

Shadow 421

Chapter 421: The thirteen disk \(1\)

The moment he said that he closes his eyes and his aura rises up exponentially.

Azief is in his Inner Universe again as his presence stirred up all the twelve energies present inside it.

He takes a breath and the world stirs and responded like it is heaving and breathing like him

He is floating up in the sky his body is clothed by darkness and the aura around him were divine and full of godly presence that envelop everything.

He smirks as he looks above him. He is the Heaven here and if he wanted to he could travel anywhere in an instant.

It would not take him even a second since the Laws of Space and Time in this world is under his command.

In this world, he is God.

Whatever he desires, whatever he wanted would be realized. He felt his twelve energies that made up this world is eager to be unleashed.

It was like a pet that has gone hungry. It years to be fused again and Azief could not help but be excited.

They wanted to be unleashed from their leash.

He waved his hand and his energy spread out from him and a golden bluish light exploded out from him.

The sky around him changed colors, the sky shakes and rumbles, the land trembles and tremors and it was like an omen of apocalypse that is descending down from the heavens

Azief look at this with no change of expression as he could feel his entire body becoming even more powerful, full of energy and the ability to control everything in here

It was like he is slowly merging with everything. His eyes is shining bluish golden light as it could penetrate anything in this world and he could see even the smallest atom if he wish for it.

He smiles and then he said

'Gather!' he shouted, his word shakes the entire Universe as stars exploded creating a large black hole in some corner of his Universe.

And this word of him turns into a heavenly decree that could not be disobeyed.

The energy of the world heeded his summon like an emperor calling upon his loyal subjects. He looks at the sun and it dimmed and the world goes dark under his gaze.

He breathed and the winter wind set in and freeze the world, as mountains fall and trees wilted. Then he opens his palm, waiting for the energy to came to him

The Worldly energy gathers and turns into a small orb that spin on top of Azief palm.

On the real world, Sofia look worriedly at Azief.

While Azief is standing still on the middle of the marketplace, Sofia could see there is a change in Azief body. He is not the only one that senses it.

The dignitaries peek and could saw that the Death Monarch closes his eyes and his body suddenly emitted a powerful aura.

It was one that could push people hundreds of miles away, and it an absolutely terrifying aura as it seems wildly going off in every direction.

Yet, when that aura passes through the people that is kneeling and kowtowing to the ground, the aura removes their impurities. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

The one that is kowtowing feeling this energy passes through them knows that this is the way Death Monarch giving them some blessing.

The sorrowful appearance of the tens of thousands of people kowtowing on either side of the street become even more sorrowful.

The Heaven way is to abandon affection and become heartless. Azief defy this and he won. But who in the world could do things that Death Monarch did?

If everyone could do what he did, then he would not be considered a legend and the hero of the generation.

This is his era. Everyone knows that.

But even though Azief is not heartless that did not mean he is full of affection.

In a way, even though he did not follow Heaven Way, he is infinitely closer to heaven way than anybody else.

He is heartless and he abandon affection for useless things. But being heartless is not to be emotionless.

He might not care much about the people of Pandemonium and this continent when he first founded it but his heart grows fonder of it.

He had affection for this city but he still could appear so indifferent and emotionless and hold the affections people of the world gave him in disdain.

Because while affection is a precious thing...it is also very cheap. He knew that if have affection on something or someone, he must not be controlled by that affection.

And he is bad at doing that. That is why he defied the Heavens. He wanted to be whatever he wanted to be.

He nearly become inhuman.

Not in the way inhuman refers to being cruel but inhuman in the sense that he would not forget his emotion.

Azul had led him to believe that Heaven path is not the only path in this wide vast Universe and it is not necessarily the strongest.

It is the easiest but the easiest path does not mean it is the stronger path.

The moment Azief had his Will acknowledged by the heavens, he broke though something invisible and one could see he is more expressive and his feeling is more human.

In the past he would not care even a bit about these people kowtowing to them but now he is even giving them the chance of purifying themselves.

And his aura is slowly rising even more.

Inside his inner world, as the Worldly energy gather on top of his palm another energy is gathering and gaining momentum

The gravity in his Universe seems to be disturbed and the moons and the stars became dim like it is being drained.

Things that should have been stationary moved, and things that should move become stills and things that should not float, floated.

BOOOM! A larger explosion created an energy blast that spread out through his Inner Universe.

The stars were drained of its energy.

Energy coming out from this drained stars and moons gathers and turns into an orb of light that shot out to Azief and floated on top of his palm.

It looks like it is still but it is actually spinning so fast that no one could see its motion.

Azief could see it because he could feel its motion and he as the monarch of this Universe could see through it easily.

Azief smiles and then he looks back at his slowly destroyed world as the sea was rising, on one part and some were freezing while mountain collapses on itself and the large land break off into smaller pieces

On one part of his world, it was freezing while on the sea on the other side, it was boiling so hot that the vapors created clouds.

An ancient energy suddenly bursted out from the world.

Chapter 422: The thirteen disk \(2\)

Azief laughed as he sees what is coming out. He senses it before but now to see it again, it fills his hear with amazement and awe.

This energy is a gift from an old friend and he rarely uses it. It is the Ancient Runic energy. The moment he felt it runic symbols comes out from everything, from rocks and stones, from grass and water.

And the runic symbols also come from the moon and stars and from Space and Time itself as it destabilized the Inner Universe even further.

The usually stealth and hidden energy of the runes that embedded in everything in his Inner Universe were extracted out and it turned into an orb and floated on top of Azief palm

Each time the energy floated on top of his palm that energy envelop Azief entire being and he appears even more sacred

The runic energy faded away and everything that is embedded by the runic energy and the concept of his worlds turns into dust and blown by the winter wind as it accelerates the destruction of the many worlds inside his Inner Universe.

His world is crumbling down even more faster as the energies that supported his world is leaving

Then eh look at another direction as he senses another energy that is hard to sense and even harder to see.

He smirked and then he grabs something from the starry skies and like being pull by a mighty force, an orb of energy was forcefully dragged out from the emptiness of nothing of space.

It was scattered at first but the moment he grabbed to the nothingness, that scattered energies were forced to materialize and solidifies itself.

