

The Second Act Revenge (Oneida and Jackson)

The Second Act 101

Chapter 101 @%81%

He thought, "No. Why are we so scared? She's just a weak girl holding a knife and bluffing. After all, we had been through many things before. How can we be fooled by a little girl?" The tattooed man curled his lips into a grin.

Then, he jumped and abruptly pounced on Oneida. "I won't be afraid of a little girl like you!"

Oneida's body moved like a ghost, agile and fast. She easily avoided the tattooed man's sudden attack.

The knife in her hand slashed the neck of the man in white, leaving a visible blood mark.

The man in white immediately screamed, "Damn it! It hurts so much. I don't know if she severed the aorta..

The tattooed man did not give up attacking Oneida After his attack was avoided by Oneida, he rushed toward Oneida persistently.

She dodged his attack again.

He wondered why she could move that fast.

Oneida appeared close to him and could be reached by stretching his hand. However, she seemed to be moving instantly, which made him miss his target.

The tattooed man looked at his companion with dissatisfaction and roared, "Why are you making a fuss about that smalk injury? Hurry up and help me! If she runs away, we can't explain to our boss!" The man in white heard him say that and slightly regained his sense.

The man in white mused, "That's right. This is the person our boss wanted. If she runs away, I will suffer the consequence! Besides, we're two grown men. How could we be afraid of such a little girl?" With that in mind, the man in white also stood up and looked at Oneida fiercely.

Two men rushed to the backseat of the car at the same time,

Oneida did not panic. She leisurely moved away and precisely avoided their attacks.

Then, she raised her legs.

She kicked their abdomens with her left and right leg respectively.

It was a nice and neat double attack.

The men were struck and slammed into the car windshield.

Then, they fell heavily on the seat and screamed in pain repeatedly.

Oneida had won against the two..

However, she suddenly felt something was wrong

She decided she had to go.

Oneida opened the door immediately. With a quick leap, she landed on the dry road.

However, the situation became worse as she expected.

1/4

08:53

Tue, Nov 20

Chapter 101

She mentally remarked, "Men in black?"

There were almost 40 men in black in front of her.

They were all tall and looked well-trained. They strode and gradually approached Oneida.

With the Land Rover as the center, a circle was formed with the men in black.

Oneida was surrounded like that..

Her eyes were cold, but she thought about who she had provoked.

Indeed, she had offended many people with different identities

At that moment, she was only Oneida, a real daughter of a wealthy family who had just returned from the countryside. No one knew her other identities.

While pondering, Oneida was silent as if she was a sculpture.

The man in white and the tattooed man rubbed their abdomen and got out of the Land Rover. They were still in pain, When they saw the men in black in front of them, they smiled. The tattooed man said, "Our boss sent people to help us." As soon as he finished speaking, the men in black suddenly run toward Oneida.

Oneida stood on the empty and deserted road with her eyes filled with indifference and bloodthirst.

Oneida commented inwardly, "Very well."

She smiled, like a rose blooming in the desert, looking tenacious and beautiful.

Oneida never feared being outnumbered by many.

Before the men in black were close to her, Oneida stepped forward.

The

next second, all

ll the meni

in black were stunned.

They saw Oneida moving in front of them.

However, it was an extraordinary movement

She was fast like a gust of wind. Oneida's figure was blurred like a phantom.

They saw Oneida appearing in the west, but the next second, she seemed to reach the east at an unpredictable speed.

The men in black thought in unison, "Where exactly is she? Which one is her real position?"

Their calm expressions dropped. They widened their eyes in surprise and did not know how to handle the situation. Suddenly, one of them yelled, "Ouch!"

A man in black was hit in the back of his head and fell to the ground in pain.

A

Oneida somehow moved behind him and struck him hard unexpectedly, so he was attacked unprepared.

Shortly after, some other men in black were attacked.

Some of them were hit in the back, some in the legs, and some in the abdomen

They wanted to catch Oneida.

08:53 Tue, Nov

Chapter 101

However, she was too fast.

Oneida was still in front of them, but the next second she moved next to another person.

They could not predict her movement.

They mentally exclaimed in unison, "What the hell is this!"

With that, Oneida easily knocked out nearly 30 men in black.

She stopped and stood alone in the middle of the road.

Oneida was not as relaxed and calm as she looked.

No one noticed that the palm of her right hand was full of dripping blood.

Oneida certainly could not bear the large dose of anesthetic injected into her body.

After all, she was a person made with flesh and blood, not a machine.

After being anesthetized at first, she was in a coma.

Later, the effect of the drug dissipated a little. She woke up from the coma with her incomparably strong determination.

However, the anesthetic in her body was still affecting her senses

She had to use the knife to cut her palm.

The pain could keep her awake.

With the pain from the bleeding and the determination, she hung on until that moment.

However, she was exhausted at that moment.

The effect of the anesthetic seemed to be coming back.

Her nerves seemed to be almost overwhelmed.

Oneida bit her lips and looked calm on the surface.

She did not like to show weakness.

Looking at the men in black who fell on the ground in front of her, Oneida could not help but remember when she learned combat arts from her mentor. He told her none of the combat arts could surpass speed. At that moment, it seemed that what her mentor said was true.

Speed was the only way to win.

Unfortunately, her strength could no longer support her to move fast.

Therefore, she could only deal with the rest of the men in black with her bare hands..

Right then, the other men in black who had not yet fallen dashed toward Oneida.

Oneida leaned sideways swiftly and bent her waist elegantly to avoid the deadly attacks. The next second, she unexpectedly threw a man in black to the ground

Chapter 101

NOV 20

After one of them fell, many,men in black still rushed to her.

Oneida was like a fighter who fought alone. She defeated one enemy after another neatly.

Finally, everyone fell to the ground. Oneida was the only one standing alone.

The wound on her palm was getting bigger, and blood gushed out and dripped on the ground.

Suddenly, Oneida's gaze froze.

The Second Act 102

Chapter

102

Far away, an unknown object suddenly appeared in the sky and shot straight at Oneida.

It was as though an arrow was moving at an extremely fast speed

Oneida was already exhausted and couldn't focus her mind. She could only let that thing hit her,

It was a long, thin syringe that pierced into Oneida's left leg later

Once again, inside the syringe was an anesthetic Oneida was familiar with.

Oneida looked up in a daze and saw a mansion hidden in the darkness not far away.

A man was standing on the third-floor balcony of the mansion.

The anesthetic was shot by the man.

Oneida had good eyesight.

Unfortunately, due to the dim light, she couldn't see the man's face clearly and could only vaguely see his tall figure.

"It's a man. Perhaps, he's the 'boss' these people mentioned," she thought

Under the impact of the double anesthetic, Oneida closed her eyes and finally fell onto the ground.

There was a long stretch of darkness in front of her.

Following that, a glimmer of light slowly seeped into her eyes.

Oneida opened her eyes with difficulty.

However, she couldn't see anything because her eyes were covered with a black cloth.

At that moment, she was sitting on a chair with her hands tied behind her. She was not tied with ordinary hemp ropes but extremely strong iron chains.

Apparently, the person who kidnapped her had gone out of his way.

First, one of his men pretended to be Jackson and used a large dose of anesthetics on her. Then, he sent men in black as backup and finally gave her another anesthetic himself. Now, he even tied her up in that way.

Oneida couldn't even move, let alone run away.

She simply slumped into the chair, looking calm and bored.

Even though Oneida was locked up, she was neither panicked nor afraid.

She had gotten used to it.

In the face of danger and unfamiliar surroundings, she had long been used to keeping calm.

Since she could see nothing, she tried distinguishing the current situation by listening to the surrounding sounds.

She could tell she was in an empty room, and there was no one else inside the room besides herself.

