

She Shocks 291

Chapter 291: Golden Auction

Before dawn, Lin Jiansheng bade farewell. He said to Yu Huang, "Since we're going to Broken Cliff, I have to make some preparations. We'll meet at the auction."

"Okay."

Not long after Lin Jiansheng left, the hotel manager knocked on Sheng Xiao's door with the invitation from the Night Hunt's boss.

Sheng Xiao opened the door and met the general manager of Carlton Hotel.

It was a man in a navy blue suit. He was very tall and muscular. His shoulders were broad and his gaze was sharp. He did not look like a businessman, but like a hitman.

Naturally, none of the people who could establish themselves in the Rakshasa Empire were good people.

"Supreme Master Sheng, Master Yu, my lord has heard that the two of you have arrived in Rakshasa Empire. Coincidentally, the October auction is about to begin, and I was specially sent to send you two VIP invitations."

The manager was wearing a pair of black gloves and holding a large box.

Sheng Xiao took the big box. "Thank you. We will be there on time."

"I wish you both a pleasant trip. Goodbye." The manager sent the invitation to Sheng Xiao and left.

Sheng Xiao closed the door and opened the wooden box. There was an envelope, two faceless masks, and two dark red hooded robes inside.

He opened the envelope and pulled out a dark red invitation.

The design of the invitation was clear at a glance. On the dark red invitation letter was a golden hammer with the words "Golden Auction" written below.

Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang's names were on the invitation.

Yu Huang took out the faceless mask from the box and sized it up before putting it on. This mask was made very well. It could adjust itself according to the size of the user's face.

Yu Huang adjusted the size of the mask. Instantly, only her two eyes were exposed. Yu Huang asked Sheng Xiao, "Why did the Night Hunter Organization prepare masks and clothes for us?"

"You're so smart, so how could you not guess it?"

Yu Huang immediately said, "Protect our privacy and prevent the treasure we have from being snatched away?"

“Yes.” Sheng Xiao told Yu Huang, “Only the highest bidder can get the treasure at the auction. But if we leave the auction, those who are capable will get it. If we wear a mask and a long robe, we can conceal our identities to a certain extent.”

“They’re quite considerate.”

The golden auction was different from ordinary auctions. It would not release the auction item introduction book in advance. Only those who had participated in the auction knew what was being auctioned.

The next morning, Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao put on their masks, hooded robes, and hoods. The two of them took the hotel’s car to Golden Cathedral to attend the auction.

A long time ago, the Golden Cathedral was the building where the Rakshasa Empire’s royal family held their coronation ceremonies and important events. But now, it had become the venue for the Golden Auction.

After arriving at their destination, the two of them were in no hurry to get off the car.

Sitting in the car, Yu Huang lowered the window and saw many red-robed Beast Tamers. These people came from all over the world and were all powerful figures.

“Huh? There’s people from the Beast Clan.” Yu Huang saw some beastmen and dwarves. These people had different appearances, and their long robes were unable to cover their physical characteristics.

But they still put on their robes and masks to hide their faces.

Yu Huang also saw a few elves, including Upper Class Elves and Night Elves. Yu Huang even saw Donor in the crowd at a glance. Donor relied on his distinguished identity and did not deliberately hide his identity.

Although he wore a hooded robe and a mask, his overly shining golden hair and noble aura still made Yu Huang recognize him at a glance.

Sheng Xiao also recognized Donor. He said, “The two people beside him should be Grand Masters.” Since he was protected by Grand Masters, he did not have to worry about being robbed.

Ten minutes before the auction started, Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao got out of the car and walked into the church.

The two of them held VIP invitations. As soon as they entered the venue, a female attendant in a dark red dress brought them to their seats.

The Golden Cathedral was a circular building. The guests participating in the auction sat around the circular audience seats. The auction stage was set on the highest platform in the center of the first floor.

A huge LED screen was circled above the guests. After the auction started, all the auction items would be magnified and projected on the LED screen for the guests to watch.

District A was the VIP seats. There were the fewest guests in District A and they had the highest status.

Prince Donor sat in District A with Sheng Xiao and the others. His seat was diagonally in front of Yu Huang. Donor kept his wings and leaned against the back of his chair. He looked a little sullen.

Everyone was wearing masks and robes. Donor did not recognize Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao.

Yu Huang glanced at the audience seats in Zone X and recognized Lin Jiansheng at one glance. "Mentor is here too."

The reason why they could accurately locate Lin Jiansheng was because District X was the most remote and cheapest region of the venue.

Sheng Xiao looked at Lin Jiansheng. Coincidentally, Lin Jiansheng was looking for them too. Their eyes met and they recognized each other.

Sheng Xiao nodded at Lin Jiansheng, and so did Lin Jiansheng.

The lights suddenly dimmed, and the noisy auction hall instantly fell silent.

A beauty walked up to the auction stage. She was wearing a dark red high slit dress, and her red curly hair fell to her waist. Her long dress was sexy, and the waist of the dress was cut into a diamond shape.

Under the dim light, the skin on her waist was extremely fair, and anyone who saw it would want to kiss her.

She was a seductive beauty. Her every frown and smile was charming.

Sheng Xiao heard Yu Huang exclaiming, "She's so damn beautiful."

Sheng Xiao was speechless.

Sheng Xiao told Yu Huang, "She is Hong Luan, a famous abbot in the cultivation world. She is a woman of the Snake Clan."

"What about her tail?"

"She's a Grand Master. A Snake Clan Grand Master can have human's legs."

Yu Huang stared at Hong Luan's thin waist and long legs and said enviously, "If I were a man, I would definitely get her."

Sheng Xiao told Yu Huang, "Hong Luan is auxiliary beast tamer. She practices charm techniques, just like Feng Yuncheng. Don't make eye contact with this woman. Otherwise, you will be mesmerized by her."

The moment she heard that Hong Luan cultivated a charm technique, Yu Huang immediately averted her gaze and did not dare to look Hong Luan in the eye. She was afraid that once she was bewitched by Hong Luan, she would give up all her assets.

Hong Luan smiled and bowed in all four directions. Her bent waist revealed her exquisite curves. Yu Huang heard many men gasp.

However, Yu Huang found that Sheng Xiao did not react. She asked him, "Why didn't you react? I was so mesmerized when I saw her, even as a woman."

Sheng Xiao explained, "Hong Luan is nothing compared to my mother."

At the thought of how charming Madam Sheng was, Yu Huang looked at Hong Luan and felt that she was tacky and promiscuous. "You're right."

Hong Luan picked up the microphone and her gentle voice sounded—

"Welcome to the annual Golden Auction. We meet again."

Her voice was charming and moving, and it made one's heart flutter.

Hong Luan was the fixed host of the Golden Auction. With her hosting the auction, the atmosphere was always especially lively.

"Tonight is a grand feast. There will be many peerless treasures to meet with all of you. You have to grab your wallets tightly."

Everyone roared with laughter.

"Hahaha! Hong Luan, if you're capable, come and get it! I'm willing to let you squeeze every cent out of me!"

This person's words were coarse and vulgar, but Hong Luan was not angry. She only winked at the person who spoke, and the man stood up foolishly. He took the initiative to take off his interspatial ring and threw it to Hong Luan.

Hong Luan grabbed the interspatial ring and bowed elegantly to the man. She said innocently, "Thank you for your gift, sir." She only needed to look at these men for them to hand everything to her.

Everyone fell silent.

Clearly, they had underestimated Hong Luan's charm technique.

This woman was too dangerous!

Realizing how dangerous Hong Luan was, the men stopped teasing her. They were afraid that they would be scammed by Hong Luan and end up with nothing.

The man from before also came to his senses. He discovered that he had actually given the interspatial ring to Hong Luan uncontrollably. His face under the mask turned pale.

When Yu Huang saw this, she cursed silently, "Serves him right!"

Chapter 292: I Don't Have Money, I Admit Defeat

Hong Luan put the interspatial ring on her index finger and used that finger to gently ruffle her red curls. Then, she said gently, "Next, we will show everyone our first auction item."

The ceiling of the Golden Cathedral suddenly opened.

A gorgeous golden cage slowly fell from above. In the golden cage stood a nearly naked beauty.

The beauty had long black hair and her amber eyes were filled with fear and confusion about the world. Her skin was as fair as milk and looked smooth under the light.

This was a person!

They actually auctioned her off!

A photographer pointed the camera at the woman, taking pictures from the top of her head to her toes. So, everyone saw the woman's details through the big screen.

As a woman, Yu Huang could not help but feel sorry for her when she saw this scene.

