

Schoolgirl 651

Chapter 651: Yun Zhu In Danger. Escaping In Chaos

Right after Yun Jian took the pistol, hisses of the rifle came again from a distance; the majority of the people could not hear it.

Bullets came like a series of grenades as they strafed where Yun Jian was.

Fortunately, the surrounding parents had already left the scene, even Ding Yin had feebly crawled to a bush in the flower bed on the side. Ding Yin was rather swift as she crawled and dragged herself, she managed to hide herself in the bushes. When she had concealed herself and turned back, she was just in time to see Yun Jian pouncing to the ground.

Yun Jian moved her body to the side lithely, easily avoiding the bullets like a martial artist in a movie. Her eyes were narrowed into a squint with flaming murderous intent.

As Ding Yin witnessed Yun Jian rolling and steering herself clear from the sniper, she hugged her head in terror, nearly scaring herself witless. Yun Jian was so skilled! She was actually so masterly! Ding Yin felt stunned.

Ya Dang avoided the strafe with a tilt of the body as well. The target was Yun Jian, so Ya Dang was only a bystander. Ya Dang's movement when he evaded the bullets was minimal as there was no sniper aiming for him.

Just when he was about to help Yun Jian, the girl felt something was wrong immediately, shouting for Ya Dang, "Ya Dang, go look for my brother right now!"

Yun Jian had not thought more about it when she decided to attend the family sports day organized by Yun Zhu's school.

When the first event ended, the second and third events were carried out simultaneously, separating the students and parents.

Yun Jian had a sudden sense of premonition. She could not attend to her baby brother right now. Other than a small portion of Inferno Ring's remaining forces who had beef with her. There was still the mysterious person Job mentioned.

Although the Inferno Ring was wiped out and Job was killed, the mastermind of the Inferno Ring was not Job, but a mysterious person according to said man. Yun Jian had no way of knowing who the mysterious person was but Metal King Kong under Job was still out and about.

Since Inferno Ring had caught Yun Zhu in her past life, they must have known about her relationship with him. This was what Yun Jian was the most worried about currently.

These snipers knew that they would not be able to kill her. Was their target actually Yun Zhu? Just the thought of it froze Yun Jian's heart. She would never allow Yun Zhu to be captured from her once again! Never!

"Got it!" Ya Dang answered and sprinted away to where the boy would be.

The school was chaotic. Some parents were terrified and ran into classrooms, canteen, and various places in anticipation of help while most of them grabbed their children and stayed hidden in the flower beds quietly.

The snipers were not shooting any parent or child in the school but they had still roused a massive bout of panic.

After Yun Jian evaded the continuous rake of bullets, she bolted to where little Yun Zhu would be while the snipers reloaded their rifles.

Ding Yin crawled out from the flower bed's bush when she decided that it was safe. Shakily, she hid behind people as she chased after Yun Jian. Her daughter, Tian Fei, was together with Yun Zhu, that was why she had to go after Yun Jian.

Yun Jian had caught up just after Ya Dang came to where Yun Zhu and Duan Li would do the frog jump race.

"Jiejie! Yun Zhu's over there! A man caught him! Go save him quickly!" Duan Li ran to them right as Yun Jian got there. The little girl was trembling but she forced her fear down to tell Yun Jian the situation clearly.

Snapping her gaze, Yun Jian looked toward the gate. A man in black with a black mask was planning to escape amidst the chaos carrying the unconscious Yun Zhu.

Chapter 652: Don't Deserve To Live

Indeed, these people were targeting her younger brother!

Yun Jian was surging with rage. She knew that possibilities were grim like their past life if little Yun Zhu was abducted by these people again.

The state of her baby brother's death flashed in her head once more. Infuriated, Yun Jian sprinted toward the gate where the man in black clothes and mask who was carrying Yun Zhu was before Duan Li finished.

Ding Yin easily found Tian Fei who was scared witless hiding in a corner once she came over. Pulling her daughter into her arms, she then hid in the corner and watched Yun Jian dashed for the man who kidnapped Yun Zhu.

