

Shadow 111

Chapter 111: Battle of the gods \(1\)

Battles.

Each battle has a name.

The Battle of Hastings.

The War of the Roses.

Why does it matter that battles have names? Because names bestow meanings.

A name attached to a date or particular conflict can shape our understanding of what the conflict is all about.

The battle between Azief and Sasha that day was called the Battle of the Gods.

For the first time, mankind saw what happens when two great people who possess such an explosive power battle each other, how each and every one of their actions could affect the world.

For those who saw the battles from the distance, looking up from the ground, looking from the forest, from the black caves in the fire region, from the cover of the cloak protecting their face from their sand on the desert region, all they see was two being fighting a celestial war up high on the clouds.

They saw men....defy the very nature of human. Booming sound filled the sky, as both of those beings battled each other for supremacy.

Lightning flashed, and thunders roared.

They were like Gods of Old, cruel and unsympathetic. Their battle that day affect so many lives, and taken many souls even though they only fight each other.

Their actions ripple.

It is also because of that battles, that years from then on, a treaty between the most powerful people will be established.

The Battle of the Gods was the first battle involving a truly high level user against each other and put alarms all over the world, for the man called Lord Shadow.

Sasha flew pass the clouds of the suffocating heat of the Flame region as she keep coughing black blood from her mouth.

Behind her, was the man with the black hood, flying as fast as lightning, separating the clouds with his dash amidst the clouds with a momentum of a raging dragon

The man did not say anything but his anger is boundless.

For the past hours, she managed to keep him from her by relying on her magical trove of artifacts and because of her chariots but she knows she couldn't run forever.

Sometimes she would shoot some energy blast at him but the man just deflected it with his bare hands.

The physical body of the man exceeds what Sasha has ever seen in her life.

Not even Katarina has such sturdy physique that she could just deflect a compact energy blast with just her bare hands.

But the man can and he does it with such ease. Thankfully, his speed is inferior to the chariot. If not she would be dead by now.

The man killing intent was not hidden at all. Sasha knows the man meant to kill her the moment she fallen into his hands.

So she would not herself get caught, no matter the cost.

But she also knows she does not have a chance of survival if she keep running. She has been thinking of something the moment she discovers that the man have no intention of letting her go.

But the price is too steep and she hesitated. Still.....even at this moment, with the man in the hood hot on her tails...she still hesitated....because the price is truly steep.

But she keep holding her bag of holding and looking at it, delaying the inevitable.

'HALT!' The man yelled from behind with voice akin of a thunder peal but when she heard that yell, the faster the chariot became, and the weaker Sasha became.

Her Essence was running amok inside her meridians, and she could feel her vitality drained each second; feeling like her life force was snapped out of existence.

The feeling is like losing a memory you never know you had. Feeling a sense of a loss of something you never knew you had.

As Sasha looks at her chariot she knew she doesn't have much time to decide

The Flame Spirit Horse is almost extinguished as her essence tree is beginning to rot and the energy she could supply to the chariot is running out.

She can't keep this long.

She gritted her teeth as she pop some more pills inside her mouth....but the potion she needs to drink, she still hesitated.

She will not drink it unless it was truly the last resort.

Her Essence Tree was forcefully replenished when she down that pill and she could feel her longevity shortened.

She coughed a lump of black blood inside the fast flying chariot as she grit her teeth enduring the pain and the headache that came.

Then a sound exploded from behind her chariot, sounding like something detonated.

She looks back in alarm and frowned as she could see the man in the black hood punch through the air.

The air compressed around the man hand and a ball of wind compacted and shot towards her like a wind cannon.

The compacted air was surrounded by a swirling dark red mist making it look fiendish and induce fear in the enemy heart.

The wind changed direction as the wind cannon pass through the clouds and crashed the behind of her chariots and the chariot rocks like it was colliding with a twenty ton truck.

Sasha could not help but feel her internal organ was shaking because of the impact and she almost let go of the reins.

But she keeps holding on even as her skin was lacerated.

Sasha eyes become red. Her hand still tightly holding the reins of the chariots but her nerves are frayed.

Her internal organs are in a mess, and her energy is in chaos.

'Heh' she smiles bitterly. She could not accept this. She refuses to accept this.

Then she brings something out from her bag of holding and something comes out from her bag of holding.

A vial of greenish potion is in her left hand as her right hand keeps holding the reins.

She could not accept this outcome! She contemplated of drinking the Life Burning Potion. She got the Life Burning Potion when she defeated a Snow Ghost in the White Mountain.

It was a terrible monster and powerful.

She could not accept dying here....just because she makes a small mistakes. The chariot still sails through the cloud like thunder.

And Azief is still following the chariot form behind.

Looking from the ground one could misunderstand because all they could see was a streak of yellow streak passing the clouds like lightning and a black lightning.

For someone who does not have vision abilities they might even misunderstand them as natural disaster.

They see lightning. They hear thunder roaring when it was actually Azief and Sasha while the sound they heard was the sound of Azief attack.

And sometimes some places were attack from the sky as it leaves holes in the ground.

Azief who was pursuing Sasha is perplexed. It has been hours but he could still not reach the chariot.

As he dodges another spike of diamond from Sasha attack, Azief still pursues her. Because this time Azief is interested in the chariots.

Sasha value has just gone up in Azief eyes. If before, he wanted to devour the essence inside Sasha body, now Azief wanted to know about the chariot.

Azief is not boasting but his speed is one of a kind in the world.

Before, even Will could not outrun him...of course since Will has begun tapping the Speed Source, he has becoming even faster.

But for a mere Seed Forming Low Realm to outrun him and in the air, nothing shocked him more.

He is convinced the reason Sasha could escape him right now is because of the Golden chariot.

Azief did not even have the chance to use any one of his sabers to attack her because the moment he would equip the saber, he would lost her.

The only thing he could do was keep pursuing her while attacking him with his physical body.

Even though he only used his physical body that alone is terrifying enough. With his body refinement stage, when he punched out air will compressed and explode.

Then as Azief maintains his speed suddenly, the chariot teleported ten kilometer ahead in a matter of second.

Azief was shocked beyond belief.

'Tch' he clicked his tongue.

'You think you will escape me, Sasha!' He yelled as he activates his essence.

The moment he activated his Essence, his skin turn golden like the sun.

His flesh turns golden illuminating all under him like the break of dawn, lighting all under darkness, his veins expanded as energy courses through him like a hundred stampeding warhorses.

Air was sucked around him and air compressed under his feet.

And then he pushes his feet forward. The moment he did that, the air under his feet exploded and creates a supersonic sound quake.

He instantly traveled just behind the chariot in a matter of second as he continue his pursue.

Azief was in airspace of the flame region at the time.

When that sound was produce, the Black Dragon of the Volcanic Range of the Flame Region who was hibernating opens its eyes.

Azief of course did not know this but what he did was waking the Black Dragon that once terrorizes China.

He had awoken the Black Winged Calamity as it was called by the people of China. The Dragon open its eyes, and slowly its wings was open....and then it flapped its wing.

By the time, the dragon opens its eyes, Azief and Sasha already enters the Plains region.

And it's descended. That day, the people living under that Volcanic Mountain range either got eaten by the dragon or burn to ashes.

Tragedy abounds and death and destruction looms in the Flame region.

However when Azief and Sasha reaches the Plains region, Sasha jump out from her chariots and began gliding through the air.

The chariot turns into a flash of light and returns to Sasha hand turning into a mark on her left hand.

Azief notices this and nodded.

‘A Blood bound artifact’ he mused.

‘Gotcha!’ Azief said.

What Azief fear is that Sasha would always running using that chariot. As long as she didn’t use that chariot Azief is confident he could restrain her.

Azief dives down to the ground as he looks at Sasha dropping down from the sky. Azief was smiling.

Azief knows even from that height she will not die because of the impact. The reason why Azief wanted to dive down is because he wanted to capture her.

As Azief think of what he was about to say when he captured her something happened that is beyond his imagination.

An explosion of golden fire engulfs Sasha.

The golden fire spread through the clouds, painting the sky golden and one might see a golden aurora streak around the horizon. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

A few moment before that explosion happens, Azief could see that Sasha drink something.

Then the explosion happens.

Golden and powerful explosion.

So powerful in fact that Azief which was 5 kilometers from the site of the explosion was sent tumbling 10 kilometers.

He could feel his rib broken as he cashed to the ground and accidentally lopped off the left side of a considerable sized hill.

When Azief regain his senses, all he could hear was ringing in his ear and pains in his rib and then what he sees in the sky filled him with shock.

There, on the sky, Sasha was floating, with a golden Halo on her head, and rings of golden fire under her feet; she looks like an enraged Celestial Goddess.

And the aura she emitted was the same as him.....a High realm Seed Forming.

Azief coughed a little blood as he felt his cracked ribs with his hand. But he is not afraid. He only smiles in satisfaction.

Even when he was like that his body is repairing itself, quickly mending his bones and healing his wounds.

His Violet Palace was hard at work as it heals him. Then he got up and he sneered at Sasha who was floating in the sky.

He stares at her and she stares at him.

‘Now, that’s more like it’ he says as he slowly floated to the sky again. When he finally reached the same height as Sasha, he smirked.

‘It seems you have something under your sleeve. You surely have many items that shocked me. The chariot is already a powerful artifact. Now, this. What thing you eat that could make you this powerful? Whatever it is, I bet it has some pretty bad price.’

Sasha then said.

‘Stop wasting time. I will lay you to waste’ she said as she dash forward in the sky toward Azief.

Azief who was standing there laughed.

‘And now it begins!’ He exclaimed in excitement as he also dash forward, compressing the air beneath his feet and fly to the sky like a shooting star

Sasha was forming a fist with her hand and air compresses around her knuckles and spikes of levitating diamond formed around her hand as she flying to meet Azief in combat.

Azief on the other hand open his hand and make a palm with his hand. His palm was golden.

Some Laws swirls around his palm. The fabric of reality was affected as the atmosphere around him seems to be distorted.

It is a pity that Law was just a shred of laws and not even partial.

If Azief just understand even a partial Law of the World, with one flick of his finger, he could have stopped Sasha in her step.

But if it was that easy, understanding laws would not be that amazing wouldn’t it?

Deadly Aura swirls around his palm as the golden skin was enshrouded with black mist. His attributes was melded into his palm.

And then in just a matter of moments, they collided with each other and a sky quake happened and shakes the clouds in ten kilometers radius.

The battle between them begins.

Chapter 112: Battle of the gods \(2\)

MEANWHILE IN THE WORLD GOVERNMENT HEADQUARTERS

A man can be seen sneakily entering the Vault of Weapons.

The Vault of Weapon was made from marbled stones and was high as a four-story building with a width of five baseball field.

Inside it, the World Government stores all their weapon gained by battle with monsters and rewards from completing a quest.

The man entering the Vault was short. 5'5 tall, the man also had a little limp in his left feet and he walks slowly but with determination.

His hair was short and his eyes were hazel. His body also a little bit plum. Behind him, four guards can be seen to be unconscious.

Not far away from the guard an incense burning could be seen stuck in the ground emitting purple smokes.

An Artifact.

No doubt, the short man was using the incense to make the guards unconscious.

The man was sweating from head to toe. His hand keeps having these tremors and his heart was beating wildly.

But he needs to do it.

'I need to do it' he said as he clenches his fist.

He wipes his sweat and slowly he moves deeper inside the Vault.

He light up the Light fragment and light fill the area around him like a flashlight lighting his way.

As he walks forward, he could see hundreds of weapons inside the vault.

All kinds of weapons that the World Government acquired from hunting monsters were stored here.

He could see hundreds of kinds of swords, spears, staff, futuristic weapons, and many more could be seen.

He could also see doors in every part of the Vault marked with numbers. Mostly the door will lead to some kind of Artifact weapons or shields, or other high tiered weapons.

But he spares not even a glance for them.

What he is searching for was a Hyper Drive. Even as he was searching high and low inside the vault, he could not help but think of what will happen to him if he got caught.

To be honest, the man himself does not want to do this. But he had no choice. His family is with them.

Ayu and his son Jamal is with them. Slowly he walked deeper and then he reached the door. The door was marked not with a number but with an acronym.

R&D.

The man smiles as he could see that the salvation for his family is at hand. He takes out the key from the pocket of his pants and slowly he slide it inside the keyhole.

And then slowly he opens the door and then when he fully open the door he gasped and was so stunned that he falls back and fall to the ground with shock.

The reason why he was so shocked is because when he opens the door, he sees someone...someone he did not expect.

Will the Dark Speedster was waiting for him, sitting on chair relaxingly with blue lightning swirling around his body

'Oh, you're late, Budiman. I was waiting for you.' Will said as he got up from the chair and slowly approaches Budiman.

His step was slow but Budiman could not help but pray that Will step will become even slower.

Budiman could not even move an inch as he was frozen on the ground, paralyzed by fear. When finally Will reach him, he squatted and looks at Budiman eyes.

Budiman lower his gaze and look at the ground as his hand was trembling in fear.

Budiman was already thinking of his end.

'This is it! I'm busted. Raymond will execute me.' This is his thought but then Will said something that rekindled his hope for life.

'My friend wanted to propose a deal with you, Budiman.' And Budiman slowly look up and ask.

'A deal' he said stuttering in fear. He gulped and then he asked.

'Who's your friend, Dark Speedster?' Smiling, Will answered. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

'I think you've met him before when he crash your battleship.'

'You don't mean?' Budiman widened his eyes as he finally understand who Will is talking about

'Lord Shadow' Will said slowly and then he said

"Hold on tight" Will grab Budiman arms and then he run leaving only a blue lightning trail in the air.

That day, all the upper echelons of the World Government were shocked to found out that Budiman was a spy planted by the League of Freedom.

President Hirate on the other hand had to listen the Quorum complaints about the missing hyper drive.

Will was awarded with a seat in the Quorum for his service and intelligence.

Will manage to uncover a conspiracy that would have probably toppled the World Government organization if the conspiracy was let to fester.

All the while, the forces of World Government were deployed to search and capture Budiman.

Pandikar was sentenced a house arrest by the President Order with Raymond Army guarding him and taking control of the Admiralty.

Pandikar was also suspected and is waiting for the Quorum decision.

From the intelligence that Lord Will has given the Quorum, it has been said when Will have managed to uncover the conspiracy he quickly went to the vault only too discovered the unconscious guard and Budiman taking the Hyper drive.

As he tries to capture Budiman, Warp appears and teleported almost instantly with Budiman on tow.

