

She Shocks 71

Chapter 71: Don't Think About Me, much less My Money

With her new mask on, Yu Huang sat cross-legged at the small desk on the window sill of the rented room and began to study.

To be honest, the knowledge points that Lin Jiansheng had sorted out was very comprehensive, completely in line with Yu Huang, a dabbler student's studies.

Just as Yu Huang finished reading a knowledge point, she heard a scoff in her mind. Then, Su Tingxue's sharp voice was heard. "It's been more than 600 years, but this is still the curriculum. There has been no improvement at all."

Yu Huang heard it but pretended not to hear it and continued reading. She memorized a few knowledge points and heard Su Tingxue say, "Are you a pig? You only remembered such a simple content after memorizing it twice!"

Yu Huang couldn't take it anymore. She put aside the reference book and threatened Su Tingxue mentally, "If you make another sound, I'll send you to Saint Xuan Ye!"

Su Tingxue immediately quieted down.

After being interrupted by her, Yu Huang instantly lost interest in studying.

She leaned against the wall and stuffed a pillow into her arms. She stared at the children playing downstairs and said to Su Tingxue, "I don't care what happened between you and Xuan Ye, but I don't have anything against Xuan Ye. You're just a weak consciousness, but Xuan Ye is a Level 9 Purifying Spirit Master. You should know very well who I can gain the most from."

When Su Tingxue heard Yu Huang's words, she was instantly angered to the point of stomping her feet and cursing in her mind. "Xuan Ye is an ingrate. He deserves to be struck by lightning. The heavens won't let him off! If you believe him, you're just being stupid!"

Yu Huang calmly analyzed, "However, the ingrate you speak of became a respected Level 9 Purifying Spirit Master. After you died, not only was your corpse dismembered, but even your soul was restrained in the Black Dome for six hundred years. It can be seen that the heavens are sometimes blind."

Su Tingxue remained silent for a longer time.

Yu Huang knew that Su Tingxue had suffered a blow. She chuckled and asked Su Tingxue, "Senior, do you know when the heavens are the most reliable?"

Su Tingxue asked in confusion, "Huh?"

Yu Huang said, "When you become the heavens yourself!"

Su Tingxue's emotions fluctuated violently when she heard this. She shook Yu Huang's mind a few times before she calmed down. Su Tingxue sighed and said, "Yu Huang, it's a pity that we weren't born in the same era. Otherwise, we would have definitely become good friends."

After a pause, Su Tingxue said, “No, I’ll accept you as my disciple.”

“Shut up. You’re just an energy blob that relies on me to absorb spiritual force to survive. Don’t talk big.”

Su Tingxue fell silent again, and Yu Huang was unsure of what she was thinking.

Yu Huang saw a middle-aged man standing under a tree in the estate. The man looked around warily. He had shifty eyes, and it was obvious that he was up to no good.

Yu Rufeng?

What was he doing here?

Later on, she recalled that after she got drunk that night, she had called everyone to settle accounts. Yu Huang could vaguely guess Yu Rufeng’s intentions.

He probably couldn’t afford to bribe her, so he wanted to shut her up forever.

Yu Huang frowned and stood up to leave the window. She prepared to go downstairs.

At this moment, Su Tingxue suddenly said, “Xuan Ye was the same as me. We were both useless beasts who had awakened their beast forms in the past. However, he was just like me and refused to become useless. The same experience made us sympathize with each other. We understood each other the most. Naturally, we became lovers...”

Yu Huang picked up her hat and put it on her head. She interrupted her coldly, “I’m not interested in your affairs.”

Su Tingxue was speechless.

After a long while, she continued, “If you want to become a Level 10 Purifying Spirit Master, you have to rely on my help. Apart from me, no one in this world knows the requirements to become a Level 10 Purifying Spirit Master!”

Yu Huang smiled disdainfully. “Even if you lean on a mountain, it might fall. Even if you rely on people, they might betray you. It’s difficult to cultivate. Instead of counting on others, you might as well rely on yourself. Save yourself the trouble and shut your mouth. Don’t be cocky. If you annoy me, I’ll crush you to death directly.”

Su Tingxue did not expect Yu Huang to be so stubborn. She was enraged and wanted to scold her for being stupid. She knew that there was a shortcut, but she insisted on struggling herself.

Apart from being angry, Su Tingxue admired Yu Huang even more. Yu Huang reminded her of herself back then, who refused to accept her fate.

They were the same kind of people, but Yu Huang was more clear-headed than her. If she had been as clear-headed and rational as Yu Huang back then, she would not have ended up like that.

...

Yu Huang arrived at the bottom of the estate and did not find any trace of Yu Rufeng. She walked to the tree that that person had stayed under and looked up at it.

After becoming a Purifying Spirit Master, one could attempt to communicate with all things in the world. The lower one's ability was, the lower the level of the creature one could communicate with.

Plants were the lowest ranked creatures.

The tree in front of her was a maple tree that had lived for more than thirty years. Autumn had just arrived, and the leaves had already begun to turn red. Yu Huang placed her palm on the trunk of the maple tree and closed her eyes to engage in soul communication with it.

"Hello, guardian tree spirit. I'm Yu Huang, who lives in the neighborhood."

The tree began to stir. After a moment, its leaves began to move even without wind. Yu Huang recalled the maple tree's voice. It was a very strange sound wave, but Yu Huang could understand its language.

"Hello, human."

Seeing that the soul communication was successful, Yu Huang was happy.

She quickly calmed down and asked the Maple Tree Spirit, "A few minutes ago, a man stood beside you for a few minutes. I want to know where he went and what he was thinking."

The Maple Tree Spirit suddenly trembled. It shouted in a frightened tone, "He's filled with killing intent and evilness. He wants to do something terrifying. He's walking out of the estate."

The weak and innocent tree spirits were most afraid of the evil intentions of humans.

Seeing that the tree spirit was trembling in fear, Yu Huang hurriedly injected her psychic energy into the tree trunk to comfort it. Only then did the tree trunk return to normal.

After bidding farewell to the tree spirit, Yu Huang took out a wide-angle recording camera from her storage device. She turned it on and quietly put it into the storage device. Then, she walked out of the estate.

The moment Yu Huang walked out of the estate, she saw Yu Rufeng.

Yu Rufeng was obviously waiting for her specially. After seeing her, he rushed up and held Yu Huang's hand enthusiastically. He said to her, "Ah Huang, long time no see. I missed you very much."

The way he called her Ah Huang made Yu Huang feel disgusted.

If it was the original owner of the body, if Yu Huang saw Yu Rufeng taking the initiative to express goodwill, she might still be merciful, but Yu Huang wouldn't.

Yu Huang looked at Yu Rufeng coldly and said, "There's nothing much to talk about between us. Don't think about me. That will only make me feel that you're putting on an act."

She paused and added, "Don't think about my money either.."

Chapter 72: Yu Huang Puts On An Act

"Don't think about my money either."

Upon hearing Yu Huang's words, the smile on Yu Rufeng's face instantly froze.

He suddenly realized that Yu Huang had really changed. She was no longer the soft-hearted and kind little Yu Huang who had been manipulated by them in the past.

"Yu Huang, your brother got into a car accident two days ago. He's still lying unconscious in the hospital. Come with me to the hospital to see him. He used to treat you well."

Yu Huang said, "Treat me well? He took my money to buy a car and pick up girls. He even almost got me drunk and sent me to his sugar daddy's room. How is this treating me well? I think his car accident is his retribution."

Yu Rufeng's expression sank slightly when he heard this.

He put on the airs of an adult and reprimanded Yu Huang seriously, "How can you say that about your brother? We're a family to you. Even though you aren't our biological child, we raised you."

"You can't be too heartless. Yu Huang, your brother is lying in the hospital and we have no idea if he's dead or alive. Can't you visit? Besides, our family went bankrupt because of you. Aren't you even willing to talk to me?"

Yu Huang corrected Yu Rufeng's words. "If it wasn't for me earning money to support you guys, your family would have long been bankrupt 14 years ago. These 14 years of glory and wealth were all stolen by you guys."

"After being a thief for a long time and stealing a lot of things, do you really think those things belong to you guys? Everyone says that after being a b*tch for a long time, you'll degenerate. I think a thief will degenerate after being a thief for a long time."

Being called a b*tch by Yu Huang, Yu Rufeng could no longer maintain his kind pretense.

He looked around and saw that there were not many people. He was no longer afraid that others would hear the contents of the conversation. He lowered his head and said to Yu Huang, "I agreed to the matter you mentioned on the phone last time."

Although Yu Huang was drunk that night, she had recorded every call. Naturally, she knew what she had said to Yu Rufeng.

Yu Huang had always known that Yu Rufeng had an affair. Not only did she know, even Yu Rufeng and Li Pingping's biological son, Yu Jun, knew.

Earlier, every time Yu Jun didn't have enough money to spend, he would use Yu Rufeng's affair to threaten Yu Rufeng to give him money.

Although the original owner of the body knew about the shady business between Yu Rufeng and his son, she didn't tell Li Pingping the truth. She wanted to see the scene of Li Pingping, Yu Rufeng, and Yu Jun fighting among themselves after this matter broke out.

Hearing Yu Rufeng say that he agreed to pay, Yu Huang was not surprised. Because the person Yu Rufeng had an affair with was not anyone else, but the wife of the boss of an entertainment company that Yu Huang once belonged to.

