

Shadow 581

Chapter 581: All seals broken \(2\)

The moment he did that the Pagoda suddenly shakes and trembles and the trembling shake the entire mountain.

Then it glowed golden and he felt a great feeling of evil aura slowly coming out from the temple. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

Golden light pierced the skies and the cloud opened up, revealing the stars that could only be seen during the night sky,

The martial artist that were rushing toward the Temple also saw the night sky during the day and they all felt that this matter must have something to do with the Sword God as they expel out the fears in their heart.

Seeing such phenomenon, they all could sense the happening on top of the mountain would once again shock the world as they increase their speed to reach the entrance gate of the temple.

The villagers near the foot of the mountain when they saw night sky in the middle of the day, they all prostrated toward the temple, fearing that an Immortal is about to descend down and handed down divine retribution.

Azief also felt a sensation.

That one steps he took toward the Temple broke the seal beneath his right foot.

He felt energy surging inside him as he felt his power returns to about thirty percent.

On top of the Thirteen Steps of Supremacy Stairway, the Divine Law Body on the eleventh steps stirs.

The sound of chanting and songs that is sung in an unrecognizable language fills the eleventh steps of the Thirteenth Steps of the Supremacy Stairway.

The eleventh steps itself cracks in many parts, the Laws and Concepts around it spirals into voids and nothingness like it could not stand the weight of the Divine power of the Law Body of the Divine.

A Great Will burst out from the Divine Law Body the moment it seems to stir.

A pure Divine power fills the Universe and a world shaking pressure was emanated as the Divine Law Body tries to get up.

Every move and every movement from the Divine Law Body disperse divinity all over the Supreme Dimension.

Strength is apparent from the Divine Law Body as its level of power surges up to the Heavens

Azief Divine Law Body slowly stand up as the space around it distorts and breaks. Time and Space around it seems to go out of orders.

The Divine Law Body slowly get up and light fills the steps and the Divine Light that comes out from the existence of the Divine Law Body chains up with the Netherworlds Sea, the light of the Celestial powers and the other essence of power that the other Law Body had emanated like it was trying to harmonize with it

And like the other Law Bodies he had a sword in his hand. It was a sword created purely by a divine will.

The Netherworld sea could not come close to this divine sword fill with divinity of power to create and unmade things.

The Souls that hovers around the Soul Law Body also did not dare to come near the divine sword.

Anyone that come to close would be dissipated because of its pressure. Primordial energy on the other hand melded seamlessly with the aura around the Law Divine Body.

Azief Law Body then grip tighter on the Divine Sword and it broken into motes of light that fills the steps as it was absorbed into every pores of the Divine Law Body

On the Sealed World, Azief who had taken that one step toward the Temple had a streak of blue light streaking passes inside his pupils and a powerful energy emanates out of him.

‘It is broken’ he thought to himself, a smirk forming on the edge of his mouth

The weather above the temple slowly changes. The cold hard day but with clear skies suddenly changed. Dark clouds appear out of nowhere and the wind changes its directions.

BOOM!

Thunder roars and the mountain tremble like it is the end of the world.

Everyone that was climbing the stairs could all see the roiling clouds above them and see the thunders that roars erratically like it was a scene of heavenly chaos.

They all remembers the words of the storyteller that were present during the Sword God fought off the imperial forces.

Thunders roars and wind changes direction and the mountain tremble. Right now, the same thing is happening.

They did not run away when they remembered that story. instead they keep running even faster

On the eleventh steps, the Divine Law Body has slowly get up from his position.

The Divine Light from his body pierces the interdimensional barrier of the Supreme Dimension, the divine power spreading outside the steps and even graces some of the planets that were outside of the Supreme Dimension, helping them to skip evolutionary stages of their existence.

Threads of fates and destiny bonded itself upon the Divine Law Body.

The diamond mark and vein like pattern that is beneath Azief right foot in the Sealed World was broken and in doing so, the Divine Law Body reached its completion.

Azief in the Sealed World could feel that his Divine Sense is slowly expanding and it keep expanding.

On the steps, now that the Divine Law Body had been complete, its Divine Energy penetrate through the distortion of the energies around the statue that have been helping the Law Divine Body to gained its completion

When Azief was on the eleventh steps the distortion of energy was so strong that even with his Divine Sense he could not pierce and see the entirety of the area of the steps.

The eleventh steps are huge.

It stretches from one star to another. On the eleventh steps there is a statue very distinctly different than the other statue.

It has a statue of an angel-like being holding a sword riding a dragon with which his left hand holds the dragon golden rein.

The sword is shining with flames and his wing seems so large it could cover an entire planet.

Behind him there is a host of heavenly being just like him having a smaller wings and follow him from behind.

Those statues are all emanating a source that resembles natural laws of the Universe.

This time as the Divine Law Body is complete the divine and faith energy of the statue has all been drained out.

The Divine Law Body gaze upon the statue with his eyes as blue aura shoot out from its pupils, hitting the statue.

The moment it hits the statue, the statue cracks and it slowly crumbles.

The statue of the angel-like being that is leading the heavenly host cracks before dissipating into dust.

The other statues behind it also exploded turning into nothingness as they left a space rips each position where they were at

This space rips and when one looks closely at the space rips the could that the position of those heavenly host resembles a formation

The formation suddenly converges into one point, gathering the powers of divine powers and faith energy around the steps and then it disperses all around the steps in a peaceful manner.

In that one second, the weird formation nullifies the backlash of the Supremacy Stairway. In a Universe far away, an angel like being who was sitting on top of branch of a large tree sighed

He is in his physical states right now. Though he knew whether he is in a spiritual state or any other states of existence, it would be useless if he did not set up certain precaution.

He sighed as a few of his feather falls down to the fertile ground beneath the tree, turning black and then a few second later, those black feathers turn into flames and dust as the wind of the area waves away the burned feathers.

The angel-like being only sighed and did not say anything else. He only looks toward that tree branches where there is only one fruit.

It looked very tempting.

The angel-like being did not care too much about the matter of the stairway since he knows about it since eons ago.

Because of that he has been prepared. Unlike the others, he had no comments and he did not gaze toward Azief.

It is not because he is arrogant. It is because this is not his matter and as such he would not interfere.

Chapter 582: All seals broken \(3\)

Meanwhile on the Stairway, the energy of the Divine swirls around the Divine Law Body. It is one of the most mysterious energy in the Omniverse

It is an energy that comes from people faith and belief and enables whoever that master it to shape and manipulate forces of heavenly origin

Azief Divine Body is now shining with the intensity of a quasar, white light fills the world and it could blind any beings that tries to peek the Law Divine Body.

The faith and trust and belief of the people that once believed and still believes in Azief pour in inside Azief Law Divine Body.

For some reason, these faith and belief energy seems to transcended space and time, ignoring distance between the Supreme Dimension and Earth which probably has a layer of thousands of spaces between them

But the hymn of songs and prayers swirls around Azief Law Divine Body and all of their prayers and faith was absorbed inside the Divine Law Body regardless.

Azief did not know it but his Divine Law Body could see Pandemonium right now in his gaze.

It is because of faith power. Since there are people that invokes him in their memories and in their words, Azief Divine Law Body could see them.

He could see and hear everything that those who believes in him do and said. Azief Divine Law Body could even use his power to aid them even when he is in the Supreme Dimension since this kind of ability is not restricted by Time and Space.

But the one thing that all of these Law Body lacked is only one thing.

Directions and feeling.

They were crated from energies essence and they were cultivated to become Laws.

As they complete their transformation as Law Body, the lingering emotions of its owner has been erased, leaving only a pure body of Laws of the Omniverse.

For them to make a move would require direction. And the only one that could provide the direction is Azief.

It still needs him to merge with all of this Law Bodies and begins to move. Azief on the temple ground take another steps toward the Pagoda.

He of course saw the black aura but as the black aura moves around him, it was instantly suppressed. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

The monks and the grandmaster and even the Abbott was shocked seeing this.

