Chapter 1241

"Mr Simon, I hate to break it to you, but your plan has tanked "

He continued reading, one name glaring painfully at him.

"Rosalynn."

"Us" He roared, venting his anger on his surroundings, lawing the room in a state of chaos

"I knew ill would come to this." Olivia's volce floated from the doorway

As Simon looked up, he saw Olivia walking towards him, dressed in his favorite silk robe, armis crossed

Tears welled up in Simon's eyes instantly. "Olivia, you're back. I've missed you so much

Standing in front of him, Olivia said. "You miss me? You couldn't even avenge me. How can you say you miss mia?" Her cold fingers touched Simon's cheek. "If you don't kill those two kids and Wayne, I can never rest in peace, and neither can our child. Got it?"

Simon nodded repeatedly understand, li do it. Please, don't leave me anymore. I miss you so much

With tears streaming down his face, he pleaded,
"Give me another chance I could go back six years, I wouldn't let you leave.

Olivia just stared at him not responding

In haste Simon added. " promise you, fi avenge you. If this hitman can't do it, I'll find so meone else?"

At this Olivia reacted Simon nodded quickly, then embraced her tightly

"Don't go, don't ever leave me again!"

After parting with Paige Rosalynn went straight home By the time she got home, it was almost midnight

Cory and y were already asleep, so she checked in on them first

Thinking of how they were threatened with death again because of the adults, Rosalynn couldn't help but feel guilty.

After a while. Rosalynn went upstairs to her room. To her surprise, Wayne was already home

"Weren't you going to an impromptu meeting?"

The event had come up unexpectedly. Wayne was supposed to be with hy at the art exhibition these days

Looking up at Rosalynn Wayne asked. "What's up?"

Rosalynn walked over and gently touched Wayne's cheek

"Why didn't you tell me about Simon trying to kill by and Cory? Wayne's eyes were filled with worry

"I was waiting to tell you in person when you got back. I was afraid that as soon as you heard it, you would drop everything and rush back' Rosalynn explained

Wayne frowned, "You shouldn't have done that I'm your husband, Wy and Cory's father What job could be more important than protecting them?"

Rosalyon realized Wayne was genuinely angry.

guess I'm just used to handling things this way" Rosalynn tried to explain calmly. To make sure to let you know next time, okay?"

"Used to? What do you mean used to Wayne asked, frowning.

"You always keep everything to yourself if I hadn't found out, you would never tell me? He gritted his teeth. "Are you used to not having me around?"

"Wayne, you're being a bit unfair now. When I used to work with you, isn't this what you wanted from me? To only come to you with problems I couldn't solve Why the sudden change?"

Rosalynn had enough on her plate today She wasn't in the mood to deal with Wayne's sudden temper

After she said this. Wayne looked slightly taken aback.

In a blink, he looked like a kid who had just messed up.

Chapter 1242

"Aight, let's not fight, let's not talk about the past. He reached out to hold Rosalynn's hand, I'm sorry, I've been overly worried

This worry of his. It's be there ever since they tied the knot. He's always been cautious, afraid to touch what he shouldn't, and treating Rosalynn like a queen

But he didn't know why

Compared to his caution, Rosalynn gave him the feeling that she might leave him at any moment

On the way home. Wayne couldn't control his thoughts. If he hadn't forced her to marry him back then, would she still have married him? if he didn't hold on tight, would she hold on to him?

"Wayne "Rosalynn looked at him with concern

"As for Simon I'll handle it. After all, the trouble was brought on because of me' Wayne gripped her hand tightly, looking up at her His eyes were bloodshot, looking vulnerable and pitiful

This was a side of Wayne that Rosalynn had never seen before

“You can’t handle this yourself” Rosalynn sat next to him, gripping his hand tightly. “The business with Olivia, you can’t handle it yourself”

Once public opinion forms, it’s hard to shake off No matter what Simon wanted to do to Wayne, or what Wayne wanted to do to Simon, if things got blown up, in the end, the media would interpret it as all happening because of Olivia

Wayne frowned, Rosalynn leaned in and gave him a peck.

