As an administrator, he posted on the website.

That day, hundreds of local techies went to get blood typed according to the address Jaime provided

By the next day, over a thousand industry folks had gone to get their blood typed

Wayne had meetings all morning

As lunchtime approached, the meeting was paused

Before he could even leave the conference room, Sean excitedly came over and whispered to Wayne, President Silverman, Ms. Tesdal is here”

“Where is she?” Wayne asked hurriedly

“She should be in your office, she...”

Sean wanted to share more, but Wayne didn’t seem to pay any attention to him at all.

He quickly left the conference room

By the time Sean caught up, President Silverman had already entered the CEO’s exclusive elevator

“My resignation letter!” Sean stomped his foot in frustration.

He had submitted his resignation letter half a month ago. He had just gone to the HR department to retrieve it, but they had already passed it on to the CEO’s office since President Silverman was back at work today

The real reason for Seans resignation was that he couldn't work with a woman who looked so much like Secretary Tesdal and had taken her life away from her

But after sulking for a few months, n ow he realized that this woman was Secretary Tesdal herself.

So why should he resign?

He wanted to work at Bane Corporation until he was old!

Wayne stepped out of the elevator, and his colleagues in the CEO's office immediately stood up, "President Silverman"

"Is my wife here?" Wayne asked with a smile.

His colleagues looked baffled, "She's here but..."

Emily pointed to the office

She wanted to say that the lady had just left but Wayne happily opened the office door and went in without waiting for her to finish.

Inside the office

Wayne didn't see his wife

,only his soundly sleeping daughter.

In this instant, all the negative emotions from the morning's meetings disappeared.

"Where did this adorable child come from?" Wayne took off his coat, checked the room temperature, and made sure everything was suitable before gently walking over to Ivy.

He had rushed in,

leaving the door open

Emily and the others could see President Silverman's tender smile just by looking up

He squatted down next to Ivy, and pinched the child's hand, then lovingly stared at her.

“Damn, President Silverman just got even more charming!”

“Seeing President Silverman so gentle all of a sudden, I’m not used to it.”

Emily laughed, President Silverman in a good mood means higher bonuses for us! How great is that!”

As they were talking,

the door lock clicked twice, and

Rosalynn pushed the door open.

Except for Emily, nobody noticed

Rosalynn could tell at a glance that Wayne had finished his meeting

Chapter 923

“Ms Jared “Emily just started to speak, but

Rosalynn immediately stopped her

She stood next to Emily with a gentle smile, tilting her head to peek inside

At this moment, Wayne was resting on his own arm, holding Ivy’s hand, and looking at her

His eyes were filled with unconcealable joy.

Rosalynn had never seen him like this before, and it left her a bit lost in thought

Just then,

Wayne suddenly glanced over at her

Rosalynn was slightly taken aback

Then, Wayne stood up and walked towards the door. E mily and the others immediately started to panic and busied themselves.

“How did you guys get here?’ Wayne asked with a smile

Cory wanted to consult with a few mentors, and Ivy and I came with him” Rosalynn replied. “I just checked on him, and he seems pretty happy” “That’s good,” Wayne nodded w ith a smile. Since you're here, let's have lunch together. How about we choose one of those nearby restaurants you like?" "Alright," Rosalynn said nonchalantly

At this point,

Ivy, who had just taken a short nap, turned over and woke up

Seeing this. Rosalynn walked into the office.

Emily wanted to step forward and ask Wayne which restaurant to book, so she could make arrangements

But Wayne didn't seem to want any help. He followed his wife while sending a message to the restaurant owner.

Over the past few years, Wayne often visited those restaurants that Rosalynn liked.

Each time, he booked the table himself.

In the past two years, many nearby restaurants had closed down

Wayne was worried that these few would close too, so he added the owners on WhatsApp and told them to let him know if they needed any help

The restaurant owners always thought it was because of their good food and service

Little did they know,

Wayne was afraid that everything related to Rosalynn in this world would gradually disappear

The houses she had lived in

Her favorite perfume

The shower gel she used

The food she liked to eat

He wanted to hold onto everything

And then, he would look for her shadow within these things.

