Chapter 451: Grand State Master, Turn the Tide

Although Anna was a demonic cultivator, she was only a newborn demonic cultivator after all. On the other hand, Liao Xingzhi was a famous battle beast tamer in the independent cultivator world. Liao Xingzhi's Goat Horn Hammer beast form was the same as Liuli Shao and Mo Yuelou's. It was a natural battle beast form.

Even Xuanyuan Shen might not have a chance of winning against Liao Xingzhi, let alone the newborn demonic cultivator Anna.

Anna looked up at the hammer that was rapidly smashing down on her head. She knew that there was no way out this time, and she was unwilling to struggle.

Anna looked down at the seriously injured Icy Night T-Rex. The demonic aura in her eyes dissipated, and her brown eyes were filled with tears again. "T-Rex, live well..."

Even if she was gone, the T-Rex had to live well.

The T-Rex heard Anna's parting words. He looked up at her and suddenly roared at the sky. He dragged his seriously injured body and flew towards Anna's head without hesitation.

At the critical moment, the Icy Night T-Rex chose to use its body to help Anna withstand Liao Xingzhi's thousand-pound hammer!

Bang!

The thousand-pound hammer smashed into the Icy Night T-Rex's huge body, causing its spine to cave in.

"Roar!" The Icy Night T-Rex let out a painful cry as its body fell into the abyss rift.

"T-Rex!"

Anna's eyes almost popped out when she saw the T-Rex fall into the abyss' crack.

Anna raised her head and looked at Xuanyuan Shen, Liao Xingzhi, and the others. Her eyes were red as she scolded, "You hurt my mother and killed my lover. Are your actions really upright?!"

Liao Xingzhi saw that Anna's magic eye had disappeared and she could talk to people like a normal person. He retracted his hammer and looked at Anna in shock. He couldn't help but ask in surprise, "You can actually control her demonic form?"

At the side, Diwu Yujie also noticed Anna's change.

"What's going on? Didn't they say that demonic cultivators can't control their consciousness?" But Anna, who was still emitting demonic aura a second ago, had returned to normal in the blink of an eye.

Was she really a demonic cultivator?

Liao Xingzhi suddenly realized that Anna might not be a fiendish cultivator. He looked at Anna and said guiltily, "If you can control your demonic nature, you're not a heinous fiendish cultivator. I was rash today."

With that, Liao Xingzhi looked down at the abyss rift.

He recalled how the Tyrannosaurus sacrificed itself to save Anna and was slightly moved.

Although the Icy Night T-Rex was a demon beast, it was more loyal than a human man. It was admirable. However, the damage had been done and the T-Rex had fallen into the abyss. Liao Xingzhi knew that he had made a mistake, but he couldn't remedy it.

Liao Xingzhi sighed and suddenly said to Xuanyuan Shen, "Grand Master Xuanyuan, I think this girl called Anna hasn't completely lost her human consciousness. She's not a true demonic cultivator. It's time for us to stop this demon suppression operation. This child killed three of Xuanyuan Clan's guest elders, and you also killed her mother and indirectly killed her lover. In my opinion, why don't we cancel this grudge?"

Diwu Yujie nodded as well. "Grand Master Liao is right. Since Anna isn't a fiendish cultivator, there is no need for this demon suppression operation to exist."

When Xuanyuan Shen heard their words, his expression didn't change at all. "Forget it?"

Xuanyuan Shen sneered and said, "Demonic cultivators are cunning. This girl can suppress her demonic nature for a while, but can she suppress it forever? Since ancient times, no demonic cultivator has been able to successfully suppress its demonic nature. If we don't get rid of this girl now, she will become a huge disaster sooner or later!"

"Since you guys are afraid to attack, let me do it!" With that said, Xuanyuan Shen suddenly punched himself in the chest. That punch directly made him stagger a little, and he opened his mouth to spit out a mouthful of dark red blood at Anna.

Blood splattered in the sky, forming a bloody mist.

At the same time, the unicorn rhinoceros standing behind Xuanyuan Shen was summoned by Xuanyuan Shen. It jumped into the blood mist, and its beast body immediately turned into hundreds of black iron ropes.

Blood stained the iron rope, and the rope immediately emitted a terrifying energy.

Anna stared at the iron ropes and a wave of fear erupted from the depths of her soul. She wanted to resist, but under the pressure of that energy, she was actually unable to use her own energy.

Presumably, the iron rope contained energy that could suppress magic power!

Xuanyuan Shen cut open his palm again and let more blood merge with the iron rope. Under Xuanyuan Shen's control, the iron rope quickly turned into a shell that looked like a cicada.

Xuanyuan Shen pushed the cicada with his palm and roared, "Demon Sealing Array!"

The cicada shell immediately flew towards Anna and wrapped around her.

As Xuanyuan Shen flipped his palm, the iron rope tightened, making Anna an imprisoned silkworm.

At this moment, Xuanyuan Shen suddenly chanted a dark and incomprehensible incantation. As the incantation sounded, countless sharp thorns suddenly appeared on the iron ropes. The sharp thorns all pierced into Anna's body and mercilessly squeezed into her body.

Anna's entire body was pierced by the spikes. She could no longer bear the pain and let out a shrill scream—

“Ah!!”

The petite woman actually let out a hair-raising cry.

Liao Xingzhi could no longer bear to watch. He shouted angrily at Xuanyuan Shen, “Xuanyuan Shen! How can you treat a little girl in such a cruel way?!” Xuanyuan Shen clearly wanted to stab Anna and strangle her to death!

But was she really guilty to the point of deserving death?

Xuanyuan Shen snorted. “Mind your own business!”

Liao Xingzhi was furious.

Anna's screams became more and more miserable. Blood flowed out of her body and dyed her white dress red.

Seeing that the time was right, Xuanyuan Shen's lips curled up into a smug smile. He suddenly closed his eyes, placed his palms together, and slapped the center heavily!

When that palm slapped down, a palm appeared on Xuanyuan Shen's head. The palm became larger and larger, and in the end, it was as tall as a hundred-meter-tall building.

Seeing this scene, Diwu Yujie shouted, “It's the Demon Annihilation Palm!”

The Demon Annihilation Palm was the strongest move in the Xuanyuan family's ancestral cultivation technique, the Demon Annihilation Record. Thousands of years ago, the founder of the Xuanyuan family, Xuanyuan Chaosheng, had used this move to defeat Ouyang Sheng, the great demon, and turn him into ashes.

And today, Xuanyuan Shen actually used this move on Anna. He clearly wanted Anna to be reduced to ashes!

The large palm slowly descended from the sky and slapped towards Anna with a destructive aura.

Liao Xingzhi wanted to save Anna, but he couldn't guarantee that he would be able to withstand the Demon Annihilation Palm.

In the end, Liao Xingzhi didn't stand up to help Anna.

After all, Anna was a demonic cultivator who had killed three Beast Tamers. She wasn't worth him risking his life to save.

When Anna saw the large palm slapping towards her, she resigned herself to fate and closed her eyes. In that instant, the appearances of her mentor, Yu Huang, Jiang Shangfeng, Vivian, and the Icy Night T-Rex flashed across her mind.

In the end, the image of the Icy Night T-Rex falling into the abyss crack was fixed in Anna's mind.

She was going to accompany him...

Just as the Demon Annihilation Palm was about to land on Anna, a powerful and boundless energy suddenly rushed out from the distant abyss rift!

A purple-black spiritual energy ball appeared in front of Anna. It transformed into the appearance of a nine-tailed fox and bared its sharp teeth at Xuanyuan Shen while letting out a shocking roar. "Roar!"

"Nine-tailed fox!"

"Could it be the Grand State Master of the Divine Moon Empire?!"

The nine-tailed fox shook its butt, and its nine huge tails suddenly swayed and rose from behind its butt. At the same time, the sky above the forest instantly became covered in dark clouds.

Lightning surged in the dark clouds. The nine-tailed fox cried out and jumped up, colliding with the huge palm! At the same time, the lightning struck down from the sky and struck the huge palm.

The fox and the lightning worked together, and shattered the powerful palm in the blink of an eye!

The Demon Annihilation Palm was disintegrated, and Xuanyuan Shen suffered the backlash of this wave of energy. He immediately flew back dozens of meters and staggered a few steps before barely stabilizing his body.

"Xuanyuan Shen, you're too willful!" The voice came from the abyss rift.

Everyone lowered their heads and looked at the abyss rift. They saw black fog rising from the rift. Immediately after, a majestic nine-tailed fox slowly rose from the abyss rift. On the nine-tailed fox's back, there was the dying Icy Night T-Rex.

Seeing that the Icy Night T-Rex was still alive, Anna's eyes, which were filled with despair, immediately shone with optimism.

"It's really the Grand State Master..."

There was only one black nine-tailed fox in the entire Holy Spirit Continent, and that was the Divine Moon Empire's Grand State Master!

This lord had broken through to the Prime Master realm seven hundred years ago!

Currently, there were only a few Prime Masters on the Holy Spirit Continent. However, among these Prime Masters, the Grand State Master was the first to break through to the Prime Master realm.

The Prime Masters of the same generation as him had all died for various reasons. Logically speaking, the Grand State Master's cultivation level had been stagnant at the Prime Master Realm for 700 years and he had yet to break through. He should have died long ago. However, the Grand State Master still looked handsome and didn't seem to have aged.

This person was far more unfathomable than he appeared.

Xuanyuan Shen wasn't as careful even when facing the Caro Clan's Prime Emperor Zhengyang.

The nine-tailed fox appeared from the abyss rift. He shook his body and placed the Icy Night T-Rex on the ground. Then, he jumped into the sky and stood in front of Anna. When he reappeared, the black nine-tailed fox had already transformed into an adult man.

The man was wearing a black combat suit. From afar, he looked handsome, but his blue eyes looked as cold as a glacier.

After seeing the man's face clearly, Liao Xingzhi exclaimed in a low voice, "He's really the Grand State Master!"

Being stared at by Mo Xiao's cold eyes, Xuanyuan Shen felt as if he had fallen into a glacier.

Xuanyuan Shen braced himself and pretended to be calm as he said, "Grand State Master, did you just say that I'm willful and reckless? But since when did eradicating demons become something willful and reckless?"

Chapter 452: Best Friendship

Mo Xiao couldn't be bothered to respond to Xuanyuan Shen.

Without another word, he broke the iron rope on Anna's body and hugged her.

Only then did Mo Xiao turn around and say to Xuanyuan Shen, "Xuanyuan Shen, you know very well whether Anna is a fiendish cultivator or not. You seem anxious to get rid of her. Do you really think no one knows what you're planning?"

An apprehensive look flashed across Xuanyuan Shen's eyes. He straightened his neck and said in a rough voice, "Anna awakened her demonic beast form, the Mutated Devouring Beast, and even cruelly devoured the spiritual power of three of Xuanyuan Clan's guest elders, causing them to die one after another! Grand State Master, I have surveillance camera footage as evidence. How can she get away with this?!"

Mo Xiao sneered. "It was Su Xuanye who caused Anna to lose control. Instead of fighting Su Xuanye to the death, you brought a group of righteous people here to attack a little girl. What is this?"

Mo Xiao turned around and looked at Liao Xingzhi and the others.

Under Mo Xiao's gaze, this group of people lowered their heads in shame.

Mo Xiao bent down and picked Anna up. He said, "From now on, I will be Anna's guardian. If Anna dares to devour the lives of innocent people again, I will personally... crush her bones and scatter her ashes!"

Xuanyuan Shen only frowned and lowered his head unwillingly.

Mo Xiao continued, "However, as long as Anna hasn't become a demon, as long as I'm still alive, if anyone dares to bully Anna under my watch, I won't let him off easily!" With that, the Grand State Master carried Anna and flew into the forest before taking the Icy Night T-Rex away.

Xuanyuan Shen stared solemnly in the direction where the Grand State Master had left. He gritted his teeth and could only return in disappointment.

After failing to subdue the demon, Xuanyuan Shen returned to the Xuanyuan Clan dejectedly. The moment he entered his room, he saw an illusory man standing in the room.

