

She Shocks 861

Chapter 861: Untitled

No one knew Mo Yuelou's current situation. Feng Yuncheng comforted Beatrice. "The Northwest Continent is the largest plate of the Kunlun Mystic Realm. The probability of His Highness landing on the Northwest Continent is the highest. We'll know his whereabouts once we get there."

"Okay."

After sailing on the sea for five days, Yu Huang finally regained consciousness completely. When she saw that Beatrice had already recovered, she was happy for her.

The seven of them sailed for another fourteen days before reaching the Northwest Continent.

After arriving at the Northwest Continent, Sheng Xiao lit up a signal flare as usual. Not long after he lit up the signal flare, a signal flare lit up on a high mountain in the distance, but it was the Yin Clan's signal flare.

Seeing the signal flare, Yu Huang immediately stood up and said excitedly, "It's Yin Rong!" Yin Rong was the only Yin family member who had participated in the Kunlun Mystic Realm with her.

No one else but her would use the Yin Clan's signal flare.

Seeing that there were still survivors on this piece of land, everyone heaved a sigh of relief. That night, they walked towards the direction where Yin Rong's signal flare had lit up.

At the same time, Yin Rong was also moving towards them.

On the afternoon of the third day, they successfully met in a valley filled with medicinal herbs.

What made Yu Huang feel gratified was that the survivor who lit the signal flare was indeed Yin Rong. Beside her was Xiao Shu, who had landed on the Black Shark Bird section with Yu Huang.

However, other than the two of them, there were no other survivors on this piece of land.

Yin Rong told Yu Huang and the others, "In the beginning, there were a total of 89 trainees on this piece of land, but after a year of training, most of the students were eliminated for various reasons. Almost 20 students were eaten by demon beasts."

"Xiao Shu and I are the last survivors on this piece of land." Yin Rong saw that there were only seven people with Yu Huang, so she frowned and asked, "Were you guys all on the same piece of land?"

Yu Huang shook her head. "No, the seven of us are the only survivors from the other three pieces of land."

When she heard this, Yin Rong's expression instantly became solemn.

On the other hand, Xiao Shu looked at Yu Huang with a faint smile and said, "You guys are quite impressive. You actually successfully defeated the strongest demon beasts on those three panels."

Yu Huang was furious when she heard Xiao Shu mention this and questioned him, “How did you leave the Black Shark Bird section back then?”

Xiao Shu subconsciously replied, “I flew over sea on the Black Shark Bird!” As soon as he finished speaking, he saw that Yu Huang’s expression was a little gloomy, and the gaze she looked at him with was slightly cold. He instantly felt that something was wrong. “What’s wrong?”

Yu Huang sneered. “Why didn’t you tell me that only by defeating the strongest beast on the land can you successfully leave the isolated sea and travel to another section?”

Hearing this, Xiao Shu looked stunned. “I didn’t tell you?”

Yu Huang nodded. “You didn’t tell me.”

Xiao Shu touched his nose awkwardly and smiled as he said, “Then I might have forgotten to.”

Yu Huang was furious at Xiao Shu.

Xiao Shu noticed that there was a stranger in Yu Huang’s team, and this person was extremely similar to the baboon in the Black Shark Bird section. He immediately frowned and asked, “Who is he?”

Yu Huang smiled mysteriously and said, “Guess.”

How could Xiao Shu guess his identity?

However, Kunlun took the initiative to walk forward. He shook Xiao Shu’s hand and introduced himself enthusiastically. “Hello, hello. I’m Kunlun. You’re Yu Huang’s friend, so you’re my friend as well.”

When Xiao Shu heard the name ‘Kunlun’, his expression froze.

He stared at Kunlun’s human head, which looked completely different from that of other baboons, and looked at Yu Huang in disbelief.

“He is...” Xiao Shu didn’t dare to voice his guess.

Yu Huang blinked at him. “You’ll know in the future.”