"Are you awake?"

Rosalynn sat down next to Ivy

Ivy was still a bit drowsy, sitting there blankly.

Rosalynn smiled and said, "Daddy's done with the meeting Well pick up your brother later and have dinner together."

Hearing the word "daddy," Ivy looked at Wayne who had just followed her in

"Nice," Ivy mumbled

Then she threw herself into Rosalynn's arms

Rosalynn laughed and asked, "Baby, what's so nice?"

Wayne was also curious

"As long as he has a job, I'm relieved." Ivy mumbled

Rosalynn burst out laughing

Chapter 924

Wayne felt a bit helpless "Maybe it's because I'm home with her and Cory every day, and she thinks I don't have a job?"

Yeah"Rosalynn nodded, "She used to care a lot about this. If someone in the family didn't go to work, she would worry about their livelihood. For a long time, she thought Calvin was a lazy bum It wasn't until Calvin showed her his salary that she finally felt relieved

"Any other interesting stories? Wayne looked at Rosalynn. "Tell me more about the fun stuff with Cory and Ivy."

"There's plenty" Rosalynn didn't look at Wayne, "Right, Ivy?"

Ivy was getting sleepy in her mommy's arms

"Do you have more meetings this afternoon? Rosalynn asked Wayne.

"Yeah "Wayne nodded. Tve accumulated some work in the early stages, so I guess I'll be busy for three or four days. What about you?"

TI be busy for a while starting tomorrow too. "Rosalynn replied

This kind of situation happened a lot before

The housemaids were at home all day, Hilaria, Paige, Jame, and Noah they would take turns going home, even when everyone was busy

So when Rosalynn said this, she didn't think of anything else.

However

Dont worry about work, I'll bring Cory and Ivy to the company." Wayne said.

Rosalynn was slightly stunned

"That's not what I meant she instinctively explained

"What?" Wayne looked at her puzzled

Rosalynn looked at him and then realized, I mean... you don't have to force yourself. I asked you to take care of the kids before because your relationship with Cory and Ivy wasn't going so well so I wanted you to spend more time together."

"Force?" Wayne became a bit serious, I don't find it forced. I enjoy being with them."

Rosalynn and Wayne looked at each other for a moment

Only after realizing that Wayne was serious did she nod, "Alright, but you should also ask Cory and Ivy if they want to go to the company with you."

"They'll definitely agree "Wayne was very confident.

After a while, Ivy finally woke up

Rosalynn noticed it was time to go

She pushed Ivy in her arms into Wayne's "Baby, you go to the restaurant with daddy first, mommy will go pick up your brother and uncle, okay?"

Ivy looked a little unhappy

But she nodded anyway. "Okay!"

Rosalynn smiled, kissed Ivy, and went to pick up Cory.

As soon as she left, it became a bit awkward between father and daughter.

I can walk by myself Ivy wiggled her legs

Wayne put her down, and before he could say anything, Ivy naturally held his hand: "Is the restaurant far? Can we walk there?"

The restaurant is just across the street "Wayne replied gently. They also have delicious barbecue, and I remember Ivy loves barbecue, right?"

Her mouth would water at the mention of barbecue when she was younger

She nodded. "Yeah, I love

Wayne smiled

But then, he got schooled by his daughter 'Aren't you supposed to choose a restaurant that mom likes now? You got kicked under the bed by her this morning!"

"This is a restaurant mom likes She used to eat there a lot when she worked here. "Wayne quickly explained, and then tried to find an excuse for himself, "Baby, mom didn't mean to luck daddy this morning She was having a nightmare"

The little girl looked at him.

raised her chin and snorted, 'Do you guys think I'm a three-year-old? So easy to fool"

Wayne awkwardly rubbed his nose

When I used to live at my uncle's house the parents of the girl across the street would hug and kiss each other many times at the door every time they parted! The little girl started sharing her life experience. "You and mommy don't do that Mommy only kisses me and my brother"

Wayne felt a bit helpless

Who wouldn't want to kiss every day?

