

Ye Chen & Charlie wade Version

Secret Identity 321-330

Chapter 321

Right now, Xiao Chorán was very worried about her father's injuries.

She hadn't expected that Liu Zhongjing, who had been hired by Gao Junwei, was actually a quack doctor who had cheated her.

Now that Liu Zhongjing had been discovered, who in all of Jinling could heal her father's spine?

As she was thinking, Ye Chen brought Shi Tianqi to her and introduced her, "Choran, this is the famous doctor, Shi Tianqi Shi, he can cure our father's injuries."

Xiao Churan and Ma Lan were overjoyed when they heard this!

Mother and daughter had never dreamed that a top Chinese doctor like Shi Tianqi would be willing to treat Xiao Changkun's injuries.

Xiao Chorán hurriedly said, "Old Shi, I'm counting on you for my father's illness!"

Shi Tianqi smiled slightly and said, "Lady Ye, please rest assured, Master Ye has a renewed kindness for me, I will definitely do my best."

After saying that, he stepped forward to Xiao Changkun who was lying on the hospital bed, took out a pill, and after very carefully cutting off half of it, he placed half of it into Xiao Changkun's mouth with extra caution under the expectant gaze of the crowd.

Everyone waited with bated breath.

The original doctor in charge of the hospital, although he did not believe that Chinese medicine could cure spinal injuries, but after all, it was the famous Shi Tianqi, which made him vaguely feel that a miracle might really happen.

As for Song Wanting, Wang Zhenggang, Qin Gang, and Hong Wu, each of them had received Ye Chen's divine medicine, so they recognized where it came from at a glance, and they also wanted to know at the moment, how divine was this medicine? Is it paraplegia?

Then, only Xiao Changkun's body trembled slightly, and his face, which was originally incomparably pale, began to redden in this instant, and his closed eyes, at the same time, slowly opened.

When Xiao Changkun opened his eyes, he only felt his spirit shaking, and his entire body was warm and unexplainably comfortable.

Moreover, the pain that was deep in the marrow of his bones was even more slowly disappearing!

He made a conscious attempt to sit up, and that's when, to everyone's stunned surprise, the scene occurred!

Xiao Changkun had actually sat up from his hospital bed on his own!

Everyone present, after seeing such a scene, was shocked one by one!

Xiao Chorán covered her little mouth and cried tears of joy, Shi Tianqi is indeed worthy of being a TCM titan, his wonderful hands have rejuvenated, he really cured my father's paraplegia!

And as Master Hong Fifth and the others witnessed Xiao Changkun's recovery as it was, they admired Ye Chen even more!

They knew that the half pill that Xiao Changkun had eaten was the divine pill that Ye Chen had refined and had obtained all by himself, and now they saw that the pill was so divine! Just half a pill will cure paraplegia, and one is thrilled beyond words!

At the same time, they couldn't help but exclaim in their hearts, Master Ye is truly a god too!

The pills that were casually concocted could actually even cure paraplegia in an instant, completely life-saving!

As for Shi Tianqi, he was on the verge of fainting in shock!

This is truly a medical miracle! Even an American couldn't cure paraplegia, but he cured himself with only half a miracle pill!

Thinking of this, he was so excited that he couldn't help but carefully tuck the remaining half of the pill into the inner pocket of his clothes.

This was an additional half of the divine pill that Master Ye had rewarded himself with! Make sure you keep it safe and keep it for a long time!

At this time, Xiao Changkun felt the shocking changes occurring within his body and looked incredulous.

He vaguely remembered that he had been hit by a car accident and was unable to move his entire body, hadn't he?

But now, why does it feel as if this never happened at all? The feeling in my own body was so good that it couldn't even be better than it was before the injury!

What is this all about?

Thinking of this, Xiao Changkun was in a fog.

He couldn't help but ask Xiao Churan, "Ran Ran, what's wrong with me?!"

Xiao Churan only came back to her senses and hurriedly cried, "Dad, you were in a car accident and were almost paralyzed, thanks to Divine Doctor Shi."

Saying that, she stepped forward to Shi Tianqi's front and said with great gratitude, "Doctor Shi, thank you so much, if it wasn't for you, my dad really wouldn't have been saved."

After saying that, her pretty face was solemn, and she was about to bend down towards Shi Tianqi to express her gratitude.

