Chapter 171

'Don't call me that! We've cut all ties! Hilaria interrupted the man.

Is he Hilaria's son?

"Mom, Latham is my husband. My father passed away, and he, as a son in law, should be here! The middle-aged woman said, looking pretty and dressed very well. Wait a minute. Her father passed away? Was this woman the biological daughter of Baldrick that Hilaria mentioned, the one who was taken by mistake?

In a flash, Rosalynn seemed to have figured out something that Hilaria didn't say

If her guess was correct, the middle aged man should be Hilaria's eldest son.

That old friend Hilaria was looking for left so resolutely, because her eldest son was messing around with Baldrick's biological daughter?

"Don't think I don't know why you're here!" Hilaria sneered. I kicked you out of the Gorman family and took back all your assets. You're out of money, right? Now you set your sights on Baldrick's inheritance?"

"I have every right to inherit my father's estate"

"Yvonne Don't talk to mom like that Latham Jared pulled Yvonne's arm,

"Honey she's gone too far!" Yvonne clenched her teeth, her face full of grievance

A few elders around started to persuade Hilaria "Hilaria, she is Baldrick's only child after all. Baldrick just passed away and you..."

"Shut up!" Hilaria yelled angrily "Ask them if Baldrick would like to see them over the years?"

"Sigh. "Everyone sighed

"What does it have to do with you?" Wonne asked angrily "The person my dad hated more was you! And speaking of that, my dad was in good health, How come he suddenly died after you came?!"*

"You Hilana widened her eyes in shock, breathing heavily

At this point, someone came up behind her. One hand gently supported her back, and the other gently held her trembling hand.

The warm feeling instantly dispelled most of her anger and shame.

She looked up to see Rosalynn's warm smile.

Granny, why are you getting angry again? Don't get upset over people who aren't worth it. You have to take care of yourself Rosalynn said, glancing at the middle-aged couple. A dead person is just an empty shell Who cares who sees it?"

Hilaria's anger subsided instantly

"Let's go have breakfast. The sanatorium cafeteria's breakfast is so delicious Rosalynn helped Hilaria up, intending to get out from the commotion. "Who are you?"

As soon as they turned around, they heard Yvonne's displeased question.

This little bitch, with her foxy appearance and an inexplicable sense of familiarity, spoke in a sarcastic tone, which made Yvonne very upset

"Who she is? Like you deserve to know? Hilaria scoffed. "Come on, be a good girl and go with grandma. Don't bother with this malicious woman!"

"Okay" Rosalynn obediently responded.

The two of them walked away, hand in hand, ignoring the anger in Yvonne's eyes.

Calvin followed behind, giving Yvonne and Latham a contemptuous and warning look.

"Latham, you know your mother has been looking for a successor, right?" A man suddenly spoke up.

Latham frowned, "Where did that rumor come from? I just have some conflicts with my mother now The family business still follows the tradition, and the eldest son will

"You're so behind on the news?" Someone else said. "Hilaria is sick of useless person. I think that girl just now must be the chosen successor"

Chapter 172

Yvonne's face was looking pretty bad. She grabbed Latham and walked towards where Baldrick was.

In a while, the body will be sent to the funeral home. Following Baldrick's instructions, there wouldn't be a memorial service, he'd be buried directly with his wife.

"These old geezers, insulting me for being a loser in a roundabout way! Latham said furiously

Latham thought that although he might not be as talented as those business geniuses, he still had a good brain, he just lacked luck!

"What's the deal with the inheritance? Your mom can't be THAT clueless to just hand over the huge family business to outsiders, right?" Yvonne was a bit uneasy.

She also didn't expect that after more than twenty years, that old hag would find out the truth about what happened back then. And because of that, she would cut off ties with them

But Yvonne thought that, anyway, Latham was still Hilaria's oldest son, she couldn't possibly disown her own child for a woman from twenty-something years ago, could she?

"I haven't been able to get any information on what's happening in the company lately. You're asking me, but who am I supposed to ask? Latham was just as desperate, scratching his head.

He saw that the woman he had just met was very close to his mother.

Latham had never seen his strict mother be so gentle with any child, let alone listen to that woman so obediently!

