The Secret Heir Return To Wealth And Love Chapter 1211

Chapter 1211

Just as Jeffery was about to tear open the package, the police busted in outta nowhere

They scattered the crowd, snatched the package from Jeffery's hands and hauled him off to the station.

The crowd that was shoed away started gabbing excitedly to the cameras about the whole shebang.

And the video that Jeffery had posted on a paid platform was racking up buyers at warp speed

When Jeffery jabbed her with the needle, Olivia woke up.

The moment she opened her eyes and saw Jeffery, her heart was hammering in her chest.

She tried to struggle and call for help, but the drugs hit her fast and hard.

She tried to scream, but the endless darkness swallowed her whole.

When she came to, she found herself tied to a plastic chair, a camera set up in front of her, and the stale smell of mold filled the air.

"Sister, not the best smelling place, huh? Jeffery's voice carte from behind.

Olivia stiffened, "Jeffery, where've you been? I've been womed sick!

Jeffery chuckled "Really? You've been worried about me?"

"I'm your sister, of course I'm worried. After you disappeared, mom had an accident Olivia tried her best to keep her cool.

Jeffery was her little brother, they were close, so he wouldn't hurt her!

But the next moment, a pair of rough, scarred hands were suddenly choking her:
"You're lying!"

Olivia burst into tears, "Jeffery, I'm your sister! We only have each other now. You can't do this to me!"

"Family? The family who tried to kill me? Jeffery glared at her.

He and his girlfriend had planned a vacation to the Maldives, but were kidnapped by a hitman hired by Olivia.

Because he was with his girlfriend, the hitman took them both

Whenever Jeffery thought about it, he wanted to kill Olivia

The hitman was a nutjob, he didn't just kill them, he tortured them

The scars on his face and body were from that time

"It wasn't me! Really, Jeffery, it wasn't me Olivia wanted to argue but Jeffery wasn't listening

He leaned into Olivia's ear "Lucky for me the knife he plunged into my chest missed"

Jeffery gritted his teeth, "But my girlfriend died!! Do you know how gruesome her death was? Her skin was peeled off!! Do you know how heart-wrenching her screams were?"

Olivia screamed in terror.

At that moment. Jeffery let go of her neck

After taking a deep breath, Olivia glanced at Jeffery and quickly looked away

Just before she passed out, she had only caught a glimpse of him. But now, looking closely she noticed that Jeffery was missing an eye.

His face was covered in gruesome scars, looking utterly terrifying

Chapter 1212

Then he slowly strolled up to the camera

“Good evening, folks. Welcome to my live stream.”

Upon hearing his words, Olivia was somewhat baffled.

She thought, “A live stream? He kidnapped me and now he’s live streaming? Why live stream?”

Olivia was utterly perplexed.

But soon enough, she got her answer from Jeffery

“The lady standing behind me is my mister, we share the same parents, but she’s nothing more than a gold-digger Jeffery squatted there, chuckling. “People of H. Country should all recognize her. She played the savior of a tycoon for money. When the tycoon had an accident and became a vegetable, she figured she had no future with him, so she married into the royal family of R Country. Yes, she is Olivia.”

Olivia sat in the chair, her body trembling non-stop

She tried to untie the ropes around her hands, but they were too tight.

Jeffery continued to speak to the camera

“But, you all have no idea about her crimes Jeffery’s voice gradually became more ferocious, “She’s not only cold-hearted to strangers, she even hired killers to murder her own brother and mother. Look at my eyes and the scars on my body, they’re all her doing

Jeffery started to ramble

“My girlfriend was a kind, beautiful girl, what did she do wrong? Why didn’t you even spare her?”

He paused for a moment, then burst into a sinister laugh, “But my dear sister just told me that she wants to compensate me, to take me to the royal family of R Country to live the life of the rich. What do you think, should I accept her compensation and forgive her?”

“Jeffery. “Olivia’s voice was trembling badly.

“Did you hear that?” Jeffery turned his head towards Olivia, “They all say you can’t be forgiven

Olivia didn’t hear anything at all.

“Whatever you want, I can give you” Olivia said. “Don’t you like money? is one billion enough?”

Jeffery turned to look at her, his facial expression slowly fading

“My mother and my girlfriend were both killed by you, what can I do with the money?”

