Chapter 401: The Unappreciative Sheng Xiao

“You scumbags, just because you’re good-looking, go around womanizing. You’re wasting air if you live, and you’re wasting land if you die!”

“Don’t think that just because you look righteous and dignified, you can fool me! Let me tell you, that’s impossible!”

“I get angry when I see handsome men like you!”

Sheng Xiao was being chased by the Soul Calming Beast. He jumped up and down in the tunnel in a sorry state. The Soul Calming Beast followed behind him calmly while cursing.

God knew that as a talkative Soul Calming Beast, it hadn’t caught a living person for many years. Now that it had finally met a living handsome man, it naturally had to vent its anger on Sheng Xiao.

Sheng Xiao missed his lover, Yu Huang, after he saw how powerful the Soul Calming Beast was.

Yu Huang was the cutest.

Sheng Xiao escaped to the entrance of the tunnel, but it was already closed. If Sheng Xiao didn’t want to be killed by the Soul Calming Beast, he could only forfeit.

But he never gave up.

Sheng Xiao turned around and stared at the Soul Calming Beast while panting. He couldn’t help but scold, “If you’ve been betrayed by a man, go find that man! Why are you venting it on me?!”

When the Soul Calming Beast heard this, she actually stopped.

The Soul Calming Beast looked very strange. It had a mighty head, like a lion, but there was a horn on its head.

Her body was covered in fish-like scales. Her two hind legs were thick and short, and there was something like a fin on her hind legs and ankles.

But those eyes were as clear and beautiful as a human’s.

It was said that Soul Calming Beasts lived in the sea.

When the Soul Calming Beast looked at Sheng Xiao, her beautiful eyes were filled with disgust and disdain. She squatted in front of Sheng Xiao and said angrily, “Of course I’ve taken revenge on that man. Do you know how I took revenge on them?”

Sheng Xiao was in awe when he noticed that the Soul Calming Beast used the word ‘them’. He asked humbly, “Have you had a few other relationships?”

The Soul Calming Beast thought about it and said, “About two hundred.”

Sheng Xiao was speechless.

Good lord, this was a real philanderer.

“You’re quite... popular.” Sheng Xiao had little relationship experience and couldn’t understand the Soul Calming Beast’s powerful and rich relationship experiences.

The Soul Calming Beast seemed to have recalled her interesting romantic past, and a trace of reminiscence appeared in her eyes.

The Soul Calming Beast raised her head slightly and stared at the man-made starry sky above the Saint Tomb. She sighed and said, “I was once a famous singer in the Divine Sea.”

The first thing the Soul Calming Beast said shocked Sheng Xiao.

The Soul Calming Beast noticed Sheng Xiao’s strange reaction and understood what he was thinking. “You don’t believe me?”

Sheng Xiao was about to shake his head when the Soul Calming Beast suddenly opened her mouth and chanted a tune. The tune sounded exotic, and it was very similar to the tune of the native marine clans near the Divine Sea.

The tune was indeed beautiful when it came out of the Soul Calming Beast’s mouth. At that moment, Sheng Xiao finally believed that the Soul Calming Beast was once a famous singer in the Divine Sea.

The Soul Calming Beast sang a song and asked Sheng Xiao proudly, “How is it? Isn’t my singing very pleasant? Isn’t it like the sound of nature?”

Sheng Xiao praised her sincerely. “Your voice is better than the sound of nature. This song should only exist in the heavens. It’s rare to hear it in the world.” Sheng Xiao even clapped expressionlessly.

He had never put in so much effort on acting in his life.

The Soul Calming Beast was so happy that she forgot about her disgust for handsome men.

The Soul Calming Beast sighed and recalled, “During the years I was in the Divine Sea, countless human male cultivators took a boat to the Divine Sea just to see me.”

“Is that so?”

“That’s right.” The Soul Calming Beast glanced at Sheng Xiao. “At that time, you humans gave me a title. You called me the sea singer.”

Sheng Xiao widened his eyes when he heard the words ‘sea singer’. “You’re the sea singer!”

The Soul Calming Beast didn’t expect that after thousands of years, there would still be someone who remembered her name. The Soul Calming Beast was immediately proud. “Brat, you’ve heard of my name?”

At the mention of her name, the Soul Calming Beast felt a little proud.

Sheng Xiao nodded with a complicated expression. He stared at the Soul Calming Beast’s huge body and recalled the documents he had read. He said, “According to the documents, a sea demon appeared in the Divine Sea two thousand years ago. Every time the bright moon was in the sky, her voice would be heard in the Divine Sea.”

“In that era, many male cultivators went to the Divine Sea alone to search for sea demons. According to the fishermen near the Divine Sea, there were more than 200 male cultivators who went to the sea to search for sea demons. None of these people went ashore, so the fishermen thought that they had all become the male pets of the sea demons. Therefore, some people guessed that the sea demon must be a beautiful woman with a graceful figure.”

Sheng Xiao stared at the Soul Calming Beast’s strange appearance. It was hard to associate her with a beautiful woman.

After hearing Sheng Xiao’s words, the Soul Calming Beast raised her head and looked at Sheng Xiao arrogantly. She said, “You’re right. I’m the legendary beautiful woman with a graceful figure.”

Sheng Xiao was speechless.

Was it because his sense of beauty was unorthodox, or was it because she had a misunderstanding about her own appearance?

No matter how he looked at it, the Soul Calming Beast had nothing to do with the beautiful woman.

“However,” The Soul Calming Beast spoke again. She said, “Those male cultivators didn’t become my male pets. They were all eaten by me.”

The Soul Calming Beast rubbed her stomach and said in disdain, “All of you look so sanctimonious. When you sit on the boat and listen to me sing, when you flirt with me, you always look affectionate. But every time I float out of the sea, when they see my true appearance, they all call me an ugly monster!”

“They fell in love with me because of my voice, but they despised me because of my appearance!” The Soul Calming Beast roared at Sheng Xiao. “Is a person’s appearance really that important? I’m ugly, but I’m very gentle!”

“I’m ugly, but I’m very gentle.”

Sheng Xiao almost sang the lyrics, but he held back.

“You men are all unreliable!” The Soul Calming Beast glared at Sheng Xiao. “I think you’re very handsome. A man like you must be a playboy.”

Sheng Xiao quickly shook his head. “I’m very devoted.”

“Pfft! You men are glib-tongued. You always make yourselves sound better than you actually are!” The Soul Calming Beast suddenly raised her front paw and pressed Sheng Xiao against the wall.

Sheng Xiao couldn’t fight back when he was pressed down by a demon beast that could rival a Grand Master.

Sheng Xiao’s internal organs trembled from the Soul Calming Beast’s kick. His face turned pale and his nose bled.

Sheng Xiao hadn’t been in such a sorry state in a long time.

“You say that you’re devoted. I want to see if you’re lying or not!” The Soul Calming Beast suddenly bit Sheng Xiao’s shoulder and sucked his blood.

Sheng Xiao gasped in pain.

At this moment, Sheng Yang suddenly ran over from behind the passageway. Seeing that her brother was pressed against the wall by the Soul Calming Beast, she immediately summoned her polar bear beast form and punched the Soul Calming Beast’s back—

“Mountain Pushing Palm!”

Sheng Yang used all her strength to attack the Soul Calming Beast. However, as a mere Scholar, how could she injure a level 8 demon beast?

Sheng Yang’s attack was equivalent to scratching an itch for the Soul Calming Beast.

After being punched by Sheng Yang, the Soul Calming Beast didn’t even sway. She suddenly shook Sheng Xiao off and slammed her against another wall.

The Soul Calming Beast turned around and scolded Sheng Yang, who was lying on the ground, “Little girl, get lost. I hate beautiful human girls the most.”

For a moment, Sheng Yang didn’t know if the Soul Calming Beast was praising her beauty or despising her.

Sheng Yang glanced at her seriously injured brother. She summoned the Demon Drinking Saber and stood up shakily to shield her brother.

Sheng Yang raised the Demon Drinking Saber, and a crazy expression appeared on her cold face. “Soul Calming Beast, I won’t let you hurt my brother!”

Sheng Yang’s thin body stood in front of Sheng Xiao, but she was as firm as an iron pillar.

Sheng Xiao stared at his sister’s thin body and was touched. “Yang Yang, move aside. You’re not her match.”

Sheng Yang turned around and said to Sheng Xiao loudly, “The Soul Calming Beast hates men and good-looking girls. When she gets angry, she will really kill people!”

“Don’t worry, I’ll protect you!”

Sheng Xiao pushed himself against the wall and stood up. “Let’s go together.” It was not a good deal to lose their lives for the sake of a Prime Master inheritance.

Hearing this, Sheng Yang endured the pain and retreated to her brother’s side with the knife.

Seeing that the siblings were planning to leave, the Soul Calming Beast sneered. “You think can come and go as you please?” As she spoke, the Soul Calming Beast suddenly jumped up high.

It jumped three times in a row, and the teleportation eye floating on the ceiling of the Saint Tomb was shattered by the Soul Calming Beast.

Sheng Xiao and Sheng Yang were shocked.

They couldn't get out!

After shattering the teleportation eye, the Soul Calming Beast landed on the ground again. She said to Sheng Xiao, "I can read people's memories by drinking their blood. Let me take a closer look at your memories. If you're a playboy, I'll tear you apart and swallow you today."

"If you're indeed as loyal as you say, then you've passed my test."

Sheng Xiao pressed his chest and asked while enduring the pain, "A hundred years ago, my father came to take the test. He was not a playboy. Why didn't he pass the test?"

Although Sheng Lingfeng and Lan Yao had yet to know each other at that time, Sheng Lingfeng had never been in a relationship before meeting Lan Yao.

He was not a playboy.

"Your father?" The Soul Calming Beast thought about it carefully and said uncertainly, "Is he that handsome young man called... Sheng Lingfeng?"

Sheng Xiao and Sheng Yang nodded at the same time.

The Soul Calming Beast immediately sneered. "Him? He's just an unappreciative man!"

Sheng Yang subconsciously asked, "How is my father unappreciative?!"

The Soul Calming Beast actually said, "He's not a playboy, but he doesn't have a heart at all! I've drunk his blood and seen his memories. There's a woman called Liuli something. She's beautiful and powerful, and she's devoted to him, but your father blindly ignored her pursuit! That's why I said that he doesn't know what's good for him."

1

Sheng Lingfeng was ignorant, so he naturally couldn't pass her test.

Sheng Xiao and Sheng Yang didn't know whether to sympathize with Sheng Lingfeng or laugh at him.

No wonder their father always said that Prime Master Tie Feng's inheritance test was very strange and difficult to figure out.

"Shut up and be quiet! I want to look at your memories carefully." The Soul Calming Beast glared at Sheng Xiao and his sister warningly. The siblings immediately sat down by the wall and took the opportunity to recover their spiritual power.

The Soul Calming Beast squatted on the ground and licked the blood at the corner of her mouth. Then, she closed her eyes and searched Sheng Xiao's memories carefully.

She skipped Sheng Xiao's memories before he was 16 years old and started looking from then on.