When these black auras attacked the Temple before, they break the wills of their monks and only the strongest of them could resist its darkly temptations.

But for the Sword God he just walks through it and not only there is nothing bad happening to him, the dark aura was suppressed.

Azief Will is sharp as a sword and as he passes the black aura, it was minced into nihility.

It was cut by Willpower. Azief was curios of the pagoda as he saw the windows were the source of the black aura.

He waves his finger.

Sharp blinding light of sword will come out form his finger.

It was infused with his Will power and its light illuminated the area, annihilating all of those black aura around him and the area around the windows of the Pagoda.

But there is still traces of it.

‘The Flute’ he thought.

This flute must be a demonic item to create such powerful dark aura.

Azief senses is different from all these mortals so he could sense many things from the dark aura that the others could not. It was a dark aura full of resentment and full of killing intent.

Azief had the ability to turn into a Celestial and an Asura. He could not be more familiar with such energy

That is why he could sense it. Unlike before, the black aura could not even fill the area in front of Azief feet.

The golden light dims and it shocked the grandmaster and the Abbot because the golden light should have been suppressing the black aura.

But this time it was different but then a more astounding scene happens in front of their eyes. Arial body turns golden, absorbing the divine energy hidden inside that Pagoda.

Azief smirks a bit.

'This must be one of his ways for me to ascend' Azief thought to himself.

He could feel the twelve seal was broken. Azief felt a sensation washing over him as seventy percent of his power instantly returns to him.

The weather above the Temple becomes even more chaotic.

Storms are forming above the clouds and it begins to devour the clouds as thunderstorm ravaged the skies peaceful day.

The force of his sudden increase in power depressed the land where he is standing to five feet deep and all the grandmaster around the area were pressed by a powerful suppression energy that they were forced to come down from the tree branches to alleviate the feeling of weight all over their body.

At the same time this was happening, the people of the martial arts world arrived at the scene.

They were not obstructed by anyone as they journey to this area.

All monks seem to be chanting their sutras inside their residence which is why they could easily pass through all the halls that is usually could not be passed so casually.

The moment they arrived at the area of the pagoda, they instantly were crushed down as their body felt a weight on their back as they were forced to prostrate to the ground.

And for some of them their body could no longer hold the pressure and they have to lie down face front on top the soils.

Those who were in grandmaster realm had it a little better as they are could hold on.

Heaven Reaching Swordsman is using his sword as a support to stand up but even he had already kneeled in one knee.

The martial artist whether they were lying down, kneeling or feeling too heavy because of the pressure could see the Sword God shining in golden hues.

And that golden hues seems to pierce through the skies above, opening a large hole up in the sky that reveals a wider stretch of stars above them.

And then they all could see it. A translucent palm up above the stars. Up on the heavens of this world they could see a titanic palm covering the world.

Azief took another step but his last seal is not broken. But he was not anxious. He had found the way.

His Divine Sense spread even further as he could reach the entire continent with his Divine Sense. Every nook and cranny could be felt and sense inside his awareness.

His power is slowly encroaching the Will of this world.

Azief had once fought the Heavens of his world and he got some authority to alter the Laws of the World in Earth if he wanted to because he wrestled against heaven and won.

This world had the Will of the World, but it is weak and so does its Heaven so Azief sudden increase of powers slowly surpasses the power of the Heavens of this world.

Only some divine beings could see the illusory cracks of the Will of the World and the Heavens.

He could sense and his power had reached surpassing the Heavens but even with all of this, he still couldn't sense the entirety of this small mountain.

So he keeps moving forward.

He walks toward the Pagoda and push open the door as the black aura inside the Pagoda were instantly extinguished by the golden aura around him

The Abbot and the grandmaster of the Temple could not have predicted such happening

'The Fated Owner have arrived' the Abbot said and the other grandmaster nodded.

They no longer resist the pressure instead they sit down in cross legged position and chanted Sutras and Song.

Faith and belief streamed all over the Temple to supplies the Pagoda as the Pagoda dimming of golden holy light slowly returns

But the moment it returns it would be absorbed into Azief body. Azief knows that this golden light is trying to break his last seal.

He then saw the one and only hall inside the Pagoda. The Secret Hall.

The Abbot had told him that the name of that Hall is the Secret Hall of Enlightened Ones That See All Truths

And inside it there is an altar of marble stone. Azief walk inside it as his body glowing even more golden looking like Golden Saints of the Temple.

The entire Temple right now is covered by golden lights. In a faraway Universe, a Monkey is laughing joyously.

On the Five Elements Mountain, the mountain itself is trembling shocking the people of Silhae. They then see an unbelievable sight.

The mountain seems to change. Fire seems to rise up from the mountain bringing endless energy of power that changes the skies above the mountain.

They saw trees suddenly growing at an accelerated rate around the mountain vicinity, tall and strong.

If Azief was here, he could see how these tree was full of vitality of life.

The Earth around the mountain seems to experience a seismic change as the mountain becomes higher and higher, reaching well above the clouds and affecting the villages around the mountain.

Water burst out from the holes around the mountain as it burst outs of with water that gives life.

Metals spikes come spout from many corners of the mountains

And then to the surprise of everyone, the Five Element Mountain rises up and from the ground and the entire mountain was plucked out from the Earth.

Its base hovers above the ground.

The Five Element then come out from the base of the mountain. Fire essence, Wood essence, Earth essence, Metal essence and Water essence.

All of it is coming out and it seem to be waiting for something.

Chapter 583: All seals broken \(4\)

Inside the Pagoda, Azief take no time before he arrived in front of the marble stone. The Abbot said that the marble stone could not be broken by any weapons and neither could it be lifted or moved.

Every qualified monk in the Temple has tried to move the marble stone but no matter how strong they are; they could not move it.

But for some reason Azief believes he could. Azief eyes look toward the top of the altar.

‘So, there it is’ Five years in this world and in the end, he is finally going to come back home, he thought wistfully.

His eyes look toward that display on top of the altar. And on top of it is a flute. Around the flute dark auras seems to swirls around it. Yet, it could not even reach Azief body.

‘The Demonic Flute’ he muttered. That is the name the temple called the flute.

This is the flute that the Demon Monkey is said to left in this world before he ascended to heaven.

‘A flute that was waiting for it to its owner’ It was at this moment Azief realizes how Sun Wukong would pay for his next deed.

How would he sever this Karma thread between the two? This is a question Azief once asked himself. Bu now he knows.

This flute is repayment

Azief did not know that the thing he did outside the Pagoda has fulfilled one of the oldest prophecy of the Temple.

The prophecy of the Temple had long foretold the arrival of the Fated Owner of that flute.

‘When its true owner come to the Temple, thunder would fill the skies of the world, the land would shake and wind would change courses.’

That was the prophecy of the temple. Today, that prophecy was fulfilled. And the other part of that prophecy is the advent of a new era.

The Demon Monkey has planned this for so long. And he is borrowing Azief fortune to break through the seals of this Sealed World since he could not Azief walk slowly to the altar and then he looks at the flute first. It seems to be made of bones and there is traces of undecipherable writing on its body.

Azief take a deep breath and then he picks it up. The moment he picks it up he could hear a breaking sound and Azief widened his eyes

The energy left over in the flute break the final seal in Azief body.

On top of the Thirteen Steps, on the twelve steps Azief Cosmic Law Body stirs and slowly trying to get up.

Cosmological forces all around the Supreme Dimension was absorbed into its body as the Law Body expanded to incredible heights that is pressures space and causes Las and Concepts to be suppressed by its tremendous power

Azief in the Sealed World could feel that inner Universe is slowly reconstructing back as the sun and moon of his Universe reforms back as his Inner Universe was reconstructed becoming wider and extremely vats than before

All of this was rolled out into nonexistence when Azief take the twelve steps before.

But now that the Cosmic Law Body has gained completion. All of that misfortune returned back in the form of fortune.