“Wayne there’s a division of labor at home Today you stay at home and look after the kids, I go out to handle business. Tomorrow if I’m tired, you go out, it’s all the same, don’t overthink it”

Rosalynn paused again. “But you were right about what you said earlier, no matter the reason, I should have told you about this big issue right away, that was my mistake”

“No it’s not

Wayne quickly embraced Rosalynn

Im just overly sensitive he said softly

Rosalynn held him, gently patting his back, “Im still a bit scared now, thank god you’re back, can you hold me as we sleep?”

“Mm–hmm Wayne responded, holding Rosalynn even tighter

She loved him and wouldn’t leave him just like that

Rosalynn gently patted his back, feeling a bit heavy–hearted Wayne had been doing great recently, even Paige complimented him for being a good husband

But his sudden emotional outburst tonight showed Rosalynn something else. He seemed to have some psychological issues

Upon thinking carefully, too many things had happened in the past six months

First grandma passed away then Maddie died unexpectedly. They had their fair share of arguments

“Wayne Rosalynn gently called his name

“Im her Wayne buried his head in her neck and answered

Rosalynn thought for a while, then softly said, “We should have a wedding, right?”

Chapter 1243

A lot has happened in the past six months, not just in Wayne's life, but in the Jared family as well. Families were already on shaky ground, and yet many died, while others struggled with mental illness.

Cory was diagnosed with leukemia, Noah Holland too. Right now, they could really use some good news to lift the spirits.

"Really?" Wayne let go of Rosalynn, asking with a surprised look on his face.

Rosalynn was a bit baffled by his reaction, "What's so surprising about that? We are married, of course we're gonna have a wedding!"

Wayne seemed relieved, "I've been wanting a wedding for a while, but since you never brought it up, I thought!

"You thought I didn't want one?" Rosalynn gently asked.

"I thought you didn't want a wedding." Wayne looked downright pitiful.

If this had been before, Rosalynn wouldn't have believed Wayne could ever be so humble.

"Actually, I've wanted a wedding for a long time." Rosalynn gently caressed Wayne's cheek.

She couldn't remember whose wedding it was, but one time, during his busy schedule, Wayne still found time to be a best man.

The company had an important document that needed Wayne's signature. Back then, there was no such thing as electronic signing. Rosalynn had to take a taxi to the wedding just to get Wayne's signature.

It was an outdoor wedding. When Rosalynn arrived, Wayne and Jacob were all dressed in white suits, standing amidst a sea of flowers. She was completely captivated by him.

That night Wayne came to the apartment. He left after he finished his business. Even though Rosalynn was tired, she couldn't sleep. Around dawn, she dozed off for a short while and dreamt of the wedding.

But in her dream, the groom was Wayne and the bride in the white dress was her. When she woke up, she was dazed for a moment. She was wondering, was the bride her or Ms. Walley?

When Wayne heard her casually talking about the past, he felt a pang in his heart.

"Babe, what kind of wedding did you want?" he asked gently.

Rosalynn thought for a moment and laughed helplessly. 'It's been so long, I can't remember Maybe a wedding with lots of flowers, something super romantic?'

"It would be even better if we could have it on a private island" Wayne added, holding her waist

"Right H City is too cold now It's been getting colder these past few days, I feel like my bones are freezing Rosalynn quickly nodded,
"Let's have it on an island then, we'll see how many people are going. We might need to charter a plane and book hotels"

"The people from the CEO's office are all on good terms with you We should invite them all Wayne paused. "Even though they were the ones who first gave me the unflattering nicknames online"

Hearing this. Rosalynn burst into laughter Seeing her so happy. Wayne also felt happy

"Now everyone knows you've only ever loved me. They probably won't call you that any more, right?" Rosalynn continued

Wayne was nonchalant. They can call me whatever they want, I don't mind"

"President Silverman, you're so magnanimous Rosalynn gave him a thumbs up, then yawned, "Let's talk about the wedding tomorrow, I'm so tired today I need to sleep

Wayne gently kissed her cheek

Wayne always seemed a bit unsatisfied, but tonight he was behaving very well

He held his wife tightly in his arms, thinking about the wedding, and slept soundly He even had a dream about the wedding in the dream, he and his wife looked just like they did ten years ago. They were under a clear blue sky, surrounded by endless fields of flowers.