If the boss found out that his wife had an affair during her marriage, his wife and Yu Rufeng would definitely be dead meat.

For the sake of survival, Yu Rufeng could only compromise.

Yu Rufeng's gaze flickered slightly, and he told Yu Huang, "You want too much money. It's not safe to transact here. I'll put the money in the car, and we'll talk in the car."

Yu Huang didn't believe that Yu Rufeng would obediently give her the money. She knew very well that Yu Rufeng was setting a trap for her.

However, she had to accompany Yu Rufeng and continue this show.

Yu Huang gently stroked the gemstone necklace on her wrist before nodding. "You're right. Let's go and take me to see the money."

Seeing Yu Huang nod, a hint of smugness flashed across Yu Rufeng's eyes.

She was still a little girl after all, so she was not too guarded.

Yu Rufeng helped Yu Huang open the car door. When Yu Huang bent down to get into the car, she suddenly felt a needle on her neck. The corners of her lips curled up slightly, but her body fell weakly onto the car seat.

When Yu Rufeng saw that Yu Huang had fainted, he was instantly overjoyed.

He lowered his head to look at the small syringe in his hand and muttered, "It's quite effective." This was the most effective anesthetic he had bought from others. He had heard that people often used this drug to arrest beastmen in the Hundred Beast Continent.

A small tube of the medicine could knock out a strong beastman, let alone the petite Yu Huang.

However, Yu Rufeng had miscalculated. He did not know that Yu Huang was a Purifying Spirit Master, and Purifying Spirit Masters were best at purification. The anesthesia had been injected into Yu Huang's body for less than five seconds before it was purified by her.

After confirming that Yu Huang had fainted, Yu Rufeng touched her pants pocket and found her house key. After that, he left.

Very quickly, Yu Rufeng returned. The moment he got into the car, he gave his mistress a call. In a low voice, he said to the other party, "She has already been tricked into the car by me. I even imitated her handwriting and wrote a letter that she ran away from home. I placed the letter at her house." "What did you write?"

Yu Rufeng chuckled, and he said, "I wrote that she suffered from serious depression because of frequent trauma, so she decided to escape from reality, run away from home, and go to another country to relax. How is it? Is the reason good?"

"Heh, is that all I'm good at? Aren't I good at other aspects?"

The other party said something, but Yu Rufeng laughed evilly twice before hinting to the other party, "I won't go home tonight. I'll accompany you, and let you see how great I am."

Yu Huang : "..."

Okay, she already knew how great he was. Please stop.

"Then wait for me at the harbor. I'll be there soon." Yu Rufeng instructed before hanging up.

He turned back to look at Yu Huang and only felt relieved when he saw that she was sleeping soundly.

Yu Rufeng picked up his phone and called the person who answered the call. "She's in my car. We're rushing to the bus stop. Let's do the exchange."

"Sell her anywhere you want. It's best if you sell her to the Blazing Realm Continent or the Hundred Beast Continent. It's legal to sell slaves there." Yu Rufeng had a good plan. He planned to sell Yu Huang as a slave. That way, he could earn a sum of money.

After hanging up, Yu Rufeng focused on driving and didn't notice the commotion behind.

In the back row, Yu Huang had already recorded Yu Rufeng's words and actions through the recording camera. She intercepted the recording of Yu Rufeng talking to his mistress and sent it to Li Pingping. Then, she sent a message to Li Pingping to inform her to go to the harbor to catch an adulterer.

Li Pingping had been having a hard time recently.

They, who were used to living in luxury, had sold all the valuables in their house in just over a month. Now, apart from a villa under their name and a car worth more than a million, they had nothing.

However, her son was in a bad mood a few days ago. He got drunk and got into a car accident. Now, he was lying unconscious in the hospital. Their prospective daughter-in-law saw that things weren't going well for them and aborted the child in her stomach early on. She unilaterally announced that she broke up with Yu Jun.

Li Pingping had been so busy these past few days that she had become emaciated.

Fortunately, her husband was ambitious and had been looking for a partner to discuss business. On account of Yu Rufeng's hard work, Li Pingping took care of Yu Jun alone and did not have any complaints.

Today, she wiped Yu Jun's body and stood up to massage her aching back. She was just about to sit down and drink some water when she heard her phone ring.

Someone had sent her a message.

Li Pingping sat down and picked up her teacup. As she drank her tea, she read the message.

She found that the anonymous number had sent an audio file. It read: "You work hard at the hospital to take care of your child. Your man and his mistress are watching the sunset at the harbor. Miss Li, you're really virtuous."

Li Pingping:!

Her expression changed drastically. She quickly put down the cup and opened the audio file to listen.

It was impossible for Li Pingping not to recognize her husband's voice. When she heard Yu Rufeng use a sleazy and mushy tone to ask that woman if he was good, Li Pingping was instantly enraged.

She suddenly stood up, picked up the mop beside the bathroom, and walked out!

Was he great?!

She would beat him up with a stick until he didn't know what a 'stick' looked like!

Chapter 73: Yu Huang, Forced to Put On An Act

Yu Rufeng was immersed in the pleasant feeling of being about to sell Yu Huang for a sum of money, and would never be threatened by Yu Huang again in the future. He felt somewhat smug, and he couldn't help but hum a little tune.

The tune was light and fast, but Yu Huang had the strange feeling that she was listening to a dirge in advance.

He should just hum with all his might. The more happily he hummed now, the more miserably he would hum later.

The car bumped along the way and stopped at a watchtower near the harbor.

Under the watchtower stood a woman in a long black silk dress. The woman had a charming figure, a thin waist, and voluptuous breasts that bulged the chest of the dress.

She held a golden bag in her hand and stood beside the watchtower with her beautiful and shiny black hair.

The wind blew and the woman's long hair flapped in the wind. She was so beautiful that she mesmerized people.

She was a stunner that made men unable to control their lust.

The moment Yu Rufeng saw her, he felt tantalized.

This was his lover, the wife of the boss of Yu Huang's agency. Her name was Zhu Yan.

Zhu Yan was 40 years old this year, but she had maintained herself well. Coupled with the expensive outfit, she looked like a charming young woman in her thirties.

Yu Rufeng turned around and looked at Yu Huang. Seeing that Yu Huang was still unconscious, he got out of the car and shouted to Zhu Yan, "Little vixen, quickly get in the car!"

She turned around and gave Yu Rufeng a charming smile. She then walked over flirtatiously while wriggling her waist.

The moment they got into the car, they hugged each other lovingly.

Yu Huang laid in the back seat and felt disgusted.

This PDA was sickening.

As if they had heard Yu Huang's thoughts, the two of them finally stopped.

Zhu Yan placed her hand on Yu Rufeng's leg. As she fondled, she hinted to him, "Call that broker and ask if he's here. Sell this nosy girl quickly, or I won't feel at ease."

"Alright!"

In front of Zhu Yan, Yu Rufeng was an obedient dog.

The broker he found was someone Zhu Yan had introduced to him. The other party was an experienced broker with the nickname Black Chain. They had never seen him in private.

Yu Rufeng called the broker and asked him, "Black Chain, where are you?"

Black Chain said decisively, "I'm waiting for you at the harbor. Hurry up, the goods are almost finished being loaded. If you don't come, our deal can only be invalid."

Although it was legal for the Hundred Beast Continent and the Blazing Realm Continent to traffick slaves, the Divine Moon Empire forbade it. If it was discovered that someone was illegally trafficking the citizens of the Divine Moon Empire, they would be publicly executed!

Black Chain was doing this business on a high wire. He cherished his life very much, and was naturally very cautious. If Yu Rufeng couldn't deliver the goods on time, and missed the time to send the ship, in order to avoid unnecessary trouble, Black Chain could only regretfully cancel this business.

Yu Rufeng could hear the ruthlessness in the other party's words. He hesitated for a moment before telling the other party, "I'm at the watchtower opposite the pier. Come over. We'll pay with one hand and sell with the other."

"Alright!"

Zhu Yan picked up the binoculars and observed the pier. A moment later, she saw a short and fat man with a leather bag in one hand walking towards the watchtower in a hurry.

"He's here."

Yu Rufeng alighted from the car and confirmed their identities with Black Chain before proceeding with the transaction.

Black Chain passed a bank card to Yu Rufeng. Yu Rufeng took out a card reader and transferred the money into his small gold bank. Only then did he nod towards Zhu Yan.

Zhu Yan pulled open the back door and glanced at Yu Huang in disdain. She then instructed Black Chain, "Hurry up and get her away. Remember to sell her further away. I see that she looks quite good when wearing that mask. Don't take the mask off. Maybe she can be sold for a good price."

"I understand." Black Chain entered the car and reached out to tap Yu Huang's glabella.

Yu Huang immediately felt her consciousness become chaotic and somewhat out of control.

Yu Huang almost lost control of her body. At this moment, Su Tingxue, who had been silent for a long time, suddenly said, "Puppet Technique!"

Yu Huang was shocked.

Puppet Technique?

There was such a thing?

Su Tingxue told her, "This broker is a Puppet Master. He can control your consciousness and make you do things according to his orders! If he has this ability, why is he hiding here as a broker?!"