Seeing that man, Xuanyuan Shen immediately knelt down on one knee without a word and said in fear and trepidation, "My lord, I failed my mission. The Grand State Master Mo Xiao suddenly appeared and saved that fiendish cultivator!"

"Trash!" The man flung his sleeve and Xuanyuan Shen was immediately sent flying against the door frame.

Xuanyuan Shen fell to the ground and got up on all fours. He knelt on the ground and tried his best to get his forehead closer to the ground to show his loyalty.

From the corner of his eye, he saw the man's feet move. Only then did Xuanyuan Shen carefully raise his head. Just as he saw the man's featureless face, Xuanyuan Shen lowered his head in fear again and didn't dare to make a sound.

The man had no facial features, but he could speak in a human voice. He said, "Everyone thinks that the Mutated Devouring Beast is a demonic beast, but they don't know that it's actually a divine beast form! The Mutated Devouring Beast can use everything in the world as nourishment, be it spiritual power, magic power, or poisonous gas. As long as everything in the world enters its body, it can automatically transform into an energy body and absorb it."

"The Mutated Devouring Beast is the same as the Eternal Eye. They are both the lifeline left by the heavens in the human world. What a joke. Everyone in the world actually treats such a holy object as a demonic beast form! Hahaha, what a bunch of ignorant country bumpkins!"

What?

The Mutated Devouring Beast was actually a divine beast form?

No wonder he had repeatedly requested he capture Anna alive. It turned out that he had designs on Anna's beast form!

"But, my lord." Xuanyuan Shen had to be careful every time he spoke to this lord. He asked in fear and trepidation, "Even if that girl's beast form is a divine beast form, that's still her beast form. Could it be that you can snatch her beast form and use it for yourself?"

"Heh! Beast forms only recognize one master in their lives. How can I snatch it away?" The faceless man let out a vicious laugh. He said, "Although I can't directly snatch her beast form, I can tame her into my puppet and let her help me complete my revival!"

“But you...” The faceless man lowered his eyes and ‘looked’ at Xuanyuan Shen. He shook his head in disappointment and said in disdain, “You’re useless. Get lost!”

Xuanyuan Shen immediately rolled on the ground twice before swiftly opening the door and slipping out.

Xuanyuan Shen only heaved a sigh of relief when he stood under the sun and breathed in the fresh air. He felt ecstatic, as if he had survived a calamity.

Xuanyuan Shen stood on the lawn and glanced back at his room. When he thought of the faceless man in the room, he shook his shoulders in fear.

He had met this faceless man when he was participating in the Saint Tomb when he was young. At that time, the man called himself the heavens. Xuanyuan Shen really thought that he was the chosen one who had become the darling of the heavens. He foolishly formed a contract with the heavens and fantasized that he could become the strongest person in the Holy Spirit Continent.

Later, as they interacted more and more, Xuanyuan Shen realized that this person wasn’t the heavens, but Satan!

When Anna woke up, she was lying in a guest room in Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao’s villa.

She opened her eyes and saw the clean room. She was in a daze for a while before she remembered the details of the battle.

Her mother was dead, and she and the T-Rex were taken away by the Grand State Master.

T-Rex!

Anna was concerned about the T-Rex’s situation. She quickly lifted the blanket on her body and sat up to look for the Icy Night T-Rex.

Anna slid off the bed barefooted and saw a pair of rabbit-shaped open-toed slippers by the bed. Her movements instantly slowed down. Not many people knew what she liked. Other than her mentor, there was only Yu Huang.

Could she be in Yu Huang’s house?

Anna looked down at the pajamas she was wearing and realized that she was wearing a cotton-collared pajamas with a big white rabbit printed on it. The pajamas were in the size 160. It was obvious that they had been specially bought for her.

Anna suddenly pursed her lips and smiled. As she smiled, her eyes couldn’t help but turn red.

At this moment, footsteps came from outside the door, and the door handle was turned. Anna turned around and looked at the door, and saw Yu Huang standing under the door frame.

Yu Huang was wearing a sports bra. Her long legs were wrapped in a pair of military green work pants. Her abs were hidden under the waist of her pants, and her good figure was discernible. She was wearing a pair of military green fingerless gloves on her hands. Her long hair was tied into a ponytail, and there was a green headband on her forehead. She looked valiant, cool, and beautiful.

Yu Huang had just finished practicing shooting in the basement. She was going upstairs to take a shower and change her clothes. When she passed by the guest room on the second floor, she came to see Anna.

Seeing that Anna was awake, Yu Huang smiled.

“Anna, you’re awake.”

Yu Huang was about to walk towards Anna when she saw Anna jump onto the bed quickly. Then, she jumped towards her from the bed.

Yu Huang was shocked. “Be careful. You’re still injured!”

Anna spread her legs and hung onto Yu Huang’s waist like a child. She hugged Yu Huang’s neck tightly and called her name while sobbing. “Yu Huang!”

After shouting, Anna cried.

The strange experience during this period of time had really frightened Anna. When she finally saw her good friend, Anna finally relaxed. She couldn’t control her emotions and hugged Yu Huang while crying.

Yu Huang hugged Anna’s butt with one hand and patted the back of Anna’s head with the other. “Stop crying. You’re already safe. In the future, no one will dare to bully you!”

“Yes!”

Anna’s snot and tears were rubbed against Yu Huang’s neck, but neither of them cared about these small details.

After the calamity, they reunited. This made them cherish this friendship even more.

Sheng Xiao walked up from downstairs with a delivery box in his hand. He coughed when he saw Yu Huang and Anna hugging each other affectionately.

“Cough.”

Anna blushed when she heard Sheng Xiao’s cough. She quickly jumped off Yu Huang.

Anna wiped her tears and snot and bowed to Sheng Xiao. “Hello, Professor Sheng!” In Anna’s heart, Sheng Xiao would always be the discipline professor of Divine Realm Academy. She had to greet him.

Sheng Xiao looked at Anna with some affection.

Back then, he and Yu Huang had brought this child back from the Broken Cliff. At that time, he had even joked that they were like a family of three. Now that the three of them were standing together, the feeling that they were a family of three became even stronger.

Sheng Xiao walked over with the delivery box in one hand and rubbed Anna’s hair with the other.

Anna, who was 158 centimeters tall, stood in front of Sheng Xiao, who was almost two meters tall. She only reached Sheng Xiao's chest. He could touch her head with his arm.

Anna was flattered when Sheng Xiao touched her head.

Sheng Xiao sighed in relief. "It's good that you're back. You can stay here from now on. You must have been tired. Rest well."

Anna knew how bad her reputation was now. Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang daring to take her in at this time was the greatest kindness.

Anna wanted to cry again, but she knew that Sheng Xiao hated girls crying the most. She tried her best to hold back her tears. "Thank you!"

Yu Huang patted Anna's face. "Don't mention it. We're good friends!"

"Yes."

"By the way, the class monitor, Vivian, and the others will start school the day after tomorrow. They heard that you're injured and not feeling well, so they decided to come to Jingdu to visit you a day early." Yu Huang looked at the time on her watch and said to Anna, "They'll be here in about two hours. We'll eat hotpot together at noon. Of course, you can only eat porridge."

"... Okay."

Anna was extremely anxious when she didn't hear about the situation of the Icy Night T-Rex.

Anna could no longer hold it in. She grabbed Yu Huang's hand and asked anxiously, "Yu Huang, my T-Rex..." After a pause, Anna said, "Where's the little T-Rex? Is the little T-Rex still alive?"

Hearing this, Yu Huang revealed an ambiguous smile. "I thought you could hold it in for a while longer. You finally remembered your T-Rex."

Yu Huang pointed at the pool downstairs and said, "The T-Rex is seriously injured and needs to stay in the water to recuperate. Didn't you notice that the temperature in this villa is a little low? Isn't Professor Sheng wearing a windbreaker? That's because my pool has been frozen by your T-Rex."

Only then did Anna notice that Sheng Xiao was wearing a windbreaker over his shirt.

Chapter 453: Young People, Who Doesn't Have a Few Toys?

"Will the little T-Rex be fine?"

"Yes, don't worry."

Anna heaved a sigh of relief.

Sheng Xiao said to Yu Huang, "Go take a shower and wear more clothes. Don't catch a cold."

"Okay." Yu Huang winked at Anna and went upstairs with Sheng Xiao.

Anna leaned against the door frame and heard Yu Huang ask Sheng Xiao, "What's the delivery?"

Sheng Xiao said, "I don't know. You bought it. The butler asked me to take it upstairs."

"Really?"

Anna squeezed her cheeks and made herself smile before going downstairs to look for the Icy Night T-Rex.

Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao returned to their room. She tore off the transparent tape on the package. She found that there were two layers of transparent tape on the package. Yu Huang said, "Has the package been opened? This tape was reattached."

"I don't know."

Yu Huang opened the package and Sheng Xiao took out the box from the paper box. Both of them froze when they saw the picture of an egg-shaped sex toy on the box.

Sheng Xiao's ears turned red. He took a few steps to the bedside table and bent down. He quickly stuffed the things into the drawer and explained softly, "Perhaps the butler accidentally saw what was inside. He was afraid that we would be embarrassed, so he put the tape back on and pretended not to notice."

Yu Huang thought so too.

Yu Huang was calmer than Sheng Xiao.

Young couples should buy some toys to liven things up.

She looked down at Sheng Xiao's red ears and had a wicked thought. She stood at the end of the bed and took off her clothes on purpose. Then, under Sheng Xiao's gaze, she walked to the bathroom and closed the bathroom door.

After a while, the bathroom door was opened from the inside. Sheng Xiao looked up when he heard the noise. He saw a hand reaching out from the door and beckoning him with a finger.

Sheng Xiao smiled. He took off the collar pin on his shirt and walked into the bathroom.

The pool in Yu Huang's villa was very deep, reaching all the way to the second floor of the basement. The basement and the pool were separated by a few pieces of transparent glass. Standing in the basement's living room, one could admire the scenery of the pool.

Although it was called a pool, it was actually a small aquarium.

Anna, wrapped in a long down jacket, stood on the second floor of the basement and saw the world in the frozen pool through the glass.

Her little T-Rex was lying quietly at the bottom of the pool, its body frozen by the pool water. Anna noticed that the heart under the little T-Rex's chest was emitting an ice-blue luster. After confirming that the little T-Rex was really alive, she placed her hands against the glass wall and squatted behind it.

"T-Rex!"

Anna's heart ached as she recalled the scene of the little T-Rex blocking the attack for her with its body.

When the Icy Night T-Rex heard Anna's voice, he narrowed his eyes and looked at her.

The Icy Night T-Rex was seriously injured. The wound on his chest had yet to heal and he couldn't move easily. He didn't dare to move and could only look at Anna affectionately through the glass wall.

Anna placed her hand on the glass and said to the Icy Night T-Rex, "We're safe. Rest well. When you recover, we'll rebuild a home. As long as you and I are alive, our home will always be there."

The Icy Night T-Rex blinked, indicating that he had heard Anna's words.

Anna accompanied the Icy Night T-Rex for a long time before leaving.

When they arrived at the living room on the first floor, Anna didn't see Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao. She asked the butler, "Butler, have Yu Huang and Professor Sheng gone out?" Anna thought that Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao had gone out to do something.

The butler glanced upstairs. He smiled kindly at Anna and explained, "They're still upstairs. They have something to do."

"Oh." The innocent Anna didn't think much of it. She looked at the clock on the wall and saw that Jiang Shangfeng and the others should be arriving soon. She said to the butler, "The guests are coming. I'll pick them up outside."

"Let's go together."

As the butler, he should welcome the guests.

The butler and Anna waited for fifteen minutes in front of the villa. Then, they saw a black car driving slowly towards the Lovers Lake villa. It was the car Sheng Xiao sent to pick up Vivian.

As soon as the car stabilized, Jiang Shangfeng and Vivian alighted.

The beautiful Vivian didn't wear high heels this time. Instead, she wore a pair of nude pink diamond flats and a white lace dress. Her curly hair was draped over her shoulders and she had light makeup on. She looked beautiful and intellectual.

