

She Shocks 731

Chapter 731: Untitled

Yu Huang saw that Sheng Xiao was a little hesitant when he said that. She suddenly said, "Is there anything else you haven't told me?"

Sheng Xiao frowned. He said, "The historian who wrote about the War of Freedom was a Grand Master called Xiaoyao. This Grand Master wrote an autobiography when he was old. When I was in my teens, I would occasionally slack off and read some books about gossip. I saw Grand Master Xiaoyao's doubts about the War of Freedom in the autobiography."

"Oh really?"

Sheng Xiao leaned close to Yu Huang's ear and lowered his voice. "He suspected that the powerful demon beast race was defeated in the War of Freedom not because the demon beast race was weak, but because the Fire Unicorn fell in love with Prime Master Goldfeather and was poisoned by him. His spiritual power was suppressed during the battle, so he died miserably."

Yu Huang instantly became shocked. "Why would Prime Master Goldfeather do such a thing?"

"Of course, this is only Grand Master Xiaoyao's guess."

At this moment, the clownfish continued, "A few days ago, I heard from the Pixiu Demon who came to fertilize the Blood Goat Milk Fruit that the aura of the Lord of the Ten Thousand Demons has awakened again. Now, the demon beasts suspect that the Lord of the Ten Thousand Demons has revived. They are all searching for the whereabouts of the Master of the Ten Thousand Demons. They want to find him and..."

The clownfish chuckled and said, "The demon beast race and the cultivation world are going to fight again!"

Yu Huang muttered, "So this is what the Pixiu Demon was talking about with Senior She Ying."

Sheng Xiao said, "We have to report this to the Alliance."

"Yes!"

Now, the heavens were hiding in the dark and preparing to revive. The demon beasts were also eyeing them covetously. The Holy Spirit Continent, which had been peaceful for nearly ten thousand years, was really about to fall into chaos.

After getting the clues he wanted, Sheng Xiao picked all the Blood Goat Milk Fruits as agreed. Then, he left the forest with Yu Huang and returned to the Holy Spirit Academy.

Tonight, it was Dean Di Ruofeng who was on duty. He stood on the city wall of the academy. When he saw Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao rushing back, he narrowed his eyes and stared at their serious faces. He said angrily, "Why are you so tense? Aren't you happy that you're on break?"

"Mr. Di," Sheng Xiao said. "The Master of the Ten Thousand Demons might have revived."

Di Ruofeng was stunned when he heard this. He thought about it carefully before remembering who the Lord of the Ten Thousand Demons was. "Are you talking about the Fire Unicorn, the Lord of the Ten Thousand Demons, who reigned supreme over the entire Holy Spirit Continent ten thousand years ago?"

"Yes, that's right."

The two of them hurriedly conveyed the news they had obtained from the Blood Fish Clan to Di Ruofeng. After knowing that they had heard this news from the Blood Fish Clan, Di Ruofeng sighed and said, "The Blood Fish Clansmen are the oldest creatures on the Holy Spirit Continent. They usually won't interact with humans, but this race is famous for being knowledgeable. If this news comes from their mouths, it's most likely true."

"Now, we haven't found the hiding place of the heavens. If he successfully revives, we will definitely face a calamity. If the Lord of the Ten Thousand Demons really awakens at this moment and leads the demon race to attack our three races, it will be another fierce battle."

Di Ruofeng sighed sadly. "Why are all the bad things happening together?"

Sheng Xiao said, "That's not the worst."

Di Ruofeng looked up at him. "There's something even worse?"

Sheng Xiao said, "If the heavens cooperate with the Lord of the Ten Thousand Demons, we will really have no way out."

Di Ruofeng felt despair. "I have to report this news immediately!"

Sheng Xiao muttered as he watched Di Ruofeng leave in a hurry, "I hope the news of the Lord of the Ten Thousand Demons' revival is fake."

"I think this is most likely true." When Yu Huang thought of what Senior She Ying had said to her in the fox cave, she felt that this matter couldn't be fake. She Ying was a super demon beast, a powerhouse of the demon beast race. Even she was tempted, which meant that the Lord of the Ten Thousand Demons had really awakened.

Holy Spirit Academy, back mountain.

Feng Yuncheng and Xiao Shu carried two buckets of fertilizer to the vegetable garden at the back of the mountain.

Feng Yuncheng saw twenty to thirty small buds appear around the Ghost-Wrapping Flower. He squatted down and stroked the bud lovingly. He said gently, "Little fellows, grow up quickly. When you grow up, we will have vegetables to eat."

Upon hearing this, the round and cute flower bud suddenly split into two. A mouthful of blood-red teeth appeared, as if it was about to bite Feng Yuncheng's finger.

Chapter 732: Untitled

Feng Yuncheng's reaction was half a beat slower. Just as his finger was about to be bitten by the Ghost-Wrapping Flower, a large hand suddenly reached out from the side and quickly pulled Feng Yuncheng's arm away. The Ghost-Wrapping Flower and made a bone-chilling sound when its teeth clanged.

Feng Yuncheng stared at the flower bud with lingering fear and said, "Damn! This thing actually bites people!"

Xiao Shu picked up the fertilizer with his hand and carefully piled it beside the roots of the Ghost-Wrapping Flower. He said, "The Ghost-Wrapping Flower is a plant demon beast. Of course they will bite people. Although this thing looks like cabbage, they are pure carnivores."

Seeing that even the Ghost-Wrapping Flower didn't dare to ambush Xiao Shu, Feng Yuncheng muttered, "What's going on? I'm clearly prettier than you, but they only attack me and not you. Could it be that the Ghost-Wrapping Flower specifically targets handsome people?"

Xiao Shu smiled and said, "You're wrong. The Ghost-Wrapping Flower bullies the weak and fears the strong."

Feng Yuncheng snorted. "Are you calling me trash in a roundabout way, Senior Xiao Shu?"

"Aren't you trash?" Xiao Shu looked at Feng Yuncheng in disdain. He said, "You're only a year younger than me. I'm already an early-stage Supreme Master. What about you?"

Feng Yuncheng was speechless.

"Hurry up and work, so we can go back to the dormitory to sleep for a while longer. We still have to get up tomorrow morning to sweep the floor." As cleaners, the two of them had a lot of work to do. They had to mop three buildings every morning, cultivate with the students during the day, and take care of the Ghost-Wrapping Flower at night.

They spent 24 hours like 30 hours.

Soon, the two of them finished applying the fertilizer. Xiao Shu stood up and clapped his hands. "Let's go."

Feng Yuncheng said, "Go back first. I still have something on."

"What are you going to do?"

Feng Yuncheng said, "I want to try and see if roses can be cultivated here." Feng Yuncheng revealed a shy expression. He lowered his head and said, "Her Highness seems to like roses. We still have to live here for a few years. I want to plant a rose field for Her Highness."