This kid was very popular. Since he was 16 years old, there had been outstanding and beautiful girls confessing to him.

Tsk tsk, he was actually indifferent to the flattery of so many beautiful girls.

This was even more outrageous than his father! He was even more unappreciative!

Chapter 402: They're Actually Husband and Wife!

The Soul Calming Beast continued to watch. She saw Sheng Xiao's memories from when he was 16 to 26 years old. Finally, a special girl appeared in his memories.

It was a girl called Yu Huang.

Ever since that ugly monster called Yu Huang appeared in Sheng Xiao's life, Sheng Xiao's memories suddenly became exciting and vivid.

The Soul Calming Beast continued watching. She only stopped when she saw Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang getting married and attending the Saint Tomb together.

The Soul Calming Beast opened her eyes and stared at Sheng Xiao in the corner with a complicated expression. The disgust and disdain in her eyes disappeared and she became kind.

"You're a good man. You can be indifferent when facing all sorts of women, but when facing your true love, you can treat her warmly even if she's ugly."

Sheng Xiao and Sheng Yang opened their eyes.

Sheng Xiao told the Soul Calming Beast, "Appearance is our first impression of people, but character is more important than looks. Although my wife's looks were ruined, she had an unyielding character."

After a pause, Sheng Xiao said something sweet. "She's very attractive to me. The place where she is is where my gaze stays."

Hearing this, the Soul Calming Beast couldn't help but think of her life, and tears welled up in her eyes.

The Soul Calming Beast asked sadly, "Why was that little girl called Yu Huang able to meet you, but I couldn't meet a man who treated me like a treasure?"

Sheng Xiao couldn't answer the Soul Calming Beast's question.

Sheng Yang suddenly said, "How can that be? Doesn't Prime Master Tie Feng treat you like a treasure?"

The Soul Calming Beast suddenly jumped up angrily and scolded in exasperation, "Tie Feng, that bastard, treats me like a treasure? If he really treats me like a treasure, would he lock me in here? How boring is this place? There's no man, no sea. I'm so idle that birds are about to grow on my head!"

Hearing this, Sheng Yang shook her head forcefully and said, "But Prime Master Tie Feng trapped you here to protect you!"

The Soul Calming Beast was stunned.

"Protect me?" The Soul Calming Beast frowned and said, "I didn't do anything evil. What do I need him to protect me?!"

Sheng Yang told the Soul Calming Beast, "Back then, you ate more than two hundred male cultivators. Because of this, the cultivation world was enraged and recommended that Prime Master Tie Feng kill you. However, Prime Master Tie Feng didn't kill you and even hid you in the Saint Tomb. Isn't this to protect you?"

The Soul Calming Beast was somewhat puzzled. "Is that so?"

She carefully recalled her first encounter with Prime Master Tie Feng.

However, after seriously recalling, she realized that she couldn't remember anything at all. She only remembered that she was the Soul Calming Beast in the Prime Master Tie Feng's Saint Tomb. She didn't remember anything else.

"How strange. I can't remember the scene of me meeting that bastard Tie Feng." Something was wrong.

Sheng Xiao thought of something. He suddenly took out an ancient book from his interspatial ring. This ancient book recorded the life of Prime Master Tie Feng.

Sheng Xiao opened the last page of the ancient book and saw the words—

[Year 8004 of the Holy Spirit Continent, Prime Master Tie Feng was ordered to go to the Divine Sea to kill the sea song demon. He was charmed by the sea demon's singing and fell in love with and married the sea demon. He took his wife and escaped to the distant Xixia Sea.

Year 8007 of the Holy Spirit Continent, the top ten powerhouses of the Merman Race besieged Prime Master Tie Feng and his wife on the Saint Sun Island of the Xixia Ocean. After three days and three nights of battle, Prime Master Tie Feng was seriously injured and escaped into the Saint Tomb with his wife. A Prime Master of a generation died regretfully.

Sheng Xiao was shocked after reading the record.

So that was it.

Sheng Xiao handed the ancient book to the Soul Calming Beast. He told him, "Senior, this ancient book records the life and deeds of Prime Master Tie Feng. The author of the ancient book is an elder of the Sheng family, so the contents are definitely true. Senior, you can take a look."

After knowing the Soul Calming Beast and Tie Feng's real identities, Sheng Xiao called the Soul Calming Beast a senior.

The Soul Calming Beast extended her hoof and stepped on the ancient book. She looked down and awkwardly realized that she didn't recognize the words on it.

"The light here is dim, and my vision is bad. Read it for me." The Soul Calming Beast refused to admit that she was illiterate.

The Soul Calming Beast kicked the ancient book in front of Sheng Xiao and his sister. Sheng Yang bent down and picked up the ancient book. She read it softly, "In the year 8004 of the Holy Spirit Continent, Prime Master Tie Feng was ordered to go to the Divine Sea to kill the sea demon. He was charmed by the sea demon's singing and fell in love with her..."

At this point, Sheng Yang's face turned pale with shock.

What?

The Soul Calming Beast was actually Prime Master Tie Feng's wife!

When the sea demon heard this, she immediately shook her head and laughed. "What nonsense is this? Me and Tie Feng were married? Heh!" The sea demon pointed in the direction of the main tomb and said sarcastically, "Me and that guy were lovers? What a joke!"

Sheng Xiao said to Sheng Yang, "Continue."

Sheng Yang could only listen to her brother and continue reading. "...A Prime Master died regretfully."

After the sea demon heard this recording, she still didn't believe it.

She said, "If the two of you want to pass my test and obtain the inheritance of that bastard Tie Feng, you don't have to fabricate such a story with so many mistakes to deceive me! Me and Tie Feng got married? Hahaha, do you know that only couples who have been married under the witness of the heavens are considered married? All married couples have marriage compacts!"

The Soul Calming Beast laughed out loud. She spun around and shook her head. She asked Sheng Xiao and the others, "Look, do I have a marriage compact?"

Sheng Xiao and Sheng Yang stared at the horn on the Soul Calming Beast's head in shock.

Sheng Yang carefully extended her index finger and pointed above the Soul Calming Beast's head. She swallowed hard and stared at her while saying softly, "Isn't there a red string tied to your horn?"

The Soul Calming Beast was stunned.

She shook her head vigorously, and a red string really fell from her horn. The Soul Calming Beast stared at the red string and was silent for more than ten seconds.

A moment later, the Soul Calming Beast turned around and looked in the direction where the red string fell.

The red string started from the horn of the The Soul Calming Beast and extended along the passageway of the Saint Tomb to the depths of the passageway. The Soul Calming Beast hesitated for a moment before moving her hooves and searching in the direction where the red string extended.

Sheng Xiao and Sheng Yang looked at each other and chased after her.

The three of them passed through the winding passageway and arrived at the tightly shut door of the main tomb. The red string reached into the main tomb through the gap under the door.

Seeing this scene, the Soul Calming Beast's body suddenly trembled slightly.

"No..." The Soul Calming Beast suddenly didn't dare to approach the door. She was afraid that after the stone door of the main tomb opened, she would see a scene that she couldn't accept.

The Soul Calming Beast retreated step by step. She only stopped when she bumped into Sheng Xiao and Sheng Yang.

“Senior, do you really not want to go in and take a look?” Sheng Xiao knew what the Soul Calming Beast was resisting, but he knew better. The more afraid a person was, the more curious they were about that matter.

The more the Soul Calming Beast didn’t dare to approach the main tomb, the more curious she was about whether the other end of the red string was tied to Prime Master Tie Feng.

The Soul Calming Beast stared at the door for a long time before roaring angrily.

“Roar!”

Upon hearing her angry roar, the tightly shut main tomb door really rumbled as it opened on both sides.

The Soul Calming Beast looked in the direction where the red line fell and found that the red line extended all the way into the coffin and disappeared.

Seeing this scene, the Soul Calming Beast understood.

She and Tie Feng were really husband and wife!

The Soul Calming Beast walked to the side of the coffin step by step. She pushed open the coffin lid with her hoof, and Prime Master Tie Feng’s corpse appeared in front of her.

It was unknown what had been done to Prime Master Tie Feng’s body, but he didn’t rot.

Prime Master Tie Feng was wearing a long black robe with a few red maple leaves embroidered on it. At his collar, someone had even written a crooked word with a red thread—

Ying.

Ying!

At this moment, the Soul Calming Beast seemed to have heard a man shouting behind her, “Ah Ying.”

Ah Ying.

Ah Ying.

His voice was gentle and affectionate.

The Soul Calming Beast stared at Prime Master Tie Feng’s face. The memories that Prime Master Tie Feng had deliberately erased were all recalled—

She recalled the scene when she first met Prime Master Tie Feng.

It was a bright and clean night. She stood on the beach of an uninhabited island and sang to the moon. In a daze, she seemed to see a black shadow flying down from the full moon above her.

At first, she thought that she had seen wrongly.

However, when that person flew closer and closer, the Soul Calming Beast finally dared to believe that it was a person. The Soul Calming Beast immediately stopped singing and stared warily at the man who had suddenly descended beside her.

The man held a large knife in his hand. He stood on the beach and tilted his head to smile at the Soul Calming Beast. He said, "Your singing is very beautiful. What kind of demon beast are you? I've never seen someone like you."

The Soul Calming Beast had met more than two hundred men, but Tie Feng was the first to see her true appearance without showing any disdain.

The Soul Calming Beast blinked her beautiful eyes and whispered, "Soul Calming Beast."

"You can speak?" Tie Feng said curiously, "But among the sea demons, other than merfolk, aren't the other sea demons unable to speak?"

The Soul Calming Beast explained, "I'm a Soul Calming Beast. The Soul Calming Beast Clan is a divine demon. After marriage, we can transform into human form."

"I see." Prime Master Tie Feng asked her, "Your songs can pacify people?"

"Yeah."

Prime Master Tie Feng sat down on the beach. He held his saber with one hand and pressed his right index finger against his temples. He said with a headache, "More than thirty years ago, I was injured in a huge battle. My soul was severely damaged, and my head hurts every night."

After saying that, Prime Master Tie Feng suddenly took out a piece of mung bean cake.

He handed the mung bean cake to the Soul Calming Beast and said with a smile, "You've never eaten green bean cake before, right? I'll use the green bean cake in exchange for you to sing me a song. What do you think?"

The Soul Calming Beast stared at the light green pastry and smelled the sweetness of the pastry. She nodded.

She opened her mouth, and Prime Master Tie Feng handed the mung bean cake to her.

The Soul Calming Beast ate in a hurry. Before she could taste anything, she swallowed the green bean cake. After eating, the Soul Calming Beast looked at Prime Master Tie Feng and couldn't help but ask, "Is there anything else?"

Prime Master Tie Feng immediately smiled.

Prime Master Tie Feng wasn't very handsome. He looked imposing and resolute, but when he smiled, he became more lively.

Prime Master Tie Feng deliberately tempted her. "If you sing for me again tomorrow night, I'll give you another piece."

The Soul Calming Beast felt that this was a good deal. "Alright!" The Soul Calming Beast squatted beside Prime Master Tie Feng and sang for him.

