

《Sweet Daily Life With Rich Fool Husband》

Chapter 67

Among these children, the most lively one is Huang Mao. After chatting with him for a while, Su wanwan drew out the names and backgrounds of several children.

In order to show her ability, Huang Mao also showed her several good stealing techniques.

Su wanwan said with admiration: "there's a future. As soon as you grow up, there will be a place to go."

"Where to?" Huang Mao didn't respond.

Su wanwan's extremely natural tone: "of course, it's the Bureau. Where else can you go? How can you think of stealing more while you're under age? But with your brain, you can't recognize the baby if you steal it. "

Huang Mao was unconvinced: "you can't recognize it."

Su wanwan snorted, "do you know how much you stole that bracelet?"

"How much?" Everyone came to look at her and asked.

It's estimated that they don't have that concept in their mind when they say 10 million yuan. They just say: "tens of thousands of yuan, and the second-hand market is also very valuable. People only tell you 100 yuan, and they can't even eat enough?"

"Especially, I know that the old guy is not a good bird," Huang Mao said cursing. "He really cheated us."

"That's right," said a little boy nearby, "don't let me see him again, or I will kill him."

Su wanwan chatted with them and thought quickly. These children are very smart. If they go on like this, they can't say what's going on. Instead, they'd better find a way to keep them in the welfare home. They can eat, drink and read books, so that they can live the same life as ordinary people.

Soon the kitchen brought food, chicken, duck and fish. Su wanwan asked them to eat, but Huang Mao did not forget to call Su wanwan: "you can't eat. You are different from them when you see you. When they come up, they say that we should change our ways and be a good man. Only you know the goods and don't dislike us. You know I can stand high."

He said happy, also handed a chicken leg to Su wanwan, "here you are."

Su wanwan is not polite either. She takes a bite from the chicken leg. Cui Lingyue looks at her yellow and dirty fingers, frowns, lies down beside Su wanwan's ear and asks softly, "don't you really want to eat?"

Su looked at the drumsticks at night, which was much better than before when she couldn't eat and picked up others' leftovers. "It's OK."

It seems that several children haven't had enough to eat for a long time. When they see the food, they gobble it up.

Liu Jing is small, can't reach, can only stretch out a small claw to grasp.

Su wanwan tore off a chicken leg from the side and handed it to her. She was very obedient. She took the chicken leg to the side, squatted down and began to eat quietly.

The boy named brother Feng has been secretly observing Su wanwan, but he didn't say anything.

Su wanwan ate half a chicken leg and asked Huang Mao, "what are you going to do in the future?"

Huang Mao ate a big mouthful of fish, was stuck by the fishbone, coughed several times, and only when the fishbone came out did he say: "I don't know, anyway, we have skills, we can live."

Su Wan looked at Liu Jing: "what about her?"

Huang Mao took a look at brother Feng. "She's brother Feng's sister. She used to find someone's home and wanted to give it to someone else. Later, when the woman got pregnant, she began to abuse her sister. We stole her out again."

Su wanwan's throat is not very comfortable. She puts down the drumstick and looks back at Liu Jing. The girl is small. She eats very quietly. If she is not a vagabond, she must be very lovely in beautiful clothes.

She sighed and pretended to say casually: "after that, brother Feng is almost 16. If he steals something again, he will be in prison. If he is caught, what will Xiaojing do?"

Huang Mao looked at her complacently: "it's OK, and I, after the peak brother only sentry, don't move, have me to move."

"You?" Su wanwan looked at him laughably, "although you are young, you will be 16 in two years, and then what?"

Huang Mao thought about it for a while. It seems that he never thought about it.

Ask Feng elder brother way: "Feng elder brother, you say later how to do?"

Feng Ge said coldly: "looking for a job, what else can I do?"

Su wanwan looked at him sharply: "what kind of job can you find?"

"Can you support so many people at once?"

"What's the big deal? I don't think you can do any heavy work if you are so thin. "

Brother Feng frowned and lowered his head unhappily, and continued to eat.