His statement was taken and the evidence was presented to the Quorum.

There is no suspicion on his story, so the World Government has posted a bounty on the capture of Warp and Budiman.

Of course, unknown to all these forces, Budiman is now inside a Palace with his family. The Palace is called the Grain Palace.

It was the same Palace that Loki, Sofia and Sina stay in when they were hunted by the World Government.

There is a puppeteer controlling the events of the world, shaping it according to his will with his machinations and plots...and he is shrouded in shadows.

Chapter 113: Battle of the gods: second part \(1\)

They collided like a lightning super bolt, fast and impactful. The air shakes and distorted because of the shock.

The palm and the fist strike collided and a shockwave ripples with lightning speed in the sky, producing a sonic boom.

An explosion of energy backed by Essence ripples through the air and creating a gigantic explosion of energy, even affecting the ground as the area below then shakes.

If not because the world has been strengthened by the White Explosion, the ground beneath these two Titans would have crumpled and atomized by simply their energy.

If this was Earth Two, the area around them would have already turned to mess and might even affect the natural phenomenon of that world.

Imagine the impact of such shockwave produce by their attack.

Their attack is powerful enough that their speed was travelling through the air faster than the speed of sound.

Their strikes generate an enormous amount of sound energy, sounding like a huge explosion.

And the heat? It distorts the very air around the area they were fighting. Clouds dissipated and heat filled the sky.

Because of their thick essence it even affects the clouds, creating a polar stratospheric cloud.

While the clouds behind them becomes agitated creating an undulates asperatus phenomenon.

When they collided Azief could feel the thickness of Sasha essence and this make him widened his eyes as he was push back and was thrown fifty meter away back but he manages to keep floating.

Sasha on the other hand feels like she was colliding with a mountain as she also was thrown back and coughing blood.

Her internal organ took a hit and her Essence was scattered away by that punch. Her hand broke and many of her bones cracked and her Nine Opening were destroyed.

She was immediately cut off from the energy of the world and she felt like she can't breathe.

Her ears were bleeding, so does her eyes. It is only because of her strong will that she is still floating in the air.

The pain of having every bones in your body cracking and broken, how does anyone even endures?

But she endures.

Because that is what she is good at. Enduring. Even before the Fall, she endures many things that the people of her age could not endure.

She was poor, destitute, the daughter of the street. All that she has, all that she is, is what she has fought and won.

Even now, when all hope seems lost, she still endures. Because she always knows that if you endure long enough, you will have your chance.

And when that chance appears, if you hesitated, then you will close your door of opportunity.

So, she is waiting. She look forward and sneered at the still unharmed black hooded man in the distance.

And if not for her drinking the Potion, she would have been dead the moment they clash with each other.

She already prepared herself for the attack but she never did think she still underestimated him.

With this kind of physique, if this world was still the same as before the White Explosion, the land beneath them would surely crack and quake and it will be like a calamity.

But Sasha endures and brings out another artifact.

The Golden Fleece.

It was golden in color, and when Sasha bring it out, yellow light formed behind her back and covers the sky, like golden clouds.

There is some runic writing on the fleece and alchemical formula written in undecipherable words.

It was gifted by the Oracle. She once said, that she will need it when fighting a man covered in darkness.

At the time, Sasha did not pay too much attention to her words, but now she knows, the Oracle is really good at her job.

The Oracle really did foresee this battle.

That is why she advises her to fight the Snow Monsters and even give her tips how to defeat the monster and give her the Golden Fleece.

As for the Oracle grand plan, she doesn't know anything about it.

Though, Sasha would appreciate if the Oracle could speak directly instead of speaking in riddles and dire warnings.

But, she still feels gratitude towards the Oracle. If she has foreseen this battle, then that means, she still has a chance to live.

After all, the Oracle said she will be saved by a woman in white. But only, if she passes this obstacle.

Someone that could be her ticket to be accepted by the World Government no matter the danger they have to face, protecting her

After all, destiny is made by people. Things changes, Future changes.

We make our own fortune.

Sasha believes this woman in white is the White Witch which resides in the World Government.

And when she scans the hooded man area, she remembers seeing someone.

Someone that she has seen before during her stay at World Government before the White Explosion.

Her ticket for safety

Sasha takes the fleece and covers her wound and magically her wounds began healing itself as the Golden Fleece dimmed in color.

Her internal organ began to heal, and her Essence is gathering back as the energy around her were sucked into her body.

Her bones slowly mending and her Nine Opening slowly reforming and energy could pass the passageway again, revitalizing back her body

The bleeding in her ears and her eyes stopped. Then she stores the already almost depleted Golden Fleece inside her bag of Storage.

She smiles and said to herself.

'I still have to attack if I were to distract him. This is my only chance. If I got her, then Raymond might welcome me into the World Government. I'm sorry, hood man. But I have to disappoint you if you think this will be easy. I'm not an easy woman to handle.'

On the other hand, in the distance, Azief was equally shocked.

For someone like Sasha to receive his attack and the worst it could do to her were a few internal injuries that alone are extraordinary enough.

He was baffled. But then understanding dawned. He smiles.

‘So, that’s how it is. She has truly outsourced all of her methods.’

As he look back in front of him ,suddenly he could see, Sasha who was right in front of him, suddenly disappeared with extreme speed and appear in front of him.

The air exploded because of her extreme speed and gust of wind slash away around the area she disappear from.

‘Not good!’ Azief said as make a defensive X posture in front of his chest with his hand when suddenly he could hear a loud sound of cracking as he took on Sasha punch.

The wind howled and the wind exploded as sound like thunder roared in the sky.

BOOMM!!!

The sound echoes hundreds of kilometers and affect even the ground as low level user who were under the ground near their battle site was affected and they could feel their Orbs almost cracked and break under the pressure of the presence of both Seed Forming User battle

Pillar Forming User could feel their Pillars cracked and almost dissipates because of the intense fighting in the sky.

Some of those who have weak heart even started kneeling and praying to their God.

In the sky, the battle is almost at the climax.

Sasha already transformed her hand to be coated with diamond like substance making her punch not only powerful but also lethal.

Azief sail through the clouds a thousand meter away like a supersonic jet and Azief forcefully stop himself from being flung farther away by halting in the air instantly and the sound around him exploded because of the force of his sudden inertia stopping.

‘ARGH!! Azief yelled as he could feel some of his bones cracked. It is hard to make his bones crack.

That punch was coated with essence and even managed to crack his bones. One could only imagine how powerful that punch is.

The fact that Sasha manages to crack his bones shows that this Sasha is different from the Sasha he was pursuing.

Even a trapped mouse will fight back when cornered. But unknown to him, the moment Sasha punch him, Sasha crack all the bones in her hand.

If not for the healing aura of the Golden Fleece still present inside her body, she could not push through.

‘I WON’T HOLD BACK THEN!’ He yelled as Golden light illuminates around 100 meter radius as his regeneration was activated.

Golden light illuminates the sky, painting the clouds golden and making Azief look like a Celestial emperor descending from Heaven.

Golden mist melded with the red and black mist that surrounded Azief, making him look like an Unholy existence that combine both the majestic presence of holiness and the unholy power of dark magic.

His Aura overwhelm the area as the wind around him faces intense pressure and make the winds changes direction, away from Azief.

The clouds moves away, the weather changes, and golden light shines the Plains regions.

'You want to fight Sasha! You could have surrender. You just have to provoke me! I will fulfill your wish!'

Then he opens his Nine Forbidden Opening and energy courses through his every vein, every nerve, and every part of his body.

Air compresses around his body and exploded and then reforming and then exploded. It was a bizarre scene.

Time fluctuates around him, death aura swirls around his feet, Life aura emanated from his hand creating a bizarre phenomenon around him.

Even as Azief activates his Openings, Sasha pushes on as she appears again and this time there is a weapon in her hand.

A long spear suddenly pierces through one of the clouds and targeted Azief head.

The momentum of a descending mountain was emitted by the spear attack, making the air around the tip of the spear crack and distorted.

Azief easily dodges it by titling his head on the opposite direction of the attack and take a few steps back as he hides behind some other clouds, waiting to ambush Sasha.

The spear strikes which were imbued by Sasha essence missed the targets and accidentally attacked the settlement of a village in the foot path of the Dividing Mountains in the Plains region.

Explosion accompanied with wind gales as sharp as swords descended on the settlements and destroys the ground as a twenty meter width crater was formed and killing dozens of people.

The spear immediately disappeared like ash the moment it collided with the settlements, returning back to Sasha hand almost as fast as lightning.

People on the settlements scattered running as they tried to avoid themselves getting accidentally killed when those two beings in the sky fighting against each other.

The sound of screams, and cursing could be heard as they curse at the sky, and scream on top of their lungs, screaming injustice.

In the sky, the battle is ongoing as spear strikes and Sovereign aura collided against each other as the shockwave shock the people in the ground.

Another attack follows Azief even as he was trying to hide.

Azief dodges it again, as the strike misses and energy blast was shot off from the spear and narrowly misses him.

This strike attacks the ground again and this time a forty meter width crater was formed. As time goes on, the spear strikes becomes even more powerful

Azief mused in his heart.

‘The blooming of life before the end.’

They are moving closer and closer to Azief village and for some reason Azief began feeling something is very wrong.

Azief then quickly releases his Sovereign Presence, emanating a pressure that make all the clouds around him dissipate and the heat around him pressurized.

This time Azief has decided to end this fast, as he felt a bad premonition so when another spear strike was aiming him Azief yell inside his mind, activating his attributes imbued by his Essence Tree.

‘Time!’

The air around him suddenly ripples and an image of a gigantic Hourglass of Sand appear behind his back.

The clouds changed colors as it became a little bit purplish, and Azief aura filled the sky, making Sasha even with the help of the Potion, feels constricted and feel herself becoming....slow

Near 100 meter radius all around him time slowed. The particles all become slow, as momentum energy was halted, and laws of physics were ignored.

The energy blast that shot off from the tip of the spear was like a raging tsunami, even changing the wind direction and dissipates the clouds, eager to trample everything on its path, but when Azief activated his attributes, her strikes slowed down.

Everything slowed down.

The clouds slowly dissipate, in such a manner one could even take the time to record the phenomenon that is happening.

Azief could even see where the energy blast will be headed. He could even sense the Essence in that strike.

Sasha Essence were imbued in that strikes and the attributes were also melded into the energy making it very dangerous and very terrifying if Azief directly went on head to head with such strikes.

The strikes itself was powerful and domineering but also full of malevolent energy.

Azief could not help but admire the tenacity and the decisiveness of Sasha to use that Potion.

Even Azief will never use that Potion. Maybe even under the threat of Death he will not use it.

This is not the first time Azief has fought someone that uses this kind of potion. Azief knows the Price for such magic.

The reason why Azief will never drink it is because he knows he can't pay the Price. He could not stand being powerless.

Especially after he has felt what he felt when he has power. He would rather die than start again. It is his pride, his dignity.

The Life Burning Potion.

Drinking it, one would be bestowed with the ability to transcend his or her realm.

Sasha is now actually not a Seed Forming User but a Disk Formation user.

Pity that she did not have a strong body and Seed.

At least with a strong body, she could maintain this state a bit longer.

With Seeds, if she drinks the Potion, then at least for a moment, the Seeds will turn into Disk and with that Azief would not be able to win.

After all, the Disk Formation targets the intangibles.

His pinnacle body might stand a Disk Formation physical attack, but if they attack his mind and soul, he would not be able to stand it.

That is the only reason why Sasha manages to make him suffer injuries.

Her Essence dig through his consciousness and burn his consciousness making the pain of the soul appear to his physical body.

That is the biggest mystery of man. The existence of souls.

Undying Body, even Tribulation Lightning will not dare to attack, but a Disk Formation will attack the mind, the consciousness, the souls, as they comprehended the Law of The World, looking down on everything.

But the Price is, the moment the Potion lost its effectiveness, all of the drinker abilities, levels, all will be in vain.

The Essence will disappear, as the Energy is disperse inside the body again, making the drinker stages to go down as Seed Forming becomes Energy Disperse Stage again.

That is the first pain.

Then the Energy will gather cutting of the Path of Seed Forming, as Eternal Spring becomes blighted, the Red Palace crumbles, The Celestial Presence erased, the Nine Opening were closed, the Divine Meridians dried up, the Titanium Bones weaken and lost its luster, the Golden Aura weakened, the Silver Veins lost its colors, the Copper Flesh turns weak, and the Ironskin disappeared.

Then the Energy that was dispel will gather up again and become compact as it becomes an Orb.

The color of the Orb then will turn gray and lifeless as it exploded and turns into Pillars.

That is another pain as the user would feel pain beyond their normal threshold of pain.

Some describe it as being skinned alive.

The Pillars will all be cracked and full of holes. Then the Pillars will crumble and then the body will weaken as the drinker will go down to level 1.

This is why Azief will never drink that potion and he will not put himself in a situation where he had to drink that kind of potion.

This is why he has to be merciless. This is why he has to be cold to his enemies.

This is why even though the Sasha in front of him has the same face as the Sasha in Earth Two he did not cut her any slack.

Because he has experience firsthand what happens when you hesitated in front of a familiar face. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

The experience he gathers in the Bizarro like world in the Fractured Reality has taught him better.

He even met Evil-Him. Evil Loki and Evil Sofia. It was almost like a mirror world, distorting all the personalities of the people he has ever met.

But Azief understand why Sasha uses the Potion.

It's true.

That if she did not resort to this potion, the moment she lost her energy to keep running, Azief would capture her easily.

The difference level in power is obvious. Azief knows it. And she knows it.

So, this is why he couldn't understand why Sasha would risk her entire being destroyed just because to escape from him.

This is why Azief felt that something is wrong.

He uses the attributes not only to dodge Sasha attack but also to immediately slow down Sasha movement and capture her before anything unexpected happens.

But then Azief heard Sasha yelled

'TIME!'

An image of a sun and moon appears as the moon turns red and explodes and the moon slowly dissipates appear behind her back and his Time attributes were canceled out.

Her attributes of Time is a little different than Azief attributes of time which means their understanding of Time attributes are different.

Azief was shocked as he was forced to immediately fall back as he flies higher to the sky when he was trying to dodge the barrage of spear attack that came after Sasha broke his Time attributes Totem.

Azief was enduring the pain of the backlash, as he could even feel that his essence is in chaos.