The Soul Calming Beast's song sounded, and the entire Divine Sea became quiet. As Prime Master Tie Feng listened to her song, his aching head actually felt much better.

After the song, the sky was about to brighten.

Prime Master Tie Feng hadn't had such a beautiful and peaceful night for many years. The fatigued look on his face faded a little.

Thus, Prime Master Tie Feng generously handed another piece of mung bean cake to the Soul Calming Beast.

The Soul Calming Beast was flattered and opened her mouth to eat the mung bean cake.

This time, the Soul Calming Beast finally tasted the sweetness. The mung bean cake was very delicious, and the Soul Calming Beast couldn't bear to finish it in one bite, so she slowly chewed and savored it carefully.

The Soul Calming Beast knew that since this human had rewarded her with a piece of mung bean cake, there must be a condition.

As expected, Prime Master Tie Feng, who was beside her, spoke. He said, "Little beast, you ate my mung bean cake, so can you do me a favor?"

There were indeed conditions.

The Soul Calming Beast nodded. "What favor?" She had something in her mouth, so her voice sounded a little muffled.

Prime Master Tie Feng asked the Soul Calming Beast, "You grew up in the Divine Sea, right?"

"Yes," The Soul Calming Beast said. "I'm a native of the Divine Sea."

"Then do you know a sea demon?" Afraid that the Soul Calming Beast didn't know what a sea demon was, Prime Master Tie Feng specially added, "It's a sea demon singer. It's said that she's very beautiful, like a fairy, and her figure is very enchanting."

The Soul Calming Beast swallowed a mouthful of green bean cake.

She asked warily, "W-Why are you looking for a sea demon?"

Tie Feng said, "The sea demon is evil by nature and had eaten many human male cultivators. I was ordered to kill her."

1

The Soul Calming Beast was speechless.

She felt as if the mung bean cake in her mouth was no longer mung bean cake, but her brains.

Chapter 403: Private Question, No Answer

The Soul Calming Beast acknowledged that sea demons were beautiful and had enchanting figures, but...

"Are sea demons cruel by nature?" The Soul Calming Beast thought about it carefully and didn't feel that she was cruel in any way. She was very gentle and kind. Every time she ate those human male cultivators, she was afraid that they would feel pain if they were eaten by her slowly, so she would knock them out and swallow them.

She was so gentle and considerate, but this man actually said that she was cruel!

How could she tolerate it?

The Soul Calming Beast stared at the murderous-looking broadsword in Prime Master Tie Feng's arms and silently swallowed the mung bean cake in her mouth. She thought to herself, 'In front of a big shot, I should just put up with it.'

Prime Master Tie Feng nodded seriously. He told the Soul Calming Beast, "She's a natural evil creature. She has already eaten more than two hundred human male cultivators. If we don't get rid of such a ferocious beast, she will definitely harm the world."

It was wise to kill the monster while it was still weak.

Prime Master Tie Feng stabbed the saber in his hand into the soft beach, and a crack immediately appeared on the beach. He asked the Soul Calming Beast, "Do you know the sea demon?"

The Soul Calming Beast stared at the bottomless crack under her feet. Her eyelids trembled in fear. She lied for the first time in her life. "No, I don't."

The Soul Calming Beast shook her head vigorously.

Tie Feng didn't believe the Soul Calming Beast's words and even looked at her suspiciously. "You really don't know her?"

The Soul Calming Beast didn't dare to look into Tie Feng's sharp eyes. She lowered her head and shook it again. "No, I don't know her."

"That shouldn't be the case," Tie Feng said. "I asked around at sea for a few days. The other sea beasts all said that the sea demon lives in the center of the Divine Sea. You were born and raised here. How can you not know the sea demon?"

Prime Master Tie Feng narrowed his eyes and said thoughtfully, "Could it be that you don't want me to kill her, so you deliberately lied?"

The Soul Calming Beast's heart skipped a beat.

She dug a hole in the beach with her front hooves and lowered her head to say softly, "The sea demon does live in the center of the sea, but the sea demon is very powerful. When she appears, we all have to hide. So I've only heard the sea demon's singing and have never seen her appearance."

"Is that so?" Prime Master Tie Feng stood up and looked around the nearby sea. He said, "Since the sea demon lives nearby, I'll wait here. I heard that the sea demon will float out of the sea and sing every full moon night."

"The full moon is in three days. She will definitely appear."

The Soul Calming Beast clan needed to chant to the moon every full moon night to absorb the moon's essence and increase the demonic power in their bodies. They needed cultivation once a month, or else the Soul Calming Beast's body would become extremely weak.

Hearing Prime Master Tie Feng's words, the Soul Calming Beast knew that things were bad.

Three days.

In just three days, she definitely wouldn't be able to convince Prime Master Tie Feng to let her off.

Was she really going to die in the hands of this human man?

Prime Master Tie Feng made up his mind to stay on the island for the time being. He set up a small tent on the island. When Prime Master Tie Feng was working, the Soul Calming Beast stood by the beach and looked at him.

He was really handsome. He was even more handsome than the men she had eaten before. He must have abs under his clothes.

Dying in the hands of such an outstanding man was considered good treatment.

Prime Master Tie Feng tied the tent and looked up to see the Soul Calming Beast peeping at him.

He suddenly laughed and strode towards the Soul Calming Beast with his saber. He asked her, "What are you hiding here to peek at me?"

The Soul Calming Beast said whatever was on her mind and disdained to lie. She said, "You're so good-looking. You're the best-looking man I've ever seen."

"Is that so?" Prime Master Tie Feng looked at her inquisitively.

She had seen many men?

Recalling the Soul Calming Beast's pleasant voice, Prime Master Tie Feng had a bold guess.

The Soul Calming Beast had no idea that she was almost exposed, and kept testing the waters. She slowly walked to the side of the tent and squatted down on the sand far away from the fire. She lowered her head and said to Prime Master Tie Feng, "Are you married?"

Prime Master Tie Feng shook his head. "No."

"Do you have a fiancée?"

Prime Master Tie Feng continued to shake his head.

Seeing that the Soul Calming Beast was a little afraid of fire, he temporarily put out the fire.

Tie Feng sat on a rock and took down the roasted shaobing. He held the hot shaobing in his hand and was about to eat it when he noticed that the Soul Calming Beast had also walked to his side and was staring at the shaobing in his hand.

Prime Master Tie Feng distributed a piece and handed it to the Soul Calming Beast.

However, the Soul Calming Beast narrowed her beautiful eyes. She dug her front hooves into the sand and said, "Eat it first. This thing is black. I'm afraid it's poisonous."

Prime Master Tie Feng was speechless.

Could such a straightforward sea beast be that sea demon that ate people without blinking?

Prime Master Tie Feng really took a bite first. He bit his own piece.

Seeing that Prime Master Tie Feng wasn't poisoned to death, the Soul Calming Beast said to Prime Master Tie Feng, "I want to eat the one you bit." Someone as cautious as her wouldn't eat another piece.

Prime Master Tie Feng laughed in anger. "It's up to you whether you want to eat it or not."

Prime Master Tie Feng wasn't a good-tempered person. He threw the black sesame seed cake in front of the Soul Calming Beast and started eating it.

Prime Master Tie Feng's shaobing was a luxurious version. The shaobing was sprinkled with a layer of sesame seeds. After it was roasted, it smelled delicious.

The Soul Calming Beast sniffed the aroma and finally laid down on the sand before biting the shaobing. It smelled so good.

Humans were really amazing. The food they ate was delicious.

If any of the previous men knew how to cook, the Soul Calming Beast wouldn't have swallowed them all.

After eating the shaobing, the Soul Calming Beast was a little sleepy. She laid on the sand and sunbathed with her stomach facing up.

Prime Master Tie Feng glanced at her soft stomach and frowned. "You're a female. Don't show your stomach to others."

The Soul Calming Beast asked, "Why?"

Prime Master Tie Feng said, "A girl's body can only be seen by her lover."

The Soul Calming Beast nodded and continued, "I'm not a girl. I'm a Soul Calming Beast. Besides, I don't have a lover. According to you, if you see my stomach, you'll be my lover."

Prime Master Tie Feng was speechless again.

Although this sea beast was straightforward, it was also smart.

With a human who wanted to kill her sitting beside her, the Soul Calming Beast wasn't bold enough to sleep beside Prime Master Tie Feng.

She suddenly asked curiously, "You're so handsome and powerful. Why don't you get married? Are you impotent? Or are you incapable of love?"

Prime Master Tie Feng was stunned.

Were all the demon beasts so straightforward?

“We met by chance. Why should I answer this sort of personal question?” It was none of her business.

Chapter 404: Idiot!

Prime Master Tie Feng felt that the sun was too bright, so he entered the tent to take a nap. The Soul Calming Beast’s huge body blocked the tent and helped him block a portion of the light.

Prime Master Tie Feng stared at the Soul Calming Beast’s huge body for a while before placing the saber beside him and falling asleep.

When Prime Master Tie Feng woke up, the Soul Calming Beast was already gone.

Prime Master Tie Feng thought that she had escaped, so he sat on a large rock and meditated. Soon, the sky darkened, and Prime Master Tie Feng suddenly heard the sound of water.

Water splashed everywhere, wetting Prime Master Tie Feng’s clothes, and a few drops of water landed on his eyes.

Prime Master Tie Feng suddenly opened his eyes and saw a ferocious and strange-looking ferocious beast squatting in front of him. There was a large sea fish in her beast mouth.

Prime Master Tie Feng stared at the Soul Calming Beast who returned and asked in confusion, “Didn’t you leave?”

The Soul Calming Beast spat the fish into Prime Master Tie Feng’s arms.

Prime Master Tie Feng hugged the fish that was still struggling helplessly. He frowned and asked the Soul Calming Beast, “What is this?”

The Soul Calming Beast drooled and said, “This fish is very delicious. I heard that the fish soup is very delicious. Make me some fish soup. I only want soup. I’ll give you the meat.”

Prime Master Tie Feng asked, “Who said that the fish soup is delicious?”

“A man said that the fish soup was delicious.” That man even said that he would bring her to drink it with him in the future. In the end, tsk, he became a bowl of soup in the stomach of the Soul Calming Beast.

Prime Master Tie Feng opened his eyes and looked at her deeply.

Did she know that she didn’t know how to pretend or lie?

Could such a simple-minded sea beast really be that ruthless sea demon?

Seeing that Prime Master Tie Feng was still not moving, the Soul Calming Beast thought that he was unwilling and said, “Make it for me, and I’ll sing for you tonight!”

“Okay.”

Prime Master Tie Feng took out a chopping board from his interspatial ring and cleaned the meter-long fish before setting up the pot. There was no oil, so he used the fish's fat to boil the oil and threw a few pieces of ginger and dried chili inside.

This was the first time the Soul Calming Beast had seen chili. She asked curiously, "What's that red one?"

"Chili."

"What's chili?"

Prime Master Tie Feng broke a dried chili from the middle and handed it to the Soul Calming Beast. "Try it."