Xiao Shu wanted to mock Feng Yuncheng, but when he saw the smile on Feng Yuncheng's face, he couldn't say anything harsh. He suddenly said, "Have you ever thought that Beatrice might break up with you in the end? Is it worth it for you to do so much now?"

Feng Yuncheng picked up a small hoe and dug. He said, "So what? Before that happens, why should I prepare for the worst? If I like someone, I'll do anything for her. I just want her to be happy."

“I like Her Highness, so I want to plant a rose field for Her Highness. So I only need to think about how to successfully plant this rose field.” Feng Yuncheng inserted a rose root into the soil and looked up at Xiao Shu. “What about you? What were you thinking when you agreed to stay in the Yin Clan?”

“Did you purely hope that Yin Rong could successfully take revenge? Or did you hope that Yin Rong would be moved by your sacrifice after knowing your choice?”

Xiao Shu thought about it seriously and said, “At that time, I only hoped that she could successfully take revenge and have an easier time.”

Feng Yuncheng smiled. “Look, this is love.”

Xiao Shu looked up at the moon behind the dark clouds and thought of another woman.

At that time, he was already prepared to give up his cultivation for that woman and choose to be human. But in the end?

What he awaited was betrayal and the tragic outcome of his entire clan almost being destroyed.

What about Yin Rong?

Would Yin Rong always be by his side?

Chapter 733: This Woman Is Too Scary (1)

There were two prisons in the Beast Tamer Alliance. One was built in Jingdu and was used to imprison some Beast Tamers with lighter crimes. Back then, Xuanyuan Sisi maliciously harmed Anna Tao and was imprisoned here to be punished. It was rumored that Jingdu’s Beast Tamer Prison had a total of 18 floors. The lower the floor, the more serious the crimes of the prisoners, and the more pain they had to endure every day.

However, what most Beast Tamers didn’t know was that there were only 17 levels inside the Beast Tamer Prison, and the real 18th level was hidden in another place. That was the real purgatory.

There was a canyon between the Blazing Realm Continent and the Ice Domain Continent. The frost on the canyon was frozen, and not an inch of soil was born. The flames under the canyon burned and magma surged. Therefore, this canyon was called the Two-Layered Grand Canyon.

The 18th level of the Beast Tamer Prison was built a thousand meters below the Two-Layered Grand Canyon.

The top of the Two-Layered Prison was covered in cold and sinister glaciers, and under the prison, endless magma rolled. Therefore, the prisoners imprisoned here had to endure extreme cold and extreme heat every day. As for the top experts who were high-spirited before they were imprisoned, after they were imprisoned in the Two-Layered Prison, they became cripples who were struggling at death’s door.

The interior of the two-storey prison was built into a circle. In the middle, there was a wide circular platform with 81 cells surrounding it. The youngest prisoner imprisoned inside was only in his fifties, but the oldest criminal was almost 3,000 years old.

And that person was the Beast Tamer who had harmed the world with Ouyang Luo back then.

The Two-Layered Prison was silent all year round. The prisoners here never talked to each other. Because they didn't speak for many years, they almost forgot how to speak. In order to survive, they tried their best to circulate the spiritual power in their bodies to resist the harsh environment in the Two-Layered Prison every day.

Boom!

A muffled tearing sound suddenly sounded in the prison that had been silent for a long time.

Upon hearing this commotion, the prisoners in the cell raised their heads slowly and mechanically and looked above the pitch-black circular platform.

They had been imprisoned underground for hundreds of years and were already familiar with the pitch-black light underground. Therefore, they could clearly see a crack appear in the space above the circular platform. Immediately after, a group of staff with Beast Tamer badges on their shoulders appeared on the circular platform.

Seeing that group of people, the prisoners rolled their eyes.

Was there another newcomer coming?

They wondered what crime this criminal had committed.

Click!

Someone pulled the electric switch, and the pitch-black prison was instantly as bright as day.

When they suddenly saw the dazzling light, most of the prisoners closed their eyes. They used the shortest time to adapt to the light before opening their eyes and silently staring at the circular platform.

This time, they finally saw what was on the circular platform.

They were a Prime Master and five Grand Masters.

This strength configuration could be considered the strongest in the Alliance.

What crime had this new criminal committed that he needed so many experts to escort him?

Sheng Lingfeng glanced at the surrounding cells with his sharp eyes. When he met the pairs of cold and sharp eyes that were like those of a poisonous snake, Sheng Lingfeng's expression didn't change at all. He looked at the sinner imprisoned in Cell 1. The sinner was wearing a very tattered prison uniform. His hair was disheveled, and there was a black flame symbol on his forehead.

It was the demonic Prime Master, Ouyang Sheng, who had followed Ouyang Luo as he dominated the Holy Spirit Continent for three thousand years.

Back then, the founder of the Xuanyuan Clan, Xuanyuan Chaosheng, used a Demon Annihilation Palm and almost killed Ouyang Sheng. Ouyang Sheng used the Soul Transformation Technique to escape from the battlefield, but in the end, the Alliance saved him and imprisoned him in the 18th floor of the Beast Tamer Prison.

Ouyang Sheng was the first criminal on the 18th floor of the Beast Tamer Prison, and also the criminal who had lived the longest.

Later, the 18th level of the prison also welcomed many extremely evil criminals one after another. However, those people couldn't stand the torture in the Two-Layered Prison, as well as the endless loneliness and darkness, and chose to end their miserable lives in various ways.

Only Ouyang Sheng was still holding on, as if he was looking forward to the arrival of a beam of light.

Carasso, Lu Yubei, and the others were setting up the live broadcast. Sheng Lingfeng strode to the door of Cell 1.

Ouyang Sheng was a decent-looking man who gave people a sense of security, but he was Ouyang Luo's most trusted subordinate.

Chapter 734: This Woman Is Too Scary (2)

"Ouyang Sheng." Sheng Lingfeng called his name.

Ouyang Sheng stared at Sheng Lingfeng, who was wearing a suit and looked unfamiliar, for a long time, as if he was guessing this person's identity. After a while, he said in a hoarse voice, "You have the aura of a Saber Demon on you. Are you a descendant of the Sheng family?" Sheng Tian, the ancestor of the Sheng family, was a saber fanatic. He was called the Saber Demon, so most of the descendants of the Sheng family loved to use knives as weapons.

In this generation, there was Sheng Xiao, who was good at using swords.

Sheng Lingfeng didn't answer Ouyang Sheng's words directly. He stared at Ouyang Sheng's exhausted eyes that were filled with hope. He suddenly said, "Are you still waiting for Ouyang Luo to revive?"

When Ouyang Sheng heard Ouyang Luo's name, his gaze changed a little, but he quickly calmed down.

