Chapter 231

Suddenly, Rosalynn felt like she had been stripped naked and exposed in public.

How could you hit him? Olivia stepped in front of Wayne and questioned her

“Olivia, go back to your room first

“Who is she?” Olivia asked Wayne “Why do we look so similar?”

“I said, go back to your room first Wayne’s tone was colder.

Olivia shivered

Rosalynn felt heartbroken and didn’t want to see them anymore.

She forcefully shook off Wayne’s hand

However, somehow, Olivia gasped and fell to the ground violently.

Her slender arm scratched the floor, leaving a trail of blood.

“Olivia Wayne shouted in alarm

“Olivia Beverly appeared from somewhere.

Without saying anything, she pushed Rosalynn,

Already dazed, Rosalynn lost her balance due to Beverly’s forceful push and fell to the ground.

Rosalynn felt a sharp pain in her abdomen, frowning and holding her belly

“Where did this evil woman come from? Olivia is so weak already, and you still push her Beverly accused Rosalynn after pushing her. Seeing Rosalynn fall, Wayne immediately wanted to go and help her up

But Olivia grabbed his arm and quickly pleaded, “Wayne, it’s not her fault. I lost my balance, don’t blame her!”

Rosalynn looked at them, covering her belly and holding back tears before suddenly laughing

“Secretary Tesdal?” At that moment, Jacob, who happened to be passing by, briskly walked up to Rosalynn and carefully helped her stand. “Thank you,” Rosalynn politely thanked him.

Then she looked at Olivia, “You don’t need to play these games. I’m not going to compete with you”

Wayne pulled Olivia’s hand away and walked up to Rosalynn, taking big strides. “You don’t look well. Did you hurt yourself somewhere?” Rosalynn avoided Wayne’s outstretched hand

The sun was shining brightly.

The man she had once loved remained as handsome as ever.

Indeed, one must not be too greedy, for there would be consequences.

“Wayne, I suddenly had a fever last night,” Rosalynn said with a smile.

Wayne’s pupils shivered violently: “Let’s go home. I can explain!”

“No need,” Rosalynn shook her head.

“Rosa. “Wayne was full of fear and unease.

“Wayne, let’s call it quits. All those previous agreements don’t count anymore,” Rosalynn said calmly, “It’s over between us. From now on, I hope you and Ms. Walley to enjoy a happy life, and don’t bother me anymore.”

With that, Rosalynn lowered her head and was about to walk away.

Wayne tried to grab her but was blocked by Jacob.

“What the hell are you doing?” Wayne asked angrily

“Olivia doesn’t look too good. You should take care of her, and I’ll help you take care of Secretary Tesdal,” Jacob said.

Wayne looked back

Indeed, Olivia seemed about to faint

Chapter 232

Hesitating for a second, Wayne said, "Help me take care of Olivia, I need to sort things out with Rosa!"

With that, Wayne ran after Rosalynn without looking back.

Jacob stood still, clicking his tongue twice.

Wayne didn't take the bait-

"What is Wayne going to do?" Beverly asked in shock, "How can he leave Olivia here and chase after another woman?"

Jacob walked over

Beverly stood with her hands in her pockets, looking down at them.

"You really put all your strength into pushing Rosalynn just now," Jacob said slowly.

Beverly wanted to explain but was intimidated by Jacob's stern face. "If anything happens to her, you're finished. Pay attention, finished, in the literal sense."

"Jacob she was trying to protect me. Why do you have to scare her like that?" Olivia asked, her voice trembling

"Olivia, long time no see. How did you end up like this?" Jacob asked.

Olivia didn't know how to respond

Why didn't Jacob help her move the wheelchair?

Jacob had no interest in her at all. He looked towards the direction Rosalynn had left

She was holding her stomach just now, and he didn't know if the baby in her womb was hurt....

Rosalynn was also concerned about this.

Losing Wayne wasn't a big deal, but her two angels definitely couldn't be hurt.

"Rosa!"

Wayne caught up with Rosalynn before she got into the car

"What are you going to do now?" Rosalynn asked impatiently.

I want you to listen to my explanation!" Wayne grabbed her arm and said in a deep voice

"There's no need, Wayne. I've told you before that I won't be a troublesome burden to you. Now that Olivia is back, I won't be occupying her place anymore," Rosalynn paused, "I thought I had already foreseen this ending the first time you lied to me!"