Chapter 925

Ivy probably noticed that Wayne was feeling down, so she

he gently tugged on his pinky finger

Wayne looked at her

"You did something wrong, you know?" Ivy said in a childish tone, but with an authority that made Wayne have to admit it

Yeah Wayne nodded

Granny Hilaria says that everyone in this world makes mistakes, but it's okay if we correct them "Ivy's tone softened a bit. "You made Mommy upset by doing something wrong, so it's normal for her not to kiss you!"

Daddy knows "Wayne sighed. "Mommy got so mad this time, no matter how much I tried to talk to her, she wouldn't forgive me"

Even though it's difficult, you can't give up!" Ivy became serious again

“Of course I won't give up. Daddy will never give up” Wayne quickly said she looked at him carefully

It seemed like she was checking if his attitude was sincere

“You really love Mommy, don't you?” Ivy asked

Without hesitation, Wayne answered “love her super much”

by she was more satisfied with this answer

“Baby, you're so smart. Do you have any ideas to share with Daddy?” Wayne was very serious, trying to find a way to coax his wife from a five-year-old she thought about it.

she then shook her head “No, Ivy never makes Mommy sad, so I don't have any experience

In the president's office

President Silverman's tall figure leaned towards his daughter, and the two were talking seriously about something

The scene was just too adorable

Before leaving the company. Wayne put a mask and hat on Ivy

Although Wayne wanted to hold Ivy.

Ivy insisted that as long as she could walk, she wouldn't let anyone hold her

So the two of them walked hand in hand across the bustling downtown intersection to the restaurant in the building opposite

Wayne was tall and had a good figure, looking like a male model

Even though he was wearing a mask, he attracted quite a few glances along the way

Some people even took out their phones and took many pictures which were immediately uploaded to the internet.

The text below the picture said “Such an adorable father and daughter duo”

Rosalynn, on the other hand, kept a very low-profile

Cory was with Jame the whole time, while Rosalynn walked in front wearing a mask and a cap

In no time at all, t he family reunited at the restaurant

“Cory how do you feel?” After Cory sat down, Wayne gently asked him

They’re all very good” Cory paused, I can’t beat them for now”

“Baby, you’re not as old as they are so you can lower your expectations for yourself I can’t even do what you’ve done “Jaime mumbled

Okay Cory nodded

He looked a bit tired, but his eyes were bright, and he seemed to be happier than at home

Even so, he took the initiative to comfort his uncle “Uncle, you’re very good too. One of the mentors always praised you for having potential”

He was referring to the bald mentor

Really” Jame immediately became excited upon hearing this, “Apart from not being able to compare with geniuses like you, your uncle is indeed very talented

by didn’t participate in the discussion the whole time

Her eyes were fixed on the barbecue

It smelled so good!

Seeing this

after the meat was grilled, Wayne brought a piece to Ivy’s mouth.

Ivy opened her mouth wide and bit off half

Let her eat by herself “Rosalynn glared at Wayne

Wayne smiled and said. After she finishes this one I let her eat by

In fact !

of the rest of the meal, Wayne put the meat in front of Ivy plate and seeing her eating happily Wayne’s smile was full of satisfaction

Jame watched this sce

Chapter 926

Jaime

started joking around with Rosalynn, and Rosalynn playfully slapped Jame's hand "What, want me to feed you?"

Everyone could hear her voice

The smile on Jaime's face slowly disappeared

The whole scene was super awkward, and he panickedly looked at Wayne, trying to explain that he didn't mean it like that. But Wayne just frowned

He seemed to struggle a bit can call the water over to grill some meat for you."

Rosalynn couldn't help but burst into laughter

by was eating so intently.

she had no clue what was happening at the table

Seeing her mom laugh, she subconsciously glanced at Wayne and also started laughing

Then, Wayne couldn't help but laugh too

Jame was a bit dumbfounded

Cory, on the other hand, was just nibbling on his food, not understanding what his parents were laughing about

Was it so funny to have the water grill meat for Uncle Jaime?

This thought flashed through his mind

Instead, his brain was racing with code

Today, they had inspired him like never before

This lunch

was both delicious and enjoyable.