Seeing that Yu Huang had been controlled, Su Tingxue decided to help her. She could only live if Yu Huang was alive. They were in the same boat.

"Yu Huang! Do as I say. Release your beast nature immediately. Find the energy body released by the other party and kill it clean!"

Yu Huang immediately calmed down and focused. She awakened the beast in her body and quickly killed the other party's energy body.

She thanked Su Tingxue silently. "Thank you."

Yu Huang thought to herself that although Su Tingxue's soul power was weak and unable to help much, she was a Purifying Spirit Grand Master who had lived for decades. Her knowledge and experience were definitely better than that of a novice who had transmigrated from another world.

It would be useful to keep her with her.

Black Chain did not know that Yu Huang had already dispelled his puppet control. He ordered Yu Huang, "Wake up!"

Yu Huang pretended to be controlled by the puppet technique and hurriedly opened her eyes obediently. Her eyes were listless, like an obedient puppet doll's.

Black Chain was satisfied and said, "Get off."

Yu Huang alighted.

Black Chain said, "Come to me!"

Yu Huang walked behind Black Chain again.

Throughout the entire process, Yu Huang followed Black Chain's orders strictly. She did not resist or hesitate at all.

Seeing this, Yu Rufeng and Zhu Yan were somewhat surprised.

"Bro, you have quite some tricks!" At this moment, Yu Rufeng had already put away his casual attitude towards Black Chain, and revealed a respectful and fearful expression.

Black Chain waved his hand and said modestly, "It's just a little trick!"

"Alright, let's go!"

Black Chain led Yu Huang to the dock and successfully passed the security check before bringing her aboard.

After getting on the boat, Black Chain pulled Yu Huang to the dark storage at the bottom of the boat. However, as soon as they entered the cabin, they were blocked by someone.

It was a handsome man in a silver-white combat suit. He leaned against the wall and held a bayonet in his hand. He tilted his head and stared at Black Chain.

His thick black eyebrows were filled with a murderous aura. One could tell that he was a warrior who had been on the battlefield for a long time. Black Chain did not dare to look at him directly.

The man suddenly raised his long leg and stepped on the wall opposite. He stood in the middle of the aisle and blocked Black Chain's path.

He touched the bayonet in his hand and raised his eyebrows as he asked Black Chain, "Friend, may I ask where you are planning to bring His Majesty's friend after abducting her?"

Upon hearing the words 'His Majesty', Black Chain's legs went weak as he hurriedly knelt on the ground.

In the Divine Moon Empire, there was only one person who had the right to call himself 'His Majesty'. That was His Majesty's only younger brother, the current prince, Mo Yuelou!

Chapter 74: The B*tchy Yu Huang

With a panicked expression, the black chain shouted, "Your Highness, please forgive this lowly one's crimes! This lowly one only wanted to earn a living! I didn't take the initiative to accept this girl. Her adoptive father sold her to me!"

Mo Yuelou looked down at the little ant on the ground with a cold expression and couldn't help but ask, "Since when have the citizens of my Divine Moon Empire been reduced to the extent of being sold as goods?"

The black chain trembled and begged even more loudly, "Please forgive me, Your Highness!"

"Forgiveness is determined by God, and I am only responsible for sending you to your death!" With that, Mo Yuelou raised the bayonet in his hand and said with a cold tone, "Private trafficking of citizens of the Divine Moon Empire is punishable by death!"

After saying that, the bayonet in Mo Yuelou's hand suddenly flew out of Mo Yuelou's hand, as if it had consciousness. The sharp spike fell from the sky and accurately pierced the broker's neck before nailing it to the floor of the corridor.

The black chain laid on the ground without even moving and died.

Mo Yuelou called out, "Tyrant's Army." The dagger left the body of the black chain and instantly hid in Mo Yuelou's body.

Seeing this, Yu Huang narrowed her eyes and asked Mo Yuelou, "This is your beast form?"

On the Holy Spirit Continent, there were all kinds of strange beast forms. Some people's beast forms were animals, some were plants, and some people's beast forms were weapons.

It was obvious that the prince's beast form was the bayonet called the Tyrant's Army.

The bayonet was sharp and unstoppable, exactly the same as Mo Yuelou.

Mo Yuelou did not answer Yu Huang's question.

He bowed to Yu Huang and pretended to apologize in frustration. "I'm sorry for being late, Professor Night Owl. Please don't blame me."

Yu Huang pursed her lips and thanked him before turning to leave.

Mo Yuelou hurriedly followed her and asked, "Professor Owl, what about the design you promised to sell to me?"

Yu Huang paused in her tracks and took out a weapon design from her storage device. She threw it to Mo Yuelou like she was throwing trash.

Mo Yuelou hurriedly reached out to catch the design. The design plan this time was thicker than all the previous ones.

Without turning her head, Yu Huang said, "You helped me this time, so I'll give you a 30% discount. Just give me 500,000 spirit stones for this design."

Without turning her head, Yu Huang said, "You helped me this time, so I'll give you a 30% discount. Just give me 500,000 spirit stones for this design."

1

This was highway robbery!

Mo Yuelou thought that Yu Huang was asking for too much, but when he flipped open the heavy design and found that it was actually a design for a new type of high altitude invisible battle plane, an ecstatic expression immediately appeared on Mo Yuelou's face.

"Thank you!"

Yu Huang waved her hand. "Let's work together again if there's a chance!" With that, she walked down the stairs and towards the watchtower.

From a distance, Yu Huang could hear Li Pingping's heart-wrenching shout. "Yu Rufeng! I stayed up all night in the hospital to take care of our son, but you actually cheated on me behind my back!"

"When you were screwing around with Zhu Yan, did you ever think about our son, who was lying in the hospital with his life on the line?!"

Yu Rufeng and Zhu Yan were both hiding in the car with the windows tightly locked. Zhu Yan's face was pale, and Yu Rufeng also had a guilty expression.

Li Pingping tried to open the car door, only to discover that the car was locked from the inside. Helpless, she could only pick up a stone not far away. She climbed to the front of the car and knelt down. She raised the stone with both hands and slammed it heavily on the glass.

Zhu Yan urged Yu Rufeng. "Hurry up and drive. Throw her away from the car!"

Yu Rufeng suddenly hesitated.

After all, she was his lawful wife. He didn't love her anymore, but still couldn't bear to hurt her.

Yu Rufeng hesitated, and Li Pingping successfully smashed the front windshield.

She threw the stone away and entered the car, ignoring the fact that the broken glass would pierce through her flesh.

"Jerk, how dare you cheat on me! I'll beat you until you're half paralyzed and you can't cheat anymore!"

Li Pingping pressed herself onto Yu Rufeng and attacked and bit him.

Zhu Yan took the opportunity to open the car door and escape.

When Yu Huang saw this, she hurriedly shouted, "Quick, come and see. The wife found out that a big shot's wife was having an affair with a bastard!"

Yu Huang's roar immediately attracted the attention of everyone near the dock.

When Li Pingping heard Yu Huang's voice, she stopped beating Yu Rufeng.

Why was Yu Huang here?

Li Pingping wanted to turn back to look at Yu Huang, but she found Zhu Yan running out of the car in a panic.

Li Pingping immediately let go of Yu Rufeng and jumped out of the car. She threw Zhu Yan onto the ground and started to take off her clothes and pants. "B*tch, you hooked up with my husband yet you still want to run?"

Li Pingping raised her fists and specifically hit Zhu Yan's face. As she hit, she scolded, "Is it good? Is the feeling of being beaten good, or is it better with my husband?"

Zhu Yan grabbed her clothes and broke down into tears. As she cried, she scolded, "You crazy woman. You're crazy and ugly. No wonder Rufeng doesn't like you!"

"He even needs to brush his teeth when he kisses you, right? When he was with me, he was very horny!"

Li Pingping was agitated and became even more ruthless. She tore the collar of Zhu Yan's dress.

Zhu Yan saw that the passersby were pointing at her and even taking out their phones to take photos. She was extremely embarrassed and could only seek help from Yu Rufeng. "Rufeng, she hit me so hard! Rufeng, save me quickly!"

When Yu Rufeng saw Zhu Yan being publicly humiliated by Li Pingping, he was truly enraged, and killing intent towards Li Pingping actually emerged in his heart.

Yu Rufeng picked up the stone and was about to smash Li Pingping's head.

Yu Huang hurriedly rushed forward and grabbed Yu Rufeng's arm. As she pulled, she even shouted loudly, "Mr. Yu, you two have been husband and wife for a long time. Even if you despise Madam Yu for being old and not charming, and are infatuated with vixens outside, you shouldn't have raised a stone to harm her!"

Upon hearing Yu Huang's words, Li Pingping suddenly stopped hitting Zhu Yan.

She turned around in disbelief and saw the stone in Yu Rufeng's hand. She realized that Yu Rufeng was really planning to kill her for that slut Zhu Yan.

She turned around in disbelief and saw the stone in Yu Rufeng's hand. She clearly realized that Yu Rufeng was really planning to kill her for that slut Zhu Yan.

1

No matter how angry and despairing she was earlier, she couldn't bear to use a rock to smash Yu Rufeng. However, when Yu Rufeng saw her humiliating that vixen Zhu Yan, he actually really planned to kill her!

She had loved the wrong person.

