The Secret Heir Return To Wealth And Love Chapter 1126

Chapter 1126

“I aced the test, they probably couldn’t believe it and started doubting me,” Cory said nonchalantly.

He even figured out why they wanted to retest him.

The invigilating teacher was like. “WTF!”

This kid’s a genius!

“No worries, I can take a retest,” Cory continued

In this retest, several directors including the principal were present in the classroom.

The invigilating teacher had protested, “He’s only five and a half, this will put too much pressure on him and make him nervous!”

But his protest fell on deaf ears.

Cory walked into the classroom, nodded slightly to the newcomers, then calmly took his seat.

“Cory, are you ready?”

Cory slowly took out his pen and nodded.

“Start,” the principal started the timer.

Facing doubt and judgment, Cory’s response was to speed up this time.

The test was noticeably harder, not the level of the entrance exam.

However...

An hour and a half later.

Cory stacked up his draft paper, packed up his stationery, and got up to hand in his paper.

“Teachers, my mom has work to do. If you want to continue testing, it can’t be today.”

He was very handsome and had a nice voice.

But there was a coolness about him that didn’t belong to his age.

The principal was the first to come back to his senses, then quickly said, “There will be no more tests, just wait a moment.”

“Okay.”

Cory then went to find his mom.

“Are you upset?” Rosalynn reached out to him.

Cory looked down at Rosalynn and took her hand.

“No, just a bit annoyed,” Cory replied. “You have a meeting at Bane Corporation tomorrow, and there’s a lot to prepare. I don’t want you to waste time here.”

Rosalynn immediately laughed.

“So you’re worried about mom? Don’t worry, the information dad gave is very detailed, mommy doesn’t need to prepare much!”

“Okay.” Cory nodded.

Meanwhile, in the office across the way, the principal was excitedly grading the test.

“Everything is correct!”

“Great thought process!”

“He even solved this problem!”

“The last big question... the answer is correct!!”

The principal’s voice grew more and more excited.

“Perfect score! 100% correct!!”

“What did I say, he’s really amazing!” The invigilating teacher felt a sense of victory at last, “Director, what do you say now?”

The director still had a serious face.

“I observed that he paused longer on the chemistry–related questions, which seemed to be his weak subject. So, I should teach this student. I’m good at chemistry and can make up for his shortcomings.”

“Director, I think he should strengthen physics, I’m more suitable to teach him!”

“You guys...” The principal scoffed, “His abilities are even stronger than many teachers, of course, I should be the one to teach him...”

“No, we should start from the weaknesses, the strengths do not need to be enhanced. You should consider my situation! I was the first to propose this! So he’s mine!” The director became agitated.

It looked like they were about to start arguing.

The invigilating teacher immediately said, “You guys should ask Cory’s opinion first, pointless arguments will only escalate the conflict. Maybe Cory already has his own goals?”

Chapter 1127

Rosalynn received two perfect score papers.

“Mrs. Silverman, your son is a genius!” The principal gave a high appraisal, “It’s our honor to have him in our school. Don’t worry, we won’t waste his talent, we’ll do our best to educate him!”

“So, Cory passed the entrance exam?” Rosalynn put down the papers.

“Of course!” The principal immediately replied, “He only needs to choose his subjects now. Our school has two special classes, non-discriminatory, but each student has a focus subject.”

With that, the principal handed over an introduction to the special classes.

“Once a student chooses their focus subject, the teacher of that subject becomes their homeroom teacher. While studying other subjects, the homeroom teacher will enhance teaching in the subject they’re responsible for.”

“I got it.” Rosalynn nodded.

“Cory is a rare genius, the choice of subject is very important to him, please discuss it carefully with your family after you go back...”

Before the principal could finish, Cory asked, “Do I have to pick a subject? Can’t I study them all?”

The principal was taken aback and subconsciously looked at Rosalynn.

Rosalynn smiled faintly, “It’s his call. His father and I won’t interfere.”

“How about this, we do the enrollment first, and you can decide on the subject later according to your feelings in the study, okay?” The principal kindly asked. “Okay.”

Cory responded directly.

Next, as if afraid Cory would change his mind, the principal swiftly processed the enrollment.

“Cory!”

Just after enrolling, Hannah came looking for him after school, accompanied by Sarah.

“Hannah, Sarah, do you know Cory?” The principal asked in surprise.

Hannah nodded, “He’s the young teacher we met at the campsite that I mentioned to you. You even praised his problem-solving approach!”

The principal was very curious at the time and wanted to know the identity of this child, but Hannah knew that Cory was sick, so she firmly refused to say, afraid that the principal would disturb his rest.

“So it’s Cory! No wonder some of the problem-solving approaches seemed familiar!” The principal was pleasantly surprised.

“Principal, did Cory pass the entrance exam?” Sarah asked eagerly.

Hannah told her that Cory came to take the entrance exam, and she felt very nervous. One of the friends she met at the summer camp last year was also very good, but he failed the entrance exam, which made her sad for a long time.

