

The Second Act Revenge (Oneida and Jackson)

The Second Act 341

Chapter 341

Seeing the person coming, Jacob was surprised.

There was a lot of excitement in his eyes.

Because the person turned out to be Oneida, his niece!

Other contestants were also stunned.

Jake had brought a girl.

Was he out of his mind?

In this world, there were indeed many female players who were good at playing games.

In the professional e-sports field, 99% of those who could stand out as contestants were males.

Despite the presence of multiple female contestants, their number was exceedingly low.

Female contestants were either a gimmick for the team or regarded as a mascot. They wouldn't even have a chance to play on the stage, or they would be defeated by male contestants easily. The gap between men and women in e-sports was huge.

The emergency substitute now facing the contestants was a young woman.

What was Jake thinking about?

"Jake, is she... The one you were talking about?" Some contestant could not stand it and raised their doubts.

"What the hell? It's a girl... How is it possible?"

"Aren't there any male players? I don't want to take girls with me in the competition!"

"Jake, what's on your mind?"

Only Jacob pursed his lips and said nothing.

He just stared at Oneida with deep eyes. No one knew what he was thinking.

"She is really great." Jake glanced at Oneida beside him with great appreciation in his eyes and declared, "She not only sent us her game video but also demonstrated her skills on the spot just now. She's amazing!" Even if Jake said so, other contestants were still not convinced.

"No way. Don't brag about it. What if she is even worse than Calvin?"

"Jake, if she's so great, why haven't I heard of her before? Typically, exceptional players are sought after and recruited to work as professionals. Is there a player of such caliber who has been overlooked?" "Well, I think Jake must be too anxious, so he let her be the emergency substitute."

Hearing this, Jake turned gloomy and he pretended to be discontented. "What are you talking about? You guys. You'll know it later! Don't be so arrogant before you see what she can really do "Jake is right," said Jacob suddenly. His voice was cold and serious.

Chapter 341

Jacob looked at the crowd indifferently and said calmly, "Let her have a try,

Then Jacob gave Oneida a meaningful glance.

It was unprecedented for a female contestant to be on the professional stage.

But it was Oneida.

Jacob inexplicably had faith in Oneida's gaming prowess.

Why?

Maybe it was because they had played mobile games together, and he found that Oneida was really skilled.

Jacob just didn't know what Oneida could do with a computer game.

Since Jacob had said so, the other contestants just shut up.

Hearing Jacob's words, Jake looked at Jacob with a smile and said "Jacob is surely discerning."

"By the way," Jake turned to look at Oneida and asked, "What's your game ID? I have to report your ID quickly."

Hearing this, Oneida lowered her eyes slightly.

She thought for a while and said to Jake, "Just call me Zero."

Zero?" Jake repeated it and seemed to suddenly think of something. Then he said with great interest, "Speaking of which, do you know a super famous hacker whose name is also Zero?" Oneida nodded expressionlessly.

Of course she did.

Because Oneida was the hacker Zero.

"What? Can't I use that name?" Oneida tilted her head and asked with a half-smile.

"Of course, you can." Jake laughed and said, "Wait here and get familiar with your teammates. I'll sign up for you and bring you a

uniform."

So, only Oneida and four players were left in the training room.

"Why are you here?" Finally, Jacob stood up from the chair and frowned at Oneida. "Why didn't you tell me that you would come here?"

Before Oneida could speak, other contestants immediately shouted, "No way. Do you know each other? Jacob, what's your relationship with her?" "So she's an acquaintance of Jacob."

Jacob felt that they were a little noisy, so he squinted at them coldly to signal them to shut up.

The contestants were sensible and stopped talking immediately

Oneida looked at Jacob and said calmly, "I came to help you."

Oneida said these words lightly, with no expression on her face. "Help me?" Jacob repeated subconsciously and was a little stunned. 2/4

Chapter 341

Oneida nodded.

She took the initiative to sign up for this emergency substitute not only to help Jacob but also for honor. Although Oneida was usually indifferent and calm, she had a strong sense of self-esteem and honor. Being ridiculed by foreign teams, Oneida, as a native of Hestrya, couldn't stand it.

She wanted to help KnightGuard win the game.

So, she came.

93%

Oneida shared an exceptional video showcasing her skills with the official Twitter account of KnightGuard, leading to her well-deserved selection. "You..."

Jacob looked at Oneida in front of him and hesitated to say something.

After a moment of silence, Jacob said gently, "Do you know that it is not as simple as you think to be this emergency substitute and participate in Global Clash Championships?"

Jacob lowered his eyes, so Oneida couldn't see the look in his eyes clearly. He continued, "If you don't play well, I won't blame you. But fans and the media don't care. They will definitely despise you."

The e-sports contestants seemed to be admired, but they bore great pressure.

Any mistake they made would be magnified by the outside world.

In the e-sports circle, there were many fans and more haters.

Jacob didn't care about what others said because he had gotten used to it, but Oneida was different. She was a girl.

He was afraid that she would be influenced by public opinion.

"Besides, you are a girl. When you play on the court, you will inevitably be judged not only by your ability but also your appearance."

Jacob was calm when he said those words and looked straight at Oneida's face.

However, after listening to his words, Oneida had no intention of retreating at all.

"I know what you mean. Don't worry." Oneida nodded dismissively.

Seeing her reaction, Jacob couldn't help feeling a little pity in his heart.

"It's okay," Jacob patted Oneida on the shoulder and said solemnly, "Uncle Jacob will protect you."

"Uncle?"

Before Oneida could say anything, other teammates instantly caught the key point of Jacob's words. "Jacob, is she your niece?"

Jacob looked at his teammates and sneered, "What's wrong? Can't I have a niece?"

At this moment, Jacob had accepted Oneida in a way.

08:59 Wed, Dec

The Second Act 342

Chapter 342

Before, Jacob didn't regard Oneida as his family.

However, at this moment, he felt a sense of responsibility as her uncle. He wanted to protect his niece well. Hearing Jacob's words, the other teammates immediately echoed "Of course you can!"

Someone joked, "It seems that Jacob is from an e-sports family. Even his niece is an e-sports player.

"Shut up!" Jacob glanced at them impatiently.

Their words were getting more and more ridiculous.

Jacob was the only one who played e-sports in his family.

"By the way, what position does your niece play?" At this time, another contestant suddenly asked.

In professional competitions, the contestant's position was fixed and would not be changed easily.

Now that Calvin had left, others hoped that Oneida could make up for the position of Calvin, otherwise, it would be very troublesome.

Because others could only play their own positions.

Before Jacob could speak, Oneida replied expressionlessly, "I can take any position."

Someone asked in shock, "Really?"

"Are you so powerful? Can you play in any position?"

Oneida smiled calmly and replied, "Yes."

Hearing this, Jacob was also stunned.

In the gaming world, he had already reached the pinnacle of his profession, and at his level, he could only excel in three or four positions. However, Oneida could play in every position.

That was interesting.

If Jacob had heard someone else say so, he would have thought that the person was really pretending, but when Oneida said it, he felt her words were credible.