Seeing this, Yvonne lowered her eyes and began to cry. "It's all my fault. If I hadn't fallen in love with you back then and you hadn't been with me, none of this would've happened Latham quickly tried to comfort her, "How is this your fault? If anyone's to blame, it's that evil woman Adeline. After all those years, she still wants to frame you for hurting her

Yvonne didn't say anything, just leaned in her husband's arms and cried quietly.

That idiot Adeline, capable of harming her? She'd been dead for who knows how many years, even her ashes was probably disintegrated already

On the other side

Rosalynn took quite a few of her favorite breakfast dishes from the care center cafeteria, all of which she had eaten before.

The steaming food was placed in front of Hilaria.

Hilana seemed a bit dispirited. "Sorry to bring this mess to you?"

"What does their mockery have to do with you?" Rosalynn pushed the milk towards her, "Drink it while it's hot, to warm up your body"

Hilania took a sip. Indeed, she felt much better.

Rosalynn thought for a moment. "That person from the past, her name was Adeline?"

What a coincidence, her mother was also named Adeline, Adeline Tesdal

"Yeah"

Rosalynn nodded. "It seems that Mr. Baldrick and his wife had a very good relationship."

"It's more than just very good. If it wasn't for an innocent child at that time, Baldrick would definitely die with her Hilaria sighed and shook her head, "So, when Yvonne just returned home, Baldrick was actually in great pain

Rosalynn silently sipped her coffee

"Yvonne's foster parents were very bad, and she suffered a lot. She didn't even finish elementary school. But Adeline was raised with luxury and received the best education She eventually married into the Jared family"

With that said, Rosalynn could probably understand Baldrick's pain

"Adeline was also very guilty and treated Yvonne as good as Baldrick. But who knew that Yvonne wanted to be the wife of the eldest son from the Jared family? I don't believe for a moment that it was true love, my son has nothing to offer but a pretty face!"

"What happened after that?" Rosalynn asked.

“After that “Hilana furrowed her brows, looking in a lot of pain, “One day, I caught Adeline having sex with her childhood sweetheart” Rosalynn hand froze

“At that time, I didn’t know that Yvonne had already been with my loser son, and I just assumed she was cheating I didn’t listen to her explanation and drove her out of the house This incident became widely known in high society” Hilaria cried, “It wasn’t until this year that I’ve learned that Yvonne had bribed the maid, drugged Adeline, and deliberately led me to catch her in the act

“I can’t imagine how humiliated and desperate Adeline must have been at that time!

Rosalynn felt quite uncomfortable and nauseous

‘Did Mr. Baldrick know the truth?’ she asked

Chapter 173

“So that boy is Baldrick’s student... Something happened, and that kid quickly went to explain it to Baldrick. Adeline was raised by Baldrick himself, and that boy was also his student. So Baldrick knows their temperament very well That’s why he didn’t believe it and argued with me... After two years, Yvonne and my son got married. Baldrick must have sensed something by then and stopped associating with them, but I always thought that it was Baldrick who acted biased towards Adeline ”

Truth be told

Rosalynn also thought that Hilaria was unreasonable in this matter.

Maybe it’s because she trusted her son too blindly, and Yvonne must have played a big part in this as well. There were countless ways to frame someone

She really wanted to know how Adeline was doing, and she hoped that Adeline was still alive. Otherwise, it would be just what those two despicable people wanted!

Hilana shook her head “No Theard she went to find her biological parents”

“Wasn’t it said that they were scumbags Rosalynn frowned.

“Well, that’s Yvonne’s adoptive parents, I didn’t investigate the specifics, but Yvonne’s adoptive parents are not Adeline’s biological parents.”

If it was those scumbags, she wouldn’t be so hard to find.

This was such a weird and complicated situation.

Maybe it's God's protection for this poor soul, and stopped these people from trying to find her again. Baldrick was cremated that very day

Yvonne insisted on holding a memorial service, inviting celebrities from all walks of life that her father knew. But Baldrick's legal team quickly arrived and stopped this behavior

After the cremation, it was getting dark. Hilaria saw Rosalynn constantly checking the time, so she decided to leave with her

Just as they were about to leave, Baldrick's lawyer ran over

"Mrs Jared. I finally found you!"

