

Schoolgirl 801

Chapter 801: A Mere Teenage Girl—What Could She Be Capable Of?

“You...” The leading security guard was large in size and held a stun baton in his hand, but when he saw the butterfly knife on Yun Jian’s hand as she came for him in an unnerving gait akin to a grim reaper, he could not help flinching.

“Don’t come over... Young lady, I’m telling you, don’t say I didn’t warn you if you come closer!” the security guard said as he took two steps back, tightening his grip on the stun baton.

The way he acted was obvious that he was apprehensive about the knife in Yun Jian’s hand.

Watching Yun Jian slowly walk toward the internal elevator of the company, the security guards did not dare go forward. Instead, they were constantly forced back by Yun Jian’s intimidation.

There were plenty of employees who were moving around in Beiguang Model Agency. When they saw Yun Jian and the boys who barged in, they could not help stopping in their tracks to watch them—given the fact that most of them stayed far away.

Beiguang Model Agency housed a lot of models and celebrities, but those who were famous would not usually appear here. The rest who were standing here and watching the commotion were mostly small fries of the industry.

These people stood a considerable distance away as they trained their eyes on the situation here. Some of them were quietly shocked. A lot of them here, models and celebrities who were not widely known, were tricked into the showbiz like Chen Xinyi and were ultimately forced into contracts.

As these people watched Yun Jian go to the security guards who were beginning to retreat and form a semicircle around the three teenagers, holding a knife in her hand, it was apparent to them that Yun Jian and her friends were here to look for someone.

They guessed that the friend of these three teenagers was probably a young lady who got tricked here just like these models and artists.

Although Yun Jian had managed to force the guards back with a knife, that was all she had—a knife. These security guards held stun batons—the ones that debilitate people once they were struck.

Would this girl actually be able to avoid the stun batons of these guards?

“This girl looks really pretty!”

“Too bad she doesn’t have a brain to come thrashing in Beiguang. It’s not like people weren’t here to kick up a fuss before but those people got chased out each time after getting beaten up!”

Some of the employees whispered to themselves from a distance away.

“I know, right? How could one be able to leave Beiguang once they come in? They’d be forced into getting naked...”

A soft voice of discussion sounded. The voice paused before resuming to gossip to those around, “Didn’t a girl come into Beiguang just earlier? She really thought that she’d get to star in dramas and films here.

After making a big show of it, crying and threatening to kill herself and all that, she had to get naked and shoot...”

The words that followed did not have to be completed to be understood.

These employees of Beiguang knew what sort of company they were working for. It was just that for someone paid to do their job, it was better to turn a blind eye and mind their own business even if they had found out the truth.

During then, the leading security guard waved at the other four guards around him. It was apparent that Yun Jian who stood in front of them seemed more of a challenge to overcome, so they planned to assign the three men in front of her to tackle her while the other two guards would go for Zhang Shaofeng and Zhang Jian respectively.

Executing their strategy right away, the two security guards who stood by the side pounced at Zhang Shaofeng and Zhang Jian while the three security guards at the front bolted for Yun Jian wielding their stun batons.

Even if Yun Jian was skilled, she was a mere teenage girl. What could she be capable of?

Chapter 802: Taking Five Down In One Move And Shocking Everyone

The two guards on the side had made their moves first in attacking Zhang Shaofeng and Zhang Jian.

Zhang Jian had never encountered a situation like this. While he was pretty good at fighting in school, he was nothing once he had stepped out of school. Hence, Zhang Shaofeng pulled him away once he saw the two guards closing in on them to take them on himself.

Having learned some moves from Yun Jian for so long, Zhang Shaofeng was more or less able to handle the two security guards even though his current ability could not yet allow him to fight high-level secret agents.

In spite of it, Zhang Shaofeng had no weapon right now. Otherwise, the two guards would not be his match.

As Zhang Shaofeng faced the attacks of both guards, he could only keep avoiding using the method Yun Jian had first taught him. His plan was to keep defending himself and stay away from the security guards; he would counterattack once he found their weak spot and quashed them in one move!