"In the Demon Subduing War three thousand years ago, although Ouyang Luo was beheaded by Yin Jing'an, his beast heart was crushed, and his soul was chewed into pieces, a wisp of his remnant soul did survive."

Ouyang Sheng's eyes suddenly lit up with hope. "Master has successfully revived?"

He was indeed waiting for Ouyang Luo to revive.

"Almost," Sheng Lingfeng said aloofly.

When Ouyang Sheng heard this word, the hope in his eyes suddenly vanished. "Almost?" Did that mean that he had yet to succeed?

Sheng Lingfeng told Ouyang Sheng, "Your master almost revived, but his soul was most absorbed by the heavens." Sheng Lingfeng leaned forward and leaned against the fence made of Black Spirit Stones. He stared at Ouyang Sheng's face and lowered his voice. "You're Ouyang Luo's most trusted subordinate. Don't you know that Ouyang Luo has formed a contract with the heavens?"

"The heavens..." Ouyang Sheng was somewhat shocked. "That person is actually the heavens?"

Seeing Ouyang Sheng's reaction, Sheng Lingfeng knew that Ouyang Sheng indeed knew about the deal between the heavens and Ouyang Luo. Sheng Lingfeng smiled ambiguously. "Yes, the master you waited for three thousand years was finally killed by his trusted friend."

"A few days ago, the heavens sucked away Ouyang Luo's last remnant soul in the Black Dome. Ouyang Sheng, the master you've waited for three thousand years is really dead."

The light in Ouyang Sheng's eyes dimmed.

He instantly became dejected, like he turned from a strong ancient tree to a withered dead wood. "We failed..." Ouyang Shenghao sighed, then lowered his head heavily and never raised it again.

Sheng Lingfeng looked at Ouyang Sheng's cross-legged body quietly. He waited for a moment and saw that Ouyang Sheng's chest was no longer heaving. Then, he said, "The number 1 criminal, Ouyang Sheng, is dead."

Hearing this, the staff who were setting up the torture platform looked at Cell 1 in surprise.

Seeing that Ouyang Sheng was really dead, Carasso gave Sheng Lingfeng a thumbs up. "Killing people by exposing their deepest fear. President, your move is ruthless."

Sheng Lingfeng shook his head and turned to the execution stage. Seeing that the execution stage was ready, he said to Lu Yubei, "Bring the criminal Xuanyuan Shen to the execution stage!"

There was no cultivation class in the Holy Spirit Academy this morning. All the academy's students were gathered in the canteen dining room and looked up at the large television screen at the front of the canteen. At this moment, they were watching the live broadcast of Xuanyuan Shen being reduced to ashes.

In the video, the surroundings of the torture platform were covered by a light gray cloth that blocked the faces of the other criminals.

Xuanyuan Shen's body was brought into the execution ground by Lu Yubei and placed on the torture bed in the middle of the execution platform.

Ye Qing'an was the strongest Healer on the continent. He was extremely familiar with the structure of the human body and the soul, so he was the whip holder. Ye Qing'an held the Spirit Bone Whip in his hand and used it to whip Xuanyuan Shen's body. The whip accurately landed on Xuanyuan Shen's every acupoint.

With every swing of the whip, Xuanyuan Shen's body would jump. Thus, everyone saw a light green soul body emitting from his body.

That was Xuanyuan Shen's soul.

After an ordinary person died, their soul should be a complete green ball of light. However, after Xuanyuan Shen's soul was shattered by the Spirit Bone Whip, what floated out was dust.

The sound of the Spirit Bone Whip whipping Xuanyuan Shen's body echoed in everyone's ears. When the students heard the creepy sound of the whip, their backs tensed up. It was clearly Xuanyuan Shen who was being whipped, but they felt a sense of fear, as if they were being punished.

As a disciple of the Xuanyuan Clan, Xuanyuan Chen sat in the canteen with slightly red eyes and clenched fists.

No matter how many evil deeds Xuanyuan Shen had done, he was still Xuanyuan Chen's uncle. He was a family member who had personally taught Xuanyuan Chen, stroked Xuanyuan Chen's head, and praised him for being smart. Xuanyuan Chen naturally felt terrible when he saw his family member being reduced to ashes.

At the same time, the Xuanyuan Clan members who saw the entire process of Xuanyuan Shen being burned to ashes on the internet couldn't help but cover their faces and cry.

The other Beast Tamer Academies were also broadcasting this punishment live.

"Watch carefully. This is the outcome of colluding with the heavens and harming your own people!"

"Students, you can be ordinary and mediocre, but you can't be ungrateful and betray your own people!"

...

Xuanyuan Ming, Xuanyuan Yao, Xuanyuan Jing, Liuli Nuonuo, Luo Shihan, and Jing Sa sat in the hall of Xuanyuan Shen's residence and witnessed this punishment through the big television.

When he saw the Spirit Bone Whip whipping his father's body, Xuanyuan Yao immediately kicked away the stool in front of him and squatted on the ground while crying and cursing, "Xuanyuan Ming, you're really a hero who put righteousness before family!"

Xuanyuan Ming stared at the television with bloodshot eyes while the veins on his neck bulged. With every whip he heard, his heart would stop.

Xuanyuan Jing was the youngest and couldn't stand this shock. He was the first to rush out of the house and hide under the roof while hugging his head and crying. When the beautiful Jing Sa saw the scene on the television, her beautiful face turned even paler, and Luo Shihan couldn't bear to see it, so she closed her eyes.

Only Liuli Nuonuo remained calm as she stared at the television. Her hands were tightly clenched onto the table in front of her. Her fingers were pale, but there was excitement and playfulness in her eyes.

Liuli Nuonuo heard that person say, "You can't bear to watch? When he drugged you back then, he didn't hesitate at all."

Liuli Nuonuo shouted at him to shut up in her mind.

However, 'that person' said, "You hate me? It's useless even if you hate me. At most, it will only take two years for me to completely merge with you. At that time, I will completely replace you. When I become you, I will wipe out the Xuanyuan Clan to vent your hatred, okay?"

Liuli Nuonuo clenched the table so hard that cracks appeared on it.

Shameless!

Despicable!

Jing Sa was shocked when she saw that Liuli Nuonuo had almost crushed the table. She carefully raised her head and looked at Liuli Nuonuo's face. When she saw Liuli Nuonuo's eyes flickering with a strange look, Jing Sa suddenly felt her heart skip a beat.

This woman was actually so excited after witnessing her husband being reduced to ashes?

This woman was too terrifying!

The punishment lasted for more than ten minutes before Xuanyuan Shen's soul finally completely dissipated. At this moment, Xuanyuan Shen's body had also become a bloody mess, and every bone in his body was branded with the whip marks of the Spirit Bone Whip. Ye Qing'an put down the Spirit Bone Whip and examined Xuanyuan Shen's body before saying to the camera, "The 206 bones of the criminal, Xuanyuan Shen, have already been branded with the traces of the Spirit Bone Whip. His soul has also been shattered. The Bone Crusher Art has concluded."

