

She Shocks 691

Chapter 691: Godfather, You Did It (1)

She Ying smelled the flesh of the black fox being burned. Her heart ached and she cried. "Little fox!" She Ying shouted at the little fox in despair. Seeing that the little fox had already been burned into a fireball, she ignored the heat of the flames and pounced at the huge net without hesitation.

"Little fox, I'm here to save you!"

Those slender hands firmly held the burning net.

When her fingers touched the huge net, the skin on She Ying's fingertips was instantly burned and flames quickly appeared.

She Ying used her spiritual power to pull the thread of the huge net. However, the Prime Master's net was formed by the spiritual power of many Prime Masters and Grand Masters. No matter how strong She Ying was, it was difficult for her to break it alone.

She pulled it a few times, but saw that the net was extremely sturdy and couldn't be broken at all. She immediately broke down. "Little Fox, I can't break this thread! I can't break it!" She Ying was so anxious that tears flowed down her face. She, who loved to be beautiful, didn't even care that her clothes and hair had been burned to ashes by the heat wave.

She looked like a fireball.

Mo Xiao could vaguely hear She Ying crying anxiously. He opened his eyes with great effort and saw a woman wrapped in fire.

It was She Ying.

If he had known that She Ying would wake up midway, he would have increased the dosage.

"Yingying..." Mo Xiao's voice was too weak for She Ying to hear.

She Ying couldn't pull open the net no matter what. She felt anxious and impatient. She began to punch and kick the huge net. As she kicked, she scolded, "These despicable Beast Tamers, if you die, I will definitely massacre the Holy Spirit Continent and make them pay the price!"

At this moment, the flames on the huge net were extinguished.

She Ying saw that the fox in the huge net had been burned until its skin and flesh were torn apart. If not for the weak spiritual power protecting its body, Mo Xiao would have probably been burned into charcoal.

She Ying still wanted to see clearly, but the huge net turned into a hurricane eye again.

The hurricane placed She Ying outside and trapped Mo Xiao inside.

The hurricane kept blowing through Mo Xiao's wounds. The pain of his bones being dismembered by the wind blades repeatedly tortured Mo Xiao.

Mo Xiao could feel his vitality rapidly depleting.

He knew that he couldn't survive this.

As Mo Xiao resisted the hurricane, he reached out and pulled off the spiritual chain on his neck. When the hurricane stopped, countless slender tree roots entered Mo Xiao's body and quickly entered his heart through his blood vessels.

Before his heart was pierced, Mo Xiao extended his fox claw towards She Ying.

Before She Ying could hold the claw, it fell weakly.

She Ying hurriedly caught Mo Xiao's falling body. She held the key and suddenly realized that transparent snow had landed on the key.

Snow?

Snow was pure white, not transparent.

Everyone looked up at the sky.

They saw clean, translucent energy bodies that made people feel refreshed. They condensed into snowflakes and landed in every corner of the continent.

Divine Realm Continent, Ice Domain Continent, Blazing Domain Continent, Jade Illusion Continent, Hundred Beast Continent, Light Sea, Xixia Sea, Divine Sea...

In the five continents and three seas, 443 countries, be it the cold or hot places, all had this strange snow descending.

When this snow landed in the human world, many people who were already more than 18 years old suddenly sensed a strange and unprecedented energy appear in their bodies.

There were young people, middle-aged people, and even white-haired old people.

Discovering this force, these people closed their eyes one after another and carefully sensed that force. Soon, the first spiritual light appeared on the continent, then the second, then the third, the fourth...

The colorful spiritual light made the Holy Spirit Continent appear dazzling.

When Yu Huang arrived at the Alliance Building, it happened to be snowing. She floated in the sky and looked down at the spiritual energy light beam that suddenly erupted from the city. Her eyes suddenly welled up with tears.

"Godfather, you did it..."

Sheng Lingfeng felt countless newborn spiritual energy auras suddenly appear in Jingd. He was stunned for a moment before saying in shock, "Someone has awakened their beast form! No!" He shook his head and shouted excitedly, "Many people have awakened their beast form at the same time!"

At the same time, Xuanyuan Shen heard that person roar in despair again. "Mo Xiao! I'll dig up the graves of your eighteen generations of ancestors!"

Chapter 692: Godfather, You Did It (2)

"How could this be?! Why would so many people awaken their beast form at the same time?! This is really unprecedented!" Everyone found it unbelievable.

As soon as Mo Xiao died, strange snow fell on the Holy Spirit Continent. Then, many people awakened their beast forms at the same time. This...

Who would believe that all of this had nothing to do with Mo Xiao?

At this moment, Sheng Lingfeng discovered Yu Huang's figure. He thought of Yu Huang's abnormal behavior yesterday morning and realized that Yu Huang might know what had happened. He shouted at Yu Huang, "Ah Huang! What's going on?! Tell me, what is this snow?!"

Hearing this, everyone raised their heads to look at Yu Huang.

"What is it?" Yu Huang smiled sadly. She flew to She Ying's side and stared sadly at the charred black nine-tailed fox in She Ying's arms.

Tears streamed down Yu Huang's face as she said, "That's not snow. That's the luck of the Holy Spirit Continent. Prime Master Mo Xiao was not the murderer. He was just an unlucky array core that was used by the heavens." With that said, Yu Huang looked at Dongfang Xiagui and said, "Senior Dongfang Sile was my Godfather's best friend. He indeed died because of my Godfather, but the person who killed him was not my Godfather, but the heavens!"

"The heavens?" Dongfang Xiagui, Sheng Lingfeng, and the others all revealed blank expressions. "Who is the heavens?"

Did the heavens really exist in this world?

Yu Huang told them, "The heavens is the god who created the Holy Spirit Continent! When a Beast Tamer successfully comprehends the power of the Divine Master and successfully creates a brand new world, he can break through the highest realm and become a supreme Divine Master. However, as long as one is human, it is impossible for one to live forever. Even Divine Masters will eventually die of old age or from injuries."

"The god that created our world was unwilling to die. He secretly hid in our world and tried to use the Luck Seizing Array to snatch the providence of our world to achieve the goal of resurrection!"

"As for this Luck Seizing Array, you have to choose six array points and bury a Prime Master bone at each array point to form a skeleton array. Then, you have to choose a living Prime Master bone as the array core to activate the Luck Seizing Array."

Yu Huang told Dongfang Xiagui and Bai Xi with tears in her eyes, "That bastard took Prime Master Mo Xiao's body a few years ago and killed Senior Dongfang Sile and Senior Bai Zhenzhen with his appearance. Prime Master Mo Xiao spent decades trying to break free from his control. However, Prime Master Mo Xiao didn't know the exact method of operating the Luck Seizing Array. It was only when Prime Master Fu Tian's corpse was discovered last year that he deduced the location of the other three array points according to the burial grounds of Prime Master Fu Tian, Senior Dongfang Sile, and Senior Bai Zhenzhen."

