

The Second Act: Revenge

Chapter 56

Everyone felt a chill when they heard the name “Michael”

Michael was a super bully from Imperial Star University!

Because of his great family, he acted arrogantly at Imperial Star University. Almost all the students avoided him, for fear of getting into trouble.

As for why Michael acted so boldly, it was mainly because the Lindt family was a powerful family in Jeahron. Although it was not as powerful as the Bane family, the Lindt family could not be underestimated.

Secondly, when Imperial Star University was founded, Michael’s grandfather donated a luxury building to Imperial Star University. His grandfather could be called the founder of Imperial Star University.

Therefore, even if Michael got into a lot of trouble at Imperial Star University, the school would turn a blind eye to it and wouldn’t pursue the matter.

No one had expected that Matthias, the little monster, would offend Michael so ignorantly.

“Is the little monster crazy? How dare you mess with Michael? someone shouted confusedly.

“There’s nothing he won’t do. It’s not that surprising since he’s such a weird person, another person said.

“Oh, leave him alone. It’s none of our business.”

“Let the little monster pray for himself. We can’t do anything about it!”

“He deserves it for wearing that stem face all day.”

Oneida sat alone behind the classroom and listened to other students’ comments.

Not saying a word, she merely pursed her lips and watched with cold eyes.

Oneida had never been a nosy person.

However, in Matthias' case, she felt the need to intervene.

After all, she had been approaching Matthias with an ulterior motive.

She wanted to use Matthias herself. On one hand, she could lose a strong opponent in the future. On the other hand, she could also greatly benefit from Matthias.

After thinking for a while, Oneida got up from her seat and walked out of the back door of the classroom stealthily.

Meanwhile, at a high-end restaurant at Imperial Star University, Matthias was surrounded by several students and men in black.

Some of them were Michael's attendants and some were his bodyguards.

Clad in a white shirt, Matthias straightened his back and stood in the middle of it all with a cold expression.

Not far away, a young man leaned against the couch and crossed his legs lazily.

The young man was the infamous Michael,

Chapter 56

"Listen, it's useless for you to dummy up. Do you even think you can get away scot-free after offending me? Michael narrowed his eyes and sneered coldly. "As I said, you can bark like a dog and climb out of the restaurant with your limbs on the ground, or you can be beaten up by my men and be carried out of the restaurant. You must choose one of the two options!" Michael raised his chin slightly, and his face was full of disdain and complacency.

It was the first time he had seen such a person who was not afraid of him.

Originally, he wanted to have a quiet meal in the high-end restaurant, so he had requested someone to empty the restaurant.

Unexpectedly, Matthias had ignored him completely. The former had been leisurely getting ready to leave after finishing his meal.

Michael thought, "Isn't he blatantly disrespecting me?"

For the first time, Michael felt that his dignity and authority were being challenged.

Therefore, he asked someone to halt the ignorant boy.

He was going to teach Matthias a lesson!

Matthias still stood upright without a trace of expression on his handsome face.

"Okay, you're kind of tough. Go ahead!" Michael completely lost patience. His expression darkened as he ordered, "Don't stop until he needs to be sent to the hospital!"

After hearing that, everyone rushed toward Matthias with all their strength.

"Wait." A crisp and powerful female voice suddenly sounded at the door.

For some reason, the person's voice seemed to have a special magic and aura. Everyone immediately stopped and looked toward the owner of the voice.

Even Michael couldn't help but look at the person at the door.

Oneida approached slowly.

She wore a cool and indifferent expression, looking lofty and arrogant.

"He's my classmate Oneida glanced at Michael. Her beautiful eyes were tinged with arrogance, and she was like an arrogant queen who would not back down.

Michael looked at Oneida from head to toe. He thought, "She looks pretty. But her temperament could use some work."

"So?" Michael snorted in response.

"Give him to me." Oneida did not beat around the bush with Michael and declared her intention straightforwardly.

