

The Second Act: Revenge

Chapter 26

“Awesome! You’re

‘re freaking cool. You’re the real boss”

“Boss, where do you learn your · basketball skill? Tell us, please.”

“Holy moly, are your a monster?”

Oneida did not answer. She just smiled lightly and then walked past them to the edge of the court.

“Oneida, are you thirsty?” Suddenly, a bottle of mineral water appeared in front of her.

alwater was

The person holding the mineral was the short-haired girl who had just spoken ill of her.

“By the way, my name is Hillary.” Hillary’s face completely changed at that moment. Hillary Coop looked at Oneida with a smile, and her eyes oven flashed with a trace of flattering. She said, “I was too angry. I’m sorry. I really admire you now!”

Oneida did not refuse.

She raised her hand, took the mineral water from Hillary, and answered coolly, “Thanks.”

Then she continued to walk away with the mineral water.

Hillary excitedly grabbed the girl’s wrist behind her and almost screamed as she said, “Darn it! She’s so cool!” She bit her lips and continued, “Oh, I think I’m going to fall for her...”

The girl behind her suddenly widened her eyes and exclaimed, “Hillary, that’s a dangerous statement.”

Oneida walked into the stands.

Suddenly, she felt a cold gaze fall on her

She looked up.

It turned out that Matthias was looking at her.

The handsome young man stared at her motionlessly with invisible emotions in his eyes.

Oneida curled her lips slightly, and a faint smile appeared on her innocent and beautiful face.

Perhaps because of her smile, Matthias, who was expressionless, was stunned for a moment.

At the same time, a post appeared on Imperial Star University's campus forum.

Come, take a look at our Imperial Star University's new campus belle. I guarantee that she is a top-notch beauty. If she doesn't look nice, you can hit me!

Then, the original poster posted several photos of Oneida on the basketball court.

The casual pure black sportswear perfectly matched her tanned skin.

She was tall and voluptuous. Although she was voluptuous, her figure was well-shaped.

The simple high ponytail made her look youthful and energetic, and her mesmerizingly beautiful appearance was dazzling.

Those photos immediately caused a sensation.

[Indeed. She's a top-notch beauty!]

After school, Oneida returned to the mansion in Quakersville.

Lucas and Tatiana were not at home, and Edmund was doing his homework alone in the room.

He was a Grade 12 student. It was the most nervous period for him at the moment.

The door was not closed.

Oneida saw the boy in a white shirt sitting upright at the desk, frowning in annoyance.

She paused, then simply knocked on the door and softly asked, "Which one do you not understand?"

Hearing that, Edmund raised his eyes, looked at Oneida, and wondered, "What does she mean? Is she offering to teach me?"

After their first meeting, Edmund had less rejection of Oneida, but he was just like everyone else who thought that Oneida was an uneducated country bumpkin.

He doubted that Oneida could understand his homework.

Edmund did not want Oneida to get involved, so he answered perfunctorily, "Nothing. I can handle it myself"

Unexpectedly, Oneida came over directly. Seeing the questions on his paper, she said faintly, "Solid geometry?"

Chapter 27

Edmund did not expect Oneida to know about "solid geometry" in mathematics.

He thought it must be a coincidence.

Yes.” Edmund answered.

“In fact, this question should be solved like this...” Oneida said the solution without pausing.

She said it in a very easy and understandable way, and Edmund immediately understood it.

He wrote the answer according to Oneida’s way. He was very happy.

After all, this solid geometry question was said to be unsolvable, and even the teacher could only answer half of it.

The teacher assigned the question to them as an interesting assignment, and he did not expect them to find out the answer.

Now, Oneida had easily solved this extremely difficult math question.

Thinking of this, Edmund looked up at Oneida with confusion in his eyes. “How do you know this?”

Oneida replied meaningfully with an indifferent expression, “I know a lot.”

Edmund stared straight at her.

His expression froze.

He thought Oneida seemed to be very different from the rumors.

