Chapter 1026 – 1030

I Will Never Disappoint You (1)

1026 I Will Never Disappoint You (1)

“I know.” After Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao exchanged looks, Yu Huang said, “Back then, after the 13,000 Yin clansmen sacrificed themselves, I went to the Myriad Book Pavilion in Jingdu to obtain some information about resurrection. I saw the annotation of a spirit herb like the Bone Nurturing Grass in an incomplete ancient book. It’s said that in ancient times, experts would use the Bone Nurturing Grass and the Monster Core of the Flesh God to revive those undead whose souls had yet to dissipate.”

Sheng Xiao immediately guessed Yu Huang’s motive for checking the information. She probably wanted to revive Yu Donghai and the dead clansmen.

Unfortunately, even the souls of Yu Donghai and the others had disappeared, and they had long entered reincarnation.

“This Bone Nurturing Grass is good stuff.” Yu Huang stared at He Zhiqiu’s hunched back as he walked away. She narrowed her eyes slightly and thought to herself, “Father, if I can find the Monster Core of the Bone Nurturing Grass and the Flesh God, I can think of a way to revive you.”

In the God Slaying Battle, the reason Yu Huang was able to injure Yin Mingjue’s soul so ruthlessly was that there was still a wisp of Yin Mingjue’s remnant soul hidden in her Spiritual Abode world.

When Yin Mingjue left behind the Blazing Moon Art, he had injected a wisp of his soul fragment into the Blazing Moon Art.

In the Divine Realm Academy, Yu Huang had obtained the Blazing Moon Art from Yin Mingchong and was lucky enough to awaken Yin Mingjue’s consciousness. After that, Yu Huang had been hiding Yin Mingjue’s soul fragment in her Spiritual Abode world.

There were three reasons she wanted to go to the Great World to further her studies.

Becoming stronger and saving and protecting her hometown was one of them.

Finding Jing Rujia and reuniting with her was the second reason.

Finding a way to revive one’s remnant soul and helping her father revive was the third.

In Yu Huang's Spiritual Abode world, Yin Mingjue's soul fragment was too weak and had been sleeping. Therefore, he had never responded to Yu Huang.

"I have to ask about the Bone Nurturing Grass." Yu Huang was about to quicken her pace and chase after him when she saw her mentor, Lin Jiansheng, chasing after her anxiously. He quickly passed her and walked towards He Zhiqiu.

When Yu Huang saw Lin Jiansheng take the initiative to walk towards He Zhiqiu, she immediately guessed his motive.

He must want to revive Senior Su!

Yu Huang silently followed behind and listened to them—

He Zhiqiu was walking when suddenly, a forceful force landed on his shoulder, almost crushing his old bones.

"Mr. He!" Lin Jiansheng squeezed He Zhiqiu's shoulder hard and took the initiative to introduce himself. "Hello, I'm Lin Jiansheng, an ascendant from the Holy Spirit Continent."

When Lin Jiansheng was chatting with Ah Kong today, he was surprised to find out that there was an old ascendant in this town who had failed to pass the assessment even after ten years. After knowing that this ascendant's assessment mission was to nurture the Bone Nurturing Grass, Lin Jiansheng couldn't sit still anymore.

On the Holy Spirit Continent, Lin Jiansheng had already flipped through all the books related to resurrection in the Myriad Book Pavilion.

Lin Jiansheng naturally knew what Yu Huang knew.

Therefore, after Ah Kong returned to Mr. Zhang's place, Lin Jiansheng couldn't wait to look for He Zhiqiu.

He wanted to meet He Zhiqiu and see if he could plant the Bone Nurturing Grass.

If he could, he would get this Bone Nurturing Grass no matter what.

He had to revive Su Tingxue!

He Zhiqiu came from the Hongyan Continent, a Great World. Although the Hongyan Continent wasn't as prominent as the Cang Lang Continent, it was still a famous Great World among the three thousand worlds. He Zhiqiu had never heard of the Holy Spirit Continent, a small world.