Hong Luan stared into the woman's amber eyes and said gently, "Thirty years ago, this woman fell from the Upper World to the Holy Spirit Continent because she was injured. After appraisal, she was determined to be a divine demon!"

Divine demon!

As soon as the words "divine demon" were spoken, the auction hall was in an uproar. "It's the divine demon that can make one awaken one's beast form after eating their flesh and blood!"

In the Divine Feather Continent, almost all the beast tamers on the entire continent were divine demons. But in the Holy Spirit Continent, divine demons were extremely rare and precious divine beings.

Many people had only heard of divine demons and had never seen them before.

"That's right!"

Hong Luan walked to the side of the golden cage. She gently touched the female divine demon's face and introduced, "Although we don't know what this woman's actual body is, as long as she is a divine demon, we can marry her and produce a child with excellent talent. After she gives birth, we can use her flesh and blood to help the children in the clan awaken their beast form. No matter what, divine demons are extremely rare treasures."

Unexpectedly, no one raised any objections to such disgraceful words from Hong Luan's mouth. They looked at the divine demon as if they were looking at a piece of freshly roasted lamb leg that was emitting the aroma of meat.

Sensing the greedy gazes from all directions, the divine demon subconsciously shuddered and opened her mouth to cry and beg for mercy. "Don't eat me! Don't eat me! I'm human! I'm human!"

Hong Luan smiled faintly. She tapped the divine demon's lips and the woman was silenced.

Hong Luan told everyone, "After appraisal, this divine demon has just undergone form transformation for 30 years. Her current strength is only at the Scholar level. Everyone can buy her back with ease."

"Alright, next, we will begin the auction. According to the rules, everyone is free to increase the bid. The highest bidder wins!" Hong Luan said, "The starting price is one million spirit stones!"

Just as her voice fell, someone shouted, "Two million spirit stones!" He opened his mouth and added one million.

"Three million spirit stones!"

“Five million spirit stones!”

“Six million spirit stones!”

...

“Twenty million spirit stones!”

Very quickly, someone shouted a sky-high price of 20 million. And this was only the first treasure.

A man in a similar red hooded robe sat quietly in the noisy crowd. He did not participate in the bidding. He just raised his head and narrowed his long and narrow eyes. He silently remembered the identities of the people who participated in the bidding.

One, two, three...

Ah, there were actually more than a hundred beast tamers participating in the auction.

There was an endless stream of people participating in the bidding. Sheng Xiao was shocked. He said to Yu Huang in a low voice, “If the Sheng family declines in the future, my mother will end up like her.”

Yu Huang held Sheng Xiao’s arm. “So, we will become stronger. We will protect her with your father and sister.”

Sheng Xiao held Yu Huang’s hand and said nothing.

“25 million spirit stones!”

When the bid reached 25 million, the venue gradually fell silent. Hong Luan smiled and asked, “May I ask if there are any other participants?”

No one replied.

Although divine demons were precious, not everyone could take out 25 million.

Hong Luan stared in the direction of Area A and said, “In that case, congratulations, Mr. Luo. You successfully bid on a divine demon.” Mr. Luo was naturally this guest’s alias.

Mr. Luo stood up and waved at Hong Luan before sitting down.

As soon as he sat down, he felt a pair of gloomy and cold eyes on him. Those eyes were filled with killing intent and hatred.

However, Mr. Luo did not think much of it. He had successfully won the bid for the divine demon. There were many people who were jealous and envious of him. However, if they wanted to snatch the divine demon from his hands, they had to have the ability!

The second auction item was the Spirit Nurturing Drum that Lin Jiansheng wanted.

A Spirit Nurturing Drum was something that ordinary Beast Tamers had no use for, because it was only useful to Beast Tamers with weak souls and severely injured souls.

However, to people with injured souls, this was the treasure they wanted the most.

There were six people participating in the bidding.

“Eight million spirit stones!”

“Nine million spirit stones!”

“Ten million Spirit Stones!”

When the bid reached 10 million, the remaining five beast tamers hesitated. Hong Luan asked, “Is anyone else participating in the bidding?”

No one replied. As for the bidder, Mr. Zhang, he revealed a determined expression.

Hong Luan was about to knock the golden hammer when a robed man sitting in the corner of District X suddenly spoke. “1,010,000 spirit stones!”

Everyone was speechless.

Where did this country bumpkin come from?! He actually only increased the bid by 10,000.

1

Hong Luan’s smile was a little stiff. She asked the person in the corner gently, “Are you sure you want to participate in the auction?”

The person nodded.

Although the other party had only raised the bid by 10,000, this was not against the rules, so Hong Luan could not say anything. Hong Luan nodded and said, “Then, the bidding continues.”

Mr. Zhang glanced at Lin Jiansheng’s seat and snapped, “11 million spirit stones!”

Lin Jiansheng shouted loudly, “11,010,000 spirit stones.”

Mr. Zhang said, “Twelve million spirit stones!”

Lin Jiansheng said, “12,010,000 spirit stones.”

Yu Huang’s eyelids twitched. She couldn’t help but press her forehead with her hand as she thought to herself, ‘Mentor is so annoying!’

Mr. Zhang was so angry that he stood up. He pointed at District X and shouted, “Bastard, you’re deliberately causing trouble, aren’t you?!”

Lin Jiansheng stood up. His burly figure was hidden under his long robe and was filled with oppression.

He said the most despicable words with his strongest aura, “No matter how high you bid, I will only add ten thousand spirit stones to your base. This is not against the rules.”

Mr. Zhang chuckled. “Is that so? Then...” Mr. Zhang deliberately said to Hong Luan, “Hong Luan, I’ll offer... fifty million spirit stones!”

After saying that, Mr. Zhang gave Lin Jiansheng a teasing and provocative look.

Lin Jiansheng met Mr. Zhang's provocative gaze and cursed in his heart, 'I was bidding freestyle with you, but you're playing dirty with me. In that case, I can only snatch it.'

Lin Jiansheng was unperturbed as he released his psychic power and left traces of it on Mr. Zhang's body so that he could pursue him after the auction ended.

After doing all this, Lin Jiansheng sat back down and said self-righteously, "I withdraw!"

Mr. Zhang's fierce-looking face trembled, and even his mask started to tremble. "You're crazy!" Mr. Zhang scolded Lin Jiansheng. "You're screwing me over!"

Lin Jiansheng spread his hands and said, "I don't have money. I can't win against you. I admit defeat."

1

Mr. Zhang almost choked to death.

Chapter 293: Declaration of War

According to Lin Jiansheng, after Mr. Zhang shouted out a high bid of fifty million spirit stones, he should also shout out a bid of 5,010,000 spirit stones.

But he suddenly admitted defeat.

His timid attitude made the others laugh.

Mr. Zhang had gone for wool and come back shorn. At this moment, his expression was already livid.

Hong Luan acted as if she didn't hear the conversation between the two of them. She just smiled at Mr. Zhang and said gently, "According to the rules, if no one continues to participate in the bidding, then this Spirit Nurturing Drum will be sold to Mr. Zhang for fifty million spirit stones."

Mr. Zhang gasped.

Even if he sold all his assets, he might not even be able to gather fifty million spirit stones.

However, the rules of the golden auction were very strict. If anyone dared to bid, they would have to pay in full. Those who were unable to pay would be killed.

Rakshasa Kingdom was an unreasonable place.

He could not leave the Rakshasa Kingdom!

And all of this was thanks to that bastard, Lin Jiansheng!

Mr. Zhang suddenly shouted angrily, "You bastard, I'm going to kill you!" Mr. Zhang suddenly summoned his beast form to fight to the death with Lin Jiansheng.

There were three lights on the beast form that he released, which meant that he was a Beast Tamer at the Supreme Master level.

At this moment, a powerful aura that made one feel suffocated suddenly erupted from a certain direction. Many Grand Masters were at the scene, but when they felt the aura, they felt their scalps tingle.

Mr. Zhang naturally sensed this terrifying pressure immediately. He was suppressed by that force to the point of being unable to move, and his forehead was covered in sweat.

Hong Luan said softly, "Mr. Zhang, in the Golden Auction House, we have to follow the rules of the auction house. Battles are prohibited in the auction house. Mr. Zhang, have you forgotten this rule?"

Mr. Zhang immediately came to his senses.

This was the Rakshasa Kingdom, the territory of the Night Hunter organization. He could not violate the rules of the Night Hunter organization. The price was not something he could bear.

Mr. Zhang glared fiercely at Lin Jiansheng before sitting back down.

The commotion died down just like that.

At the same time, the terrifying suppression that enveloped the entire auction house also disappeared. Like the receding tide, a thin layer of sweat appeared on everyone's bodies.

The only person who could make everyone feel fear was a Prime Master expert!

