

She Shocks 301

Chapter 301: Untitled

Yu Huang held back her laughter and said, "Alright, I'll tell you after we fight, alright?"

"Really?"

"Yeah, seriously."

The Icy Night T-Rex immediately stood up when he heard this. With his strength, he could naturally tell that Yu Huang had already broken through to the level of a Master. "You're already a Master. I won't show you any mercy."

"No need!"

"Alright!"

The Icy Night T-Rex flapped its wings and flew into the sky. His body gradually turned transparent, and under his chest, his two hearts emitted an icy blue glow.

The temperature of the entire Demonic Beast Forest instantly cooled down.

Seeing this, Xuan Yu turned into a fiery red phoenix. It lowered its head and stood in front of Yu Huang. After becoming a Master, Yu Huang didn't need the help of the Vermilion Bird's wings to fight in the sky with her beast form.

Yu Huang jumped onto Xuan Yu's back, and Xuan Yu spread her wings before soaring into the sky!

The phoenix's wings were covered with colorful feathers. When the wings spread and it soared, half of the Divine Realm Academy's independent space was covered by the red light.

Icy Night T-Rex and the fire phoenix stood opposite each other.

The Icy Night T-Rex opened its bloody mouth and roared furiously. The seawater in the distant sea instantly surged towards the demon beast forest. As soon as it approached the Icy Night T-Rex, they transformed into sharp icicles.

The Icy Night T-Rex flapped its wings. The icicles gathered together and formed a huge six-petaled snowflake in the air.

"Frost Blade, freeze all things!"

Huge snowflakes descended from the sky and enveloped Yu Huang's head.

"Purifying Evil Phoenix Flame!" Yu Huang shouted. Xuan Yu immediately flapped its wings and summoned all its spiritual energy.

Countless Purifying Evil Phoenix Flames appeared beside them. The Purifying Evil Phoenix Flames were completely ignited, and the trees in the Demonic Beast Forest were roasted until they withered.

The Purifying Evil Phoenix Flame instantly condensed into a camellia flower.

"Blazing Moon Art!"

Yu Huang immediately summoned her Psychic Sphere. She used it as a slingshot and used the camellia as a pellet. Yu Huang pulled the slingshot back forcefully, and the slingshot rebounded onto the camellia flower formed by the Purifying Evil Phoenix Flame.

The camellia shot through the air before burning away all the water in the air before crashing into the giant snowflake.

Boom!

Snow and fire collided in the air, and the ground instantly shook!

Countless ice-blue icicles and red flames flew in all directions while creating a clash of ice and fire in the sky.

Bang!

Bang!

The explosion lasted for five to six seconds before it stopped. The snow and fire were evenly matched, but neither side won.

“You’re very strong.” Yu Huang was indeed very strong to be able to withstand his full-strength attack with her Master cultivation level.

Gold Ingot looked at Yu Huang with a gratified and proud look.

He had only accepted two students in his life. One was Sheng Xiao and the other was Yu Huang. They were both freakily powerful.

Due to the pressure stone on her back, a portion of the spiritual power in her body had been suppressed. Therefore, Yu Huang had used all her strength in that attack just now.

At this moment, Yu Huang’s condition was not as good as she seemed. She took two minutes to adjust her breathing before extending her index finger and saying to the Icy Night T-Rex, “There’s one more move.”

The Icy Night T-Rex saw that the Demonic Beast Forest had been destroyed so badly by them that it was a tragic sight. He said, “After destroying this Demonic Beast Forest, that old man will scold me again. Let’s not use demonic arts and only compete with demonic strength. How about it?”

The Icy Night T-Rex and the others did not cultivate spiritual energy, but demonic energy. They did not practice cultivation techniques, but demonic arts.

Yu Huang also felt that the Icy Night T-Rex’s suggestion was more reasonable. She said, “Sure.”

“Very good!”

The Icy Night T-Rex suddenly closed its eyes. In an instant, countless ice-blue demonic energy was released from its body.

That energy directly rushed towards Yu Huang. If Yu Huang was a commoner, the moment she came into contact with this energy, she would have exploded and died.

Yu Huang immediately released her spirit energy. Her fiery red spirit energy clashed with the ice-blue demonic energy in the sky.

With the pressure from the stone, Yu Huang's spiritual power circulated very slowly. Soon, her beautiful face turned pale. Soon after, blood started to flow from her nose and ears.

Yu Huang gritted her teeth and endured for a few minutes. In the end, her spiritual energy was insufficient and she knelt on Xuan Yu's back.

"I admit defeat!"

Upon hearing this, the demonic power that was suppressing her immediately withdrew.

Yu Huang flew back to the ground and summoned Xuan Yu back. She sat on a large rock weakly and said to Gold Ingot, "I lost."

Gold Ingot was very satisfied with Yu Huang, but he still said mercilessly, "Trash, why aren't you cultivating diligently? Are you waiting to be killed by the Blood Peacock?"

Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao were the representatives of the younger generation in the Holy Spirit Continent. They would definitely become the target of the Blood Peacock. Gold Ingot hoped that Yu Huang would become stronger sooner.

Yu Huang naturally understood Gold Ingot's good intentions. She said, "Don't worry. I won't waste my time."

"It's good that you know." Gold Ingot reminded her again. "Even if you go out to train with your stingy mentor, don't forget to cultivate your spiritual energy. When you come back, I want to test you."

"Alright!"

Gold Ingot disappeared from the tree in the blink of an eye. Yu Huang took out a handkerchief and wiped the blood off her face. She looked up and met the gaze of the Icy Night T-Rex.

The Icy Night T-Rex urged her, "Tell me what you told Anna!"

Yu Huang rubbed her nose and said, "I told Anna that after you awaken your divine sense, your feelings will also sprout. She was afraid that you would fall in love with her and decided to keep a distance from you. After all, humans and demon beasts are different."

When Icy Night T-Rex heard this, he remained silent for a long time.

He looked up at the sky and contemplated.

Seeing this, Yu Huang slowly stood up and planned to sneak away. She had just slipped away a few steps when she heard Icy Night T-Rex ask, "If I'm human, will it work?"

Yu Huang stopped in her tracks.

She turned around and looked at the Icy Night T-Rex. She saw that the Icy Night T-Rex's eyes were filled with seriousness.

Yu Huang's heart skipped a beat.

Did this guy really have that kind of feeling for Anna?

This topic was rather dangerous, and Yu Huang didn't dare to answer casually. She answered conservatively and cautiously, "According to the law of marriage, humans and demon beasts can't get legally married."

After she finished speaking, Yu Huang left in a hurry, leaving the Icy Night T-Rex behind to stare blankly into space.

"Law of marriage... what is that?"

That night, when the head of the Breeding Department came to bathe and feed the Icy Night T-Rex, he heard the other party raise a question that was definitely not something a demon beast should ask. He asked—

"Fatty, what is the law of marriage?"

The minister's hand trembled as he held the high-pressure gun.

"What?" The fat man stared at the Icy Night T-Rex. He couldn't figure out why a demonic beast would ask such a question. "The law of marriage, huh? The law of marriage is... well, the law of a man marrying a woman is called the law of marriage."

"Huh?" The Icy Night T-Rex was becoming intensely curious about it. He said to the minister, "Bring me a book of marriage laws tomorrow. I want to read it."

The minister was silent for a moment. He could not help asking, "Can you read?"

The Icy Night T-Rex was stunned.

He...

He could not read!

He was an awe-inspiring divine demon, yet he could not read!

"Fatty, find someone to teach me how to read and write!"

"Alright, I will report your request to the dean." The Icy Night T-Rex was the dean's favorite pet. He did not dare to neglect his request.

After showering the Icy Night T-Rex, the head of the Breeding Department called the dean. The dean was munching on melon seeds. When he found out that the Icy Night T-Rex wanted to learn, he said, "That's easy. Let him learn from me with Anna tomorrow."

It would be the same anyway.

Chapter 302: You Are My Family

In the latter half of the night, snow fell on the Holy Spirit Continent. There was a heater in the dormitory, so the students did not notice the snow outside.

Every morning, the first thing Yu Huang did when she woke up was to push open the window and breathe in the room. Just like yesterday, she pulled open the curtains and saw that the window was covered with a layer of mist.

Yu Huang reached out to wipe away the mist on the glass window before realizing that it was snowing outside. The snow was very heavy and was still falling. The snow was so heavy that the tree branches bent down.

In the snow, Yu Huang saw Sheng Xiao.

Sheng Xiao was wearing a thin white down jacket and a red scarf around his neck. He was holding a thermos flask in his hand. She didn't know how long he had been standing in the snow.

Yu Huang pushed open the window, and coldness immediately seeped in through the window.

Yu Huang was wearing a thin nightgown. Her collarbone was exposed. The cold wind entered the room and made Yu Huang shiver. She waved at Sheng Xiao and hinted for him to come in.

Sheng Xiao did not move. He took out his phone, as if he was going to call someone.

Very quickly, the phone on Yu Huang's bedside table rang.

She turned around and took a few steps to answer the call. Sheng Xiao said on the phone, "I made some shrimp porridge for Yang Yang. It's Yufu City's custom to get drunk on the first snow day. Come down and help her get it."

As Yu Huang put on her clothes, she asked, "What about mine? We're both your people. You can't favor one over the other."

Sheng Xiao was amused by her words. He said, "We have a date today."