The girl looked almost illusory under the afternoon sun. Her long hair that fluttered gave off a gentle sense of beauty—not that people were paying attention to this.

While Yun Jian ran, she slipped the Browning pistol Ya Dang had given her into the pocket of her loose tracksuit pants. The pocket was saggy but she was able to tuck the gun in without her looking down. She then fished out a butterfly knife she carried everywhere with her from her top pocket.

Afraid that the shooting would accidentally hurt Yun Zhu, Yun Jian forwent the firearm directly. She flicked the knife open and perched it between her teeth, so her arms remained unhindered as she bolted for her target.

Yun Jian had just bought the butterfly knife. It was not the one she had used during Inferno Ring's destruction. The one that she had picked from the military had long since been thrown away because that knife was already stained with the blood of Inferno Ring's members.

Usually, Yun Jian would switch into a new blade after killing someone with the butterfly knife because she thought that the weapon drenched in others' blood was dirty. She did not have to be worried about this one she was biting being unhygienic as it was a new one.

With the butterfly knife held between her teeth, she ran with her arms swinging, allowing her speed to be several times faster than running whilst holding a weapon.

Those who stood farther away, Ding Yin, Tian Fei, Wang Ba's mother, and those who stood their ground, Duan Li, Ya Dang, and lastly Lan Su who rushed over, had all witnessed Yun Jian's high speed sprinting. This was probably the fastest she had ever ran in her whole life.

As Yun Jian sprinted, her eyes were glowing red with a murderous intent, even the man who carried Yun Zhu sensed it without looking back.

"Isn't she afraid of swallowing the knife when she bites it? What is she doing?!" Those who were hiding looked at Yun Jian like they were watching a drama unrelated to them after they made sure they were hidden from view.

A series of muted shots could be heard from the rifles, causing the hiding crowd to clamp up their mouth instantly, too scared to make another sound.

In spite of it, they also realized that the bullets were aimed at Yun Jian!

With a squint, Yun Jian rolled forward twice before springing up and pursued the man with the butterfly knife still between her teeth.

The rifle strafe was endless. The parents who were hiding and spectating could see that the snipers were after Yun Jian, while the girl's practiced movements to avoid the bullets stunned all of them. After all, no one dared contest speed against a bullet!

Yet, Yun Jian did it! Not only did she dare do it, but she was also pursuing someone while being shot at!

"Heh heh, Yun Zhu got captured by the evil uncle! Serves him right! Best if he dies!" A loud girly voice rang from a distance; Yun Jian was running but she could hear it clearly.

It was Tian Fei. That was not all. As Yun Jian chased after Yun Zhu, Tian Fei's intentionally raised voice came again, at the man who was abducting Yun Zhu, "Evil uncle, don't send Yun Zhu back after you catch him! Beat a fatherless kid like him to death! My mommy says that people like this don't deserve to live!"

Chapter 653: Yun Jian's Wrath. Temple Strike

Tian Fei's voice was shrill, a shout, so most of those around heard her—including Yun Jian who was evading the strafing bullets and pursuing the man who caught Yun Zhu.

Yun Jian's eyes darkened at the little girl's voice. If Yun Zhu were to hear her, Yun Jian knew that he would take it to heart and feel sad and alone even if he said he did not mind.

When Yun Jian found Yun Zhu in their previous life, their birth parents were dead. Little Yun Zhu was already an orphan back then, so calling him out for having no parents felt worse than calling him stupid.

Moreover, Tian Fei was cursing Yun Zhu by asking the man who took him to hit him to death! Little Yun Zhu's severed head flashed in Yun Jian's mind once more. Furious, her sprint picked up the pace.

The rifles were raining a blitz of bullets on Yun Jian. Despite the fatal situation that came behind her, she sidestepped left and right, actually catching up with the man from dozens of meters away in less than a minute!

"Oh my gosh! The young lady's so fast!"

"And she's running in an open fire! It's like I'm watching a movie. This doesn't make sense!"

...