Shi Tianqi hurriedly helped her up, he actually wanted to say that he should thank Master Ye, without Master Ye's medicine, he wouldn't be able to cure her father, and even, the fact that her father was able to recover was all thanks to Master Ye's divine medicine working.

However, when he thought that Ye Chen didn't want to expose his strength, so Shi Tianqi had no choice but to say, "Madam Ye, it's just a small matter, you don't have to be so polite."

If it wasn't for Master Ye's divine medicine, even he, a Chinese medicine titan, would have taken the high paraplegia without any medical treatment.

The hospital's attending doctor was also stunned, he looked at Shi Tianqi and said tremblingly, "Doctor Shi, you've created a world-class medical miracle! You could have won a Nobel Prize for medicine with that drug alone! It's a big deal for the benefit of all mankind!"

Shi Tianqi smiled awkwardly and said, "You're too harsh, my husband only got the divine medicine by chance, otherwise, even if I had the greatest skill, I wouldn't be able to restore the paralyzed person back to normal."

The attending doctor exclaimed, "Your divine medicine is a medical miracle in itself! If mass-produced, there's no telling how many people it could benefit!"

Shi Tianqi shook his head and said, "This divine medicine of mine, made by someone with great magical powers, is extremely rare in the world, and I only have the last half of it left, not to mention mass production."

The attending doctor sighed and said, "That's a shame."

Xiao Choran rushed forward at this time and asked the attending doctor, "Doctor, in my father's current condition, how long will he probably be discharged from the hospital?"

The attending doctor said, "This, I just took a look at Mr. Xiao's condition, the spine injury has been repaired, and the other trauma to the body is also recovering well, but I still suggest that you observe him in the hospital for a few days first, and by the way, let Mr. Xiao recuperate well."

Shi Tianqi, who was on the side, also spoke up, "That's right, Mrs. Ye, in general, injuries depend on treatment in three parts and recuperation in seven parts, so I still suggest that Mr. Xiao should not be discharged from the hospital in a hurry, and recuperate well in the hospital for a few days."

Xiao Choran nodded hurriedly and said, "Then let's stay in the hospital for a few days to recuperate first."

As soon as Ye Chen heard this, he said to Shi Tianqi, Song Wanting and the rest of the crowd, "Thank you all for running over to see my father-in-law, thank you! But my father-in-law is recovering from a serious illness, so let him rest and rest quietly."

The crowd nodded in panic.

Since Master Ye had spoken, it was natural that they should leave quickly, so as not to cause trouble.

So Song Wanting, Shi Tianqi, Qin Gang, Wang Zhenggang, and Master Hong Fifth, all of them respectfully bid farewell to Ye Chen.

When Ye Chen sent them out first, his mother-in-law Ma Lan was very worried and said to Xiao Churan, "Churan, Ye Chen, this useless trash, is now getting more and more skillful at deceiving people ah! So many big names have been tricked by him, this is the rhythm of death!"

323

Hearing her mother's warning, Xiao Churan also felt embarrassed.

She also thought that Ye Chen using the feng shui one to get close to these big names was actually equivalent to walking a tightrope on the Grand Canyon, which was very dangerous.

There were some qigong masters who had fooled many celebrities before, but then after the thunderstorm, they were directly screwed over by everyone joining forces.

If Ye Chen continued on like this, it was hard to say what would happen in the future.

When Ma Lan saw that Xiao Churan also looked worried, she knew that she had managed to convince her and hurriedly struck while the iron was hot, "When your father is discharged from the hospital, you must quickly divorce him! Otherwise, when the day comes that these people know they've been fooled by him, our family will still be in trouble?"

Saying that, Lan Ma added, "You didn't see that Gao Junwei? A few words were thrown down the stairs before they could say anything, and Ye Chen lied to them so badly that they'll die then!"

Xiao Churan said with some displeasure, "Mom, Ye Chen has just asked Divine Doctor Shi to save Dad, how can you say such words? Isn't that crossing the river?"

"Why can't I tell you?" Ma Lan said, "Do you know, he's in the same situation as I was when I took out a financial insurance policy, he might be thunderstruck one day. Once the thunderstorm is over, there's nothing left!"

Xiao Churan said very seriously, "Mom, no matter what, I won't choose to divorce Ye Chen."