Time and Space inside his Inner Universe was formed back as it comes out from the Void of his nonexistence Inner Universe. All that exist before in his Inner Universe, is slowly existing again.

It is not the manipulation of time but a rebirth of an entirely new Inner Universe. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

Souls appeared inside his Inner Universe as life slowly blooms all over his inner Universe. And it was then that the Cosmic Law Body got up and as it got up, a powerful life force fills the Universe.

It was so powerful that the Netherworld Sea on the eight steps stopped flowing, the golden light in the third steps were overshadowed by the light of the Cosmic Law Body life force.

When the law Body opens its eyes, its right eye had white pupils and possess the power of Life in it. Whenever that gaze of its right eye landed, life was unconsciously born, filling the Universe with particles that accelerates the formation of life.

On its left eye, it possesses a dark pupil and it contained the power of Death inside it. Wherever it gazes upon, Death will visit.

Around its body Time flows differently and the souls that escape the grinding power of the Divine Law Body would achieve a rebirth if they come near the Cosmic Law Body.

The Law Body has variety of colors of its fingers.

It is all related to the intermixing of energies that was done when the Cosmic Law Body was first formed.

This Law Body had also absorbed the Tree of Life and the Seeds to form its gigantic body.

Death and Life intermixed creating a shining orb of white and black and turns into the pupils of the Law Body

The fingers had purple and green colors, the purple symbolizing the rebirth concepts and the green symbolizing the Time Concepts.

Thus around the Law Body, these two concepts seem to be intermixing with each other. And the Law Body entire body is colored in five colored, possessing the power of the Elements.

His right palm is in reddish black color, possessing the power of Cosmic Destruction and his left palm is purple mixed with green color, possessing the power of Destiny and Fate

And around the Law Body suspended around him is nine swords. These swords all had a concepts and Laws inside it.

The Law of Death. The Law of Life. The Law of Rebirth. The Law of Time. The Law of Darkness. The Law of Elements. The Law of Destruction. The Law of Destiny. And The Law of Fate.

Nine Sword created from the Seeds that Azief once created this is Nine Laws Sword. With this sword, one could command the Laws embedded in it.

With Cosmic power this is nothing to command nine Laws that would affect the Universe. With Azief comprehension of the sword in his time in the Sealed World, there is an essence of sharpness since each of his Law Bodies and they could manifest swords, sabers, or any other weapon to complement their strength.

The Cosmic Law Body the look toward the statue on the twelve step.

The last time Azief could not see the statue on the twelfth steps because of the powerful energy turbulence when he formed the Cosmic Law Body

But this time the turbulence of energy is no existent. The moment, the Law Body gained its completion, the energy around this steps all went calm

And Azief Cosmic Law Body could finally see the statue on the twelfth step. It is a statue that even Azief would not recognize.

It did not resemble any supreme being that anyone knows.

It shows a statue of a young man.

If one looked at it with Divine Sense one could see many more than just the statue.

Looking at the statue with Divine Sense, the statue looks like a representation of the Will of the Supreme Being that manage to left his Will on top of the Supremacy Stairway

The Supreme Being has white hair all, and each strand of the hair over his head seems to contain Laws of the Omniverse but there is a Celestial presence around it that seems to pressure all Beings and all Creations to not dare to see his majesty and grace.

The moment that the Cosmic Law Body look at the statue with Divine Sense, the scenery around the statue changed.

The Supreme Being is on top of a tall thin peak that stretches out from a watery swamp and reaches the ultimate height to pierce through the skies and the heaven above it.

Standing there, gazing at an empty universe is that Supreme Being, his eyes seems to contain an innumerable sorrow.

Then as the Cosmic Law Body averts his gaze, the Nine Laws sword flew towards it, piercing the state in nine spots.

The statue broke almost immediately being assaulted by nine Laws of Cosmic enhancement

And as it broke, somewhere in the Foreign place a person who is carving a statue with its carving knife stopped. This person looks to be very old and look like a mortal.

This person had no powerful presence of an Immortal or any presence of a powerful person at all. The old man put down his carving knife and smiles a bit.

'So, end another life. This life is very meaningful. Reincarnation...is it a circle? Or is it just there? This should end. All of it. Karma and reincarnation should also end'

The old man said what seems to be nonsense as he falls down from his workbench and pass away, returning back the karma that he owed to the Supremacy Stairway.

The Cosmic Law Body stands there proudly, waiting for the original body.

By now, all thirteen steps of the Supremacy Stairway are creaking and cracking under the pressure of twelve Law Bodies of immeasurable power.

Even the Supreme Dimension seems to be affected as the barriers of this dimension was slowly thinning out because of the laws and powers that came out from each Law Bodies

The moment the Law Body on the twelve steps finishes its completion happens, the last Law Body on the thirteen steps stirs and opens its eyes.

The Omni Law Body, the ultimate Law Body that could be created.

This kind of Omni powers usually belongs to Sovereigns and Grand Supremacy.

But now, Azief before he even reached Sovereign level would possess such power in Divine Comprehension.

It would not absurd then if when Azief merge with all of his Law Bodies he could easily push through the levels and reached Essence Creation almost immediately.

But if he did that he would broke the Perfection path but that possibility exists for him to immediately jump to Essence Creation when he reached Divine Comprehension.

But if he stays in Divine Comprehension, he would be the strongest Divine Comprehension levelers in Earth Prime.

His power could even contend with those that is in the peak realm of Essence Creation because of the Perfection of his body.

The Omni Law Body is a Law Body that will pave Azief road to Omnipotence, to reach the level of Realization of Path like Azul

But it would only pave the road and not guarantee it.

There have been too many that walk that road and fall down halfway.

But even if one did not walk that road until the end, those that once walked that road are all great legendary beings in the Omniverse now.

Chapter 584: The story goes on \(1\)

The Supreme Dimension is shaking continuously and showing signs of collapses as the Omni law Body beginning to become complete

The moment this Law Body stand up it expanded without limits, embracing all forms of energies on top of the Thirteen Steps as it seems to take infinite forms, existing in many timelines, limitless and boundless.

It was like the Omni Law Body is the point of everything, the point of creation and also destruction, the point of Time and Space, of Destiny and Fate as its Omniversal pressure covered the whole Supreme Dimension

On the thirteen steps is the statue of the Demon Monkey. Maybe he is really called Sun Wukong. Or maybe he had another name.

The Omni law Body is titanic even compared to all the other Law Bodies.

It seems like it was the only thing in that Dimension, dwarfing the other Law Bodies is size alone.

The statue of the monkey holding a black staff that look similar to the Ruyi Jingu Bang is cracking all over because of the pressure coming out directly from the Omni Law Body.

There is no sword around the Omni law Body.

Because the sharpness of the sword is hidden inside it, the sword force, the sword will and the sword lights.

Omni power encompasses everything and as such Sword Wills and Sword Force amount only little in the scope of things that the Omni Law Body could do.

The staff that the Demon Monkey statue is holding that is emanating a powerful emanation of divine energy that could break apart the Void of Nothingness seems to not be able to restrain the Omniversal pressure that comes out from the undulation of power of the Omni Law Body.

The Omni law Body possess essence of Omnipotence.

It is an essence of Divinity.

One could hear the Supreme Dimension and its Universe groaning as it tries to accommodate the power of the Omni Law Body that contains traces of the highest Divinity.

All over its large body, Storms made up of Concept of the Omniverse swirled around the titanic fingers and feet of the Omni Law Body.

A chaotic merging of Concepts created a mix match of laws and Concepts that swirls down into some of the planets below the Supremacy Stairways, filling that planets with mess up Laws of nature that should not have existed.

The entire Dimension and the Universe that resided in it is shaking and the multiversal barrier all around the sealed dimension is slowly unraveling

It is not just destabilizing like before. This time it completely unravels.

The Omniversal power that is coming out from the Law Body has surpassed the upper limit of this Sealed Universe as the entire Steps is shaking and cracking in many places.