“Master, grandmaster, w-watch out!” Zhang Jian shouted, worried about Zhang Shaofeng and Yun Jian despite being pulled away by the former.

Just after he shouted, he saw a shadow flash past him.

The three security guards were still approaching Yun Jian slowly while the stun batons in their hands were already turned on. While they were cautiously making their way near her, Yun Jian suddenly sprinted two steps toward them with a tilt of the body.

It was only two steps before she fell down out of the blue.

Zhang Jian nearly cried from alarm but it was at the same time that he saw Yun Jian's movement for what it was. She did not fall down. She threw herself on the floor but before her haunches could touch the floor, she supported herself with her left hand pressing against the floor.

Despite it being only on one hand, Yun Jian managed to hoist herself up. As Zhang Jian and the other employees who stood far away watched on, Yun Jian put her weight on her left hand and kicked out her bent legs the fastest she could.

The three security guards had only reached Yun Jian by then. Before they could react to it, Yun Jian was already extending her long legs in a powerful swiping motion to hook all three men down to the floor.

Once she took all three men down, she got up to dash for the two security guards whom Zhang Shaofeng was having a hard time defending.

As for the three guards who tried attacking Yun Jian with the stun batons, they fell down with their heads hitting the floor first. Since they were also holding the stun batons that were switched on, the electroshock weapon fell when their grip loosened due to the fall and the charged end dropped on them with a hard thud instead.

Buzz, buzz... All three security guards were struck by the charged end of the stun batons immediately and got incapacitated into immobility.

Yun Jian's move just now shocked the crowd. How was the girl so skilled? There were three security guards yet she subdued them in the blink of an eye!

The crowd was still thinking about it when they heard a melodic voice.

"Move!" Yun Jian warned, already running toward the guards who were trying to shock Zhang Shaofeng. The latter who heard Yun Jian's voice ducked away at once while the girl faced the two guards replacing him.

Yun Jian took two steps toward them before she sprang up. She was already in the air in the next second under everyone's baffled gaze.

Somersaulting in the air upon jumping up, Yun Jian stabbed her butterfly knife into the chest of the security guards before she kicked them away and landed securely before the two guards realized what happened.

Chapter 803: A Celebrity And Two Words—Piss Off

Zhang Jian as well as the other staff who were watching from afar could not help being stunned.

The girl was truly skilled! Going up against five people alone, required her no more than a minute!

While everyone was stupefied, one of the employees spotted the two security guards' chests.

"Look at their chest! That's..." Once the person shouted, the spectators averted their eyes to the two guards who Yun Jian kicked away.

What was the matter? The crowd turned to the guards in puzzlement.

It was only then they saw there was a hole on both security guards' uniforms—right where their heart was, which was also the part of their chest where Yun Jian's butterfly knife had glided past.

The holes were not exactly obvious but if one looked carefully, one would see that the hole was right where the heart was. If Yun Jian had just gotten one of the guard's chest when she swung her butterfly knife just now, people there might just think of it as a coincidence.

However, she had drawn her blade over the chest right where the heart was of both security guards. If she had pushed the blade into their chests when she raised her butterfly knife at them, these two guards would now be... dead!

The spectating crowd was dumbstruck by the sight, even Zhang Jian gasped aloud. In comparison, though, he knew who Yun Jian was. Right now, all he wanted to do was applaud Yun Jian—she lived up to the name of Team Monarch's Slashing God after all.

Zhang Jian swore that he was going to boast it to his friends as much as he could when he went back to school. Just thinking about doing it excited him.

The two guards who were now on the floor felt a sense of chill on their chest as well. It was after they scrambled up from the floor that they were struck with the realization that Yun Jian had cut open their security uniform around their chest area using the butterfly knife.

That was when both the men felt goosebumps racking their bodies.

"Let's go." Disregarding the shock of the crowd, Yun Jian flicked the butterfly knife closed with a straight face. She did not even turn back when she told Zhang Shaofeng and Zhang Jian to move.

As she said that, she made her way to the elevator.

After what she had done, no one there dared stop her.