That said, but Xiao Churan's heart couldn't help but swell with worry.

It wasn't that she was afraid that Ye Chen would thus implicate herself and the Xiao family in the future, but she was worried that Ye Chen's life would be in danger from the retaliation of this gang of bigots.

Thinking of this, she felt that in order to be sure to persuade Ye Chen, he must not let him rely on superstition to fool people anymore, lest he would be asking for trouble in the future.

When Ma Lan heard this, she was exasperated and said, "You child! It's really going to piss me off at you!"

As soon as the conversation ended, Ye Chen finished sending everyone away and returned to the house.

Ma Lan still wanted to say something else, and the attending doctor spoke up at this time, "By the way, trouble yourselves to go through a hospitalization procedure later, and we'll start the follow-up rehabilitation and care on our side."

"Good!" Xiao Chorán turned around and said to Ye Chen, "The 180,000 cheque that Wang Dong just returned is at your place, right?"

"In." Ye Chen nodded and said, "Then I'll go pay the money."

After saying that, Ye Chen turned around and left the hospital room again.

Xiao Churan's mother, Ma Lan, hurriedly asked as soon as she heard that there was a check for 180,000 yuan, "A check? What check? Where's the check?"

Xiao Churan said, "It's the Emperor Group's Director Wang who refunded my office rent, and they gave me the office in the Yongxing Building for free."

Lan Ma said excitedly, "Is that good? Oops! That's a savings of 180,000!"

Afterwards, she hurriedly asked the doctor, "By the way doctor, how much do we have to pay for this hospitalization?"

The attending doctor said, "Since the patient has already healed, the rest is just rehabilitation and nursing, it's not really much money, just two thousand yuan a day is enough, just pay a deposit of twenty thousand first."

As soon as Ma Lan heard that she only needed to pay 20,000, she was immediately moved, the check was 180,000! We have 160,000 left!

Thinking of this, she hurriedly said to Xiao Chorán, "I'll go find Ye Chen, I'd better go for the payment of the fee."

After saying that, he hurriedly went out and caught up.

Ye Chen was walking towards the payment office at this time, when he suddenly heard a rush of footsteps behind him, and when he turned back, his mother-in-law, Ma Lan, was already at the front.

Ma Lan stood in front of him and ordered in an upbeat manner, "Ye Chen, bring me the check, I'm going to pay the fee!"

Ye Chen didn't know that she was greedy for the remaining 160,000, so he said, "Mom, you can go back to stay with Dad, I'll just go pay the fee."

Ma Lan glared at him and said in exasperation, "Why are you talking so much nonsense? I said I'll go, you get the cheque out and go back to the ward to help Hatsura!"

324

Ye Chen shrugged his shoulders helplessly, pulled out the check from his pocket and handed it to her, saying, "Mom, here's your check."

Ma Lan excitedly took the cheque and ran straight to the payment office as she was filled with joy.

When Ye Chen saw how anxious she was, he knew that she was thinking about money, sighed, and turned around to go back to the hospital room.

After going back, Xiao Churan asked curiously, "Did my mother catch up with you?"

Ye Chen nodded, "Mom's taking the check away, saying she's going to pay it."

"Alright." Xiao Churan was also full of helplessness.

She knew that mom was always greedy and definitely the money-seeing type, knowing that with this 180,000 rent refund, she would definitely get some ideas.

But she can't say anything, after all, mom is such a person, if she doesn't agree, she will definitely cry, make a scene and hang herself!

At this time, Ma Lan quickly ran to the payment office and slapped the check in front of the fee collector, then said, "I'll pay Xiao Changkun's hospital fee."

The fee collector nodded, opened the file, saw the hospitalization information, and said, "Just pay 20,000, more or less refundable."

"Good." Ma Lan couldn't hide her excitement and said, "Pay with this check and put the rest on my personal card."

After saying that, he took out his bank card and handed it over, instructing, "Just put it into this card, and don't dilly-dally."

The cashier hummed, took the check and took a look at it, and was dumbfounded!

When Lan Ma saw her expression stunned, she thought she was being deliberately negative and said in annoyance, "I said what's wrong with you? You'd better get on with it! I've got work to do here!"

The toll collector came back to her senses, and when she saw Ma Lan's impatient face, she also got a little angry, and threw the check in Ma Lan's face and said angrily, "I think you are a patient who ran away from the psychiatric department, right? Taking a check for $100 million to pay hospital bills? No pills today?"