"It was also because of this that Mo Xiao discovered that he was the array core chosen by the heavens. Later, he suspected that the reason there were fewer and fewer Beast Tamers on the continent was perhaps because of the weakening of providence. He realized that the heavens was absorbing the providence of the continent through his array core. Therefore..."

Yu Huang cried miserably and almost couldn't finish her sentence.

She looked at Mo Xiao's corpse sadly and sobbed as she said, "In order to ruin the revival plan of the heavens and to restore the luck of the Holy Spirit Continent, Prime Master Mo Xiao deliberately sent people to the Fire Spring Mountain Range and the Blue Lake Glacier to find the corpses of Senior Dongfang Sile and Senior Bai Zhenzhen..."

"Don't you understand?" Yu Huang wiped her tears haphazardly. She cried and roared, "He died willingly! Even without this bullsh*t net, he wouldn't have escaped today! From the moment he let people discover Senior Dongfang Sile's skeleton, he was prepared to die!"

After Yu Huang told the truth, the entire city instantly fell silent.

The snow of providence fell.

On the continent, more and more spiritual energy beams were lit up.

The Holy Spirit Continent was unprecedentedly prosperous.

Sheng Lingfeng's eyes were filled with tears. He clenched his fists and said hoarsely, "...This... This isn't true..." He refused to admit that this was the truth.

Dongfang Xiagui even threw down the knife in his hand and staggered back. He shook his head and said, "Impossible, you're lying to us! You and Prime Master Mo Xiao are Godfather and daughter. You made up these excuses to deceive us. This can't be true..."

This could not be true. Mo Xiao was a heinous bad person!

He was the murderer of his great-grandfather!

Dongfang Xiagui didn't dare to admit that this was the truth.

At this moment, the Snake Clan's Bai Xi and the others were also shocked.

"You guys don't believe me?" Yu Huang laughed mockingly. She pointed in the direction of the Light Sea and roared angrily, "If you don't believe me, you can go to the trench in the demonic cave of the Light Sea and see if there's a Prime Master bone from thousands of years ago hidden in the depths of the trench! Then, go to the Sleeping Island of the Jade Illusion Continent to dig and see if there's a Prime Master bone hidden under it!"

“The demonic cave, Sleeping Island, Broken Cliff, the Fire Spring Mountain Range, the Blue Lake Glacier, and... the Central Pagoda! These six places are the six array points of the Luck Seizing Array. You can dig and see. If you go and take a look, you will know if what I said is true or not!”

Upon hearing this, Sheng Lingfeng suddenly turned around and shouted at Lu Yubei, “Contact the Jade Illusion Continent and the Light Sea branch immediately. Ask them to send people to Sleeping Island to investigate the demonic cave!” Whether it was true or not, they would know after checking.

Lu Yubei came back to his senses and hurriedly wiped his red eyes. Then, he picked up the phone and called the two branches.

She Ying hugged Mo Xiao’s corpse tightly. After she heard Yu Huang tell the entire story, she could not help but think of what Mo Xiao had deliberately said to her yesterday morning.

Now that she thought about it, Mo Xiao had said those words to force her to leave the Divine Realm Continent and not let her get involved in this mess!

She Ying’s heart ached.

Liar!

Cunning fox! Damned liar!

When Yu Huang saw that Mo Xiao was holding a silver-white key in his hand, she recalled what Mo Xiao had told her on the phone that day and hurriedly took the key off. “Senior She Ying, Godfather once instructed me to hand this key to you after he died.”

Mo Xiao didn’t tell Yu Huang what this key was for, but she believed that She Ying might know.

She Ying held the key and suddenly burst into tears.

She buried her face in the black fox and cried loudly. “Little fox, you liar!”

Yu Huang waited for She Ying to finish crying before asking curiously, “Senior She Ying, is there a story behind this key?”

She Ying said gently and sadly, “We demon beasts all have our own cave abodes. Powerful demon beasts will set up a barrier on their cave abodes. Every demon will customize a special key for their barrier. And we will only give this key to our spouse.”

“You human Beast Tamers use the ring as a token of love. In the Abyssal Origin Forest, the cave abode key is the most precious token of love.”

“I once used my key to confess to him, but he didn’t accept it.” She Ying stroked the blood on the key. She said with a half-hearted smile, “I never thought that I would be lucky enough to obtain the little fox’s key...”

Chapter 693: I Killed Him (1)

She Ying hung the key around her neck and picked up the nine-tailed fox's stiff body. She looked at the people below mockingly and said, "I want to bring Mo Xiao's body back to the abyss, but some people want to stop me!"

Everyone looked up at the woman in the sky.

She was wearing Prime Master Mo Xiao's pajamas. The pajamas were very wide, and the woman's figure was very sexy. She stood in the void barefooted with the dead nine-tailed fox in her arms. Her eyes were filled with stubbornness and madness. She looked like she would kill anyone who dared to stop her.

To be able to wear Mo Xiao's pajamas and be willing to approach the Prime Master capture net in order to save Mo Xiao, it was obvious what this woman's relationship with Mo Xiao was.

Mo Xiao was dead. She could be considered Mo Xiao's widow.

Therefore, no one replied when they heard She Ying's words.

Seeing this, She Ying snorted and was about to leave with Mo Xiao in her arms when the Snake Clan's Bai Xi suddenly stood up. His expression seemed a little serious and stiff as he said, "Prime Master Mo Xiao can't leave yet!"

Hearing this, She Ying suddenly looked at Bai Xi with her cold snake eyes. She Ying asked him, "What other objections do you have?"

The other Beast Tamers also looked at Bai Xi.

Mo Xiao was already dead. What else did Bai Xi want?

Bai Xi, who was the center of attention, felt a headache coming on. His expression was slightly awkward, but he still said in a neither servile nor overbearing manner, "Master Yu Huang is the adopted daughter of Prime Master Mo Xiao. What she said just now has yet to be confirmed. How do I know if she fabricated such a ridiculous and unbelievable lie to protect Prime Master Mo Xiao's reputation?"

"If Master Yu Huang is lying and Prime Master Mo Xiao is the real murderer, then according to the Beast Tamer Law, Prime Master Mo Xiao should be punished with being reduced to ashes!"

"And now, his beast heart is not destroyed and his soul is not scattered yet. So, you can't take him away for the time being."

With that said, Bai Xi realized that the expressions of the surrounding Beast Tamers suddenly became unfriendly. He realized that his words were too heartless.