"All right." Jacob was silent for a moment and said to Oneida, "Since you can play in any position, you should take the position of Calvin."

Oneida had no objection and gently replied, "Okay."

Soon, Oneida's uniform arrived.

"This is a men's uniform. There is no time to customize one for you now. back." Jake handed Oneida a black uniform and gasped.

Just wear it, and your ID is already affixed on the Oneida took the uniform, thanked Jake, and went to the dressing room alone.

After changing her clothes, Oneida stood in front of the mirror and looked at herself motionlessly.

08:59 Wed, Dec

Chapter 342

In the mirror, she looked pure and energetic with her hair tied into a high bun.

Her beautiful eyes seemed to glow with a dazzling brilliance.

She adorned a stylish black T-shirt featuring a captivating team badge and intricate dark gold patterns.

It was KnightGuard's uniform, simple and inspiring.

It was a little loose on Oneida, but it made her look powerful and casual.

Oneida didn't waste time there and walked out of the dressing room.

At the same time, the news that Knight Guard had found an emergency substitute had been spread out through the official

Twitter account.

The fans were still voicing their discontent. They did not consider themselves fortunate for KnightGuard to secure an emergency substitute. Instead, they viewed it as a form of torment, as it indicated that KnightGuard had not forfeited their competition qualification. Consequently, they feared witnessing their beloved KnightGuard lose the match soon after.

Wasn't that torture?

After all, how could a team with an amateur player beat five professionals?

Of course, there were also speculations about who the mysterious emergency substitute was.

Suddenly, all kinds of hypotheses and speculations spread online.

[I heard that the maid of Knight Guard has assumed the substitute position.]

[What? Are you not kidding me?]

[Actually, I'm going to play. Everyone will see me later.]

[He's crazy. Take him away.]

[You are all wrong. It's an experienced game player who has been playing games for more than ten years and is in his thirties.]

[In his thirties? Can he still hold the mouse?]

There was a lot of speculation and jokes, but no one had substantive information.

Online, there was no rumor about the emergency substitute of KnightGuard.

KnightGuard had done a good job of keeping the news a secret.

Soon, the game between KnightGuard and Lengloric was about to begin.

Samuel and Charles had sat in front of the TV on time, ready to watch the game. Oneida wasn't here.

Not long ago, she told them that she had to go out alone for a while.

Oneida didn't tell them the reason, so Samuel and Charles did not ask more.

They told her to be careful and let her go.

Just now, Jacob called and told them that the substitute had been found and the game was going on normally. He also 08:59 Wed, Dec 11 stressed that they must watch the game because there would be surprise.

Therefore, Samuel and Charles sat in front of the TV on time.

On the TV screen, the commercial finally ended.

Soon, the game began.

The team logos of KnightGuard and Lengloric collided, looking sparky.

Immediately afterward, players from both sides entered the field.

93%

The host would make a simple introduction of the contestants. The first team to enter the stage was Lengloric. As a foreign team, its appearance wasn't greatly applauded.

This time, the Global Clash Championships was held in Hestrya, so the spectators were only willing to cheer for teams from Hestrya.

That was why KnightGuard had been paid so much attention. It was the best team and hope of Hestrya. Everyone from Hestrya hoped that KnightGuard could win the championship. After the contestants of Lengloric took their seats, KnightGuard came on stage.

There were thunderous cheers at the scene.

Even though KnightGuard encountered many accidents before the game, everyone hoped that KnightGuard could win for Hestrya.

However, the warm cheers stopped abruptly when all the team members of KnightGuard appeared on the stage.

What was going on?

The cheers were immediately replaced by a whispering noise.

There was a strange person among the five members of KnightGuard.

It was a woman!

How could it be?

Such a thing was unprecedented and unheard of.

The substitute KnightGuard had been looking for for a long time turned out to be a woman.

After years of development, only men were able to stand on the global stage of e-sports, not due to discrimination against women.

For so many years, few female contestants had appeared in professional competitions, and none had been impressive and remembered by the audience.

However, KnightGuard sent a female contestant.

Couldn't KnightGuard find another man?

Suddenly, there were different opinions and unusual noises on the scene.

Even the commentators were shocked.

"It seems that the emergency substitute for KnightGuard is a female contestant. Today might mark a historic moment as she becomes the first woman to grace the stage of the Global Clash Championships. Let's give her a warm round of applause as she courageously steps up to represent Hestrya."

A commentator said such a long paragraph with great emotion after he calmed down.

Another commentator promptly echoed, "I have just requested the director for the fundamental details regarding this female contestant. Her name is Zero, and she is merely 19 years old. Let's extend the warmest applause to welcome Zero" At this time, Oneida was standing on the stage, in the middle of four teammates.

The Second Act 343

Chapter 343

Jacob was standing beside Oneida.

He had expected the audience to react like this.

After all, Oneida was a woman. There was against women in the field of e-sports, which was inevitable.

Jacob glanced at Oneida with rare tenderness.

Oneida seemed to sense Jacob's stare and turned back to look at him.

They looked at each other calmly and understood what the other meant.

They didn't care what the world thought.

They just wanted to win!

However, the spectators were still in an uproar.

Of course, many people began to look at Oneida carefully.

"Let's not talk about her ability. At least, this girl is so beautiful."

"Yeah, her appearance makes me feel good."

"She is so pretty. I like her very much."

Gradually, some female spectators began to cheer for Oneida loudly.

After all, this was the first time they had seen a woman on the stage of an e-sports competition.

Oneida was the first female contestant!

She represented all the women.

For a long time, the public had a stereotype that only boys played video games well.

They believed that female players were definitely not as good as male players.

So the professional contestants must be men.

However, the appearance of Oneida today had shattered the long-standing stereotype.

Although the spectators didn't know why Oneida was chosen by KnightGuard and became the one-in-a-million emergency substitute, it signified great progress for a woman to stand on this stage. Many women were excited about this fact.

"Come on! You're the best!" A woman shouted at Oneida.

On the stage, Oneida had followed the team to her seat.

"Someone is cheering you up. Have you heard it?" Jacob lowered his voice and said to Oneida beside him.

Oneida nodded and replied, "Yes."

Someone was cheering her on.

Chapter 343

Oneida felt surprised about it.

At the same time, Oneida's appearance shocked some before the IV.

Samuel and Charles, who were sitting in front of the TV, were stunned when they saw Oneida's face.

"Is this... Charles was astounded and asked in disbelief, "Ida?"

Samuel pursed his lips and said nothing.

His serious gaze was fixed straight on the TV screen. It seemed as if Samuel wanted to make sure that the woman in the TV was indeed Oneida. After a moment of silence, Samuel nodded gently.

"It's Ida," Samuel frowned slightly and seemed confused. "How could she..."

"So Ida went to find Jacob!" Charles smiled with interest. "She always surprises us."

Samuel looked a little relieved and said helplessly, "I really didn't expect this."