The thing that Azief grabbed is his Celestial Disk.

It is the energy that the Jade Emperor bestowed upon him when he was undergoing the Purification Fire Baptism.

The Celestial energy fills him and his eyes shines white for a moment, appearing like he is some kind of divine holy being.

For that one brief moment, he looks like an inviolable majestic being that descended from the High heavens and each of his words could not be disobeyed.

The four energies floated on top of his palm and they all wanted to fuse with one another. But Azief held them floating in place, not allowing them to fused just yet

With four energies that has prop up his Universe being extracted of course it would create an instability and destruction all over his Universe.

The Space and Time around his Inner Universe is tearing at its seams causing the entire Universe to expand and contact and contradiction began to happen all over the place, messing up the Laws and the concept of his world.

Vortexes of Time tearing and dimension ripping is slowly occurring all over his Inner Universe like it is slowly collapsing on itself.

Stars seems to be deformed as some of them have experienced some kind of Time Reversal and other experience Time Acceleration.

Space molecules scattered all around his Inner Universe and emitted unknown dark matter and unknown energies that bounces off against each other.

Azief then inhale and as he inhales a godly suction force, and stars and planets went into his small mouth.

It was an unbelievable sight that even with his current figure a small human compare to the planets and stars inside his Inner Universe he could swallow it. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

The moment he inhales the stars and planets shrinks enabling him to inhale them into his body.

But that is not what he wanted.

He is forcing out the All Source to appears and finally as the energies inside the Inner Universe at an all-time low, it appeared and turned into an orb and flew to him and floated on top of his palm

The All Source is very important in making sure that the energies on top of his palm stabilized.

The moment it appears on top of his palm, the All Source energies envelops the other energies causing them to be stabilized and not breaking apart

By now Azief universe is already crumbling down.

All over his Inner Universe countless planet is walking to their own destruction as the forces that held them in place has been taken away.

Planets that is orbiting around the sun slowly break off and exploded in a large explosion that splintered of to create space debris that fills the starry skies and stars bounces off each other, colliding and creating a supermassive black hole.

He saw souls flow from the destroyed Universe just like last time and he move his finger and the soul gathered and turn into an orb and flew to his palm

It is the Soul energies. With the Soul Disk come the other energies.

The demonic energy that is red and black in its colors floated and spun around on top of his palm and trying to defy his power.

'The Demonic energy and its defiant nature' Azief thought to himself as his pupil now has a tint of dark red

Then the Aether and Nether Disk with both of those energies seems to counteract each other appeared and floated to his palm.

Azief face trend serious now

'Any moment now' he thought to himself.

A few moments later the Primordial energy, Divine energy and Cosmic energy all gathered around his palm

Azief finally looded extremely serious right now.

All twelve energies are floating on top of his palm as behind him his Universe is breaking apart and large explosion happen almost endlessly

With all the energies is on top of his hand a Big Bang explosion happens as it wipes out his Inner Universe.

As it reforms back there is only nothingness in Azief Inner Universe....and that barrier. And him, standing on the darkness of emptiness looking at a direction with nothingness as its backdrop.

The large explosion did not leave him even with a scratch.

Now his entire being have twelve auras that are all overbearing and terrifying. Any of these energies could make one a powerful person in the outside world.

None of the energy that Azief cultivated and turned into his Disk is useless or ordinary.

Then He take a deep breath.

He closes his eyes in what seems like a moment but felt like an eternity passing him by. Then he opens his eyes back up and there is a smile on his face

'I am ready' he said to himself.

Then he closes his palm and the twelve energies all were absorbed into his body and as the twelve energies is fusing inside his body, his body glow with faint blue colors and emitted an ancient aura that seems to predate even Time itself.

His eyes seem to turn blue and seems to contain an entire Universe within it. He then gazes upon the emptiness of the void.

His gaze right now could even identify karmic causes and effect, looked through Life and Death and reverses the cause and effect of time ignoring causality.

That gaze only lingers for a second but it was terrifying enough that one gaze could uncover the entire Universe secret.

Chapter 423: The thirteen disk \(3\)

Azief did not even realizes it at that time because of how brief that gaze in his eyes could be maintained.

And he did not have that gaze consciously.

In his mind right now, his only priority is to break through this barrier and fuse his twelve energies to create the thirteen Disk and by doing so summons the Supremacy Stairway.

He pointed his finger to the nothingness above him and then he shouted

'Break!'

A twelve colored energy come out of his finger with adorning sound that seems that it could pierce through anything in the vast Universe.

Azief heard the droning sound as the light travels through the emptiness of darkness but it also sounds like it was a Song.

The distance between him and the barrier seems infinitely vast yet when he uses that finger strike composed of twelve energies fusing, it is like that light coming out of his finger ignores the Laws of Time and Space and instantly appear before the barrier and the light penetrate the barrier like a knife slices through butter.

Before the twelve energy smashing to the barrier only cracked it, but now with his body already ready and on the brim of breakthrough and he himself sure of his deduction, one attack is all that it took to break the barrier.

The dark cold universe is suddenly fill with abundant light and life.

The entire barrier with that one penetrating light all crumbles and the energy beyond the barrier merge with Azief body.

The Thirteen Disk is about to be formed. He closes his eyes and he felt that last energy is about to be formed.

And he felt that feeling once again as he expanded limitless, like nothing could constrain and chain him as a different brand energy envelops him

The light forms a protective layer around his body that is thick and large but as he absorbed the energy of that light his eyes turns bluer and his energy is rising in an unprecedented level

In the nothingness of darkness that light around him illuminate his entire Inner Universe.

Usually one would immediately reach Divine Comprehension when one person has reached the limit that they desire.

Raymond for example had already decided to form seven Disk and step to Divine Comprehension when he form his Seventh Disk.

But he had thirteen and he should have rocketed himself through Divine Comprehension probably leveling to the Pinnacle stage of Divine Comprehension realm but there is an invisible energy that is preventing him from immediately breaking through to Divine Comprehension.

Azief knows this must be the suppression of the Stairway.

He knows if he didn't want to summon the Stairway, he could just breakthrough right her and now, fusing all the energy in his body.

