The Second Act 231

Chapter 231

Oneida looked utterly surprised

Who would have thought that Jackson would suddenly appear in this kitchen, right behind her? Wasn't he supposed to be sleeping!

In an instant, Oneida bumped into Jackson's knee and lost her balance suddenly.

Just like that, Oneida stumbled and found herself sitting right on Jackson's lap!

Her arms instinctively wrapped around Jackson's neck.

The elegance and tenderness of their pose remained truly breathtaking, even after the accident.

"You." Oneida's eyes widened slightly.

The air seemed to have heated up a few degrees around them.

Her cheeks lowly took on a rosy tint.

Suddenly realizing that Jackson was still wounded, Oneida wanted to stand up quickly. A flicker of concern crossed her face as she asked, "Are you hurt? I... I'm sorry.... However. Jackson's slender fingers gently pressed down on Oneida's arm. He held her in place, making her unable to stand up

"Don't move, or you might hurt my wound, Jackson said slowly

Oneida felt there was something odd about his words.

She didn't think much of it but sat back down.

She dared not move again.

"But I can't just sit here forever, right?" Oneida asked, her expression slightly awkward.

Jackson's deep gaze was fixed on her. Then he changed the subject and asked, "I heard from Victor that you're going to cook for me yourself?"

"That's right." Oneida smiled and nodded. Then she pointed at the dishes on the kitchen counter and said, "I prepared all these for you. I don't know whether you like them or not..." Jackson looked into Oneida's eyes, which seemed to shimmer with light, bright, deep, and clear. He had been captivated

"I love whatever you make."

Almost instinctively, Jackson said those words.

His voice was light and gentle.

"What?" Oneida thought she had heard wrong. Her eyes widened as she looked at Jackson in front of her.

But Jackson, as if concealing something, suddenly averted his gaze and stopped looking at her.

"It looks like you're all set, probably no need for a servant's help" Jackson said, shifting the conversation smoothly.

Chapter 231

Oneida smiled and replied. "Of course, I don't need anyone's help. I prepared the meal specially for you. I wouldn't let anyone else help with it."

Oneida's happy eyes sparkled as she stared at Jackson.

Jackson was momentarily taken aback.

He gazed into Oneida's eyes, his own filled with profound depth

Oneida was also looking at him

They stood facing each other, their gazes locked in a profound moment of connection

The atmosphere subtly changed between them.

Jackson's distinguished nose and elegant, affectionate eyes were so close to Oneida.

Caught in a daze. Oneida felt her heart begin to race a bit faster

Oneida instinctively straightened up, moving away from Jackson's lap.

She distanced herself from Jackson.

Finally, that flustered, heart-racing sensation eased somewhat.

Pretending to be calm, Oneida asked, "Did I hurt your leg at all?"

Jackson calmly shook his head.

"That's good" Oneida nodded and turned her attention to the dishes on the kitchen counter.

Oneida gently advised, her back turned to Jackson, "The food hasn't hit the pan yet, so you should wait for me. It's quite smoky here. You might want to leave."

"Yeah," Jackson murmured softly in agreement, yet showed no signs of leaving.

He watched Oneida's slender silhouette as she busied cooking and asked suddenly, "Have you ever cooked for anyone else before?"

Caught off guard, Oneida responded, "No."

She indeed hadn't cooked for anyone before.

The answer clearly pleased Jackson, behind her.

His eyes turned gentle, and he smiled.

"Very good."

The words glided out with a crystalline clarity, accompanied by a subtly elusive tone.

Not catching his words, Oneida couldn't help but ask, "What did you say?"

But Jackson simply shook his head and replied, "Nothing important."

Oneida didn't mind at all. She just kept her head down and busied herself with the dishes at hand.

At the same time, Jackson lingered behind her, silently and intently watching her every move. Chapter 231

At that moment, Oneida was energetic and real, lively and spirited.

Suddenly, Jackson felt an urge to pick up his paintbrush again,

He wanted to capture the scene before him on canvas.

However, it had been a long time since he last used his paintbrush.

It had been so long that many people had forgotten that Jackson could paint.

Even he himself almost forgot it.

In the end, Oneida persuaded Jackson to leave the kitchen.

There were too many things in the kitchen, and Oneida did not want Jackson to stay here any longer, so she pushed his wheelchair out.

After finishing the final touches, the dishes Oneida had prepared for Jackson were complete.

In the dining room, there were just the two of them.

They sat opposite each other across the luxurious dining table.

The dishes on the table looked very appealing,

The colors, the presentation, and the aroma, all were incredibly appetizing.

Jackson, enjoy it. This is what I owe you. I hope you'll like the dishes, Oneida said, smiling sincerely.

Hearing her words, Jackson seemed to be pleased.

He elegantly picked up a piece of chicken with his fork and slowly placed it in his mouth.

Oneida watched Jackson a bit nervously. Her eyes slightly widened as she tentatively asked, "How is it?" Oneida was quite confident in her cooking skills, but she wasn't sure if her dishes suited Jackson's taste. Jackson chewed quietly, his expression calm and collected.

However, at that moment, he felt shocked inside.

Oneida's cooking was completely beyond his expectations.

He had thought a young lady like Oneida would be doing well just to cook the food thoroughly, but unexpectedly, her cooking turned out to be extraordinarily delicious.

It was a flavor that no other delicacy could match.

The flavor was exceptionally natural and delightful, and it melted rapidly in his mouth.

Jackson Oneida, seeing him not speaking, couldn't help but softly call out. "Don't you like the taste?"

Oneida was afraid that Jackson might not like it and just walk away, so her tone revealed a hint of nervousness.

Finally, the silent Jackson responded, "It tastes really good."

It was much better than he had expected.

Only then did Oneida relax, her eyes curving into joyful smiles Chapter 231

NOV

Jackson's gaze suddenly fell on a dish.

It was a steamed fish.

The delightful aroma permeated the air, while the color was just perfect. Oneida noticed Jackson looking at this dish and felt slightly surprised. She specially prepared steamed fish for Jackson.

