

Shadow 1271

Chapter 1271 - White Sheet

At the same time, that his body is flying toward that garden, his Divine Sense that halted on the edge of the garden began to tremble

Azief could feel resistance. Though, this resistance is weak. It is more like a lingering trace of energy that tries to forbid his Divine Sense from entering the garden.

And like something has popped Azief Divine Sense had pierced that lingering will and his Divine Will began moving forward unobstructed

At the same time, Azief look at above his head. The white sheet that is above his head is only a few hundred feet away from him by now.

A few hundred feet might seem a lot of distance but it is a distance that could quickly be traversed upon with how fast that white sheet is descending.

The white sheet that is about to cover him trembles from afar. It seems when Azief uses his Divine Sense before, it had move the white sheet a bit

'But, this is not enough' Azief thought to himself. If this white sheet could push him back down, then his Divine Sense would also crumble and he would be send back

Azief did not mind being send back.

But, at least he wanted to see what is in that garden. Why is it that his heart wants to see it so bad? Why does he feel that there is an opportunity for him there?

This opportunity he felt is an opportunity of survival. His premonition, his senses could feel this intensely.

It is the reason why Azief did not hesitate to use his energy to withstand the palm and ignore the attraction force and keep on going forward even though there is a risk of permanent injury to his Divine Comprehension cultivation base.

He looks at that white sheet and then smiles. His smile looks very devious considering that he is now swirling with baleful aura.

His hair is rising upwards like there is air around him. Underneath his feet are cosmic wind suppressed by him, creating a swirling wind below his feet.

Cosmic matter is pressured to the point that is break into particles, like it is being grinded by some matter grinder.

His defiant heart is beating loudly so much so the beating of his heart create ripples all around him, a small shockwave that ripples endlessly

The blood in his body is hot and thrumming with energy. Right now, he is back at his peak. Looking at that white sheet, he now had the confidence to fight against it.

The moment this courage is in his heart, his momentum soared. The baleful aura around him exploded and then Azief move his index finger.

A heaven-sundering aura swirls around his finger. Even before he moves this finger, this heaven sundering aura had slowly manifested. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

Time and intangible concept around it does not dare to approach. The energy around him that was orderly became chaotic.

Disrupt energy and even at times cut Time, Destiny and Cause and Effect

This finger is using the ability of the Heaven Sundering Finger. This is the ability of the Six Path fingers.

But that is not all the destructive power that is gathering on Azief index finger. A killing aura burst out from the heaven sundering aura. This is a killing aura that could kill Divine being, dissipate godly essence and souls.

This is the effect of the Divine Slaying finger. In the past, Azief would have to use the corresponding finger to activate the ability of the Six Path

But, with the advancement of his level, he could derive and modify certain skills of his. Right now, he is gathering all the destructive measure of the Six Ptah into one finger.

He makes the Heaven Sundering aura as the base and from that all of the destructive force of the Six Path fingers would come out from the Heaven Sundering finger ability.

Then another force exploded out from the heaven Sundering aura. This time, it is a star shattering aura.

It is the ability of the Star Shattering Finger, with one swish of a finger, cleave a planet apart. This destructive power is not merge with that one finger.

Azief finger right now is glowing red and black and the space around him cracks and tears apart, revealing empty void of space

But the force did not stop climbing.

The force on his finger exploded once more and a power that could sever Destiny, cut Divine Sense, slash reality apart, overturning fates and destiny also appears.

The cracking space around him suddenly halted. The force that emanates out of his finger this time render time immobile. This is the ability of the Destiny Severing Finger.

All of this happen in an instant that Azief moves his finger. The white sheet is now only a few kilometers away from him

The pressure that is coming from the white sheet cracks space but anywhere near ten kilometers radius of Azief is not affected at all.

There is a force that is contending with the force of that white sheet that is trying to push him down.

There is one more' he thought to himself. He never thought he could gather all of the ability of all the Six Path finger into one finger. That usually requires all of his energy to use this kind of power, to concentrate it into one finger and one point

But right now as his Divine Sense is in the garden, he could feel his body nourished with energy, like there is an unlimited energy that is powering him up.

And so, he could do this. And this time, he would condense all of the power of the Six Path finger into one single point.

The moment he thought of this, his entire palm began to shine. The space around him bends and the energy in this dimension is slowly drained.

The Creator who is looking at this is a bit impressed. The energy of this dimension is different from any energy in any dimension.

The only reason he dares bring Azief here is because Azief body and his energy is special. It could withstand this place energy

That is one of the secret of the Perfection Path.

Those who cultivate this path would transform their body into the most perfect body, would transform their energy to the purest and perfect energy

Only that kind of being could withstand taking the energy from this dimension.

But what impressed the Creator was that the energy that Azief is taking right now is the source of the Origin Energy.

'His strength would skyrocket. I expected that he would have some gains in this journey. I just didn't think that the gain is this big' he mutters to himself.

As for Azief, he could feel a new kind of energy entering his body. When he stimulated his thought and run his energy toward his finger, the Origin Energy of this place is sucked into his body

His body exploded with more energy. Space around him trembles and quakes, creating ripples that broke the restraint of time.

Azief keep upping the intensity of that power. If he did this before, he probably would be like an extinguished candle, burning himself off and drained all of his energy

But right now, not only his Divine Sens is providing him with energy from the Garden, he could also feel some Divine energy entering his body when he sucks the Origin Energy of this dimension

The Time that was immobilized by one of the effect of his finger ripples and the space if further distorted. Cosmic matter dissipated, the cosmic dust in the vicinity all dispersed a thousand light years away

A powerful rose around him and purple mist seems to appear out of nowhere. This purple mist comes from the breath of creation that is full in abundance in this dimension.