However, He Zhiqiu had heard of Lin Jiansheng before.

He was the ascender who had only spent ten hours mining two ships of magic ores and become the person who had completed the assessment mission assigned by Mr. Philand in the shortest time in the town. It was said that he had even obtained an S-rank identity card.

In the past two days, this matter had become a major topic of discussion among the ascenders.

He Zhiqiu was incompetent, so he had admiration and envy for a big shot who could complete the assessment mission in just ten hours.

Hence, when he saw Lin Jiansheng take the initiative to look for him, He Zhiqiu was somewhat flattered.

Why was Lin Jiansheng looking for him?

He Zhiqiu slowly turned around and raised his head to look at Lin Jiansheng. After seeing Lin Jiansheng's appearance clearly, he thought to himself, "Good lord, this person is indeed as rumored. He looks extremely ferocious."

When He Zhiqiu and Lin Jiansheng stood together, there was a huge contrast. They had two completely different temperaments. He Zhiqiu was like a lonely old man in the village, and Lin Jiansheng was the village tyrant.

1027 I Will Never Disappoint You (2)

He Zhiqiu tried his best to look more natural and calm. He nodded at Lin Jiansheng and said, "Hello, Mr. Lin."

"Hello, hello." Only then did Lin Jiansheng remove his hand from He Zhiqiu's shoulder.

Lin Jiansheng sized up He Zhiqiu's old face. For a moment, he couldn't guess this person's exact age. Lin Jiansheng hesitated for a moment before asking, "May I know how old you are this year?"

He Zhiqiu revealed an ashamed expression and sighed. "I'm sorry. I'm only 80 years old this year."

Lin Jiansheng was speechless.

He really didn't expect that He Zhiqiu, who looked like he could be buried at any time, was actually a hundred years younger than him.

Lin Jiansheng quickly digested this information and said, "I'm 180 years old this year. In that case, I'll call you Brother He."

He Zhiqiu was cheerful and optimistic. He chuckled with a nod. Without waiting for Lin Jiansheng to ask, He Zhiqiu took the initiative to talk about his situation. "Although I'm a Beast Tamer, I'm a Healing Beast Tamer. What I awakened was the trashiest plant-type beast form called Cypress Grass."

"Cypress Grass?" Lin Jiansheng had never seen a Beast Tamer who had awakened the Cypress Grass.

"Yes." He Zhiqiu's old face revealed an ashamed expression again as he said, "I awakened my beast form at the age of 11 and broke through to the Supreme Master Realm at the age of 40. But after that, no matter how much I absorbed spiritual power, not only did my cultivation level not improve at all, but it was also being released. Before long, I showed signs of aging."

He Zhiqiu shook his head and laughed self-deprecatingly as he lamented, "In my world, I can be considered a wonder."

Awakening his beast form at the age of 11 and becoming a Supreme Master at the age of 40 was considered quite good talent. Presumably, before the age of 40, He Zhiqiu was considered a famous Beast Tamer in the local area. However, after the age of 40, not only did his cultivation level not improve, but his spiritual power was also released for some reason and he aged rapidly like a commoner.

Since such a strange thing happened to him, He Zhiqiu would definitely be discussed by people.

When Lin Jiansheng thought of that scene, he couldn't help but sympathize with He Zhiqiu. "Then how did you break through to the Grand Master realm and come to the Cang Lang Continent?"

Logically speaking, He Zhiqiu should have died of old age like ordinary civilians.

A look of sorrow suddenly appeared on He Zhiqiu's face. He sighed and said, "All of this starts with my lover."

He Zhiqiu told Lin Jiansheng, "My lover was a botanist. 40 years ago, she ran to a dangerous forest to search for a spiritual herb that was on the verge of extinction. However, she suffered hypothermia due to extreme weather changes and died in the wilderness..." At the mention of his lover's departure, tears welled up in He Zhiqiu's eyes.

It had been decades since his lover passed away, but He Zhiqiu's eyes were still filled with tears when he mentioned his lover. It could be seen that he and his lover must have had a deep relationship.