Because in her previous life, Jackson loved steamed fish the most

In their past lives, Jackson had even made this dish for Oneida.

Now, she presented the steamed fish right before Jackson.

The Second Act 232

Chapter 232

"Try this fish," Oneida said softly to Jackson, pursing her lips.

As a wave of nostalgia swept through her, she gently lowered her gaze, reflecting her deep emotions.

Oneida remembered, in her previous life, that it was on such an ordinary evening that Jackson made her this steamed fish

He told her it was his favorite dish and hoped she would enjoy it too.

However, back then, she didn't eat a single bite.

She didn't like him, so she didn't want to accept his flattery or eat the fish he cooked.

She had disregarded his feelings and disdained the steamed fish

Now, with time turned back, they lived another life. Oneida became the one cooking the fish.

She wondered if it was still Jackson's favorite dish.

Hearing Oneida's words, Jackson reached out with his fork, picked up a piece of fish, and put it into his mouth.

Oneida started studying his expression again.

Feeling her gaze, Jackson fleetingly hesitated, and he chewed a bit faster.

The steamed fish in his mouth tasted fresh and smooth, but not greasy.

Without a doubt, the fish was delicious.

However, Jackson didn't know why Oneida had made this dish.

Steamed fish had always been his favorite.

But few people knew that.

Did Oneida accidentally make this dish, or had she specifically gone out of her way to find out his preferences? Jackson's eyes narrowed, and a silent radiance shimmered across his remarkably handsome face.

Seeing his continued silence, Oneida felt uneasy.

"What's wrong?" Oneida asked with anxiety.

Jackson shook his head, saying calmly. "Nothing"

"It's delicious," Jackson added a moment later.

"Your cooking is surprisingly good," Jackson commented casually as he laid down his fork.

Oneida chuckled as she touched her neck. "I'm pretty good at cooking, though I don't do it often."

Actually, there was a time when she worked at the best restaurant in the country.

Back then, many people came specifically to taste her dishes.

So, Oneida's culinary skills were undoubtedly top-notch. It was just that she never really had a chance to display herself.

Chapter 232

NOV 28

Jackson stared at Oneida intently.

Perhaps it was because of the steamed fish, or maybe it was this meal.

Jackson felt a sense of being cherished.

Oneida cherished him.

His mood seemed to brighten, a sudden surge of joy bubbling up within him.

"I really like them," Jackson said calmly, his voice steady and his expression serene.

Hearing this, Oneida immediately flashed a bright smile and said, "Glad to hear that. Why don't you have more?"

Under the soft glow, Oneida's fair and tender cheeks seemed to radiate light, beautiful and dazzling.

Jackson's image was reflected in her eyes.

Jackson watched Oneida, falling silent for a moment.

For an instant, he almost believed that perhaps Oneida was quite fond of him.

"You..." Jackson suddenly wanted to ask something.

"Do you have a crush on someone?"

Out of the blue, Jackson asked such a question.

Hearing this, Oneida widened her eyes slightly

She felt somewhat uneasy and at a loss.

Jackson's intense gaze, like the fervent rays of the sun, made her skin flush red.

She pressed her lips together and remained silent.

Seeing her reaction, Jackson frowned.

Oneida looked weird now.

She appeared a bit guilty.

"Even if you do, it doesn't matter, Jackson said, his voice chilling slightly. "I won't mind."

However, when he said this, his eyes looked stern.

"It's not like that..." Oneida wanted to explain.

However, Jackson didn't give her a chance..

He personally forked a drumstick into her mouth.

"Mmm. Oneida, caught off guard, opened her eyes wide in surprise.

She was so adorable at this moment.

A fleeting smile quickly crossed Jackson's lips.

That smile was brief and shallow,

Chapter 282

It seemed that his previous displeasure had faded as well.

"Eat more," Jackson said softly, his eyes lowered.

Oneida simply obeyed and started to munch on the drumstick in her mouth.

Just like that, the sensitive topic was glossed over.

Both enjoyed their meal immensely.

They nearly cleaned up the whole table, leaving almost nothing wasted.

The next day, Oneida received a call from Rowan.

"Ongida, great news!" Rowan's voice quivered with great excitement and joy. "Have you heard about Roxanne?"

Oneida remained composed and asked, "Shouldn't Roxanne be at the police station?"

Rowan nodded and replied, "Exactly, and her parents came to school today to withdraw her enrollment."

Did Roxanne drop out?

That was something Oneida hadn't expected.

"So?" Oneida remained calm, her face betraying no emotion.

Rowan said with a smile, "Roxanne has dropped out, which frees up a spot in the Starlight Class. You were just one rank shy of making it to the class in the last ranking update. Now, you can fill that spot!

"You're going this time, right? Don't be foolish-It's Starlight Class, and we're talking about Rocket Class. If you pass up on this, I'll start to think you've lost your marbles," Rowan ranted, fearing Oneida would decline the class switch again. Hearing this, Oneida didn't seem to be happy or surprised.

It seemed, to her, an entirely expected development.

"I see," Oneida calmly responded, "I'll go to Starlight Class."

Rowan was overjoyed, grinning ear to ear.

There was actually a genius who had been promoted from her class to the esteemed Starlight Class

This was an unprecedented miracle for the Regular Class!

Speaking of which, this was also a feather in Rowan's cap, which could broaden her reputation.

Naturally, Rowan was ecstatic.

"Oneida, hurry over to the school. There are a few formalities you need to take care of before you can switch to Starlight Class," Rowan kindly advised, her voice filled with gentleness.

Oneida replied, "Got it," and hung up the phone.

Today, she was supposed to go to school anyway.

After all, having rested for so long, it was time to return to class

Oneida took the car of the Bane family, heading straight to the campus.

88%

Chapter 2:2

She first visited Rowan's office to complete the procedures for transferring into Starlight Class,

After that, she received a Star Medal.