"What's wrong?" Hilaria asked.

"Mr Baldrick's will needs to be read, and according to his wishes, you must be present The lawyer said solemnly.

Rosalynn thought she shouldn't be involved in this kind of thing and since Wayne urged her to go back, she left first.

A short while later

In the conference room.

Yvonne's face didn't look good.

The will should be read, but why did Hilaria need to be present?

Once everyone was gathered, the lawyer began to read it.

Though Baldrick kept a low profile life, he was a master in investment and had accumulated many properties.

"According to Old Mr Gorman's wishes, his movable properties will be divided into three parts. One part will be used to establish an anti-trafficking public welfare fund to help trafficked children return home"

Yvonne lowered her eyelids, not knowing what she was thinking about. Clenching her fist, she squeezed her fingernails into her palm.

"One part will be used for Nathan Dave's research laboratory!"

“What?” Latham suddenly stood up, both furious and shocked.

Nathan was none other than Adeline’s illicit lover!

Ignoring him, the lawyer continued to announce

“The remaining movable properties, as well as all the real estate under Baldrick’s name, will be inherited by Adeline’s daughter”

Chapter 174

The meeting room immediately turned into chaos.

“No way! Where did Adeline’s daughter come from? She’s already dead!!” Yvonne stood up and pointed at the lawyer, “Don’t you dare read that nonsense! I can sue you!”
“Ms Yvonne, please calm down. Mr. Baldrick had a video recorded in the presence of a notary to avoid any issues after the announcement.”

The lawyer gestured, and the assistant immediately started playing the video.

On the screen, after some brief static, the image appeared.

Baldrick was lying in a hospital bed, looking frail, but somewhat spirited.

The date in the corner of the video showed it was recorded half a year ago.

The content at the beginning was not controversial. However, at the end...

“All my real estate, as well as the rest of my assets, will be inherited by my adopted daughter Adeline’s no, Adeline Tesdal’s daughter”

Baldrick on the video was still talking “Since Adeline passed away, I’ve lost contact with my granddaughter. I entrust my dear friend Hilaria to find her on my behalf.”

Hilaria covered her mouth, tears streaming down her face. She had no idea Adeline had a child still alive in this world. Neither did she know Baldrick still saw her as a close friend

Baldrick took a moment to catch his breath. Then he looked into the camera and said, "Hilaria, please take my ashes with you... and take me home."

"Alright alright. "Hilaria was sobbing uncontrollably

Calvin was worried. If he had known earlier, he wouldn't have let Ms. Tesdal go. Now who would comfort the old lady?

"Mom Latham was also somewhat confused

One thing was the unbelievable will. His wife was the suffering one, but her father left her nothing.

The other was that Adeline had actually died. And Yvonne knew it the whole time?

Hilana raised her hand, preventing her son from approaching

"Mr. Zack, did Baldrick leave any message for me?" She asked the lawyer.

Mr. Zack sighed, "He didn't know where Adeline was, that's why he couldn't tell you. He genuinely had no idea."

"Can we speak privately for a moment? Mr. Zack glanced at Yvonne and her husband before asking.

"We need to hear it too! Yvonne demanded.

She was about to lose her mind from anger.

Why? Why did her father still think about that imposter Adeline in the end?

Everything that Adeline had should've belonged to her, even her husband!

She wanted to get back what was rightfully hers, so what if she resorted to some tactics? But her father completely disregarded her feelings.

"Because Mr. Baldrick was afraid that if someone, like Ms. Yvonne, were to find Adeline's daughter before us, she would be in danger Mr. Zack spoke bluntly

He was Nathan's close friend and knew all the details of what happened back then. He despised Yvonne, that wicked woman.

Yvonne froze in shock.

Mr. Zack and Hilaria left the conference room

Chapter 175

“As for Adeline Tesdal’s background, Mr. Baldrick only knows a rough idea. Her biological parents were involved in special confidential work when they were young. They gave their child to a distant relative for care after she was born. But the relatives were negligent, and the child was kidnapped. It was more than a decade later when they finished their mission and found out the child was gone,” Mr. Zack said in a deep voice.