Upon hearing this, the Beast Tamers watching the live broadcast felt every bone in their bodies ache.

Chapter 735: Sorry, I'm Vain (1)

Di Ruofeng turned off the live-stream content and looked at Xuanyuan Chen. He said earnestly, "The elder took the wrong path and was punished, but as long as the younger generation does things properly and has a clear conscience, they are good young people. All the students are mature and rational adults. Don't discriminate."

Everyone present was not stupid. They could understand Di Ruofeng's hint, so naturally, no one would discriminate against Xuanyuan Chen because of Xuanyuan Shen's mistake.

Xuanyuan Shen's death gave everyone a heavy blow. For the next few days, the atmosphere in the academy was a little heavy. After the Black Spirit Stone Cultivation Room at the back of the mountain was built, every student received an independent cultivation area. Recently, a few students were about to break through, so they began seclusion.

Yin Rong also decided to enter seclusion.

She said, "I feel that my cultivation speed has suddenly slowed down recently. I probably encountered a bottleneck. I want to enter seclusion and strive to break through to the Supreme Master Realm."

Beatrice asked Yin Rong, "How old are you?"

Yin Rong said, "25 years old."

Beatrice sighed with emotion. "Back then, when Sheng Xiao broke through to the Supreme Master Realm at the age of 25, he caused a commotion in the entire continent. You're not inferior to Sheng Xiao."

Yin Rong didn't dare to compare herself to Sheng Xiao. She said, "That's different. Everyone's cultivation level has been improving quickly recently. It's all thanks to the Grand State Master returning the luck to the Holy Spirit Continent. However, Sheng Xiao's spiritual power was unstable when he was young. In addition, the luck on the continent was not enough at that time. It was very impressive for him to break through to the Supreme Master level at the age of 25."

Hearing this, Beatrice couldn't help but think of the Grand State Master's death. She was immediately in no mood to joke anymore.

At this moment, Yu Huang suddenly said, "I'm going into seclusion too."

Beatrice and Yin Rong looked at Yu Huang in surprise at the same time. Yin Rong asked in shock, "Are you going to break through too?"

Beatrice also looked at Yu Huang in disbelief.

Yu Huang said, "I felt that I was about to break through a long time ago. I didn't enter seclusion because I wanted to build a good foundation." Back in the Saint Tomb, Yu Huang had originally been able to break through to the Supreme Master Realm in one go, but she had deliberately suppressed it. After more than half a year of tempering, Yu Huang was now very rich in spiritual power. She felt that it was time to break through to the Supreme Master Realm.

Both Beatrice and Yin Rong were silent. After a moment, Beatrice muttered, "Freak!"

A 22-year-old Supreme Master was even more impressive than Sheng Xiao.

Yin Rong looked at Beatrice and silently added, "Yu Huang awakened her beast form at the age of 18."

In other words, it only took her four years to become a Supreme Master.

Four years.

Beatrice sighed. "It took me five years to go from a Scholar to a Master." Beatrice kicked her shoes hard and laid on the bed with her legs crossed. She hugged her head and said, "Get lost! Scram as far away as you can so that I won't be annoyed when I see you!" This group of freaks had crushed her confidence.

Yu Huang was going into seclusion. She didn't know how long it would take for her to break through to the Supreme Master Realm. She planned to go to Rakshasa City with Sheng Xiao for a good meal before she went into seclusion. Otherwise, she would have nothing to eat.

The two of them walked out of the school side by side. Feng Yuncheng and Xiao Shu, who had finished picking feces, bumped into them. After knowing that the two of them were going to Rakshasa City for a feast, Feng Yuncheng said, "Her Highness and I have never eaten a feast before. Wait for us. I'll go with Her Highness."

Xiao Shu added, "Rong'er is also going into seclusion. Let's go and eat a big meal together."

At this moment, Donor, who was sitting on the city wall and talking to his mother on the phone, also hung up. He flew down from the city wall and said, "I haven't been to a feast in a long time. Count me in."

Sheng Xiao told Donor, "Don't go. It's not appropriate."

Donor was stunned. "In what way?"

Sheng Xiao raised his hand that was holding Yu Huang's. "We're all couples. You're single."

Donor was so angry that he laughed. "So what if I'm single? I have money!" He immediately took out a pure gold bead and said, "I'll treat you guys to it. I'll settle the bill, okay?!"

Sheng Xiao said, "Okay."

"Yu Huang, are you going to Rakshasa City?" Estelle suddenly chased after her. When he saw that Donor was also there, he hurriedly stopped in his tracks and tugged at his tattered clothes cautiously. He whispered to Donor, "Your Highness, hello."

Donor frowned at him and ignored him.

Yu Huang told Estelle, "We're on our way to Rakshasa City. What's wrong?"

Chapter 736: Sorry, I'm Vain (2)

Estelle said, "It's like this. I used my points to exchange for some spirit stones with Feng Yuncheng." At this point, Estelle even gave Feng Yuncheng a pure smile. He said, "Feng Yuncheng is really a passionate and loving young man."

Feng Yuncheng's handsome face turned red when he heard this. Yu Huang looked at Feng Yuncheng playfully. She laughed at Feng Yuncheng. "I was wondering where you got so many points to buy roses and drinks for Her Highness. So you exchanged points with Estelle."

Feng Yuncheng blushed even more.

Estelle had been learning the Divine Moon Empire's language recently. Although he stuttered, he could already fully express his meaning. Seeing that Yu Huang was laughing at Feng Yuncheng, he hurriedly explained to him, "It's not his fault. I need spirit stones. I'm strong and have many points. I can exchange with him."

Nodding her head, Yu Huang noticed that Estelle had changed into an old set of clothes that had been washed until they were a little faded. She guessed that Estelle was going to the city, so she said, "Are you going to Rakshasa City too? Coincidentally, we have a car. Let's go together."

Estelle smiled even more brightly. "Thank you, Yu Huang!" Despite Estelle's ugly face, his innocent smile made everyone think that he looked quite nice when he smiled.

The original double date turned into an eight-person team.

The group of people went down the mountain and realized that only Yu Huang had a car.

Yu Huang asked Feng Yuncheng, Donor, and the others, "You're all rich young masters. Why don't you guys even have a car?"

Donor said, "I have people driving me wherever I go. I don't need to drive myself." Therefore, there was naturally no car in his interspatial ring.

Feng Yuncheng said, "I didn't expect to really be hired by the Holy Spirit Academy this time. I didn't bring a car."

Yu Huang was really frustrated by them.