Clap! Clap!

Hold on, there was actually someone who did but it was in the form of two loud claps. A fashionably dressed man came out from the corridor next to the elevator.

Once he made his appearance, he put himself in front of Yun Jian to block her way.

The man was in good shape and stood out with good looks as well, handsome with a tall and straight nose. One could tell that he looked like an idol. The reality was not far from it.

"Ah! Oh my god! Am I seeing things right? T-that's... Li Hang!"

"Am I dreaming? Ahh! I'm actually seeing Li Hang! It's really him! In flesh and blood! I've long heard that he's an artist under our company but I've never seen him around. Can't believe I actually get to see him today!"

Once this fashionably dressed man with black short curled hair appeared, the female employees who were there to watch the commotion squealed and shrieked instantly.

Yun Jian frowned.

“Girl, you were... very good just now.” The man who was the cause of the crowd screeching was Li Hang; he was also currently staring at Yun Jian with interest playing in his eyes.

Li Hang was an artist of Beiguang Model Agency who became virally popular across the country from a TV drama series that was broadcasted some time ago. He was the newest, hottest celebrity right now.

The scene of Yun Jian taking down the security guards just now piqued Li Hang’s interest, so he stepped forward to put himself in front of her and look at her with a smirk

Yun Jian who earned Li Hang’s attention became the subject of envy of all the girls there.

When everyone thought that Yun Jian would go along with Li Hang’s attempt to talk to her, however, Yun Jian uttered airily, “Piss off!”

Chapter 804: You Have One Second To Get Out Of My Sight

Yun Jian said and planned to move around him to get to the elevator. Zhang Shaofeng and Zhang Jian were tailing her to go to the elevator as well. Any time wasted right now would mean more danger to Chen Xinyi.

Even without stating the obvious, Yun Jian, Zhang Shaofeng and Zhang Jian could guess where Chen Xinyi was brought to and what was done to her when she had disappeared for such a long time.

When they heard Yun Jian telling Li Hang to piss off, the employees who were watching the commotion finally lashed out. Li Hang’s female fans, especially, came after her with curses.

“How dare you be so rude to our Hanghang? B*tch, don’t think you can play hard-to-get just because you’re pretty. Hanghang won’t like you!”

“How could you humiliate my beloved idol? Die!”

The employees charged, blocking Yun Jian’s way to the elevator like they wanted to show Li Hang how devoted they were to him.

There was no doubt that Yun Jian was beautiful. She was fair and her skin was supple, even her shapely figure was perfectly proportionate. Any man who saw her would involuntarily feel like owning her.

Being besotted by Yun Jian, Li Hang came down from the second floor where the area was prohibited even for employees.

There were two reasons Li Hang had made his way down. One was for Yun Jian while another was because he relished being the center of attention. He knew that he was adored because his popularity surged from the TV series not too long ago.

That was why he grew interested when he saw what Yun Jian had done and wanted to come downstairs to flirt. It did not cross his mind that she would actually ask him to... piss off.

Since his debut, Li Hang knew that he was handsome. His features were attractive and manly. It was the look that the girls were crazy over nowadays.

All that but Yun Jian had asked him to piss off!

This was a huge blow to Li Hang's ego.

The female employees who were also Li Hang's fans thus put themselves in front of Yun Jian to stop her from leaving in order to impress Li Hang.

On the other hand, Li Hang ran a hand through his hair in assumed suaveness and went to Yun Jian again to ask her, "Hey, girl, I'm used to people playing hard-to-get. Tell me, are you my fan? Hmm... You must be here for my autograph too huh? You were too violent just now though, actually fighting the guards for an autograph of mine!"

"Heh, but I'll give you an autograph since you worked so hard for it!"

As he spoke, Li Hang pulled out a marker from his pants pocket leisurely. His feigned nonchalance caused the female fans around to scream again.

"Where do you want the autograph, girlie? On your clothes?" Li Hang stretched his hand with his eyes lingering on Yun Jian's ample bust.

Just as he was about to stretch his hand there and Yun Jian was going to counter, a fair veiny hand grabbed Li Hang's hand that was going to reach for the hem of Yun Jian's clothes.