A date?

Yu Huang had planned to meet Sheng Xiao after putting on her school uniform. But, she put it back into the wardrobe when she heard what he said. "Give me a few minutes."

Yu Huang chose a down jacket of the same color as Sheng Xiao's.

She walked out of the bedroom and was about to go downstairs. When she passed by the dressing mirror in the living room, she subconsciously looked into the mirror.

Yu Huang suddenly stopped when she saw her bare face in the mirror.

Should she put on makeup?

Yu Huang knocked on Na Luo's door.

Na Luo had just woken up and was still in bed. Hearing a knock on the door, Na Luo said, "It's not locked. Please come in."

Yu Huang pushed open the door and leaned against the door frame as she asked Na Luo, "Can you lend me your cosmetics?" Because her appearance was ruined, Yu Huang did not have the habit of wearing makeup. She did not have any cosmetics there.

Na Luo immediately sat up. She wrapped herself in the blanket and floated down the bed. She panted and said, "It's so cold. Is it snowing outside?"

"Yes, the snow is quite heavy."

Na Luo went to the dresser. She opened a leather case filled with various cosmetics and makeup brushes. "Here, you can use whatever you want."

"Thank you."

Yu Huang rarely put on makeup and she really didn't have any makeup skills.

With her good skin, Yu Huang only applied some light makeup on her face.

Yu Huang picked up a palette of eye shadow. Seeing that the eye shadow was colorful, she couldn't decide which one to use. Na Luo saw that she couldn't make up her mind, so she walked over and said to her, "If you want to put on light makeup, use the milk tea color for a gentle makeup look."

Gentle.

This was a term that had nothing to do with Yu Huang.

However, Yu Huang decided to look gentle when she thought about her date with Sheng Xiao.

She dipped her finger in and took a bit of eye shadow before gently swiping it on the folds of her eyelids. Na Luo helped her with the eye shadow with the brush and asked her, "Is today some special day?"

"I'm going on a date with Professor Sheng today."

"Hehe," Na Luo said, "Then you must look beautiful."

After applying makeup, Na Luo chose a cinnamon-colored lipstick for Yu Huang. "Alright, you look very beautiful." Yu Huang, who had light makeup on, appeared even more exquisite and beautiful.

"Thanks." After changing into her snow boots, Yu Huang quietly went downstairs alone.

Sheng Xiao could tell that she was wearing makeup.

This was the first time Yu Huang had put on makeup since they met. Sheng Xiao could not help but take a few more glances at her.

Yu Huang pointed at his thermos box and asked, "Is this for Yang Yang?"

"Mmm." Sheng Xiao passed the thermos box to Yu Huang. "It's not convenient for me to enter the female dormitory. Help me give it to her. I'll wait for you downstairs."

"Okay."

Yu Huang carried the shrimp congee back to the sixth floor.

Sheng Yang had also woken up. When she saw Yu Huang return with the porridge, she said, "It's snowing today. I really want to have a bowl of steaming hot Drunken Shrimp Porridge. Yu Huang, you went to the canteen so early to bring us breakfast?"

Sheng Yang did not know that her brother was downstairs. She thought that the food box contained the breakfast Yu Huang brought back from the canteen.

When Na Luo saw Sheng Xiao, she knew that it came from him. She told Sheng Yang, "I think your brother gave it to Yu Huang."

"My brother?" Sheng Yang looked at Yu Huang bitterly. She said, "Sister-in-law, I'm so jealous of you."

Yu Huang placed the food box into Sheng Yang's arms. "Your brother made you some Drunken Shrimp Porridge. He wants you to drink it with Na Luo."

Sheng Yang immediately smiled happily.

"Thank you, sister-in-law, for helping out!"

Sheng Yang quickly pulled Na Luo to the side table and opened the shrimp porridge to drink with her. "Sister-in-law, come, have a taste."

Yu Huang took a sip from Sheng Yang's spoon.

Yu Huang did not know if it was because Sheng Xiao was handsome, but the porridge he made was even better than the porridge made by the chef in the canteen. Yu Huang was afraid that she would ruin her makeup, so she only took a sip and stopped eating.

"You guys enjoy your meal. I'll head down first."

Sheng Yang was busy eating her porridge and asked without looking up, "Where are you going?"

"Your brother is looking for me."

Na Luo said suggestively, "They're going on a date today."

"Really?"

Yu Huang went downstairs and met Sheng Xiao. Sheng Yang leaned on the balcony and said loudly, "I've received your porridge. Have a good date with my sister-in-law. We won't be leaving the door open tonight!"

After Sheng Yang shouted, everyone in the female dormitory knew that Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang were going on a date. They also knew that Sheng Yang and the others would not leave the door open for Yu Huang tonight.

Yu Huang was amused. Sheng Xiao was a little angry. He glanced at Sheng Yang coldly. Sheng Yang shrank her head and hid in the dormitory.

"Let's go."

"Where are we going?" There had to be a date schedule.

Sheng Xiao said, "To the city."

The city closest to the Divine Realm Academy was Qiang City. However, Divine Realm Academy was currently under strict restrictions, and one could not leave without approval.

Yu Huang voiced her concern. Sheng Xiao said, "I'm a professor. I can come and go as I please."

Yu Huang said, "But I'm a student."

"Students are not allowed to enter and exit the independent space at will." Sheng Xiao held Yu Huang's left hand and touched the ring on her ring finger. "But you are my family."

As the professor's family member, Yu Huang could enter and exit the academy with Sheng Xiao.

The snow was still falling. Sheng Xiao noticed that the collar of Yu Huang's down jacket was too low. He was worried that she would be cold, so he took off the scarf around her neck and wrapped it around her neck.

"Didn't you say that the last day of the year is called new year's eve? We should give each other red gifts on the day of the new year. Tomorrow, you will go to the Broken Cliff with Supremacy Lin to train. I can't accompany you for the new year, so we will celebrate the new year ahead of time."

Chapter 303: Date

Sheng Xiao did not remember Yu Huang asking him to buy dumplings last year.

A few days ago, he found a small red packet in the treasure chest where precious items were kept. His instinct told him that it was given to him by Yu Huang. So, Sheng Xiao went to ask her about the origin of the red packet.

Yu Huang told Sheng Xiao about the dumplings they had last year during the Lunar New Year. "Do you still remember?" Yu Huang did not expect that Sheng Xiao would remember everything she said.

"I remember everything you said."

Sheng Xiao patted Yu Huang's head and said, "I didn't prepare it for you last year. I prepared it in advance this year. I asked my mother to weave this scarf for you. It's red. You'll look good in it."

Sheng Xiao's method of tying the scarf was simple. He would not do anything fancy. He would do whatever it took to warm her up. He wrapped the scarf around Yu Huang's neck and covered her chin.

He looked at his work with satisfaction and said, "Not bad, it looks good."

Yu Huang felt warm after being covered.

Just as Sheng Xiao had said, the guardian of the tower let Yu Huang out after seeing the engagement ring on her finger.

Early in the morning, the two of them boarded a green train to Qiang City.

There was only one train to Qiang City, and it only took two trips a night. Therefore, passengers who needed to go to Qiang City for work or travel needed to take this train early in the morning.

If someone missed it, he could only wait for it the next day.

Hence, there were many passengers on the train. Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao were stuck in the train together.

The temperature in Qiang City was relatively low, and the entire winter was covered in snow. It was the famous snow city of the Divine Moon Empire. There was no heater in the green carriage, and everyone was shivering from the cold.

The Divine Feather Phoenix had a fire attribute. Yu Huang was naturally warm and unafraid of the cold. She held Sheng Xiao's hand. When she noticed that his hands were cold, she held his hand and hid it inside her down jacket.

Her clothes were as warm as an electric oven. Sheng Xiao held her waist and chuckled. "With you around, I won't feel cold anymore."

Yu Huang was about to speak when she suddenly heard a middle-aged woman whispering to her son—

"Nan Nan, close your eyes quickly. This kind of thing will cause styes. Young people these days don't know how to be reserved at all. They are actually so touchy in public. They're too shameless..."

As beast tamers, Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao had better hearing than commoners. They heard what the lady said. Sheng Xiao's ears turned red and he quickly took his hand out of Yu Huang's clothes.

Yu Huang laughed.

Half an hour later, the train stopped at a small town. Sheng Xiao could not stand the woman's gaze anymore. He pulled Yu Huang off the train.

"Let's drive to Qiang City instead of taking the train."

"Okay."

There was a thin layer of ice on the highway to Qiang City. Sheng Xiao put the chain on the SUV.

Yu Huang drove Sheng Xiao to Qiang City at ten in the morning.

After they entered Qiang City, Sheng Xiao dragged Yu Huang to the hot spring. They asked for a separate suite with a bedroom and a small hot spring pool.

Yu Huang had not prepared her clothes in advance for the hot spring. Thus, she wore the hotel's disposable bathrobe. The bathrobe, with only two thin straps connecting to the dress, was rather sexy.

Yu Huang didn't wear a bra. She only wore a bathrobe when she went into the water.

Once she was in the water, the nightgown clung to her body.

Even though the areas that should be covered were covered by the bathrobe, the wet dress clung tightly to her body while accentuating her good figure.

She felt that it was too seductive, so she submerged half her body in the hot spring while only revealing her shoulders and head.

