The Secret Heir Return To Wealth And Love Chapter 951

Chapter 951

“Are there any other relatives?”

I do have a son and a daughter Luis answered with a smile, “You can let me go now, and I’ll bring them over!”

“Just tell us where they are, and we’ll send someone to get them”

Luis seemed to think he had regained some leverage against Rosalynn

So he leaned back in his hospital bed and shook his head. They’ll only come if I go get them”

Baron looked at Rosalynn.

“Buy plane tickets Rosalynn stared at Luis, coldly saying.

“Okay!”

“Mrs. Siverman, you don’t have to look at me like that. I may be a little immoral, but I won’t joke about this kind of thing” Luis chuckled, “I won’t even ask you for more money, just the 50 million However, you do need to give me some in advance”

“As long as it’s confirmed that these two people exist, you’ll get your money. But if you dare to deceive me, you won’t have a good time for the rest of your life.”

Before leaving the hospital, Luis got his cell phone back.

He sneakily made a phone call

He didn’t say much.

“What? They ran away?” Luis exclaimed in surprise

Rosalynn looked at him.

Luis quickly lowered his voice, muttered a few more words, and hung up the phone.

“What happened? Did the people I want run away?”

Luis put on a pleasing face. It’s my son. He’s going through a rebellious phase and ran away from home!*

Rosalynn stared at him coldly.

Luis wiped the cold sweat from his forehead. “It’s fine, I can find him when I go back, trust me.”

As they were speaking, the attending physician suddenly rushed over

“Mrs Silverman! Good news!”

1st that my test results were wrong? Can my bone marrow be used?” Luis asked quickly it would be better for his own bone marrow to be used, and he could make more money.

Otherwise

Using his son’s or daughter’s marrow might lead to others knowing about his fortune and causing more trouble.

“Just confirmed, there’s another volunteer whose bone marrow matches Cory’s!”

The doctor was beaming

Before, they had tried everything and couldn’t find a suitable match.

Now, they got two!

“How is that even possible!” Luis’s dream of wealth was shattered, leaving him anxious “Mrs Silverman, why would anything from outsiders be better than what we have within our own family? Let’s go find my son and daughter!”

“Stay away from her” Baron angrily pushed Luis away.

Rosalynn didn’t even want to bother with Luis

“Have you contacted the volunteer?”

“We have, he said he’s right outside the hospital, and I’ve sent someone to pick him up.” The attending physician said happily

Rosalynn’s mood today was like being on a roller coaster.

Mrs Silverman Luis was as anxious if you call me again, I have someone pull out all your teeth.” Rosalynn glared at Luis

Luis quickly covered his mouth.

At this moment, the staff responsible for picking up the volunteers arrived with the volunteers in the car.

Rosalynn ignored Luis and quickly went over

Luis clenched his teeth tightly, his eyes filled with hatred

He knew he should have brought that little guy out when he left the house, so he wouldn’t have wasted millions for nothing.

Just as he was thinking this, a young man in a worn white T-shirt, floral shorts, flip flops, and dark skin got out of the car

“Steven” Luis shouted

Chapter 952

Theld looked at him, his eyes full of disgust

Is that you““Rosalynn recognized the boy in front of her

This boy was the one who was hanging around outside her studio yesterday

Lus was about to speak but remembered Rosalynn’s warning and quickly changed his words. This is my son, Steven!”

‘Tm not his son’ Steven said, his face full of disgust

Rosalynn’s gaze swept back and forth between the two

Let’s do a routine checkup first,” Rosalynn said to Steven.

He showed up at her studio yesterday, he must have been looking for her

“Okay Steven was very quiet

He didn’t seem to have much in common with Luis.

“Steven, you despicable brat!” Luis cursed, his finger pointed accusingly at Steven. “Are you so consumed by greed that you would forsake your own father? You’re nothing more than a wretched, contemptible scoundrel”

Luis had no idea why Steven would appear in the H City

Why all of a sudden, the match was successful

But if he came to the match, he must have been after money!

Steven, as if he hadn’t heard Luis’s curse, followed the doctor directly “Shut him up. He’s annoying “Rosalynn frowned and followed them inside.

