

《Sweet Daily Life With Rich Fool Husband》

Chapter 59

Jiang Chengzhan looks at the table full of long-acting pills Zhao Qing bought for him. None of them were seen in Su wanwan. Only this bottle of short-term pills is similar to what he saw that day, so it must be short-term contraceptives on Su wanwan's table that day.

That is to say, if she changes from long-term to short-term, can he conclude that she is preparing to have a child belonging to him?

It must be. Jiang Chengzhan stroked his forehead with both hands.

She's about to have a baby for two.

I was misunderstood by him.

Once these things are confirmed, he is not good as a whole.

He turned on his mobile phone and repeatedly searched for the disadvantages of taking long-term contraceptives. Especially when he heard Zhao Qing's words about bleeding, he was about to regret to death.

After a period of reflection recently, he has been able to understand why Su wanwan refused to have children.

Married a silly man, not only can not protect themselves, and even to protect him, how determined to have a child with him?

And he kept pushing her.

Not willing to wear a condom, but also to tell her aunt, finally she can only take contraceptives.

Jiang Chengzhan never knew he was such a jerk!

Hum, hum

When the phone rings, Jiang Chengzhan pulls back from his sad mood. He picks up his mobile phone to see that it's su wanwan's bodyguard who is calling. He answers it quickly.

"Mr. Jiang, my wife is missing."

"Missing?" Jiang Chengzhan stood up from his chair and asked, "what's the matter?"

Bodyguard: "my wife said that she would go to the mall to buy some things. We went with her. She went into a store to change her clothes, and then she disappeared."

"Gone?" Jiang Chengzhan raises his hand and rubs his temple. It's clear that he has premeditated. He just goes out to play, or

Jiang Chengzhan did not dare to think more, and asked: "is there anything strange happening?"

Bodyguard: "my wife carried a large suitcase. After she disappeared, we opened it. It was empty."

Jiang Chengzhan told people around him to look for them, while listening to the bodyguard continue to report, "on the way, his wife also asked about the time of high-speed rail to several cities."

"Which cities?" After Jiang Chengzhan asked, the bodyguard came back soon. Now he is like a fly, so he asked people to go to various high-speed railway stations.

Since she had planned, she was afraid that these cities, even the high-speed railway, would be her enchantment.

Before she came to divorce, he did not agree and refused to sign. Did she want to leave directly?

You can't just go out and play, can you?

Su wanwan really just went out to play a circle, the most important thing is that she wants to change the city, first go to the hospital for a check-up, and then the itinerary is to be determined.

Although she had been to many places before, she had no money and had no fun. Now she can go around the world, where she wants to go and how she wants to play.

Jiang Chengzhan refuses to leave, but she still doesn't urge her. Anyway, she can still get a sum of money by the end of the year when she gets the dividend. How can she make waves.

There is still half an hour to board the plane. Cui Lingyue hides outside the hall and watches Su wear sunglasses in the rest area. Is this really going to leave?

Alas, she had brought her to Jiang Chengzhan twice before. She was very angry. Now she didn't tell herself anything. She even wanted to leave quietly.

Cui Lingyue bit his lips and hesitated in his heart. What should he do now?

She is a more nosy person, but also that I am for you, even if you are not happy, I am for you.

In short, it's just that I'm not forced to count.

But Su's attitude of pulling her black made her sad for two days.

When she was hesitating, she suddenly saw an acquaintance.

Two days ago, when I went out to drink with someone, I met him. When he drank too much, he even reported for Jiang Yushen. He said that Jiang Chengzhan had no conscience, drove his grandmother crazy, and forced his uncle out of his way. At that time, she wanted to swear.

But that person looks five big three thick comparison terror, she thought to also calculate.

Anyway, it's Jiang Chengzhan who is scolded, but Su wanwan is not Jiang Chengzhan's best friend.

At this time, she saw the man with a mobile phone in one hand, and the other pointed to Su wanwan's direction. She kept saying something. Her heart thumped, didn't she tell someone?

Cui Lingyue scolds her in her heart. She doesn't care. She first sends a letter to Jiang Chengzhan, and then pulls Su away. If she doesn't recognize her, she won't.

Anyway, it's a sisterhood.

Su wanwan admires her intelligence. She is sitting in the rest area laughing.

She first came out with a big box and went to the mall to escape while changing clothes. In fact, there was nothing in the big box. Then she got on the bus and went home, picked up her small suitcase and came directly to the airport.

As for the high-speed railway and the city to go to, it's just nonsense. When she gets on the plane, those people will react and catch her, and the cauliflower will be cold.