As the second most beautiful woman in Yong Hui High School, Vivian was naturally beautiful.

Jiang Shangfeng was wearing a light gray shirt and dark blue pants. His short hair was trimmed very cleanly, and he wore a pair of thin-framed glasses on his face. This made him look somewhat nerdy.

The two of them stood together. Their looks weren't compatible, but their auras were. They looked like a perfect couple.

Seeing that Anna's face was pale, Vivian frowned and asked worriedly, "Anna, I heard from Yu Huang that you're injured? What's wrong?"

Anna didn't dare to let Vivian know about the terrible things that had happened to her. Anna shook her head and pretended to be relaxed as she explained, "I fought with someone and was injured. I need to recuperate for a period of time."

“Sigh, life isn’t easy for you Beast Tamers.” She touched the goosebumps on her arms and said suspiciously, “What’s going on? Why is Yu Huang’s house so cold?”

Jiang Shangfeng also felt a little cold. He subconsciously hugged Vivian.

Anna was about to explain the reason for the low temperature when she heard Yu Huang shouting, “Vivian, Class Monitor, come in quickly. The hotpot is ready!”

Upon hearing this, Vivian and Jiang Shangfeng raised their heads and looked up. They saw Yu Huang standing on the balcony of the master bedroom on the third floor and waving at them. Yu Huang was wearing an elegant V-neck dress. She leaned against the railing and her long wet hair draped over her shoulders.

She didn’t wear any makeup, but her face was still pretty and flawless.

Vivian was impressed by Yu Huang’s beauty.

Vivian stared at Yu Huang’s fair skin and said enviously, “Being a Purifying Spirit Master is better than being a Beast Tamer. I heard that every time a Purifying Spirit Master breaks through, their skin will be purified once. Look at Yu Huang’s skin. It’s as fair and tender as a boiled egg.”

Anna quickly said, “You have nice skin too.”

Only then did Vivian smile.

The butler had just brought the guests into the house when Yu Huang walked downstairs in a cashmere coat.

When she came down, she was also carrying two brand new coats, one for women and one for men. Yu Huang handed the coats to Vivian and Jiang Shangfeng. She said, “My pool is testing the ice-making function. It’s cold today, so wear more.”

“Ice-making function?” Vivian didn’t understand why the pool had an ice-making function, but this was someone else’s pool, so she couldn’t say anything.

Jiang Shangfeng carefully put the coat on Vivian. He said, “It’s a special period. You can’t catch a cold.” They were ordinary people after all. They could easily catch a cold.

When Yu Huang heard Jiang Shangfeng’s words, her expression changed slightly.

Special period?

Yu Huang stared at Vivian’s flat shoes and guessed something. Her eyes widened. “Oh my god.” Yu Huang stared at Vivian’s stomach and said in disbelief, “Class monitor, Vivian, are you two going to have a baby?!”

Hearing this, Anna suddenly looked down at Vivian’s flat stomach and revealed an incredulous expression.

Vivian buried her face in Jiang Shangfeng’s neck in embarrassment. Jiang Shangfeng hugged Vivian and adjusted his glasses in embarrassment before explaining in a low voice, “Yes, it’s been almost two months. When we went back this time, we've already met our parents and discussed the wedding. We've already gotten our marriage certificate and will hold a wedding after graduation."

"Yes." Vivian was holding a Birkin bag in her hand. She opened the bag and took out a few bags of wedding candy. "I'm actually here to give you wedding candy." Vivian distributed the wedding candy to Yu Huang and the butler.

"Congratulations!" Yu Huang took the wedding candy and said with mixed feelings, "Damn, I got married before you guys, but the two of you are having a child earlier than me." With that, Yu Huang shouted upstairs, "Brother Xiao, Vivian and the class monitor are married. Remember to bring the wedding gift when you go downstairs!"

Sheng Xiao was showering, but he still heard Yu Huang's reminder.

Yu Huang then said to the butler, "Since you're pregnant, let's not eat hotpot."

The butler held the wedding candy and smiled lovingly. "Young Madam, you're so considerate. I'll get the kitchen to prepare something else."

"Yes."

They hadn't seen each other for half a year and had many things to say. Yu Huang brought Vivian and the others to the living room to talk.

Sitting in the living room, Anna wasn't in the mood to eat wedding candy. She kept staring at Vivian's stomach in a daze. Anna thought of the dream she had. In the dream, Vivian was pregnant, but she had cruelly killed their family of three.

At the thought of that dream, Anna trembled in fear.

Yu Huang noticed Anna's abnormality and said to her, "I'm going to the bathroom. Anna, come and help me."

"Oh, okay."

After entering the bathroom, Yu Huang pressed Anna against the door and asked with a frown, "What's wrong with you? What are you afraid of?" Yu Huang saw through Anna's fear at a glance.

Anna hesitated, then voiced her concern.

"So, you found out that Vivian was pregnant and were worried that the nightmare would come true?"

"Yes."

Yu Huang bent her finger and touched Anna's forehead. She said, "What are you thinking about?! Believe me, you won't become that kind of demon." Yu Huang thought of the future she saw through the Eye of All Things and felt affection for Anna.

Yu Huang pressed a strand of Anna's fringe behind her ear and said to Anna, "Anna, you will become a heroine. Really, believe me."

Yu Huang had a special power. She could always calm Anna's uneasy heart.

“Okay!” Anna nodded vigorously and took a deep breath before accompanying Yu Huang back to the living room.

At that moment, Sheng Xiao walked down the stairs.

He was wearing a camel-gray turtleneck sweater and holding a document bag.

Although this wasn’t the first time she had seen Sheng Xiao, Vivian was still mesmerized by his handsome face.

But Vivian had no ulterior motives towards Sheng Xiao.

To Vivian and the others, Sheng Xiao had always been a legend.

Mortals didn’t dare to look at a god who had descended to the mortal world.

Chapter 454: When Do You Want a Child?

“Hello, Mr. Jiang, Vivian.”

Seeing that Sheng Xiao had taken the initiative to greet them, Jiang Shangfeng and Vivian stood up awkwardly and nodded at him respectfully. “Hello, Supreme Master Sheng.”

Three years ago, Sheng Xiao had seen Anna praying to the ‘Master Sheng’s Prayer Card’ at the Purifying Spirit Academy’s branch in the Prosperous Capital. That scene shocked Sheng Xiao.

It was then that Sheng Xiao realized that his image had been deified among the commoners.

Seeing that Vivian and Jiang Shangfeng were as excited as if they had seen a god, he smiled helplessly and walked to Vivian and the others.

Sheng Xiao handed the document bag to Vivian and gave her his sincere wish. “Ms. Vivian, Mr. Jiang, I wish you two a happy marriage. I also wish you a safe birth. This is the wedding gift Yu Huang and I prepared for you. It’s a small gift. I hope you don’t mind.”

How could Vivian despise it? How could she dare to despise it?!

Vivian and Jiang Shangfeng hurriedly waved their hands and said, “No, no. Thank you, Supreme Master Sheng.”

Vivian took the document bag with both hands.

She was really curious about the gift in the bag. She asked Sheng Xiao boldly, “Supreme Master Sheng, can I open it?”

Sheng Xiao nodded calmly. “It’s yours. Of course you can.”

Seeing that Sheng Xiao didn’t mind, Vivian opened the document bag curiously in front of everyone.

Inside the bag, there was a document and a... property deed!

Vivian's pupils dilated. She took out the property deed with stiff fingers and opened it. She confirmed that Sheng Xiao had really given her and Jiang Shangfeng a two hundred square meter suite in the capital's business center. Her heart skipped a beat.

Jiang Shangfeng moved closer to take a look at the thing in Vivian's hand. After seeing the contents of the property deed clearly, Jiang Shangfeng could no longer maintain his composure. He let out a cry of shock. "A house?" Jiang Shangfeng gave Yu Huang a shocked look.

Yu Huang was amused by the couple's reaction.

She stuffed the property deed back into the document bag and gently placed the document bag in Vivian's arms. She said heroically, "If I give it to you, then accept it. I don't have many friends, so even if I give one house to each friend that gets married, we won't go bankrupt."

Vivian was speechless.

How rich and bold!

Jingdu was prosperous and rich. The houses in Jingdu's business center cost at least 300,000 yuan per square meter.

Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang gave them a house that was more than two hundred square meters. How generous was that?

So this was how it felt to be friends with Supreme Master Sheng.

Vivian no longer cared that Yu Huang's skin was better than hers and that she was prettier than her. Vivian's eyes were slightly red as she held Yu Huang's hand and choked on her tears as she said, "When our child is born, I'll let her call you Mom!"

Yu Huang was caught between laughter and tears. "That's not necessary."

"Speaking of which, you guys haven't graduated from university yet. If you're pregnant now, what about your studies?"

Jiang Shangfeng pushed his glasses up his nose bridge and explained gently, "It's like this. I've already completed my studies in university in advance and successfully entered my school's graduate school. Vivian can still continue to study when she's pregnant. After she gives birth, she will take a break from school for a period of time. When the child is half a year old, I will study at home and take care of the child with both our mothers."

"After Vivian graduates, the child will be able to attend morning classes. She will continue her painting career, and I can write scripts in peace." Jiang Shangfeng studied drama, film, and literature at the Media College, while Vivian studied oil painting at the Academy of Fine Arts.

"Impressive!" Yu Huang gave Jiang Shangfeng and Vivian a thumbs up. She said, "Study, get married, and have children. One step at a time."

Vivian pursed her lips and smiled. She suddenly asked Yu Huang, "When are you and Supreme Master Sheng planning to have a child?" Vivian was curious about this question.

Hearing that, even the butler who was preparing pastries in the cafe turned to look at Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao.

Sheng Xiao looked at Yu Huang too.

Whenever they had children depended on Yu Huang.

Yu Huang picked up her coffee and took a sip. She revealed an experienced smile and said, "To be honest, we were trying to have a child just now."

Anna didn't understand Yu Huang's words, but Vivian and Jiang Shangfeng did. Jiang Shangfeng smiled, as if he understood. Vivian glared at Yu Huang and warned her, "Don't be such a pervert. Don't lead Anna astray."

Anna blinked in confusion when she was suddenly called out. She asked curiously, "No, I didn't understand. Yu Huang, what did you mean by that?"

Yu Huang only smiled and didn't speak.

Sheng Xiao handed a cup of coffee to Anna. "This coffee isn't bad. Try it."

Anna took a sip of coffee and was immediately attracted by the rich coffee. She instantly forgot about the topic just now. "This coffee is so delicious! I want another cup later!"

"Okay."

She was indeed a pure-hearted child.

After lunch, Vivian and Jiang Shangfeng got up and left. They wanted to take a look at the villa Sheng Xiao had given them.

Sheng Xiao thoughtfully sent a driver to send them to the villa.

After sending the guests away, Yu Huang turned around and was about to return to her room when she sensed an unfamiliar psychic fluctuation approaching the Divine Moon Empire. She suddenly turned to look in the direction of the Divine Sea in the east and said in a low voice, "A Purifying Spirit Master with a high cultivation level has come to the Divine Realm Continent!"

Sheng Xiao asked, "Do you know him?"

Yu Huang shook her head.

At that moment, the butler looked in the direction of the Divine Sea. He walked to Sheng Xiao and whispered, "Young Master, it's Saint Grantling of the Elve Clan."

Sheng Xiao looked at the butler a few more times.

The butler understood Sheng Xiao's gaze and explained immediately, "When the Young Master was born, Saint Grantling accompanied the Elven King to Yufu City and participated in your first birthday banquet. So, I still remember Saint Grantling's aura."

Saint Grantling was a Level 9 Purifying Spirit Master and the old princess of the Elven royal family. She was Prince Donor's grandmother.

Before Lin Jiansheng became a Level 9 Purifying Spirit Master, Su Xuanye had always been hailed as an Eastern Saint, and Saint Grantling was a Western Divine Spirit. However, the sudden appearance of Lin Jiansheng, who cultivated as quickly as a rocket, threw the situation into chaos.