This time, the Soul Calming Beast didn't suspect that the chili was poisonous. She opened her mouth and bit the chili. She chewed, then suddenly opened her mouth and spat out a mouthful of spicy hot air at Prime Master Tie Feng.

"Stupid man, you poisoned me!" The Soul Calming Beast jumped into the sea and stood on the surface. She glared at Prime Master Tie Feng warily and angrily. She cursed, "As expected, none of you stupid men are good! What did you poison me with?!"

When Prime Master Tie Feng saw the Soul Calming Beast suddenly flare up, a smile appeared on his face.

"Scumbag, what are you laughing at?!" This was the first time the Soul Calming Beast had eaten chili, and it was the famous chili from Sichuan. It was so spicy that she didn't know what to do.

Prime Master Tie Feng said, "This is the taste of chili. This thing isn't poisonous." With that, Prime Master Tie Feng put the remaining half of the chili into his mouth.

When the Soul Calming Beast saw that Prime Master Tie Feng had also eaten the red chili, her eyes immediately revealed confusion.

Was it really not poisonous?

The Soul Calming Beast returned to Prime Master Tie Feng's side. She tilted her head and sized him up for a moment. Seeing that Prime Master Tie Feng himself also exhaled because of the spiciness, she finally understood that this thing called chili was extremely spicy.

After making a huge mistake, the Soul Calming Beast felt a little embarrassed.

She suddenly shook her head, and a huge and beautiful purple pearl fell out of her horn.

She pushed the bead to Prime Master Tie Feng's feet with her hoof and apologized softly, "I'm sorry for misunderstanding you. Take this as my apology."

Prime Master Tie Feng threw the fishbone into the pot and covered it. He lowered his head and picked up the pearl that was the size of his thumb. He recognized at a glance that this pearl was the rare Deep Sea Netherworld Pearl.

This thing had a calming effect.

Prime Master Tie Feng accepted the pearl. He stared at the horn on the Soul Calming Beast's head and asked curiously, "Your horn is a storage space?"

The Soul Calming Beast nodded and told Prime Master Tie Feng, "All my precious things are inside." After saying that, she shook her head again. Immediately, piles of pearls rolled out of her horn.

Prime Master Tie Feng stared at the pearls on the ground and asked her, "Do you like pearls very much?"

The Soul Calming Beast let out a foolish laugh. She looked at the pearls all over the ground and said with some yearning, "These pearls are treasures that I've been collecting since I was born. When I get married, I'll turn them into my wedding dress."

Prime Master Tie Feng looked at the Soul Calming Beast's abnormally huge beast body and said, "Then you still have to continue collecting to make a wedding dress." With her size, she would probably have to collect two carriages of pearls to make a wedding dress.

"Hehe." The Soul Calming Beast put away the pearls and said, "Our clan is rather special. If we meet someone who truly loves us, we can transform into human form. These pearls are enough for me to make a wedding dress."

Hearing this, Prime Master Tie Feng felt even more amazed. He said, "The appearance of your people is too fierce and terrifying. I'm afraid it's very difficult to meet a human who truly loves you."

Hearing this, the Soul Calming Beast was instantly discouraged. She laid on the ground and said sadly, "That's right. Scumbags only like beautiful women. When they saw my appearance, they screamed in fear."

Hearing this, Prime Master Tie Feng narrowed his eyes again.

Soon, the fish soup was done.

When the Soul Calming Beast smelled the aroma, she couldn't wait to try it. "Are you done? Are you done?"

Prime Master Tie Feng opened the pot and took a sniff. He nodded and said, "Yes, it's done."

"I'll try it."

Prime Master Tie Feng opened his interspatial ring and wanted to find a bowl for the Soul Calming Beast, but he saw the Soul Calming Beast reach out her front hooves and pick up the hot iron pot.

"Be careful!" Prime Master Tie Feng's reminder was too late.

The Soul Calming Beast quickly poured the boiling fish soup into her mouth and immediately cried out from the heat.

"Ouch!"

The Soul Calming Beast was scalded, but actually couldn't bear to spit out the fish soup. She even endured the burning sensation and drank all the fish soup.

After drinking it, she roughly smashed the iron pot, got up, and entered the sea.

Prime Master Tie Feng stared at the iron pot that had been broken into two with an incomparably shocked expression.

This...

This fool!

The Soul Calming Beast only came out after soaking in the sea for half a night. She came to Prime Master Tie Feng's side listlessly.

Prime Master Tie Feng said to her, "Open your mouth."

The Soul Calming Beast hesitated for a moment before opening her mouth.

Prime Master Tie Feng stood up and walked in front of the Soul Calming Beast. He moved closer to examine the Soul Calming Beast's mouth. There were already white blisters in her mouth.

Chapter 405: Keeping Your Feelings In Your Heart

The Soul Calming Beast said in a hoarse voice, "I can't sing tonight."

"Silly." Prime Master Tie Feng took out a medicine bottle and said, "Don't move. I'll apply the medicine for you."

The Soul Calming Beast didn't dare to move.

Prime Master Tie Feng poured the bottle of medicine into the Soul Calming Beast's mouth and instructed her, "Hold the medicine in your mouth and spit it out in an hour."

The Soul Calming Beast asked, "What?"

Unable to hear what the other party was saying, Prime Master Tie Feng said uncertainly, "Are you asking how long an hour is?"

The Soul Calming Beast nodded vigorously.

Prime Master Tie Feng smiled. "You're illiterate." He sat down beside the Soul Calming Beast and hugged his saber. "When it's time, I'll tell you."

Only then did the Soul Calming Beast nod.

The Soul Calming Beast squatted on the beach. It was as big as a small building, and Prime Master Tie Feng, who was sitting beside her, wasn't even as tall as her knee.

The man and beast sat quietly on the beach, listening to the waves and watching the moon. The vibe was actually harmonious.

An hour later, the Soul Calming Beast spat out the medicinal liquid and realized that her mouth no longer hurt.

Prime Master Tie Feng examined her and told her, "Don't sing or eat hot food for nearly a week."

"Yeah, okay."

Prime Master Tie Feng walked along the beach and prepared to take a walk.

The Soul Calming Beast stared at the man's back and hesitated for a moment before following.

After walking for a while, Prime Master Tie Feng suddenly said, "Is the fish soup delicious?"

The Soul Calming Beast thought about it carefully for a moment before saying, "Yes, it's delicious, but it's too hot."

Prime Master Tie Feng nodded and continued walking in front. As he walked, he asked, "Is fish soup more delicious or are male cultivators more delicious?"

Without thinking, the Soul Calming Beast replied, "The fish soup tastes better!"

After answering, the Soul Calming Beast saw that Prime Master Tie Feng stopped in his tracks.

She realized that she had said something wrong and her eyes widened.

Prime Master Tie Feng sighed and said with his back facing her, "You're that sea demon, right?"

The Soul Calming Beast fell silent.

Prime Master Tie Feng turned around and looked into the Soul Calming Beast's eyes, which were filled with uneasiness and grievance. He said, "Let me guess why you ate them."

The Soul Calming Beast asked in a hoarse voice, "Why?"

"Your voice is like the sound of nature. The male cultivators have been pining for you for a long time, so they took a boat to the Divine Sea to meet you. You know that you look fierce and ugly, so you didn't dare to appear to communicate with them, and you only used your voice to communicate with them."

"They fell deeply in love with you, or rather, your voice. Perhaps they even promised to marry you, but when they saw your face, they all went back on their words. And you, because your feelings were hurt, ate them all."

"I guessed correctly, right?"

Right!

He was completely right!

The Soul Calming Beast's eyes were filled with tears. She felt so wronged that she wanted to cry. She said, "No one said that people with beautiful voices must be beautiful. When they came to look for me, I hid at the bottom of their boat. I clearly told them that I was ugly, but they all swore that they didn't mind my appearance."

"But they're all liars! They keep saying that they don't mind, but once they see my face, they can't wait to draw their swords and shout that they want to kill me!"

The Soul Calming Beast cried and asked Prime Master Tie Feng, "What did I do wrong?! How was I cruel?! I just want love! I want to meet someone who truly loves me!"

Prime Master Tie Feng looked at the Soul Calming Beast quietly. He didn't comfort her or disturb her.

However, the Soul Calming Beast quickly calmed down. She shook her head and shook off her tears.

The Soul Calming Beast lowered her head and looked into Prime Master Tie Feng's eyes. She saw that Prime Master Tie Feng was holding the saber in his hand tightly and sneered. "What, are you going to kill me and avenge those scumbags?"

Prime Master Tie Feng raised the saber in his hand and pointed it at the Soul Calming Beast.

The sea breeze blew over.

Prime Master Tie Feng stared into the Soul Calming Beast's beautiful eyes and suddenly said, "From now on, you will live with me. If you eat another person, I will kill you myself."

The Soul Calming Beast was stunned.

"You, you won't kill me?"

If the sea demon was really cruel by nature and ate people without blinking, then Prime Master Tie Feng would definitely kill the sea demon without blinking.

But the sea demon in front of him was more pure-hearted and kinder than anyone else.

Prime Master Tie Feng put away his saber and said, "My soul is damaged, so accompany me and sing for me. When you meet someone who truly loves you and transform into a human, it's up to you whether to stay or leave."

With that, Prime Master Tie Feng turned around and walked towards his tent.

The Soul Calming Beast lowered her eyes and looked at the back of Prime Master Tie Feng. A conflicted look appeared in her eyes. In her chest, her heart was racing.

She seemed to be in love again.

After that, the Soul Calming Beast followed beside Prime Master Tie Feng. During the day, she dived at the bottom of the sea to search for pearls. At night, she accompanied him and sang for him.

Their relationship became special. She wasn't his slave or his pet, but she wasn't his friend either. They spent time together, but they respected each other.

When Prime Master Tie Feng wasn't cultivating, he would also read books. Occasionally, the Soul Calming Beast would squat beside him and read a few pages. No matter how simple the words were, they were like Greek to the Soul Calming Beast.

"How do you write your name?" The Soul Calming Beast only knew that her companion was called Sheng Tiefeng, but she didn't know how to write these three words.

Prime Master Tie Feng picked up a tree branch and wrote his name on the beach.

Sheng, Tie, Feng.

Every word was written in complicated handwriting.

The Soul Calming Beast took a look and realized that the name was too complicated. She couldn't understand or remember it at all, so she shook her head and prepared to leave.

Just as she turned around, she heard Prime Master Tie Feng ask, "What's your name?"

The Soul Calming Beast said, "Beauty."

"What?" Prime Master Tie Feng thought that he misheard her.

The Soul Calming Beast said, "Those male cultivators call me Beauty."

Prime Master Tie Feng was speechless.

Perhaps they were all blind.

Prime Master Tie Feng said, "Since you don't have a name, I'll give you a name."

"Sure." The Soul Calming Beast was very interested. She told Tie Feng, "I want the simplest, easiest to write, and easiest to remember name."

Prime Master Tie Feng said, "Then I can only call you Ah Yi."

"Alright, this name will do." A name was just a way to call her. The Soul Calming Beast felt that the name "Ah Yi" was quite simple.