She was in a white wedding dress, standing solemnly with him in front of grandma, making their vows.

They promised to protect, accompany, be loyal to and love each other for the rest of their lives

When Wayne woke up and saw Rosalynn still asleep in his arms, his eyes turned red and his heart ached

Ten years

How many decades does a person have in their lifetime?

He quietly got out of bed. Ableson was already downstairs waiting for him with his team.

Chapter 1244

The morning after, Abieson's face was wollen a balloon, and it looked like his head had grown a couple sizes overnight. Wayne was shocked when he saw him

"That guy sucker-punched me" Ableson insisted.

Wayne hummed

"President Silverman, about Duke Simon"

"Let my wife handle that Wayne said calmly, "You go and tell everyone that they should follow my

"Yes, sir

Ableson had no doubts. His boss was a tough cookie and so was the bear's will

"You better rest for a while with your face like that Wayne said looking at Ableton again

- wife's instructions"

Ableson was touched He had broken two ribs on a job for President Sherman before President Silverman didn't seem too worried, even asked him to keep working Now that he was maimed and a father, he had to have changed. He started to care about people. Ableson was very moved

Then

"Don't scare by and Cory Wayne added

So, Wayne is still the same cold and ruthless as before!

"Yes, sir" He agreed

After giving instructions. Wayne went back to his room. He had planned to snuggle with his wife a bit longer but Rosalynn's alarm went off

She got up and Wayne missed his hug

Rosalynn looked back at him. "What are you doing?"

Wayne buried his head in the blanket and chuckled helplessly

"Are you going to the art exhibition today?" he said, reaching out and accurately grasping Rosalynn's hand.

Rosalynn leaned over “Yes, but this early alarm is for you”

Wayne looked up

Wayne just waking up, looked a lot younger. He looked like a college student

“Darling the work you didn’t finish yesterday is still waiting for you Rosalynn said, pinching his chin, her tone like coaxing a child, “Be good and finish it, and cook your favorite dish for dinner

“Really?”

Rosalynn was usually busy, he hadn’t eaten her cooking in a long time

“Yep Rosalynn patted his butt. “Don’t procrastinate, finish your work early, and you can go to Ivy’s art exhibition, Shell be thrilled to see you!”

Secretary Tesdal could always pacify Wayne in three seconds, no matter what

He happily changed into his suit and went downstairs for breakfast with Rosalynn

Rosalynn even walked him to the garage

She fixed his the “All set off you go!”

Wayne didn’t care about the bodyguards, the driver and others. He hugged his wife’s waist and gave her a kiss, ‘I be back soon’

As–Wayne’s car slowly drove out of the garage. Rosalynn turned to go back. She saw a little one laughing with her hand over her mouth in front of the dining room window.

She was laughing and talking to Laura, who looked helpless

Looking at this scene Rosalynn thought of Simon’s actions

She wouldn’t let anyone threaten her children!

Chapter 1245

Ivy’s exhibition was going on for a week. However, due to her studies, she’d only be there for the first three days.

Today was the last day

Rosalynn and Wayne upped the security so anyone coming or going had to go through a light check

Anything that could possibly be used to harm someone was not allowed in

So, some people were griping about it online

Nowadays, anything related to Rosalynn's family easily became the talk of the town

Especially one tweet from a popular influencer

"I'm a well-known advocate for the environment I always bring my own utensils when I eat out. I've been to many exhibitions and was never told I couldn't bring a knife and fork! I could let it slide if they said no, but the security guards were so rude is the rich family's princess more noble than anyone else?"

