

The Second Act: Revenge by Edwina Onedia and Jackson

Chapter 11

Perhaps Matthias had noticed that the girl beside him had been staring at him, his expression finally showed a

sowed a slight change

He tilted his head slightly, casting an especially lukewarm glance at the Oneida beside him.

The boy had attractive eyes, skin so tanned that it was almost glowing, and a pristine, good-looking face, Oneida gave him a courteous smile as a gesture of friendliness.

Yet, Matthias simply took a gander at her wordlessly before turning his head back to continue his reverie.

Despite that, Oneida was not displeased at all.

She had heard a bit about Matthias' life:

the story in her previous life,

He appeared to exhibit signs of a mild personality disorder, specifically autism

Matthias showed no interest in socializing with others and never once displayed his talents. Otherwise, given his intelligence, how could he possibly be placed in Regular Class?

He would've long been invited to join Starlight Class!!

Oneida took out her textbooks from her backpack and placed broadcasts using the nano earbuds in her ears!

In the blink of an eye, the school bell rang, signaling the end of the

Shortly after, a tall and slender girl with a pretty face appeared at Regular Class A’s entrance.

Needless to say, she was Yuliana Chaser.

A shiny rocket badge was fastened on her top; that was a symbol of status at Imperial Star University.

Of course, students in Regular Classes had no badges.

“Yuliana It’s really Yuliana...”

“Why did she suddenly come to our class?”

“So pretty...”

The students in Regular Class naturally idolized the geniuses in Rocket Class and Starlight Class.

Moreover, Yuliana came from a well-off family, had good looks, and was also very talented, which was why she was a deity-like figure in the hearts of many Regular Class students.

Yuliana swept her gaze around the classroom.

She had come here on purpose solely because of her good-for-nothing third uncle, Lucas!

Not only did he forcibly send his estranged daughter from the countryside to Imperial Star University, but he even tracked down Yuliana’s parents to convey a message to Yuliana, asking her to take good care of her new cousin at Imperial Star University!

It went without saying that Yuliana was totally unwilling to do so, but she still had to keep up a pretense nonetheless.

Besides, she reckoned, based on how wimpy Jennifer was, her new cousin from the countryside was likely even weaker and more useless!

As the elder cousin, Yuliana was determined to assert her dominance in front of Oneida later and establish her authority. "If she knows her place, I can perhaps begrudgingly take her in as an errand runner," she mused.

After scanning the area, she still couldn't figure out who Oneida was.

Hence, Yuliana looked at a girl sitting by the door and said rather impatiently, "I'm looking for Oneida Chaser from your class. Tell her to come out."

The girl immediately appeared surprised and flattered.

She thought, "My idol actually spoke to me!"

"Sure!" Without delay, she nodded and looked toward Oneida's seat.

Yet, it was vacant.

"She doesn't seem to be here..." the girl informed Yuliana cautiously.

"She's not here?" wondered Yuliana with a frown,

her anger

and her anger instantly rose in her chest.

She had come specifically to find Oneida,

but

Oneida was not around, making her come in vain.

"Oneida Chaser! Where is Oneida?" She straightened her slender neck and raised her voice, shouting at the class with increasingly pronounced impatience.

Right then, an emotionless, lazy voice echoed behind Yuliana. “Excuse me. You’re blocking the way.”

Yuliana subconsciously turned around,

She was facing a girl half a head taller than her five foot–five–inch stature. Yuliana estimated Oneida to be five feet seven inches tall.

Oneida had a stunningly beautiful appearance, yet she exuded an extraordinarily imposing aura.

Chapter 12

Her gaze was filled with with contempt and intense oppression.

For the first time, Yuliana felt overwhelmed by someone’s presence, and she struggled to catch her breath.

“She’s Oneida Chaser. The girl by the door pointed her index finger at Oneida,

Oneida had gone to the restroom after class and only just came back.

She glanced at Yuliana, who was blocking the entrance of the classroom, and said nothing further. Instead, she swaggered through the door, bumping Yuliana’s side with her shoulder in the process.

The whole sequence of actions flowed smoothly, done in a cool and valiant manner.