When Yun Jian turned to look, Si Yi had somehow appeared.

The young man was gripping Li Hang's wrist and twisting it.

Crack!

A crisp sound of bone breaking was heard while Li Hang, who felt the pang of agony sweated profusely from it.

Si Yi flicked the celebrity's hand away and glared at him, icy and murderous. "You and your people have two seconds to get out of my sight. Otherwise, Beiguang Model Agency shall be buried along with your death!"

Chapter 805: Li Hang's Shattered Ego

The crowd was shaken by the sight of Si Yi who had suddenly appeared and grabbed Li Hang's wrist to break it mercilessly. The distinct crack they heard was an obvious sign that Li Hang's wrist was completely broken.

The celebrity of said broken wrist covered his hand and stumbled back in pain. The excruciation could be felt even in his heart.

Who was this? Who dared speak in such an impudent tone to him? Did the guy not know that he was celebrity Li Hang? How dare he treat him like this with such threatening words? Was he not scared of his fans beating him up?

Li Hang looked up at once only to be greeted by a divinely gorgeous face.

Si Yi's features matched each other perfectly that his beauty felt unbelievable. His expressive eyes were deep like bottomless pits. Even when Li Hang was a man, he could not help startling when he saw Si Yi.

Moreover, Li Hang was 1.75m tall at most. Most of his charm came from his good looks, as a matter of face he usually captured the hearts of young naïve girls with this face that was relatively fresh and dapper. There were a lot of male stars who were taller than Li Hang but there were not many who were better looking than him.

That was how Li Hang managed to recruit a large female fanbase with his fresh handsome face—if he had to say so himself.

He had even made it to the news headline some time ago and became a national sensation.

All these were, of course, before he met Si Yi.

If this were in the past, there was no way these female fans could hold themselves back when they watched someone break their idol's wrist. This was their idol!

When they looked up to retaliate, however, they saw Si Yi's baffling beauty and swallowed all their curses promptly.

Si Yi was not even on Li Hang's level to be compared. Not only was Si Yi half a head taller than Li Hang, but his looks could also triumph the man ten or even a hundred times.

This was a harsh pill to take for Li Hang, especially when he had always taken pride in his looks. Suddenly encountering someone who was taller and umpteenth times better looking than him, Li Hang felt his heart sinking to the lowest point of the world.

All the show business cared about was looks.

"Why..." Before Yun Jian could finish the remaining words "are you here", Si Yi had held her hand to lead them to the elevator.

Zhang Shaofeng was losing his mind from panic. Seeing that Si Yi led Yun Jian forward, he went after them immediately.

Zhang Jian was sharp. While he did not know who Si Yi was, he quickly tailed after them as well.

Si Yi's appearance garnered most of the ladies' attention, but due to his icy demeanor and the expression on his stunning face that looked like he would kill anyone who dared stop him, no one there had the guts to stop Si Yi.

As Si Yi led Yun Jian away, the female fans who had been blocking Yun Jian's way moved for them involuntarily while they stared at Si Yi in infatuation.

"Hiss..." Li Hang, however, glared at Si Yi but his gaze turned besotted when he looked at Yun Jian who vanished from his sight in the elevator.

Yun Jian was already in the elevator with Si Yi right now. Despite the cramped space, there were also Zhang Shaofeng and Zhang Jian in there.

As they entered and the elevator doors closed, Yun Jian told Zhang Shaofeng who was standing beside the buttons. "Fifth floor."

Zhang Shaofeng pressed the button "5" swiftly and the elevator went up.

Chapter 806: Refusal To Remove Her Clothes Despite Being Coaxed

Fifth floor, waiting room.

Rewind time back to 20 minutes ago... Chen Xinyi had waited for nearly half an hour at the waiting room on the fifth floor. There were five to six girls who were also waiting like her here. All of them were young slender girls with excellent complexion and outstanding charm.

Chen Xinyi wrung her hands together, worried that she would fail the audition.

There was a door in front of the waiting room where the audition room lay behind it.