Xiao Shu looked at Kunlun deeply with mixed feelings.

Yin Rong told Yu Huang and the others, “We wanted to leave this place to look for you guys, but the strongest demon beast on this continent is too powerful. Xiao Shu and I are unable to defeat it at all. However, since you guys are here, we might be able to fight against it.”

Sheng Xiao asked, “What demon beast?”

Yin Rong frowned slightly and said, “It’s a pair of Winged Fish.”

Winged Fish was a strange beast with the body of a fish and wings of a bird, but its voice was like that of a mandarin duck. This creature had only appeared in ancient legends.

Until now, such a strange demon beast had never appeared in the Holy Spirit Continent.

Yu Huang asked Yin Rong, “What’s so special about Winged Fish?”

Yin Rong told them, "With a flap of their wings, they can mobilize the seawater in the isolated sea, and the seawater can easily submerge the entire plate. Three months ago, the Winged Fish were enraged and launched a tsunami, forcing more than 30 participants to forfeit in a single day."

Xiao Shu suddenly added, "The most terrifying thing is that the wings of the male Winged Fish have mutated. It can actually transform into human hands. When it transforms into a human hand, it can unleash catastrophic power."

Xiao Shu stared at Yu Huang as he said, "Even I'm not his match."

Xiao Shu was talking about how even he, who had unleashed his full strength, was no match for the male Winged Fish.

When Yu Huang heard this detail, she turned around and exchanged glances with Sheng Xiao and the others. Sheng Xiao nodded at Yu Huang calmly and said, "Let's go take a look."

"Alright, let's go take a look."

The place where the Winged Fish lived was very far from Yu Huang and the others. Yu Huang's current location was on the east side of the Northwest Continent, while the Winged Fish lived on the west side of the continent.

They had to pass through the entire plate.

Along the way, Yin Rong followed Yu Huang with a hesitant expression, as if she had something to say. Yu Huang endured it for three days, but in the end, she really couldn't take it anymore, so she pulled Yin Rong to sit down on a patch of grass.

"If you have something to say, spill the beans. You've been holding it in for three days. Even I feel anxious for you." Yu Huang wished she could pry open Yin Rong's mouth and help her dig out those words.

Yin Rong's frown deepened, and she looked like she wanted to say something, but couldn't, which made Yu Huang anxious.

Yu Huang sat down on the grass and looked at the three scorching suns in the sky. She said, "Does knowing that Xiao Shu is the Lord of All Demons make you feel so distressed?"

Yin Rong's almond-shaped eyes suddenly widened. "How did you know!" Yin Rong looked at Yu Huang in surprise.

Yu Huang pointed at her eyes and said, "I have the Eternal Eye. I saw it long ago." Actually, she lied. She simply guessed it herself.

Yin Rong was enlightened. "I see."

Yin Rong grabbed a handful of tender green grass and told Yu Huang, "Six months ago, when Xiao Shu found me, he proposed to me first. Then... he also told me the truth about his background."

"Oh." Yu Huang sneered and said, "So he did the deed first and only confessed afterward? Then did you agree?"

Yin Rong shook her head. "No."

Yu Huang wasn't surprised.

Yu Huang asked Yin Rong, "Why did you reject him? Are you unable to accept his identity? Or do you care about the judgment of the world?"

Yin Rong shook her head. "Neither."

"Then why did you reject him?" Yu Huang thought of the only possibility. She glanced at Xiao Shu, who was in the distance, with some sympathy before turning around to ask Yin Rong, "You... don't like him?"

If dislike was the reason for Yin Rong's rejection, Xiao Shu would be in despair.

"I like him." Yin Rong bit her lip and secretly glanced at Xiao Shu. Seeing that Xiao Shu wasn't paying attention to their conversation, she blushed and said softly, "I... I'm afraid that I'll give birth to a little unicorn in the future. I'm human after all, so I can't accept giving birth to a little unicorn..."

Yu Huang was speechless.