Sheng Xiao walked out of the bedroom with a towel wrapped around his waist. He stared at Yu Huang's thin and fair shoulders for a while before entering the hot spring.

The walls of the courtyard were made of glass and one could see the outside from the inside. However, one could not see the inside from the outside.

Sheng Xiao sat together with Yu Huang as they watched the guests walking around outside the hotel. He felt excited when he thought about how no one would notice what they were doing inside.

Yu Huang had the same thought as him. She took a sip of her strawberry milk tea and suddenly said, "Let's do what adults should do."

Sheng Xiao suddenly turned around and looked at her.

Yu Huang was sucking on the milk tea with one hand. Her left hand moved to Sheng Xiao's side and held his right hand.

Sheng Xiao grabbed Yu Huang's hand, then pulled her out of the hot spring and into his arms.

The strawberry-flavored kiss first traveled to Sheng Xiao's lips, then his collarbone and shoulders, then his whole body...

After they soaked in the hot spring, it was already one in the afternoon.

The two of them put on their clothes and walked out of the hot spring. They were greeted by the cold wind that made them shiver.

Yu Huang said, "The sky will darken very quickly tonight. Let's go back after dinner."

"Okay."

"What will we eat?"

Sheng Xiao caught a piece of snow and said, "We should eat hotpot on a snowy day."

Yu Huang had no objections.

They went to the most famous hotpot restaurant in Qiang City. Knowing that Yu Huang did not eat spicy food, Sheng Xiao ordered a double hotpot.

Yu Huang felt her stomach ache when she saw Sheng Xiao calmly scoop out a bowl of ginger from the spicy hotpot and finish it without blinking.

"You're really into spicy food."

Sheng Xiao took a tissue to wipe his nose. The usually high and mighty Professor Sheng seemed down-to-earth at this moment.

Sheng Xiao took a sip of the cold tea. He breathed in the spicy scent and told Yu Huang, "Yufu City used to be in Sichuan. Everyone there likes spicy food, especially my mother. She likes to roast dried red chili peppers in winter."

Yu Huang didn't dare to imagine that scene.

Sheng Xiao's lips turned red after he finished the hotpot.

Seeing that it was still early, Sheng Xiao brought up the idea of going to Qiang City's ice sculpting park to play. Qiang City's ice sculpting park was famous throughout the country. The ice sculptures there were vivid and lifelike. When the lights were on, it looked very dreamy.

At the entrance of the park, there was a master in the ice sculpting business. As long as you gave him money, he could sculpt anything.

As soon as the old master saw Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao, he knew that they were not short of money. He quickly shouted, "Custom-made ice sculptures! Unique ice sculptures! Get your girlfriend a customized ice sculpture. All the couples who customized ice sculptures here will get married and have children!"

Sheng Xiao stopped when he heard the last sentence. He pulled Yu Huang to the old master's stall. "Get us a custom-made one."

Sheng Xiao put his arm around Yu Huang's waist and said to his old master, "If we don't get married and have children in the future, I will settle the account with you."

His old master dared to say that because he could tell that they were close. He stared at the rings on Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang's hands and chuckled. "Don't worry. You two will definitely do it."

"You're quite discerning." Sheng Xiao was in a good mood when he received the pair of ice sculptures. He gave the man two thousand yuan although it was only one thousand yuan.

Sheng Xiao put the ice sculpture in the freezer. Then, he carried it and drove back to the Divine Realm Academy with Yu Huang.

When they returned to school, Sheng Xiao hid the ice sculpture in the fridge. Yu Huang ate an apple as she asked him, "Are you really going to keep it?"

Sheng Xiao nodded and said, "I'll keep it for our future children."

Chapter 304: Untitled

For the first time, Yu Huang felt that Sheng Xiao had a childish side to him.

"Sure." She decided to act childish with him as well.

Tonight, at eight o'clock, the dean was going to hold the beast heart burial ceremony for Prime Emperor Cong Lang.

The academy's loudspeaker sounded. Professor Mu's voice spread throughout the entire Divine Realm Academy.

"All teachers and students, please immediately go to the cultivation hall to participate in the Prime Emperor's funeral!"

"All teachers and students, please immediately go to the cultivation hall to participate in the Prime Emperor's funeral!"

The broadcast was repeated twice before it was switched off.

The students were excited when they heard the announcement.

Prime Emperor's burial ceremony?

Which Prime Emperor?

Soon, the students and faculty arrived at the Cultivation Hall.

When Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang arrived at the training hall, Sheng Yang happened to see them. Sheng Yang stood on tiptoe and waved at Yu Huang. "Yu Huang, come to us! Let's stand together!"

Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao walked toward Sheng Yang and the others.

Sheng Yang only realized that Sheng Xiao's mouth was red when they got closer.

Sheng Yang winked at Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang. She said, "Brother, your mouth is swollen. It seems that you two had a good time."

Yu Huang knew that Sheng Yang had the wrong idea, but she couldn't be bothered to explain.

Sheng Xiao explained, "It's not what you think. We had hotpot. It was too spicy."

"Oh, really?" Sheng Yang seemed to believe Sheng Xiao's explanation. But, she looked at him suspiciously.

Sheng Xiao suddenly remembered what happened in the hot spring this afternoon. For a moment, he was not sure if his lips were swollen because of the chilli or Yu Huang.

Sheng Xiao ignored Sheng Yang and walked toward the staff.

Sheng Yang asked Yu Huang, "Sister-in-law, what did you do on your date today?"

Yu Huang tapped Sheng Yang's head and pushed her head away a little. "Don't ask so much about adult's affairs."

Sheng Yang snorted. When she saw that Professor Mu and the rest were here, she immediately quieted down.

Professor Mu shouted, "All students and professors, retreat five hundred meters!" Upon hearing this, everyone silently retreated five hundred meters.

With the Cultivation Hall as the center, Professor Mu drew a huge circle five hundred meters away from it. It was a wall that prevented anyone from approaching.

The principal appeared in the sky above the Cultivation Hall. He held a crystal box in both hands, and inside the box lay a beast heart with immense energy.

Sensing the boundless energy contained within the beast's heart, the students all revealed intoxicated expressions.

The principal held up the crystal box and said respectfully, "This is Prime Emperor Cong Lang's beast heart. Today, Prime Emperor Cong Lang's beast heart will forever be buried beneath the floor of Divine Realm Academy's Cultivation Hall. From now on, it will be together with Prime Master Goldfeather's Spirit Gathering Bone, providing spiritual strength to our school's Cultivation Hall!"

Upon hearing this, the students who were unaware of the situation were all shocked.

Prime Emperor Cong Lang's beast heart!

Why would Prime Emperor Cong Lang's beast heart appear here?!

Who brought it out?

Yin Rong looked at Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao subconsciously.

On the day when the Cong Lang Mystic Realm was sealed, Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao were the last two people to be thrown out of the mystic realm. Prime Emperor Cong Lang's beast heart was most likely brought out by them.

"Whoa!" Xiao Shu exclaimed beside Yin Rong's ear. "Everyone else went in to absorb the Prime Emperor's spiritual bodies, but these two actually dug up the Spirit Gathering Tree and even brought the Prime Emperor's Beast Heart back to the academy."

Yin Rong said, "I think the Spirit Gathering Tree really likes Yu Huang. Perhaps Prime Emperor Cong Lang willingly left it with Yu Huang."

When Xiao Shu recalled what had happened in Cong Lang Mystic Realm, he actually felt that Yin Rong's words made sense.

When the dean spoke again, Yin Rong and Xiao Shu immediately stopped their discussion.

"Everyone, follow me. Bow and thank Prime Emperor Cong Lang for his kindness!" The dean released his hand, and the crystal box automatically floated to the sky above the Cultivation Hall.

The dean took a step back and bowed three times to Prime Emperor Cong Lang's Beast Heart.

After the bow, the dean, Gold Ingot, and the other three Grand Masters flew into the sky. The five of them mobilized all the spiritual energy in their bodies and lifted the entire mountain where the Cultivation Hall was.

The students were dumbfounded.

The mountain was lifted up, revealing the situation at the bottom of the mountain.

In the deepest part of the mountain lay a crystal coffin. Inside the coffin was a sparkling white skeleton, the Spirit Gathering Bone of Prime Master Goldfeather.

Upon seeing the remains of Prime Master Goldfeather, all the teachers and students bowed three more times.

After bowing, the dean waved his hand, and the crystal box containing Prime Emperor Cong Lang's Beast Heart flew to the side of Prime Master Goldfeather's remains. The two were separated by a distance, and neither interfered with the other as they silently released their energy.

In the future, these two seniors would use their strength to bring endless spiritual strength to the students of Divine Realm Academy.

After the burial ceremony ended, the students were all discussing why Prime Emperor Cong Lang's beast heart had appeared here. Yin Rong directly went to Yu Huang and asked, "Yu Huang, did you bring Prime Emperor Cong Lang's beast heart out?"

The destruction of the Cong Lang Mystic Realm could not be hidden. Yu Huang nodded and told Yin Rong, "Yes, Prime Emperor Cong Lang felt that the existence of the Cong Lang Mystic Realm was a threat, so he decided to destroy the mystic realm and let me bring out his beast heart."

Yin Rong immediately thought of the Beast Tamers that had been turned into dolls in the Cong Lang Mystic Realm's ancient pavilion. She felt that the Cong Lang Mystic Realm was too eerie, and destroying itself was a good thing.