"I'm afraid if she doesn't play well, those fans will..." Charles suddenly thought of something and appeared to be a little worried.

After all, as a superstar in the entertainment industry, Charles was well aware that haters and public opinion were horrible.

Many KnightGuard fans were now placing their hopes on Oneida. Therefore, any fatal mistake on her part would likely lead to harsh public criticism.

"They don't dare!" Samuel's eyes suddenly became cold, and he said indifferently, "If anyone dares to criticize Ida, I will find a way to shut the netizens up." Charles looked at Samuel and knew that he was not joking.

Samuel always did what he said.

Charles smiled and said, "That's right. I will be Ida's most loyal fan. Let's see who dares to criticize her."

However, the two men who were used to such grand occasions and always remained calm were a little nervous now.

They couldn't predict the outcome.

They certainly hoped that Jacob and Oneida could win, but the strength of the opponent was not weak.

Therefore, Samuel and Charles just hoped Jacob and Oneida could try their best.

At this time, the discussion online was heated.

E-sports fans were also excited.

When everyone was speculating who the emergency substitute of KnightGuard was, shocking news came.

KnightGuard's emergency backup was a woman!

A woman?

It was ridiculous and incredible.

08:59 Wed,

Chapter 343-

This even made many people think that KnightGuard had given up on itself. Since the chance of winning was slim, KnightGuard just sent a female contestant to attract the public's attention and increase its popularity. After all, sending a female contestant would instantly attract great attention.

[KnightGuard! Am I wrong? Is it really a girl?]

[I think Knight Guard might be crazy!]

[Don't they want to win? How could they send a girl? Maybe she just needs to pose beautifully and doesn't have to compete at all!]

[Well... I don't know what to say.]

[KnightGuard, you'd better not lose too badly.]

[A girl? I don't think she can make it.]

[Who the hell is this girl? How could she become KnightGuard's emergency backup? Maybe she really has some skills.]

[I'm surprised. Can KnightGuard secure victory with an amateur and four professionals?]

It was the first time for a female contestant to appear on the stage of the Global Clash Championships, which quickly became a trending topic on the Internet. The name Zero ranked first in Twitter's trending search list. Some people were shocked, some expressed puzzlement, and some even mocked.

Of course, there were also many people who sincerely cheered for Oneida.

[So what if it's a girl? Someone has to break the rules and make a breakthrough! Why can't it be Zero?]

[Let's cheer for Zero. Even if she loses, I won't blame her. It takes courage to stand on the court under great pressure.]

[I finally saw a girl come to play e-sports in my lifetime. Who says girls can't do it?]

[Zero is the pride of us female players!]

The news that Oneida was going to play in the Global Clash Championships soon spread to Imperial Star University.

After all, Oneida was a popular figure at Imperial Star University

At this moment, she appeared on the TV and was immediately recognized by many students.

The campus forum sparked a heated discussion.

Students in Regular Class A and Starlight Class had all received this message.

Many people decided to watch the game at the last minute before it started and cheered for Oneida.

At this time, Garrison Mansion was quiet.

Cece was still lying in bed resting. The doctor could not find the cause of her disease, so only tranquilizers were prescribed for Cece.

After taking the medicine, Cece began to cry again. She wanted Jackson to pay more attention to her and accompany her.

However, Jackson didn't respond.

08:59 Wed, Dec 11

Chapter 343

He was in his study, dealing with the work at hand.

Jackson still had doubts about Cece. Even if she was the real Cec

It didn't matter who she was.

Anyway, Jackson knew that he couldn't upset Oneida.

He acknowledged that he viewed Cece as a symbol of childhood love between them.

However, On

The Second Act 344

Chapter 344

Jackson knew that he must give Oneids enough security.

Jackson had gradually figured it out during this period

He had never been in a relationship before. After he met Oneida he began to learn.

He didn't want to upset Oneida or make her mind the existence if Cere.

Therefore, Jackson would arrange everything before Oneida came back and eliminate all the factors that might make her unhappy.

If Cece made Oneida sad, Jackson wouldn't keep her.

At this time, there was a knock on the door of the study.

Jackson didn't even raise his eyes and just said gently, "Come in

The door was pushed open.

Victor hurried in and walked to the desk with a playful look on his face, "Mr. Bane, do you know where Mrs. Bane is now?"

Victor smiled, feeling what Oneida was doing was quite interesting.

Hearing this, Jackson felt confused and surprised slightly.

He looked up at Victor and replied calmly, "She should be at her uncles."

Victor immediately shook his head and replied, "You're wrong, Mr. Bane."

Jackson frowned slightly.

If Oneida wasn't there, where could she be?

Seeing that Jackson pursed his lips and was lost in thought, Victor didn't say anything. He showed the live stream on his phone to Jackson and asked, "Mr. Bane, look who this is." On the screen, Oneida was already sitting in front of the computer.

She was wearing a black team uniform, which set off her fair skin. Her facial features looked extremely bright and beautiful.

With black headphones on her head, Oneida looked extremely focused now.

Jackson narrowed his eyes with surprise.

Why would Oneida be there?

"Mr. Bane, when did Mrs. Bane go to play e-sports? Didn't she tell you?" Victor thought it was fun and couldn't help asking with a smile.

Jackson was silent for a moment before answering, "She can do whatever she wants."

As long as she didn't leave him.

After saying those words, Jackson looked away and clicked on the live broadcast of the Global Clash Championships.

A clear picture of the competition appeared on the computer screen.

"Mr. Bane, are you going to watch the live stream?" Seeing this, Victor asked curiously.

Jackson nodded. Then he looked at Victor and said, "Keep an eye on the situation in the game and the trend on the Internet. If there is anything unfavorable to her... "You should know what to do."

When Jackson said this, his eyes turned cold,

Victor understood Jackson's meaning and nodded immediately.

Jackson really cared about Oneida, and Victor felt he was so thoughtful.

At this time, the knockout of the Global Clash Championships, which attracted much attention from all sides, was about to kick off.

The contestants were all in place and began to choose their own lineups.

After selection, everyone entered the game together.

With headsets, the five players in a team could communicate with each other.

Oneida was quiet and hardly spoke.

She watched the screen with all her concentration. However, the situation was unexpected.

The game had just started, and all the members of Lengloric surrounded Oneida.

What should she do when she was surrounded by five strong opponents in the game?

At this moment, Oneida was facing such a situation.

She was being targeted.

Obviously, the opponents looked down on Oneida and thought that it was easy to deal with a girl.

So at the beginning, the members of Lengloric surrounded Oneida and tried to kill her.

The other teammates of Oneida were already in position, far away on the map, so they couldn't come to rescue her.

Therefore, Oneida was facing the five members of Lengloric alone.

The opponents were so ruthless that they used all their skills at Oneida.

Oneida agilely dodged multiple attacks, but she found herself encircled, akin to being ensnared in a barrel formation. While she managed to conceal herself momentarily, it was not a sustainable strategy. Oneida was killed by the opponents' skills in the end, but with her quick operation, she killed a member of the opposite team before she was killed.