"It's not like that" Wayne frowned, "I was just afraid that you would be too concerned about being her substitute, and that you would overthink things. That's why I didn't tell you"

"Oh, so now it's my fault?" Rosalynn sneered

"It's my fault." Wayne softened his tone, as if begging for mercy, "Rosa, I don't have those obsessions with her anymore. I just want to live a good life with you now"

Rosalynn said nothing

Wayne continued, "Olivia was forced into her marriage to R Country by her grandmother, my mother, and her own family. Her husband treated her terribly after the marriage, abusing her, cheating on her and even giving her a sterilization surgery"

Rosalynn frowned.

"At the end of the day, it was my responsibility that she was maimed off. I just wanted to accompany her in getting better, so she could return to a normal life sooner and I could have less guilt. Wayne gently stroked Rosalynn's wrist. "Her condition is very serious now. Two days ago, I told her that I was going to marry you, and yesterday she attempted suicide by taking sleeping pills..."

These things made Rosalynn feel suffocated and hopeless.

"What if she never recovers? Will you take care of her forever?" she asked.

"No, I've already contacted the most authoritative experts" Wayne assured

"Wayne, I can't trust you anymore" Rosalynn looked at him. "Let's both calm down and think about it."

"Rosa Wayne still held onto her hand tightly.

"So what do you want me to do? Forget that I was once her replacement and be a dutiful wife, taking care of your crush?" Rosalynn gave a bitter smile. "She doesn't look too good. You should go back"

“Promise me that you won’t run away and wait for me at home!” Wayne insisted stubbornly

Rosalynn laughed sarcastically twice

“President Silverman, can’t you threaten me with my friends and family? How dare I run away?”

Wayne’s face turned even more unpleasant.

Rosalynn shook off his hand, got into the car, started it, and left in a cloud of dust

As the car drove away, Rosalynn’s tears finally flooded down.

Rosalynn, oh Rosalynn, what are you but a fool?

A pitiful and naive clown lost in her delusions!

Chapter 233

Paige got a call from Rosalynn and immediately rushed to the hospital.

Rosalynn was scared to death from the pain of falling.

She found a remote hospital, and sure enough, she was bleeding

Luckily, when she fell, she used her elbow to support herself on the ground, or the consequences would have been unimaginable.

Rosalynn didn’t have anywhere else to go, so she just listened to the doctor’s advice and stayed in the hospital.

“How could this happen. After we worked our asses off decorating the house yesterday!” Paige gritted her teeth after hearing what happened.

Rosalynn ate the lunch that Paige brought.

“Have you decided what to do now?” asked Paige

“Do you think I can win against his first love, especially when that man is filled with guilt towards her? Rosalynn looked at Paige

Paige frowned, wanting to comfort Rosalynn but only sighed, “No woman can surpass a man’s first love in his heart.”

Rosalynn's heart ached.

"Right, so why should I fight?" Rosalynn continued eating. "Besides, he's not worth it"

"Now that Olivia is back, is he willing to let you go?" asked Paige

Rosalynn was very angry at the thought

In the past year, she thought Wayne was a jerk, but he had his principles.

But now she finds him too shameless!

"He probably forced his crush to undergo sterilization, Rosalynn muttered, this being the only reason she could think of.

"Wayne might want me to be a surrogate!

Rosalynn had previously felt that Wayne's sudden desire for a child was too abrupt.

Now she knew that Olivia couldn't conceive

It must be for this reason!

"They are so unethical!" Paige slapped her thigh. "And what about the decorations in the apartment?!"

"It's fine. When you go back, just help me remove the things in the study. As for the other decorations, ask the cleaning service to take them down," Rosalynn still felt regretful. They had spent so much time decorating the room so nicely, and now all her enthusiasm had been in vain.

"Okay!" Paige replied. "Here, there's soup. Have some more!"

Rosalynn finished the soup and felt full.

She looked at Paige, "I'm so glad you're here with me, or I wouldn't know what to do

"Don't say such normal words!" Paige leaned on Rosalynn's shoulder, "Does your belly still hurt?"

Rosalynn shook her head.

Paige didn't stay long and rushed off to complete the task Rosalynn had given her

But on the way, a black car suddenly went crazy and charged towards Paige's car.

By the time Paige realized, it was too late to avoid

She violently turned the steering wheel, crashing towards the empty sidewalk.

The black car barely missed her, and there were sparks flying from the contact.