His body is perfectly fine but his essence was scattering away as it was attacked by a foreign energy that was domineering and malevolent

The comprehension of Sasha time attributes is higher than him which is why she could neutralize his Time attributes.

Then suddenly she stopped and then she changes her direction and flies through the sky with all of her speed to the direction of his village and then Azief finally understand.

At this time, he finally realized he has overlooked something. One bit of information slip his mind.

He remembers about a bounty slip he got from Will and chills runs on his back. Even with all his plots and machination talents, he never thought he would overlook this one fact.

He became arrogant and lazy and complacent. He was too confident to think of a scenario where he is outsmarted.

Because his level of power is the strongest in the world, he has forgotten what he has learn in his journey back home.

The lesson was that no matter how strong you are, that doesn't mean that you can't be defeated.

Looking at the rings on his fingers, he remembered seeing a Demon King strong like Old Gods, defeated, not by pure strength but by quantity.

Even though the Demon King possess power that could render Earth and Heaven apart, in the end he still fall.

And Azief remembered how he used trickery and his guile to get the Ten Eternal Rings. Azief was so sure of his victory and all of Sasha way out has been sealed, that he overlook that maybe Sasha has been planning this the moment he enter the cave.

That maybe...this time...it was him that got baited. Or maybe, the reason why Sasha decided to capture Sina is because he comes to the cave.

But considering Sasha probing, she must have thought about capturing Sina the moment she found Sian was there in the village.

If only Azief knows formation, he could have created a runic formation that would shield the village.

The only things he could shield from other people Divine Consciousness is himself because of his level advantage but he could not shield his village unless he got a cloaking artifact.

'SINA! SASHA! THE WORLD GOVERNMENT BOUNTY!' All of this floated inside his mind.

'NO! YOU CAN'T DO THAT!'

He yelled and his yell produces a sound waves that ripples through the sky, killing low level avian monster that was around 50 kilometers radius as Black Crow monsters fall down from the sky, like a pouring of black rain.

He finally understands.

The Divine consciousness sweeping, the reason why she drink the potion even though she must have known that to be a futile endeavor.

She was never intending to fight him to the death. She was biding her time and then finding his leverage.

The reason why Azief realize this was because of Sasha direction. It was the direction of his village.

Then as that is not enough suddenly, the Golden Chariot appears again and this time it was faster as Azief fly through the sky with the fastest speed he could employ.

He is desperate to be faster than her.

But, not everything moves according to his wishes. With half step to Disk Formation, the speed of the chariot this time surpasses the previous speed as Sasha speed was almost like the speed of light.

The candle burn bright as it's near the end.

This battle will not end as easily as Azief thought.

Chapter 114: Battle of the gods: second part \(2\)

The explosion comes and goes like a tornado. The Alchemy Lab that was being protected heavily by the soldiers was immediately destroyed the moment the woman from the sky riding a golden chariot collided with the structure.

The soldiers were smashed like minced meat, crater as wide as a lake was formed in the middle of the village.

The watchmen all left their post in shock with weapons in their hands, magic ready to deploy as they tries to capture the intruder. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

But they were to slow compare to the intruder.

Then even as the debris not beings settled yet, the woman was flying out from the destroyed structure with someone else inside her chariot, looking dazed, grabbed by her during the initial hit.

Sina was captured almost immediately as the woman flies towards the Forest Region laughing almost like a madwoman.

The soldier instantly panicked. Lord Loki went to the West while Lady Sofia went to the North to find survivors.

General Wang Jian did not yet return from his hunt and now Lady Sina was being kidnapped.

Then suddenly a yell that pierces through the plains rang out.

'LET HER GO!' The voice sounded like a wrathful voice of an enraged God.

As they look at the sky, they could see their Village Head, a man clad in the blackest of clothes, grim as death, his eyes contains fury that could kill, surrounded by black mist and his fly by around the village was so fast and full of his wrath, that the land underneath him distorted and crumple up like a paper.

The pursues continues until Sasha arrived at the Forest Region and poke her own forehead and extract her own Longevity as she become an Energy Disperse Stage user but increases the speed of her chariots as she flies inside the Forest Region.

She yelled as her voice resonated through all the Plains as millions of people all around the Plains could hear her words

‘You might be stronger than me Lord Shadow, but I know this world better than you. Good luck convincing the Arrayist Master, Lee Sangmin to let you in’

These words make the people who heard it was shocked to their core.

Those low level users know that in this plain right now, even though they could not see, a great expert is fighting one another, and their strength is on a different level than theirs.

To make their voice sounded a thousand miles, what kind of power one need to possess to do that?

They only hope they would not get entangled between the fight of these Titans.

And then she laughed and her laugh was full of confidence and send shivers to anyone who could hear it as her laugh reverberated in the Plains like an elegy of madness.

The moment Azief tries to go inside the Region he crashed onto some illusionary wall making the whole region trembles.

A translucent Dome made of runic equation surrounded the whole region, shining for a second when Azief tries to forcefully bang the formation away with his fist.

The silent forest began to bustle with activity. The Lords inside the Forest began to act.

The bugle was sounded, war chants filled the forest, the Eastern wind blew and the whole Forest Region alliance moved.

Azief perplexed at his inability to open the barrier with his strength summon all of his subordinate to the Forest Region as he create a camp in front of the barrier and waited.

General Wang Jian upon hearing the news, send the survivors he found to the villages, and then with his soldiers, he cross the Plains with his horse to answer his liege calls.

Loki and Sofia also did the same.

They left the survivors inside the village, assign someone from the army to look over the village, and then with the Pegasus, they fly through the sky to quickly answers Azief summons.

Sofia was worried about Sina safety while Loki was thinking about something else.

This is the first encounter of Eden and the Alliance of the Forest.

Chapter 115: Patterns \(1\)

'Ehem' the man gulped. Then he looks anxiously at the man sitting in the chair reviewing some document, fearing that the man would find his anxiety displeasing.

He was sweating bullets.

He was only an Orb Condensing User. Being in the same room with an Energy Disperse Stage user of course, he would be anxious and fear almost envelops him.

The natural suppression of higher being.

But he summons his courage. He is a soldier. And soldiers must be brave. But, truth be told he was too young to a soldier. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

But desperate times calls for desperate measure.

The room was tense with negative feeling. Even though the Ice Fragment function is to cool the room, for some reason, the man still sweats.

The room was spacious, beautiful and full of beautiful design but for some reason, he feel the room is small, and no matter how beautiful the design he could not calm his heart.

The General of the Army and now the Acting Admiral and control both the Admiralty and the Army was looking at a him.

Raymond was seated in the chair of his study looking solemn. He was wearing his uniform instead of his armour.

But even wearing his uniform he look as intimidating like he was wearing his battle armour. Full of dignity and has an aura of a King.

He creased his eyebrows as he look at his left side.

'You chose this man, Commander?' Raymond ask as he sized the man up. Instantly he could feel the Orb inside the man body.

Jesse nodded not explaining anything.

'Yes, Sir.' Beside his left was Commander Jesse in charge of the Golden Division.

'He is neutral and his opinion carry weight' as Jesse look at the man waiting orders from both of them.

Then he slowly leans to Raymond and whispers to his ear.

'And low possibility of being controlled by the Quorum.' Raymond nodded clearly satisfied. Then he lay back at his chair as he just stares at the man.

The man was nervous indicated by his sweat on his forehead and the many time he has gulped his own saliva.

But Raymond was still contemplating

After Lord Will uncovers the great conspiracy involving the League of Freedom and Budiman, the World Government was sent into a state of panic.

The Quorum wanted to handle this as fast as possible and they also wanted an explanation.

The White Witch Acolytes, the Raijin Army belonging to Lord Oreki, The Lotus Order belonging to the Chinese Faction, Dangun Army belonging to Han Ji Woo the Demonic Berserker, the Knights of William headed by the King of England, King William all is asking him for an explanation.

One problem and they all come to him, screaming for his head.

Sometimes, Raymond wanted to challenge all this faction heads to a fight.

They did not want to integrate their own forces into the World Government Army but they all want the benefit of joining the World Government.

And then there is the Quorum.

The Quorum is always hounding him with their envoys, asking confidential secrets and urging him nonstop to end this matter so that they could placate the public.

And the Quorum is impatient.

And highly suspicious towards President Hirate and him. Not that Raymond could blame them for thinking like that.

After Pandikar was arrested and sentenced to house arrest by the army backed by the President Executive Order, Raymond seize the Admiralty and cordoned of the Battleships.

President Hirate on the other hand begun arresting Pandikar supporter under the banner of investigation.

There is a lot of unease in the World Government. Dark forces hiding amongst them, wearing mask, hiding their intention.

Then there is the matter of Lord Shadow.

The fact that Lord Shadow is in conflict with Sasha is widespread by now. After all, the World government is also in the Plains regions.

It was not like they were deaf. Everyone could hear the names. They could hear the explosive shouting even through here.

Though Raymond don't think that Lord Shadow would find an easy enemy in the Forest Region.

Arrayist Master Lee Sangmin is there after all. Even Hirate with all of his Mind Search could not pinpoint the location for Lee Sangmin.

Still, Lee Sangmin is a necessity and an important person not only to the World Government but also to other factions out there.

Lord Shadow might be powerful but the importance between Lord Shadow and Lee Sangmin is different.

They would rather offend Lord Shadow and gain Lee Sangmin favour.

Because what Lee Sangmin could offer is more enticing and more valuable than what Lord Shadow could offer.

'Ehem' Jesses coughed as he taps Raymond back and Raymond was brought back to the situation at hand. He then said to Jesse looking slightly embarrassed

'Explain it to him Commander.'

'Yes, Sir.'

Jesse then began to explain the matter to the Sergeant. He talked about the not only the robbery of their Hyperdrive but also the existence of a network of sleeper agents in their organization

'A spy, Sir? I thought Lord Will has identified the spy.'

'I don't think that is the last of them.' Raymond said as he fiddles with his fingers. Then he sits straight up and relay his command.

'I want you to open an investigation. No stone left unturned. I want to find out how spies could break through our security and how they manage to infiltrate us.'

The Sergeant gulped and then he said.

'Sir, there has been a lot of accidents. The breakout of the Genius Alchemist Sina, the robbery of the Vault by Loki and Sofia, and now this. Whatever the League of Freedom wants with the Hyperdrive, it will not be beneficial for us.'

Raymond looks lazily at the Sergeant.

'Your point being?'

'I need authority. The authority to follow evidence no matter where it leads me.'

'Is this you asking me or the Quorum?'

'The will of the quorum is the will of the people.'

'Heh. The will of the people huh? Fine. You'll get it.' Raymond said with a hint of sneer in his smile

'Thank you' the Sergeant said as he relieved a relaxed sigh.

'That will be all Sergeant. You're dismissed.' Jesses said as he dismiss the sergeant

'Yes, sir.' The sergeant then exited the office as fast as he could. Raymond then lay back on his chair and it creaks. Jesse still stand beside Raymond not saying anything.

Raymond then turn his head back and look at Jesse and he ask

'Jesse. What do you think?' He no longer addresses Jesse as Commander. When they are alone together, they do not speak according to ranks.

'About what?' Jesse said as he moves to the cupboard cabinet behind the chair and bringing out a bottle of white wine.

He also brings two wine glasses and put it down on Raymond table. Taking a chair, he sits opposite Raymond as he pours the white wine inside the glass.

He offers one to Raymond and Raymond nodded, taking the glass. Taking a relaxed posture, Jesses gesture him to continue with his eyebrows slightly lifted up.

It is his habit to ask people to continue with that eyebrow thing.

'The Quorum.' Raymond said, clearly in his tone he does not like the Quorum.

Jesse only smiles bitterly as he takes a sip and closes his eyes like he was savouring the taste.

'Hah. I don't really know what to say about them. I told them that you are no threat...but you know how they are. They are wary of you. Wary of President Hirate too.'

'As I suspected' Raymond said as he drinks the wine in his wine glass in one shot. It seems that Raymond is not in the mood for drinking considering he finish the wine that fast.

'Who is the most vocal voice in the Quorum?' He then asks. It is better if he knows who he is facing.

'Lord Oreki and Lord Hikigaya...among many others. Dangun army and the Chinese also doesn't really like a Westerners calling the shots. They clearly don't like that you are putting your fingers on to many pies. Even now, at the brink of humanity execution, they still care about race.'

'Yeah.' Raymond agreed.

As a species, it almost seems like humanity is incapable of nurturing, instead humanity is like a cancerous cells, devouring the Earth, until it dies of pain.

Even now, they still differentiate themselves like they were before the fall. They are still conflicts in the Quorum between Japan faction and China faction.

The Russian faction also has problems.

'They will not let rest easy, would they? I guess this thing could not be solved by me alone. Jesse, get me the President. I have something to discuss with the White Witch' and saying this Raymond stomp the tiles on his office and burrowed into the ground, leaving Jesse all alone in the office.

Jesse sighed as he finished his wine and slowly get up.

'Today, going to be a long day too' he complained as he exited the room.

Chapter 116: Patterns \(2\)

A FEW HOURS LATER

INSIDE RAYMOND OFFICE

'Should we make this public?' The man said on the opposite side of the desk, reviewing a document marked top secret.

Sometimes he would pinch his forehead like he was having a headache. Raymond then said

'If there are any spies in our organization, we need to find them. If we enlist the help of the public-' but before Raymond could finish his word the President shakes his finger

Hirate shakes his head as he look at Raymond. Still...denying. Hirate muse in his heart. He....still believes he is a follower.

Hirate could not make Raymond realize it himself, no matter how many times he has advises Raymond.

That Raymond is not a follower. He never was. He was a born leader. Then Hirate said to Raymond looking tired

'People will be panicked. Terrified and paranoid. There's going to be demand, at least someone to be held accountable for this mishap. Surely the Quorum ask you for something?'

Raymond nodded

'The Quorum ask for a free hand. They demand a trial. An independent tribunal'

'Hmph. And that trial will have to come back to the public with a name. Someone that did not do their job. Someone to be held responsible'

'We don't know if anybody makes any mistake.' Raymond said his tone clearly rising. Hirate got up from his seat and pointed his fingers at Raymond and then with a slight rising tone, reprimanded Raymond.

'Are you really that na?ve Raymond? A spy penetrated your security, killing the guards of the Vault, steal a Hyperdrive which is undoubtedly will be used to create a Battlestar. At least one of your people fucked up.'

Then Hirate sighed.

'Look, here's the thing. Openness, transparency, it all sound great in paper. But I'm telling you, these things have a way of creating collateral victims.'