However, Prime Master Tie Feng said, "Your name will accompany you for the rest of your life. Although the name Ah Yi is simple and easy to remember, it's a little too casual. In the future, you will have to take human form. At that time, it won't be appropriate to call you Ah Yi."

"What should I be called then?"

Prime Master Tie Feng wrote a few more words on the beach before another word appeared.

The Soul Calming Beast couldn't understand the word at all. She said, "What word is this?"

"Ying."

"Oh." The Soul Calming Beast didn't understand the meaning of this name. To her, it didn't matter if she was called Ah Ying or Ah Yi.

However, Prime Master Tie Feng explained seriously, "Ying stands for secret feelings. Ah Ying is a very good name. I'll call you Ah Ying from now on."

"Okay."

Chapter 406: What a Scumbag

Countless distant memories appeared in the Soul Calming Beast's mind like a faint breeze.

Those painful, happy, and regretful pasts became vivid and exciting because of Sheng Tieferteng.

The moment her memories were completely restored, the massive body of the Soul Calming Beast suddenly disappeared. The huge beast lying beside the coffin instantly transformed into a beautiful girl.

The girl was beautiful, and her charming eyes shone brightly. Just like her name, she was beautiful.

Sheng Xiao and Sheng Yang were shocked.

The Soul Calming Beast was really a divine demon!

At that moment, a thought popped up in Sheng Xiao's mind.

It seemed that none of the Sheng Clan's men loved ordinary women..

1

The Soul Calming Beast looked at Prime Master Tie Feng's face in the coffin with a gentle gaze. She reached out and gently touched the crooked word "Ying" on Prime Master Tie Feng's collar.

As she touched it, the Soul Calming Beast's eyes were filled with tears.

Sheng Xiao heard the Soul Calming Beast say, "He can write beautiful words, but I can't even read, let alone write. The only thing I can write is my name. In order to praise me, he allowed me to embroider my name on all his clothes."

"Ah Ying." The Soul Calming Beast felt dejected. She turned around and smiled sadly at Sheng Xiao and Sheng Yang.

The Soul Calming Beast told the siblings, "My name is Ah Ying. My husband was Sheng Tiefeng. He brought me to see the snow in Tibet, to eat chili in Sichuan, and to experience the prosperity of Jingdu."

He was the only person in this world who truly loved her.

When Sheng Yang saw the Soul Calming Beast's sad expression, she felt like crying. Tears welled up in her eyes and were about to flow out. Sheng Yang hurriedly looked up at the ceiling and forced her tears back.

Sheng Xiao glanced at his sister. He felt sad too. However, he was not as emotional as Sheng Yang was. He quickly regained his composure and asked Ah Ying softly, "Senior Ah Ying, you already have a human form. Why did you look like that before?"

Ah Ying looked at Sheng Tiefeng's face and said, "All of this is related to the Merman Clan."

Merman Clan?

Sheng Xiao immediately asked, "What's going on? Why did the Merman Clan ambush you guys?"

Ah Ying sneered and said, "Back then, after I got married to Tie Feng, Tie Feng secretly brought me to the human world and even brought me to see his best friend. However, his friend betrayed him. After we left, he released the news that Prime Master Tie Feng was with the sea demon."

"At that time, my reputation was notorious and everyone wanted to beat me up. In order to protect me, Tie Feng actually betrayed the entire cultivation world and brought me far away to the Xixia Sea to where the merfolk lived."

No matter how much the world disliked her, Sheng Tiefeng still regarded her as the apple of his eye.

Ah Ying recalled what happened in the Xixia Sea later on and immediately frowned slightly. She said, "Those years, the merfolk and the elves were fighting fiercely. When the merfolk heard about my and Tie Feng's deeds, they guessed that I was a divine demon. The flesh and blood of a divine demon can allow a person who has been sick for a long time to recover, and it can also allow a mentally retarded child to awaken his beast form. In order to increase the strength of the merfolk and defeat the elves, the merfolk sent the top ten powerhouses to secretly ambush us."

Hearing this, Sheng Yang immediately cursed, "Mermen are really despicable!"

Sheng Yang had heard about Na Luo's true identity from Sheng Xiao. She knew that Na Luo was an ancient fish and an important member of the Blood Peacock Organization. Sheng Yang felt like she had been deceived and betrayed by Na Luo.

But while she hated Na Luo, her heart ached for her.

Eight hundred years ago, the merfolk treated Na Luo so badly.

At the thought of how the Merman Clan had done so many disgusting things in order to strengthen their race, Sheng Yang felt a strong sense of disgust for this despicable clan that could only hide in the water and rely on their tails to move.

When Ah Ying saw Sheng Yang gritting her teeth in hatred, she asked, "Why are you so angry?"

Sheng Yang couldn't help but tell her about Na Luo's encounter.

Hearing this, Ah Ying sneered and said, "The blood of a Divine Master flows in the bodies of the ancient fish. The merfolk definitely can't bear to let go of such an opportunity. This is indeed something their clan is capable of doing."

In fact, not only were the merfolk despicable, but the other clans were also despicable.

Sheng Xiao asked, "How did Senior Ah Ying and Senior Tie Feng break through the siege and come to the Saint Tomb?"

Ah Ying told Sheng Xiao, "That time, Tie Feng and I fought with them for three days and three nights. In the end, we got rid of all the top ten powerhouses of the Merman Clan at the price of being seriously injured. Tie Feng was seriously injured and could not do anything about it. At that time, everyone in the cultivation world wanted to kill me. Tie Feng knew that bringing me back to the Sheng Clan would only bring disaster to his people, so he brought me back to the Saint Tomb of the Divine Realm Continent."

"After entering the Saint Tomb, Tie Feng didn't want to see me alone, so he ignored my objections and forcefully sealed my memories. After my memories were sealed, I completely forgot about Tie Feng, and naturally forgot his love for me, so I returned to the form of a Soul Calming Beast."

Therefore, the descendants of the Sheng family all knew the story of Prime Master Tie Feng and the sea singer. However, no one knew that the sea singer was not a peerless beauty, but an ugly Soul Calming Beast.

Even Sheng Lingfeng did not know that the Soul Calming Beast that hated men and beauties in the tomb of Prime Master Tie Feng was actually the woman that Prime Master Tie Feng loved deeply.

“I see.”

Sheng Yang sniffed and said in a low voice, “Prime Master Tie Feng treated Senior Ah Ying really well.”

When Ah Ying heard this, her eyes turned slightly red.

The man who treated her so well was long gone.

It was so boring to live alone.

Ah Ying suddenly looked up and said to Sheng Xiao, “Sheng Xiao, you have passed the inheritance test. You can obtain Tie Feng’s inheritance. The gift Tie Feng left for the successor is the ‘Divine Wood Cultivation Technique’ that he has cultivated. Cultivating this cultivation technique can temper your muscles and bones and make them as hard as a Prime Master’s. Prime Master Tie Feng’s bones are as hard as iron.”

Sheng Xiao was overjoyed. He knelt down and kowtowed. “I’m Sheng Xiao. Thank you for your gift, Senior Tie Feng!”

When Sheng Yang saw that her brother had really obtained the inheritance, she was both happy for him and disappointed.

She was indeed trash and could never compare to her brother.

However, at this moment, Ah Ying looked at Sheng Yang and said to her, “Little girl, although you’re prettier than me and it’s obvious that you’re the type that’s very popular with men, on account of us knowing each other and you being a junior of Tie Feng, I’ll give you a legacy today.”

Chapter 407: Siblings Obtained The Inheritance Together

Sheng Yang widened her eyes in joy. “Senior Ah Ying, are you serious?!”

Ah Ying nodded seriously and said to Sheng Yang, “Come forward.”

Sheng Yang looked at her brother hesitantly.

Sheng Xiao immediately felt that Sheng Yang was a fool.

Wasn’t it stupid not to accept an inheritance?

Sheng Xiao pretended to be calm. “Since she sincerely wants to give it to you, accept it!”

Sheng Yang then strode to the coffin and squatted beside Ah Ying’s legs.

Ah Ying lowered her eyes and stared at her for a moment before pressing her finger between Sheng Yang’s eyebrows. “Close your eyes and feel it carefully.”

Sheng Yang immediately closed her eyes and gritted her teeth.

Ah Ying transferred a faint light into Sheng Yang’s body. The light looked like the light of the moon.

When the light entered Sheng Yang's body, she was stunned. Soon, she sensed an aura that made her feel comfortable and happy appear in her beast heart.

This process lasted for half an hour. When Ah Ying retracted her hand, her body actually became illusory.

Sheng Yang realized that the inheritance was over. She raised her head and realized that Ah Ying's body had become illusory.

She was dying!

Sheng Yang was shocked and asked in a panic, "Senior Ah Ying, why are you suddenly dying..."

Ah Ying's body became more and more transparent. She gave Sheng Yang a reassuring smile and said, "I should have left a long time ago. Tie Feng has already reincarnated. I have to go find him. I've imparted my soul calming power to you. In the future, you can use your song to heal people's damaged souls."

Ah Ying moved her ring finger, and the marriage compact on Prime Master Tie Feng's ring finger moved as well. Seeing this, Ah Ying smiled and said, "I hope that in the next life, I can be a human and be an ordinary couple with him."

With that, Ah Ying's body completely disappeared. At the same time, a huge sea beast skeleton appeared on the ground in the main tomb. It was squatting and looking down at Prime Master Tie Feng.

Sheng Yang knelt down in front of the sea beast skeleton and kowtowed three times to the skeleton. "Senior Ah Ying, rest in peace. I hope you can find Prime Master Tie Feng as soon as possible and continue your relationship."

It was also at this moment that Prime Master Tie Feng's soul awakened.

His soul floated out of the coffin. He floated in the main tomb and was very close to the skeleton. Prime Master Tie Feng reached out and stroked the skull. His eyes were filled with regret and longing.

After a while, Prime Master Tie Feng lowered his head and asked Sheng Yang and Sheng Xiao, "When did Ah Ying pass away?"

Sheng Xiao replied, "She just passed away."

Prime Master Tie Feng nodded and said, "In that case, I should go too."

Sheng Xiao was shocked when he heard that. He asked in surprise, "Senior, has your soul not been reincarnated yet?" He thought that Prime Master Tie Feng had already reincarnated.

Prime Master Tie Feng shook his head and laughed. He said, "How can I feel at ease entering reincarnation and leave her alone in this world?"

Sheng Xiao felt sadness in his heart. He asked, "So, you've been protecting Senior Ah Ying in the Saint Tomb for the past two thousand years?"

Prime Master Tie Feng said, "Yes."

Sheng Yang said sadly, "But Senior Ah Ying had long forgotten you."

Prime Master Tie Feng smiled and said, "It doesn't matter if she remembers me or not. As long as I see that she's doing well, I'll be at ease."

The man who had once teased Ah Ying to eat chili and drink hot soup had left the memories and pain to himself after his death and given a carefree life to her.

Sheng Yang stared at the smile on Prime Master Tie Feng's face and suddenly understood their relationship. She must find someone who was sincere to her in the future, regardless of whether that person was a human or a demon.

Sheng Xiao missed Yu Huang when he heard Prime Master Tie Feng's words.