The purple mist then began swirling around his entire body and a powerful destruction force emanates from his entire being

All of his body is now full of energy. An unlimited energy that is creating a powerful emanation of destruction force

All around him, every particle that exist is vibrating in high intensity and exploded but before it could affect anything the explosion is suppressed by an invisible force.

Everything around him seems to be undergoing entropy. This is the power of the World Cleaving Finger. It destroys life. It drains energy.

Energy., life, creation, anything that supports life would be devoured by this energy. The understanding of the Six Path powered this finger

The energy that Azief had been accumulating had now gathered and turn into a solid form and yet liquid and gas at the same time

An almighty divine power swept everything around him and it rises toward the white sheet like an endless flood.

The white sheet tremble and halted for a moment before continuing descending down.

Right now, it is only a few feet away from him. The pressure that is building up around him cause everything to either explode, depressed or compressed. Space, light, cosmic forces, it does not matter

The weight of this white sheet is something that pressured the laws of the Omniverse.

Chapter 1272 - The Difference Of Those Who Walk The Path

At the same time as the white sheet keep coming closer and closer, Azief also felt the energy from the surface of the white sheet trying to suppress him.

But he is floating there, his hair wildly fluttering around, his red eyes defiant and his heart, fearless.

His body is now forcefully plundering the world energy.

He is devouring it, eating it, cutting the Origin Energy so that it could easily enter his body.

And Azief felt something weird as he keeps doing this.

He felt that his ethereal body, his body that is made from energy become solid. Like it is once again creating a physical body.

It is hard for him to believe it but he could feel it. His energy is becoming solid.

'An energy made solid' he thought to himself and his eyes shines dangerously.

He thought of the conversation he has with the Creator and he thought to himself about all of the things he had seen.

He knows of Alsurt.

Alsurt is stronger than a Divine Comprehension leveler but his body is solid and not energy like.

There must be a reason for them to keep their physical body.

He thought of it and then devour more and more energy of this dimension.

But, the shocking thing is no matter how much energy Azief had drained, almost a second later, the energy appears back.

It was like this dimension had an unlimited source of energy

All of this is better for him.

In that moment, even as the white sheet come near him, his body keep absorbing the Origin Energy of this place. All the while, he is ready to attack using his finger

Right now, he felt that his finger is heavy, like there is a force that is pushing his finger down. This force did not come from the white sheet but because of the amount of energy and destructive that is now attracting such force to gather around him

Azief frowned and nodded to himself. Even though the energy he has right now is unlimited, he could feel that using so much force is creating a distortion in his own energy

'It is time to release it' he thought to himself.

And then after he could not bear fit anymore he pointed his finger upwards.

Azief uses his finger and shoot something from it.

A powerful destruction aura swirls around his finger and then with a small jerk of his finger, that destruction aura solidified.

BOOOM!

The entire space suddenly cracks and exploded as Azief bursted out with power. The time that was halted move once again.

The purple mist all gather around his finger and then his one finger shoots a golden bluish sword.

Swirling around this sword is a spiraling purple mist that dim the stars and bring about changes to space and time.

This sword is like the sword that he uses to cut the palm.

But unlike last time, he uses the energy that is coursing through his body right now. And this source of energy is unlimited

The Divine Sense is a part of him.

That is the reason why when someone had a Divine Sense backlash it would also affect their physical sense.

As such, when that energy course through Azief Divine Sense, he directs that energy back to his body.

Now the wound on his body has shut off by itself.

There is no longer energy leaking off from his body.

And then like a positive feedback, Azief uses the energy of that to create a sword with his finger.

Possessing the might of the previous sword attack and even surpassing it, he shoots it.

Then that sword collided with that white sheet. A powerful explosion erupted. Yet, even this explosion could not fill the entire vastness of the white sheet

But as the cosmic wind and the cosmic dust settled, Azief could see it. The white sheet had been pushed back for a few hundred kilometers upwards

And there is also something else

There is now a small hole is pierced through the middle of the white sheet. Azief smirks and said

'I'll take what I can get' he thought to himself as he kicks his feet on the air, his body propelled upwards like some kind of lightning.

Azief fly toward that hole with his greatest speed.

He could not warp in this dimension but he could use the energy around him to boost his speed.

In less than a second, his speed reach light speed and he passes through that small hole.

Even though it is a small hole when compared to how big the white sheet it, that small hole is equivalent to a few thousand galaxies stretched together.

Even the mind struggle to fathom such a huge proportion of scale.

Even as Azief physical body passes through that white sheet, his Divine Sense is moving forward in the garden.

At first, it was the edge of the garden, then it inches closer and Azief divine sense finally reach the ground.

He could feel the grass of that garden but the moment he felt it, he became shocked.

Because each blade of grass contains such a high breath of creation that if even one blade of grass falls down to any worlds that Azief had seen and known, it could create a place full of energy for probably billions of years

That alone is shocking considering that it is just a blade of grass. And this garden is so vast that even using all of his Divine Sense right now, a Divine Sense that could cover an entire large planet and even the Sun could only see the edge of this floating garden

And there are millions if not trillions of this grass

His Divine Sense right now is like some kind of probe that is revealing the fog of war.