1/4 II

08:53 Tue, Nov 26.

Chapter 102

However, at least two men were guarding the door.

All of a sudden, Oneida heard a series of unusual footsteps.

The footsteps sound steady and very imposing. The person walking should be the kind of boss who has been in the upper class for a long time. He's here so soon?" she mused, clenching her fists. Finally, the "boss" those people were talking about was here.

With a creak, the door was pushed open.

Only one person came in.

He walked straight toward Oneida, looking leisurely yet imposing.

Oneida frowned slightly.

Judging from the man's aura, she could tell the man was very unfamiliar to her.

It seemed that she had never met him before.

However, she couldn't fathom why the man would put so much effort into kidnapping her if they had no grievances with each other. "Hello there."

The man's cold voice came from the top of Oneida's head, and his tone was calm.

However, Oneida knew that he was deliberately speaking in a false voice.

In other words, it was not his original voice.

Oneida thought it was normal to speak in a false voice, as she had done it many times.

"Is he greeting me?" Oneida thought.

Still, Oneida pursed her lips and said nothing.

She never intended to talk to him.

The man was silent for a moment and seemed to be a little angry.

"What? Are you unwilling to talk?" he added. His voice was inexplicably cold.

Oneida sat languidly, looking stubborn.

The man sneered, "I know you're in a bad mood."

He seemed to pace up in front of Oneida as he spoke. "I brought you here just to talk to you."

Oneida remained silent.

However, the man no longer cared about it and continued, "As Jackson's wife, I think you should know a lot about him"

Oneida's expression finally changed a little at the mention of Jackson.

She wondered if Jackson was the reason for her being kidnapped

"Has your husband done anything unusual recently? Or is he not as weak as rumors say?" the man asked tirelessly. 08:53 Tue, Nov 26.

Chapter 102

Oneida finally understood the situation.

The man before him had put much effort into kidnapping her because of Jackson

He wanted to pry for information from her.

From that, she could deduce that the person in front of her was probably Jackson's enemy

01

She couldn't understand why someone would target Jackson, a disabled man with low-key manners, and regard him as an eyesore.

"I don't know." Oneida finally spoke. She spat out the words calmly, and her voice was void of warmth

"You don't know?" The man did not believe it. "You are his closest person. How can you know nothing at all?"

Oneida couldn't help but complain in her heart, "Close? I am anything but close to Jackson. I even feel that I can't understand him at all.

"I wish I know," Oneida smirked. "Honestly, I'd like to know more about him too, but too bad he didn't give me any chance."

The man snorted coldly. "Are you playing dumb!"

"Why should I play dumb?" Oneida asked in a disdainful tone. "I'm telling the truth. He's just an idle man in a wheelchair. How can he do something unusual?"

"Oh The man, seemingly unconvinced, gritted his teeth and asked rhetorically, "What about you? And who are you? You defeated 30 or 40 elite subordinates of mine. If I hadn't used anesthetics at the last minute. I'm afraid I wouldn't be able to bring you here. I can't believe Jackson has someone like you by his side. Is it a coincidence, or has he been planning it for a long time?"

"It has nothing to do with him" Oneida denied it.

In truth, Jackson did not even know the secret about her, just like she knew nothing about Jackson either.

"Do you not want to say it at all?" The man's voice suddenly turned as cold as ice.

Oneida sensed the danger in his tone.

Still, she looked indifferent, and there was no hint of panic on her face.

I've made myself clear," she replied.

"Very good." As the man spat out the two words in a deep voice, a sinister aura exuded from him abruptly. "It seems you won't speak unless you are taught a lesson!"

Meanwhile, in Garrison Mansion of Wuthering Town, Victor reported with a serious look, "Mr. Bane, according to the sources, the person who took Mrs. Bane away should be from that place."

"I knew it was them."

Jackson sat at the desk. His handsome face was cold and pale under the light.

"Go ahead. Let Dragon Souls bring Oneida back," he ordered in a light tone as he closed his eyes.

However, Victor was shocked when he heard that,

He slightly widened his eyes and stood frozen in place.

08:53 Tue, Nov 26

81%

Chapter 103

Read The Second Act 103

The Second Act 103

Chapter 103

Dragon Souls was the most elite group of assassins in Paragon Group.

They were Jackson's most capable subordinates.

"Mr. Bane, are you sure you want Dragon Souls to go there?" Victor seemed to be a little reluctant. He furrowed his brows and disagreed with Jackson for the first time by continuing. "I don't think they're needed for this matter. It's not a big deal anyway

Jackson gave him a sideways glance with his icy cold eyes. "I won't be at ease if I send others."

"But, Mr. Bane..." Victor hesitated for a moment and finally made up his mind to express his true thoughts. "What if you get exposed after sending Dragon Souls?"

He tried to persuade Jackson by continuing. "Those people regard you as a thorn in their eyes. If they know that you have developed such a huge force, the consequences will be unthinkable. Mr. Bane, you have endured and pretended to be in a wheelchair for so many years. Do you want all of that to be in vain because of a woman?"

Jackson looked at the ground with an unclear expression.

After a moment of silence, he said lightly, "I've already thought about what you said a long time ago."

"So, even if you know that you might be exposed, you still want to send Dragon Souls there without hesitation?" Victor looked at him helplessly while feeling puzzled.

Victor knew Jackson's temperament, Jackson was a firm and persistent man.

Once the decision was made, it would be impossible to change His mind.

Victor knew that he would not be able to persuade Jackson.

Jackson raised his head slightly and said indifferently, "She suffered because of me, so I want her to come back safely no matter what."

Victor stopped dissuading and asked in a low voice, "Is it worth it? I thought you only liked that little girl from more than ten years ago... Mrs. Bane just got married to you recently, and you don't even have deep feelings for her either. So, is it worth Jackson didn't know whether it was worth it or not.

He told Oneida that he would protect her well, but this incident happened because of him.

Jackson didn't want to say anything more. He just spat out two words coldly, "Just go."

He subconsciously closed his eyes and frowned.

"Okay." Victor had no choice but to accept.

In a dark dungeon, Oneida was soaked in cold water, and her hands were still firmly bound by iron chains.

The water had reached her neck.

However, the water level kept rising.

It was because they continuously poured bone-chilling water into the dungeon.

At first, the water level had only reached Oneida's ankles, but now, it reached her neck.

08:53 Tue, Nov 26

Chapter 103

In a while, Oneida would be completely submerged.

Despite that, Oneida didn't panic in such an environment.

There was no struggle and no call for help.

She looked very calm instead.

"Really? You won't say anything at all?" A man's cold voice came from outside the dungeon, carrying a long echo. Oneida lowered her head and said nothing.

Suddenly, water poured down.

They increased the amount of water and immediately submerged Oneida's head.

Water immediately entered her nose, and she couldn't help but frown.

A familiar memory appeared in her mind.

When she was seven years old, she fell into an artificial lake and got submerged in water just like now.

The cold lake water suffocated her.

Time had passed. She was no longer seven-year-old Cece, but nineteen-year-old Oneida.

She had learned how to swim and became good at holding her breath.

However, the feeling of being trapped in water still made her body stiffen.

Childhood traumas were not easy to get rid of Water surrounded her, and she was alone.

ung man who would come to her rescue.

She wondered if there would be another brave young

At that moment, someone was running outside the dungeon.

"Boss, our secret base is under attack. The enemy is very powerful. I don't know where they came from. We can't withstand it

Someone ran over in a hurry to tell the man who interrogated Oneida Hearing this, the man frowned in disbelief. His eyes were filled with anger. "What's going on? Who the hell is doing this?"

After thinking for a while, he decided to rush back to the base. After all, the base was much more important than staying here and interrogating Oneida. T'll go back and check on the base. Stay here and keep watch" He left with a team of people after saying that.