But if he does that it would broke the Perfection Path and unless he started from scratch once again he could never walk that path again.

Even if he started from scratch it doesn't guarantee that his luck would be as fortunate like this time.

He met Alsurt and he gave him the Ancient Rune energy.

He survives the Tribulation Fire and the Jade Emperor even gifted him a gift in the form of Celestial Energy.

He passed the Six trials of Azul and Azul extracted the other energies he needed from his Eternal Rings.

These kind of fortuitous encounter has shaped him to become the man he is now. Who knows if he gives up right now he might regret it in the future?

And if at that time he wanted to walk back on the path of perfection, he might not be as lucky as he is right now.

And he never regretted the fact that he walks this path even though he might die pursuing it.

He had thrown away that kind of fear a long time ago.

He had decided and is determined to summon the Stairway and walk this path until he could no longer.

His determination and obsession turned into an unbreakable will.

He let the Thirteen energies revolve inside his body. The light around his body is rapidly being absorbed as the light become thinner.

Even though his form is still his human form, he could still feel that feeling like he could be in an infinite form, existing in all, and like he has cut all of his causes and effect, he seems to be in a timeless dimension where he is eternal.

Like there is no end, there is no beginning and there is no middle. He is everything.

He collected himself as the Disk finally forms and a new brand Universe forms inside his body. This new Universe is teeming with the energy of Life and felt like a true universe.

He looks at this new Universe, created out of nothing as the last Disk materialize into a translucent Disk that towered above all creation.

Then it exploded into a motes of life and shower this universe with life.

And then he opens his eyes slowly.

He opens it and immediately the aura that he leaked out slowly being absorbed back into his body. The blessing he had given to those people that is kowtowing to him is priceless as many of them achieve breakthrough as the energy that passes through them was pure in essence and help them tremendously.

Azief smiles looking at this.

He stands there like nothing had happened to him.

To the outside world he stands still and closes his eyes for only a minute. But in his Inner Universe he felt like he was struggling for eternity.

Sofia in the distance look at the back of Azief and felt a sorrow feeling creeping up into her hearts

He smiles as he could feel the last energy in his body slowly settling in and as ball his fist he could feel the energy around him flowing and waving.

His twelve energy fused together and form a single Disk that had thirteen spectrum of colors and emanated an aura that is conflicting with each other yet because of the AI Source Disk, remains harmonious with each other.

The moment it was formed he knows exactly what the last Disk was.

It is an Omni energy. He felt like he could draw on the energy of matter from all worlds and could unravel even Time if he turns this energy into Laws.

Azief nodded in satisfaction as he looks at the sea of people still kowtowing to him. He sighs and he looked at the sky.

There is a person that look at Death Monarch from a distance, standing on top of a tall large tree that reaches the clouds.

This person wears a cloak and have a hood to prevent people from identifying who this person is.

This person looks at the scene of Death Monarch looking at the sky and this person smiles bitterly under the hood.

'Jean stares at clock, Hikigaya read books and you look at the sky' This person presence is masked and no one could sense this person.

Chapter 424: The thirteen disk \(4\)

In the marketplace, Azief was not done

He need to at least give some e form of protection for his people and for the people he loves. They are all in this Continent.

He wanted this place to be a home for his family. And a home needs to be safe. His eyes then widened as blue streak flashed in his eyes and he stomp his feet.

There is precession in energy as he lifts his feet and stomp it.

Usually with his mighty prowess, if he stomps the land, the entire marketplace could collapse on itself and created a twenty or thirty feet width crater.

Bu this time he wanted to nurture and not destroy.

The energy around his feet is fine and precise and as his feet landed on the ground, there is nothing like the impact of an explosion.

The land did not even shake even a bit.

Even the tile beneath his feet did not show any signs of being stomp upon.

Some of the dignitaries that is peeking on Death Monarch almost had a heart attack when he saw Death Monarch stomping his foot onto the ground.

They almost jumped out form the crowd and run away fearing an earthquake or a rift to open up in the middle of the road.

This dignitaries action is clearly different than the rest of the people of Pandemonium who even knowing that Death Monarch is about to stomp his feet trusted him and still kowtowing, leaving their life fully to Death Monarch.

But they were also shocked to sense that the stomping of his foot did not even scratch the tile.

Could it be the tile he steps on is some kind of divine artifact? Or could it be that Death Monarch is weak?

Both reason does not make sense but then as they ponder upon these question suddenly above them, the sky glow.

They could not see it but the children that does not understand why their parent kowtow to the man in the middle of the streets is obviously not as devoted or understand common sense as adults does.

When they see something that interest them they look up and when they saw the sky glows they shouted in excitement before closing their mouth with their hands and kowtow back to the ground following their parent's actions.

Azief smiles looking at those children.

Then he said his voice was majestic and deep

'Rise up and look up' The people of Pandemonium lifted their head, rises up and then they look up into the sky. There is glowing lights all around the skies.

The lights look like they are dancing.

There were many colors and there were many auras surrounding the sky of Pandemonium.

Those adults that look up at the sky knows it is no that the sky is glowing. It is the protection formation of Pandemonium that is glowing.

But because that protection formation is translucent it looks like the sky is glowing. They felt a mighty energy is embedded into the formation.

And it is not only one energy. It felt like all the energy in the world was embedded into the protection formation

The Shadow Guards appears in many dark place all over Pandemonium and look up at the sky as they frowned.

Though there are some Shadow Guards that do not look at the sky and only stand motionlessly like the energy is affecting them.

Those Shadow Guards is the Shadow Guards of the Dark Blade Division.

Only their division suddenly stop in unison like the energy that Azief had emanated and embedded into the Pandemonium protection formation affect them.

Azief is not entirely able to control the Omni disk perfectly but doing these kind of thing is easy.

The moment he forms that last Disk he knows he could create, shape and manipulate all feasible and imaginable forms of energy, having practically no limits on the amount or type of energy they can absorb, project or manipulate.

He smiles as one of his weakness have finally been conquered.

He has always been afraid of spells.

His encounter with Alsur teaches him that there are wizards in the Universe and their magic most of them does not make sense.

But nonetheless one thing that makes sense about magic is that it is still made of energy

In the end it is still energy.