Luis immediately wanted to follow, still shouting, “I am his father, you can’t give the money to him, it must be given to me! Or make a scene, and everyone will know!” Baron slapped Luis right in the face.

Luis covered his cheek, obviously stunned.

“I’ll feed you to the sharks if you said one more word,” Baron said, word for word, menacingly

Although he didn’t know what kind of person Luis’s son was, finally, they didn’t have to put up with Luis’s bullshit

Luis was a bully, covering his cheek, daring not to speak anymore.

He was hoping that Steven would also be found to have some disease that would make him ineligible for donation.

Wayne and his wife were inhuman, So the God should punish them and let their son die without treatment!

But Luis's wish did not come true

After all the tests, Steven was healthy and met the donation criteria.

Rosalynn looked at the report, her hanging heart finally settled

She looked up at the boy standing in front of her

The boy had his eyes downcast, and although his clothes were ragged, he still had an air of defiance.

He was different from Luis

“Did you come looking for me yesterday?” Rosalynn asked gently

The security guard wouldn't let me in,” Steven replied. “Can my bone marrow be used?”

“Yes” Rosalynn handed him the report.

He didn't take it, I can donate bone marrow to your son, but on one condition.”

“Go ahead.” Rosalynn had expected this “What do you want me to do?”

But her intuition told Rosalynn this boy wasn't here for the money.

“Save my sister!” The boy looked up at Rosalynn, his voice firm and determined, and as his words fell, his eyes reddened

What happened to your sister?”

“Luis sold her!” Stevens fists tightened, his voice filled with anguish. “He sold her to a local gangster. He owed them 80,000 dollars and used my sister as payment. They threatened to sell her overseas I know you have immense power, and I don't need any money. Please save my sister!”

Chapter 953

After listening Rosalynn immediately made a phone call and handed the phone to Steven, Tell him the name of the buyer and your sister.”

Steven took the phone right away

Rosalynn noticed his thin, shaking hand

“Hello, the person who look my sister is Dan, and my sister’s name is Sheila Harvey Please, you have to save her. Thank you!”

Then, Steven handed the phone back to Rosalynn

Rosalynn ordered. “Hurry up, I’ll be waiting for your reply”

The call ended

Rosalynn looked at Steven

Have you had lunch yet?‘

Steven shook his head

Actually, he forget about lunch.

He hadn’t eaten much in almost two days.

A moment later

Steven sat across from Rosalynn, eating the food voraciously

He was really starving

Feeling a little full, he became somewhat embarrassed

“Mrs Silverman, arent you going to ask me about my dealings with Luis?” he asked quietly, clearly feeling a little embarrassed.

He thought Mrs. Silverman’s even more beautiful than the stars on TV.

And she didnt have that rich peoples arrogance, always speaking gently to him

Just now she asked what he likes to eat, what he doesn’t eat, and if he’s allergic to anything

Do you want to talk about a Rosalynn asked.

Steven was silent for a moment, “Anyway, you can rest assured that I’m not like that bad guy. As long as you can save my sister, you’ll be my savior, and I wont extort your money.” Rosalynn smiled. “You seem to know him quite well”

“Did he extort money from you?” Steven looked up at Rosalynn

Rosalynn nodded. “At first, he wanted half of my husband’s and my fortune, and then changed his mind and asked for 50 million.”

“50 million?” Steven was shocked and angry. That’s just like him, insatiable!”

I can give you the 50 million,” Rosalynn continued.

Steven immediately refused: “My mom says not to accept reward for doing nothing. You help me save my sister, I help you save your child, and we’re even.”

Sure enough

“Your mother has taught you well” Rosalynn said sincerely

Steven put some food into his mouth

When he mentioned his mother, his whole person seemed to soften

Indeed, my mom was the first person in our area to attend college. If it weren’t for me and my sister. “Steven’s voice faltered, and he brushed the back of his hand across his eyes.

Nevertheless, he continued to eat with gusto

Just after finishing, Rosalynn’s phone rang

It was a video call invitation

She handed the phone directly to Steven.

Steven was stunned.

It had only been a little over an hour since the call.

