

Schoolgirl 721

Chapter 721: Full Of Herself. A Foolish Woman

When Yun Jian mentioned Falcon Hall just now—meaning that she represented the gang, Ye Kai and Gao Meihan’s families were already wearing a whirlwind of complicated expressions. After all, everyone knew about the reputation of Falcon Hall.

What they did not expect was Zhang Zhifan who had been following Yun Jian like an underling to state he represented “New Cruise Company” directly.

If Falcon Hall was a rising force that must not be provoked, New Cruise was the epitome of new generation large-scale enterprises. It was already a household name in the nation. There was no doubt that New Cruise was a leading trend in Country Z.

As of now, New Cruise had already begun strategizing for nationwide chain business with multiple branch stores. It was still in progress but Yun Jian had already asked Zhang Zhifan to execute the plan.

At the same time, the company was starting to franchise out and received an overwhelmingly positive response.

Basically, New Cruise was the next rising star.

As for Ye Corp. run by Ye Kai’s family or Gao Group from Gao Meihan’s family, it was needless to say that they could not even be compared to New Cruise.

The person at the registration was already baffled when Yun Jian mentioned Falcon Hall but when Zhang Zhifan, who looked like Yun Jian’s follower, stepped up to mention the name New Cruise; she was so dumbstruck that her black pen dropped to the floor with a clack.

Quickly bowing to pick up the pen, the registration person frantically jotted down “New Cruise Company” on the book and told Yun Jian nervously, “My apologies for the faux pas just now. You may enter.”

The staff in-charge of the registration had seen hotshots and personages from various fields. It was only a matter of course that she recovered from a petty incident swiftly.

If Yun Jian had not looked so young to go with the identity she informed, as well as the surprise of the middle-aged man behind her brought from his informed identity, the registration lady would certainly not be flummoxed.

Right after the registration lady spoke, Ye Kai turned, about to talk to Yun Jian who was two meters away from him.

“Sister Jian, let’s go,” Zhang Zhifan told Yun Jian first.

“Mn.” Yun Jian nodded and stepped through the door with Zhang Zhifan and Duan Lei.

The corner of Ye Kai’s lips twitched as he stood in place. Watching Yun Jian’s petite but tempting back, he was increasingly impatient.

Gao Meihan who caught the situation stabbed her nails into her palm again as her fists balled up, wearing an unnatural smile shakily on her face.

“Forget it!” Yu Xiaodan went over to knock at Ye Kai’s head and spoke to herself, “Kicking up a cloud of dust! She mustn’t be anything decent for a girl to join the gang. Kai’er, you’d better stay away from her! Don’t get bewitched!”

As she spoke, Yu Xiaodan grabbed Gao Meihan’s hand to pat it softly and smiled at the girl, lavishing her with praises right in front of her family, “Meihan’s better. So pretty, kind-hearted, and graceful! Heh!”

Yu Xiaodan comforted herself through her own words. To what she thought, so what if Yun Jian was from Falcon Hall?

Even if Zhang Zhifan was Yun Jian’s man and was related to the company New Cruise, so what?

She was not that woman Slaying Luo, the boss of Falcon Hall! She was not New Cruise’s director! What was she so boastful about!

“Some people are just full of themselves and look too highly at themselves!” Yu Xiaodan could not help commenting. Obviously, the subject of her comment was Yun Jian.

Chapter 722: You’re Here. Her Grandfather

Yu Xiaodan said what she did because she was simply indignant that Yun Jian seemed to have snagged the limelight from her just now. If she did not make a few mocking comments about Yun Jian, she would have felt worse keeping them in her heart.

Nonetheless, this was only because Yu Xiaodan did not know Yun Jian’s actual identity. If she were to find out about it, she would not have dared sneered similarly even if she was pushed to.

“Alright, enough, let’s head in,” Yu Xiaodan’s husband urged, unable to tolerate the woman after hearing what she said.

“Sure, sure!” In the same impatience, Yu Xiaodan replied and turned to Gao Meihan with a plastered-on kind face.

The more she looked at Gao Meihan, the easier the girl was on her eyes!

As they chatted, they entered the venue after Yun Jian.

...

When Yun Jian went in with Zhang Zhifan and Duan Lei, the three of them were greeted with tables over 10 meters long.