Not wanting to anger these experts of the Divine Realm Continent, Bai Xi hurriedly added, "Of course, what Master Yu Huang said might be true. We should wait for news from the demonic cave and the Sleeping Island. If Prime Master Mo Xiao died unjustly, then we should clear his name."

He looked at the experts beside him with a subtle expression and asked meaningfully, "Friends, do you think my considerations are reasonable? If Prime Master Mo Xiao is really willing to sacrifice his life for the sake of the continent, then there's all the more reason we should investigate the truth and clear his name. We should set up a public monument or punish him!"

Bai Xi's words sounded righteous, but the members of the Alliance were still unhappy.

Ji Linyuan suddenly said, "Mr. Bai Xi, your words sound reasonable, but do you really think we've forgotten that you're not only an elder of the Snake Clan, but also the Grand State Master of the Snake Clan. In the Snake Clan, your authority and decision-making power are far above that of the king."

Bai Xi raised his eyebrows unhappily and glared at Ji Linyuan. "Mr. Ji Linyuan, what are you trying to say?"

Ji Linyuan placed his hands behind his back and raised his chin slightly. He sneered and said, "If there's anyone in this world who wishes for the death of the Divine Moon Empire's Grand State Master the most, it's none other than your Snake Clan Empire! Mr. Bai Xi, have you forgotten that the army of your Snake Clan Empire is currently stationed outside the intercontinental line of the Divine Realm Continent? Your Snake Clan Empire is always dreaming of occupying the territory of the Divine Realm Continent! You naturally refuse to believe that Yu Huang's words are the truth, because you can't wait for Prime Master Mo Xiao to be the murderer and for him to be burned to ashes!"

"Do you think we can't tell what you're thinking? Do you really think we believe that the reason the Snake Clan is clamoring to kill Mo Xiao is really because of Bai Zhenzhen's death? You're just using this as an excuse to kill Mo Xiao!"

"After all, with the death of the Divine Moon Empire's Grand State Master, the Divine Moon Empire's royal family's power will be greatly damaged. The one who benefits is the Snake Clan." Ji Linyuan raised his eyebrows provocatively and asked, "Am I wrong?"

In an instant, countless eyes looked at Bai Xi.

Those pairs of eyes all looked clear.

Chapter 694: I Killed Him (2)

Clearly, everyone knew what Bai Xi was thinking.

The Holy Spirit Continent had four super countries. The Divine Moon Empire of the Divine Realm Continent and the Snake Clan Empire of the Hundred Beast Continent were two of them.

The Snake Clan lived in the neighboring area of the desert, which had a harsh environment. Although the climate there was dry and suitable for the Snake Clan to live in, the harsh environment there was not suitable for them to develop their economy. Therefore, they coveted the land of the Divine Realm Continent. They wanted to occupy the territory of a few small countries at the border of the Divine Realm Continent and develop them into their own colonies.

As a superpower on the Divine Realm Continent, how could the Divine Moon Empire watch the outsiders occupy the territory where its country was?

As a super powerful country, the Divine Moon Empire naturally understood the principle of interconnected interests. The Divine Moon Empire definitely wouldn't allow the Snake Clan Empire to occupy the territory of small countries on the Divine Realm Continent's intercontinental line. Therefore, they sent troops to guard the intercontinental line and were constantly on guard against the Snake Clan Empire's people.

The two countries had been in a stalemate for more than a hundred years. Over the years, things between them had become more and more tense. Seeing that a battle was about to erupt, both sides hoped that the other party's number one big shot would die quickly. Bai Xi was the Grand State Master of the Snake People Empire, and Mo Xiao was the Grand State Master of the Divine Moon Empire. They were the real people in charge of the country.

Therefore, Bai Xi naturally hoped that Mo Xiao would die.

Even though Mo Xiao had already died in front of them, he was still afraid of Mo Xiao's cultivation level and was afraid that this monstrous Grand State Master would be reborn through another method.

If he didn't personally crush Mo Xiao's bones and scatter his ashes, he wouldn't be able to feel at ease.

After Ji Linyuan exposed his true thoughts in public, Bai Xi felt a little embarrassed.

Bai Xi actually didn't believe Yu Huang's words, nor did he believe that the powerful Grand State Master would be so righteous.

This was definitely Yu Huang's scheme!

Thinking of this, Bai Xi immediately felt much more at ease. He crossed his arms in front of his chest and said with a spurious smile, "If it's confirmed that Prime Master Mo Xiao is innocent, then I can swear on behalf of the Snake Clan Empire that we will immediately stop the war and won't attack the Divine Realm Continent for a hundred years. We will establish a friendly relationship with the Divine Moon Empire and form a trade partnership."

Bai Xi firmly believed that the Luck Seizing Array, the array core, and the sacrifice were all lies fabricated by Yu Huang. Therefore, when he said this, Bai Xi had never thought about the consequences.

Even though he knew that this snow was ridiculous, he didn't believe that Mo Xiao was such a compassionate person.

He was an old fox!

Upon hearing Bai Xi's words, Ji Linyuan hurriedly turned to a Grand Master expert of the Mo Clan and said, "Brother Mo, inform the royal family to draft a truce contract quickly and send it over immediately." Ji Linyuan smiled mysteriously and rubbed his hands. "I can't wait to see the moment when Mr. Bai Xi takes the initiative to sign the truce contract."

Seeing how confident Ji Linyuan was, Bai Xi suddenly felt uneasy.

Why did Ji Linyuan believe that Yu Huang's words were true?

Just because she was his junior?

But what was already said was like spilled water. Although Bai Xi realized that he had been careless with his words, he couldn't break his promise, especially in front of everyone.

Bai Xi publicly requested that She Ying not take Mo Xiao away. As the president of the Alliance, Sheng Lingfeng couldn't let Mo Xiao's body leave before the truth came out. Although he believed that what Yu Huang said was true, evidence was important.

"Senior She Ying." Sheng Lingfeng recognized She Ying. As the president of the Alliance, he naturally knew the big shot of Rakshasa City's Bounty Street.

Seeing that Sheng Lingfeng was about to smooth things over again, She Ying glanced at him coldly. "Old fart! Just say it!"

Sheng Lingfeng was rarely insulted like this, so he was a little angry. However, when he saw Mo Xiao in She Ying's arms, his heart ached.

A helpless expression appeared on his face. He nodded at She Ying and said, "Senior, before the truth is out, the alliance won't let Mo Xiao leave for the time being. I hope you can cooperate with us."

She Ying sneered. "A bunch of hypocritical dogs!"

She carried Mo Xiao's corpse and flew back to Mo Xiao's room on the top floor of the headquarters building.

Standing in the shattered window, She Ying said to the group of Beast Tamers under the building, "Since you want to wait for the truth, I'll wait with you! After the truth is revealed, I'll bring Mo Xiao away from the human world. In the future, if you despicable Beast Tamers dare to step into the territory of the abyss again, my Beast Clan will definitely tear you into pieces!"