Yin Rong then told Yu Huang, "The appearance of the Blood Peacock Organization has brought panic to the continent. Tomorrow morning, the core disciples of the Yin Clan will take leave to return to the clan to train and strive to improve our strength. What about you? Do you intend to stay in the academy, or do you have other plans?"

All the great family clans had their own resources. The appearance of the Blood Peacock made these big clans feel uneasy. In order to increase the strength of the clan's disciples, the great clans naturally had their own plans.

Yu Huang said, "I also want to follow my mentor out to gain experience."

"Are you talking about Supremacy Lin?"

"Yeah."

Yin Rong said, "I originally intended to invite you to return to the Yin Clan with me to train. But Supremacy Lin only has you as a personal disciple, so he will definitely give you the best resources. I worried too much."

Besides, Yu Huang was Sheng Xiao's fiancée. The Sheng family would definitely give her the best resources.

After bidding farewell to Yu Huang, Yin Rong returned to pack her things while intending to leave early in the morning.

The next morning.

Many Elders sent by big families arrived at the Divine Realm Academy. These people found Professor Mu and expressed that they wanted to bring core disciples back to their families to train.

Professor Mu was also supportive of this. This was because after this group of people left, the academy's limited resources would be able to be distributed to independent Beast Tamers.

Mrs. Sheng came with the elders of the Sheng family. The elders took away the core disciples of the Sheng family while Mrs. Sheng planned to bring Sheng Xiao and Sheng Yang to the Wind Blade Mountain for training.

Wind Blade Mountain was the capital of demons and was known as the Beast Tamer Hell. That place was even more chaotic than the Rakshasa Empire was.

The people who lived in Rakshasa Empire were mostly common criminals and mercenaries. However, those who lived in the Wind Blade Mountain Range were all Beast Tamers who had committed crimes.

Their cultivation levels spanned from Scholar to Grand Master.

That was a place that was not bound to any country or by any law. There was no organization that could control Beast Tamers there. In that place, the rule of the jungle reigned supreme!

Sheng Xiao was already a Supreme Master. It was reasonable for him to go to the Wind Blade Mountain to train. But, Sheng Yang was only a Scholar. It was a huge risk for Madam Sheng to throw Sheng Yang into the Wind Blade Mountain.

Naturally, Madam Sheng couldn't bear it either. She looked at Sheng Yang's tender face and said, "Yang Yang, the Blood Peacock's goal is to kill all the Beast Tamers in this world. As the leader of the Hundred Cultivation Families, the Sheng Clan will give it all we've got when the war comes! If the Sheng Clan loses, do you know what will happen to us?"

Sheng Yang bit her lips and looked at her mother nervously. She did not say anything.

Mrs Sheng said, "As the president of the Beast Tamer Alliance, your father will be beheaded by the Blood Peacock Organization in front of everyone to boost their morale! Your genius brother will be tortured to death by the Night Peacock Organization and used as a threat to warn all the Beast Tamers on the continent! As a demon beast, I will be eaten alive!"

Sheng Yang's pupils dilated as her face turned pale.

She clenched her fists and gritted her teeth. "Mom, I'll go to Wind Blade Mountain with you!"

Chapter 305: Becoming a Cultured Dragon

After the conversation between Sheng Yang and Mrs. Sheng, Sheng Yang's fighting spirit was ignited.

She returned to the dormitory and said to Yu Huang and Na Luo as she packed her things, "My mother said that Prime Emperor Dino and the Grand State Master are looking for the Blood Peacock Organization's nest. When they find the nest of the Blood Peacock Organization, they will join forces with all the forces on the continent to suppress the Blood Peacock Organization."

She stuffed a few boxes of papaya powder into her suitcase and said, "I'm going to Wind Blade Mountain with my brother to train. Na Luo, what are your plans?"

Na Luo was drinking a cup of warm water.

Na Luo lived in the deep sea region. The temperature there was actually relatively mild, and she was not used to the continent's winter climate. Once winter came, Na Luo would get lazy.

She took a sip of warm water and said, "I'll go back to my clan and enter seclusion."

Both of them looked at Yu Huang in unison.

Yu Huang shrugged and said, "I'm going out with Mentor to train."

"Alright, then we'll meet at your wedding."

"Okay."

Sheng Yang quickly packed her things and went downstairs with her luggage. Yu Huang naturally had to send her downstairs.

Mrs. Sheng and Sheng Xiao were waiting downstairs. When they saw Yu Huang and Sheng Yang coming down together, Mrs. Sheng gave Yu Huang two bottles of lime wine. She said, "Your mentor likes this. Take it. When you see him, give him the wine."

"Thank you, Auntie."

Yu Huang held her wine and exchanged glances with Sheng Xiao.

Sheng Xiao said to Mrs. Sheng, "I'll talk to Yu Huang for a while."

Mrs Sheng smiled implicitly. "Go ahead."

Sheng Xiao held Yu Huang's hand and walked into the woods. He had so many things he wanted to tell Yu Huang, but he did not know where to start when they were alone.

After a moment of silence, Yu Huang laughed.

"Alright, I know what you want to say. What you want to say is also what I want to say." Yu Huang scratched Sheng Xiao's palm and said, "Be careful and come back alive."

Sheng Xiao smiled. "You too."

"Yeah."

The two of them stayed in the small forest for a while, then held hands and returned to the dormitory. After Yu Huang sent off Madam Sheng and the other two, she returned to the dormitory.

Na Luo was also packing her luggage. Yu Huang leaned against the door frame and asked Na Luo, "Na Luo, where is your home?"

Na Luo's hands paused slightly. She turned around to look at Yu Huang and said to her, "Didn't I tell you? Xixia Ocean."

Did she?

Yu Huang couldn't remember. She said, "Xixia Ocean is very big. Where exactly is your home?"

"There are islands all over Xixia Ocean. You don't even know my home island's name. What, do you want to visit my house?" Na Luo handed Yu Huang a whistle in the shape of a conch.

Yu Huang placed the conch beside her ear, and as expected, she heard the echo inside.

Na Luo said, "Us mermen can't use phones in the sea. We all use the conch to contact each other. When you go to Xixia Ocean in the future, blow the conch if you want to contact me. I will naturally come to see you."

Yu Huang asked, "Can I blow it now?"

"Try it."

Yu Huang held the conch in her mouth and blew on it. The melodious sound of the conch echoed in the dormitory. Yu Huang saw Na Luo's hair flapping despite no wind.

Na Luo pressed down her long curly hair and said to Yu Huang, "The conch contains my spiritual power. When you blow the conch, my hair will flap."

"Alright, I'll remember it." Yu Huang carefully put away the conch for safekeeping.

"I'm done packing. I'll be leaving first. Yu Huang, see you at the wedding."

"Okay."

Yu Huang stood on the balcony and watched as Na Luo swayed as she walked towards the entrance of the Divine Realm Academy.

She looked at the time. It was nine in the morning.

Her mentor said that he would pick her up from school at ten o'clock sharp.

There was still an hour left. Yu Huang thought for a while and decided to bid farewell to Anna. Yu Huang went to the Breeding Department and met Feng Si on the way.

Feng Si had just returned from the Breeding Department. He looked like he had just fought a battle and his clothes were a little dirty.

Upon seeing Yu Huang, Feng Si rushed over and put his arm around her shoulders. "I heard that you and Professor Sheng will be holding a wedding. Is that true? My brother said that our family has already received the wedding invitation sent by the Sheng family."

Yu Huang swatted the hand on her shoulder away. "I already have a fiancé now. Don't hug me. It's inappropriate."

"Tsk!"

Feng Si let go of Yu Huang's shoulder. He lowered his eyes and stared at Yu Huang's beautiful face. He sighed with emotion. "I'm used to seeing you wearing a mask. I can't get used to how beautiful you look now."

Yu Huang walked forward. "Then don't look at me."

"It won't affect you no matter how many times I look at you." Feng Si caught up with Yu Huang and walked side by side with her to the Breeding Department. As they walked, he said, "Um, you'll be teaming up with me for next summer's Youth Beast Tamer Competition, right? I'm your personal assistant."

Yu Huang frowned. "Youth Beast Tamer Competition?" Her tone revealed her confusion. "What kind of competition is that?"

“Huh? Don’t you know?” Feng Si said, “Every four years, all the major academies on the Holy Spirit Continent will gather together to hold a Youth Beast Tamer Competition. This competition is considered the most watched competition in the cultivation world.”

Yu Huang asked again, “How do we compete?”

“There are team competitions and individual competitions. Each high school will send out a team of eight people. The first three teams to compete in the intercontinental competition will represent each continent in the finals of the Holy Spirit Continent. The individual competition will be even more intense. This competition will lock all participants into an independent space and allow them to participate in a huge test. The top hundred teams that emerge from the test will bring their support to participate in the finals.”

“As for the participants of the team competition, they can no longer participate in the individual competition. You have already broken through to the level of a Master. By next summer, you will definitely be able to squeeze into the top ten of our school’s top 100 experts list. There is a high chance that you will represent the school in the team competition.”

Hearing this, Yu Huang said, “We don’t know if the Youth Beast Tamer Competition will be held on time next year.”

Feng Si thought about the recent events and frowned.

When they reached the Breeding Department, Feng Si said to Yu Huang, “Go find Anna. My brother is coming to pick me up. I have to go back.”

