The Secret Heir Return To Wealth And Love Chapter 1146

Chapter 1146

I've never even laid a finger on her! How the hell could she be carrying my baby? Wayne's voice turned icy cold. "Rosallynn, you've always had your doubts about me, haven't you?"

Rosallynn went silent for a moment.

"Alright, if you're so damn sure the kid ain't yours, let's settle this. I don't want Cory and Ivy facing some freaky issues in the future, you get what I'm saying?"

"I get it."

Wayne ended the call and hung up.

Rosallynn felt her eyes burning and swelling.

Rosallynn was aware of Olivia's interview, but she hadn't seen it.

She gave it some consideration, then opened Twitter to check out the latest hot hashtags.

The #Olivia&Interview trended first.

Rosallynn went ahead and played the video after clicking on it.

I

Olivia wore a pregnant clothing that made her seem quite sickly throughout the video...

This is in sharp contrast to her typically upbeat demeanor.

“I didn’t want it to come to this, but I’ve been pushed to my limits... I just wish Wayne would step up and take responsibility for me and the child.” Olivia sobbed.

“Miss Olivia, did Mr. Silverman know about your pregnancy before the wedding?” The interviewer asked sympathetically.

Olivia shook her head, “I only found out after I was forced to leave.”

The comment section blew up.

“This sounds familiar, wasn’t Rosalynn also forced to leave with her child?”

“Why didn’t you tell Mr. Silverman about your pregnancy? Why did you choose to expose it through the media?” The interviewer continued to probe.

Olivia looked scared, “I was afraid!”

“Afraid? Afraid of what? Who? Mr. Silverman? Or...” The interviewer paused.

Everyone knew the rest of the question. She meant Mrs. Silverman.

“I was afraid that if I told them, my child and I would be in danger, Ms. Gabriella isn’t an easy person to deal with.” Olivia dropped her gaze.

“Are you suggesting she would harm you? Why would you think that? Did she... harm you already?” The interviewer pressed on.

Olivia just frowned and stayed silent.

Sometimes, silence speaks louder than words.

“This is excessive! How could she act like the victim when she was the one who entered their marriage?” Indignantly, the interviewer remarked.

“I simply want my child and I to be secure, and I want the child’s father to recognise her. I don’t want to talk abo ut it any more.” Olivia began to shake. “It was like a knife in my heart when I saw a photo online showing him playing with his kid. I want my child’s father to also adore her.”

As she spoke, the video showed a photo of Wayne and Ivy playing outside.

“He’s the father, he should take responsibility. Even a billionaire can’t treat people like this!” The interviewer said angrily, “That Rosalynn, she’s been through what you’re going through. She should understand how you feel. If she still wants to hurt you and your child, that’s just too much!”

Rosalynn scoffed. What an ignorant comment.

The comment section was filled with condemnation.

The rest of the interview focused on Wayne and Olivia’s past.

“I heard you once saved Wayne’s life?” The interviewer asked.

Olivia answered, “He accidentally fell into the water at a park and I happened to be there, so I saved him.”

Rosalynn knew that Olivia once saved Wayne’s life, but she didn’t know the details.

Fell into the water at a park?

Rosalynn felt a flash of recognition, as if she was recalling something.

“Honey!”

Paige’s voice abruptly interrupted Rosalynn’s train of thought.

Chapter 1147

“Are you okay?”

Paige darted towards Rosalynn.

She caught Rosalynn watching Olivia’s interview with a displeased look.

“Why would you watch this crap? Gross!”

“I need to know what she said first so I can deal with it,” Rosalynn answered calmly. “I bet she’ll be coming for me soon,”

“Coming for you? For what?” Paige was annoyed. “If she dares to show up, let Mike teach her a lesson, throw her into the lake in the park, and have Wayne fish her out. That would be one way to pay her back!”

Rosalynn laughed at her joke.

“You can still laugh, I’m about to explode!” Paige flung her Hermès bag onto the bar carelessly and sat down.

The video was nearing its end.

“Ms. Whaley, do you have anything else to say to Mr. Silverman and Ms. Tesdal?”

“This reporter is so annoying, if I run into her outside, I’d definitely give her a couple of slaps,” Paige was furious.

Olivia looked into the camera, a single tear trickling down her cheek.

I will stand by what I said. I know you, Wayne, will immediately deny this, but the child is in my belly, that’s a fact that can’t be changed.” Olivia paused, then said word by word, “I can reveal the paternity test results at any time.”

“Wow! She’s crafty!” Paige laughed. “Now even if Wayne denies it, it won’t work, right?”

Soon, a joint statement from Bane Corporation and the Jared Group made the trending list.

The statement, in one sentence, completely denied what Olivia said in the interview, stating directly that Mr. Silverman has never had an intimate relationship with Olivia.

The moment the statement was released, netizens were shocked.