However, in the world, there were only three Prime Masters. They were the old Principal of the Divine Realm Academy, the Divine Moon Empire's Grand State Master, and the Merman Race's Dino.

But these three people had nothing to do with Rakshasa Kingdom.

But this expert was clearly a Prime Master with unfathomable ability. Could it be that there were really some hidden Prime Master experts in this world?

Everyone felt uneasy at the thought of this.

Why were these Prime Masters hiding their identities? Were they deliberately hiding their strength and plotting something?

Yu Huang tilted her head and said to Sheng Xiao, "This person is really strong."

Sheng Xiao told her, "It's very likely that he's a Prime Master." He paused for a moment and said, "This Prime Master is not the three people we are familiar with."

This was a Prime Master who had never appeared before.

Yu Huang immediately thought of the Blood Peacock Organization. If the Lord of the Night Hunt Organization was really a Prime Master, then the Blood Peacock Organization's power really couldn't be underestimated.

On the auction stage, Hong Luan was still auctioning off the other treasures.

Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang also took a fancy to some magical treasures. However, there were too many people bidding, so the two of them did not participate in the auction. The auction lasted from noon to four-thirty in the afternoon.

After the auction ended, the people who obtained the items were brought backstage by the attendants to collect the items. The others dispersed.

Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao were about to leave when a servant walked up to them. "Supreme Master Sheng, Master Yu, our master has prepared delicious wine and food. We invite the two of you to join us."

The two of them looked at each other. In the end, Sheng Xiao nodded at the attendant.

The female attendant brought them to the top floor of the golden hall.

The golden cathedral was the tallest building in Rakshasa Kingdom. The top of the cathedral was originally a dome, but Night Hunt's Lord felt that the dome blocked the night view, so he tore down the dome and changed it to an open-air balcony.

On the balcony, there was a long table with wine and delicacies prepared.

Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao were brought to the rooftop. They did not see Night Hunt's Lord. Night Hunt's Lord was not around, so it was inappropriate for them to sit. The two of them leaned against the railing on the rooftop and looked up at the stars.

Rakshasa Kingdom's security was chaotic, but the sky here was always clear and beautiful. The sky was always clear during the day, and stars could be seen when one looked up at night.

The two of them were mesmerized.

Suddenly, a hoarse voice sounded from behind the two of them. That person said, "When I look up at the stars, I realize how tiny and insignificant I am. That's why I like to look at the stars."

This voice was clearly altered.

Both of them turned back to look behind them.

Behind them stood a man in a red robe. The man wore a mask, revealing only a pair of long and narrow eyes. However, those eyes looked as dark and deep as bottomless pits.

That person walked to the chair at the top of the long table and sat down. He pointed at the long table and said, "Please sit."

Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao did not hesitate. They walked to both sides of the long table and sat down.

It was not easy to eat with a mask on. Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao took off their masks. When he noticed that Yu Huang had recovered, the robed man was shocked.

"Congratulations, Master Yu. You've recovered your looks and regained your beauty."

Yu Huang raised her wine glass and said to the man, "Thank you. I've heard a lot about you. It's nice to meet you today. I will toast you."

The man picked up the wine glass and shook it gently before reaching out his right hand to take off the mask on his face.

Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang stared at him. His mask was taken off, revealing a beautiful face.

Yu Huang immediately determined that he was wearing a human skin mask.

The man drank the wine elegantly. Seeing that Yu Huang had been watching him, he put down the wine cup and asked Yu Huang, "Why are you looking at me like that, Master Yu?"

Yu Huang said bluntly, "I'm thinking about your relationship with the Blood Peacock Organization."

The man smiled and didn't answer.

A male waiter walked over and poured another glass for the man. The man pressed his fingers against the bottom of the glass and pushed the glass on the table.

When the cup moved to the center of the master seat, the man finally said, "As you think, I am the Blood Peacock."

Yu Huang was not shocked when her guess was confirmed by him.

"Then, Lord Blood Peacock, what is your purpose in inviting us here as guests today?" Yu Huang had never bothered to beat around the bush with others. She felt extremely uncomfortable talking to this person in front of her.

The blood peacock placed his arms on the table and crossed his fingers while holding his chin. He stared at Yu Huang with interest and smiled. "There's nothing else. It's just that"

"I just want to declare war on you guys!"

Chapter 294: The Game Begins

After saying that, the blood peacock let out a delightful laugh, followed by a great flash of light on his body, and in the blink of an eye, he turned into a blood-red peacock and flew up towards the ninth heavenly cloud.

The peacock spread its wings, and its gorgeous red wings blocked the sky of Rakshasa Kingdom.

The night suddenly turned blood red.

Under the blood-red wings, countless outlaws knelt on the ground and shouted respectfully, "Master!"

The Blood Peacock's laughter reverberated in the air. He said, "The game of catching mice has officially begun!" After saying that, the Blood Peacock suddenly cried out. His spirit energy turned into a rain of blood that filled the sky and disappeared!

Sheng Xiao looked at the red patch in the sky. He lowered his head and glanced at the seat where the blood peacock had just sat down. Sheng Xiao found something. He reached out and picked up a hair from the chair.

It was long white hair.

Sheng Xiao pinched the long hair. "He's losing his hair. He's starting to age." Beast Tamers in the Holy Spirit Continent would not lose their hair.

Hair loss was a symbol of weakening ability.

Yu Huang took the hair from Sheng Xiao's hand. The long, fair hair reminded her of someone she had seen before. But that person could not be the Blood Peacock.

Yu Huang put away the hair and said, "The Blood Peacock has declared war on us. From now on, the Holy Spirit Continent will no longer be peaceful. Let's return to the Academy as soon as possible. After I donate the Prime Emperor Beast Heart to the Academy, I will set off with Mentor to Broken Cliff to enter seclusion."

"Okay."

Sheng Xiao looked up at the starry sky above him and suddenly realized that he was weak and insignificant. He urgently wanted to improve his ability. "I'm going into seclusion too."

"Okay."

The two of them left Rakshasa Kingdom that night and rushed to the Divine Realm Academy.

On the other side, Lin Jiansheng used psychic power for tracking and found the Beast Tamer called Zhang Lan. Zhang Lan had already taken off his hooded robe and was wearing a black suit as he drove to the Rakshasa National Airport.

Lin Jiansheng chased after the off-road vehicle on his sword. He descended from the sky and landed steadily on the hood of the off-road vehicle while creating a pit on the hood.

Zhang Lan was frightened and subconsciously stepped on the brakes.

His head hit the steering wheel and he popped the safety catch.

Zhang Lan was pressed against the back of the chair by the airbag, and his chest was injured from the impact. He wiped his face and looked up in horror. He saw that the Purifying Spirit Scepter in Lin Jiansheng's man's hand was emitting eight wisps of silver psychic power, and he immediately felt despair.

"Rank 8 Purifying Spirit Master?" That bastard was actually a rank 8 Purifying Spirit Master!

A huge hammer formed from psychic power appeared in front of Zhang Lan.

Zhang Lan's soul had been injured in a battle three years ago, and a Purifying Spirit Master was best at attacking souls. If Lin Jiansheng's hammer fell, Zhang Lan would definitely be killed!

Realizing that he had nowhere to run, Zhang Lan felt despair.

With a ferocious look on his face, Lin Jiansheng stood in front of the car and said in a low voice, "I'll give you 1,010,000 spirit stones. Sell the Spirit Nurturing Drum to me. Otherwise, I can only smash you to death with a hammer."

Lin Jiansheng was a person with principles. He never robbed others. He would give him money.

If news of this spread, forcibly buying would sound better than robbery.

Zhang Lan immediately took off his interspatial ring and threw it out of the window. "I'll give it to you! I don't want the spirit stones anymore! Supremacy, please give me a way out!"

As long as there was life, there was hope. Zhang Lan was a man who understood his situation.

"Hmph, you know your place." Lin Jiansheng took the interspatial ring and confirmed that the Spirit Nurturing Drum was inside before putting away the Psychic Hammer.

Seeing that, Zhang Lan heaved a sigh of relief.

Lin Jiansheng put on his hat and was about to leave when he suddenly saw a red light flash in the sky.

Raising his head, Lin Jiansheng saw a blood-red peacock. The peacock's wings had completely spread out and actually covered the entire capital of Rakshasa Kingdom.

The blood-red light dyed the Rakshasa Kingdom red.

Lin Jiansheng's pupils suddenly dilated. He murmured in shock, "Prime Emperor..." Rakshasa Kingdom really had a Prime Emperor that had never appeared before!

"The cat and mouse game has officially begun!"