Some of the parents who were safely sheltered began to talk among themselves. They were still terrified but they had calmed down significantly compared to earlier as the majority had discovered that the snipers were only after Yun Jian.

It had actually only been a mere twenty-something seconds since Yun Jian spotted the man and gave chase!

"I'll go help!" Ya Dang announced with a frown and was about to get going.

Yun Jian was skilled but if she was the slightest bit injured right in front of him, Ya Dang was sure that he would be thrown to the Amazon forest by next week.

The Amazon forest was the world's largest tropical rainforest consisting of venomous insects, snakes, and scorpions. Its biodiversity earned it the name of the "flora and fauna kingdom".

If someone were abandoned there, it was life-threatening.

Ya Dang could remember Si Yi sending him and Mo Sen to survive in the Amazon forest back when they were being trained. He had nearly lost his life a few times in exchange for his current expertise.

Although Ya Dang would probably not die there now, he would most probably be exiled to the Amazon forest if he did let Yun Jian get hurt when he was on the watch. Moreover, he guessed that he would be thrown into the jungle without any tools whatsoever.

Ya Dan was certain that his young master could absolutely do something like this for Yun Jian!

"No need." Lan Su suddenly stopped Ya Dang with a hand and said, "She can handle it alone."

She was Wizard Lord Wu of Yulong Mainlan's Wu Clan—it was impossible that she was unable to handle a petty issue like this on her own!

Right after what Lan Su said, Yun Jian was already close to the man. She pounced forward, as everyone watched, and kicked out her leg. At the same time, she relaxed her jaw to drop the butterfly knife. Before it fell to the ground, her right hand caught the blade easily.

She lunged for the man again. The latter turned his head away in panic but the astonishing speed that was erupting from Yun Jian was unmistakable.

She was engulfed in wrath, twisting her hand that held the butterfly knife along the man's head. In the next second, the butterfly knife went straight into the man's head at a strange angle, striking his temple directly!

Chapter 654: Yun Jian Punishes Scums—Making A Mark

The man who captured little unconscious Yun Zhu was apparently skilled. From his movement, he was more like a high-level assassin than those small-time hitmen.

As a high-level assassin was about the level of an Advanced Special Forces soldier, the former could kill 50 regular people alone! The ASF here did not refer to people like Chu Ning, Chu Xiangnan, and others who earned their title because of Yun Jian but those who were truly capable. Nonetheless, the youngsters mentioned would become worthy ASF one day.

Usually, it was not an exaggeration for an official ASF member who had gone through absolutely brutal training to beat 50 common people.

Yet, a presence like this was killed on the spot from Yun Jian's singular stab to the temple!

Complicated questions aside, just the fact that Yun Jian had killed someone was already petrifying to those in the school. Imagining watching someone kill another person was nothing as crushing and overwhelming as seeing it in real life. This happened right before them and the killer was the sister of their children's classmate!

It was simply mind-blowing!

After Yun Jian killed the man, she caught little Yun Zhu from his shoulder before the man collapsed. The boy was still unconscious as the man had knocked him out.

Yun Jian forgot about her butterfly knife after she caught hold of Yun Zhu and darted some distance away.

Shortly after Lan Su stopped Ya Dang from helping Yun Jian, both Lan Su and Ya Dang vanished from where they had been.

No one there knew where they had gone to but no one would want to find out why either.

Yun Jian slipped into a flower bed where the snipers could not aim accurately at and checked Yun Zhu thoroughly, realizing that he was only knocked out. It was not serious nor would it affect his head.

While Yun Jian brought Yun Zhu into taking cover in the flower bed, the crowd erupted into chaos.

"Ah! Ahh! Sh-she k-kil-ki-killed... someone!" someone cried and shouted in terror before the female parents screamed and put everyone else in disorder. After all, most of the parents there were female. Their spouses had already gone to work, so events like the family sports day were mostly participated by the women.

When they saw a gory scene like this, these female parents shuddered in horror, shaking like a leaf.

Yun Jian put Yun Zhu down by the flower bed.

“Jiejie! How’s Yun Zhu? Is he okay?” Duan Li came dashing to them when she was doing that.