Rumors had it that one had to immerse themselves in acting during auditions like they were actually shooting. There would be photographers capturing their every move on the side.

According to Zhao Zhengmin, an actress needed to look photogenic for the camera all the time. That was why Chen Xinyi was extremely nervous right now.

Not wanting the waiting room to be noisy, Zhao Zhengmin had temporarily confiscated everything on Chen Xinyi other than the clothes she was wearing when she entered the room.

Chen Xinyi had initially planned to call Zhang Shaofeng to tell him that she had arrived at the destination, but there was no way she could contact him now since her phone was taken away.

Creak... The room to the audition was opened again and a girl ran out crying looking like she was wrongfully treated.

Since the audition room and the waiting room were separate spaces, Chen Xinyi who sat in the waiting room could not hear anything from the audition room. It was to be expected, how would she get to listen to the audition process?

The girl who ran out just now had probably failed to be selected too...

Taking a deep breath, Chen Xinyi mentally cheered for herself. Once she thought about how Zhang Shaofeng would look at her admiringly if she were to pass the audition and get chosen for a supporting role, she felt ecstatic.

"Where's Number 16?" Someone came out of the audition room to shout by the door.

Chen Xinyi was Number 16.

She had been staring at her number repeatedly, so she stood up quickly when someone called out for it. "It's me!"

"Come in," the man who shouted for the candidate scanned Chen Xinyi from head to toe openly before he said.

"Mn!" After the long wait, Chen Xinyi got up to follow him excitedly once she heard that it was her turn.

Once she walked through the door to the audition room, the man who came to ask for her locked the door. Chen Xinyi could not help glancing back at his action, feeling strange about it. Nonetheless, she did not think much into it but looked around the place. It was weird—why were the windows and door here all locked shut?

Chen Xinyi still did not dwell on it.

“Come, come, Xiao Yi, come here!” Zhao Zhengmin who had long been sitting in the room waved his hand at Chen Xinyi warmly. The girl went over to him.

There were a few judges sitting there but they looked rather shady. Once they saw Chen Xinyi coming in, they were checking her out blatantly.

Despite being unsettled by their gesture, Chen Xinyi went to them.

“Xiao Yi, why don’t you remove your jacket? It’s so hot here. Look at me, I’m only wearing a short-sleeved t-shirt. It’s too warm! Don’t let it affect your performance!” Zhao Zhengmin kindly advised, but his eyes that were lingering on Chen Xinyi were squinted into a thin line.

“I... I think I’ll keep it on.” Chen Xinyi was a little intimidated when she saw that there were only men in the room, so she refused to take off anything even if the room did feel very warm.

Chapter 807: Strip Her. Showing His True Colors

“Oh, just take it off. Don’t worry about it. We all know each other!” Zhao Zhengmin went over to pull Chen Xinyi’s jacket to take it off directly.

The girl wore a cute pink short-sleeved t-shirt inside.

When Chen Xinyi chatted with Yun Jian on the phone, she knew that Yun Jian would be wearing pink today, so she chose a jacket that felt like what Yun Jian would wear, claiming that she hoped to borrow some of Yun Jian’s luck to pass the audition today.

When the men in the room saw the pink short sleeves on Chen Xinyi, their eyes went straight.

Chen Xinyi naturally did not realize it.

“That’s it!” Zhao Zhengmin said and patted her back like they were close, making Chen Xinyi stiffen up abruptly.

“Alright, Xiao Yi. Go over there now!” Zhao Zhengmin was going to pat her back again but Chen Xinyi managed to avoid it discreetly this time.

“Mn,” Chen Xinyi hummed noncommittally before she made her way to where she was asked.

For some reason, Zhao Zhengmin’s pat just now unnerved her.

Gritting her teeth and swallowing the revulsion, Chen Xinyi ultimately went to him.

“We can start,” said one of the judges who was bald and slick-looking.

“This is your acting partner, Xu Song.” Zhao Zhengmin came over to introduce a man who stood aside and could be considered handsome to Chen Xinyi.