"What? One hundred million dollars?!" Ma Lan frowned and picked up the check from the ground.

As she counted, she muttered to herself, "one, ten, one hundred, one thousand, one hundred thousand, one hundred thousand, one million, one million, one billion."

Counting here, her mind clouded over, she blurted out, "What a hundred million! This is a fortune!"

The toll collector couldn't hide his anger and said, "I say, are you a sick man? Where did you get that fake check for a prank to come here and scam me? Believe it or not I'll immediately call 911 to arrest you and punish you for fraud!"

Ma Lan came back to her senses and broke out in a cold sweat.

Mam yo!

That was a close one!

How can this $100 million check be real!

My daughter had clearly said it was 180,000, and this cheque for 100 million must be on Ye Chen!

This damned stinker is so addicted to scamming the big boys, he's got a fake $100 million check with him! I almost got myself killed!

I don't know if this guy meant it or not! But it's all hard evidence of his fraud and deception!

No way! Ye Chen even dared to pit me against him, I must take this check and confront him in front of my daughter!

I want my daughter to get a divorce from this liar!

325

Ye Chen was in the hospital room, talking with his wife, Xiao Churan, who was accompanying his father-in-law, Xiao Changkun.

At this time, the ward door was kicked open with a clang.

The mother-in-law, Ma Lan, rushed in menacingly.

As soon as she entered, Ma Lan took the cheque of 100 million in her hand and flung it with a clatter as she cursed angrily, "Ye Chen! You son of a bitch even dared to lie to me?!"

Ye Chen was stunned, surprised and asked, "Mom, which one are you singing this? When did I lie to you?"

Ma Lan ignored him and ran to Xiao Chorán, complaining, "O daughter! You'd better divorce this liar! This guy's got an axe to grind! He's trying to screw your mother!"

Xiao Chu Ran was also very puzzled and asked, "Mom, what's going on?"

Lan Ma handed the check to Xiao Chu Ran and said angrily, "Look! Your hanging husband gave me a fake check for 100 million dollars! People's hospital cashiers almost called the police to arrest me and charge me with fraud!"

"Fuck"

Ye Chen's heart thumped, this This cheque for 100 million is a filial tribute from Song Wanting to herself ah

Damn, must have put it in her pocket casually and confused it with that 180,000,000 cheque!

It's over. It's over!

How do I explain this?

Xiao Chorán took a look at the check at this time, and her face turned ugly as she took off, "Ye Chen, what is this billion yuan fake check all about? Are you running a fraudulent business now?"

Ye Chen hurriedly explained, "Ouch wife, misunderstanding!"

Xiao Chu Ran frowned and asked, "What's going on? Explain that to me!"

Marashi was saying, "What else is there to ask? This check must have been a prop he carried around with him to trick people! And it was accidentally given to me! Huh? Thank goodness it was given to me! If he really took it out to cheat people, people's cops would have to arrest him and shoot him."

After saying that, and then looked at Xiao Churan, said with a heartbreaking heartbreak: "Churan, this trash went out and dared to swindle 100 million, so bold you dare to believe? If you don't divorce him, our whole family will be killed by him!"

Xiao Chorán's face also turned cold, looked at Ye Chen and said, "Ye Chen, if you don't explain this matter clearly, I'll really consider divorcing you! I can accept it if you're a little poorer and a little more of a wimp, but if you don't go straight and steal and cheat, then I can't live with you!"

Ye Chen's head was spinning, and he hurriedly said with an aggrieved face, "Honey, I'll tell you the truth, I actually bought this check for 100 million from the funeral shop"

"Funeral shop?!" Xiao Chorán and Ma Lan were both stunned and asked after him, "What's going on?"

Ye Chen could only sigh, "Didn't that old man of mine die when I was eight years old? A couple of days ago, he had a dream with me, saying that he had no money to spend down there and was being bullied, so let me say anything to burn some money over to him"

At this point, Ye Chen continued to sigh: "I dare not delay ah, went to the funeral shop to ask, they just recommended this kind of cheque, said one is one hundred million, one top of the previous meditation banknotes more than a dozen bundles, energy saving and environmental protection, so I spent ten dollars to buy one, looking for the night to go to the intersection burned, did not expect to just take the wrong one, gave this one to our mother"

Xiao Churan asked suspiciously, "Are you telling the truth?"