The huge commotion immediately attracted the attention of nearby pedestrians, including a duty officer not far away. The black car quickly fled.

Paige's car flipped over in the flower bed on the sidewalk, and the airbag had already popped out.

Her head was full of blood, the side window shattered, and her arm hung out, dripping blood constantly.

Rosalynn hurried to the hospital where Paige was being treated

Paige's mom and stepdad were overseas recently, and the police couldn't contact any relatives, so they called Rosalynn.

Chapter 234

When Rosalynn found out about the whole car accident, she was dumbfounded for a long time.

"Someone tried to kill her on purpose Rosalynn's voice was trembling, out of fear, and anger.

"The perpetrator was driving a stolen car, so it's hard to trace. We're on it!"

"Thanks." Rosalynn sat down dejectedly, looking at the emergency light and praying silently

God bless, please let Paige pull through and recover!

I promise I'll do more good deeds and give back to society!

"Lynn" Just then, Rosalynn heard Noah Holland's voice.

She thought it was an illusion, but when she looked up, Noah was already rushing towards her.

“Noah, what are you doing here?” Rosalynn asked in surprise

“Didn’t you have a friend call me to come to H City to help you?” Noah glanced at the door of the emergency room, “How’s your friend?”

“I didn’t ask any friend to tell you anything” Rosalynn frowned, “Noah, if I wanted your help, I would’ve just called you myself. Why would I have someone else inform you?”

Noah was taken aback

“Could it be someone playing a prank?”

“When did you find out about my friend’s accident? Rosalynn continued.

Paige’s accident, Noah getting tricked to H City...

Rosalynn was feeling a bit scared

“I got a text when I got off the plane.” Noah handed his phone to Rosalynn.

The number was encrypted

“Noah, you could’ve at least called me first” Rosalynn was nervous.

I was scared to death when I heard you were on bed rest, I didn’t have time to think about that!” Noah finished, looking at her belly “Why did you suddenly have to be on bed rest? Didn’t your last check-up say that the babies were healthy?”

“I fell Rosalynn answered vaguely

“Are you hurt anywhere?” Noah looked around quickly

“No” Rosalynn couldn’t help but laugh.

“Good. Tomorrow I’ll take you shopping for some slip-resistant shoes. You have to be extra careful while pregnant!” Noah rambled on.

Rosalynn was still uneasy

“Til wait with you until your friend comes out.” Noah said gently, “I won’t leave you alone outside the emergency room.”

Rosalynn knew what Noah meant and was touched.

“Have you had dinner?” Noah asked.

Rosalynn hadn't paid attention to the time, but when he asked, she instinctively glanced at her phone.

It was already 7 o'clock

“I knew you didn't eat. I'll go buy you some food!”

“Thank you” Rosalynn nodded

It was already past the cafeteria's mealtime.

Noah went outside the hospital and bought some warm food to bring back.

He had no idea that every move he made was being closely watched.

Although Rosalynn had no appetite, she forced herself to eat a little

The surgery continued until 9.30 pm, and finally, the lights in the operating room went out

Paige had sustained a head injury, and her face was swollen to the point that Rosalynn could barely recognize her when she was brought out

After leaving the operating room, Paige was immediately taken to the ICU for observation.

“I spoke to the lead surgeon. They cleared all the blood clots in her brain. As long as she wakes up within 24 hours, she should be fine, Noah brought a warm can of sweet milk back “Lynn, you need to rest now too. I'll go to a nearby hotel and book a room for you. You go rest first, and I'll stay here. How does that sound?”

Chapter 235

“No need. I won't feel at ease if I don't see her wake up.” Rosalynn rejected the idea without a second thought.

Noah didn't insist either, and just accompanied Rosalynn outside the ICU

The night was getting darker.

Erica had witnessed the whole process of Wayne being caught by Rosalynn today from the shadows.

To be honest, when Erica saw Rosalynn's pale face as she left, she felt a bit regretful.

This world doesn't need that many truths.

The truth hurts, man!

She thought she was helping Rosalynn today, but she also wanted to get back at Wayne.

However seeing Rosalynn's sad appearance, Erica suddenly realized that a guy like Wayne, who's so high and mighty, wouldn't be hurt by something like this, right?

The only one who got hurt is Rosalynn, who has been relying on him for her life.

Having second thoughts for the entire day, Erica finally called Rosalynn in the middle of the night

The phone rang for a while before being picked up.