It was a unique badge for the students in the Starlight Class

At Imperial Star University, the Star Medal symbolized status and rank.

Students in the Regular Class didn't get any badges.

Oneida had just achieved a rare distinction by receiving the prestigious one-in-a-thousand badge, indicating her imminent induction into the exclusive Starlight Class, a distinguished cohort of exceptional intellects. "Oneida, you can join the Starlight Class this afternoon. Do you want to say goodbye to your classmates?" Rowan reminded Oneida.

The Second Act 233

Chapter 233

The faces of Onrida's classmates in Regular Class flashed through her mind.

She had been at Imperial Star University for a period.

Some of her classmates in Regular Class were adorable.

Oneida was going to leave and didn't know whether she would have any contact with them in the future.

"Well, I'll say goodbye to them.

Oneida nodded and accepted Rowan's suggestion.

After Oneida left the office, she went straight to Regular Class A

The class was as lively as ever.

When Oneida walked into the classroom, there seemed to be a brief silence.

After the silence, it became livelier.

"Oneida, you're finally back!" someone shouted with a clear delight in his voice.

They hadn't seen Oneida for more than a month since she went to training

Oneida suddenly appeared. They were extremely happy.

"Oneida, I thought you wouldn't come to school" Howard came over and patted her on the shoulder.

There was a straightforward and warm smile on Howard's face.

"Oneida, I missed you so much. Suddenly, Oneida's arm was hooked

"We all know that you were It was Hillary who ran over. She still had cute short hair. She stared at Oneida with eager eyes. framed by Roxanne... Damn it. I didn't believe those rumors and went to the forum to speak for you, but I was scolded... Now the full story comes out and Roxanne has been punished. Im so happy for that."

Howard echoed, "That's right. Oneida gets everything through her strength. How dare they spread rumors?!"

Oneida listened to them quietly without any impatience on her face.

They were all her classmates.

She had never been to school in her previous life, including this life before she came to Imperial Star University.

She had always been self-learning.

She didn't need to go to schools or have teachers. With her super strong learning ability, she could always learn many things easily

Only when she came to Imperial Star University did she have "classmates" in a real sense.

Now, she was going to leave.

Oneida compressed her lips and smiled. She looked at Howard, Hillary, and the others in the classroom.

Hillary's expression changed. She shouted suddenly. "By the way, Oneida, your ranking has risen so much. Are you going to change class?"

Hearing this, the whole classroom fell into silence.

Their expressions all changed.

"Oneida, are you going to leave?" Howard frowned and looked reluctant to part with her.

Oneida nodded.

She said slowly and calmly. "You're right. I'm about to leave. I come here today to say goodbye."

Hearing this, Howard looked sad and said, "Oneida, what should I do if you leave? Oneida, you are my boss. I will have no backer anymore after you leave..."

Hillary was also sad and reluctant to part with Oneida.

She couldn't bear to part with Oneida,

But Hillary knew that it was a waste for a talent like Oneida to stay in Regular Class.

Oneida was a genius. She should be in a better class.

Even though Hillary was reluctant to part with Oneida, Hillary still held Oneida's palm and encouraged her, "Oneida, when you go to a new class in the future, you should continue to shine and let everyone know how good you are!" Hillary's words were sincere. Oneida nodded at her and said, "Okay."

All the other students felt sad.

Although they hated and disliked Oneida at first, now they had been conquered by the superb strength and personality charm of Oneida Unexpectedly, as soon as they liked Oneida, she was about to leave.

At this moment, Matthias, who sat in the last row, stared at Oneida with a poker face.

Matthias compressed his thin lips and looked gloomy.

Hearing the news that Oneida was leaving. Matthias felt shocked:

He knew that Oneida would not stay in Regular Class all the time and would go to a wider world.

He didn't expect this day to come so soon.

As Matthias was lost in thought, Oneida suddenly came over and sat down beside him.

Oneida greeted Matthias indifferently. "Hi, you have come to school finally."

Matthias clenched his fingers and nodded.

Oneida stared at him with a deep gaze and said seriously, "Matthias, I'm about to leave"

"I see. Matthias lowered his eyes with slender eyelashes. Matthias couldn't see her emotions.

Looking at his reaction, Oneida couldn't help but sigh slightly.

In the beginning, she approached Matthias with impure motives. She wanted to take advantage of him.

Chapter 213

But now, she had regarded lum as her friend.

ED

She opened her mouth and said, "Matthias, although others think you are a strange little monster, I know that you are at unique genius. After all, geniuses are always weird. I hope that you will show your talent instead of hiding it" Oneida smiled and added calmly. "I'll wait for you in Starlight Class, Matthias."

She knew that Matthias must have the strength to enter Starlight Class.

Whether he went to Starlight Class or not only depended on whether he wanted to.

A genius like Manhias shouldn't be buried.

Thus, she kindly reminded him.

When Matthias heard Oneida's words, Matthias' expression became stilted..

He looked at Oneida with burning eyes and didn't speak for a long time.

What Oneida had said was true.

Matthias had autism and disdained school activities.

Therefore, he had no scores and ranked low. He could only stay in Regular Class all the time.

He didn't care about that. There was no difference for him to be in which class

Now, he wanted to go to Starlight Class

Because Oneida was there.

Matthias was silent for a while. Finally, he replied, "Got it. I'll try my best to catch up with you."

Hearing that, Oneida smiled with relief.

She tidied up her things and slowly left Regular Class A under the reluctant gazes of the whole class.

She was going straight to Starlight Class.

Oneida thought, Those arrogant guys in Starlight Class didn't like me last time. Now, I will join them suddenly... "How will they react?"

Oneida was looking forward to seeing their reactions,

On the way to Starlight Class. Oneida passed by Rocket Class.

Rocket Class was second only to Starlight Class. The students in it were also proud and thought highly of themselves. When Oneida passed by, she was stared at by a group of Rocket Class students.

"A lowlife from Regular Class?"

Someone said sarcastically.