And as long as it is energy he could manipulate it even the magical and esoteric energies which allow him to replicate the effect of magic or spells. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

This also at the same time makes him immune to such powers, seeing as how he now can absorb the magical energy powering spells, practically negating it.

But he also knows that is just one ability of his Omni Disk.

If he could create Laws out of this energy, he could even...and he couldn't believe it he is even thinking about it, but he could maybe reach to become Omnipotence.

Of course this is just speculation and it is an absurd speculation. But maybe.... just maybe.

What is more Perfect than being Omnipotent? That thought flashed into his mind for a second but he shakes that thought immediately.

When he stomps his feet a sliver of the thirteen energies in his body fused into the protection formation of Pandemonium.

He gave the key to the protection formation to Shinji and Sasha.

Even though other people couldn't see it Azief could see the faint lines of energy that outline the width and the height of the protection formation.

The moment he fused his energies into the protection formation the formation widened to cover even the Pandemonium Sea and its height increases by three hundred feet

To the child looking at the sky they giggled and laughed.

They find the sight of the sky glowing to be beautiful and laugh in happiness and their eyes are full of curiosity

The adults look at the sky and look at the glowing sky, feeling the abundant energy all over them and they know this is his last gift of Death Monarch before he departed.

Then they look back at Death Monarch.

One of them is about to kowtow to him once again but Azief looks through him and shakes his head. The young man closes his eyes and nods.

In the end, this is the only way they could express their gratitude and their sincerity has reached Death Monarch.

Then Azief saw it.

No, to be more accurate he senses it.

He immediately looks back at the sky and then an explosion of light happened on top of Pandemonium.

But this explosion of light covered the entire world skyscape so that everyone in the world that look up all saw this blinding light stretching end to end.

Everyone was shocked at this sudden explosion in the sky without rhyme or reason.

But this explosion produces no sound and inflict no damage. After the initial shock they look back at the sky and see an even more shocking sight.

There are stairs on the sky.

The stairs seem infinite and vast and it seem stretching to the unknown beyond.

And the energy emanating out of the stairs force all the people in the world to prostrate to it. Only some powerful people could resist the pressure.

The pressure lessens in Pandemonium as they could at least maintain some dignity by kneeling on the ground as their body seems to be pressured by thousands of mountains piled on top of them

If not for the protection formation and that is has bene strengthened by Azief energy, they might be in a more terrible form.

This is the suppression power of the Supremacy Stairway. And this is not even the true Supremacy Stairway.

This is just the normal steps leading to the Supremacy dimension where the true Supremacy Stairway await him Azief though.

In the sea of people sweating from their back, their hand and entire body trembling because of the pressure Azief was the only one standing straight.

Even Sofia and that mysterious persons on the branch of the tree had to use their entire power to remain standing.

Sofia buckled down and kneel on the ground, her knees touched the tile and the person on that branch jumped down and kneel.

That person looks at the sky and gritted her teeth in defiance.

The Supremacy Stairway has come for him and only him could resist it. It is not even resist. It felt like a nourishing pressure that strengthened his body even more.

Chapter 425: The thirteen disk \(5\)

Azief look and s the children and they seem not to be affected by the pressure either. It is probably because they have no energy to suppress or they have no path yet.

The Supremacy Stairways is created from thirteen Supreme Being.

And the fact they would appear when one reached a certain Perfection means they are a generous Supreme Being and wished for the welfare of the Universe.

They suppress but they do not destroy. Or in the case of the stairway suppression, it is that they unintentionally suppress others.

They are after all Supreme Being.

And when they arrived countless of myriads races through the Universes would kneel to show their respect.

The only one that did not have to kneel is those who strive for Perfection.

Azief look behind him and saw Sofia looking at him. He did not say anything, his eyes already told her everything.

He is leaving. He looks at the sea of people prostrating to the ground, struggling to get up and h smiles faintly.

he has done everything he could and mobilize his Shadow Blade and even the Dark Blade Division, He hoped that he himself would survive this tribulation. If he survives then nothing in this world is an obstacle and he could protect everyone.

But if he failed, the measure he had left behind would at least manage to protect them until they grow strong enough to live and slowly forget him.

The only regret he had now is that he couldn't see Katarina before he left.

He then looks back at the sky and look at the stairway, hovering in the air with light coming out of the staircase that seems to even light up the starry dark skies above the skies of Earth.

'I am leaving' he declared as his voice echoes and with his energy slowly fusing with the energy on the steps of the stairway, his voice echoes and reverberated through the entire world.

The whole world hears his declaration that he is leaving and the expression of sorrow could be seen in every face of people of Pandemonium.

On the other hand, some people were rejoiced at this declaration.

There are also fear. Right now even those who rejoiced in the news could not help but prostrate onto the ground or kneeling.

Imagine the feeling of suffocation of having Death Monarch among them. It is like a God walk among them. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

And it is not even the nicer God. It is a hard to read, moody and fierce God that inspire fear and death to those who he deemed sinful.

Now that he is leaving, how could those people hiding in the dark not rejoice hearing this news.

Another person did not bow or kneel and that person is Void. He is looking at that stairway somewhere in the Aegean Sea as he laughs maniacally.

Even the monster below the Deep Sea remain still and dare not come out.

The energy emanating from that stairway is ancient and for many of the monster they could sense the primal monstrous energy of those that have step into that stairway and it awaken the fear in their instinctive memories.

Azief take a breath and with a smile he opened up his arms and slowly floated up as one streak of light shot to him from the stairs and envelop his entire body.

Sofia look at his floating figure and smile as she slowly got up. That mysterious person below the tree open up her hood to reveal the most beautiful face.

It is woman and not just any woman. She is the most beautiful woman in the world, Katarina the Ice Queen.

She came to send Death Monarch off and as she saw him floating to the sky, there is a single tear coming out of her eyes.

She wipes the tears away and then look on

Azief did not realizes that Katarina is also looking at him. If he did it might have distracted him. He is just floating as he come closer to the stairway.

The closer he came to the stairways, the more of the pressure lifted off from the world.

And then he stepped on the stairway and the pressure on Earth dissipated. Now he is on the stairway and he could feel the energy roaring from below his feet.