Lin Jiansheng was a kind and benevolent person. When he heard about the death of He Zhiqiu's lover, he felt sad for him.

He Zhiqiu rubbed his eyes and said, "When I discovered that she was missing and ran to the wilderness to find her, she was still holding that plant tightly in her hand. At that time, I hated that grass and wished I could break it, but it was something my wife exchanged her life for! How could I break it?"

"I buried my wife in the vegetable field beside the house and planted that grass on my wife's grave. After that, I talked to that grass every day, fertilized it, and weeded it. I treated it as the embodiment of my lover. I took care of it like this for 30 years. It also grew from a palm-sized sapling into a big tree as thick as a basin. It even bloomed and bore fruit."

Upon hearing this, Lin Jiansheng guessed, "Could it be that tree that helped you achieve your current cultivation level?"

He Zhiqiu nodded with a complicated expression and sighed. "That's right. It bore a golden fruit. When I ate that fruit, a strange thing happened. The spiritual power that I disappeared actually returned. I even broke through to the Grand Master realm in a day!"

He Zhiqiu shook his head and sighed with emotion. "Later, I thought about it carefully and realized that from the day I brought that plant home and planted it on my lover's grave, my spiritual power began to disappear for some reason. I think it was probably a spiritual herb that grew by absorbing my spiritual power and used its fruit to help me recover my spiritual power."

After knowing the whole story, Lin Jiansheng could finally understand why Philand had arranged for He Zhiqiu to go to the plant cultivation base to plant the Bone Nurturing Grass.

Lin Jiansheng suddenly said, "Brother He, actually, the Cypress Grass is not trash. In Holy Spirit Continent, the Cypress Grass is called the Nine Deaths Soul Restoring Grass."

"Nine Deaths Soul Restoring Grass?" This was the first time He Zhiqiu had heard of this name. Compared to the Cypress Grass, the name Nine Deaths Soul Restoring Grass sounded very classy.

"Yes," Lin Jiansheng said extremely sincerely. "Beast Tamers who can awaken the Cypress Grass are all determined, gentle, and kind people. Look, because of your kindness, you saved that grass. Because of your determination, after your spiritual power dissipated, although you lived a decadent life for ten years, you still stood up on your own in the end.”

“Your kind character gave you good karma. Your determination has allowed you to reap gains. I believe that you will successfully plant the Bone Nurturing Grass one day.”

Lin Jiansheng was definitely flattering him.

But this flattery made He Zhiqiu feel happy and pleased.

He Zhiqiu had stayed in the town for ten years and had already become the most famous insolvent. The ridicule he received was far more than encouragement. Although He Zhiqiu was a magnanimous person, he still felt satisfied after hearing Lin Jiansheng’s consolation.

He Zhiqiu suddenly developed a sense of affinity with Lin Jiansheng.

He Zhiqiu also wanted to hug Lin Jiansheng’s shoulder. He had already raised his hand when he realized that he was much shorter than Lin Jiansheng and couldn’t hug his shoulder at all. He Zhiqiu pinched Lin Jiansheng’s arm and said, “Mr. Lin, your words really enlighten me.”

“After hearing your words just now, I suddenly feel that my previous mentality was wrong.” He Zhiqiu stopped and looked at the weeds and trees by the roadside as he lamented, “Every plant is a life. Cultivating a plant is actually creating life. I shouldn’t treat cultivating the Bone Nurturing Grass as a mission, but should treat it like the grass my lover brought back. I should treat it as a friend, a lover, and a sentient life form.”

Thinking of this, He Zhiqiu actually felt his entire body relax.

“Mr. Lin, why didn’t you come a few years earlier?” He Zhiqiu had already treated Lin Jiansheng as a close friend and felt that they had met too late.

Lin Jiansheng smiled and said, “I’ve already completed the mission assessment. The reason why I’m still in town is to wait for my disciple. I have nothing to do during this period of time. Brother He, if you’re willing, you can bring me to your cultivation base to take a look. Together, we’ll definitely be able to find new discoveries and gains.”