After saying that, the blood peacock suddenly disappeared from the spot and flew towards the Rakshasa Kingdom and the airport. Lin Jiansheng watched helplessly as the beam of light landed behind the mountain range in front of him.

Realizing that a Beast Tamer would suffer there, Lin Jiansheng immediately left Zhang Lan and quickly flew towards the mountain in front.

A luxurious flying transport stopped on a plain at the foot of the mountain. There was a red spider lily on the body of the flying transport.

This was the Caro Clan's flying transport.

More than twenty subordinates were loading and transporting supplies. On this trip to Rakshasa Kingdom, they had bought a lot of demon cores and treasures. When moving them, everyone was very careful because they were afraid that they would break the treasures.

On the flat ground filled with treasures, there was also a gorgeous golden cage. A beautiful woman was imprisoned in the cage. The woman's hands were tightly holding the cage's railing as she looked at the outside world with a timid gaze.

Caro Qing walked to the side of the golden cage and reached out to grab the woman's chin. Caro Qing forced the woman to look up, so Caro could observe the woman's appearance even closer.

Few divine demons who had taken human form were ugly. The little divine demon in front of him was very beautiful. She had cherry lips, almond-shaped eyes, and fair skin that was like a porcelain doll's.

Caro Qing's gaze traveled down the lady's face. After admiring her sexy figure, Caro Qing's blood was boiling.

Caro Qing let out a gasp and suddenly said, "Bring me the chain!"

Hearing this, the subordinate immediately took out a light but indestructible cuff chain and walked over. "Third Master, do you want to cuff her?"

“Yes, cuff her.”

“Okay.”

The subordinate reached his hand through the gap between the railing and cuffed the female divine demon’s slender wrist. As soon as he was done, he heard Caro Qing say, “Open the cage.”

The subordinate hesitated and reminded Caro Qing, “Third Master, divine demons are very cruel. If we let her out, I’m afraid it will be dangerous.”

“What’s there to be afraid of when facing a mere divine demon with a Scholar cultivation level?” As a Grand Master powerhouse, Caro Qing thought nothing of a divine demon.

Caro Qing glared at his subordinate impatiently and said in a low voice, “Let her out!”

“... Yes.” The subordinate pulled out a key, opened the golden cage, and handed the bracelet to Caro Qing.

Caro Qing tightened the long chain and pulled the woman out of the cage. The woman guessed what Caro Qing was going to do. She grabbed the cage with both hands and refused to get out.

“I don’t want to go out with you!”

The woman’s sobs were shrill and his subordinate could not help but turn to look away. However, Caro Qing did not show any mercy. Caro Qing whipped the back of the woman’s hand. The woman felt the pain and subconsciously let go.

Caro Qing lifted the woman’s waist and brought her into the aircraft with a few large strides before throwing her on the bed in the bedroom.

Chapter 295: Cleaner

After fastening the long chain, Caro Qing tugged at his tie with one hand. He shook his head and unbuttoned his shirt as he walked over to the demoness.

The woman was curled up and her face was pale from fear. She glared at Caro Qing with hatred in her eyes and cursed him softly, “Despicable human, I will definitely kill you!”

Caro Qing sneered. “You’re so stubborn!” He took off his belt and whipped the girl’s fair legs. “A disobedient pet must be beaten!”

He whipped her more than ten times. The girl was beaten until she begged for mercy and did not dare to resist.

When Caro Qing saw that the girl had stopped shouting, he threw his tie away.

He grabbed the girl’s chin and said mercilessly, “You divine demons are still demonic beasts even if you transform into human form. Do you need me to treat you as a human being?”

“After you give birth, there will be more painful things waiting for you!”

After saying that, Caro Qing started to pull the girl’s skirt. The girl grabbed the skirt tightly and refused to give in. The girl’s miserable cries sounded from the aircraft, and those subordinates were frightened.

Right at this moment, a red light quickly fell from the sky. Before everyone could clearly see what it was, their heads were neatly chopped off by a sharp weapon.

The subordinates fell to the ground one after another. Their heads were chopped, and blood dyed the grassland red.

The red light dissipated, and a man in a dark red robe appeared on the grass. He glanced at the golden cage and found that the divine demon had been released. Only then did he turn his gaze to the aircraft.

From time to time, a woman's terrified and tragic screams could be heard from the aircraft. It sounded despairing.

The man disappeared from the spot. The next second, he appeared in Caro Qing's room.

Caro Qing suddenly felt a suffocating pressure enter the room.

He froze and slowly turned his head away.

Caro Qing's eyes widened when he saw the man clearly. "You—" Before he could finish speaking, his body flew to the man.

The other party reached out his large right hand and easily grabbed his throat.

Caro Qing was raised by the other party with a hand on his throat. His feet were suspended in the air as he kept struggling.

With his neck grabbed, Caro Qing was unable to breathe. His cheeks quickly turned purple from suffocation.

The man muttered to himself, "Divine demons can take human form and have children with humans. They can even take care of their children and love their husbands more than human women can. How are they not human?"

Caro Qing gripped the man's arm tightly. He made a sound, like he had something to say.

The other party released him.

"Let me ask you, aren't divine demons human?"

Caro Qing nodded frantically. He said, "Kinda."

"Kinda?" The other party suddenly chuckled and said, "Then tell me, is the child born from a human and a divine demon a human or a divine demon?"

1

Caro Qing could not answer.

"Forget it, a piece of trash like you is an eyesore even if you're alive." After saying this, the man suddenly extended his right hand and a red flame appeared in it.

The red flames wrapped around the man's body. Soon, the man's body was burnt away by the flames, and only a pile of white bones was left.

The man shook his hand in disdain and looked up at the girl on the bed.

The girl immediately slid off the bed and knelt at the end of the bed. She kowtowed to the red-robed man to thank him. "Thank you, thank you, thank you, for saving me!"

The man looked at her without emotion.

"Run away. Run as far as you can. Humans have evil hearts. You can't win against them."

"Thank you!"

The woman jumped out the window.

The man closed his eyes and felt a familiar psychic power approaching. He frowned and his body instantly disappeared.

Lin Jiansheng rushed to the plains and was shocked when he saw the corpses with severed heads everywhere.

Lin Jiansheng immediately released the signal light and quickly attracted the beast tamers near Rakshasa Kingdom.

Seeing the corpses all over the ground, these beast tamers were shocked. "Supremacy Lin, what is going on?! Who was so ruthless?!"

Supremacy Lin, saying nothing, pursed his lips and looked at the remnant red light in the sky.

At this moment, a Beast Tamer ran out of the aircraft. He told Lin Jiansheng, "Supremacy Lin, there's also a burnt skeleton in the aircraft. According to speculation, it should be the third head of the Caro Clan, Caro Qing!"

"Caro Qing was actually killed?" Who dared to kill the third head of the Caro Clan?

"Bring him out!"

"Yes!"

The other party lifted Caro Qing's skeleton out.

The moment Lin Jiansheng saw the pile of white bones, she said, "Grand Master

Caro was roasted to death by some kind of fire."

1

Everyone fell silent.

Caro Qing was an early-stage Grand Master Beast Tamer. How could someone roast Caro Qing to death?

Lin Jiansheng looked at the sky and asked everyone, "Did everyone notice the abnormality in the sky before?"

"Supremacy Lin, you're talking about that big bird that suddenly appeared?"

"It's not a bird, but a peacock, a Blood Peacock!" Lin Jiansheng stared at the thirty-odd corpses on the ground. He said, "That Blood Peacock is the master of the Rakshasa Nation's Night Hunt organization and the mastermind behind this calamity!"

Hearing this, everyone immediately thought of the Prime Master's pressure they felt at the auction house earlier. "The Blood Peacock is the head of the Night Hunt Organization? It seems that there are more than just those three Prime Masters in the Holy Spirit Continent."

Lin Jiansheng nodded. "No one knows how many important figures are hidden here."

"However, what has the Caro Qing done to offend that important figure?"

Lin Jiansheng pointed at the golden cage and said, "Caro Qing should be Mr. Luo, the man who won the bid for the divine demon at the auction. However, that divine demon seems to have escaped."

At this moment, the Beast Tamer who discovered Caro Qing's corpse suddenly said, "I found Grand Master Garo's skeleton in the bedroom just now. I also found a long cuff link. I guess that the divine demon was rescued from the bedroom."

Everyone could guess what was going on in the bedroom.

There was a high chance that Caro Qing had been unable to resist the temptation of the divine demon and wanted to forcefully have sex with it. In the critical moment, he had been killed by the blood peacock.

"So, the Blood Peacock was angry because of that divine demon?"

Who knew?