Li Pingping's tears finally fell. "Yu Rufeng! You're really inhumane!"

When Yu Rufeng saw Li Pingping's tears, his heart softened.

At this moment, Yu Huang took the opportunity to snatch the stone from Yu Rufeng's hand.

She hugged the rock and advised Yu Rufeng earnestly, "Mr. Yu, things really aren't easy for Madam Yu. She doesn't know that her husband has an affair, but even her son, who already knew the truth, is hiding the truth with you! Son and husband are the most important people in a woman's life. If the two of you work together to deceive her, isn't she very pitiful?"

1

Yu Huang looked at Li Pingping with pity and sighed again. "Poor Madam Yu. It's bad enough that she was deceived by her husband and son! Now that her son is in a car accident and his condition is unknown, she still has to take care of her son day and night..."

"Mr. Yu, even if you don't love Madam Yu anymore, on account of how pitiful she is, just apologize and let her feel better!"

As Yu Huang spoke, she cursed herself.

Damn!

Yu Huang, you're such a b*tch!

When the surrounding people heard about this, they looked at Yu Rufeng with an expression that it was as if they were looking at a pile of smelly shit!

The father cheated on her, and her son who knew the truth relied on threatening his father with hush money to survive. Neither of them were good people!

Chapter 75: Fragile and Pitiful

Yu Huang threw out deep water bombs one after another, causing Li Pingping to sway and almost lose her balance.

She muttered subconsciously, "Ah Jun knew all along?"

How could that be?

That child, Ah Jun, was the closest to her. Why would he help Yu Rufeng hide it?

When the spectators heard about Yu Rufeng and his son's actions from Yu Huang, they were angered to the point of being unable to continue watching, and they discussed animatedly.

"God, her husband cheated on her and her son hid it from her. In the end, her father didn't care that her son got into a car accident. Instead, she, this poor mother, had to take care of him. This world is too unfair! Sigh, it's so hard for women!"

"Why should she keep such a man?!"

"This man has bad facial features and evil eyes. One look and you can tell that he's not a good man who's willing to settle down."

"This man has bad facial features and evil eyes. One look and you can tell that he's not a good man who's willing to settle down."

3

When Yu Rufeng heard the reprimands of these strangers, his blood pressure was so high that it exceeded the limit.

Yu Rufeng's eyes widened, and he stared fixedly at the culprit, Yu Huang. He cursed at her, "Yu Huang, don't fan the flames there. I've raised you for 14 years, and this is how you repay me! Do you think that I don't have the guts to kill you?!"

Yu Huang hurriedly threw down the rock and acted pitiful and afraid. She quickly hid behind the crowd of spectators and covered her head with her hands while shouting, "Help! He wants to kill me!"

These onlookers were also very righteous. They hurriedly shielded Yu Huang behind them, and asked Yu Rufeng with a gloomy expression, "Who do you want to kill?! In broad daylight, the Divine Moon Empire is not a place where you can kill whoever you want!"

Yu Rufeng found it hard to fight against so many people. When he saw Yu Huang hiding behind everyone and making faces at him, he could only tolerate it!

At this moment, Li Pingping finally returned to her senses.

She looked at Yu Rufeng suspiciously and asked skeptically, "Is what Yu Huang said true? Ah Jun already knew that you had an affair?"

Yu Rufeng avoided her gaze and didn't say anything.

Seeing this, what did Li Pingping not understand?

Li Pingping suddenly broke down. She covered her head with her hand and stomped her feet. She questioned Yu Rufeng in a sharp voice, “Yu Rufeng, say something! Did Ah Jun already know?!”

How would Yu Rufeng dare to answer?

Yu Huang took the opportunity to add to the conflict between the two of them. She told Li Pingping, “I dare to guarantee that it’s all true! I once saw Yu Jun use Mr. Yu’s affair as a bargaining chip and threaten Mr. Yu to give him money to spend! Mrs. Yu, do you remember that last year, Mr. Yu spent a huge sum of money to buy a sports car for Yu Jun? It’s just to shut him up?!”

Li Pingping had already lost her mind. She believed whatever Yu Huang said.

Because last year, Yu Rufeng had indeed looked for her to give Yu Jun some money to buy a sports car. At that time, Li Pingping, thinking that Yu Rufeng loved his child, was still very happy.

From the looks of it, the fatherly love between the two of them was just a disgusting transaction of money.

The beautiful family that she was proud of was also a joke.

Li Pingping burst into tears and sat on the ground. She wailed and complained about Yu Rufeng’s crimes.

“Yu Rufeng, you’ve let me down! Back then, when we gave birth to our son, my amniotic fluid embolism almost killed me. Later on, my body was damaged and I was unable to conceive anymore!”

“Back then, when we adopted Yu Huang home, we thought that we could live a happy life with both children. However, your company went bankrupt! After going bankrupt, you were never able to recover. You drank all day long. Our family was almost destroyed!”

“If I didn’t see through Yu Huang’s potential and let her debut as a child star and rely on the money she earns to help our family, you, Yu Rufeng, would still be working at some construction site!”

“In the past ten years, if it wasn’t for the fact that we’ve had Yu Huang, this ATM, and our family once again lived a life of luxury, just based on your wretched appearance, not to mention sleeping with Zhu Yan, but even the dogs in the wilderness won’t like you!”

In the past, Li Pingping would never have said these words. However, the double betrayal of her husband and son had completely crushed Li Pingping’s self-esteem and rationality.

Li Pingping was unhinged. She said whatever was on her mind.

When the crowd heard Li Pingping’s words, they recognized the couple. So they were Yu Huang’s adoptive parents!

And the words that Li Pingping had said without thinking had also revealed what the couple had done to Yu Huang.

“Oh my god, so the rumors are true. The money Yu Huang earned as a celebrity for more than a decade was squandered by this couple!”

“To think that they even held a press conference not long ago and scolded Yu Huang in a roundabout manner in the press conference as an ingrate who did not know how to be grateful. In my opinion, the Yu Family is the one who is ungrateful!”

“Such a heartless couple should be sued in court and asked to return all the money to Yu Huang!”

Yu Huang used to be a public role model. These women watched her grow up. They had a good impression of her.

Some time ago, after Yu Huang’s face was disfigured, she severed all ties with Yu Rufeng and his wife. Yu Rufeng and his wife hurriedly jumped out to hint that there was something wrong with Yu Huang’s character and that she didn’t know how to be grateful.

At that time, they had already felt that there was something fishy about this matter. Now, it seemed that Yu Rufeng and his wife were indeed up to no good.

“This family is really ruthless! The husband is unfaithful, the son is helping the father cover up the truth of the affair, and the wife is using her adoptive daughter to earn money. All of them are outrageous!”

Yu Huang was deeply satisfied with the reaction of these enthusiastic spectators. She took the opportunity to leave before everyone recognized her.

After Yu Huang left, the women finally reacted. “Hey, that woman surnamed Yu just now called the girl behind us Yu Huang. Could she be Yu Huang?”

“Hey, where’s Yu Huang? Where’s she?” Everyone turned to look for Yu Huang, only to discover that she had already left.

When Yu Rufeng heard these people’s words, he realized that Li Pingping had said something stupid. He gave Li Pingping a warning look and scolded, “Are you stupid?! Can you say such words in public?!”

In the Divine Moon Empire, it was not illegal to have an affair. At most, it would be considered a moral issue. However, as adoptive parents, it was illegal to privately take away the assets of an underage adoptive daughter. They would have to go to jail.

Being scolded, Li Pingping was even more angry. “I’m stupid. If I wasn’t stupid, why wouldn’t I see through my husband and son’s true colors?”

Li Pingping stood up from the ground. She smiled sadly at Yu Rufeng and said, “Yu Rufeng, our son is already willing to cover up for you. The two of you are the ones who truly have a deep relationship. As the mother, I’m a fool and an outsider!”

Her gaze gradually became distorted and crazy. “Since you guys are so close, then our son is still lying in a coma in the hospital. Why don’t... you accompany him too?!”

As soon as she finished speaking, Li Pingping suddenly bent down and picked up the rock Yu Huang had thrown on the ground. She caught Yu Rufeng off guard and forcefully smashed the rock onto Yu Rufeng’s head!

Bang!

In an instant, Yu Rufeng's face was covered in blood.

He blinked his eyes slowly and looked at Li Pingping and the rock in her hand in disbelief. He wanted to say something, but he couldn't say it, so he fell straight to the ground...

Chapter 76: How many men does Yu Huang have a relationship with?

Yu Rufeng's skull shattered, and he was sent to the hospital for emergency treatment.

Li Pingping was taken away by the police because she had deliberately injured someone. After interrogation, they learned that Yu Huang had also appeared at the crime scene. The police came to Yu Huang's rented room and brought her to the police station.

As Yu Huang's fake friend, Su Qianqian had been extorted by Yu Huang a few days ago. She bore a grudge against her and wanted to capture dirt on Yu Huang.

With the dirt on Yu Huang, she would no longer fear Yu Huang's threat in the future.

Just as Yu Huang was taken away by the police, Su Qianqian received a picture from the detective.

As the saying goes, the opening of a game depended on making up the contents. Su Qianqian immediately sold these photos to a reporter who often worked with her while letting him act freely as long as he could tarnish Yu Huang's reputation.