And then Hirate calm himself down and he look at Raymond eyes and he said his voice was resolute and determined

'I don't want a witch hunt on our hands. I'm going to trust you Raymond. But the first sign of any trouble, I want you to clean it up. I won't always be cleaning up your mess.'

'This is not my mess, Hirate.' Raymond said, his tone is bordering in anger. Clearly he did not appreciate being reprimanded.

'I'm not going to assign blame but I'm sure the Quorum would be more than happy to make you the scapegoat. Some of the people in the Quorum don't take it kindly that you control both the Army and the Admiralty. Sometimes, it is wise to see the circumstances against you Raymond. Just a friendly advice.'

'You don't have to worry about that. The Quorum want the spies as much as I do.'

'Hmmm' and Hirate just shakes his head.

'Fine. I'll trust you. I will inform the public. But remember. First sign of trouble-'

'I know' and Raymond cut him off.

Hirate just nodded and he exited the office. Raymond relaxes himself and sighed as he look at the ceiling.

'I hope The White Witch got some good news.'

SOMEWHERE IN THE FOREST REGION

LEAGUE OF FREEDOM TERRITORY

A man was reading a report.

With his bandaged face his eyes shows maliciousness and hatred. His face was devoid of emotion.

As he keeps reading the report he couldn't help but smile. Slowly his smile becomes wider and wider.

And then he laugh like a madman.

Alone in his room, he laugh like he was satisfied but his eyes still maintain that hint of craziness and his hatred seems to be eternal.

'Raymond, you wanted to be let off that easy? I might not be able to steal the Hyperdrive and was outwitted by others, but I can still trap you. You still have a mole. And I will make sure the Quorum itself that will execute you.'

And then he continues his laugh.

Outside his room were hundreds of people wearing a uniform with a cape that shows the crest of a white wing and a shield painted on their capes.

Dark forces is targeting Raymond from a thousand miles away.

At the border of the Forest Region it is now full with Azief army, waiting for the Arrayist Master Lee Sangmin to meet with Lord Shadow.

Lord Shadow himself was waiting impatiently outside the barrier wanting to enter the mysterious forest region.

Then there is the explosive avalanche that struck the Revolutionary Army which causes hundreds of deaths and destruction to the structure of the Revolutionary Army.

Not to mention, the monsters of ice and snow from the top that were brought down from the avalanche began attacking the people underneath the mountain.

The World Government is also plagued by problems.

The Forest Region might be facing an invasion by a Seed Forming User.

The Revolutionary Army was facing a crisis of casualties never before seen after the avalanche settled with hundreds injured and thousands dies, making the Revolutionary Army truly vulnerable now.

Some faction is eyeing the situation in the dark.

The Flame Region were attacked by a dragon, already killing thousand, result of Azief and Sasha battle before went to hibernate again in the magma pools of the volcanoes.

Even the Seven Fairy of the Plains began to move and their target seems to be Eden village bringing with them ten thousand people, their intention unknown.

The World Government which also situated in the Southern Plains is facing an internal problem. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

They could not even try to interfere what is happening in the forest region now even though they wanted to make contact with Lord Shadow.

Even as all of this matter is happening in the world, in the vastness expanse of the universe, the Last Son of Yrinia, finally found a clue that will lead him to Earth.

MEANWHILE

PLANET BELTHANA

A spaceship is entering the blue planet from a large mothership station in the outside space perimeter of the planet

Belthana is a wasteland planet. At least it was like that trillions of years ago.

Now, the planet while it is not a center of great political power like Olympus or a planet of great wealth like Asgard, it is still a planet which have its visitor.

But the planet was not fully crowded. Only in certain times it will be visited by other planet travelers.

But there is a place in this planet that is rarely visited. The Temple of the Three Sisters of Fate.

Or more popularly known in the universe as the Temple of Fates

The temple is rarely visited because the occupant of that temple rarely gives permission to enter their temple.

And no one wanted to offend the Three Sisters of Fate, lest they anger the Twelve Supreme Leaders of Olympus.

But today, a warrior has come with a noble purpose to Belthana, to revive a great civilization.

Such undertaking must weight in a person heart.

The warrior spaceship landed on the red desert of Belthana. Making a landing in one of the hills, a silhouette of a man wielding a spear, exited his ship.

The sound of the hatch opening, the vapor white smokes accompanied his exit as he step his foot on the red desert.

He covers his eyes with something resembling a goggle and then he look at the blue sun in the sky.

'I've arrived.' He said with a s light panting. He was tired. Operating light speed carrier has its burden on the bodies.

The man is Fir Her Waz.

He scoured the universe to seek the Merchants of Sarens.

When he finally found the mothership of the Sarens merchant, he was introduced to Runion, one of the merchant that sells Ancient Knowledge.

Fir bought the information about the All Source for ten million Tenyu, the currency of Sarens.

Reading about the information, the people that knows the location of the All Source is not many.

Lord Protector of the Eight Realms, High King Odin. The Republic Head of Olympus Zeus Son of Chronos.

The Ten Thousand Heaven Enlightened August Ruler, Yu Wang that resided in the Jade Palace.

All three of those rulers will never told him the location of the All Source since they have made a treaty about the secret of the All Source.

They would never tell or disclose such universe shaking secrets.

Then there is another four persons that knows about the location of the All Source. The elder of the Universe and the Three Sisters of Fate.

The Elder of the Universe is recuperating after he tried to hold back the Destroyer in the Yuserinian system.

And his whereabouts is unknown.

So, Fir has no other choice other than seeking the Three Sisters of Fate and hope that the Three Sisters will not turn him down at the door.

He began to walk down from the hill armed only with his spear. Even from afar he could see the majestic 500 feet temple that reaches to the clouds.

He then began running.

Yrinian is famed for their physical body as he run as fast as a bullet train.

Even as he is running, and wind rushing pass his ears he could not help but reminisce some things.

He remembers that his daughter once said that she wanted to once visit Belthana.

She was ten at the time and begged him to allow her to go with her friend in intergalactic trip in the Dromidian galaxy.

She even got first place in her class and tries to persuade him to follow.

In the end, he did not go. Only his wife and his daughter went. Fir could not imagine that he would now regret that he didn't go on that trip.

Belthana is special even among the other planets.

In trillions of years past, the First Race, Eterna was annihilated by the Unholy Destroyer.

The Eterna race size was as big as a planet and that was the most smallest of them. Some of them was big as an entire galaxy.

They were the most powerful race in existence.

But when the Destroyer comes for them, they were powerless to resist. In one day, they were annihilated, every single one of them with no possibility of reviving.

But one survives. Borgan.

The last daughter of Eterna.

She hides from the Destroyer for trillion of years. When it was time for her to die, she transformed herself to a planet to atone for her sin towards the Creator.

Her eyes become the sun and the moon.

Her teeth become the mountains and hills. Her nose becomes the dividing line between the Distorted Seas and the Chaotic Lands.

The planet that she turned into was filled with the magic of Eterna race, of the force of the Universe.

For thousands of years after that, her body remains a deserted planet until the Seer'ans came.

The Seer'ans was running from the Frost Giants from the Asgardian system.

The Seer'ans was a race of no remarkable ability. They do not possess powerful bodies or magic. But they possess great mental endurance.

The First Oracle found the Heart of Borgan and was gifted the ability to see patterns.

Patterns that enables the Seer'ans to correctly predict what will happen in the future. Since then, the planet became the Seer'ans home world.

When the Intergalactic War happens about five thousand years ago, pitting the Jade Palace, Asgardian, Olympians, The Devas and Shuras, and the other powerful factions in the universe, Belthana was won by the Olympians.

The Three Sisters of Fate decided then to create their temple here as they slumber here, looking through the future.

As he was thinking this he finally he arrived in front of the gigantic door. The Temple is situated among a very large valley that could fit ten megapolis city

Fir Her Waz was not even spent. His body is after all the most powerful in Yrinia. He look at the Silver door and hesitated.

He doesn't know the etiquette to ask for help from the Three Sisters of Fate.

Is there any offerings he has to offers? As he was thinking this, suddenly a voice filled his mind.

'Offer us the Diamond of Avaloteskitara, the Demon of the Nine Netherworld and the door will open.'

Then suddenly a floating blue fire appears beside Fir Her Waz which shocked him as he moves a bit further from the fire.

Fir Her Waz at first hesitated. After all, the Diamond could strengthen any person by ten times.

But in the end, Fir Her Waz tossed the diamond into the blue fire and then almost immediately the blue fire consumed the diamond and then disappeared in a puff of smoke.

Fir Her Waz feels this is an unfair trade.

He doesn't know if asking a question will require another price. Just opening the door requires him to give such treasure.

As he was grumbling in his heart suddenly the sound of creaking filled the valley, as the 500 feet door is opening.

Then a voice sounded again.

'Welcome to the Temple of Fates, O last Son of Yrinia. We have been waiting. Come to us'

Then saying this the voice disappeared. A little freaked out but determined, Fir Her Waz moved forward as he enters the Temple of Fate

Chapter 117: Family

The dusk seems beautiful in this new world changed by the White explosion.

The breeze of the wind, the sound of the grass and leaves manage to create a picturesque scene like a painting of an Immortal enjoying life.

Azief was sitting on the wooden chair looking perplexed. His eyes are calm or as calm as he can be.

No use panicking now. It is a miscalculation on his part.

He was in front of the barrier with his leg crossed, a hundred men behind him all wearing battle armour ready to go into battle if he orders them.

Sitting on his left was Loki who is closing his eyes like he was contemplating something. On his right was Wang Jian standing beside him like an unmovable mountain.

A hundred meter in front of them is a fortress made by wood, and even now even as Azief stares at them from afar, they are still building.

But Azief could not do anything other than watch them built the fortress. And the people there also couldn't do anything other than watch Azief looking at them murderously.

Ten thousand people congregated around the fortress wary of Lord Shadow, bearing the pressure of death, waiting for Arrayist Master Lee Sangmin to come out of seclusion.

Then one of them was looking murderously at Azief. Azief was annoyed. His heart is already in fire after these few days.

'What you are looking at!' Azief said but his voice reverberated around the area making the air in front of him slightly waver and resonate all across the area.

Loki who was thinking of something was startled, while Wang Jian maintain his composure. The hundred men behind Azief was the one receiving the brunt as they had to cover their ears.

The wooden seat was cracked by the pressure of Azief voice. IF not for Azief essence encompassing the wooden chair, it would have exploded.

The man quickly lowers his gaze with fear but Azief was already angry. So, he made a grasping motion and the pebbles around him gravitate towards his fingers.

He was still sitting on the wooden chair, looking like a sovereign looking at his subject.

And then he flick one of the pebbles with his fingers and like a bullet the pebbles shot through the translucent barrier and hit the man.

'ARGH!' The man yelled as he collapsed.

The builders of that fortress congregate around the injured man looking both angry at Azief and shocked at the injury of the man.

Loki who was on Azief left just shakes his head as he look at Azief back.

The man arm was pierced by pebble making a hole in his arm. A healer quickly come to the man and began healing the injury.

Azief looking at the man injury snorted

'Tch!'

In the end the barrier diffuses his essence.

If the barrier did not diffuse the essence he embedded in the pebble, the man arms would have exploded into bits of flesh.

The horn was sounded as a man wearing a tiger armour quickly went to the site and look with dread at Azief.

Then he looks towards Loki and Loki shakes his head.

'Sorry, Anuta' Loki mouthed towards the man. The man then look at Wang Jian but Wang Jian was at the ready and his face was stoic.

If his liege asks him to march, he will march. If he ask to stop he will stop. Wang Jian owes a life debt towards Loki and has sworn fealty towards Azief.

Wang Jian is a peculiar character, hard to find in the world. He is loyal and honorable to the end.

That kind of virtues is oddly different then the virtues of the people around Azief.

'What!' Azief shouted as he looks towards Anuta

Anuta is a black man and he look at Azief with a sign of resignation. Then he began saying

'The Forest Alliance has been accommodating towards my Lord. We already negotiated the safety of your troops, Lord Shadow. And in show of good faith, we the Forest Alliance have even allowed the White Tiger, Wang Jian and even the Trickster to scour the Forest Region to their heart contents without interruption. I hope Lord Shadow could give the Lords of the Forest some respect.'

But Azief was not afraid a bit and he didn't intend to give some respect. It has already been three days, but there is no news about Sina yet.

His patience is wearing thin.

'Tell your men to lower their gaze. I don't like the way they look at me. It annoys me.' He said arrogantly and domineeringly.

Anuta also feel angry as he felt that he was being underestimated.

He was one of the Generals in the Forest Region and has quite the following with 5000 soldiers under his command.

His men are watching him yet Lord Shadow still wanted to humiliate him.

'This is not appropriate. I hope Lord Shadow can give me some form of apology' Anuta still try to gain some respect.

'You're not satisfied?' Azief asked.

'Then come on out from the barrier and fight me face to face.' Hearing this, the man gulped.

Inside his mind he wanted to curse the man who is stupid enough to provoke this Seed Forming expert.

After all, even he is just a Low Realm Energy Disperse Stage User. How could he fight a Seed Forming High Realm user?

He would be flattened to the ground in a matter of second. How would he dare to venture outside the barrier?

Then the man said

'It is fine then. In a way, my subordinates have his faults. I hope next time Lord Shadow could show some leniency. So we, the Forest Alliance will also be lenient with your troops. After all the Forest is dark and full of monsters. Deep and dark with twisting paths.'

'Is that a threat?' Azief ask his voice was full of murderous tone. Anuta did not say anything but walk away with a slight bow towards Azief.

'Tch' Azief snorted.

It has been three days since this stalemate began.

The first day began with him trying to use all means possible to break the barrier. He even summons the Sabers and use the Eternal Rings to no avail.

For the Sabers, it was not like the power is not enough, but more to the fact that the translucent barrier absorb its attack, like a thirsty man getting water in the desert.

When he uses the Rings Azief discovers that it distort the barrier but is incapable of breaking it.

Azief hypothesized that if he could master the Ten Eternal Rings he would be able to destroy the barrier which spoke the volume of the power of this barrier.

After all, the ring was used by a Demon King who manages to topple the Heavens and shatters Hell.

In the first day, he camp out of the barrier and was attacked by a hundred men from the Forest Region who travel outside the barrier.

All of them were Pillar Forming so Azief only uses a swish of his hand to pressure them to kneel and surrender.

By the first dawn of the second day, his army led by Wang Jian arrived with Sofia and Loki arriving after.