“Of course! And he got a perfect score, you guys have to study hard with Cory! A few more perfect score students, I’ll wake up from my dreams laughing!” The principal jovially said, a departure from his earlier seriousness.

“Perfect score!!” Sarah was ecstatic.

“Which class is he going to?” Hannah was also very happy, “Come to our class! Sarah and I can take care of him!”

Cory was speechless.

Not necessary. He thought.

Rosalynn could hardly contain her laughter at Cory’s desperate plea to escape.

“It’s time to pick up your sister from school, Mom. Let’s go,” Cory pleaded, tugging at Rosalynn’s sleeve as if begging for help.

“Alright,” Rosalynn agreed, nodding. “Principal, Hannah, Sarah, Cory and I need to go fetch his sister. We’ll be on our way now.”

“Okay! Cory, we’ll be waiting for you at school!” Hannah exclaimed excitedly.

Cory nodded and, clutching Rosalynn’s hand, they departed without looking back.

Meanwhile, Hannah and Sarah were filled with joy.

Cory also wore a faint smile on his face.

Rosalynn keenly observed this.

It seemed like...

Chapter 1128

Transferring Cory to another school was a super smart move!

On the way to kindergarten, Rosalynn gave Wayne a ring.

She was about to tell him not to pick up Ivy if he hadn’t left yet.

But he was already near the school.

As soon as Rosalynn got to the school gate, she saw Ivy walking out behind her teacher

She put on her mask and hopped out of the car.

Ivy spotted her almost instantly.

“Mommy!!”

She shouted excitedly, charging towards Rosalynn like a pony off its reins.

Rosalynn scooped up Ivy with a laugh.

“Mommy, what are you doing here?” Ivy asked, surprised and delighted.”

“Your brother just finished his entrance exam. He insisted on picking you up from school .” Rosalynn pointed at the car.

“Did he ace his test again?” Ivy was absolutely certain.

“How did you know?” Rosalynn asked, amazed.

“He is so awesome, of course I knew!” Ivy was very proud, then she started wriggling to get down from Rosalynn’s arms. “I want to go congratulate him!” Rosalynn put her down

She excitedly hopped into the car.

Just as Rosalynn was about to find Wayne, she saw his car parked nearby. Wayne got out of the back seat and started walking towards her.

There were many parents picking up their kids. Wayne, looking sharp in his suit, tall and handsome, immediately attracted many stares.

“Why did you get out?” Rosalynn asked quietly, “Everyone’s looking at you!”

“Cory got into the gifted class today. We should go somewhere to celebrate.” Wayne opened the passenger door. “I’ll drive.”

Rosalynn smiled helplessly and got into the passenger seat.

Wayne went around the front of the car and slid into the driver’s seat.”

As soon as he sat down, Ivy proudly announced like she was showing off a treasure, “Cory got two perfect scores!”

Wayne nodded with a smile, “Of course he’s awesome. So now, we’re going to go eat and celebrate for him!”

“Yay!!”

“Let’s go!” Wayne raised his hand and gestured forward.

Ivy also cooperated and mimicked him, saying, “Let’s go!”

Rosalynn couldn’t stop laughing.

Cory also chuckled softly.

With so many people at the school gate, apart from the elderly, there were also young parents picking up their children.

A handsome man stepped out of a luxury car, impeccably dressed in a suit, and someone captured a video of him.

“The anger of a son who failed his exams cured by a handsome guy!”

Originally, the person intended to film Wayne’s Rolls–Royce, but coincidentally captured him getting out of the car and walking towards Rosalynn, opening the car door for her, and even taking charge of the entire driving process.

It must be said that Wayne truly had a photogenic presence.

The video was a bit shaky, but it didn’t diminish his broad shoulders, narrow waist, and model–like body proportions.

Immediately, numerous comments appeared below the video.

“Isn’t that Wayne?”

Discussions quickly ensued.

“He’s really amazing. His physique is incredible!”

“Why is he even touching the waist of a rich girl! Can anyone stop him?!!”

“While I understand your feelings, please calm down. That’s his wife!!”

Chapter 1129

“Haha, they really don’t look like they’re on the same page. It’s like they came to pick up the kid without coordinating with each other. The guy clearly didn’t know the lady was coming”

“Yup, they don’t seem familiar with each other, which is why he let the driver drive off in the fancy car while he went to drive the other one.”

“I have to say, even though President Silverman’s actions were a bit off, did you see the look in his eyes and the smile on his face when he walked up to his wife after getting out of the car? So sweet!”

“Yeah, I wanted to mention that too, he really seems to be smitten with her!”

“Seeing this makes me feel a bit sad. When he was photographed with Secretary Tesdal before, he was always cold and distant... Today is another day feeling sorry and regretful for Secretary Tesdal”

“Why do these discussions always arise under videos of their marriage? Can’t you express your opinions elsewhere instead of here?”