"From today onwards, the demon beast race and the cultivation world are irreconcilable!" With that said, She Ying carried Mo Xiao into the room.

Hearing She Ying's words, the Alliance members frowned.

"Senior She Ying is actually a divine demon?"

"How did the Grand State Master meet her?"

The glass window of Mo Xiao's room was broken by She Ying. A strong wind blew into the room and the room was cold.

She Ying knelt on the fur mat with Mo Xiao in her arms. The cold wind blew against her delicate body and passed through the wide collar of her nightgown to enter. It was so cold that her body was freezing. She Ying hugged Mo Xiao to warm herself, but the temperature of the fox in her arms was getting lower and lower. It was so cold that She Ying's fingers hurt.

Suddenly, a warm blanket wrapped around She Ying's body.

Yu Huang knelt in front of She Ying and wrapped She Ying and the fox in her arms with the blanket.

"Senior She Ying, it's cold in Jingdu. Keep warm."

She Ying stared at the blanket on her body and thought about how Mo Xiao, like Yu Huang, had also covered her with a blanket the night before. He scolded her for wearing too little. She Ying tilted her head and rubbed the blanket while saying softly, "He formed a contract with that person to save me."

“I harmed him.”

Chapter 695: The Elf King’s Remains (1)

“You didn’t harm him.” Yu Huang pressed She Ying’s shoulder. Seeing that She Ying’s eyes had lost all their luster and looked lifeless, Yu Huang was really worried that She Ying would take things too hard.

“Senior She Ying,” Yu Huang told her. “Godfather once told me not to call you Senior She Ying, but Godmother.”

She Ying’s first reaction was disbelief. She smiled and shook her head. “Why would someone like him say such a thing?”

Yu Huang immediately took out her phone from her pocket and found a recording. “I’ve recorded it. Listen to it.” Yu Huang opened the recording and skipped to the last paragraph. Mo Xiao’s clear and serious voice suddenly spread in the room

She Ying recognized Mo Xiao’s voice.

Upon hearing Mo Xiao’s words, She Ying cried again. “Damn fox!”

At this moment, the staff of the Light Sea Alliance branch and the Jade Illusion Continent Alliance branch were busy after receiving Lu Yubei’s call.

The alliance had set up a total of five branches in the Light Sea. The one who received the order to go to the demonic cave to check the situation was Losis, the president of the Luo Water City branch, who was the closest to the demonic cave.

Losis was a late-stage Grand Master and a Light Elf.

After hanging up, Losis immediately brought two high-level managers and took an aircraft to the northern demonic cave, where the dark elves lived.

Seeing the aircraft flying towards the demonic cave, the working dark elves looked up at the sky with hollow eyes.

It seemed that another Dark Elf died and was going to be thrown into the demonic cave.

The aircraft stopped at the top of a mountain near the demonic cave. Losis jumped down from the aircraft. He looked at the demonic cave hidden under the black fog and turned to his colleagues behind him. “I’ll go down first to check the situation. If you see the signal flare, come find me.”

“Understood, President.”

Losis spread its pure white wings and flew into the demonic cave.

After entering the black seawater, the wings on his back automatically retracted.

There were many corpses that had already rotted and had yet to rot in the sea. The bottom of the sea was filled with a layer of white bones. They were the bones of the Night Elves that had died thousands of years ago.

When Losis, a Light Elf, fell into the demonic cave, the resentment of the Dark Elves immediately attacked him. Losis snorted and the spirit sword in his hand flashed. A golden light shot out with resentment. The vengeful spirits screamed and instantly turned into wisps of black light that dissipated into the sea.

As such, the black seawater seemed to have become even darker.

Losis fought all the way to the bottom of the demonic cave. He searched for a long time before finding a bottomless trench.

He had long heard that the second-deepest trench on the Holy Spirit Continent was hidden at the bottom of the demonic cave. It was second only to the trench in the Divine Sea. However, seeing was believing. When he really stood in front of this mysterious trench, Losis still felt his insignificance and the magnificence of nature.

In front of nature, even powerful creatures were insignificant.

Losis took a deep breath, then finally overcame his fear and flew into the trench.

The deep sea definitely had Sea Spirit Beasts hiding there.

However, the strange thing was that for some reason, there was no sign of any Sea Spirit Beasts in the trench. There was only endless resentment. Looking at the pitch-black resentment, Losis guessed that there must be the skeleton of a powerhouse hidden under it. The skeleton was pressed under it and died with regrets, which was why there was such strong resentment.

The resentment was too strong, and it obstructed Losis' gaze.

Losis used his sword to cut a passageway in the resentment and quickly swam towards the bottom of the trench.

When he reached a depth of more than 10,000 meters, since the light could no longer reach the place, his surroundings became pitch black. If not for the golden light emitted by the sword in his hand, Losis wouldn't have been able to see anything clearly. He continued to dive for more than 300 meters before finally discovering some clues.

He saw chains as dense as spiderwebs.

The chains emerged from the stone wall of the trench. Each chain was very thick and had some runes stuck to it. Losis grabbed a black chain and felt the cold air coming from it. He immediately retracted his hand in shock. He swam deeper into the trench along the chain. After swimming for a while, he realized that there was a person locked at the end of the chain!

Chapter 696: The Elf King's Remains (2)

It was a person. His armor was already covered in duckweed from the deep sea. His corpse had long rotted, but his bones hadn't been washed away by the seawater yet. The white bones were completely trapped in the armor, and dozens of iron chains were piercing through the armor!

It was too dark for Losis to see the other party's face clearly. He hurriedly took out a deep-sea Night-Luminescent Pearl from his interspatial ring.

Dark blue light was released from the Night-Luminescent Pearl in the deep sea. The dark seabed instantly became slightly brighter, and he could finally see something.

Losis stood in front of the corpse. With the blue light of the Night-Luminescent Pearl, he slowly raised his head to size up the corpse.

He was actually an elf!

He was wearing armor and was imprisoned in the depths of the sea by the iron chain while kneeling on the ground. The elf wings on his back had already rotted, and the wings were embedded in the armor while maintaining an open posture.

There was a pendant tied to the waist of the elf armor. It was the symbol of the elven warriors. A sign would be hung on the pendant, and their identity information would be written on the sign so that they could be identified after they died in battle.

Losis bent down and grabbed the pendant at the person's waist. He wiped the duckweed off the pendant.

After wiping away the duckweed, Losis noticed that the identity card was made of gold. His expression immediately changed.

Only members of the Elven royal family could wear a golden identity card.

This person was actually a member of the royal family?

