

Schoolgirl 731

Chapter 731: Meeting Bear.Might Again. Why Are You Here?

Trash? Yun Jian called Xu Zhouming who qualified as a member of Gu Sha Mercenaries trash?

Everyone was flabbergasted.

Ye Kai, Gao Meihan, and others who were a distance away had been watching everything that happened in utterly shocked gazes.

If anyone there on the spot was to take Yun Jian's place, they would probably be shaking and feel weak from the fear—they might even fall to their knees before Xu Zhouming.

Yet, who was Yun Jian? Meeting her, there was only one way Xu Zhouming would end up... dead!

With the blades in his hands, Xu Zhouming was not in a hurry to pounce. Years working in Gu Sha Mercenaries had changed him from his rash and reckless ways. Although the grudge of his younger brother's murder was irreconcilable, Xu Zhouming was sly and deceptive.

Yun Jian who was able to annihilate his younger brother's gang, Flying Passage, must not be someone average. Xu Zhouming was pretty sure that winning was not guaranteed if he fought Yun Jian alone! Under such circumstances, what he was going to do was none other than to wait.

He did not come back to Zhe Province alone this time. He had invited a few notable figures in Gu Sha Mercenaries along with him—one of them was even a bigshot ranked top 100 within Gu Sha Mercenaries! The handful of them were probably not here yet but he only had to wait a little longer.

When those personages arrived, he was going to let Yun Jian know what death was! Provoking him, a Gu Sha Mercenaries member, the young girl could only end up dead! Furthermore, she had killed his younger brother!

Yun Jian's eyes flitted when Xu Zhouming did not make a move after some time.

"Brother Xu, go for it! Could you be afraid that you won't be able to kill her based on our abilities? I want her blood splattered here today! To avenge Brother Xu Zhouzheng's death!" Mr. Ouyang stated calmly but in fact, he was only a blustering empty can.

Mr. Ouyang would not resent Yun Jian because of Xu Zhouzheng's death. All his previous hatred and grudge were acts. His only purpose in doing so was to win the favor of Xu Zhouming. After all, the latter was from Gu Sha Mercenaries!

"Brother Ouyang, no hurry!" Xu Zhouming's eyes were dark when he extended a hand to stop Mr. Ouyang. He side-eyed Yun Jian, the glare threatening to cut and slice Yun Jian alive.

"It's here, right?" A loud carefree voice rang from the entrance before a group of big brawny men walked in through the doors unceremoniously.

Xu Zhouming was delighted at the sound of the voice. His rescue troop was here! He snapped his head back.

Catching Xu Zhouming's reaction, Yun Jian crossed her arms in front of her chest and stood watching quietly on her spot.

The person who came in first was a muscly man. The most prominent characteristic of these newcomers was the skull mark on their arms. It was a marking unique to Gu Sha Mercenaries.

Xu Zhouming stepped forth to welcome them, speaking to the man who stood in front, "Senior Bear.Might! You're here!"

Yun Jian's squinting eyes relaxed in an instant.

She was actually familiar with the newcomers.

The few of them were the group of Gu Sha people she had met when she went on the catacomb trip previously.

The person in front, Bear.Might, gave Xu Zhouming an indifferent glance before scanning the area briefly and suddenly spotting Yun Jian.

He paused for a beat in surprise and took large strides toward Yun Jian. He bowed to her right in front of everyone and asked reverently, "Ma'am... you—why are you here?"

One of Bear.Might's underlings were old friends with Xu Zhouming. Since they were free, he had invited everyone for a visit to Country Z's Zhe Province.

It was just that Bear.Might did not expect himself to bump into Yun Jian whom he had met in the catacomb last time. She... she was the boss of Gu Sha Mercenaries they were in! The boss herself!

Chapter 732: As You Please. Where The Heart Is

Bear.Might was currently thrilled like he had run into his idol.

There was an unspoken rule in Gu Sha Mercenaries where there existed an ability chart in the organization. Everyone would be included in the chart and be ranked accordingly.

It was previously mentioned that Bear.Might was 99th in ranking and he was already impressive for making it into the top 100 within Gu Sha Mercenaries.

As for Xu Zhouming, he was ranked within the top 1000 of Gu Sha Mercenaries. It was an honor for him to be able to meet someone as skilled as Bear.Might who ranked 99th in Gu Sha's ability chart even just briefly.

Therefore, it was not exactly difficult to imagine Bear.Might's surprise when he met Yun Jian again.