"As everyone knows, the Golden Auction House is the property of the Night Hunter organization. That Blood Peacock is the head of the Night Hunter organization! He took out the divine demon to auction and killed the buyer afterward. What is this person trying to do?!"

At this moment, signal lights lit up in dozens of places!

That night, the Blood Peacock launched a crazy slaughter, and it only ended at dawn.

On this night, a total of 108 beast tamers were killed. Each and every one of them was roasted to death by the flames. And these people who were killed were guests who had participated in the divine demon's bidding at the auction!

After placing the 108 beast tamers' corpses side by side, Lin Jiansheng and the others vaguely understood the Blood Peacock's motive.

That person was being a cleaner and cleaning up all the people who had harmed the Divine Demon.

Chapter 296: Emergency

Looking at the densely packed white bones, someone made a bold guess. "Could it be that this Blood Peacock is a divine demon that has successfully taken human form and cultivated to the Prime Master Realm?"

Everyone felt uneasy when they heard this guess.

It had to be known that not every divine demon could transform into a human form. Only divine demons who had broken through to level-10 demonic power and had successfully survived the calamity lightning could successfully transform into a human form.

Before every divine demon took human form, they were powerful divine demons.

After this type of demon beast took human form, they would hide in the human world and cultivate again. Very few divine demons could cultivate to the Prime Master Realm after taking human form.

At least, Lin Jiansheng and the others had not met one yet.

If the Blood Peacock was really a divine demon, then it would be too terrifying.

Lin Jiansheng had never come into close contact with the mysterious Prime Master called Blood Peacock before, so naturally, he could not guess his identity and background.

He said, "After tonight, the peace in the Holy Spirit Continent will be ruined. This world will start to become chaotic." The Blood Peacock had killed 108 beast tamers in one night, and it was declaring war on all the beast tamers with bloodshed.

"Grand Master Caro is the Beast Tamer of the Divine Moon Empire. I will bring their remains back to their hometown. I will have to trouble everyone to take away the remains of the others. Everyone, let's meet again if fate allows!"

"Supremacy Lin, let's meet again if fate allows!"

Lin Jiansheng placed the corpses of Caro Qing and the others into a coffin and left this world that was filled with bloodshed.

...

The center of the Abyssal Origin Forest was a high mountain range. This was a no man's land, a world occupied by high-level demon beasts.

No Beast Tamer had ever dared to charge into the center of the abyss alone. Even the Grand State Master didn't have the courage.

However, at this moment, a man in a dark red robe was walking along the cliff alone in this absolute domain that forbade humans from appearing.

The precipice beneath his feet was ten thousand zhang deep, but the man's expression was calm. Every step he took was very firm, and there was not the slightest hesitation or fear.

He walked to the highest mountain.

Through the faint light of the dawn, he could see the edge of the Abyssal Origin Forest and also see some flying demon beasts fighting in the sky.

Soon, the sun came out of the distant horizon.

A glaring light beam drilled out from the end of the horizon and landed on the man's robe. There were deep and shallow blood traces on the dark red robe.

The man faced the sun, took off his hat, and unbuttoned his robe.

The hat and robe were all taken off, revealing the man's real face.

He was as fair as snow and wore a dark purple suit. His appearance was surprisingly young and handsome. He looked like he was only in his twenties.

The man's eyebrows were raised slightly, and his eyes were long and narrow. Such a pair of eyes should have a sharp gaze, but his gaze was filled with sorrow.

His gaze looked compassionate and pitiful.

The morning sun enveloped him, and a gentle breeze blew away the thick smell of blood on his body. When the smell of blood completely dissipated, the man turned around and stared at the stone tablet behind him.

That stele was very old, and the surface of the stele was covered in cracks. The stele was covered in mossy marks. He squatted down in front of the stele and reached out to gently touch it. He said softly, "Mother, long time no see."

...

The news of the tragic deaths of 108 beast tamers in Rakshasa Kingdom quickly spread to the ears of the Beast Tamer Alliance. Many people thought that it was a rumor.

However, at 8 am that morning, the Beast Tamer Alliance's official account released a death notice on the alliance website and confirmed the authenticity of this rumor.

The officials called this change "Declaration of War 1."

The Divine Realm Academy had confiscated the students' phones, so these students did not know about the incident in the Rakshasa Kingdom, nor did they know about the existence of the Blood Peacock.

In order to survive, the new students were still busy completing missions non-stop. In order to aim for the Expert Rankings, the older students were all training hard and hoping to achieve a good result in the quarterly competition.

Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao returned to the campus. They saw a red banner on the school gate. It said—

"Congratulations to our school for winning this year's basketball competition!"

Beneath the banner were pictures of eight participants.

In the photo, Yu Huang was wearing a loose green ball gown with a mask on her face. Her long hair was tied up high and she wore a red headband. She held a basketball in one hand and looked at the camera arrogantly.

She was a celebrity and was a professional. Her picture was the most eye-catching one on the banner.

Sheng Xiao stood at the door and looked up at the photo a few times. He really loved how Yu Huang looked in her jersey. She looked especially sexy.

Seeing that Sheng Xiao was mesmerized by her photo, Yu Huang said, "I heard from Yin Rong that you participated in the basketball league on behalf of our school when you were in your second or third year. I heard that you were unstoppable on the court."

Sheng Xiao said, "I fight more fiercely."

"You must spar with me when you have the time."

"Okay."

It was break time. The door was closed.

The gate of the Divine Realm Academy was not guarded. There was a spiritual power sensing stone beside the gate. After every new student officially registered for a class, the teacher in charge of living would inject their spiritual power into the sensing stone.

When they returned to school, as long as they placed their palms on the sensor stone, the school gate would open automatically.

Yu Huang placed her palm on the sensor stone and injected a trace of weak spiritual power into the stone. The spiritual power stone flashed with a faint green light, and the tightly shut door opened on both sides.

Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang had just entered the academy when they heard a sharp alarm.

It had been a year since she entered the academy. This was the first time Yu Huang had heard such an alarm. Yu Huang asked Sheng Xiao, "What is this emergency alarm?"

Sheng Xiao looked up at the alarm hovering above the school. "That's right. The school will only ring when there's an emergency. It's the first time I've heard this ring since I joined the school fifteen years ago."

Something big must have happened!

When they heard the alarm, all the teachers and students rushed to the school field. Even the professors and students who were in seclusion cultivation were interrupted.

Countless spiritual lights flashed in the sky and flew towards the Divine Realm Academy's field.

Yu Huang spread her wings and flew to the field with Sheng Xiao.

On the field, the students had already lined up according to their grades and classes.

The students were standing on the left side of the field, while the Logistics Department and the Breeding Department were on the right. A group of professors and leaders were floating in the sky, and some were sitting on trees.

As the discipline teacher, Sheng Xiao naturally had to stand at the front of the team. With him around, no one dared to cause trouble or make a commotion.

Chapter 297: Cruel Declaration of War

It only took a few minutes for all the teachers and students of the Divine Realm Academy to gather.

A strong wind blew, and the dean appeared on the high platform.

Seeing that the dean had actually personally come on stage to speak, the students all realized that something big had happened.

The dean narrowed his eyes and looked up at the emergency alarm overhead. He had been in office for more than 300 years, and this was the first time he had rung the alarm.

Thinking about what happened last night, a look of pity appeared on the dean's face.

"At 11 am last night, six students from our eighth grade who were out on experiential training were murdered. At the critical moment, they crushed an emergency distress talisman. When our professor rushed to the scene to save them, these six students died..."

The students covered their mouths in shock.

Most of the students in the eighth grade were early-stage Masters.

Six Master Beast Tamers had been killed. This was the pain of the Divine Realm Academy, and even more so the pain of the Holy Spirit Continent!

"Who did it?!"

"Dean, we must catch the murderer and avenge our seniors!" The students were enraged and cried out to seek justice for their deceased alumni.

Sheng Xiao gestured for everyone to quieten down. When they saw that, everyone quietened down.

The students thought that this was the main reason why they were gathered here today. Unknown to them, even more shocking news was coming.

The dean revealed an even more shocking piece of news. He said, "At four in the morning today, our school received a notice from the Beast Tamer Alliance. We found out that last night, 108 Beast Tamers were killed in Rakshasa Kingdom! There were 8 Grand Masters, 30 Supreme Masters, and 70 Masters!"

Everyone was in an uproar.

Yu Huang was shocked as well.

After they left the Golden Auction House last night, she and Sheng Xiao took a flying transport to the airport. They took the fastest flight back to Divine Realm Academy.

They still did not know what had happened in Rakshasa Kingdom last night.

Overnight, 108 beast tamers were killed!

Was this the declaration of war that the Blood Peacock spoke of?