However, when the duckweed on the identity card was completely wiped away, and when Losis saw the words "Moldo" on the card, he immediately cried out, "Ah!"

Losis immediately took out his flare gun and fired a shot above the trench.

By the time the signal flare passed through the trench and floated above the demonic cave, a minute or two had passed.

"Signal flare!"

Seeing the signal flare, the two colleagues standing beside the aircraft immediately flew into the demonic cave and swam deeper into the trench.

When they arrived beside Losis and saw Moldo's body, they were so shocked that their bodies trembled. "Mo... Elven King! This is actually the corpse of the noble War God Elven King!"

The Elven King, Moldo, was the most powerful person in the history of the elves. He was the founder of the Elven royal family and the ancestor of Donor and the others. He lived six thousand years ago. It was said that Moldo later went to the Upper World, but he died in a battle in the Upper World, and his corpse was still missing.

The only thing Moldo left in the world was his divine grade rank four cultivation technique, the Power of Light.

Who would have thought that the Elven King's body had been imprisoned in the Light Sea all along?!

“Quick! Report this matter to the royal family and the Alliance Headquarters immediately!”

All the Alliance members temporarily returned to Conference Hall 2 and waited for news from the Light Sea and the Jade Illusion Continent.

They waited from nine in the morning until one in the afternoon.

After they waited for a long time, there was still no news from the Light Sea and the Jade Illusion Continent's branch. Bai Xi said mockingly, “The branch hasn't given a reply. Could it be that they didn't dig up anything?” Then, Bai Xi gave Ji Linyuan a provocative look. “Mr. Ji Linyuan, what should we do?”

Ji Linyuan crossed his arms and leaned back in his chair. When he heard this, he blinked but couldn't be bothered to look up at Bai Xi in response.

Seeing this, Bai Xi sneered.

How pretentious!

Sheng Lingfeng looked at his watch and felt anxious.

Bang!

The door was suddenly knocked open and someone walked in anxiously.

Hearing the commotion, everyone turned to look at the entrance and saw Lu Yubei walking in anxiously. He held a phone in his hand and stood at the podium. He raised the phone and shouted excitedly, “President Losis of the Light Sea Branch found a Prime Master bone in the deep trench of the demonic cave. The deceased is the Elven King, Moldo!”

Everyone was in an uproar.

“What?!” The vice president, Carasso, suddenly stood up and shouted with a shocked expression, “How could that be?!”

Carasso rushed towards Lu Yubei and snatched the phone from him.

He held the phone and asked the person on the other end in a serious voice, “Losis, who did you find in the trench?!”

Carasso was the president of the Light Sea Beast Tamer Alliance and Losis' superior. Upon hearing Carasso's question, Losis hurriedly replied, “President, I found the corpse of a Prime Master at the bottom of the trench. He was wearing golden armor and had a golden identity card at his waist. The name Moldo was clearly written on it!”

“President, there’s no mistake.”

Hearing this, Carasso almost fainted.

He held Lu Yubei’s arm and asked, “Will the royal family send people over?”

“They’re already here. The king is already here. In order to verify the underwater corpse, the king will personally go deep into the sea to perform the ancestral recognition ceremony. The answer will be given in five minutes at the latest.”

“Alright, I won’t hang up. Let me know immediately when the results are out.”

“... Okay.”

At this moment, the hall was silent.

After knowing that the body of the most powerful Elven King of the Light Elves was most likely hidden in the demonic cave, the members of the Alliance found it unbelievable.

Ji Linyuan broke the silence.

He turned to Bai Xi and said, “Mr. Bai Xi, let’s not talk about whether the identity of the Prime Master is the Elven King or not for now. Let’s just say that an ancient Prime Master has really been discovered at the bottom of this trench. This can prove that what Yu Huang said is true. Mr. Bai Xi, the Divine Moon Empire has already drafted the contract. Don’t forget to sign it later.”

From the moment he found out from Lu Yubei that there was indeed a Prime Master hidden at the bottom of the demonic cave, Bai Xi’s expression became very ugly.

After being mocked by Ji Linyuan, Bai Xi’s expression became even uglier.

Bai Xi said with a fake smile, “If Yu Huang’s words are true, then your country’s Grand State Master’s sacrifice is really admirable. In order to show my respect, why can’t I sign this contract?”

His words sounded very magnanimous, but Ji Linyuan noticed that Bai Xi’s hand was tightly gripping onto the leather cushion on the armrest of the chair. The cushion was filled with cotton, and the leather cushion was broken and the cotton came out.

Ji Linyuan stared at the shredded cotton under Bai Xi’s palm and smiled meaningfully.

Bai Xi continued, “However, there’s still no news from Sleeping Island. Mr. Ji Linyuan, don’t be happy too early.”

Ji Linyuan shrugged. “Then let’s wait and see.”

When Sheng Lingfeng heard the contents of their conversation, he couldn’t laugh at all. When he thought of the Grand State Master’s heroic sacrifice, he felt guilty.

He had many years of friendship with the Grand State Master, but when he saw the reflection in Bai Zhenzhen’s eyes, he really suspected the Grand State Master.

Sheng Lingfeng felt deeply guilty.

Chapter 697: Took The Lead In Sacrificing Himself, Arouse Courage (1)

At this moment, Losis received an accurate answer.

Carasso heard Losis shout for the president on the phone. He quickly raised his index finger to his lips and gestured for everyone to be quiet.

Everyone fell silent and pricked up their ears to eavesdrop on what Losis was about to say.

In the silence, Losis' voice spread through the loudspeaker in Conference Room 2. "President, His Majesty has completed the ancestral recognition ceremony. Now, we have confirmed that the Prime Master bone at the bottom of the trench is that of the Elven King."

Hearing this result, Carasso closed his eyes in grief.

Moldo was the strongest among the Light Elves. He was a war god. His statue stood in the center of the Holy City and was worshiped by the Light Sea's people.

The Light Elves didn't believe in ghosts and gods. They only believed in the Elven King.

However, their mighty War God Elven King, Moldo, had been cruelly imprisoned at the bottom of the demonic cave for hundreds of years!

This was the greatest humiliation the Light Elves had ever suffered!

Carasso opened his eyes again, and his eyes were filled with hatred. "Everyone, Yu Huang is right. There is indeed a Prime Master bone hidden under the demonic cave of the Light Sea." After a pause, Carasso said in a sorrowful tone, "After confirmation, the identity of that Prime Master bone is that of the Light Elves' War God Elven King, Moldo."

Carasso suddenly slammed his fist on the table. Golden energy caused a layer of ripples on the table, and the table was instantly smashed into pieces. "From now on, our Elve Clan will be irreconcilable with the heavens! Our Elve Clan will definitely use all our strength to find the hiding place of the heavens and kill him!"