He could see the grass and then as he moves forward the energy of his Divine Sense deeper toward the garden, he could that his Divine Sense began to change

'What is this?' he thought to himself

His Divine Sense becomes a bit clearer to him. The vision that he could see using his Divine Sense became even clearer and it was like he himself is there

His Divine Sense also could manipulate the Law around it. Before, it could not do this at all. But for some reason, right now his Divine Sense is morphing

Morphing into a more powerful version of Divine Sense ability Azief could not help but feel that for every second his Divine Sense is in that garden, the energy that is in the garden purifies it this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

But, that is what shocked Azief. His Divine Sense is already the purest Divine Sense in the Omniverse

Yet, somehow, in this garden it could be purified even more. And when it is purified, because it is now leaning to extreme, there is now mutation on his Divine Sense.

It develops new ability and it became even more flexible and even the Laws could be affected by his Divine Sense.

Azief believe that even if a mortal set foot in that garden, only a few minutes would be needed to turn such a mortal into Immortal.

Azief Divine Sense become even more flexible as the second passes.

Azief could feel that he could now morph the shape of his Divine Sense and also changes the properties and shape of his Divine Sense

He could use his Divine Sense as a shield, as a weapon, as a probing device and many more. This is what he felt the moment his Divine Sense morphed and changed.

As he flies faster and faster toward that garden, he became excited.

He thought that if his Divine Sense could change and evolve into a powerful version of a Divine Sense, then what would happen if he sets his foot there.

He walks the Perfection path.

He always reminded himself of that. It is not some arrogant statement t he said to make him feel better about himself.

It is to remind him of how much energy that is needed for him to break through each level. It is to remind him of how perilous that the path he had chosen to walk

Of course, it is amazing that he had become the fastest leveling individual on Earth

But there is a price to this he is quite sure that in soul and in body, he is older than everyone else.

If he is to compete with them fairly, of not using any time related treasures or entering any time related spaces, how could he become the fastest leveling individual on Earth

It is not possible. Just to break through one peak to another requires such absurdly amount of energy

And some things that he had come to understand is that those who walks the path of Perfection not only have to have determination, they also need to have fortune and luck.

Even if he misses one of this, the path of perfection would be cut off. It is like playing a game and he must not miss even one step of a walkthrough if he wanted the perfect ending

There are many things that he had come to understand as he watches all the plays of fate and destiny when he was looking the projection of Arial life and other people lives.

He wonders whether he could see his own fortune and luck and what it would look like?

Chapter 1276 Being Honest I

after the Fall, he met Sofia. He met Na Eun. He met Katarina. And he felt loved. And he loved them

They all loved him in a different way and he too loved them in a different way. But one thing that did not change was that he appreciates it.

He knows how precious it is. And to be looked like that by Katarina, to see that gaze.... he never ever wanted to lose it.

Because of that, he did think of leaving her. Thinking of all the dangers that he would put her through

And then there is also something that has been bothering him since he goes to the future. In that future, when he saw the army of humanity facing him, most of the people facing him are people he knows.

Of course, there are also some faces he did not recognize but all of his old friends, all of his old acquaintance is there, minus a few

There is three people that he knew but is not there. In that vision of the future, there is no Hikigaya, Oreki and.....Katarina.

He doesn't want to think of the worse but when he thinks about it he could not help but think that the reason those three are not there is because they are dead.

How did they die? Does it have something to do with him? Just thinking about her dying in his future make him filled with dread.

Azief then avert his gaze from her eyes

'Hey!' she said as she pulls his sleeve. A month ago, something did happen between them.

Katarina told him to be honest with what he is feeling. He struggled of trying to be someone that will not hurt people who love him

But, he keeps hurting them. Katarina was honest with him. She is honest with her feelings. She knows where to draw the line but she also knows when the line should be erased.

To her, he is now no longer with Sofia. So, she makes her move. She is true to her feeling unabashedly.

She told him what she wanted and she is not ashamed to fight for it. Azief love Sofia. That is his feeling.

But.... does she still love him? or is it simply the lingering of emotion that kept them together after all of the fights, after all of the words traded, all the hard feelings

With all of his power and abilities, it is not like he could read people minds.

He believes that Sofia did love him. But, she probably did not love him enough to marry him. Maybe, it was rash of him trying to propose to her.

But, it should not have led to them breaking up. Azief might not seem like he is affected with what happens but he did get hurt.

He is used to rejection. And because he is used to it, it did not hurt that much. But that is only because he never had an expectation to be accepted in the first place.

But with Sofia, it was different. No matter how they fight and why they fight, they always come back to each other.

Azief wanted to believe that. Believe that they would come for each other again. He wanted to give her time.

But, maybe.... maybe it is time to let her go.

That night after he talked with Katarina, he was in his room thinking many things

He kept hurting Sofia. Because he could not let go of Katarina.

Azief had never seen himself as a Casanova or a playboy.

He is not that handsome typical man. He is not ugly but he is not the kind of good looking that would make people flip around.

He is a bit above average. Of course, when he grows stronger, his facial feature also improved and so does his charisma and confidence.

And that increases his charm. In this world, if it's not for the fact that all the people of the world knows that he is entangled with two women of great power and influence, one could imagine how many people would throw themselves at him to become his paramour.

Azief had never been in a situation where two people loved him....and loved him sincerely. And twisted as it may be, he wanted to reciprocate this sincerity.

But all that he keeps doing is inflicting injury and pain to Sofia and Katarina.

And that night, when he thinks back about Sofia, he thought back of what he had put her through. And he thought to himself

'Am I the selfish one?' this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

Is he the selfish one, hoping for her to return? He believes that she would come back for him. But what if he is wrong? What if....it is better like this?

He doesn't want to believe that. What he had with Sofia....is complicated. There are old memories between them.

That memory is of course not deep. They meet in high school and even when they were in the same high school, they did not interact much

Azief examine himself, look back at his old memories and thought to himself why did he fall in love with her in the first place?