In the distance, Xiao Shu, who was fishing in the river, suddenly slipped and fell into the river.

Chapter 862: Sharing Glory and Ordeals

"Senior Xiao Shu!"

Feng Yuncheng caught a fish and turned around. When he saw Xiao Shu sitting in the cold river, he quickly threw the fish ashore and bent down to help Xiao Shu up. "Senior Xiao Shu, take it easy."

Hearing Feng Yuncheng's loud voice, Yin Rong and Yu Huang heard the commotion and turned to look at the river.

Seeing that Xiao Shu's clothes were drenched, Yin Rong guessed the reason he lost his footing and fell into the water. For a moment, she couldn't help but blush.

Feng Yuncheng helped Xiao Shu to the shore. As they walked, he asked him, "What were you thinking about just now? You even fell on such a flat river bottom."

When Xiao Shu noticed that Yin Rong was looking in his direction, he avoided her gaze and explained, "I stepped on a moss stone."

Feng Yuncheng helped Xiao Shu to the shore and sat down. "Go change your clothes. I'll go catch another fish."

"Okay."

After Xiao Shu went ashore, he took off his wet shoes and walked towards the tent alone. He changed his clothes, unzipped the tent, and walked out. He saw Yin Rong standing in front of him.

Xiao Shu raised his eyebrows and asked her, "How long have you been waiting?"

Yin Rong pointed at Xiao Shu's clothes and said, "I arrived just as you were about to change."

The plain was filled with colorful daisies. At dusk, an orange glow was cast on the daisies, giving off a romantic and peaceful vibe.

Xiao Shu said to Yin Rong, "Let's take a walk."

"Okay."

Xiao Shu closed the tent again and walked away with Yin Rong. Sheng Xiao reminded them without looking up, "Don't go too far."

"Got it."

The two of them walked slowly in the direction of the setting sun. When they passed by a large field of wildflowers, Yin Rong squatted down among the flowers and snapped off a large bouquet of wildflowers.

She carried the wildflowers to Xiao Shu's side and knelt down to use the wildflowers to make a headband. Her hands were very nimble, and she had always been good at making jewelry with various jade and gemstones. Soon, the wildflowers were woven into a bright headband.

Yin Rong held the headband and said to Xiao Shu, "Lower your head."

Xiao Shu obediently lowered his head.

After Yin Rong placed the garland on Xiao Shu's head, she tilted her head and sized him up seriously for a moment before praising in satisfaction, "You look gorgeous."

Xiao Shu wasn't angry. He simply said, "As long as you're happy."

Yin Rong picked out a purple daisy from the pile of flowers and told Xiao Shu, "After removing the leaves from the roots, circling it around here, and finally passing it through here, it becomes a beautiful ring."

Xiao Shu stared at the purple daisy ring and curled his lips in disdain. "Only a three-year-old girl would like such a thing."

"Is that so? Do you really think so?" Yin Rong suddenly smiled slyly. She, who always looked gentle and amiable, actually seemed quirky and mischievous at this moment.

She raised the purple daisy ring in front of Xiao Shu and lifted her head. Then, she looked at him affectionately and asked solemnly and sincerely, "Xiao Shu, are you willing to accept my proposal ring and become my fiancé? Are you willing to share glory and ordeals with me?"

Xiao Shu immediately held his breath.

As he stared at the cute purple daisy ring, he felt a little emotional. He couldn't help but stick out his tongue and lick his dry lips. He asked in a hoarse voice, "Are you proposing to me?"

Yin Rong blinked and nodded gently. "Yes."

Xiao Shu's eyes suddenly turned fiery red as he looked at the ring, as if two balls of flames were burning in them. However, his fiery red eyes clearly reflected the purple daisy ring and Yin Rong's appearance.

"With just this small wildflower ring?" Xiao Shu asked again.