Hearing this, He Zhiqiu was very touched and said, “Alright! This afternoon, I’ll bring you to my farmland to take a look!”

“Okay!”

With that, the two of them walked towards the canteen.

One of them held a walking stick and limped, while the other held a scepter and was energetic. These two people, who seemed to be stark contrasts, actually became good friends.

After watching the entire process of Lin Jiansheng and He Zhiqiu meeting, Yu Huang couldn't help but give Lin Jiansheng a thumbs up.

In terms of eloquence and deception, her mentor had never disappointed her.

1028 Untitled

In just ten minutes, Lin Jiansheng and He Zhiqiu became best friends.

When they saw the two of them walk into the canteen at the end of the town, the ascendants who were eating fell silent at the same time and revealed strange expressions.

Lin Jiansheng was an ascender who had completed the assessment mission in the shortest time possible, while He Zhiqiu was an old fart who had worked hard to farm for ten years but had yet to pass the assessment. The fact that the two of them appeared in the canteen together was truly puzzling and surprising.

He Zhiqiu naturally noticed the gazes of these people. Embarrassment immediately appeared on his old face. Lin Jiansheng said nothing about it. He only grabbed He Zhiqiu's arm and pulled him towards an empty table. "Brother He, let's sit at this table."

"Okay."

The moment Lin Jiansheng sat down, Mr. Bai, the chef in the canteen, walked out.

Mr. Bai was slightly chubby. When he spoke with narrowed eyes, he looked like Caro Xiangfu.

Mr. Bai stood in the middle of the aisle as he said to Lin Jiansheng, "Mr. Lin, those who have successfully completed the assessment should leave the town immediately. The canteen of the town is public, and it is only open to those who are participating in the mission assessment, as well as the boss and staff of the base. Now, you no longer belong to the town, so... according to the rules, you can't enjoy meals for free."

Lin Jiansheng understood what Mr. Bai meant.

He asked Mr. Bai, "If it's not free, how about I pay you?"

Mr. Bai raised his eyebrows.

Thinking that Lin Jiansheng was going to use the Spirit Stones of the Holy Spirit Continent to pay for his food, Mr. Bai reminded Lin Jiansheng, “Mr. Lin, in the Cang Lang Continent, we only recognize the currency and Spirit Stones of the Cang Lang Continent. The Spirit Stones and paper money of your hometown can’t be used here.”

Lin Jiansheng had only been in the Cang Lang Continent for a few days. Mr. Bai didn’t think that Lin Jiansheng had the spirit stones of this world.

After hearing Old White’s words, Lin Jiansheng smiled calmly. Then, he crossed his arms and interrupted Old White unhappily, “Just say it. How much are you charging?”

Mr. Bai blinked and said with a smile, “...It’s not expensive. It costs two spirit stones a day.”

One spirit stone was worth a thousand paper money. In other words, living in the town for a day cost two thousand yuan. To Beast Tamers, two spirit stones were not worth mentioning.

But...

Lin Jiansheng was a Beast Tamer who had ascended from a small world. After they bought the translator, they owed the Space Administration a sum of money. Where could Lin Jiansheng get the spirit stones to pay for his food?

Mr. Bai wasn’t deliberately making things difficult for Lin Jiansheng, but he was only an employee and had to follow the rules.

However, to Mr. Bai’s surprise, Lin Jiansheng was rich.

There was quite a bit of money.

Lin Jiansheng patted his arm, and the virtual S-rank identity card flew out from his arm and floated in the air. Lin Jiansheng pointed at the identity card and said to Mr. Bai, “I’ll pay for the entire month’s worth of food.”

A look of surprise flashed across Mr. Bai’s eyes. He found the card reader in the canteen skeptically, then he leaned the card reader on Lin Jiansheng’s arm and gently touched it. Then, he heard the reminder that the payment was successful.

Lin Jiansheng said that he wanted to pay for the entire month’s worth of food.

If it was a month, he would have to pay a total of 60 spirit stones.

Lin Jiansheng had only been in town for a few days. Where did he get so many spirit stones?