Hence, while Yu Huang was sitting at the police station doing her statement, the fake trending topics like # Yu Huang was caught #, # pornographic activity, and # arrested # quickly trended.

Su Qianqian's actions was worthy of her title as Yu Huang's best fake friend.

...

In the police station.

Yu Huang sat in the interrogation room calmly. She even asked the police for a cup of water.

Since Yu Huang was not a suspect and her attitude was highly cooperative, he agreed to give her a cup of water.

Yu Huang even rubbed her stomach and reminded the young policeman, "I want warm water please."

The young police officer stole a glance at Yu Huang.

Yu Huang was wearing the half mask of a phoenix that Sheng Xiao had given her. The mask covered the right side of her face that was full of burn marks, revealing the beautiful left side of her face. It made her look charming.

The young policeman blushed and hurriedly ran to get some water.

Officer Zhang, who was in charge of the investigation, coughed. After attracting Yu Huang's attention, he asked, "Yu Huang, the harbor is more than 50 kilometers away from the estate you live in. Why were you there? Don't tell me that you happened to be there to see the sea."

Yu Huang blinked her eyes and said in an innocent tone, "Officer Zhang, Mr. Yu knows very well why I appeared at that pier."

Officer Zhang frowned. "Make yourself clear."

Yu Huang honestly confessed everything. "Yu Rufeng said that Yu Jun was injured in a car accident and was lying in the hospital in a coma. He wanted to bring me to see Yu Jun. You also know that Yu Rufeng and his wife were my adoptive parents in the past. Although my relationship with the Yu Clan is not good, and it can even be said that it's a little bag, but I and Yu Jun are siblings who have been together for more than ten years. My elder brother's life is in danger, so I should go take a look. If I don't go, it will be outrageous."

Yu Huang lied and didn't tell Officer Zhang the real reason why she met Yu Rufeng. In any case, Yu Rufeng was injured and wouldn't be able to wake up for the time being, so she could say whatever she wanted.

"Out of affection, I agreed to visit Yu Jun at the hospital. However, I didn't expect him to inject anesthesia into me the moment I got on Yu Rufeng's car. When I woke up, I found out that I had been brought to a cargo ship heading to the Hundred Beast Continent by a human trafficker called Black Chain. Fortunately, I met the prince, and he saved me. I escaped death."

"I have the habit of carrying a recording pen with me. After the incident happened, I examined the recording document and discovered that Yu Rufeng and Zhu Yan actually sold me to Black Chain to sell me to the Hundred Beast Continent as a slave."

In order to prove that what she said was true, Yu Huang took the initiative to hand in the recording document. "This contains the contents of Yu Rufeng's phone call with Zhu Yan in the car. It can prove that what I said is true."

This recording document was a clip taken by Yu Huang. It did not contain the contents of the conversation she had with Mo Yuelou before she got into the car.

Officer Zhang stared at the recording pen in front of him and glanced at Yu Huang with a gloomy gaze. His tone became fierce. "Yu Huang, don't lie. The prince is such a noble person. How could he have any interaction with you?! Besides, the prince is attending the royal meeting in Jingdu today. It's impossible for him to appear in the Prosperous Capital."

Yu Huang clicked her tongue and immediately took out her phone to call the Ink Moon Tower.

The call connected, and the face of the Ink Moon Tower appeared on Yu Huang's phone screen.

Just as the Ink Moon Tower was about to ask Yu Huang what she wanted to do with the video call, they saw Yu Huang raise a finger to her lips.

The Ink Moon Tower instantly fell silent.

Yu Huang explained, "Your Highness, please be a witness for me. It proves that my appearance at the harbor today was because I was sold to Black Chain as a slave by my former adoptive father, Yu Rufeng."

With that said, Yu Huang turned the phone screen towards Officer Zhang.

When Officer Zhang saw the face of the Ink Moon Tower, he immediately stood up and quickly tidied up his clothes. He gave a standard military salute to the Ink Moon Tower. "Good evening, Your Highness!"

The Ink Moon Tower returned a military salute and said, "I can testify that Night... Yu Huang is telling the truth. Now, I want to see your highest ranking officer."

Officer Zhang hurriedly took his phone and knocked on his superior's door.

Officer Zhou was playing chess when Officer Zhang interrupted him. He was initially unhappy, but when he saw the handsome and imposing man on the screen, he immediately stood up and saluted. He shouted, "Your Highness! Hello! I am Zhou Jin, the highest-ranking officer in the Prosperous Capital's police force!"

The Ink Moon Tower nodded. "I have something to tell you."

Zhou Jin looked at Officer Zhang. After no one was in the office, he said to the Ink Moon Tower, "Your Highness, what can I do for you?"

The Ink Moon Tower looked at Zhou Jin with a serious gaze. He said, "I want you to immediately send Yu Huang home, and promise that you will never cause her any trouble again. You have to remember that Yu Huang is the number 1 protection target of the Divine Moon Empire's military. Nothing can happen to her!"

Hearing this, although Zhou Jin was surprised, he didn't dare to ask.

The number 1 target of protection was a protection level similar to that of the core members of the royal family. In other words, from now on, Yu Huang would be protected by the entire Divine Moon Empire's military. Her information and her whereabouts were all classified.

Zhou Jin promised, "Your Highness, I swear to you that as long as Yu Huang is in the Prosperous Capital, the Prosperous Capital police will definitely protect her and ensure her safety!"

"Okay."

Zhou Jin originally intended to personally escort Yu Huang home, but his status was too high, so personally escorting Yu Huang would arouse suspicion. Therefore, he asked Officer Zhang to escort her back.

When she left the police station, Yu Huang held a thermos in her left hand and a bag of chocolate beans in her right hand. Zhou Jin had stuffed them into her hands.

After getting into the car, Officer Zhang couldn't help but secretly size up Yu Huang. He really didn't understand why Yu Huang was given special treatment by his superior.

And what was her relationship with the prince?

Could it be that after Yu Huang was dumped by Xuanyuan Jing, she started dating the prince?

But some time ago, there was news that she was having a relationship with the top genius of the Sheng family.

So, how many men did she have?

Yu Huang tore open the snack packaging and threw a chocolate bean into her mouth. She met Officer Zhang's gaze through the rearview mirror. Officer Zhang avoided her gaze in a panic, but some strange images flashed past Yu Huang's mind.

She saw a river at night and a man who had been placed in a nylon bag with a large rock on top of him and was slowly sinking to the bottom of the river.

That man was Officer Zhang.

On the bank, there was a woman in a police uniform. There was a row of numbers printed on her police uniform.

What she saw was probably the scene of an undercover assassin assassinating a police officer and dumping his corpse into the river.

And that was most likely the scene of Officer Zhang's death.

What was this?

Foreseeing ability?

Chapter 77: Jinx

This was not the first time Yu Huang had seen the scene of one's death through someone's eyes. Yu Huang remembered that the first time such a situation had happened was on the day she was brought home by Yu Donghai.

That day, on the bus, she had also seen a young man being trampled to death in an internet cafe.

At that time, she was not sure if she could really foresee the death of a certain person. It was only when she saw the trending news on Weibo the next day and learned that the internet cafe had indeed been burned and a young man had died that she dared to believe that what she saw was not an illusion but a specific future.

So this time, was she looking at the scene of Officer Zhang's death?

Being able to foresee death was not an enviable ability. If others knew about her special ability, they would probably treat her as a monster and think that she was a jinx.

Yu Huang stared at the back of Officer Zhang's head for a while and decided not to be a busybody. She retracted her gaze and lowered her head to continue eating the chocolate beans.

Officer Zhang stopped the car at the entrance of the estate and reminded Yu Huang to alight. "Yu Huang, we're at the entrance of the estate."

Yu Huang threw the last chocolate bean into her mouth and opened the door. She said to Officer Zhang, "Sorry to trouble you, Officer Zhang."

She got out of the car and walked towards the entrance of the estate. When she turned back, she realized that Officer Zhang's car was still parked there. He had also rolled down the car window and was looking at her.

It was already late at night. He was probably worried about Yu Huang returning home alone. He would only leave after seeing Yu Huang safely home.

For no reason, Yu Huang's heart softened again.

He was a dedicated public servant.

Yu Huang pursed her red lips and walked towards Officer Zhang.

Seeing that she had returned, Officer Zhang hurriedly looked at the back row. Seeing that Yu Huang had not left anything behind, he asked her, "What else is it, young friend?"

The image of Officer Zhang being buried under the river flashed through Yu Huang's mind. In the end, she reminded him out of turn, "Officer Zhang, pay attention to the female police officer numbered 05*. She will bring you disaster."

With that said, Yu Huang turned around and left.

After hearing Yu Huang's random advice, Officer Zhang felt baffled. He suspected that Yu Huang had suffered a blow to her face that had damaged her brain.

He returned to the police station. Before he could sit on the stool for long, Zhou Jin called him to his office.

Zhou Jin asked him, "What's so special about that girl called Yu Huang?" He was very curious. Yu Huang was neither a member of the royal family nor a genius researcher. Why was she a level 1 protective target?

Officer Zhang frowned and said honestly, "I didn't notice anything special. It's quite strange, but I didn't understand what she said."

"Huh?" Zhou Jin asked curiously, "What did she say?"

Officer Zhang passed the words that Yu Huang said when she alighted the car to Zhou Jin.