Huang Mao said with a smile: "it doesn't matter. Anyway, living a day counts as a day."

"Ah, Hoo -" they are eating happily here. Liu Jing over there suddenly grabs the chicken leg and falls to the ground. Su wanwan jumps down from the table quickly. Without waiting for her to pass, he sees brother Feng jump over the table and rush to Liu Jing in three or two steps.

"Xiaojing," he knelt down to the ground, picked up Liu Jing, and called out her name, "Xiaojing --"

"Brother," Liu Jing looked at him with special pain, and his forehead was in a cold sweat with pain, "stomachache."

"My sister has a stomachache," Liu Feng turned and grabbed Su wanwan's clothes. "My sister has a stomachache. She used to wallow with pain before. This time she made it again. Please go to the doctor and show her."

Su wanwan can't earn her. Cui Lingyue is afraid of Liu Feng's impulse to hurt Su wanwan. She is pregnant with twins. She reaches for Liu Feng's hand and says, "Liu Feng, release her quickly. I'll call a doctor for you."

The man who has been staring at the surveillance outside will rush to see the movement.

Jiang Chengzhan enters the room to see the situation, and Cen Xirui calls the doctor.

There are ordinary doctors on duty in the welfare home. When Cen Xirui was worried, he forgot to call someone. He came to think of it halfway. Now society has communication tools.

Su wanwan gave Cui Lingyue a reassuring look, "it's OK."

Cui Lingyue slowly released Liu Feng.

Jiang Chengzhan's meeting has already brought Su wanwan to her side. Her cold eyes glance at Liu Feng. Liu Feng has never seen such a powerful man before, and she loosens her clothes.

Only to see my sister.

Su wanwan shook his head with Jiang Chengzhan: "I'm ok. They're just too worried."

Jiang Chengzhan cold tone: "the doctor is coming, you can't help, let's go."

Su refused to leave late. "Wait a moment, see what's wrong."

The doctor came quickly, gave Liu Jing a physical examination, and finally said: "this child should be an appendix, so we need to have an operation as soon as possible."

"Surgery?" Smell speech Liu Feng lowered a head first, all the time silently looking at Liu Jing.

Huang Mao was surprised to see the doctor: "do what operation, how much does that cost?"

"Can we leave after the operation? We don't have time to watch her."

The doctor looked back at Cen Xirui. Seeing that Cen Xirui nodded, he said, "the operation needs to be done in a big hospital. As for how much it costs, it's estimated that it will cost 8000 yuan. After the operation, you can move, but only in a small range. You have to keep it for a while."

"Eight thousand?" Yellow hair snored a hair, "that we have no how to do, Liu Jing can't cure?"

The doctor truthfully said: "appendicitis is easy to turn into acute, if not treated in time, it is very dangerous, today this situation should be sent to the hospital for surgery as soon as possible."

Huang Mao has no concept of danger. "Will that kill people?"

The doctor pursed his mouth and nodded, looking very serious: "yes."

Huang Mao was in a hurry. He turned around and grabbed Liu Feng and said, "what can I do? You can think of a way quickly!"

Liu Feng looks at Su wanwan, his eyes are unspeakable cold.

Su wanwan pointed to herself: "do you want me to save your sister?"

Liu Feng looked at her and said nothing.

Su wanwan hesitated and said, "I can save her, but I have conditions."

Huang Mao immediately said: "you say, don't say the conditions, after we steal things to you."

Su wanwan doesn't want his stolen goods, but it's not the right time to say, "you all have to listen to me in the future. I'll send her to the hospital to arrange the operation now."

"Listen," Huang Mao said eagerly, and he also pulled Liu Feng to nod: "hurry up, it's not easy to catch a silly elder sister, hurry up to nod," he also turned back to other children and said, "hurry up."

Several children said one after another: "we will listen to you in the future."

At this time, the car was ready outside. Jiang Chengzhan saw that everyone had talked about it. He picked up the little girl and went out. All the children behind him wanted to follow her, but Cen Xirui stopped the man. "Liu Feng can follow. You can be honest with me."