Yun Jian frowned. She did not see Lan Su and Ya Dang but it came without saying that they must have gone to take care of the snipers, so she did not stop Duan Li from coming to her.

“Chessie, look after Xiao Zhu for me.” Yun Jian gently shifted Yun Zhu’s head to Duan Li’s lap.

“Mn!” The girl gave a fervent nod.

It was then Yun Jian left the flower bed and went over to the dead man to pull out her butterfly knife from his temple right in front of the quivering parents who were watching her go to Ding Yin and Tian Fei.

The mother and daughter who witnessed the sight were already shaking as they fell to their feet on the ground. Now that Yun Jian was coming toward them, they were drowning in fear.

Flash! Yun Jian flicked the butterfly knife abruptly.

“Ah!” Both Ding Yin and Tian Fei screeched at once. When their eyes fluttered open again in fright, they saw the bloodied butterfly knife stabbed deep right in front of them!

Chapter 655: Shoot Her To Death! You’re Slashing God

Ding Yin and Tian Fei had been crouching in the flower bed as they were too scared to come out.

When Yun Jian flicked the butterfly knife, it landed in the soil just short of where the tip of their feet was. The butterfly knife still had the dead man’s blood on it that had yet to dry.

As the blade Yun Jian had thrown stood tall in the soil right in front of Ding Yin and Tian Fei, others who witnessed the scene felt chills running down their spine. One could only imagine how much terror Ding Yin and Tian Fei, who were the direct parties involved, were going through.

“Ah! Ah! Mommy, blood... blood! There’s blood! Wu-wu-wu...” Tian Fei’s obstinate temper flew out of the window as she blanched and cried loudly from the sight. She shook and cried tears of fear.

If Tian Fei had felt superior as a spoiled princess in the beginning, there was no such pride from her right now. She had even forgotten about her willfulness as she cried, obviously having been terrorized.

Ding Yin herself was no better, so she could not tend to her daughter. Quivering, she shrunk into herself with Tian Fei without daring to take even a deeper breath, afraid that Yun Jian would pull the butterfly knife out and pierce it through their temple, just like how she killed the man just now.

Yun Jian sneered at both of them before taking a large step forward and grabbed Tian Fei’s collars, hauling her out of Ding Yin’s arms.

“What—what are you doing...” Ding Yin struggled to pull her daughter back, unable to keep hiding when Tian Fei was pulled away.

Yun Jian kicked the woman away mercilessly as she kept her grip on Tian Fei’s collars. Looking at her tear-stricken face, she recalled how the young girl had cursed Yun Zhu earlier.

“You called my brother a fatherless child and asked him to kill Yun Zhu just now, hmm?” Yun Jian’s eyes were murderous. Her belligerence was so vehement that the adults there did not dare resist—what was more, a child like Tian Fei.

“Bah...” Tian Fei was terrified at Yun Jian’s words and could only resort to her ultimate weapon—crying.

Slap! With one hand on the girl’s collars, Yun Jian’s other hand went straight for Tian Fei’s face, landing a harsh slap on her cheek. She did not care that Tian Fei was still a child. After the slap, she raised her voice with a growl. “What are you crying about? Weren’t you the superior just now? Answer me!”

If Tian Fei had cursed Yun Jian, Yun Jian would not be doing this to her. Yet, what did the girl say? She wished for Yun Zhu’s death. The word itself was a huge taboo to Yun Jian, especially wishing it on Yun Zhu.

Little Yun Zhu had died once. This made Yun Jian cherish him more and made no room for others to speak ill about him at the same time.

Tian Fei could only sob from being rebuked, feeling her cheek throb, but she dared not speak another word.

It was then a shrill cry of police siren came from outside the school. In an instant, a few police cars were seen parking at the school before about a dozen police officers came down with police batons.

The one upfront was a police officer from the police station nearby Wuning Yi Elementary School. He had rushed over here once he heard neighboring civilians reporting that they heard gunshots.

“What’s the matter? What’s the situation here?” Police Officer Wu felt his eyes twitching when he saw the dead man.