When Zhou Jin heard that, he hurriedly opened the police station's internal system and searched for police officer number 05*.

He had really found her. She was a young police officer who had just arrived at the Prosperous Capital. She was quite beautiful and did not look like a bad person.

However, bad people often had angelic faces.

Zhou Jin hesitated for a moment, but in the end, he still included this person in the suspect list. He reminded Officer Zhang, "Then listen to Yu Huang. Stay away from this young police officer." The person the prince wanted to protect wouldn't be a bad person.

Officer Zhang was speechless.

He had a nagging feeling that today, his boss was acting a little strange.

The streetlights shone on the cement roads of the district.

Yu Huang walked towards the residential building with light footsteps. Before she even approached the corridor, she saw Yu Donghai. Yu Donghai was wearing a washed and faded coat. He was sitting on a small stool and leaning against the wall while dozing off.

During the late night of early autumn, it was already a little cold. Yu Donghai didn't sleep soundly and couldn't help but tighten his coat.

Yu Huang looked at Yu Donghai from afar, and suddenly felt a sense of belonging.

To this world, she was an intruder from the alternate world. However, to Yu Donghai, she was his daughter and the person he cherished the most.

Yu Huang walked in front of Yu Donghai and gently patted the back of Yu Donghai's hand.

Yu Donghai opened his eyes warily. When he saw that it was Yu Huang, he grabbed Yu Huang's hand excitedly and asked anxiously, "They said that you were taken away by the police. What happened?"

Yu Huang passed the walking stick leaning against the wall to Yu Donghai and said, "Let's talk when we get home. It's cold outside."

"Okay."

After returning home, Yu Donghai poured a cup of grapefruit tea for Yu Huang. He said, "Have a cup of grapefruit tea to get rid of the bad luck."

Yu Huang smiled and drank up the grapefruit tea. Only then did she tell Yu Donghai everything that happened today, no matter how big or small.

After Yu Donghai heard this, he was so angry that he slammed the table. "Yu Rufeng is a bastard! He actually wants to sell you off as a slave!"

Yu Donghai turned around and entered the kitchen. He picked up the kitchen knife and was about to fight it out with Yu Rufeng. "Which hospital is that bastard at? I'll go chop him up!"

Yu Huang was very moved. She hurriedly walked over and hugged Yu Donghai's arm, then gently took the kitchen knife from Yu Donghai's hand. "Father, a life for a life. Don't do anything stupid. Lie low for now. In the future, accompany me back to the Yin Clan and stir up trouble for him."

"Nothing else matters."

When Yu Donghai heard Yu Huang's words, his anxious mood subsided a lot.

However, he was still unwilling to give up. He sighed and said, "I'm unwilling to let that bastard off just like that!"

Yu Huang continued, "In the Divine Moon Empire, privately selling citizens abroad to be slaves will either result in lifelong imprisonment or a death penalty. Yu Rufeng will not make a comeback."

“Li Pingping violated the protection law for minors because she embezzled my money. She will also be punished by the law. She will either have to compensate or go to jail.”

“So, Father, we can live our lives in peace now. Don’t care about anything else.”

Yu Huang did not want to settle things with Yu Rufeng’s family. She went out on a long journey and left Yu Donghai alone at home.

Originally, Yu Huang felt that Yu Rufeng and his wife had shown kindness to the Host and originally didn’t intend to exterminate Yu Rufeng’s family. However, Yu Rufeng’s actions of selling her to Black Chain as a slave had truly angered Yu Huang.

Yu Huang was never a kind person. She would not let off those who bullied her easily.

So, Yu Rufeng was reaping the fruits of his own actions.

When Yu Donghai heard Yu Huang’s words, he finally felt better.

Yu Huang thought of something and hurriedly asked Yu Donghai, “Father, have you drunk the top-grade Scattering Poison Pill that Mentor asked me to give you?”

Yu Donghai stammered, “I drank it, I drank it.”

When Yu Huang saw the shifty look in Yu Donghai’s eyes, she guessed that he might not have drunk the medicine.

She ran into Yu Donghai’s room and opened Yu Donghai’s safe drawer. Sure enough, she found a supreme-grade Scattering Poison Pill inside.

Yu Huang held the bottle of medicine and arrived in front of Yu Donghai. With a gloomy expression, she said angrily, “Father, you must drink this medicine. You will only feel at ease after your body recovers.”

Seeing that he couldn’t hide it anymore, Yu Donghai finally confessed his thoughts to Yu Huang. “I can’t bear to drink this medicine. This medicine can cure a myriad of poisons. The medicinal effect is very good, but it’s too expensive. It’s inevitable that you will be injured and poisoned on your cultivation path.. I want to leave that medicine to you.”

Chapter 78: Successfully Detoxed, Lou Lan Ancient Pavilion

Yu Huang wasn’t like Xuanyuan Jing. Xuanyuan Jing and the rest had the backing of a great cultivation clan and had countless spirit pills and miraculous medicines to consume. If they were injured or in trouble, the great clan behind them would do their best to treat them.

However, Yu Huang did not have such good conditions. She only had a broken leg and a father who was not capable. On the path of cultivation, she would always struggle alone.

Yu Donghai was unable to give Yu Huang any substantial help, so he thought of keeping all these good things as long as possible. He was afraid that one day, Yu Huang would be injured or poisoned, so he could only watch helplessly and anxiously.

Yu Huang understood Yu Donghai’s true thoughts, and once again, she felt moved. In order to let Yu Donghai take the pill in peace, Yu Huang could only confess a portion of the truth to Yu Donghai.

She told Yu Donghai, "Father, I have always had business dealings with the prince. I sold some weapon designs to him and earned quite a few spirit stones. I can buy up to a hundred top-grade Scattering Poison Pills."

Yu Donghai thought that Yu Huang was lying to him, and wanted to deceive him into taking the Scattering Poison Pill. "Don't lie to me. You haven't learned weapon design at all, so what do you know about design?!"

Yu Huang said without changing her expression, "Maybe I was born smart. When I was filming in the past, I used to read professional books in this area every day. After all, my father is a genius. A genius's daughter has to be a genius!"

When he heard this, Yu Donghai felt uncertain again. The Young Master was so smart, so a woman who could be admired by the Young Master was probably not an ordinary person. It wasn't strange that the Young Master's daughter's natural talent was extraordinary.

Yu Donghai asked skeptically, "How many spirit stones do you have?"

Yu Huang took out the Spirit Stone Storage Card. It was a dark purple circular card. On it was the badge of the Beast Tamer Alliance. As a Beast Tamer, Yu Donghai was well aware that the minimum requirement for this kind of dark purple Spirit Stone Storage Card was that the number of Spirit Stones stored could not be less than 100,000.

After seeing the Spirit Stone Storage Card, Yu Donghai finally believed Yu Huang's words.

He stroked Yu Huang's hair proudly and sighed again. "If the Young Master was still alive, he would definitely be proud of you."

Yu Huang put away the storage card, poured out the pill, and handed it to Yu Donghai. "Father, drink this medicine quickly."

Yu Donghai hesitated for a long time before finally taking the Scattering Poison Pill. He walked to the bed and laid down.

When the Scattering Poison Pill entered Yu Donghai's body, it immediately emitted a burning sensation. The meridians in Yu Donghai's body were quickly opened. The effect of the Scattering Poison Pill appeared in his body. Yu Huang could see with her naked eye that there were many black toxins seeping out from Yu Donghai's pores.

The poison had remained in Yu Donghai's body for nearly twenty years. The moment they came into contact with the air, they emitted a rich and foul smell.

Yu Huang opened the window and tried to let the smell out.

The process of expelling the poison made Yu Donghai feel very pained. He tried his best to use his willpower to withstand it. When he really couldn't take it anymore, he grabbed the bedsheets forcefully or bit onto a towel to distract himself.

The detoxification lasted for an entire day. Yu Huang also guarded Yu Donghai by the bed for an entire day.

The next night, Yu Donghai woke up and felt exceptionally relaxed.

He felt the changes in his body, and a satisfied smile appeared on his thin face. "It really doesn't hurt anymore. I feel like my mind has become much clearer."

"That's a good thing." Yu Huang felt happy for Yu Donghai. She patted her nose with her hand and said with disdain, "Father, go take a shower quickly. You smell bad."

Yu Donghai hurriedly went to take a shower.

After taking a shower, Yu Donghai changed his clothes and walked out. There was a smile on his face.

Yu Huang sized up Yu Donghai a few times and felt that the look in her father's eyes had become much more energetic. She also felt much more relieved. "Father, I made you some seaweed soup noodles. Come over quickly."

Yu Donghai walked to the dining room and sat down. He ate a huge mouthful of noodles and heard Yu Huang say, "I'll be going on a long trip with my mentor next week."

Yu Donghai stopped eating, raised his head and asked her, "Then where is the scrooge taking you?"

Yu Huang said, "Lou Lan Ancient Pavilion."

As a Beast Tamer in the past, Yu Donghai naturally knew about the Lou Lan Ancient Pavilion. Yu Huang had already awakened her beast form. It was time to search for a suitable cultivation technique for her.