Yin Rong saw the change in Xiao Shu's eyes and sensitively sensed the change in Xiao Shu's aura. At this moment, the aura emitted by Xiao Shu's entire body became passionate and domineering, as if it could instantly melt Yin Rong.

Yin Rong suppressed the fear in her heart and told Xiao Shu gently, "The first time you proposed to me, I rejected you. It's been a few months, but I haven't awaited your second proposal, so I can only propose myself."

"But I wasn't fully prepared. Without a ring that fits the size of your finger, I can only use local materials." Yin Rong shook the wildflower ring in her hand and asked Xiao Shu, "Are you willing to accept my ring?"

Xiao Shu stretched out his left hand and said to Yin Rong, "I want you to put it on my left middle finger."

Yin Rong heaved a sigh of relief. "Okay."

Yin Rong solemnly put the flower ring on Xiao Shu's middle finger. The ring was slightly wider than Xiao Shu's middle finger, so Yin Rong lowered her head and adjusted the size of the ring.

"Okay, now it's perfect."

Xiao Shu raised his left middle finger against the setting sun and looked at it carefully for a moment. Then, he suddenly said, "I want it to remain like this forever."

As he spoke, Xiao Shu's eyes turned red again. He narrowed his eyes and stared at the ring without blinking.

A red flame emerged from Xiao Shu's fingertips. The flame quickly enveloped the purple daisy ring and coated it with a transparent layer of lake ice crystals.

Yin Rong's eyes widened. "You know this move?"

Xiao Shu smiled proudly. "It's nothing." As Xiao Shu sized up the ring on his finger, he thought of what Yin Rong had whispered to Yu Huang earlier. He lowered his head to look at Yin Rong and said seriously, "Don't worry, I won't let you give birth to a unicorn."

Yin Rong's face turned red.

She lowered her head quickly, but she still couldn't hide her blushing ears.

"You heard everything..."

Xiao Shu touched his nose and admitted, "Yes, my hearing is very good." Xiao Shu held Yin Rong's hand and said, "Although I'm the Lord of All Demons, I already have a human body. In the future, our child will most likely be in the form of a human baby."

"So, you can rest assured."

Hearing Xiao Shu's words, Yin Rong heaved a sigh of relief. "That's good."

“However, I’m very happy that you’re willing to have a child with me.” Xiao Shu pressed Yin Rong’s thin body into his arms. As he sniffed the fragrance of Yin Rong’s long hair, he said in a low voice, “Rong’er, I have to personally tell you about my past relationship with Prime Master Goldfeather.”

Yin Rong realized that it would be a long and sad story. She leaned her head on Xiao Shu’s shoulder and said softly, “Tell me. I’ll listen.”

Xiao Shu spent some time telling Yin Rong about how he and Prime Master Goldfeather had met, fallen in love, and fought each other.

When Yin Rong heard that Xiao Shu had once fallen deeply in love with Prime Master Goldfeather, she naturally felt jealous. However, when she heard that Prime Master Goldfeather had poisoned him and forced him to dig out his Monster Core and surrender, she gritted her teeth in anger.

“Goldfeather used my feelings for her to force me into the deep end and I end up dying a tragic death. This matter made me lose faith in love and even made me feel vengeful towards this world.”

1

“Before I died, I secretly warned myself to never fall for another woman again, but then I met you.”

Chapter 863: A Special Gift

“Rong’er, you’ve rekindled my life. Because of you, I’ve decided to love this world.”

Xiao Shu lowered his head and kissed Yin Rong’s forehead as he said, “Please stay by my side and let me love this world.”

Hearing Xiao Shu’s heartfelt words, Yin Rong was deeply touched.

She nodded vigorously and promised Xiao Shu, “I will always be with you and treat you as my family, my lover.”

“Okay.”

When Yin Rong saw that Xiao Shu’s eyes were filled with love and trust, her heart raced. She mustered her courage and raised her head to kiss Xiao Shu.

Xiao Shu was a little surprised by the kiss, but he quickly took the initiative to press Yin Rong’s head and deepened the kiss.