Nearly knocked down by the impact, Yuliana was riled up. If it weren’t for the many onlookers, she would’ve already taken action to teach the arrogant brat a lesson!

“Wait up!” Yuliana reached out to grab Oneida’s arm, suppressing her anger. “So, you’re Oneida?”

Oneida turned to look a ook at the former

“Do you know who I am? Yuliana sneered through gritted teeth

“I do,” replied Oneida flatly.

The Chaser family had three sons, and Nathan and Hazel favored their second son, abeo Chaser, the most.

The girl in front of Oneida was Yuliana, Mateo’s daughter. As she was also fairly capable, having gotten into Imperial Star University’s Rocket Class, Yulians could be said to be the apple of everyone’s eye in the Chaser family.

“You do, yet you’re still using this attitude with me? If I were to tell Grandpa and Grandma, you’d surely be grounded!” Yuliana glared at Oneida with an air of arrogance and loathing on her face. “Good-for-nothings should know their place. Your whole family is a bunch of losers. That father of yours can’t even earn an elite medal, and that extremely fragile Jennifer can only stay in Elite Class. As for your brother Edmund, he doesn’t seem to have many talents either...”

The elite medal that Yuliana mentioned was a coveted symbol of status for everyone in Hestry.

This was an accomplishment that could only be achieved by the top elites in various fields. Obtaining the elite medal meant that one was superior to others, with access to abundant resources, a prestigious standing, and the admiration of innumerable individuals.

Mateo was highly favored by Nathan simply because he was the only one in the entire Chaser family who possessed the elite medal, albeit it was just an insignificant ninth-grade elite medal.

After all, in the whole of Hestrya, there were seriously very few individuals who could obtain the most powerful first-grade elite medal

The reason why students at Imperial Star University were eager to enter Starlight Class was that graduates of Starlight Class would be automatically awarded a ninth grade elite medal!

Yuliana’s voice continued to ring out in Oneida’s ear. “Meanwhile, you’re just a worthless nobody from the countryside... Your whole family is so useless, so what are you so ar rogant about? I suggest you think it through and be politer toward me. Maybe then I'll speak up for you in front of Grandpa and s blatant.

As soon as those words fell, the girl sitting by the door burst into laughter, the mockery in her eyest

Yuliana's speech exposed all of Oneida's background.

The other students in the classroom also overheard most of the conversation between the two. While admiring how eloquent Yuliana was, they mocked

Oneida for turning out to be so useless.

Only Matthias, who didn't care about others business, lay on his desk to sleep.

"You're from Rocket Class?? Oneida asked, unimpressed. Despite being ridiculed by Yuliana from head to toe, she remained apathetic, merely looking at the rocket badge on Yuliana's clothes.

Assuming that Oneida was jealous of her being in Rocket Class, Yuliana raised her chin and looked even smugger. "That's right. It's already a miracle you to get into Regular Class. You can forget about getting in to Rocket Class in this lifetime!

Chapter 13

Smiling, Oneida asked, "Can you be promoted to Starlight Class?"

Yuliana was stunned when she heard that

She tried her best to get into Rocket Class and worked hard every day to ensure she would not be kicked out.

Starlight Class was not for the faint-hearted. The students there were of ungodly standards!

“Do you know how strong the students in Starlight Class are? Yuliana curled her lips. “Getting promoted to Starlight Class is not something one can simply discuss.”

Oneida looked down at her and instantly unleashed her commanding presence like a high and mighty queen. “Just because you can’t doesn’t mean I can’t. I will get into Starlight Class and surpass you,” she uttered word by word as though she was declaring war.

Yuliana was shocked by the arrogance of the girl before her. Then she clenched her fists and sneered. “You speak too highly of yourself. If you can enter Starlight Class, I will immediately drop out of imperial Star University!”

Oneida looked at Yuliana with a faint smile, “Remember what you said. Don’t go back on your words.”

After saying that, she retracted her arm and walked to her seat without looking back “Wait. Don’t go “Yuliana felt humiliated that she had been ignored. She wanted to teach Oneida a lesson once more.

Oneida, who was walking ahead, quietly took two erasers from her classmate’s desk.