Liu Jing was sent to the hospital, after hospital examination, diagnosis, and finally decided to overnight surgery.

After tossing all night, Jiang Chengzhan immediately brings Su wanwan home after the operation.

She was ordered to take a break.

Two people lie on the bed, Jiang Chengzhan asked Su wanwan: "what are your plans?"

Su wanwan hesitated for a moment and said, "I think we should find a family for Liu Jing. She is still young, so it's easy to find a family without children to adopt. As for other children, it's best to have someone adopt them, but if no one adopts them, they will be put in the welfare home of general manager Cen. What do you think?"

Without waiting for Jiang Chengzhan to speak, she said, "you didn't say before that I can handle the money myself. If Mr. CEN is not spacious, I can donate some."

Jiang Chengzhan saw that she had thought about everything well, and thought about it perfectly. He said with a smile, "I didn't expect my wife to be so kind. OK, I'll listen to you."

Su wanwan doesn't think she is kind, she just feels the same.

If there was a place for her to eat, dress and study before, she would live more dignified, elegant and grand now, even better than Shen Qingyue.

Unfortunately, there is no if.

However, she is also very satisfied with herself now. Anyway, Jiang Chengzhan doesn't dislike her, even if she can't distinguish Oxford tendon.

I can't. She can still afford to pay for her children!

She was pregnant with two babies!

The next morning, Su was about to leave after dinner. Jiang Chengzhan frowned: "you have no work. How can you be busier than me?"

Su wanwan said with a smile, "I'll go to the hospital and send some food to Liu Jing by the way. Liu Feng has no money and probably can't eat anything delicious."

Jiang Chengzhan sighed helplessly: "let the bodyguard follow, don't be a big idea, everything goes forward."

"I see," Sue made a face with him, put food in thermos and went out.

Su wanwan and Cui Lingyue arrived at the hospital almost at the same time and went to the ward together.

Liu Jing has woken up and is in good condition.

Su wanwan put the heat preservation bucket aside, filled out a bowl of porridge, and patiently fed it to her.

"Does it still hurt?"

Liu Jing shook his head: "no pain."

Su wanwan reaches out and rubs her. Her only four-year-old knows so many things. She's not noisy. She's very good.

Cui Ling read beside said: "it seems that the recovery is good, finally can rest assured."

Su wanwan echoed: "yes."

Liu Feng has been sitting on the chair beside him fiddling with his mobile phone. He stole it himself and has used it for more than a year.

But my ears are listening to the conversation.

Thinking of where these children will go in the future, Cui Lingyue said, "if you want me to say, let's find someone else to adopt them. Otherwise, it's not a matter to put them in a welfare home so small. I don't know how to take care of myself."

Liu Jing lowered her head to eat without making a sound.

Little she has learned to observe.

This is the same as Su wanwan thought before. She nodded: "yes, let's see who has the right family and who meets the conditions for adoption..."

Before Su wanwan finished, Liu Feng suddenly stood up beside him and glared at the two people. He said fiercely, "my sister won't go anywhere, just follow me."

Cui Lingyue didn't agree with his words, "you have your own meal. How can you take care of your sister?"

"After being adopted, at least someone will take care of them and go to school, just like many normal children."

Su wanwan also advised: "that's right, you have to think for your younger sister, and it was you who were not well behaved before. We can promise you that you will never meet that kind of bad person again."

Liu Feng didn't believe them, but they were going to hold Liu Jing: "let's go, you don't have to be kind."

Su wanwan frowned. Seeing how impulsive he was, he didn't speak very well. "Where are you going with her?"

"She's going to continue the infusion. Do you want to kill her?"

Liu Feng said angrily: "even if you kill her, you will not be allowed to take it away. It's better than you kill her."

In Liu Jingchang's memory, no one has ever been so gentle to her. She likes Su wanwan, so when she saw Liu Feng come to hold her, she hugged Su wanwan's arm and cried: "I don't want to go, brother, I don't want to go."

Su Wan Wan took a look at Liu Jing and continued to persuade Liu Feng: "you see, your sister won't go with you either!"