A life for a life:

It was not a loss.

However, Oneida gave the first blood.

She became the first person to die in this game.

Chapter 344

Therefore, the viewers in the live stream and netizens on various platforms were all infuriated.

[First blood?]

[Well, girls...]

[Although it's cool to kill one opponent, how could she give the first blood?]

[Well, I was just waiting to see this. I knew she would be a drag on KnightGuard.]

[She gave the first blood as soon as the game began. Are you kidding me?]

[So why let a woman play in the competition?]

[Women shouldn't be there.]

[Although Zero was killed, she was already awesome for she beat five people and killed one opponent! Don't be so stupid!]

[Sexist go to hell!]

[Be quiet and watch the game. Criticize Zero when she really makes KnightGuard lose the game!]

Seeing that Oneida was targeted, Jacob comforted her in a low voice, "It's okay. It doesn't matter."

Oneida pursed her lips and answered calmly, "I'll get it back."

She said in a serious tone as if it was a promise.

Jacob had a strange feeling.

It seemed that Oneida was about to get serious.

Next, Lengloric's team members continued to disturb Oneida.

They seemed to take Oneida as a breakthrough and believed she was the most manageable among the members of KnightGuard, so they audaciously attempted to eliminate her.

But now, they were up against an angry Oneida.

In a swift and precise maneuver, Oneida efficiently incapacitated the Lengloric team members, swiftly bringing them to the ground.

"Wow, what did Zero do just now? She directly killed the two opponents! Obviously, Lengloric didn't expect this. They thought of Zero as a breakthrough point, but she could beat two alone!" Seeing this, the commentator said excitedly in his seat.

The viewers in the live stream were also surprised by what Oneida had done.

{Awesome!}

[I don't know what to say except awesome.]

[So cool, Zero!]

[Well, Lengloric is embarrassed.]

Chapter 344

[Holy shit! You guys bullied Zero, but have you expected you would be killed by her?]

[Slay! This is amazing!]

Coming up, Oneida was even more unstoppable.

She had farmed well, had enough money, and bought enough equipment. Now it was time to initiate attacks.

Like having X-ray eyes, Oneida could always pinpoint the positions of the members of Lengloric.

She was like a hunter catching its prey. Oneida found the person she was looking for and operated quickly and smoothly. The enemy had no strength to fight back and was killed immediately. Wherever Oneida went, she killed every enemy she met.

Even if she faced three opponents alone, she skilled them easily

Oneida had become a devil in the game.

The Second Act 345

Chapter 345

Obviously, Lengloric didn't expect that the breakthrough they thought turned out to be a genius contestant with superior strength.

Although Oneida was a girl, her strength was even more amazing than the male contestants.

Lengloric suddenly felt the humiliation they had never experienced before.

After all, Oneida was a girl who had never played professionally. If Lengloric couldn't beat her, it would be embarrassing

Once Lengloric lost the game, it would be nailed to the pillar of shame and ridiculed forever.

Lengloric decided to put all their eggs in one basket. The five members gathered together to encircle Oneida, who was extremely aggressive at this moment.

The members of Lengloric believed they could lose the game, but Oneida must die.

Otherwise, it would be difficult to vent the hatred in their hearts.

Unbeknownst to Oneida, she had become the target of the five players of Lengloric.

At this time, Oneida was alone in the top half of the map.

Suddenly, five people appeared in front of her.

Here they came.

Oneida frowned, and a trace of coldness flashed in her eyes.

Jacob noticed that something was wrong and couldn't help reminding Oneida, "They seem to have disappeared. Ida, be careful."

Oneida pursed her lips and sneered, "They are already here."

"What?" Hearing this, other teammates couldn't help but exclaim in surprise.

Oneida's teammates said apologetically, "Are they coming again? We may not be able to make it. Zero, good luck."

In fact, her teammates had completely changed their opinions of Oneida.

Originally, they held the same opinions as the players of Lengloric, thinking that Oneida was just a girl and an ordinary player who would certainly drag them down.

But since the game began, they had seen Oneida's incomparable performance, which impressed them greatly.

She was amazing!

Her operation was so cool!

What she had achieved was unprecedented!

They thought such a girl was like a treasure. If she had joined the professional earlier, many players would have been defeated.

KnightGuard's players admired Oneida so much now.

Now Oneida was besieged by the opposite team, they were worried but they really coul

Chapter 343

Oneida said, "You don't have to come. I can handle it myself."

Suddenly, they heard Oneida's calm and indifferent voice, which contained great determination.

Oneida stared at the screen intently, and the five opponents were throwing all their skills to Oneida like they did at the beginning of the game, But now, Oneida was different.

She farmed well and was luxuriously equipped, so she could do any things to protect herself and counterattack.

Oneida swiftly navigated through the terrain, seeking the perfect vantage point, and seamlessly unleashed her formidable skills.

It was almost a destructive move. She hurt all the five opponents severely and they lost much blood.

Then, she took advantage of the opportunity to harvest the gains.

All of the five opponents were dead!

One against five!

It was a penta kill!

This was a feat that had never been seen in the professional competition.

It was something that many top male contestants couldn't do. Penta kills were rare, and this was a one-to-five penta kill.

Seeing this, Jacob was also slightly stunned.

He was in a daze for a moment, and then he smiled slightly. "Ida, you are so extraordinary!"

Oneida's performance just now had surprised Jacob, and her last penta kill made him even tremble with excitement.

The other teammates were already dumbfounded.

They thought, 'What an astonishing genius!

They didn't have to do anything at all. They just had to stand by and win.

The spectators and commentators were all shocked.

Startled by Oneida's action, the commentators couldn't help but widen their eyes and raise their volumes as they said in trembling voices, "Oh my God! What just happened? Zero beat five, and then killed five of them! This should be the coolest penta kill in history!" Everyone in the audience was also excited.

Their mood went up and down in a short time.

Originally, when they saw the five Lengloric members coming to besiege Zero, they felt worried about Zero. They believed that Zero was doomed.

However, a miracle appeared the next second.

Not only did Zero survive, but she killed the team and created an unprecedented super penta kill.

The venue was buzzing with excitement.

Chapter 843

Everyone's cheer reverberated with such intensity that they seemed to engulf the entire expanse.

"Zero! Zero! Zero!"

The audience was shouting the name unanimously.

Oneida, like a heroine in their hearts, won the game with her own) efforts.

The viewers on the live channel were also passionate.

[Zero! She is my destiny! She is the savior!]

[She's so cool. I won't be able to do that in 80 years.]

[I couldn't believe my eyes! She must be an immortal!]

[I'm speechless.]

[I'm tired of saying the word "Slay"!]

Back to the game, after the members of Lengloric were killed, KnightGuard dismantled Lengloric's base.

So KnightGuard won!

The outcome remained uncertain due to the intense knockout mechanics within the game.

There was more than one round.

So, KnightGuard needed to win more rounds.

There would come Round Two, Round Three, and more.

In the following rounds, Oneida performed perfectly and beat Lengloric easily.