Yun Jian's skill and ability back then had thoroughly won the submission of Bear.Might and the others. Moreover, she had another identity—the boss of Gu Sha Mercenaries.

She was the boss of Gu Sha Mercenaries!

This was someone Bear.Might did not even have to think about in the past because he would never be able to meet them. Nonetheless, it was considered that Bear.Might had gotten to make a run alongside Yun Jian during the adventure in the catacomb—only for the girl to rob their SUV in the end.

Of course, others would not even get to be robbed by Gu Sha Mercenaries' boss herself even if they asked for it!

Now that Bear.Might was meeting Yun Jian again, it felt like an honor blessed by the heavens.

All the event guests had eyes—widely opened as they watched.

Who was Xu Zhouming? He was from Gu Sha Mercenaries. For him to lower his own status and pander to Bear.Might, it was evident how the latter's status was much higher than Xu Zhouming's.

Yet, what was happening right now? Why was Bear.Might who was higher in level than Xu Zhouming running over to Yun Jian to speak with her in such a respectful tone?

His term of address alone was enough to reflect Bear.Might's reverence toward Yun Jian.

"To attend this event." Yun Jian tucked some strayed strands of hair that fell to the front of her face to the back of her ears and answered the man with a wide grin.

It was a coincidence she did not expect to encounter them here either.

"As you please, ma'am!" Bear.Might replied respectfully.

The sharp turn of events caught Xu Zhouming and Mr. Ouyang, as well as everyone else, off guard. They were baffled. What in the world was happening?

"Senior Bear.Might, why did you... did you know this damned woman?" Xu Zhouming pointed at Yun Jian as he asked Bear.Might in alarm.

Perhaps his tone was dripping with contempt for Yun Jian, Bear.Might frowned and swung a punch at Xu Zhouming, a man who was approximately 1.9m tall.

"Piss off! Do you think you're worth insulting her?" Bear.Might had punched Xu Zhouming down the moment he heard the latter being disrespectful toward Yun Jian and pulled out a Browning pistol from his waist directly to aim it at the man.

"You're f*cking digging your own grave right in front of me!" Bear.Might said and was going to shoot Xu Zhouming.

How dare the man insult his boss of Gu Sha Mercenaries as a damned woman right in front of them? This was like a slap to Gu Sha itself in public!

"Stop, stop. Don't do it. We're all on the same side!" Xu Zhouming's old friend hurried out to stop Bear.Might from pulling the trigger when he saw that the latter was really going to kill Xu Zhouming with a shot.

"Scram!" Bear.Might bellowed.

Embarrassed in public, there was no doubt that Xu Zhouming was indignant, especially when an egoistic man like him was insulted like this. From what it seemed, Bear.Might and his men would not be helping him anymore—but his younger brother, Xu Zhouzheng must not die in vain!

When Xu Zhouming picked himself up, he brandished the two small knives with downward blades and bolted towards Yun Jian.

Everyone there was already dumbstruck by the earlier scene but now that Xu Zhouming was suddenly dashing to Yun Jian holding two knives, all of them were unable to react in time to it.

“Yun Jian!” Dai Qingqing who stood afar could not help shouting.

Just then, Yun Jian narrowed her eyes standing on the spot. Her hand that had been in her pocket was outstretched and flicked toward Xu Zhouming. A gleaming silver butterfly knife catapulted from her hand.

By the time the audience caught up with the events, the butterfly knife was already flying toward Xu Zhouming’s chest, right towards his heart!

Chapter 733: Drag And Draw—Her Brutality

While both Xu Zhouming’s hands grabbed two downward pointing blades, the abrupt sense of danger he felt prompted him to look up and see the butterfly knife that Yun Jian had flicked toward him.

“Leopard Head, come back, stop acting impulsively!” Xu Zhouzheng’s old friend who was Bear.Might’s underling shouted at him.—Leopard Head was Xu Zhouming’s moniker.

Although Bear.Might did not tell his underlings Yun Jian’s identity as their boss of Gu Sha Mercenaries, these men who had come with Bear.Might today had met Yun Jian before back in the catacomb. They had all witnessed her ability!

Forget about Xu Zhouming. Just the fact that Yun Jian had gone through the stone cave in the catacomb with a barrage of flying arrows and shooting darts, that no one else other than Si Yi, Ya Dang, and Mo Sen were able to, had already deemed her more skilled than everyone here in the event combined!