Although the man looked decent, he looked like he was already in his thirties if he was not in his forties.

“Hello!” Chen Xinyi greeted the man politely, to which the latter responded.

“This is your audition script. Only three short lines. You’d be able to remember them even without memorizing.” Zhao Zhengmin then passed Chen Xinyi a sheet of the script.

“The rest is up to your improvisation,” Zhao Zhengmin reminded after that.

It was only then Chen Xinyi took a glance at the script she held in her hands.

“Th-this script...” Chen Xinyi was taken aback by the lines printed on it just after a glimpse.

Surely, there were only three lines there.

‘No...’

‘Don’t...’

‘Don’t touch me, please...’

Chen Xinyi would have lived the years of her life in vain if she was still oblivious to the current situation. They were shooting those... those kinds of films!

“What’s the matter, Xiao Yi? Can we start? You’ve got to seize a good opportunity like this! If you perform well, who knows if you’ll end up starring as the main character in one of the films!” Zhao Zhengmin continued to coax like everything was perfectly fine.

“I-I’m not auditioning anymore. I’m going home!” Panicking, Chen Xinyi told the men with a flushed face and was about to run for the door.

Just two steps toward the door, however, Zhao Zhengmin had grabbed her clothes to prevent her from escaping.

“F*ck, you won’t listen when I’m talking nicely, will you?” Zhao Zhengmin questioned before slapping Chen Xinyi to the floor.

“Xu Song, get right to it! Strip her! How dare the girl resist me!” As if he became another person, Zhao Zhengmin shouted on the spot.

Xu Song ran over at the order and pinned Chen Xinyi to the couch, his arms going up to tear her clothes apart.

Chapter 808: The Skeleton In The Company’s Closet And Two Slaps

The director and judges who sat around them looked like they were already used to what Xu Song and Zhao Zhengmin were doing as they were currently staring at Chen Xinyi lustfully as if waiting for her to be stripped naked.

“Go away! Go away!” While Chen Xinyi was not a pushover after being friends with Yun Jian for so long, she did not stand a chance against this man in front of her either. After all, the physical strength of a regular man and woman differed greatly.

Nonetheless, when Xu Song threw Chen Xinyi on the couch, the latter was able to stretch her legs and kick Xu Song who was pouncing to rip her clothes apart.

There was nothing more Chen Xinyi wanted to do now than to tear Zhao Zhengming and the rest into pieces.

She was in so much regret right now. Why did she actually believe what Zhao Zhengmin said? It became clear in retrospect why those girls came out crying now!

This was the reason! This was why!

“Cameraman, take full body photos of her! F*ck, this girl’s grown a pair huh? Thinking of leaving? Hah, do you think you could leave as you wish after coming to Beiguang?”

“You’ll go nude today even if you don’t want to! Did you think you can act as you wish?”

Gone was Zhao Zhengmin’s previous amiability. He was like a crook who showed his true colors and it was extremely nauseating.

“Get away from me!” Chen Xinyi managed to land a precise kick to Xu Song’s crotch.

With his tender region being kicked, Xu Song howled in pain before he was seriously enraged, cursing, “F*ck!”

“What the f*ck, Xu Song? You useless scum! You can’t even handle a girl? Hurry up and get it done!” Zhao Zhengmin cursed, ready to take matters into his own hands when he saw that Xu Song got kicked by Chen Xinyi and still had not managed to take off any of her clothes after so long.

Beiguang Model Agency was an entertainment company on the outside but truth to be told, it was really an entertainment company on the inside. It was just that it mainly managed models, so the majority of the company was made up of models. These models made their debuts because they went through the casting couch too.

Other than that, the company made a profit by shooting porn. No one would be willing to star in the films if they knew that it was porn, so Zhao Zhengmin and others figured out this solution.

They recruited large groups of girls who were interested in the show business using the name of Beiguang Model Agency and led them here for auditions. If the girls complied and did what they were told after being coaxed in the audition, it would be a pleasant process for both parties. However, if they met girls who put up a fight like Chen Xinyi, they would strip them bare and take their nudes directly.