Yu Huang immediately guessed the reason why Grantling came to the Divine Sea. She tilted her head and whispered to Sheng Xiao, "The Demon Fetus in Prime Emperor Zhengyang's body must have grown a lot."

Sheng Xiao smiled. "I heard that the clothes can't hid it anymore."

Yu Huang smiled. "Isn't that good? In a few months, we can go to the Caro Clan's baby shower."

Sheng Xiao shook his head and laughed. He said lovingly, "Naughty."

"Saint Grantling, the island in the sky ahead is where Caro Clan is. Saint Grantling is a little tired from the journey. When we reach the clan, rest for a while before going to treat my ancestor."

Although Grantling was over four hundred years old, she still looked young and elegant. She was slender and wore a sea-blue V-neck dress. Her feet were naked on the observation platform of the aircraft, and her slender ankles were wrapped in a ruby ankle chain.

A pair of golden wings pressed against her back, but it didn't diminish her elegance at all.

Caro Xiangfu was too embarrassed to look at her directly. He felt that it would be offensive to look at this old princess.

In the human world, there might be some arrogant Beast Tamers who would think that Purifying Spirit Masters were trash who had failed to awaken their beast form. However, among the elves, those who could become Purifying Spirit Masters were all pure and kind people.

In the Elve Clan, Purifying Spirit Masters were more respected than Beast Tamers.

Therefore, Lin Jiansheng would take the time to visit the Elve Clan every year. Every time he went, the elven royal family would give him many gifts.

He loved the generous and passionate elves.

Grantling held the Purifying Spirit Scepter in her left hand. She looked down at the floating island in the distance with surprise in her eyes. Even in the distant Light Sea, Grantling had heard about the Caro Clan of the Divine Realm Continent. According to those rumors, the Caro Clan was very rich.

To be able to use spirit stones to build an island in the sky on the sea, they were indeed rich!

"Patriarch Caro, your country's Lin Jiansheng is an old friend of mine. I heard that he had just broken through his cultivation bottleneck at the beginning of the year and became a Level 9 Purifying Spirit Master. He was bestowed the title of Saint Ling Xiao by your country's king. A few days ago, during the battle with Su Xuanye, Saint Ling Xiao received the sacrifice of the Yin Clan's dead souls and his cultivation broke through again. Now, he has already become the Purifying Spirit Master with the highest Purifying Spirit Techniques on the Holy Spirit Continent. Why didn't Prime Emperor Zhengyang look for him to treat him?"

Grantling didn't speak the human language very fluently, so every word was spoken slowly.

Since Caro Xiangfu didn't speak the Purifying Spirit Language, he slowed down his speech and tried his best to communicate with Grantling.

Caro Xiangfu showed a bitter expression and said awkwardly, "To be honest, I personally went to look for Saint Ling Xiao, but unfortunately, his cultivation level has yet to stabilize, so he brought his son to the Broken Cliff to enter seclusion."

Grantling lived in the Light Sea, but she also knew about Broken Cliff.

Grantling revealed a look of admiration. She said, "I also took a trip to the Broken Cliff fifty years ago. There were piles of bones and demonic aura. Saint Ling Xiao went there to enter seclusion in order to break through a few years ago. I didn't expect him to go again after so many years."

"His spirit is really admirable!"

"Yes, Saint Ling Xiao is indeed very impressive."

Grantling asked again, "I wonder what kind of spell Prime Emperor Zhengyang was under?" Previously, Caro Xiangfu had refused to tell the elves about Caro Zhengyang's illness. He stammered, as if he had something he couldn't say.

Now that they were almost at the Caro Clan's floating island, he should be able to explain it.

Caro Xiangfu smiled bitterly before saying, "For some reason, a Demon Fetus was planted in my ancestor's body."

"Demon Fetus!" Shock appeared on Grantling's dignified and elegant face. "How?!"

Grantling had only seen a Demon Fetus in ancient books. She had lived for more than four hundred years but had never seen anyone planted with a Demon Fetus in real life.

Chapter 455: Guess Who Is the Super Monster

Those who could plant a Demon Fetus in a person's body were all powerful super demons. However, in the nearly ten thousand years of the Holy Spirit Continent's history, there had never been a super demon. A terrifying existence like a super demon had only appeared in the Upper World.

What had Prime Emperor Zhengyang done to attract the revenge of a super demonic creature?

Grantling had thought that this trip would definitely go smoothly, but after knowing that Prime Emperor Zhengyang had been planted with a Demon Fetus, she was no longer confident.

Besides, as a Purifying Spirit Master, Grantling believed in the theory of karma. Prime Emperor Zhengyang must have committed some unknown crime to be avenged by that super demonic creature. Otherwise, why would the super demonic creature target him?

Grantling fell silent.

Just as Caro Xiangfu was worried that the old princess would quit and return home, he heard Grantling ask in an ambiguous tone, "I want to ask, is that Demon Fetus growing in Prime Emperor Zhengyang's stomach?"

Caro Xiangfu was stunned for a moment, then nodded and replied matter-of-factly, "Yes. If the Demon Fetus doesn't grow in the stomach, where else can it grow?"

Grantling's eyes lit up slightly. She couldn't hide her excitement as she whispered, "Oh my god, so a man can also have a Demon Fetus in his body. This is really rare."

Caro Xiangfu saw the gossipy look in Grantling's eyes and suddenly had a bad feeling.

He had a feeling that Saint Grantling wasn't very reliable.

However, no matter what, other than Su Xuanye and Lin Jiansheng, Grantling was the strongest Purifying Spirit Master. Caro Xiangfu could only ask her to help Prime Emperor Zhengyang exorcise the demon. If even Saint Grantling couldn't successfully exorcise the Demon Fetus in the ancestor's body, then the ancestor could only give birth to this Demon Fetus.

Caro Xiangfu touched his round stomach and thought happily, 'I really hope that the ancestor will die from childbirth. If he dies, the Caro Clan will be under my control again. I can continue to lead the Caro Clan to accumulate wealth.'

The two of them had their own thoughts. Soon, the aircraft arrived at the island in the sky.

The aircraft circled and landed on the plane platform. The steward beside Caro Zhengyang was already waiting at the plane platform in his car.

Caro Xiangfu opened the back door of the car for Grantling personally. Grantling carried the sides of her dress and got in gracefully. Caro Xiangfu took the initiative to sit in the front passenger seat.

The chief steward personally drove the car to the house next to Caro Zhengyang. "Saint Grantling, you must be tired from the long journey. We have prepared warm water, hot tea, and delicious food for you. You can enjoy them anytime."

"The conditions of an island in the sky can't compare to those of the Light Sea. If we aren't hospitable enough, please forgive us."

"Thank you for your hospitality." After the long journey, Grantling indeed needed a warm bath, a change of clothes, and a taste of the Divine Moon Empire's delicacies.

After the steward settled Grantling down, he saw that Caro Xiangfu was about to slip away. He smiled at Caro Xiangfu and said, "Patriarch, Prime Emperor Zhengyang invites you over."

Caro Xiangfu gave the steward a fake smile.

Heh, after Caro Zhengyang came out of seclusion, his former servant even dared to bully him.

No matter how unwilling Caro Xiangfu was, he had to force himself to see Caro Zhengyang.

As soon as he entered the room, he was hit in the head by an exquisite porcelain teacup that flew towards him. A hole instantly appeared on Caro Xiangfu's forehead and he bled. "Trash! I gave you three days to invite that old woman from the Elve Clan. Look at how many days you've been gone! Half a month!"

In the past half a month, the Demon Fetus had tortured Caro Zhengyang. His stomach was getting bigger and bigger, and he couldn't even wear pants. He wore a loose robe and hid in the house every day, like a pregnant woman.

Caro Zhengyang wanted to kill Caro Xiangfu.

Caro Xiangfu lowered his head and stood at the entrance of the living room. He didn't dare to say anything and had to apologize humbly. "Ancestor, please calm down. It's my fault for not doing my job well. I deserve to be beaten." Blood flowed from Caro Xiangfu's eyes and hung on his eyelashes.

Because of that drop of blood, when Caro Xiangfu looked at him, his gaze was bloodshot.

He stared at the figure through his blood-red vision. It had been half a month since he last saw him, and Caro Zhengyang was indeed pregnant. His old suit could no longer fit him, so he wore a loose robe. He didn't see any pants under the robe.

At the thought of his ancestor's bare legs under his long robe, Caro Xiangfu wanted to laugh.

But could he laugh?

That absolutely couldn't happen. He would die if he laughed.

"You deserve to be beaten!" Caro Zhengyang snorted angrily before walking to the sofa made of jade beast skin and sitting down. The moment he sat down, the bulge under his robe became even more obvious.

Caro Xiangfu stole a glance and quickly lowered his head again.

"Tell me, why were you gone for so long?"

Caro Xiangfu hurriedly explained, "The Light Sea is very far from the Divine Sea. It will take me two days to arrive by aircraft. When I went, unfortunately, the old princess was in seclusion. I knelt in the Elven royal family for five days and five nights before the old princess agreed to come out of seclusion to exorcise you."

Hearing this, Caro Zhengyang was so angry that he threw the cup on the tea table to the ground. "For a group of birds, they're quite pretentious!"

Caro Xiangfu hurriedly lowered his voice and reminded Caro Zhengyang, "Ancestor, you have to watch your words. That old princess is a Level 9 Purifying Spirit Master and can things hear a thousand miles away. You can't say things like 'birds' again."

Because the elves had wings on their backs, they were called bird people by humans.

If the old princess heard Prime Emperor Zheng Yang's words, she would probably even want to overturn the island in the sky, let alone exorcise him.

Caro Zhengyang still had a favor to ask of Princess Grantling. Hearing this, he had to endure it no matter how angry he was.

“Hmph! Get lost!”

Caro Xiangfu quickly slipped away.

In the evening, Grantling took the initiative to mention to the servant in the house that she wanted to exorcise Caro Zhengyang. Seeing that she took the initiative to mention it, the servant hurriedly ran to the next room to inform him.

Soon, the female attendant returned.

“Saint Grantling, Prime Emperor Zhengyang invites you over.”

“Okay.”

Grantling lived next door to Prime Emperor Zhengyang and was only a few steps away.

The butler respectfully welcomed Grantling all the way to the second floor. When they arrived at the door of Prime Emperor Zhengyang’s room, the butler said to Grantling, “Saint, please wait a moment. I’ll go in and report.”

“Okay.”

The steward walked to the door and knocked. When he heard Prime Emperor Zhengyang tell him to enter, he pushed the door open and walked in. “Prime Emperor, the Saint is outside the door.”

Prime Emperor Zhengyang tidied up his robe and sniffed the room. After confirming that there was no strange smell in the room, he said in a low voice, “Please come in.”

The steward hurried out of the room and invited Grantling into the bedroom.

The moment Grantling entered the bedroom, she saw more than twenty pots of Purifying Grass on the floor. She immediately guessed what these herbs were for.

Prime Emperor Zhengyang stood by the window with his back facing Grantling. His tall and straight back almost blocked the sunset outside the window. However, when Grantling thought of the devil fetus in this person’s stomach, she wasn’t in the mood to admire the man.

“Prime Emperor Zhengyang, nice to meet you.”

Caro Zhengyang slowly turned around.

The gentle evening sunlight landed on Caro Zhengyang’s tall and muscular body, as well as his slightly bulging stomach.

Caro Zhengyang’s expression was a little awkward. He sat down in the armchair by the window and said in low spirits, “I’ve embarrassed myself in front of you, Saint.”

“Prime Emperor, you’re being too serious. Although the Demon Fetus is rare, I’ve seen some records about the Demon Fetus in ancient books. Since you trust me and are willing to find me for an exorcism, I will naturally keep your secret.”

When he heard this, the wariness in Caro Zhengyang’s eyes faded a little. “Thank you, Saint.”

He waved at the steward, who bowed and left the bedroom.

Caro Zhengyang took a deep breath and said, "I hope it won't scare you, Saint."

Grantling shook her head. "No."

Caro Zhengyang exhaled with resignation. Only then did he slowly remove the belt of his long robe and open it in front of Grantling, revealing his bulging stomach. Grantling hid the surprise in her eyes and walked to Caro Zhengyang with light footsteps.