He suddenly wanted to hug Yu Huang.

At that moment, Prime Master Tie Feng waved at Sheng Xiao. "Child, come here."

Sheng Xiao nodded and walked towards the coffin.

Suddenly, the body of Prime Master Tie Feng stood up. He quickly reached out his arms and grabbed Sheng Xiao's arm.

Then, the flesh and blood on Prime Master Tie Feng's body turned into starlight and dissipated. His skeleton turned into a faint light and entered Sheng Xiao's body.

"Ah!"

Sheng Xiao knelt on the ground in pain.

At that moment, Prime Master Tie Feng's iron bones were fusing with Sheng Xiao's body. This process was even more painful than the Blood Purification Technique that Yin Rong had endured before.

When Sheng Yang heard her brother's painful cry, her face turned pale.

But Sheng Xiao only shouted once. He gritted his teeth and endured it.

Bone fusion was a slow and painful process.

Every bone of Prime Master Tie Feng was hugging Sheng Xiao's bones. Sheng Xiao's bones rejected them immediately.

One side rejected, while the other side invaded. The process was really painful.

Sheng Xiao was tortured for three days. During that time, he was in so much pain that his muscles tightened, and he gritted his teeth.

Sheng Yang stayed by Sheng Xiao's side. She saw that her brother was sweating profusely and his clothes were drenched in sweat. Although her heart ached, she did not dare to interrupt Sheng Xiao.

On the fifth day, Sheng Xiao's spine completely fused with Prime Master Tie Feng's bones. The painful bone fusion inheritance was successful.

After the inheritance, Sheng Xiao opened his eyes slowly.

His muscles were stiff and sore from the pain. He slowly raised his head and bowed respectfully to Prime Master Tie Feng, who was sitting on the coffin.

“Sheng Xiao, thank you for your gift, Senior Tie Feng!” Sheng Xiao could clearly feel that every bone in his body had become extremely hard, like steel. He was indomitable and indestructible.

Prime Master Tie Feng was relieved. He looked at Sheng Xiao’s young face and sighed. “I’ve never seen such a young Supreme Master. Even in my era, a young man like you was rare.”

“Congratulations to the Sheng family for nurturing such a powerful disciple like you.”

Hearing this, Sheng Yang muttered, “I’m not bad either.”

Prime Master Tie Feng heard Sheng Yang’s mutter.

He lowered his head and glanced at Sheng Yang. Knowing that Sheng Yang had obtained Ah Ying’s inheritance, he looked at Sheng Yang with a loving gaze. “Yes, you’re not bad either.”

After receiving her ancestor’s praise, a smile finally appeared on Sheng Yang’s cold face.

“Alright, the inheritance has been given. You guys can leave.” Prime Master Tie Feng tilted his head and looked at the Soul Calming Beast’s skeleton. He reached out and patted its head again before sighing. “I should leave too.”

Hearing that, Sheng Xiao and Sheng Yang bent down at the same time and gave their sincere blessings to Prime Master Tie Feng. “Have a safe trip, Senior. I hope that you and Senior Ah Ying can continue your relationship in your next life.”

Chapter 408: Buy One, Get One Free. This Trip Was Worth It

Prime Master Tie Feng accepted their blessings. With a wave of his hand, Sheng Xiao and Sheng Yang were sent out of the Saint Tomb.

Immediately after, he lowered his head and kissed the eye on the skull gently. He whispered, “Ah Ying, walk slower. I’ll chase after you.”

With that, the last wisp of Prime Master Tie Feng’s soul that remained in this time turned into a ball of pale green starlight and disappeared from this world.

For the past few days, Yu Huang, Sheng Wuyang, and the others had been sitting cross-legged beside the Prime Master Tie Feng’s Saint Tomb to cultivate in seclusion. The weather was a little hot, and there was a scorching sun above her head. Yu Huang’s body was covered in a layer of sweat.

At this moment, a gust of wind blew past. Immediately after, two navy blue shadows were thrown out of the Saint Tomb.

The wind blew past Yu Huang’s body, and she finally felt a chill.

“Ah!”

Sheng Yang fell onto the grass and her butt was about to split into two from the impact. She cried out in pain.

Yu Huang opened her eyes and saw Sheng Xiao and Sheng Yang, who had been teleported out of the Saint Tomb. Sheng Xiao landed gracefully and steadily, while Sheng Yang fell on the ground miserably.

Yu Huang stared at her man for a few seconds before standing up and striding towards Sheng Yang.

Sheng Yang was overjoyed when she saw Yu Huang walking towards her instead of her brother.

Yu Huang extended her right hand towards her. "Come, I'll pull you."

"Yu Huang, you're the best!" Sheng Yang held Yu Huang's hand and was pulled up by her.

Sheng Yang held Yu Huang's arm and bragged to Sheng Xiao, "Look, Yu Huang is ignoring you."

Sheng Xiao smiled. "I didn't fall on my face. Naturally, I don't need anyone to help me up."

Sheng Yang was speechless.

Yu Huang removed Sheng Yang's hand mercilessly and walked to Sheng Xiao quickly. She looked up at Sheng Xiao's handsome face for a few seconds and then sniffed.

Sheng Xiao asked her, "Do I smell?"

"Yes."

Sheng Xiao was sweating profusely during the process of accepting the inheritance. His clothes were drenched in sweat and he smelled bad.

Sheng Xiao said, "I'm going to take a shower."

He carried his sword and turned around to take a shower. After taking two steps, he suddenly turned around and asked Yu Huang, "Aren't you going to accompany me?"

Yu Huang smiled. Then, under the teasing gazes of the Sheng family's disciples, she followed Sheng Xiao and walked towards the river in the distance.

As soon as they left, Sheng Wuyang and the others surrounded Sheng Yang. "Sheng Yang, how was it? Did the Young Master successfully obtain the inheritance?"

When Sheng Yang heard their question, she pursed her lips and said angrily, "Why do you all think that my brother will obtain the inheritance, but I can't?"

Everyone only laughed, and their smiles were filled with tolerance and awkwardness.

Sheng Yang rolled her eyes and told the senior brothers, "I obtained the inheritance."

"What?!"

After knowing that Sheng Yang had actually obtained the inheritance, everyone found it unbelievable.

Sheng Wuque, who had the bubbliest personality, immediately said, "How is that possible? The inheritance test is so difficult. The Young Master is much more powerful than you. Logically speaking, he should be the one to obtain the inheritance."

Although this was the truth, Sheng Yang was still unconvinced when Sheng Wuque said it in public.

"You don't believe me, do you?!" Sheng Yang crossed her arms and raised her chin slightly. She said arrogantly, "If you don't believe me, I'll show you on the spot!"

After saying that, Sheng Yang opened her mouth and started chanting an unfamiliar and pleasant tune.

Upon hearing that tune, Sheng Wuyang and the others immediately realized that their anxious mental state had been soothed and they gradually calmed down.

Eldest Senior Brother Sheng Zhou had just broken through to the Supreme Master Realm two months ago. When he suffered the Supreme Master's lightning tribulation, his soul was injured. At this moment, when he heard Sheng Yang's singing, Sheng Zhou realized that his chaotic soul had actually been soothed and was showing signs of recovery!

Sheng Zhou's face lit up. He said firmly, "Sheng Yang, your singing has the ability to repair souls!"

Sheng Yang patted the Eldest Senior Brother's chest and said, "Eldest Senior Brother, you're so smart!"

Sheng Yang had grown up under the watch of these senior brothers. Of course, they knew that Sheng Yang didn't have the ability to repair souls. After entering the Saint Tomb, Sheng Yang suddenly had this ability. In that case, did Sheng Yang really obtain the inheritance?

Sheng Wuyang sighed with emotion. "I really didn't expect Sheng Yang to defeat Young Master and successfully obtain the inheritance."

Sheng Wuque also said, "That's right. This is really shocking. Doesn't this verify that saying?" Sheng Wuque's eyes darted around as he recalled that saying. He snapped his fingers and said loudly, "Fools are blessed!"

Sheng Yang punched Sheng Wuque's shoulder. "Screw you!"

In front of outsiders, Sheng Yang was an aloof and beautiful girl, but in front of this group of senior brothers who had watched her grow up, she acted carefree. She was a beautiful, seemingly cold, but interesting and pure-hearted girl.

After Sheng Yang showed off enough, she told everyone the truth. "Actually, the person who obtained Prime Master Tie Feng's inheritance was my brother."

"Huh?"

Sheng Zhou frowned and asked, "What exactly is going on?"

Sheng Yang stuck out her tongue and described what happened in the Saint Tomb in detail.

After knowing that the ferocious Soul Calming Beast in the Saint Tomb was actually the wife of Prime Master Tie Feng, everyone sighed.

“In that case, the sea singing demon isn’t a beauty with a sexy figure like the legends say, but a ferocious and huge Soul Calming Beast?”

“Yes.”

“So, you obtained Senior Ah Ying’s inheritance?”

“Yes.”

Sheng Wuque clicked his tongue twice and said, “Buy one get one free. Then this trip was really worth it.”

Everyone joked around for a moment before sitting down cross-legged again.

Sheng Zhou had just sat down when he saw Sheng Yang walking over briskly.

Sheng Yang sat down next to Sheng Zhou and was very close to him. Sheng Zhou silently moved to the side and told Sheng Yang sternly, “Yang Yang, you’re a big girl now. When you interact with boys, you have to keep your distance.”

Sheng Yang rolled her eyes and said, “What’s there to be afraid of? Didn’t my father say that he would marry me to you in the future? We’re family and will sleep in the same bed in the future. What’s there to be afraid of?”

Sheng Zhou blushed.

Sheng Wuque, Sheng Wuyang, and the others immediately pricked up their ears and suppressed their laughter as they continued to eavesdrop on their conversation.

Sheng Zhou quickly regained his composure and told Sheng Yang, “That was a joke. Yang Yang, don’t take it seriously.”

Seeing that Sheng Zhou was so easily flustered, Sheng Yang felt bored. She clapped her hands and stood up. She told Sheng Zhou seriously, “Eldest Senior Brother, if you have a headache in the future, tell me. I’ll sing for you.”

Sheng Yang waved at Sheng Wuque and the others. “I’ll go take a shower too. You guys can continue cultivating.” After saying that, Sheng Yang walked towards the river in the distance.

Seeing that she was going to take a shower, Sheng Zhou was worried that there would be too many people there and someone would see her taking a shower. After thinking about it, he got up and chased after her. He stood on a hill not far from Sheng Yang and stood on watch.

Chapter 409: Divine Speed Cultivation, Late-stage Master

...

On the other side, Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao were taking a shower in a small pool.

Sheng Xiao wasn’t wearing a shirt. Yu Huang was only wearing a set of underwear.

The ice-blue lace bra was tightly wrapped around Yu Huang's sexy figure. The thin black belt stuck to her fair shoulders and extended down. It passed by her sexy vertical bones and outlined her cleavage.

Yu Huang was bending down to wash her hair. She didn't know how seductive this scene was to Sheng Xiao.