She sized up everyone and said, "Let's squeeze in my car. It can only seat six people at most." Hearing this, Feng Yuncheng pulled Beatrice to the back of the SUV. Xiao Shu also pulled Yin Rong into the back of the car from the other door.

Donor, Estelle, and Yu Huang looked at each other.

Sheng Xiao said, "Why don't you two fly over?"

Donor said, "In our Elve Clan, only people with the poorest conditions and can't afford cars or aircraft use wings to fly." Donor's wings were used for battle, not for flying. If this matter spread, wouldn't he be laughed at?

Estelle flapped the miniature black wings on his back. He said, "I'd like to, but my wings are too small to fly for a long period."

After understanding the situation, Yu Huang said to Sheng Xiao, "Take out your motorcycle."

Sheng Xiao took out his motorcycle reluctantly. It was his beloved motorcycle. His motorcycle had only carried Yu Huang before.

These two fellows were really lucky.

Thus, Yu Huang drove the car in front while Donor chased after her on the motorcycle with Estelle. Ever since Estelle found out Donor's true identity, his attitude towards him had become reserved. It wasn't convenient for Estelle to grab Donor's shoulder, but he was afraid that Donor would shake him off the car, so he shouted, "Your Highness, drive slower. Don't drop me!"

Donor snorted. "Shut up. She's your driver, yet you ask for so much!"

Estelle shut his mouth.

When they arrived at Rakshasa City, it was almost dark.

Xiao Shu and the others were discussing where to eat. Yu Huang saw Estelle standing alone by the street and looking at the unfamiliar and chaotic street with a blank expression. She walked over and asked Estelle, "What are you going to do next?"

Estelle revealed a shy expression. He said, "I want to buy some books for my siblings. I think they can learn." After walking out of the barren village where the Night Elves lived, Estelle realized the importance of knowledge. His siblings couldn't awaken their beast form. They would probably never be able to leave that barren land.

But the outside world was too exciting.

Estelle hoped that his younger siblings could read and learn a few more languages. In the future, he wanted to bring them to see the world.

Yu Huang said, "Then we have to go to the bookstore. Let's go. I'll bring you there."

Estelle immediately smiled. "Yu Huang, you're such a good person!"

Seeing that Yu Huang would accompany Estelle to the bookstore, Donor bumped Sheng Xiao's shoulder. "Aren't you angry? Aren't you worried that your wife is so close to another man?"

Sheng Xiao looked at Donor speechlessly. He said, "My wife doesn't even care about people like you. Do you think Estelle can threaten my position?"

Donor didn't know if Sheng Xiao was praising him or belittling him.

Yu Huang brought Estelle to the bookstore and bought the simplest children's book. She told Estelle, "Those who have never received education have to start learning from children's books."

Estelle said, "You know a lot. I'll do whatever you say."

After choosing the book, Yu Huang chose two more styluses that didn't need to be connected to the internet and only needed batteries. She handed the point reader to Estelle. "This is a gift to your siblings. It's a stylus that can help them learn faster. You said that your village doesn't have internet, and only the village chief's family has electricity, so I chose a stylus with an extremely long battery life."

Estelle held the pen and was extremely touched. Tears welled up in his eyes. "Yu Huang, you're so kind. If you weren't married, I would have married you. I even promised the village chief that I would marry a beautiful wife!"

Yu Huang was speechless.

Amused, she patted Estelle's shoulder and said mercilessly, "Sorry, but I'm vain."

Estelle subconsciously turned to look at himself in the bookstore's glass mirror. When he saw his ugly face and wings that were as small as bats, Estelle instantly despaired. "Do you think someone like me can get a beautiful wife?"

How could Yu Huang reply?

Lying would get her struck by lightning, but not lying would break Estelle's heart.

Yu Huang looked at her beautiful face in the mirror and suddenly smiled again. "Don't worry. One day, you will meet someone who understands your goodness, accepts your imperfections, and loves your soul."

Just like how she met Sheng Xiao, Estelle would meet the person who understood him.

Chapter 737: Reunion of Old Friends (1)

After buying the things, Yu Huang brought Estelle to the delivery station.

The delivery station in Rakshasa City was set up in the No. 1 shop on Bounty Street. The owner was a blond man dressed as a pirate. He saw Yu Huang and a Night Elf walking into his shop from afar. His eyes darted around and he remembered that he had seen Yu Huang and She Ying chatting happily.

This little girl was She Ying's friend.

She Ying was the real boss of Bounty Street. If fugitives like them wanted to survive in Bounty Street, they had to rely on She Ying.

Yu Huang walked into the express delivery station and saw that the walls of the express delivery station were covered in the signs of various express delivery companies. She counted them. Good lord, there must be more than 200 express delivery companies.

"Hey, little beauty." The owner bit his pipe and walked in front of Yu Huang. He stared at Yu Huang's slender waist with a frivolous but not lecherous gaze. He whistled to express his admiration for Yu Huang. Then, he smiled and asked, "Little beauty, do you want to send things yourself or help your friend send things? In my shop, you can send things at a 10% discount. If you're single, you can get a 5% discount. If you're single and need a boyfriend like me, you can get a 10% discount."

The owner let go of the pipe and lowered his head to blow smoke at Yu Huang's face. He raised his eyebrows and asked Yu Huang, "Little beauty, how much of a discount do you want?"

Yu Huang leaned over to the owner's side. Her arm was almost touching the owner's arm. She smiled charmingly and said, "I'm already married and my husband is more handsome and richer than you. How much will you charge?"

The smile on the owner's face instantly disappeared. "You're married?" He stared at Yu Huang's youthful face in disbelief and thought to himself, 'Why did such a young and beautiful girl get married so early?'

Estelle replied for Yu Huang, "She's married. Her husband is very handsome!"

"I miscalculated this time." The owner hurriedly took a step back and said sternly, "I'm an upright boss. I don't flirt with married women. You want to send something? Here's the billing book." The owner threw a billing book at Yu Huang. His attitude changed so suddenly.

Yu Huang opened the billing book and discovered that the cheapest delivery fee for the Light Sea's demonic cave cost ten spirit stones, and the most expensive cost twenty spirit stones.

This was ridiculously expensive.

The textbooks Estelle had bought for his siblings only cost two spirit stones.

"Why is the difference in the fee so big?"

The boss took a slow puff of his cigarette and said, "The most expensive one is the Shunda Express Company. This company will send the package to your door and will even take a photo to ensure that the delivery is foolproof. The few companies with the cheapest fees have very unstable delivery.” After a pause, the boss said earnestly, “You know, many things sent by Beast Tamers are very precious. It’s inevitable that there will be accidents like robbery. For a delivery company like this, if something is lost, they will only refund the delivery fee and not the loss.”

The owner asked Yu Huang, “Which one do you choose?”

Yu Huang was tempted when she thought about how the most expensive express delivery could not only ensure that the express delivery would be delivered to Estelle’s siblings, but it could also take a photo of Estelle’s siblings.