They couldn't catch her before they left the city. It was a joke to go to another city and try to catch her again.

While waiting for the plane, Su wanwan moves the bracelet on her left wrist. It's the one Jiang Chengzhan gave her to wear on the day of the classmate meeting. She shouts to sell it every day, but she is not willing to. When she left home today, she wore it on her wrist.

I didn't find out how much it was worth. Anyway, there was a million yuan. When she was eating dirt one day, she could still hold on for a period of time.

When she was planning to be happy, she suddenly saw Cui Ling read it. She couldn't help frowning: "Why are you here?"

Cui Lingyue knew that she was going to leave. If she wanted to say it was dangerous, she would think she was fooling her, but she didn't want to go back. So she chatted up with her with a smile and tried to cheat her out.

"Late evening, where are you going? Are you going out to play? I'm going out, too. Would you like to go with me?"

Su looked at her speechless: "don't tell me to go here. I'm surprised that Jiang Chengzhan has been informed there. What good has he given you?"

Cui Lingyue sat down next to her and looked around. He said in a threatening tone: "that day I went out to play with my friends and met two people. One of them was implicated in Jiang Yushen's affair and wanted to show Jiang Chengzhan a good look."

She paused. "Don't you worry about him?"

Su wanwan casually replied: "what's he worried about? There are so many bodyguards around him, who eat dry food?"

Cui Lingyue didn't agree with her: "don't forget, Mr. Jiang was stupid before. At that time, there were few bodyguards around him?"

Thinking of the silly Jiang Chengzhan, Su wanwan feels nervous. But then she thinks that if Jiang Chengzhan is still overcast in the same situation, he deserves it.

And why did she make such an indifferent assumption?

Cui Ling read see Su late not on the road, go back to find the person just saw, this will be no one.

It may be that she thinks too much.

Two people sit awkwardly for more than 20 minutes, and it's time to board. Su Wan gets up late, pulls her suitcase and plans to leave. "Lingyue, I'm going. You don't have to tell him, because it's useless for him to know. I'll transfer when I get to the next city."

Cui Lingyue took the handle of her suitcase and said, "don't you wait for me to go out?"

Su wanwan looked at her, shook her head, and winked at her, "you have no credibility with me."

Between the two people, Su wanwan was suddenly hit by someone. Even the suitcase was knocked out for a long time. When she reacted, she found that the suitcase had been opened and the messy clothes were scattered. She bent down to pick it up. In her hurry, she didn't even feel the wrist being touched.

Cui Ling read to scold two that reckless man, also follow to help clean up.

As she pushed her things back, she said with a smile, "have you seen it? Even God won't let you go."

Su wanwan looked up at the clock above the hall and laughed, "there are still five minutes left. It's time."

Cui Lingyue also looks up at the clock, and doesn't know if Jiang Chengzhan can come.

Some worried said: "late, why do you have to be so stubborn? The Su family can't count on it in the future. Isn't Jiang Chengzhan good for you? Even if it's not good, the Jiang family can at least guarantee that you can live on your own. Do you really want to live alone in the future?"

Su wanwan doesn't have time to break this with her now. Hearing the reminder of boarding, she closes her suitcase and leaves. "I've thought about what you said, so you don't have to worry about me any more."

"Well," Cui Lingyue waved to her, "I wish you a good trip. If you have something to call."

Su wanwan walks to the gate with her suitcase. She doesn't know when she will come back this time. If she likes something, she probably won't come back.

In any case, a person from all over the world, where can be shelter.

Before boarding, there was the last security check. When she put the suitcase on the plane, Su naturally touched her left wrist. She didn't expect to touch the metal. For a moment, she didn't react. She reached for it again, but still didn't feel it.

She subconsciously lowered her head and turned her left wrist over and over for several times. Then she suddenly found that her bracelet, which is worth at least one million, had disappeared.

"Miss, do you still want to enter..." the voice of urging came from behind. Su wanwan quickly took the small suitcase and turned to the hall.

The bracelet is still there just now. If it's lost, it can only be between the place where she just sat and the security check.

Cui Lingyue saw her go back and forth, thought that she had changed her mind, desperately waved to her: "here."

Su Wan Wan raises her wrist and points to her right hand to indicate that she has lost something. But at this time, her eyes suddenly fall on a figure who is running in in a hurry.

He was wearing a white shirt and black trousers, and his hair was messy. As soon as he entered the hall, he began to look everywhere, and soon his eyes were fixed on her.

I want to send the red envelope after I go home. I'm in my hometown these days.

I wish all the little lovely happy holidays, everything they want, happy every day.