Liu Feng is more angry, "that is she is not sensible, think you will always be good to her, don't know you are planning to send her away!"

Cui Lingyue is also angry, "how can you be so ignorant!"

Liu Feng is only angry with Su wanwan: "it's you who deceive my sister and won't let her go with me." there is an old man in the next hospital bed, and the old lady is sitting on the chair to repair fruit for him. Liu Feng looks at it and is angry. He grabs the fruit knife and waves it to Su wanwan.

Before his sister gave it away, he had seen with his own eyes that his sister's whole body was injured and her fever persisted.

Now that kind of fear often dominates him, in his eyes, any one is not biological parents will not be good to their children.

So now when he saw that Su wanwan was going to send the child away, he subconsciously felt that Su wanwan was no different from those who abused the child.

What's more, my sister is crying and not going with him.

Su wanwan is still trying to coax Liu Jing, but she doesn't notice the knife Liu Feng is waving. Cui Lingyue is sharp eyed and quick to react. She blocks the knife when it hits Su wanwan.

The next second, Cui Lingyue's arm was full of blood. She cried out in pain: "ah --"

Liu Feng didn't really want to hurt people. Just now, he was too angry. He would see Cui Lingyue hurt. As soon as his wrist shook, the knife fell to the ground, stupidly.

"Go to the doctor quickly," Su wanwan walks out with Cui Lingyue. At this time, the door of the ward is suddenly pushed open. It's Cen Xirui who brings people. His eyes first fall on the knife on the ground, and the bright red blood stabs people's eyes. He narrows his eyes slightly, and then his eyes fall on the injured girl.

I don't know how serious the injury was. I just saw the blood pouring out and the heart pumping out uncontrollably. He ran to it in three or two steps, picked it up and ran out. At the same time, he ordered the bodyguard behind him: "take the people away first!"

Sue didn't expect such a serious thing to happen. She left her bodyguard outside before she went upstairs to see a four-year-old girl. How could she hurt anyone?

CEN Xirui's bodyguard quickly takes Liu Feng away. Su wanwan calls another person to look at Liu Jing. The blood on the ground has been cleaned up. She goes to Cui Lingyue to see what kind of injury she is?

Fortunately, Cui Lingyue's injury is not serious, and the meeting has been bandaged by the doctor. When Su wanwan found her, she was sitting on the bed, leaning against the pillow and flirting with Cen Xirui: "little uncle, my arm is useless. I'm afraid I can't take care of myself in the future."

Seeing Cui Lingyue's arm wrapped like a big rice dumpling, she still has the spirit of coquetry. The worry just disappeared. Su wanwan was relieved.

If Cui Lingyue hadn't stopped in front of her just now, the knife would have been on her.

At the critical moment, it depends on her unreliable friend.

In the past, I always arranged for her to meet Jiang Chengzhan on her own. My best friend is a person who usually quarrels with each other in small things, never blurs in big things, and pays as much as she can.

Su wanwan walked up to Cui Lingyue and said, "thank you just now."

Cui Ling read wrong to wring a nose, signal the other party to hurry to walk, didn't see Cen Xirui, this meeting is worrying about her?

What a rare opportunity!

Su wanwan plans to leave. Cen Xirui doesn't care about the eyebrows between the two people. He gets up and says, "I'll go and have a look over there." at the end of the speech, he looks at Su wanwan again, "are you ok? Aren't you scared? Do you want to let the doctor check it?"

"Well, I have to admit my mistake to brother Jiang. I don't know how he's going to get angry!"

Su wanwan quickly stopped him: "no, I'll tell him about it."

Thinking of Jiang Chengzhan's anger, Su wanwan is very worried.

CEN Xirui seems to answer the question, but he doesn't dare to hide it at all. He calls Jiang Chengzhan out of the door.

If ordinary people, after such a dangerous thing just now, they would be scared. After all, people who used to run in the past, Su wanwan, had more endurance than ordinary people, so he was just a little nervous at that time, and then he was relieved to see that Cui Lingyue was OK.