Hilania’s face darkened

“By coincidence, this couple had changed their identities many times. It took them many years to find their daughter at the time of Adeline’s accident and took her away”

“No wonder we couldn’t find them no matter how hard we looked,” Hilaria said, frowning.

“Actually, it’s not that hard to find them. It’s just that this couple changed their identities one last time, and used some tricks to destroy both of their records,” Mr. Zack replied

“So what Baldrick said about Adeline’s death is that not true?” Hilaria asked, holding on to a glimmer of hope.

Mr Zack shook his head

“Before Adeline passed away, she still contacted Mr. Baldrick, briefly told him about her situation, and mentioned her child.”

“Mr. Baldrick thought Adeline wanted him to take care of her child. However, Adeline just said she missed her father... and that her daughter was innocent and lovely, and she wanted her to grow up carefree, never approaching filthy riches”

Hilania couldn’t help but start crying again. “Thurt Adeline’s heart!”

“Ma’am, you were indeed wrong at first, but you’re not the one who started it all!” Mr. Zack gritted his teeth, “Anyway, I hope you can fulfill Mr. Baldrick’s last wish and find his granddaughter.”

"That child!" Hilaria suddenly grabbed Mr. Zack's wrist and asked. "How old is she now?"

Mr. Zack looked at Hilaria and said, "Ma'am, why do you think Mr. Baldrick wanted to entrust the child to you in the end?"

Hilaria trembled, her face pale. "Is she Latham's child? My granddaughter?"

Mr Zack gently removed Hilaria's hand and said, "I still have some matters to deal with. You can call me if you need anything"

Finally, Mr. Zack handed Baldrick's urn to Hilana, then left with his lawyer team, ignoring Yvonne's hysterics

Hilana was still a bit stunned

-Yvonne and Latham ran out. "Mom, we can't give my father in law's inheritance to that bastard!"

God knows what Yvonne said to Latham. When Latham came out, he was furious and started yelling at his mother

No man could tolerate being cuckolded

This matter couldn't be hidden back then, and he had been laughed at for over twenty years if people found out now that his father-in-law left most of his inheritance to the illegitimate child, he would forever be the laughing stock of others

Hilana furiously glared at Latham.

She slapped Latham hard. "You are stupid!"

Latham covered his face, seeing stars.

"Mom! What are you doing?!" Yvonne rushed over.

Calvin pushed her, and she fell to the ground.

"Don't get close to the madam!" he warned them, looking fierce and angry.

Yvonne started crying loudly "You all have no conscience!"

"Calvin, how dare you!" Latham yelled at Calvin

Calvin stared back at him, and Latham backed down.

“Do you know what you’ve lost because of this vile woman” Hilaria pointed at Latham, “How did I raise a scumbag like you!”

After that, Hilaria shook her head

She took the urn and gently stroked it

“Baldrick, it’s my fault I wronged Adeline...”

“Let’s go Let’s go home. I’ll take you home ”

Hilania hobbled away, not giving Latham and his wife another glance

Chapter 176

In the underground garage of the care center

Rosalynn was in a hurry last night and only roughly remembered where she had parked.

It took her quite a while to find her car

At this point, Wayne’s nagging call came in again.

Rosalynn picked it up. “President Silverman, I just found my car, can you stop rushing me?”

Wayne snorted coldly, not hiding his displeasure at all.

“It’s already late, there’s no way you can make it back in time for dinner”

Rosalynn. “Then can I

“No” Wayne interrupted without letting her finish

Rosalynn chuckled lightly Watching Wayne lose his temper once in a while was somewhat amusing.

“What do you feel like eating? This time, Wayne softened his tone and said, “I’ll order it from the restaurant and have it delivered directly to our apartment.”

She must have been tired after such a trip back. If she went to the restaurant again, she must be even more tired.

“Whatever” Rosalynn said while unlocking the car.

“It can’t be ‘whatever’, tell me what you like to eat Wayne unhappily said

Rosalynn was a bit helpless.