“Okay.”

Yu Huang walked into the Breeding Department. After asking around, she found out that Anna was not in the Breeding Department. She was studying with the dean.

Yu Huang ran to the dean’s office.

The dean’s office was on the top floor of the classroom’s office building. When Yu Huang walked out of the elevator, she heard the dean’s furious scolding, “You stupid dragon, this is called o, not ou!”

Following that, Yu Huang heard the voice of the Icy Night T-Rex. “Ou!” He had already tried his best to correct his pronunciation, but perhaps due to his species limiting his pronunciation, the Icy Night T-Rex could not produce an ‘o’ sound.

The dean started scolding again. “You stupid dragon, you’re really the stupidest student I’ve ever taught! Can’t you just be a stupid dragon? Why do you have to study?!”

Icy Night T-Rex was not convinced. He retorted, “I want to be a cultured dragon. Won’t you feel more prideful when I walk out in the future?”

The dean pressed his chest. He really wanted a quick-acting heart pill.

Chapter 306: What Is He Trying to Do?

Yu Huang walked to the door of the dean's office. She stood outside the window and saw everything in the office clearly.

The dean was sitting at his desk and holding a feather duster in his left hand while his right hand pressed against his chest. He was panting. There were two tables, one by the window and one by the wall, in front of him.

The petite Anna was sitting by the window while studying spell formations.

The Icy Night T-Rex, whose body was as large as a small mountain, sat behind a table against the wall with its wings folded. Compared to the body of the Icy Night T-Rex, that table was simply terrifyingly small.

At this moment, in front of the Icy Night T-Rex, there was a beginners' guide for learning the alphabet.

After being scolded by the dean in front of Anna, the Icy Night T-Rex was humiliated. At this moment, he raised his head to sneak a peek at Anna.

Yu Huang was frightened by this strange scene.

What was going on?

The demon beast also started learning?

Noticing that Yu Huang had arrived, the dean narrowed his eyes and waved at her. "Come in."

Yu Huang pushed open the door and walked in. "Dean."

The dean threw the ferule into Yu Huang's hands. Yu Huang caught it quickly and heard the dean say, "Teach him. This stupid thing is going to anger me to death."

Yu Huang looked up at the massive creature in front of her and exchanged glances with the Icy Night T-Rex.

Anna, on the other hand, smiled happily when she saw Yu Huang. "Yu Huang, are you here for me?"

"Yeah."

Hearing this, the dean smiled and said, "Yu Huang, when you teach dumb dragon how to pronounce 'o', I'll let Anna leave with you after class."

Anna's smile instantly disappeared. She said, "The Icy Night T-Rex is especially stupid. It can't pronounce the 'o' sound at all. Yu Huang, don't bother about it."

When he heard this, the Icy Night T-Rex immediately became irritable. He snorted indignantly and said, "I know how to! I really know how to! Yu Huang, teach me quickly!"

Yu Huang pointed her ruler at O and said, "Oh."

The Icy Night T-Rex tried his best to produce the correct syllables, but when he opened his mouth, it said, "Ou!"

Dean put his hand to his forehead. Anna closed her eyes.

The Icy Night T-Rex was too embarrassed to look at Anna.

Yu Huang also had a headache. She suddenly put down the ferule and said to the Icy Night T-Rex, "Do you trust me?"

The Icy Night T-Rex sneered and said arrogantly, "I've never trusted humans!"

Yu Huang said, "Do you still want to continue learning with Anna?"

The Icy Night T-Rex stole a glance at Anna, whose face was full of impatience. "I trust you..."

Yu Huang nodded and said, "If you trust me, then let down your guard. Let's talk."

The Icy Night T-Rex nodded unwillingly. He suppressed his spiritual power and laid his head on the table while listening to Yu Huang.

Yu Huang suddenly circulated her spirit energy, raised her fist, and mercilessly punched the eyes of the Icy Night T-Rex.

The defenseless Icy Night T-Rex was punched in the eye by Yu Huang, and it instantly cried out in pain, "Oh!!"

The Icy Night T-Rex immediately raised his head. He narrowed his eyes, which were swollen from Yu Huang's punch, and questioned her angrily, "Human, you're too despicable! You actually ambushed me!"

Yu Huang shook her fist and said calmly, "Don't you know how to pronounce it?"

The Icy Night T-Rex was baffled.

He thought back carefully and realized that the moment he was beaten up by Yu Huang, he had subconsciously cried out 'O'.

The Icy Night T-Rex tilted its huge dragon head and muttered uncertainly, "...Oh?"

The dean clapped his hands. "Correct!"

Anna also heaved a huge sigh of relief and gave Yu Huang a thumbs up.

The Icy Night T-Rex chuckled and said, "I said that I'm very smart." He glanced at the dean meaningfully and said mockingly, "In the end, there are still some people whose teaching methods are wrong."

The dean said angrily, "Are you implying that I should beat you up more?"

The Icy Night T-Rex fell silent again.

Anna stood up and said to the dean, "I want to talk to Yu Huang for a while."

"Go ahead."

Yu Huang and Anna walked out of the office side by side. The Icy Night T-Rex twisted his head and pressed it against the wall of the corridor to eavesdrop on their conversation.

The dean snorted and the Icy Night T-Rex sat up straight.

Yu Huang and Anna went to the pantry next door. Anna poured a cup of water for Yu Huang and said to her, "Many students left today. I thought you would go out to train."

"I'll leave in a while. I'm here to bid you farewell." Yu Huang lifted her chin towards the office next door and asked Anna, "What are you guys doing? Why is the Icy Night T-Rex here to study?"

Anna had a headache just talking about this. She said, "Who knows what's wrong with that Icy Night T-Rex? He suddenly asked to learn a few days ago. Although the dean was always harsh on him, he actually liked him. When he heard that the Icy Night T-Rex wanted to learn, he happily agreed. Just like that, we became classmates."

Anna took a sip of water and continued to complain. "He's especially stupid. He can only learn one letter a day. The key is that he doesn't know it yet. He thinks he's very smart."

Hearing Anna's ridicule, Yu Huang also let out a muffled laugh. "It's good that the Icy Night T-Rex has such an awareness. If he really succeeds in taking human form in the future, being able to read will definitely be helpful to him."

Anna did not say anything. She seemed to have thought of something and her face turned red.

Yu Huang stared at Anna's blushing face and asked curiously, "What are you thinking about?"

Anna held the glass of water and took another sip before saying, "I think the Icy Night T-Rex might be in love with me."

Yu Huang's eyes narrowed. "Huh, what do you mean?"

"Yesterday, Mentor asked him to read the letter A, but he found it troublesome and refused to cooperate. Later, Mentor said that my name had this letter in it, and that when he learned it, he'll be able to spell my name. Then, that Icy Night T-Rex actually started studying seriously."

Anna's face was red. She curled her fingers around the cup like a young girl in love. She whispered to Yu Huang, "Yu Huang, what do you think that Icy Night T-Rex is up to?"

He was probably in love.

Yu Huang didn't dare to say this out loud for fear of scaring Anna.

At this moment, the blood contract in Yu Huang's body started to heat up. It seemed like Lin Jiansheng had arrived. Yu Huang stood up and walked to the window. She pushed it open and saw Lin Jiansheng.

Lin Jiansheng returned to his alma mater and put on his red Level 8 Purifying Spirit Master robe.

Lin Jiansheng held the Purifying Spirit Scepter in his right hand and strode towards the professor's office under the admiring gazes of the students.

He headed straight for the dean's office. Seeing that Yu Huang was also there, Lin Jiansheng stopped in his tracks and said to her, "Have you packed your things? I have a few words with the dean. Let's set off."

Yu Huang nodded. "I'm done packing. I'm just waiting for you."

“Alright then.”

Lin Jiansheng raised his hand and was about to knock on the dean’s office door when the door opened automatically. Just as Lin Jiansheng was about to enter, he saw a Icy Night T-Rex walking out.

Lin Jiansheng immediately moved to the side and watched as the Icy Night T-Rex flew out of the window at the end of the corridor before entering the dean’s office.

“Good morning, Dean.” Lin Jiansheng was full of respect for his alma mater’s dean.

The dean waved his hand and said, “Ah Sheng, you’re here. Take a seat.”

“Dean, I’ll leave after saying a few words.” Lin Jiansheng was an impatient person. He walked towards the dean’s desk and made a soundproof wall outside the office.

Seeing his nervous reaction, the dean sat up straight and asked thoughtfully, “What happened?”

Chapter 307: Set a Small Goal and Become a Level Ten Purifying Spirit Master

Lin Jiansheng leaned against the office desk and lowered his head. He lowered his voice and said to the dean, “Dean, on my way to the Divine Realm Academy yesterday, I met a Beast Tamer who was chasing after a young Beast Tamer. I saw that person wearing a peacock mask and suspected that he was from the Blood Peacock Organization, so I killed him. Guess what happened!”

‘Get to the point,’ said the Dean impatiently.

Lin Jiansheng slammed his hand heavily on the dean’s desk and said, “When I took off that person’s mask, I realized that he was a Beast Tamer that I knew! The dean should know this person too.”

The dean asked in a low voice, “Who is it?!”

“The head of the Jiang Clan of Yang Mountain, Jiang Yuyan!”

The dean was stunned.

“Yuyan?” The dean exclaimed, “How could it be him?!”