Oneida didn't have any badges on her body, and only the students in Regular Class in the whole school had no badges. "Why does a student from a Regular Class come here? It's bad luck to look at it!"

Chapter 234

Oneida ignored them and walked forward calmly.

"Damn it! Is she deaf?"

The students in Rocket Class were even more angry when they saw that Oneida was so calm.

"Hey, if you go further, it is the territory of Starlight Class. That's not where you should be!" Someone shouted at Oneida in an unusually harsh voice.

At this moment, Yuliana came from the other side of the corridor.

She just got back from the restroom.

Unexpectedly, she ran into Oneida

Seeing the calm and cold Oneida, Yuliana frowned fiercely.

Yuliana clenched her fists, gritted her teeth, and glared at Oneida.

Yuliana thought, 'Recently, our family is in a mess.

Wyatt has been in jail by Oneida. Dad hasn't slept well for several days. Mom was so angry that she was sent to the hospital....

However, Oneida looks fine

She calmly shows up in front of me.

How can she be so at ease?

Obviously, she is the one to blame!"

Oneida sensed the intense hostility exuded from Yuliana.

Oneida stopped and looked down at Yuliana,

Oneida smiled coldly and asked knowingly. "How are you doing recently?"

Yuliana clenched her fists more tightly.

Yuliana gritted her teeth and replied, "It's all because of you."

Oneida smiled more brightly, "You deserve it.

After saying this, Oneida walked past Yuliana and continued to walk forward.

Suddenly, Oneida's wrist was grabbed by Yuliana forcibly.

Suddenly, Yuliana reached out her hand and grabbed Oneida's arm.

Yuliana squinted her eyes with a trace of fierceness in her eyes. "Why are you in such a hurry? You're a lowlife from Regular Class but come to Rocket Class's territory. Do you want to leave easily? The school has always had an unwritten rule. Do you know what it is?" As soon as Yuliana said this, the expressions of the other students of Rocket Class immediately changed.

They smiled maliciously and looked at Oneida teasingly.

"We almost forgot that there, was a rule. If you don't fulfill it, you can't leave!" The crowd slowly gathered around Oneida and Surrounded her in the middle.

All the roads were blocked.

Oneida squinted at them coldly, with her back straight. She looked intimidating-

"What are you doing?"

Oneida looked at them coldly and asked indifferently.

Yuliana smiled. Her eyes were full of smugness. "You, such a lowlife, accidentally broke into Rocket Class's territory. You can't leave unless you do something for us."

After Yuliana finished speaking, the other students echoed and said, "That's right. You can't leave unless you do something

Yuliana raised her chin and said firmly. "You must have heard of it. Now that you are here, you must take out all the garbage in our class and clean the toilets on the whole floor... Otherwise, you can't leave!"

Others couldn't help laughing when they heard this.

Oneida narrowed her eyes and stood still.

This so-called unwritten rule was the oppression of higher classes on lower classes.

Rocket Class had a high status and could arbitrarily bully the Regular Class.

Moreover, most of the students of Regular Class would not resist, which made Rocket Class more arrogant.

This kind of bad habit in the school must have existed for a long time.

However, it happened to happen to Oneida today.

Oneida looked at the arrogant faces of Yuliana and others, a trace of coldness flashed in Oneida's eyes.

"What if I refuse?"

Oneida said these words word by word in an intimidating gaze.

Hearing this, Yuliana sneered coldly, "Are you qualified to refuse? No one has ever had the guts to refuse. Rocket Class is qualified to order you around! Do you think the school will offend the geniuses of Rocket Class for the losers of Regular Class?" Hearing this, the others looked at Oneida as if she was a fool.

They thought. This loser of the Regular Class is stupid. She is not clear about it or plays the fool!"

Someone ordered Oneida, "Cut the crap. Go take out the garbage and clean the toilets! Later, we will go to check your results!"

Someone in the crowd even reached out and pushed Oneida forward.

Oneida was caught off guard.

Oneida leaned straight forward and took a step forward.

In an instant, a pungent stench came to her face.

It turned out that the toilet was not far away.

08:17 Thu, Nov 28

Chapter 231

Oneida frowned imperceptibly, and a trace of disgust flashed her eyes.

888%

A boy shouted in her car, "What are you waiting for? Go into the toilet! Do you want us to bring you in? His tone was full of апоране.

Yuliana also said coldly, "Oneida, Ladvice you to be wise. There are so many of us, but you're alone. You can't defeat us. Do you understand?"

At this moment, many students passing by couldn't help but stop to watch the scene.

However, no one had the guts to stand up for justice,

After all, this kind of thing was common in Imperial Star University

It was the hidden dark side of Imperial Star University.

The geniuses of Starlight Class and Rocket Class had hierarchical control over other students. As long as they didn't go too far, the school would ignore it even if they bullied the students of Regular Class, They thought. The beleaguered girl seems to be in Regular Class.

What a poor girl. She is being targeted by Rocket Class! Meanwhile, Oneida, who was in the center of the crowd, stood still.

It seemed that she didn't have any intention of cleaning the toilets.

"Alright! You're so stubborn and unwilling to do it, right?" Seeing that she didn't take any action, they were furious.

They scolded her loudly.

At this moment, Yuliana suddenly reached out to grab Oneida's hair and drag her into the toilet.

However, Oncida had sensed Yuliana's movement.

Oneida dodged Yuliana's hand.

Then, she kept a short distance from the crowd.

She looked at them face to face with a cold face.

Oneida looked at them indifferently and said coldly. "Now that Rocket Class can bully Regular Class at will, can Starlight Class also bully your Rocket Class?"

the others fell i

Hearing this, a trance.

Then they burst into laughter.

"That's right. It is my honor to be bullied by the genius of Starlight Class!"

"If Starlight Class is willing to order me around, I'll be happy!"

"We can't afford to mess with students from Starlight Class, but you're just a student from Regular Class. Stop talking nonsense. Do you want to stall for time?"