Lengloric faced relentless defeat, never achieving victory.

Soon, the game came to an end.

The cameras were aimed at Oneida's fair and beautiful face for a long time.

She looked calm, showing no emotions. There was neither ecstasy nor excitement.

It seemed that she was just doing a normal thing.

She was so composed.

After the game, Oneida became undoubtedly the MVP of this game.

Jacob and Oneida walked back to the lounge side by side. He looked at Oneida with a gentle smile and said, "Great, Ida, you have impressed me again."

Jacob called her "Ida" naturally.

He'd gotten more intimate with her.

His attitude towards Oneida had already changed dramatically.

Chapter 343

At this moment, Jacob felt-Oneida was quite adorable.

At the same time, discussions went on on Twitter.

The trending hashtag "KnightGuard Won" immediately ranked first on Twitter's trending list.

The name Zero ranked the second place.

Almost everyone online was talking about Zero.

She was definitely a super genius and an astonishing new star in e-sports.

She was too powerful.

[I apologize to Zero now. I shouldn't have looked down on her before. She slapped me in the face with her performance!]

[I apologize too!]

[I never thought that a girl could beat the boys so thoroughly!]

[I really like Zero. She's so beautiful, powerful, and cool.]

[Who has the details of Zero? I'm a fan and want to know more about her.]

[I'm a fan too. Everyone loves such a beautiful cool girl!]

When the news reached Imperial Star University, many students who had become fans of Oneida were also excited.

Oneida was definitely the pride of Imperial Star University. She was awesome!

She had already been famous on campus, and now she fought for the glory of the e-sports of Hestrya, which was so cool.

At the same time, Samuel and Charles were still in front of the TV, watching the highlights of Oneida's game over and over again. "Ida is really great," Samuel exclaimed while watching.

His deep and indifferent eyes were filled with appreciation and leasure.

Charles couldn't help laughing and saying, "It seems that our family really has the e-sports gene."

Although the game was over, people in the live broadcast channel were still discussing heatedly.

Some people were sending bullet comments, others were giving gifts.

In the live game channel, supporters had the opportunity to send gifts as tokens of encouragement and cheer to a particular contestant,

Suddenly, a super gorgeous bullet comment flashed across the center of the screen.

J&B sent 10,000 fireworks to KnightGuard Zero!]

The audience of the channel was utterly stunned.

10,000 fireworks?

One f

firework cost 400 dollars, and 10,000 fireworks meant 4 million dollars!

Who was this J&B? How could he spend so much money on Zero?

He gave a reward of 4 million dollars!

He was so rich!

[Did I just see it wrong? I saw a rich man sent 10,000 fireworks!!

[4 million dollars! Someone gave Zero a gift of 4 million dollars. Isn't this true love?]

[Money means nothing to the rich. There are too many rich people.]

[Can I be one of the rich people?]

[4 million dollars! I've never seen so much money before.]

[Does this J&B have a crush on Zero? Otherwise, why did he spend so much money on her?]

The news that someone sent Zero a gift of 4 million dollars at one time soon spread to Oneida herself.

"It's true. I saw it with my own eyes. Someone gave you a gift of 4 million dollars. It's so unbelievable!" a teammate told Oneida.

"Zero, that's amazing. You attracted such a rich man after just one game. Another teammate looked at Oneida with a smile. 09:10

Chapter 340

"No way, 4 million dollars! Hearing this, Jacob was also a little surprised. He turned to look at Oneida beside him and said with a half-smile, I guess he thinks you are amazing and your performance is worth 4 million dollars." Hearing the news, Oneida wasn't excited but frowned slightly.

She asked subconsciously. "Who sent me a gift of 4 million dollars?"

A teammate hurriedly replied. "Oh, I know! It's a rich man who is J&B"

J&B Isn't it the short for Jackson Bane Oneida wondered, pursed her lips, and a complicated look flashed in her eyes. Is it him

At this moment, Jackson was in Garrison Mansion.

He had just turned off the live stream of the game.

Victor had witnessed with his own eyes that Jackson sent Oneida a gift of 4 million dollars just now,

T

Victor was scarcely able to speak.

Jackson was indeed rich, but he never squandered his money.

However, Jackson spent 4 million dollars without hesitation just now.

There was no difference between sending the 10,000 fireworks and throwing the money in

After all, Oneida couldn't get the money. The gift would only make her famous, and the money went into the pocket of the live-stream platform. Jackson was so generous.

He did so just to celebrate Oneida's victory.

Victor shook his head and stopped thinking about it.

However, an interesting idea suddenly occurred to him.

"Mr. Bane, have you noticed that Mrs. Bane's ID is the same as the hacker Zero you've been looking for?" Victor said softly with a relaxed look.

Hearing this, Jackson was still expressionless.

The hacker Zero!

Jackson sneered slightly and replied calmly, "It's just a coincidence."

Then he added, "Since you mentioned the hacker, have you heard anything about him?"

Victor shook his head and answered, "Not yet. However, the hacker department of Paragon Group is making every effort to track him down. They will definitely find some clues." Jackson didn't say anything more.

Just then, his phone rang.

He took out his phone and saw Oneida's number on the screen.

She was suddenly rendered speechless.

"Ida, when are you going to come back?" Jackson asked seriously and gently..

Hearing this, Oneida still kept silent

When would she go back?

I said I would stay with my uncles for a while, and Oneida stopped halfway.

Besides, the matter of Cece hadn't been solved yet.

Oneida didn't know that Jackson had already made up his mind,

Oneida asked Jackson to choose between her and Cece, which was actually a meaningless request.

Because Jackson had never been on Cece's side, and his choice had always been Oneida.

She was his only choice.

However, to dispel Oneida's dissatisfaction and unhappiness, Jackson would let Cece leave after she got better

He would give Geor a large sum of money which could support the rest of her life

In this way, he wouldn't owe anything to Cece

Oneida felt she should say something.

However, she didn't know how to say it.

At the other end of the phone, Jackson seemed to sense her embarrassment and said in time, "It's been a long day. Have a good rest. Don't think too much"

Jackson changed the subject gently, and his voice sounded extremely soothing

Oneida pursed her lips and ended the conversation with his words.

After the call was hung up, Oneida still held the phone in her palm.

She lowered her eyes, silent.

Her thoughts were in a mess.

In fact, for a moment, Oneida also wanted to tell Jackson something.

She wanted to tell him that she was missing him, too.

The Global Clash Championships was not over. After KnightGuard defeated Lengloric, it would continue its journey until the final championship was secured. So, Oneida couldn't leave the team.

She stayed in the training room with other members of the team and trained with them every day.

During that time, she received a lot of phone calls and messages for inquiries.

They were from her uncles and some of her classmates at Imperial Star University.

Everyone was shocked that Oneida played video games so well, and they all praised Oneida with great sincerity.

Besides that, Oneida's training life was nothing special.

Actually, she didn't need much training at all.

Oneida was a talented person no matter what field she was in.