As soon as the man left, a group of mysterious men in black rushed in, knocked out all the people guarding the dungeon. and threw them out

All of this was merely a distraction to get rid of the man.

They attacked the base and drew the boss away so they could break through easily.

After everyone was cleared out, the men in black spread out to both sides and left a path in the middle.

08:53 Tue, Nov 26

Chapter 103

Then, a tall figure slowly walked in the middle.

He was tall, handsome, cool, noble, and indifferent.

He was like a king at the top.

The man in the middle was Jackson,

He was standing upright instead of being in a wheelchair.

His legs were no different from those of normal people.

The legs were in pure black suit pants. He was also wearing a snow-white shirt, and a light-colored windbreaker was casually worn outside.

Compared with being in a wheelchair, Jackson, who was standing at the moment, seemed to have more aura and power.

He glanced at the dark dungeon with his icy-cold eyes. The man's heart tightened for a rare moment, and he immediately ordered his subordinates, "Open the dungeon and release the water."

"Yes." The well-trained subordinates would not disobey Jackson's orders and immediately rushed to the dungeon one by one.

Jackson didn't have to come here and shouldn't have come.

However, in the end, he still decided to pick Oneida up in person.

The water slowly receded.

Oneida's face gradually appeared.

Her face was pale, and her eyes were closed tightly, but her mouth seemed to be muttering about something.

Jackson hurried forward and held the girl in his arms.

The chain on her hands was immediately cut off.

Oneida was picked up by Jackson, and she held onto his windbreaker tightly while in his arms.

She seemed to sense something, and her eyes opened a little.

In the dim light, she seemed to faintly see the sharp jawline of a man.

The memory from 12 years ago suddenly came to her mind.

Oneida's heart skipped a beat, and her eyes turned red.

With her blurry eyes, she asked confusedly in a low voice, "Is that you? Are you here to save me?"

She thought that she saw the grown-up version of the young man who had once saved her life.

Jackson knew that Oneida was in a state of confusion, so he wasn't worried that she would recognize him. He just answered faintly. "It's me."

Oneida stretched out her hands and grabbed Jackson's white shirt tightly. She was about to cry as she vaguely said, "Is it you? I've been looking for you for so long. It's already been 12 years. Oneida said these words very softly and vaguely, so Jackson didn't hear her. He carried her out of the dungeon and hurried to the place where the car was parked.

08:53 Tue, Nov 26

Chapter 103

Oneida closed her eyes again.

Her mind was a mess.

SEND GIF

The Second Act 104

Her body felt cold and warm at the same time, and she couldn't tell where she was.

Suddenly, her long-developed alertness made her abruptly open her eyes.

The shadowy dungeon and the endless expanse of icy water were no longer there before her eyes.

She was sleeping in her room at Garrison Mansion.

"You're awake?" Her ear picked up the cool, collected voice. It was Jackson's familiar voice.

When she heard that, Oneida subconsciously lifted her eyes to look at him.

Jackson was in a wheelchair next to her bed.

His inscrutable and handsome face was emotionless, but he stared at her motionlessly with his dark gaze, as if they could draw people in.

"You." Oneida sat up on the bed, propping herself up, puzzled. "Was it you who brought me back?"

After being imprisoned and submerged in icy water, she couldn't recall what had happened.

Although she vaguely remembered someone coming to rescue her, the memory was hazy,

"No," Jackson denied.

Of course, he couldn't tell her the truth

"Someone had sent you back to Carrison Mansion. When you returned, your entire body was soaked." Jackson noticed Oneida frown and assumed that she was really interested in knowing who had saved her, so he made up a lie without altering his expression. Then, Oneida looked at Jackson, her eyes a little confused and a little dejected.

Indeed, she was curious as to who had rescued her from the freezing water.

Unfortunately, she couldn't remember anything at all.

When her gaze fell downward, Oneida suddenly realized that she was wearing pajamas.

Her clothes had been changed.

She cast a subconscious glance at Jackson in front of her.

As she hesitated to speak, her eyes widened slightly, and her cheeks flushed.

She wanted to question him about it, but she wasn't sure where to begin..

It was perfectly natural for him to change her clothes because they were husband and wife.

However, the prospect of being seen naked by Jackson made her feel inexplicably embarrassed.

When Jackson saw her expression, he knew exactly what she was thinking. The maid assisted you in changing your clothes," he explained calmly.

As soon as he said that. Oneida felt even more embarrassed.

1/4

08:53 Tue, Nov 26

Chapter 101

"I'm glad you're finally awake. You should get some rest," Jackson suggested before turning around and leaving

B

When Oneida looked back at the man, she realized he had been by her bedside since she returned to Garrison Mansion

She completely overlooked the fact that Jackson had been looking after her the entire time earlier because she was so focused on finding out who had saved her.

Thinking of that, Oneida decided to jump out of bed and personally escort Jackson out.

However, before her feet touched the ground, Carlos appeared and pushed Jackson away.

Seeing that, Oneida had no other choice but to lie down again.

It was three o'clock in the morning, but she was wide awake.

That day's events made her realize one thing.

Jackson had many enemies, all of whom were extremely powerful.

Even if Jackson were to recover from his leg injury and begin showcasing his talents, that would be something to worry about later.

"Who could hold such a grudge against Jackson now that he's bedridden and unable to leave his home?" she wondered.

Victor was waiting for Jackson when he returned to his study.

"Mr. Bane, everything has been handled properly without leaving any trace," he reported to Jackson in an orderly manner, "We have been very careful. The identity of Dragon Souls has not been revealed, nor has our relationship with the Paragon Group. That person probably would never guess that all of these are your doing, Mr. Bane.

The fact that Jackson's forces had not been exposed was certainly welcome news.

Victor understood that, while Jackson was already extremely powerful at the time, the power of the opposing side was equally complex and potent.

As a result, it was not the right time to reveal their hand yet.

in deciding his next move, laying the groundwork for the next big move, with the

Over the years, Jackson had been in one fell swoop when the time was right.

ultimate goal of eliminating all of his

He pretended to be handicapped and frail. On the one hand, he was secretly developing his power and plotting his next move, while on the other, he was perplexing his enemies.

As the talented fourth son of the Bane family, he was bound to become the target of those with ill will and envy. Otherwise, Jackson would not have been left crippled by his attackers in the past.

Nonetheless, it would be a different story if he were a disabled person. Nobody would ever take him seriously,

As a result, despite the fact that his legs had fully healed and Jackson had become the leader of Paragon Group, he remained in Garrison Mansion, pretending to be helpless and disabled.

However, in order to save Oneida, Jackson nearly jeopardized the plans he had patiently prepared over the years.

Fortunately, the ending was satisfactory.

Jackson's eyes narrowed slightly his face expressionless as ice. "Despite the fact that we have not been exposed, that person is naturally suspicious. My wife was rescued by an unknown group of people, and that person will undoubtedly suspect me." He then raised his eyes and gazed out the window at the dark night sky. The bright moon was high in the sky, but it was mostly obscured by the pitch-black clouds.

08:53 Tue, Nov 26

Chapter 101

Jackson's lips lifted slightly, and he said coldly. "I'm afraid it won't be peaceful in the future."

Oneida couldn't sleep and had to keep her eyes closed for a while to get as much rest as she could.

The loud ringtone on her phone woke her up early in the morning

Her hand reached for the bedside table, and after a brief search with her eyes closed, she discovered her phone.

Oneida lay in bed, half asleep with her eyes closed, and groggily answered the phone, "Hello..."

8100

"Boss, did I wake you up?" Simon was on the other end of the line, and he seemed surprised that Oneida's voice sounded so tired.

Upon hearing that, Oneida opened her eyes immediately.