Ding Yin grabbed Tian Fei from Yun Jian’s hands when she saw that there were police and shouted at Officer Wu with a finger at Yun Jian, “She killed someone! She wants to kill my daughter too! She’s gone mad! Take her away! Shoot her to death!”

Yun Jian scoffed.

Officer Wu went to Yun Jian and hollered at her, “What’s going on?!”

Yun Jian took a glimpse at Officer Wu before retrieving a pass from her pocket and gave the identification tag to the policeman. When Officer Wu had raised his voice at Yun Jian in the beginning, his perfunctory scan at the ID caused his gaze to be alarmed. “You... You’re Team Monarch’s Slashing God?”

Chapter 656: An Eye For An Eye, A Tooth For A Tooth

Officer Wu was a policeman from Wuning Yi Elementary School’s nearby police station. Perhaps, he was considered high-ranking in his particular station, but his status was insignificant in Longmen City.

Since he had an important position in his station, Officer Wu was usually boastful there. Once he met his superior, however, he would quiver and turn meek.

Yun Jian’s Team Monarch had only recently begun to spread its name.

As someone in the same field of work, Officer Wu had caught wind of the team's competence since they were now becoming a household name.

From the start, Team Monarch had completed the mission that even Advanced Special Forces thought was difficult. The second time, they retrieved the antique an international thief had stolen within the shortest time possible! Both missions had set the status of Team Monarch and elevated them to Advanced Special Forces swiftly.

When they were still candidates for ASF, they had accomplished two significant missions in mere months. That prompted their superior to promote them to ASF directly! It was an honor some people could not achieve despite decades of hard work.

It was said that Team Monarch owed its honor in becoming ASF to their member, Slashing God.

Furthermore, the globally known assassin organization that was just ranked after An Hun Group and Gu Sha Mercenaries, Inferno Ring, was annihilated in an operation led by Team Monarch's Slashing God.

No one knew how Slashing God from Team Monarch got to know people from An Hun or Gu Sha but everyone was dumbstruck when the rumor got around! Not a single person was not flabbergasted!

After all, rumor also had it that Slashing God of Team Monarch was only a teenage girl!

Never would Officer Wu imagine that Team Monarch's Slashing God, who was the talk of his station, Longmen City, Zhe Province, Country Z to even the world, was here right in front of him!

Goodness!

With a thwack, the identification pass in Officer Wu's hand fell to the ground as he looked up at Yun Jian.

It was not just the fact of Yun Jian being Slashing God that had made rounds in their field of work and even among the international police—Yun Jian's status as a soldier under Ge Junjian was enough to overwhelm Officer Wu.

Yun Jian wore a faint smile at the policeman's reaction before she bent down to pick up her ID and patted the dirt away. "You've dirtied my ID pass."

When Officer Wu heard Yun Jian's voice, he felt his heart lurch. He parted his lips to say something but realized that he was unable to speak up.

Ding Yin had reached her limit. Carrying Tian Fei who was wailing, she shouted at Officer Wu again, "You guys are the police! What Team Monarch? Slashing God? How could you cover for her when you're the police? She killed someone! Whoever breaks the law is punishable, be it royalty or commoner. Even high-ranking officials can't escape it. She killed someone, why can't she be shot to death!"

Ding Yin had long resented Yun Jian, especially with how she treated her daughter just now. She was even feeling like killing her now.

Yun Jian shifted her gaze to the woman when she heard what she said. It ran a shiver down Ding Yin's back but she braced herself to shout at her, "What are you looking at? An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth!"

Chapter 657: Evidence To Clear Her Name

Officer Wu was rushed with the impulse to choke Ding Yin. Suppressing the thought, he nodded at Yun Jian and told her, “Uh... Ma'-ma'am, can you explain the situation, please?”

The policeman was at least three times older than Yun Jian, but he was currently addressing her with an honorific like she was an elder.

The police officers around them as well as the parents hiding in the flower beds were dumbfounded. Everyone was witness to Officer Wu's commanding superiority when he came in—how long did it last, though? It had just been Yun Jian passing her ID to Officer Wu and the latter became this polite to her?