Hearing that Oneida mentioned Starlight Class, Yuliana couldn't help but snort coldly, "Who do you think you are? How dare you mention Starlight Class? Go and clean your toilet!" Oneida smiled calmly.

The Second Act 235

Chapter 235

However, Oneida's eyes were full of coldness.

Instead of speaking, she reached into her pocket and took out a tall object

The others instantly fixed their eyes on it.

Oneida put this thing in her palm and spread her hand out in front of them. This was a badge.

It was a shiny star badge.

This was a unique symbol for the students of Starlight Class!

Seeing this, everyone couldn't help but widen their eyes in surprise.

Seeing this badge, Yuliana was dumbfounded.

Yuliana blinked and thought, Is this the badge of Starlight Class

"It's the badge of Starlight Class

How can it be possible?

Why does Oneida have it?

Where does she come from?"

Yuliana's classmates nearby also began to look at each other and talk in a low voice.

"Did I make a mistake? Is that a starlight badge on her hand?"

"I've seen the starlight badge once. It looks like this.... How can she have it?"

"Well... What's going on? I feel confused..."

Oneida took her hand back and pinned the badge on her clothes.

She stood upright, like a king who overlooked everything. She looked intimidating and arrogant.

Oneida said with a faint smile, "I just forgot to wear my badge. There was a bitter cold in her clear eyes.

She tilted her head and said coldly, "I'm a student of Starlight Class now...."

"So can I bully you?"

She looked at the people in front of her sharply.

Being watched by Oneida like this, Yuliana and the cold all over and almost wanted to shiver

Oneida looked at them with her arms crossed and sneered, "What? Don't you say anything?"

Yuliana rubbed her fingers and said, "When did you enter Starlight Class?"

08:17 Thu, Nov 28W7

Chapter 233

Yuliana didn't believe t

Yuliana thought, "After so many years of studying hard at Imperial Star University, I finally have gotten into Rocket Class.

However, Oneida has just studied at Imperial Star University and started from Regular Class. How can she enter Starlight Class so soon!! "This is almost impossible.

In the history of Imperial Star University, there has never been a case where students from Regular Classes are promoted to Starlight Class.

"No matter how hard the students in Regular Class study, they will only be admitted to Rocket Class.

The students can't get into Starlight Class just by studying hard. It requires talent!"

When Yuliana thought of this, Yuliana's expression suddenly became tense.

Yuliana narrowed her eyes and stared at Oneida fiercely. "You are a student from Regular Class. How can you suddenly enter Starlight Class? Don't lie to me. Even if you want to lie, don't tell such unrealistic lies, okay?" Hearing this, the others were reminded.

They thought, Yuliana is right.

"How can this guy be from Starlight Class?

"If it is so easy to get into Starlight Class, will it still be Starlight Class?!

"We were just bluffed by a starlight badge, but we forgot to think about whether it was reasonable or not.

"Her Starlight Badge must be fake!

Someone sneered, "What does your badge stand for? We don't know if this badge is real or not."

Hearing this, the other students couldn't help but say, "That's right. If you enter Starlight Class, it will be announced to the whole school!"

"I didn't expect you to be so brave. How dare you pretend to be a student of Starlight Class? You're good at acting. However, the fake won't be true no matter how good your acting is!"

"Shame on you! How dare you dream of Starlight Class? Do you deserve it?"

"I was almost fooled by you, Where did you get this badge? The imitation is quite similar..

Yuliana smiled happily.

Yuliana never expected that Oneida would lie and brag like this..

Yuliana thought, 'Oneida pretends to be a student of Starlight Class, which is too easy to see through....

'Oneida looks smart sometimes, but this time she is stupid

Oneida had expected that they wouldn't believe it.

She had just gone through the formalities of being transferred to Starlight Class. It had not been publicized in the whole school.

08:17 Thu, Nov 28.

Chapter 235

@88%

Therefore, most of the people didn't know that Oneida had been transferred to Starlight Class, except for Oneida, related teachers, and Oneida's classmates in Regular Class A. Oneida narrowed her eyes slightly, looked down at the starlight badge on her clothes, and said in a low voice, "My badge is real"

Reall

Hearing this, they sneered again.

Yuliana smiled more wildly. She stared at Oneida disdainfully and said in a mocking tone, "How dare you say that? Well, even if your badge is real, it can have been stolen by you. It's hard to enter Starlight Class, but it's not difficult to steal a starlight badge. After saying that, Yuliana couldn't help laughing.

Seeing that Oneida fell into trouble, Yuliana was extremely happy.

Yuliana thought, 'Oneida has turned my family upside down. I hope she will have a hard time!

The others couldn't help laughing after hearing Yuliana's words.

They looked at Oneida with contempt.

Those onlookers who passed by didn't move for a long time and stayed around.

After all, the situation was even more surprising.

They wanted to know the result.

Unexpectedly, a Regular Class student who looked ordinary at first suddenly took out her starlight badge and claimed that she was from Starlight Class!

Now, there was another reversal. This badge may have been stolen...

It was amazing.

At this time, Oneida was still surrounded by Rocket Class students.

A boy beside Yuliana questioned Oneida with an unkind look, "Hey, did you steal this badge?"

Another person said with a smile, "Well, maybe we have done something good by accident. We catch a thief and return the badge to the real owner!"

Someone yelled at Oneida, "Be sensible and give us your badge. Then go clean the toilets!"

Oneida looked at them calmly. Her white and soft cheeks were covered by the faint light. She looked cold and proud.

She sneered and was about to say something

Suddenly, a burst of clear footsteps sounded behind them.

Their attention was attracted.

It was a tall and handsome man in a pure black suit.

With a folder in his hand, he looked calm and cold.

Elliott glanced at them casually.

Then, he looked at Oneida in the center of the crowd coldly.

Elliott narrowed his eyes, paused for a moment, suddenly turned around, and walked towards them.

