't make things up." Yun Jian pulled her hand out from Si Yi's grip with a flushed face.

Wearing a blush, Yun Jian looked back at Ge Junjian and told him, "Officer Ge, I hope you can continue to take care of me in the military in the future. I'm just Yun Jian. I hope you don't treat me any different from the members in Team Monarch."

Yun Jian did not want to be treated differently now that Ge Junjian found out about her identity. She had enlisted in the military to further hone her skills, not for preferential treatment after her identity was discovered.

Ge Junjian felt secondhand embarrassment from watching Si Yi just now, but he was experienced and thus could take more mentally. Acting as nothing had happened, he nodded at Yun Jian. "Mm, don't worry about it. Even if you're god itself, I'll train you according to the military rules."

Ge Junjian spoke seriously. He had never said things he did not mean. To the man, Yun Jian would have to go through military training like the other members when she joined his team even when she was Slaying God. There was no exception. This was Ge Junjian's principle.

"Mm." Yun Jian gave a slight nod in return. Her supple cheeks looked red like a big juicy apple.

Feeling Si Yi's murderous gaze, the corners of Ge Junjian's lips twitched. "I'll be heading out then, Yun Jian," he said swiftly as he felt like a huge unmistakable third wheel here and was unsettled by the thought.

"Mm." Obviously having no idea why Ge Junjian was leaving the base first, Yun Jian nodded again and watched the man leave through the north door of the headquarters.

Outside, An Hun Group's members had left while everyone in Inferno Ring was annihilated. What remained now of the organization were its lingering members left out there in the world—Ya Dang and Mo Sen were already making their way to wipe these remaining forces out with Snake.Lizard and others now.

"Let's head out too," Yun Jian turned to tell Si Yi after looking around and seeing no one aside from scattered corpses.

Just as she turned, however, she felt a sense of warmth coming toward her. In a blink of eyes, Si Yi had enveloped her in his embrace.

"Xiao Jian..." This is Si Yi's first time calling Yun Jian by her nickname that Qin Yirou and others had usually used but it sounded completely different to the girl when it came from him.

Chapter 584: Ya Dang Returns. Roaming Country S' Streets

"What are you doing?" Given no choice being wrapped in Si Yi's arms and resting against his chest, Yun Jian's red cheeks looked exactly like a red apple.

Si Yi smiled. If they were not at Inferno Ring's base and were surrounded by piles of dead bodies, he would be cradling Yun Jian's face and kissing her lips with so much intent.

'I can't help wanting to eat you and make you stay by my side this entire lifetime.' Yun Jian could not see Si Yi's gorgeous face but she could hear his deep buzz of a voice clearly.

Ba-dump! Ba-dump! Yun Jian could even hear her own heartbeat distinctly. It was making its own wild beats. She parted her ruby lips but not a word came out.

Si Yi's words made her shy but they also filled her with joy. What had gotten into her?

"Young master, I've contacted Gu Sha's higher-up, Snake.Lizard. Gu Sha Mercenaries has taken out Inferno Ring's remaining forces in advance, so we can consider Inferno Ring uprooted. You..." Ya Dang's voice came through the door untimely during then.

He had left Taini Island just now but before he got far, he received Snake.Lizard's update—all of Inferno Ring's remaining forces were destroyed.

Ya Dang rushed back upon the news, wanting to let his young master know immediately, only to witness such a tantalizing scene of Si Yi's larger build enveloping Yun Jian's petite slender figure, just as he walked in.

Both of them were properly dressed but there was somehow a tinge of indecency in Ya Dang's sight. Shocked, he promptly realized that he had come in at the wrong time and turned around to inform softly, "Uh... Young master, go ahead with what you're doing. I'll leave with the members first..."

"Hold it there." Si Yi's voice came from behind him. Ya Dang thought that Yun Jian was going to be the bane of his existence this lifetime. Not daring to turn around, he asked meekly, "Young master, any...anything else?"

"Let's go back to An Hun together." Si Yi let go of his tight hold on Yun Jian and swooped down to look at her but he was speaking to Ya Dang. After that, he told Yun Jian, "I'll make a trip back to An Hun. See you tomorrow."

He kept his eyes on Yun Jian longingly before holding her hand and leading them out.