This was why Xu Zhouming’s old friend shouted at him.

In spite of it, Xu Zhouming was already blinded by his grudge. His younger brother was dead! He wanted this woman to be buried, even if he had to die himself!

As Xu Zhouming held the downward bladed knives, he sidestepped amidst everyone’s cry of terror and huge retreat while they watched.

However, Yun Jian had tossed the butterfly knife at a speed so fast and a strength so powerful that Xu Zhouming’s left shoulder was still stabbed by the blade even though he managed to avoid the deadly blow.

Said man had already charged to a short distance one meter away from Yun Jian now, but both his hands armed with the knives that were about to swing toward Yun Jian paused visibly.

Other than gangsters, there were business tycoons and politicians who attended the gathering—many of them had brought their children along to the event too. Regardless of their identity, all of them were baffled at the sharp turn of events.

Blood! There was really blood spilled! Yun Jian had just gone and stabbed the butterfly knife into Xu Zhouming's left shoulder! She was too fast and too ferocious! Even Xu Zhouming who was a member of Gu Sha Mercenaries got his shoulder injured by her—he could not escape her attack!

“Ah! Die! Go to hell!” The stab on his left shoulder had caused a distinct freeze in Xu Zhouming's action before he snapped out of it and growled wildly, pouncing toward Yun Jian with his two knives.

Everyone gasped. If Dai Qingqing, who stood afar, was not stopped by Grandpa Cai, she would have bolted to Yun Jian immediately.

Nonetheless, Xu Zhouming's momentary lapse when his left shoulder was stabbed was more than enough time for Yun Jian to kill him.

She narrowed her eyes slightly and as everyone watched, she sprinted two light steps forward. Her long lean legs were wrapped in pants but there was a reveling beauty about them.

While everyone was enraptured by that charm, Yun Jian bent her legs and gently shifted her weight to one foot before she sprang toward Xu Zhouming's left.

From the moment Xu Zhouming had brandished his two downward pointing blades to pounce at Yun Jian, to the moment Yun Jian flicked her butterfly knife into the man's left shoulder, and to this current instant, it had only been nothing more than 20 seconds!

The exchange between experts, however, usually meant that variables were abundant and unexpected within the short duration of time.

In the blink of an eye, Yun Jian was already a step ahead of Xu Zhouming as she gripped the butterfly knife embedded in the man's left shoulder.

Everyone felt their eyes twitch, a dreaded sense of premonition washed over all of them.

The next second, they saw Yun Jian's hand on the blade that was stuck on Xu Zhouming's left shoulder before she dragged the butterfly knife and drew it toward where Xu Zhouming's heart was!

“Ah!” Xu Zhouming's reaction was slower. When he caught up to the situation, the area from his left shoulder to his left chest where his heart was, was already cut open in a gory gash!

Next, Xu Zhouming was already falling backward with widened eyes.

Everyone felt their hair standing having witnessed such a bloody sight without any mental preparation. Yun Jian actually dared kill a member of the Gu Sha Mercenaries! How dare she!

Chapter 734: No More Noise. Anything Else?

Xu Zhouming did not expect, even till his death, that he would be killed by Yun Jian.

Nonetheless, everyone else there saw it clear and true. How old was the girl again? She was at most 16 or 17! The skill she had shown just now, however, could no longer be described as terrorizing.

She had clutched the handle of the butterfly knife that had sunken into Xu Zhouming's left shoulder, held it against his shoulder, and dragged it all the way to his chest where his heart was like she was slicing up some tofu.

The blade carved Xu Zhouming's flesh from his left shoulder to his heart and was stabbed in even deeper!

Many of those in the hall were mafia bosses in various cities. Zhe Province, as a huge province, had many cities. Although these gang leaders had countless experience under their belt, they had never seen such a horrendous method—digging a blade through a human body and then thrusting it right through the person's heart!

What Yun Jian did sent tremor and terror down everyone.

Even these mafia bosses could not help the dread that rose from the bottom of their hearts. No one there dared attempt a gory method like this that even these gang leaders who were used to seeing blood felt unsettled.

Yun Jian had killed Xu Zhouming so brutally without even batting an eye!

"Ah! He's dead! He's dead!" Someone shrieked in panic.

Yun Jian was already pulling out the butterfly knife from Xu Zhouming's chest; the man was now long dead. Then, she calmly fished out a packet of tissues from her pants pocket and pulled out a piece of it to wipe the blood on the blade gently.