After the meal,

Rosalynn wanted to take Ivy to wash her hands.

Wayne stopped her “You eat some more, the meat won’t taste good when it gets cold. Take her to wash her hands.”

“Mmm, eat more, Mommy!” Ivy nodded vigorously

Then, Wayne lifted her out of the high chair, and the two of them went to wash their hands.

Ivy washed her hands carefully and seriously

In Wayne’s eyes, she was incredibly adorable

He leaned against the wall, arms folded, and asked Ivy. “Did you enjoy lunch?”

“Yep!” Ivy nodded. The grilled meat was the best!”

The grilled meat here was even better than the place she had eaten with her dad before !

“Tomorrow, Daddy will take you and your brother to another place.” Wayne said.

“Do they have delicious grilled meat there too?” Ivy asked.

“Although there’s no grilled meat, there are other yummy things Baby, shall we try all the delicious food together?”

This suggestion

was very tempting for her

“Okay” Ivy decisively nodded

“Rinse your hands, and Daddy will dry them for you”

Ivy carefully and seriously rinsed the soap off her hands, and Wayne had already prepared a warm towel.

He carefully dried her hands.

Then, he used a wet wipe to clean her mouth and face.

After that, they naturally held hands and walked back

Anyone who saw this scene would say that they had a great father–daughter relationship.

When they returned to their seats,

Cory had also finished eating

He was using a wet wipe to clean his hands

His manners were elegant, which were very different from try

However, Wayne loved both of them very much

“Cory, you don’t have to go to Daddy’s company this afternoon, okay? Mommy see you look a bit tired Let’s go back and rest, and we can come again tomorrow?” Rosalyn gently asked Cory

Cory opened his mouth,

clearly unwilling

But in the end, he nodded “Alright, Uncle James, please tell them that I won’t be able to make it this time

Chapter 927

“Don’t worry! I’ll send you their mobile numbers later so you guys can communicate easily!” Jaime replied

“I think it’s time for you to go back and prepare for the meeting, right?” Rosalynn looked at Wayne and reminded him Though she hadn’t worked at the Silverman Group for a long time, she still knew Wayne’s work style very well

For big meetings like this with lots of things to deal with, Wayne usually only took an hour for lunch, and i

1 had already been over an hour now

“Right Wayne nodded helplessly

“Ivy, Cory, say goodbye to Daddy “Rosalynn looked at Cory and Ivy

“Bye”

“Good luck!”

The siblings spoke at the same time.

One was indifferent, and the other was full of energy

Daddy will come home as soon as I get off work! you guys be good “Wayne was very reluctant.

Hed rather eat with his wife and kids than facing the subordinates who might start arguing in front of him at any time

Workaholic Wayne

had gone through a huge change at some point

Jaime and Wayne left the restaurant

Rosalynn and the kids finished their fruit and waited for people outside to finish their lunch and go back to work

Then they called the driver to pick them up and take them home

Once they got home Cory took his medicine and went back to his room to sleep.

Ivy had slept in Wayne’s office in the morning and wasn’t sleepy in the afternoon, so she finished her previous drawing of Bunny’s house.

She stared at the Bunny for a while,

then asked Rosalynn for her phone, took a picture and sent it to Calvin

Then she sent a voice message to Uncle Calvin. “Uncle Calvin, I finished drawing Bunny’s house! You’ll see it when you come home!”

Rosalynn watched her and became increasingly worried

She had asked Laura.

and in the past few days, Ivy had mentioned Calvin more and more often

It was as if she sensed something.

“Mommy!”

Ivy finished sending the message and turned to hand the phone back to Rosalynn

Rosalynn quickly snapped out of her thoughts and smiled as she took the phone: “Baby, do you want to go to your godmother’s house to play with Max?”

Ivy, of course, agreed immediately.

As soon as Rosalynn and Ivy arrived at the Baillie Scott’s house, Ivy was attracted by the flowers in the garden.

Ivy’s cheeks were flushed from the sun

“I know what to draw for the designer uncle’s wife!” She was extremely excited, and without playing with Max, she turned around and ran back “Baby slow down!”