Ye Chen nodded hurriedly, "A thousand times true! Think about it, everyone is so smart these days! Who would be fooled by a check for $100 million? A check for one hundred million, not even the hospital cashier can cheat ah"

Xiao Chu Ran thought, what Ye Chen said was indeed the same thing.

A check for one hundred million yuan, no one would indeed believe it if it was taken out, and in itself, it was not suitable to be used as a fraudulent tool.

326

With that in mind, she softened her expression a bit, handed him the check, and said, "Load it up and burn it over to your dad tonight, and don't ever get it mixed up again! In case it really goes bad, it might be a big deal!"

Ye Chen also nodded frantically, "Don't worry wife, I know, I'll pay attention!"

Afterwards, he hurriedly set out another check for 180,000 and handed it to Lan Ma, saying, "Mom, this check is the real one, here you go!"

I said, and then hastily flattered, "Fortunately, Mom, you found it early, otherwise if I did burn this check, we would lose a lot of money."

Mashi glared at him, and would have been reluctant to just let him go if it wasn't for the check.

But who would have a problem with money? Take this check, and the remaining 160,000 will be yours!

Seeing her accept the check, Ye Chen was relieved, he was careless and almost made a big mistake, luckily his brain reacted faster

But then again, this mother-in-law of yours is so clever that if she knew the check for 100 million was real, she'd be so frustrated that she'd jump right out of this window!

Just as he was relieved, an old and anxious voice suddenly came from outside the hospital room door, "Chang Kun, Chang Kun! My son, how are you! Mom's here to see you!"

Upon hearing the words, Ye Chen's eyebrows furrowed.

He then saw Old Lady Xiao leaning on her crutches and stepping in with Xiao Chang Qian, Xiao Hailong, and Xiao Weiwei.

Old Mrs. Xiao was full of anxiety and heartache, and her eyes were red and looked like she had just cried.

As soon as she entered the door, she couldn't help but shed tears and hurriedly went to Xiao Changkun who was lying on the hospital bed and said with tears in her eyes, "Changkun, Mom heard that you had an accident and was so frightened that you almost died of a heart attack in the past.

Although Xiao Chorán was a bit disgusted with these people, she felt that after all, she had come to see her father, so she couldn't refute the face, so Bainian stepped forward and said, "Grandmother, my father is already fine, and his injuries have been cured by the Shi divine doctor Ye Chen invited."

Old Mrs. Xiao was relieved and said, "That's good, that's good."

Xiao Changkun was also a little embarrassed and said, "Don't worry, Mom, I'm tough and can't die."

In fact, Xiao Changkun had a grudge against the old lady in his heart.

However, in addition to having a complaint, there was still affection as well.

After all, he was his own mother, how could he really have no feelings at all?

At this time, seeing that his mother was so concerned about him, and even cried like this, he was a little touched in his heart.

The old lady Xiao tears like rain, self-reproach said: "I blame me ah Chang Kun, blame me for not caring so much about you usually, after knowing that you are in an accident, mom heart that regret ah, mom really afraid that you just go away with a misunderstanding about mom."

I'm not sure if I've ever had a problem with it, but I'm not sure if I've ever had a problem with it, and I'm not sure if I've ever had a problem with it.

Xiao Changkun at once felt his heart tighten, unconsciously also shed two lines of hot tears.

He used to have a grudge against the old lady, why did he love his brother so much, but not himself?

Why do you keep encouraging your brother, but when it comes to yourself, no matter what you do, it's always wrong?

This matter had become a knot in his heart for so many years.

However, today, listening to his mother's tearful words, he suddenly felt that the knot in his heart, seems to be much, much looser!

327

Ye Chen's eyebrows were furrowed.

He wasn't a member of the Xiao family and didn't have that so-called bond of affection, so he could tell at a glance that the old lady Xiao was using a bitter trick.

The Xiao family was now in a desperate situation, and if there was no relief, the Xiao Clan would definitely fall apart and the old lady would instantly fall to the bottom.

She would rather die than accept being poor and down-trodden, so she will definitely rack her brains to find a way to turn the tables.

She had coerced and seduced Xiao Chu Ran before, but Xiao Chu Ran had never given her any chance.

