The Secret Heir Return To Wealth And Love Chapter 1661

Chapter 1661

Erica felt a twinge in her nose.

She immediately replied, "Now that I have someone to lean on, you should be worried about me becoming arrogant." Of course, Rosalynn wasn't concerned about that.

If Erica was really going to get arrogant, she wouldn't have put up with all this crap.

If you can't bear to deal with Kelly's matter..." Rosalynn advised.

She worried that Erica was still too soft-hearted to deal with Kelly, who had always been causing her trouble.

"Larkin has already gotten hold of the evidence from the past, Erica said.

"Oh right, silly me, I forgot you just said you have someone to rely on now," Rosalynn realized.

Erica chuckled.

"Erical" Ivy wriggled free from Wayne and ran over cheerfully, "You look even more gorgeous today than yesterday"

Erica laughed heartily and gave Ivy a warm hug and a kiss.

Larkin and Wayne, who were having a conversation, turned to look at them, their faces softening.

As for Tech Seven

Orval, accompanied by a few tall and stern-faced men, squatted beside Cory.

Tech Seven, would it be hard to fix our system?" asked Orval,

He had already approached several big companies, but they either demanded exorbitant fees, or couldn't meet his expectations no matter what. Some even demanded that he step back.

Orval had noticed several tech whiz kids chasing after Cory yesterday.

He only found out after asking around that Cory, despite his young age, was a really successful computer engineer.

After a night of pondering, Orval decided to swallow his pride and ask Cory for help directly.

Cory slowly read through Orval's requests.

Actually, all Orval wanted was to build a database related to medicinal herbs and another one for prescription-to-symptom correlation.

Even though it sounded simple, it was quite a complex task in reality.

"I'll try to get it done during the summer break," Cory said slowly after reading through all the demands.

Orval was taken aback. He hadn't even asked Cory for help yet.

"Oh, thank you so much, how much are we talking?" he started to discuss payment.

"I won't charge you as long as the elders in your family treat my dad," Cory cut him off.

Orval was thrilled.

"Don't worry, we'll make sure President Silverman lives a long and healthy life!" one of the tall men vowed, thumping his chest. Cory thought for a moment, then nodded.

"I'll contact you once I've built the framework." He returned the laptop to Orval and got up to leave, heading towards Rosalynn. Orval and his gang watched Cory's retreating figure.

"Look at his demeanor!"

“The software engineers we hired before can’t even hold a candle to Cory!”

Just as the atmosphere was getting harmonious, a servant rushed in from outside.

“Mr. Carter!” The servant hesitated between Larkin and Erica, then ran towards Larkin,

“What’s the big rush? What happened?” Orval asked

The housekeeper frowned, “Mr. Carter, Mrs. Carter’s father and brothers are here they insist on seeing Mrs. Carter

Larkin’s previously calm expression instantly turned icy

“They dare to show their faces?” Orval stood up, “Larkin, Erica, don’t worry about it, I’ll deal with them?”

It’s okay” Erica stood up, I’m not afraid of them. If they’re here to cause me trouble, why shouldn’t I confront them?”

Chapter 1662

Erica’s fallout with Kelly yesterday was like unlocking the chains that had been holding Erica back.

Now Erica is a whole new, fearless woman.

Later, Calvert Shields and his children in the hall had long lost their initial arrogance

After the wedding yesterday, Larkin handed Kelly back to Calvert, along with the staff member that Kelly had tried to bribe.

Calvert and his sons were stunned.

They wanted to explain to Larkin immediately, but Larkin flatly refused to see them.

They were also denied entry to the party held in the mansion that night.

The party last night was full of dignitaries who knew Calvert, but Calvert did not show up. He was afraid of being found out that he and Larkin were not getting along.

Calvert spent the whole night tossing and turning.

As soon as dawn broke, he immediately brought Tomas, Jack, and Kelly over.

“When you see Erica, kneel down and apologize. I don’t care what you have to do, but you must get her forgiveness!”

When Erica got to the door, she heard Calvert scolding voice.

Then came the voice of Jack who often bullied Erica, “Kelly, I didn’t expect you to do this. You clearly knew the situation of the Shields family, you clearly knew we needed Erica and Larkin’s help, but you wanted to ruin the wedding! Isn’t that cutting off our lifeline?”

Erica frowned unconsciously

As soon as she pushed the door open, the family of four in the hall immediately turned their heads to look at her

At first glance, Erica saw Kelly, who was still in yesterday’s clothes, her cheeks swollen.

Apparently, after being taken away by Calvert, Kelly had been beaten.

Enca only glanced at her and looked away.

“Erica, you’re finally here! Calvert walked over quickly, reaching out to shake Erica’s hand.

Before, Larkin didn’t know about Erica’s past, so his attitude towards Calvert, although not warm, was always polite.