A hundred people manage to arrive because of Loki Teleportation Stone. Loki uses almost all of the Teleportation Stones in the Warehouse.

Considering that not everyone can rides Pegasus and fly like Azief, to reach the border of the Forest Region would take months and to those who is only Pillar Forming, that would take years.

After all the distance is no joke.

Azief who has mastery over flying of course could traverse through regions as fast as lightning but what about the others?

So, not all the forces of Eden is here.

So, when Wang Jian marches from the villages, Loki and Sofia catch up to them and use the Teleportation Stones to transport them to the border.

Teleportation Stones are scarce in material so Wang Jian could only bring a hundred of his troop.

The forest people as Azief termed the people of the Forest Region was made prisoner as Wang Jian quickly made a makeshift prison guarded by his troops.

Sofia also tries her best using every arsenal she had. Wang Jian even uses his Ruyi Jingu Bang and tries to shatter the barrier to no avail.

Loki on the other hand just observe the barrier and keep muttering 'Incomprehensible' and 'Impossible'.

He also mutters 'This is too early' though Azief don't know what he means.

It was also at the second day that the forest people no longer dares travels outside the barrier as they began station their troops on the edge border of the barrier while waiting for Lee Sangmin to offer explanation.

Arrayist Lee Sangmin was informed in his Array Tree in the middle of the Forest Region but seems to be stalling for time as he did not immediately come and just began to march to the edge on the third day.

But Azief did not give up his provocation to destroy the barrier even though the Commander of the Borderlands came and send envoys for negotiations and hopes Azief will wait for Lee Sangmin to come.

The second day, Azief flies all around the Forest Region searching for any passage into the Forest Region.

Azief discover that trying to enter from the top is as pointless as trying to enter from the front.

At the height of 7 story buildings the barrier will take effect as Azief realized he could not dive down and collide with the translucent barrier again.

It was also at the second day that Azief orders Wang Jian to lead fifty men to dismantle the fortress.

Wang Jian with his elite fifty men rampaged and destroyed the fortress and capture about a hundred men and wounded a hundred more.

But by evening, Wang Jian had to retreat because the reinforcement from the Anuta troops come.

Anuta is an Angolian warlord.

He works in the mines when he was child, her mother and father killed by the armed groups around there.

He got out.

And then he immigrated to America.

The way which he did this was not legal, but at the time, anything is better than being a child soldier.

He grows up and managed to become successful.

He then returns back to Angola, protesting the armed groups and begins a campaign of protection for the villages around the mines from the armed group violence.

Anuta was a good man in a world ruled by bad people.

It is no wonder when the whole world gone mad after the Fall, people flock to him, looking at him like a leader.

When the world falls apart, not everyone wanted to descend to madness with the world.

And Anuta was the prime example of this.

When the White Explosion happens his followers fortunately ended up in the same region as he is and he managed to unite back his organization and it became even stronger.

In the forest region Anuta organization has a vocal voice in determining the policy of the Forest Region.

Of course at the top of the forest region hierarchy stood the man that ensures the safety of the Forest Region.

Arrayist Master Lee Sangmin.

Anuta brought three thousand troops to push back Wang Jian army back to the barrier.

But the moment Wang Jian and his troop moves out from the barrier Anuta troops did not cross to capture Wang Jian troops.

That is because outside the barrier, even though three thousand troops sounds a lot, compared to one Seed Forming user, they were like an ethereal clouds, dissipated in one blow of the wind.

By the third day, Azief has formed his conclusion about the barrier.

First, no one above Energy Disperse Stage High Realm can enter.

Second, the barrier is shrouded with ancient laws.

Azief could sense it a bit.

Third, while Azief could throw stones and projectiles to the barrier without the projectiles rebounded back, Azief discovers that any energy attack or abilities he has that he employs will be absorbed by the barrier maybe because he is a Seed Forming and his attack possess the power of a Seed Forming entity.

Third, Azief is sure that this barrier is not Lee Sangmin abilities alone.

To maintain such defense even under the Ten Eternal Rings, Lee Sangmin must have uses external help.

Something more powerful than an artifact though Azief don't know what that is.

Fourth, Azief also hypothesize that even if he met Lee Sangmin today, even Lee Sangmin will not be able to give him permission to enter.

The Forest Region is like a closed off world, with its own Laws and Principles.

The purpose of the region and Azief bitterly smiles as he thought of this most probable explanation, was to train newbies.

Why does Azief reach such conclusion?

It is the perfect place for newbies to grow. Azief could even believe it if this was the construct of the World Orb.

Azief believe that any moment that a person reaches Seed Forming inside the forest region; they will be teleported out by the Laws and Principles inside the Barrier.

Not to mention, that Seed Forming was the dividing line between extraordinary and common.

Energy Disperse Stage while powerful, it focused on body refinement.

When a person steps to Seed Forming and Form their seeds, then that is the same as sowing seeds to understand Laws and Principles.

The Seed Bloom when Divine Comprehensions is reached.

When someone steps inside the Seed Forming, his energy would be truly like Immortals in stories of lore's of the Chinese people, or like magicians and wizard in European folklore.

Fantastical abilities, domineering strength all will be achieved in Seed Forming.

The Seed Forming paved the Road for Disk Formation. Disk Formation paved the Road for Divine Comprehensions.

Divine Comprehensions gives birth to Essence Creation.

If there is no region to protect newbies, what will stop some maniacal psycho to kill all low level users when they reach Seed Forming becoming a super predator that hunts lower beings?

By the third day, the forest people and Wang Jian troops have reached an understanding.

As long as the forest people don't interfere with Wang Jian troops searching for Sina in the forest region, Wang Jian will not attack the forest region.

The forest region is not afraid of Wang Jian meager troops but they do fear Azief. Nothing good ever come out of offending a Seed Forming User.

Wang Jian on his right side was receiving a report and went to his tent for a while before coming back and then he said to Azief.

'My lord there is still no news from the scout teams. In the last two days we have been searching around fifty meter radius. And then he hesitated to say but then Wang Jian said this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

'The safety of our troops in Eden is also not secure. I have reports that The Seven Fairy of the Plains is coming towards our village. I hope that my lo-'

But Azief cut off his words and ordered Wang Jian

'The forest region is wide. We need more men.' Wang Jian bitterly smiles and then he responds.

'Everybody is already mobilized, my lord.'

'We have to consider the-'

But then Azief held up his hand, his dark aura billowing and Immortal Presence wafted around him making the land where he sits on sunk in by one meter because of the pressure he emitted and Wang Jian stop speaking.

‘We are around a lot of hostile forces, Azief. And there are also the threats of the Seven Fairy. They are a group of powerful people. Their Seven killing Star formation is famed throughout the Plain that enables them to even fight Sasha to a standstill. And they brought with them an army of ten thousand people.’

Azief shakes his head as he disagree.

‘They won’t fight me so readily. At least not for a while. Is it easy to cross the Plains? With so much people, it is that numbers that will pose a threat to them.’

Loki stands up in anger and stomp his feet and the soil beneath his feet cracked and web like lines formed on the ground

‘You must know, this is meaningless. We can’t send 100 people to scour the entire forest region which is as big as a continent. It will take us years even with the use of artifacts. This is the work of a fool.’

Azief glares at Loki and Loki glares back.

‘Enough. We will find her.’ Azief decided

‘Any report from the scouts team?’ he ask Wang Jian

‘Nothing. They are already spread out all around the forest region. Wang Jian replies. Loki sighed again as he calms himself down and try to speak reason to Azief again.

(Remember, Wang Jian has 300 hundred troops with him. The four hundred people is the people Sofia and Loki found in their search and rescue operations. This three hundred troops is Wang Jian old unit that escape with him from Yue dynasty)

‘Azief, you should consider to pull some troops and send them back to the village to secure the villagers. Me and Sofia got three hundred people in the village and Wang Jian manages to bring back a hundred. That is four hundred people, not protected by anything other than some walls. Our two hundred troops are still marching here, to fulfill your order. It has been good enough that a hundred troop manages to come here the day you order them to march. But, what about the people in the village? Most of them are capable people, but even they could not withstand an attack of the Seven Fairy and ten thousand troops.’

‘No!’ Azief said gritting his teeth.

‘Keep all the soldier in search. I will not leave her behind.’ Sofia who was just back after her patrol was watching this scene from afar.

‘I’m just saying, Azief, committing the entire forces of our village to search for one wom-’

‘I SAID NO!’ And Azief got up from his wooden chair and at the same time the chair exploded into bits with Azief glaring at Loki like he wants to kill him.

The wind around him was compressed as it exploded and gales of sharp wind collide with the barrier and get absorbed while some of the other slices some rocks nearby him.

Loki swish away one of the gale slice with his bodily strength but he could his arm feel a little numb from deflecting the gale slice.

'We are going to find her, and we're going to bring her home! Loki, you were her friend.'

'Humph' Loki said shaking his head.

'Yes, but I won't risk the lives of hundreds of people for one person' he said it in a whisper as he turns invisible and walk away from the scene.

Sofia ran to Azief and was standing beside him as she holds Azief hand, trying to calm him down

'Calm down Azief.'

Azief look at the forest region with eyes full of regret.

'We need more eyes.'

Sofia also looks at the forest region and sighs. She can enter and most of the time she acts a deterrent for other troops in the forest region.

Since she is not Seed Forming she can enter and her strength itself is formidable but she knows she is not invincible.

If she was ambushed by a troop, she would fall. The true deterrent is Azief who possesses the power of a Seed Forming.

After all, one day, even the people inside this forest region has to come out.

And if they have to face the wrath of a Seed Forming expert the moment they came out, nobody likes to imagine the outcome.

But she already gone in the morning and just got back. She searches from the other part of the Forest Region while Loki also looks yesterday for 48 hours without sleep.

But....even she knows that Azief is being irrational. So, cautiously, she ask

'More eyes? Where we going to get them, Azief?'

Azief sighs and then with determination he said

'Recruit the villagers. I will order Loki to go to the village and recruit people to become soldiers. Maybe there is a unique class of tracker in the batch of people you found.'

'No' Sofia said this time as she looks straight at Azief eyes.

'We already use all our force to search for Sina. I know you are what are feeling. I feel it too. But if all of your soldiers are fucking around here, when the Seven Fairy come calling, we're dead meat. I fought them once. They are not to be underestimated. If you're not there, then that village will turn to ashes if they decide to attack.'

There is also the reason that the new villagers might not appreciate to be force drafted into Azief personal army but Sofia didn't mention this.

But Azief is not Azief if he is not stubborn

'No, there is no certainty that the Seven Fairy would attack my village. Maybe there is other reason that forced them to march.'

Sofia shakes her head with a look of pity.

'Don't do this. Sina would be the first one to tell you not to do this.' Azief look deep into Sofia eyes and he slowly shakes his head.

'Leave her behind?! Are you asking me to do that now?' Sofia slowly moves her hand and touch Azief cheek as Azief becomes a bit startled.

Her touch was gentle and was full of compassion. Then she said, with a heavy tone

'We left many people behind before. In our city Azief, tell me how many survives? How many people we've seen then and leave behind? How many friends we've lost? Sina is not just my friend, Azief! She's almost like a sister to me. So...You are way out of line!' She yelled and her eyes were full of tears now.

Then she comes closer to Azief, one step forward as Azief take a step backwards, pressured by Sofia words.

And she was not done.

'But, you, you, in your hands right now, the lives of hundreds of people. Hundreds of lives depend on you. They pledge loyalty to you. Both of us are way too close to this because she's our friend. We....lost perspectives. But...'and she look behind her and look at the weary faces of Wang Jian troops and the uncertainty in their eyes, their tired bodies and she sigh.

Azief push away Sofia hand from his cheek as he walk away from the scene as night began to come and Sofia follows him from behind.

Wang Jian was already preparing for another scout team to enter the forest region but it is clear he doesn't like this order at all.

The injured troops which had to fight monsters are being treated by Healers class. And now, Wang Jian had to send his brothers again to the Forest, to risk the lives of his brother again.

'You know I'm right' She said as she herself was feeling bad even uttering the words. She feels heartache and pain.

Because, it almost seems like she wanted to give up on Sina.

But she has her reason for saying all of this. She knows that the only one who can stop the Seven Fairy all-out attack on Azief village is Azief himself.

As a Seed Forming fighting the Seven Fairy will not be that hard to Azief even if the Seven Fairy employed the Seven Killing Star Formation.

But it was the ten thousand troops that the Seven Fairy possesses that frightens both Loki and Wang Jian and Sofia understand that.

And Sofia knows Azief also understand this. What baffles Sofia, was that this time, Azief seems to be ruled by his emotion instead of his cold logic.

Even though ten thousand Pillar Forming High Realm users will not pose any difficulties how about a ten thousand Orb Condensing soldiers?

Even though Azief can fight the Seven Fairy, Sofia knows that to contain the ten thousand soldiers from wrecking Eden, it needs the village full fighting force which includes Wang Jian and his troops.

And Sofia has decided that if Azief returns she will stay here, looking for Sina.

But Sofia knows that Azief will not agree with this so she has to persuade him to return while she will secretly remain here.

Loki will surely help.

After all, from what Sofia knows of Loki, he would do anything to make sure Azief survives.

Though, why he would have such determination has always been a big puzzle in Sofia mind.

Then she said looking at his back, as Azief keep walking around the perimeter of the barrier looking absentmindedly at the large forest that reaches the skies.

‘We have left people behind before Azief. You know this. So, what’s different this time?’

Azief even without turning back his face to look at Sofia replies in harsh tones.

‘Not this time.’

‘You have always looked at the big picture Azief. Always.’ And Azief slows his pace of walking and replies

‘Not this time! There is still a lot of option to rescue her. I know that Sasha is planning to use Sina to buy her ticket to the World Government.’

‘Then we can wait her to come out. Any number of troops can be stationed here to wait for her to get out. We can also negotiate with the Lords of the Forest’

‘You don’t think I’ve thought of that? The question is.....Will she?’ And then he turned back and pointed his finger at the barrier.

‘If she could remain safe inside there why would she come out? I know too little about this new world. I didn’t know that there existed such barrier before. Even Loki knows. Even you know. If I know that there exist such barriers, I would put it inside my calculations. And you are talking about the invasion of our village like the Seven Fairy has already declared war! Nobody even knows what they are thinking. Maybe, they did not intend to invade.’

‘Prepare for the unexpected. That is what you say to me one night. Maybe they aren’t coming for the village, but maybe they did.’