She also used money to try to find a breakthrough from Ma Lan, but Ma Lan failed to convince Xiao Chu Ran.

Now, she's starting to target Xiao Changkun, ready to use bitter meat tricks to find a breakthrough from Xiao Changkun!

This might be her last move as well.

Xiao Changkun had fallen for it by now.

He felt the knot untie, and the love he had for his mother surfaced again in his heart.

So, he said with tears flowing down his face, "Mom, I actually don't blame you in my heart, I know that I am not a good fighter, I am not as capable as big brother and not as strong as big brother, I was not born to be a person who can be of great use, I am sorry to disappoint you"

Old Mrs. Xiao grabbed his hand and held it tightly as she choked and said, "Good son, you can understand all the pain mom has gone through, mom is worth it even if she dies now!"

The eldest, Xiao Changqian, who was standing beside him, rushed forward and sobbed, "Mom, don't talk about death all the time, Changkun and I have already lost Dad, so we can't lose Mom no matter what we say!"

Old Mrs. Xiao wiped her tears as she happily said, "You brothers have me in your hearts, I'll be smiling in the ninth spring even if I die!"

And said, "You, O you, must be united in brotherhood! We can only win if we are brothers! As the old saying goes, "A brotherhood of one mind is worth more than gold". If you two can be tied together and do well, why wouldn't the Xiao family worry about being strong?!"

Xiao Changqian nodded repeatedly, "Mom, you're right, I've been taught! In the future, I will definitely work together with Chang Kun to make the Xiao family bigger and stronger!"

Xiao Changkun's expression was also a bit agitated, seeing that he had fallen for the trap.

Ye Chen couldn't help but sigh in his heart, the old lady was really good at this! Three or two paragraphs of work and you've got your father-in-law in the ditch!

Indeed!

Xiao Changkun was also encouraged by her and her big brother's words to get on board, and was moved to say, "Don't worry, Mom, I'll definitely work in unison with my big brother!"

When Old Mrs. Xiao heard this, she became excited and took off, "Yes!Yes!Great!"

At this time, the old lady said to Xiao Hailong and Xiao Weiwei siblings who had been keeping their heads down, "You two, quickly apologize to Chorán and Ye Chen!Although you and Chorán are not brothers and sisters, you are still cousins and sisters, and your blood is thicker than water, how can you keep treating Chorán and Ye Chen so excessively?"

Saying that, the old lady looked at Vivian Xiao and snapped, "Vivian!Especially you!You want to fight your cousin at the opening today?You got some nerve!Don't apologize to your sister yet!"

The two siblings immediately bowed deeply and said with incomparable devotion, "Chorán, we were wrong before!I beg your pardon!We will never do anything against you again!"

Xiao Churan was also a little caught off guard, she had never seen Xiao Hailong and Xiao Weiwei soften and apologize, this brother and sister for so many years, but they had always been pricks and deadly against themselves.

However, seeing that both of them apologized, Xiao Churan also spoke kindly, "Forget about the past."

Old Mrs. Xiao was delighted and immediately said to Xiao Chorán, "Chorán, your father's body is still in the recovery stage, he must recuperate well, the villa of the Xiao family is a bit old, but the environment is always much stronger than the residential building you live in, why don't you all move back here?"

328

Xiao Chang Qian also hurriedly echoed, "Yes Chorán, your father's health is important, not only for a good environment, but also for a good mood!So, you'll do what your grandmother tells you to do, come back and live here, and I'll hire some nannies to take care of your dad twenty-four hours a day!"

Xiao Changkun was lying on the hospital bed and was moved when he heard this.

After being touched, his heart was somewhat shaken and his brain was so hot that he couldn't help but ask Xiao Chorán, "Chorán, why don't we just move back."

Xiao Churan was also torn all of a sudden.

She couldn't figure out for a moment whether the grandmother was doing this out of true love or not.

But seeing grandmother, father and uncle, mother and son holding hands and crying into a ball, she herself was more or less touched.

In addition, for the sake of Dad's recovery, if he can return to the Xiao family, in a good environment, in a good mood and with proper care, then he will definitely recover faster and better.

Ma Lan was also persuading at this time, "Choran, what a great opportunity! What are you waiting for? Hurry up and say yes!"