Michael was stunned for a moment before laughing out loud. After laughing, he looked at Oneida casually. "Who are you? She even dared to ask me for him! Don't think I'll be merciful just because you're a girl. If you keep nagging, I'll beat you up! If you have any sense, you'll get out of here!" Then, he turned to the attendants and bodyguards and shouted, "What are you waiting for? Proceed!"

Then, they rushed toward Matthias again.

However, in the blink of an eye, Oneida, who was still at the door, unconsciously moved to the group of people.

She dished out a neat kick, a shoulder throw, kicked in the air, and threw out a powerful punch.

A few seconds later, the group of people who were going to beat Matthias were defeated by Oneida.

They fell to the ground in pain and were unable to get up.

"What just happened?" they all wondered.

No one had been able to react.

The girl suddenly appeared like a ghost. She made her move all of a sudden and dealt with an overwhelming offense.

They were like fragile

gile dolls. They

lls. They couldn't fight back, so they were defeated!

Not far away, Michael was also shocked.

His bodyguards and attendants had been carefully selected by him. They were all good fighters.

However, they were all defeated by a weak-looking woman.

How was that even possible?

Michael

I couldn't help but stand up from the sofa and rushed straight to Oneida.

Oneida protected Matthias behind her.

She looked calm and indifferent, like a determined and indifferent fighter. She looked incomparably powerful and terrible.

“You losers!” Michael glanced at the attendant who fell to the ground and looked disgusted. Then, he sneered and looked at Oneida fiercely. “Very well. It seems that I have to go out myself.”

After saying that, he moved his fist and made a cracking sound.

Michael had learned many self-defense skills since he was a child. He took lessons in kickboxing, close combat, and freestyle fighting.

Usually, he was just too lazy to lift a finger. However, once he got serious, there were only a few who could beat him.

He stared at Oneida contemptuously as if he was looking at an ant who was about to die. “It’s too late to regret it. The two of you should bow and beg for forgiveness immediately. Maybe I’ll consider being gentle...”

Oneida smiled meaningfully. “if you kneel and beg now, I will also consider letting you off lightly.”

“You!” Michael’s eyes widened with anger, and he was on the verge of fury.

The two of them suddenly exploded into motion

Unexpectedly, a snow-white powder suddenly appeared in front of her!

Oneida narrowed her eyes and her nerves tensed up. Only her strong reaction ability ty and defense mechanism made her instinctively step

Although she successfully avoided most of the powder, a small amount of it still entered her eyes.

A tingling pain came from her eyes.

Oneida couldn't help shedding tears. Opening her eyes, she found that she was completely unable to see.

"This is called catching someone off guard!" Michael smiled and looked at Oneida proudly.

The powder was the secret weapon he hid in his pocket.

Although Michael was arrogant and domineering, he was not stupid or impulsive.

He was completely clear-headed.

Oneida was a woman, but her fighting skills were not simple. Michael wasn't sure he could win even if he fought with her himself.

It was better to play some tricks and take the enemy by surprise.

He thought, "Now that she can't see with her eyes, how could she fight me?"

"Mr. Lindt, how dare you play such a dirty trick?" The tingling and tearing symptoms in her eyes were still not relieved, but there was no panic on Oneida's face. She lowered her eyes and asked calmly.

Michael just snorted coldly and said arrogantly, "I'm this sort of person. In order to achieve my goal, I will do whatever it takes. Those great and noble behaviors are not my style!"

Matthias, who had been silent, finally changed his expression.

Just now, Oneida had been protecting him, so he had not been attacked by the powder.

The handsome boy's face darkened slightly when he saw the state Oneida was in.

“Oneida,” Matthias called her name for the first time.

This was the first time Matthias had spoken to Oneida.

In the past, Matthias kept himself closed for a long time, not talking to anyone, and not responding to anyone.

However, at that moment, he looked at Oneida’s back, and the boy’s voice was a fine layer of snow. He said coldly, “Come back here. I’ll fight him myself.”