The way he declared war was indeed cruel.

"Eight Grand Masters were killed overnight? Was it revenge? Which family did it?" Everyone subconsciously thought that it was a family seeking revenge.

The dean extended his right hand and pressed it gently in the air. The students suddenly lost the ability to speak.

The field instantly fell silent.

The dean's voice spread throughout the entire field. He said, "The murderer is a Prime Master who has awakened his peacock beast form!"

The students trembled when they heard the words "Prime Master."

The dean said, "This person has always been hiding his identity. The Beast Tamer Alliance doesn't have any information about him. Moreover, a professor also saw a peacock-shaped bloodstain mark on the corpse of a student. We reasonably suspect that there is an unknown organization on the Holy Spirit Continent with the Blood Peacock as the leader."

"This organization specializes in hunting and killing Beast Tamers. Over the years, many Beast Tamers have been secretly killed by them. The tragic cases last night were the Blood Peacock Organization declaring war on the entire Holy Spirit Continent!"

After the dean finished speaking, the field was terrifyingly silent.

Some of the younger students' legs went limp in fear. Meanwhile, some of the older students realized the seriousness of the matter and their expressions were very grave.

This Blood Peacock was able to slaughter 108 beast tamers overnight with just its own strength, and there were even 8 Grand Master experts amongst them. This obviously showed how terrifying its strength was.

If such a person hid in the dark and waited for an opportunity to act, the Holy Spirit Continent would probably welcome a reign of terror.

The dean stared at the youthful faces below the stage. He said, "For everyone's safety, we have summoned all the students that are out training! After discussion, the school has decided to cancel the students' recent outing training activities. All students are not allowed to enter and leave the independent space freely without permission!"

"From today onwards, all students must cultivate diligently. I hope that when danger arrives, everyone will be invincible, defeat the enemy, and protect the Holy Spirit Continent!"

This emergency meeting cast fear in the hearts of every student.

After the meeting, Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao went to the principal's office.

The principal was sitting behind his desk when he saw Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao walk in together.

He stared at Yu Huang's face a few more times, then narrowed his eyes and said, "It seems that you were the one who benefited the most from this trip to the Cong Lang Mystic Realm. Congratulations on becoming a Master."

It seemed that Yin Rong and the others had already told the Dean about what had happened in the Cong Lang Mystic Realm.

"Dean, I have something that I want to give to the academy for free." With that, Yu Huang took out the Prime Emperor Beast Heart from her interspatial ring.

As the Prime Emperor Beast Heart appeared, the spiritual strength of the entire Divine Realm Academy became much richer.

The dean immediately sensed the fluctuation of this energy. His narrowed eyes opened again. Staring at that beast heart, the dean's golden eyes were filled with disbelief.

"This is... a Prime Master's beast heart?"

Yu Huang shook her head. "No, to be precise, this should be a Prime Emperor's beast heart." After a pause, Yu Huang added in detail, "The Prime Emperor Cong Lang's beast heart."

The dean was shocked.

"Yu Huang, you stole Prime Emperor Cong Lang's beast heart?"

The way he asked this was exactly the same as Lin Jiansheng did. Yu Huang was caught between laughter and tears.

Sheng Xiao explained, "She didn't steal it. It's a gift from Prime Emperor Cong Lang to Yu Huang. That mysterious place no longer exists."

"It doesn't exist anymore?" The dean stared at the beast heart in Yu Huang's hand and sighed. "The Spirit Gathering Tree in the Cong Lang Mystic Realm was formed from Prime Emperor Cong Lang's beast heart. Since the beast heart was brought out by Yu Huang, the mystic realm naturally disappeared as well..."

The dean was puzzled. He asked Sheng Xiao, "What happened to you in the mystic realm?" It seemed that Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao had experienced something but did not tell Yin Rong about it.

Sheng Xiao told him about Li Nu and Prime Emperor Cong Lang.

After the dean heard this, he said thoughtfully, "So, that divine demon called Li Nu activated the divine demon's fury and her soul stayed in the Cong Lang Mystic Realm to kill people?"

"Yes."

"No wonder every time they go to the Cong Lang Mystic Realm, a number of beast tamers mysteriously disappear. So they were made into dolls." The dean shook his head. He said, "They deserve this."

"But..."

The dean made a soundproof wall outside the office. Then, he asked Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao, "Are you sure that Saint Xuan Ye is the person who instigated Li Nu to activate the divine demon's fury?"

Yu Huang nodded. "Absolutely."

"How could that be?" The dean leaned back in his chair and played with two walnuts.

He thought for a moment and said uncertainly, "Saint Xuan Ye is compassionate to the world. Perhaps he couldn't bear to see the divine demon being bullied, so he instigated the divine demon to do such a thing."

The dean said that Saint Xuan Ye was compassionate to the world.

Her mentor had once said that Saint Xuan Ye was a compassionate person. He was the most respected Purifying Spirit Master.

Yu Huang felt that this was all hype.

Yu Huang, who did not have a fan filter for Xuan Ye, did not believe that Xuan Ye was really as upright as his image was.

Chapter 298: Cunning Little Fox

Yu Huang asked the dean, "Dean, is Saint Xuan Ye very kind?"

The dean nodded and said, "You should know that only people with a pure heart can condense a Psychic Pearl. Those who can become a Purifying Spirit Master have good character."

"To me, Saint Xuan Ye is both a friend and an elder."

"An elder?" Yu Huang asked curiously, "Could it be that you and Saint Xuan Ye have history?"

"That's right."

The dean started talking about the past. He said, "Hundreds of years ago, life in our continent was still very difficult. At that time, there were often floods and locusts. Many small countries had low standards of living, and every year, there were people who died because of various disasters."

"In that era, Xuan Ye roamed the world like a doctor without borders while purifying the souls of the dead."

"I was born in a famine era. My parents were starving and were about to exchange me for someone else's child..."

The dean did not want to reveal too much about his hardships. He said, "It was Xuan Ye who traded me away from my parents with a bag of buns."

"I followed Saint Xuan Ye to many places like a shadow. I followed him for three years. I've seen him purify countless souls."

"Saint Xuan Ye is a real Saint."

Yu Huang's opinion of Xuan Ye changed slightly when she heard this.

But this still could not dispel her suspicions about Xuan Ye.

However, she was not foolish enough to debate Saint Xuan Ye's character with the dean.

Yu Huang placed the Prime Emperor Beast Heart on the table. She said, "Principal, I am willing to give this Prime Emperor Beast Heart to the academy. I hope it can help more students."

The dean gave Yu Huang a deep look. After a while, he sighed with emotion and said, "Lin Jiansheng is really lucky to have you as his disciple."

The dean held the beast heart and said, "I can't accept this thing for nothing. Do you have any requests? You can make some suggestions."

Yu Huang immediately said, "I hope that you can give me an unlimited point card, Dean." She was really sick of swiping the point card to go to the toilet, shower, eat, and cultivate.

Feeling that her request was a little too simple, Yu Huang added another request. "Give me another independent chamber on the 18th floor of the Cultivation Hall."

After Yu Huang finished speaking, the dean asked her, "That's it? Aren't you going to take the chance to ask me for a few cultivation techniques?"

She could even ask for cultivation techniques?

A year ago, when the semester started, Yu Huang had seen the dean's ancient alligator beast form in the deep sea of the independent space. To be honest, she was especially envious of the dean's ancient alligator.

Yu Huang immediately gave the dean a sweet smile. Sheng Xiao narrowed his eyes and stared at her smile. He felt that Yu Huang was like a little fox at that moment. Her gaze was filled with evil intentions.

The dean's heart softened from Yu Huang's smile. He asked Yu Huang, "What do you want? Just say it!"

Yu Huang said, "I want a drop of your heart blood, Dean!"

The dean's smile suddenly froze.

1

Heart blood was an extremely private thing to Beast Tamers. No Beast Tamer was willing to give heart blood to others.

The dean asked Yu Huang, "Why do you want the heart blood?"

Yu Huang had once publicly used Sheng Xiao's Black Qing Sky Dragon and would also use the Grand State Master's black nine-tailed fox in the future. At that time, the cultivation technique she cultivated would naturally be exposed.

Since she would be exposed sooner or later, Yu Huang was more willing to use her honesty to exchange for the dean's trust.

Yu Huang told the dean, "The cultivation technique I cultivate is called the Beast Taming Art. It can refine the blood of others' hearts and replicate their beast form and cultivation technique."

The dean suddenly understood. "No wonder you could use Sheng Xiao's Black Qing Sky Dragon." The dean looked at Sheng Xiao ambiguously. "I thought you used some special dual cultivation method."