He quickly took it and accepted the call

The screen shook for a moment

Sheila’s injured face appeared immediately

Seeing her brother on the other side of the camera, Sheila burst into tears, “Steven!”

“Sheila, how are you? What happened to your face? Did you get hit? Are you safe? Did someone come to save you?”

Sheila noded repeatedly

Two ladies, they said they were your friends, and they just took me out,” Sheila cried. “Steven, where are you? What about mom? She must be so worried! She’s sick too

“Mom’s fine, she’s at home You hurry back, I’m dealing with something outside and be back as soon as I’m done!” Steven wiped away his tears and reassured his sister with a smile, Don’t worry. Dan won’t dare to bother you again!”

“Bro, how did you get me out? Did you borrow money? Where did you get the money from? You didn’t you didn’t sell yourself to be a shipworker, did you?”

Chapter 954

These two siblings spoke the same way

Questions kept coming one after another.

Pretty cute actually

“No, no, there’s no shady business, it’s a kind boss You can go home without worry, I’ll tell you more when I get back!” Steven hurriedly said

“Alright! Make sure you come back safe!

After hanging up the video call, the weight in Steven’s heart finally dropped.

He respectfully returned the phone to Rosalynn, holding it with both hands. “Mrs Silverman, thank you. I will comply with your instructions from now on!” Rosalynn took the phone

“Are you sure you have no other requests?”

Steven shook his head firmly. “One thing for another, it’s fair!”

What kind of illness does your mom have?”

Steven lowered his head it’s a heart issue. The doctor said it can only be relieved... there’s no way to cure it completely.”

“How old are you this year?”

“Seventeen!”

Well, you’re a moor.

I have someone pick up your sister and mom. First, because your donation requires a parent’s signature, and second, I know a top-notch heart specialist who can help your mom *

Really” Steven’s eyes lit up instantly

Rosalynn nodded "A world-class expert"

"How much will that cost?" Steven asked cautiously

Before, when his mom suddenly fell ill they spent a lot of money at the hospital and still haven't paid it all back.

But, for him and his sister, their mom is more important than their own lives

If there's hope, he would risk his life to give it a shot.

"You'll definitely be able to afford it" Rosalynn smiled gently, "Shall I arrange for them to come over?"

If you can save my mother, I'm willing to work like a horse for you for the rest of my life!" Steven choked out

"Give your family a call and let your mom know so she won't be frightened when my people arrive."

"Okay!"

Close call, the bone marrow thing was finally settled.

Rosalynn also called Wayne, briefly explaining the situation here.

I have a property near the hospital, let's settle their family there." Wayne said.

"Alright There's nothing for me to do here, so I'll head back now."

"Okay, see you"

Rosalynn hung up the phone

As she was leaving Steven came back, his face full of smiles: I told my mom!"

"Good This is Baron, Rosalynn said, gesturing towards him. "He will accompany you to your new location later. If you require anything, just inform him Hell assist you."

"Okay!

Let's go together"

Steven followed Rosalynn.

The gloominess he had when they first met was gone, finally showing some youthful vibes.

However

This sunshine didn't last long

"Steven"

Downstairs, Steven stood aside, watching Rosalynn get in the car.

"Steven!"

Luis suddenly appeared from somewhere, grabbing Steven's collar

"What are you doing?" Steven pushed Luis away

Dan just called me Did you let someone take your sister away? He's asking me for money now!" Luis's eyes were red. They gave you a lot of money, right? If it wasn't for me would you have so much money?"

Baron was stunned, then he stepped forward and kicked Luis hard in the waist.

Now this kid means more to Baron than his own life.

Chapter 955

if Luis gets so angry that he can't control himself and does something to Steven, preventing the surgery from happening in time, he'd really be done for by his boss. Didn't I tell you to get lost? Are you just bored out of your mind?" Baron stepped on Luis's chest.

Luis grimaced in pain.

Rosalynn hearing the commotion, got out of the car

"Baron, can't you even handle a guy like this?"

I already kicked him out just now "Baron said in a deep voice, I'm sorry, it's my negligence"

Luis, my son is not yet of legal age, so you require my consent to use his bone marrow money, he'll surely go down a wrong path. You're ruining a child's life!