"Ah! She—she..." Yu Xiaodan cried in distress. Fearful that Yun Jian would spot her due to it, she covered her mouth with her hand quickly with eyes that were bulging.

Yun Jian killed the man! More importantly, the way she killed him was bloodthirsty! Once Yu Xiaodan recalled how she had taunted and attacked Yun Jian with scornful words earlier, she felt like she was doomed.

Similarly, Ye Kai was staring at Yun Jian in disbelief. He was unable to imagine how an exquisite and gorgeous young lady like her did not have any hint of fear when she murdered someone.

This reminded Ye Kai and Gao Meihan of what Yun Jian said back in the ice skating rink, "Not just that, I can kill you too. You believe it?"

If both of them had dismissed it offhandedly when Yun Jian told them that earlier, what the girl made them feel right now was that she could really kill them—she dared do it! Moreover, she did not kill an ordinary person; she killed someone from Gu Sha Mercenaries!

Screams and screeches filled the venue instantly.

Other than Ye Kai, Gao Meihan and their families, Dai Qingqing, Grandpa Cai, as well as Han Biao, Cai Wenhui, Cai Wenling, and Mr. Ouyang who stood farther away, no one was looking at Yun Jian normally.

The place was chaotic.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Suddenly, Bear.Might raised his Browning pistol and fired three shots at the ceiling.

After the three gunshots, the venue was silenced right away.

“Scream for nothing again and you can die right off the bat!” Bear.Might growled domineeringly.

The hall stayed quiet.

“Ma’am, anything else you want to say?” Bear.Might turned to Yun Jian after that.

Because what Yun Jian did just now had shaken everyone there, no one dared doubt her anymore.

Chapter 735: This Will Be How You End Up

“When you go back, tell Snake.Lizard to remove Xu Zhouming’s name from Gu Sha Mercenaries. From today onward, Xu Zhouming shall disappear from this world forever!” Yun Jian told Bear.Might facing him with her side profile. Her tone was light but her words were authoritative.

Honestly, the skill Yun Jian had shown just now surprised even Zhang Zhifan and Duan Lei. What she said now, however, bewildered everyone there.

Remove Xu Zhouming’s name from Gu Sha Mercenaries? Who did she think she was to have the say in Gu Sha?

Intimidated by Yun Jian’s ability earlier, though, no one there dared say anything to belittle her.

“Got it.” Bear.Might nodded.

The man was probably the only one who knew the head and tail of the situation now.

Why did Yun Jian have a say in Gu Sha Mercenaries? That was because she was the boss of the organization! The whole Gu Sha was hers. What did a mere Xu Zhouming stand for?

“Snake.Lizard... Isn’t Snake.Lizard the subordinate of Gu Sha Mercenaries’ boss? She’s also an executive of Gu Sha Mercenaries!” A meek voice sounded amidst everyone’s confusion.

Right when they heard it, the guests present were a little befuddled. There were certainly people who knew about information like this being involved with the gangs and all but what the person said had still stirred up some discussion and noises in the hall.

Mr. Ouyang who had been speaking in support of Xu Zhouming just now did not even dare make a sound.

As for the rest, they were now wondering, if Yun Jian could even direct the executive of Gu Sha Mercenaries, then she must be...

As the train of thought came here, Yun Jian shifted herself to stand beside Xu Zhouming’s corpse. As if she knew what everyone was thinking, she slowly retrieved a small sealed canister from her pants pocket.

The sealed canister had something coated on the outside, like it was wrapped around the container to stop the liquid inside from spilling.

The crowd’s musing was once again tossed to the back of their head following Yun Jian’s action.

“Don’t even think about guessing my identity.” Yun Jian’s voice rang again. With a smirk and a squint, her pretty little face looked youthful and delicate.

At the same time, she held the sealed canister and removed it from a transparent bag. The container was small, just fitting within Yun Jian's palm. She uncapped the sealed canister while she spoke, "Because I'll get angry..."

Her unnerving voice resonated in the hall, scaring everyone there. Simultaneously, Yun Jian had already unlidded the sealed container and poured all the liquid in it on Xu Zhouming's corpse.

Just as the contents tipped out and dripped on the dead man, Yun Jian's words rang again. "Once I get angry, all of you will end up... like this!"

Yun Jian emphasized her last words slightly.