Everyone had different expressions when they heard this.

Moldo was the strongest person in the history of the elves. Even someone like him was killed by the heavens. How powerful was god?

According to Yu Huang, the heavens had long died. The only thing left in the Holy Spirit Continent was his soul.

If a single soul was already so powerful, how terrifying would he be at his peak?

And the heavens was still alive and hiding in someone's body. What could they do to defeat him and let the Holy Spirit Continent obtain true freedom?

The heavens was like a huge rock that pressed down on everyone's hearts, making them unable to breathe.

At this moment, the phone in Lu Yubei's hand rang again.

Everyone suddenly looked up at Lu Yubei.

Lu Yubei picked up the phone and pressed the loudspeaker button. Everyone heard a woman say in the Divine Moon Empire's language, "Reporting to the alliance headquarters, this is the Jade Illusion Continent's Evil Dragon City branch. I am the branch president, Yao Yue. At this moment, I am on the Sleeping Island. What I want to tell everyone is that there is indeed a Prime Master bone imprisoned under the Sleeping Island. The identity still needs to be investigated."

Hearing this, everyone closed their eyes.

Prime Master Bones had been discovered at all six array points. From this, it could be seen that Yu Huang's words were true.

Mo Xiao wasn't the murderer of Dongfang Sile and Bai Zhenzhen. The heavens was.

Mo Xiao wasn't a sinner. He was the greatest hero in the world!

Sheng Lingfeng sighed deeply. He stood up and turned to Bai Xi. "Mr. Bai Xi, the truth is out. Prime Master Mo Xiao is innocent. Next, please fulfill your promise and sign the truce letter. You will never invade the Divine Realm Continent for a hundred years!"

Bai Xi's expression was extremely ugly.

He took a deep breath to suppress his anger and unwillingness. He gritted his teeth and said, "Don't worry, I won't go back on my word."

After nodding, Sheng Lingfeng looked at Dongfang Xiagui.

"Patriarch Dongfang."

Dongfang Xiagui sat in his seat in a daze. Sheng Lingfeng called out to him, but he didn't react.

Ever since she heard Yu Huang's words in the morning, Dongfang Xiagui had had this reaction.

Yu Huang was the Yin Clan's Patriarch, the Young Madam of the Sheng Clan, and Lin Jiansheng's only personal disciple. She was definitely not the kind of person who would lie to protect Mo Xiao's reputation.

Thus, when Bai Xi and the others were still questioning the truth of Yu Huang's words, Dongfang Xiagui already knew that Mo Xiao wasn't a sinner.

Mo Xiao wasn't the sinner who killed his great-grandfather.

But he was the sinner who had killed Mo Xiao.

Dongfang Xiagui recalled the scene of him cursing Mo Xiao in front of everyone this morning. He felt extremely guilty.

Not only was Mo Xiao his great-grandfather's best friend, but his great-grandfather was also his best friend. He had been possessed by the heavens, and the heavens had borrowed his body to kill his best friend. He was the person who felt the most pain.

Chapter 698: Took The Lead In Sacrificing Himself, Arouse Courage (2)

And he, who didn't know the truth, had actually insulted Mo Xiao so harshly.

Dongfang Xiagui was filled with regret.

Dongfang Xiagui covered his face with his hand and sighed heavily. Then, he muttered to herself, "I... feel guilty!"

Sheng Lingfeng walked to Dongfang Xiagui. When he heard Dongfang Xiagui's murmur, his expression became mixed. "Patriarch Dongfang, the truth is out now. Prime Master Mo Xiao isn't the sinner who killed your great-grandfather. Please tell your ancestor when you get home. Tell him the truth. I hope he can rest in peace in the netherworld."

Dongfang Xiagui hammered his chest hard and roared with bloodshot eyes, "How can I have the nerve to pay respects to my great-grandfather?! Not only did I force Prime Master Mo Xiao to death, but I also insulted him in front of everyone. How can I have the nerve to pay respects to my great-grandfather?!"

Seeing Dongfang Xiagui's pain and regret, Sheng Lingfeng comforted him. "Prime Master Mo Xiao is a compassionate and tolerant person. He won't blame you."

Sheng Lingfeng raised his head and looked around at his colleagues in Conference Hall 2. He said in a choked voice, "No one is the sinner who forced Mo Xiao to death. He was willing to die."

Most of the experts present had grown up listening to the legendary story of the Grand State Master. The Grand State Master was the idol of many people. Therefore, after they heard Sheng Lingfeng's words, many emotional Beast Tamers' eyes turned red on the spot, and some female cultivators even cried.

Suddenly, someone shouted, "Prime Master Mo Xiao sacrificed his life to save the world. He is a hero of the Holy Spirit Continent! President, the name of Prime Master Mo Xiao should be engraved on the monument forever for future generations to admire!"

Everyone responded at once.

"Yes! Mo Xiao's name should be engraved on the monument to be worshiped!"

"That's right!" Ji Linyuan also stood up and said loudly, "In order to expose that bastard's conspiracy, the Grand State Master took the lead in sacrificing himself. We can't be cowards! I propose that from now on, the entire continent will form an alliance to find out the existence of the heavens and completely destroy him!"

"It's true that he's a Divine Master, but who knows if he was a Divine Master who created the Holy Spirit Continent or if the Holy Spirit Continent chose to let him become a god?!"

"We'd rather not have a god who disregards human life!"

Ji Linyuan's words aroused the courage of the experts present.

“That’s right! Who said that God is invincible?! In the past, I thought that Divine Masters could live forever, but in the end? Even if he’s a God, he’s a person with flesh and blood, and he’s a mortal. He might be very strong, but if all the forces of the Holy Spirit Continent combined, we might not be weaker than him!”

“We’ll only know who’s stronger and who’s weaker after a battle. Isn’t it the duty of Beast Tamers to become stronger, protect our family, friends, country, and hometown?! Now that someone is harming our compatriots and destroying our continent, isn’t Mo Xiao’s death enough to awaken our desire for revenge?!”

“You’re right!”

An expert from the Lion King Clan stood up and said angrily, “Although I’ve always disliked how hypocritical you humans are, I really admire Prime Master Mingjue and Prime Master Mo Xiao from the bottom of my heart. Prime Master Mo Xiao wants to use his death to prove himself and use his death to awaken our fighting spirit!”

“Everyone, we have to stand up and work together to kill the heavens and make the Holy Spirit Continent our continent!”

Every Beast Tamer’s eyes were red, and every Beast Tamer had an indignant expression.

Mo Xiao’s death successfully awakened the courage of the Beast Tamers.

From this moment onwards, the Beast Tamers would stand up and unite to fight the enemy together!