As the interior lighting illuminated the space as bright as the day, it had also made the various desserts served on the tables glisten. Cutlery was abundant on the tables draped with white dining cloths, both the dessert and dining utensils looked expensive.

A few tables had bottles of wine stacked. A glance from afar was enough to tell that these bottles of alcohol were costly, exquisite distillations saved since the olden days.

Once the guests came into this hall, they could help themselves with any delicacies here for free. This was the banquet of the high society.

Yun Jian came to a rectangular table and picked up a small piece of Swiss roll from the table, putting it into her mouth, chewing and gulping it down softly. Zhang Zhifan and Duan Lei drooled over the delicious food as well, picking up some desserts and standing at an unnoticeable corner with Yun Jian.

“Sister Jian, the desserts are quite nice. We should switch up the food in our gang. It’s boring having the same old communal meal!” Duan Lei who was usually mature and composed could not help joking.

“I had a meal once in your gang. Tsk... that taste... it’s not even on par with the slightest crumb of this dessert I’m holding!” Zhang Zhifan complained jovially without any bite.

“Let me hire the chef here back to Longmen City someday then,” Yun Jian quipped with a smile as well.

The hall was already teeming with guests and people were still coming in endlessly.

In comparison, Yun Jian, Zhang Zhifan, and Duan Lei did not have a distinct sense of presence. Moreover, the majority of the guests were already chatting with acquaintances or people they were familiar with.

Yun Jian did not have too many people in Zhe Province with who she was close to. Whether it was New Cruise or Falcon Hall, she did not develop them depending on her network of connections.

Basically, people who knew her were rare and few in between.

“Yun Jian! You’re here!” A cheery voice rang during then.

As Yun Jian trailed her eyes over, she actually did not have to see to know that it was Dai Qingqing to have called her with such a jolly and carefree tone.

Expectedly, Dai Qingqing was currently making her way over, holding on to an old man in his fifties or sixties with hair turning white on his sides.

Although the elder’s hair was silvering, he was perky and exuded a lofty sense from his gaze. It commanded people to submit to his authority.

This was Dai Qingqing’s grandfather, Cai Wenhan.

Since Dai Qingqing took after her mother’s family name and returned to the Cai Family later in her life, she did not share the same surname as Cai Wenhan.

As of now, she was clutching her grandfather fondly to come to Yun Jian.

Chapter 723: The Panther Boss. Gracing His Presence

Dai Qingqing was already speaking before she came to Yun Jian with Grandpa Cai, “Yun Jian! I’ve been looking for you for a long time. I nearly went around the entire venue. I’ve found you finally!”

As she spoke, she came to stand before Yun Jian with Grandpa Cai in tow.

Yun Jian raked her eyes over Dai Qingqing and Grandpa Cai at once.

The latter was dressed formally and looked to be in good health. His hair was graying but the commanding presence would not change following a person's appearance. While Yun Jian scanned Grandpa Cai, the elder was scrutinizing her as well.

Simultaneously, Yun Jian saw that Dai Qingqing had changed out of her casual student outfit into a long pink lace dress. The tube top gown that hugged Dai Qingqing's figure accentuated her already shapely lines.

"What do you think? Yun Jian, do I look good like this?" Dai Qingqing could not help laughing and twirled on the spot holding her dress when she saw that Yun Jian was checking her out. As she spoke, she inched closer to Yun Jian intimately.

"Very pretty," Yun Jian gave her best comment.

Dai Qingqing grinned and jogged to her, hooking arms with Yun Jian and introduced her to Grandpa Cai, "Grandpa, this is my new friend, Yun Jian!"

She then introduced the old man to Yun Jian, "Yun Jian, he's my grandpa. I've mentioned him before. Grandpa's the closest person I have who's the best to me in this world!"

After Dai Qingqing's mother passed away, Grandpa Cai had taken her back to the Cai Family. While the rest of the family members did not welcome Dai Qingqing, Grandpa Cai had always treated her like his own. Even against Cai Wenhui and Cai Wenling, he was still a little biased to Dai Qingqing.

"Nice to meet you," Yun Jian greeted with a nod looking at Grandpa Cai.

"Hello, young one!" Grandpa Cai nodded with a kind look at Yun Jian.

The elderly man could look kind and friendly, but he was the director of a corporation notable across Country Z. He was aged but he kept a good rein on his company.