Enca let out a sigh of relief when the call got through, "You scared me! I thought you'd never answer my calls again!"

There was silence on the other side of the phone.

"You knew Wayne was with someone else in the hospital and deliberately let me find out, didn't you?" Rosalynn asked calmly. Enca sighed. "I admit I did it on purpose, but I definitely didn't mean to hurt you!"

"I understand" Rosalynn replied, "I don't blame you Knowing what kind of person he is earlier is better for me too."

"So you're giving up on Wayne?" Erica asked hastily

"Yep. I'm done with him."

"Wow. I thought you'd still have a hard time letting go

In Erica's mind, Rosalynn was still that delicate woman who relied on Wayne

"There are plenty of men in this world! Why should I be heartbroken over a jerk like him?" Rosalynn's tone was cold.

"Cool" Erica gave her a thumbs up.

“Ms Lawrence, for your safety. I still suggest you leave first, Rosalynn changed the subject.

“What do you mean? Did you betray me?” Erica was frightened

Rosalynn smiled helplessly. “Wayne will definitely investigate why I suddenly showed up at the hospital today. As long as he checks the hospital’s surveillance footage, you won’t be able to escape!”

“Fine! I got it! I’ll book a flight right away!”

Erica hastily hung up the phone, not even waiting to handle the discharge procedures before running away.

She was lucky, Wayne’s bodyguard barged into her hospital room just as she left.

He came up empty-handed

The bodyguard went back to report the situation.

“Run away?” Wayne’s face darkened significantly “Find her, no matter what, I need to find her

He had already planned to confess everything to Rosa.

It was all Enca’s fault!

She made Rosa see him with Olivia without any warning.

He didn’t know how long it would take to clear up this misunderstanding!

He would not let Enca off easily!

“Wayne, is Ms. Tesdal still ignoring you?” Olivia’s voice came from behind him.

Wayne’s face remained cold as he asked icily. “Why did you come out?”

“I noticed that you’ve been unhappy and worned, Olivia’s tone was gentle “Maybe you should let me try to talk to Ms. Tesdal. It might be easier for girls to communicate with each other”

“Don’t go looking for her!” Wayne furrowed his brow slightly

Chapter 236

Olivia was slightly taken aback.

“1. I didn’t mean any harm, I just didn’t want her to misunderstand you...”

Before she could finish, Wayne’s phone rang

He immediately took out his phone with great anticipation.

Olivia watched his expression on his face. As he saw the caller ID, his enthusiasm slowly cooled down, and he even became more impatient. Olivia glanced at the caller ID, it was... Maddie Fuller.

“Is it your mom?”

Wayne took a look at the pale Olivia and directly hung up on Maddie’s call

“You can answer that Olivia hurriedly said, “I can step away!”

Wayne saw that Olivia was now trembling slightly, visibly afraid of Maddie.

He felt more stifled in his heart

“Olivia, you don’t have to be afraid of her anymore, I’m not under her control now.”
Wayne’s tone softened a bit.

Olivia looked at him and nodded gently.

At this moment, Maddie’s call came in again.

Wayne’s brows furrowed.

“You should answer it, what if she has an emergency?” Olivia said considerately, “I’ll go back to the ward first...”

“Okay.”

Olivia then turned around and left, while Wayne picked up the phone with a cold face.

“If you still want to talk about the engagement, I won’t answer your calls in the future

“Where are you now?” Maddie asked angrily. “Are you with Rosalynn?”

“Do you have anything else to talk about? Wayne asked.

“Of course, I have something important” Maddie slammed the table, “Wayne, you’re also someone I’ve worked hard to raise. How could you be fooled by a woman like this, so stupid!”

Wayne didn’t want to listen anymore and was about to hang up.

But just before he was about to hang up, he heard Maddie shout, “Im telling you, I won’t let her, pregnant with another man’s child, become a part of the Silverman family!

“What are you talking about? What child?” Wayne asked solemnly.

“Rosalynn is pregnant, didn’t you know?” Maddie asked

Wayne stared blankly “Who told you that?”

“I have copies of all the test reports here! I’ve even found out who the father is! His name is Noah! A pediatrician”

Noah...