Yu Donghai told Yu Huang, "Every Beast Tamer must find a cultivation technique that is suitable for them. With the support of a cultivation technique, cultivating it will yield twice the results with half the effort. However, the higher the grade of the cultivation technique, the harder it is to capture and absorb. Thus, many Beast Tamers will cultivate a few cultivation techniques in their lifetime, all from low to high..."

When he spoke up to here, Yu Donghai changed the topic, and said with a proud expression, "But the Young Master was very formidable. I heard that when he went to the Lou Lan Ancient Pavilion at the age of 12, he was lucky enough to acquire a first-grade Divine Rank cultivation technique. However, he suffered quite a bit. Back then, when he was absorbing the cultivation technique, he almost lost his life."

"A first-grade Divine Rank cultivation technique? Cultivation techniques are divided into grades?" The original owner was an ordinary person in the past and knew little about the world of Beast Tamers. Naturally, Yu Huang also didn't know that cultivation techniques actually had different grades.

Yu Donghai nodded, and he patiently explained the differences between the various cultivation techniques for Yu Huang. "There are three grades of cultivation techniques, Mortal, Witch, and Divine, and every grade has five grades..."

Mortal-stage cultivation techniques were naturally the lowest-grade cultivation techniques. Their creators were mostly unknown Beast Tamers.

The creators of Witch-level cultivation techniques were mostly famous Grand Masters and Prime Masters. These cultivation techniques had spiritual consciousness, so their power was naturally far beyond what Mortal cultivation techniques could compare with.

As for the founder of Divine Rank cultivation methods, they were mostly cultivation methods created by the rulers of the various worlds. These cultivation methods were boundlessly powerful, and no ordinary person could acquire them.

Hearing Yu Donghai explain the difference in cultivation techniques, Yu Huang was extremely shocked. She said, "I thought that the cultivation techniques in the Lou Lan Ancient Pavilion were all self-created techniques by the ancestors of our Holy Spirit Continent. According to your words, cultivation techniques are universal among the three thousand worlds?"

"Of course." Yu Donghai explained. "That Lou Lan Ancient Pavilion is actually a chaotic Time Valley. It's essentially the same as the spatial gate. A Time Valley is divided into every single world of the three thousand worlds. It connects the three thousand worlds forever."

"Every time someone creates a cultivation technique of their own, they will turn the cultivation technique into a thought and throw it into the Time Valley. These intent bodies will continuously shuttle through the Time Valley of the three thousand worlds while waiting for the fated person to meet them. Therefore, the cultivation techniques of the three thousand worlds are interlinked."

Yu Huang was stunned when she heard that.

After knowing that the Time Valley connected the three thousand worlds, Yu Huang thought of something else and could not help but raise her doubts. "If the Time Valley is the same as the Time Gate, then why can't those people from the Upper World come to our world after my father sealed the Time Gate?"

Yu Donghai shook his head and said, "That's because the energy bodies in the spatial gate are relatively stable, and the energy bodies in the Time Valley are too strong. Even Prime Masters are unable to survive in there. According to legend, only Divine Masters are able to move freely in the Time Valley."

Yu Huang felt that the so-called Time Valley was somewhat like the cosmic black hole studied by scientists. "I see."

Yu Donghai reminded her again, "When you reach the Lou Lan Ancient Pavilion, when you are searching for cultivation techniques, you must remember not to be sucked into the Time Valley. There was once a Beast Tamer who was accidentally sucked into the Time Valley and was pulverized by the chaotic energy in the Time Valley."

"I understand."

"Speaking of which, after I awakened my beast form back then, it was Young Master who personally brought me to the Lou Lan Ancient Pavilion to search for the cultivation technique. However, I was not as good as the Young Master, so in the end, I only managed to capture a scroll of a second-grade Witch cultivation technique."

Yu Donghai smiled and patted Yu Huang's head. With a face filled with anticipation, he said, "I hope you can find a cultivation technique that's suitable for you."

Yu Huang only smiled and didn't reply.

However, she had an answer in her heart—

A cultivation technique that suited her could only be the most powerful cultivation technique!

Chapter 79: This is blatant favoritism

In a flash, it was time for Lin Jiansheng and Yu Huang to leave Prosperous Capital and head to the Lou Lan Ancient Pavilion.

Yu Huang packed her luggage one night in advance and stored it in her storage device.

When Yu Donghai saw that she already had her own storage device, he didn't even bother to shower. He, afraid that Yu Huang would be hungry, held onto his walking stick and ran to the big supermarket outside the estate to buy a lot of nutritious food.

After returning to the room, he stuffed all the snacks into Yu Huang's storage device and complained, "After so many years, these storage devices still haven't been improved at all, and they don't have any electricity. I originally wanted to buy you a refrigerator and a microwave, and then make some dishes for you to freeze. If you're hungry, you can eat them directly."

Yu Huang was caught between laughter and tears. She said, "When I reach the level of a Grandmaster, I'll create a spatial storage device myself. Then, I'll build a house and plant rice inside. I'll make a utopia."

Yu Donghai had blind confidence in Yu Huang. When he heard this, he immediately nodded and said, "That's how it should be. I believe you can do it."

Yu Donghai had blind confidence in Yu Huang. When he heard this, he immediately nodded and said, "That's how it should be. I believe you can do it."

1

The next morning, Yu Huang woke up early. After eating a bowl of Yu Donghai's warm porridge and braised eggs, she headed to the Purifying Spirit Academy under the morning sun.

When they arrived at the Purifying Spirit Academy, Yu Huang was somewhat frightened when she saw Lin Jiansheng, who had shaved his head. "Mentor, why did you shave your hair?"

1

This bald head reminded Yu Huang of the braised egg she ate at home this morning.

Lin Jiansheng touched his smooth head and said, "My hair is too long. It's troublesome to wash it, so I shaved my head." This was indeed the M.O. of a lazy person.

Yu Huang admired Lin Jiansheng's frank attitude of not taking his image seriously.

The mentor-disciple pair took a taxi to the airport. After boarding the plane, Lin Jiansheng also explained the differences between the various cultivation techniques for Yu Huang.

Even though she had long heard this from her father, Yu Huang still listened patiently and quietly. Seeing that she was listening attentively, Lin Jiansheng couldn't help but ask, "Didn't that old fart give you any general knowledge?"

He was naturally referring to Yu Donghai.

Yu Huang lowered her head and read the college entrance examination scripture that Lin Jiansheng had written for her. Upon hearing this, she said without raising her head, "He had before."

Lin Jiansheng rolled his eyes and couldn't help but complain to her. "You already know, yet you still want me to repeat it. What a waste of breath." His mouth felt dry.

Lin Jiansheng opened the cup and took a sip of water. He heard Yu Huang say, "I want a double portion of your love, Mentor."

Upon hearing this, Lin Jiansheng raised his eyebrows and declared solemnly, "Don't act cute. I don't buy it." Although he said that, the expression on his face became much gentler.

Lin Jiansheng tightened the lid of the cup and tilted his head to look at the mask on Yu Huang's face. He asked curiously, "Where did you customize this mask? The workmanship is extraordinary."

Yu Huang froze. She did not say Sheng Xiao's name directly. She only said, "A friend gave it to me."

Lin Jiansheng lamented, "That friend of yours must be very rich. He's so generous."

Was this mask very expensive?

Yu Huang's attention was diverted from the sea of books. She touched the mask on her face in surprise and asked Lin Jiansheng, "Mentor, is this mask very expensive?"

"Of course, the material of your mask looks like composite X fiber. It's the lightest and toughest composite material on the Holy Spirit Continent. It can be said to be the best material to make a mask. For example, the material cost for the mask on your face alone won't be less than 20,000 Spirit Stones, let alone the design and crafting fees."

After Yu Huang heard Lin Jiansheng's explanation, she immediately felt that the mask on her face had become heavy.

When Lin Jiansheng saw Yu Huang's reaction, he knew that she still didn't know how expensive her mask was.

Lin Jiansheng revealed a money-grubber look and asked Yu Huang enthusiastically, "Ah Huang, where did you get to know such a tycoon? Tell me everything. I'll befriend him someday."

As a scrooge, Lin Jiansheng loved rich friends the most.

Yu Huang knew that Lin Jiansheng was teasing her. She was also a little embarrassed and did not dare to tell Lin Jiansheng the truth. Thus, she replied vaguely, "Just a good friend."

Lin Jiansheng narrowed his eyes, which were filled with understanding. "Don't tell me that your good friend is Mr. Sheng?"

Yu Huang's eyes widened slightly in shock. "Why do you say it's him?"

Lin Jiansheng stroked his chin and asked with a mysterious expression, "Ah Huang, you've never browsed the Beast Tamer Alliance's website, right?"

Yu Huang shook her head and told Lin Jiansheng, "No, I haven't gotten my Beast Tamer Certificate yet. I can't enter that website."

No wonder.

Lin Jiansheng told Yu Huang, "Some time ago, a survivor who participated in the battle against the Purifying Spirit Sacred Pearl at the top of the Black Dome leaked the news. He said that he saw Mr. Sheng at the top of the Black Dome. Not only did Mr. Sheng snatch the Purifying Spirit Sacred Pearl, but he also broke through in that battle and officially became a Supreme Master."