When Cen Xirui goes out, Su sits down next to Cui Lingyue and asks, "how are you?"

"Why did you jump on it just now? What if it hurt the key?"

Cui Lingyue said with a smile: "aren't you pregnant? I'm fine, and I couldn't die from that angle at that time. I just got hurt. Didn't you see that my little uncle took me away just now?"

"If you're held by him again," she said, stretching out her right arm in good condition, "you can be stabbed again."

Su wanwan's eyes inadvertently fell on the door. She felt that there was a person standing there just now, but when she looked carefully, the person was gone again.

I thought I might be hallucinating.

After Jiang Chengzhan knew the letter, he rushed over and scolded the bodyguards first. Then he came to Su wanwan. His nose was not his nose, but his face was not his face. He said, "I told you so long ago. How did you promise me?"

"Go back to me as soon as you can, and leave it alone in the future."

Su wanwan is a bull. If she didn't intervene before, she doesn't feel much. Now there are so many things going on. If she lets go, isn't it hard for nothing?

She first tried to discuss: "Zhan Bao, Jiang Chengzhan, Chengzhan?"

Seeing that Jiang Chengzhan ignored her, his stubborn temper also came, "anyway, it's all like this, I can't ignore it, otherwise I don't know what happened in the future?"

"Is my bracelet stolen for nothing?"

"Either they go to jail or they reform, that's the two ways."

"In prison?" Jiang Chengzhan sneered, "under age, be a fart!"

Su wanwan said unhappily: "then transform it. It can't become a social cancer in the future."

"Oh, Su wanwan," Jiang Chengzhan sneered, "I don't see that you still have a red heart?"

Su wanwan pursed her lips and looked at him angrily: "what do you mean?"

"Look down on me, don't you?"

"I'm going to transform these children successfully!"

There was a lot of noise here. Cui Lingyue kneaded his temple beside him, and finally put in a word between them: "well," she said in a low voice, looking at the two people looking at her together. "There's another patient here. Can you go home and quarrel?"

"Hum!" Sue left the ward in a huff.

People like Liu Feng, who have been wandering for so many years, must be suspicious and sensitive. In addition, his younger sister has been abused before. Now when he hears that he wants to find a family to support his younger sister, he loses control. This can only be done slowly.

But she can start with a few other kids.

She used to watch conspiracy TV. It's called divide and conquer. Problems need to be solved one by one. People, of course, need to be solved one by one.

She didn't believe it couldn't be done.

By the way, Huang Mao seems to trust her most. She starts with him first.

The other children, without Huang Mao and Liu Feng, would be easy to handle.

The problem now is that Jiang Chengzhan is so upset that he sticks behind her like a tail. His face is as black as charcoal. He is like who owes him eight million.

But no one can change what she has decided.

Liu Feng was taken away by Cen Xirui and was beaten. After Jiang Chengzhan saw his black and blue face in the past, he lost half of his anger. But he told Cen Xirui, "look first, and then find a place to train. This kind of person will be a disaster in the future!"

CEN Xirui knew that Jiang Chengzhan was angry, so he could only say: "OK, don't worry, I'm sure I've watched you."

"I have a friend who is mining in Africa. I'll send him there in a few days. First, I'll train for a while."

Several children's affairs are solved, and then the writing of a stem text is finished, and then the self is released.

Can't go down to see the little lovely at any time abandon the text, don't be hard for yourself.

Limited ability, that's all.

I just feel sorry for those little angels who have been supporting me up to now. The first book of fantasy words was not in the mood because of the bad comments. At last, I didn't write it down. I thought my state had been adjusted very well, but I still couldn't practice. Recently, I let the comments area not be in the mood to think about the plot. Let's finish the text according to the outline.

After that, if the little angel likes it, she can write some sweet interaction, but it's not guaranteed that she can write it out.

If there is no accident on the 29th, the full text will come to an end.

That's it.

I hope that my heart will become stronger when I open this article. I can ignore the bad comments in the comments area and only pay attention to the supporting angels.