Once they got home, Ivy rushed into the studio

Rosalynn hadn’t exercised for a while, and she was panting as she ran home with Ivy

She opened a bottle of water and stood outside the studio, drinking

Then she told Laura. “Take good care of her She just ran back I need to rest for a while.”

“Okay” Laura nodded

As Rosalynn was about to leave,

Laura blocked her way for the first time.

Rosalynn looked at her with confusion

Laura couldn’t help but want to cry, “Gabriela Jared, they said Calvin is dead?”

Rosalynn instinctively glanced at the closed studio door

Chapter 928

“Don’t ever mention this in front of Ivy, or to anyone else for that matter, Rosalynn warned sternly

Laura nodded repeatedly, tears streaming down her face. She quickly wiped them away in fear. “So is it really true?”

Rosalynn knew that Calvin had been taking care of Laura all these years.

She hesitated for a moment. The car fell off a cliff When they found it, there was only half a car frame left, and they couldn’t find him”

Laura tilted her head slightly, choking back a sob, "So there's still a 50% chance he's alive, right?"

Rosalynn didn't want to mention the height of the cliff and the water flow

She just nodded

As long as they didn't find his body, there was a 50% chance that Calvin was still alive

That's good""Laura said to herself, nodding, "From now on, I pray every day. Ivy must have Uncle Calvin's protection, and God must bless him to return safely!" "Alright" Rosalynn patted her shoulder and went downstairs

At the junction of the living room and dining room, there was a small cabinet with a big group photo on it

Rosalynn poured herself a glass of water, stood in front of the photo, and picked it up to have a look.

Ever since Ivy was born,

In any photo with Ivy. Calvin was always behind her,1

like a solid mountain, protecting little Ivy

Please, God, bless Calvin

I will do good deeds all my life and help the vulnerable"

After a while, she put down the photo frame.

She sat down on the sofa, thinking about what Paige had said last night, and sent Paige a Whatsapp message.

"Are you okay? Hasn't she bothered you again?"

It was almost four o'clock at this time, and

Paige was still in the restaurant.

The food on the table was barely touched, already cold.

She sat there, her mind blank

When she received

Rosalynn's message, she hesitated for a moment before picking up her phone.

“Are you okay? Hasn’t she bothered you again?”

Parge suddenly laughed

“No.”

Paige replied, tears rolling down her face

“That’s good. I’m taking Cory and Ivy home. Will you come home for dinner tonight?” Rosalynn asked.

Paige’s vision was constantly blurred by tears.

I have to work overtime tonight, so I won’t be home.”

“Remember to eat dinner, or I’ll tell Baille”

Paige laughed through her tears.

She glanced at the seat where Peyton had been

.grabbed some tissues and pressed them against her eyes.

Over the years, the best thing she had learned from the Sutton family was how to control her emotions quickly

Sometimes, she didn’t even know what her repeated tests of Peyton were for

To prove that her mom loved her?

But

If she really loved her, why did she need to prove it?

Paige, I really didn’t know what you were thinking, what you wanted in the end.

But

Let it go

You can’t choose your family, so just embrace those who cared about you.

Don’t look back

Don’t test them anymore”

Chapter 929

Evening time

A pic of Wayne and a little girl taken at noon in the city center suddenly went viral

The reason was

A lot of people recognized Wayne.

And someone even posted a picture of the clothes Wayne was wearing at work that day, which perfectly matched the clothes of the man in the photo There were also people claiming to be insiders from Bane Corporation saying

Waynes wife and children did indeed come to the company today

After that.

more people posted photos or videos, proving that Wayne was indeed having lunch with his child at a well-known restaurant in the city center at noon. Besides the photos of them holding hands while crossing the street, the most popular one was a short video of Wayne lovingly watching his daughter wash her hands in the restaurant, and the two of them having a serious conversation

I was having lunch at the restaurant, and after coming out of the restroom, I saw this handsome guy looking super cool, and the kid was super cute too.”

Below this short video,

there were many comments

Suddenly saw Wayne’s charm!”

“The little kid is so cute, washing her hands so seriously!”

“Wayne actually has such a cute daughter!”