Dimensional rips appear and if one looks through the dimensional rips one could see stars and planets of many other universes that is not connected with this Sealed Dimension.

But because of the power of the Omni Law Body, it connected the many Universes that is cut off from this Dimension and rips apart a Dimension rips.

The moment that dimensional rips appears, the stars of another Universe flew inside the Dimensional rips and was absorbed into the Omni law Body.

Suns flew toward the Omni law Body and gathers inside the eyeballs, enhancing the already hot and calamitous power of the eyeballs of the Omni Law Body that was formed from the core of a burning sun

The stars all over the many dimensional barriers that connects the Sealed Dimension and other Universe forms the Omni Law strands of hair.

The internal organs were formed from planets and it devours even more. And the more it absorbed and devours, the Divinity around the Omni Law Body increases.

The Omni Law Body then only gazed upon the statue of the Demon Monkey, and in a faraway Universe, on top of a mounting peak covered with white clouds, a Monkey is hurriedly grabbing his hair fur and quickly throwing it away as each of its furs slowly burns itself up in the air.

With that the Demon Monkey power seems to be cut in half.

'Shessh. I'll pay! I'll pay, alright!' he complains. Then after sure that he had sacrifice enough of his power the Monkey laughs.

'Thus, karma is fulfilled! I am no longer a player in this chess game! HAHAAHA. I am out. You old being could play all you want. I have gained enough' The Monkey laughs joyously.

The Demon Monkey is not the only one that is watching this. There are many gazes that is watching. And these gazes belong to those who knew the true origin of this matter.

The one that Demon Monkey knew watching this is Wargod, Yewa Hafar and Jade Emperor. The one he did not know is none other than Azul and Wargod.

But there are also other eyes that gazes towards the Supremacy Stairway, some of them watches it for a different reason.

The Omni Law Body on the Thirteen Steps did not know this and so is Azief in the Sealed World. On the thirteen steps, the Omni Law Body stand still, its eyes waiting.

And all the while, the stairway is cracking and shrouded with a storms of chaotic powers of thirteen powerful laws.

On the Sealed World, Azief felt a cooling sensation all over his body. The mark all over his body falls off like it was never there.

The patterns all over his body disappeared and Azief felt like someone just release him from bondage

He felt that all of his movement is now natural and there is no longer that feeling of restriction. There was feeling of Completion washing over him, a feeling of Perfection.

Azief could even feel a trace of his Law Bodies like they were not separated by distance and layers of dimensions.

If not for the palm high above the skies, then Azief believe he would feel it even more clearly. The moment that last seal broke something happened to his body.

Like a flood that breaks the dam, an unprecedented burst of energy exploded inside and outside his body.

This power was so tyrannical that it annihilates the entire pagoda completely like it was nothing in front of the power that sib rusting out from Azief right now

The Pagoda was made from magical properties and it has sealing formation all over it but in front of such tyrannical power, it exploded into golden motes of light that rises up to the sky.

The heavens of this world suddenly cracks in all directions and the Will of the World was suppressed.

His Divine Sense spread all over this planet and Azief roars with the excitement of being free.

His roars fill not only the mountain of the Temple but the sound echoes throughout the whole word.

The whole world could hear an unknown roar that rolled up the clouds and changes the weather all over the world.

The translucent Palm high up in the sky is wavering.

The moment that the Pagoda was dissipated into motes of light, all the people present in around the area could see that the Sword God is no longer shrouded with golden aura. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

Instead he was shrouded by a mix of golden and blue aura, that swirls around him.

Chapter 585: The story goes on \(2\)

Azief smiles and then he laughs in happiness. His Thirteen Law Bodies finally is completed.

There is many reason why he felt such excitement

He could feel Laws and Concepts that is present all over him and feeling it again it felt like he could breathe

He waves his hand and the thunders above him roars loudly as it forms into dragon like forms as it sails across the dark skies this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

The wind howls loudly that it sounds like a Titan is screaming at the world, a few trees were plucked out from its roots around the foot of the Shaohua Mountain

Azief then clicked his fingers and a thunderbolt splits the clouds and strike down toward him. The people present all looked at this scene in fear.

Some of them wanted to warn him. To some of them it looked like the heavenly tribulation spoken in myths and legend about to strike the Sword God

Azief however defies everyone expectation as he casually holds out his hand and he grasp ahold of the thunderbolts.

The solidified form of a thunderbolt is as hot as the sun and its heat distorts the space around him as any wooden thing around the area suddenly caught on fire

The sound of the thunderbolts crackling made everyone realizes that this is not a scene of a dream but real life.

It shocks everyone. The Three Devils of Han looking at this scene prostrate themselves down and loudly shouted ‘Congratulations, Senior Sword God for successfully ascending to the Heavenly realm!’ they shouted.

In the minds of the Three Devils of Han, Azief had successfully ascend his mortal body and turning into a golden Saints, a true immortals of the Heavens.

The crowds looking at this was thoroughly convinced that this was truly the case. They all put their fist together and congratulates him.

The Abbot and the grandmaster stopped chanting their sutra.

The Heaven Reaching swordsman seeing this look at the sky and while he could still see the Palm, there is also a determination shining out from his clear looking eyes.

He put his hand together and then said

‘Matchless under the Heavens, the Sword from Heaven, Sword God!

‘With one sword in his hand, who would dare contend?

‘O Heaven!’

‘If there is Wu Ming, why would the Heaven borne Tongtian?’ Saying this Heaven Reaching Swordsman sighed as he shakes his head

But he did not go away. He is determined to watch this until the end

Everyone in the crowd could feel the frustration of Heaven Reaching Swordsman. People called the Sword God Nameless.

The storytellers spice it up by saying Nameless not meaning that he had no name but the Sword God name is Wu Ming.

And the poem that the Heaven Reaching Swordsman just created express his frustration.

If the Sword God is called Wu Ming, then Tongtian is what the Jianghu called Heaven Reaching Swordsman

Xi Feng on the other hand had sorrows in his eyes. He could feel that his teacher is about to leave.

He could see the golden light from above still shining upon his teacher body, regardless of the stormy weathers and the howling winds or the thunderous lightning.

Azief heard the words but he had no desire to answer any of these congratulations. Because he had something else to focus on.

His hand is still holding the flute and there is a reason why. He could feel a connection, a bond is being formed, connecting him to darkly beings.

When he holds that flute, for one brief moment, it nearly overtakes his mind.

In one flash of memories, he saw many things. He saw ten images of Demons when he holds that flute.

He saw an image of the Demon Monkey subduing the Ten Demons with his black staff and putting a seal on their bodies.

He even saw the blurry face of the Enlightened Monk in the legends of the Temple creating magical formation and bringing out a small pagoda that could fit the size of his palm.

And then there was darkness.

And standing there in the darkness, is him, bathed in golden bluish aura. And he saw gazes. And all this gaze contains powerful emanations of powers.

They all looked toward him

And then before Azief could get ready for anything, an attack in the form of an energy blast suddenly arrived at him.

This is inside his mind but for some reason the people inside his mind were able to execute an attack that would strike his mind.

The attack was numerous with different variety of emanations of power.

Azief felt that at his current level he could not defeat these attacks. As he was thinking this, he suddenly realizes that he is still holding the flute.

‘The Demonic Flute’ The flute that could controls the Ten Demonic Beings. He remembered

He immediately put the flute on his mouth and blew a tune.

He only blew air inside the flute, not intending to play any melody but the flute produced a melody that is soothing and calm and even clear his mind.

But while these effect are beneficial for him, it was not so for the Ten Demonic Beings hiding in the darkness.

Their attack was all nullified and their screams, shrieks and wailing fills the dark space.

'Stop it, Master!' a voice echoes in the darkness and then more voice sounded, pleading for mercy and for him to stop playing.

'We will fulfil the agreement. We greet Master' then immediately as their pleading ended, ten essences flew toward the flute.