I really don’t know what to say, is Wayne trying to paint himself as a pure-hearted man? He’s been entangled with Olivia for over a decade, there were even rumors of them getting married multiple times before Secretary Tesdal came back. Olivia was even spotted going in and out of his house, and now he says he’s never touched Olivia? Does he think netizens are idiots?”

“Honestly, hasn’t Wayne denied his relationship with Olivia more than once? When our boss had dinner with Wayne, he always introduced Olivia as a colleague.”

“So his denial means it didn’t happen?”

“Look at his love story with Secretary Tesdal. After their love affair was exposed online, he immediately admitted his relationship with Secretary Tesdal on all social platforms. According to you guys, Olivia is his goddess, if he was really with her, he would definitely show off their love everywhere online”

“Everyone stop arguing, this isn’t just gossip, it’s about a child’s identity. A paternity test result can clear up who’s lying!”

Olivia stayed in the hotel, reading the comments from netizens.

Truth be told, most comments were criticizing her.

The focus of the criticism was always her and Wayne.

Rosalynn was the most innocent one.

She turned off her phone, took out a picture of Wayne.

There was another phone on the floor.

Calls kept coming in, all from overseas numbers.

Simon was still asleep.

The butler rushed to wake him up with the latest news from H Country.

Chapter 1148

Seeing Olivia sobbing her heart out, begging Wayne to take responsibility for the child, Simon felt like his head was about to explode, Olivia deceived him! Olivia deceived him again!

He rang her up one time after another, but she didn’t pick up any of his calls.

Simon lost his cool and nearly smashed everything in the room to bits.

“I’m going to H Country! Arrange it now! I’m gonna drag her back! She needs to know the price of messing with me!”

“But, Mr. Simon, you don’t have a visa...” the butler stammered in fear.

“Then get one, ASAP! And make it snappy!”

Here, Simon was furious.

But Olivia was in generally good health.

She believed that things had really gotten out of hand.

Unknown to her, Gabriella Jared had a phone number saved.

Olivia's cheerful mood was quickly transformed by wrath upon hearing this name.

Rosalynn, the crafty one, was leading her by the nose.

Olivia called the phone while gritting her teeth in rage.

present time.

Ivy and Calvin were constructing a greenhouse as Rosalynn and Paige looked on.

All hands were on deck.

Rosalynn looked at the caller ID when the phone rang.

"She's here."

Paige immediately looked over, "Is it Olivia?"

Rosalynn made a hush gesture, and answered the call while distancing herself from Ivy.

"Ms. Gabriella, long time no see." Olivia's cocky and provocative voice came from the other end of the line, "Ah, no, I should call you Ms. Tesdal, right? Rosalynn."

"Seems like me being Rosalynn is quite the shocker for you." Rosalynn chuckled.

"Are you feeling arrogant about your network of lies?" Olivia made a scowl.

Rosalynn immediately retaliated, saying, "Well, I suppose I do fall short of Ms. Whaley. Your womb was reportedly removed, yet you are now pregnant! How do I phrase this? It is a medical miracle!"

Olivia was taken aback.

Did Wayne actually tell her that?

'I have no clue what you're talking about...did Wayne tell you this? That's ridiculous! He's sleeping with me and using my infertility to pacify you?"

At this point, she had nothing to hold back, stirring up as much trouble as possible, trying to drive a wedge between Wayne and Rosalynn, disrupting their peaceful life, that was her goal.

Ms. Whaley, the more I think about it, the sorrier I feel for you.” Rosalynn completely ignored her words, “Wayne was truly in love with you, it was so touching, I thought it’d be nice if you could go back to him.”

On the other end of the line.

Olivia fell silent.

But now, you’ve become the person he detests the most. Quite a pity.”

If it weren’t for you, I wouldn’t be in this mess!” Olivia roared.

Rosalynn moved her phone away a bit, waiting for the noise to subside before putting it back to her ear, “You’re expecting now, you can’t be having these hood swings. It’s not good for your baby.”

Rosalynn, don’t pretend you don’t care. Aren’t all your fights with Wayne about me? You married him six years ago, so why did you run away like a homeless person later? Wasn’t it because I came back?

Or did you forget that not long ago at Fuller Manor, he didn’t give a damn about your feelings and protected me with all his might?”

Chapter 1149

‘Olivia.” Rosalynn’s tone was sympathetic, “Don’t you get it? The main difference between us is that you’re all in, while I’ve always been clear-headed and rational, ready to walk away at any time.”

Olivia saw her as a rival, but in reality, Rosalynn had never thought of competing with Olivia for any thing.

It had always been Wayne chasing after her.

If he gave up, there would be no story between them.

“Really? Well, I’m curious about what you think of the baby in my belly?” Olivia asked with a smirk, “Shall we discuss the difference between when he’s with me and when he’s with you?”

“I don’t have any opinions on the baby in your belly.” Rosalynn’s tone was indifferent, “Basically, it’s just a matter between you and Wayne, regardless of whether the child is his or not, he should handle it.”