I can see the word happiness written all over Wayne’s face!”

“Oh my god, the scene where he squats down and wipes his daughter’s hands with a warm towel is so heartwarming!”

I once heard a ridiculous gossip that Wayne never went to the company after getting married and took care of the child at home every day, while his wife worked hard. I didn’t believe it at the time, but after watching this video I think it might be possible?”

“Hahaha, I’m an employee of Bane Corporation, and President Silverman really hasn’t been coming to the company much since getting married. He’s not going to sell the company, is he?” The most liked comment was “Getting laid off for gossiping?”

The second most liked comment was “There’s no way he’ll sell the company, his wife will takeover!”

Of course

there were also these netizens

“Am I the only one worried? I didn’t see the child’s mother there, is she really leaving the child to her husband and being so irresponsible?”

“Sure enough, you can’t find this kind of woman. She doesn’t even take care of her child”

Just as the mocking voices grew louder, someone else came forward and posted a video “But she’s also at the restaurant with her son”

In the video

a slender but elegant woman, wearing a cap, walked ahead in the same road.

A little boy and another tall man follow behind.

The subtitle added above the tall man’s head read: “Bodyguard ”

Under this video,

all kinds of negative comments came pouring in “Whats the purpose of posting this video? To prove that she’s really an incompetent mother, leaving such a young son to a bodyguard”

“She looks so cold, is she really good to her children? I’m worried for her son and daughter”

Just as the comment section was almost drowned by such comments, the blogger replied to the most liked comment with a video “Then what about this?”

The video showed Rosalynn holding the boy and coming out of the restaurant

The boy looked somewhat st

In the video.

you can clearly feel the trust and love those two kids have for their mom

But

both videos didn't last long before they were deleted

Rosalynn felt so helpless, just going out for a meal and getting filmed this much

Lately, whether it was her or Wayne, they had been trending way too often

At the rate, it was gonna affect Cory and Ivy going out and having fun.

Rosalynn immediately called the PR department.

She asked them to ban any related keywords about her and Wayne as soon as possible for random encounters and people wanting to post stuff, Rosalynn knew there was nothing she could do.

As

Now she just hoped that she and Wayne wouldn't show up in the hot trends anymore

As time went on, other hot trends would cover up her and Wayne's, and things would return to normal

Before dinner,

Rosalynn unexpectedly received a call from Baillie

What's up?" Rosalynn answered.

Baillie went straight to the point "Did Paige call you these past few days, talking about the Sutton family?"

Rosalynn thought for a moment: Why do you suddenly ask?"

“So, the Sutton family contacted her?” Baillie’s tone became serious

Rosalynn sighed “She should have told you about this. Paige’s mom sent her a message asking for alimony.”

Baie sneered on the other side.

“Paige said she won’t pay attention to her “Rosalynn knew that the Sutton family contacting Paige wasn’t really about alimony; there must be another reason. She hesitated for a moment and then asked, “Did something happen with the Sutton family?”

“Grant invested in a project recently. He couldn’t pay the second phase, but just now, he made up the full amount,” Baillie replied

Rosalynn was stunned, then asked, “How much?”

“8 million dollars,” Baillie answered

Rosalynn frowned “Don’t rush back, Paige doesn’t want her issues to cause you trouble and burden. Finish your business first.”

Baillie was silent for a moment “Did she tell you that? That she doesn’t want to cause me trouble and burden?”

“Yes” Rosalynn answered, “Don’t worry about it. She’s like that with anyone she cares about. If she can handle it herself, she will

Baillie sighed softly

then said, “Before I come back, please take care of her”

“know”

The call ended, and

Rosalynn clenched her teeth in anger

Knowing the Sutton family as she did.

they needed 8 million dollars, they’d ask Paige for even more.

Paige said in the morning that she wouldn’t give them any money

Now she suddenly did

Something must have happened that shook her determination

Rosalynn knew very well that Paige hated the Sutton family to the bone. The only reason that could possibly shake her was her mom.

Rosalynn continued tapping her fingers on the sofa armrest

After a while.

she took out her phone and made a call
