

The Second Act: Revenge

Chapter 36

Yuliana and Rachel's eyes fell on Oneida's dress.

The workmanship...

The quality...

It was extremely good!

The design was also unique, gorgeous, and unconventional!

In comparison, the dress that they had boasted about, a designer dress from Hestrya, appeared like a valueless rag.

Yuliana was very jealous.

"Where did she get the clothes from? Shouldn't they send such a beautiful dress to me first?"

Jennifer pursed her lips and did not say anything, but clenched her fists secretly.

She never anticipated that Oneida would effortlessly steal the limelight at the party!

She felt a sense of crisis.

She was afraid that Oneida would be too good and surpass her. If so, what place would she have in the family?

After all, Oneida was Lucas and Tatiana's biological daughter!

Jennifer thought of the medicine that she bought on the black market...

She planned to find a way to humiliate Oneida later!

As Oneida entered the hall, she also stunned Nathan and Hazel.

"Is she really our boring granddaughter?" they thought.

It was evident that she was more refined than the other upper-class ladies.

She made her parents proud!

Nathan was overjoyed and beckoned Oneida to come over with a smile.

Oneida walked to the old man.

“Everyone, please meet my granddaughter, Oneida,” the old man smiled and introduced her to the guests. “Due to some accidents more than a decade ago, she couldn’t stay with us. But now, she has reunited with her biological family. I hope you all get a chance to know her better today.”

As soon as Nathan finished speaking, the other guests immediately praised Oneida.

Chapter 36

“Mr. Chaser is so lucky. His little granddaughter is so beautiful that I am jealous of him.”

“She looks good too. It does not look like she just came back from the countryside!”

“This is what a lady should look like!”

Presently, a voice rang out.

“Oneida’s evening dress seems to be the work of Levi...” Rachel, who had been silent, suddenly spoke as she stared straight at Oneida’s dress.

When the designer Levi was mentioned, many people started whispering amongst themselves.

“It seems that the dress designed by Levi... I remember that this dress also has a very beautiful name, White Moonlight...”

“White Moonlight! It’s a dress I can’t get!”

“How did she manage to get her hands on White Moonlight? I thought it wasn’t being produced anymore,” they wondered.

Hearing that, Yuliana immediately turned her head and asked, “Are you sure that Levi designed that dress?”

Levi’s skills were so extraordinary that she was known as “the Talent!”

How could Oneida be qualified to wear the clothes designed by Levi?

bb3

Rachel replied firmly, "I'm not wrong. Levi is my idol. I've always wanted to be a costume designer. I've observed Levi's designs hundreds of times."

Then, Rachel looked at Oneida with an unkind look and asked coldly, "I don't know how Oneida got this dress. I remember that your dress is called White Moonlight, which is one of Levi's most popular designs. It's rare and no longer produced!"

She continued speaking, "Even if you wanted to buy it, you have to have connections and offer a sky-high price!"

Rachel sneered and guessed, "Oneida is wearing a knockoff, isn't she?"

Everyone was awakened by her words.

Oneida was a country bumpkin who had just returned from the countryside. She had no connections or money. How could she get her hands on the White Moonlight designed by Levi?

The most favored girls in the Chaser family, Rachel and Yuliana, could only wear the dress designed by someone from Hestrya. How could Oneida wear a dress designed by Levi?

It was only possible if Oneida was wearing a knockoff!

Chapter 37

"I wanted to buy this White Moonlight for a long time, but I haven't been able to buy it yet. I'm wondering how Ms. Chaser got it..." a lady said coldly.

Other celebrities looked at Oneida and instantly became disgusted. "You can't even buy it. How can the Chaser family buy the White Moonlight unless it is a relative of Levi?"

"Perhaps it's a knockoff made to look like Levi's White Moonlight dress, but she did not expect it to be quickly recognized as a fake," they speculated.

"She's so vain and attention-seeking, trying to stand out in the crowd."

"Even if she wants to get a knockoff, she shouldn't get a knockoff of Levi's dress. Levi is so famous... Doesn't she know that it's easy to be exposed?"

Yuliana felt much better.