They shot every part of the girls’ body, from head to toe; if the girls were still resisting, Xu Song would be asked to force himself on them. These men would then record the entire process. There was no girl who would not do what they wanted after this. If there were, they would send the video recording and photos to their school.

The truth proved that all the girls were too scared to expose an assault like this.

With these video recordings and photos, Zhao Zhengmin could ask the girls to do whatever he wanted. More appallingly, Zhao Zhengmin and the other men had all forced themselves on the girls who were threatened with their sex tapes.

That was not all. These girls were coerced into taking erotic photos to be sold on certain websites. The cruel ways were enough to ruin an innocent girl's life.

Chen Xinyi struggled in berserk as she sat up. All she could think about now was to run. She had to make her escape! Otherwise, she would rather die!

"B*tch! Trying to run? Try running now!" Zhao Zhengmin grabbed Chen Xinyi's clothes and slapped her.

It was a powerful slap on Chen Xinyi and the two slaps had already bruised up her face. In spite of it, she bent her knees stubbornly to kick Zhao Zhengmin away in her revenge.

Chapter 809: The Photoshoot Base—Over There

Chen Xinyi's kick hit Zhao Zhengmin's stomach with full force and the latter fell to the floor from the sudden blow.

Unable to care about the throbbing pain on her cheeks, Chen Xinyi ran for the door once she kicked Zhao Zhengmin off her.

She had to open the door! Once she opened the door, the girls outside would hear her. As long as someone ran out, she would be saved!

The only thought Chen Xinyi had right now was to run.

"F*ck! How dare you kick me? You b*tch, I'll make you pay!" Zhao Zhengmin who got kicked to the floor by Chen Xinyi groaned in pain before he cursed with a glower and stomped toward the girl after he picked himself up.

With her long legs, Chen Xinyi was about to reach the door in a flash. Her hand was already on the knob once she got to the door, but right as she touched the doorknob, she felt someone yanking her clothes and dragging her back violently.

Zhao Zhengmin was savage as he dragged Chen Xinyi all the way back to throw her on the couch once more.

"Argh!" Chen Xinyi kicked and threw punches at the man again in a frenzy.

"You b*tch, I'm going to make you pay for this!" Zhao Zhengmin hissed as he removed his belt and stalked towards Chen Xinyi.

"Go away! Piss off! I'll kill all of you!" Chen Xinyi wished she was as skilled as Yun Jian. That way, she would not be as helpless now.

Despair filled up Chen Xinyi's eyes. She regretted ever following Zhao Zhengmin here and giving her phone away. She knew that Yun Jian was still having dinner at the hotel and would have no idea about what she had encountered.

Once she thought about it, she bit her lips so hard that they bled but she refused to let her tears drop. Chen Xinyi was ready to die as she watched Zhao Zhengmin come to her with an unclasped belt. She spotted a vase nearby...

“B*tch, I’ll make you cry for this!” Zhao Zhengmin taunted as he pounced at Chen Xinyi.

It was at the same time that the girl suddenly threw herself toward a table not too far away.

“What’s she doing...” one of the judges gasped at the sight of her action.

“Hurry! Stop her!”

...

Yun Jian had just come out of the elevator with her group.

Si Yi kept his grip around Yun Jian’s hand. Zhang Shaofeng was already used to it while Zhang Jian was surprised but kept himself silent. He was just wondering earlier who would be brilliant enough to match Yun Jian—there it came, his answer came to him.

Although he did not know who Si Yi was, Zhang Jian could feel the frost the young man emanated that could send a zip of chill down everyone’s spine who was around him.

If one were to ask how Si Yi found Yun Jian just now, that was because Yun Jian kept her phone with her at all times. It was not difficult to track the exact location of Yun Jian’s phone for anyone who knew programming.

It was impossible that An Hun Group could not achieve this when talents were abundant in the organization. Moreover, Yun Jian did not install any anti-hacking system in her phone, so Si Yi could easily find out where she was if he looked into it.

“This is the fifth floor. It’s so quiet like no one’s here. Master, where will Xinyi be?” Zhang Shaofeng was already anxious as he stepped out of the elevator.