Sofia moves forward and holds Azief hand and look at him.

With the sound of the wind and the light of the moon, she look at him with teary eyes and she said sincerely with all of her heart.

'I'm in pain too. I know you feel regret. You never liked when you are proven wrong. I know you are in pain. But you have to consider that maybe, Sasha would find Sina burden and already dispose of her.'

Sofia said, trying to be the kind of leader Azief used to be. The normal Azief. The man who uses cold hard logic to plan and anticipate the threat

'Then, I need to see her body! I will make sure of it myself. I refuse to believe she is dead.'

'We are putting lives at risk here. Every day we stay here, there is a risk for conflict to erupt with the Forest Alliance. There are also monsters that roam inside the forest. We are lucky enough that there is yet any casualty, but for how long could we be this lucky?'

'We are not giving up on her and that is final!' He said as he pushes away Sofia hands away from him.

'Tell me why!' Sofia shouted as she grabs Azief hand and they look at each other eyes and in whispers Azief said.

'Because....she is family. And she suffers because of my mistake. She...was family. You do whatever you have to do.'

'But you have to leave. Stop being stubborn. You know that right?' Sofia said. Azief closes his eyes and then nodded in resignation.

'Yes. I'll give the order tomorrow. You're right. I'm just stubborn. I'll handle the Seven Fairy and then I'll return back.

But they both know, that to return again would decrease the possibility for Sina to survive in the Forest Region.

And there must be some opportunistic bastards inside the forest region that will try to make Sina a bargaining chip if she were to be found by the Lords of the Forest.

Azief is not naive enough to think that the Lords of the Forest are not using covert method to search for Sina and use her.

But before Azief could go, Sofia wanted to ask something else.

Sofia gritted her teeth and then in her anxiousness she asks, half hoping.

'And if it was me there instead?' She asks, looking straight at Azief eyes.

Azief slightly shakes his head a bit and he said with a hurt tone.

'You don't have to ask that.'

'That's not good enough. No, I want to know.' She tightens her grip unconsciously. Then Azief moves a step forward, looking deep inside her eyes and he sighed.

'Do you really have to ask that? If it were you....if it were you Sofia, I never leave' and Sofia hold slowly loosened as Azief walk away.

Sofia looks at his back and a tear drops from her cheek. She then looks at the moon trying to contain her feelings and sighs as she walks in a different direction.

Chapter 118: The heavy price

MEANWHILE

PLANET BELTHANA

The moment Fir enter the Temple he could see the Devotees of the Moirai.

The atmosphere around tem is somber and stern as each step is marked by profound energy.

They did not speak and their face is covered by golden veil. Their hand wears some kind of golden glove that covers their hand.

In the center of the first floor was a Golden Spindle. Fir look up and he could see thousands of doors and halls.

Then one of the Devotees who seem to rule the first floor comes towards him.

The odd thing was when this Devotee comes towards him, Fir realized that the woman was floating, like a feather being blown by the wind.

In her hand is a red goblet.

When she arrives in front of Fir Her Waz, the woman kneeled and then she presented the goblet to Fir Her Waz.

Fir was puzzled. He looks left and right at the other Devotees to get some hint but they are silent.

The goblet then suddenly was filled with black liquid to the brim.

Then a hoarse voice sounded from the woman who kneels.

'Drink, O Last Son of Yrinia. Drink and meet the Fates.' Fir Her Waz quickly understand and he took the goblet and drink the liquid.

The black liquid feel squishy in his throats and slowly Fir Her Waz feels dizzy.

What is in that thing? he thought to himself. Then the woman who kneels takes his hand and slowly she floats and he was floating too.

From what Fir could remember, he felt his bone became limbless.

He sees countless worlds, and imagines threads and see patterns as images blurred right in front of his eyes.

He could not tell the time whether it was long or short when suddenly he found himself kneeling in front Three Thrones made of golden stars.

It was the main hall of the Temple of Fates.

And in front of him was the Three Fates, sitting on their thrones, with twenty feet height, looking at him like he was some kind of smaller being.

He looks left and right and his behind.

He no longer sees the Devotees who brought him here and the environment and the scenery here is different from the first floor of the temple.

It is full of energy, chaotic or otherwise.

He looks around and he could not hide his shock and awe.

Beneath his knees are the stars, behind him he could see pulsating nexus of galaxies as countless planetary system revolves around their orbits.

When he looks upwards he could see the Eight Realms in a convergence. It was like he was kneeling on a sea of stars.

The Heavens, the skies of stars, countless of galaxies are all there for him to peruse.

Behind the Thrones of the Three Fates was moving scenery of bloodshed, war, carnage, a story of death and destruction filled the moving images.

And if you focused enough to see deep inside the images, one could hear the screams, the shrieks, the shouts and the lamentations.

But there is also other scenery.

One of the scenery shows rebirth, boundless life, the growth of plants and planets, formation of galaxies, of peoples and species, of things thriving while one of scenery shows emptiness, void and nothingness that devour the universes like an unstoppable plague.

It takes Fir a few moments to calm himself down and when he is calm enough, he prostrate himself and said

‘Warrior Fir Her Waz is beyond honored to be in the presence of the Three Lady of Fates.’

‘We have been waiting. Rise, child so we may look at your fate.’

Slowly, Fir Her Waz lifts up his face and look at the Fates who were talking. The Fates that looks towards Fir, nodded.

It was the oldest of the Three, Lady Atropos.

She sat in the center as she was the oldest; her body emits boundless energy, of something that is sacred and inviolable.

It was said once that one of the Frost Giants from the Eight Realms, Vonodur calls her true name, Aisa before being cursed by her other Two sisters and fall into oblivion.

So, Fir Her Waz is very cautious not to offend the Three Fates.

Lady Atropos face was stern and somber. Beneath her throne was her golden shears shining like the sun in the sky.

Her expression was always the same. Expressionless. Stoic. It almost like she would never smiles.

She sit charismatically on the throne with red dress as red as blood.

The throne itself was twenty feet high. The Three Fates has already shrunk themselves to a presentable size to meet him.

The Three Sister is the Daughters of the Night.

Behind her throne was the scenery of death, and her shears cutting the life of warriors, kings, killers, saints, children and the elderly, for death is equal to all.

The executors of Destiny and fates in Olympus much like the Norns in the Eight Realms. Then one of the Fates speak

'Speak, child. Tell us what you want to know. You have been given a tough lot to deal with. It is a pity. For you to be the only survivor of such a grand civilization, what a tragedy. Yet, the Destroyer fate is not controlled by us, or the Norns. The Destroyer is a calamity, a disaster none can evade. Only the Creator could stop him. But each to his own quest. Pursuing this, your thread of life will be shortened.'

It was Lady Lachesis that spoke and looks at Fir Her Waz with a little pity in her eyes.

She was clothed in white light, luminous like the color of the sun before dawn is breaking.

Behind her, the scenery of life well lived can be seen.

On his right hand was a rod. There is also the image of many kinds of life forms, humans, animals, other races, like a selection of lives.

Fir knows that the Three Fates has already known what he was about to ask, but he also knows that the Three Fates wanted him to choose.

Asking for a glimpse to the future will as Lady Lachesis so aptly describe, shortened his life thread which means there is a price to be paid.

Every magic has a price.

And this particular price is his longevity, his time on this universe and his soul will go to the Three Fates when he dies and will not join the Oasis Everlasting of his Gods.

He will be sent to Lord Hades of Olympus and not Lord Cexoan of Yrinia, The God of Death of his planet.

'I wish to know the All Source location, My Lady. I hope my lady could fulfill this lowly wish'

One of the Fates shakes her head.

'A pity. A pity. Are you sure child? The All Source is the most powerful energy in the universe. The Price.....will be steep'

It was Lady Clotho who speaks the youngest of the Fates. Behind her is the scene of void forming and dissipating.

Looking farther behind the void is moving scenery of a lady Aphrodite making love with multiple Olympians, the scene of Titan Lord Typhon death, Lord Zeus hurling his lightning to a mortal and a war in which the Lady helped the Olympians.

Her hair reached her hips and her clothes is golden light. Her face is beautiful and youthful with vibrancy of life.

In her hands is a ball of golden thread.

'I am sure, my Lady.' He replied

The Three Fates close their eyes and nodded. Then they open their eyes and in unison they made a grasping motion as invisible golden threads appears from Fir body and was curling itself to the three Fates artifacts.

Then three voices melded into one as it echoes in the room, revealing prophecies and information.

'Now, your destiny, life and death belong to us, last Son of Yrinia. This is the price. The thing you seek is on Earth. That damned little planet meant to insult all creations for they, humans, were the favoured child of the Creator. They destroy and spread carnage and destruction, yet the Creator favoured them above all others. The All Source has gifted the humans with the Dao of the Jade palace, the mastery of Runes of Asgardian, the Eternal Armaments crafting of the Olympians and many other abilities, for it is the All Source and it is capable of anything.' And as the Three Fates said this an image of an orb embedded itself inside Fir Her Waz mind.

The Three Fates continues to speak of his prophecies.

'The moment you enter Earth, you will face great dangers. Beware of a shadow that wields Ten Rings, five in each finger for he will be your doom.'

And an image of a man clouded in shadow and aura of death, with ten rings on his fingers appears inside his mind.

The man shrouded by the shadows seems to possess powers to overturn the heavens and the stars.

His steps ripples realities and his swish of his sleeve dim the stars. Even as this image burned itself inside Fir Her Waz mind, the Three Fates keep talking.

'This is what we Three Fates could tell you. If you succeed in your quest, your world will be revived and our Threads will shatter for the All Source reject Death. If you fail, then your soul is ours for eternity. No longer will your soul be transported to the Oasis Everlasting of Cexoan, but rest in peace, in the Blessed Isle for that will be your reward for your kind and honorable deeds. Now, go and set forth. May the Gods of Olympus be with you'

And saying this, the Three Fates simultaneously waves their hand and Fir was teleported in front of his spaceship.

Fir Her Waz could still see the faint trace of the golden threads from his body before it fades from his visions.

He is now linked towards the Three Fates.

Fir Her Waz bowed in respect towards the direction of the Temple Of Fates.

He then enters his spaceships and flies to his mothership in a matter of hours.

He drinks a bit of Guirtna juice before inputting a new coordinate on his main interface of his mothership.

Next destination he said and he look at the sea of stars in front of him.

Earth.

MEANWHILE ON EARTH

It was late at night when Loki appears in front of Azief. This time he appears as a boyish young man with slender body, almost resembling a woman.

Loki likes to change his appearance every day like it was his habit but Azief could sense his energy.

Other than Loki and Sofia, who else have an Energy Disperse Stage power level n his camp?

Azief was sitting around some logs, in front of a fire pit, contemplating on his decision and reflecting on his irrational behavior these past few days.

He looks at Loki with a slight twinge of annoyance and resignation.

Loki sighs

‘I came to talk.’

‘The decision to stop searching for her depends on me. If not for Sofia, I will not stop the search. After we’re finished with the Seven Fairy, I’m coming back with a larger army’

Azief said before Loki could even talk.

‘Cut the crap Azief. You’re going to risk more people lives because of your matter? This is personal. You said to the troops that we need Sina because of her abilities to make potions and pills and that is a reasonable excuse. If the Seven Fairy did not march to the village, even I will not order you to stop the search. But, without you, Eden will fall. It would be best for you not to underestimate the Seven Fairy. You might be a Seed Forming user but you still have not formed any Seed. Your troops already suffer injuries from monsters inside the forest region. You can’t let go of her because this is your mistake. It’s your mistake that lands her inside that forest and you’re too proud to accept that.’

‘Don’t start with me Loki!’ He shouted his tone raised in anger. But Loki is not backing down.

'You lost perspective. I'm sad too you know. You're not the only one who wanted to search for her. I spend a year with that woman. I know her better than you, you prick.' Loki said as he also began feeling angry

'You think I don't care about her at all? But you're putting the lives of the people who trusted you at risk and you're exposing the village you created, to a possible attack by a powerful force in the plains. There are hundreds of people there in the village.'

Loki said as he moved closer to Azief, his voice raised at each step.

But he continues speaking even when Azief is glaring at him.

'Not all of them are warriors. I don't know the Seven Fairy way of treating prisoners. Maybe they will treat them better or maybe the Seven Fairy is maniacs. I don't know. But those people agreed to come to the village you created because I offer them a promise. A promise of protection by a Seed Forming High realm user. I promise them what you promise Wang Jian. The longer you stay here committing our entire force to search for Sina, you exposing the people at the village the risk of being attacked.' He said and then he arrived in front of Azief.

Then he slowly sits down on the logs opposite from Azief, looking at his face separated by the fire pit in the center.

Then he said

'Almost one third of the supplies have been used to finance this search and rescue operations. What will you do when it is run out? Will you fly back to the village and take the supplies inside the warehouse? Until when? Will you stand guard over this border for years? After all you cannot enter. Will you send hundreds of men here after you managed to rid of the Seven Fairy thus risking their lives to find her? Their lives are not important? Their lives have no values? That is unacceptable.'

He ended with a sigh as his piercing glance seems to prick Azief conscience.

'Hmph.' Azief snorted.

'Whatever it is you feel about this, it's my decision.

'Alright. It's your troops, your territory, your people. Fine. And you? You're their leader. You are an honorable man. And you are perfectly aware that you putting the lives of this people at risk because of your personal feelings. Now, if you can live with that.....then I'm out.'

Azief look at Loki and gritted his teeth and glares at him but he doesn't say anything.

'I hope you think about it, Azief. I'm going to go to sleep.' And Loki began standing up as he was about to go but then Azief said

'Wait.' And Loki turned back and look at Azief expression. It was an expression of resignation.

'I have actually talked about this with Sofia.'

'And?' Loki asks. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

Azief sigh first then he said

'I will terminate search operations tomorrow. We're going home.'

'And Sina?' Loki asks again. Azief closes his eyes and he said

'I'll think of a way. After I finished with the Seven Fairy, I'll think of a way.'

Loki nodded

'As long as that way will not harm innocent lives, then I'm in.'

'Loki, tell Wang Jian to prepare the troops tomorrow after I meet Lee Sangmin. We're leaving. Wang Jian will resume his duties as the General of the Army and you as my advisor.'

'Why don't you tell him yourself?'

'Hmph' Azief sighed regretfully.

'I'm too ashamed to meet him. I know I was risking the lives of his brother, but I didn't care as long as I could convince myself that I could found Sina. I actually know that Sasha would not be so easily found.'