“Looking at your reaction, you have no idea, do you?” Maddie sneered, “This child was conceived during your half-month long business trip. She was afraid of being discovered and secretly went back to L City for a pregnancy check-up, to the hospital where Noah works. Noah did the check-up for her every time. Everyone in their hospital knows that Rosalynn is Noah’s fiancée, and that the child in her belly is his!”

Images flashed through Wayne’s mind.

When he dragged Rosalynn back, she instinctively protected her stomach.

Every time they were having sex, she always asked him to be gentle.

And. She had been vomiting frequently some time ago. Every time he asked her, she would brush it off as an upset stomach

“Are you with Rosalynn now?” Maddie continued to ask, her tone already becoming sarcastic, “I don’t think she can be with you now. She went to a hospital to protect the baby this afternoon, and Noah came to H City as soon as he heard. Right now... Those lovebirds must be somewhere flirting, while plotting for you to become a father”

“Mom, are you happy that your son got cuckolded? Wayne asked with a cold smile

Maddie was choked for a moment

Chapter 237

I’m just pissed that you ruined such a great marriage for this bitch!”

Maddie circled back to the wedding with Heatherway.

“Mom, if you came to me just to slander Rosa for that, my uncles won’t have a good time in the future.”

Maddie has two brothers, one works at the Silverman Group, and the other has business dealings with the Silverman Group. Maddie wasn’t scared, but rather felt confident

“They should be still at the hospital. If you don’t believe me, go see it yourself!” After pausing for a moment, Maddie added,

“Son, you’ll know I’m doing it for your good! Our relationship didn’t have to be so bad, but it’s all Rosalynn’s fault for causing trouble. I’m sure you know that.” Having said that, Maddie hung up the phone.

Wayne stood in the cold wind for a moment before turning back

“Did your mom tell you something? Does she know I’m back?” Olivia asked

“No, there’s just something going on at home, and she asked me to deal with it” Wayne replied gently.

Olivia was very understanding at this moment, “Got it. You better hurry back...”

“Get some sleep, okay?”

Yeah!”

Wayne put on his jacket and stepped into the dense darkness, his tall figure looming.

The car raced along the road.

In Wayne’s mind, more intricate details were connecting together.

Today, Beverly knocked down Rosalynn, and when she got up, she held her abdomen
Did she go to the hospital to protect the pregnancy because the fall was severe?

The more Wayne thought about it, the more agitated he became

After driving for over an hour, he finally arrived at the hospital entrance that Maddie had mentioned

Wayne parked on the roadside, rolled down the driver's window, smoking while keeping his eyes fixed on the entrance He knew Maddie well

If she could confidently call him and say that Rosalynn was pregnant, then there was a good chance it was true.

Before long, several cars arrived one after another, and several tall men in black suits got out of those cars and approached Wayne's car window "President Silverman!"

"Get inside and take Mrs. Silverman and whoever is with her away separately" Wayne's tone was chilling.

"Understood! The men in suits entered the hospital.

When they found Rosalynn, Noah wasn't by her side, he had gone to get some water for her.

"You guys "Rosalynn looked at the familiar faces with a slight frown.

"My lady, President Silverman wants us to take you back." The man in suit looked polite but very assertive.

Rosalynn was helpless, "Tell him I'm busy..."

"My lady, please cooperate with us."

Knowing that Noah was about to return, she didn't want him to know that she was with Noah when Wayne went crazy.

If that happened, the one who would suffer would only be Noah.

"Where is he?" Rosalynn got up.

"Mr Silverman is waiting outside for you"

Rosalynn didn't say a word and walked out on her own.

Noah returned with the water and happened to see Rosalynn being taken into the elevator by several tall men in black clothes.

He was shocked, and didn't even notice his vibrating phone in his pocket. He quickly ran down the stairs to catch up

Initially, he could have caught up, but his luck was bad, and he bumped into the janitor who was sorting out the garbage in the hallway.

After hastily confirming that the janitor was not injured, he rushed out again, only to see Rosalynn being pushed into a car

Being far away, his attention was focused on Rosalynn and he didn't notice Wayne's presence

Noah ran frantically towards them

Chapter 238

Rosalynn got in the car and gave Wayne a cold glance, "What are you up to now?"

Wayne didn't say a word, his eyes scanning her right hand.

She had had an IV earlier that day, and there was still some bruising on the back of her hand.

Wayne immediately felt a surge of anger

And just then, that guy came over to court disaster.

"Lynn! What are you guys doing? I've already called the police! Let her go!"

Rosalynn shuddered.