She was mysterious, confident, and friendly to Edmund,

“Oneida...” Edmund suddenly called her, with a faint glint in his eyes. “Thank you.”

Oneida smiled at him and left the room.

This scene happened to be seen by Jennifer, who just came home from school.

She widened her eyes and rushed to Edmund’s room angrily.

“Edmund, what did Oneida just do in your room?” Jennifer asked angrily.

Edmund glanced at her and was slightly confused. “She taught me how to solve a math question.”

Jennifer sneered and said ironically,
“Stop lying. Can she even understand your math question?”

“She really can...” Edmund replied in a low voice.

Jennifer’s anger surged in an instant. “What? How are you on Oneida’s side so soon? Don’t you want me?”

Edmund felt that Jennifer was a little unreasonable. He frowned and said, “Aren’t both of you my sisters?”

er teeth. “We grew up together. She is just a country bumpkin who has just returned.”

“There’s a difference... Jennifer almost gritted her

Her words made Edmund’s eyes darken. He suddenly said in a serious tone, “Jennifer, don’t say things like that.”

Jennifer was stunned and her eyes also went dumb.

Edmund had never spoken to her like this. She clenched her fists and

Then Jennifer walked out of the room without looking back

Edmund frowned slightly.

He felt that Jennifer seemed to be different from before.

She said angrily, “Good I think you don’t want me anymore!”

In Edmund’s memory, she was gentle, generous, and considerate. He wondered why she appeared so unreasonable today.

Jennifer returned to her room angrily,

She cursed inwardly, “Damn it!”

Since Oneida came back, everything had gone wrong.

Today, Jennifer was forced to apologize, and her points were deducted,

Edmund, who she had grown up with since childhood, was about to be taken away!

At that moment, Tatiana walked into Jennifer's room. Seeing Jennifer's bad expression, she could not help asking worriedly, "Jenn, what's wrong with you?"

Jennifer bit her lip and said with an aggrieved look, "Mom, will you continue to treat me well in n the future?"

Tatiana's heart softened because of Jennifer's poor look.

"I've told you many times....It won't affect your position in my heart after Oneida's return." Tatiana hurriedly comforted Jennifer with a gentle look. "You will always be my daughter."

Hearing this, Jennifer calmed down a little.

Tatiana said in Jennifer's ear, "Okay, let me tell you something serious, I just came back from the manor, Nathan and Hazel meant that they can't let Oneida come back without any explanations, and they will hold a welcome party for her."

"It has nothing to do with me... Jennifer was not interested.

"Nathan said he would invite Jackson from the Bane family to the welcome party to discuss your marriage."

Chapter 28

Jennifer's face suddenly turned pale upon hearing Jackson's name

She grabbed Tatiana's arm and said in a trembling voice, "Mom, I don't want. I don't want to marry him, I heard he is a disabled person in a wheelcha and ugly Tabiana freezed in a dilemma, "I don't want this to happen either. But this is an engagement niade by Nathan, and he would never break it the Pane family is the richest in Hes trya. Even if we want to break the engagement, we have to think of the consequences of offending the Bane family

The engagement was agreed upon before Jennifer was born,

Lucas was not talented or smart, but he was lucky.

More than a decade ago, he climbed the famous mountain in Jeabron, the Fallen Mountain, alone and met an old man who accidentally sprained his leg on the mountain

Seeing the old man sitting on the ground alone with a painful look, Lucas carried him down the mountain without hesitation and sent him to the hospital

Unexpectedly, this old man was the famous Lionel Banel

In order to thank Lucas, Lionel promised a marriage of convenience.

If Lucas gave birth to a daughter in the future, she would be Lionel's fourth grandson's wife.

Why would it be the fourth grandson?

This was because Lionel's son was too ridiculous. His other sons and daughter were all illegitimate children. Only Jackson was born to his legal wife.

Therefore, although Jackson ranked fourth, he was the purest grandson of the Bane family and the most righteous heir of the Bane family.

Later, when Nathan heard the news, he was so happy that he immediately made an agreement with Lionel.