"Your son?" Rosalynn smiled, then looked at Steven, "Is he your dad?"

Steven didn't hesitate "No"

"You bastard, you'll be struck by lightning if you don't acknowledge your father!"

"You rapist, you'll be struck by lightning!" Steven gritted his teeth and cursed back shouted hoarsely. "Steven's mother is worthless, she's spoiled him rotten! If you give him that

Rosalynn glanced at the visibly hateful Steven towards Luis, and seemed to glimpse something

"Narrow-minded fool, you'd even deny your own father for money! Luis continued to scold.

Steven sneered, "Sorry to disappoint you, but I didn't take a dime!"

What did you say?" Luis froze

"I said I didn't take a dime!" Steven said word for word, "So, don't count on me, you won't get anything from me!"

You

Steven struggled to get up.

"Do you know that for bone marrow, they'll give at least 50 million! 50 million!!"

"Mrs Silverman, you go ahead and do your thing, don't worry about him. "Steven looked at Rosalynn, Tim a man, a man of my word, and I won't go back on it!" Rosalynn smiled warmly at Steven, "I know."

After that, she looked at Baron again, "President Silverman values you very much, but if you keep screwing up..."

Please give me another chance!"

"Mm "Rosalynn nodded.

But when she left, she still left two more people to help Baron

Baron watched Rosalynn leave, and looked at Luis.

All this pent-up anger...

"You wait for me in the car! Baron looked at Steven

He didn't expect that this kid didn't even want a dime, more human than his dad.

So Baron was still polite to Steven.

"Yeah" Steven paused. "Be careful, he's always been very sneaky"

With that, Steven pointed to a four or five centimeters long scar on his calf
Last time we fought, he couldn't win so he pulled out a knife and tried to stab me
Baron laughed, patted Steven's shoulder, 'Got it, you can go now'
Steven got in the car without looking back.
Luis continued to make a fuss behind him.
At this moment, Baron's phone vibrated
He took a look, raised his eyebrows slightly, and then smiled at Luis

Chapter 956

A chill ran down Luis's spine

What what are you gonna do?"

Baron stretched his neck, "Didn't you just rudely call Mrs Silverman again?"

Luis stiffened

What what do you want?"

Mrs. Silverman always keeps her word. She said she'd pull out all your teeth, and she won't miss a single one."

Luis covered his mouth, scrambled to his feet, and bolted out of there

Baron's men were about to chase after him, but Baron just smirked and waved them off with his arm

Luis ran out of the hospital like his life depended on it

He didn't dare go to the police because he had just injected drugs last night.

He didn't dare go back to town either Dan had told him that some big shot had taken Sheila Harvey away

Now. Dan thought that Luis had gotten him into trouble with the big shot and threatened to take his arm As Luis ran, he cursed

He had just come here to make money, but instead of getting rich, he got himself into a whole heap of trouble

It was all his damn rich brother's fault, and his shrew of a wife!

This couldn't be the end of it"

He was going to the media, exposing the heartless couple!

Hed let everyone know that he and Wayne were brothers.

Wayne was cold-hearted and wicked, not only neglecting his own brother but also allowing his wife to hurt his younger brother!

Wah that in mind, Luis decided not to leave H City.

Hed find a place to hide and wait for the right moment

On her way back, Rosalynn received detailed information about Steven's family.

Steven hadn't lied

His mother, Xena Harvey, had indeed been accepted to college

Her grades were pretty good

During summer break, she went to work in the city to make some money.

When she returned, she was already pregnant.

In that era, getting pregnant before marriage was a very shameful thing in a small town.

Xenia's parents severed ties with her

They kicked her out of the house

Later, Xenia left her hometown and went to a remote fishing village to give birth to twin g, Steven and Shela Harvey Over the years, the three of them had relied on each other

Xenia never remarried

In order to support her children's education, she moved from the fishing village to the city where she had worked before. She rented a fish stol at the market

Life was manageable

Unfortunately, five years ago, Xenia fainted at the fish stall and was diagnosed with a heart condition at the hospital.

She couldnt do heavy work anymore.

The family's savings were used up for Xenia's medical treatment.

They had no choice but to return to the town.