Jiang Yuyan was also a student of Divine Realm Academy. He graduated from Divine Realm Academy 20 years ago. When he participated in the Skysplit Tower competition, Jiang Yuyan had also reached the 100th floor.

Just like Xuanyuan Chen, when Jiang Yuyan barged into the 100th floor and saw that the guardian of the 100th floor was the dean, he instantly lost his will to fight.

That child was not as talented as Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang, but he was also an ambitious child.

Ten years ago, Jiang Yuyan took over the family business from his father and became the head of the Jiang family.

In the past ten years, the Jiang clan had developed very well in his hands. The high-tech electronics produced by their clan was also hailed as the best among the nation’s electronics production in the Divine Moon Empire.

The dean said, "I met Jiang Yuyan a few years ago when I participated in the Beast Tamer Alliance Meeting. He was a righteous gentleman. How could he be a member of the Blood Peacock Organization?"

The dean could not understand.

Lin Jiansheng added, "I have the same doubts as you."

"A few years ago, Jiang Yuyan once invited me to Yang Mountain to hold a ceremony for his family's children. In my impression, Jiang Yuyan is indeed a man of character. So when I took off the mask and saw Jiang Yuyan's face, I was also very shocked."

"I was suspicious. I searched Jiang Yuyan's soul last night. Guess what? I found the Blood Pact in his spiritual consciousness!"

Blood Pact, Marriage Contract, and Marriage Compact were known as the three most terrifying contracts in this world. The first two could be removed on their own, while the Marriage Compact could only be removed by the heavens.

The so-called Blood Pact was a contract that used one's life to exchange for another's. Once the Blood Pact was formed, both parties could not deceive each other or betray each other.

Once one party betrayed the other party, not only would the betrayer be enraged, but the betrayed party could easily take his life with just a thought.

This was the blood contract between Lin Jiansheng and Yu Huang.

The dean naturally knew about Blood Pact very well. He said, "Are you suspecting that every member of the Blood Peacock Organization has a Blood Pact with the Blood Peacock Organization? They are loyal to each other and will never betray each other?"

Lin Jiansheng nodded. "Yes."

The dean closed his eyes and leaned against the back of his chair. He sighed softly and said, "Although the Blood Peacock Organization has only surfaced recently, they existed five hundred years ago. Five hundred years, who knows how many people the Blood Peacock has secretly controlled in these five hundred years?"

Lin Jiansheng shuddered in fear.

"Dean, do you mean that some of the people around us might... might be members of the Blood Peacock Organization?"

"That's right. The last time Yu Huang participated in the basketball league, she was taken away by a member of the Blood Peacock Organization. It was the Grand State Master who appeared in time and saved her."

"That time, the Grand State Master told me that there was a traitor in our alliance. That person told the Blood Peacock about Yu Huang possessing the Eternal Eye."

“Ah Sheng, the Holy Spirit Continent, the Beast Tamer Alliance, the Hundred Super Clans... We have no idea who our friends and enemies are.”

Lin Jiansheng was stunned. “How could that be?” He said, “They are all Beast Tamers. Why would they do that?”

The dean opened his eyes and his golden pupils stared at the vast and boundless sky outside the window. He said, “Ah Sheng, a man’s heart is like a snake trying to swallow an elephant. There will always be someone who wants to ascend to heaven in a single step and control this world.”

Lin Jiansheng was shocked and felt a chill down his spine.

He stared into the dean’s intelligent eyes and suddenly asked, “Then, dean, are you someone we can trust?”

The dean was stunned for a moment before he suddenly burst out laughing. “Lin Jiansheng, Mingjue is right. You are indeed a straightforward person!”

Lin Jiansheng blushed from the dean’s laughter.

The dean knocked his fingers on the table and said, “You can distrust others, but you should always trust your dean.”

Lin Jiansheng took a deep look at the dean before saying, “Yu Huang is still waiting for me. I’ll take my leave first, dean.”

“Go ahead.”

Lin Jiansheng removed the soundproof wall with a wave of his hand and walked out of the office. He said to Yu Huang, who was standing in the corridor, “Let’s go. It’s time for us to set off.”

“Okay.”

Sitting on the back of the bird, Yu Huang asked Lin Jiansheng, “Mentor, what did you tell the dean?”

Lin Jiansheng didn’t hide it from Yu Huang. He told her about his discovery last night. After hearing that, Yu Huang was shocked. “Does that mean that we can’t even trust our own people?”

“In short, don’t trust those around you easily.”

Yu Huang instinctively said when she heard this, “Then Mentor, can I trust you?”

Lin Jiansheng was stunned. He immediately understood why the dean had laughed after hearing his question.

Lin Jiansheng nodded and said, “You can distrust others, but you should always trust your mentor.”

There was a blood pact between Yu Huang and Lin Jiansheng, so she naturally trusted Lin Jiansheng. However...” According to what you said, we can confirm their identity by searching for the Blood Pact of the Blood Peacock in other people’s Spiritual Sense. ”

How could Lin Jiansheng not think of what Yu Huang could think of? “How can I not understand the logic? But can you be at ease with letting others search your soul?”

Yu Huang was silent.

Lin Jiansheng said, "Only a Beast Tamer who has broken through to level-10 in the Purifying Spirit Art can silently search for other people's spiritual senses." Lin Jiansheng glanced coldly at Yu Huang and asked her, "You're a level-two Purifying Spirit Master. Can you do it?"

Yu Huang was speechless.

But...

"I can't, but Senior Su is a Purifying Spirit Master close to level-10. Master, won't we have hope if we resurrect Senior Su?"

Lin Jiansheng's eyes lit up, but they quickly dimmed. "Only a Divine Master can resurrect a dead person."

Therefore, there was no solution to this question.

"However, Saint Xuan Ye is already a level-nine Purifying Spirit Master. He has a chance of becoming a level-ten Purifying Spirit Master." However, due to Yu Huang's influence, Lin Jiansheng no longer had the respect he once had for Saint Xuan Ye.

Under such a serious situation, Lin Jiansheng was unsure if Saint Xuan Ye was someone he could trust. Lin Jiansheng muttered, "Instead of relying on others, you should place your hopes on yourself."

It was better to rely on oneself than to ask for help.

It seemed like it was time to set a new goal for him to become a Level-10 Purifying Spirit Master.

Chapter 308: Suspicion

Yu Huang had taken the same route from the Divine Realm Academy to Broken Cliff. This time, it was the same route as before. The two equipped themselves and drove the vehicle towards Mo City of the Cangyuan Empire in the west.

After getting into the car, Lin Jiansheng turned on the heater. He rubbed his hands together and said, "Beast Tamers aren't afraid of the cold, but us, Purifying Spirit Masters, are."

Beast Tamers could use their spiritual energy to keep their bodies warm. However, Purifying Spirit Masters did not have spiritual energy. They only had spiritual power. Although spiritual power could transform into attacks, they were not as powerful as spiritual energy.

"It's exceptionally cold this year. The night before last, the entire Holy Spirit Continent was covered in heavy snow. Even the central region of the continent was covered in snow. I heard that the Xixia Sea and the Light Sea were both frozen."

Xixia Sea and the Light Sea were located in the central region of the Holy Spirit Continent. In the memories of the original owner, Yu Huang, there had never been snow in these two regions.

Yu Huang said, "The weather is too unpredictable. Something is very wrong."

Lin Jiansheng nodded and said, "Many people have been frozen to death. Saint Xuan Ye set off for the central region yesterday morning to purify the frozen civilians."

With one hand on the steering wheel and the other in her pocket, Yu Huang took out a piece of gum. She said coldly, "Saint Xuan Ye is indeed benevolent."

Lin Jiansheng nodded and said, "He is a compassionate person. Wherever there is a disaster, he will be there."

Yu Huang remained silent.

After turning on the heater, it was still a little cold. Lin Jiansheng took out a pack of cigarettes from his wide sleeves. He shook one out and held it in his mouth. Before he lit it, he heard Yu Huang say, "Give me one."

Lin Jiansheng raised his eyebrows in surprise. "You smoke?"

The original owner of the body, Yu Huang, naturally didn't smoke. However, Yu Huang smoked. During the doomsday era on Earth, Yu Huang was under a lot of stress and didn't have any friends. As time passed, she developed the habit of smoking.

Ever since she was reborn onto the Holy Spirit Continent, Yu Huang had never smoked.

Seeing Lin Jiansheng smoking, Yu Huang suddenly wanted one too.

"Occasionally, very rarely, I would smoke a cigarette. I almost forgot the taste of cigarettes. Mentor, give me one." Yu Huang's mind was filled with all sorts of stuff. Smoking a cigarette would calm her down.

Upon hearing this, Lin Jiansheng removed the cigarette from his mouth and stuffed it back into the cigarette box. He threw the cigarette box into the glove box and said with his head lowered, "Then I won't smoke anymore. You youngsters should smoke less. It's not good for your health if you smoke too much. It's also not good for your future child."

He was thinking too far ahead.

Yu Huang thought of the future she saw in Sheng Xiao's eyes. She thought of the two cute children. Her desire to smoke suddenly faded.

She rubbed her palms on her thighs and suddenly said, "Mentor, help me see something."

"Huh?" Lin Jiansheng tilted his head and asked her, "What do you want to look at?"