She placed her delicate palm on Caro Zhengyang's abdomen. Psychic tentacles surged out of her palm and entered his body through the pores on his abdomen.

Caro Zhengyang was very nervous, but he didn't dare to speak casually.

Grantling closed her eyes and quietly felt the Demon Fetus.

The Demon Fetus was hidden in Caro Zhengyang's stomach. He was squeezing Caro Zhengyang's internal organs and intestines. The Demon Fetus had already transformed into a human body. It sensed the approach of Grantling's spiritual power and suddenly released balls of demonic aura at her.

Grantling immediately calmed down and chanted the curse.

Caro Zhengyang clearly sensed the battle between the Demon Fetus and Grantling. He didn't dare to move at all, and his breathing became tense.

As Grantling's Spirit Purification Incantation was chanted faster and faster, the Demon Fetus struggled faster and faster.

Pure psychic energy wrapped tightly around the Demon Fetus in an attempt to disperse the dense demonic energy in its body. However, that ball of demonic energy was completely unafraid of Grantling's psychic energy! Not only that, but it was also devouring Grantling's psychic energy!

Realizing this change, Grantling immediately opened her eyes and quickly removed her hand from Caro Zhengyang's abdomen.

Seeing that she had suddenly stopped, Caro Zhengyang had a bad feeling. He asked in a low voice, "Saint, can this thing be taken out?"

Grantling stared at Caro Zhengyang with an unfathomable expression. She couldn't hide her surprise as she said, "It's the original body's demonic aura! Prime Emperor Zhengyang, the Demon Fetus in your body isn't an ordinary Demon Fetus. It is the original body's demonic aura that the super demonic creature personally planted in your body. Unless you find the super demonic creature and successfully purify it, the Demon Fetus in your body can't be taken out!"

Caro Zhengyang's expression instantly turned ashen. "Super demonic creature?"

"Yes. Ordinary Demon Fetuses are formed from ordinary demonic energy. Only super demonic creatures can produce such difficult demonic energy. Moreover..." At this point, Grantling suddenly stopped explaining and looked at him with a meaningful expression.

When Caro Zhengyang thought about how difficult it was to take out the Demon Fetus, he immediately felt nauseous and wanted to vomit again.

Chapter 456: Ungrateful ingrate

Caro Zhengyang couldn't help but feel irritated and uncomfortable when he was looked at by Grantling like that. "If the Saint has anything to say, why don't you just say it? There's only you and me here."

Grantling's expression became serious, and the gaze she used to look at Caro Zhengyang lost its warmth. "Prime Emperor Zhengyang, I have a question I have to figure out. You have to answer me truthfully."

Grantling's expression was too grave, which made Caro Zhengyang wary.

Caro Zhengyang asked cautiously, "What do you want to ask?"

Grantling pondered for a moment and organized her words in her mind. She tried her best to say in a calm tone, "Prime Emperor Zhengyang's cultivation level is high. Logically speaking, you should have sensed ordinary demonic energy entering your body. When did Prime Emperor discover the existence of this Demon Fetus?"

Prime Emperor Zhengyang recalled the process of him discovering the existence of the Demon Fetus, and his expression instantly became gloomy.

He rubbed his eyebrows with his right hand and said in frustration, "At first, I didn't notice it either. It was only twenty days ago that I suddenly felt nauseous, uncomfortable, and sleepy. You also know that people at our level rarely fell sick. I suspected that there was something wrong with my body and asked a Healer in my clan to check my body. Only then did I discover the existence of this Demon Fetus."

This Demon Fetus was the most humiliating thing Caro Zhengyang had ever suffered in his life.

Grantling's expression became even more serious.

"Saint? What's going on with this Demon Fetus?" No matter how much Caro Zhengyang looked down on Purifying Spirit Masters, he had to put on a respectful and humble attitude.

Grantling sighed and said, "Only a super demonic creature can create its own demonic aura, and its demonic aura is extremely powerful. You should have realized when such a powerful demonic aura entered your body. Unless..."

Caro Zhengyang opened his eyes and stared at Grantling. There was no warmth in his eyes. "Unless what?"

Grantling looked hesitant, but she told him her analysis. She said, "Unless that super demon is related to you."

Caro Zhengyang's eyes widened. "Blood relations?"

"Yes, only when that super demonic creature is related to you by blood will you be unaware of its aura. Even at your cultivation level, you were still unaware of the existence of this demonic aura. I suspect that that super demonic creature has a deep relationship with you. It's most likely... a father-son relationship."

Caro Zhengyang immediately stood up. "Ridiculous!"

Prime Emperor Zhengyang subconsciously refuted Grantling's conclusion. He said, "Although Long Sha and I have a deep relationship, we don't have any children. Where did the child come from?!"

Faced with Prime Emperor Zhengyang's anger, Grantling reacted calmly.

Grantling asked again, calmly, "Have there been children who were aborted or died at childbirth?"

"No." Prime Emperor Zhengyang sneered and said, "Your guess is wrong. Not to mention that Long Sha and I don't have a child, even if we do, even if that child has become a super demon for some reason, he shouldn't have used such a vicious move on me, his biological father."

"Saint, perhaps you're mistaken."

Caro Zhengyang didn't hide his doubts at all. Grantling was also a little unhappy. She was the old princess of the Elve Clan and a Level 9 Purifying Spirit Master. Why should she be suspected by Caro Zhengyang here?

Grantling was angry, and traces of anger appeared on her dignified and elegant face. "Since Prime Emperor Zhengyang doesn't trust my strength, I'll leave. However, the resentment aura of the Demon Fetus in your body is overbearing. I'm afraid no one in this world can help you except Su Xuanye and Saint Ling Xiao."

Her Purifying Spirit Art was on par with Su Xuanye's. Since Caro Zhengyang had offended her, he could only accept his fate and give birth to this Demon Embryo.

Seeing Grantling's angry look, Caro Zhengyang realized that his attitude was too rude. The person in front of him wasn't only a Purifying Spirit Master, but she was also the mother of the Elven King. With her noble status, how could she tolerate being questioned by a human?

"Saint, I'm sorry. I was rash just now."

Grantling snorted and said, "Instead of questioning my strength here, why don't you think carefully about whether you have done anything evil in your long life? For example, you accidentally had sex with a beauty and caused her to get pregnant, but you heartlessly abandoned her and her son..."

Grantling was just saying that casually.

However, a casual remark might reveal much to an attentive listener.

Caro Zhengyang suddenly remembered something. It was a past from more than seven hundred years...

At that time, his name wasn't Caro Zhengyang, but Meng Qinzhang.

Meng Qinzhang was born into a peasant family in the Cang Lan Empire. When he was young, there were frequent droughts and locust plagues in Cang Lan Empire, causing the crops to be barren. When he was ten years old, another huge flood occurred in Cang Lan Empire. After the flood, the plague wreaked havoc.

Without food and with the plague, many people in Cang Lan Empire fell sick.

Left with no choice, their family could only escape with the others.

On the way to escape, in order to obtain food, his parents trafficked his eight-year-old sister to a hooligan.

They exchanged his sister's life for five steamed buns.

The next morning, Meng Qinzhang woke up and saw his sister's corpse thrown into the grass. Her body was covered in wounds. As he cried, he buried his sister's corpse. However, this wasn't the most terrifying thing. What was even more terrifying was that that night, Meng Qinzhang woke up in the middle of the night and realized that his parents were not sleeping beside him.

He secretly got up and went along the path to look for his parents. However, he saw his parents squatting beside his sister's grave and eating.

This was a horrifying incident from Meng Qinzhang's childhood.

Meng Qinzhang had witnessed his parents' actions. He was afraid that one day, he would suffer the same fate as his sister.

Meng Qinzhang took advantage of the dark and windy night to secretly leave the escape team and went north alone. Along the way, he gnawed on tree bark, dug up tree roots, and ate dirt. After countless hardships, he finally sneaked into the Divine Moon Empire and arrived at a rich city called Myriad Tong City.

There was a kind-hearted richest man in the city. His surname was Yu, and he was famous for being a benevolent person.

Meng Qinzhang lay at the entrance of the Yu family's house on his last breath. When he woke up, he was lying on a small bed in a firewood room in the Yu family's house. The richest man in the Yu family pitied his poor life and took him in as a servant.

When he was 14 years old, Meng Qinzhang awakened his beast form. Mr. Yu was overjoyed and accepted Meng Qinzhang as his adopted son. He even betrothed his only daughter, Yu Pianpian, to him.

At that time, Yu Pianpian was only 13 years old, but she was already the most beautiful woman in the south.

At that time, Meng Qinzhang felt that it was his great fortune to be able to marry Yu Pianpian.

After becoming a Beast Tamer, Meng Qinzhang participated in the Beast Tamer Advanced Academy selection competition and successfully entered the Divine Eagle Academy.

Although the Divine Eagle Academy wasn't as good as the Divine Realm Academy, it was still the second-ranked high school in the Divine Realm Continent. Entering the Divine Eagle Academy was still quite impressive. Mr. Yu was overjoyed. Not only did he pay the tuition to send Meng Qinzhang to the Beast Tamer Academy to cultivate, but he also held a celebration banquet for him.

After entering the academy, Meng Qinzhong cultivated diligently and quickly stood out from the thousands of students. When he was 20 years old, according to his promise, he took a leave to return to Myriad Tong City and married Yu Pianpian, the daughter of the richest man in the city.

The couple spent some time together before Meng Qinzhong returned to the academy to continue studying.

After graduation, Meng Qinzhong was selected by the Caro Clan because of his outstanding abilities. He was recruited into the Caro Clan and became a guest. In order to gain the trust and high regard of Patriarch Caro, Meng Qinzhong took the initiative to change his surname to Caro Zhengyang.

Later...

Later on, he entered a prosperous world. He drank wine that had never been seen in Myriad Tong City, saw beauties that had never been seen in Myriad Tong City, and enjoyed power that Myriad Tong City couldn't have. Gradually, he became mesmerized by this prosperous world.

After that, in order to become superior and obtain power and status, Caro Zhengyang did something treasonous.

On a quiet night, he set fire to the home of his benefactor.

That night, he hid in a tree and personally witnessed the kind person who treated him like his own child being pressed under a burning piece of wood and burned to death. He even personally brought his pregnant wife to a primitive forest and pushed her into the Broken Cliff that was rumored to be impossible to transcend even after death.

Three months later, he returned to the Caro Clan and married the daughter of the Caro Clan's Patriarch. From then on, he lived a good life.

... That was more than seven hundred years ago. If Grantling hadn't mentioned it, Caro Zhengyang would have forgotten his past.

After being Caro Zhengyang for so long, he had almost forgotten about the young man called Meng Qinzhong and the woman called Yu Pianpian.

Seeing Caro Zhengyang's dazed expression, Grantling knew that he had remembered something important. Grantling hurriedly asked, "Prime Emperor Zhengyang, do you remember something?"

Prime Emperor Zhengyang didn't dare to reveal his past.

More than seven hundred years ago, it was precisely because of his birth that the young masters of those aristocratic families looked down on him and thought that he was ungrateful and hypocritical.

Now that so many years had passed, even though those old fellows were dead, Caro Zhengyang still felt guilty.

"Prime Emperor Zhengyang, if you don't want to tell me, then I won't be able to find the identity of that super demonic creature. I'm sorry, but I can't do anything about the demonic fetus in your body." With that, Grantling turned to leave.

“Wait!” Caro Zhengyang sighed heavily and said, “I hope you can keep what I’m about to say a secret for me.”

Grantling rolled her eyes gracefully, but stopped in her tracks. “Don’t worry. It’s our duty to keep secrets for our customers.”

Caro Zhengyang pondered for a moment before telling her about what he had done to his wife and family years ago.

After knowing that Caro Zhengyang had ruthlessly burned his benefactor’s family to death in order to obtain power and status back then, and had even cruelly pushed his wife and soon-to-be-born child off the Broken Cliff, Grantling only wanted to get up and leave.