The flute has ten holes. And each holes absorbed one of each essence. Azief felt the life essence of the ten demonic beings

Then the darkness receded and there is an image that seared itself into his mind. For a brief moment, he saw a demon with human body with tiger head

Then he saw a Bear with red fur wearing a divine armor, a skeleton wearing a woman robe, a nine tailed vixen demon, her eyes are full of illusion and mischief while she executed many kinds of transformation tricks

There is also a brief image of a demon that have many eyes, and a squeaking demon that possess human body with a rat head.

He even saw a beautiful woman dressed in golden splendor like she is a Queen of a great Empire.

Her beauty could tempt even the heart of the purest men to commit into indulgence and to succumb to their basest desire and broke their ill power.

If not for the fact that he knew this is the image of a demon, Azief might even thought that woman is some noble woman.

But for some reason, Azief felt an affinity with this Demon.

And then there is a Demon dripping with blood, full of bloodlust and anger and a large python that was the size of a mountain.

And it was not the only demon that is gigantic in size.

As Azief tries to shake the image of the demon dripping with blood, he saw a demonic gigantic spider that rules millions of other spiders crawling through Heaven and Earth.

And then Azief shakes his head and he could finally calm himself down.

Chapter 586: The story goes on \(3\)

He looks toward the Abbot as the sound of congratulation has just entered his ears. The Abbot look at him and smiles.

The Abbot then pointed to the sky with his finger and Azief look toward the sky and he understand the Abbot meaning

Since he already gets the payment, why not do the work? The Sealed World...waited for him. A Supreme Being even manipulate the last step of the Supremacy Stairway to guide him here

All for this moment.

The Demon Monkey wanted to unseal this world. The moment he unseals this world, Azief bet many that is already at the peak of power in this world would breakthrough.

The surge of the heaven and Earth energy trapped inside that Palm would quickly changes this world.

The people would become sturdier, stronger but it will also expose this world to the larger Universe.

That is why he is confident of Xi Feng chance of meeting him someday. Because he had foreseen such ending

He didn't even need to become too strong. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

As long as he could break through his Universe and travels the stars, then that was enough.

By that time, Azief might have enough power to contend with the many powerful beings in the Universe.

Azief close his eyes for a moment and all sound disappeared.

There is only silence. He wants to take a little time. He could feel that slowly all of his power is getting restored.

He could feel the Laws swirling around him, Concepts dancing on tops of his fingertips, him, his Divine Sense scanning all over the world.

His awareness's senses Wu Mei. Wu Mei seems to realize she is being watched and look toward the sky asking

'Who is it?' Azief Divine Sense moves and he saw Li Dan and the Clouds Abode with the two statue that the Cloud Abode stole from the temple of Xi, saw the secrets beneath the Forgetfulness Fall inside the forest of the temple of Xi and saw the two young Emperor of Yong and Zhou scheming and plotting for the domination of the world in their room.

He saw the floating Five Element Mountain, and the five elements that is waiting for something. All secrets of this world is now revealed in his awareness and he understood everything.

Everything seems so small compared to him.

It was like his Will Projection covered the whole world, looking at this world from above like some floating Titan looking over a small ball.

This is how people of his level of power gain information. He is not like some adventurer in some fantasy stories needing to go to tavern to search for information

When a person reaches his level, one sweep of the world with their Divine Sense and everything would be revealed.

It is also fortunate that the heaven Will and the Will of the World of this world is still weak, making it unable to stop his perusing of all its secrets.

All of the secret he had just seen might seem like a priceless information since it shows all the hidden things, resources, people and it surely look like some kind of treasure to the eyes of the mortals of this world but to someone of his level, he views them like they were nothing but worthless bit of stones.

And then he opens his eyes.

The Pagoda is broken and he has slowly calm his power.

If not the entire mountain would be flattened. The martial artist that were kneeling and lying down because of the pressure before got up and the grandmaster that was struggling could finally take a breath.

Azief then look in front of him and he saw some familiar faces.

He saw Heaven Reaching Swordsman, saw the Three Devils, the Crippled Devil Han Xiao, The One Eyed Devil Han Guang, and the One Thousand Cut Devil Han Xin and he saw his disciple.

He also saw someone hiding behind a tree. No one notices this person but he did. It is quite amazing considering there are many grandmaster of the Temple of Xi but no one notices him

The Pipa Wanderer is also there hiding from the eyes of many

They all look towards him with a different expression but in each expression shows their awe and respect.

Only Xi Feng had that sorrowful eyes.

Azief smiles a bit. He does not have many acquaintances here, but he had some Azief the look toward the stone hills not far away from him. The hills are twenty feet high with a width of ten feet wide.

Azief the look toward the Abbot and the monks around him and he said

'This Temple has done great service to me and my disciple. Today, I will leave one part of my Surpassing Heaven technique'

This words quickly made everyone pay attention. The Sword God had created a martial arts manual?

This is not shocking

Some storytellers and experts of the martial arts world also believes that when the Sword God descend his mountain and challenges all the martial arts school is because he wanted to create a martial, arts manual like Divine Swordsman Qu Yuan.

Azief then leapt toward the hill. No, he did not leap. He slowly floated through the air, shocking everyone.

'Flying!' Someone exclaimed. This is the ability of Immortals in myths and legends of the past

Azief then grab the air and the sword that he left in his residence, flew toward him crossing through hundreds of meters as fast as light.

The sword was gripped by Azief hand and he pointe forward casually

Thousands of sword lights fill the world that for a brief moment the black clouds over head were splits apart into pieces and the thunderous roars of the thunder were drowned by the droning sound of thousands of sword clashing against each other

All of this takes some time to explain but it only happens in one second. When the light disperse, all people present could see the carvings of martial arts movements all over the stone hill.

Everyone look at it, not wanting to forget.

But the more they see, and the more they comprehend the moves, the more they become dizzy and the more they forget.

Even Heaven Reaching Swordsman could not help but want to see the supreme martial arts that the Sword God had comprehended after becoming an Immortal.

But the Heaven Reaching Swordsman immediately recognize the problems as he averts his gaze.

'It is an illusion' he shouted and the other martial artist that were late in averting their gaze all fainted at the spot, as some move in an organized manner, looking like a drunk man as their eyes loses consciousness.

'Patron Sword God leaving such a powerful swordsmanship would bring calamity to the martial arts world and this Temple. But by infusing certain immortal arts, Patron Sword God had ensured only the most accomplish swordsman could see this martial art and not be consumed by it. This is a good deed from the martial arts world and could cultivate a righteous heart and righteous person. This Temple thanks the Patron' the Abbot said

Not everybody understands what the Abbot was saying and then the Heaven Reaching Swordsman said

'Look at the bottom'

Everyone look at the bottom of the martial arts movement and they saw the words carved deeply into the thick stone surfaces

'Only one with righteous heart could practice this sword art. Only one who had achieved the crux of swordsmanship could understand it. And only those who had a strong will could master it. Those who wanted to learn it for evil purpose would be trapped in Six Paths of Reincarnation, their souls trapped until they reached Awakening'

Hearing that this carving had some immortal arts all of the martial artist that is present did not dare look toward that carving of martial arts movement carved onto the stone hill

The Abbot then said

'This stone hill had never had a name before. Since Patron Sword God has graced the temple with such a divine sword art, this Penniless Monk will name this stone hill, the Stone Teaching Sword Hill.'

Chapter 587: The story goes on \(4\)

Azief slowly floated down and then he looks towards his disciple and the Three Devils. Now, it is time to settle some things he thought to himself.

'Three Devils of Han hear my words' Hearing this the Three Devils of Han kneels and everyone began to speak with hushed tones.

'What is the Sword God doing right now?' But Heaven Reaching Swordsman slowly understood. He looks at the opening skies and he looks at the golden light around Sword God that did not yet dissipate and he exclaimed

'He is ascending!'