He knows that he loved her. But that was after the Fall, after he got to know her intimately. But what makes him love her in the first place.

When he looks back at his own memories, look at himself honestly, then he found out. The reason why he wanted her in the first place is because he likes her in high school and she does not like her.

At that time, Sofia was with someone else. It would be an exaggeration to say that the feeling at that time was love but Azief felt his first heartbreak there.

She did not intentionally break it and it was not her fault. And he also never shows any of it. It is easy when you are not on the same class to hide a feeling.

Azief was never someone that was confident.

He was confident when he is in his element, when he is with his close friends, but with strangers it always takes him a while to warm up to them

When he was in high school, everyone seems to be dating and stuff.

Azief also wanted that. To experience the cherry blossom of youth.

He saw her and while she is not the prettiest girl in the entire school, it looks like that to him. It is not like he had fallen in love with her.

If anything, he likes her.

And when he likes her, he wanted to know about her, wanted to know what her likes and dislike and wanted to talk to her

Azief is new at dating stuff.

He doesn't know what people do when they are dating. Do they just agree to date? Does he have to confess? Should he do it old style with letters?

(Author Note: It's the 2000. I don't know about other country but at that time, even though my classmate does have phones, most of them to show sincerity would write letters to their girls. Just a difference in culture I guess)

Does he have to call her and confess to her in the phone?

There were so many question in his mind but when he found out that she had been with someone else, that feeling is quite bizarre.

You know she is not your girlfriend and you could not blame her for anything. It is just the feeling of losing something that was never yours.

And the question of "if only" began to surface in your mind

If only.... you were faster...

If only.... you were braver.... this kind of question haunts you. But after a few years, you would forget about it.

That is why when he first saw Sofia in that mall, when the Fall happened, all those memories just came back to him, like he had never left high school at all.

And then Azief found the answer of why he got together with Sofia in the first place. Yes, he got to know her and love her demeanor

But, the reason why he looks so favorably at her, that she could worm her way into his heart and never let go is because of these lingering memories of the past.

So, when he reaches that conclusion, he sighed.

He fears that Sofia thinks that his love for her is because simply of old memories. And he thought many more things.

About him and Katarina and how should he deal with it. So, that night, he simply did not get any sleep.

The next morning when he saw Katarina, they talk to each other. And they both decided to explore what they feel for each other.

Azief don't want Katarina to feel like she is a substitute for Sofia so he is taking it slow with her. He doesn't want to hurt her like he did with Sofia.

Chapter 1277 Being Honest II

It is not like he had just suddenly forgot about Sofia.

But, he had ignored Katarina feeling for too long and by now it has become even cruel if he kept doing things like this.

If he does not like her, then maybe it is not that big of a deal.

But he does like her and she likes him.

And torturing her like this is never his intention. Azief thought that given enough time, she would find him boring, find him not the man she thought he was.

The only thing that connects them is their love for each other.

But, Azief knows that sometimes love alone is not enough. There are too many people who marry for love and stay together for love, and it does not guarantee a happy ending.

Because to stay together, love alone is not enough. When they first met each other, they look at each other eyes and there was an instant connection.

But, Azief thought that Katarina was impressed by him and mistake that for love. But then Katarina encased herself and him inside a mountain of ice to preserve his life.

At that time, Azief knows he had to take her feeling seriously. But he doesn't want to cheat with her.

He loves Sofia. And Sofia loves him. And at that time he was with her.

Whatever between her and Katarina, it is an unspoken connection. That kind of love is something that no reality could ever compare.

But, it is because of that he was hesitant. Katarina is a pure naïve girl. She had suffered pain and suffering. Her pain might not be physical like her brother, but it is pain nonetheless.

She is sheltered but possess power that could shake the world. Maybe it is because she is so pure that she could advance that fast.

his relationship with her has always been ambiguous. And the reason is simply because Azief wanted best of both worlds.

He scarcely dares admit to himself that he loves both of them. And even if he dares thought of such, he does not dare to do it.

He could not do it. Sofia had been betrayed before and if there is one thing that Azief never wanted, it was to hurt her.

But not hurting Sofia, means hurting Katarina.

When he chose Sofia, he knew it would make Katarina in pain.

But, he had to choose or it will never end. For some reason, in his premonition he believes that if he keeps doing that, one day, there would be a tragedy.

And when he went with Will to the future to see what he would become, he made a decision. He saw Sofia fighting against him and there is no one else he wanted to end his life if there ever comes a time where he became that "thing" he saw in the future

It did not make him angry at her betrayal. Because he understood. The future him, looks more like a monster than a person

And he did not mind that Sofia wanted to kill him.

So, the moment he returns back to his time, right before he goes to Katarina, he wanted her to know that he was sure of her.

Before he went to the Seresian world, he does not know whether he could survive it. All he knows is that he is taking a great risk in going to the Seresian world.

And he knows that whatever he does, he must make sure Katarina is safe. He already had owed her too much.

Azief.....was ready to die and because of all of this possibilities, he wanted to meet Sofia, and wanted her to understand.

Wanted her to be at ease. So he sought her and seek to marry her.

What he didn't expect was that she would have rejected him and then even broke up with him. The ultimatum that she wants is something he could not fulfil. Azief believe that even Sofia knows that and that ultimatum is simply a reason for her to leave him

But he did not blame her. He is hurt by her but he could not blame her. They seem to hurt each other.

All the promises that he once uttered now become a chain that binds them. She believes that he stays with her because of a promise.

And letting him go is her act of love. Stil....it hurts

And then he came here and there is Katarina.

By now, he had nothing else to think about.

So, he decided to just try it. He believed that Katarina would soon get bored of him, or find out that it is not him that he loves.