Yu Huang parked the car by the side. She took out a black string of beads from her pocket and handed it to Lin Jiansheng.

Lin Jiansheng held the pearl in his hand and looked at the bright light from the window for a moment before saying, "This is a black pearl. It's only produced in the deep sea and is very rare. In the commoners' world, a bracelet made of this black pearl is worth more than a million yuan each."

Yu Huang would not appraise a pearl for no reason. There must be something wrong with this pearl. Lin Jiansheng asked Yu Huang, "Where did this thing come from?"

Yu Huang said, "I have a merman friend called Na Luo. Mentor, do you remember?"

"Of course I do." Na Luo had been to the Sheng Clan with Yu Huang and had even participated in the competition for the Vermillion Jade Fruit at the Yin Clan. Merfolk were rarely seen in the Divine Realm Continent, so Lin Jiansheng had a deep impression of that little mermaid girl.

"This thing belongs to her? Is there something wrong with that little girl? Are you suspecting her?" Although Lin Jiansheng looked rough and slovenly, he was very keen.

Yu Huang pondered deeply for a moment before she nodded.

She said, "This bracelet was given to Anna by Na Luo, but Na Luo didn't have a close relationship with Anna in the past. During my time in the Cong Lang Mystic Realm, Na Luo had been actively approaching Anna and even gave her a necklace."

She raised her chin and nodded at the black pearl in Lin Jiansheng's hand. "This is it."

Yu Huang's fingers slowly tapped on the steering wheel. She said, "I don't know if I'm being paranoid, but I have a feeling that Na Luo is intentionally getting close to Anna. Mentor, you also know that Anna's beast form is very special. I suspect that Na Luo has ulterior motives for getting close to Anna, so I asked for a bead from Anna. Thinking that you're experienced and knowledgeable, I wanted you to help me."

"It's good to be vigilant." Lin Jiansheng observed the bead carefully. He was a Level 8 Purifying Spirit Master and could sense all evil things.

However, he did not sense anything wrong from the pearl.

"There's nothing wrong with this thing. I don't sense anything unclean. On the contrary, it's warm to the touch and smells like the Deep Sea Soul Calming Grass. This thing can help people sleep. Other than that, it shouldn't have any other use."

Lin Jiansheng returned the pearl to Yu Huang.

Anna once said that once she put on the bracelet, she would be able to sleep peacefully and occasionally have a good dream. It seemed that she was really being paranoid.

After receiving Lin Jiansheng's reply, Yu Huang was finally relieved. She kept the pearl and started the car again.

Lin Jiansheng unscrewed the thermos beside him and took a sip of warm water. While holding the cup, he looked at the snowy scenery on both sides of the road and asked Yu Huang, "Na Luo is your friend. Why do you suspect her?"

Yu Huang narrowed her eyes and said, "Mentor, I don't trust anyone easily." This was also the reason why she had formed a Blood Pact with Lin Jiansheng from the start.

She never trusted anyone easily, whether it was Na Luo or Feng Si.

"Right now, the situation is chaotic. Even Mentor and godfather can't tell who is our friend and who is our enemy. How can I trust the people around me so easily?"

"It's not without reason that I suspect Na Luo," Yu Huang said as she slowed the car.

She said, "First of all, Na Luo never told us about her family. Secondly, Na Luo's beast form is very strange. I naturally have some doubts about people of unknown origin."

Lin Jiansheng thought about it carefully and recalled Na Luo's performance during the Yin Clan's battle royale. He said, "If I remember correctly, her beast form should be that of a merman. Most non-human beast-taming masters would awaken their own kind in their beast form. This is not strange. Many merfolk's beast form is that of merfolk, while the elves' beast form is that of angels. The beast form of the beastmen is their main beast form."

"Is that so?" Yu Huang nodded and said, "Maybe I'm overthinking."

They drove to Mo City's hover car stop, only to find out that because of the heavy snowstorm, the hover car's vision was affected and it had to stop operating.

The hover car was moving too fast. If there was a traffic accident, no one would be able to bear the losses.

Knowing that the hover car was suspended, Lin Jiansheng had no choice but to bring Yu Huang to the space station. "Tsk, it's free for us to take the hover car. If we take the space station, we'll have to buy tickets. It's not worth it."

Chapter 309: Past

As a stingy old man, Lin Jiansheng saved every cent he could. He did not need to spend money to use the teleportation station in the Divine Realm Continent, but Yu Huang had to buy tickets.

Therefore, when he went out with Yu Huang, Lin Jiansheng would use a free mode of transportation and would definitely not waste money to go to the space teleportation station.

Yu Huang expressed that she had money and could buy the tickets herself. Lin Jiansheng glared at her angrily and said, "Are you looking down on me? How can I be short of money for one ticket?"

Although Lin Jiansheng was stingy, he did not lack money.

After buying the tickets, the two of them used the teleportation station and quickly arrived at the capital of Cangyuan Empire.

The two of them drove to the primeval forest where the Broken Cliff was. On the way, Yu Huang asked Lin Jiansheng, "Mentor, why did you want to be a Purifying Spirit Master back then?"

Lin Jiansheng asked, "Do you want to hear the truth or the lie?"

Yu Huang paused for a moment before saying, "Let's hear the lie first."

Lin Jiansheng said, "I want to become powerful and serve the country."

This was really fake.

"And the truth?"

Lin Jiansheng replied, "This is a high-paying profession." This time, Lin Jiansheng sounded extremely sincere.

This answer made Yu Huang caught between laughter and tears. “Mentor, do you love money that much?”

“What do you know?” Lin Jiansheng crossed his arms and looked ahead. He said, “We were born before the era of science and technology, and we all suffered through it. At that time, life in the Holy Spirit Continent was very tough. At that time, not to mention mobile phones and hover cars, we didn’t even have electric lights.”

When she first arrived in this world, Yu Huang had specially gone to investigate the history of the Holy Spirit Continent.

One hundred and eighty years ago, the Holy Spirit Continent was very backward and poor. At that time, countries often fought with each other. The lives of the common people were very miserable. Many people lived meaningless lives until they died.

It was only when science and technology boomed and the development of society experienced a huge leap that the lives of the people became a little better.

Lin Jiansheng said, “In that chaotic era, Beast Tamers and Purifying Spirit Masters were truly respected occupations. If a village produced a Beast Tamer or Purifying Spirit Master, that village would become famous in the entire city!”

“When I was very young, my parents told me about the benefits of being a Beast Tamer or Purifying Spirit Master. My father died on the battlefield and my mother fell ill. She vomited blood and died of illness. I was only 13 years old that year. Medical conditions were very poor at that time. She didn’t even know what illness she had even until she died.”

“But I’m guessing she had lung cancer.”

He sighed softly and said, “In that era when medical conditions were poor, beast tamers were the most respected profession among patients. In our poor little county, there was never a healer. In order to treat my mother’s illness, I used a long belt to tie my mother, who was seriously ill, to me. I carried her on foot for more than 200 kilometers and went to the provincial city next door to seek help from a healer.”

“However, that lord asked for a consultation fee of ten thousand spirit stones, and that was a discount.”

At the mention of his mother, Lin Jiansheng recalled the regrets he had when he was young, and his mood instantly sank.

He closed his eyes and leaned back in his chair. His lips trembled as he said, “I took out all the savings in my bag. From head to toe, I only had 4,000 yuan.”

“Four thousand was only worth forty spirit stones. But that lord wanted ten thousand spirit stones. Even if I sold myself, it wouldn’t have been enough!”

Yu Huang couldn’t imagine how desperate Lin Jiansheng must have been under those circumstances.

“Did your mother get saved?”

Lin Jiansheng shook his head. “No. At that time, there were people everywhere who didn’t have the money to treat illnesses. If that lord made an exception for me, countless people would look for him to purify their spirits for free. After seeking treatment to no avail, I carried my mother back to the village. On the way back, my mother couldn't make it."

Lin Jiansheng laughed self-deprecatingly. He said, "In order to earn more money, to get her illness treated, and to be able to afford food, I entered the Divine Realm Academy. If I couldn't become a Beast Tamer, I would risk my life to become a Purifying Spirit Master."

Lin Jiansheng did not hear Yu Huang's words, so he smiled and asked Yu Huang, "You realized that your mentor is an ordinary person without any big ambitions. Little girl, are you disappointed in me?"

Yu Huang shook her head solemnly. "No, I just feel sorry for you."

Lin Jiansheng was stunned. He turned his head to look out of the window awkwardly and muttered, "You're just a child. Why are you feeling sorry for me?"

How could her heart not ache?

Yu Huang's heart ached when she thought about how a 13-year-old teenager had to carry his sickly mother on his thin and weak body for more than 200 kilometers.

"Mentor, don't worry. When you are seriously ill in the future, even if I have to go to the Upper World to seek treatment, I will get you treated!"

Upon hearing this, Lin Jiansheng didn't know if he should be relieved or angry. "Are you cursing me?"

"Of course not."

The mentor and disciple chatted and laughed. When the sky was about to turn dark, they finally reached the edge of the primeval forest.

There were no roads in the forest, so they had no choice but to abandon the car and hike. They changed into hiking shoes, put on their hiking suits, and walked into the forest.

Winter was freezing. Many animals had gone into hibernation, but ferocious beasts like tigers and leopards had to go hunting.

After two days of snow, the forest was covered in snow. The animals lost the protection of the forest and were easily discovered. At this time of the year, the hunters started to get busy.