Yu Huang turned her head and asked Estelle, “Do you have a photo of your siblings?”

Estelle scratched his head and said in embarrassment, “No, the nearest photo studio in our village takes two days to reach. The fee is also very expensive.”

Nodding her head, Yu Huang immediately handed her card to the owner. She said, “I choose Shunda Express.”

The owner smiled and said, “You’re paying for him? How nice.”

Yu Huang turned around and gave Estelle a comforting look before saying, “I lent it to you. Return it to me in the future.”

Estelle’s smile widened.

As the owner filled in the address, he nagged at Yu Huang. He said, “You guys are so young. Are you itinerant cultivators or students?” Seeing that Yu Huang had an extraordinary aura, he thought about how she had a deep relationship with She Ying. The owner guessed again, “Could it be that you guys are students of the Holy Spirit Academy?”

The owner stared at the small wings on Estelle’s back and said, “I heard that the Holy Spirit Academy recruited a Night Elf. Is he that Night Elf?”

Yu Huang glanced at the owner and tapped her fingers on the table. She said, “Write the address. Cut the crap.”

Seeing that Yu Huang was cautious and refused to say anything, the owner smiled again. “Your personality is very similar to She Ying’s.”

Chapter 738: Reunion of Old Friends (2)

Yu Huang raised her eyebrows but did not retort.

“I thought you were also itinerant cultivators who went to the abyss to hunt demon beasts.” With that, the boss nodded at Estelle and asked, “What’s your phone number?”

Estelle did not have a phone, so he looked at Yu Huang for help.

It was impossible for Yu Huang to reveal her phone number. After some thought, she gave the boss Feng Yuncheng's phone number. Yu Huang asked the boss, "Has anyone dared to enter the abyss to hunt demon beasts recently?"

"Recently, the relationship between demon beasts and humans has indeed been very tense. The mercenaries don't dare to enter the abyss to hunt demon beasts anymore. However, there was big news yesterday." The boss put Estelle's things into a waterproof delivery box and said, "Didn't you hear? The Sect Master of the Dark Night Ghost Sect was attacked yesterday morning and his spiritual power was almost completely taken away. However, he was lucky enough to escape. His life is in danger now. He urgently needs the Monster Core of a level 8 fire-type demon beast to help him recover."

"Dark Night Ghost Sect?" Yu Huang was concerned when she heard the name of this organization. She asked, "Is it the Dark Night Ghost Sect of the Light Sea?"

"That's right. Other than that group in the Light Sea, what other organization would have such a sinister name?" The owner smiled at Estelle and said, "You came from the Light Sea. Isn't the Dark Night Ghost Sect very impressive in the Light Sea?"

Estelle had been a farmer before. He had never even left the village, so how could he know about the Dark Night Ghost Sect?

Seeing Estelle's confused expression, the owner felt bored and did not continue chatting with Estelle. At this moment, Yu Huang asked, "Who ambushed the Sect Master of the Dark Night Ghost Sect?"

"I don't know. I only heard that he was ambushed and almost lost his life. The Sect Master of the Dark Night Ghost Sect has done many evil things. The elves can't wait for their entire clan to be destroyed, so they naturally won't send a high-level Healer to treat the Sect Master of the Dark Night Ghost Sect. Didn't you notice that Rakshasa City is especially lively today?"

Yu Huang looked out of the shop and realized that there were indeed many more mercenaries on the street today than usual. They were fully armed and had murderous gazes. It was obvious that they were going out to fight.

Seeing that the package had been packed, Yu Huang grabbed Estelle's arm and left.

They walked through Bounty Street to the food street next to Spring Night Street. Along the way, they saw countless off-road vehicles pulling a large number of mercenaries out of the city. These mercenaries were wearing black cloth belts on their shoulders.

Estelle asked Yu Huang, "Why are they wearing black cloth belts?"

Yu Huang stared at the black cloth and said, "That's a death belt."

"Huh?" Estelle's eyes widened in surprise. "What's a death belt?"

Yu Huang explained simply, "Let's say that you're a mercenary, and I'm the boss who hired you. If you have a family in your hometown that you can't let go of, and I need you to work for me, I'll pay you a large sum of money at once to provide your family with food and clothing for a few years. At this time, you'll wear the death belt I gave you on your shoulder. If you wear the death belt, you have to bite the bullet and charge forward. Even if there's ten thousand people ahead, you have to charge forward."

Estelle understood.

“So, this group of people are going to die.”

“Yes.”

Most of the level-eight demon beasts lived in the middle circle near the center of the abyss. These mercenaries were civilians. Although they were extraordinary, they definitely were not a match against those high-level demon beasts.

They would never return from this trip.

At this moment, Yu Huang saw a group of mercenaries organized by adult women. They were sitting in an open off-road truck, and the driver was a muscular woman. She was wearing a white vest, and her black hair was trimmed short and neat. She looked very cool.

The woman in the front passenger seat had a beautiful face with deep facial features. She was wearing heavy makeup and a tight tank top. Her skin, as smooth as honey, looked sexy and healthy.

Yu Huang recognized her at a glance.

Eliza.

It was the leader of the Eliza Mercenary Group in Rakshasa City.

Despite seeing an acquaintance she had met a few times, Yu Huang did not have any intention of going forward. She turned to leave. At this moment, Eliza, who was vigilantly observing her surroundings, discovered Yu Huang.

Wu Huang?

“Stop the car!”

The Eliza Mercenary Group’s car suddenly stopped by the side.

Yu Huang had only taken a few steps when she heard a hoarse female voice shout from behind, “Wu Huang?”

Yu Huang stopped in her tracks.

She turned around and saw Eliza standing behind her. Her gaze landed on Eliza’s left leg, and her expression changed slightly.

“Eliza.” Yu Huang walked towards Eliza.

Eliza was wearing sexy denim shorts. Her legs looked very strong. After years of training and combat, her thighs were muscular. And under her right leg, there was a prosthetic leg.

Yu Huang stared at Eliza’s prosthetic leg and frowned. “Why is your leg broken?”

Eliza took out a pack of cigarettes from her chest pocket and handed one to Yu Huang. “Do you want to smoke?”

Yu Huang shook her head. “No.”

Estelle noticed Eliza smoking and was stunned.

The women outside were indeed wild.

In their village, regardless of gender, if their breasts and buttocks were exposed, they would be insulted by the entire village.

Eliza seemed to have expected that Yu Huang did not smoke. Therefore, without waiting for Yu Huang's reply, she bit the cigarette.

When Eliza saw an ugly black elf standing behind Yu Huang, she threw a cigarette at Estelle. "Do you want to smoke, Blackie?"

Estelle grabbed the cigarette in a panic, and his dark face instantly flushed. "I, I don't smoke either."