The wooden stick in the fire pit crackles as the heat keeps the cold away in this night. The wind blows peacefully.

'I know, Sasha could have killed her if she found Sina to be a burden. There is a hundred of ways, where Sina could have already perished. You, me, Sofia knows that Sina has weak physique as she is a unique class production. She is not suited for battle but suited for support. I know all this but I couldn't accept it. Is it ego? Is it guilt? Truthfully, I don't know.'

He confessed. Then he looks at Loki and said

'For you it has been a year in this world. But what I experienced in the Universe Orb, the journey I have travelled...I rarely fails and rarely was I wrong. I even think of myself as invincible. I treated Sasha like she was underserving of my full power. If I didn't give her a chance from the beginning, she would have never managed to abduct Sina. I was too confident of myself.'

And the things that Azief did not say are that he views Loki and Sina as his closest friends.

Maybe because they endured hardship and experience life and death experience together, or maybe because of his experience in the Otherworlds where kindness is hard to found, that he found it comfortable to be around Loki and Sina.

'So.....what now?' Loki ask

'I'll have to deal with it' Azief said.

'Good.' Loki said

And Loki got up and move to his tent while Azief was left contemplating on his decision that night.

While Azief was thinking of a solution, the Seven Fairy is marching steadily with ten thousand people, already reaching halfway to Eden.

In the World Government, a sign of a coup d'état by Raymond can be seen as he dismiss the independent tribunal and surround the Quorum courthouse with his troops.

In the Ice Region, Katarina finally manages to reach Energy Disperse Stage High Realm after fighting with the Yellow Eyed Yeti which sacrifices about five thousand troops.

She is now undergoing seclusion as she is recuperating from the poison of the Yellow Eyed yeti claws.

Meanwhile somewhere in the Forest Region, Arrayist Lee Sangmin was smiling in joy in front of a cave as he discovers two people.

One of the people he found was incapacitated and hardly breathes while the other has injuries all over her body.

He swishes his hand and an array lighted up the cave as lights from the barrier shine down on the cave and teleported Lee Sangmin and the two people thousands of miles away from the cave to the edge of the forest region border.

The moment he was teleported, Lee Sangmin ordered the two people to be healed inside the fortress.

Lee Sangmin went up to the half-finished battlements and peer to the distance as he could see the camp of the troops of Lord Shadow and he smiles as he whispers.

'I have a present for you, Lord Shadow. '

As he said this he turned back and went to his prepared rooms as he is overjoyed by his discoveries and the solution to his problem.

While all of this happening on Earth, somewhere in the vast galaxy, a planet was being decayed by a ten feet monster, with black like obsidian spikes all over its body.

The Annihilator has managed to rot another planet to its extinction.

The Intergalactic Alliance no longer manages to keep the news from spreading out in the galaxy as many of the planets has learned that the Annihilator has escaped the Negative Zone.

Many planetary systems have begun sending a petition to the Intergalactic Alliance to impeach the leaders of Olympus, Jade Palace, the Amenthes and Sekhet Hetepet for their dereliction of duties in keeping the Annihilator in captivity.

The Destroyer keep floating in the dark space as his body rushing through planets, stars and sun, as it devours everything into darkness.

Setting off from the stars of Belthana is a warrior from Yrinia determines to seek the All Source.

A great storm is coming to earth.

Chapter 119: The approaching fairy

It was the morning. Dawn to be exact. The sun just began showing its face. The dew of the morning drips steadily from the tip of the leaves.

The rooster crows from inside the forest region. Azief open his eyes. On his body is a blue blanket.

He smiles a bit. He knows that Sofia is the one who cover him with the blanket.

He was sleeping by leaning on a huge tree instead of returning to his tent.

He did not sleep because he needed to sleep but because he wanted to just close his eyes and forget for a bit.

Opening his eyes, he remembers again.

He steels his heart and got up. His long hair was swaying as the winds of the plains pass by. His face shows no fatigue but his heart is in pain.

He did not even wash his face yet his face was as flawless as before. They are some perks when leveling up. Azief have no impurities in his body or bones making him almost like a sacred being.

Not far away from Azief, was the sound of the troops packing their bags.

The troop is ready as each and every one was on the standby as they wait for orders. To ride home.

‘All the troops are accounted for, my lord’ as one of the officers reported to Azief when Azief arrived at the open space where the troops are waiting

Azief look at Wang Jian troops and he smiles weakly

Some are eager to start the journey home. It will take them months to ride out from here, the edge of the Plains to their village again.

Wang Jian has already sent sound transmission to the 200 hundred approaching troops from Eden to turn back and protect the village.

It is fortunate that the 200 troops did not yet travel far.

(Remember, Wang Jian has three hundred troops. 100 was teleported with Teleportation stones by Loki and Sofia while the other 200 hundred rides the plains)

Azief have no problem as he could fly.

He even wanted to fly and deal with the Seven Fairy alone but he was reminded of the ten thousand troops that they possess.

From what Loki told him the Seven Fairy can fight Sasha to a standstill but that was before. The Seven Fairy might have improved since then.

Even though Azief is confident he can defeat the Seven Fairy, could he defeat the Seven Fairy while ten thousand people were attacking him simultaneously?

Who’s to say, that among the ten thousand people, some of them may wield unusual abilities?

Azief is done underestimating his enemies. Sasha will be his reminder.

Wang Jian then came towards Azief.

'My lord the troops are ready. Give your order and we will start riding home.'

Azief look at his troop and nodded.

'General Wang Jian, order the troops to move out first. I will wait for Arrayist Lee Sangmin to negotiate for something. Sofia will be going home with me. We will meet at the village. Loki will accompany you in the journey.'

Loki who was just coming down from the hill was shocked to hear this but he smiles bitterly.

Azief might have accepted his proposition but that doesn't mean he likes it, especially being order by Loki.

In a way, this serves as his punishment.

Well, in a way, this is also one of the characteristic of the Prince.

Egotistic and arrogant.

'The Pegasus?' Wang Jian inquires.

'The Pegasus will still be Loki but he is to accompany you home.'

What Azief means is that Loki must not think to fly the Pegasus and instead accompany Wang Jian in his journey.

After all, two Energy Disperse Realm experts is a guarantee that the hundred troops will be safe in their journey home.

'I accept your order, my lord.' this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

Then Wang Jian move back to his position in the lead of the troops as he jump to his Fire Horse and he yelled his voice reverberated in the area.

'We will start moving. Men, we are going home!' he said as he pointed his staff to the sky.

The other soldiers cheered, whistles and patting each other the back as they began riding towards home.

Sofia smiles looking at this and he waves his hand until the last silhouette no longer could be seen from the distance.

'Now what?' Sofia said as she asks Azief.

'Now, we wait for Lee Sangmin to come'

It was an hour before someone from the fortress announces the arrival of Lee Sangmin with much fanfare.

A thousand troops take their station around the edge border of the barrier, looking at Azief warily.

Sometimes, Sofia flashes a rude derogatory sign with her fingers like goading them to come outside.

Anuta self-control is impressive to say the least. His face was red, but he sure does know when the circumstance does not favour him.

So, even though Sofia was acting like an asshole, he just keeps his calm.

There is also the towering monstrous existence of Azief that prevent him from having any funny ideas.

Even though Azief himself could not enter the barrier because of his level restriction, from what Anuta learn from the released prisoner, one swish of his hand manages to pressure them to submission.

They also describe feeling their Pillars cracking, their Orb almost shattered, and their fear overwhelmed them, like they were face to face with a being so outside their comprehension that render them useless.

One of the officers then come in front of the assembled troops and with his voice, he announce the arrival of Lee Sangmin.

‘Announcing the arrival of The Arrayist Master, the High Lord of the Lords of the Forest, from the Central Forest Region, High Lord Lee Sangmin’

A carriage then was brought out from the fortress, with the carriage itself emitting an ancient aura, as arrays upon arrays was carved up on its doors and windows.

The carriage is being hold up by ten golden gilded men. No, Azief mused as he looked closer.

Human puppet with arrays embedded on their head and chest.

‘There is also a Puppeteer inside the Forest Region’ Azief thought to himself.

Azief did tangle with a few puppeteers before and Azief could not say the experience was a pleasant one.

They are not strong in direct combat but they are as slippery as a loach.

It seems that Lee Sangmin might have used other people Human puppet and embedded arrays inside them to make it under his control.

The arrays seem to give this mindless human puppet some trace of independent thoughts.

The carriage then stopped and was put down just a few meters from the barriers as a man slowly steps out from the carriage.

Coming out from the carriage is a man with slender and lanky physique, his head has some crown made by some unidentified metal, his hair was straight and short.

His face was white pale and he was holding onto a rod carved with weird symbols.

The man then smiles as he bows a little towards Azief.

‘I have long heard of the Lord Shadow prowess. I have never thought I could meet such expert here. I always never care about anything outside the Forest Region and did not know outside matters. My subordinates inform me about the matters and because of my late response, it has inconvenience Lord Shadow.'

Azief on the other hand did not have time to trade pleasantries with him and he was already and enough that he couldn't find any trace of Sina so he just said.

'Let's cut to the chase, shall we? I will station my troops here after I handle my matters. I warn your people not to capture Sina or harm her. If you harm even one hair from her, I don't know how, and I don't know when, but someday, somehow, I will come here again and I will break this barrier and I will exact my wrath like a punishment from heaven.'

Azief did not mince words or trade any greeting. He quickly seizes the opportunity to warn the Forest Region.

From the first word to the last, it was filled with orders.

Considering his strength he has the qualification to boast like this.

However, hearing this kind of provocation, Lee Sangmin did not turn angry or even a shade of flustered expression.

Instead he laughs.

'Why are you laughing? You don't believe he is capable?' Sofia asks as she could feel this Lee Sangmin does not feel even fear from Azief threats.

Even Anuta at the back is flushed red in anger.

'Oh, no, no. Don't misunderstand me. I do fear Lord Shadow. I just think that Lady Sofia and my lord will not have any reason to come here again.'

Hearing this Azief is puzzled.

'And why is that?'

Lee Sangmin then look behind him and then he ordered his human puppet

'Bring them out from the carriage.'

Then the puppets enter the carriage and then bring out two people from the carriage, each one on its shoulder.

Sofia looking at the two people could not help but feel shocked and happy as tears of happiness pour down from her eyes.

Azief was also overjoyed. There is a slight smile on his face

Slowly the puppet brings the person to Lee Sangmin and Lee Sangmin orders his puppets to bring the woman outside the barrier.

Then the puppets slowly step out of the barrier and put both of the women down in front of Azief like an offering.

'Return' Lee Sangmin ordered.

Then as the puppet return, Lee Sangmin still smiling then said as he open his arm wide and pointed to the girl and he said

'This is my gift to you, Lord Shadow. The Genius Alchemist and Nightingale Sasha. The only thing I would ask of you is that you will never again involve the Forest Region with your enmity. Nor, will you threaten the people of the forest. The people of the forest, the highest of them are only Energy Disperse Stage High realm. They are not your match. It would be bullying and it is beneath you. As an expert of the generation, Lord Shadow should not be so petty.'

However, Azief no longer heard what Lee Sangmin said and already rush to Sina.

As he scans her with his eyes, he could see that most of her external wound was healed. On her chest is an array.

Azief look towards Lee Sangmin and he said

'Release the binding array!'

Lee Sangmin nodded

'Release!' He said and as he said this the array on Sina chest and Sasha chest glows and faded away.

Then slowly Sina opens her eyes.

'You're ok?' Sofia asks as she was already kneeling beside Sina body.

Sina takes a while to register what is happening and then she smiles. She looks at Sofia and Azief and she knows she is safe. Sofia hugged her then she said

'I'm banged up, but I'll be better in a few hours.' Then she looks at Azief and she said

'Build back my alchemy lab ok? I need to finish my experiment'

And Azief hearing this laugh unrestrained. Laughing with tears in his eyes.

'I'll build a hundred lab if you want' he said as he hugs Sina.

Then as quickly as he hugs Sina he pushes her back.

'My God, you smell like urine.'

'There is a funny story about this. Come on, stop gawking and bring me home. I need a bath. A long relaxing bath.' she said and Sofia and Azief both laugh at the same time.

Azief then look towards Lee Sangmin and then he nodded.

'I, Lord Shadow will not forget this. I owe you this one'

Lee Sangmin bow a bit and then he said

'Then, one day I will come to collect.'

Then he turns back and he orders the troops in the forest with his loud voice, reverberating around the area

'I'm going home. Reduce the troops stationed here as Lord Hamad needs some of the troops to fight with the Demon Ape in the Western Forest.'

Then Lee Sangmin shows a green command medallion and a scroll parchment and then he read the sentence written on the parchment.

'By the decree of the Lords of the Forest, General Anuta is to lead the Western Forest Troops to contain the Demon Ape. General Anuta, receive the decree'

Anuta then come in front, kneel and accept the decree.

'This lowly one has received the decree and will quickly march.'

Then Anuta began retreating with two thousand troops, while another thousand is left on this edge of the border.

Lee Sangmin is about to enter his carriage when Azief suddenly ask.

'Lee Sangmin. You.....did you see it?' And Lee Sangmin steps halted. He

He then turn back to look at Azief who was on the outside of the barrier, separated by a translucent barrier and then he ask.

'See what?'

'The World Orb.' Azief spoke almost indignantly as he said World Orb

Lee Sangmin smiles bitterly and with a look of reminiscence he said

'I did'

'Then this barrier....is it its construct?' Lee Sangmin looks at the sky and nodded.

'Everything has its purpose. Since, my lord asks this then my lord must have guessed the purpose of this barrier.'

Azief also look at the sky and he nodded

'Then, there is nothing else to be said. I just hope that Lord Shadow will no longer involve your battles or matters with the Forest Region'

'Of what, Lord Shadow?'

'That I will never see you outside this barrier. This barrier prevents me from going inside, but it prevents you from going outside. Your life is bound to it.....a pity. I could feel it. The aura of this barrier is the same as your aura. A bird cage. Is this the price you pay?'

Lee Sangmin smiles bitterly

'Every magic has a price.' Azief nodded in agreement. In this matter, Azief has always known.

Great magic requires a steep price.

Then Azief said, his tone a bit gentler and full of compassion and one could even sense a trace of pity inside his voice when he talks to Lee Sangmin

'For this goodwill you have shown me, and your dedication to help humanity, I, Lord Shadow will respect you. I will not meddle in your forest region matters as long as you forest people do not meddle with the other regions. I give you my word.'