And everyone who heard his words was shocked. Is this the so called ascension? It is said in the past, that there was a Monk named Xuanwu who managed to ascend.

He was the most powerful Monk of that era. No one could defeat him and under his protection the Temple did not fear any attacks.

The Temple of Xi...is it a place where it was easy to ascend? Is that why the Sword God chose this place as the last place to challenge? This makes some martial artist think and ponder of the decision of the Sword God.

Azief did not know the thoughts of others. Instead he focused on the Three Devils

'You three have fulfilled your duty above and beyond and have accompanied me in my journey without complaints. I do not mistreat my people' Azief took a step and he arrived instantly in front of the kneeling Three Devils of Han.

The golden light and the bluish aura around Azief made the Three Devils feel like their body is being purified by only the emanation of energies around it.

Azief then grasps the wind and then motes of light gathered around his palm. The motes of light slowly form into a golden book.

'This is an internal martial art technique that is created deriving from your Unity in One technique. This new technique is called Unity of Will, Three Turning into One. After you finished reading it, it is up to you whether to burn it or keep it for later generations. I bestowed this to you. I hope you three could also ascend'

Azief said as he throws the golden book toward Han Xiao and Han Xiao grabs it. They then bowed a little and said

'Senior Sword God we are honored' the three of them said in unison. The martial artist that is present was jealous and envious but they were also in awe and fearful

They all saw how the manual was created. The Sword God created a book out of nothing. They saw only golden motes of light appearing out of nowhere, turning into a golden manual.

None of them have the thought to try to snatch the manual.

Maybe like the Sword Arts carved on the stone hill, the techniques inside that golden book is also could only be mastered by the Three Devils of Han.

Azief then look toward Xi Feng. Azief did not anything since he had already talked a lot about this moment with his disciple.

He only grasped the wind and a golden book was formed again with Laws and Concepts were embedded inside the golden book.

He throws it toward Xi Feng and then he said

‘This is not goodbye. If you persist in your path, someday we will probably meet again.’ Xi Feng also did not say too much as he only nods.

But both of them knows that for such day to arrive would be very long. At that time, will they change or will the precious feeling that they both have for each other still exist?

Would it still be the same then? Only Time would answer such questions.

Azief smiles and then he looks toward the skies. Unconsciously, as he looks toward the sky, the crowd also look toward the sky.

Azief smiles and then he spoke, his voice fills the whole world as another shocking things happens up in the sky

A gigantic face that is formed from the clouds and the essence of the world resembling Azief face appears up in the skies.

Everyone could see it as long as they were awake and were outside of their house.

Some people when they saw the giant face looking down at them, they believed that judgment day had arrived or the eras of Gods and Devils once again returned.

They prostrated themselves and bow toward the skies. And then his voice echoes all over the world

‘Ants ask mortals “Why did you stomp us to death?” But the mortal could not hear the pleas of small ants. The mortals ask the Immortals and great Demons, why clash against each other, when each clash destroys worlds? But the Gods and Devils did not see the insignificant mortals. That is the era that will now come for this world. Become strong. And grasp destiny and fate!’

Finish saying this Azief pointed his finger toward the skies.

A Sword Force shake the entire world.

All the mountains in the world shakes and the entire sky was opened up, overturning the cycle of night and day, changing the skies with the open view of the stars of the Universe.

It was at this moment, the Five Element that was waiting around the Five Element Mountain shot toward the open sky and headed toward the illusory palm.

Fire, Wood, Earth, Metal and Water essence all exhibits their pressuring power around the area.

The area around the floating mountain, iron mines suddenly appeared, fires broke out from beneath the Earth, trees rises up tall and water sprouted out of soils.

The five element did not fly to the sky alone as it also brought with them the Five Element Mountain as the mountain flew toward the skies.

As it flew, its exterior slowly corroded itself, the rocky surface of the mountain is slowly falling off because of the heat generated as its sails through the wind with high velocity

And then an explosion that disperse the clouds around five hundred kilometers radius of the happens up in the sky

the mountain exploded in midair, the large boulders of rocks the size of a small hill is falling from the skies looking like a burning stone coming down to annihilate all life.

As the flaming stones were about to fall down to the ground and annihilate all below it, creating a powerful impact that would destroy everything around five hundred kilometers radius, a sword force sweeps through all of that flaming stones, turning them into particles that was so small that it is even smaller than normal atoms.

This sword force envelops the whole world and it belong to Azief. Right now, the whole world is under his sword.

He did not need a sword to swing a sword. He is the sword.

The villagers on the ground, looking at the calamity and its sudden disappearance once again prostrated to the ground, thanking whatever Gods they worship.

In the sky, the Five Element is still charging toward the upper limits of the skies.

The Five Element mountain in the sky no longer have the appearance of a mountain. Instead, it had the appearance of a Palm.

After all the rocky surfaces falls down what is left is a Palm the size of a mountain. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

It is a golden burning palm. This is a smaller palm compared to the Golden Illusory Palm on the skies above the Heavens

One covered the whole heaven, one is only the size of a small mountain. It almost looks like this is a hopeless endeavor.

But that burning Palm still sails the skies and disperses the clouds as it charges toward the Palm Above the Heavens

Azief saw all of this matter through his Divine Sense and he finally understand. This is the counter measures of the Enlightened Monk and Demon Monkey

This must be one of the way the world could be unsealed.

Many gazes are looking at this current events happening in the Sealed World of the Three Thousand Worlds. Mostly those who came from the Heavenly Realm

One of them said

‘Thus cruel Karma is finally broken. So many souls, trapped forever to pay karma of previous lives. What kind of an eternal existence is that to owe and keep owing for the rest of eternity?’

And then that person laughed, thunders and lightning converge around him as he returns to his abode.

Chapter 588: The story goes on \(5\)

On the Sealed World, that Burning Golden palm slams itself with the Golden Palm above the skies of the Sealed World and the illusory palm become more translucent and there were many characters of sealing that become unraveled.

The five element then also slams toward that Golden Palm, swirling around it grinding every parts of its sealing essence.

Azief understand now

The Five Element and the Fived Element Mountain was waiting for him to open the path toward the skies.

Azief no longer hesitates as he took his last look toward the people that arrives at the Temple of Xi and then with that he pushes his foot upwards.

He then to the astonishment, shock and disbelief of others shot toward the skies to the shock of everyone that was seeing this matter

Even the storyteller thought that he had been in a dream as he pinches himself to make sure he is not dreaming

To their eyes, the Sword God turns into a blinding silver light like a sword as he ascended to heaven.

It took only a moment for him to arrive outside the planet.

Not to mention, his body is now even more powerful with the Laws and Concepts around him provide him no resistance whatsoever.

He did not yet merge with the Law Bodies but he could already feel there is something fundamentally different about himself.

As Azief arrived outside the planet, the calm returns to the world, the face in the skies dissipated and the night sky turns back to the day sky.

The Five Element Mountain flew to the heavens and many people would surely connect that the Five Element Mountain follow the Sword God that ascended to the Heavens.

No one would ever forget that day.

Those who saw the ascension of the Sword God to become an Immortal and to those who saw the face in the skies or the floating mountain surrounded by five orbs emanating powers of the heavens, none of them would forget such a thing in their lifetime

For that day, many people saw the advent of an immortal and the beginning of new era.

Azief was on the outside of the planet and as he saw the palm that is obstructing his path to the Supreme Stairways, he only fly straight toward that Palm fearlessly even though that Palm seems to contain enormous of energies inside it

He did not do anything. He did not prepare himself to use a sword strike. He did not prepare his body to punch the illusory palm.

He only fly straight toward it.

And then as he comes closer, without slowing down, his body crashed through the illusory palm.

Azief body now is surrounded by Laws and the moment he crashed with the illusory translucent golden palm instead of him feeling any pain, the illusory palm could not handle the power bursting out from his body.