This was why Grandpa Cai's heirs, including Dai Qingqing's birth father, had no choice but to listen to him when he favored Dai Qingqing. With authority and power in his grasp, he had what he wanted and others could only obey him.

"Hahaha! Mr. Ouyang, it's my honor that you could grace us with your presence!"

A group of people came in from the backyard of the venue during then.

One of them was a short man who looked ruthless with a long frightening scar running down his neck. He walked at the front leading the group while next to him was a tall and lean man wearing a single eye-patch and had the looks of a savage pirate.

The short man spoke to the tall single eye-patch man in a hushed voice but his tone was dripping with flattery.

Yun Jian recognized the person from a distance away.

The short guy with a frightening scar on his neck was Panthers Pack's boss, Han Biao, people called him "Brother Biao".

As for the tall and lean man with an eye-patch who walked in front being fawned over by Han Biao, who was also addressed as “Mr. Ouyang”, Yun Jian did not know who he was.

Judging from Han Biao’s obsequious attitude, however, he must not be anyone ordinary. After all, Han Biao was the boss of the top mob, Panthers Pack, in Zhe Province. Someone who called for his deference was definitely not a small fry!

Chapter 724: Revisiting An Old Topic. Doomed

Once Han Biao entered, he became the center of attention immediately.

As Yun Jian’s gaze panned, she accidentally caught Ye Kai, Gao Meihan, and their families who had just come in and were standing some distance away. She could feel Ye Kai looking around for her.

Fortunately, Ye Kai did not spot her, as where she stood was somewhere barely noticeable.

Yun Jian suppressed her detestation and shifted her gaze again to look at Han Biao and the one-eyed man who was referred to as Mr. Ouyang some distance away.

While Grandpa Cai checked out both men, he paid attention to Yun Jian as well, slightly frowning when he saw her gazing afar.

Dai Qingqing did not notice any of this as she hooked arms with Yun Jian and enjoyed the desserts standing beside the table happily.

Finally, Mr. Ouyang’s voice came from the distance. “Where are those from the Flying Passage? Why aren’t they here yet?”

Panthers Pack had held a large-scale gathering like this last year and invited famous people from all over the world to attend. In reality, those who came were not plenty. It was said that famous people all over the world were invited but those who actually came were only a handful in total.

What Mr. Ouyang said surprised everyone there.

What? Did he not know that the previous second top mob in Zhe Province, Flying Passage, was already annihilated and replaced by Falcon Hall?

The truth was that Mr. Ouyang genuinely did not know about it.

Perhaps, it should be rephrased. The downfall of a mafia group like Flying Passage might be breaking news in Zhe Province, but it was nothing more than petty information across the nation or the globe.

Hence, the news did not travel too far. The personages who had just arrived in Zhe Province naturally had not heard of it.

Han Biao felt a stutter in his heart. He knew that Mr. Ouyang and Flying Passage’s boss were on friendly terms. Now that he asked...

Flying Passage used to be the second best gang in Zhe Province. Although the fact that it got terminated had nothing to do with Han Biao, he could not help sucking in a breath inwardly.

Yun Jian who stood some distance away had heard Mr. Ouyang’s question and arched her brow.

When Han Biao did not answer, it did not raise suspicion from Mr. Ouyang either. Instead, he laughed and continued. “Are those from Flying Passage running late again like last year’s gathering? Haha, Xu Zhouzheng’s a shameless one! How dare he be late again!”

As he spoke, he did not sense the solemn atmosphere of those around and quipped, “Xu Zhouming’s coming today too. He’s been looking forward to it. It just couldn’t be helped that he didn’t manage to leave the organization for a bit previously since something big happened. He wasn’t even back for the new year. Now that he’s finally got the time to come back, how dare Xu Zhouzheng be late—haha!”

Mr. Ouyang barely regarded Han Biao as he guffawed on his own after what he said.

Xu Zhouzheng was Flying Passage’s boss while Xu Zhouming was his biological elder brother.

Back then, Yun Jian had killed Xu Zhouzheng personally. Now that Yun Jian listened to Mr. Ouyang, she was able to make sense of the picture.

“Xu Zhouming? Mr. Ouyang, you don’t mean Xu Zhouzheng’s elder brother, Leopard Head, who’s serving Gu Sha Mercenaries currently, do you?” Han Biao asked in a shivering voice.