It seems that Azief underestimated Katarina love. Like herself, she is pure and so her love is also pure.

And that is why a month ago, they decided to be together.

They are taking it slow, step by step.

As for him being in the Orvanian compound, it is because he had to practice and learn the knowledge of the Orvanians before going back home.

He does not want to complicate things too much now. All of this thought and contemplation appeared in his mind in just a second

He sighed and then look at Katarina

He grips that hand tighter and then he said

'There are many eyes watching me right now. I fear that if you keep staying beside me you would be implicated' Katarina close her eyes for a second

Then she opens her eyes and sighed

'Let me decide that for myself' Azief shakes his head.

'How could you decide when you don't really know the threat?'

Katarina leans her head on his shoulder. She snuggles up close to him and said

'If it's you.... regardless of the danger.... let me be beside you' Azief face hardened.

'And what about me? Knowing that I am putting you in danger, what should I feel? If something happens to you- 'Katarina close his mouth with her hand

'I do not regret it'

Azief gently hold her hand and put her hand down.

'You may not. But I will'

Then he sighed.

if this was like before he would push her away but he had learned that sometimes even that is not enough.

Knowing Katarina, even if he pushed her away, her knowing his reason would never stop. And that would lead her to more danger

So, he could only sigh helplessly

'Doing this is wrong. Doing that is also wrong. And knowing your stubbornness there is nothing that I could say that would change you. So, let's just walk forward.... together' Katarina smiles as she closed her eyes

They are standing there just looking at the sunset. They did not say anything. They just look at the sky

Katarina knows that when Azief is like this he is thinking about a lot of things. So, she did not try to say anything.

Katarina said nothing. She herself is the kind of woman that like silence. It reminded her of when she snuck out and went into a field.

The field is covered with snow and the only thing one could hear was the sound of the wind passing by, pushing the snow.

She then looks at Azief and like always there is a frown on his forehead. She wanted to put her finger on that frown but she restrained herself.

She does not know much about what problem he is facing but she knows that just being there, helped.

Azief is not a man that spoke many words.

Even words of love.

Though, when he tries to explain something, that is when he spoke a lot. The way he expresses his feeling is clumsy at times. But at times, he hits all the right notes.

Azief whatever his fault and his flaws, there is sincerity in his action to her.

Many times, he tries to push her away. But at the same time, there is always hope that he had given her.

When Azief chose Sofia, the feeling of having her heart broken is not pleasant.

But, she respected that. And of course, she tries to forget him. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

But love does not really have an on and off switch. Even if there is, Katarina doesn't think that she would use it.

The happiness, the pain and the suffering in a way is a way for her to grow. She thought that time would heal her heart.

That is why she is so angry when he found out that Azief sent Sasha to look after her. Azief is decisive in many matters.

But if there is one matter that he could not be decisive about it is the choice between her and Sofia.

Even after he had went with Sofia, he did these small things.

And these small things accumulated in her heart. And that makes the love stronger, makes the pain stronger.

He wanted to let her go but could not let her go completely. He wanted to not care about her, but caring about her nonetheless.

It is this wishy-washy manner of his that sometimes Katarina hated.

The connection between them is not simply cut just because they did not see each other. Instead, it was always there.

And then when they met again, it was like all of those unsaid words, unexpressed feelings all of them is about to explode.

And that night, when Azief kiss her, it was like her Universe all come back into focus. It was like she is whole again.

All the heartbreaks, all the pain and suffering seems to be worth it.

And when she knows that Azief and Sofia break s up, even though she felt bad about it, there is also a hint of relief.

Chapter 1278 The Beautiful Night

Katarina is someone who is very honest with her feelings. She would never do something to hurt Azief.

Because, she knows enough of what love is when it is distorted. She knows how her father distorts love.

And so, she vowed to herself that she would never be like that. She is not the statistic. She would be the exception

Those who were abused usually become abuser themselves. They were gas lighted. So, they gas lighted other people

They were victims. So, they victimized other people. That is the statistics. She wanted to be the exception

In that way, she could repay her brother. Boris, had been her shield for almost all of her life. He bears the beatings and the scolding, all for her.

And that is why, even if the whole world condemns her brother, she could not and she would not.

And when she first fell in love, she promised herself that she would never be like her father. She would fight for it.

But she also knows that love is not a single player game. The other person also had to fight for love.

It would not work, if she is the only one that is fighting for it. And Azief chose someone else.

She was hurt. She was angry. She had all kinds of emotions. She cursed and she cried.

But.... but...she accepted it. It hurts

Living while seeing the person you love loving another person. Not knowing the love, she has for him

Her heart ache. Seeing him not with her. Only looking at him and not having him by her side

But, after a while, she became used to it. It hurts but she got used to it. Then she got used to it and does not even realize that it hurts

Even after all of that, she still foolishly loves him. It is said that love at first sight is rare and almost disbelieved in.

There is something magical seeing someone for the first time, a stranger and then just falls in love with that person with one glance.

Like there is an invisible bond that is formed the moment they locked eyes.

Yet, it is also a curse.

Because of how magical it was, it is harder for her to forget him, to forget his every touch, his every words, his every mark that he had left in her heart

So, when she saw Azief with someone else, it hurts but she also tries to be happy for him, because the man she loves is happy.

Of course, she had hoped that Azief would be happy with her.

When there is a chance, she knows she could not let it go.

Because if she let it go, she knows, with all the conviction in her heart that she would regret it for her entire life.

So, when she stands in front of Azief a month ago, after that kiss, she bares it all. She is honest about what she wants and she is honest about what she is feeling.