She was certain that if Simon had called, he must have had something important to tell her.

"What's up?" Oneida sat up from her bed, the tiredness in her eyes gradually dissipating.

"Didn't you ask me to look into Jackson's love life the last time?" Simon continued, "I looked into it thoroughly and was about to report back to you."

When Oneida heard that, she was taken aback.

She would have forgotten about it if Simon hadn't brought it up.

"What did you find out?" she asked coldly.

"Nothing was discovered. There is no one of the opposite sex who had a close relationship with Jackson," Simon explained eloquently. "Not even once in all these years." "None at all?" Oneida narrowed her eyes slightly and darkened her gaze.

"So, either Jackson has been very good at concealing it, or... Simon stopped midway, intentionally trying to keep her in suspense.

"Just spit it out," Oneida said impatiently, frowning.

"Either Jackson's hiding it too well, or he likes men!" Simon chuckled.

When Oneida heard that, she was rendered speechless.

"Boss, that could be the case. All day, he and his subordinate, Victor, are inseparable. Perhaps..."

"Enough," Oneida said with a frown as if she were speaking to someone stupid.

Nobody knew whether Jackson preferred men or women better than she did.

After all, she was Jackson's unrequited love in the past.

"Forget it if you don't believe me," Simon said "However, while investigating, I discovered something unusual."

The Second Act 105

Chapter 105

"Spit it out," Oneida said brusquely.

Simon replied mysteriously, "Jackson goes to a certain place every year. I'm not sure if he's going on vacation there or to see an old friend. You've probably heard of this place..."

"Are you in the mood for suspense today? The voice of Oneida was cold and commanding. "You always say things halfway. so if that's the case, just don't say anything at all." "Hey, wait, Boss, don't hang up the phone." Simon said urgently. I'll explain. Every year, Jackson visits Berdon Mountain."

When Oneida heard the name Berdon Mountain, her eyes widened.

She had heard of that location.

Berdon Mountain was not far from Nusridge Village.

In addition, Saint Yales Resort was located on Berdon Mountain.

Oneida walked to Saint Yales Resort on Berdon Mountain when she was seven years old and sold flowers there. She also met someone who had a profound impact on her and whom she would remember for the rest of her life.

As a result, there was no way she wouldn't recognize Berdon Mountain.

"Boss?" When Oneida remained silent for a while, Simon spoke up tentatively.

Only then did Oneida come to her senses.

"What is he doing there?" she inquired once more.

"I couldn't find any information on that," Simon replied in a low voice. "Besides, Berdon Mountain is so huge that who knows where he goes when he's there? However, I believe it is most likely for sightseeing and vacation. It's not surprising that Jackson, like the celebrities and nobles of Jeahron, visits Berdon Mountain for recreation."

Simon's words made sense to Oneida.

Berdon Mountain was indeed favored by upper-class nobles.

"Does Jackson enjoy that place as well?" she wondered.

"By the way, Boss, Simon's voice continued over the phone, and his tone became solemn. "I need to speak with you about something important next."

"Someone gave the Aphotic Group an order saying they wanted Jackson killed and asked Zero to do it."

When Oneida learned that, she was astounded..

At the time, Zero was the top-ranked assassin on the assassin ranking, and he belonged to the Aphotic Group No one knew, however, that Zero was the leader of the Aphotic Group, which was Oneida herself.

In other words, someone hired Oneida to assassinate Jackson.

She had not anticipated such a ridiculous occurrence in the world.

"Boss, the fee offered by the other party is exorbitant. In fact, they are paying handsomely," Simon added.

08:53 Tue, Nov 26.

Chapter 103

"Do you think I should accept the offer?" Oneida clenched her phone, her fingers tensing.

S81%

I'm not sure. Simon was perplexed as to what Oneida was thinking. She might have accepted the job in the past, but she was no longer the same person she had been.

Her attitude toward Jackson was unusual.

Oneida lowered her eyes, a worried expression on her face. "Who is it that wants Jackson dead?" she inquired

"No idea." Simon replied with certainty.

"Did you look into the background of the person who placed the order? There was a chill in Oneida's voice and a cold look in her eyes

"It's not that I didn't check; it's just that I couldn't find anything." Simon quickly responded. The other party most likely has a significant background and has put strict security measures in place to ensure that nothing leaks out. I couldn't find anything about them. When Oneida heard that, she pursed her lips and fell silent.

Of course, she wouldn't kill Jackson was the person she had decided to love and protect for the rest of her life.

Jackson

There was no way she would hurt him.

The problem was that the man who wanted to kill Jackson would find another killer even if Zero refused.

If the person looking to kill him goes to another assassin, Oneida will be powerless to stop them.

Jackson, who did you offend?" she mulled it over.

Oneida twitched her lips, finally breaking the silence and saying "Don't refuse yet. Inform them that I'm thinking about it. Also, keep an eye on their movements. If they make contact with any other assassins, notify me immediately. Hearing that, Simon immediately understood.

She not only does not want to hurt Jackson, but she also wants to protect him.

It was clear that they were madly in love.

Simon replied in a deep voice, "Understood."

After saying that, he hung up.

After Oneida freshened up and changed her clothes, she walked out of the bedroom.

Carlos was pushing Jackson toward the mansion's gate for a walk around the manor in the living-room.

Oneida rushed up to them and smiled at Carlos. "Let me look after him."

When Carlos heard that, he respectfully nodded and stepped back.

Naturally, Jackson heard what Oneida said behind him, but he did not turn around or show any emotion on his face.

However, his long fingers at his side tightened subconsciously.

"Jackson," Oneida said, pushing Jackson forward with her hands resting on the wheelchair. "Let me accompany you on a walk." 08:54

Chapter 103

NOV 20

"Okay," he responded indifferently.

The manor was surrounded by vibrant flowers and lush greenery

The sun shone brightly and warmly, and every scene in the manor seemed to be bathed in a golden glow.

As they approached the manor's central area, where no one was present, Oneida spoke up, Jackson, you must protect yourself during this recent period."

Every word that Oneida spoke was sincere and enthusiastic,

She genuinely hoped Jackson would be safe.

Without a doubt, he recognized Oneida's concern and sincerity in her words.

He reasoned that Oneida was speaking to him in that manner because of the kidnapping the day before.

She honestly cared about him.

"I know," Jackson nodded, but his eyes glowed with delight.

Meanwhile, Oneida heaved a sigh inwardly.

"You don't know anything," she thought.

If someone was willing to pay a near-astronomical sum of money to hire the world's most skilled assassin to kill someone, it dead. meant they wanted that person

Jackson, do you know there is someone who despises you and wants to kill you?" she remarked inwardly.

Oneida cast a complicated glance behind Jackson's back..

Suddenly, she spoke in a soft tone, like a dreamy murmur, but Jackson could still hear it. "Jackson, you must live well. I hope you recover completely and can stand on your own."

When Jackson heard that, he was surprised

His calm expression had finally shifted slightly.

Such words had never been spoken to him before..

Others often pitied, mocked, sympathized with, or despised him.

For the first time, he was told to live well and wished for a speedy recovery.

"Oneida..." Jackson thought as he turned around and looked at the young girl behind him.

Suddenly, Oneida took the initiative and said, "Jackson, let's go back. I have a class later."

Jackson couldn't help but show concern and said, "You were feeling very unwell yesterday. You should take a sick leave today and rest at home."

Delighted. Oneida smiled with joy. She replied, "No, I don't need to rest. I'm brimning with life right now."

In reality, the previous day's incident had not been regarded as a major disaster by Oneida. She had been through even more difficult times.

She then pushed Jackson back into the living room and requested Carlos take over again.

1981%

Chapter 103

After that, she ate some-bread to fill her stomach, grabbed her schoolbag, and left.

