

《Sweet Daily Life With Rich Fool Husband》

Chapter 33

Su wanwan took a short-term contraceptive before going to bed, and Jiang Chengzhan was ready immediately. If he could accept her, it would be good for her to have a child belonging to him and her.

When the time comes, the three of them will be happy as much as they want.

"Wife, what are you eating?" Suddenly, a confused voice came, Su wanwan subconsciously backed his hand.

She has been taking medicine with Jiang Chengzhan on her back, and she doesn't want him to find out. Who knows that she's going to give up now, but he saw her.

Su wanwan said vaguely, "it's vitamins."

He told his aunt about the condom before, which made her ashamed and ashamed. Now she can't tell him anything about taking medicine.

"What are vitamins?" Jiang Chengzhan goes to the bottom of the matter.

Su wanwan racked his brains to explain: "it's to supplement nutrition."

Jiang Chengzhan immediately stretched out his hand: "that zhanbao also wants to eat, wife, zhanbao also wants to eat."

Su wanwan refused to give it to him. "This is for women. You can't eat it."

Jiang Chengzhan didn't believe her. He grabbed her arm with his left hand and grabbed her behind with his right.

Su wanwan is petite. Jiang Chengzhan is tall, with long legs and long arms. It's easy to catch Su wanwan's wrist.

Su wanwan gnaws her teeth and tries her best, but she can't beat Jiang Chengzhan.

Watching Jiang Chengzhan take the medicine bottle from her hand.

Su wanwan

She used to take a long-term contraceptive, once a month, will change the hormone in the body, after stopping taking three months short-term, otherwise it is easy to cause massive bleeding.

Anyway, this kind of medicine is very harmful.

Three months ago, she had stopped taking the short acting contraceptive. Now Jiang Chengzhan is ready. They can talk about having a baby.

Had Jiang Chengzhan not been willing to wear a condom before, she would not have eaten this kind of food.

If he's stupid, Sue won't care about him any more.

Who knows nearly a year is all right, today was discovered by him unexpectedly.

Sue didn't know how to explain it.

Jiang Chengzhan squinted at the instructions on the medicine bottle. After reading for a long time, he didn't understand the meaning: "wife, what on earth is this?"

Su wanwan laughed reluctantly: "I told you, it's a kind of vitamin."

Jiang Chengzhan didn't believe it and suddenly thought, "wife, don't you say that sperm will grow into a baby in the soil? What about the baby?"

Su wanwan frowned. Did the fool see anything?

She scratched her head and snatched the medicine bottle while Jiang Chengzhan didn't pay attention. "Don't look. Go to bed quickly. What time do you think it is?"

"Oh," Jiang Chengzhan was a little unhappy, but he didn't say anything. He glanced at her again. After he was sure Su would not show him, he went to the bedroom.

But he remembered that it was a small medicine bottle with a purple pattern on it.

Su wanwan always feels that today's Jiang Chengzhan is a bit deep. I don't know whether it's because he saw something just now or he's about to wake up, so he's a little abnormal.

In the past, when he was silly, they had no scruples, but now when she thought that he was going to wake up, she felt embarrassed to do something more intimate.

It seems that I used to wear clothes all the time, but now I've been stripped all of a sudden.

It's very unnatural.

Therefore, if Jiang Chengzhan doesn't take the initiative to be close to her, she will be embarrassed to take the initiative to provoke him again.

The next morning, when Su got up late, she felt that she had no strength all over her body, and her head hurt badly. She was very soft and didn't want to move at all, and she felt very cold.

Her first reaction was that she had a cold.

Jiang Chengzhan was asked to take the thermometer, and it burned to more than 38 degrees.

This is the first time I've caught a cold since I put it on.

In the past, she was as strong as a cow, and she didn't catch a cold once a year. But now she has caught a cold.

Jiang Chengzhan saw that she was not feeling well. He was so worried that he walked around her and touched her head.

His big hands are cool and comfortable on her hot forehead.

"Wife, are you sick?"

He suddenly thought of his doctor, to get a mobile phone to call, "wife, you bear for a while, I'll call a doctor for you."

She had been waiting on him all the time, but he was so stupid that he even knew to call a doctor for him.

After Jiang Chengzhan called the doctor, he looked at Su wanwan and didn't know what to do. "Wife, what are you doing now? Do you want to wait?"

Su wanwan doesn't want Jiang Chengzhan around her. She is a normal person. She has a cold. If she infects him, she will be in trouble.

Want to and this urge way: "Zhan Bao, you go to ask aunt to cook some porridge for me to drink."

"Oh," Jiang Chengzhan ran out and went downstairs to ask his mom to cook.

Cai Ma came back three months ago and continued to take care of Jiang Chengzhan's diet.

Su wanwan wrapped up a quilt, not enough, and put up a quilt, still feel cold.

Jiang Chengzhan came back with a cup of hot water in his hand. He was very careful for fear that the water would be spilled out. "I'm afraid. The vegetable mother said that it would be better to drink some hot water. You should drink some first."

Su wanwan doesn't want to move. Jiang Chengzhan puts the water cup on the bedside table and goes to pull Su Wanyu up: "get up quickly, drink water first, and the doctor will come soon."

Su wanwan is pulled up by Jiang Chengzhan. Jiang Chengzhan hands her a water cup and says, "drink."