She even threw in some pics with the tweet. The security guys in the pictures all look big and intimidating, definitely not friendly

At first, the comment section was full of this influencer's fans, all bashing the organizers and even ivy But as the heat grew, the tide of public opinion turned

"I'm not even going to talk about the guards attitude. Before we bought our tickets, there was a huge pop-up on the website telling you what not to bring Are you blind? if you don't accept the rules, you don't have to go You can't just go and break the rules, do you think the world revolves around you?"

This comment even included a picture of the pop-up

Unlike

many notifications, the font on this one was huge and the instructions were crystal clear it explicitly stated that no sharp objects were allowed The accompanying picture even included a knife and fork.

The comments section got flipped on its head after this

The influencer probably didn't see it coming She thought she was in the right Seeing the comment section spiraling out of control, she just straight up deleted the tweet.

She then coolly posted another one "I can't afford to offend, but I can avoid"

She probably thought that was the end of it. But not long after, a well-known interior designer posted a video on his account and tagged the influencer

"If it wasn't for my wife visiting the exhibition for the third time today and spotting you, those security guys might have been misunderstood!"

The video showed the influencer pointing her finger and cursing at the security guards, even saying the exhibition was trash. She wouldn't even have come if it weren't for her fans.

Even as she ranted the security guards remained cool.

The influencer got angrier seeing their non-reaction and showed them her Tik Tok follower count.

"I have over a million followers. You guys should check yourselves before you treat me like this. I just have one question, will you let me in or not?"

The guard calmly replied, "As long as you don't bring the prohibited items, you can enter with your ticket."

The influencer lost it instantly and tried to scratch the guy's face.

The guards were quick to dodge. One of them was riled up by her behavior, hence those viral pictures of the security guards looking fierce.

Chapter 1246

After this video was posted, the previous statements made by the internet celebrity were thoroughly debunked.

However, on the designer's page, some neutral netizens commented, "Straight talk, in the security check for the art show really that necessary? We pay to see the exhibition and end up being treated like criminals, in doesn't feel right."

The designer replied. "First of all, before you bought the tickets, they had already informed you about the security checks through a pop up window on the screen if you feel offended, you could choose not to go. Secondly, have you checked how many death threats have been posted online about her since her identities were exposed? As a parent, I think their caution is justified.

"Oh my goodness, death threats? Are these netizens out of their minds? How old is the child?"

"To be completely honest, some people's behaviors are indeed over the top. I took this screenshot on the little genius painter's plaza the other night.

The picture attached was a death threat in my

In response to the designer's comment, most people were supportive of the Wayne couple. However, some disagree.

"If they want to promote their genius child, they need to take responsibility if they don't want their daughter to attract attention, they should keep a low profile. Someone respond ed to the comment “You’re behaving poorly, yet you blame others for being too excellent? She was home top tier and highly talented, how do you expect her to keep a low profile?” Someone else was shocked. “You’re sympathizing with lunatics who threaten to kill a five six year old? (vesiready taken a screenshot of your comment and sent it to your friends, you’re teen

The person replied.

“I was just saying and you actually took a screenshot and sent it to my friends? Are you out of your mind?”

Then, that person deleted the comment

Although the art show sparked a huge controversy online around security issues, the atmosphere at the venue remained positive

As usually introduced some of her painting inspirations to the audience and answered many of their questions. Even the tricky ones she handled well

Rosalynn stood in a corner watching gently yet proudly. She kept checking the time hoping Wayne would make it Cory was sitting next to her playing a game

“he said if he doesn’t make it today, she’ll come again tomorrow” Cory said

Rosalynn looked at him. “Really?”

“Mhm” Cory nodded

Rosalynn took out her phone and sent Wayne a message.