This was an extreme fortune for the Chaser family.

After all, the Bane family was the richest in Hestrya, Although the Chaser family was powerful, they could not get close to the Bane family.

If it had not been for this engagement, the woman from the Chaser family would not have been qualified to marry into the Bane family.

However, there had been more and more rumors about Jackson in recent years.

For example, there were rumors that he was cold, kept to himself, disabled for life, and could only live in a wheelchair. Some also said he looked ugly, and children would be scared when they saw him....

Someone even said that Jackson was not good in bed.

The Chaser family did not believe the rumors at first, but Jackson was mysterious and hardly showed up on any occasion. If there was no problem, why was it necessary to hide like this?

They slowly began to believe the rumors.

At first, they thought they had taken a big advantage, but they did not expect it to be a trap!

“Mom, if I marry Jackson, what else can I hope to live?” Jennifer bit her lip, and her eyes were wet. She looked like she was about to cry. pushing me into the trap?”

Besides, she had Christopher...

She and Christopher grew up together and were childhood friends.

They both understood each other's hearts, but due to this engagement with the Bane family, neither of them took the initiatives to confess or ask for a

“I don't want you to marry such a man..... Tatiana sighed, and her eyes were full of helplessness and sadness: “But.

Jennifer's eyes suddenly lit up. “Mom, how about Oneida? Speaking of which, she is your biological daughter. It's right for her to fulfil the engagement “Oneida...” Tatiana was stunned for a moment, and then she shook her head and said, “The Bane family will definitely not like a woman like her and let her marry into the Bane family!”

Nonetheless, Jennifer did not give up. “So what if the Bane family doesn't like her? She is the biological daughter of the Chaser family, and the engagement is hers. Besides, if you tell the Bane family I'm in poor health, they may not like me...”

Chapter 29

Jennifer was indeed in poor health. She had almost incurable aplastic anemia since she was a child.

Now, she could only maintain her health by taking medicine. If her condition deteriorated, she would only receive blood transfusions.

Unfortunately, Jennifer had a rare blood type, so it was best not to have a blood transfusion.

Hearing this, Tatiana thought Jennifer's words made sense. She thought, "Jennifer is in poor health. If she marries a disabled person, how can she live?"

"You're right." Tatiana nodded. She patted Jennifer on the shoulder. "I'll find a way to tell Nathan..."

On the night of the weekend, the welcome party of the Chaser family was held at the manor.

The welcome party was held to let all the relatives and friends know about Oneida, who was the newly found daughter of the Chaser family.

Although the main character was Oneida, the other girls in the Chaser family were not idle.

After all, many celebrities were attending the welcome party. Everyone wanted to dress up beautifully and shine at the party.

Hazel was close to being a top designer of Hestrya, so she was given three latest designer dresses that were not sold in the market yet.

However, there were only three dresses.

As Hazel's favorite granddaughters, Yuliana and Rachel had picked out two pieces and prepared to wear them at the welcome party.

They went to the mansion in Quakersville. Jennifer acted fast and took the last dress.

The last dress was sent to Oneida was sitting in the room, and the maid behind her was helping her comb her hair.

The welcome party was about to start at night.

“Ms. Chaser, there are only three dresses, and Ms. Jennifer has already taken the last one, 50.

Oneida lowered her eyes and answered in a low voice, “Got it

The maid stammered, and her face turned pale.

The maid thought it Oneida was was unhappy and said cautiously, “Ms. Chaser, although the dresses at home are not as gorgeous as those of designers, they are all famous brands. You are very pretty, and everything you wear will look good.”

With that, she sighed again. “We have no choice. Our family has four girls, but the designer only gave us three dresses.”

Oneida pursed her lips and said nothing.

She was honestly not interested in the dress designed by the top designer of Hestrya.

Its style was too low, which was not in line with Oneida’s taste.

Even if Jennifer did not take it away, Oneida would not wear it.

The maid combed Oneida’s hair into a nice princess” hairstyle. Her black hair was woven behind her head, and the rest of her hair was curled slightly. Looking noble and ladylike.