Yu Huang finally washed her long hair clean. When she got up, she shook her head hard. Water droplets splashed on Sheng Xiao's chest.

Sheng Xiao suddenly felt tantalized.

Yu Huang used a rubber band to casually tie up her wet long hair. When her hand landed, a pair of strong arms suddenly reached out from behind her waist and hugged her tightly.

Yu Huang leaned into Sheng Xiao's arms when she felt his strong and warm chest.

She leaned her head on Sheng Xiao's shoulder and looked up at his handsome face. "What?"

Sheng Xiao rested his chin on Yu Huang's forehead. He hugged her tightly and said sadly, "I felt sad when I found out that Prime Master Tie Feng's soul had accompanied Senior Ah Ying in the Saint Tomb for more than two thousand years. The moment I saw Prime Master Tie Feng follow Senior Ah Ying, I suddenly wanted to hug you."

Upon hearing this, Yu Huang also thought of Prime Master Jing An and Silence.

Yu Huang pushed Sheng Xiao's hand away and turned around to hug his neck. She jumped up and wrapped her arms around his waist. She smiled and said, "Time flies. We can't waste time."

Sheng Xiao lowered his head and bit her nose. "Okay, I won't let you down."

...They took a long time to shower.

After showering, the two of them returned to the Saint Tomb hand in hand. Sheng Wuque and the others were very smart. They weren't stupid enough to ask why it took them so long to shower.

Sheng Yang had just finished showering. Her long hair was still wet, and Sheng Zhou was using his spiritual power to dry it for her.

Sheng Xiao held Yu Huang's hand and returned to the Saint Tomb. When he saw this from afar, he couldn't help but stop and frown at them.

Sheng Zhou nodded at him and said, "You're back?" After asking, Sheng Zhou continued to dry Sheng Yang's hair calmly.

Sheng Zhou was Sheng Lingfeng's eldest disciple. He was ten years older than Sheng Xiao. Sheng Xiao respected him very much. He nodded and walked to Sheng Yang. "Let me do it."

Since her brother was here, Sheng Zhou was in no position to interfere. He moved aside silently and handed the strand of long hair to Sheng Xiao.

Sheng Xiao dried Sheng Yang's hair violently while educating her. "You're already 17 years old. You're a big girl. Try your best to do this yourself in the future. Don't trouble Eldest Senior Brother."

Sheng Yang glanced at Eldest Senior Brother and whispered, "But when I was young, it was always Eldest Senior Brother who dried my hair."

Sheng Xiao continued, "You said it yourself that it was when you were young. You're grown up now. You can't pester Eldest Senior Brother anymore. If a girl who adores Eldest Senior Brother sees this, her imagination will run wild."

At the thought of someone admiring her Eldest Senior Brother, Sheng Yang gritted her teeth and rubbed her fists. "Oh yeah? Who admires my Eldest Senior Brother? Brother, tell me, I'll go get to know her."

Sheng Xiao was speechless.

Was that the main point?

The main point was that there should be distance between men and women!

Yu Huang couldn't help but laugh when she saw that Sheng Yang couldn't understand her brother's intentions even after Sheng Xiao said so much.

When Sheng Zhou heard Sheng Yang's words, the corners of his lips curled up.

After drying Sheng Yang's hair, Sheng Xiao pulled Yu Huang to sit beside the Saint Tomb. "There's still more than a month before the Saint Tomb closes. During this period, everyone has to cultivate in peace. Don't waste your time."

Yu Huang suddenly turned to look at Sheng Xiao when she heard the words 'don't waste your time'.

After everyone calmed down and cultivated, Yu Huang whispered into Sheng Xiao's ear, "Don't waste your time?"

Sheng Xiao's ears turned red when he thought of what he had done in the river. He glared at Yu Huang. "Be quiet. Go into seclusion."

Yu Huang suddenly stood up and sat down beside Sheng Yang. She couldn't calm down when she was so close to Sheng Xiao.

Staying away from men was the first step to calming down.

During the days of seclusion, Sheng Yang had been learning to control Senior Ah Ying's Soul Calming Power. Every night, everyone could hear Sheng Yang singing.

The day before the Saint Tomb closed, Yu Huang's absorption speed suddenly increased.

Sheng Xiao and the others sensed that the spiritual energy had become thinner. They opened their eyes in confusion and saw all the spiritual power surging towards Yu Huang's body.

At this moment, Yu Huang was like a magnet that absorbed all the rich spiritual energy in the surroundings.

Seeing this, Sheng Zhou said in surprise, "She's breaking through."

Yu Huang had advanced to the Master Realm last year. After that, she had been cultivating the Purifying Spirit Art, and her spiritual power had been stagnant. A few days ago, she had obtained the inheritance of Prime Master Jing An and a portion of her spiritual power.

The spiritual power in her body finally erupted at this moment.

Two energy rings emitting red light appeared above her head. This meant that she was a Master. At this moment, the second energy ring was glowing brightly and its color was getting richer.

Sheng Xiao smiled. "You're an intermediate-stage Master!"

Yu Huang had broken through to the intermediate-stage of the Master Realm, but her crazy absorption of spiritual power still didn't stop.

Sheng Wuyang and the others gradually widened their eyes. Sheng Wuque even exclaimed, "Damn, our cultivation speed is like squeezing toothpaste, but the Young Madam's cultivation speed is like drinking water. Is she that fast?"

He finally understood what a true genius was. Yu Huang had done what many Beast Tamers took decades to accomplish in just half a year.

Her talent was even more astonishing than their Young Master's.

How infuriating!

Seeing Yu Huang's situation, everyone was deeply shocked. They were unable to calm down and cultivate quietly, so they decided to sit together and watch Yu Huang's changes.

1

They wanted to see how big of a surprise Yu Huang could bring them.

The spiritual energy in the entire Sheng family's Saint Tomb floated over from all directions and poured into Yu Huang's body. Sensing this change, the disciples of the small families who had submitted to the Sheng family opened their eyes.

Only then did they realize that the spiritual energy around them was actually flying towards Prime Master Tie Feng's Saint Tomb.

"Which disciple of the Sheng family is going to advance again?"

"Did Young Master Sheng break through to the Grand Master Realm?"

Was that even possible?

In the distance, Sheng Wuque shouted again, "Young Madam has broken through to the late-stage Master Realm!" In a few hours, Yu Huang had actually broken through from the early-stage Master Realm to the late-stage Master Realm in one go.

Sheng Wuyang was already numb. He said with a blank expression, "Young Madam, are you going to break through to the Supreme Master Realm in one go?"

Sheng Xiao noticed that the surrounding spiritual energy was getting weaker. He shook his head and said, "It's almost over."

Sheng Zhou also noticed the changes in the surrounding spiritual energy. He also said, "It's almost over, but to be able to break through from the early-stage to the late-stage of the Master Realm in such a short period of time, the Young Madam is amazing."

Sheng Xiao felt proud when he heard Sheng Zhou praise Yu Huang.

Sheng Xiao glanced at Sheng Yang. His eyes were filled with mockery and disdain. He didn't say anything, but Sheng Yang could tell what her brother meant. Her brother was saying, "Look at your sister-in-law and then at you. What use do you have?"

Sheng Yang took a deep breath and clenched her fists. She whispered to her brother, "I didn't break through to the Master Realm because I wanted to protect your ego."

Sheng Xiao didn't understand what Sheng Yang meant.

Sheng Yang explained, "You awakened your beast form at the age of nine and only broke through to the Master Realm at the age of 20. Although you are the youngest person on the continent to break through to the Master Realm, you spent a total of 11 years. As for me, I awakened my beast form at the age of 13. If I broke through to the Master Realm at the age of 17, wouldn't I become a new legend? Then won't your ego get bruised?"

Sheng Yang always had a way with words.

Sheng Xiao frowned and couldn't retort.

Sheng Zhou held back his laughter and spoke up for Sheng Xiao. "Yang Yang, you're wrong. Young Master Sheng spent 11 years to break through to the Master Realm because he lost a piece of his soul. When he was young, he was always sick and comatose, which delayed his cultivation. Otherwise, he would have broken through to the Master Realm long ago."

Sheng Yang stuck out her tongue at Sheng Zhou and questioned him, "Who are you siding with?"

Sheng Zhou said solemnly, "I believe in reason."

Sheng Yang pouted and stopped talking.

At this moment, Yu Huang finally stopped absorbing spiritual power crazily. She heaved a sigh of relief and opened her eyes. She raised her arms and stretched.

Following that, the bones in her body crackled, making one's hair stand on end.

However, Sheng Wuque and the others were very envious of Yu Huang.

Every time a Beast Tamer experienced a small breakthrough in their cultivation, the meridians and bones in their bodies would evolve and become even harder. Only then would they emit the crackling sound of bones.

Sheng Wuque congratulated Yu Huang in a flattering tone. "Congratulations, Young Madam, for reaching the late-stage Master Realm! According to your terrifying cultivation speed, you might break through to the Supreme Master Realm next year!"

Yu Huang didn't feel smug. She calmly and rationally analyzed, "The reason why my cultivation level broke through so quickly this time isn't because my cultivation talent is amazing, but because of the inheritance."

"It's not that easy to break through to the Supreme Master Realm." Yu Huang knew very well why she had advanced so quickly this time. In the end, it was because of Prime Master Jing An's inheritance.

Seeing that Yu Huang didn't become proud and complacent, Sheng Xiao looked at her even more gently.

"The Saint Tomb should end tomorrow. Why don't we not cultivate today and work together to uproot the weeds on Prime Master Tie Feng's Saint Tomb and the surrounding weeds?"

"Okay."

Everyone tidied Prime Master Tie Feng's grave. Sheng Wuyang and Sheng Wuque ran to the river and caught a few fish. The group of people sat on the lawn in front of Prime Master Tie Feng and started roasting.

When Sheng Wuque smelled the aroma of the fish, he thought of something and hurriedly took out a few jars of Green Plum Wine from his interspatial ring. "I still have a few jars of Green Plum Wine brewed by the Madam last year. Grilled fish has to be accompanied by wine!"

Sheng Zhou stared at the jars of wine and couldn't help but think of the Madam. His gaze darkened.

Sheng Wuyang sighed and said, "I wonder when I can drink the wine brewed by Master's wife again."

Chapter 410: Young People Will Never Give Up Easily!

Sheng Xiao and Sheng Yang looked at the wine jar in a daze.

Yu Huang opened the lid of the wine jar. The fragrance of the Green Plum Wine wafted into everyone's noses along the breeze.

Yu Huang raised the wine jar and said, "One day, the dark clouds that envelop the Holy Spirit Continent will be dispelled by the sun. Those who left without saying goodbye will eventually return to our side!"

She shook the wine jar hard and said loudly, "Come, let's drink. Let's raise our glasses to tomorrow!"

Upon hearing Yu Huang's words, everyone perked up again. They picked up the Green Plum Wine and clinked glasses forcefully.

"To tomorrow!"

After eating the grilled fish and drinking wine, everyone was a little drunk.

Yu Huang, in particular, was not a good drinker. She was a little sluggish after drinking. She sat beside Sheng Xiao and stared at the bonfire. No one knew what she was thinking, but her expression looked familiar.