In everyone's eyes, Xu Zhouming's corpse was stained with the liquid from the canister but mere seconds later, the dead body went dry instantly before it turned into a pool of blood, not even a piece of bone was seen.

Silence! Pin-drop silence fell over the area.

A fresh corpse had turned into a pool of blood right before everyone's eyes! That was not all. There was Yun Jian's eerie warning ringing in their ears too!

Those with better mental endurance could perhaps still stomach the sight now, but people like Yu Xiaodan were already shaking in petrification and almost felt like wetting themselves.

This Yun Jian brought on a sense of terror!

Chapter 736: Yun Jian's Plan—Give Me Your Gang

Ye Kai and Gao Meihan shuddered again in horror. Gao Meihan, specifically, had been scheming to deal with Yun Jian because she had thought that the latter was going to compete with her for Ye Kai.

The ultimate truth about Yun Jian? She was a devil who did not even bat an eyelash when she killed someone! That was right, she was a devil!

She used nothing but a small canister of a potion to turn a corpse into a puddle of blood! If the potion were to accidentally come in contact with one's skin... those who were present dared not picture it.

Yun Jian, who stood a distance away, curled her lips lightly. She had been doing that and keeping the smirk on but the small upward angle was enough to add to everyone's distress.

Thump!

While they were still engrossed in their thoughts, the canister Yun Jian held dropped to the floor. As it was made from a special material, it did not shatter from falling onto the floor.

Nonetheless, when the crowd recalled that the liquid contained turned someone into a pool of blood once it touched one's skin, they could not help quivering.

No one had ever seen something like this in the market while some people would never get to witness such an item their whole life!

This was because the liquid was a creation of Qing You.

“Co-corpse dissolving liquid created by Elder Qing You?” When an underling of Bear.Might saw Yun Jian using the corpse dissolving liquid to turn Xu Zhouming into a puddle of water, something struck his memory and he asked in a fearful stutter.

“Qing You? The one said to be Gu Sha Mercenaries’ youngest elder, Lady Venom?” someone asked in alarm.

Qing You was a prominent identity in Gu Sha Mercenaries. Other than the boss Yun Jian, she was the youngest elder in the organization. While Snake.Lizard and Tiger.Leopard were elders as well, both of them were significantly older than Qing You.

As for the girl’s moniker as Lady Venom and her name as Qing You, this was something a lot of people knew.

“I remember that Lady Venom follows Gu Sha Mercenaries’ boss closely. The poison she creates is said to be the best in the world! To this day, no one could rival her yet!”

“What Lady Venom creates is usually only for Gu Sha’s boss’ perusal...”

The person spilled all that he knew.

Gu Sha Mercenaries’ boss? Yun Jian? The cloud of doubt drifted past everyone’s head.

“Elder Qing You has always been friendly. If we need the poison she created, she’d give them to us.” Knowing that Yun Jian did not want to disclose her identity, Bear.Might spoke up to clear the suspicion for her.

The canister of potion Yun Jian used was indeed given by Qing You—she had even asked the latter for a few bottles of it back then. Although Qing You had complained about Yun Jian taking away a poison so expensive from her, she had actually given Yun Jian ten bottles directly.

Ten bottles of corpse dissolving liquid basically had the price tag of an astronomical figure in the market! No one had managed to create a similar potion that could turn a man into a pool of blood where no traces could be tracked like this corpse dissolving liquid.

Qing You, however, did manage to create it!

It was just that she was never stingy when it came to giving it to Yun Jian.

Those present were appeased by what Bear.Might said.

After all, why would Yun Jian come here and be the boss of a mere Zhe Province’s second top gang if she was truly the boss of Gu Sha Mercenaries? It was even more unbelievable than seeing red colored rain from the sky.

Having taken care of Xu Zhouming, Yun Jian turned to train her eyes straight at Han Biao and made her way to him despite everyone’s bated breath.

“Wh-what do you want...” Before Han Biao spoke, Cai Wenhui who stood beside him cried out in fright first.

Han Biao was perturbed—after how he had treated Yun Jian just now—but he kept his composure.

“I’ll give you two choices. One, give me Panthers Pack,” Yun Jian told Han Biao curtly staring straight at him without regarding what others said.

Chapter 737: Acquired Without A Pawn

Others thought that Yun Jian wanted revenge for the previous humiliation. Everyone saw how Cai Wenhui pointed a finger at Yun Jian to grouch about her to Han Biao just now. Anyone who was not stupid was aware of Han Biao’s tone when he bellowed at Yun Jian as well.