Yun Jian did not oppose to her hand being held. She was still pink on her cheeks.

Holding Yun Jian's hand, it was until Si Yi left Taini Island with Ge Junjian and others that he said again, "I'm leaving now. You go back home first."

"We won't be able to make it back tonight. The ferry doesn't operate at night. I've sent someone to book the tickets for tomorrow." Ge Junjian intervened.

It was already 6-7 pm when they got to Country S. The ferry that would take them back to Country Z would only operate in the day, so all of them had to stay the night here.

“Mm.” Si Yi nodded and turned to hop on the private chopper that Ya Dang had readied—not before he took several more glances at Yun Jian.

Ya Dang manned the helicopter and left with Si Yi shortly. At that, Ge Junjian made his move and led Yun Jian and others back to Bridge Bay Pier of Country S.

They were in no hurry to look for a hotel. The troops, instead, roamed around the streets nearby the pier. “Country S is one of the richest countries in the world. I’ve been wanting to visit here!” one of the ASF soldiers exclaimed in delight.

“Me too,” someone chorused immediately.

As the only girl, Yun Jian, walked among over a hundred grown men, it was inevitable that they attracted attention. Yun Jian beamed with her eyes but did not make any comment.

Chapter 585: As You Wish. It’s Extirpated

Country S was one of the wealthiest nations in the world but its overall military competence was the weakest.

Why?

If people were to ask how rich Country S was, the people of Country S were so poor that all they had was money—even beggars drove sports cars like Ferrari and Lamborghini. In actuality, Country S was a kingdom of oil. It had the largest oil reserves and highest oil production in the world, making it one of the world’s richest countries.

Due to its petroleum reserves, Country S’ main income depended on exporting oil. Long before Country S discovered its oil reserves, however, it had been a poor undeveloped nation. Since it found petroleum and began extracting it, it leaped into being what it was now based on its geographical advantage.

These were only temporary. God’s gift would run out one day...

Country S was also the only country in the world that prohibited females from getting a driver’s license and driving, thus women did not have a high standing here. It was feudalism at its best and the king was the monarch.

It was said that if one wished to know which household was the wealthiest in Country S, one only had to see how many thriving trees there were in front of their house. This was because people did not usually pump water from the earth but petroleum.—Whoever bought more water here symbolized how rich they were.

The Advanced Special Forces soldier who had voiced out his wish to visit Country S a long time ago introduced the nation’s history and current developments along their way. He was obviously interested in such topics.

When the troops were done walking down the streets in Country S, they called it an early night at a hotel. The next day, all of them took the ferry back to their homeland. It was until they got back to Country Z that they felt like it had been a dream. It was as if what happened in Inferno Ring did not actually exist, yet it felt crystal clear.

Once they returned to Country Z, it also meant that their team had worked with Gu Sha Mercenaries and An Hun Group to take out the globally infamous Inferno Ring. It was inevitable that Zhe Province's military troops were going to rise in reputation because of this.

Nonetheless, no one knew about Inferno Ring being extirpated as of yet. In another two days, most probably, the news would be spread worldwide and the ASF that Ge Junjian led would become recruitment targets of international headhunters.

The troops went back to their military training camp gleefully—not including Shao Weiming, Yu Fengcheng and the like. Everyone knew that the latter were in discord with Yun Jian but her identity was simply baffling.

Just as the five buses returned to the military training camp, Yun Jian could see three figures waiting at the entrance from a far distance away before she even got off the bus. When the buses got nearer, they saw that it was F Province's Officer Bao, Coach Xu, and Ai Guoxun.

Noting Ai Guoxun's preening look, it was like he found out about some marvel. Just as Yun Jian and Ge Junjian alighted the bus, Ai Guoxun walked over with Officer Bao and Coach Xu at once.

"I'm sorry, the Inferno Ring's people were too good. When I attempted to catch him with Gu Sha's members, he still managed to slip away," Officer Bao told Yun Jian with a guilty conscience, to which she raised her brow.

"Hahaha! Ge Junjian, why are you playing the hero? Failed your mission? You must be dreaming to fantasize about uprooting the Inferno Ring!" Ai Guoxun gloated.

It was apparent that the man was only here to mock them.