It turned out that Oneida was wearing a knockoff!

Although the dress on her was not as good-looking as Oneida's, at least it was a designer's genuine work. Oneida actually made a knockoff to fool everyone.

It was a a low move!

"Oneida, this is your fault." Yuliana squinted her eyes and said coldly, "I can understand your love for beauty, but our family also has a lot of famous dresses. Why didn't you think about it properly and wear a knockoff?"

Rachel was also stirring it. "Furthermore, it happens that you made a knockoff of my idol Levi's clothes. Shame on Jennifer kept watching.

Although she looked calm, she was feeling smug.

She did not expect that Oneida would be embarrassed before she did anything!

How could she be so stupid and wear a counterfeit dress on such an important occasion?

you!"

Jennifer hesitated for a while before speaking up, "Oneida, it's okay if you're not dressed appropriately, but it might be better if you change into something more normal."

Oneida looked at them expressionlessly as if she was not moved.

However, Tatiana could not help but rush to her and said aggressively, "Are you really wearing a knockoff? Have you made a mistake? There are so many genuine dresses in the house. Why are you wearing a counterfeit dress? You're so embarrassing..."

"Okay!" Nathan raised his eyebrows and said, "Don't say that. Do you think that it is not embarrassing enough for our family?"

He turned to look at Oneida with strong anger and disappointment in his eyes.

Chapter 37

He previously thought that the child was born with an elegant temperament. He did not expect that she was still an ignorant country bumpkin who embarrassed the family.

Hazel felt embarrassed as well, as the upper class placed a great deal of value on prestige, and it was embarrassing to wear a knockoff in such a setting.

The others present were also watching the scene.

The contrast between Oneida's stunning entrance and her present embarrassment was striking.

Even if a country bumpkin was packaged as a fairy, it was still inevitable that she was inferior.

"Take off your clothes!" Nathan looked at Oneida with disgust and frowned, "Change into a normal one!"

However, Oneida replied in a low voice, "Why should I take it off?"

"You!" Nathan's eyes widened. He did not expect Oneida to dare to speak back. "Don't you have some logic?"

I

Tatiana was also furious. "Oneida, did you make up your mind? I knew you shouldn't be here on such a big occasion!"

Oneida sneered and walked directly past them to the center of the hall.

The crystal chandelier refracted the White Moonlight dress, creating a halo effect.

"This dress was indeed made by Levi," Oneida glanced around the hall and said indifferently, "It's not a knockoff. It's a real White Moonlight!"

Her voice was loud and powerful enough to be heard by most people in the hall.

"You said so, right?" A lady said, "Where is the evidence? How can you prove it?"

Chapter 38

"That's right. You won't admit that you're wearing a knockoff. Why should we believe you?" Another celebrity spoke.

"Tut–

tut, you're still stubborn! Since this is not a knockoff, you should prove that and convince us! Don't fool us with the Levi label on your clothes. The label has been copied too many times!"

Oneida smiled and said calmly, "If you know Levi, you should know some of the signature points in her clothes."

"Every zipper of Levi's clothes will be made into a unique rose shape..."

Before she could finish, a tall figure suddenly stood out of the crowd and said, "She's right."

The woman who spoke was elegantly dressed, with a beautiful face and long black hair tied into a bun behind her head. She looked very handsome.

Everyone recognized who the woman was at a glance!

It was Gillian, a designer!

She was a newcomer to the global fashion industry and a genius designer!

Although Gillian was not as famous as the Talent Levi, she was definitely famous.

Gillian smiled at everyone and said, "A few years ago, when I was a student, I was lucky enough to look at Levi's dressing room. Levi's clothes did have some signature points. Her zippers were all unique roses, and the reverse side of each dress was embroidered with special embroidery to embroider the word love."

She continued, "These are all Levi's habits when making clothes, which may not be known by many people, but if you have bought Levi's clothes, you will definitely find them after careful observation."

She then said, "These little habits are all done by Levi with unique craftsmanship, which can't be imitated at all."

After explaining, Gillian looked up at Oneida and politely asked, "Ms. Chaser, do you mind if I look at the details of this dress? Then, I can be sure whether this dress is the work of Levi."