"Noah..."

Hearing Noah's voice, Rosalynn wished she could get out of the car and punch him.

This was H City, Wayne's turf What could happen to her?

Why did he rush out like that?

“He sure has deep feelings for you, huh?” Wayne sneered.

“What are you babbling about again? Rosalynn frowned. “I’m going to get out and explain to him.”

Wayne locked the car door

Rosalynn froze

Then, Wayne opened the window.

Noah had been stopped by a few bodyguards.

As the window came down and Wayne looked over, Noah’s pupils trembled, and the expression slowly faded from his face.

“Noah, could you please take care of Paige for me, Rosalynn tried to remain calm.

“Wayne, you can’t force her to do something she doesn’t want to do!” Noah stared at Wayne and said word by word, “Lynn is a person, not a pet you can imprison!” Wayne laughed.

“Is that how you told him I forced you? Not that you willingly.

Rosalynn stiffened all over

It’d been a long time since Wayne had said such things, long enough that she almost forgot how nasty he used to be

“Wayne!” Noah roared

“Shut up!” Wayne snapped impatiently, then casually said. “Break his hand”

“Wayne!” Rosalynn cried out. “Are you crazy? Noah is a doctor, he has to perform surgeries!”

Outside, the bodyguards exchanged glances.

“Do I need to say it again?” Wayne said to the bodyguards.

“Understood

“No! Noah, run!” Rosalynn tried to open the door.

Wayne grabbed her and pulled her into his arms, gripping her chin and said menacingly. "What's the matter? Mrs. Silverman not satisfied with me just breaking his hand? Want me to do more?"

"What's got into you?" Rosalynn stared at Wayne in shock, tears streaming down her face.

Seeing her cry for Noah infuriated Wayne even more

"What's got into me?" Wayne scoffed, glancing outside the window

Noah could actually fight quite well. He'd managed to exchange a few moves with those professional mercenaries

But now, he was pinned to the ground.

"Quick, tell them to stop Rosalynn grabbed Wayne's hand, pushing him away

Wayne was a tough guy at heart

He made the most concessions and tolerated the most for Rosalynn in his entire life

But now he realized, no matter how much he tolerated, she still wanted to be with other men.

So it's time to get serious

Wayne remained unmoved

A few bodyguards pinned Noah to the ground, pulling out a sharp dagger

"No! Don't! Please Rosalynn was going insane

Noah was a doctor, it was his childhood dream. He worked so hard for so many years to achieve it!

"Wayne, I beg you! Please don't do this!

Chapter 239

The next second, Noah's miserable scream came through.

Tears filled Rosalynn's eyes, and she didn't even bother begging Wayne anymore. She just stared blankly out the window, watching Noah, whose hands got crippled.

It was her fault, after all...

She ruined Noah...

And then, as the world spun around her, Rosalynn felt her body go weak and her vision went black, and she passed out.

"Rosa" Wayne shouted in shock instantly ordering the driver to take them to a private hospital owned by the nearby Silverman Group. Rosalynn had a terrible dream

In her dream, she returned to her childhood, back to Gravel Lane.

Her mother had a sudden inspiration and braided her hair into small braids.

She felt like a hedgehog and went crying to find Noah.

Noah was sitting on a bench in the yard, doing homework. When he saw her crying, he immediately put down his pen and came over to hug her "Mama bullied me Little Rosalynn sobbed on Noah's shoulder, complaining. I'm a little fairy, not a little hedgehog, wuwuwu!"

"Don't be sad. I'll help you undo your braids and then take you to buy ice cream, okay?"

"Yeah!"

Young Noah wiped away the tears from Rosalynn's face and carefully combed her hair

Afterward, little Rosalynn followed Noah to buy ice cream, holding his hand, and munching on the ice cream, happily bouncing back home.

It was early summer at that time

They walked hand in hand.

Suddenly, little Rosalynn stopped in her tracks because she noticed that Noah's hand was becoming slippery and greasy.

She looked up in confusion and saw blood gushing out crazily from his wrist

As she looked up further, she realized that Noah's head was also gone

Lynn immediately ched out loud

“Noah...”

“Don’t Noah...”

Wayne stood beside Rosalynn, looking at the report in his hand

Hearing Rosalynn painfully calling for Noah in her dream, coldness filled Wayne’s eyes.

“Noah!”