“It’s a left turn then a right turn and another right turn once we go all the way inside. That’s where the waiting room is,” Yun Jian answered.

All of them ran in the direction she said right after that.

Beiguang Model Agency was very spacious. Since the fifth floor was a photoshoot base allocated specifically for models to shoot commercials and publicity posters, it took up an enormous area.

Each room was also fully soundproofed and there was no one in the corridors currently, so it felt quiet.

“Over there!” Zhang Shaofeng led the way running as he followed Yun Jian’s instructions and was the first to see an unobtrusive door, running even faster when he did.

Chapter 810: Yun Jian Came. She Just Went In

Yun Jian and the others did not waste time either. All of them knew that the faster they ran now, the safer it meant for Chen Xinyi.

When they ran past the corner, it was when they saw a semi-opened unobtrusive door with someone standing guard beside it. The person looked around from time to time, flinching when he saw Yun Jian and company like some secret of his was discovered.

“Sh*t! Something must be up!” Zhang Shaofeng growled and dashed to the person alongside Yun Jian and others.

“Stop! This is an audition space. Outsiders are prohibited from entering!” The person who stood guard at the door looking like he was committing a crime put up a hand to stop Yun Jian and the group once he saw them coming toward him.

Beiguang Model Agency had its own rules. Staff were prohibited from entering certain places while outsiders were prohibited from going into some rooms as well.

In spite of it, it was easily seen from the person who guarded the door defensively and banning anyone from entering that there must be some secret here. Why else would someone have to guard the door if it was only an audition venue?

“F*ck off!” Zhang Shaofeng was the one closest to the door. Once he thought that something could happen to Chen Xinyi, he lifted his leg and kicked the man’s stomach harshly.

“You...” The person guarding the door was only realizing what was happening but he was already flung away by Zhang Shaofeng’s kick.

Zhang Shaofeng who was in his raging zone was terrifying. Yun Jian squinted at the sight; her disciple did have the potential.

The person guarding the door nearly vomited blood from Zhang Shaofeng’s kick, mentally succumbing to the current situation.

As for Zhang Shaofeng, he had already moved to open the discreet-looking door with Yun Jian and Si Yi following him. Zhang Jian was the last to go.

Just as he was about to run in, he suddenly stopped and felt mischievous looking at the person supposedly guarding the door who was kicked by Zhang Shaofeng. Then, he threw his heavy self onto the man mercilessly, taunting the latter, “I’ll squash you to death! Hah, look!”

With that, Zhang Jian plopped himself down on the person’s stomach, pressing his weight down on him.

The door guard had yet to come back to his senses from the pain of being kicked when he was brutally squashed by Zhang Jian’s 80-90kg solid weight in the next instant. He fainted on the spot.

Zhang Shaofeng, Yun Jian and Si Yi had already arrived at the waiting room upon stepping through the door.

“Why aren’t they done yet? We’ve been waiting for so long.”

Once she entered the waiting room, Yun Jian saw four to five girls sitting in there looking about the same age as Chen Xinyi. One of them was chatting out of boredom with a girl beside her.

“One person takes at least 20 minutes for the audition. I really don’t know what they’re doing in there! It’s so boring waiting out here!”

“It’s good enough that we have the chance to audition. Count your blessing!”

Two girls sat talking on the side.

When Yun Jian and others came in, all the girls in the room looked over to them at once, blushing once they saw Si Yi.

“Um, are you guys... here for the audition too?” One of the two girls who were chatting just now glanced at Si Yi shyly before abandoning her conversation partner to run over to them.

“Have you seen a girl? Hmm, about this tall—with two pigtails and a pink shirt. She looks sweet when she smiles,” Zhang Shaofeng questioned in a rush.

To stand out more today, Chen Xinyi had purposely tied her hair into two pigtails and wore a pink top, looking adorable after dressing up.

“She’s just gone into the audition room.” The girl acted immensely graceful in front of Si Yi and even kindly pointed at the closed door of the audition room as she spoke.