And she wants him to be honest about what he wants and what he is feeling.

And today, this what happens. She finds her way back to him. And she could not be happier. She knows Azief had a lot of enemies.

But it was not like she had a lack of it too. Azief is the strongest person in the world and also the strongest man in the world

And Katarina is agreed by many as the strongest woman in the world. How could someone who have that kind of title did not have enemies?

There is people who wanted to fight her and defeat her so that they could get that title. Then there is people who wanted to destabilize the Republic by defeating her.

There are also those people who wanted to avenge the many deaths that she had caused.

To Azief, Katarina is his angel.

An innocent angel. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

And with him, Katarina is gentle and caring.

But, to the rest of the world, Katarina the Ice Queen does not only refer to her ability of using cold energy to fight people.

Nor is it simply because of the snow that would fall down from the sky whenever she appears.

It is because to many her face is cold as the Siberian winter wind. When she kills people, there is no emotion expressed on her face.

Her red sword had killed all of those dark forces in the dark alleys of Europe.

Her sword is drenched with blood and those who were present during that massacre could still remember the screams, the flowing blood that soaks the tiles of those alleys.

The enemies of Boris had always feared that the sword of the Ice Queen would fall on their heads.

Katarina did not fear danger. And she has as many enemies as Azief did. It might be otherworldly enemies but they are as equally dangerous.

And to her, as long as they face it together, she would not regret, even if she fails. To her, the future is the future.

It does not make sense to think too much about it in a world where you could die at every second.

This has always been the truth.

Even before the Fall, everyone could die at any given moment from any given causes.

But, at that time, death seems illusory. Dying of sickness, of a war in distant countries, the feeling of death felt far and long.

But when the fall came, death seems so near and life could be snuffed out at any moment. There is no use of thinking too much. Just do it

And because of that, even if Azief said it would be dangerous for her to keep being beside him, she would just ignore him

Azief then suddenly said

'Don't you have something to do? I think you would be busy now that there is not much time till we leave this world' Katarina shakes her head.

'It could wait' Azief hearing this chuckles. It is usually him that would say such thing.

'You don't mind just accompanying me looking at the sunset?'

'I don't mind'

'Most people would leave by now. It is boring'

'You're here' she said

'What does that mean?' Azief ask

'You're here. So it did not matter whether it is boring or not'

Azief shakes his head and then there is a smile on his face.

'I don't know how you could love me this much' he suddenly said. Katarina did not say anything.

There is another moment of silence.

Then Azief said

'There is a lot I need to tell you. The things I experienced in the Orvanian compound. The things that I have seen and experienced. I think you should know'

'It can wait' Azief who was about to say something halted

Then Katarina said

'This moment is perfect. I almost don't want it to end'

Hearing this Azief suddenly remembers what the Creator said to him

'It must end. If not how could you understand its beauty if it does not end?' he said these word and smile.

Azief uses the Creator words toward Katarina

Katarina close her eyes, hold Azief hand tight and just let the wind caress her cheeks.

For her, this right here is her perfect moment.

She feels happy. She feels free.

She could guess that whatever Azief is going to say to her would be something that is terrifying. It would be something that is life changing. It would be all of that and probably more

But, it doesn't matter.

At least, she has this moment right now.

the sun finally sets and Azief is still standing there.

It is not that he is dazed. It is not that he is confused. It is just that there are too many things in his mind. That he just wanted to forget it for a moment.

He at least deserves that.

That night they see the stars and Azief told her everything that has happened and what he had experienced

The night star that night was so beautiful.

Chapter 1279 A Few Days Later

A few more days had passed since the incident in the Orvanian laboratory. Azief had already told Katarina of what had happened.

He did not blame Qarliya. That AI is probably only one of the many pawns of the Five Seats of Orvan.

It is not really fair to blame her. Katarina listens to him and what most important to her was whether the Five Seat of Orvan meant harm for him.

Azief now had the opportunity to think about the matter and he believes that while the Five Seat of Orvan did scheme against him, it was not to harm him.

It had something to do with the Creator.

Considering the complicated history between the Orvanians and the Creator, it is no wonder that they wanted to see where the Creator is in the Omniverse

But still...being a pawn of someone else chess game is not exactly a pleasant experience.

In these few days, Azief had been helping Katarina.

With his enhanced senses and his now vigorous energy all over his entire body, Azief had been hunting deep sea creatures.

These deep sea creatures had the strength of Essence Creation.

Fortunately, they could not control Laws and a few that could, did not able to control the Laws masterfully.

It might have something to do with the fact that the Seresian world is not exactly a world conducive to nurturing intelligence.

It wasn't until the arrival of the Orvanians fleet that they restore back the energy of this world. Azief had been hunting.

Some he killed immediately.

These monster that he killed is usually monsters that would bring calamity that would affect millions of people living in this world.

The people of this world, the dwarves, the Elves and even the humans would not able to reach the strength of these monsters in a short time.

If they are released after both him and Katarina is gone then the only result is that there would be too many people that would die.

While some of them are killed, some are caged so that the new inhabitants of this world could study them

Azief is removing hidden danger all over Seresian world.

He moves mountain and diverted rivers. He forces the flat plains to rise, forces jagged terrain to be flattened.

All over the Seresian world, the inhabitants of this world could see great changes happening almost every hour.

They look at the sky and could see that godly being in the Palace of Altayera flying out and doing godlike things.

Whenever he flies out from the palace, any people of the world that saw him would prostrate to him
He brings rain to drought affected area.

He stops rain where flood is happening. The whole world seems to be in a prosperous era.

Calamity was stopped. Storms is blown out with one blow of his breath.