Lee Sangmin laughs.

'That is all I need. Thank you' and saying this he enter his carriage and with his entourage he moves away from the border line as Azief look at the weak Sasha.

His eyes look at her menacingly and his knuckles crack as energy inside his body surged up, and the wind around him disperse away.

His aura rises up as the air around him turns suffocating

The woman has already opened its eyes but she look weak, feeble, and Azief could feel the woman is just a Pillar Forming High realm now.

Sasha looks at Azief with a face of resignation. Azief look at her and each moment that passed, his heart become more stoked with anger.

With one grip of his hand, he could manipulate His Immortal Presence and choke the life out of Sasha.

With one stomp of his feet, he could shatter her every bones. With one punch, he could end her life as easily as snuffing out a candle.

As he looks at Sasha, his killing intent rises.

Azief does not like leaving a root of problem behind.

Azief was about to strike her down when suddenly Sina shouted

'NO!' and she manages to shield Sasha body with her own so Azief quickly stop his hand else he would crush Sina to pieces of meat.

The wind parted and the wind gales pass by Sina face as the ground behind her get sliced into two and soils rises up in an explosion.

Her cheeks got scratched and blood slowly drips down from her cheeks.

'Sina, what are you doing?!' Azief shouted in shock as Sina looks at the weak Sasha, lying on the ground gasping for air and then she looks back at Azief and said to him,

'Let's bring her home with us.' Azief hearing this was dumbfounded and he was stunned for a moment before looking at Sofia by his side.

Sofia was not any better.

This time it was Sofia turns to blow her top.

'What the hell you're thinking?' She shouted. Then Sina said

'Sasha saves my life inside the forest region. Spare her. For me' and saying this both Azief and Sofia look dumbfounded on how to respond.

Azief looking at the determined Sina, and he sighed.

She will not budge Azief mused.

That day, Azief decided to spare Sasha as there is a new person accompanying Azief, Sina and Sofia home to village.

All the while, the threat of the Seven Fairy is approaching.

Chapter 120: Debt of a lifetime

IN THE SKY

A FEW HOURS LATER

The wind breezes by the golden chariot.

Sometimes aerial monster would try to attack the chariot traversing through the clouds, but each time they will be shot down by a streak of fire.

Inside that golden chariot there are four people. Two of them in perfect health, one is injured, while another is lying on a stretcher.

'You know are you sure we should leave her alive?' Sofia asked again looking at Sasha lying on the stretcher inside the chariot.

Sometimes Sasha will open her eyes but when she is tired she would closes her eyes. This is the side effect of the Potion she drank. The backlash is terrifying and painful.

Sina then chuckles.

'I thought Azief had already made his decision. I follow our leader'

'Still, it sounds like a stupid decision.' Sofia said as she glares looking at Azief back.

'You also agreed.' Sina said as she is pouting

'Because of you...but I still found it hard that she saves your life. Why won't you tell us how? Maybe that will affect my feelings.'

'I will tell you later' Sina once again deflect that question

Right now, Azief, Sina, Sofia and Sasha are inside a golden chariot flying through the white clouds.

Azief was at the front looking in front, scanning for threats and killing monsters when necessary.

Sometimes his eyes shoot fireballs towards flying creatures and they were burned into crisp.

Sometimes a saber appears and vortex of winds strikes down the monsters. Other time Azief uses his Death Fist and turning the monsters into dust.

With Azief strength, there is rarely a monster on air that could hold him down for long. If there is, Azief would already sense the monsters and steer on other directions.

The chariots travels through the clouds in a relaxingly pace.

The reason is because the energy is from Energy Crystals that Sina had. The chariot had a slot that could use external energy and doesn't have to always use the owner energy.

But Azief is still puzzled how on earth that Sina would have possession of the chariot instead of Sasha?

This is a Bloodbound Artifact. Unless given willingly this chariot will always belongs to Sasha unless she is dead.

If Azief went flying alone he could have arrived in the village in about an hour ago.

But the reason he stayed is because of Sina condition and because he is still wary of Sasha.

Even though Sasha is now just a weakling, Azief will learn not underestimate her again.

There is also the fact that the story of Sash saving Sina life is still vague and Sina doesn't seem like she is in a mood to share.

Sofia was beside Sina applying herbs and ointments on her wounds. Sina was sitting beside Sasha stretcher.

'How're you feeling Sofia?' ask as she is applying an ointment on Sina knee.

There is a scratch wound on her knees.

Even though Lee Sangmin did heal her injuries but the poison of the beast Sina and Sasha fought is not that easily erased or cured.

After a few hours without healers, the injury will resurface.

This is the problem with the source of her injuries and not in any part the fault of Lee Sangmin healers.

Smiling Sina replies.

'Been a hell of a lot worse. If I can return to my Alchemy lab, I can fix myself up with some really nice stuff.'

Azief turn his face back to check up on Sina condition from time to time and he smiles proudly.

'You did good. You did real good' Azief voice reached Sina ears. Sina smiles and ask

'It's nothing. Though next time I should wear that armour that you give me every day. It seems our life will not be as peaceful as I thought. And here I thought after Azief turns to Seed Forming we will have no enemy. Instead he manages to find one. Haii' Sina then laugh

And hearing this Sofia couldn't help but chuckles a bit.

'Blame our resident troublemaker here' Sofia said as she glances at Azief and Azief coughs embarrassedly as he look in front again

'Anyway, thank you Sina.' Hearing this Sina was puzzled

'Thank you for what?' she ask

Azief turn his head and look at Sina in front of his eyes, battered, beaten....but alive. And that fills him with gratitude.

'Thanks...for being alive.' Sina hearing this was shocked and touched in her heart. Sofia also smiles a bit.

'You know, sometimes you act like a softie, Azief. I'm not familiar with this new you.'

Azief chuckles.

'Get used to it'

Sofia on the other hand still looks at the unconscious figure of Sasha and clicked her tongue.

'Azief, you really would spare her? She nearly took the life of our Sina. I say we off her.'

'Sofia!' Sina shouted shooting a glare to Sofia.

'What? She did try to kill you.'

'She kidnaps me. There is a difference.'

'Oh yeah.' Sofia replied sarcastically.

'Oh, yeah, that's the dream. Being kidnapped. Sure, we just let her off. Kidnapping is better. It is loads better. You do know that she kidnapped you intending to sell you to the World Government right? After our last fiasco with the World government, are you sure that bastard Hirate won't just fry your mind with his creepy mind powers?'

Sina sighed

'I know. She told me.'

'Then, what's the problem? What is the matter with you? Are you suffering from Stockholm syndrome or something?'

Sina look at the lying Sasha, gasping for air, trembling in her muscles and cold sweats on her forehead and she said.

'What we experienced in that forest....is not something you can imagine.'

Azief look at Sina his gaze burns like asking her the question he wanted to ask but Sina said

'In the Forest Region, there is a secret. A dark secret. A dangerous secret. I will not tell you here. Too dangerous.'

Azief just look at Sina for a while and nodded and then he turn his direction back to the front.

'Azief?' Sofia turned to Azief as she becomes more exasperated with Sina behavior.

'Sina want me to spare her. I'll spare her.'

'Is that it? Just because she said to spare her you'll spare her. I didn't know you were an obedient little boy. Hmph' Sofia humphed in dissatisfaction

'That's not all.' And Azief look at Sasha deeply and there is still anger in his eyes but he contains it.

'Every time I look at her face, I will remember. Every time I become cocky or overconfident, I will look at her face, and I'll remember. I'll remember what happens when I underestimate my enemy. If only for that reason, I'll spare her.'

'Anyway, now that we are talking Sofia tell me about the Seven Fairy.' Sofia was corking the vials of the blue ointment and she replied saying

'You should ask Loki about it. He's the one who stole the documents from the World Government threat list.'

'I can't really ask him right now could I?'

'Who told you to punish him?'

'I was angry.'

Sina who did not understand anything ask Sofia

'Azief angry at Loki? What did he do now?' Sofia eyes brightened and then she started spilling everything to Sina

After finishing telling the story, Sina look at Azief and ask

'That's why you punish him? Because he urges you to leave? Form what I understand Sofia also urges you to leave but you did not punish her?'

And then Sina smiles mischievously.

'You could bear punishing Loki but could not bear punishing our dear little cute Sofia, huh?' Sina said as she pinched Sofia plump pink cheek while Sofia blushes red in embarrassment when she is teased like that.

Azief pretends he couldn't hear anything.

'You know, you shouldn't be that mad towards Loki. I know the man for a year. I know he would not ask you to leave if there are no other threats. But, you know he was right. Even I could not bear to let hundreds die just because of me.'

'Still' Azief said slowly as a whisper.

'But that doesn't mean I will let him off' Sina said as she chuckles.

'I will smack that guy on the back of his head and let him taste my pills as my guinea pig. Let see if he dares leave me again' And Sina laughs like she already recovered her health

'Yeah, do that' Sofia vigorously nodded.

They were passing a huge mountain and another high level flying monster appears in front. Azief look at Sofia and said

‘Steer the chariot for a while. We will resume our conversation after I finished dealing with this Griffin.’

Azief then tap his foot and he shot off to the clouds with dark aura swirling around his feet, parting the clouds, as he battles the griffin in the air.

Fireballs and shrieking of the air spread around the clouds as the sound of thunders and lightning fill the sky.

His Sky Slashing Slash tears apart the wind and extinguishes life. Booming sound travel hundreds of miles.

A dozen more of Griffin comes to join the attack.

Azief uses his Death Fist and the clouds turn dark, the wind compresses and the air around him rises up to become heated.

When he releases his Fist it was like a gigantic fist emerges from the sky and stamp down three griffins into meat paste, as rain of blood fall down.

Sofia was calmly steering the chariot away from the battle as she keeps talking with Sina.

The other nine griffins began using their wind shot as they shot wind bomb from their mouth towards Azief. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

Azief uses Earthquake Stomp in the air, and the air around him distorted as vibration energy ripples out and scatter about as it hits the nine griffins.

The closest to the blast exploded into bits.

Another eight left.

One of the griffins who tried to sneak attack Azief with his talon got its eyes burned into dust as Azief uses his eyes of fire and targeted the griffin eyes.

Without its eyes, Azief once again uses his Sky Slashing Slash as it cut apart the griffin into two.

Azief using his Hyper speed to ram his body to three griffin who is flying together. With Azief Undying Body, Azief body itself is a weapon.

When he collided with the griffins the griffin exploded as its meat got stuck in Azief body and Azief was covered with green blood all over his body.

But because of the Immortal Presence that his body emitted, the moment the blood covered his body, it immediately evaporated because of Azief body heat and kinetic force around his body because of the force of speed.

Then he brought up one of the Six World Exterminating Saber.

This is the first Saber.

Heaven Sundering Saber. It has the inscription Mastering Others Is Strength; Mastering Yourself Is True Power, With One Slash Rendering the Heaven Apart

'One Slash Rendering the Heaven Apart' he shouted in his mind as tempest of gales concentrated itself on the tip of the Saber as energy from all around the area compresses itself on the saber.

The Saber then glow red as the gales and energy turns into a red mist that covered the sky, and devours the white clouds.

The Red Mist then turns into Nirvana Fire, washing away impurities, burning Devils and Demons, incinerating monsters and evildoers.

He then releases the attack.

The sound of explosion tears apart the sky of the Plains region, shocking everyone on the Plains regions.

A gigantic slash of fire engulfed the four griffins, incinerating them almost immediately and color the sky red as the heat even affect the weather as the rain on the Southern Plains was immediate evaporated because of the effect of the heat of the Nirvana Fire strike.

After fifteen minutes Azief returns back to the flying chariots and again take control of the helm.

Sofia looking at the area behind him was shaking her head. A sea of fire in the clouds.

'Beautiful fireworks' Sofia said as she shakes her head at Azief showing off his power.

'I try my best' he replied nonchalantly.

Azief was smiling from ear to ear.

'Why are you smiling?' Sina ask.

'I could feel it' Azief said still smiling.

'Feel what?'

'I'm about to form my Seed. I already transferred all my EXP I got from my battles to my Seed Tree. After all I already reached level 69 so I don't have to transfer EXP to my level bar instead the EXP will automatically transferred to my Seed Tree.'

'It takes a long time for me and I finally manage to form my Seed.'

'A long time. It has just been a year.' Sofia said

'For you' Azief snappily replied.

'For me, it has been many years.'

'Fine, fine Sofia' said waving her hand as she did not want to continue talking about it any longer.

'Anyway, you wanted to know about the Seven Fairy.' Sofia said as she tries to change the topic.

'Yes.'

'Ok, I'll tell you about it.'

Meanwhile on the Plains, the Seven Fairy has camped out three hundred kilometers from Eden, their people enjoying the scenery; while the sound of music filled the tents, the men admiring the sky, the women appreciating the flowers, the soldiers hearing the sound of the wind, ready to march a thousand miles with one word.

The Seven Fairy was practicing their swordplay while their people resting after a long journey.

Each one of the Seven Fairy possesses beauty that could sink fish, entice birds into falling, eclipse the moon and shame the flower.

Yet, their sword strikes and attacks were ruthless and vicious, capable of tearing apart tendon and organs, amputate and cripple people, killing hundreds with one slash, killing thousands with each ten strokes, their sword intent towering to the sky, their killing intent masked even their own anxiousness.

Seven Swords' energy crisscrossed through the plains, decimating hills and slope, scarring the earth.

With each day nearing Eden, their training seems to be more vigorous.

Each time they found a monster nest, their Seven Swords will surely annihilate all. Blood trails their steps from the Western Plains to the Central Plains where Azief village is.

Some interested parties have already predicted that this time, Lord Shadow, the new number one figure will not have an easy battle.

A ruler seeks dominion in chaos.

Is the Seven Fairy intending to invade Eden, a village made from a Civilization Seed even though they themselves are not a Seed Forming User?

Or is there another reason why they would march hundreds of thousands of miles to Eden? Surely, they did not come just to pay their respect.

But there is no doubt to anyone that is spectating this event that the number one figure in the world, Lord Shadow will contend with the famous Seven beautiful Fairy of the Western Plains.

What battle it would be!! Spies from the World Government began to move to spectate and record the data of their battle.

Jean sends one of his trusted subordinate to also spectate the battle.

Warp from the League of Freedom has already teleported his comrades to a hill not far from Eden.

What battle would they show us?

The Seven Fairy fighting Lord Shadow, this story would surely be talked about long even after the battle finished.