If Yun Jian did take her revenge on Han Biao for how the man had humiliated her just now, the guests probably would not be as stunned. After all, she was only a young teenage girl; she was at the age where they would be the most vengeful. It was normal for her to get angry even if it was only a comment or two by the others.

In spite of it, what Yun Jian wanted was not revenge but the Panthers Pack?

If Yun Jian had asked for the Panthers Pack from Han Biao right from the start, no one there would take her seriously even when she was Slaying Luo from Falcon Hall.

To the outsiders, Falcon Hall was strong but it still had some way to go before it came to Panthers Pack’s standard.

If Falcon Hall was a new rising star, Panthers Pack was a well-established traditional gang.

With what had happened currently, however, people’s thoughts about Yun Jian changed.

She knew Gu Sha Mercenaries’ Elder Snake.Lizard and Elder Qing You. Her future accomplishment would only be bright beyond imagination!

Gulping, Han Biao did not expect Yun Jian to ask for his mafia group right away and asked, “What about the second choice?”

Yun Jian was not giving him any chance of refusal. There was a glint in her dark onyx eyes and with a smirk, arrogant words left her lips in a melodious tone. “The second choice is...”

She dragged her words on purpose. Holding the butterfly knife in the center of her palm, Yun Jian twirled the blade lithely for good measure before she put on another smile and told Han Biao, “Kill you and still take the Panthers Pack!”

What an impudent tone! The same thought crossed everyone’s mind involuntarily.

Due to the skill Yun Jian had shown earlier, however, no one doubted the truth of her words. Moreover, the girl was familiar with the elders in Gu Sha Mercenaries! The status of those elders was only after the boss of Gu Sha Mercenaries!

Everyone present had to give it to Yun Jian when the situation was such a landslide intimidation.

As for Zhang Zhifan and Duan Lei who had been following Yun Jian all this while, they were thoroughly flabbergasted. It was just that, in comparison, both of them did not wear the surprise on their faces despite that.

Faced with Yun Jian’s near-tyrannical aura, Han Biao finally relented. “Alright!”

What else could he do other than to agree under the coercion?

Han Biao was kind of ugly and puny but he had his intelligence to make up for it. Although he did not look all that mighty, he must certainly have his strong suit when he could become the boss of Zhe Province's top mob and stay crowned as one for years.

Moreover, Cai Wenling was a beautiful woman with a family background that was more outstanding than Han Biao's gang. For Han Biao to marry her, it felt like all that had gone to waste like a pretty flower that was stuck to cow dung.

Nonetheless, it was also evidence of his capability since he did marry Cai Wenling.

"Happy to work with you!" Yun Jian replied airily with a slight squint.

The crowd who also served as the witness was shocked by Yun Jian's course of action.

Zhe Province's top mafia group was acquired by Falcon Hall's boss without using any pawn or suffering from any casualties?

Chapter 738: A Bright Future Due To Yun Jian

Han Biao rolled his eyes in his mind but he parroted Yun Jian anyway. "Happy to work with you."

Happy? The man felt like killing himself.

The reason Han Biao had agreed to hand over the Panthers Pack to Yun Jian so easily was because Yun Jian would kill him if he did not. This—was one of the reasons. The main factor was actually because he had long heard that Yun Jian had acquired Falcon Hall in similar ways back then.

After the then Dragon Head Gang went under Yun Jian, it became the current Falcon Hall. Yun Jian took the name of the mob's boss but she left everything within the gang to Xu Zetian's full command.

If Yun Jian was going to chase Han Biao out of his own gang after taking it away, the man would consider if he would give in just like that. From what he knew, Yun Jian had changed Dragon Head Gang's name to Falcon Hall right after she took over but she did not intervene with the gang matters, merely having its name at most.

Furthermore, Han Biao was tempted by the fact that Yun Jian had personally annihilated Flying Passage not even half a year after leading Falcon Hall and had absorbed Flying Passage as her own within the shortest time possible!

This caused Dragon Head Gang, which was the current Falcon Hall, to rapidly rise into Zhe Province's second top mob from its initial placing that was close to the last in the province.

It was this day that Han Biao now knew the reason Yun Jian was so capable was because she knew the elders from Gu Sha Mercenaries! Those were seniors who could send out Gu Sha members directly on behalf of the organization's boss!