It... it did not make sense! It was not just Officer Wu's colleagues who were surprised. The parents and teachers who dared not step out from their hiding yet were enjoying themselves with the drama were astounded too.

Yun Jian pressed her lips together with a squint, her face that was a work of art immediately attracting everyone's attention.

She knew that she would be fine if she did not explain the case but her younger brother was still schooling in Wuning Yi Elementary School. He still had to face the rest of his school faculty. Yun Jian did not mind being forced to a corner but she was not going to let Yun Zhu's future get destroyed because of her.

“The dead man's an assassin. Everyone here saw what happened just now. There were snipers ambushing me and even attempted to cause a riot.” Yun Jian's explanation was brief and simple.

An assassin? The man just now was an assassin?

All the parents including Ding Yin and Officer Wu as well as his colleagues felt their heart stutter at Yun Jian's words. The fear that came was a reflex.

“On wha-what ground are you calling him an assassin? Hah, what if he's just a human trafficker? Did you think you're a piece of gold? Could he capture your brother to blackmail you? Pft, who do you think you are? Did they have to threaten you and for what? You're just trying to excuse yourself from the crime!” Ding Yin was relentless. In fact, she wanted Yun Jian dead right now.

“Uh... Can you show us evidence that the victim's an assassin, please, ma'am? Otherwise, it'll be tricky for us to do our job...” Caught in a dilemma, Officer Wu told Yun Jian.

Although Yun Jian was a member of the Advanced Special Forces, she had killed someone in public. If there was no explanation provided to those around, the matter could not possibly be wrapped up. After all, no one had the right to kill anyone openly; Yun Jian was no exception even when she was an ASF soldier.

Nonetheless, if Yun Jian did kill an assassin, she would not be captured and it would be a merit to her instead according to her status.

Yun Jian narrowed her eyes. She knew that Officer Wu was caught in between. Lifting her leg, she went for the dead man while the police followed.

“Ask your men to reveal the back of his hand,” Yun Jian told Officer Wu pointing at the dead body.

She was 90% sure that she could prove this man to be from the Inferno Ring. The organization was uprooted with its remaining forces wiped out but she did not think that there was nothing left of it. Furthermore, Metal King Kong was still out and about. Inferno Ring’s tactic of abducting her younger brother in their past life remained the same too.

Officer Wu waved and instantly, a policeman stepped forth to tug the corpse’s hand. There was an eye-catching golden rose on the back of the man’s hand/

“This... This is?” Officer Wu pointed at the hand and turned to ask Yun Jian.

“The unique mark to Inferno Ring’s members. He’s a killer from Inferno Ring,” Yun Jian replied faintly. She had already guessed it.

Chapter 658: The Irreproducible Golden Rose

“The golden rose on the back of their hand, which symbolizes members of the Inferno Ring, can’t be reproduced by outsiders. If you don’t believe it, go find out from the authorities. I’m sure you’ll receive the result swiftly,” Yun Jian told Officer Wu, arms crossed as she stood on the spot.

It was no secret that the back of the hands of an Inferno Ring member was marked with a golden rose. Anyone from a related field of work would know about it, thus Yun Jian was able to talk about it freely.

Due to his sense of inferiority against Yun Jian, Officer Wu turned to his subordinate and ordered, “Go investigate it right now and verify if the information is accurate!”

It could not be helped. Even if Officer Wu wanted to cover for Yun Jian, the fact that Yun Jian had killed someone openly had to be handled with caution.

“My apologies, you’ll have to wait for a moment, ma’am.” Officer Wu told Yun Jian deferentially after speaking to his subordinate.

People from Inferno Ring were actually here and openly taking revenge on Yun Jian! In this case, the rumor about Yun Jian leading teams to wipe the organization out must be true. Officer Wu shuddered and gulped. Could he not feel timid when Slashing God who annihilated Inferno Ring was here? One must know what an organization Inferno Ring was—it was a world-renowned group of assassins! And Yun Jian took them all out!