But now...

“Spit it out.” Larkin, with his arm around Erica’s waist, avoided Calvert’s hand.

Calvert’s hand stopped in mid-air, his face embarrassed

“Larkin, Erica, we’re all family, so I’ll just say “Calvert cleared his throat and put on his fatherly authority, “I know what Kelly did yesterday, it was really Over the line!”

Erica didn’t say a word, she just walked over and sat down on the sofa.

Calvert watched, and unconsciously frowned.

If it were in the past, he would definitely scold Erica for being disrespectful.

“What are you standing there for? What did you say when you left?” Calvert vented his anger on Kelly, and yelled at Kelly with a sideways glance, “Hurry up and apologize to Erica!”

Chapter 1663

“Save your apology Erica’s tone was icy, “I told you yesterday, I’m not accepting any apologies, Dad, if you’re here to make me forgive her, don’t waste your time. Go home. Kelly never let me off the hook, I won’t let her off either.

“But Erica, Kelly is your sister after all. If her husband’s family found out about this... Calvert face turned sour at the mention of this.

Erica could see Calvert was holding back his anger.

“Yesterday was my wedding with Larkin, among the guests were not only my husband’s family but also many important figures. If this video gets out, Larkin’s reputation would be ruined. And you’re still thinking about Kelly’s husband?” Erica interrupted Calvert unfinished sentence.

Interrupting her father was a no-go in the Shields family.

Erica had always been obedient, she had always followed these rules.

Looking back now, Calvert, a man who already had a wife, pretended to be single only to deceive naive young women. He continued to mentally torment Erica and her mother.

No, to be precise, Calvert mentally tormented everyone in the Shields family, except his two incompetent sons, Tomas and Jack “Erica, who taught you to talk to your father like this?” Calvert was clearly infuriated.

The always clueless Jack chimed in, “You caught her before the video was played, didn’t you? You even punished Kelly You should be more forgiving. we’re family after all. Why are you being so heartless?”

Tomas didn’t seem as agitated, but his tone was filled with discontent,” You knew about Kelly’s intentions to harm you a long time ago. You should have spoken up earlier. Now, how many years have passed since this incident? Digging it up again is a scandal for you, for Mr. Carter, for the Shields family. and for Kelly’s husband. Isn’t this just inviting others to laugh?”

“Don’t drag me into this: Larkin, sitting next to Erica, said coldly, “Kelly is the one who screwed up, and you all should be the ones embarrassed.” “Larkin, you can’t just... Jack was even more upset seeing Larkin’s cold attitude.

“Jack, who gave you the right to talk to Larkin like that?” Erica asked impatiently. “Did you forget, you never treated me like your sister. I was always the illegitimate child of the Shields family in public. Now you need help, suddenly you admit that I’m your sister and Larkin is supposedly obliged to help you? Look at yourself, are you even worthy?”

Erica’s words stunned Jack.

“Don’t call my name. If I’m in a good mood, I might consider helping you with your mess. If not, I could make things worse for you. Watch your mouth!” Erica scoffed.

Her words were a huge blow to Jack

Jack opened his mouth but was lost for words.

There was no need to drag him into Kelly’s problem.

Tomas was even worse off.

He shut his mouth, careful not to add fuel to the fire.

Calvert had never seen this side of Erica.

“You have a good husband, feel like you have a backbone now, so you really don’t care about the Shields family anymore?” Calvert sneered However...

“Dad, honestly, have you ever cared about what I do?” Erica stared at Calvert calmly. “When mom was alive, you’d give me some money every month, but after she passed away, the Shields family stopped caring about me completely, right? You never cared about me, why should I care about you?” “Erica, I’m the one at fault!” It was Kelly who broke the silence. She didn’t say much, she just knelt before Erica.

I let my hatred blind me. I was always reminded of the pain my mother went through, so I hurt you. I’d give my life in return, just don’t treat dad and our brothers like this?

After saying this, Kelly looked around, suddenly got up and charged towards a corner of a table.

Chapter 1664

Kelly’s move took everyone by surprise

Seeing Kelly about to collide with the sharp edge of the table, Felix suddenly appeared and kicked her shoulder, sending her flying.

Originally, Felix didn’t plan on attending Erica’s wedding because he couldn’t bring Molly along.

It’s not a good time for Molly to go abroad.

It would be dangerous if Simon’s family was still out for Molly’s blood.

But Molly insisted that Felix should tag along. So, with no other choice, Felix went along.

After Erica and Larkin left, Rosalynn was a bit worried and asked Felix to check on them and then report back to her.

Thanks to his years of professional experience, Felix effortlessly blended into the crowd without drawing attention.