When Oneida entered the classroom. Howard smiled and said, "Oneida, the campus festival begins today. A tournament format will be used for the karate tournament. The group allocation has been announced. Let me show you." SEND GIFT

The Second Act 106

Chapter 106

Jackson then handed a name list to Oneida.

Oneida took the list and glanced at it

During this campus festival, there were 48 girls signed up for the second-year group karate tournament,

Most of the girls were above the green belt.

The ranks of karate were divided according to the color of the belt.

These colors were white, yellow, green, blue, red, brown, and black.

The white belt was the elementary rank, and the black belt was the most advanced rank

Oneida was the only white belt among the 48 people!

Back then, Howard had asked her about her ranks and was ready to report IL

Oneida told him that she was only at white belt.

At that time. Howard's jaw dropped in surprise, and he immediately persuaded her to abstain.

After all, a white belt participating in the karate tournament of the campus festival will end up with nothing but being beaten violently! But of course, Oneida did not abstain.

Now that the group allocation was out, the opponent of her first round of arena was a rather impotent green belt contestant,

Maybe the university thought that the rank of the white belt was too shabby and hence did not arrange a strong opponent for her.

Oneida looked up.

The first name on the list was an unusually familiar name.

It was Roxanne.

She was a third-degree black belt.

This was the highest rank among all the contestants.

Oneida knew her because Roxanne was the second place on Imperial Star Genius Leaderboard.

She was one of the geniuses of Starlight Class, being in second place for the whole second year.

Oneida had heard of her name many times, but she did not expect to meet this popular figure at the arena of karate tournament during the campus festival. your own now!" Howard shook his head and "Oneida, the karate tournament is a gathering place for masters You're on you looked at her worriedly.

Oneida smiled and replied faintly, "I know."

When the class was about to begin, the seat next to Oneida was still empty.

Chapter 106

Matthias had not come yet

What happened to him?

Oneida was perplexed when Rowan, who was on the podium, happened to mention Matthias.

It turned out that Matthias took sick leave, which was why he did not show up to class..

81%

"He's sick?" Oneida thought inwardly, "Matthias was an orphan. He had no parents or relatives, and he was always alone. Now that he's sick, could he take good care of himself?" Oneida glanced at the empty seat beside her and frowned.

"Students, the annual campus festival of Imperial Star University kicks off today, so there'll be no course arrangement for these two days. Good luck to those who signed up for the competitions, and for those who didn't, please take good care of your safety as well while being in the audience."

Rowan stood on the podium and patiently talked about the precautions for the campus festival.

As soon as she finished, a lot of her students immediately stood up excitedly and rushed outside.

Everyone was eager to enjoy the performance of the campus festival.

In Regular Classes, most people did not have the courage to participate in the campus festival. After all, there were too many geniuses in Starlight Class and Rocket Class, and they will just be cannon fodder for the competitions. Moreover, most students in Regular Classes had no desire for ranking and grades.

In contrast, students in Starlight Class and Rocket Class were under great pressure. They will either improve or regress. If they fail to get points in the campus festival, they would probably be surpassed by others, and their rankings would decline. Therefore, students in Starlight Class and Rocket Class would actively participate in the campus festival every year.

This excited the other students who were in the audience.

Oneida had received a notice from the karate tournament earlier that the tournament would be held in the central square of the campus.

This was the spot with the largest flow of people.

She sat in the classroom for a while and then headed over to the central square

Meanwhile, the waiting area of the central square was busy.

Many girls in white uniforms stood there, talking, and laughing happily.

alone.

They seemed to know each other. Oneida seemed to be the only one who did not fit in.

After all, as an unexpected transfer student, she did not have many friends at this school

"Why aren't you wearing your uniform?" Benjamin, the teacher in charge of the karate tournament, was a middle-aged man wearing glasses. He frowned and looked at Oneida in confusion

Most of the students who participated in the competition would prepare their uniforms. After all, they would be more comfortable competing in the uniform they used for training. Moreover, it would be less of a hassle for the university, Oneida was the only one who came in her ordinary clothes.

As soon as Benjamin said this, the other contestants all stopped chatting and looked at Oneida.

08:54 Tue, Nov 26..

Chapter 100

There was someone who came directly without wearing a uniform.

No one had ever heard of it or seen

Assessment, inquisitiveness, fascination, ridicule. Those were the type of gazes that fell upon Oneida.

2 x 81%

Oneida did not seem to be perturbed. She answered indifferently. "It's my first time participating. I didn't know about this"

Moreover, Oneida did not own a karate uniform.

Speaking of karate, she had not practiced it for a long time, so her uniform was gone too.

Benjamin frowned helplessly and awkwardly said, "But, there's no extra uniform here..."

"I have an extra uniform."

Suddenly, a cold and crisp female voice echoed from the door.

Oneida and the others could not help but look over.

A tall, innocent, and beautiful girl stood upright at the gate of the waiting area.

She was wearing a snow-white uniform with an eye-catching black belt around her waist

She was a black belt contestant!

Roxanne?" Someone recognized her and shouted excitedly. "It's Roxanne!"

Yes, it was indeed Roxanne.

She was the runner-up of the Imperial Star Genius Leaderboard and the super genius of Starlight Class!

At Imperial Star University, those with true talent and capabilities would be the winner.

People who were good-looking and wealthy were incomparable to geniuses.

Those with true talent and capabilities would be the most dazzling star of Imperial Star University.

Therefore, as soon as Roxanne appeared, everyone could not help but get excited.

Usually, they did not have a chance to meet a popular figure like Roxanne!

"It's Roxanne. She's not just talented and powerful, but she's also gorgeous. Someone widened his eyes and exclaimed in surprise and admiration. "Roxanne must be the champion. No one could beat her..."

"I'm so excited. I've heard a lot about her for a long time. It's an honor to finally see her!"

"I hope I can get into the final and compete with Roxanne. I feel like I'm dreaming..."

"If Roxanne is here, I don't think I have any chance of getting the championship."

The crowd was abuzz

Roxanne seemed to be already accustomed to being the center of attention. Her face was calm, and there was no trace of emotion.

She walked through the buzzing crowd toward Benjamin and Opeida.

08:54 Tue, Nov 26

Chapter 100

"She's about the same size as me. I can lend her my uniform," she uttered coldly, and there was still no hint of emotion in her tone.

Hearing this, Benjamin immediately smiled and even began to latter Roxanne.
"Roxanne, it's so kind of you."

However, Roxanne ignored him. She glanced at Oneida casually and asked, "Wh ranks are you at? I have all the belts. I can let you borrow a belt as well."

Oneida's eyes met Roxanne's. She said faintly, "White belt."

She remained silent, but everyone around them was listening attentively to her conversation with Roxanne.

Her being only a white belt contestant naturally

The Second Act 107

Chapter 107

Benjamin was stunned, and his eyes widened to look at Oneida. He suddenly understood. "Someone told me that there was a fearless rookie who participated in the campus festival. So, it's you!"

Some contestants burst out laughing, "Seriously? A white belt will only end up being beaten.

"No wonder she's not wearing a uniform. She's just a novice who doesn't know anything."

"Crap! I'm starting to feel sorry for her. She might get knocked down the arena later."

"White belt? Hahaha. Who gave her the courage?"

"I thought my green belt was embarrassing enough. I didn't expect there's someone else worse than me."

The crowd was discussing Oneida,

Only Roxanne remained calm.

She nodded

in acknowledgment and then whispered to the assistant behind her.

Roxanne came from a wealthy family. She would bring an assistant to help her with chores on important occasions.

Her assistant quickly brought a brand-new uniform and handed it to Oneida.

Thank you Oneida nodded at Roxanne and then turned to the bathroom to get change.