Xu Zhouzheng and Flying Passage might not be intimidating as the terror lied with Xu Zhouming.

As Xu Zhouzheng’s elder brother, he was working under Gu Sha Mercenaries with the pseudonym Leopard Head!

When the other guests heard the title, they straightened up with a flinch.

The elder brother of Xu Zhouzheng, boss of Flying Passage that was quashed by Falcon Hall, worked under Gu Sha Mercenaries!—And he had no idea that his younger brother was already dead!

Oh no! Falcon Hall would be doomed!

They were the ones who wiped out Flying Passage and killed the younger brother of Xu Zhouming who served Gu Sha Mercenaries! Xu Zhouming was a member of Gu Sha Mercenaries!

Chapter 725: Who Killed Him? I Did

Hearing Han Biao’s voice from afar, Yun Jian wore a slight frown and pressed her lips together unnoticeably.

She had killed Xu Zhouzheng. She was also the one to take out Flying Passage. Before the man died, he also warned her of his elder brother. It was just that Yun Jian could care less back then and killed Xu Zhouzheng anyway.

As for his elder brother, Xu Zhouming, with the moniker Leopard Head, he was a bonafide member of Gu Sha Mercenaries.

Yun Jian had been occupied with the Inferno Ring earlier and had forgotten about all these. After Gu Sha Mercenaries took down Inferno Ring, the organization had requested its members to isolate themselves from the outside world for a duration in order to absorb Inferno Ring’s forces as their own the fastest they could.

This meant that the news of Xu Zhouzheng's death had yet to reach his brother Xu Zhouming, Leopard Head of the Gu Sha Mercenaries, to this day.

Yun Jian averted her gaze down. Just as her train of thoughts carried her here, she heard Mr. Ouyang guffawing again from the distance and bragged to Han Biao, "That's right. My bro, Xu Zhouming, is from Gu Sha Mercenaries! Ahaha!"

There was an unmistakable pride and superiority in his expression when he made the declaration.

Mr. Ouyang and Xu Zhouming were old friends while the latter was Xu Zhouzheng's biological elder brother. Indirectly, Xu Zhouzheng was close to Mr. Ouyang due to his elder brother's connection. This was also why his gang, Flying Passage, could secure the position as Zhe Province's second top mafia group.

In spite of it, people there felt their heart lurch for Falcon Hall when they personally heard Mr. Ouyang say that the elder brother to the dead Flying Passage's boss was actually a member of Gu Sha Mercenaries.

If one were asked which two organizations must they not provoke, it would definitely be An Hun Group and Gu Sha Mercenaries!

Therefore, the main thought everyone had right now was that Falcon Hall was meeting its end.

"Grandpa, isn't Flying Passage..." Dai Qingqing could not help turning to ask Grandpa Cai when she heard about the gang as well.

Did Flying Passage not get uprooted by Falcon Hall?

"Shush, child. Eat!" Worried that the girl would say something wrong, Grandpa Cai raised his voice quickly. A grand event like this was unlike other occasions—a wrong word here could very possibly get one killed.

"Yun Jian! I finally found you!" Just then, Ye Kai who had gone around the venue with his family spotted Yun Jian ultimately. Leading his family as well as Gao Meihan's family, he made his way to the girl in delight regardless of Yu Xiaodan's resistance.

Yun Jian blinked. She had felt Ye Kai's gaze just now and loathed it but did not avoid him intentionally. The place was only as big; it was pretty easy to hunt someone down.

Mr. Ouyang's enraged voice barked from the distance suddenly, "What! Xu Zhouzheng died? Flying Passage has fallen? Who was it? Who killed Xu Zhouzheng! Who did it?"

Yun Jian did not hear what Han Biao told Mr. Ouyang as Ye Kai's call from the side had interrupted her but she could see from Han Biao's moving lips that he told Mr. Ouyang, "Xu Zhouzheng's dead and Flying Passage's destroyed."

Mr. Ouyang's initial presence plus his abrupt bellow squeezed the heart of the guests there. Even Han Biao squirmed; he knew well about how powerful the force behind Mr. Ouyang was.

"It was..." Han Biao was about to say Falcon Hall when a melodic and fearless ring of a girl's voice sounded, "It was me!"