Olivia wanted to hear a breakdown and angry voice from Rosalynn, wanted to hear her questioning, she even wanted to hear her swearing. But Rosalynn always stayed calm, even talking to her in a sympathetic tone.

“Do you really not love Wayne?” Olivia asked with a smirk, “No woman can accept the man she loves having an affair, let alone getting another woman pregnant.”

1

“You can say whatever you want, but I can tell you, I won’t harm the baby in your belly. As for your intention to kill me, we can settle that later.” Rosalynn paused, “Anything else?”

You don’t seem to want me to minimize the impact of this.” Olivia stated clearly.

Rosalynn heard her anger.

A

‘At most, netizens will say I have bad taste, that I’ve been betrayed, I don’t care, so you can make a big deal out of it.’ Rosalynn’s tone was still indifferent, ‘Seems like you have nothing else to say, I’m gonna hang up.’

Rosalynn!” Olivia shouted, but the call had already been cut off.

Bitch!” Olivia threw her phone, “You want to make a big deal out of it, huh! You asked for it!!” She flew into a rage, then picked up her phone.

four hours had passed since the video was posted.

Other than her contacting Rosalynn, no one from Wayne’s side had contacted her.

Olivia lowered her gaze.

‘eah, Wayne probably already decided she was lying, he had never had sex with her, how could he get her pregnant?

Vayne, oh Wayne...

love you so much, as long as you show a bit of vulnerability, I won’t drag you down.

ut you two ignored me.

Du forced me into this!

Did she call to blackmail?” Paige immediately asked after seeing Rosalynn hang up the phone.

‘robably, but she was talking too much nonsense, I got annoyed and just hung up.”

h, right!”

aige instantly became aware.

fter that, I remember Wayne was pretty much always by your side. How could he possibly have time to talk to Olivia?”

es, doesn’t anything seem a little off?”Rosalynn was thinking.

he even agreed to perform a DNA test, but fabricating a DNA report isn’t likely given that neither Wayne nor you are easily duped and that it’s not possible to perform the test in just one lab.”Paige scowled in great perplexity.

salynn averted her gaze.

emember, when the accident just happened, Olivia and Maddie Fuller suddenly became very close.”

Chapter 1150

“Yeah, they both showed up at the hospital on the day of the accident.” Paige answered, “I was kinda taken aback, like, aren’t these two always at each other’s throats?”

Rosalynn dropped her gaze in thought.

After a time, she took out her phone to examine the reports from the men who had been following Olivia and Maddie.

It became out that they had gotten together several times following the accident, always to visit a beauty salon.

She forwarded Jaime Jules the clinic’s name with the request to “Look into this beauty place, see if they’re up to anything wrong. ASAP.”

In less than 10 minutes, Jaime responded to her and said, “This place provides in vitro fertilization services.”

In vitro...

Rosalynn gave an immediate confirmation of the accident’s time frame.

From their first visit to the resort through their last trip, and then Maddie’s dive into the water...

Enough time had passed for the development, implantation, and attachment of the embryo.

“You got something cooking?” Paige asked, waving her hand in front of Rosalynn who seemed lost in thought.

Rosalynn snapped back.

“Paige, I think Olivia might be carrying Wayne’s baby.” Rosalynn turned to Paige, her voice heavy.

Paige was taken aback: “Did you find something fishy? Wayne claimed he only had eyes for one woman, I didn’t expect he was that kind of man!!”

“It’s in vitro!” Rosalynn said gravely, “The Silverman family line ends with Wayne, he’s their only kid. If he dies, that’s it. When Wayne was in a coma after his accident, the Silvermans had the hospital preserve his...stuff... Maybe Maddie didn’t destroy it after Wayne woke up.”

“Oh my God!”

Paige clapped a hand over her mouth, utterly shocked:

“If that kid really is Wayne’s, even if he never laid a hand on her, he can’t shake this!”

Rosalynn’s face was tight, if this was what she suspected, it was a tricky situation.

Unless they can make Olivia disappear. Totally vanish.

The Twitter buzz didn’t let up.

The only silver lining was that Ivy and Calvin’s greenhouse was finally up after a whole day’s work.

Night was falling.

The fairy lights outside the greenhouse started twinkling one by one.

Rosalynn checked the time.

Wayne hadn’t called since that morning call.

Instead, Ableson, who was on the business trip with him, kept checking in every now and then.

Night deepened.

Ivy couldn’t hold out, was out like a light just after ten.

Close to midnight, Rosalynn glanced outside, figured he wasn't coming back, turned off the light, and was about to head to bed.

One in the morning, all was quiet.

Wayne's car rolled into the driveway. He got out, looked up.

The whole house was pitch black, like no one lived here.

His heart sank.

Huge waves of fear and confusion, and unexplainable rage, totally overwhelmed him.