There was a thump as she made her first concealed shot. The first eraser hit the back of Yuliana’s kneecap squarely.

Yuliana’s leg suddenly weakened, and her whole body leaned forward uncontrollably,

With a thud, she fell onto her knees.

The action prompted the entire classroom to fall into an eerie silence

The goddess had knelt down on the spot!

All the students wanted to laugh, but they did not dare to do so.

Yuliana’s eyes widened. Before she could react, there came another thump.

Oneida hit Yuliana’s backbone with the second eraser.

Yuliana’s upper body fell to the ground. Right then, her entire body was lying there!

She happened to be wearing a mini-skirt that day, leaving most of her undergarments in full view. What a disgrace!

Oneida returned to her seat with satisfaction. Meanwhile, Matthias was looking at her with deep-set eyes.

He might have seen through her tricks.

Oneida had that thought in mind as she smiled at him and calmly opened her book.

Yuliana was still lying on the ground, clenching her fists and gritting her teeth.

She wanted to die!

She had never been so embarrassed. She was greatly humiliated!

18:11 Sat, 15 Jun A

Chapter 13

She really wanted to find a hole in the ground and bury herself in there.

Nevertheless, she had indeed felt something hit her just now

She looked back instinctively and spotted the girl standing by the door.

“Was it you?” Yuliana immediately got up from the ground with anger in her eyes. She yelled at the girl, “Did you hit me with something?”

The girl’s eyes widened. She quickly shook her head. “I didn’t...”

“Stop denying it. Who else can it be other than you?” Yuliana grabbed the girl’s arm and pulled her out of the classroom

A few minutes later, Yuliana left. The girl came back alone.

Her head was lowered. There was a reddish and swollen slap mark on her face. It was obvious that Yuliana had unleashed her fury on the girl.

At that moment, a post about Yuliana quickly appeared on the front page of the Imperial Star University campus forum. It was even gaining popularity

The title read: Yuliana from Regular Class embarrassed? Knelt down? Exposed?]

[Thank you. I was there, and I have mixed feelings about it.]

Chapter 14

[I was there too. I have some photos, but I'm not sure if I should upload them.]

Don't be a coward!]

[Just upload them. Don't keep them to yourself]

Please spare our goddess, Yuliana. I beg you to save her some face.

[She's usually so arrogant. Does she even need that?]

A photo of Yuliana on her knees was posted, allowing people to look at it.

[Everyone, I've uploaded the photos. I need your support on the public screen, please. I fear repercussion!

[Support! Support!]

[Haha, Yuliana has met her downfall.]

[This will be a precious moment in her dark history. Save those photos now,

[Cheers! Haha!]

At the same time, another new post in the forum instantly attracted countless people's attention. The title was: [Oneida of second-year Regular Class exposed for all to see!]

The original poster was a new account that had just been registered that day. The post was written in a way that mimicked entertainment gossip.

[I won't tell you about what you already know. Our protagonist indeed came from the country, sent by her parents. She's truly a country bumpkin and an uneducated one. However, there are still some things you may not know. Keep reading to find out more.]

With that opening, the original poster immediately uploaded several high-definition photos in the following comment.

The people in the photo were Oneida and Simon. They were standing at the entrance of Jussipi Clubhouse, facing each other in deep discussion.

After uploading the photos, the original poster wrote some more

[Surely, everyone has heard of Jussip Clubhouse. To put it bluntly, it is the place where Jeahron's bigwigs would go for drinks, long chats, and have fun. The man beside Oneida seems to boast an impressive background.]

[She's having a drink with a bigwig at Jussipi Clubhouse. Their relationship isn't so simple! If I were to take a wild guess, Oneida might be a kept woman]

[This also explains why she could enroll in the second year of Imperial Star University! Although the Chaser family backed her, she was poorly qualified. Wouldn't Imperial Star University be ruining its own reputation by accepting her? Well, they accepted her anyway. What's more baffling is that she didn't have to start from the first year. Instead, she skipped straight to the second year...]

The original poster's analysis quickly attracted countless followers.

[Makes sense. I believe in the original poster.]

Isn't this is photoshopped? Unbelievable! She's pretty. Why did she do something so foolish?)