1

Sheng Xiao blushed. Yu Huang felt awkward.

The dean stared at the Prime Emperor Beast Heart in his hand and thought for a moment. Then, he said, "Deal." Using a drop of his heart blood to exchange for a Prime Emperor Beast Heart would never be a loss.

The dean did not have any heart blood in storage. He used his spiritual power to force out a drop of heart blood from his heart.

After successfully extracting a drop of heart blood, the dean's face paled slightly. When he spoke again, his voice became weak. "Take it. I want to rest for a while."

"Thank you, dean!"

Yu Huang was not in a hurry to refine the dean's heart blood. She planned to wait for the dean to bury the Prime Emperor Beast Heart in the Cultivation Hall before taking leave to go out and adventure.

The next day, Yu Huang went to look for Anna and accompanied her throughout the day in the Demonic Beast Forest.

Anna drove a tricycle through the jungle with a cart full of meat. Yu Huang was sitting in the passenger seat beside Anna.

The tricycle engine made a sudden noise.

Hearing the sound of wheels, those demon beasts all got up and leaned on the railing of their small courtyards while waiting for Anna to feed them.

Anna put on an apron and skillfully carried half a fan of mutton before throwing it into a demon beast's plate through the air.

Seeing that the demon beast was munching on the meat, Anna said to Yu Huang, "Apart from the topic of the blood peacock, the topic of you recovering your looks is the most sensational in the entire academy."

"You don't know, right? You've already pushed Zhong Luoxue and Yin Rong down from the school belle's ranking list and become the new school belle of Divine Realm Academy."

Anna had been cultivating with the dean for a while now, and she didn't even stutter much anymore.

Yu Huang was not interested in this ranking. She said, "Has your problem with stammering stopped?"

"Yes, it's all thanks to Mentor. Mentor said that if I stuttered, he would punish me by making me copy the books in the library." Anna hated being punished with copying text the most.

Yu Huang was very happy for Anna.

She asked Anna, "Did Fourth Brother come to train while I was away?"

"Fourth Brother comes often, and Na Luo has come a few times." Anna was the youngest, so she called Feng Si Fourth Brother.

After knowing that Na Luo came often, Yu Huang asked, "What's Na Luo doing here?"

“Looking for me to play.” Anna raised her left hand. She did not wear a Lolita dress when she worked and wore a loose sweater. When she raised her hand, the sleeve of the sweater fell to reveal the pearl necklace hidden under the sleeve.

It was a black pearl necklace that was black and shining. It was obvious that it was good stuff.

Anna told Yu Huang, “Na Luo sent me a bracelet and said it can help people sleep.” Anna smiled and said, “This thing is really useful. With it, I can sleep well every night and even dream sometimes. I’ve been dreaming about the class monitor and the others recently.”

At the mention of the class monitor, Anna felt sad. She said, “I haven’t seen the class monitor in a long time. I wonder if they made any new friends after college. Will they forget about us?”

Yu Huang patted Anna on the head and said, “The class monitor and Vivian studied in the same city. Don’t worry, he has a girlfriend. As a single person, you don’t have to worry about them.”

1

Anna was about to cry from anger.

She stared at the little cub in the demon beast’s nest and sighed. “When I first came, this mammoth was still a bachelor. He already has his own baby now, and I’m still a bachelor...”

Anna shook her head and sighed. “Sigh, humans are inferior to elephants.”

Chapter 299: Sensational Yu Huang

The dean was unwell and needed two days to recover.

For the next two days, Anna did not need to report to the dean. She spent all her time in the Demonic Beast Forest and dealt with those demon beasts. After the Icy Night T-Rex awakened its divine sense, it was not as easy to deceive as before, and Anna could not scare it.

Anna complained to Yu Huang, “In the past, when the Icy Night T-Rex was disobedient, if I gave him a scare, he wouldn’t dare to rebel. It’s different now. He has awakened his divine sense and can think on his own. It won’t be easy to trick him again.”

Yu Huang chuckled. “He will become more and more intelligent in the future. You can’t treat him as a demon beast now. You have to treat him as a human.” A divine demon that had awakened its divine sense was the same as a human in every other aspect except for its form.

“When the Icy Night T-Rex reaches level 10 of the demon beast, it can transform into a human form as long as it passes the Tribulation Lightning. At that time, it will be the one to bully you.”

Anna sighed. She said, “I wish I could turn the Icy Night T-Rex into a child. From now on, he’ll call me his mother. I’ll raise him as my son forever. How good would that be?”

Yu Huang was frightened by Anna’s thought. “You’re so young. Why do you want a son?”

Anna shrugged. She said, “I won’t get married. My father beat my mother and didn’t let me have a day of peace. I don’t have any expectations about marriage, but I still want a child.”

Anna, looking forward to it, said, "It would be great if the Icy Night T-Rex could be my son."

Yu Huang was speechless.

She couldn't help but splash cold water on Anna. "Be careful that he becomes your man."

Anna immediately glared at Yu Huang. "What are you talking about?!"

"That's indeed a possibility. Look, when the Icy Night T-Rex starts to have divine sense, it will also awaken its feelings. You're the girl who has interacted with the Icy Night T-Rex the longest. If you hang around him all day, he might develop a favorable impression of you. Besides..."

Yu Huang sized up Anna and said, "You're so cute and fierce. It's not strange that he likes you."

Anna was frightened by Yu Huang's words and had goosebumps all over her body.

She picked up a sheep from the tricycle. It was about 70 to 80 pounds. Anna was less than 1.6 meters tall, but she could easily carry it.

Through a wall of the yard, Anna threw the mutton into the bowl of the Icy Night T-Rex.

It was called a dining basin, but it was actually a bowl-shaped stone platform with a diameter of five meters. The Icy Night T-Rex was always sleeping during the day. When he smelled the scent of fresh meat, he opened his eyes lazily.

The first thing the Icy Night T-Rex saw was not the mutton, but Anna, who delivered his meal.

Those icy-blue beast eyes fixed on Anna were actually a little gentle. The Icy Night T-Rex heaved a sigh and said, "Good afternoon, Anna."

Anna turned and left.

The Icy Night T-Rex stood up immediately and stared at her back view. He did not understand what was wrong with her.

"Anna, are you angry? Anna, why are you leaving? Anna, you didn't clean my apartment today! I didn't shower!"

The Icy Night T-Rex threw out a few questions in one go.

Anna walked faster.

She jumped onto the tricycle and shouted to Yu Huang, who was watching, "Get in the car and let's go!"

Under the puzzled gaze of the Icy Night T-Rex, Anna dragged Yu Huang and ran. Yu Huang turned back to look at the Icy Night T-Rex, who was lying on the side of the yard wall and staring at the two of them. She actually felt that the Icy Night T-Rex was a little pitiful.

"Anna, what are you doing?" Yu Huang didn't understand Anna's actions.

Anna said with a solemn expression, "The department head said that food is the most important thing to demon beasts. Didn't you notice that after the Icy Night T-Rex smelled the smell of food, it didn't look at the food but looked at me immediately."

“What does this mean?”

With a straight face, Anna concluded, “He treats me as his most important thing. Hmph! I don’t want to be loved by a demon beast. From today on, I have to stay away from him!”

Yu Huang was caught between laughter and tears. “I was just joking. You took it so seriously.”

“Isn’t this just in case? You’re right. These few years are the time when the Icy Night T-Rex will be in love for the first time. I can’t go near him.”

They were different species. She had to keep her distance.

After returning to the Breeding Department, Anna said to the minister, “Minister, I have too much work. In the future, I’ll leave the nursing work of the Icy Night T-Rex to others.”

The minister also knew that Anna’s workload was too heavy. She still had to learn from the dean now, so it was time to reduce her workload. “Alright, I’ll take care of the Icy Night T-Rex myself.”

“Thank you, Minister.”

Therefore, that night, the Icy Night T-Rex, who did not shower, could not help but rub its body against the wall to relieve the itch. Finally, the person who bathed him came.

However, it was not Anna, but the short and fat minister.

The minister stood on a sprinkler. He held a high-pressure water gun in his hand and said to the Icy Night T-Rex, “Anna wants to learn from the dean. In the future, I will take care of you.”

When the Icy Night T-Rex saw the minister, it spat a mouthful of ice at him.

The minister was already prepared. When he saw the Icy Night T-Rex going crazy, he immediately waved his hand and built a barrier in front of him.

Seeing that the attack did not succeed, the Icy Night T-Rex lost interest in the minister and laid on the ground motionlessly.

“Heh, you’re quite obedient today.” In the past, every time they met, the Icy Night T-Rex would freeze him into an ice popsicle and throw him around.