Or to be more accurate, the palm could not withstand the gazes of Thirteen Law Bodies looking at it from the Thirteen Steps of the Supremacy Stairway.

The moment Azief come out from the Sealed World, he could feel the existence of his Thirteen Law Bodies.

He could see Pandemonium, and he could see the myriads world through the eyes of his Law Bodies.

He did not do nothing. He just looks like he is doing nothing

As he comes closer to that Palm, he willed that his Thirteen completed law Bodies to lock their gaze at the illusory palm

He has Thirteen Law Bodies. And all of the Laws he cultivated is not some third rate Laws of the World or the Laws of the Universe.

It is the top of the top. Even if he did not reach another level higher after this and decided to stay at this current level, there is only a few being in the Universe that could threaten him

That is how powerful he would be after he merge with the Thirteen Law Bodies.

He had waited and suffers insufferable pains as he walks that thirteen steps and now he could finally reap the reward.

It would be a lie if he does not feel emotional after all of this. he had finally achieved what no other people achieved in eons.

Thirteen Law Bodies, perfection of the Disk Formation realm!

Azief did not even think to use the Ten Rings on his finger to counter the illusory Palm.

The thirteen gaze from the thirteen Law Bodies destroyed any resistance that the Golden Palm had.

The illusory golden palm dissipated, its abundance of energy that it had stores for eons rained down upon the Sealed World.

The world that Azief had spent his time and forge precious relationship of master and disciple is no longer sealed.

The Path to the larger Universe is opened!

Azief stop for a moment as he saw the floating Five Element Mountain, now in the shape of a scorched palm and slowly turning into a heavenly mountain full of divine and holy aura.

The mountain is smaller but it is getting bigger as it absorbed the Worldly and Universal energy around it.

He also saw the Five Elements Essences swirling around the mountain. Azief smiles and he had an idea at that moment

‘This might be useful’ he thought he made a grasping motion with his hand and the laws around him changed

Laws comes out from his hand transforming the mountain and the Five Elements swirling around it into a smaller miniature version of itself as it floated onto his palm

Smiling, he then stores it inside his sleeve. Azief took a dep breath as he looks at the vastness of the galaxy in front of him

He could sense the calling of the Thirteen Bodies, waiting for him to absorb them and become truly complete.

He is leaving now.

He did not immediately rush toward the Thirteen Steps of the Supremacy Stairway. Instead, he took a breath and look toward the planet below him. His eyes now could see everything.

‘Having Divine Sense is really convenient’ he muttered.

How many time he had complained in that world about not having his Divine Sense. Now, he had it, nothing is no longer a mystery to him

He could see in that world; his disciple is leaving the temple with the three Devils protecting him.

Azief could guess there would be many that would target his disciple.

When the news spread that he had left his Surpassing Heaven technique to his disciple and considering he is no longer in that world, people would develop some greedy desires.

It is a test to his disciple.

He looks a bit to his left and he saw Wu Mei shouting 'Who am I? Who are you? Am I the Empress? Or is she the Empress? What is reincarnation? And what is rebirth? Why is everything so cruel?' she shouts this question but no one seems to answer it

Azief smiles because he knows Wu Mei is on the right path. When she realizes it she might break the mortal shackles and come out from the mortal realm

He saw Li Dan slowly preparing to break through on top of the loneliest peak in the Clouds Abode

Azief then waves his hand and thunderbolts appears on his hand. It was crackling with divine powers and concepts swirls around it, distorting the area

He looks at the planet below him and then smile he hurls the thunderbolts towards it. Space is a soundless place but the power emanated by that thunderbolts is nothing to scoff at.

If it hits a star, it would probably annihilate that stars into pieces, creating large space rips or created a large explosion in deep space that would affect its surrounding area.

As the thunderbolts reached the skies, it falls peacefully. There is no explosion or anything. It was like someone just throws a small pebble into a large lake.

The thunderbolts merge with the skies and the clouds of that world, fusing with the will of the that world.

Azief then said

'This is my last gift to you, my disciple. I hope we will meet again one day' Azief said this and he turns back to look at the vastness of the galaxy around him

He saw the stars and the many other planets in the distance. He then smiles

'Divine comprehension. I have been waiting for this breakthrough for a long time. I will not skip it. Since I walked this path, I will walk it perfectly, step by step. It might be slower, but it will be worthwhile' he said, smiling as he punches the area in front of him and a dimensional rips appears.

He then flew into the rip and leave this Universe. The area become empty. A moment later, patch of clouds appeared the position where Azief was.

Sitting carefreely on top of that patch of clouds, is a Monkey wearing a white robe. The Monkey sighed with a mix of emotions and then a moment later, a voice enters the monkey ears.

The Monkey nodded like he was replying the voice that is speaking in his ears right now and then said

'It is true, that I owe the boy. But I have pay it all' the voice spoke again in his ear and the Monkey shakes his head.

'Fine. When that day comes, I will block one strike from the Destroyer' And the voice inside the Monkey ears disappeared.

The Monkey then could see the world that he had protected for such a long time.

The Monkey smiles a bitter smile and said

'Finally I could come back inside' He look sorrowfully at the planet and he could see all his memories of the past when he was at this world.

'You have all been trapped by Karma. To pay for a slight grievance to pay for a slight gratitude, to pay for every sins and good deeds. This Law...is it suppressing or is it fair?'

The Monkey did not answer his question as he waves his hand. A monk robe appears on top of the patch of clouds.

'Today. I could finally fulfil my promise to you, little Monk. I could finally pay respect to your soul. Rejoice, people of the world! You have been freed!' And with that the Monkey smiles.

The Monkey never laugh as hard as he did that day, nor did he ever cried as hard as he did that day.

'And so the story goes on.' A writer coming out of his hovel muttered as he watches the flowers on his little garden blooming beautifully. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

And that Writer smiles.

'Hmm' he muttered.

Chapter 589: Merging \(1\)

Azief stepped out from the space rips that he had created. He once again appeared on a vast empty space.

Azief then look around him

'Not the same' he thought to himself.

His body is now full of energies and his entire being is surrounded by some kind of Laws and Concepts of the Universe.

Azief could feel the energy all around him and his body is greedily sucking it to bring him to peak condition.

The moment he comes out from that space rip, he arrived in that Dimension again. He smiles and then he laughed

'I have finally achieved it. Now, it is time to reap the benefit' he mutters to himself.

He had returned back to the Supreme Dimension. But the stairway is still far away from him. But he did not find it as worrisome as before.

Now that he had felt it existence, there is no worries. He could see even from this far away distance, the faint outline of that floating stairway above many planets

Even if he could not see it, he could not mistake his own power. He could feel it calling to him. He then began flying forward in an incredible speed surpassing sound

Divine Comprehension!' he thought to himself. To him, this is the dividing line that separates between the weak and the strong.

In Earth, being Disk Formation is probably enough to become a powerful person and to be in control of a powerful force.

But in the Vast Universe, where all kinds of living beings live, Disk Formation level of power while not entirely numerous, it was not rare either

However, Divine Comprehension would truly be a dividing line between the weak the powerful. How could he not get excited?

He is finally reaching this level after years and years of journey

The moment he merges with all of his Law Bodies he would achieve Divine Comprehension.

He did not know how many years had passed on Earth but Azief is confident he could manipulate Time to even out the difference so it would not be that he had disappeared for a hundred years or something

By now on Earth, there would probably a lot of people that reached Divine Comprehension already. He hoped the precaution he had set on place on Earth is still intact.

If not, he probably went into a rampage again.

Though considering that the World Government have been trashed by him and coming out defeated each time they clashed, Azief think they have learned their lesson and would not provoke him and the people he cares about Hirate might be an annoying person but he is not an idiot. Last time, if not for Loki interference, he would have died under his hand. That is probably enough to discourage him.

And the Republic have Katarina. He doesn't know what Katarina is thinking, but he knows that she would not do something that would hurt him

And there is still one other person. Loki.