Just as she was about to name a couple of dishes, someone suddenly pounced at her from behind

They moved incredibly fast, covering her mouth and nose with a smelly white cloth before she could even react

Her phone smashed heavily on the ground, and was crushed to pieces by the attacker

Before losing consciousness, all Rosalynn could think of was the baby inside her belly

Wayne was waiting for Rosalynn to order food. Suddenly he heard some commotion on the other side of the line, followed by a shrill scream, and the call was disconnected

“Rosa”

Wayne stood up and shouted out loud

He then quickly dialed again, only to hear the cold disconnected tone on the other side

“President Silverman, what happened?”

Sitting in the co pilot, Sean looked back ignorantly

Wayne tried again and again to call Rosalynn, all in vain. Remembering the commotion he heard just now, his face darkened to the extreme.

“Call the care center immediately and have them seal off the place! No person or vehicle is allowed in or out!”

He then quickly found a number and dialed it. The phone kept ringing, but nobody picked up.

Wayne cursed with frustration

“Head to the care center”

Rosalynn felt groggy, her hands and feet tied up.

Was she in the trunk of a car? The surroundings were bumpy.

She curled up, instinctively trying to protect her belly.

Had she been kidnapped? Who'd done it?

Maddie? Or was it Heatherway?

Lately, she had been quite aggressive, coupled with the position of the Energy Corporation president, she must have become a thorn in many people's sides.

After what felt like an eternity of bumpy riding the car finally stopped

A moment later, the trunk was opened

A familiar scent hit her, followed by her being carried out horizontally

She couldn't open her eyes All she felt was that the other person was a very tall and strong man, who was wearing heavy men's cologne

-Her mind was in chaos. A name was already on the tip of her tongue, but she couldn't remember it.

"Such a beauty

"Secretary Tesdal, you're so soft!

A distorted voice rang in her ears

Rosalynns eyebrows furrowed, feeling waves of nausea

It was Encl

The proud Mr. Eric had been obsessed lutei,

No matter how many women he had slept, he couldn't help but fantasize them as Rosalynn

Due to his partnership with the Silverman family, he would often see Wayne, and Wayne always brought Rosalynn along

But she never spared him a glance. Even when she accidentally made eye contact with him, it was full of disgust.

The more she was like this, the more addicted Eric became.

Coupled with Heatherway's constant urging. Enc decided not to be a gentleman anymore!

He was sure he was much better than Wayne.

With that in mind, Enc had his men follow Rosalynn

Luck was on his side, she had just separated from Wayne and went to the suburbs.

This made it even easier for him to make a move! It was as if fate was helping him!

Enc carried Rosalynn to the bedroom that he had carefully prepared just for her. The huge room was filled with beautiful roses.

Eric had imagined this scenario countless times.

He carefully placed Rosalynn down on the sofa and looked at her as if she was a piece of art

The clothes were wrong! She had been in the hospital for too long and smelled of disinfectant on her body and hair. She needed to be cleaned and dressed in a sexy red dress

She was so fair-skinned, she would look stunning in red! That's what Eric thought.

Rosalynn struggled to open her eyes.

"Are you awake? Eric approached, his fingertips wanting to touch Rosalynn's cheek.

Rosalynn dodged in disgust.

Enc's hand missed, but he didn't mind

"I should have recorded your helpless look just now, so I can show it to you later when you're craving for me!" Eric regretted not doing so

"If you touch me, Wayne won't let you off" Rosalynn said word for word.

Enc paused for a moment, then started laughing. Foolish woman, to Wayne, you're nothing more than a beautiful toy. I am the man responsible for the billion-dollar contract he worked so hard to get. Even if I play with you, he wouldn't risk giving up the contract for a pretty toy, would he?"

Eric paused and looked at Rosalynn with pity. "Besides, don't you know Wayne? He's a clean freak! If I lay a hand on you, no matter how much he likes you, he'll be disgusted and not want you anymore!"

Rosalynn turned pale Because she knew that what Eric said was true.

“Baby forget about Wayne. Just stay with me, and I’ll love you more than he ever could
Enc coaxed wickedly

But all Rosalynn felt was disgust. The disgust she had been feeling since they met was growing rapidly. So, she began to dry heave

Enc, who was about to kiss her, was alarmed and jumped back two steps “What are you doing?”