Meanwhile, Xavier was in the coffee lounge next to the central square.

Xavier sat upright, picked up the coffeepot in front of him, and poured a cup of coffee for the distinguished guest sitting opposite him. Sitting opposite Xavier was an old man with gray hair

He looked kind-hearted and gentle, but his eyes had an intimidating aura.

"Mr. Johnson, what made you come over to Imperial Star University? I'm flattered." Xavier chuckled, with respect and flattery in his tone.

Curtis Johnson took a sip of the coffee and slowly put it down on the table.

He replied with a faint smile, "I've heard that the campus festival began again. Every time during the festival, there will always be some unexpected geniuses showing up. I came here to see if there's someone who I will like, and I shall take them to Starr Training Camp" Hearing this, Xavier's eyes brightened up. "Starr Training Camp starts recruitment again!"

The Starr Training Camp was extraordinary!

Curtis, also known as Mr. Johnson, was the winner of the second grade elite medal.

Second grade was extremely rare!

That was why Curtis was very prestigious in Jeahron and even Hestrya.

He founded Starr Training Camp, which countless students dreamt of entering

Students there could get not only guidance from great teachers but also obtained access to the best resources by relying on

08:54 Tue, Nov 26

Chapter 107

Curtis' connections.

Most importantly, being able to get in was equivalent to gaining fame.

This was a remarkable experience in one's resume.

00080%

Starr Training Camp recruited students from time to time every year. Those who were selected for the training were all geniuses.

The intensive training lasted for one month. Anyone who came out of Starr Training Camp would be able to stand out, be successful, and have a bright future!

"Unfortunately, there are fewer good seedlings now. Curtis lowered her eyes and sighed imperceptibly.

However, Xavier shook his head in disagreement and smiled. "Its not necessarily true. Maybe there are some good seedlings that have not been found!"

Curtis grinned. "So, I'm here to see if there are any unexpected gains."

Just then, on the other side, the karate tournament was about to begin.

Since the tournament was held in the busiest central square, and karate was an exciting sport, many people were already waiting under the arena.

The broadcast began to promote the tournament. "The karate tournament will be held in the central square. To all contestants, please go to the waiting area promptly, while for the audience, kindly proceed to the central square as soon as possible." Howard, Hillary, and the rest were also here.

They came over to cheer for Oneida, although they all knew she would very likely be eliminated in the first round, as she was the only one at the elementary rank of karate

But still, they had to cheer for Oneida,

If she was injured, they could still help to send her to the hospital.

Oneida had already changed her clothes. Her body figure was unexpectedly very similar to Roxanne, so this uniform fitted her well.

It was a white uniform with a white belt.

Oneida was the only one who was snow-white from head to toe

"48 into 21 knockout tournament. First round, Roxanne versus Naomi."

The host took the microphone and stood in the arena.

In the first round of the tournament, it was indeed suitable for the most popular contestant, Roxanne, to compete.

Roxanne walked leisurely onto the arena. Being tall and lean, there was an extraordinary temperament just by looking at her back

Her beautiful face looked extremely calm and confident.

Roxanne was indeed a genius of the second year!

Many fans of hers had arrived at the tournament. Some fanatics even took out banners with Roxanne's name and cheered for her. Chapter 107

"Roxanne, Roxannel"

You are unique and one of the best!"

The crowd was thriving.

Roxanne's opponent, Naomi Lee, was an unknown Elite Class student.

The reason why she signed up for this karate tournament was that she had practiced it before, and she wanted to try it out. What if she could get some points? Unexpectedly, she met the greatest rival of Starlight Class, Roxanne, in the first round.

It was over.

Was there still a need for her to fight?

She would be eliminated without a doubt.

Naomi walked onto the arena looking dejected, and her legs could not help feeling weak

After all, it was Roxanne!

e were exhilarated.

At the moment, down the arena, Oneida was also following the game. All the contestants around here: "Finally, we can see Roxanne's true capabilities."

"You're overthinking. Roxanne might win the first round without even one-tenth of her true strength."

"Naomi seems to be a red belt, and she's pretty good. What a pity for her to meet Roxanne at the first round."

"Yes indeed. Luck is not on her side. She might have made it to the top ten. If she met the white belt, she would make it to the next round."

Speaking of this, the contestants all looked at Oneida tacitly, with obvious mockery in their eyes.

After all, Oneida was the only white belt in the tournament, which everyone could easily push over.

It would be lucky to compete with Oneida. It would be tough to not get into the next round.

Oneida looked calm as if she did not hear what the girls were talking about. Her icy gaze fell straight into the arena.

Roxanne and Naomi bowed to each other in courtesy

Then, the tournament officially started.

Before Naomi could pose properly, Roxanne, on the other side, took an upright fist very quickly.

Her fierce fist would smash straight into Naomi's jaw as if there was a strong wind.

Everyone held their breath.

Naomi's eyes widened, and she yelled subconsciously, "Wait!"

Roxanne reacted quickly. Hearing Naomi's scream, her fist which was only 0.4 inches away from Naomi's chin, immediately turned around and merely touched the tip of her nose. Roxanne stopped

08:54 Tue, Nov 26

Chapter 107

"What happened?" The referee frowned with dissatisfaction and roared at Naomi.

"..." Naomi's palm and forehead were full of cold sweat. Though it was merely a short sentence, her breaths interrupted: between each

The Second Act 108

Chapter 108

Hearing this, the audience burst into laughter.

What a coward!

However, it was understandable. After all, it was normal to be timid when facing Roxanne, who was a genius and a third-degree black belt opponent.

But it was still embarrassing to show timidity on such a big occasion.

"If you do this again, you'll be penalized. The referee shot Naomi a cold glare and warned her severely.

Naomi gritted her teeth and nodded.

Roxanne remained expressionless as if nothing had happened.

"Naomi, you don't have to be nervous, Roxanne said coldly, Naomi took a deep breath and put on a pose. "Bring it on."

The tournament was about to start.

Everyone in the audience unconsciously got tense again. This time, Naomi took the lead in launching the attack.

She lifted her knee and leg and kicked Roxanne hard.

Her ruthless and slick kick aimed straight at Roxanne's neck!

Roxanne's gaze was slightly frozen. Her palm tightened and negated the attack just in time. It was then followed by her kick aiming at Naomi's neck with her toes, Naomi was too far ahead in order to attack Roxanne earlier. It was too late for her to defend.

A tingling pain came to her neck!

Her neck was kicked!

This was a scoring point.

Roxanne was immediately recorded with three points on the scoreboard!

Meanwhile, Naomi was still at zero point.

According to the rules of a karate tournament, one would win with eight points ahead of the opponent.

Roxanne was now three points ahead. Naomi did not have much time left.

Seeing Roxanne score with her smooth-running kick, the crowd could not help applauding excitedly. Impressive!

It was expected of Roxanne.

Immediately after, another round of attacks began.

JA

08:54 Tue, Nov 26.

Chapter 108

This time, Roxanne took the lead and strode forward.

Naomi widened her eyes in horror and subconsciously grabbed the collar of Roxanne's uniform, trying to keep a safe distance from her. 80%

Unexpectedly, in the next second... Roxanne raised her arm and slashed at the back of Naomi's neck with the strongest part. of her elbow! A sharp pain hit Naomi.

The next moment Naomi found herself blacking out, and she fell on the arena.

She collapsed.

Countless people stared at Naomi, and the referee started the ten seconds countdown to her.

If Naomi could not regain her feet in ten seconds, she would be defeated!

Defeated meant that the tournament ended right away.

Fortunately, Naomi rubbed her neck and struggled to get up.

She had not given up yet!

In this way, Roxanne scored three more points. She was already six points ahead, and if she scored two more points, she would be able to eliminate Naomi. From then on, Roxanne was unstoppable, hitting every shot she took. Naomi was helpless against her and was defeated by a score of zero.