“Your daughter said she’ll come back tomorrow if you can’t make it today, so don’t rush”

At that moment, Wayne was entering H City While Rosalynn was texting him, he was reading through the chaotic online messages, including some death threats to Cory and y “President Silverman these people are just blowing hot air if they were to act, they would be scared out of their wits, Sean, seeing Wayne’s worried face, reassured him

Wayne frowned slightly,

“Cory and Ivy have received too much public attention recently, and it’s not necessarily a good thing”

“I have to say, with parents like you and Secretary Tesdal, plus their own top-notch talents, it’s hard for them not to attract attention, Sean said in fact, after what happened to Cory, Wayne had already asked the PR department to handle it and take the kids’ names out of the trending

Chapter 1247

He didn't expect that he would be thrust into the public eye because of the exhibition

Up until yesterday, Wayne was just a bit troubled. But seeing so many people praise Ivy and Cory, he was happy inside

Until Felis was caught, a sense of crisis hit him like a flood. His current thought is that he hopes to hide Cory and by himself from the world.

If Ivy had to stand in front of the public for him tomorrow, Wayne would rather die than do that

Half an hour later his car arrived at the exhibition

Since Sean still had to return to the company to deal with follow-up work, Wayne let the driver take him back to Bane Corporation

As soon as the car drove away, Sean's phone began to vibrate. He answered the phone "What happened?"

The other side whispered "just got the news. Ms. Rosso has passed away"

"Who?" Sean felt familiar

"The foreign lady who was engaged to President Silverman that year, the woman chased away by our Secretary Tesdal. The other person answered

In Sean's mind, that delicate face immediately surfaced

"She passed away? When did this happen?"

Regarding Ms. Rosso, Sean only knew that after she failed to frame Secretary Tesdal several times, she was directly broken off by President Silverman. Later he heard that she was abandoned by her family. After rejecting two business managers in a row, Heather Rosso was completely abandoned by her family.

After that, Sean never heard any news about her.

However, the Rosso family did not give up cooperation with Bane Corporation over the years. The relationship between the two parties is even very good.

"It's been almost a week, and it's said that she was found dead in her apartment three or four days later. The person on the other side sighed. "Considering the Rosso family, they probably won't make this public."

"So how did you know?"

The person who called was a former employee of the president's office in recent years, she has become a full time housewife

"My cousin works for the Rosso family. She's with Heatherway's sister They helped with Heatherway's funeral. She paused, "Actually, it's just finding a priest, burying her directly with a coffin. she didn't even get buried in the family cemetery

Sean didn't speak If Ms Rosso hadn't done anything wrong back then, and if she hadn't framed Secretary Tesdal, none of these would have happened.

How could she have gone from being the family's most beloved daughter to being completely abandoned by the family?

"Since the Rosso family hasn't made it public, don't go around telling people" After a while. Sean finally spoke

"I only told you whether to tell President Silverman and Secretary Tesdal, it'll be your decision to make"

"Okay"

After hanging up the phone. Sean felt that he didn't need to bring bad feelings to everyone because of this. So he decided not to say anything President Silverman, you're finally here, Miss is giving her farewell speech" The bodyguard saw Wayne and quickly handed him the flowers

Wayne jogged all the way

As soon as he appeared, Ivy who was speaking on stage, noticed him right away. Her beautiful eyes immediately lit up, and everyone around noticed and turned their heads to look this way Wayne politely nodded his head, then looked at his daughter with a smile in his eyes

Before Wayne arrived, Ivy seemed a bit sluggish But as soon as he arrived, she clearly became more active

Chapter 1248

"Thank you all for swinging by my art show ladies and gentlemen. I won't let you guys down, promise i try my best to create even better stuff in the future" he said, taking a bow before wrapping up her speech Justavy hopped off the stage, Wayne approached her, bouquet in hand. He held the flowers with one hand and scooped by up with the other planting a kiss on her cheek Baby girl, you did great, just as brilliant your mom"

