

Secretary's Secret Lover By Zayla Quinn Chapter 20

Chapter 20 Tanya Is Protective of Yvette

“Yvette,” Lance called out to her as he approached,

Yvette was so close to death today that she couldn't think normally.

Hearing him call her by her name, Yvette felt a tingle in her nose, and she wanted to throw herself into his arms.

She almost...

She almost died...

She and her baby almost never saw him again.

Yvette hadn't told him that she was pregnant with his child. Even if Lance did not like it, this was his baby.

The baby had the right to let daddy know of its existence!

“Lance...”

Yvette was about to speak when the door was suddenly pushed open.

The person who came in was Yazmin!

“Yvette, what's wrong?”

Yazmin said with concern, “Lance and I are preparing to go to City Hall, but we were both scared when we heard that you are in the hospital.”

Yvette was stunned.

But she soon came to her senses.

Yvette was so warm and touched just now, but now, she felt disappointed. And the light in her eyes was gone.

Yvette smiled bitterly.

She just remembered that they were going to divorce.

How could she still hold that ridiculous fantasy?

Was it because she bled so much that she was out of her mind?

“Why did you come in?” Lance sounded displeased, and his eyes were a little cold.

“Lance, it’s so cold outside. I’m wearing thin clothes today. I can’t stand the cold,” Yazmin said with a pitiful look.

Yvette saw that Yazmin was wearing a white lace dress, which made her particularly weak and beautiful.

Yazmin even wore a wedding dress to prepare for the marriage. Yvette felt that she had spoiled Lance and Yazmin’s plan.

Now, Yvette did not want to say another word.

“Yvette, are you feeling better now?” Yazmin moved closer to her, pretending to be concerned, but her eyes were shining with hatred.

Yazmin had meticulously dressed up early in the morning and put on the custom-made dress that had taken half a month to make, preparing to get married to Lance today.

She went to the Wolseley Group early and waited for Lance to finish the meeting. After weakly taking the medicine, she cried and forced Lance to City Hall.

She had prepared everything, and as long as Yvette and Lance got a divorce, Yazmin would have a way to make Lance marry her.

However, Yazmin didn't expect that something would happen to Yvette.

And that had almost ruined Yazmin's plan.

Yazmin thought that she had underestimated Yvette.

"I'm fine," Yvette replied coldly. Her right hand, which was wrapped in a bandage, was covered by the quilt, and no one noticed it.

"Can you go to City Hall in the afternoon?" Yazmin asked.

Lance, who was at the side, twitched his eyebrows and was about to speak.

Yvette said, "Of course."

She had also planned to get a divorce in the afternoon. Although her right hand was injured, she could sign with her left hand.

Lance narrowed his eyes when he heard her answer, and his expression was cold.

Yazmin, who was beside him, did not notice it and happily held Lance's arm, saying happily, "Thank you."

Lance frowned. Yazmin continued, "Yvette, even if you divorce, we will take care of you. We will treat you like our sister."

Suddenly...

The door was pushed open by brute force.

“Since when can everyone make decisions on the affairs of the Wolseley family?”

The one who came in was Tanya in a red dress.

She placed the lunch box on the cabinet and got a backrest for Yvette. Then Tanya said gently, “Yvette, are you hungry? The lunch was made by the servant at home, so it was delayed for a while.”

Tanya treated Lance and Yazmin in the ward as air.

Yazmin had not seen clearly who had come in, but she felt that the woman’s aura was strong.

Yazmin wasn’t outdone.

Moreover, she didn’t think Yvette would know someone who would be powerful.

She put on airs and asked arrogantly, “Who are you to Yvette?”

“Me?”

Tanya snorted and turned to look at Yazmin with disdain.

“I am her mother-in-law!”

The air froze.

Seeing Tanya’s face, Yazmin felt her legs go limp. If she wasn’t holding Lance, she would have fallen to the ground.

How could this old woman be here? Yazmin wondered.

Tanya looked at Yazmin with her sharp eyes, scaring Yazmin into hiding behind Lance.

Lance pursed his thin lips and asked, “Mom, why did you suddenly return?”

Tanya sneered, “If I don’t return, will I be able to see such a wonderful scene?”

“You don’t even comfort your wife when she’s injured. You are hugging your mistress. How did I give birth to a jerk like you? Can you be meaner?”

Tanya’s expression was cold, and she didn’t show mercy even if she was scolding her son.

Hearing

Tanya say that she was a mistress, Yazmin looked pale and was filled with resentment.

Tanya had never liked Yazmin before, and now she was calling Yazmin a mistress.

Yazmin said pitifully, “Mrs. Wolseley, I am Yazmin. My father is Collin Myers. Don’t you know me?”

“Yazmin?” Tanya thought for a moment and then said. “You’re from the Myers family?”

Tanya’s expression was much better when she heard of Collin.

Yazmin’s eyes lit up instantly. She smiled and said, “Yes, when I was a child, I was...”

Before Yazmin could finish speaking, Tanya shook her head and said, “The Myers family is well-educated and noble. But I didn’t expect that their descendant would be so shameless to flirt with a married man.”

When Yazmin heard that, her smile froze on her face.

Then, Tanya shot a cold gaze at Yazmin and said, “If you were really Collin’s daughter, I would like to have a good talk with him to see if he is too busy to discipline his daughter.”

Tanya then scoffed, “Or does he also support his daughter to be a mistress?”

Tanya had always been tough and strong, and she could not bear to see any shameless people.

She had a sharp tongue and didn't show any mercy when she scolded Yazmin. She even scolded the Myers family.

Yvette was stunned.

She never thought that Tanya was her mother-in-law.

Yvette had been married to Lance for two years, but she had never seen Lance's parents and only knew that they lived abroad.

However, Yvette had heard from the servants that Lance's parents did not like her.

Yvette was from a humble family, and she was not worthy of the Wolseley family, which was powerful in New York.

Therefore, Yvette had always thought that Lance's mother didn't like her.

But after Tanya knew that Yvette was her daughter-in-law, Tanya still protected Yvette, which surprised the latter.

Seeing that Yazmin was so angry but couldn't answer back, Yvette felt happy.

Yvette secretly thought, I'm becoming abnormal after being in frequent contact with Yazmin recently.

Yazmin felt so embarrassed and angry that she couldn't stand still. And she held tightly to Lance to steady herself.

Lance frowned and explained, "Mom, it's not what you thought..."