Rosalynn leaned to one side, experiencing morning sickness.

Upon seeing her, Eric’s initial fondness immediately turned to disgust. “You’re getting my carpet all dirty!”

“Your guy drives like crap, and all the bumping made me sick Rosalynn spoke, pretending to throw up again, catching Eric’s freak-out from the corner of her eye. Rosalynn’s heart sank deeper and deeper

Would Wayne notice she’d been kidnapped? Would he come to save her?

Chapter 177

Eric was going crazy and couldn’t stand seeing Rosalynn retching anymore. He immediately went out and called the maids.

“Get her to take a bath Wash her clean from head to toe! And rinse her mouth, at least ten times! Throw the carpet out! After a pause, Eric seemed to think it was not enough, “No! Burn the carpet!

A few minutes later, several maids came in with gloomy faces. Seeing Rosalynn’s hands and feet tied, they all froze for a moment.

Mr. Eric had brought many women back before, but each one of them was like a vine, coquettishly entwined around Mr. Eric.

This one...

This one was obviously brought in by force.

“Miss, we’ll take you to take a bath. The leading maid, walked up to Rosalynn.

Rosalynn glanced at her “Like this?”

The maid looked somewhat troubled

Rosalynn sneered. That bastard drugged me with who knows what, and I can't move my limbs, let alone fight against the four of you"

She hadn't really thought about struggling anyway Just now, although she couldn't open her eyes, she was counting in her heart.

From the place where she got out of the car to the bedroom, she counted more than a hundred and forty, which was about two and a half minutes

The area was not small. There should be bodyguards in addition to the maids. She was in no condition to run away now

The maid didn't say anything and untied Rosalynn upon hearing her words.

"In the bathroom, steam filled the air

Rosalynn soaked in the bathtub, the maids waiting outside the shower curtain. She glanced around and found nothing that could even be called a weapon.

By now, the drugging effect had worn off completely. Her mind was clear again,

If she couldn't escape tonight, she wouldn't let herself be tainted by a filthy thing like Erie

Worst case scenario, they'd both die

Looking at that room full of torture instruments" earlier, if Eric succeed, there was no way she could keep her baby.

Thinking of her baby, Rosalynn's heart ached How could she, as a mother, be less careful than before?

She was kidnapped in Q City, only to be kidnapped again in H City putting her baby in danger time and time again

She really was.

"Miss, are you done? Perhaps she had stayed too long, and the maids began to urge her from outside.

Rosalynn snapped back to her senses, "What's the rush? I haven't washed my hair yet

She dilly-dallied and washed her hair again.

Upon leaving the bathroom wrapped in a bathrobe, she felt relieved when she didn't see Eric

When the maids were helping her dry her hair, Rosalynn observed her surroundings without giving herself away

Finally, in a corner, she saw a small pair of scissors that must be used for trimming eyebrows

"Alright" Rosalynn got up and pretended to casually pace around the room

"Where's Enc?" she asked

One maid replied, "Miss, the master is also taking a bath"

Rosalynn frowned

At this time, another maid entered, holding a box, with blushing face.

Rosalynn glanced at the pattern on the box Her face darkened immediately

"Miss, Mr Enc asked you to change into this" The maid said, blushing.

What kind of clothes could a grown woman wear from a box the size of a palm?

She looked at the nearly naked model on the box and the red clothes that could barely be called a dress. Her face turned even redder

Seeing that Rosalynn didn't move, she added. "The master said if you don't want to change, we should help you..."

Chapter 178

"I can do this myself, no need for your help."

Rosalynn reached out, took the box, and clenched her teeth tightly.

Disgusting jerks!

Then she glanced at the maids surrounding her and said, "What are you guys still standing here for? You wanna watch me change?"

The maids looked at each other without moving or speaking.

With a smile on her face, Rosalynn opened the box and pulled out a thin bundle. She shook it to loosen the contents and then turned to the others with a disgusted expression. "You guys really want to watch me put this on?" she asked.

The leading maid coughed awkwardly

When Mr. Eric used to bring people over, such things never needed their involvement. The women might come dressed like this themselves!

Eventually, the maids closed the curtains of the dressing room and stood outside.