At this moment, another maid came in with a huge box in her hand. “Ms. Chaser, there is a parcel that has just arrived. It has your name on it.”

Oneida wondered, “Parcel?” She frowned slightly.

She did not order anything online. She wondered who delivered this parcel

D

Chapter 29

The sender even wrote Oneida's name and wanted to send it to her.

After the maid left, Oneida stretched out her hand and wanted to open the huge box.

Suddenly, her phone rang

The screen showed Samuel's phone number that she just saved last time.

Oneida thought, "Uncle Samuel..." She answered the phone.

"Yes, it's me." Samuel's deep voice came from the phone.

"Uncle Samuel..." Oneida called in a low voice

Hearing Oneida call him "Uncle Samuel," Samuel curled his lips upward unconsciously.

If the assistants saw that their boss was happy when having a call to a girl, they would be surprised as they knew him to be not fond of smiling and was indifferent and serious.

"Yes, I have received my gift?" Samuel's tone softened a little.

Oneida immediately reacted and asked, "Uncle Samuel, did you send the parcel?"

"Yes. I don't know if you will like it." Samuel continued, "I heard that the Chaser family is going to hold a welcome party for you this time. It's inconvenient for us to be there, so we sent you a gift."

Samuel and his brothers did not have a good relationship with Tatiana. It was inconvenient for them to attend the party

Moreover, the Chaser family would never invite the three of them.

"Uncle Samuel..." Oneida smiled. "You gave me a lot of Samuel's eyes were full of tenderness and pleasantness. "These gifts are nothing. I'll buy you all the stars in the sky as long as you like them."

When he was a teenager, his biggest dream was to be successful and make more money.

Now, Samuel was 26 years old and had become famous. He was wealthy

Her greatest interest was to spoil Oneida.

They chatted for a while before hanging up the phone.

Oneida took the phone and looked at the huge parcel.

She wondered. "What is it? Why is it so big and heavy?"

She did not have any desires.

Oneida slowly opened the exquisite and complicated wrapping, and the mysterious gift began to reveal its true appearance.

It was a gorgeous evening dress

The dress was silvery-white with a fine and eye-catching halo like the moonlight being broken into quicksand, pervading every corner of the dress.

The hem of the dress was multi-layered and petal-shaped, looking gorgeous and elegant

The dress was inlaid with dazzling and luxurious diamonds.

No girl could refuse such a beautiful dress.

However, Oneida frowned slightly.

She immediately went to see the label of the dress.

It was indeed carved with the letter "L"

by the work of Levi, the top genius designer known as "the Talent" in the global fashion industry.

This was undoubtedly

However, Levi was Oneida herself

She did not expect that the gift from Samuel was a long dress she had designed before.

Oneida had not designed a new dress for a long time, and her previous clothes were limited in quantity, so Levi's works were almost discontinued.

Many nobles spared no effort to bid for a dress designed by Levi,

This also made Levi's clothes extremely expensive, and people could not even buy them with money.

Oneida guessed that Samuel might have spent a lot of money to buy this long dress she designed.

The dress eventually returned to its designer.

This made Oneida amused.

Nonetheless, this dress could be worn at the welcome party tonight.

Meanwhile, Jennifer was in her room.

She sat at her desk and browsed the black market website on her computer.

There were always some strange little thin things in the black market that were hard to see in the market.

19%E

Jennifer had never been exposed to the black market before.

However, when she was in poor health, someone on the Internet recommended buying some medicine to strengthen her body. This led her to enter the black market website mistakenly.

The medicine bought from the black market was indeed very effective.

Therefore, Jennifer still browsed the black market from time to time to see what was new.

Suddenly, Jennifer's eyes paused, and the mouse stopped on the icon of a product.

This was a medicine, and the picture showed the efficacy of this medicine.

Jennifer's eyes narrowed slightly, and there was a trace of viciousness in her eyes.

She thought, "If this medicine has such an effect... I could use it on Oneida to humiliate her at the party!"