He Zhiqiu had been here for ten years, but his four pockets were still as light as ever. Therefore, when he saw that Lin Jiansheng could actually easily pay for a month's worth of food, he couldn't help but feel envious and puzzled. "Mr. Lin, why do you have the spirit stones of the Cang Lang Continent?"

At this moment, the ascenders at the nearby tables also pricked up their ears to eavesdrop.

They couldn't figure it out either.

Mr. Bai also looked at Lin Jiansheng curiously.

Lin Jiansheng didn't hide it and said bluntly, "I earned it from Mr. Philand."

As for how he earned it, he didn't say it.

Mr. Bai narrowed his eyes and cupped his fists at Lin Jiansheng in admiration. "You're the first person to dare to earn money from Philand. I'm impressed." Since Lin Jiansheng had given him money, he was a customer of the canteen. Mr. Bai immediately got someone to send food over.

After dinner, it was already dark.

He Zhiqiu asked Lin Jiansheng, "I wonder where you live now?" After the meal, He Zhiqiu's relationship with Lin Jiansheng deepened. He no longer called Lin Jiansheng Mr. Lin, but Brother Lin.

Lin Jiansheng revealed a troubled expression. He said with a frown, "I set up a tent outside the town. I originally planned to return to the tent to stay, but now, the entrance to the town should be closed. I don't know where to stay tonight."

1029 Untitled

With that, he asked He Zhiqiu, "I wonder if there are any other hotels in this town?"

He Zhiqiu shook his head and said, "There's only one hotel in town." There were very few people who ascended. Which fool would open a hotel in the town?

Upon hearing this, Lin Jiansheng was filled with worry.

He Zhiqiu couldn't bear to see Lin Jiansheng on the streets, so he kindly invited Lin Jiansheng to his dormitory to stay. He said, "Brother Lin, the Administration assigned us all single rooms. If you don't mind, you can stay at my place for a night. We are both men, so it's fine to stay together for a night."

Lin Jiansheng couldn't wait to build a good relationship with He Zhiqiu, so upon hearing this, he readily agreed to He Zhiqiu's suggestion.

The hotel was built at the back of the town. The hotel was fully equipped with various leisure and entertainment venues. Every Beast Tamer could be assigned a single room with an independent bathroom.

When they arrived at He Zhiqiu's dormitory, as a host, He Zhiqiu asked Lin Jiansheng to take a shower first.

After Lin Jiansheng came out of the shower, he heard He Zhiqiu say, "Brother Lin, your disciple is looking for you for something. She's waiting in the corridor outside." With that said, He Zhiqiu carried a pile of clothes and slowly walked towards the bathroom.

When Lin Jiansheng saw He Zhiqiu's unsteady steps, he was afraid that He Zhiqiu would fall in the bathroom and die.

Then his Bone Nurturing Grass would be gone.

"Brother He, be careful. Don't fall." Lin Jiansheng helped He Zhiqiu into the bathroom before leaving the dormitory to see Yu Huang.

Yu Huang had yet to shower and was still wearing the work clothes she had worn during the day.

"Mentor." Upon seeing Lin Jiansheng, Yu Huang said bluntly, "Mentor, you approached Mr. He because of that Bone Nurturing Grass, right?"

Lin Jiansheng knew that he couldn't hide it from Yu Huang.

"Yes," Lin Jiansheng said. "You know, I want to revive Senior Su."

Yu Huang had long seen through Lin Jiansheng's feelings for Su Tingxue. Nodding her head, Yu Huang said worriedly, "I don't think Mr. He looks very healthy. I'm really worried that before his Bone Nurturing Grass is planted, he will..."

Yu Huang didn't say the last few words.

However, Lin Jiansheng understood and said, "That's why I have to accompany him here. Even if he dies, he has to nurture the Bone Nurturing Grass for me before he dies."

Yu Huang was speechless.

"If Mr. He knew your plan, he would definitely chase you out of this dormitory immediately."

Lin Jiansheng stopped talking.