Chapter 726: I Did It. What Can You Do?

After Mr. Ouyang's bellow, the majority of the people within the venue had shifted their gazes to him with a slight panic creeping into them.

Although they did not know who he was, they could make out that Mr. Ouyang was not an average Tom, Dick, or Harry when Panthers Pack's boss, Han Biao, was treating him with deference.

Even Ye Kai and the lot who resented Yun Jian looked over to Mr. Ouyang without an exception.

Just then, a clear voice of a girl rang.

Everyone there jolted and when they snapped out of their daze, they were flabbergasted.

The bunch who stood next to Yun Jian were specifically so. Other than Zhang Zhifan and Duan Lei who looked unruffled, Ye Kai, Gao Meihan, Yu Xiaodan, and others snapped their head and eyes back to Yun Jian who spoke decisively. Dai Qingqing and Grandpa Cai were also watching Yun Jian in shock.

"Yun Jian, you..."

That was all Dai Qingqing could manage since Yun Jian had already made her way toward Han Biao and Mr. Ouyang right before everyone's eyes.

Zhang Zhifan and Duan Lei were still following behind her, keeping her guarded like two bodyguards.

Instantly, everyone's attention was on Yun Jian.

All the guests who attended this evening's gathering put in the effort to dress up but Yun Jian? She wore only casual attire but her gorgeous face took breaths away.

Actually, a number of people had checked out Yun Jian since the start but most of them assumed her to have come with Zhang Zhifan and Duan Lei. After all, it would never cross their mind that Yun Jian was attending this event based on her sole capability because the invited companies and mafia groups were well-known in Zhe Province.

Now that Yun Jian spoke up, they felt more disbelief than shock.

What Mr. Ouyang asked just now was who eliminated Flying Passage and killed Xu Zhouzheng, so what was this young lady doing popping up and saying "it was me"?

Could she actually have killed Xu Zhouzheng or destroyed the Flying Passage? Jokes! Did she think that she was Slaying Luo?

"Yun Jian, come back here! Don't be making up things!" Ye Kai was terrified but he was reluctant to see Yun Jian getting involved. He thought that she was just spewing nonsense and having fallen in love with her at first sight, he had already planned to confess and ask for a date from Yun Jian after the gathering ended.

Now that he saw Yun Jian striding forward, he could no longer stop himself.

Yu Xiaodan, on the other hand, yanked his son's arm before he could rush to Yun Jian. "My dear Kai'er, let her be! The one standing over there is the Panthers Pack's boss!"

She then cursed Yun Jian in vehemence but lowered it to a mere whisper, “The b*tch, serves her right to get into trouble since she wants to go crazy and make things up! Pft!”

Yu Xiaodan had held prejudice against Yun Jian, so it only fueled her on when she saw Yun Jian walking to assumed danger, crude words leaving her mouth.

Gao Meihan who resented Yun Jian to her core wore a smile while standing on the side. Marvelous, she would not have to do a thing since the little b*tch Yun Jian was digging her own grave!

Judged by various gazes, Yun Jian had already come in front of Han Biao and Mr. Ouyang like a monarch escorted by Zhang Zhifang and Duan Lei. She squinted at Mr. Ouyang without sparing Han Biao a glance and spoke to him provocatively, “I killed Xu Zhouzheng and I took out Flying Passage! What can you do about it!”

Chapter 727: Getting Help. She Bullied Me

The young lady had the guts to infuriate Mr. Ouyang blatantly!

Everyone was stunned in shock, speechless from what they were witnessing.

From the fact that Panthers Pack’s boss, Han Biao, was fawning over Mr. Ouyang in reverence, it was visible that the latter must absolutely be someone influential. Moreover, from what he said just now, he seemed to be close to the elder brother of the late Flying Passage’s boss who worked in Gu Sha Mercenaries with the pseudonym Leopard Head?

This was basically affiliated and amplified power and influence!

Under such circumstances, this young girl had still run up to him and said to his face that she had killed his friend despite the man being on the verge of his anger. She was out of her mind, was she?

Those around did not know Yun Jian’s name nor her identity, but anyone with the slightest ability to judge would think the same.

“Where did you whippersnapper come from? Got a death wish?” Han Biao was a little shorter than Yun Jian. He pointed a finger at her, assuming that she was only a rascal up to mischief.