"My apologies. Looks like it didn't go as you wish. Inferno Ring is extirpated," Yun Jian stated nonchalantly with a glare at the revealing man.

Chapter 586: Brawny Metal King Kong

"Haha, that's what I said, how could you guys possibly take... What did you say! You guys took out the Inferno Ring? Ho-how's that possible?!" Ai Guoxun's mirthful voice came to a halt.

"How—how's it possible? This is the Inferno Ring we're talking about! Inferno Ring! How could you destroy..." Ai Guoxun was relentless. He stared at Yun Jian and Ge Junjian in horror before something else struck him suddenly.

Ge Junjian had led a troop to take out the Inferno Ring. Now? There was no casualty in the ten ASF teams that he was deployed with?

Ai Guoxun pointed a finger to him instantly, speaking conceitedly, "Hah, don't think that I didn't know. Ge Junjian, could you have deceived me? Don't you forget that I'm also a commander in ASF!"

"Heh heh, why weren't there any casualties when you said that you've taken down Inferno Ring? Don't tell me that all of you are made of steel and brass—I'm not believing in such bull crap!"

What Ai Guoxun said sounded like it made sense. After all, Inferno Ring was an assassin organization listed right after An Hun Group and Gu Sha Mercenaries. Even when both the latter organizations had helped, it was impossible that Ge Junjian's military troop suffered no damage...

"Ai Guoxun, you're not welcomed in my troop. You can think what you want but get the hell back to F Province right now!" Ge Junjian exploded in rage and barked back furiously once he heard what Ai Guoxun said.

The latter felt a stutter in his heart, frightened by Ge Junjian's sudden change. Ge Junjian had been holding grudges against him for years but he had never been one with a short explosive temper.

The reason for Ge Junjian's rage was because Ai Guoxun had said something as offensive as asking why they had no casualties to all his subordinates. He was basically stating that there should be people dying or injured in the ten Advanced Special Forces teams. It sparked Ge Junjian's wrath in a flash.

"Hah, did you think I want to visit here so much? I'm leaving right now! Ge Junjian, I'll wait and watch you make a fool of yourself!" Ai Guoxun sneered at said man before turning to leave with a huff.

Watching the man leave, no one stopped him. What he said just now did raise everyone's hackles and Ai Guoxun simply had a grating character.

It was after the man left that Yun Jian looked at Officer Bao and replied to what he said earlier, "The person Inferno Ring sent was skilled. It's not your fault that you didn't manage to take him down."

"Mn, that person was muscly and robust with powerful brute force. We couldn't catch him even when we teamed up with Gu Sha Mercenaries." Officer Bao was still apologetic as he briefly described the situation.

"Muscly and robust? Was he brawny like he had inexhaustible energy?" Yun Jian arched a brow, staring directly at Officer Bao, as she stated more than asked.

"Yeah, uh... how did you know? You weren't there. The person's super strong and many in the police force got injured. A group of us tried to subdue him together but he managed to escape in the end..." As Officer Bao spoke, his tone was laced with guilt.

"Metal King Kong." Yun Jian squinted her eyes, her gaze flickering with killing intent.

"What?" Those around her were befuddled.

"That person's moniker is Metal King Kong. He's the most notable person in Inferno Ring," Yun Jian explained coolly with a press of lips.

Chapter 587: Notice: Enrolling In The Military School

Yun Jian was quite surprised as well, not expecting Inferno Ring to send a bigshot like Metal King Kong to save Hertz and his accomplices. After all, Job was pretty weak himself and the reason he could keep running Inferno Ring instead of being killed and replaced by members around him was due to Metal King Kong.

More crucially, Metal King Kong was someone from the mysterious person mentioned by Job. This made Yun Jian seethe, determined to kill Metal King Kong.

In spite of it, this could not happen now because Metal King Kong escaped. He would never return to Inferno Ring, too, after finding out that the organization was destroyed.

This meant that Job had died but Yun Jian did not avenge her past younger brother's death yet. Moreover, according to the dead Job, Yun Jian realized that the mysterious person and Metal King Kong could possibly come from Yulong Mainland. Like Lan Su, they could come from the stone cave in the catacomb.