The boss likes her because she is beautiful, Otherwise, the bigwig wouldn't bother spending so much money on a good-for-nothing girl.]

Oh, this photo is amazing. The bigwig is smiling at her. He seems to adore her a lot.

Excuse me while I vomit. She's so pretty. What has she done to herself?]

[What's wrong with this world?] The comment was followed by an image of a lit cigarette.

[Haha, I knew she was no good! My intuition was right!]

Gross!]

[I'm not trying to whitewash, but I personally think that the bigwig is rich and handsome. Maybe he's seriously dating her.]

“Hey, that's exactly what you're doing! Then can I also say that the homewrecker and the legal partner are seriously in love too?]

[Get out, whitewasher!]

[My eyes! I cannot unsee it!]

The post soon garnered 1,000 comments, more than those of the post about Yuliana. It became the most trending topic on the whole campus forum that day.

Students of Regular Class A naturally saw this super popular post.

Therefore, Oneida, who was sitting at the back of the classroom, could feel the gazes of the other students at the front from time to time.

Chapter 15

The students' stares turned unscrupulous as they looked at Oneida when the class was over.

They all had a variety of expressions. Some were disgusted. Some looked at her with disdain. Some were indifferent. And some were surprised Oneida naturally noticed something was wrong.

Narrowing her eyes, she was about to stand up from her seat.

Just then, a short-haired girl suddenly approached her with an indifferent look on her face. "Oneida, have you read the post on the campus forum?"

"No," Oneida replied expressionlessly.

The short-haired girl snorted coldly. Oneida's indifferent appearance annoyed her. "Go and see for yourself. They are talking about you at the forum!"

After that, she turned around and left.

Oneida took out her phone and logged in to the campus forum. At a glance, she saw the post about herself on the home page

She browsed through it.

Her eyes turned slightly cold.

These photos were undoubtedly taken by the man who followed her.

The scene in the photo was not of great significance. It was taken when she left Jussipi Clubhouse. She was saying goodbye to Simon at the door.

In fact, at that time, she and Simon found that someone was taking pictures of them in secret.

Simon wanted to stop that person, but she did not want to wanted to see what that person intended to do.

She w

It turned out to be like this.

A trace of contempt appeared in Oneida's eyes.

She thought, "Why should I be surprised by such lowly slander?"

Rumors about Oneida had become increasingly intense. It spread from the campus forum to all classes.

The atmosphere in Regular Class A turned subtly awkward.

Some students stared at Oneida as though they hoped she would disappear from the classroom as soon as possible

Some gathered in a group to gossip about Oneida

Others were hesitant about speaking as they looked at Oneida. It seemed like they wanted to rush over and give her a scolding.

Matthias was the odd one out.

He sat in a daze in his seat, not participating in any of the above.

As for Oneida, she sat calmly as if nothing had happened.

Finally, someone could not help but approach Oneida.

Chapter 15

It was the short-haired girl a moment ago, followed by two girls.

“Oneida, did you read the post on the campus forum?” the short-haired girl huffily asked as she looked down at Oneida.

“Yes,” Oneida replied indifferently.

20%

“That’s it?” The short-haired woman’s eyes widened as if staring at a monster. “Don’t you have anything to say? How can you remain calm after your atrocious deed has been exposed?”

“What do you want me to say?” Oneida asked coldly.

“You are so shameless!” The short-haired girl was pissed off by Oneida’s calmness. “Do you know what other people are saying about you and our class? I don’t know about you, but the reputation of our class has been tarnished!

Right then, the two girls behind the short-haired girl also chimed in, “Dignity is important to people, just as the bark is important to trees. I’m afraid some people couldn’t care less about it and continue to be undaunted!”

“That’s right. I’ve never seen such a shameless person

The other students in the class could not hold back anymore after they overheard the conversation.

“That’s

s right. I have wanted to say that I seriously do not want to be in the same class with someone like that...

“I fear other people will misunderstand and assume that the girls in our class are as indecent as you!”

“How troublesome. You just came here, but look at what you stirred up,

Just then, someone in the classroom shouted, “Why don’t we write a petition to kick this brat out of our class?”