But Sheng Xiao knew that Yu Huang was just sluggish.

Sheng Wuyang laid on the ground with the wine jar in his arms. He said, "I hope that in ten years, we can still gather together and drink and eat meat!"

When the insensitive Sheng Wuque heard his senior brother's sigh, he narrowed his eyes and looked at the stars above his head. He said frankly, "I hope that I can go to the Upper World to study in the future. When I return from my studies, I want to assist the Young Master with my senior brothers and sisters and let the Sheng family become a first-class family in the three thousand worlds!"

Sheng Xiao laughed when he heard that.

Sheng Yang thought about it and said, "Even so, it's a little difficult. It's said that there are ten super large worlds and a hundred large worlds in the three thousand worlds. And our Holy Spirit Continent can't even be ranked among the top."

"Although the Sheng family is a super family in the Holy Spirit Continent, it's only considered a bottom-tier family in the three thousand worlds. It's very, very difficult to lead the Sheng family to become a super powerful family."

Sheng Zhou nodded. "It's indeed very difficult."

Sheng Xiao told them, "It's very difficult. As far as I know, there are countless large and small families in the three thousand worlds. Only if there are three Prime Masters in the family can they be rated as a third-rate family. If there are six Prime Masters, they can be rated as a second-rate family. A first-rate family is even more powerful. It needs ten Prime Masters and at least one Prime Emperor."

Everyone was stunned. "It's that difficult?"

"Yes, although the Garo Clan has a Prime Emperor powerhouse and is considered a top-notch family on the Holy Spirit Continent, it's shit in the three thousand worlds."

No one felt that it was inappropriate to hear such a vulgar adjective like 'shit' from the Young Master.

When Sheng Wuque found out that a first-class family was actually so impressive, he instantly felt dejected. "Heavens, is it that difficult? Forget it then. I'll be very successful if I can become a Grand Master in my lifetime. As for Prime Master..."

When Sheng Wuque thought of the words Prime Master, he felt his blood boil.

The Prime Master level was a level that he could never reach.

Yu Huang felt a little dizzy. She leaned her head on Sheng Xiao's shoulder as she narrowed her eyes and looked at the worried young men beside the bonfire. She suddenly smiled and said, "Why do you all look so crestfallen? You're still young. Do you know what it means to be young?"

Everyone, including Sheng Zhou and Sheng Xiao, looked at Yu Huang at the same time.

Sheng Wuque also sat up. He stared straight at Yu Huang and asked softly, "What does it mean?"

Yu Huang smiled. After she was drunk, her beautiful face blushed slightly. She looked even more charming and fragile than usual. However, the words that came out of her mouth were so inspiring. She said,

“Youth represents endless possibilities. You’re still young, so you have the chance to explore the world, the chance to make mistakes, and the chance to turn the situation around! You have to remember that most of the people who create legends are young people.”

“Young people are the future of this world. If young people give up on this world before they even explore it, this world will become dull.”

“Only those who have tried, suffered failure, and fought to their last breath are qualified to give up! Sheng Wuque, how do you know that you will stop at the Grand Master level? You haven’t tried and fought for it. How can you give up so easily?!”

Sheng Wuque looked at their Young Madam in a daze. His originally lifeless eyes suddenly shone with a dazzling light.

He wiped his eyes and stared at Yu Huang through the bonfire. He suggested sincerely, “Young Madam, go and be an officer in the future. When those warriors hear your instigation, they will definitely immediately draw their swords and charge into the battlefield without hesitation.”

He was not insulting Yu Huang by saying this. He really admired Yu Huang. She was clearly younger than him, but she was more enlightened and wise than him. Everything she thought about was much more profound than what Sheng Wuque could think of for the time being.

Yu Huang laughed and fell asleep against Sheng Xiao.

Sheng Xiao was not used to seeing her being so obedient. She did not call people to settle accounts, nor did she hug him and ask for a kiss.

Under the influence of Yu Huang’s words, everyone was very high-spirited when they talked about the future. The gloominess from before was swept away, and they were all filled with fighting spirit and yearning for the future.

Sheng Xiao listened to his fellow disciples’ conversation. He took a sip of the Green Plum Wine occasionally and looked up at the stars in the sky. Yu Huang’s words made his eyes shine brightly with hope for the future.

He felt like he loved Yu Huang even more today than he did yesterday.

...

The first ray of morning sunlight shone on Yu Huang’s face.

Yu Huang found herself sleeping in Sheng Xiao’s arms when she opened her eyes. Sheng Xiao remained sitting up.

The woman in his arms moved and Sheng Xiao woke up.

“You’re awake?”

Yu Huang nodded.

She got up from Sheng Xiao's arms and found Sheng Wuque and the others asleep on the grass. Only Sheng Yang was covered in Sheng Zhou's family robe.

She stared at Sheng Yang's robe for a few more seconds before saying, "The teleportation platform should be opening soon. Wake them up. Let's pack up and prepare to go back."

Sheng Xiao said, "No, my legs are numb."

Yu Huang froze. Then, she squatted down and helped Sheng Xiao pull his legs. Sheng Xiao finally stood up.

Before the others woke up, Yu Huang suddenly raised her head and kissed Sheng Xiao.

Sheng Xiao was stunned by the kiss.

Yu Huang said, "Thank you for being my cushion for the night."

Sheng Xiao smiled. "It's my honor to serve you."

The two of them looked at each other affectionately.

"Alright, wake them up."

"Okay."

Sheng Xiao whistled. Sheng Zhou and the others opened their eyes and woke up. "It's dawn. The teleportation platform should be opening soon. Everyone, get ready to leave."

"Okay."

Just as everyone packed their things, they noticed that there was a teleportation array core in the sky above the Sheng family's Saint Tomb.

Sheng Xiao suddenly summoned Black Qing Sky Dragon and flew into the sky with it.

"Roar!" A dragon roar sounded. The disciples of the subsidiary families who were still sleeping were awakened by this deafening dragon roar.

"The teleportation array is open. Everyone, leave quickly!" Sheng Xiao's voice spread throughout the Sheng family's Saint Tomb.

Upon receiving the news, all the disciples woke up and flew to the teleportation eye with their things.

Seeing that Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang were not leaving, Sheng Zhou grabbed Sheng Yang's arm and was about to leave. "Young Master, I'll bring Yang Yang out first."

Sheng Zhou looked at Yu Huang again and said, "Young Madam should be teleported to the Yin Clan. In that case, see you later."

Yu Huang nodded and replied, "See you later."

Seeing that Sheng Zhou and the others had jumped into the teleportation array, Sheng Xiao lowered his head and said to Yu Huang, "The news of Prime Master Yin Mingjue's daughter appearing in the Saint Tomb must have spread outside. Your identity will be exposed later."

Yu Huang smiled at Sheng Xiao and said, "Don't worry, everything is according to my plan."

"Yes, don't be afraid. I'll always have your back." Sheng Xiao kissed Yu Huang's forehead. "Let's go."

"Alright!"

The two of them held hands and flew towards the teleportation array core. The moment they jumped into the teleportation array core, a shocking force separated them.

Yu Huang's body spun in the darkness. When her feet landed again, she had already appeared on the teleportation platform of the Saint Pond.

She turned around and saw a group of Yin Clan disciples standing behind her.

She was indeed teleported to the Yin Clan's camp.

Yin Rong was counting the number of Yin Clan disciples when she suddenly heard Yin Fu say, "Yu Huang is out."

Yin Rong hurriedly turned around and indeed saw Yu Huang being teleported to the front of their team. Yin Rong was a little embarrassed and was hesitating about how to greet Yu Huang when she saw Yu Huang walking towards them calmly.

"Yin Rong, Yin Fu." Yu Huang nodded at them and said, "If everyone is here, let's go."

Yin Rong heaved a sigh of relief when she saw that Yu Huang's attitude towards her was the same as before. "Everyone is here. Let's go."

"Alright!"

Yu Huang stood between Yin Rong and Yin Fu and led all the Yin Clan disciples towards the exit of the Saint Pond. On the way, there were many subsidiary families of the Yin Clan.

When the disciples of the subsidiary families saw that Yu Huang was actually walking in the Yin Clan's team, they could not help but feel puzzled.

"Why did Master Yu appear in the Yin Clan's team?"

This was a question that no one could figure out. However, seeing that Yin Rong and Yin Fu had no objections, these disciples of the subsidiary families didn't dare to say anything.

On the day the Saint Tomb closed, the elders and patriarchs of the various large families of the Divine Realm Continent also rushed over from their families. They waited near the Saint Pond, hoping that their disciples' cultivation levels would increase.

Behind Sheng Lingfeng stood a group of representatives from the Sheng family's affiliated families.

“Prime Master Lingfeng!” A small patriarch of a subsidiary family cupped his fists at Sheng Lingfeng and said, “Young Master Sheng is young and promising. I believe he will definitely be able to obtain the inheritance this time! I want to congratulate Prime Master Lingfeng in advance.”

Seeing this, the others flattered Sheng Lingfeng.

Sheng Lingfeng thought of the strange Soul Calming Beast in Prime Master Tie Feng’s tomb and frowned.

Xiao’er had a combination of his and Ah Ru’s genes and was even more handsome than him. He was afraid that he would provoke the Soul Calming Beast’s disdain and hatred.

Whether or not this inheritance could be successfully obtained was really uncertain.

“Everyone, it’s not too late to congratulate me after my two children are out.”

Hearing this, everyone finally gave it a rest.

Yin Mingchong of the Yin Clan, Liuli Xiangsi of the Liuli Clan, Xuanyuan Shen of the Xuanyuan Clan, Caro Xiangfu of the Caro Clan, and Mo Yunyan of the Mo Clan were all present.

Behind this group of people stood a large group of representatives from the affiliated families.

Through Caro’s secret box, the news of the return of Prime Master Yin Mingjue’s long-lost daughter had already spread throughout the entire Divine Realm Continent in the past two months.

Today, there were actually more people waiting near the Saint Pond than on the day it opened. Even some famous itinerant cultivators specially came to join in the fun.

Who was Prime Master Yin Mingjue?

He was a selfless person who had sacrificed himself to save the entire Holy Spirit Continent! He was the benefactor of the Holy Spirit Continent! Now that the daughter of Prime Master Yin Mingjue had returned, everyone wanted to witness this historic moment.

They all wanted to see who the daughter of Prime Master Yin Mingjue was! And whether she had successfully obtained the Yin Clan’s inheritance!

When he saw group after group of people walk out, Yin Mingchong’s breathing gradually became heavy.

Was that girl really back?

Caro Xiangfu touched his big stomach and tilted his head to glance at Yin Mingchong.

When he saw Yin Mingchong staring fixedly at the exit of the Saint Pond with an uneasy expression, he instantly narrowed his eyes and asked, “Patriarch Yin, you’re about to see your long-lost niece. Are you very excited and looking forward to it?”

Yin Mingchong really wanted to beat Caro Xiangfu to death.

However, Caro Xiangfu still had Caro Zhengyang backing him. He could think about it but couldn’t do anything to him.