Of course, Oneida would not refuse. She smiled and said, "Yes."

Gillian immediately went forward and checked the zipper. It was indeed a unique rose.

She looked at the back of the dress, which was embroidered with the word "love" with special craftsmanship.

“Everyone,” Gillian finished looking at it and announced to everyone, “I’m sure this is Levi’s handmade dress. Both the unique details and the design and materials of the dress are Levi’s style. I won’t mistake it!”

“If you’re calling this a knockoff, I think you’re insulting Levi. She’s a brilliant designer, and once she creates a dress, it bears her unmistakable brand. Her style is one-of-a-kind and impossible to imitate.”

As Gillian spoke, her expression turned somewhat serious. “Furthermore, many of you may never even have the opportunity to experience Levi’s clothing firsthand! It’s highly inappropriate to casually label it as a knockoff”

Chapter 38

Gillian’s words made everyone present speechless.

The person speaking was Gillian!

She was a well-known costume designer locally and abroad, and she had touched Levi’s clothes!

The top designers in the industry had already said that the dress must be genuine and Oneida.

Both the guests and Nathan felt guilty that they had wronged

The ladies immediately quietened and lowered their eyes sullenly.

They were jealous of Oneida.

How could Oneida be able to do that?

The group of people was in disbelief that Oneida was able to wear Levi’s White Moonlight, an item that they themselves had wanted but could not obtain.

Yuliana and Jennifer secretly gritted their teeth, feeling resentful and disappointed.

They wanted to see Oneida make a fool of herself, but they did not expect that she was wearing genuine clothes!

Damn it!

Not far away, a handsome man in a suit stared at Oneida, who was standing in the middle of the hall.

Christopher raised his hand and touched the gold-rimmed glasses on the bridge of his nose, with eyes full of emotion.

Recently, he had been having strange dreams.

Chapter 39

He dreamed of a monstrous fire. Fiery light engulfed the area.

The fire in the dream was so big that it seemed that it could devour everything.

There was a girl who kept calling his name.

“Christopher...”

The voice was sad, devastated, and painful.

He was heartbroken when he heard her voice.

He did not know who was calling him.

However, he just heard Oneida’s voice.

The woman’s voice and the voice in his dream overlapped magically.

It seemed to be exactly the same.

He was sure that it was the first time he saw Oneida,

However, why did he dream of her voice?

What was that endless fire heralding?

III

Christopher frowned and was still staring at Oneida.

Jennifer arrived at an unknown time, and upon noticing the man’s gaze fixed on Oneida, her mood immediately shifted to one of displeasure.

Deliberately, she walked over to Christopher and obstructed his view. "Christopher, what are you looking at?" she asked.

Christopher woke up as if he was in a dream. He shook his head and said perfunctorily, "I didn't look at anything..."

The man's attitude made Jennifer even more dissatisfied. She frowned and said in a slightly angry tone, "Do you not like me anymore, Christopher?"

Hearing that, Christopher immediately reached out and rubbed Jennifer's head. He smiled and said, "I'll always like you,

Hearing that, Jennifer was relieved.

At that moment, Yvonne and Jackson were in the room on the second floor.

Yvonne and Jackson naturally witnessed what had just happened.

Jackson's deep gaze fell on Oneida in the hall.

Jenn."

Chapter 39

He recognized her.

He had met her once in Jussipi Clubhouse.

Furthermore, he even investigated her information.

He was taken aback to discover that the girl with a radiant smile was actually a member of the Chaser family, who had been residing in the village for over a decade.

He saw her again.

The peculiar sensation that he had when he met her for the first time appeared to intensify at that very moment.

Looking into Oneida's eyes, he seemed to see Cece.

Her eyes were as bright and round as Cece's.

However, she could not be Cece.

Cece was not as beautiful as her.

Cece... She was simply a kind and ordinary little girl.

Jackson's fingers tightened subconsciously, and he looked gloomy.

He missed Ceçe very much.

In the hall, the banquet continued.

Oneida did not have to deal with the guests and sat alone at the table.

In her previous life, she also attended the welcome party.