Xiao Choran was originally hesitant, but seeing that her parents were trying to persuade her, on impulse, she spoke up, "Alright then, let's move back."

Old Mrs. Xiao looked delighted and excited.

It was done!

Hahaha!

It really did work!

As expected, ginger is still old and spicy, Xiao Changkun is a loser, Ma Lan is a money-grubber, Ye Chen is a loser who only knows how to cheat people, Xiao Churan seems to be somewhat capable, but isn't he still completely taken care of by his own trick of bitter meat?

Thinking of this, Old Mrs. Xiao couldn't be more proud of herself!

The first thing he noticed was that he was a very good friend of his mother, and the second thing he noticed was that he was a very good friend of his mother.

This is a textbook drama, starting with the younger brother, Xiao Changkun, as a breakthrough, and then going on to save the country and impress Xiao Choran, simply perfect!

Ye Chen now saw that his wife was going to be fooled, so he hurriedly spoke up, "Grandmother, uncle, it's natural that it's no problem for the first time to move back, after all, it's a family, it's also a beautiful thing to be hot and lively together, but"

Xiao Hailong frowned and shouted in a cold voice, "But what? It's none of your business if it's about the Xiao family. With you talking too much?!"

Old Mrs. Xiao raised her hand and slapped Xiao Hailong, shouting angrily, "How are you talking to your brother-in-law?! Did you just say something that was all fart?!"

This slap startled Xiao Hailong's entire body, and then he instantly understood.

Fuck!! almost got into big trouble because I couldn't help but mock Ye Chen!

If you really can't control yourself and mock Ye Chen, and reveal the truth that you appear to be repentant but inside you don't correct yourself, then Grandma's perfect plan to trick Xiao Churan and his family into going back may be ruined.

Thinking of this, he panicked and immediately said to Ye Chen, "I'm sorry brother-in-law, I'm the one with the cheap mouth!! It's my mouth!! beg your pardon!"

Saying that, he also slapped himself two times hard, appearing sincere.

Ye Chen couldn't help but sneer in his heart, well, the Xiao family really all went out of their way to play this bitter drama

329

In order to pierce the true colors of these people, Ye Chen then spoke up, "I just said that it's fine to move back in, after all, we're all family, but now that Chor'an's studio has been made, so we have to make it clear in advance that she won't be going back to work at the Xiao Clan!"

"What?!" As if her tail had been stepped on, Old Lady Xiao instantly jumped up and said, "How does that make! I told you, not only do we have to live together, we have to work together! How can Chor'an return to the Xiao family but not to the Xiao group?"

Ye Chen smiled and said, "Grandmother, you just said that you invited our family to go back because it was convenient to take care of our father-in-law, it doesn't matter if we go back ah, we also agreed, but going back to the Xiao Clan and going home are two different things, they can't be mixed up, right?"

"No!" Old Mrs. Xiao cut off the nail and said, "Since she has returned to the Xiao family, Chor'an must return to work!"

After saying that, she continued to fool Xiao Churan, saying: "Churan, your company has just opened, there is no business, it is very difficult for one person to run a company, how can you cope? Why don't you close the company and go back to the Xiao Group, then you'll definitely have a more comfortable and easier life!"

Xiao Chor'an also smacked a bit of unusual flavor from Old Madam Xiao's words.

It seemed that Ye Chen was right, it was fake for the old lady to want her family to return to the Xiao family, it was real for her to want to return to the Xiao group!

In that case, Old Lady Xiao was flipping over and over, but she was actually trying to do everything she could to get herself back.

Then all her performance just now should have been a performance, right?

A chill ran down her back as she thought of it!

If it wasn't for Ye Chen's quick reflexes, he might have fallen for it!

So, she hurriedly said to old Mrs. Xiao, "Grandmother, I'm grateful that you invited our family to go back to live, but Ye Chen is right, me going back to live and me going back to work are two different things, they can't be mixed up, so I have to make it clear to you solemnly, I can go back to live, but I can't go back to the Xiao Group, I have to get down to doing my own studio."

When Old Mrs. Xiao saw how determined Xiao Chorán was, she already hated Ye Chen to the bone in her heart!

I've done so much work and acted in so many scenes, and I've been spoiled by a single word from Ye Chen!

It's just damn!