And he smiles.

Chapter 426: The first step \(1\)

The sky was white.

The blue sky was replaced with a white expanse. And in the middle of that expanse is a step of stairs that seems to extend infinitely to outer space

It was floating there on the sky and release tremendous pressure.

There are some people in seclusion who already reached Disk Formation that try to fly to the stairway after Death Monarch step on it.

But to their shock and amazement, they found out that no matter how they fly upwards, the stairs seems to be getting further and further away from them.

To their eyes it looks like it was near them but the moment they arrived at that stairway, they would found out that it is farther away.

It was like an unattainable height.

That stairway only appears in Pandemonium but to some people who have reached high level in their attainment and understanding of the Disk they also see this stairway.

Some people know that this fortune is not for them so they do not fly to the sky to make a fool out of themselves.

Some thought that they could at least bask in the aura of the stairway.

Others thought that there might be a chance for them to get something out of this or maybe get a streak of enlightenment like Hikigaya did when he saw the Wheel of Reincarnation

Hirate who was at the Island of Peace saw the stairway just ten meters in front of him but he did not walk towards it.

Because he knows the moment he did that, the stairway would appear upward and farther and farther away no matter how far he chased it.

It is an illusion created by the stairway

Jean, Oreki, Raymond all the people that have high attainment in their Disk Formation and outside of Pandemonium saw it.

Of course the people in Pandemonium no matter how high their attainment in Disk Formation, they would only see only one stairway.

The reason was because that stairway in Pandemonium is the true stairway that leads to the Supreme Dimension and as such even though Katarina and Sofia is at high level of attainment in their Disk Formation they did not see any other stairway appearing in front of them

The whole world was shocked to see the stairs.

In a cave in Japan, a person waved his hand inside the cave and a projection of his existences appear outside, looking at the stairway.

This person is none other than Hikigaya. He looks at the stairs in the sky calmly, his eyes seem to have six ring circling his pupils.

Supremacy Stairway.

Even though he doesn't know everything about the Path that Death Monarch is embarking he did know a little about the Stairway.

A stairway that only shows itself to those who walk the Perfection Path. Hikigaya only smiles. He looks toward the sea.

'Now that the person that holds the reigns to all the monster in the world is gone, I expect the world will be a more interesting place' he smiles and then he laughs.

His word reveals his true thoughts.

Hikigaya always felt that the deterrence of Death Monarch has kept the world largely at peace. He is a terrifying existence but also a calming existence.

If those criminal could be considered as a monster, then Death Monarch is the granddaddy of them all. He eats small monster for breakfast

No one knows what will set him off so many people just lay low when it is about Death Monarch.

Death Monarch himself rarely express his desire and intention which makes his motivation a mystery and kept people guessing

That unpredictability of his work in his favor which cultivated this personality of Death Monarch that seems to do everything and anything he wanted whenever he wanted it

Like a storm he came and he destroy. Sometimes he did not even give any explanation why he did the things he did.

Raymond was strong but he did not have that aura of deterrence like Death Monarch. Raymond is a nice guy and he could be negotiated with.

Not Death Monarch.

He is resilient in his pursuit of his own justice and of right and wrong. And resilient is just another word for stubborn.

Hirate and many other figures of the world as they saw Death Monarch step on that stairs and about to depart they know that the current condition of the world when he levees will be turbulent.

The article of the world distribution and the continuing cooperation between the Seven Great Powers will be more crucial going forward.

Hikigaya was not the only one looking at this phenomenon.

All over the world, everyone is looking at the stairway glittering with light like it was the stairway to Heaven and they were all in awe

Loki is in the Centre Palace when he saw the Stairway appearing. He himself was awe at the sight. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

'I guess one of your regret is resolved' Loki said smiling looking at that tiny figure on top of the steps of the stairway.

He once saw the Supremacy Stairway when he became Sovereign and was stranded on an empty Universe.

He saw the Stairway but he could not step on it.

At that time even though Azief has become Sovereign he had regret of rushing his breakthrough and not perfecting his Disk.

He just said he had no luck

At that time, he was the enemy of the World government and was hunted by the agents of the World government so he had no chance but to abandon the Perfection Path and breakthrough to Disk Formation to defeat those who were sent to kill him

He did not even have the chance to form his Undying Physique and of course the path to Perfection was broken. He was not like the him today.

When he became Death God, Azief seek the Supremacy Stairway.

At that time, he of course could walk the Supremacy Stairway but it had no effect or to be more precise the stairway did not react to him.

Azief told him these when he visited his Heaven.

Today, the future did not go like that.

Not only that, he also was not oppressed by the World Government and was not hunted by them.

Instead it was the World Government that had to fear that they would be hunted by Death Monarch

Clearly the future has changed since not only he had break through that shackle, the future that Loki is treading right now, while certainly have similarity with his own timeline it is slowly changing to become a brand new story

And that is good for him right now. The plan he and Hirate and Sofia of the future concocted are all slowly coming into fruition.

Loki sigh and said to himself

'Whether this change is good or bad.... hmm...Even I am not sure. I just hope you don't die'

Chapter 427: The first step \(2\)

Truth be told even Loki don't know what is the tribulation of the Supremacy Stairway.

In his era and the era before him even in the era of The First Sovereign he never met someone who have walked the Supremacy Stairway.

Those that did walk those steps eons ago. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

He then thinks about something else

He got the report from Shinji that they spotted Katarina in Pandemonium.

When Loki receive the report he could only sigh.

He too hoped that in this timeline Katarina would survive and probably has her own happy ending.

If there is one thing he wanted to prevent, to change it off course from the determined events, it was none other than the War of Sovereign.

It was a terrible battle. It could be considered a civil war between Sovereigns and in such battle of titanic figures, how many lives become collateral in their fight?

Death God Azief at first did not participate in the battle. He even had advice Katarina to not enter the battle.

There is of course a behind story of why he was late on returning to Earth and miss the opportunity to save Katarina.

And when she died, her essences fuse with the Universe and even her soul fused with it so Death God Azief could not even resurrect her.

Even if he did resurrect her the one that will be revived is not her.