She possessed an exceptional capacity for learning, excelling in mastering new skills once taught and demonstrating rapid proficiency in various areas. Oneida was most proud of her learning ability.

However, to cooperate with her teammates, Oneida chose the boring training.

A few days later, KnightGuard had its next knockout match.

There was no doubt about the result of the game.

Knight Guard won the game without losing a set and advanced to the final.

Oneida still dominated the game and made an amazing performance.

Many influential international media began to praise Oneida.

Oneida was esteemed as a remarkable top contender. Unexpectedly, when KnightGuard found themselves in a dire predicament, it was Zero, the emerging e-sports superstar, who came to the rescue. The emergence of Oneida served as a powerful symbol, challenging traditional notions by showcasing that women could excel in the gaming arena, triumphing over the previously dominant male participants. Numerous praises about Oneida appeared in the media and on major platforms.

The discussion about Oneida was increasingly hot.

Oneida won the support of the audience with her performance and attracted many ardent fans.

It was true that Oneida became famous overnight.

However, she didn't care about others' comments on her.

Currently, Oneida, together with other members of the team, was focused on training for the final

On the eve of the final, she received a message from Jackson.

He told her that she shouldn't be stressed out and reminded her to enjoy the game and do her best

His tone was like that of her elders in the family.

Oneida only replied: [OK]. Then she never contacted him again.

During the final night, as the host proudly announced Oneida's ID-Zero, the audience erupted with excitement, creating a fervent and electrifying atmosphere.

Everyone was shouting the name of Zero.

Oneida was the most popular star that night and was even more loved than her uncle Jacob

In this crucial final, the spectators anticipated a close and thrilling match.

After all, KnightGuard's opponent, Mighty Fusion from Jovoria, was also a long-established strong team that had achieved great results in the Global Clash Championships many times. Mighty Fusion had many experienced star contestants and was also the domestic champion.

The KnightGuard's Zero appeared at the peak of her prowess, exuding an aura of invincibility. However, facing Mighty Fusion proved to be a formidable challenge.

It was hard to say who would win.

Of course, the audience from Hestrya definitely wanted Knight Guard to be the final champion.

However, Mighty Fusion also had a lot of fans. Before the game, the two sides' fans were competing passionately and believed that their home team would win the championship. Soon, the competition kicked off.

Oneida did not give Mighty Fusion too many chances. Fighting alone, she replicated the first two knockout matches and beat the opponent completely.

She won again easily..

Chapter 347

With little suspense, KnightGuard beat Mighty Fusion to win the Global Clash Championships.

Oneida became the MVP of the game.

Even years later, many people would still remember a girl who courageously stepped onto the challenging field and orchestrated a stunning victory that secured another Global Clash Championships for Hestrya.

She was a young lady and the world champion who had defeated many outstanding male contestants.

On the night of winning the championship, Oneida held the championship trophy. This photo spread wildly on various social platforms including Twitter.

In the photo, Oneida and her teammates held the championship trophy together. She looked relaxed and confident with a faint smile.

Her complexion was fair, and her features were beautiful. With such an expression, Oneida looked like a proud queen standing on the top of the world.

Countless silver ribbons fell from the sky and surrounded Oneida, adding a touching beauty to her.

Many netizens who didn't pay attention to e-sports couldn't help but praise Oneida when they saw this photo.

She looked so gorgeous.

After that, Oneida became famous with that photo and attracted more fans.

KnightGuard's winning the championship excited countless e-sports fans, except for one person.

It was Calvin.

When Calvin was part of the original KnightGuard team, their performance was lackluster, resulting in a rough entry into the knockout stage. Surprisingly, upon Calvin's departure, the team excelled and emerged victorious, clinching the championship title. What a shame!

At the same time, Calvin was also thinking that maybe if he didn't leave, he would be part of the glory.

If he was a member of the winning team, he could make more money.

Thinking of this, Calvin felt very regretful,

Anyway, Calvin was in a bad mood.

Especially when he saw the video of KnightGuard winning the championship and Jacob's proud and happy face, he was extremely annoyed. Why?

Why was Jacob so happy and Calvin so disappointed?

The more Calvin thought about it, the more unwilling he felt. He was so angry that he logged on to his Twitter and posted another tweet.

[Congratulations to KnightGuard for winning the title. On this joyous occasion, I regret having to address some necessary concerns. While I extend my congratulations to KnightGuard, it is Jacob whom I cannot commend. There has been speculation surrounding my sudden withdrawal from the competition. Now that the Global Clash Championships have concluded, I feel compelled to reveal that my decision to withdraw was influenced by Jacob. Prior to the tournament, Jacob harbored animosity towards me, displaying cold behavior. Upon my withdrawal, he resorted to physical violence, causing

The happy night of celebrating the championship was disturbed by Calvin's tweet,

Countless fans commented on Calvin's tweet

Calvin's post quickly gained much attention and became a top trending topic on Twitter.

The fans were divided into two groups and fought hard.

There were some people who supported Calvin with loyalty.

[Calvin. I feel sorry for you. You finally told us the truth. We don't envy Jacob for getting the championship, but he should at least apologize.]

I feel sad for you, honey. I don't know what you've been through Jacob, you'd better apologize quickly]

I didn't expect Jacob to treat his teammate like that. Skills are important, but personality is more important!]

[Jacob, don't think you can avoid apologizing because you have many fans. Don't play dead. Show up and apologize]

So Jacob is such a person. Did his stupid fans see him clearly?]

Others were harshly denouncing Calvin.

Please don't slander Jacob, okay? He's got the championship now. Don't try to get famous by using him.]

[You quit the competition without hesitation, but now you feel envious and jealous when seeing your team win the championship. You're so disgusting!]

[No matter what, Jacob is better than you. You loser will only cause trouble for the team!]

[Are you jealous of Jacob winning the championship? You wrote this miserable essay as soon as he won the championship! What a trick! If you're really capable, please leave Jacob alone! Don't get attention by slandering KnightGuard and Jacob! You chose to withdraw from the match and abandon your team. From that day, you had nothing to do with them!]

[Where were you in the first place, loser? No one will sympathize with you now. How shameless you are to post on Twitter! Do you know that you're a disappointment?]

The two groups fought very hard. Anyway, Calvin's tweet did have a great impact on Jacob.

People who didn't understand the grudges between Jacob and Calvin would instinctively sympathize with Calvin. After all, being bullied by a teammate was not a trivial matter. Therefore, Jacob was inevitably labeled as a bully.

At this time, KnightGuard was holding its own celebration party. Before the party started, Jake told Jacob what had happened on Twitter.

"What happened at that time?" Jake frowned and asked Jacob in a low voice.

Before Calvin quit the game, he did have a conflict with Jacob.

But no one knew exactly what it was about. Only Calvin and Jacob knew about the truth.

Because at that time, Jacob and Calvin were alone in the training room.

Chapter 348

When everyone returned to the training room, Calvin had already rushed out of the door.

It didn't take long for them to get the news of Calvin's withdraw from the competition.

Everything happened very suddenly.