“Get her out of here right this instant!” Han Biao had been scared of offending Mr. Ouyang, especially now with what Yun Jian said he only grew more fearful.

Mr. Ouyang came from a family in the armament businesses internationally for generations! The family he was in held an armament business heritage that was just second to Depot Leng!

“Hold on!” While Han Biao planned to have his men chase Yun Jian out of the event venue, a shrewd mature voice of a woman sounded.

It caused everyone to avert their gaze over to the entrance.

A woman dressed in a classic qipao and looked regal and poised, exuding timeless charm, entered through the doors. She looked very young, in her twenties at most.

There was another woman who was older next to her, who wore a low-cut evening gown, hooking arms with her.

These two women who had made a sudden appearance looked 80% similar but upon a closer look, the younger and more elegant-looking woman in the black qipao had a better grace.

Said woman, clad in a sexy black qipao, was the one who spoke.

As Yun Jian looked over with a squint, her gaze was fixed on the one who was standing beside the woman in black qipao. This woman who had made a grand entrance with the qipao woman was none other than Cai Wenhui.

Feeling everyone's attention on her, Cai Wenhui propped her head up in pride like a proud peacock.

Yun Jian smirked. Needless to say, this regal woman in the alluring black qipao was Cai Wenhui's younger sister, Cai Wenling. The latter was also Panthers Pack's boss, Han Biao's wife.

"Darling, what brings you here? Didn't we agree on you staying at home?" Han Biao acted presumptuously outside but he was cowardly before his wife, Cai Wenling.

The reason for that was because Cai Wenhui and Cai Wenling came from a notable family. Simply put, Grandpa Cai's company was renowned in Country Z with a lofty status.

There was another reason why Han Biao was so anxious about Cai Wenling's presence—she was pregnant. It had only been a month, so she did not show yet.

"My elder sister is being bullied. How could I still sit around at home!" Cai Wenling snapped with a glare at Yun Jian.

"Which idiot dared bully my wife's sister!" Han Biao chorused in a bellow before jogging to his wife.

The man was shorter than Yun Jian. Cai Wenhui and Cai Wenling were both around 1.65m and Cai Wenling had on a pair of high heels. When Han Biao stood next to her, their height difference was hilarious.

Nevertheless, no one dared laugh about it or say anything given the current atmosphere.

"Brother-in-law, it's her! She's the one who bullied me!" Seizing the opportunity, Cai Wenhui pointed at Yun Jian looking like she wanted the latter dead right now.

Chapter 728: Xu Zhouming's Arrival—Who Killed My Younger Brother?

Cai Wenhui was a typical rich housewife, wife to Longwen Group's president too, so she was always protected and fawned over and never once disregarded.

What happened at the entrance of Novel Park Hotel kept her hackles raised even to this point of time.

When she knew that Yun Jian would attend this evening's event, she was eager to teach the girl a lesson. For someone like Cai Wenhui who had never nursed a loss, how could she be expected to withstand such assumed mistreatment?

Knowing that Yun Jian would attend the gathering today, Cai Wenhui was quick to ask her younger sister, Cai Wenling, to come and support her. After all, Cai Wenling was half the host of tonight's event!

Han Biao trailed his gaze after Cai Wenhui's finger and saw Yun Jian who had spoken brazenly just now standing right in front.

The girl had her arms crossed in front of her chest with a smirk, not even sparing Cai Wenhui a glimpse.

Yun Jian had her gaze trained on Mr. Ouyang. Similarly, the latter was silent as he looked back at Yun Jian in scrutiny.

"It's you again?" Han Biao bellowed at Yun Jian once he heard the woman.

When Yun Jian spoke up just now, she was challenging his authority. Now that he heard Yun Jian bullying his sister-in-law, Han Biao's murderous intent was stirred immediately.

He was the boss of Zhe Province's top mafia group, Panthers Pack. Hence, his bellow caused everyone there to feel intimidated.

"I bullied her, so? I killed Xu Zhouzheng and took out Flying Passage. Would I be scared to bully her?" Yun Jian sneered.

To everyone else, however, she was going to be doomed this time.

"Xu Zhouzheng's really dead? Flying Passage's actually destroyed?" Mr. Ouyang fixed a forbidding stare at Han Biao like he was making one last inquiry.