“Don’t forget while Secretary Tesdal was still alive, President Silverman’s current wife had a relationship with him and even had a child. Strictly speaking, she was a third party, you know?”

Just as the debate heated up, someone suddenly leaked information online.

“Doesn’t anyone realize that President Silverman’s current wife and Secretary Tesdal are actually the same person?”

Accompanying the comment were pictures comparing the ear contours and subtle facial features of Secretary Tesdal and Gabriella.

This revelation caused a stir.

“Wow, how did I never consider this possibility? When you compare them, their ear contours are nearly identical. One’s appearance can change, but this is something that can never be altered!”

“And their height too, I’ve always had doubts about how two people can look so similar, even down to their height.” The person who posted the comment included a comparison photo of Gabriella and Wayne standing together, as well as Secretary Tesdal and Wayne standing together.

“Yeah, and the timing of her pregnancy is also suspicious. If we replace Gabriella’s identity with Secretary Tesdal, it would make perfect sense for her to be pregnant during that period, wouldn’t it?”

“The timing of Gabriella’s appearance was also strange. I heard from a friend in the upper crust that they had never heard of a granddaughter from the Jared family. My friend’s elders knew Hilaria and she used to envy their family for having a granddaughter. Then

, less than two years after Secretary Tesdal's death, the Jared family suddenly has a granddaughter!"

"I have an even stronger piece of evidence! Do you remember Gabriella's good friend Paige? She was Secretary Tesdal's middle school classmate, they were really close!" The post included a class photo.

Young Rosalynn and Paige huddled together, their smiles youthful.

"Where did you get the class photo? I don't have any!"

Paige was flipping through her phone on the couch, looking a bit puzzled when she saw the post.

Rosalynn shook her head,

"I remember we took a big group photo, but I don't remember where I put my copy."

"I remember!" Paige slapped her thigh, "Didn't we go on a trip when we graduated? I lost a backpack, that photo might've been in there!"

"Maybe..." Rosalynn nodded.

"Honey, what do you think?" Wayne looked at Rosalynn.

Truth be told, Wayne felt very uncomfortable about the whole thing.

He yearned for everyone to know that he, Wayne, wasn't a pushover, he had always loved only one person.

Chapter 1130

But he also worried that the moment the truth came out, it might bring a lot of negative impact to Rosalynn.

"What were you thinking?" asked Rosalynn, lifting her head "I didn't really ponder over this. I was originally planning to reclaim Rosalynn's identity once I was sure you'd stop pestering me"

Wayne was silent for a while.

Had she been waiting all these years for him to fall in love with someone else, to get married?

"But when you admit Rosalynn is Gabriella, you'll definitely face criticism," Paige voiced her concern. "Maybe it's better not to respond..."

“As more and more people will find out about my identity, I’d rather admit it myself than let someone else expose me. Let them criticize, a lot of people did feel sorry for me back then,” Rosalynn said calmly.

Online, the debate about whether Rosalynn and Gabriella were the same person was always heated.

During the height of the controversy, Rosalynn’s social media account updated with a new status.

“Thanks for your concern, folks. I’m sorry for all the trouble the speculation about my identity has caused. Because it’s about my privacy, I’ll only address this once. Yes, Gabriella is Rosalynn.”

The comment section suddenly exploded with more responses.

“Holy cow, I never believed what the internet said! Now you’re telling me it’s actually true!!!”

“What about that plane crash? Don’t tell me you managed to survive while pregnant with twins?”

“Can’t trust everything you read online... I really cried for two days back then! Disappointed...”

“Aren’t you happy that the person you like didn’t die? I’m actually quite thrilled, the one I like is alive!!!”

“I suddenly remember Wayne saying a lot of vague things to those who criticized him online, hinting that everyone misunderstood him and he’s always been in love with his wife! Wow!!! I am seriously shocked!”

“So it’s really like this!!!”

Shortly after, Wayne released a statement addressing the matter at hand.

“I would like to clarify that my wife has never been a public figure, and she is under no obligation to expose her personal life and past to public scrutiny. The incident that occurred six years ago was my fault, and my own wrong attitude forced her into seclusion. Currently, our family lives a peaceful and happy life. We kindly request that everyone respects our privacy and we appreciate your concern.”

Some questions arose in response to the statement.

“Did she fake the plane crash, then?”

Wayne responded, “She did board the plane but disembarked before takeoff due to feeling unwell.”

“I thought Rosalynn came from a humble background? How did she become a wealthy heiress?”

Wayne replied, “She was discovered by relatives who were related to her by blood.”

The comment section below Wayne’s response filled with exclamations.

“So, Secretary Tesdal played the role of a troubled wealthy girl who left her useless partner and returned home to inherit a fortune?”

“Her life sounds incredibly thrilling!”

“So, when Hilaria found her granddaughter and witnessed her being tormented by President Silverman, she took advantage of the plane crash to whisk her granddaughter away?”