Speaking of the cave that led to another world, perhaps the passage stopped countless capable experts in the world but it could not stop people from Yulong Mainland from coming over.

Yun Jian had heard from Lan Su that there were few in Yulong Mainland who were Lan Su's level but to come through the stone cave was not actually a challenge. She had said that the cave, which was the teleportation array from earth to Yulong Mainland, was created by Lord Divinity and when he had created the cave and door, he had never set difficult obstacles.

Once someone passed the arrows of the cave, they could travel between both worlds.

Officer Bao and Coach Xu shuddered when they heard Yun Jian say that the person who got away was Inferno Ring's top hitman, Metal King Kong. The latter was not ranked internationally but both the former had heard of his reputation—he was a terrifying presence who killed ruthlessly!

Yet, Officer Bao and his colleagues were not killed confronting him. Many had gotten injured but they were lucky no one died. As of now, Officer Bao had a belated feeling of escaping death.

After the terror washed off, Officer Bao and Coach Xu bid farewell to Yun Jian and Ge Junjian. They were only here to inform them about what happened. When that was done, there was no reason for them to stay longer.

Yun Jian and Ge Junjian did not ask that of them either. Yun Jian also warned the policeman to be careful and keep his guard up in case Metal King Kong came back. The police officer agreed to it kindly and left.

"Yun Jian, come with me," Ge Junjian told Yun Jian after debriefing the other ASF soldiers.

He took her to the training ground of Team Monarch where Chu Ning and her other teammates saw them coming over from a distance away.

"Ha! Look, Yun Jian and Officer Ge came back safe and sound! I told you, it's just the Inferno Ring. Heh heh, how could our Yun Jian'er and our valiant Officer Ge possibly fail!" Chu Ning sang and was the first to skip over.

"Yun Jian, how was it? I was so worried. Right, why are you guys back so soon?" Chu Xiangnan jogged to the back of Chu Ning and asked Yun Jian past the former.

The six of the team gradually came to Yun Jian.

"We've successfully wiped out the Inferno Ring." She smiled.

"Okay, Inferno Ring's uprooted now and all this has Yun Jian to thank for." Ge Junjian beamed and read out the text he had just received from his superior on his phone, "I've just gotten the notice. All seven of you will be enrolling in the military school the superior has appointed when the school reopens. You'll receive the best military education there!"

Chapter 588: United. Playing Hide-And-Seek

This was the latest news that Ge Junjian had received. When he first read it, he was nonplussed. Military schools were where the nation focused on training and cultivating military talents. At the same time, the score margin to enroll into one was incredibly high.

Ge Junjian's superior had basically connected the channel and sent all of Team Monarch directly.

Ge Junjian took a pause after speaking to look at Yun Jian and told her, "You're in ninth grade right now, Yun Jian. The lowest grade they have in the military school is senior high school, so you'll go after you finish your grade nine examinations and become a freshman in senior high school."

It could not be helped. After all, Ge Junjian's superior had pulled the strings to send all seven of Team Monarch to the military school and the lowest level of education available in such schools like this was senior high school.

The youngest out of seven members in Team Monarch was Yun Jian. In comparison, Chu Ning and others were already in senior high school while Chu Xiangnan, Liu Shiyun, and a few more were in college. In this case, they would be transferring schools to the military school directly.

When school reopened after Lunar New Year, Yun Jian would be in the last semester of ninth grade. Once she was done with this semester, she could go straight and study in the military school for her senior high school years.

"Mm." Yun Jian nodded. There was no issue in studying in the military school. Furthermore, she had no reason to refuse it when she could improve her abilities further there.

Due to her age and the lack of lower grade education available, however, there was no hurry for Yun Jian.

Although Ge Junjian now knew about her identity, he was truly impartial. It was not like he would exempt Yun Jian from going to the military school just because she was highly capable. The fact that she was too young, however, could not be helped.

Chu Ning and others were ecstatic right after Ge Junjian's announcement. Once the teaching period resumed, they would be transferring and studying in the same school—a military school, too.

"Awesome! We Team Monarch will be studying in the same school! Yun Jian can't go yet but that's fine. You'll join us in half a year!" Chu Ning clapped in excitement. She was elated.

"Yeah, Team Monarch gets to reunite in the military school half a year later. Heh heh, we're invincible!" Chu Xiangnan chorused with Chu Ning.