She hurriedly played the bitter meat trick again and cried, "Choran, do you hate grandma that much? Wouldn't it be a perfect situation to live at home, come back to work, and let's try to create a new situation and new heights as a family? Why do you have to be so dead set on your own studio?"

Afterwards, as she wiped her tears, she asked, "Aren't you willing to forgive Grandma now?"

Xiao Chorán said seriously, "Grandmother, this has nothing to do with forgiveness or not, it's just that I see one thing now, it's not a solution to be under others, the best solution is to have a world of your own, even if it's just a roof that can shelter you from the wind and rain, it's much better than being under others, so I choose to start my own business, not to return to the Xiao Group!"

Xiao Changkún and Ma Lan's husband and wife advised, "Churan, why are you still so stubborn? How nice to go back! It's better than starting your own business!"

Xiao Chorán said without hesitation, "Dad, Mom, this is my own personal decision, you should stop saying that, I can't change my attention."

Old Mrs. Xiao knew that it was win or lose!

If Xiao Chorán wasn't willing to go back, it would be half useless to only convince Xiao Changkún and Ma Lan, the two tiresome and useless people.

Therefore, she could only secretly bite her tongue while using her killer weapon!

I saw her shivering as she walked up to Xiao Chorán and plopped down on her knees directly in front of her!

Everyone in the house was stunned!

Who would have thought that Old Mrs. Xiao, who had always been superior and bossy, would kneel down to Xiao Chorán!

This is really upsetting to them!

Even Xiao Chang Qian didn't expect that Mom would be so willing to go to such lengths to trick Xiao Chorán into going back!

All her life she's been strong, all her life she's wanted to be in control, to have people kneel to her, when has she ever kneeled to anyone like that?

Xiao Chorán was also caught off guard and said in a busy voice, "Grandmother, what are you doing, please get up and say what you have to say!"

Old Mrs. Xiao knelt in front of her and said with apologies, "Churan, it was grandmother's fault before, grandmother apologizes to you! Forgive Grandma and come back to the Xiao family to help out. The Xiao family can't do without you. If it wasn't for you, the Xiao family would really be finished, grandma please, just come back!"

At this moment, Old Lady Xiao's attitude towards Xiao Chorán had changed drastically, there was no longer the arrogance and reliance on the old man that she once had, there was only endless remorse and pleading.

The Xiao family was now in danger, she felt that even if she had to beg on her knees, she would have to beg Xiao Chorán back to the Xiao family.

Otherwise, the great family business would really be buried in her hands.

As soon as Xiao Chang Qian saw that Old Madam Xiao had started to kneel down and beg, his face changed, and he brought Xiao Hailong and Xiao Weiwei, who also knelt down on the ground and kept begging Xiao Chorán.

Seeing such a scene, Xiao Churan felt a little overwhelmed.

She had never expected that Old Lady Xiao, who regarded her face as more important than her own life, could kneel down and apologize to herself in front of so many people.

It seemed that the current Xiao family was really at the end of their rope!

When old Mrs. Xiao saw that Xiao Chorán was still indifferent, she became even more tearful and begged, "Chorán, please take pity on grandmother, the Xiao family can't live without you, please come back!"

After saying that, she knelt on the ground and directly kowtowed three times to Xiao Chorán, inexpressibly miserable, in a manner as if she was going to kneel down and die on the spot.

"If I had known this, why would I have done it?"

At this time, Ye Chen walked up to Old Mrs. Xiao and said coldly, "Grandmother, thank you very much for coming to visit my father-in-law, but it is impossible for you to return to the Xiao Clan in the beginning."

Saying that, he gave his expulsion order and said, "Please leave here!"

Old Mrs. Xiao's tears couldn't stop flowing and said angrily, "Ye Chen, when you were nothing, you joined my Xiao family, our Xiao family gave you food, drink, clothing and shelter, don't you have any sense of gratitude? At a time like this, are you still thinking of splitting our Xiao family?"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said, "I'm sorry ah grandmother, the people who give me food, drink and shelter are Chorán and my father-in-law and mother-in-law, you have given me nothing but sarcasm and calling me a loser, why should I be grateful to you?"

Saying that, Ye Chen's face darkened and coldly snorted, "Don't think I don't know what you guys are up to, you want to use bitter meat tricks to trick Chorán back, make Chorán get cooperation for Xiao Clan again and revive Xiao Clan right?"