When he thought about how the cigarette in his hand had once been pressed tightly against Eliza's body, he immediately felt his fingers burning.

He had yet to light the cigarette, but his fingers were trembling from the heat.

Chapter 739

: Yu Huang, You're a Philosopher

Eliza noticed Estelle's innocent reaction and teased with a smile, "Wu Huang, your buddy is a virgin, right?"

Yu Huang also laughed and replied, "Then can you help him get laid?"

Eliza laughed even more heartily.

Seeing a beverage shop by the road, Eliza asked Yu Huang, "Want a drink?"

Yu Huang looked at the car parked by the roadside and said, "You guys seem to be busy."

"There's no hurry."

"Alright." Yu Huang followed behind Eliza with Estelle and sat under the umbrella outside the beverage shop.

Eliza told Yu Huang, "You must try this shop's Storm Harbor. It's especially delicious."

Yu Huang ordered two glasses of Storm Harbor.

After taking a sip, Yu Huang immediately frowned and gave a neutral evaluation. "This is like the combination of urine and alcohol. To be honest, it's disgusting." However, the strange thing was that this thing actually made one have the urge to take a second sip.

Thus, Yu Huang took another sip.

When Eliza saw Yu Huang's actions, she smiled. "I knew you would like it."

When Estelle heard Yu Huang's evaluation of the beverage, he couldn't help but take a sip. After taking a sip, he frowned and refused to take a second sip.

Eliza pressed the cigarette that was about to burn out into the ashtray. She took a sip of Storm Harbor and suddenly said, "Last year, we were alone with the team and were unlucky enough to encounter a level-four demon beast that was in the estrus period. We fought a fierce battle, but we mortals were no match for the demon beast."

Eliza patted her left prosthetic leg and said, "My leg was bitten off by that demon beast, but..." Eliza picked up the fang pendant on her neck again and flaunted it proudly to Yu Huang. "This is the demon beast's sharpest fang. I treat it as a trophy and hang it around my neck."

Eliza, a commoner warrior, was able to escape from the mouth of a level-four demon beast and even counterattack. This was indeed impressive.

Yu Huang raised her glass and said, "To the brave and fearless you."

Eliza nodded with a smile.

"Are you also here for that level 8 Monster Core?" Eliza asked Yu Huang.

Yu Huang asked her, "What about you? You too?"

Eliza nodded and said, "The other party offered a high price."

"How high?"

Eliza narrowed her eyes and raised a finger.

Yu Huang said, "100 million? And it's in international coins?"

Eliza shook her head. "Not that much. It's ten million spirit stones."

Estelle's eyes widened. Ten million spirit stones. He couldn't even imagine how much a hundred million spirit stones were.

Yu Huang pointed out directly, "You can't complete this mission. If you run into the abyss now, you will only be courting death." Although these words sounded heartless, it was the truth.

Eliza said, "Of course I knew that our team couldn't complete this mission, so we didn't accept it."

"Then what are you doing?"

Eliza smiled bitterly and shook her head. She said, "The vice sect master of the Dark Night Ghost Sect arrived in Rakshasa City last night. He massacred the Fire Wave Mercenary Group and gave us a death order."

With that said, Eliza took out a black cloth belt from her pocket and tied it around her shoulder in front of Yu Huang. She smiled helplessly at Yu Huang and sighed. "Did you see that? We're going to die. He used ten million spirit stones to buy the lives of a bus full of us."

Eliza told Yu Huang, "Our Eliza Mercenary Group is the gathering place for all the female desperados on the continent. Other than us, there are more than a hundred female members in the team."

“The vice sect master of the Ghost Sect has captured them. If we don’t want to fight, then...” Eliza closed her eyes in despair and sighed. “We can only die.”

Yu Huang was really disgusted by the actions of the Dark Night Ghost Sect.

“How dare they!” Yu Huang put down the glass heavily and asked Eliza, “Do they think they can catch a level-eight demon beast just by fighting to the death?”

Eliza suddenly asked Yu Huang, “Do you know of a demon beast called the Red Lady?”

“I’ve heard of the existence of such a demon beast,” Yu Huang said. “These demon beasts often wander in the primitive forest in the form of flames and are best at hiding. The attack power of these demon beasts isn’t strong, but their Monster Cores contain powerful fire attributes. It’s said that the Red Lady likes to drink blood the most. They will go wherever the smell of blood is the densest.”

With that said, Yu Huang suddenly narrowed her eyes and made a bold guess. “Could it be that the vice sect master is planning to use your blood to attract the Red Lady?”

Eliza nodded. “Yes, for fugitives like us who have no identity or national protection, even if we are killed by the Night Ghost Sect, no one will avenge us. Therefore, we are the best source of blood.”

The people who lived in Rakshasa City were all outlaws. Who cared if they lived or died?

Yu Huang looked at Eliza and was speechless.

Eliza suddenly handed Yu Huang an inch photo. “Look, is she cute?”

Yu Huang took the photo and looked down. She realized that it was a young lady in the photo. The young lady looked to be only three to four years old. She had a bowl cut, but her face was very fair and cute.

Yu Huang realized that this young lady’s eyes were somewhat similar to Eliza’s. She was somewhat surprised. “Is this your daughter?”

“Yes,” Eliza said. “My ex-husband was a drug lord. I was once his subordinate and partner, but ever since I gave birth to my daughter and saw her innocent smile, I was no longer willing to do evil business. So I betrayed my husband and the entire corporation.”

After betraying her husband’s group, Eliza naturally had nowhere to escape to and fled to Rakshasa City.

Eliza pointed at the photo and told Yu Huang, “Her name is Yingying. She’s 18 years old this year. I haven’t seen her for 14 years.” Eliza stuffed the photo into Yu Huang’s palm and said, “My daughter wants to be a police officer. Wu Huang, if you can meet her in the future, help me give her the photo. Tell her that Mommy loves her.”

However, Yu Huang returned the photo to Eliza and said mercilessly, “I hate helping people fulfill their last wishes the most. If you really love her, live well and try to contact her. If I were your daughter, I would prefer to hear you say that you love me from you, instead of from a stranger.”

With that, Yu Huang stood up, and Estelle stood up as well.

“I wish you the best of luck.” Yu Huang left with Estelle.

After they walked away, Estelle said to Yu Huang, "Why didn't you agree to her request? She's so pitiful."

Yu Huang said, "That's her hope. Hope can only be useful if it's by her side."

Estelle carefully savored Yu Huang's words. After a moment, he said, "Yu Huang, you're a philosopher."

Yu Huang shook her head and smiled. She brought Estelle to the dining room to meet Sheng Xiao and the others.