When he was tired from playing, he would melt the minister and allow him to shower him.

The minister held the high-pressure water gun and showered the Icy Night T-Rex.

...

After parting with Anna, Yu Huang returned to the female dormitory.

After hearing the news that Yu Huang had recovered her appearance, when they saw Yu Huang walking towards the female dormitory, someone immediately shouted from the first floor dormitory, “Yu Huang is back!”

Boom!

All the girls ran to the balcony and leaned on the railing. They lowered their heads and looked into the distance in search of Yu Huang.

In the early winter, fallen leaves covered the forest path in front of the Divine Realm Academy's female dormitory.

Yu Huang walked over from the end of the path. She had her hair in a bun and was wearing a gray long coat. Her belt was around her waist, and she was wearing a pair of black flat boots.

The closer she got, the more this group of girls had the illusion that Yu Huang was not strolling in the academy, but walking on the runway.

There was no other way. Yu Huang's aura had always been domineering. This was something she was born with, and it could not be changed.

When they noticed that Yu Huang's face did not have the symbolic golden mask of a phoenix, and what replaced it was a beautiful face with fair skin, everyone was stunned.

She had really regained her looks!

A girl exclaimed, "Yu Huang has really recovered her looks. She looks even more beautiful than when she was a celebrity."

"Hiss, no wonder people who have seen Yu Huang's true appearance say that she is the school belle of our academy. With her looks, her temperament, if she isn't the school belle, who can be?"

When a person was powerful enough to surpass all their peers, no one would be jealous of her.

They would only admire her!

As a Super Beast Form Awakened, a Purifying Spirit Master and a Beast Tamer dual-cultivator, Yu Huang's strength no longer allowed them to be jealous and envious.

They all treated Yu Huang as their idol!

Just like how the students of the academy regarded Sheng Xiao as their idol.

Chapter 300: Scum

"In the past, everyone said that Professor Sheng was blind. He ignored so many beautiful women and insisted on dating an ugly monster. Tsk, it seems that Professor Sheng is the one with the discerning eyes."

"I suddenly look forward to when Senior Xuanyuan sees Yu Huang's current appearance. I wonder if he will regret it?"

"Who knows?"

Being stared at by more than two hundred pairs of eyes that were like torches, it was also very difficult for Yu Huang to ignore their existence. She raised her head and swept her gaze across the female dormitory. That overbearing and dignified gaze frightened the girls so much that they hurriedly hid back in the dormitory.

Tsk.

Yu Huang walked into the female dormitory.

She walked past the stairs on the first floor. The girls living on the first floor leaned against the door of the room and stole glances at her back. She walked to the second floor, and the girls on the second floor were the same.

The moment she returned to her dormitory, Yu Huang immediately felt relaxed and sat on the sofa.

Na Luo and Sheng Yang weren't there. Yu Huang went to the dormitory next door and asked around. Only then did she know that the two of them had gone out to train.

Yu Huang practiced the Eye of All Things in her bedroom for an afternoon. When it was almost dark, Sheng Yang and Na Luo returned.

After two months of not seeing each other, Sheng Yang's height increased by a cut, and the development of her breasts was considerable. She took off her jacket and hung it on the floor rack. She rushed over and hugged Yu Huang while deliberately placing her body next to Yu Huang.

"Sis-in-law, try to feel it. Have I been developing well recently?"

Yu Huang was speechless.

"Yes, it's great. It's much bigger."

Sheng Yang chuckled and let go of Yu Huang. She leaned her head on Yu Huang's leg. Na Luo also swayed her tail and came over. When she saw that Yu Huang's face had really recovered, she felt happy for her.

Yu Huang asked her, "Did you gain anything from going out to train?"

Sheng Yang said, "My cultivation level has improved quite a bit during this period of time. I feel like I'm about to reach the late-stage Scholar Realm."

Na Luo said, "I've already reached the late-stage Scholar Realm." Na Luo was a merman, and their cultivation speed was slightly faster than humans.

"Good, you guys must be diligent in your cultivation." Yu Huang looked at Sheng Yang and Na Luo's tender and beautiful faces as she lamented, "The time left for us isn't much."

Upon hearing this, Sheng Yang and Na Luo thought of something, and their expressions were a little ugly.

Sheng Yang said, "The place where we went out to train is very close to the eighth grade seniors. After knowing that they were slaughtered, Na Luo and I rushed to the scene to take a look."

Sheng Yang frowned. "They died tragically."

"Yes," Na Luo said. "The academy hid their true cause of death. They actually died from blood loss. Their corpses were placed on the ground, and their blood gathered on the ground to form a peacock pattern."

Na Luo had never seen such a tragic scene in her life. However, when she recalled the situation that day, her face turned pale.

Sheng Yang nodded and said, "It's really tragic. All the academies have called the students who went out to train back. We don't know where the Blood Peacock is hiding. I really hope we can quickly find their hiding place and capture this group of bad people."

Na Luo nodded. "Yes, it would be best to catch them earlier."

"Don't worry, we'll find him." Yu Huang comforted them, but she was not optimistic.

The blood peacock had been hiding in the dark for hundreds of years. They must have made ample preparations for their sudden decision to take action. It was definitely not easy to capture all of them.

On the third day, Yu Huang was called to the back of the mountain by Professor Gold.

When Yu Huang arrived at the back mountain, she saw Professor Gold holding a sauce hoof and chewing on it. He leaned against the tree trunk and stared at Yu Huang for a moment before saying, "Master?"

Yu Huang nodded. "Yes."

Professor Jin nodded and asked, "I heard that you're taking leave to train with the stingy Lin Jiansheng?"

Yu Huang was embarrassed.

Was the stingy image of her mentor so memorable?

Professor Gold took a few bites of the clean sauce hoof. He wiped his hands and jumped down from the tree. "Come on. Before you leave, let me check your progress for the month."

"Alright!"

Professor Gold placed a pressure stone on Yu Huang's head and said, "If you can carry this pressure stone and exchange two moves with the Icy Night T-Rex, I will allow you to leave."

The pressure stone landed on Yu Huang's head, and she felt as if her spiritual power was being suppressed.

Professor Gold wanted her to fight the Icy Night T-Rex under the premise that her spiritual power was suppressed and she had to take two blows from the other party. This was very unfair.

However, Yu Huang didn't say anything. She turned around and walked towards the neighboring Demonic Beast Forest.

Professor Gold stared at her back and smiled.

During these few days, the Icy Night T-Rex's mood was especially bad. It was about to flare up whenever he saw someone. Yu Huang took the initiative to look for a beating, so the Icy Night T-Rex was very willing to beat her into a cripple.

"It's you." The Icy Night T-Rex recognized Yu Huang. He said, "Don't think that just because you took off your mask, I won't be able to recognize you."

Yu Huang nodded. "It's me"

The Icy Night T-Rex asked her, "Why are you looking for me?"

Professor Gold flew to the tree beside the Icy Night T-Rex's residence and told it, "This is my disciple. I'll let her spar with you."

"How many moves?"

"Two moves."

The Icy Night T-Rex sneered and asked Yu Huang, "Did you say something to Anna yesterday?"

Yu Huang had a bad feeling.

Yu Huang lied without blinking. "No."

"Hmph!" Icy Night T-Rex said, "She was originally fine with me, but after meeting you, she suddenly ignored me. You're her best friend, so you must have said something to her."

The Icy Night T-Rex knocked its claws on the ground, and a layer of frost instantly covered the stone platform. The frost extended to Yu Huang's feet, and Xuan Yu suddenly flew out. The Purifying Evil Phoenix Flame instantly melted the frost.

Seeing that its frost had been melted by Yu Huang, the Icy Night T-Rex snorted again.

"Yu Huang, if you're willing to tell me what you said to her, I'll be gentler later. If you don't..." The Icy Night T-Rex narrowed its eyes and threatened Yu Huang brazenly, "Then I'll beat you to death!"

Professor Gold cleared his throat and said to Icy Night T-Rex, "You're not allowed to cheat!"

The Icy Night T-Rex rebutted Gold Ingot. "Don't tell me what to do! Who do you think you are?!"

Gold Ingot immediately took the form of a Taotie. A huge Taotie appeared in the Demonic Beast Forest. Its powerful aura made all the Demon Beasts uneasy.

Taotie spoke in human language and asked Icy Night T-Rex, "I will eat you."

Upon hearing this, the Icy Night T-Rex was angered. "Eat me! Eat me if you have the guts! Each and every one of you says you want to eat me, so eat me! You Devouring Monsters are all scum. You don't take responsibility after flirting!"

1

Gold Ingot was speechless.

When did he not take responsibility after flirting?