“When Yu Pianpian fell into the Broken Cliff, that child was probably about to be born. If your analysis is correct, then that super demonic creature is most likely my unborn child.” Caro Zhengyang analyzed, but he felt that it was ridiculous and unbelievable.

He refused to believe that an unborn fetus could survive in a place like the Broken Cliff, which was filled with resentment, and still come back to take revenge on him.

Chapter 457: Kill As Much As You Can

“Well...”

Caro Zhengyang was filled with hesitation. He still felt that Grantling had misjudged.

Caro Zhengyang had lived for hundreds of years. In the era he lived in, the experts of the Holy Spirit Continent were very close to the Upper World. Caro Zhengyang had also heard some legends about super demonic creatures.

Caro Zhengyang said in bewilderment, “I’ve also heard legends about super monsters, but in those legends, those who can cultivate into super monsters from resentment after death were all Beast Tamers with high cultivation levels when they were alive. And my child...”

Caro Zhengyang refused to use the word ‘child’ to mention the fetus that had died in Yu Pianpian’s stomach.

“He was just a fetus. He passed away before he was born. He can’t even be considered a baby. Saint, you’ve given birth before. You should know how weak newborn babies are. How can a child who hasn’t been born become a super monster?”

Grantling also felt that this was too far-fetched.

But...

“But the demonic creature in your body can’t be expelled at all. It’s indeed a powerful wisp of demonic energy, not ordinary demonic energy. The grievous energy of the demonic energy far exceeds that of ordinary small demonic creatures. You haven’t been able to sense the existence of this demonic energy, which means that you are indeed related to this demonic energy by blood. If it’s not your child, could it be your siblings and parents?”

Grantling glanced at Caro Zhengyang strangely and thought, "Could this bastard have killed its parents and siblings too?"

Caro Zhengyang immediately rejected this possibility.

"My parents passed away many years ago. If they wanted to harm me, they would have done so long ago. As for my sister..." Thinking of his sister's tragic ending, Caro Zhengyang sighed and said, "If she wanted to harm someone, she should have harmed my parents."

"I don't know about that," Grantling said. "If the demonic creature wants to inject its main body's demonic energy into your body, it has to have physical contact with you. Prime Emperor, why don't you think about whether you approached anyone with suspicious behavior a few days ago?"

Prime Emperor Zhengyang found everyone suspicious. Even the steward looked detestable.

If he really wanted to find someone suspicious, the world would be filled with suspicious people.

When Grantling saw Caro Zhengyang's reaction, she knew that this tactic was useless. After thinking for a while, she said, "There's a fifth-grade spirit artifact called the Demon Nurturing Pearl that can sense the existence of grievous energy. Once that demonic creature gets close to the Prime Emperor, the Demon Nurturing Pearl will release black grievous energy. However, forging this Demon Nurturing Pearl requires some top-grade materials. I wonder if the Prime Emperor can gather these materials for me."

With that, Grantling sat down behind a table. She took out a quill from her interspatial ring and wrote the name of a row of top-grade materials on a piece of white paper—

Radiant Sun Sacred Flame, Ice Crystal Thread, Vengeful Spirit Grass, Soul Concentrating Grass...

There were more than 20 types scattered around.

Caro Zhengyang took the list and took a look. Although the materials on it were relatively precious, they weren't impossible to find. The spiritual herbs at the back only needed to be bought at a high price. As for the Radiant Sun Sacred Flame and the Ice Crystal Thread, they were relatively rare.

The seed of the Radiant Sun Sacred Flame existed in the Light Sea.

In the middle of the Light Sea, there was an active volcano that had been spewing magma for thousands of years. Every year, at midnight on the 15th of July, a dark purple magma would spew out from the volcano's mouth. There was a volcano seed hidden in this magma.

This seed was wrapped in raging flames that could burn for a hundred years without extinguishing. That was why it was called the Radiant Sun Sacred Flame.

The Radiant Sun Sacred Flame was the same as the Holy Water of Light. They were both holy objects of the elves. Only the royal family had the right to use them. If the Beast Tamers of the other continents wanted to obtain such a treasure, they could only buy it from the royal family of the elves at a high price.

Caro Zhengyang had reason to suspect that Grantling was taking the opportunity to do business. She was trying to get as many customers as she could.

Caro Zhengyang had a favor to ask of Grantling. Not only could he not show his anger, but he also had to smile as he asked Grantling for the seed of the Radiant Sun Sacred Flame.

“Saint, this Radiant Sun Sacred Flame seed was born in an active volcano in the center of the Light Sea, and it only produces one every year. It’s a sacred object of the nobles. I’m willing to use 30 million spirit stones to buy a living seed from you. Saint, are you willing to give me one?”

Grantling thought, “At least you’re discerning!”

The seed of the Radiant Sun Sacred Flame was indeed a treasure. The Elven Royal Family would only part with it when they established diplomatic relations with large countries. Although 30 million spirit stones for a seed of the Radiant Sun Sacred Flame wasn’t cheap, it wasn’t expensive either.

Grantling said pretentiously, “The battle with Su Xuanye is imminent. If you recover early, we will have an additional chance of winning. Although this holy Radiant Sun Sacred Flame seed is precious, how can it compare to the noble body of the Prime Emperor? I’ll be responsible for this holy Radiant Sun Sacred Flame. Prime Emperor, collect the other materials as soon as possible. This way, I can help you forge the Demon Nurturing Pearl as soon as possible.”

“Thank you for your benevolence.”

After he watched Grantling leave, the smile in Caro Zhengyang’s eyes disappeared.

“Call Caro Xiangfu!”

The chief steward quickly called Caro Xiangfu over. Caro Xiangfu had just returned to the house and was talking to his beautiful wife. Before they could hold hands, he received another call from his ancestor.

Caro Xiangfu cursed Caro Zhengyang in his heart, but he still ran over.

“Ancestor, are you looking for me?”

Caro Xiangfu lowered his head and bowed while standing behind Caro Zhengyang. However, his eyes were very lively as he kept glancing at Caro Zhengyang’s stomach.

Realizing that Caro Zhengyang’s stomach was still there and was almost as big as his stomach, Caro Xiangfu instantly became happy. It seemed that the Demon Fetus in his ancestor’s body couldn’t be removed. He was one step closer to the day when his ancestor died from childbirth.

He was feeling more and more anticipation.

“Take this.” Caro Zhengyang handed the list of materials written by Grantling to Caro Xiangfu.

Caro Xiangfu took the list with both hands. He lowered his head and glanced at the famous materials on it. He asked, “Ancestor, these are all materials for forging spirit weapons. Is Saint Grantling going to forge spirit weapons for you?”

“Yes.” Caro Zhengyang couldn’t be bothered to explain the reason to him. He only said, “I’ve already obtained the Radiant Sun Sacred Flame seed. Try to get the rest in a day.”

“... Okay.”

After Caro Xiangfu left with the list, he immediately drove the helicopter to Yufu City.

When he heard that Caro Xiangfu had come to visit, Sheng Lingfeng raised his eyebrows and asked Sheng Zhou, "Did he say why he came?"

"I heard that he wants to ask you for Ice Crystal Thread."

"Ice Crystal Thread." Sheng Lingfeng touched the dark green snake on his wrist and pondered for a moment before saying, "Let him in."

"Okay." Sheng Zhou went to pass the message and met Sheng Xiao, who was coming from the Lovers Lake. "Young Master."

"Senior, where are you going?" Sheng Xiao asked curiously when he saw that Sheng Zhou was in a hurry.

"The patriarch of the Caro Clan is here. He wants to ask you for the Ice Crystal Thread."

Sheng Xiao raised his eyebrows.

Why did Caro Xiangfu want the Ice Crystal Thread?

Chapter 458: Unworthy

After Sheng Zhou left, Sheng Xiao took out his phone and wanted to inform Yu Huang.

On the day of the Battle of the Eight Towers Mountain, more than 13,000 clansmen of the Yin Clan had died. When the clansmen working outside heard the grievous news, they rushed back.

Yu Huang and Ji Linyuan stood at the entrance of Eight Towers Mountain in mourning clothes and personally welcomed the clansmen who had returned to pay their respects.

The Yin Clan had a total of more than 20,000 people. Most of the civilians who stayed in the clan were middle-aged and old people, while the young people were all out adventuring in the world. There were people in business, politics, the military, and people from all walks of life.

When these young people saw the new Patriarch personally standing at the entrance to welcome them, they were all very touched.

They had all heard the rumors about Yu Huang. They all admired and loved Yu Huang. They believed that their young patriarch would definitely grow into an outstanding person like Prime Master Yin Mingjue in the future.

A young man walked in front of Yu Huang. His eyes were red as he choked on his tears and shouted, "Patriarch." The young man kept his head lowered and was too ashamed to face Yu Huang. He hadn't awakened his beast form and was ashamed that he couldn't fight alongside the beast tamers in the clan.

Yu Huang could feel the sorrow and guilt in the young man's heart. She personally folded a piece of mourning cloth and placed it on the young man's head.

Yu Huang patted the young man's shoulder and said, "Live well and continue to glorify the spirit of Yin Clan for your parents and ancestors. Only then can we let their souls rest in peace."

“... Yes. We will!”

After watching the young man leave, Yu Huang heard Ji Linyuan say, “Junior Sister, you’re also promoting the Yin Clan’s spirit on behalf of my mentor. If he knew in the netherworld, he would definitely be able to rest in peace.”

Yu Huang was stunned. She raised her head and looked at the brightest star in the sky above the Yin Clan. She said in a low voice, “This is the inheritance.”

At this moment, Yu Huang’s phone rang.

Yu Huang said to Ji Linyuan, “I’m going to take a call.” She took her phone and walked to a quiet corner. She heard Sheng Xiao ask, “Caro Xiangfu is looking for my father in Yufu City. He wants to ask him for some Ice Crystal Thread. Saint Grantling just arrived at the Divine Sea in the morning. At night, Caro Xiangfu looked for my father to collect materials. What are they doing?”

“Ice Crystal Thread?”

Ice Crystal Thread was an extremely precious material. Usually, it would only be used to forge fourth-grade and above spirit weapons. Thinking of the existence of the Demon Fetus in Caro Zhengyang’s body, Yu Huang immediately guessed the use of this Ice Crystal Thread for the Caro Clan.

“They’re going to forge a grade five spirit artifact, the Demon Nurturing Pearl!”

“Demon Nurturing Pearl?” Sheng Xiao wasn’t a Purifying Spirit Master. He was unfamiliar with such a spiritual weapon. He asked, “What’s the use of the Demon Nurturing Pearl?”

“The Demon Nurturing Pearl is similar to the Spirit Nurturing Drum that you bought at the Golden Auction in Rakshasa Empire. The Spirit Nurturing Drum can nurture souls, while the Demon Nurturing Pearl can nurture demons. Similarly, the Demon Nurturing Pearl can also sense the existence of demons.”

After thinking for a while, Yu Huang said, “From the looks of it, Saint Grantling is unable to remove the Demon Fetus for Caro Zhengyang. She plans to forge the Demon Nurturing Pearl and find the super demonic creature behind the Demon Fetus.”

The news that Prime Emperor Zhengyang was unwell had long been spread. Caro Xiangfu personally came to Yufu City to ask Sheng Lingfeng for the Ice Crystal Thread. Whether it was out of morality or family relationship, Sheng Lingfeng couldn’t reject his request.

Once Grantling successfully forged the Demon Nurturing Pearl, Prime Emperor Zheng Yang would discover that Kong Qing was a super demonic creature sooner or later. At that time, Kong Qing’s life would definitely be in danger.

Sheng Xiao was in a difficult position. He was definitely biased towards Kong Qing emotionally. He hoped that his father wouldn’t give the Ice Crystal Thread to Caro Xiangfu. However, as the young master of the Sheng family, being on good terms with the Caro family would only be more beneficial to the Sheng family. He shouldn’t ask his father to reject his request.

Seeing that Sheng Xiao didn't say anything, Yu Huang could guess what he was thinking. She smiled calmly and told Sheng Xiao, "You don't have to be troubled. Since Kong Qing dared to do this, he doesn't care that he will be discovered. Besides, Grantling might not be able to deal with Kong Qing."