Several students of Rocket Class, including Yuliana, squatted in place with fear and did not have the guts to breathe heavily. Because the man was Elliott.

Elliott, the youngest and most elite professor at Imperial Star University, was also the head teacher of the Starlight Class of grade 2.

He had great prestige and power in the whole Imperial Star University.

It was said that he was cold and harsh. He treated his students mercilessly.

Therefore, most of the students respected and feared him.

His reputation was so prestigious that Rocket Class students had heard of him.

With Elliott's sudden appearance, they were terrified and not as arrogant as before. They obediently watched Elliott coming

Oneida didn't know Elliott.

She had just arrived at Imperial Star University, so she didn't know many people.

It seemed that Elliott wasn't a man to be trifled with.

"Oneida, why are you here?" Elliott came up to Oneida and stopped.

He lowered his head and stared at Oneida in front of him with deep and narrow eyes. A polite smile appeared on his solemn and indifferent face. Oneida frowned.

She didn't say anything but looked at him carefully.

The students of Rocket Class, including Yuliana, widened their eyes in surprise.

They wondered how Elliott knew Oneida.

They might not be able to meet a professor like Elliott, let alone be remembered by him!

But Elliott called Oneida by name. He knew Oneida!

How could a famous elite professor know a student of Regular Class?

It was ridiculous.

Oneida didn't understand why Elliott knew her name.

Elliott saw through Oneida's thoughts and explained with a faint smile, "I've seen your profile. There is your name and photo on it. I'm in charge of the Starlight Class. You will be a new member of this class. Please study harder!" 1/4

Elliott looked at them with a fake smile. His eyes flashed with coldness. "I will talk to your head teacher."

Hearing this, they were shocked.

Elliott's meaning was obvious.

Elliott would complain to their head teacher, and they would be punished.

"Mr. Smith, we didn't do anything..." Yuliana clenched her fingers with a pale face. She explained anxiously and tried to make up for it.

Hearing this, others began to plead for mercy, "Mr. Smith, we just had a little conflict with this classmate... We just quarreled with her. We didn't do anything... Nothing happened."

"That's right. Look at her. She is still fine. We didn't do anything to her..." Hearing this, Elliott didn't change his expression and remained indifferent. He compressed his lips. There was a trace of impatience in his eyes. Elliott suddenly interrupted them, "I only believe what I saw."

He said in a powerful tone with overwhelming pressure.

Yuliana and the others were frightened.

They did want to bully and humiliate Oneida at first, but they failed.

Elliott was too cold and wouldn't show any mercy.

After Elliott said that, he didn't say anything.

He turned to look at Oneida and smiled, "Oneida, I'm going to the classroom first. You've just been transferred to my class. It doesn't matter if you don't come today." Seeing that he had just helped her out, Oneida had a good impression of him.

She nodded at Elliott and smiled in return.

Then Elliott left.

Oneida and several students of Rocket Class looked at each other

Of course, the passers-by who were not far away didn't leave.

Just now, they witnessed Elliott help Oneida out in person.

It not only proved that Oneida was a student of Starlight Class, but also taught the Rocket Class students a lesson for Oneida!

This reversal was so exciting.

They couldn't help whispering excitedly.

However, the faces of the students of Rocket Class were all deadly pale.

Bring hated by Elliott, they were in trouble.

Hearing this, Oneida understood.

It turned out that he was the head teacher of Starlight Class.

Oneida moved her lips and replied faintly, "I see, sir."

The people around them looked at the scene stiffly.

It was unbelievable.

Oneida didn't lie!

She really became a student of Starlight Class!

That star badge was also real...

Just now, they questioned and ridiculed Oneida. Now it seemed that it was simply a big joke! They were embarrassed...

However, this was too unreasonable!

How the hell did Oneida get into Starlight Class?

The students of Rocket Class couldn't squeeze in, but she did it as a Regular Class student.

Unbelievable!

It could only be described as unbelievable.

Elliott nodded to Oneida.

Then he looked at the surrounding students coldly. His gaze became cold, and his expression became serious. His whole body suddenly showed a somewhat cold temperament. Being stared at by Elliott, Yuliana and the others were so scared that they almost held their breath.

It was so terrifying.

Elliott was so intimidating.

They subconsciously compressed their lips. Their expression became stiff. Their palms were covered with cold sweat.

Someone greeted him with a shivering voice, "Mr. Smith..."

The others also looked frightened. They all stared at Elliott carefully.

Elliott smiled and asked calmly, "What were you doing around Oneida?"

Hearing this, they all gasped.

They thought, 'We're screwed.

'Elliott must have seen it.

'He has seen how we bullied Oneida...

When they thought of this, the faces of Yuliana and the others a turned pale. Their bodies stiffened. They were so scared that they couldn't say a word.

They were reluctant to make a big deal out of it and be punished

Yuliana was reluctant to beg Oneida...

This was equivalent to throwing her dignity on the ground and trampling it!

However, the only one who could help her get through this was Oneida....

Yuliana thought, I'm unlucky that Elliott suddenly appeared here.

Oneida glanced at them calmly and looked indifferent. "Bear your own mistakes."

She said firmly, "It didn't happen, so you didn't hurt me?"

After saying this, Oneida fixed her eyes on Yuliana. Oneida narrowed her eyes slightly and said coldly, "Yuliana, do you still remember..."

"On the first day I came to Imperial Star University, we made a bet."

Hearing this, Yuliana fell into a trance.

Then Yuliana thought of something and widened her eyes in surprise.

You..." She gasped and froze.

Oneida looked at Yuliana condescendingly as if Yuliana was an insignificant ant. "You said that you would drop out of Imperial Star University if I could enter Starlight Class. Do you remember this?"

As soon as Oneida finished speaking, the students of Rocket Class couldn't help but change their expressions.

They looked at Yuliana with complicated expressions and wanted to say something but stopped.

How could Yuliana brag like that?!

But it wasn't strange...

Who would have thought that a student from Regular Class who had just studied at Imperial Star University could be promoted to Starlight Class in such a short time?