Tears welled up in Sheng Lingfeng’s eyes. He raised his head and sighed. Then, he walked to the podium. The podium table had been shattered and the microphone had fallen to the ground. Sheng Lingfeng picked up the microphone, opened it, and patted it.

Upon hearing the microphone, everyone in the noisy hall instantly fell silent.

Everyone stopped and looked down at Sheng Lingfeng, who was at the front.

Sheng Lingfeng’s hoarse voice spread through the microphone in Conference Room 2. He said, “Everyone is right. We have to unite and fight the enemy together. Even if Mo Xiao’s actions today severely injured the other party, and perhaps the other party has already suffered a huge blow, as long as his soul doesn’t dissipate, he will eventually make a comeback!”

“Perhaps we will no longer be persecuted by the heavens in our lifetime, but what about our children? What about our grandchildren? The Holy Spirit Continent is still very young. We will eventually die of old age, but our descendants will still live on this land. They will still have endless possibilities. It is cowardly for us to ignore this possibility. Since we cultivators have received the favor of the heavens, we should use all our strength to fight for the future for the descendants of the continent! Fight for the future of the Holy Spirit Continent!”

“Therefore, I, Sheng Lingfeng, advocate for everyone to raise their weapons and ally with me to resist the heavens!”

“If the heavens are the sky, then we’ll pierce through the sky!”

“If the heavens is a god, then we’ll kill God!”

Hearing Sheng Lingfeng’s words, everyone became emotional.

Ji Linyuan took the lead and stood up while shouting, “Let’s form an alliance to fight the enemy! Stab the heavens and kill God!”

The next second, the same slogan spread in Hall 2—

“Form an alliance to fight the enemy! Stab the heavens and kill God!” Their voices were very loud, spreading throughout the entire capital.

Xuanyuan Shen stood in the crowd. In order not to let others see that something was wrong, he could only raise his hand with a bitter expression and shout the slogan—

“Let’s form an alliance to resist the enemy and kill God!”

Chapter 699: Too Late (1)

Xuanyuan Shen shouted loudly, but his back was covered in cold sweat. This was because at this moment, that person was cursing angrily in his mind, “Bastard, I created all of you. Without me, where would you all come from?! Every blade of grass and tree in the Holy Spirit Continent is mine! Isn’t it fair for me to want some providence from you guys?!”

“A bunch of ungrateful bastards! They even want to kill a god! Gods are supreme, and I am the ruler of the Holy Spirit Continent!”

He could hear his colleagues shouting at the heavens. His mind was filled with the curses of the heavens. No one knew how tormented Xuanyuan Shen was.

Perhaps it was because the heavens was too emotional, but with Xuanyuan Shen’s cultivation level, he couldn’t withstand it. His head buzzed, and he, who was shouting, suddenly fell to the ground with a bang.

“Xuanyuan!”

“Patriarch Xuanyuan!”

Seeing Xuanyuan Shen faint, Liuli Xiangsi, who was closer to him, rolled her eyes. She hurriedly stood on her tiptoes and waved at Ye Qing’an, who was sitting in the southwest corner of the conference room. “Doctor Ye, Patriarch Xuanyuan suddenly fainted because he wasn’t feeling well. Please come and take a look at him.”

Ye Qing’an was a Grand Master Healer and the mentor of the Empress Jiang Ruixue. He was the director of the Divine Moon Empire’s treatment center. There was no illness in the world that he couldn’t treat.

When he heard this, he hurriedly passed through the crowd and arrived beside Xuanyuan Shen.

Liuli Xiangsi and Ji Linyuan were beside Xuanyuan Shen. Ye Qing'an said to Ji Linyuan, "Mr. Ji Linyuan, please help turn over Patriarch Xuanyuan and keep him lying on his back."

Ji Linyuan crossed his arms in front of his chest and said with a smile, "Mr. Ye, the Yin Clan and the Xuanyuan Clan have long broken off our friendship. Patriarch Xuanyuan hates the Yin Clan. If I touch Patriarch Xuanyuan today, it would be fine if he's fine, but if something happens, he will definitely suspect me first."

Ji Linyuan smiled but said firmly, "Let someone else do it."

Even if Xuanyuan Shen died from a cerebral hemorrhage today, Ji Linyuan wouldn't help carry his corpse.

It was Xuanyuan Shen's fault for bullying Yu Huang.

Liuli Xiangsi said with a smile, "Since it's not easy for him to help, I will do it." Liuli Xiangsi was wearing a dress. She bent down elegantly and grabbed the collar on Xuanyuan Shen's back with her bare hand. She suddenly pulled Xuanyuan Shen up from the ground and roughly flipped him over so that he could stay flat on his back.

Then, Liuli Xiangsi clapped her hands and blew at a nonexistent dirty thing on her fingertips. She smiled at Ye Qing'an and said, "Mr. Ye, it's done."

Ye Qing'an looked at Liuli Xiangsi with a condemning expression before bending down to hold Xuanyuan Shen's hand and using his spiritual power to check Xuanyuan Shen's condition.

Xuanyuan Shen really fainted.

However, that 'person' sensed that someone was forcefully investigating Xuanyuan Shen's physical condition. He was afraid that Ye Qing'an would sense his existence, and he immediately had a bad feeling.

Mo Xiao forcefully destroyed the Luck Seizing Array and destroyed the eye of the array. The providence that had been accumulated in the body of the heavens for a hundred years had all dissipated, and his soul power had also weakened. If he was caught at this time, he might not be able to escape.

At the thought of this, that person sent out a wisp of spiritual power and simulated the power of lightning to attack Xuanyuan Shen's soul.

Xuanyuan Shen was struck by the lightning repeatedly and immediately regained consciousness from the pain.

Before Ye Qing'an's spiritual power could approach Xuanyuan Shen's brain, Xuanyuan Shen suddenly opened his eyes without warning and said to Ye Qing'an with a pale face, "Thank you, Mr. Ye. I'm fine."

Ye Qing'an stared at Xuanyuan Shen's pained expression and said hesitantly, "But you don't look fine."

Xuanyuan Shen said, "I have low blood sugar. What happened today gave me a deep shock. I was agitated earlier and my low blood sugar acted up for a moment. That's why I fainted." As he spoke, Xuanyuan Shen raised his head and asked his colleagues beside him, "Who has candy on them? Can you give me one?"

They were all big shots. Who would bring candy with them?

In the end, Ye Qing'an gave him a sweet pill. "This is a favorite candy pill among children. If you don't mind, you can try one."

"Thank you."

After Xuanyuan Shen ate the candy pill, he looked much better.

Chapter 700: Too Late (2)

Liuli Xiangsi covered her mouth and laughed. She deliberately said, "A few days ago, I went online and saw that Patriarch Xuanyuan has been very close to a female singer lately. I thought that you fainted because you were too tired these days." Liuli Xiangsi chuckled and said, "It seems that I misunderstood Patriarch Xuanyuan."