Fire is snuffed out with a wave of his hand. All kinds of disaster that would have overwhelmed any security forces in this world is so easily calmed down by him

And Azief is not the only one that is doing things. Katarina is also busy. She is looking for a successor.

She mediates conflicts, drafted laws, and build great monuments. To some these monument is a monument to glorify her and him

But that is not really the truth., The truth was that these monuments are their hidden cards for these people.

If one day a tyrant rose to rule over them with cruelty and fear, then these hidden cards could be used.

Azief let Katarina had a chance of ruling. Katarina could be said much younger than him if they were to talk about their mental age. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

Unlike Azief Katarina did not go to any parallel worlds to train nor did she have nay inheritance like that of Azul where his mind and soul would be tempered.

The fall had only happened almost a decade ago.

Some people did not count the years that humanity had spent in the fake world and only count the years of the real Earth. Some count it toward the calendar.

And that is how long Katarina had practiced.

Only around eight years give or take and she already reached Disk Formation level. Even in the vast Universe, this is breakneck speed

As for Azief, even though it had only been almost seven to eight years since the Fall, he had been practicing, sharpening his mind and soul for hundreds of years.

There are the years that he had trained in other worlds with Will. There are also the years that he had spent in the Six Trials of the Saber.

So, his mental age is more like that of an old existence.

The fact he could still retain his sanity and his own personality after all of that time is the most remarkable thing.

It is because of that even though he and Katarina is not that different in age, their mental age is very different.

When Azief rule Pandemonium when he gave an order, none dares disobey

It is not only because of his prowess that people followed and listens to him. It is because the way he carries himself as a ruler, as a leader.

He did not like being a leader but that did not mean he is not qualified.

He had the trace of a great Emperor. This did not come overnight as he drew on the experience of when he became an Emperor in Azul trials.

Because of that, he rarely gets shocked and flustered no matter what kind of problem that is facing him

He had experience

But Katarina did not have that opportunity. Azief had told her that Jean had become a Divine Comprehension leveler.

And he explained to her how this would probably trigger a factional battle in the Republic.

Jean might not want the power of the High Chancellor but this did not mean that his people would not fight for him

And Katarina must not judge this simply. Katarina approach to this is very simple.

She said to him that if that is the case, if Jean did not want the title and did not want to rock the boat, then the solution is easy

She just had to execute the people pushing Jean to that place. However, Azief had to explain to her that it is not that simple

Yes, Jean was not interested in that position. The reason why he does not want that title is because he no longer wanted to fight for the world.

War changes a lot of people and Jean included. And the position that he is sitting now is high enough for him to protect his people.

If Katarina chose to execute his friends, regardless of his friend's wrongdoings, he would not allow that

And if that happen, Jean would turn his face around from the Republic. Jean right now is a force unto itself.

And he mastered one of the most powerful Laws in the Universe, the Laws of Time and Space.

Even Azief dare not say that his comprehension of Time and Space is as advanced as Jean. If he turns his face against the Republic and once again join the World Government, the world order needs to be reshuffled once again.

The reason why Katarina could choose such a simple action is not because she is foolish. It is because she did not have any experience. This is politics. And it is related to power and influence.

There is a reason why he could stand as the undisputed number one in the world without every Tom, Dick and Harry coming to challenge him every day.

Azief influence reaches all over the world and he does not need to make a move to destroy his enemies.

One gesture, one hint and his enemies could be destroyed by the allies and officials of Pandemonium.

Azief uses his influence freely and he also knows when to use it and when to restrain it.

Before he reached Divine Comprehension, when he was in Disk Formation, it was not like Azief was truly invincible. The only reason he appears so is because no other world powers dare to clash with him, fully, fearing that it would spark a war so great that it would consume them too much that it would not be worth it.

Katarina needs to learn this. She needs to learn how to use power, how to use influence and when to restrain from using it

Azief knows the difference between him and Katarina.

Katarina believe himself to be a genius, capable of doing everything.

To her, he had no bottlenecks when breaking through other realm. It wasn't until later that it was discovered that many people had certain bottlenecks when trying to break through the higher level.

Because of the system, one could circumvent this. But, even though they break through using the circumvention of the system, their power and prowess is different than those who break through using the knowledge that was given to them

That is the reason why Katarina believe that he is a genius because he does not have any bottlenecks and breaking through is like drinking water.

Well, that is not entirely true.

The reason why he did not have any bottlenecks is because the Perfection Path did not have any bottleneck.

There is only getting more energy and enduring

That is the only thing one needs to do.

Chapter 1280 The Way of Practice

There is of course, the task of understanding the Laws that you cultivated but most of it is accumulating energy. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

The path of Perfection path is very brute in a way. There is no exercise, there is no fighting technique just pure power.

There is a reason why when Azief fight he just use normal basic methods.

His moves are not flowery and not elegant. When he wants to smash someone, he would just use his fist.

When he wanted to slam down someone, he uses his palm.

if there is a difference from others, it was the fact that when he does fight, he would stimulate the Will of the World and the cosmic phenomenon will be affected by him

This is the virtue of his overbearing power.

But other than, his fight is more boring than a martial arts fight.

It was only when he fought someone who is higher than him in level of power that he could, make more moves and shows more powerful attacks.

Most of the time, one slash of the sword, one palm smashing down, one flick of the finger is enough to deal with most trouble.

And so on and so forth

With great power, he does not need superfluous movement. His entire body is a weapon and each and every one of his move is a destruction filled move.

But just because it did not have a bottleneck does not mean it is an easy task to walk his path.

People think it is easy to endure but they have never been strike down by an Extermination Thunder.

