

The Secret Heir Return To Wealth And Love

Chapter 15

Lately, Rosalynn has been having a pretty crappy time.

Last night, Evan's fireworks and care made her feel warmth and affection, which was very rare.

She thought for a moment, then took the paper bag from Evan. "Thanks, I'll choose a nice gift for my birthday."

"Sure thing!" Evan nodded vigorously.

At that moment, the drunken girl in the car managed to undo her seatbelt and crawled over to the window on this side, pressing herself against it.

Evan clutched his chest, startled.

"Hey don't freak out, she's just my friend who had a bit too much to drink." Rosalynn hurriedly reassured him.

"No worries, go take care of her!" Evan waved his hand, "I'll be waiting for your message!"

"Alright."

Rosalynn went around to the other side of the car, got in, and pulled Paige back in.

"Wow, what a handsome guy! He's so good-looking! I need to get him into the car and take him home!" Paige slurred, her words slurred due to intoxication.

Rosalynn swiftly intervened, grabbing Paige and reassuring her, "No, no, there's no handsome guy, you're just imagining things!"

With a quick motion, she secured Paige's seatbelt and called out to Mr. Leon, "Alright, Mr. Leon, let's go!"

Mr. Leon skillfully started the car and executed a smooth U-turn, getting them on their way.

Meanwhile, Evan stood outside, waving at Rosalynn with his mesmerizing crystal-clear blue eyes fixed on her.

As the Mercedes-Benz accelerated, leaving the dock behind, Evan took a deep breath, relieved that his long legs had allowed him to catch up in time.

He turned around, preparing to walk back, but before he could take more than a few steps, someone blocked his path.

Evan looked around, confused. Ashley stood in front of him with a worried expression.

In reality, she was about to blow up. Wayne had just left her and stormed off, although he'd left her a car and driver, Ashley still felt humiliated.

She got off the ship angrily and saw Rosalynn about to get in a Benz.

Ashley vaguely remembered that Wayne also had the same car in his garage. She was sure this was his!

Ashley wanted to confront Rosalynn right away. But just as she was about to step forward, she heard someone call Rosalynn's name from behind.

She recognized the voice and turned around to see Evan, the young master of the Lockner family, shouting Rosalynn's name and running towards her.

She couldn't hear what the two of them said, but she saw Evan hand Rosalynn a bag with his family jewelry brand logo on it.

The starting price for his family's jewelry is tens of thousands of dollars. How pricey must be the one he personally gave away?

Rosalynn was stringing Wayne along while also being ambiguous with Evan!

Ashley was so angry her teeth were grinding.

This damn girl has some nerve! She won't let her get away with it!

So, she went straight up to Evan, determined to expose Rosalynn's true colors.

"Mr. Lockner," she stuttered.

Evan still looked puzzled: "And you are?"

Ashley was taken aback. Didn't he notice she and Rosalynn looked somewhat alike?

“Mr. Lockner, don’t be deceived by Rosalynn!” Not caring about anything else, Ashley went straight to the point..

Evan, who had just looked puzzled, suddenly turned serious.

“Who are you? If you’re going to say bad things about Rosalynn, then you’d better not say anything!” After saying that, Evan tried to leave.

Ashley felt like she was in a bizarre world. Rumor had it that Evan was a naive and innocent young man. She thought it must be true. If Wayne wasn’t richer than the Lockner family, she would have switched targets! But keeping Evan as a backup option wasn’t a bad idea either, right?

“Mr. Lockner, did you know that Rosalynn was taken care of by Wayne for five years?”

This time, Evan stopped in his tracks.