Roxanne won, which was a strong victory.

However, Naomi was beaten to dizziness and was helped off the arena by her classmates.

There was another roar of applause under the arena.

As expected, Roxanne was exceptional!

Both her fans and the audience were impressed by Roxanne's exquisite skills.

Meanwhile, in the waiting area, the other contestants were conflicted after seeing Roxanne's outstanding performance.

Someone marveled, "So this was Roxanne, the ace of the third-degree black belt? It's amazing!"

"I'm so agitated. It's wonderful!"

There was also someone who was frustrated. "With Roxanne here, there's no need for us to compete."

"Then let's strive to get second place."

Some people disdained and said, "How can you let others down? We haven't even competed yet. Nothing was absolute."

Oneida stared at the arena for a while and thoughtfully commented, "Not bad."

The voice was not loud, but clear enough to be heard by the contestants around.

Everyone had a conflicted expression.

All of them wondered what exactly Oneida wanted to do.

08:54 Tue, Nov 26

Chapter 108

She was just a white belt rookie. How dare she comment on the black belt contestant?

*

Besides, Rome was so powerful that she knocked out Naomi without effort. How could she comment Roxanne was not bad?

It was clear that Roxanne was impressive!

The rookie now was ignorant!

"Excuse me. A female voice rang from behind.

Oneida ignored it as she had no clue who the voice was calling.

"You, the white belt." Seeing that Oneida did not respond, she shouted again and emphasized the color of the belt.

Now everyone knew she was calling Oneida.

Everyone burst into laughter..

Oneida turned her head, and her gaze fell onto the person behind her.

It was a girl with a well-built body, about twice the size of Oneida

She squinted her eyes and smirked. Her cheek suddenly protruded. "So, you know you're a white belt contestant,

Although she was smiling, the disgust in her eyes was evident. "Roxanne is my goddess, a third-degree black belt holder. You're just a white belt. Watch your mouth and don't be an ungrateful jerk!"

She snorted again and continued. "Being a rookie, you should understand the rules well. Don't talk nonsense. Roxanne is not someone you can simply comment on."

Her words reflected the thoughts of many contestants around.

Everyone turned over to see Oneida's expression tacitly.

Unexpectedly, Oneida was not deflated. Instead, she looked indifferent.

She pursed her lips and turned her head back without saying anything-

"You..." The girl clenched her fists and wanted to beat Oneida up

All of a sudden, the voice of the host echoed, "48 into 24 knockout tournament. Third round, Oneida versus Janet."

Upon hearing that, Oneida walked toward the arena right away.

The girls behind her followed swiftly.

The two walked to the arena together and looked at each other.

Oneida knitted her brows a little.

It turned out that the girl who had just spoken rudely to her was Janet.

She was her first opponent in the tournament.

What a coincidence.

Janet was equally shocked, too.

Chapter 108

She did not pay close attention to the list at first, so she had no idea who her opponent was.

She never expected that the white belt rookie would be her first-round opponent!

Janet felt blessed and delighted.

Blessed, because her opponent was a whit

The Second Act 109

Chapter 109

"Indeed, the white belt is too ridiculous. Is she here for a beating

"We want to watch evenly-matched contestants fight, not the rookies practicing over here. Please finish the fight quickly. I'm going to watch the next tournament. Howard and Hillary were also among the audience.

They were nervous and excited when they knew it was Oneida's turn, but as soon as they turned to look at her opponent, they were suddenly worried.

The green belt contestant was the size of two Oneidast

She looked strong and bulky.

Although Oneida was tall, she was slender.

The contrast was so obvious when the two of them stood together.

Oneida had little chance of winning based on this massive size difference.

Howard was already considering calling Oneida an ambulance.

He was terrified that Oneida would be defeated with just one punch.

The audience, too, started to realize the huge difference between their sizes and suddenly gained interest. "Hahaha, I'm feeling bad for the white belt contestant. She's so thin. How can she even win?" "One is as huge as an elephant, and the other is as tiny as a chick This is getting more interesting by the minute!"

"With this weight difference, will there be any more suspense? We should probably pray for the white belt contestant Hopefully, she won't get hurt too badly."

Meanwhile, Oneida and Janet stood face to face in the arena and bowed to each other.

Janet looked at Oneida contemptuously. She then posed and was ready to commence her attack.

Oneida raised her eyes a little. There was a calmness and clarity in her beautiful eyes that no one had.

She was like a real warrior, dressed in a snow-white uniform, spotless and without distractions.

She slightly bent her knees with her feet apart and her elbows in a good position.

The fight started right then!

Oneida initiated the attack all of a sudden. She raised her long legs and rushed straight above, exceeding the height of her head.

Almost everyone was attracted by Oneida's movements.

This was because Oneida's posture and movements were standard and beautiful

Her posture and movement were as perfect as the textbooks taught.

No, they were way better than those in textbooks because of Oneida's characteristics!

It seemed this was not a fight, but a magnificent performance.

174

08:54 Tue, Nov 26....

Chapter 109

Her figure was beautiful and elegant. Her tightened toes aimed straight at Janet's nose.

With a bang, Janet was hit on the nose!

Before Janet could react, Oneida had already taken the lead in getting three points!

She reached out to rub her nose. The dull pain on it hit her.

What just happened?

She had already set herself up, but the person opposite her hit her nose unexpectedly like a gust of wind.

"Seriously? Her speed is too fast! I don't even have the time to stop herf Janet thought.

The audience was still. They were all stunned and could not say anything.

The realization then dawned upon them the next second, and a thunderous cheer burst out.

Oneida's three-point win was amazing!

Was she a rookie?

How could a rookie with such a sophisticated and gorgeous movement have a humble, calm posture?

S80%D

Roxanne was already fast, accurate, and tough. Oneida was also fast, accurate, and tough, but with the addition of a pleasant and stunning look.

The scene was extremely shocking.

Hillary grabbed Howard's arm and exclaimed. This can't be happening! Oneida is on the lead!"

Howard was equally surprised, but thinking of Oneida's amazing performance on the basketball court before, he vaguely felt that Oneida might also be good in karate. This white belt might have been used just to confuse her opponent!

He grinned and replied. "It's no big deal. I've always been confident in Oneida.

Hillary glanced sideways at him and said, "Is that so? You said you were calling an ambulance for Oneida earlier. You changed your mind so soon?"

"Ahem." Howard coughed awkwardly. "I saw Oneida's performance just now. My confidence suddenly increased."

A new round of attacks in the arena had not started yet.

It was because Janet stood still covering her nose without any movement.

The referee frowned and glared at Janet impatiently. "What's wrong with you?"

Janet blinked and mumbled, "L... I... I think I have a nosebleed..."

The referee did not hear it. He frowned even more. "What are you talking about? Speak up!"

"My nose is bleeding! Janet shouted loudly without thinking further.

Only then did she realize that her voice was so loud that everyone in the central square must have heard her words!

"A nosebleed?" The referee walked into the arena and pried open Janet's hand.

08:54 Tue, Nov 26.

Chapter 109

Sure enough, blood was dripping out of Janet's nostrils.

The audience wanted to laugh when they saw this, but they also felt pitiful for her at the same time.

HIT OVER

The referee hurriedly called the medical staff

Janet was then taken to the arena's edge and given emergency treatment by the medical staff.

Concerned for Janet's good, the referee looked at her and suggested, "Can you still manage it? We're not professional athletes. Don't push yourself too hard. You shall abstain if you really can't do it." Abstain?

Hearing this, Janet immediately clenched her fists and glanced at Oneida in the arena with anger.

That brat looked so calm and peaceful.

