

《Sweet Daily Life With Rich Fool Husband》

Chapter 50

Sue lived on the golf course when she was a caddie. She took advantage of the negligence of the management to play golf, so she didn't dare to compare her level with the professional, but she still had no pressure compared with the ordinary people.

Sue was clutching the club with her feet. She didn't wear gloves. She felt the most comfortable holding the club.

She picked up the club, put a standard posture, hand up and down, saw a white ball along the air draw a beautiful arc, in the next person's cheers still did not fall down, perfectly fell into the hole.

Su wanwan's soft waist still kept the same movement as before. When she saw the golf ball falling into the hole, she slowly withdrew her movement, holding the club in one hand and lifting her hair in the other.

The movement is extremely elegant and beautiful.