“What are you waiting for? So what if the man’s an assassin? She killed a man. This is the reality! A normal girl like her could kill someone now, what would become of her in the future?”

“You police should capture her right away and handcuff her! She’s a murderer! What if she escapes?” Ding Yin gritted her teeth when she noted that Officer Wu was biased to Yun Jian. As she spoke, she waved a finger at Yun Jian like she was eager for the girl to be held in custody and interrogated right there and then.

“Shut up! I’ll catch you first if you keep rambling!” As a policeman, Officer Wu had his own judgment. When Ding Yin repeatedly ordered him—a police officer—around, and she was not even his superior but a regular parent, Officer Wu could not help growling at her.

“You...” Ding Yin was a prideful rich housewife whether she was at home or outside. She had never been barked at like this, so she shrunk in fright instantly.

“Are you still a police? Isn’t the job of the police to serve the people? She killed someone right in front of her, you should catch her! Take her back to the police station and beat her up, see if she’ll admit to her crime! Why are you guys still talking on and on here!” Ding Yin continued snapping condescendingly at Officer Wu in a self-righteous tone.

However, everyone who heard her was ruffled.

“You... You’re one incorrigible woman!” Officer Wu pointed at the woman and shouted, expressing the thoughts of those around them.

Who in the modern days would capture someone and coerce a confession out of them without understanding the situation? This was an ancient punishment!

Officer Wu was filled with disgust toward Ding Yin immediately.

“Officer, we’ve gotten the result!” Officer Wu’s subordinate came back to report to him after clamping his walkie-talkie.

“Mm, what is it?” asked Officer Wu.

“International assassin organization, Inferno Ring’s logo is indeed a golden rose. It’s unique and is irreproducible!” the policeman answered.

Chapter 659: Is Already... Extremely Satisfying

To be honest, Officer Wu breathed out in relief after his subordinate spoke. If the man killed was not an assassin, it was going to be a tricky situation to handle. In addition to the parents’ instigation, Yun Jian would actually be jailed. She would be treated like a regular person even if she killed someone as an Advanced Special Forces. After all, there was the saying—all were equal before the law.

Nevertheless, Yun Jian was under Ge Junjian and she was Slashing God of Team Monarch. Her name had traveled across the globe and made Team Monarch famous as well. Even the ten teams of ASF who had gone to uproot Inferno Ring with her were being recruited by the international police or renowned organizations.

Zhe Province’s military troop soared in its reputation.

These were all thanks to Yun Jian.

Officer Wu himself had heard of her reputation, thus his deference. However, Ding Yin had no idea of Yun Jian’s identity all along. She did not know what Inferno Ring or Team Monarch was nor knew who Slashing God was. That was why she kept inciting.

There were a lot more parents like Ding Yin on the scene. They were unaware of the fact that Yun Jian was an Advanced Special Forces soldier when Officer Wu referred to her as Team Monarch’s Slashing God.

Everyone there thought that she was only little Yun Zhu's elder sister, an ordinary guardian of a student in Wuning Yi Elementary School. Nothing more.

They were completely oblivious to the significance of Team Monarch or Inferno Ring.

If it was Falcon Hall of Longmen City that was mentioned, however, no one there would not know about it. Falcon Hall was Longmen City's top mafia group! Yet, they did not know that it simply could not be compared to Inferno Ring.

Perhaps to those who were unheeding, the threat of Falcon Hall triumphed that of Inferno Ring, but those who were well informed of the reality knew that there was no form of comparison to be placed between both organizations.

It was a cold hard fact that Inferno Ring was an international assassin organization while Falcon Hall was the largest mob only within Longmen City. Once it was placed out of Longmen City, Zhe Province or even Country Z, it was nothing.

"Since the air is cleared, you may leave, ma'am!" Officer Wu told Yun Jian courteously.

It went without saying that Advance Special Forces had the right to leave follow-ups to the police. As long as the case was not complicated and a serious accusation of killing someone was cleared, the identification passed in Yun Jian's possession sufficed for her to leave right after her innocence was proved. This was also the reason Yun Jian had promised Ge Junjian to join the ASF.