It was her death that prompted Death God Azief to enter the war and with his participation it become a one sided battle with him taking the lives of the Twin Sages of Japan Oreki and Hikigaya.

In that timeline, they rarely interacted with each other.

But in this timelines, how many times have Oreki helped Azief and even in that clash against the Heaven Oreki and Hikigaya both came to his aid.

The relationship between the eventual Death God and the future Twin Sages of Japan is clearly not as distant as in his timeline

The wish of seeing Katarina survive is not wished only by him.

Sofia also hope she survives.

Because after her death Sofia said that no matter how she tried to convince herself that Death Monarch truly loved her, she would never know for sure.

After all, how could she fight with a dead person locked inside his memories.

She also wished that she survives.

He sighed as he walks outside the throne room.

Now that Death Monarch is leaving, he appointed Loki as the Regent.

One might see it as the sign that Death Monarch while did not like what Loki did during the matter of Pandikar he still trusts him to saddle him with such a big responsibility.

Truth is, it is because Azief knows Loki would never do something that would harm him and at the same time he hoped the task of managing Pandemonium would slow down whatever plans Loki had.

Azief did not know what Loki is planning but he knows Loki would do anything to make sure he becomes stronger.

Even now, Azief still didn't understand why Loki is so intent on making him stronger when it was him that was, as Loki said it, destroy the Universe.

And he always knew Loki to be talented in allocating resources.

After all he has his own secret forces all around the world.

Of course Azief just assumes this because of the many secrets that Loki had under his sleeve.

Loki also could guess the real reason why Azief put him in his position. He smiles bitterly and then said 'A good move but nonetheless insufficient' Loki said to himself as he smiles and walk away

As Loki walk out of the room, on the streets of Pandemonium the feeling of the people looking at their Monarch departing fills them with fear and uncertainty, sorrow and sadness.

This phase after he is gone would probably the hardest time that Pandemonium would have since its founding.

But since Azief had strengthened the formation, unless a Pinnacle Divine Comprehension leveler or someone who walks the same path as him come attacking, it would stay unbroken.

That alone could be considered an unbreakable shield. And there is still the agreement on the Article of Distribution.

Many of them kowtowed to that figure on the staircase above the clouds, all feeling this uncertainty of the state of the world.

That is the effect of Death Monarch.

From the moment he was dubbed as the strongest person in the world, the matters of the world revolve around on what he would do.

And the whole world watches in awe at that figure.

Even that person was silent as he looks at the sky. Void look at the sky and the majestic sight of the stairway seems to fill his heart with desolation.

Then he laughs

'I'm going to wreak chaos when you are gone. If you die, then I guess that's that'

While some people hope that the Death Monarch would never leave, many of those that hide in the dark watches at the stairway amidst the cloud and is waiting impatiently for Death Monarch to take his step forward and go away from Earth.

It is their chance to see the sun again and come out to the world again.

Even though the Broker, the one that put together the Crime Alliance is reported missing, the Crime Alliance is stronger than ever.

After all the force that they had to face is none other than Death Monarch and they have no choice other than to band together

Regardless of one intention, wishes and desire, they all look toward that stairway, waiting for that one step forward.

Unknown to the people of Earth, out there in the darkness and the vastness of the Universe there are also many eyes that is looking at Azief.

One of them sit in a red throne on a sailing broken star.

His eyes look nervous as he watches Azief as he wished that he would succeed the tribulation.

This person of course knows about the Supremacy Stairway as he was there when it was first created.

Chapter 428: The first step \(3\)

Somewhere on the Three Thousand Worlds, a man who is fishing on the back of his Jade Palace take back the casting line he had cast off and stop what he is doing.

He wears a shabby clothes and have a conical hat on top of his head. He was whistling in relaxation before he sees what is happening

He looks at the clear pond and he saw Azief on the Supremacy Stairway entrance steps

He sighed and shakes his head

'I guess today I had to forget fishing some Fate and Destiny' he got up from his seat and as he got up the shabby clothes he wore and the conical straw hat on top of his hat dissipate like it was dust and his outfit transformed into imperial robe and his eyes turns golden and appears to see through everything.

His entire being radiated an inviolable aura like he alone is divine on Heaven and Earth

He then summons the Sky Dragon and mounted it.

The Sky Dragon roars and then flew with the man to his Three Thousand Rift Platforms.

In matter of second he arrived at the Platform and when he arrives he saw three thousand souls are already waiting for him.

The soul did not look at him, as they all are standing in their position waiting for him. They are expressionless and translucent.

They seem to have no intelligence but only a wisp of will required to do what they were supposed to do.

He sighed once again as he looks at the state of the platform which is full of dust and cobwebs.

After all it has been a long time since anyone walk the steps of the Supremacy Stairway.

He waved his hand and the dust that have been gathering on this Three Thousand Rift Platform all were sweep away by a large gust of wind. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

The Three Thousand Rift Platform is connected to the Supremacy Dimension because one of the Thirteen Supreme Being come from The Three Thousand World.

That Supreme Being is not human

It is a monkey.

That monkey had wrecked the First Jade Emperor residence and fight many Gods.

Of course the First Jade Emperor is still him as he was the reincarnation of the First Jade Emperor.

That monkey then breaks the barrier between the Three Realms and then travels the stars and created many legend and also walk the Path of Perfection as his body controls all the Five Elements in its purest sense.

When that monkey met the stairway, he become the Thirteen Supreme Being to add a step alerting the Laws of the Universe that enables people to form until Thirteen Disk as the limits.

And he opened up three thousand rifts that correspond to the three thousand world of the Jade Empire.

Since then the Three Thousand Rifts of space in the Supreme Dimension is connected to The Immortal Realm of the Three Thousand World.

Now, that another person is about to walk the stairway, he also need to impose restriction which would help anyone trying to surpass this tribulation.

After many people contributed to the Stairway, all of them peak level character people thought the test would be hard. Depends on one thought the test could be considered easy or hard.

To this person, he found that the test is not that hard.

Of course this person that is fishing and now wearing an imperial robe is none other than the Jade Emperor.

He walks to the center of the Platform where there is a circle carving in the middle. This entire platform is designed to look like a circle if you look at it from above.