“After they went back Luis somehow heard about this and started showing up asking for money,” the investigator said in a deep voice. At first, the children didn’t know anything about it but then Steven caught him asking for money, and they got into a fight. After that, Steven stopped going to school...”

About three months ago, Luis suddenly showed up and offered Sheila a good marriage proposal Xenia refused, and he even got into a conflict with her Steven came back and beat him up However, at the beginning of the month, Sheila was kidnapped by Luis and his men on her way home from school and was taken to pay off his debts. When Steven went to save her, they asked for 200 000 to let her go

“Was Xenia forced by Luis Rosalynn asked in a deep voice

She still remembered how Steven had just cursed Luis.

“No one knows the specifics. Xenia never revealed who the father of her children was, and she always denied that Luis was their father”

“Alright” Rosalynn replied. If she doesn’t say, we don’t need to keep asking Bring the mother and daughter here as soon as possible”

Chapter 957

Not long after Luis escaped from the hospital, he got a call from the town, saying that Xenia and Shella just left with a few people carrying some package sized stuff. Luis had just said it himself

Since Steven isn’t 18 years old yet, a bone marrow transplant requires a parent to sign for

So, Luis immediately figured out that Xenia had come to H City with that sneaky couple.

Luis hid in a filthy alley

and immediately called Xenia

Xenia was worried about her son Steven’s condition and was startled when she saw Luis’s call coming in

She glanced up and saw Sheila Harvey checking in and those who were escorting them to H City

Luis, that jerk

He's always been cunning and unscrupulous, with no bottom line.

Steven went to H City with Luis

Even though Steven had repeatedly said that he was safe and nothing had happened,

Xenia still answered the call

"Hey, I thought I'd have to call you like 10 or 20 times before you'd pick up!" Luis said, surprised

Luis, stop messing with my son and daughter" Xenia gritted her teeth, "You heartless bastard, even selling your own flesh and blood to pay off gambling debts!"

By rights

Luis should be cursing up a storm right now.

But he didn't

He even chuckled on the other end of the phone

"Why would I resort to gambling if it weren't for you?" Luis's voice trembled with emotion. "You were so ill, spending money recklessly I wanted to win more, to use it for your treatment. I wanted to ensure that Steven, a bright and talented student, wouldn't end up like you, unable to attend college. It's such a waste!"

Luis knew exactly where to stick the knife in

Xenia gritted her teeth.

Painful memories she couldn't bear to recall surfaced in her mind

That year, she worked at a shoe factory over the summer to earn college tuition fees

Luis was a driver at the factory back then

When it happened, was during a typhoon, the factory was closed, and that scumbag Luis broke into her temporary rented room

The typhoon lasted three days

And Luis tormented her for three years.

Later, she wanted to go to the police

Luis threatened her with killing her whole family. she had to swallow her disgust, take the humiliation, and move away overnight, getting a new part-time job.

She thought that as long as she didn't think about those days, things would pass

But just before school started, she collapsed upon discovering she was pregnant..

Luis, you are absolutely disgusting" Xenia pulled herself out of the painful memories and cursed through gritted teeth

Luis still didn't care

Xenia had cursed him many times, a few more wouldn't make a difference.

Believe it or not, I really want us all to have a good life together. Do you know why you're in H City this time?"

Xenia didn't say anything

She vaguely knew it was to donate bone marrow to a child with leukemia

But she didn't know what Luis was thinking, so she just didn't say anything

I don't think that couple with ill intentions would tell you "Luis sneered, "The one looking for you is my half—brother from the same mother. You know Bane Energy Corporation, right?" Of course, Xenia knew

Chapter 958

Her daughter Sheila always said she wanted to study finance and work at Bane Energy Corporation after graduation

My brother-in-law is Wayne, the CEO of Bane Energy Corporation. His wife is even more badass, being the heiress of the century—old Jared Group, worth billions! Our son is donating bone marrow to their kid this time!"

Xenia sneered

"So what?"

Luis's lies were getting more and more outrageous

His brother in law was the CEO of Bane Energy Corporation?

As if he could ever be that lucky!

"They initially wanted me to be the donor, you know how much they offered?" Luis didn't even wait for Xenia's answer, and replied himself, "Fifty million

Xenia was shocked.