Hunting was a legal profession in the Holy Spirit Continent.

Yu Huang and Lin Jiansheng headed in the direction of the Broken Cliff. Along the way, they encountered several groups of hunters. These hunters were all wearing thick down jacket while carrying guns and knives. They were fully armed.

When they reached a small hill with a wide view, Lin Jiansheng said, "Let's rest here tonight."

"Okay."

In the middle of the small hill, there was a roasting furnace made of stone. Most of the roasting furnace had been covered by snow, and only a circle of stones were exposed outside.

Yu Huang said to Lin Jiansheng, "Mentor, clean up the snow. I'll go gather some firewood to start a fire."

“Okay.”

Yu Huang held a sword and walked into the forest alone.

She walked to the bottom of a winding tree. This tree was the thickest, perhaps because it had been struck by lightning before. Its trunk had been split in half, and its branches were already half withered.

The life of this tree had come to an end.

Yu Huang flew onto a tree branch, and the longsword in her hand flapped in the air. The branches that were as thick as her arm were cut off by the longsword, and were falling to the ground one by one. She felt that it was about time, and was just about to jump off the tree branch when she suddenly heard the sounds of men and women moaning from afar.

It was a sound that only adults would make when having sex.

Yu Huang paused and turned her head to glance at the small mountain behind her.

The forest should have been pitch black at night, but the light in the snow-covered forest was cold and white. A crescent moon hung in the leaden sky, making the forest appear cold and solemn.

Yu Huang saw that on the snowy mountain top, a man and woman had fallen to the ground before they could even take off their clothes.

She frowned and jumped off the tree.

If the couple were willing, it would be their battlefield everywhere. Yu Huang would not meddle in other people’s business. She tied the tree branches together and walked back with them. Suddenly, she heard a scream.

“Ah!”

It was from a man.

Yu Huang stopped in her tracks while thinking to herself: How intense must it be for him to cry out in pain?

She continued to walk forward. After taking a few steps, she suddenly heard the man’s painful cry for help. “Help, help! Help!”

Was it foreplay?

No.

There was the smell of blood.

Yu Huang immediately threw down the firewood and flew to the small hill next door. There was a pool of red blood that was still steaming hot. The couple from before had disappeared.

Chapter 310: I Hate Crying People the Most

Yu Huang looked in the direction where the blood was dripping from and saw a man lying on the ground ten meters away. His eyes were wide open and he was staring at the moon in pain.

There was a huge bloody hole in the man's chest.

Yu Huang approached the man and saw that his heart was missing.

She frowned slightly and looked around. When she didn't see the culprit, she turned around and went back to where they had set up camp.

Lin Jiansheng had already cleaned up the snow on the ground. The furnace was quite big, and the surroundings were very clean. It seemed that a hunter had rested here before. He was worried that starting a fire would trigger a mountain fire, so he specially made a furnace.

"Why did you take so long?" Lin Jiansheng broke the branch and threw it into the furnace while forming a cone shape. "Quick, use your Purifying Evil Phoenix Flame to start a fire."

Yu Huang released Xuan Yu, who flew to the fire and flapped his wings a few times. The Purifying Evil Phoenix Flame then began to burn on the pile of firewood.

Yu Huang thought about what she had just seen. She said, "I saw a... woman who ate people's hearts." Yu Huang was not sure if that was a woman.

Lin Jiansheng looked up at her.

As if knowing what Yu Huang was suspecting, Lin Jiansheng told her, "That's not a woman. It's a monster that was born in the Broken Cliff."

"Monster?"

"Yes, the grievous energy barrier in the Broken Cliff is too heavy. Some of the vengeful spirits that died there will not be released. As time passes, they will absorb more grievous energy and transform into various monsters."

"Hunters who hunt in the Broken Cliff are most afraid of meeting 'desire'. 'Desire' is a type of monster produced by resentment. They can transform into the appearance of the woman that hunters like the most and seduce them before devouring their bodies."

"You must have met one of those monsters."

Yu Huang frowned. She said, "They clearly knew that there would be such monsters in the Broken Cliff. Why don't these hunters know how to be vigilant?"

"They are very cunning," Lin Jiansheng told Yu Huang. "Some of them are very smart. They will blend into the hunter group and pretend to be friends with them before seducing them."

Yu Huang exclaimed, "Impressive!"

These monsters were really dedicated.

"Remember, the people you see in the Broken Cliff might not necessarily be humans." Lin Jiansheng placed his hands on the fire to absorb the heat. He said, "This is a place that shouldn't exist. At the end of the day, these monsters are also a species created from human sins."

“They deserved it.”

The Broken Cliff was a land of abandoned corpses for thousands of years.

For thousands of years, countless people had abandoned corpses that could not be disposed of at the bottom of the cliff. Over time, the bottom of the cliff became a valley of corpses. The resentment here was the richest in the world.

No one dared to risk entering Broken Cliff. Lin Jiansheng might be the first in history.

Lin Jiansheng asked Yu Huang, “Are you hungry?”

Yu Huang nodded. “A little.”

Lin Jiansheng took out two sweet potatoes and a few potatoes from his storage and threw them into the firewood. He said to Yu Huang, “Your hotpot and my sweet potato potatoes will be our food for the next few months.”

“I can eat everything.”

“That’s good.”

After the two of them roasted sweet potatoes and potatoes, Yu Huang flew to a tree and slept with her clothes on. Lin Jiansheng was afraid of the cold, so he set up a small tent beside the bonfire to block the wind and snow. He then covered it with a thick blanket.

The Purifying Evil Phoenix Flame was indestructible and could burn for an entire night. This night, the mentor and disciple slept rather peacefully.

In the morning, Yu Huang destroyed the Purifying Evil Phoenix Flame with a stomp and continued following Lin Jiansheng in the direction of Broken Cliff. Along the way, Lin Jiansheng would occasionally encounter medicinal herbs and point them out to Yu Huang.

Lin Jiansheng said, “There aren’t many alchemists in our world. That’s because our continent is lacking in medicinal herbs. I heard from your father that in the Upper World, other than Beast Tamers and Diviners, alchemists are also a lucrative profession.”

Lin Jiansheng said with a face full of yearning, “I wonder if it’s more profitable to be an alchemist or a Purifying Spirit Master.”

Yu Huang asked, “Do you want to change your profession?”

“I do,” Lin Jiansheng said. “In the future, you will definitely go to the outside world to explore. How can I be at ease if you go alone? I will naturally accompany you. In the outside world, if our profession as a Purifying Spirit Master is not profitable, we have to change professions.”

When Yu Huang heard this, her heart felt warm. She said, “Then change your profession!”

“Okay.”

As they walked, they encountered a small team of hunters.

There were nine people in this team, seven men, two women, and a child. However, at this moment, the atmosphere in this hunter team was very tense. Everyone's face was covered with a layer of gloom.

In front of them was a corpse that had lost its heart.

Before Yu Huang and the rest approached, they heard the leader of the hunter team growl. "Isaac's heart is missing. It must have been eaten by a monster!"

"But Isaac is very cautious. He's an old hunter. He shouldn't have fallen for it!"

The captain raised his head and looked at the two women in the team with a sinister gaze. He said sinisterly, "You two women have unknown backgrounds. Your identities are very suspicious."

As he spoke, the captain's attention was mainly focused on the beautiful female hunter with a child.

The female hunter was carrying a bow and arrow on her back. She was wearing a leather jacket that was standard for hunters. She looked like an expert hunter.

The leader's gaze made the mother feel uneasy. She subconsciously shielded the little boy behind her and explained in a low voice, "It's not me. I'm a hunter. I'm very good at hunting. You guys also acknowledged my archery skills."

The captain took a deep look at the woman before his gaze landed on the other woman's face. Compared to the mother who had a child, this woman's appearance was relatively ordinary, but it could be considered above average.

Seeing the captain look at her, the woman was so frightened that her face turned red. She explained with tears in her eyes, "Captain, it's not me, I only know how to cook! Isaac is so heroic and mighty, so how could I hurt him?!"

This woman looked delicate and pitiful. She really didn't look like someone who could kill.

No matter how he looked at it, that beautiful woman with the bow on her back looked like the murderer.

The captain stared at the two women. He was conflicted.

Yu Huang and Lin Jiansheng were standing on the mountaintop. Upon seeing this scene, they didn't interfere. Lin Jiansheng asked Yu Huang, "Is that man the person you saw last night?"

Yu Huang nodded.

Lin Jiansheng added, "That pitiful woman who is crying is Desire."

Yu Huang looked at Lin Jiansheng in astonishment and asked curiously, "How did you know?"

Lin Jiansheng sneered and said, "These monsters are best at playing with people's hearts. They know very well what kind of people these boorish men like, so they deliberately put on a soft and pitiful appearance to gain their sympathy. When I see such a crying woman, I feel annoyed. It's very fake."

Yu Huang said, "But when you reunited with my father, you were also crying your eyes out."

Lin Jiansheng immediately felt embarrassed.

He stuffed his hands into the pockets of his jacket and defended himself stubbornly, "A man doesn't cry easily. It's just that I felt sad and sorry for your father."

Yu Huang said, "Oh."

This "Oh" was meaningful.

Lin Jiansheng felt a little awkward as well. He leaned against the tree behind him and said, "Since there's nothing else, let's just watch."