Some people who had heard of this gossip looked at Xuanyuan Shen teasingly.

Ye Qing'an didn't know if this was true or not. Seeing that Xuanyuan Shen's face was still a little pale, he reminded him implicitly, "Patriarch Xuanyuan, although your cultivation level is high and your body is strong, you still need to restrain yourself when it comes to sex. No matter how strong your body is, there are times when you will feel weak..."

Xuanyuan Shen gritted his teeth when he heard this. He couldn't offend Ye Qing'an, so he said to Liuli Xiangsi with a fake smile, "It's just some entertainment news. It can't be taken seriously. Patriarch Liuli, as the head of a clan, you should broaden your horizons and not pay attention to these private matters."

Liuli Xiangsi continued, "That might not be the case. Decades ago, when I heard that Patriarch Xuanyuan had a deep relationship with a female dancer, I also thought that the news was fake. After all, Luoluo is famous for being beautiful. With a wife like her, how could Patriarch Xuanyuan fancy the women outside? But in the end?"

Liuli Xiangsi covered her mouth and chuckled. Her chest trembled as she laughed. "In the end, not long after, that dancer entered the Xuanyuan Clan while pregnant. So sometimes, the more ridiculous this news sounds, the more likely it is true. Oh, right."

Liuli Xiangsi seemed to have thought of something else. The smile on her face disappeared and her face was filled with surprise. She asked Xuanyuan Shen curiously, "I heard that Luoluo is preparing to file a divorce lawsuit with the court. I wonder if it's true?"

Hearing this, everyone looked at Xuanyuan Shen with schadenfreude.

Back then, thanks to Xuanyuan Shen, everyone thought that Liuli Luoluo was a promiscuous woman. Later, when they found out that Liuli Luoluo had been drug-raped by Xuanyuan Shen, everyone's opinion of Liuli Luoluo changed, and they despised Xuanyuan Shen.

After knowing that Liuli Luoluo was finally willing to file a divorce lawsuit, many female cultivators secretly applauded her.

She should have left long ago!

Xuanyuan Shen sneered. "Who did you hear that from?" Even he had only received the divorce letter from Liuli Luoluo last night.

Liuli Xiangsi smiled even more flirtatiously. "Who did I hear it from?" She blinked and said, "Don't you know? Luoluo recently met a good man. She cherishes him very much and wants to get a divorce before pursuing him."

No matter how strong Xuanyuan Shen's composure was, he couldn't hold it in anymore.

A dark expression instantly appeared on his pale face. "Hmph, if she's determined to leave, do you think I can keep her?!"

Xuanyuan Shen didn't want to argue with Liuli Xiangsi anymore, so he left early with the excuse that he wasn't feeling well.

He left the Alliance headquarters building and had just gotten into his car when a nearly illusory man's figure appeared in the front passenger seat.

The person was wearing an ancient robe. His black hair was tied up high, but his face was distorted.

When he saw this person, Xuanyuan Shen immediately bowed down.

"Sir, why are you out?"

That person turned his head and looked at Xuanyuan Shen with his illusory face. He said, "Mo Xiao, that bastard, ruined my plans."

The Luck Seizing Array had been operating on the Holy Spirit Continent for hundreds of years. He had absorbed a lot of luck through Mo Xiao, the array core, and slowly gained a body and limbs. To successfully revive, he was only missing a face.

Who knew that Mo Xiao would actually find six array points and even take the initiative to destroy the Luck Seizing Array?

His originally sturdy body became illusory again.

'That person' reached out to touch the parts on the car's control panel, but his fingers passed through them and he didn't touch anything. Seeing this, 'that person' immediately cursed angrily, "Damn it!"

When he was angry, a chaotic storm appeared in the car. Xuanyuan Shen was attacked by the storm, and all the bones in his body felt like they were being crushed by a stone mill. It was so painful that he felt suffocated. "Lord... calm down!"

That person suddenly fell silent.

The storm disappeared.

That person suddenly said, "Can you find Ouyang Luo?"

"Ouyang Luo?" Xuanyuan Shen naturally wouldn't forget Ouyang Luo. "Sir, why are you looking for him? He's just a fugitive now. Could it be that there's something useful about him?"

That person said, "How do you think Ouyang Luo walked out of the Kunlun Mystic Realm?"

Xuanyuan Shen thought of a possibility and felt terrible. "Could it be that his savior in the Kunlun Mystic Realm was you?"

"Hmph, Ouyang Luo is indeed capable. His cultivation and talent aren't inferior to Mo Xiao's. He was thrown into the Reincarnation Mirror of the Kunlun Mystic Realm. When he experienced reincarnation, he met me. I helped him successfully pass through reincarnation and return to the Holy Spirit Continent. Without me, Ouyang Luo would have long been reduced to ashes in the Reincarnation Mirror!"

Back then, he had secretly killed Prime Master Fu Tian, Moldo, and a Prime Master called Li Qingkuang through the contract with Ouyang Luo. He had also sealed them in the Broken Cliff, the demonic cave, and the Sleeping Island.

Ouyang Luo was the person he had worked with the longest.

Ouyang Luo was originally his most perfect array core, but that kid was unlucky enough to fall in love with Yin Jing'an and was even killed by her.

Speaking of which, 'love' was indeed a dangerous thing.

That fool Ouyang Luo was killed because he fell in love with Prime Master Jing An. Mo Xiao had only formed a contract with him to save She Ying.

After Mo Xiao was possessed by him back then, his soul had been forcefully suppressed in his body. It was only after he killed Bai Zhenzhen that he planned to use She Ying's feelings for Mo Xiao to deceive and kill her.

As soon as this thought appeared, Mo Xiao's suppressed soul suddenly woke up and began to compete with him for decades. In the end, he successfully regained control of his body.

At the thought of this, 'that person' felt that it was ridiculous.

Love was such an obstacle!

'That person' closed his eyes and a sinister smile appeared on his lips. He said softly, "I brought Ouyang Luo back to the Holy Spirit Continent and gave him endless glory. It's time to collect the interest."

Xuanyuan Shen wiped the sweat off his forehead and asked carefully, "Interest?"

The man chuckled. "Yes, interest."

He had sent Ouyang Luo back to the Holy Spirit Continent and allowed him to live in glory for a hundred to two hundred years. Now that his body was weak, swallowing Ouyang Luo's soul wasn't too much to ask, right?

Although Xuanyuan Shen didn't know what 'he' wanted to do, he felt his hair stand on end when he saw the crazy and evil smile on 'his' face.

He regretted it.

He shouldn't have formed a contract with this person back then and let him live in his body.