They thought it is easy to gather energy but they never have traveled to a black hole to try to attract the energy there.

None of it is easy.

Those who walk the Perfection Path usually would take tens of thousands and even millions of years to breakthrough.

There is a reason why everyone that walk this path to the later stages are all ancient existence.

Yet, it is only him that have reached Divine Comprehension level in such a breakneck speed.

Even counting all of those years that he spends in other worlds and the Six trials of the Saber, he could be considered cultivating for a small amount of time. When comparing it to eons, hundreds of years is but just a tiny dot in the blip of time.

Azief also have his own thoughts about this matter.

If Azief walks any other path, his strength probably would not have been this exaggerated.

The difference between a Divine Comprehension leveler and an Essence Creation leveler is not only the difference of a realm, it is a different life form

Like that of an ant and a human. No matter how strong an ant is, even if an ant could lift up something two hundred times its weight, one pinch is the only thing that a human needs to kill an ant, to squeeze into pieces.

That is the kind of comparison between Divine Comprehension leveler and Essence Creation leveler.

Essence Creation leveler is basically a higher order of living being.

It could sweep through at least a dozens of Divine Comprehension leveler.

And even if a few dozen Divine Comprehension leveler manage to fight against Essence Creation leveler, they probably would not be able to kill an Essence Creation leveler

And this is an almost fantasy fight. Because it is very rare for even a dozen Divine Comprehension leveler to be able to fight one Essence Creation leveler.

That fantasy scenario could only be realized if that Essence Creation leveler is heavily injured. Only in that situation that a Divine Comprehension leveler could ambush and fight against Essence Creation leveler.

There is no one like Azief who is in Divine Comprehension level but have thirteen Law avatars and having the power to fight against an Essence Creation leveler.

Azief walk the Perfection path and it seems to other people that he is the genius as he is the fastest in cultivating when in fact, the price is all kinds of experience that wore down the mind and wore down the souls

The true genius in Azief eyes is Katarina.

Most of her training is focused on Earth Prime. She kills monsters and gained EXP from the system.

She did not walk the Perfection Path but there are hardly any bottlenecks for her. The Laws that she had cultivated is a law that is very suitable for her.

But, she could not fight like Azief, leaping levels to fight.

And thus right now, Katarina is busy dealing with the administration of this world while Azief is out there destroying hidden dangers.

All the while, the Orvanian compound remains silent.

Azief could tell that this probably had something to do what he had said to Qarliya.

Qarliya did not tell him anything but he could guess that the Five Seats of Orvan probably had ordered her not to bother him.

Azief did not want to tear off faces with them.

He knows he is not at that level yet.

The feeling he had for Orvanian is a complicated one.

While it is true that they schemed against him, when he thinks about it, The Creator also seems to scheme against him.

The only difference was that the Creator scheme on him is simply taking advantage of the Orvanians plans.

And it is because of the Orvanians that he had met the Creator and knows many more things.

Outside the palace, the whole world could tell that something is about to happen. The White Goddess and the Golden Deity seems to be in a hurry.

The White Goddess is the title the common people called Katarina.

When Katarina flies up on the air, snows fall and sunny days turns cloudy, the heat decreased and cold wind blows.

With Katarina always wearing white robes and her godlike means, many common people worshipped her as some Goddess.

All over the new world, there is temple dedicated to her.

As for Azief, people called him the Golden Deity. Azief sometime wears black

Sometimes it is black lined with purple and white. Sometimes it is the combination of these colors.

Azief no longer wears the Death Monarch outfit as his clothes is made of energy and could change according to his mood.

But when he flies in the sky, golden aura is emanated from his body.

Azief did not want to scare the people of this world, so he usually emanated out the golden aura to assure the people.

Because of that, this title was given to them.

Even though Azief and Katarina did not announce anything to the world, everyone could feel that something big is in the horizon.

Some smart people could guess that these two divine being from other world is about to leave.

After all some of them are already briefed on this. Only at that time, these divine beings did not tell them when they would leave.

But with Azief plucking out ancient existence out from the ground, slaughtering sea creatures that causes tsunamis and great seabed explosion to the White Goddess reforming many laws, constructing many building and monument, everyone could tell that the wind is blowing

Up there in the air, floating above the skies, there is Azief looking down.

His eyes seem to be looking downward but actually his eyes are looking all over the world. His Divine Sense had grown stronger and it had now enveloped the entire world

He takes a deep breath. Dripping from his hand is slimy green goo. It is actually blood. In the Seresian world, there is many monsters and otherworldly creatures.

'I have taken care most of them. Some of them would be left behind as my hidden card' he mutters to himself.

'And my training is almost completed' These past few days, Azief had been personally killing monsters all over the Seresian world.

Actually he did not have to do such a thing. With his improved and enhanced Divine Sense, he could kill monsters easily just by moving his Divine Sense.

But the reason why he did it personally is because he wanted to understand the artistic conception of attack.

He and Katarina talk a lot after he went back to the palace.

Usually, they would talk about their day.

But as he felt the urgency to get stronger, he also talks to Katarina about the way he practices.

He only spoke about such things to two people in his life

One of them is Sofia.

And the other one is Katarina.

While his other close friends know a bit about the path that he walked, they did not know in detail and they are usually not that prying.

Sina knows that he walks the perfection path but it is not something that came up in conversation.

As for Loki, Azief had a nagging suspicions that the Trickster already knows all that he should know about him.

But Sofia and Katarina is given all the information about his method.

It is because he trusted them and also because he is confident enough that even if this method leaks out, it would not do any harm to him

And since he shares his method, Katarina also shares with him her path. And Azief was surprised to know how different it is from his method.