Upon seeing this, Rosalynn finally breathed a sigh of relief.

She looked at the thing in her hand. To avoid further trouble, she gritted her teeth and put it on

Then she wrapped the bathrobe back on and quickly picked up the little scissors, hiding it in the sleeve of her bathrobe

After hiding it, she took a deep breath. She voluntarily opened the curtain and walked out with a cold face.

"Miss, let me take you to the room.."

"Seems like I've forgotten to rinse my mouth. How many times did Eric say that I need to rinse?"

Rosalynn tried her best to stall as much as possible

While she was brushing her teeth and rinsing her mouth slowly, the maids kept staring at her

It wasn't until the sixth rinse when someone knocked on the door Rosalynn's heart jumped to her throat

"It's been two hours, are you ready?" The voice belonged to Enc's assistant

"Almost!" Fearing to anger Mr. Eric and lose their cushy jobs, the maid replied, "Miss, it's time!"

Rosalynn:

Moments later, the maid led Rosalynn to another room

There were no roses, but everything from the previous room was moved and placed on a black velvet carpet.

Rosalynn felt chills down her spine

At this moment, her wrist suddenly touched something ice-cold. She reflexively withdrew her hand and stepped back a few steps.

She saw the maid holding a pair of handcuffs-like thing, planning to put them on her

“What are you doing?” Rosalynn scolded.

The maid looked embarrassed and said, “Mr. Eric demanded it. You have to take off your bathrobe too...”

“Tell him to do it himself!” Rosalynn backed up a few more steps, “If any of you dare touch me today, as long as I’m alive after tonight, I’ll make sure you pay for it!” The maids looked at each other uncertainly.

Then Eric’s voice came, “Let her be.”

The maids turned around.

Enc stood there, wrapped in a bath towel, showing off his well-built physique

Several of them blushed. Noticing Rosalynn’s reluctance, they thought the woman was somewhat ungrateful.

“Out”

Eric enjoyed the admiring glances, and waved his hands happily.

The maids all left the room, closing the door behind them.

Eric stood there, his eyes greedy as they scanned Rosalynn inch by inch. After the bath, her fair skin seemed to emit a soft glow, making her even more attractive. From a distance, he felt he could smell her unique scent, which was simply irresistible.

No wonder Wayne was so attached to her. He would shower this woman with a multi-million villa and tens of millions of dollars.

“Do you like the skirt? I think it suits you perfectly,” Enc said while slowly moving towards Rosalynn.

Chapter 179

The bathrobe completely covered Rosalynn's figure, but he wasn't upset about it.

Compared to those women who stripped naked to seduce him, this situation gave him a feeling of unwrapping a gift.

"Eric, stop now, let me go, and I promise I won't tell Wayne, Rosalynn pleaded.

Eric continued to approach, Rosalynn kept retreating

"What you just said is right, but there's something you don't understand. Wayne will never let anyone who touches his things off the hook easily. Even if he doesn't do anything on the surface, he will definitely plot against them from behind!" Rosalynn kept her cool and continued in a low voice.

There was a moment of hesitance in Enc's expression To cooperate with Wayne, he had obviously thoroughly investigated the man. He was aware of how ruthless Wayne could be behind the scenes

But...

"He's no saint, and neither am I," he thought. How could a few words make him give up on Rosalynn?

"I don't think he'd risk a mutual downfall over a woman. It's not worth it"

Upon hearing this, Rosalynn nearly gave up any hope of persuading Eric to back down. It seemed she had to take the hard way.

"Baby, stop resisting, we're both adults!"

Rosalynn had no room to retreat.

Eric seemed to be losing his patience. He approached her, roughly picked her up, and threw her onto the bed.

Rosalynn shrank back. Seeing her like this, Eric was even more satisfied.

He knelt on the bed on one knee, reaching out to grab Rosalynn's foot.

Rosalynn pulled back

No The scissors were so small, how could they hurt Eric?

After thinking for a moment, she gritted her teeth. She looked at Enc and said, "Can.. can you do without those things?"

Seeing her attitude soften, Eric was elated, "Baby, don't be scared!"