“You can find more women, as long as you have money, you can have any type of woman

“But I only want my girlfriend, can you bring her back to me? If you can, I forgive you”

Jeffery was a playboy, at least that was how Olivia always saw him

She had never met Jeffery’s girlfriend, but in her view, Jeffery’s girlfriend must also be a gold-digger

Olivia never expected that Jeffery would now be demanding, almost insanelly for a person who was already dead

“We were about to get married!” Jeffery stood up and paced around in front of Olivia, “If you don’t want to support us, fine, but why did you have to kill us?”

“Jeffery

“Shut up!”

Jeffery suddenly pointed at her and started yelling, Olivia was terrified by his erratic behavior

“What?”

“You’re saying I should kill her huh?”

Olivia shook all over

“Well then, I’ll kill her

Jeffery turned to Olivia again, speaking slowly.

“People like you are a scourge to the world, I guess I play the janitor then, big sis.”

The entire video lasted about two hours, Olivia stopped moving about an hour in

As for when she died, according to Jeffery’s words in the video, it should be around the one hour and seven minutes mark:

During this time, Olivia was begging for mercy, she was calling out for Wayne and Simon to save her-

But, Jeffery was completely unmoved.

In the end, he finished this shocking live stream that shocked the nation

Chapter 1213

“If this guy’s telling the truth, then Olivia is a real piece of work. She even screwed over her own mom and brother?”

“Man, those who know Olivia, start racking your brains for anyone who’s suddenly vanished or died in weird circumstances. If they had beef with her, you might wanna suspect she had a hand in it!”

“How does she even have the guts to ask Wayne for help?”

“You know, I just remembered, there was this person who was competing with Olivia for a business deal. That person said they had an accident on the day of the contract signing which resulted in losing both their legs and Olivia took the deal. The lady always suspected that Olivia had something to do with the accident, but she never had proof. Thinking about it now is just terrifying!”

“Holy maly, is this for real? Can you drop me a link? I gotta see this.”

That netizen actually posted a link and everyone rushed to check it out.

Coincidentally, that blogger had just tweeted: Karma is a bitch!!

“So now you all know Olivia’s death has nothing to do with Wayne or Secretary Tesdal. She just got what she deserved. How about those who jumped the gun with accusations, any apologies coming?”

Moonlit Lake.

That’s where Paige and Baillie had dinner.

Ivy had a sports day at school today and she had a blast.

No

mentioned anything about Olivia

After dinner, Paige went back with Baillie.

Wayne had a meeting whereas Rosalynn helped Ivy finish her homework.

At 10 PM, after by and Cory went to sleep, Rosalynn went back to her room

After a while, Wayne came upstairs.

“Are you done?”

Rosalynn took off her earrings and ring, and looked back at Wayne.

“Yeah

Wayne came up behind Rosalynn. He opened his arms, hugged her, and rested his chin on her shoulder

“Aren’t you going to ask me about Olivia?”

Wayne was still uneasy

If Rosalynn didn’t ask him about this, he would always feel uneasy

“What do you want me to ask? Did you put Jeffery up to it? Rosalynn asked Wayne through the mirror

Wayne frowned and quickly replied. “Of course not!”

“Well there you go

Rosalynn closed her eyes, “I was so fed up with her. Let’s just let her fade from our lives now

“Right.” Wayne nodded.

Then he thought about it and decided to defend himself a bit.

“I did know that Jeffery was still alive.” He confessed.

“Did you also know that Jeffery wanted revenge? Rosalynn asked, leaning on the dressing table and looking at Wayne

Wayne nodded, “I did”

Before Rosalynn could say anything. Wayne frowned and said, “If you’re going to blame me for letting Jeffery do as he pleased, then go ahead and blame me. The fact that t didn’t off Olivia myself shows my mercy!”

In fact, Wayne didn’t expect Jeffery to be so ruthless.

Even after seeing only a few clips, he still didn’t regret his decision

Every time he thought of the day Olivia pointed a dagger at Ivy, he still felt a pang of pain.

Chapter 1214

Previously, he had sent people to look for Jeffery. But in reality he had already forgotten about this

However, the day after Ivy's incident, his people found Jeffery

At that time, Jeffery had just recovered from his injuries and was hell-bent on finding Olivia for revenge.