"What? Leave? She threatened my daughter and killed a man. On what ground can she leave?!" Unreasonable Ding Yin who did not know about Yun Jian's identity as a member of Advance Special Forces screeched the moment she heard that Officer Wu was letting the girl go.

"Even when the one she killed is already a criminal who deserved death, she's still killed someone! She should at least be put behind the bars for days for killing someone as a commoner! Who knows if she's killed a kind man instead! Why can she leave!" Ding Yin cries shrilly and had even gone in front of Yun Jian to stop her from leaving.

"Why? Because she's an Advance Special Forces soldier! She killed an unpardonable killer! This is their job! Why else!" Officer Wu bellowed back at Ding Yin and felt extremely satisfied.

Chapter 660: Why So Relentless. Wouldn't Be Selling

Advance Special Forces? Their job?

The parents hiding among the flower beds were bamboozled.

Most of them had heard of the Advance Special Forces. Even if they had not, no one there was ignorant enough to not know what Special Forces was.

The Advance Special Forces was a branch of the Special Forces! The latter was usually found in the military and each of its members was strictly proficient. When an ordinary Special Forces soldier was already so strong, what was more when there was 'Advance' added in front of the title?

Everyone was stunned.

“What? Advance... Special Forces?” Ding Yin’s hands that were holding Tian Fei went slack, nearly dropping her daughter onto the ground when she heard it.

She remembered that a friend of her husband was a Special Forces soldier. That military man had boasted so much to her husband back then and her husband was rather envious, claiming that he would laugh in his dream if he did get to become one.

The Special Forces soldier friend did not just brag to Ding Yin’s husband, he bragged to Ding Yin as well. He had even blustered about Advance Special Forces and said that he knew them.

That was when Ding Yin knew about the ASF, a troop that was umpteenth times more skilled than the Special Forces. Even her husband’s friend, the one who was a Special Forces member, was proud that he knew people from ASF.

It spoke of how intimidating the identity of Advance Special Forces was!

Coming back to the present, Officer Wu claimed that Yun Jian was an ASF soldier right before everyone. Even if he was lying or making things up, he would never tell such a lie in public. It was nothing to joke or lie about!

That would mean that Yun Jian was really... from Advance Special Forces?

“So can I leave now?” Yun Jian narrowed her eyes with a slight raise of her brow. She did not want to disclose her identity but it was an emergency, she had killed someone from Inferno Ring.

Yun Zhu still had to go to school in Wuning Yi Elementary School. If she kept her military status a secret, these parents would automatically assume her to be a killer. Even when Officer Wu knew that she was not, these parents would still warn their children to stay away from little Yun Zhu because his elder sister was a psycho murderer.

Yun Jian did not want Yun Zhu to bear such a burden. She wanted him to grow up happily.

Once she divulged that she was an ASF member, the parents here would not see her as a murderer. This was the difference between a commoner who killed someone who should be killed and an ASF soldier killing the same person.

If an ASF soldier killed an assassin, everyone there would only deem Yun Jian competent and impressive, that she was serving the people. If she were only an ordinary citizen, it would raise an issue—how could a regular person like her kill someone! People would most probably call her abnormal.

“Mm, yes, you can! Go on!” Officer Wu nodded fervently.

Yun Jian gave back a nod and went for Yun Zhu without glancing at Ding Yin and her daughter, while Officer Wu ignored the woman as well, leading his team to clean up the scene.

Ding Yin stood frozen on the spot.

“Oh my goodness, you fool!” When Wang Ba’s mother saw that it was becoming safe and the police had certainly taken care of the snipers, she could not help tugging Wang Ba along and jogging up to Ding Yin who was still shell-shocked to chide.

“What?” Frustrated as she was, Ding Yin asked perfunctorily.

“That’s the director of New Cruise. Why were you so relentless with her! I offended her last time and New Cruise wouldn’t be selling its cars to my family anymore!” Wang Ba’s mother told Ding Yin regretfully.