Oneida stiffened slightly.

She couldn’t see him, but she probably guessed that Matthias’ voice came from behind. She thought, “So, Matthias is finally willing to speak! It seems that my painstaking efforts were not in vain.”

Smiling. Oneida replied, “Just stay here. This fight is between Michael and me.”

Michael was inexplicably angry upon seeing them. They were not taking him seriously! He thought, “Am I so easy to beat? Why are they arguing over who gets to fight me?”

“What are you talking about?” Michael gritted his teeth impatiently, “Don’t worry. You two can’t escape. I’ll take care of you both one after another!”

At that moment, the students who passed by the restaurant couldn’t help but stop and watch.

“Oh wow! A girl is going to fight against Michael. Come and have a look!” someone directly picked up their phones and told their classmates and friends to come join the party.

“This girl has the guts! I’ll call an ambulance for her later”

“Michael, can’t you even teach a woman a lesson?”

Before long, a group of students came to the

Chapter 59

As soon as Michael finished speaking, Oneida suddenly shot a cold arrow and quickly attacked him.

Michael was caught off guard and kept moving back to avoid it.

However..

Even though the woman in front of Michael couldn't see anything, she seemed to know his every move. Every one of her attacks was aiming for his vital points.

Michael was exhausted from dealing with the attacks and almost collapsed to the ground from being unable to hold on!

How could this have happened?

For Oneida, it was not difficult to distinguish the position by listening to sounds.

From Michael's breathing and footsteps, she could easily make a conjecture about Michael's position and even his body orientation.

Attacking was a natural instinct of the body.

Suddenly Oneida changed her tempo and lowered her body before giving an extremely cool whirlwind leg sweep.

When the sweep abruptly hit his leg. Michael was already feeling overwhelmed.

His lower leg hurt violently, and then his body tilted before he fell face forward to the ground heavily!

Michael's face was bruised and swollen due to the fall, and even his legs felt so painful, almost as if they had broken.

He howled and was in so much pain that he couldn't even get up.

He was Michael Lindt! That Lindt! When had he ever been in this pathetic of a state before?

A series of gasps suddenly sounded around them.

When the crowd saw that, they widened their eyes and took a sharp breath.

Was the usually domineering and lawless Michael, got beaten up by someone?

Even worse, it was a woman!

Who exactly was this woman?

She looked so cool and dashing just now!

She was so smooth, not to mention magnificent and powerful. Those moves looked even better than those of top

The series of moves just now combat artists!

Oneida felt that everything was over now.

She took a few steps back and said to Matthias, "Let's head back to the classroom."

"Wait..." moaned Michael. He was still lying on the ground weakly, and blood dripped down his nose onto his face, making him look comical. "Let's compete again..." he rasped out.

Chapter 59

"No matter how many times we compete, you still can't beat me," declared Oneida, who didn't even bother to look at Michael before refusing him directly.

After saying that, Oneida and Matthias started to leave.

"Let's compete in other stuff, not fighting..." gritted Michael, "How about we race cars?"

Car racing was Michael's forte.

As long as this woman agreed, he would undoubtedly win

Michael needed to find a way to exact revenge because he was aware of the fact t fact that he had been humiliated.

Seeing that Oneida looked indifferent, he grinned and said, "If you beat me the next time, I'll apologize to you and Matthias. I will go to the broadcasting room and apologize to both of you in front of the whole school, all right?"

Michael gave his bargaining chips.

Michael had never apologized to anyone and certainly wouldn't be doing it hereafter as well

The reason why he dared to say so was that he was sure that he would undoubtedly win.

He was a professional when it came to car racing.

The expression on Oneida's face finally showed a slight crack. She smiled slightly and said to Michael in a deep voice, "All right, that's a deal."

Michael was thrilled to hear that.

"Wait to be get tortured by me then!" thought Michael.

He refused to believe that this woman could also race a car....