"No" Rosalynn thanked herself for playing the weak role in front of Wayne for so many years. Even in front of Eric, she could feign vulnerability with ease. Enc, hearing her soft voice, felt like his heart skipped. Before he could recover, she said again, "There should be a gradual progression..."

Did that mean she was willing to do it again? Eric was overjoyed.

"Alright, baby, you call the shots!" As he spoke, Eric pounced on Rosalynn.

Gentleman or not, he couldn't bear to wait another second.

However, just as he was about to kiss Rosalynn, Rosalynn suddenly raised her hand.

Immediately following, Eric's right eye was filled with intense pain

"Ah!!!" A scream pierced the night

Rosalynn quickly pulled out the small scissors, stumbled and rolled off the bed, ran to the door, and locked it!

"You bitch!" Eric covered his bleeding eye

"I've warned you" Rosalynn gritted her teeth.

Outside, there was the sound of banging on the door

"I'll kill you!" Enc covered his eyes, covered in blood, and lunged toward Rosalynn.

There was no shortage of weapons here Rosalynn picked up a whip, and swung it forcefully as Eric lunged at her.

She was lucky, as the whip hit Eric right in the face.

"Ah! Another scream

By now, the banging outside had turned into a ramming noise

In her daze, Rosalynn also heard some rumbling noise.

She couldn't afford to think about what it was, she just kept swinging the whip.

She then moved towards the window. Sooner or later, the people outside would break in. She couldn't fall into Enc's hands, not even if it would cost her life!

Chapter 180

"Bitch" Enc, with a blind eye and several whip slashes on his body, had become completely enraged

He was much taller than Rosalynn. He seized the whip as it swung towards him and yanked it hard.

Rosalynn lost her balance and stumbled a step forward.

"Slap!" A bloody slap landed heavily on her face.

For a moment, her ears were filled with a buzzing sound, and the people in front of her appeared blurred.

The next second, Eric pinned her down

Whether it was romantic or not, he was too angry to care.

His large hand firmly choked Rosalynn's neck. "Shameless creature! Go to hell!"

At first, Rosalynn was able to struggle. But Eric was too strong Gradually, she lost her strength and her breathing began to falter.

Soon, Rosalynn's pupils began to dilate.

At the critical moment, the door opened

Rosalynn, in a blurred consciousness, saw many people rushing in She was relieved to think that she was about to be choked to death.

She thought to herself. After I'm dead. Wayne will come to collect my body, won't he? Will there be an autopsy? Then will he find out that I was carrying his baby?"

Probably under the effect of danger, Rosalynn suddenly thought that, despite everything, he was willing to keep the baby, so she should have told him.

“If she had said so, even if the baby might be given to others, at least he would be alive, wouldn't he?”

With regret in her heart, Rosalynn slowly closed her eyes.

At that moment, Eric, who was holding her down, was ripped away.

“Rosalynn A familiar voice came from a distance.

Wayne Has he come to collect my body?”

Thinking this, Rosalynn's consciousness was completely engulfed by darkness.

Eric's men were very meticulous in their work.

At first, Wayne couldn't find any trace of a car entering or leaving the care center after Rosalynn's disappearance

It took some time to identify a suspicious person leaving through an abandoned passage with luggage!

Afterwards, he saw several vehicles heading in different directions on a surveillance feed.

At that point, Wayne knew that the other party was not afraid of him not finding the person, but was deliberately delaying time.

Thinking of what Rosalynn might have experienced during this time, Wayne was going mad

After much effort, Wayne finally located Eric's suburban mansion

He called Eric, whose phone was turned off, so he immediately called for a helicopter and rushed over in half an hour.

As he broke down the door, he saw Eric choking Rosalynn.

That's when he truly went mad, pulling Eric away.

Rosalynn was covered in blood, especially her neck

In that moment, Wayne felt as if his world was crumbling around him.

He shouted Rosalynn's name, immediately giving her artificial respiration and cardiopulmonary resuscitation.

Again and again, over and over. There was a lot of commotion around him, but he couldn't hear anything. All his attention was on Rosalynn.

Rosalynn was in chaos

She was walking aimlessly forward

She was very tired, and just wanted to get to her destination to rest

Just as she was about to step into her destination, a shout came from behind her.