At this point, Lin Jiansheng chuckled and said with a half-hearted smile, "You told me that you were able to successfully remove the Spirit Restraining Parasite from your body precisely because of the effect of the Purifying Spirit Sacred Pearl. I just can't figure it out. Look at Young Master Sheng. He went through great pains to snatch the Purifying Spirit Sacred Pearl and gave it to you generously instead of giving it to his family's children. Why is that?"

"Isn't this blatant favoritism?"

Lin Jiansheng was already old, but was unusually passionate about gossip. In his free time, he would also hide in the study to read novels and browse Weibo.

If he wanted to ship a couple, no one could stop him.

"Also, last time, when you participated in the Beast Awakening Ceremony in the Purifying Spirit Academy, he did not bless others, but he blessed you with good luck. I don't believe that there's nothing between the two of you."

Yu Huang did not think that there was anything between her and Sheng Xiao at first. However, after hearing Lin Jiansheng's analysis, she felt that there was something between them.

But she knew that Sheng Xiao did not have any feelings for her.

Lin Jiansheng's seemingly rational analysis did not make Yu Huang feel smug. "Mentor, don't talk nonsense!"

Yu Huang was very calm. She told Lin Jiansheng, "Sheng Xiao thinks that the six families are responsible for the Spirit Restraining Parasite in my body. As the successor of the six families, he has the duty to remove the Spirit Restraining Parasite for me. That's why he helped me snatch the Purifying Spirit Sacred Pearl."

That was the truth.

That had to be it.

"Oh, got it." Lin Jiansheng seemed to believe Yu Huang's explanation and temporarily shut his mouth.

Before Yu Huang could even relax, she heard Lin Jiansheng say, “Mr. Sheng helped you snatch the Purifying Spirit Sacred Pearl because of his responsibility. Then, since you were disfigured, he spent a lot of money to build a mask for you because it was the six families’ fault?”

Yu Huang was instantly rendered speechless.

Seeing that Yu Huang had nothing to say, Lin Jiansheng felt a little smug.

There was another indecent smile on his face. He continued, “Also, that brat from the Xuanyuan clan thinks that you’re ugly. He broke off the engagement with you and embarrassed you. As the heir of the Sheng family, the head of the six families, should he marry you?”

1

Yu Huang was speechless.

Lin Jiansheng was not done yet. He continued, “The six families are not kind families.. They have taken many measures and harmed many innocent people. Why don’t you see Sheng Xiao compensating?”

Chapter 80: An ulterior motive

“Besides, Sheng Xiao is famous for being proud and cold. When did he become so kind-hearted?” Lin Jiansheng snorted and said what he really thought. “I think he has an ulterior motive. He likes you.”

Hearing Lin Jiansheng’s analysis, Yu Huang could not help but think narcissistically, ‘Could it be that Sheng Xiao really likes me?’

Yu Huang touched her mask and immediately rejected this possibility.

Everyone loved beauty, let alone Sheng Xiao, a privileged person. A person like him would definitely find a beautiful and talented woman as his wife in the future.

“Master, don’t make wild guesses. How can you not know what kind of image I have now?”

Lin Jiansheng was furious when he heard Yu Huang disparaging herself. “What kind of image do you have? Are you inferior to others just because you’re disfigured? I only know that you’re a Beast Tamer with a high-level beast form and a genius who became a Level 2 Purifying Spirit Master at the age of 18! In my eyes, you’re not inferior to Sheng Xiao!”

“So what if he’s the young master of the Sheng family? You’re also the young master of the Yin family! In terms of family background and cultivation talent, how are you inferior to Sheng Xiao? Sheng Xiao is even older than you by a few years. It’s hard to say who is better!”

“What, you’re already feeling inferior?” Lin Jiansheng was exasperated at Yu Huang’s low self-esteem. He knocked Yu Huang on the head forcefully and scolded, “What’s the use of feeling inferior? You have to believe that you were born to make others feel inferior!”

After being reprimanded by Lin Jiansheng, Yu Huang finally realized that her thoughts were groundless.

Yes, she was Yu Huang, a woman who had reigned supreme in the Doomsday Era. Even if her looks were ruined, she was still a queen among women! "Mentor, did you eat candy this morning? Your words are so sweet."

Lin Jiansheng blushed and felt that his reaction just now was a little too extreme. "I hope you can understand this principle. If a person really rejects you because of your looks, then he is not worthy of you at all."

"Mentor, you are right. I just think that Sheng Xiao doesn't have that kind of intention toward me." Sheng Xiao treated her generously and without ambiguity. He did not seem like he wanted to woo her.

She was old but not mentally old. She had ulterior motives toward Sheng Xiao.

Lin Jiansheng said in an experienced tone, "Just watch. If that kid doesn't have any ulterior motives towards you, I, Lin Jiansheng, will never be able to become a Level 9 Purifying Spirit Master in my lifetime."

This oath was ruthless.

The corners of Yu Huang's mouth curled up slightly as she said with a smile, "Then let's wait and see."

The journey was long. Yu Huang focused on reading while Lin Jiansheng dozed off.

He had a dream of a past from 18 years ago.

When he woke up, Lin Jiansheng looked at Yu Huang with an especially gentle and loving gaze.

Yu Huang was a little tired from reading. When she raised her head and stretched her neck, she saw Lin Jiansheng's loving gaze and could not help but feel baffled. "Why are you looking at me like that, Mentor?"

Lin Jiansheng leaned back in his chair and sighed. "I dreamed about what happened on the day of your baby shower."

"Huh?"

Yu Huang said, "Father told me that my father brought me back from the Upper World. I was less than a month old when I returned."

"Yes, you were still very young back then and very clingy to your father. You didn't even drink milk when others fed you. You only drank milk when the Prime Master personally carried you."

Yu Huang had long forgotten her childhood memories. She asked Lin Jiansheng, "What did you dream about?"

Lin Jiansheng rubbed his forehead and smiled. "It's strange. I dreamed of Sheng Xiao."

"Sheng Xiao? He went to my one-month-old celebration?"

"Yes, he was more than seven years old that year. He went to the Yin family with his father, Grand Master Sheng."

As Lin Jiansheng recalled, he said, "You were already very cute when you were a month old. Your skin was fair and tender, and you were especially likable. That day, many children surrounded your bed to tease you and wanted to hug you. In the end, you cried the moment you were touched."

"But it's strange. When it was Sheng Xiao's turn to hug you, not only did you stop crying, but you even grabbed his fingers tightly with your little hand. Everyone praised you for having good taste. You found a great son-in-law for the Prime Master the moment you were born."

"I remember that the Prime Master and Grand Master Sheng verbally betrothed the two of you to each other..." Speaking of this old matter, Lin Jiansheng also felt that it was funny. He laughed at Yu Huang. "Do you think that this is destined between the two of you?"

Yu Huang rolled her eyes. "We can't skip this topic?"

Being despised by his beloved disciple, Lin Jiansheng rubbed his nose awkwardly before sitting down cross-legged to meditate.

There were five continents and three seas on the Holy Spirit Continent. Among them, the Hundred Beast Continent, the Xixia Sea, and the Light Sea were all relatively special existences because the people living in these three regions were not humans.

The Beast Continent was the beastmen's territory, and the Xixia Sea was the merman's territory. The Light Sea was the resting place of the elves.

The citizens of the Divine Moon Empire had a legal citizenship permit and were free to enter any continent or sea region except these three regions.

As a Level 8 Purifying Spirit Master, Lin Jiansheng was free to enter and exit the Xixia Ocean and the Light Ocean, but Yu Huang was not.

The plane finally stopped at a harbor on the shore of the Xixia Sea coast. The moment they alighted, Yu Huang was brought to the waiting area of the Divine Realm Continent by the staff. Lin Jiansheng took Yu Huang's identity card and prepared an introduction letter for her. However, the notary at the harbor prepared a pass for Yu Huang.

The waiting area was set up in the main hall. It was very spacious, and every state had a territory divided by a kind of transparent and hard glass.

Yu Huang sat in the waiting area of the Divine Realm Continent. Through the transparent glass, she could see the waiting area of the Hundred Beast Continent diagonally opposite and the waiting area of the Light Sea directly in front.

This was the first time Yu Huang had seen a real beastman in real life. She couldn't help but feel curious and look towards the waiting area of the Hundred Beast Continent.

In the waiting area, there were many tall orcs sitting or standing. These orcs all looked strange. Some had human heads and snake tails, some had human heads and ponytails, and some had human heads and spider bodies.

In short, it was a dazzling sight.

Yu Huang felt that dragging these people from the Hundred Beast Continent to the Divine Moon Empire to film a horror film would scare a child to tears without any special effects.

The resting area opposite Yu Huang was the territory of the elves. Yu Huang originally thought that the elves were like the elves in Earth's film production, The Lord of the Rings, where they were all slender, handsome, and beautiful.

However, when she saw the true appearance of the elves, she was immediately shocked.

The appearance of the elves was very strange. They all had a pair of wings, but they were not beautiful bird wings, but bat-like black wings.

The elves had strange facial features. Their noses were too high, and their lips were triangular. When they spoke, they would always reveal a mouthful of white teeth. It was a little funny.

The difference between these elves and the elves Yu Huang had imagined was too great, so Yu Huang could not help but feel disappointed. At this moment, Lin Jiansheng walked over with a pass.. When Yu Huang saw Lin Jiansheng, she immediately felt that Lin Jiansheng's bald head had become cute.