"Did you really hit him?" Jake sighed and asked Jacob helplessly

bursed his lips and said nothing

He looked calm, and his eyes were gloomy. There seemed to be complicated emotions in his deep eyes.

"Don't worry, I will handle it myself

After a moment of silence, Jacob said those words in a solemn tone.

Jake shouted, "How can I not be worried?" Jake's eyes widened with anxiety. "You know what? This matter has gone viral on the Internet. Although many people choose to believe you and despise Calvin, there are still many people who really think that you beat Calvin up, which has damaged your reputation."

"Besides, Jake seemed to think of something suddenly and frowned more deeply. "The organizer just contacted me and asked about it. If you really violated the rules, you might be barded.

"So, tell me what happened that day!" Jake sighed again. Then he continued, "You can't be careless about this matter. If you really hit Calvin, I should find a way to help you as soon as possible."

-Hearing this, Jacob frowned and said coldly, "No, thanks. I'll solve it by myself

Jacob insisted on his own solution.

Seeing that Jacob was determined and didn't change his mind. Jake shook his head and stopped talking.

The teammates and the coach on the side all put down their glasses at the same time, looking at Jacob and Jake..

They all frowned.

Although they didn't know what happened that day, they all stood on Jacob's side unconditionally.

Calvin was an evil and bad-tempered guy. He frequently disregarded the importance of training and had a detrimental impact on his teammates' performance.

However, Jacob was just the opposite. Although he was very rich and didn't depend on e-sports for a living, he had always worked hard. Whether in training or competition, he seemed to be arrogant, but he was sincere and generous. Most importantly, Jacob was really skilled and good at playing games.

E-sports players admired stronger players.

Now that Calvin and Jacob were on the opposite sides, of course, the rest of KnightGuard would support Jacob.

Furthermore, they scorned Calvin for his abrupt withdrawal from the competition, disrupting their celebration of victory. They condemned Calvin for spoiling their joyful atmosphere. What a vindictive man!

Oneida listened to their conversation quietly.

She didn't say a word and frowned slightly.

After Jake left, Oneida approached Jacob and asked calmly. "What are you going to do?"

Chapter 318

Jacobs showed an indifferent look and curled his lips, saying, "Ofurse I want to make it clear. He made a post on Twitter, so why can't I

With that, Jacobs took out his phone and logged on to Twitter.

As soon as he opened it, he received countless messages.

Most of them were insults.

Violence was something most people couldn't stand.

Oneida saw the messages and sighed softly. "Don't care about them."

Oneida had been through such things before, and she had been abused on the Internet a lot.

She had long been used to this situation.

Oneida hoped that Jacob would not be affected, so she tried to comfort him.

Jacob suddenly glanced at Oneida and smiled, saying, "Don't worry. I'm not as fragile as you think."

After saying that, Jacob began to edit his tweet.

Soon, he posted the tweet.

[Hello, I'm Jacob from KnightGuard. I need to address some points Calvin made in his post. While Calvin and I encountered an issue, it is more nuanced than he portrayed. I did exhibit a cold demeanor towards him due to his improper conduct. Specifically, Calvin neglected training sessions for his date and took shortcuts during daily exercises. His lack of commitment and disrespectful behavior towards both our team members and opponents were concerning. On the day he left the team, a confrontation unfolded in the training room. Having just returned from a date, Calvin expressed unwillingness to participate in training, prompting me to ask him to leave. However, his subsequent aggressive actions necessitated me to act in self-defense. To label this as an act of violence against him is preposterous. In summary, I maintain a clear conscience.]

Chapter 349

As the other protagonist of this incident, Jacob's words were immediately publicized by many fans as soon as he tweeted.

[Jacoli has responded to it!

Countless netizens screamed and rushed to Jacob's tweet.

Jacob's words were reasonable and well-grounded.

Most people couldn't find anything wrong after watching it.

[I don't think there is anything wrong with Jacob. Calvin is a scum and has no sense of being a professional contestant at all!

Calvin made the first move, so everything makes sense. How could Jacobs hit him on his initiative?]

[Calvin, this hypocrite! He's the aggressor, yet tries to play innocent. Shame on him for pretending to be a victim!]

[Calvin is so stupid. How dare he lie and slander Jacob? He didn't expect Jacob to make it clear quickly.]

I'm impressed. How could there be such a shameless person like Calvin? He is invincible.]

If this is the truth, then Jacob is not wrong at all.]

I have long heard that after winning the championship, Calvin gradually stopped training and started to do some nonsense. It turned out that he went too far than I thought. After causing trouble, he dares to play the victim! Go back where he came from!] [Jacob, we have never doubted you. You are the best. You don't need to worry about this. Celebrate the championship, and hug you.]

[I'm so distressed. It should have been a happy night to win the championship, but a scumbag ruined it. Jacob, stay happy forever!] Calvin soon saw Jacob's tweet.

He never expected that Jacob would respond so quickly.

Calvin, looking at Jacob's tweet, clenched his fists involuntarily.

This guy, he's always like this... Always so calm and collected, so poised even in times of crisis. Even when faced with such a public opinion crisis, he can still calmly post these words and elaborate on these facts, Calvin thought.

Calvin was a little jealous of Jacob, Jacob is a person who shines everywhere, both on and off the Esports Arena. He is always the center of attention wherever he goes, and being by his side. I feel like a tiny and insignificant. Even if we won the championship, everyone's gaze is still on Jacob. How many people remember that I was part of that championship team? However, winning the championship does have its benefits. With the glory of being a champion, I become even more popular with the ladies.

In the past, he dared not think about it.

Only at this time can he enjoy the pleasure of being admired.

So, he fell in love and began to enjoy his life outside of esports. In fact, there was a dark thought in his heart. I insist on being decadent and dragging Jacob down. Jacob seems eager to win another championship, but I refuse to let that happen." Therefore, he allowed himself to decline and his attitude to be loose.

Chapter 349

He wanted to see Jacoli lose the championship.

Anyway, even if they win another championship, the one who will be remembered as the most shining person will only be Jacob. Some things are just cruel. It is the champion of five people, but only one has his name. The others can only be a foil. How ridiculous and helpless, But Jacob is such a person, born to attract people's attention. It seemed that he shouldn't be blamed for such a thing, Calvin thought.

But Calvin had a feeling of jealousy and resentment.

At that time, they were alone in the training room. Seeing Jacob indifferent and calm face, he couldn't help but want to make a provocation.

Unexpectedly, Jacob didn't fall for his trick at all. He didn't want to pay too much attention to him and just told him. "Leave the training room if you don't want to practice,"

At that moment, countless emotions surged through his heart.

Maybe it was because he thought of the previous grudges or when he saw Jacob's calm and indifferent face.

He thought. Compared to that, my way of venting anger and provoking others makes me look like a clown. I'm punching air whenever I try to convince him of something."

So, he was angry

His anger came for no reason. He waved his fist and rushed to Jacob mercilessly, Calvin's eyes flashed at the thought of this.

He opened Twitter and posted a new tweet.