Su wanwan takes a look at Jiang Chengzhan with her warm water cup. At the moment, the man's hair is in a mess and his face is not very good. He is obviously worried. He just stares at her water cup and wants to pour it down for her.

In the old world, Su wanwan didn't often catch a cold, but she would still get sick.

She remembers that one winter, she and her father were chased. At that time, her father was found cheating in the casino. People wanted to catch him and cut off his hands.

At that time, she was still working for others. When her father came to the hotel to find her, he would pull her away: "late, I was chased. Let's run away."

Sue took her bag and ran with him.

On the way, her father left all the money she had earned for two months.

Later, she couldn't run any more, so her father put her under a broken paper box in a small alley.

She hid inside, shivering with fear as she listened to the messy footsteps outside.

It took more than an hour for those people to leave, and she froze there for more than an hour. Later, when she returned to the place where she worked, she fell ill.

At that time, no one took care of her. She had to do odd jobs to earn the next living expenses.

Now I remember, I don't know how I carried it at that time.

"Wife, drink it quickly. It's cold."

Jiang Chengzhan's urging voice brings back Su wanwan's thoughts. She holds a hot water cup and looks at Jiang Chengzhan for a moment. The man is silly, but he is concerned. Her eyes are hot and she drinks all the hot water in the cup.

After cooking porridge, the vegetable mother drank most of the bowl, and the doctor prescribed some medicine for her. In the afternoon, she was almost all right.

This disease is coming and going fast.

When taking medicine, an interesting thing happened. Su wanwan didn't want to take medicine when she was a little better. Jiang Chengzhan took the medicine bottle and said to her, "wife, although the medicine is bitter, the doctor said it can cure the disease. You can eat it quickly."

Su wanwan covered her mouth and refused to let go. "I think I'm better. I don't need to eat any more."

Jiang Chengzhan also learned from her former appearance and discussed with her: "my wife is good. Take the medicine quickly, or it will be very uncomfortable."

Su wanwan even shook his head: "but the medicine is very bitter. I don't want to take it."

Jiang Chengzhan spoke slowly, but his words were clear: "it's OK, you just put it in your mouth, drink a little more water, and then go down with your neck. You won't feel it."

.....

Su wanwan couldn't beat him. He took the medicine after all.

But when she got well, Jiang Chengzhan began to have a high fever in the evening.

Su wanwan touched his forehead, which was much higher than his normal temperature. She was startled and quickly found him some medicine.

It's just what she ate during the day. Both of them have a high fever. It's just right for him to eat.

She poured the water, gave him a cool blow, took the medicine to sit beside the bed, stretched out her hand to pull Jiang Chengzhan wrapped quilt: "zhanbao, eat the medicine quickly."

Jiang Chengzhan said vaguely that he would not get up: "no," he said hoarsely and coughed twice.

Su wanwan thinks that he is much more serious than himself and urges him to take medicine.

She put the water cup on the bedside table, then pulled back the quilt, grabbed Jiang Chengzhan's big hand and pulled people up, "Zhan Bao, be good, be good, take the medicine quickly."

Jiang Chengzhan turns over and sticks his head on the pillow. He refuses to get up.

Su sniffed in the evening. During the day, she said, how could she be so happy when it's her turn?

She climbed to bed, pulled the pillow away, held his forehead to let him up, and said in a vicious tone: "Zhan Bao, you have to be obedient. Who else said that, as long as you put the medicine in your mouth and drink water quickly, you won't feel bitter?"

Jiang Chengzhan shook his head and refused to admit that he had said that: "zhanbao doesn't know, zhanbao doesn't remember, you cheat!"

"Oh, I dare to say I'm deceiving people," Su wanwan pulled him up, and put the water cup in his hand, and then gave him the medicine. "Take it quickly, or I'll pour it into you."

Jiang Chengzhan looks at the ferocious Su wanwan. He is reluctant to put the medicine into his mouth.

Su wanwan was happy. She rubbed his head with her soft hand and said in praise, "that's good. Taking medicine on time is a good child."

Jiang Chengzhan is probably flattered. He takes another pill out of the medicine box and puts it into his mouth. He eats it quickly.

Sue didn't have time to stop, "why do you still eat?"

Jiang Chengzhan raised his finger and pointed to his head: "even knead it."

Su wanwan

Can't help laughing, this fool.

I don't know if it's OK for Jiang Chengzhan to take one more tablet. Su wanwan called the doctor and asked him to take one more tablet according to Jiang Chengzhan's weight.

But still pull his big hand warning tone said: "no more food in the future, you know?"

Jiang Chengzhan laughs: "wife, can you rub my head again?"

Su wanwan let Jiang Chengzhan lie on her leg and began to rub his forehead.

The night is quiet, the room atmosphere is harmonious, under the light, two people's gentle figure forms a particularly warm picture.

I didn't know before. When I wrote this paragraph, I checked the long-term contraceptives and short-term contraceptives. I felt terrible.

After eating the long-term contraceptives, you need to take a short period of time, otherwise the hormone changes in the body are also prone to massive bleeding.

Oh, My God!

I feel terrible, little cute people, no matter what, don't eat this kind of food. If you have a relationship, you must wear a condom to protect yourself.

For a moment, the man who refuses to wear a condom is definitely not enough to love you, so don't worry about this kind of man.