And the position that the Jade Emperor is standing is the epicenter of that circle. His eye is full of determination.

'Who would have thought he really would be able to solve Azul regret? No wonder I sense a disturbance in the energy a few years ago. It seems Azul have managed to revert destiny and fate and alter reality'

The Jade Emperor sit cross legged on that circle as the other soul on the other position also sit down cross legged.

He revolves his energy and sealing script appears in his eyes and the eyes of the Guardian Souls on the platform.

The Jade Emperor closes his eyes and the soul they began to sing

It was a Song that no one could understand yet it created resonance with the many seals and formation embedded in the platform.

It sounds like a chanting of names.

This Song slowly grew louder and creates a synergy with all of the souls here and they turn into a wisp of fire than the wisp of fire flew to the Jade Emperor and enter him.

Energy fills him and then as that energy is reaching its peak the Jade Emperor push his palm together and then slam the ground beneath him.

As he slams his palm, a powerful restriction appears through all the Three Thousand Rifts in the Supreme Dimension and the Jade Emperor lies on the middle of the epicenter of that circle formation, exhausted and sweating.

But he did not complain. It is one of his duty to make sure that the Three Thousand Rift would maintain balance to the Three Realms of the Three Thousand Worlds.

He then said to himself

'Don't know if you are going to succeed or not but since I am not the only one rooting for you, I think you will surely surpass these obstacles too' The Jade Emperor said to no one in particular.

It is slowly coming closer for him to enter seclusion.

In that other timeline, his Empire was thrashed pretty badly by the Death God.

He battled with Death God Azief many times but because of that ten ring on his finger he never had quite the advantage.

This time when he wanted to sabotage Azief perfection path Wargod persuade him instead of increasing the animosity between them on a deed not yet committed in this timeline, why not help the mortal?

Kindness begets kindness and from the moment he helps Azief a karma is formed between them.

He sighed as he closes his eye as he wanted to replenish his energy.

Wargod and the Jade Emperor is the few of the Beings in the Universe that watch over Azief but there is also another Being that is watching all of Azief movement with a calm look.

It is a couple sitting on a throne in a Universe full of beautiful planet and dazzling stars.

Chapter 429: The first step \(4\)

Wargod and the Jade Emperor is the few of the Beings in the Universe that watch over Azief but there is also another Being that is watching all of Azief movement with a calm look.

It is a couple sitting on a throne in a Universe full of beautiful planet and dazzling stars.

The man is large and gigantic and his entire being and existence is radiating so much energy that it suppresses the energy of the stars around him and distorted the space around him with just slight movement.

Even just looking at him and feeling the energy he emanated, he must be one of the peak level expert in the Universe

He is sitting on a throne of light and he was the Overlord of his Universe. Everything in this Universe happens because he wills it and he reign over the destruction and creation in this Universe

His gaze seems to encompass everything in the Vast Universe.

His eyes are two flaming balls of suns and his skin seems to glitter like twinkling stars

The essence of creation, time and destructions swirls around him and his throne complementing each other as it should be, harmonious and creating a synergy effect.

Behind him there is a wheel.

And in each of the wheels there is countless of souls of the dead.

That spinning wheel that seems to never stop spinning seems to contain the power of life and death, of creation and destruction.

He looks at the projection and smile. his finger is twinkling with an apocalyptic pressure as he moves his finger

'That old friend of yours have escaped' A voice seems to sounded in this large and dark Universe.

There is another gigantic figure beside the man. It is a woman that emanated a very powerful emanation of resonance with the energy of the Universe

The man sits on a white throne with a crown of star son his head and the woman sits on a purple throne beside him, looking regal wearing a dress decorated with the stars of the Universe.

They are a match made in heaven

She has long purple wavy hair, honey blushed skin and on her forehead there is a diadem of the brightest looking crystal in the Universe.

On her waist is small sharp dagger that glints with dangerousness that could split apart Time and Space.

These two being is none other than Azul and Meihul. Azul hearing Meihul reminded him about the chained Destroyer only smiles bitterly.

'My old friend is not in there anymore. At least not yet. And his release is fated. In the end this is His plan. I did not intend to defy Him. After all, that is not my Universe. I just wanted to give the mortal a chance. Though he could not be considered mortal anymore' Azul said with a smile forming on his face.

Meihul nodded

'Will you help him? If I am not mistaken in one of your reincarnation you also walk that stairs'

Azul smiles and shakes his head

'He didn't need my help'

Meihul then said

'I thought you still owe him three deeds.'

Azul nodded as he looks at the direction of Earth.

Even though the distance that separated him and Earth could be considered astronomically far, surpassing dimension, universe and even realities, Azul eyes is able to penetrate through all that obstacle and look at Azief like he was there in front of him

'But this is not yet the time to help him' Meihul look at Azul and then she nodded.

She heard from Azul how complicated that person fate is. She only sighed and then nodded in understanding.

She of course felt gratitude for Azief since he was the one that help her to be revived back with her complete soul and even alter reality.

That is a grand changing cataclysmic magic.

Azul have sacrificed eons just to make sure she could come back to him and she was happy now.

In the altered reality, she was with Azul from the beginning he become the Divinity of Fire until he become this Supreme One of the Vast Universe and sometimes is also known as the Great Supremacy of Vast Universe

'Then I guessed we would only watch' Azul nodded as he holds tightly Meihul hand and Meihul smiles.

'This journey is his journey. It would not be beneficial for me to aid him at this time'

'What about her?' Meihul ask

'Who?'

'Zinar daughter' Azul sighed hearing this and his mood went down a bit. A planet that is floating underneath his feet suddenly cooled down for a hundred years

'I heard she became one the Ten Demonic Demons. Demonic Queen of the Womanly Demonic Nation if I am not mistaken of the Demonic Realm' Azul smiles bitterly

His eyes look past Earth and landed on the Three Thousand World and he sighed again.

Then he said regretfully

'She chooses that path for herself. Something change when I managed to alter reality but something did not'

In the original world before Azief passes Azul trial, Zinar is the one that become the Demonic Queen.

One of the reason was because she was rejected by Azul and wanted to meet him again but was never successful in her searching.

That feeling of love then turn into hate and longing.