When Yuliana made this bet, she never thought that such a day would come...

After all, it was incredible.

Yuliana subconsciously took a step back, and her face was pale with panic.

Yuliana bit her lip hard. There was helplessness and depression in her eyes. Unexpectedly, Oneida still remembers this...

Yuliana almost forgot about it!

That was the first day Oneida came to Imperial Star University, and it was also the first time Yuliana met Oneida...

Yuliana said so casually.

Unexpectedly, Oneida still remembered it!

What was worse, Oneida did it!

Class!...

Oneida got into Starlight Class...

Yuliana was lost in thought.

Yuliana thought, 'No.

'I can't drop out of Imperial Star University.

'If I drop out of Imperial Star University, my efforts in the past two years will be in vain!

'What's worse, I will become the laughingstock of countless people!*

Yuliana managed to calm herself down. She stared at Oneida and played the fool.

"What do you mean?"

She chuckled in a low voice. Her tone was full of sarcasm. "Why didn't I know that I said so?"

"Are you having a delusional episode? Are you mistaken?"

Yuliana had made up her mind and refused to admit it.

Yuliana thought, 'I just said it casually.

'Why do I have to admit it?

Moreover, even if I said so, I still have the right to go back on my word and not fulfill it.

"This kind of verbal bet has no legal effect!"

The more Yuliana thought about it, the tougher she became. She didn't need to be afraid.

Oneida looked at Yuliana coldly and calmly.

She had expected that Yuliana wouldn't admit it.

Yuliana's reaction and words were all to Oneida's expectations.

"It doesn't matter if you don't admit it." A meaningful smile appeared on Oneida's face, and there was a cold light in her eyes. "I will let you admit it."

After saying this, Oneida didn't stay any longer but turned and left.

"Hello, wait a minute."

At this time, several students approached and blocked Oneida's way.

Someone held a microphone. Someone carried a camera. They all looked at Oneida with smiles on their faces.

"Hi, we are from the school TV station." A dignified and beautiful girl put the microphone in front of Oneida with a friendly smile on her face. "I heard that you were promoted from Regular Class to Starlight Class. Can we interview you?" Oneida frowned slightly.

She wanted to refuse.

However, in an instant, she changed her mind.

"OK."

"Excuse me, how did you upgrade from Regular Class to Starlight Class in such a short time? Do you know that no students from Regular Classes have ever done this before? You're the first: Can you pass on your experience?"

Hearing this, Oneida smiled cynically and confidently, "I don't have much experience. I got into Starlight Class probably because..."

"I'm also a genius..."

Oneida's words were arrogant and simple.

Hearing this, all the interviewees were stunned.

Oneida looked calm and indifferent, but what she said was quite arrogant!

When they fell into a trance, Oneida took the initiative to approach the microphone and said with her eyebrows narrowed, "By the way, I want to tell you one more thing. I don't think that the students of Starlight Class and Rocket Class are born to be noble and that the students of Regular Class are losers. Everyone is equal. We all have a responsibility to resist school bullying

After saying this, Oneida passed the crowd, turned around, and left.

She walked away coolly.

Only the people in the TV station were left with a surprised look.

How characteristic Oneida was!

Oneida was reluctant to be interviewed.

However, when she thought about what she had just experienced, she felt obliged to speak up for it.

It was time to break the bad habits of Imperial Star University.

How many students were bullied and suppressed by the advanced classes and dared not resist?

These students needed someone to speak up for them.

Oneida's interview soon appeared on the campus TV station of Imperial Star University.

Once it was played, it caused the shock of the whole Imperial Star University.

Some people were shocked. After all, Oneida was a student who had just transferred to Imperial Star University Regular Class. It took only one or two months for her to get into Starlight Class. This was incredible!

Some people liked to talk about Oneida's personality. Oneida was calm and arrogant in front of the camera. She was cool and intimidating.

Oneida was not only inspirational but also characteristic!

Many people were attracted by Oneida's personality, which brought a lot of fans to her.

Of course, what shocked countless people was what Oneida said at last.

Those words resonated with many people.

They had no way to talk about these things, and the school had never given them justice.

It could only be taken as an acquiescent rule.

And they could only bear it in silence.

But now, someone spoke out for them!

Chapter 238

Someone stood out to speak for them bravely!

This made many students of the Regular Class and the Elite Class excited.

The whole campus was talking about it.

Oneida made a name for herself because of this interview.

Soon, even Xavier had watched that interview.

Hearing what Oneida said, Xavier was first surprised and then a little speechless.

In the end, he was furious.

He didn't expect that there would be so much common bullying at Imperial Star University.

Moreover, no one had ever reported this kind of thing over the years, so he knew nothing about it.

If Oneida hadn't exposed it through the TV station, he probably would never have known it.

Xavier felt that he had to do something.

This kind of horrible phenomenon should absolutely be resisted.

Therefore, Xavier immediately contacted Imperial Star TV Station and was about to make a speech on TV in person.

The speech was prerecorded by the TV station and then broadcast throughout the school.

Therefore, after Oneida's interview shocked the whole school, Xavier's TV speech immediately caught everyone's attention again.

Xavier appeared in front of the camera in a suit. His expression was calm and serious, and his tone was stern. "About the bullying problem in school that you have been discussing recently, I would like to apologize. It's my dereliction of duty to

"Therefore, I'm thinking about how to change this situation. Don't worry, guys. If you are bullied by students in advanced classes afterward, please feel free to report it to us. I'll send someone to handle it. In the future, if you see such a thing, you should also boycott it instead of quietly bearing it."

This TV speech spread all over the campus.

No one had expected that even Xavier had seen Oneida's interview and even responded to it.

Everyone found it so incredible.

Oneida's interview and Xavier's speech trended on campus.

People all considered Oneida a superfighter who broke bad customs and dared to challenge authority.

She not only spoke for victims but also promoted this issue to be effectively resolved.