Sheng Xiao and the others went to a seafood restaurant. They sat at a long table by the window and drank and chatted. When he saw the marriage line on his ring finger flick, Sheng Xiao put down his wine glass and turned to the waiter. "You can serve the dishes now." As soon as he finished speaking, Feng Yuncheng and the others saw Yu Huang bring Estelle over.

Chapter 740: Yu Huang's Decision

Seeing that Estelle was also here, Donor muttered, "Why is this guy here too?"

Sheng Xiao looked at him. "You have a lot of money anyway. He won't make a difference."

Donor snorted but didn't say anything.

During the meal, Estelle sat with Donor. Donor sensed that Estelle was in a good mood and was no longer as reserved when facing him. He asked naturally, "Are you very happy?"

Estelle turned to Donor and gave him a pure and innocent smile. He said, "Your Highness, I bought books for my siblings today. They can study too now. I'm really happy today."

Donor didn't expect the reason for Estelle's happiness to be so simple. "Don't you even have books there?" He asked hesitantly.

"No," Estelle explained. "We Night Elves have no right to enter the city. The bookstore doesn't sell to Night Elves."

Donor was stunned.

He continued, "But I remember that there are schools in the region where the Night Elves are." Although there weren't many, there were indeed schools.

Estelle, however, lowered his head and became sulky.

Seeing that Estelle didn't speak, Donor immediately felt helpless.

Did he say something wrong?

"Why aren't you saying anything?" Donor felt wronged. "Did I say something wrong and make you angry?"

Estelle finally raised his head. Some hatred appeared in his dark eyes. He said to Donor, "Your Highness, actually, I went to the Night Elves Academy once, but I only took one class before I abandoned it. Do you know what the first word my teacher taught us in school was?"

Donor frowned and asked hesitantly, "What is it?"

Estelle said, "Dirty."

Donor was stunned again.

When Yu Huang and the others at the same table heard this, they put down their chopsticks and cutlery and looked at Estelle speechlessly.

There was hatred and tears in Estelle's eyes. He said in a choked voice, "Your Highness, we Night Elves study textbooks written by you high-level Light Elves. In the school, the knowledge we were taught was that we Night Elves were dirty, lowly, and shouldn't have appeared in this world, but the benevolent Light Elves were willing to give us the Light Sea to live in, so it was great kindness!"

Estelle looked at Donor mockingly. He said, "We live at your mercy, but we still have to thank you guys for your gift to us. Your Highness, do you think we still need to attend such a school?"

Donor's pupils were trembling. His lips quivered a few times as he wanted to say something to explain.

But every time the words reached his mouth, he fell silent.

Estelle asked Donor again, "Do you know what kind of king is the best king in the Light Sea?"

Donor's lips quivered a few times before he succeeded in saying, "What?"

Estelle said, "A king who can obtain the recognition of all the elves in the Light Sea is the most perfect king. But the Light Sea has never just been the Light Elves' Light Sea. It has also been our Light Sea."

For a moment, Donor's heart was heavy, as if he had returned to the scene of the Night Elf Runo's death.

He always told his mother that he wanted to change the Light Sea and the relationship between the Light Elves and the Night Elves, but he only said so. Did he really do anything?

No.

Donor lowered his head guiltily.

The double date became heavy because of the conflict between the elves. Feng Yuncheng wanted to say something to liven up the atmosphere. At this moment, Yu Huang said, "I plan to destroy the Dark Night Ghost Sect's nest."

Everyone raised their heads in unison and looked at Yu Huang in shock.

"What did you say?" Beatrice thought she had heard her wrong.

Yin Rong looked at Yu Huang with bright eyes and asked with a trembling voice, "Patriarch, are... are you serious?"

Sheng Xiao looked at Yu Huang in surprise. “Why did you suddenly decide to attack the Dark Night Ghost Sect?”

Yu Huang told them about the relationship between the Yin Clan and the Dark Night Ghost Sect. She said, “26 years ago, Yin Congde, a member of the Yin Clan, married Fran Noa, the only daughter of the Elven Fran Clan. It was the first marriage between the humans and the elves. At that time, it caused a commotion and became a legend. However, 18 years ago, when Yin Congde returned to the Light Sea with his wife and two daughters to visit his parents-in-law, he was ambushed by the Dark Night Ghost Sect.”

“The four of them were outnumbered and were captured. After they were captured, the Dark Night Ghost Sect cruelly killed Yin Congde and his wife and made their youngest daughter into a tumbler ornament to be placed in front of the Dark Night Ghost Sect for the disciples to enjoy...”

“Their eldest daughter, Yin Rong, was almost tortured to death, but Mr. Fran and Mrs. Fran arrived in time and fought to the death to save Yin Rong. The two elders were also seriously injured and regretfully passed away.”

“This isn’t just Yin Rong’s blood feud, but also the Yin Clan’s. However, Yin Mingchong was in charge of the Yin Clan at that time. Everyone knows Yin Mingchong’s character.”

Beatrice nodded and said, “Yin Mingchong is the most hypocritical person. He’s benevolent on the surface, but he’s heartless and cold on the inside.”

“Yes.” Yu Huang looked at Yin Rong’s sad face and said, “Back then, when Xiao Shu agreed to join the Yin Clan and be my trusted aide, I promised him that I would definitely help Yin Rong take revenge and destroy the Dark Night Ghost Sect. The sacrifice of the 13,000 Yin clansmen previously caused the Yin Clan’s strength to plummet. At that time, I was also unable to help Yin Rong take revenge.”

“But coincidentally, last night, the Sect Master of the Dark Night Ghost Sect was ambushed and his life is in danger. This is the best time for us to take revenge. Therefore, I decided to lead the Yin Clan’s warriors to destroy the Dark Night Ghost Sect!”

Hearing this, Yin Rong broke the chopsticks in her hand forcefully. With tears in her eyes, she said, “There’s an irreconcilable hatred between me and the Dark Night Ghost Sect. All these years, I’ve been living with the deaths of my parents, two elders, and my sister. When I passed by the clothing store and saw beautiful clothes, I couldn’t help but fantasize how cute my sister would look in them. When I saw someone else’s beautiful family, I closed my eyes and the scene of my parents shouting in pain when they were tortured to death and my grandparents dying with grievances appeared in my mind!”

Yin Rong closed her eyes and sobbed. “Patriarch, Xiao Shu, you must help me destroy the Dark Night Ghost Sect! After I take revenge, I want to live for myself in the future!”

Xiao Shu held Yin Rong’s hand and patted it gently. He said to her affectionately and firmly, “Rong’er, I’ll accompany you.”

Even if Goldfeather had lied to him back then, he was still willing to love Yin Rong with the utmost sincerity. This was because he understood that Goldfeather and Yin Rong were different. It was unfair to get payback for Goldfeather’s deception on Yin Rong.

Xiao Shu wanted to take another gamble.

He was betting that Yin Rong wouldn't let him down.