"Damn it! How could I get a nosebleed? But she's still clean and unharmed!" she exclaimed inwardly. She would never abstain!

At the very feast, she had to get her revenge and let the brat feel pain too.

"I can do it. It's just a nosebleed. It's not a big deal!" Janet withdrew her gaze and made up her mind.

"Get back to the arena once you're ready, the referee reminded Janet and returned to his position.

The tournament continued after Janet's nosebleed stopped.

80%

Oneida looked at her opponent, who had returned to the arena with an expressionless face, and suddenly whispered with a light smile, "I won't show mercy even if you just bleed."

Her voice was so soft that only Janet could hear it.

Her eyes instantly widened furiously, showing anger.

"There's no need for mercy! How presumptuous you are!" Janet clenched her fists and bared her teeth. Her words were full of fury. "It should be you who will beg for mercy later!" After saying that, they immediately stepped forward, and with their fists colliding, they fought.

Unexpectedly, Oneida keenly caught a gap. In just a second, she raised her palm and slashed down hard!

Her palm, which seemed to be equipped with a whirlwind, slammed heavily on the back of Janet's neck.

Janet almost spat blood when she was slammed. She tried hard to hold back her discomfort and stretched out her fist to attack Oneida's chin,

However, Oneida suddenly kicked her legs upward 90 degrees!

This time, her legs hit straight on Janet's head.

Bang!

Janet fell heavily to the ground, and her huge body made the arena tremble.

She was lying frantically on the ground, and her eyes were full of darkness.

Ten, nine, eight, seven, six. The referee began the ten-second countdown right after seeing Janet fall motionless onto the

The Second Act 110

Chapter 110

The entire audience held their breath uncontrollably.

Their gaze was fixed on Janet.

Everyone wanted to know if she could get up again.

As the countdown approached the final moments, Janet, who was lying on the ground, moved slightly, and her shoulders lifted a little.

It seemed that she was going to get up.

"Two, one. The referee counted down to the end, but Janet only moved a little and could not get up from the ground.

She was is knocked out!

She became the first contestant to be knocked out and eliminated in the karate tournament.

The competition ended right away.

Oneida made it to the next round.

No one expected this elimination round to end so quickly.

Janet was defeated terribly, She got a nosebleed, then was knocked out.

And her opponent was just a slender white belt contestant!

Everyone's impression of Oneida changed greatly after this match.

er strength was not at the white belt level!

Her

Perhaps, her rank was only used to confuse her opponents and make them underestimate her.

When Oneida stepped down from the arena, Janet was helped down by her classmates.

Her brows furrowed, and her face turned pale. Perhaps because she had sensed Oneida's gaze, Janet struggled to lift her eyes.

Their gazes met, and it seemed like they created a spark of friction between them.

Janet gritted her teeth in anger and wanted to rush over immediately.

Oneida was silent for a moment and curled her lips, revealing a meaningful smile. "I'm sorry. I went a bit too far. You must have gotten hurt." Her words sounded like an apology, but her tone was full of arrogance.

She clearly said that to provoke Janet.

Janet clenched her fists, her head still buzzing. Before she could say a word, Oneida turned and walked away.

She went straight into the waiting area.

Suddenly, countless gazes were projected on her.

No one spoke, and everyone silently examined Oneida.

1/4

08:55 Tue, Nov 26

Chapter 110

They were all karate veterans, and they could naturally sense someone's skill level, Oneida's movements were smooth and magnificent, although she had only demonstrated a few moves. This was not something a beginner could do. What level was she really at?

This became a question in everyone's mind.

80%

Roxanne was also looking at Oneida. She sat in the corner and raised her eyes slightly. Her beautiful eyes were filled with unusual brilliance. Oneida was not afraid of being looked at. She held her head high, swaggered up to everyone's gaze, and returned to her seat.

At this point, the news about the karate tournament quickly spread to other corners of the campus.

Many people on the campus had known about it instantly.

They learned that a white belt contestant won against a green belt opponent in the karate tournament at the campus festival. This made many people interested in karate tournaments.

Therefore, many of the audience watching other competitions rushed to the karate arena.

Meanwhile, in the classroom of Starlight Class, a boy sat by the window.

The other students either went out to compete or watched the competition. He was the only one who remained in the classroom.

He was wearing a snow-white shirt and had jet-black hair and eyes. His whole presence exuded an air of distinct detachment.

His eyes were downcast, revealing his long eyelashes. His superior facial features and snow-white skin made him look like a cold and beautiful boy from a manga

There was a book on the desk entirely written in a foreign language.

He was reading a book.

"Hendrick." A tall and sturdy boy walked into the classroom, his face full of smiles. "Are you reading again? Won't you feel bored?"

As he spoke, he walked over to Hendrick and wanted to see what he was reading.

Hendrick then abruptly closed the book.

He lifted his cold and clear eyes and asked coldly, "Why did you come back?"

Damian Scott grinned and said with interest, "Guess what? Everyone has gone to watch the karate tournament now. I heard that a white belt contestant emerged and knocked out opponents above their level! That was interesting... Hendrick's handsome face remained indifferent.

"Why don't we go and have a look, Hendrick?" Damian suggested. "The campus festival is so lively. It's a pity if you don't go to see it...

"Besides. He gave a meaningful look at Hendrick. "Roxanne is there. Why don't you go see her?"

Hendrick lowered his eyes slightly and remained silent.

08-55

Chapter 110

However, Damian could not stop talking. "Come on, let's go! It's not fun to stay in the classroom all the time. I mean, you're the first on Imperial Star Genius Leaderboard, and you're our hope in Starlight Glass, yet you're sitting in the classroom. reading books. How boring!"

He clicked his tongue pitifully and continued, "Hendrick, if you participated in the campus festival on your own accord, there's no point for others to be involved. Alas...

Hendrick gave Damian a sideways glance without any expression and said nothing

The karate tournament was still ongoing.

The number of people in the audience grew substantially.

This competition seemed to have become the most trending and highly anticipated topic at the Imperial Star University campus festival

Everyone came here to see how the white belt contestant would perform and defeat the stronger opponents.

They thought it to be inspirational and interesting.

When Oneida stepped onto the stage again for the 24-to-12 elimination round, the audience let out a thunderous roar of excitement

Nobody expected that the white belt contestant would look quite pretty.

Many people recognized her as Oneida, the sensation on the campus forum. Her secretly taken beautiful photos were often posted on the trending topic of the forum. She was called the new campus belle of Imperial Star University. Oneida was very calm.

She had never been affected by external influence.

Despite the noisy crowd below, with some people whistling and calling out her name, she remained composed, keeping her eyes down and adjusting her posture.

Meanwhile, the contestant on the other side appeared serious and ready for battle.

Oneida glanced at her and said coldly, "It's too loud on the stage I just want to finish the match quickly."

The opponent frowned at her words.

The opponent wondered what Oneida meant by that.

The opponent thought this match could not end as quickly as she wanted.

Then Oneida immediately made some actions that showed her opponent how fast she could end the match

It only took a few seconds!

With a few swift kicks, Oneida defeated the contestant on the other side instantly.

The match ended just like that!

Before the audience could react, Oneida had already left the stage.

"What just happened?" someone asked.

The white belt contestant won again?"

08:55 Tue, Nov 26

Chapter 110

"Is this a blitz match? It's so fast..."

"I like her fast and arrogant style!"

The elimination round continued.

Roxanne and Oneida became the most popular contestants in the tournament. They got the loudest cheers and screams whenever they appeared on the stage.

And the two contestants did live up to their expectations. They advanced through the rounds one after another, eventually reaching the finals.

The championship battle would be a showdown between Roxanne and Oneida.

Who would have thought that the two finalists would be the super genius with a third-degree black belt and a novice with a white belt?

That was so dramatic!