If it weren't for Oneida, Xavier wouldn't have noticed it.

If it weren't for Oneida, Xavier wouldn't have solved it.

Therefore, Oneida was a heroine!

She broke the bad customs of Imperial Star University and spoke for many students, attracting attention to this problem.

Many people were sincerely grateful to Oneida for what she said in front of the camera.

In the campus forum, countless posts about Oneida appear on the front page.

Everyone was discussing excitedly on the forum, while Oneida was standing under a tree and hiding in the shade leisurely.

She didn't go to the Starlight Class, but leaned against the tree and looked at her phone.

She was looking at the chat group on her phone.

It was Regular Class A's chat group. Oneida had been added to it long ago, but she hadn't said anything in there.

At this moment, she finally texted something in the chat group.

[Hello, everyone. I need your help with something.]

As soon as she sent that, the heated chat group was stunned.

No one had expected Oneida to suddenly join them.

Oneida looked at the screen and continued to text after they all finished texting.

[It's not that difficult. When it succeeds, I will send gifts to everyone.]

Hearing that, they became more excited.

[Oneida, you don't need to give us gifts. We will try our best to help you.]

[That's so nice of you, Oneida.]

[It's not a big deal. We'll still help you even if there's no gift!]

But Oneida insisted.

She texted: [It's not only for this matter but also your care on me these months. I hope you guys can accept my gifts.]

Seeing this, everyone was moved.

The students of Regular Class A finally realized what a great person Oneida

Oneida briefly told them what she needed their help for in the chat group.

Everyone agreed at once.

Then Oneida stopped looking at the chat group.

Later, she logged into the campus forum and posted a post in person. The title was:

Oneida couldn't help smiling as she typed the title.

She didn't expect that she would also attack someone online one day.

She knew that people wouldn't believe her. It was time for the people she had arranged to show up.

[I'm a student from Regular Class A. The two of them made a bet at the door of the classroom back then. I can prove it!]

This reply changed the skeptical situation.

[If you don't believe me, I can show you my school badge.]

Then this person posted a photo of a school badge.

In the photo, it was really an Imperial Star University's school badge.

That person's name and photo had been covered, leaving only the words "Regular Class A".

Seeing this, everyone was shocked.

They thought, 'So what the original poster said was true?'

'Yuliana really has made a bet with Oneida?'

Then other students of Regular Class A replied. They all said that what the original poster said was true. When Yuliana and Oneida made the bet, the whole class saw and heard it. And they were indeed students of Regular Class A.

This was what Oneida went to the chat group and asked them to help her with just now.

To be her free trolls on the forum.

To testify for her that Yuliana had really made a bet.

With so many witnesses and so much evidence, other students who were reading the post could only believe it.

[Yuliana really made such a bet with Oneida. I'd like to see whether she will fulfill it or not.]

[She has to drop out of school. After all, she said it herself. As an adult, she should be responsible for what she said.]

[It'll be awkward if Yuliana doesn't drop out of school.]

[Although I don't want Yuliana to drop out, since that would be too pitiful, after all, she still has to give Oneida an explanation. She can't just keep silent.]

[Yuliana is so silly. How could she bet on dropping out? She must haven't seen this coming. LOL!]

Oneida's revelation was not over yet. She continued.

[In fact, Oneida and Yuliana have already met after it was sure that Oneida would join the Starlight Class. Guess what Yuliana did?]

Oneida's words made everyone curious.

In the video, Yuliana was like a fierce shrew. She called Oneida a ragtag with an arrogant tone and a disdainful look.

She didn't take Oneida seriously at all and even wanted to bully her.

Fortunately, Elliott showed up in the end and helped Oneida.

This video was about what just happened at the door of the classroom of the Rocket Class.

It was difficult for normal people not to be angry when they saw the video.

Elliott kept his promise. He told the head teacher of the Rocket Class about what happened.

Those students were immediately called into their head teacher's office. They not only were scolded badly but also got demerits, and their points were also deducted. Yuliana almost cried.

Chapter 240

After all, it was hilarious.

Yuliana didn't care who threw the rotten egg. Instead, she fled away from the scene in panic.

She kept running.

However, she still felt being stared at no matter where she went

They were all pointing at her and talking about her.

Someone even shouted at her, "Drop out immediately!"

Yuliana felt as if she had entered a siege full of devils. People here were all devils and all meant ill for her.

She bit her lip with tears gushing out of her eyes.

She rushed into the school woods in a daze and then suddenly tripped over something.

Then she fell to the ground.

She almost cried out in pain.

Yuliana reached out her hand and patted the ground angrily.

She thought, 'Damn it!

Misfortunes never come alone!*

Yuliana couldn't stop crying. She sat on the ground in despair and frustration for a long while.

She thought, 'I really can't stay at Imperial Star University anymore.

'Everyone seems to have known what I did.

'No one supports or agrees with me. They all hate me!

'I can't stay here no matter how shameless I am.

'But I don't wanna just drop out like this.

'What should I do?'

Tears kept gushing out. Yuliana could only vent her emotions by crying.

Meanwhile, Oneida had already logged out of the campus forum.

She had already achieved her goal.

Under such a situation, even if Yuliana wouldn't drop out of school, she would still suffer while studying here. Oneida checked the time, walked out of the shade, and went to the classroom of the Starlight Class.

In the meantime, students of the Regular Class A had also received Oneida's gifts.

Everyone received a box of expensive and beautifully packaged chocolate from a famous brand.

Oneida asked Simon to prepare these.

Chapter 240

She went back to the classroom of the Starlight Class. As soon as she entered the classroom, many people immediately turned to look at her.

It was break time. Some students were standing and some were sitting, but they were all looking at Oneida.

They had just heard the news.

Oneida would replace Roxanne and join the Starlight Class.

Their attitudes toward it were very complicated. Some people didn't care about it, some were happy, some disdained it, and some disliked it. Some people even thought that Oneida deliberately drove Roxanne out with some tricks to get herself this opportunity,