The reality proved, which Han Biao acknowledged as well, that he was not a worthy opponent should he fight Yun Jian based solely on the point that Yun Jian knew people from Gu Sha Mercenaries.

Under such circumstances, he might as well agree to hand Panthers Pack over to Yun Jian straightaway. Perhaps, the girl could bring Panthers Pack to greater heights after he became her underling—the gang might become the top in the country or even go on to the international scene.

There was no doubt that Han Biao was inwardly thrilled by the thought.

In addition, Han Biao was a loyal man once he joined an organization as a member. His best strength was that he would never betray his own organization.

Zhang Zhifan and Duan Lei who were standing nearby were overwhelmed in surprise. Duan Lei, especially, had gone through great lengths when he and Xu Zetian as well as their brothers were working something out for themselves in Longmen City.

Compare it to Yun Jian... It did not even take her long to acquire Panthers Pack right away without any fight or sacrifice.

Yun Jian had a massive appetite! That was what the crowd there thought but at the same time, they could not help adding one thought in their mind. Yun Jian was ambitious but she had the ability to back her up; what did she have to be scared of?

The event went on rather smoothly after that. Due to what transpired earlier, some of the guests who were traumatized had left early.

People like Ye Kai, Gao Meihan, and their families had left a long time ago while Dai Qingqing and Grandpa Cai continued chatting with Yun Jian, unafraid of her.

Panthers Pack was unlike Dragon Head Gang back then. To absorb the former into Falcon Hall completely and convert Panthers Pack's territories and members to Falcon Hall's, Yun Jian needed some time.

It was not like she was scared that Han Biao would go back on his words. From the current state, it seemed more like Han Biao would be afraid of Yun Jian backing out of the deal.

After all, Han Biao was the boss of Zhe Province's top mafia group but that was the maximum he could reach. With Yun Jian here now, he would never not join Falcon Hall—as long as he was no fool—because Falcon Hall's future was bright with Yun Jian!

Chapter 739: Qin Yirou's Gone To Pick Her Wedding Dress

When the gathering event ended, Yun Jian took Zhang Zhifan and Duan Lei for supper after Han Biao gave her his contact number. Other than the two men, Yun Jian had also brought along Dai Qingqing, Grandpa Cai, as well as Bear.Might and his subordinates.

Being invited by Yun Jian to have supper with her came as a delightful surprise to Bear.Might. Others had no idea but he knew about her identity.

When Yun Jian found out about a nearby seafood barbecue vendor through Dai Qingqing, she did not hesitate to take all of them there.

Bear.Might could not help cracking a grin when he saw Yun Jian guiding everyone into the seafood barbecue place naturally. The boss of Gu Sha Mercenaries would take her company to have a roadside vendor's barbecue too.

At the sight of Yun Jian ordering with familiarity, Bear.Might could not help commenting in his mind, 'So the boss of Gu Sha, this woman said to be the richest among secret agents and assassins, will actually have food sold by roadside vendors...'

When supper ended, Yun Jian returned to Novel Park Hotel with a full stomach of greasy goodness.

Early the next morning, she was to depart home.

Bear.Might and his men left early in the morning as well. Before they did, they came to inform Yun Jian about it. Dai Qingqing waved goodbye to Yun Jian with tears in her eyes but the latter placated her telling her that they would meet next time.

It was true that there would be a next time because Panthers Pack's headquarters was here. Acquiring Panthers Pack to Falcon Hall meant that Yun Jian must go through certain procedures, especially since Han Biao was here—Yun Jian would definitely have to make trips here in the future.

Finally, Duan Lei drove off with Yun Jian and Zhang Zhifan while Dai Qingqing sent them off.

About two hours of drive later, the man arrived at Longmen City with both his passengers. Duan Lei hurried to Falcon Hall's headquarters to update his gang about the good news once he came back. Falcon Hall would be the top mob in Zhe Province before long and they had Yun Jian to thank for!

New Cruise was also Yun Jian's. As Zhang Zhifan bonded better with Duan Lei and others, he was also happy when he saw Falcon Hall doing better. After all, the smoother Falcon Hall's path was in the future, it simultaneously meant that New Cruise would have a powerful support behind it!

By the time Yun Jian got home, it was noon.

Winter had crept away silently as the school reopened and the start of spring was now washing over everywhere. Meeting sunnier days where the sun hung high, the temperature in the day could compare to summer rainy days.

Yun Jian returned home under the gentle rays of the sun.