But when Sorcerer of All Realm overturn Time, Fate and Destiny, it changes the ending of the story between Zinar and Azul.

Azul in the new altered reality after he breakthrough from the shackle of power he abdicated from the position of Emperor and become the Saint of Ten Thousand Worlds.

As the Saint of Ten Thousand Worlds he seeks Zinar and live a life of bliss and happiness with her.

He lived with her until she died of age.

He then had to return back to the path of reincarnation and his daughter were taught immortal spells but in the end she turned toward the Demonic path and after knowing the truth that her father accepts

Death and leave her alone because he wanted to revive another woman, his daughter turns furious and had the misunderstanding that Azul uses her mother.

At that time Azul has already started a different life to complete his Reincarnation Path.

This is what he means by something change but not everything changes.

Before the reality were altered it was Zinar herself that become the Demonic Queen. After the reality was altered it was her daughter that become the Demonic Queen

Azul look on other direction. That daughter of his also called herself Zinar to remember her mother.

Unknown to her Azul could see pass through other dimension to look at her only daughter that survives the passing of eons.

He sighed and then said to Meihul

'She has her own destiny and fate. I have ascertained that when I look at her fate. One day we will meet again and when that time come I hope I could explain the misunderstanding between her and me'

Meihul nodded and then look back at the direction of Earth.

All these bigshots in the Universe are all looking at Azief.

Some of them know the path he would eventually walk while some desire him to walk a different path than before.

Many dark forces stir in the darkest part of the Universe as dark googly eyes seems to open in the recesses of some abandoned Universes.

For eons there have been no one to take that step into the Supremacy Stairway. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

Whoever passes the trials of the Supremacy Stairway would be guaranteed to become a powerful figure in the future.

On Earth Azief look in front of him and he could see the infinite space in front of him.

Other people might see clouds but in front of him right now he could see the stars and space gas.

It was like the step in front of him is a rip in space only this rip is stable and seems to conform to the Laws of the Universe.

With determination in his heart he takes that first step forward.

Chapter 430: The gate \(1\)

The moment he stepped on that stairway, a powerful rejection force suddenly appeared around him trying to push him down.

Azief frowned a little but he is still confident as the pressure passes him by

It was the same pressure that force all the people in the world to prostrate to it before only this time all of that pressure was condensed and directed at him

It is like a test, trying to determine whether this person really could go up the stairway. It is to test whether that person have perfected their body.

If Azief did not perfected his Physique during his Energy Disperse Stage the moment he takes that step, the rejection force would blow him away and the staircase would disappear and never to appear again.

But because he already perfects his Physique the rejection force felt like it was breezing wind to his body.

At first it felt like someone is trying to push him down but as it come into contact with Azief physique it turns into a tame wind, gentle and cool

He finally moves forward as he gently walked up the stairs that is on top of the clouds, his figure and his shadows seems to cover the sun and all living beings on Earth like he was the only figure between Heaven and Earth.

This kind of sight would surely be awe inspiring for anyone that had the goal of actualizing their Grand Path.

Hikigaya returns to his cave, Hirate closes his eyes and that woman below the tree flew up and retreated from Pandemonium, snowflakes falls under her feet.

He walks slowly and calmly on that step.

The more he walks the farther he seems to have travel. It was like one step equals to a million miles.

He took another three step forward and the scenery around him changed. He looks on his left and right and he saw stars and floating space rocks.

He looks behind him and he saw planet Earth.

But the steps he had climb behind him has disappeared. He could stilt run back right now. He could jump from this floating stairs and fly back to Earth. Because if he takes another few steps, Azief got the premonition that at that time there will no longer be turning back. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

He smiles like there is nothing to think about. His left foot and his right foot rose and then he walked the step like he was running. He could see from the corner of his eyes that the scenery on his side is changing constantly like he was running through universes and breaking through some pocket dimension to reach the Supreme Dimension

It was exhilarating. There is no fear in his heart. He already was prepared to possibly loses his life here so all he could feel right now is excitement.

After all, how is this any different than before. He seeks power and strength and he always knew that he had to bet his life from the moment he walks this path

If he failed, he died. That would be unfortunate of course but at least he tries.

But if he succeeds than he is getting closer to his goal.

He keeps running and he could see even more sceneries of space passes him by.

He passes a star systems full of gas, and even some Universe that is beginning to be born and at one point he passes through a dark universe that seems to have no light at all.

It was like he was in a dark room and seeing nothing.

If not for the fact that the stairway is made of light and shines his way forward Azief is confident that he would get lost in that Universe.

But he remains calms as his steps become faster and now he is running on the steps. Behind him after he finish a step that stair step would disappear, like an energy that dissipated.

Around him he could see all kinds of planet and stars systems but he had not time to stop as he keeps running and finally he saw the end.

And what he saw shocked him to his core.

He saw a Gate. A gigantic Gate that seems to block all things in front of him and those who are in front of it is unable to see past it.

There is a lot of symbols etched onto the gate and each of the symbols was extremely complete and each of them gave an ancient aura and seems to contains Laws.

Azief was careful as he slowly takes his step to the gate.

He saw no other way than to push through this gate but looking at its size could his strength pushed this door open?

Is this also one of the test?

'Fuck it' he said to himself as he pushes the gate. He expected to be hit by a rejection force but like he is pushing a well-oiled door, the gate door slowly opens.

The ancient aura around the Gate became extremely dense at this moment.

The star systems around him were all effected. Some of the stars around him exploded.

But the force of that explosion did not even have the chance to manifest itself as it was absorbed by the Gate.

Some planets shrink and turns into an orb of light and flew to the Gate merging with the glowing blue symbol on the Gate

Then a new life aura spreads out in this Dark Universe. Azief was struck with a realization. This Gate destroy but also give life.

This Universe he sees around him is nothing but an old Universe.

He saw the wrinkling of stars and planets, saw them withering and was absorbed by the Gate before the Gate nourish life once more.

It was like a farmer cutting off weeds and then throw fertilizer so that new plants could grow.

At this time Azul who was watching Azief progress from the Vast Universe could not help but frown when he saw that Gate appeared.

'Humph' he snorted in displeasure.