"What! My brother's dead?" Right when Mr. Ouyang uttered his last word, a resonating voice rang from the entrance.

The people were bewildered. Then a man about 1.9m in height with large, solid, and bulging muscles who gave off the impression of being strong like a bull—came in through the door.

It was then he heard the news he dared not believe. Standing frozen at the entrance, his herculean build and gruff voice sent a shudder down everyone in the hall.

Needless to say, the owner of the voice was the elder brother of the late Flying Passage's leader, Xu Zhouzheng, and the man who is said to be working under Gu Sha Mercenaries—Xu Zhouming.

Said man who heard the news standing at the door had his eyes rimmed red as he looked straight into the venue. The killing intent that oozed from his eyes looked like he wanted to kill everyone who was in there.

Faced with Xu Zhouming who was almost berserk with murder, Han Biao could not help the shiver that zipped down his puny form. Worried that it would involve him, Han Biao tossed Cai Wenhui's case to the back of his head entirely. He kept his eyes on Xu Zhouming, knowing that this man was a member of Gu Sha Mercenaries, and grew deferent of him instantly.

"A few months ago, Flying Passage was indeed... indeed uprooted. Xu Zhouzheng was also killed by Falcon Hall who was responsible for destroying the gang..." Han Biao told Xu Zhouming.

"Gah!" Xu Zhouming howled frenziedly right away.

After the pained cry, he looked at Han Biao in reddened eyes and asked, "Who killed my younger brother? Tell me!"

“It’s me.” The girl’s melodic voice rang again in interruption.

Chapter 729: The Flame Of Fury And An Inescapable Death

Faced with Xu Zhouming’s feral expression, Yun Jian spoke again without any fear, “Xu Zhouzheng hired a sniper to kill me but failed and severely injured my men from Falcon Hall. Death serves him right when he dared hire a hitman!”

Yun Jian’s gaze turned piercing too as she spoke. Her expression was indifferent. Although she had the pretty face of a young teenage girl, there was only endless iciness to it currently.

If she had not come personally to the rescue that day, Xu Zetian would have certainly died!

She was biased to her own people, Yun Jian admitted to it. Since Xu Zhouzheng dared hire a sniper to assassinate her, but targeted the wrong person and almost killed Xu Zetian, he had to pay the price—death! In addition, Flying Passage was to be buried with him.

Yun Jian had never regretted killing Xu Zhouzheng. She had never done things she would regret!

“My men from Falcon Hall” struck everyone’s head in a flash as if a giant intangible palm. This young lady... She was from Falcon Hall?

Guests who made it to this gathering were no doubt the best in a gang or a company, so this young lady here...

“You’re Falcon Hall’s boss, Slaying Luo?” The boss of Zhe Province’s top mob Hao Biao’s appearance left a lot to be desired and he lacked in the height department, but he had a sharp mind.

The fact that Yun Jian was the boss of Falcon Hall, Slaying Luo, was hard to believe but from both what she did and said, Han Biao would have been the boss of Zhe Province’s top mafia group in vain if he did not guess it.

“The boss of Falcon Hall? Slaying Luo?!”

Han Biao’s words felt like a thunderbolt to all of those around as they froze on their spot dumbly.

It felt like seeing a pitiful beggar on the street and despising him only for the beggar to don the king’s robe in the next second and stand at the height no one could reach.

The gazes of those who thought that Yun Jian was being ridiculous for stepping up foolishly to admit that she had killed Xu Zhouzheng and took down Flying Passage had now taken a one-eighty when they looked at her.

“What... What?!”

Yu Xiaodan who was a distance away nearly bulged her eyes off the sockets when she heard it.

How must it have felt when she was suddenly told that the person she had just looked down on and mocked was the boss of Zhe Province’s second top mafia group? Moreover, she was Falcon Hall’s leader, Slaying Luo, who had been said to intrude Flying Passage alone and killed Xu Zhouzheng right in front of his gang members!

Yun Jian was only around the age of Yu Xiaodan's son but she was already the boss of Zhe Province's second top gang!

The abrupt wave of terror would paralyze anyone with fear and horror.

It was not just Yu Xiaodan, Ye Kei, Gao Meihan as well as Dai Qingqing and Grandpa Cai who were both farther away were all terrified!