She did not remember many things.

She only remembered that something had happened to her.

She was suddenly confused and unconscious, and even made some abnormal behaviors and said some abnormal words.

She did not know why she was like this.

Afterward, she speculated that she might have been under the influence of some sort of drug since there were no physical issues with her.

As for who used this medicine to harm herself...

Oneida narrowed her eyes slightly, and a cold light flashed through her eyes.

She knew who it was.

Suddenly, there was a noise beside her. It was Jennifer who sat down beside her.

Jennifer pushed a glass of fresh orange juice to Oneida and said gently, "Oneida, I brought this orange juice for you. Drink it if you're thirsty."

Oneida did not say anything. She just glanced at Jennifer meaningfully.

Jennifer was creeped out

Did Oneida find out...

No!

Impossible!

Jennifer felt that her movements were concealed and that Oneida would never know what she had done.

Chapter 40

"What's wrong?" Jennifer was a little guilty and smiled dryly.

Oneida shook her head and said in a low voice, "Nothing."

Jennifer secretly breathed a sigh of relief and pushed the orange juice to Oneida. "The juice was just squeezed. It's very fresh. Have it."

Oneida glanced at her and said, "You're so kind to me. I was so rude to you before. Yet, you did not hold a grudge..."

Jennifer felt that she was implying something in her words.

However, she did not ignore her previous thoughts.

The medicine that she purchased on the black market had been placed in orange juice.

As long as Oneida drank it, she would definitely be embarrassed in front of many people at the party!

Oneida stood up from her chair and turned to leave.

“You...” Jennifer did not expect her to behave like that. She widened her eyes and hurriedly reached out to grab Oneida’s arm.

“Where are you going? Haven’t you drunk the orange juice yet?”

If Oneida did not drink it, Jennifer’s efforts would be in vain.

Oneida gave her a faint glance. “I can’t drink it along I’ll get one for you as well.”

“I see,” Jennifer thought.

Hearing her words, Jennifer slowly withdrew her hand.

Oneida quickly brought back a glass of ko same orange juice.

However, she changed the position of two glasses of orange juice under Jennifer’s eyelids at a very fast speed and in a very unnoticeable way.

The spiked orange juice was quietly brought to Jennifer.

Oneida picked up the orange juice in her hand and smiled at Jennifer, “Let’s drink together, Jennifer.”

Jennifer did not know that the glasses of orange juice had been switched.

Seeing that Oneida had taken a big sip, Jennifer was both happy and proud.

“You’re happy?” she thought.

It was Oneida’s turn to make a fool of herself later!

It was said that the medicine could make people confused and talk nonsense. No matter how strong their willpower was, they could not resist it.

She could not wait to see Oneida go mad at the party later!

“Okay, I’ll drink it too.” Jennifer smiled, picked up the orange juice in front of her, and sipped it gently.

Then, they sat together and stared at each other.

Jennifer was waiting for the drug to take effect.

However, after waiting for a long time, Oneida’s expression remained the same.

Was Jennifer fooled by the owner of the black market?

Suddenly, a sharp pain rushed into her head-

Jennifer frowned tightly, and her head went blank immediately after the pain.

“Jennifer, what’s wrong with you?” Seeing what was wrong with Jennifer, Oneida realized that the drug was probably starting to take effect.

Jennifer could not hear anything, as if all her senses were paralyzed.

Then, she rushed out of the chair.

“You... Do all of you want to dance with me?” Jennifer seemed to have completely changed. She laughed madly, swinging her arms and body, rushed to the center of the hall, and spoke to everyone.

Everyone present was frightened.

“Do you want to dance? Hahahaha...” Jennifer laughed loudly and looked like she had lost her wits. She even stretched out her hand to grab the arm of a stranger.

Everyone looked at Jennifer as if they were looking at a monster.

“What’s wrong with her? Is she crazy?” Someone widened his eyes as he spoke.

“Who knows? It’s terrible...”

“Or could it be due to a sudden onset of her mental illness?”

“Jennifer is a crazy girl?”

Tatiana and Lucas were also frightened. Why did their daughter suddenly go crazy?