Furthermore, Lin Jiansheng had Kong Qing's back.

"Okay."

Sheng Xiao had just hung up when he saw Caro Xiangfu walking into the small courtyard under Sheng Zhou's lead.

Sheng Xiao hid in the dark and watched Caro Xiangfu enter his father's study. Then, he walked into the Soul Hall.

Seeing that he was heading towards the Soul Hall, Sheng Zhou chased after him.

The Soul Hall was a small tower. There were more than a thousand soul lamps emitting different spiritual lights in the tower. Each lamp represented a Beast Tamer. There were Sheng Xiao's and Yu Huang's.

Sheng Xiao's mother's soul lamp was also in the tower. The soul lamp had been extinguished, but Sheng Lingfeng didn't take it away. He believed that the day when Lan Yao's soul lamp would be lit again would come.

Sheng Yang's soul lamp was placed below Lan Yao's soul lamp.

Sheng Yang had been missing for more than ten days, and the soul lamp that belonged to her had always been lit.

Sheng Xiao stared at his sister's soul lamp and frowned. He felt frustrated.

Sheng Zhou came behind Sheng Xiao. He stared at Sheng Yang's soul lamp and said softly, "I come to the Soul Hall every morning and night. I only feel at ease when I see her soul lamp lit."

Wasn't Sheng Xiao the same?

Sheng Xiao suddenly turned around and asked Sheng Zhou, "Do you like Yang Yang?"

Sheng Zhou looked up at Sheng Xiao. He didn't admit it, but he didn't deny it either.

Sheng Xiao suddenly snorted. "Eldest Senior Brother, if you don't even have the courage to admit that you like someone, you might as well give up early on." Then, he turned around and looked down at Sheng Zhou. He said dotingly, "Although my sister isn't a top genius, in my eyes, she is good in every way. She deserves to be liked by a brave and outstanding boy."

When he heard that, Sheng Zhou's expression instantly became ashamed. He clenched his fists and said in a hoarse voice, "But I'm twenty years older than her. She's the little princess of the Sheng family, and I'm just an orphan. I'm not worthy of her."

Sheng Xiao sneered. "You're indeed unworthy of her." After a pause, Sheng Xiao said mercilessly, "Because you're cowardly."

Cowardly.

Sheng Zhou felt crushed. He felt even more ashamed.

When Sheng Xiao came out of Soul Hall, he happened to meet Caro Xiangfu. However, Caro Xiangfu was in a hurry and didn't notice Sheng Xiao.

Sheng Xiao arrived at Sheng Lingfeng's study. Without waiting for him to ask, Sheng Lingfeng said, "Caro Xiangfu ran to the Light Sea and invited Saint Grantling of the Elven Royal Family to exorcise Prime Emperor Zhengyang. Saint Grantling thinks that the Demon Fetus in Prime Emperor Zhengyang's body isn't an ordinary demon, but the demonic energy of a super demon."

"I heard that the Demon Nurturing Pearl can sense the existence of super demonic creatures. Grantling plans to forge a fifth-grade spirit artifact, the Demon Nurturing Pearl."

Chapter 459: Mountain Collapse, Corpses Everywhere

Sheng Xiao asked, "Did you give it to him?"

"The battle is imminent. After Prime Emperor Zhengyang recovers, we will have a higher chance of winning." The decisive battle at the Broken Cliff will be a life or death battle. They needed Prime Emperor Zhengyang's help.

"Yes." Sheng Xiao continued, "The Yin family is holding a funeral for the deceased people tonight. I have to go there. I'll get going first."

When Sheng Xiao reached the door of the study, he suddenly realized that there was a spiritual wall in front of him. The spiritual wall blocked his way. Sheng Xiao turned to look at Sheng Lingfeng, who was behind the desk. He was puzzled. "Father? What are you doing?"

Sheng Lingfeng looked up at him and suddenly said, "That child called Kong Qing is a super monster, right?"

Sheng Xiao's eyes widened. "Father, why do you ask?"

Sheng Lingfeng took out a pack of cigarettes from the drawer. He tore open the membrane and took out two cigarettes. Sheng Lingfeng lit his own cigarette and threw the other cigarette to Sheng Xiao.

Sheng Xiao wasn't addicted to cigarettes. He would only smoke one when he was annoyed.

He held the cigarette under his nose and sniffed it before biting it. He lit it and took a light puff before walking to the windowsill.

Sheng Xiao listened to Sheng Lingfeng in silence.

Sheng Lingfeng said, "Lin Jiansheng isn't the kind of person who would have an affair with a woman. If he really wanted to do it, illegitimate children would have been everywhere. He went to the Broken Cliff to enter seclusion and came back with a child. That child has a huge appetite, but he hasn't grown taller in the past six months..."

This was very suspicious.

Sheng Lingfeng exhaled a mouthful of smoke. He held the cigarette between his fingers and looked at Sheng Xiao. "That child came from the Broken Cliff. He's not human, right?"

Sheng Xiao blinked. His curly eyelashes fluttered as he blinked.

He didn't say anything. He took a deep puff of the cigarette and blew it out the open window. A butterfly on the peach tree danced and left him. Sheng Xiao stared at the butterfly that was running away in panic. He heard Sheng Lingfeng ask, "That child is that super monster, right?"

Sheng Xiao closed his eyes.

Old fox.

No wonder his mother always said that his father was a sly old fox. Sheng Xiao didn't answer the question directly. He turned to look at Sheng Lingfeng and suddenly said, "Father, you have the answer in your heart, but you still gave the Ice Crystal Thread away. Do you want that child to die?"

Sheng Lingfeng emphasized, "That's not a child. It's a demon."

Sheng Xiao retorted, "My mother isn't a human, but a demon too."

Sheng Lingfeng narrowed his eyes and asked Sheng Xiao unhappily, "Are you condemning me?"

Sheng Xiao said nothing.

Sheng Lingfeng suddenly smiled again. He pressed the unfinished cigarette into the ashtray and lowered his head. "When Caro Xiangfu came to see me today, he mentioned something."

Sheng Xiao asked, "What is it?"

"He said, It's a pity that Saint Ling Xiao went to Broken Cliff to enter seclusion. Otherwise, with his ability, he would definitely be able to get rid of that Demon Fetus easily. However, Saint Ling Xiao dotes on that child of his a lot. He takes him away wherever he goes and he doesn't even go to school. Those who know will say that he dotes on the child. Those who don't know will think that his child is a dangerous creature that will cause trouble if he isn't by his side."

The corners of Sheng Lingfeng's mouth twitched. "These are his words."

Sheng Xiao's expression finally changed. "Is Caro Xiangfu suspecting Kong Qing?"

"Yes. That child has never grown tall or chubby. How can he not be suspicious? However, Caro Xiangfu clearly has a suspect, but he didn't tell his ancestor about this. It can be seen that he and Prime Emperor Zhengyang aren't on good terms."

After saying that, Sheng Lingfeng waved at Sheng Xiao. "Get lost. Your mother should rest."

Sheng Xiao glanced at the dark green snake on Sheng Lingfeng's wrist. The corners of his mouth twitched as he walked away.

Sheng Lingfeng coughed and said unhappily, "Rude kid, why didn't you say goodbye to your mother before you left?"

Sheng Xiao stopped and said to the little snake, "Mom, I'll get going first."

Sheng Lingfeng pressed the little snake's head with a finger and nodded. Then, he imitated Lan Yao's tone. "Get lost. I'm annoyed with you."

Sheng Xiao smiled and left.

Caro Xiangfu quickly gathered all the materials needed to forge the Demon Nurturing Bead and prepared three sets before handing them to Grantling.

Grantling spent two days in the small building and damaged two sets of raw materials before she successfully forged the Demon Nurturing Pearl. With a tired expression, she opened the door and handed the trained Demon Nurturing Pearl to Caro Xiangfu, who was waiting outside.

"When the super demonic creature appears, the Demon Nurturing Bead will release black grievous energy. Let the Prime Emperor carry this Demon Nurturing Bead with him. As long as the super demonic creature gets close to him, he will be able to sense it within five miles of him."

"Alright, thank you, Saint Grantling."

Caro Xiangfu asked someone to serve Grantling while he held the jade box containing the bead with both hands and walked towards Prime Emperor Zhengyang's house next door.

There was only a small garden between the two small buildings. It usually only took Caro Xiangfu half a minute to pass through this garden. However, today, he shuttled through the winding path in the garden for a few minutes, but he could only see the house and couldn't walk out of the garden.

Caro Xiangfu realized that she had walked into someone else's barrier.

How powerful was someone to be able to silently set up a barrier beside Prime Emperor Zhengyang?

Caro Xiangfu felt a chill down his spine.

Oh no. Before his ancestor died from childbirth, he would die first.

Caro Xiangfu subconsciously wanted to touch his stomach, but when he lowered his head, he realized that the Demon Nurturing Bead in the jade box was actually releasing black grievous energy!

That super demon was nearby!

Caro Xiangfu's heart skipped a beat. He braced himself and shouted, "Sir?"

At this moment, waves of rich grievous energy spread in the garden. Soon, the sun above Caro Xiangfu's head was completely enveloped by grievous energy. Caro Xiangfu was surrounded by grievous energy, and he couldn't see his fingers. This made him panic.

Light footsteps came from the thick fog.

Caro Xiangfu heard a commotion and looked up to see a shadow.

The figure was very short and looked like a child in his early teens. When he saw the figure of the super demonic creature, Caro Xiangfu's gaze flickered. This child's appearance looked very similar to the child called Kong Qing!

Could his guess be right? Was Kong Qing really a super demonic creature that grew in the Broken Cliff?

The demonic creature finally walked in front of Caro Xiangfu. He raised his head and smiled at Caro Xiangfu. He said softly, "Old fatty, let's make a deal, okay?"

Caro Xiangfu was speechless.

Old fatty my *ss!

Staring at Kong Qing's face, which was similar to Lin Jiansheng's, he sighed. "...It's indeed you."

Caro Xiangfu didn't expect his suspicions to be true.

Kong Qing smiled and said, "Are you very surprised? Didn't you suspect my identity long ago? Didn't you deliberately wait here for me to find you?" Caro Xiangfu had long suspected Kong Qing's identity. He deliberately revealed his suspicion to Sheng Lingfeng but didn't tell his ancestor. He was sending a message to Kong Qing through Sheng Lingfeng.

He was telling Kong Qing—

He knew that he was a super demonic creature, but he didn't tell the ancestor about this because he wanted to cooperate with him.

Kong Qing's body suddenly disappeared bit by bit, and he turned into a huge black fog.

The black fog completely enveloped Caro Xiangfu. In the black fog, Kong Qing's voice sounded again. "Caro Xiangfu, you want to use me to kill your ancestor, right?"

Hearing this, Caro Xiangfu, whose face was filled with fear a second ago, suddenly calmed down.

There was no longer any panic on his face.

Caro Xiangfu smiled mysteriously and asked, "Then, I wonder if you are willing to cooperate with me?"

"Heh!" Kong Qing transformed back into a human child. He sat on Caro Xiangfu's shoulder and hugged Caro Xiangfu's fat head with both hands.

Kong Qing laid on Caro Xiangfu's head and said, "I know why you hate Caro Zhengyang so much. It's because you discovered his secret."

Caro Xiangfu's expression didn't change as he pretended to be calm and asked, "Oh yeah? What secret?"

Kong Qing suddenly changed the topic and said, "Do you think I don't know the real reason why you spent so much money to build an island in the Divine Sea and led your entire clan to relocate?"

Caro Xiangfu asked, "Oh yeah? What do you think it is?"

Kong Qing's voice entered his mind through Caro Xiangfu's ears. He said, "Because too many wronged souls are buried under Caro Clan's former residence! There are so many that you don't even dare to live in that old residence."

The smile on Caro Xiangfu's face gradually disappeared.