For a moment, panic consumed everyone. It felt as if they were knocked on the head by a stun baton.

"Who else do you think?" Yun Jian smirked, wearing an expression that did not match the looks of her current age. Her smile was cold and aloof, as if she was overlooking the world like an aristocrat.

"How dare you kill my brother! You killed my brother! Die! Die! Argh!" Xu Zhouming who was on the side was already consumed by his emotions. Glaring at Yun Jian, the murderous intent in his eyes were akin to raging flame that could not be put out.

"Tsk, this girl is a goner! So what if she's Slaying Luo, the boss of Falcon Hall? Xu Zhouzheng's elder brother is here for revenge! That's Gu Sha Mercenaries' man we're talking about! The girl's capable but she's too young and full of herself! It looks like she won't get out of here alive today! Sigh!"

Chapter 730: A Trash Like This—Killing Him Personally

Someone lamented gravely to people around them, critiques and clamor—all of it skepticism toward Yun Jian.

Eight to nine out of ten people present knew the existence of Gu Sha Mercenaries. That was the top mercenary organization parallel to An Hun Group! Who in the current world had the guts to offend Gu Sha? Moreover, they had just annihilated the Inferno Ring not too long ago!

It was not just the guests there, even ten Panthers Pack grouped together would not have the courage to challenge the intimidation of a petrifying organization like Gu Sha Mercenaries. It was simply due to the disparity of ability.

"How dare you kill my brother! I want you dead! Dead!" Xu Zhouming's eyes looked completely red as they were bloodshot.

People around him were frightened by the bloodthirsty air Xu Zhouming exuded while those standing closer to him shuffled toward corners in hiding.

"Brother Xu, Xu Zhouzheng's your birth brother and my friend. I'll avenge his wronged death even without you bringing it up!" Mr. Ouyang told Xu Zhouming as he glared at Yun Jian in resentment as well.

He then continued with a tone tinged with condescension. "Brother Xu, you're from Gu Sha Mercenaries while I have the family background of generations in the armament business. I'd think we'll easily destroy a mere Falcon Hall!"

Mr. Ouyang might be showing his support and sucking up to Xu Zhouming—since Xu Zhouming who was a member of Gu Sha Mercenaries, had a higher status than Mr. Ouyang by comparison. However What he said somehow sounded like he was flaunting his status.

Despite that, those present did not dare say anything more. It was not that they were not saying anything, they were too afraid, so they could only keep it low among themselves.

“I’m going to kill her today as revenge for my brother!” Xu Zhouming said looking at Yun Jian and flipped his hand suddenly.

Two small knives with blades pointing downward appeared on his hands abruptly.

The sight of the weapon caused everyone to stagger back significantly.

What were Gu Sha Mercenaries? That was a place where assassins and secret agents were abundant! Basically, anyone from Gu Sha was either an assassin or secret agent.

While Xu Zhouming had joined the organization halfway in, how could he be weak when he spent long enough in a place like Gu Sha Mercenaries?

Judging by Xu Zhouming’s action, he was most likely going to kill Yun Jian right there and then!

Some guests had attended the event with their children today with the intention to forge more connections and acquaintances. No one was expecting to see blood in the gathering today!

Was Xu Zhouming killing Yun Jian right in front of everyone?

There was a light tug at the corner of Yun Jian’s lips but she was not antsy or fidgety.

Zhang Zhifan and Duan Lei who stood behind her, on the other hand, were a little panicky but both of them looked ahead in calm composure, burying their nerves deep down in their heart. Sister Jian must have her confidence and assertion in doing so. Even to the last moment, they would choose to trust her unconditionally!

“Die! I’ll show you the skills of us Gu Sha Mercenaries today! It’s not what a mere boss of Zhe Province’s small-time gang like you could provoke! Go to hell!”

Xu Zhouming held the blades which pointed down with both hands as he declared that to Yun Jian.

“Oh?” Yun Jian scoffed.

That was a real joke. What did he mean by showing her the skills of Gu Sha Mercenaries?

“Gu Sha doesn’t take in trash like you, so you’ll have to die here today!” After the scoff, Yun Jian’s demeanor shifted again abruptly to speak in a frosty tone.

She was definitely killing Xu Zhouming with her own hands today!