Loki in charge of Pandemonium right now and that is why he is not that worried about Pandemonium.

But he does worry that Loki would do something and scheming something about other people.

Especially if those people are the people that Azief cares about. Which is why Sasha were given a secret order.

Azief is not sure whether Loki could find her or if he dares to find her.

Loki probably understand that the only reason Sasha would disappear from Pandemonium is only if she were given orders by him

Thinking about it Azief smiles bitterly. It is funny thinking about it. In the past, Sasha tries to rob his Seed. That led to a chase and fight

It led to Sina being kidnaped by her and the subsequent events that happen in the Forest Region of the Fake World that forge a relationship of friendship between Sina and Sasha

It is because of that he spared Sasha and even brought her under his rule.

Who would have thought that the former enemies are not only his most trusted person in Pandemonium, but the only one that he did not need to worry too much.

It is not that he did not trust Sina. Sina is sometimes too kind for her own good. And she was not adept in scheming against the world or fighting against it.

Sofia while her prowess is undeniable, she could not defeat the top existence of the world unless she uses her Houyi Bow. And while she is ruthless, that is just her imitating him.

Her ruthlessness has no motivation behind it, making such ruthlessness easy to ignore. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

Loki.... Loki...and Azief frowned a bit when thinking of this little brother of his.

Between he and Loki, there is no blood relations but he treated Loki like his own little brother. And Loki treated him like he is his older brother

It is an affection that restraint him but at the same time it is an affection he refuses to cut. For someone who have a good family, maybe they could understand it or cherished it as much as he did.

But Azief did not come from a good family. His family treated him coldly, and as such his heart also grow cold.

Maybe there is an explanation for their behavior. But maybe there isn't. And now it is too late to hear their explanation eve if they have one.

And Azief did not regret it. A cold heart did not miss what it had never have. The love of a family is something he never had.

And he didn't know how warm that feeling was and how reluctant for him to part away from that feeling

In an imperfect and cold world, he thrived. He meets the people from his past, new acquaintances and even a Time traveler trickster.

And these people worm themselves into his heart and he treated them like family.... because they treated him like family.

His home is there. Not Pandemonium. But with them. Where they are, that is his home. But he still could not trust Loki completely

Loki has his own plans and as such, there are thing he could entrust to that little brother of his. In the end, he had to trust Sasha. Not that he had to trust...he does trust her. That is the most ironic thing.

Loki would prevent bad things from happening to Pandemonium while Sasha would prevent Loki from doing things that he did not want to happen.

But Azief know the easiest way to prevent anything he doesn't want to happen from happening is to become stronger.

That is the crux of the matter. And Azief cut through all of the complication with a simple solution

It was so simple but it is effective. That is what he likes about the new world that emerge after the fall.

It is simple...and also fair

After his generation, it would probably not be that fair anymore.

Some powerful people probably will have descendants and those people with powerful people as their father would surely have a head start in life.

Since the world and life has rested back to the beginning, Azief had grasped it and determined to sit at the top

This is his chance and he had won it by betting his life in the line.

Chapter 590: Merging \(2\)

Everyone envies him for being so strong. But those who remain at Orb Condensing stage did not know how many times he nearly died.

At any time, that dream of his could end. But he managed to pull out the mouth of death every time and each time that experiences forges him. this content of novelfullbook.com, if you reading this content please go to website novelfullbook.com to continue reading, fastest update hourly

Like a lump of stones that is slowly carved into perfection by Time and hardship. And now, strong as he is, he wanted to protect the things that are dear to him

The more he felt warmth in his life, the more he wanted to protect that warmth from ever disappearing if he is truly the strongest being on Earth, who on Earth eh could not protect? If his eyes could see all over the world, who in this world could escape his gaze?

His determination never swayed and his will was as unbending as before. He had pass the baptism of time, saw through life and death many times, and as he lives his life in that Sealed World, he began forgetting some events and matters that had happened when he was Azul.

But he did not feel regretful at all. It is as it should be. He should find his own path and not be swayed by other people path.

To follow the footsteps of Azul is attempting opportunity. But it would never guarantee him to truly reach the same level as Azul.

Azief don't know what emotions in his heart right now. There is mixed feeling in his heart. He is happy, excited, nervous and afraid all at the same time

He is happy because finally he is going home, feeling excited because he finally reaches the level that he had wanted, nervous of any other complications and scheme of other Supreme Beings and afraid for what things that might have changed when he was gone

All of this emotion is present in his heart right now but his face did not show anything. Like all of these feeling remains buried in his heart.

He is calming down his beating heart.

As he flew across space, he could see many cosmic events happening at the edge of this Universe.

Some stars were rejuvenated and he could even see some planets developing life not far away in the distance.

Even though his Divine Sense is very powerful, even his Divine Sense could not envelop an entire Universe yet.

Especially in a dimension like this which is very unstable and separated away from the main Universe.

In a way the Supreme Dimension is a dimension cut off from the real dimension which is why the happening in this Dimension did not affect the Otherworlds.

The closer he came, the powerful he could feel the undulations of energy coming off from a distance.

If not for the fact that Azief knew that this undulation of energy comes from his Law Bodies, he would hide himself behind some asteroid belts.

He did not survive all hardship because he always acted domineeringly. When one is weak, learn to retreat.

The powerful Death Monarch, in the past before he became as strong as he is right now, he also hides and run away when facing people stronger than him.

The only reason he become strong is because he did not let pride blinded him. As long as he is alive, he could stage his comeback. If he is dead, everything end

There are times when he had to pretend to be weak but all of that happens in a world outside of Earth. He remembered how he become a slave inside the Seresian world

Because of that he was the final victor of that cataclysmic battle between Demon Emperor and all the Demon Princes

Because he endures, he was rewarded with the Ten Eternal Rings, one of his most powerful trump card.

Each time he grows, the ring also shows him more and reveal more of its abilities to him

To the people of Earth, they never saw the sight of him ever bowing his head to anyone. If they ever saw such a sight, they would probably be shocked and not believe their eyes

On Earth he had no match and he is known to never be defeated in one and one but he knew in the galaxy, in the vast universe there is a lot for other powerful beings that could destroy him

The him before could not put up resistance if one of those beings descended onto Earth. Even when he fights the Weronians, if not for the fact that he believes that the restriction that the World Orb imposed on the Weronians would hold, he would not fight with Purunghasa that way

Thankfully for some unknown reasons, these beings did not come to Earth. Azief also of course did not understand why Earth were not invaded or being contacted by other alien life before the events of the Fall

It wasn't until he knew about Source Wall and the World Orb that he understands why some of these beings did not use their powers to come down to Earth

He had learned a lot with his talk with Will. There is a restriction on Earth and Will mentioned that there is a treaty between the Seven Great Powers of the United Intergalactic Alliance.

Those seven intergalactic powers consisted of the Gods that used to be worshipped by human ancestors.

It means that aliens did come down to Earth thousands of years ago or maybe even earlier than that.

And while the beings in the Universe could be said to be apathetic, not all powerful Beings are like that. For some reasons, Earth is very important to some of these powerful Beings.

Azief had even learned about a war between the gods around five or six thousand years ago and shockingly enough, they fight on Earth

But then they suddenly went back to space, leaving Earth alone. That is what he did not understand.

Azief was so engrossed in thinking that he did not see an asteroid in front of him.

He stopped just in time and swerve right to the side and then continue his flight. He focused back.

If this is Earth, he had gone around it fifty times.

Yet, he appears not to even come closer to the Stairway. Azief could even think about his plans while he is flying toward the Stairway.

As he keeps flying to the direction of that calling, his mind once again wander

He did not know what is happening on Earth right now but he could see some glimpse of it through the eyes of his Divine Law Bodies.

But the scene he saw is not entirely clear

This is probably because he is not fully merged with his Law Bodies. Even in his Inner Universe, it seems like it is missing something

'What surprise is there for me?' Azief frowned as he thinks of this matter.