"Really?" she responded modestly, "I think mom's still the boss"

Wayne chuckled and carried by towards Rosalynn. Rosalynn watched the father–daughter duo with a smile

“Mom, Dad’s back Rosalynn bok the flowers from Wayne

Wayne leaned in for a kiss on her cheek. “You’ve worked hard, honey”

“Your wife hard work? The real trooper here is our Cory Paige chimed in after hanging up a call, sticking up for Cory “Never seen a mom who makes her son worry about her eating and drinking”

“Are you jealous?” Rosalynn teased patting Cory’s head, “Why don’t you and Mr. Scott have one?”

Paige blushed instantly. “Have you no shame talking about this in front of the kids!”

Little did they expect

“hy wants a little sister When are you having one?” by joined in on the teasing

“You little rascal teaming up with your mom to tease me, huh?” She tried to grab ivy into a hug

Wayne stepped aside just in time, leaving Paige lunging at thin air Ivy burst into laughter

Cory was busy gaming, but a smile crept onto his face

“Alright, time to head home and celebrate Rosalynn wrapped an arm around Paige, giving her a comforting rub on the waist.

Paige was no longer mad. “Baillie suggested we head straight to Moonlit Lake. It’s closer from there We should get going”

They left the exhibition center and headed to Moonlit Lake

Ivy loved meat, so Wayne brought in top-notch Brazilian chefs for a barbecue party. They invited Ivy’s art show agent and team too. The atmosphere was buzzing Ivy was beaming and even the usually quiet Cory was in high spints

Everyone had their fill of food and drinks.

Paige updated her instagram, posting eighteen pictures in the words of the comment section, every single one was brimming with joy

However, this joy was shattered the next morning

Paige had one too many and crashed at Moonlit Lake. She was hung—over and stayed in bed till late

Baillie gave her hangover meds and she slowly came around

Not long after her phone rang It was a call from her overseas classmate

“sn’t it past your bedtime? Paige yawned Baillie gave her a bemused look

Hedidn’t know what was being said on the other end, but Paige’s demeanor changed abruptly. She sat up, all business now. “Send me the screenshot”

She hung up after that

“What’s up?” Baillie asked

“Somebody s posted a hit job on the dark web. The targets are Wayne, Cory and ivy Paige said tersely

Seeing the screenshot, Paige tensed up

She sprang from the bed, not even bothering with shoes, dialed Rosalynn while heading out.

Chapter 1249

Roslynn picked up the phone

“Are you home? I’m coming over

“I’m in the living room don’t rush” Rosalynn replied.

Paige gave a hum of confirmation and headed straight for the living room

Upon arriving both Wayne and Rosalynn were there Rosalynn seemed frosty

“Did you guys already know?” Paige asked her bbw furrowed

“Yep “Rosalynn nodded. “Im puzzled though, why would he hire a hitman and leave me out?”

“Quit your nosensel Paige swiftly tapped her arm three times. ‘It’s a good thing you are not involved, you shouldn’t be wondering”

‘Do you guys know who hired the hitman Baillie anked

“Simon” Wayne said with a helpless look,

“The hitman said Simon went cry. I didn’t expect him to really lose

The boldness of hiring a hitman was unbelievable

“One life is worth fifty million, and there are three of them on the list. This huge reward will definitely attract a lot of people. Rosalynn leaned on the sofa. “He’s playing a deadly game with us” “How much assets does he have? Did he use all his assets to hire the hitman” Paige was shocked

It’s well known that although Simon has the title of a prince and a duke, compared to his siblings, he’s the weakest.

His ability to make money is poor not smart enough, and has an annoying personality

Now he’s putting out a hundred and fifty million, isn’t this all his assets?