Once she entered, she saw Lan Su helping Ya Dang down from the stairs.

"Yun Jian, you're back?" The moment she saw Yun Jian, Lan Su accidentally let go of her hand, having forgotten about Ya Dang who was currently nursing severe injuries and could not walk independently.

"Goodness, oh my god, what are you doing? Is this how you treat a patient?" Ya Dang grimaced in exaggeration.

"Sorry, I forgot!" Lan Su quickly held Ya Dang's arm again and gently guided him downstairs.

Yun Jian pressed her lips together and asked, "Where's my mother?"

"Aunty and Aunty Dong Ruan went to try on wedding gowns," Lan Su, who remembered Qin Yirou's message, replied.

"Where are they?" asked Yun Jian again.

"United Luenmei Shopping Center. You can go have a look, young madam." Ya Dang had a hold on his leg as he slowly made his way down the stairs with Lan Su's assistance.

"Mn," Yun Jian left the house immediately to go to United Luenmei Shopping Center once she heard that Qin Yirou had gone to try out wedding dresses.

As she stepped out of the mansion, she could still hear Ya Dang's loud cry from behind her, "Ack, you silly woman, can you go slower! My leg's going to be crippled because of you!"

"Sorry... I... I didn't do it on purpose!" Lan Su's awkward voice could still vaguely be heard.

It was her first time serving someone. In the past, she had always been the one being served. Even back in Yulong Mainland where Wu Clan was already deteriorating, Lan Su had yet to go down to the level of having to serve others.

Perhaps it was her guilt for Ya Dang, Lan Su was incredibly tolerant of him.

"Foolish woman!" Ya Dang, who wanted to continue criticizing, relented after hearing what Lan Su said and ultimately uttered that.

On the other hand, Yun Jian was already on her way to the United Luenmei Shopping Center.

United Luenmei Shopping Center, evident from its name, had a good majority of merchandise one would need to buy in Longmen City. Bridal shops and stuff were not plentiful but there were still a few of them in the shopping center.

In Longmen City, United Luenmei Shopping Center was considered a relatively large platform for shopping.

Not knowing which shop Qin Yirou and Dong Ruan had gone to, Yun Jian looked for them patiently. It was a sweltering noon, so she was only dressed in a white hoodie. The pure white sweater added youth and a sense of delicateness to her.

Passersby who did not know any better would think that Yun Jian was only an exuberant teenage girl when they saw her.

Making a round trip to several bridal shops in the United Luenmei Shopping Center, Yun Jian was not anxious even when she did not manage to find Qin Yirou. The evening of the day before yesterday, which was Friday, she had heard Qin Yirou saying that she would attend a high school reunion with Dong Ruan at noon today.

Yun Jian could guess as much. Dong Ruan was most probably free today and took a day off to attend the high school reunion. Once that ended, she could accompany Qin Yirou to pick her wedding gown.

Being a high-ranking official, Dong Ruan was usually busy. She probably had yet to dive nose deep into work for these few days, so she would attend the reunion gathering with Qin Yirou first and go shopping for a wedding dress with the latter in the afternoon now that she was back from her hometown.

May 21st was the wedding day Qin Yirou and Ge Junjian had decided on. It was now March and two short months were all that was left before the day came.

It was already late for Qin Yirou to pick out a wedding dress, but Ge Junjian had a hectic schedule in the military—Yun Jian knew about it too, so he had no time to come out with Qin Yirou to search for her dress. Since Dong Ruan was free today, she took up the task without much fuss.

As she thought about it, Yun Jian made a turn at a corner and coincidentally saw Qin Yirou standing some distance away when she looked up. Dong Ruan was standing next to Qin Yirou too.

Schooling her face to walk over with a smile, Yun Jian caught a group of people standing in front of Qin Yirou and Dong Ruan. The two women had yet to enter the bridal shop while the group standing before them looked to be around their age.

The woman who stood right in front was raising her voice to carp at Qin Yirou with a sharp tongue, “There I was wondering why the both of you are leaving right after the reunion—it’s a gathering after all, we’re going for karaoke in the afternoon but you two left saying you have things to do!”

“If we didn’t pass by here to go to the karaoke, we wouldn’t have seen you!”

“Besides, Qin Yirou, didn’t you drop out of high school? Aren’t you already married? Are you getting married for the second time if you’re here to pick a wedding gown?”

The woman was a loudmouth, literally loud too, so most people who walked past could hear her.