Yu Huang suddenly said, "Mentor, I'll lend you my room."

Lin Jiansheng raised his eyebrows and said with a faint smile, "What about you? Are you planning to go to Sheng Xiao's dormitory?"

Yu Huang didn't feel embarrassed. She said self-righteously, "We're husband and wife. It would be strange if we didn't sleep together."

"Good for you."

Yu Huang left.

Mr. He was old and couldn't move easily, so his dormitory was on the first floor. The dormitory of female ascendants was concentrated on the fifth and sixth floors, while the second, third, and fourth floors were the dormitory of male ascendants.

Sheng Xiao's room was on the fourth floor.

There was an elevator in the hotel.

Just as Yu Huang was about to reach the elevator lobby, she suddenly heard Lin Jiansheng say, "Ah Huang, are you hiding something from me?"

Lin Jiansheng knew Yu Huang too well.

Although Yu Huang had hidden her thoughts very well, Lin Jiansheng could still feel Yu Huang's gloomy mood.

He was very worried about Yu Huang.

Yu Huang stopped in her tracks.

Lin Jiansheng stared at her back and said, "Ah Huang, if you have something on your mind, you can tell me. Even if I can't share your burden, it's better for someone to know what's on your mind than to bear it alone."

Yu Huang naturally had something on her mind.

Lin Jiansheng wanted the Bone Nurturing Grass, but Yu Huang naturally wanted it too.

But...

Lin Jiansheng was her mentor and treated her as his own. He needed the Bone Nurturing Grass to revive the woman he loved, so how could Yu Huang compete with Lin Jiansheng for the Bone Nurturing Grass?

Shaking her head, Yu Huang said, "I'm just a little worried that we won't be able to contact Eldest Senior Brother and Godfather, so I feel uneasy."

Yu Huang's acting skills had always been very good.

If she really wanted to lie, even Lin Jiansheng wouldn't be able to tell.

Lin Jiansheng comforted her. "Don't worry. With the Grand State Master accompanying us, Linyuan will be fine. In my opinion, there's a high chance that we went to the Demon Beast Continent." The Demon Beast Continent was where the Grand State Master was born, and it was also where all the misery began.

Now that the Grand State Master's cultivation level had reached the Prime Emperor Realm, it was time to return to the Nine-tailed Clan to avenge himself.

Nodding her head, Yu Huang said, "I think so too. I just hope I can contact them."

Lin Jiansheng thought about it and said, "I'll ask Brother He later and see if there's a unique way to contact each other in the super Great World. If there is, we can contact the Grand State Master and the others."

"Alright. Rest early, Mentor."

"Yes, you too."

Lin Jiansheng was concerned about Mo Xiao and the others' situation. When he returned to the dormitory, after He Zhiqiu finished showering, he asked him, "Brother He, you've been in the Cang Lang Continent for ten years, so there's something I want to ask you."

He Zhiqiu nodded. "Brother Lin, please speak."

Lin Jiansheng asked, "I heard that the ten super Great Worlds have long become connected. I wonder if there are any other ways for us to contact our friends from the other super Great Worlds other than through the Time Gate?"

"Of course." He Zhiqiu smiled and said, "Our Space Administration established a space-time delivery station. This delivery station is built between ten super Great Worlds. As long as you give them money, they can help you send the things to the world you specify and hand them to the person you specify."

Upon hearing this, Lin Jiansheng's eyes lit up.

However, in the next second, Lin Jiansheng revealed a hesitant expression and asked hesitantly, "How much is the delivery fee?"

He Zhiqiu told him, "It's priced according to the size and preciousness of the package. However, I heard that even if you send a letter, it's at least ten thousand spirit stones."

Lin Jiansheng was speechless.

Forget it. Whether the Grand State Master and the others were dead or alive wasn't important.

1030 War God Clan, Zhan Jianxue (1)

Yu Huang went straight to the fourth floor.

She walked out of the elevator lobby and walked straight from the corridor of the boys' dormitory to dormitory 409. When the male ascendants in the dormitory next door saw Yu Huang come to the male dormitory alone, they couldn't help but take a few more glances.