Rosalynn cried out as she finally awoke from her nightmare

She was trembling all over. Her eyes scanned the room, eventually falling on Wayne

The scene of Noah’s hands being crippled came back to her like a nightmare

“Why did you hurt him? I treated Noah like my brother! Why would you do this?”
Rosalynn yelled, rushing towards him.

Wayne didn’t hesitate and forcefully pressed her back onto the hospital bed, his large hand gripping her neck tightly. “Brother? What brother? He’s your lover, isn’t he?
Rosalynn, I gave you both a chance, but you’ve gone too far with your deceit!”

Rosalynn looked at Wayne in despair.

This was the person she had once loved.

A demon, a bastardi

Noah’s hands were crippled What would he do from now on?

Wayne felt a pang in his heart as he met her gaze.

His expression slowly softened, and he gently caressed her cheek

“Rosa, I wasn’t good to you before, and I realize that now. So, this time, I forgive you.
After you have an abortion, we’ll get married immediately, and I’ll still treat you well..”

“What are you saying?” Rosalynn interrupted him in shock. “You know I’m pregnant?
And you want.. you want me to have an abortion?”

Chapter 240

“Rosa, this is my limit. There’s no way I can let you have another man’s child!” Wayne furrowed his brow.

This sort of thing was the ultimate disgrace for any man.

The fact that he had let bygones be bygones was already pushing his limits.

“Someone else’s baby?” Rosalynn’s hands were shaking terribly. “You’re saying the baby I’m carrying belongs to someone else? Noah, perhaps?”

“Who else could it be?” Wayne became more and more annoyed “Are you trying to tell me the child is mine? Have you forgotten that we took precautions every time before? How could you be carrying my child?*

“It was on your birthday, we... “Rosalynn humedly explained.

Wayne wanted to hurt her babies, so she didn’t care about anything else anymore!

“Enough” Wayne shouted

Stunned, Rosalynn looked at him with disbelief, tears streaming down her cheeks. It’s true! The baby in my belly is yours!”

“The operating room is already being prepared,” Wayne announced coldly

“If you dare hurt my baby, I’ll die to show you!” Rosalynn yelled, getting emotional “You bastard, Wayne, you said you’d believe me, you said you’d never doubt me again!”

“Rosa, don’t push me to take things to the extreme” Wayne grabbed her chin. “If you dare to hurt yourself, I’ll make sure Noah, Paige, and everyone else you care about suffer ten or even a hundred times more.”

Rosalynn was terrified and grabbed Wayne’s hand tightly

“Let me give birth to the baby, and we can do a paternity test!” Rosalynn was still trying. “Wayne, I’ve never betrayed you. I’ve only been with you. The baby is really yours”

“You know what? The news of you carrying Noah’s child has already spread throughout the hospital where he works. He even admitted it himself and said he would treat everyone to a meal once the baby is born. Rosa, do you still want to keep lying to me?”

Wayne also wished the child was his.

However, the dates on Rosalynn's check-up reports showed that she was only about two months pregnant.

At that time, he was overseas discussing wedding arrangements with the Rosso family.

But his birthday was almost four months ago.

"Mr. Silverman, everything's ready" At that point, the door to the room opened.

Horrified, Rosalynn looked over and then back at Wayne. "You're going to hell, Wayne.

He wasn't going to let her go, and Rosalynn knew he was determined to kill her baby

Rosalynn, this is what you deserve. Why did you believe that he loved you? Why did you stay?

Now you've harmed Noah, Paige, and your babies...

"Don't worry, even if I go to hell, you'll be right there with me"

In the end, Rosalynn was still pushed into the operating room.

Rosalynn's heart was filled with despair

How could her babies suffer like this...

Their father didn't recognize them, and now they were going to die by his hand.

"How's it going?" A familiar voice suddenly spoke.

"I'm afraid she'd be too agitated, affecting the fetus, so I gave her some sedative drugs suitable for pregnant women." "Thanks for your help. Please just play along and get this over with!"

To Rosalynn's shock, she sat up

Jacob just turned around, smiling with narrowed eyes and waved. "Surprise!"

"How did you

Jacob walked over and sat on the operation table in front of her. "I've come to be the princess's knight. I'm here to rescue you." Rosalynn looked around the operating room, and there was only one doctor left.

The doctor smiled reassuringly "Don't worry, I won't take your baby away. Jacob has already made arrangements in advance."

Rosalynn burst into tears of joy