Kong Qing continued, "The reason why your ancestor was able to become a Prime Emperor was because he was a demonic cultivator. He relied killing thousands of Beast Tamers to break through to the Prime Emperor cultivation level! You were afraid that Prime Emperor Zhengyang's secret would be discovered by others, afraid that the reputation of the Caro Clan would be ruined, and even more afraid that the Caro Clan would become a sinner! Therefore, you wanted to cooperate with me and kill Caro Zhengyang!"

"Am I right?"

When he heard this, the muscles on Caro Xiangfu's fat face twitched. "How, how did you know?!"

"If you don't want others to know, don't do it!"

Kong Qing laughed loudly, and his voice became more and more distant. The mist surrounding Caro Xiangfu also instantly dissipated.

Caro Xiangfu stood in the garden and looked up to see the sun.

At this moment, he suddenly saw a slightly plump youth running towards him with a pale face.

"Father!" Caro Xianle stopped in front of Caro Buddha. He wiped his cold sweat and said anxiously, "It rained heavily in the Imperial Dragon City for five consecutive days. A mudslide collapsed on the mountain where our old residence is."

Caro Xianle took a deep breath and continued, "What's scary is that after the mountain collapsed, thousands of beheaded skeletons appeared under the old residence! After receiving the news, the prince personally led his troops to the Imperial Dragon City. The other families also rushed over after hearing the news to investigate the identities of those beheaded skeletons!"

"Dad, why are there so many skeletons hidden under our old residence?!"

When he heard this, Caro Xiangfu's legs went weak and he sat on the ground.

"It's over!"

Chapter 460: Ancestor, Bad News!

Thousands of headless corpses appeared under the former residence. This wasn't good news for the Caro Clan.

If things went wrong, the Caro Clan's thousand years of glory would be ruined.

Caro Xianle was delighted to see that his father's first reaction when he heard this news wasn't shock, but panic. He had a bad feeling. From his father's reaction, he clearly knew about this long ago!

Caro Xianle looked quite similar to his father, Caro Xiangfu. At this moment, when he saw that his father's reaction wasn't right, his chubby face revealed an anxious expression. "Dad! Do you know something?"

"It's over!" Caro Xiangfu didn't explain anything. He picked up the Demon Nurturing Pearl on the ground, picked up the jade box, and ran towards Caro Zhengyang's house.

"Ancestor!"

Caro Xiangfu ran upstairs quickly. Because he was too flustered, he accidentally tripped on the stairs and fell. Caro Xiangfu couldn't care less about this. He got up and continued to run upstairs. As he ran, he shouted, "Ancestor! Something bad happened!"

Without waiting for the steward to report, Caro Xiangfu rudely pushed the door open and rushed in.

In the room, Caro Zhengyang was retching while hugging a trash can.

The Demon Fetus tortured him so much that he wouldn't stop until he vomited at least a few times a day.

At this moment, Caro Xiangfu rushed in recklessly and even witnessed him vomiting. Caro Zhengyang felt ashamed. In a fit of anger, he slapped Caro Xiangfu without thinking. This slap pushed Caro Xiangfu and smashed a mirror behind him.

"Ouch!"

Caro Xiangfu fell to the ground. The Demon Nurturing Pearl rolled along the floor to Caro Zhengyang's feet.

Caro Zhengyang bent down and picked up the Demon Nurturing Pearl. He raised it to the spot where the sunlight was intense and shone it.

"Can this thing really sense the existence of that super demonic creature?" Caro Zhengyang expressed his doubts.

At this moment, he still didn't know about the changes in his former residence. He was focused on how to find the super demonic creature and take out the Demon Fetus.

Caro Xiangfu held onto the wall and slowly stood up. He let out a soft hiss and waited for the pain to subside before saying, "It should be useful." He still didn't reveal to Caro Zhengyang that he had seen Kong Qing just now.

Caro Zhengyang snorted and strung the Demon Nurturing Pearl with a black line. He hung it on his clothes as an accessory.

After doing all of this, Caro Zhengyang looked at Caro Xiangfu coldly and asked angrily, "Why are you so flustered?"

"Ancestor, something big has happened!"

"What happened? Su Xuanye came to the door?" Other than that, Caro Zhengyang couldn't think of anything else.

"It's even worse than this!" Caro Xiangfu pressed his aching ribs and slowly walked to Caro Zhengyang. Smelling the sour smell of vomit, Caro Xiangfu silently stopped in his tracks to avoid getting too close to Caro Zhengyang.

"Ancestor." Caro Xiangfu lowered his voice and said, "The Imperial Dragon City has been in heavy rain for five days. The Imperial Dragon Mountain that we once lived in collapsed!"

When he heard this, Caro Zhengyang's expression suddenly changed, and he stood up to grab Caro Xiangfu's body. His tall and muscular body had long been tortured by the Demon Fetus to the point that he was as thin as a match, but he was still extremely strong. He casually lifted Caro Xiangfu and brought him in front of him.

Caro Zhengyang's face approached Caro Xiangfu. He gritted his teeth and asked, "What about the things below? Are they all out?"

Caro Xiangfu looked at Caro Zhengyang and saw that his eyes were gradually turning red. He was so frightened that he didn't dare to move. He was afraid that if he angered him, he would be killed.

Caro Xiangfu said carefully, "I heard, I heard that after the collapse, countless corpses appeared under the Imperial Dragon Mountain. Now, the royal army and the various families are rushing to the Imperial Dragon City. Ancestor, I'm afraid that matter can't be hidden anymore."

As soon as he finished speaking, Caro Xiangfu was kicked out of the room by Caro Zhengyang.

Caro Xiangfu's body flew out of the door and his back hit the wall opposite the corridor outside the door. The huge impact caused him to break through the wall.

Caro Xiangfu flew out of the house before landing on a tree.

Caro Xianle saw his father being kicked out of the house by his ancestor in a fit of anger. He couldn't be bothered to ask further and hurriedly climbed up the tree to save his father from the tree. At this moment, the steward in charge of serving Caro Zhengyang also ran back in his car.

He didn't look at Caro Xiangfu and went straight to Caro Zhengyang's room.

When the steward arrived upstairs and saw the mess on the ground and the angry Prime Emperor, he was so frightened that he immediately knelt on the ground and pressed his head as close to the ground as possible since he was afraid that he would anger the Prime Emperor.

Although he was afraid of the Prime Emperor, the steward still braced himself and explained his intentions. "Prime Emperor! The mountain of your former residence collapsed, and the corpses in the underground city floated up. Fu Yu'an just called and said that the alliance wants to invite you out of the mountain to the Imperial Dragon Mountain!"

Regardless of whether those thousands of dead people were killed by the Caro Clan or not, the Caro Clan wouldn't be able to escape responsibility if they were discovered underground. As the president of the Beast Tamer Alliance, a Prime Emperor, and the ancestor of the Caro Clan, Caro Zhengyang should go to the scene to investigate the truth and accept the blame of the entire cultivation world.

Even if the prince committed a crime, he would be punished like a commoner, let alone when he was just the President of the Alliance!

Caro Zhengyang's expression was dark as he muttered in a low voice, "How can it be so coincidental?" It was as if someone had deliberately overthrown Imperial Dragon Mountain and deliberately exposed him.

The Imperial Dragon City was located in the central and northern plains of the Divine Moon Empire. The Imperial Dragon Mountain was the only tall mountain in the Imperial Dragon City. The Caro Clan had once stood on this mountain for nearly two thousand years. It was only more than a hundred years ago that under the leadership of Caro Xiangfu, the entire clan moved to the floating island.

Although the Caro Clan had already moved, the former residence of the Caro Clan, the Imperial Dragon Mountain, was still the sacred mountain in the hearts of the people of the Imperial Dragon City.

There was a temple on Imperial Dragon Mountain that worshiped Caro Pangan, the founder of the Caro Clan. He was also a god in the hearts of the people of the Central North Plains.

More than two thousand years ago, the Divine Realm Continent was in chaos and there were constant wars everywhere. A super demonic beast, the Black Mane Wolf, had once appeared in the Central North Plains. The Black Mane Wolf had done many evil things and swallowed many commoners. The commoners couldn't stand it.

At that moment, Caro Pangan appeared.

Caro Pangan wasn't from the Holy Spirit Continent. He was a monk from the Upper World who had come to the Holy Spirit Continent to travel. Seeing that the people of the Central North Plains were persecuted by the Black Mane Wolf and didn't even dare to leave their homes, Caro Pangan couldn't bear to see them suffer, so he attacked the Black Mane Wolf.

The Black Mane Wolf was a rare level 10 demon beast. Its strength was comparable to that of a Prime Master, but Caro Pangan was only a Grand Master.

Caro Pangan fought a fierce battle with the Black Mane Wolf. In the end, he sealed the Black Mane Wolf permanently in the Imperial Dragon Mountain at the cost of losing his arm. In order to prevent the Black Mane Wolf from breaking free from the seal and continuing to harm the human world, Caro Pangan stayed in the Imperial Dragon Mountain.

After hearing the legend of Caro Pangan, many Beast Tamers rushed over from afar to acknowledge him as their master.

Over time, the Caro Clan was born.

After Caro Pangan passed away, he asked his disciples to seal his body in a mud statue and place it on the top of the Imperial Dragon Mountain to suppress the Black Mane Wolf forever. Because of this, more than a hundred years ago, when Caro Xiangfu moved, he was opposed by the elders.

The elders all insisted on one principle: unless the Imperial Dragon Mountain fell, the Caro Clan would never move.

However, Caro Xiangfu still persuaded them successfully and led the Caro Clan out of their former residence and towards the Divine Sea.

Unexpectedly, Imperial Dragon Mountain really fell.

In the past, the Imperial Dragon Mountain was a tall building with a majestic aura.

The current Imperial Dragon Mountain was like a tall building that had collapsed, leaving only ruins on the ground.

When they heard that the Imperial Dragon Mountain had fallen, the citizens living in the Imperial Dragon City drove to the foot of the mountain in the rain. When they arrived, the military helicopter had already arrived and was circling in the sky.

Seeing the nearby civilians come over, Mo Yelou ordered his subordinates, "Send someone to surround the collapsed area. Don't let the civilians approach. Be careful of a second collapse!"

"Yes!"

The soldiers quickly formed a circle and surrounded the Imperial Dragon Mountain to prevent the commoners from approaching it.

The Imperial Dragon Mountain was the sacred mountain in the hearts of the people of the Imperial Dragon City. Every year, during the grand festival, they would go to the temple on the mountain to pray to Pangan.

But their sacred mountain had fallen!

The god they believed in had also been destroyed!

An old man leaned on his walking stick and looked up at the pile of wasteland. He shouted sorrowfully, "The statue of High Monk Pangan has fallen, and the Imperial Dragon Mountain has also collapsed. This is an ominous sign! That Black Mane Wolf might break through the seal and cause calamity!"

"The Imperial Dragon Mountain has fallen. I'm afraid a disaster is imminent!"

Beatrice's military boots stepped on the sticky soil. She walked to the old man and said with a cold expression, "Whether it's an ominous sign or not doesn't matter for now, but if you don't go home and take a hot bath, you will definitely fall sick in bed."

The old man glared at Beatrice and muttered, "You're quite beautiful, female soldier. Why are your words so harsh?"

Beatrice sneered and said to her subordinate, "No civilians are allowed to approach the collapsed scene. Send them away!"

"Yes, Your Highness!"

Beatrice said to another subordinate, "Seal the scene!"

"Yes, Your Highness!"

The national army had just sealed the scene when they saw the Yin Clan's people arrive at the Imperial Dragon Mountain first. The people who came were Yu Huang and Ji Linyuan.

Following closely behind were Liuli Xiangsi, Liuli Luoluo, and Liuli Xiangsi's son, Liuli Shao. After a while, Sheng Lingfeng rushed over with his son, Sheng Xiao, and his eldest disciple, Sheng Zhou.

Sheng Xiao saw that Yu Huang wasn't holding an umbrella. She was only wearing a black cloak over her red dress. He walked behind Yu Huang silently and raised the Dragon Sword in his hand. The Dragon Sword turned into a pure black umbrella and shielded Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao from the storm.

Yu Huang looked up at Sheng Xiao and moved closer to him.