[Some people refuse to acknowledge the truth. I firmly believe that goodness will always prevail over evil. I swear, I've been treated unfairly and unjustly. And regarding that person's response, I think it was a guilty attempt to cover things up.). After sending these words, he attached a photo below.

In the photo, it was Calvin's own arm.

There were bruises on his not-so-pale arm

Obviously, this was evidence of Calvin being beaten.

The netizens who were gossiping about Jacob were quickly informed that Calvin responded by tweeting again.

People couldn't help sighing. This is like watching a non-stop roller coaster ride of drama! One thing after another, it's keeping us on the edge of our seats.

Calvin's new tweet soon gathered a large number of fans and onlookers.

Wow, there's something new so soon.

[Calvin surprisingly shared a photo of his bruised arm, and it's evident that he got quite a beating.]

I'm dizzy. I'm not sure who I can trust anymore.]

[Before going to school, can I know the final result? I wonder who's telling the truth!]

[This bruise is so terrible. I guess Calvin is not lying.]

Jacob doesn't seem to be lying.]

Chapter 349.

[Both of you seem to be reasonable.]

Even if Calvin started the physical altercation, Jacob couldn't beat him like this. We didn't know whether Calvin's arm was fractured or not.]

This wound of Calvin. Oh, my God. He is so pathetic.]

[The injury is not fake. Anyway, Calvin is injured. He is the victim.]

[Calvin, you're like a bad penny! Jacob had already said his piece so why are you still giving him a hard time? Can't you just let it go?]

[I'm speechless. Calvin shut up. You have no shame! Leave Jacob be.]

[I think Jacob has clarified. But someone is illiterate or thick-skinned and insists on showing his presence.]

It was another round of scolding, and the tweets were already in chaos

The drama between Jacob and Calvin garnered growing attention from netizens.

Oneida naturally also saw this new tweet from Calvin.

After Jacobs posted that tweet, he didn't look at his phone again and began to drink with his teammates

It seemed that he didn't take it seriously.

In fact, without all the halo of Jacobs, he was just a boy less than twenty years old.

He was young and simple-minded.

He assumed that by posting a clarifying tweet, the whole thing would be resolved, and the controversy would eventually fade away.

But in this situation, it was almost impossible for him to escape completely.

Calvin's shameless act would make Jacob fall into the vortex of public opinion.

Even if something were fake, it would become true after gossip.

Naturally, Oneida didn't want Jacob to bear some unwarranted stigma for such a thing

"Ida, why don't you eat?"

Jacob noticed that Oneida had been in a daze, so he couldn't help but ask her.

The boy's eyes were clean, and there seemed to be no impurity in his beautiful eyes.

Jacob's voice pulled back Oneida.

She looked at Jacob in front of her.

She was going to say something.

Finally, she suppressed what she wanted to say and replied lightly, "I want to go out and make a phone call,"

Jacob chuckled, his eyes glowing. "Off you go."

Oneida nodded, turned around and walked out of the box.

"Hey, Zero! As Oneida turned and walked away, her teammates couldn't resist shouting to her, "Where are you headed? You're a significant contributor to this championship and the star of tonight's celebration. You can't run around and have more drinks with us!" "Yes, Zero. Where are you going? It's not good to run at this critical moment."

Oneida was hurrying to leave, so she responded casually, "I'll make a phone call out. I will come back later to drink with you."

Upon hearing this, his teammates became excited immediately. "Okay, you must keep your word. We are waiting for you!" Oneida left the box.

She went to the empty corridor and dialed Simon's number.

"Have you found out what I asked you to look for?"

Simon nodded and replied. "I've found everything. Do you want to me send them all to you now?"

"Yeah. Oneida's eyes were indifferent. "Send it to me."

Chapter 350

After receiving Simon's information, Oneida made another phone call.

Calvin was browsing "Twitter

While being heavily criticized on Twitter, numerous people came to his defense.

Most importantly, Jacol was dragged down by him.

In this situation, it was absolutely impossible for Jacob to be innocent.

However, at that moment, his phone rang

He glanced at the screen.

It was a totally strange number.

Who's calling? he thought.

Calvin was a bit hesitant, wondering whether to answer the phone.

Finally, he answered the phone.

He wanted to see who was on the phone.

"Hey, who is this..."

An indifferent female voice came from the phone. "You don't need to know who I am."

She sounded arrogant.

Calvin was suddenly filled with a burst of unhappiness.

He snorted and said, "Who is this? Is it funny to play tricks? Tell me, what the hell do you want?"

When Oneida heard Calvin's voice tinged with irritation, she couldn't resist sneering.

That w

was right, it was Oneida who called Calvin.

She looked indifferent and didn't show any emotion. "I'm calling because I need to discuss something with you. The photos of you and your girlfriend shopping during the training with your teammates, the videos of your passive games, and the surveillance footage of you and Jacob in the training room that day," Oneida said flatly. Her voice sounded angry and very piercing, "I have all the evidence."

Calvin was stunned when he heard this.

His face changed from blue to pale, and his expression was terrific.

"Do you have these?" He asked back in disbelief, "Can you stop fooling me? How could you have them? Show me if you have!

Calvin's fists and fingertips were trembling slightly.

He did not believe that the mysterious stranger had such things

But, if she really has... Calvin took a deep breath. He shouted in a trembling voice, "Say something! Show me the evidence if you have them. Don't try to fool me. I am not a child." 09:11 Thu, Dec 12 B

Chapter 330

"Look at your mailbox, Oneida reminded him carelessly, and her voice was offish.

Calvin said nothing. He immediately opened the computer and logged in his email.

As soon as he logged in, the system reminded him of a new email.

He moved the mouse and opened it.

There was something in it.

There were photos of himself dating his girlfriend during training, and evidence that he had intended to lose in the games.

That game, he complained on his alternate account of Twitter that he would deliberately lose the game tomorrow and make Jacob uncomfortable,

"She even found my alternate account. Oh, my... It's no joke. If people find out that I wasn't using my best efforts to win, I might get permanently banned! Calvin thought.

"How is it? Did you see them?" Oneida lowered her eyes and asked indifferently.

"How did you get these?" Calvin's face turned pale, and he almost couldn't speak.

"You don't need to know this," Oneida said lightly. "Go apologize, tell the truth, and then apologize to Jacob, or..." Oneida gritted her teeth and said, "I'll expose everything. We'll see what will happen then"

Calvin was already frightened to the point.

He wondered. Who is this woman? Why can she dig up all this stuff? Of course, I don't want to apologize or tell the truth. Isn't that an embarrassment? Moreover, Jacob will be loved by more people. But... Those videos and evidence must not be released. Otherwise, I will be screwed!"

"What? You don't want to do that?" Oneida sneered in a low voice, and her beautiful eyes were indifferent. "Then L..."

"I'll do it" Calvin shouted, looking agitated.

His whole body was trembling, and he looked a little embarrassed. "I'll go to apologize. I'll tell the truth on Twitter. Don't let these things out..."