But due to my health issues, I couldn't carry out the plan myself. Steven had to take my place. But now, Steven has been manipulated by that cunning couple. He refuses to accept even a single penny from them! It's fifty million we're talking about! With that money, we wouldn't have to worry about your medical expenses, Shela and Steven's education costs, and we could even purchase a beachfront villa

"Ugh, you're disgusting!" Xenia scolded him, annoyed. "They helped save my daughter, it's only right that Steven doesn't take their money!"

"What did you say?" Luis snapped on the other end of the line. "Xenia, are you asking for a beating? Didn't I hit you enough before? I'm telling you, once you get to H City, tell Steven he can't take a cent less than fifty million! Also, have him record their conversations, and if possible, get them to admit that Wayne is my half-brother..."

"Keep dreaming! If Luis were in front of Xenia, she would definitely spit in his face. I won't let my son be your accomplice!"

Xenia, are you trying to get yourself killed? How long do you think they can protect you? Once the bone marrow transplant is done, you'll still be kicked back here, and then... I'll make your children pay!"

Xenia turned pale, recalling the scene when Luis threatened her with her parents.

Grinding her teeth, she swore, "If that day comes, Luis, I'll make sure we both go to hell together!"

Ever since Steven found out Luis was his father, he had changed completely.

He used to be very cheerful, always having endless conversations with her.

But now, Steven seemed to be shrouded in a fog with no way forward

And Shela

If she hadn't been noticed by an overseas client, who knows what those people would have done to her?

Xenia's constant submission had emboldened Luis.

So, she wouldn't back down anymore

As long as Luis kept messing with her kids, she would take him down with her.

She wouldn't live much longer anyway.

Taking Luis down before she died would be worth it

Xenia hung up the phone

“Hey! Hey! You dare hang up on me!” Luis cursed angrily

Unbelievable, how could there be such a foolish person?

Giving up fifty million for a girl who would only bring a loss?

Luis was so angry his head felt like it was going to explode.

He thought he should contact the media first. As long as people knew he was Wayne’s brother, they would surely send loads of money his way

As he was thinking, suddenly, footsteps came from behind him.

Luis wasn’t alarmed

Who would dare to attack him in broad daylight?

But then, several tall and fierce looking men with huge biceps stood in front of him.

“What do you want?”

Luis glanced at these men

They looked even scarier than the local thugs

One of the big biceped men didn’t say a word, raised his hand, and slapped Luis hard with his bear-paw-like hand.

Chapter 959

That slop knocked out one of Luis’s teeth

His head was buzzing

In a daze, he heard a man’s voice say, “You’re in my way”

The alley behind the bar was actually quite wide

Luis was on the smaller side in terms of male physique

He was leaning against the wall how could he possibly be in these people’s way?

Luis shook his head, wanting to explain

Then,

He heard the man say, take this tooth as payment”

Tooth?

Lua’s spine shivered

Wrong, he wasn’t in their way, these people were from that heartless Rosalynn’s couple
....

“Help “Luis tried to rush out and escape again, but the other party grabbed his neck and cruelly dragged him back, slapping him with two more slaps.

Then began the road to tooth extraction

After leaving the hospital, Rosalynn went straight home

After discussing with Wayne, she told Paige and Hilaria the news that Steven and Cory’s bone marrow typing was successful and they were about to have a bone marrow transplant for Cory

During this time, Hilaria’s two main concerns were Cory and Calvin

“Once the surgery time is confirmed, please inform me immediately so that I can be there” Hilaria’s voice wavered with emotion. I always knew our Cory was an exceptional child, and it feels like heaven is watching over him!*

Thanks to his dad,” Rosalynn whispered, “He put a lot of effort into finding the donor

“Hmm?”

“How did I hear some rumors that Wayne is planning to retire and come home to be a full time dad?”

“Ah?” Rosalynn was taken aback

She hadn’t heard about this.

7 was talking to an old friend about a collaboration at lunch today, and he asked me about Hilaria replied, “Rumor?”

“It must be a rumor, you know how much of a workaholic Wayne is, his career is his whole life, he’s worked so hard to build up Bane Energy Corporation, now that his career is on the rise, how could he possibly let go?”