"However, you had better keep your promise," added Oneida coldly. "When the time comes, if you refuse to apologize, I will make you regret

After saying that, Oneida and Matthias left without looking back.

Michael was lifted from the ground by several bodyguards. He stared at their backs fiercely and sneered, "You still want my apology? I have never lost in car racing before!"

Once Oneida walked out of the restaurant, her eyes finally cleared up, and she could see

It must be that the effect of the powder had dissipated, and the tingling pain in her eyes had disappeared as well.

COMMENT

Chapter 60

Matthias' deep dark eyes were filled with inexplicable waves.

In the past, his world was just black and white.

He didn't care about the world.

His own world had nothing to do with others.

However, Matthias wasn't sure when Oneida had broken into his world.

It was like his empty eyes finally had a focus, and he also saw many different things in Oneida.

He suddenly wanted to confirm what Oneida's thoughts were in actuality.

Why didn't she hate Matthias and think of him as a little monster?

you have a

When Oneida heard that, she immediately turned to look at him with a gentle smile in her beautiful eyes and praised, "Matthias, you beautiful voice."

Instead of answering Matthias' question, she praised his voice.

Matthias was also stunned.

Oneida continued, "Matthias, you're an extremely good person. Why don't you show off more of your goodness? I hope you can open your heart to the world. That's why I helped you."

Of course, she also hoped Matthias would be grateful enough and wouldn't confront her in the future. It would be great if he could cooperate with her.

so, Oneida would never tell him about her motives.

Matthias stared at Oneida fixedly as if he was still recalling what she had just said.

The handsome boy pursed his thin lips and remained silent for a moment

A few seconds later, Matthias replied, "I got it."

He only said three brief words, but the gaze Matthias had when he looked at Oneida was as if the stars were flowing in the dark night sky, their radiance blinding.

"It was you who took the initiative to approach me. You are my only friend. I'll hold on tight to you, thought Matthias as he looked at Oneida, thinking in a paranoid and morbid way.

Oneida didn't know what Matthias was thinking as they rushed back to the classroom.

At Imperial Star University, word of the upcoming car race between Michael and Oneida had circulated swiftly.

For the students of Imperial Star University, Michael, the bully, naturally was someone everyone knew, but Oneida was still a stranger to them.

Most people only knew that she was a female student from Regular Class A Hearing this news, many people felt that it was unbelievable.

Chapter GO

Although Michael was not a good person, there were a few things he was good at. Firstly, it was fighting. Secondly, it was racing.

Either this girl named Oneida was going for a publicity stunt, or she wasn't thinking clearly. How could she dare to race against Michael?

It was clearly wishful thinking!

"Oneida, are you truly going to race against Michael?" asked Hillary as she blocked Oneida as soon as she returned to the classroom, "Although I believe in your strength, I'm afraid you can't compare with Michael in the field of racing..."

"Oneida, my advice would be to give up. If you lose to Michael, that bully, he will ridicule you in all kinds of manners. Earlier, there was a guy who dropped out of school after he broke down due to Michael's ridicule..." interjected another kind classmate.

"In fact, racing is very dangerous. Oneida, you are a girl..." faltered Howard. He was also confused when he heard the news, thinking that

Oneida was acting too bold,

Nearly everyone was pessimistic about Oneida winning this.

After all, it was a car race, not a basketball game.

"Is Oneida a versatile genius? Does she know how to race as well as play basketball?" wondered some people.

Imperial Star University did have versatile geniuses, but they were all in Starlight Class. Oneida, who was in a regular class, obviously couldn't be a genius.

However, Oneida had no intention of backing out. She smiled at the crowd and said indifferently, "Whether I will win or lose, I wouldn't know if I don't give it a try. At dusk, you can also come to Beaconhead Mountain to have a look."

The decisive battle between Michael and Oneida was on Beaconhead Mountain.

This mountain was a well-known holy land for racing!