Coincidentally, he was standing near the corner of the table that Kelly was aiming for

Seeing Kelly charging at him, Felix instinctively kicked her away

“Mr. Felix, you’re a badass! Orval was the first to recover from what just happened. He gave Felix a thumbs-up, then turned to Kelly, who was writhing in pain on the ground. “You just don’t know when to quit, do you? Planning to die in our house and then have the public blame Erica? You’re dreaming. As soon as we knew you guys were coming, we activated all the surveillance. Every word, every action you’ve taken here has been recorded. Even if you do die here, it has nothing to do with the Carter family. I’ll even post these videos online to ensure you never rest in peace.”

Felix was just thinking, it’s a real shame that Jaime wasn’t there.

This Mr. Orval was just as mad as Jaime when he lost it.

“Kelly!” Calvert fushed over to Kelly anxiously

“Dad, it hurts so much” Kelly was sweating profusely.

Calvert turned to Erica, saying, “Erica, can you let Kelly off just this once? I admit that I was wrong in the past...”

“Playing the emotional card now that you know you’re in the wrong, Mr. Shields? Larkin interjected coldly. “You’re even more despicable than I thought ” The people from the Shields family were all taken aback.

“Larkin’ How can you speak to your father-in-law like that Tomas said, his face darkened with anger. Clearly, he had reached his limit.

In Tomas’ view, this was just a case of Kelly being unlucky and getting caught by Rosalynn and Larkin.

After all, Erica was the daughter of a homewrecker.

Chapter 1665

Erica’s mom screwed up their family, so what’s wrong with Kelly wanting a little payback?

Tomas didn’t think Kelly was in the wrong. Instead, he thought Erica and Larkin were way out of line now.

I'm already being merciful by not taking out on you guys," Erica looked at the Shields family, coldly said.

"You better scram before I really lose my temper. I won't care about your reputation anymore. After all, my reputation has been ruined by Kelly, I couldn't care less."

Calvert retorted, "If you don't care, then let things slip this time. Why drag Kelly into this? You've been through this, you know how it feels. Can't you just let her off the hook? You're in a high position now, she can't harm you anymore..."

"Jesus, can you even hear yourself? Unbelievable! Everything Erica went through was orchestrated by Kelly! And the karma finding Kelly is her own doing. It has nothing to do with Erica. As a father, can't you think before you speak? Even animals understand cause and effect, they won't spout such nauseating words!"

"Orvall" Jack, who was about the same age as Orval and had gone to school with him, didn't dare to shout at Erica and Larkin, but he did dare to Orval. "What are you yelling about? Erica said even more coldly, her gaze fell on Calvert pale face, "Did Orval say something wrong? The reason Kelly hurt me wasn't because I'm the daughter of a homewrecker, it was because she was jealous of me, thinking everyone was too good to me. However... from a young age, you were the one who treated her the best. You raised her as your successor. And me, I was just a pawn for a political marriage." Erica turned to look at Kelly

"Kelly, do you see it? Calvert truly loves you, not me. Your past hatred and jealousy were unnecessary, Erica paused, T've seen through all of you. I will say it one last time, no matter what you do, I won't forgive Kelly. It's time for you to be punished, Kelly"

Kelly's shoulder might have been hurt by Felix's kick, she could only raise her other hand to point at Larkin, "He was once a monk, I heard he quit being a monk because he fell in love with a woman! He hasn't married that woman for so many years, and now he's married you. What do you think Larkin sees you as? You're just a tool for him to have a child. Once you give birth, he'll abandon you!"

People say that Larkin actually likes men, otherwise, he wouldn't be unmarried at such an age.

Kelly doesn't want Erica to have a good life, she sincerely believes that Erica doesn't deserve happiness.

After hearing Kelly, Erica didn't show the anger that Kelly had hoped for. Instead, she laughed. "Then you can keep waiting"

"You're really stupid. Larkin left his monkhood because he fell deeply in love with Erica the first time he saw her. He didn't get married for more than a decade because he was waiting for her to break up with Jacob. Do you think everyone is like you? Being seen by Calvert as a tool for marriage, marrying off for company resources? Do you know there is real love in this world?" Orval sneered, "But, fate is fair. How could a vicious woman like you have such beautiful love?"

Orval lifted his chin, the smile on his face slowly fading, "You only deserve a story where your true colors are revealed, causing the family's reputation to be damaged, being despised by your father, and then abandoned by your husband"

"You're lying!" Kelly gritted her teeth and wanted to rush at Erica, "You're lying again! You're a master of lying, you always have been!"

"You lied when you were young, you said you were my mom's daughter, and you're not an illegitimate child, saying your mom wasn't the other woman!" "Can you remember how many lies you've told?"

Erica stood up, looking down at Kelly.

"I can't remember." Her gaze never left Kelly, "But I remember, the most stupid lie ever told was it's not Kelly's fault."