Wayne's people found him. Because on the day of the paternity test, Jeffery had been spotted nearby

Later, Wayne came up with a plan. He deliberately let Jeffery find a bag on the road, containing two hundred grand in cash.

Jeffery used this money to buy some injections, as well as a camera and other equipment for live broadcasting.

Ever since then, Wayne's people had been keeping tabs on Jeffery

On the night Jeffery killed Olivia, Wayne couldn't sleep

The reason was that the people who were watching Jeffery reported that Jeffery had sneaked into the hospital where Olivia was

He knew that Olivia's and was near

But Jeffery's later actions were beyond Wayne's expectations.

He didn't expect that Jeffery would stir up such a big commotion

"I'm not blaming you"

Rosalynn hugged Wayne's waist: "I'm just a bit emotional."

"Emotional about what?" Wayne gently touched her cheek

"That guy Simon may not be as bad as Olivia said." Rosalynn pursed her lips, "Last time Divia got into trouble, it was Simon who saved her. If she had gone then, without any grudges and hatred and lived a good life in R Country. she could have had a better life than most people in this world!"

"Greed, that's all Wayne said."

“But if she didn’t come back, how could we have met?” Wayne looked at Rosalynn, “So, I still choose for her to come back

Rosalynn gave a helpless smile

“Enough about that guy, let’s go to bed!”

Wayne said, and without waiting for Rosalynn to respond, he picked her up.

At this time, Jeffery was being interrogated.

Once he arrived at the police station, he was very decisive. He directly put an SD card in front of the two people opposite him: This records the entire process of killing Olivia, the paid video only edits the important parts, some places are even sped up.”

Jeffery looked very sincere, which made the interrogators feel helpless

“Why did you turn yourself in?” The person opposite asked seriously, they were trying to hear some remorse from Jeffery

However

“Olivia said her ex-husband is about to arrive in the country. That guy is also a nutcase, look at me he will definitely want to take revenge for Olivia, there’s no place safer than jail. *

The interrogator

This guy didn’t feel any remorse at all, he was just using the police station as a shelter.

“Where did you get the money to buy these tools, who’s backing you! The interrogator continued to ask

They checked, after Jeffery’s incident he barely survived, he had been living by picking up trash

The live broadcasting camera was already pricey, not to mention the drugs he used during the crime.

He continuously drugged the victim, keeping her conscious.

These drugs are also very expensive, so they’re definitely not something a trash picker can afford

Jeffery laughed out loud “That’s why I say, God is blessing me. Even he couldn’t stand by and watch Olivia, this evil person, get away with it, that’s why I was able to find so much money in the trash heap!”

“Watch your attitude, how come such good luck fell on your lap! Don’t think about covering for the person behind you, tell the truth!”

Chapter 1215

“If you don’t believe me, go check the surveillance footage, Jeffery shrugged.

The slum he lived in didn’t even have any cameras to check

In the end, the source of the money was still unknown.

The next day.

Simon’s plane still landed in H City.

“Mr. Simon.”

The few people tasked with taking care of Olivia looked at Simon fearfully.

Having traveled all the way to H Country, Simon was exhausted

His iPad kept playing that paid video. Olivia calling out his name, begging him to save her it was like a nightmare that wouldn’t leave his mind.

Simon’s slap landed hard on the face of the man who had been assigned to protect Olivia, causing the man to stagger back a few steps

But he didn’t make a sound, didn’t dare to fight back.

“Didn’t I tell you to keep an eye on her, not to let her out of your sight?” Simon asked, “You call yourselves the top tier security team, is this your top-tier performance? Letting the target be taken right under your noses!

The slapped man clenched his teeth, head bowed.

He didn’t expect that someone would tamper with the hospital coffee

He certainly didn’t expect that the seemingly frail man would be the one to kidnap Olivia

All of this was beyond his expectations.

But he knew very well that this happened because he didn’t take his job of protecting Olivia seriously.

He should have been more vigilant when Olivia told him someone was sending threatening messages!

“It was my oversight!” the man replied

“Your oversight got her brutally killed!”

Simon roared then waved to the people beside him “Feed him to the sharks!”

“Mr Simon” the man cried out in fear.