Yun Jian merely pressed her lips into a smile. Everyone's heart in Team Monarch was connected now—they were united. There was no way Yun Jian did not want to see a delight like this happen. Everyone wanted to see the best life had to offer.

“Oh yeah, Officer Ge, what’s the name of the military school we’re enrolling in?” Chu Ning and Chu Xiangnan got carried away with the thrill before they remembered to ask looking at Ge Junjian.

“You bunch will know when you’re there.” Ge Junjian kept the suspense.

“Officer Ge, is the school in Longmen City?” Liu Shiyu asked seriously.

“No, but it’s still in Zhe Province. It’s in Min City, about two to three hours’ drive from Longmen City,” the man answered.

“Ooh...” The team’s excitement had only grown when they heard that it was far.

Youngsters like them yearned to go far because once they were far away from home, they were out of their parents’ supervision and could do anything they wished. Yet, far as they would go, they would also miss home and their parents by then.

Ge Junjian sent them home after informing them of the news. Yun Jian was the last to be sent home because the man was going to be unabashed in staying at her place again.

Driving his jeep, Ge Junjian took Yun Jian back to Xinjiang Town. From a distance away, Yun Jian could see Lan Su playing hide-and-seek with little Yun Zhu with a piece of white cloth covering her eyes and could not help chuckling at the sight.

Chapter 589: Xiao Zhu’s Tattle. Open The Door

Her chuckle was filled with happiness.

Ge Junjian parked the jeep he drove at the door.

Yun Zhu, who was still playing hide-and-seek with Lan Su, spotted the familiar vehicle with his beady eyes and ran over gleefully, “Lan Su-jiejie, come on, my sister is back! Uncle Ge is back too!”

As he cheered, his little legs had carried him to Yun Jian and Ge Junjian speedily.

“Jiejie, Uncle Ge, where’s Si Yi-gege?” Little Yun Zhu clung to Yun Jian’s hand and shouted as he pranced around.

“Si Yi-gege isn’t here yet,” answered Yun Jian.

During then, two people came out of the house. It was Qin Yirou, who held a bunch of things in her hands, and Yun Yi who trailed after her.

“Xiao Jian, you’re back? Officer Ge, you’re here too? Hmm... I was planning to go back to Longmen City...” Qin Yirou quickly put down whatever she was holding and swiped her dirty hands on her pants looking at Ge Junjian. She then went to them to greet them, “Ge Junjian, do you want to have a seat inside?”

Qin Yirou had planned to catch the last bus in the afternoon to return to Longmen City. She had stayed for far too long in Zhang Meihua’s house—which was actually her brother, Qin Laiqian’s house. Her elder brother was the family man now and Qin Yirou had overstayed her welcome, so she wanted to go back to Longmen City.

“No need,” Ge Junjian replied and walked over to help Qin Yirou with her belongings before changing his plan as well. “I was going back to Longmen City too. I can send all of you back on the way.”

“Tha-that’ll be troubling you.” Qin Yirou was still polite to him. The man was not family—there was no reason for him to help her.

“It’s no trouble. Come on!” As Ge Junjian spoke, he moved Qin Yirou’s things to his jeep.

Not refusing his kind intention, Qin Yirou nodded with a smile and her impression of the man grew better.

Zhang Meihua did not seem to be home during this hour, so Ge Junjian hauled Qin Yirou, Yun Yi, Yun Zhu, Lan Su, and Yun Jian back to Longmen City. Lan Su left after arriving at their destination since her task had only been to keep Qin Yirou and the others safe.

Ge Junjian took it upon himself personally to move Qin Yirou’s luggage to Dong Ruan’s mansion. The latter had left the province, only becoming free recently, and had gone to pay new year’s calls to her relatives outside of the province.

As it was still Lunar New Year, Yun Jian planned to visit Qing You at her house with Yun Yi the next morning. They had wanted to pay the new year call on the 12th day of Lunar New Year but due to what happened previously, it got postponed.

Returning to Dong Ruan’s house in Longmen City from Xinjiang Town and sleeping on the large bed that she had been using for a long time, Yun Jian felt peaceful surrounded by the familiar scent of her bed.