Knock, knock.

They heard Yu Huang knock on the door of dormitory 409.

They remembered that Sheng Xiao from the Holy Spirit Continent lived in dormitory 409.

It seemed like these two were going to have a late-night rendezvous.

After two to three knocks, Yu Huang heard footsteps approaching.

Crack—

Sheng Xiao opened the door and stood behind the door in a loose black bathrobe. He had just showered and his wet hair was covered by a dry towel. Water droplets flowed down his sexy chin and neck, into his collarbone, and drenched his scarred chest.

Seeing Sheng Xiao's sexy appearance, Yu Huang knew that Sheng Xiao had guessed that she would come upstairs to look for him.

Noticing that the ascenders in the dormitories next door were paying attention to them, Yu Huang suddenly had a wicked idea.

Yu Huang pressed her hand on the muscles on Sheng Xiao's chest and stared at the wound that had not healed from the space-time tunnel as she suddenly called out gently, "Brother Sheng Xiao."

Sheng Xiao was stunned.

Even his chest went numb.

Yu Huang twirled her fingers around Sheng Xiao's wound as she said in a bitchy tone, "You've already ascended to a super big world. There's no telling when you can return to the Holy Spirit Continent. By the time you return, I'm afraid your fiancée, Miss Yin, will have found another partner already."

"But I'm different." Yu Huang deliberately paused.

After Sheng Xiao came back to his senses, he looked at her helplessly and amusedly.

He was willing to act along with her.

Sheng Xiao pretended to be confused. "Why are you different?"

Yu Huang winked at Sheng Xiao as she said, "I ascended to the Cang Lang Continent with you. In the future, we will definitely fight side by side. Brother Sheng Xiao, I have loved you for a long time. Two years ago, you kept rejecting me on account of your fiancée, Miss Yin. Now, you two live in two different worlds. This marriage will probably be over, so why don't..."

Yu Huang's voice sounded even more charming as she said, "Brother Sheng Xiao, I want to be your woman."

Sheng Xiao was speechless.

The ascenders eavesdropping next door immediately revealed complicated expressions.

Damn!

This woman was so despicable!

After Sheng Xiao grabbed Yu Huang's hand and pulled her into the room, he closed the door immediately.

Sheng Xiao pressed Yu Huang against the backboard of the door and lowered his head to kiss her hair. He said in a hoarse voice, "Alright, I'll make you my woman tonight."

Sheng Xiao built a soundproof wall in the room and carried Yu Huang to the bed. When the ascenders next door realized that there was no movement in Room 409, their reactions became interesting.

Damn! This adulterous couple had actually set up a soundproof wall. They wondered how horny the two of them were.

They also felt sorry for Miss Yin.

After that, Yu Huang avoided Sheng Xiao's seriously injured body and leaned her head on his arm. Then, she closed her eyes and said, "Brother Sheng Xiao, don't you think it's sinful to abandon Miss Yin so decisively?"

Sheng Xiao held Yu Huang's finger and pinched it with a frown as he said, "Stop fooling around."

"Pfft!" Yu Huang laughed until she flipped over and laid on the bed.

Yu Huang finally had the best sleep since she came to the Cang Lang Continent.

The next morning, when Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao walked out of the dormitory, they were unsurprised to receive disdainful looks from the ascenders on the same floor. When they saw the two of them holding hands brazenly, the ascenders snorted in disdain.

What an adulterous couple!

Yin Rong and the others were already waiting downstairs. When they saw Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang walking down hand in hand, Donor found it jarring and said enviously, "I've already fled to the Cang Lang Continent, but I still can't escape from you two showing off PDA!"

Sheng Xiao glared at Donor coldly and retorted, "I didn't expect you to still be single in Cang Lang Continent."

Donor was instantly speechless.

Yin Rong, who had just married Xiao Shu and but was separated from him so soon, felt sad when she saw Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang walking over hand in hand.

She missed Xiao Shu so much.