Rosalynn laughed. “Then he’s screwed. I have way more than that”

Paige was slightly taken aback, and Wayne looked at her too

Not long after another assassination mission was posted on the dark web

Assassination target Kill the person who posted the information of killing Wayne and his children. Reward 150 million

After this mission was posted, the dark web became very lively

Although it seemed like the same reward, but here a head is worth 150 million, while in the other task, three heads were needed

And according to what they know, there have been many people wanting to kill Wayne these years.

They originally thought that things had come to this point, the game was set

But, not long after, a user named JTX added another fifty million to the reward under this mission

“It’s Granny Jared!” Paige was very excited. “Even though Simon isn’t worth this much, I’m adding to the reward too

Before Rosalynn could stop her a user named sweet88888 added ten million to the reward

After that everyone started adding to the reward. Some users with strange names added just ten dollars, some added millions. They watched the reward climb from the initial 150 million to over 200 million, thinking things were about over Then another user added another thirty million and left a message

Paige was drinking water and sprayed it but

“Is this person Baillie’s mom? Rosalynn was shocked

Paige nodded blankly “Who else could it be”

Chapter 1280

Simon was all drunk as a skunk when the old butler in his house wake him up

“What’s up?” Simon was plased.

“Sir, it’s the dark web

Simon immediately sobered up, grabbing the butler’s hand. “Am Wayne and those two kids dead?”

The butler shook his head.

“Gabriella also posted a hit on you on the dark web The bounty is now up to two hundred and Afty million!”

“What?”

Simon was shocked to his core, breaking out into a cold sweat

“The palace just called, and they want you to come back to the royal family to lay low. They will handle the dark web and the Silverman family? The butler said as he handed Simon his clothes

Simon quickly got dressed, not forgetting to pick up Olivia’s ashes that had fallen to the floor as he was leaving

It was just dawn. Although there were not mahy people on the streets, just seeing some shadows made Sigrid danic

After getting in the car he started worrying it someone had tampered with it. He immediately got out of the car, intending to hail a cab on the street in his panic, the um in his hand fell to the ground, scattering ashes everywhem

“Olivia”

Simon yelled, throwing himself onto the ground to gather the ashes. But it had rained heavily the night before, and the ground was full of puddles Olivia’s ashes, already few in number.

turned into mud

Simon felt like he was going to lose it. The butler and his bodyguards didn’t hesitate. They immediately shoved him into the car

*Olivia““““

Simon leaned against the car window looking at the puddle of mud and broken porcelain, shouting until his voice was hoarse

The butler looked back, his eyes full of helplessness and hatred. Before Olivia had married into the family, although Prince Simon was eccentric, he had not caused any major trouble. But after Olivia's arrival, Simon's behavior became increasingly erratic.

His actions became more and more bizarre, and the family's dissatisfaction with him grew

Now it's even worse He has offended two major families, the Silverman family and the Jared family, and for some reason, the famous Scott family from H Country has also gotten involved

To the old butler the bounty of two hundred and fifty million was almost inconceivable

As soon as he found out about this, Simon's bodyguards and drivers became extremely vigilant

What wouldn't people do for that kind of money”

The most important thing right now was to get Simon to a safe place and have the royal family negotiate with the Silverman family and the Jared family

Before long Simon was sent back to the royal family His mother slapped him as soon as she saw him.

“Your brother finally secured his position in the royal family. The queen likes him very much and he will be promoted to be an important minister next year. Are you deliberately messing things up with this stunt?” Simon stood there, his eyes filled with anger and resentment,

“Did I cause this? Wayne killed my wife and children what's wrong with me wanting them to go down with her? You're the ones who are wrong. You're afraid of Wayne and you're afraid of the Jared Group Even when your own family is killed, you don't react. I was forced into a corner and that's why I put up the reward!”

“And then what? You scrambled to raise funds, offering a bounty of one hundred and fifty million. They like they were playing a game easily raised one hundred million?” The woman shouted angrily, “And so Olivia was never your wife. The child in her belly could be anyone's but definitely not yours!”

Simon's face turned pale

“Now get to your room, you're not allowed out until this matter is resolved!”