Si Yi’s room was next to hers but the young man was not there right now. It was odd. Why was she thinking about him again? Shaking her head, Yun Jian snipped the thought off her mind.

It was then that the door to her room was suddenly opened from the outside and the person snuck to her bed in a flash after locking it. Yun Jian had locked her door earlier, so she raised her brow and was about to make her move when a familiar fresh fragrance greeted her.

Even when it was dark, she could feel him clearly.

“Why are you back?” Yun Jian was surprised. He said that he would only be back the next day.

“Because I missed you.” Si Yi hugged Yun Jian tight.

Raps were then heard on the door, little Yun Zhu’s tattle, too. “Mama Qin, Xiao Zhu went pee-pee just now and saw a thief running to jiejie’s room. He went swoosh into it. Will something happen to jiejie?”

Qin Yirou’s knocks on the door grew clearer as her voice got loud. “Xiao Jian, are you awake? Mom’s worried. Open the door!”

Chapter 590: A Veteran In Acting Shamelessly

The sudden noises at the door made Yun Jian’s eyes twitch. Si Yi was still hugging her close under the blanket while his refreshing scent was all she could breathe in and it kept her content.

“Xiao Jian?” Qin Yirou twisted the doorknob, panicking when she noted that the door was locked from the inside, especially so when little Yun Zhu told her that he saw a black shadow running into her room when he went to the toilet just now.

Children were innocent and naïve, incapable of lying, so Qin Yirou was truly getting worried.

Dong Ruan’s mansion was not located in the busy city center. There could really be a thief here. Her daughter was still a young and pure girl—Qin Yirou knew that she was skilled and competent since she was now training with Ge Junjian in the military, but mothers would always fret over their children. Qin Yirou was no exception.

“Xiao Zhu, go back to sleep first. Mama Qin will go find the key and open the door.” Thinking that something had actually happened when she was unable to wake Yun Jian up after calling to her for a while, Qin Yirou quickly carried Yun Zhu back to the room and went to rummage for the mansion’s keys in Dong Ruan’s room.

Back in Yun Jian’s bedroom, she flushed when she heard Qin Yirou’s hasty footsteps that were fading. She had gone to fetch the key, which meant that the door would open in a while even if Yun Jian stayed quiet in her bed.

“Get up right now!” Yun Jian sat up and shoved Si Yi but the latter refused to let go of his arms circling her like they were forged with steel.

“Nope.” With his chin against Yun Jian’s head, he uttered slowly.

Si Yi had rushed back through the night. Making a quick trip back to An Hun Group, he made Ya Dang fly him back to Longmen City with the helicopter in the middle of the night. Flying helicopters required a permit in the country but Ya Dang and Mo Sen had, of course, taken care of that ages ago.

Once Si Yi arrived in Longmen City, he headed home straight for Yun Jian.

The An Hun Group had its intelligence in Longmen City. A quick search would tell Si Yi that Yun Jian had come back to Longmen City from Xinjiang Town with Qin Yirou and the others.

“Leave quickly. We won’t be able to clear our names if my mom sees us!” Si Yi stayed clinging to Yun Jian even when she sat up. The girl gave him a push but he stayed stubborn in his spot.

“Isn’t that just nice?” Si Yi arched a brow, looking positively devilish under the moonlight. To Yun Jian, however, he just looked extremely in need of a beating.

“You’re not moving? This is the end of our relationship, then.” Yun Jian threatened softly, obviously not meaning what she said.

“The end? Xiao Jian, you’re mine for life. Are you still thinking about leaving me?” Si Yi hooked his arm and pinned Yun Jian on the bed before getting on top of her.

Qin Yirou’s brisk steps were heard again from the door, having found the key to Yun Jian’s room evidently. Yet, Si Yi had pushed Yun Jian to the bed, hovering above her at the moment.

Yun Jian’s eyes were wide as she lifted a leg to kick the young man but Si Yi managed to pin it down with his thigh.

“Xiao Jian, I’ll make you completely mine right now if you make another move,” Si Yi said softly, his breathing labored.

Both Si Yi and Yun Jian were light on their movements, so Qin Yirou who was outside could not hear them. She had already pushed the key into the knob anxiously. With a creaking click, the door was opened.