“You’re right” Hilaria sighed, “I was just thinking, both of you are so busy, if he could really let go of his work and return to the family, it would be easier for you. Rosalynn just smiled

At that moment Page’s voice came from outside.

“Paige is back, let’s not talk about this now, once Cory’s surgery time is set, I’ll let you know right away” Rosalynn said.

As Rosalynn was about to hang up, Hilaria stopped her “Wait a minute”

“Hmm? Anything else?”

“Didn’t I give some business to Paige’s stepfather’s company out of consideration for her before?”

“Yes, I know” Rosalynn replied, “Didn’t they say there was no renewal?”

It seems things aren’t going well on their side, Grant has cashed out over four billion in the past ten days or so I have a bad feeling, you should tell Paige, this family has gotten used to relying on her, I’m worried that after they go bankrupt, they find ways to use her again”

Rosalynn kept silent

Dear grandma, your prediction is correct

But it’s already a bit late, Page has already given them a lot of money

“Okay, talk to her in a bit

After hanging up the phone. Rosalynn left the study

Page and Babe came together

“Did it work? it really worked?” Paige excitedly ran up to Rosalynn.

Rosalynn nodded in agreement “Once the child’s parents arrive and complete the necessary paperwork, we can proceed with the collection of the bone marrow”

Chapter 960

“Is the donor still a kid?” Paige was surprised

Seventeen years old Rosalynn answered

“Wow! Page replied excitedly

“How about we have an open–air BBQ at our place tonight to celebrate?”

“Nope” Wayne coldly answered while busy

Paige glared at him, thinking, ‘s not like it’s your house, right?

“He’s got plans tonight, let’s do it another time Rosalynn said with a smile

Fine

Paige muttered and went off to play with Cory and Ivy

Rosalynn watched her leave, and as she turned her head, she locked eyes with Baillie

Soon enough, they both went outside

“Did Paige tell you anything?”

After a glance they both asked simultaneously.

“She didn’t say anything but my grandma told me that Grant has been cashing out a lot lately” Rosalynn said.

He’s probably planning to run away Baillie said coldly, “No surprise, hell throw Mrs. Scott under the bus after he’s gone With one successful experience of collecting money, when Grant’s debt explodes, those creditors will go after Paige What’s your plan?”

Baillie sounded cold, but his face looked calm and confident

“Actually, the Sutton family’s company isn’t completely down yet. Why do you think Grant suddenly started cashing out?”

Rosalynn’s eyes narrowed as she observed Baillie. “So, he has another method of making money and is eager to be involved?” Baillie’s lips curled into a slight smile. “You set him up?” Rosalynn asked in surprise

“Paige works hard for her money I have no reason to just stand by and watch her hard–earned cash be fed to the rats in the gutter Baillie said calmly

At this moment, Baillie was very different from his usual self in front of Paige

Still the same expression, even the tone of his voice was the same

But people felt that he was dangerous

“Baillie, don’t ever use these sneaky tricks on Paige”

Rosalynn had seen too many couples who started as a match made in heaven but ended up stabbing each other in the back

Love is just a fleeting thing

When it's gone, at the vows and promises are empty.

Don't worry "Bade smiled gently, I'll never let Paige see this side of me."

"You better keep your word" Rosalynn warned

At that moment. Bade's gaze went past Rosalynn and looked at the floor-to-ceiling window behind her.

Paige stood there with her arms crossed, looking suspiciously at them

Wayne was also there with his arms crossed, but his eyes were only on Rosalynn, with complicated emotions in his eyes, probably imagining some drama.

'About the Sutton family's situation, I won't get involved. You better handle cleanly Rosalynn paused, "However, if Peyton makes any moves, don't act. I take care of it" After all, Peyton was Paige's mother

If Paige ever finds out what Baiden did to her mother, it could cause some problems

I was actually thinking about sending her abroad to enjoy her twilight years' Baiden's expression showed a bit of regret.

Of course he would arrange a beautiful place with great living conditions

He would hire the best servants and provide her with the best life

He would let her enjoy her twilight years there, never to appear in front of Paige again.