“What are you yelling for?” Simon looked at him, “You don’t think you can survive after causing my wife’s death, do you? Of course, I’ll make you pay with your life! “Miss Olivia hid something from me the man frantically tried to defend himself.

But Simon didn’t listen to him anymore, he just walked out

The man tried to follow, but a sudden jolt of electricity shot through his waist.

He fainted and collapsed on the ground, the other bodyguards dared not make a sound.

They were afraid that if Simon turned back, he would order his men to kill them too

In the afternoon, Simon identified the body as Olivia’s husband

All he could recognize was the head that Jeffery had taken

Although the face was severely damaged, Simon recognized it at a glance, it was indeed Olivia.

“Where are the other parts?” Simon asked.

“We are still looking for them but the chances are low, there are too many wild dogs in that area.

Simon’s hand clenched into a fist.

“Everyone out

Everyone looked at each other, but in the end they chose to leave

Simon stared at the severed head alone, “I told you before, I didn’t want you to come back. Why wouldn’t you listen to me? Tears suddenly streamed down Simon’s face, “We could have been so happy.”

His crying got louder and louder.

Chapter 1216

After a while, he took a white cloth and covered Olivia’s face with it.

Then he said, word by word, “Babe, you won’t die in vain. Those who hurt you, I’m gonna make them pay...” Simon lowered his eyelids, his night hand still wearing the wedding ring he shared with Olivia.

His thumb pressed on the wedding ring spinning it a couple of times.

Simon continued, “Wasn’t it Wayne you fancied, and you wanted to be with him? I’ll make sure he joins you.”

And just like that, Olivia’s story came to a close.

The police issued an investigative report, and netizens heatedly discussed it for a few days.

Then some new hot topic came along, and Olivia’s name gradually faded from memory

By the end of the year, both Wayne and Jared Ventures were getting busier and busier,

Hilana Jared wanted to spend the holiday with her kids back home, so she went back to the Jared Group headquarters early to take care of business

On Christmas Eve, Cory received the first dividend from the Bane Corporation’s AI project, and it was a whopper.

Not only did the hype for Bane Corporation’s AI project not die down a few months later,

Because it was so practical and the team kept optimizing it, the hype and user numbers were still on the rise

With all the hype, Bane Corporation gave out bonuses to the engineers, and the main engineers got a hefty dividend

This news quickly spread within the IT industry.

“One of my buddies who’s just an average programmer even got a big bonus!

“I’m shook. I knew you IT folks made good money, but I didn’t think an average programmer could get that big of a bonus in a quarter?”

“I regret not going into it now!!

“Big bonus? The founding team members got dividends that I couldn’t earn in my lifetime!!!

After discussing the news all night on IT forums, related news was posted on platforms like Twitter

People kept posting dubious news, but most of it was about how much money the founding team members had divided up

Some said the six main creators each got several million dollars.

Others said each got ten million dollars

Just as everyone was heatedly discussing it, a popular IT blogger with a large following posted a piece of news

“Just got a tip from an anonymous member of the creation team, 100, confirmed, the anonymous big shot is the son of Bane Corporation’s CEO

The news came with a photo of a child entering Bane Corporation’s IT department from behind and two of the main creators of the AI project were by his side

The revelation caused quite a stir among netizens

“Are you kidding me? Are the fans of the rich couple trying to build a prodigy image for their son? This kid looks like he’s just five or six, right? When you release the news. do you ever consider what this project really is? This sounds fake.

“Im speechless, how do you guys believe in anything. Are you joking? You should look at the problems those anonymous experts have solved. A five or six-year-old kid, has he even learned basic arithmetic?”

“This news could be voted the most ridiculous news of the year, right?”

“Hahaha, this is obviously a joke, why are you guys taking it so seriously? Am I the only one who thinks the little boy’s silhouette looks cute!

“I’ve only seen posts about Wayne’s daughter before, this is the first time I’ve seen his son Why are there no front-facing photos of him!”

“Frankly, I feel like those experts have been insulted, they are all people who are going to do big things. What is the CEO of Bane Corporation thinking! He actually let them babysit

“Yes, I heard from a friend who works in Bane Corporation’s information department, this department has always been strictly managed by Bane Corporation. They only have strict requirements for their employees, but they are very casual about their own son, if he wants to visit, he visits, and when he wants experts to accompany him, they accompany him?”