“Cough.” Yu Huang suddenly jumped down from an oak tree in the distance. Then, she stood under the tree and crossed her arms as she smiled at the two of them.

Upon hearing the noise, Yin Rong immediately pushed Xiao Shu away like a frightened bird and stood up with a flushed face. Then, she turned around and rubbed her face. When the heat on her face faded a little, she turned around and asked Yu Huang, “How long have you been peeping?”

Yu Huang said, “I wasn’t peeking. I walked over openly, but the two of you were too engrossed and didn’t notice me. You can’t blame me for this.”

Yin Rong was so engrossed in kissing Xiao Shu just now that she really didn't listen to the movements around her carefully.

Yin Rong blushed again. On the other hand, Xiao Shu was much more thick-skinned. He pressed his fingers to his lips and rubbed them with yearning. Only then did he glare at Yu Huang unhappily and condemn her, "Can't you appear a few minutes later?"

Yu Huang raised her eyebrows. "Your desires weren't satisfied so now you're blaming me?"

Xiao Shu sneered. "The next time you're intimate with Senior Sheng, I'll do a sneak attack too."

Yu Huang shrugged and said fearlessly, "As long as you dare to, I'll be waiting."

"Alright, the proposal was a success and you've kissed each other already. Hurry up and go back to eat. After eating, we have to continue on our way."

Yu Huang turned around first and walk towards the camp. Yin Rong looked at Xiao Shu shyly and jogged after her.

Xiao Shu wrapped his arms around the back of his head and hummed a tune as he followed them.

Everyone surrounded the bonfire and grilled fish. Xiao Shu deliberately used his left hand to hold the seasoning bottle and sprinkled black pepper on the grilled fish. When Feng Yuncheng saw the fancy ring on his middle finger, he couldn't help but raise his eyebrows. "Senior Xiao Shu, you're already so old. Why are you still wearing a thing that only little girls like?"

Hearing this, everyone looked at Xiao Shu's left hand. This time, they all saw the ring.

Xiao Shu smiled mysteriously. "You're so ignorant. This is a gift from Rong'er." Xiao Shu winked at Feng Yuncheng and mocked, "If you have the ability, get Beatrice to give you one too."

Feng Yuncheng had previously despised Xiao Shu's ring for being childish, but now, he was envious of how happy Xiao Shu was. Feng Yuncheng looked at Beatrice expectantly.

Beatrice noticed Feng Yuncheng's eager gaze. She couldn't bear to let Feng Yuncheng down, so she found a purple gem the size of a pigeon egg from her interspatial ring and threw it to Feng Yuncheng. She said generously, "It's for you. You can do whatever you want with it."

As Feng Yuncheng held the heavy pigeon egg, he was filled with disappointment. "Your Highness, you know what I truly want."

An awkward look flashed across Beatrice's face, but she pretended not to hear what Feng Yuncheng was hinting at. She took off the spatial storage device on her wrist and handed it to Feng Yuncheng. "Then look for it yourself and see if there is anything you like."

Feng Yuncheng laughed self-deprecatingly and returned the storage device and the pigeon egg to Beatrice. He said, "Your Highness, although these things are precious, they are not what I want. These things are precious, so keep them well."

Beatrice took back the storage device.

Feng Yuncheng handed the cooked fish in front of him to Beatrice. “Your Highness, there’s no chili on this fish. I specifically roasted it for you. It’s already cooked. Be careful not to be pricked by the fish bones.”

Although she could eat anything, she didn’t like spicy food. Other than the officers in the army who took care of her, no one else had noticed that she didn’t like spicy food. Even her two brothers who grew up with her didn’t know.

She didn’t know how Feng Yuncheng discovered it.

The fish was clearly delicious, but when Beatrice saw the forced smile on Feng Yuncheng’s face, she suddenly lost her appetite.

Beatrice suddenly put the fish down and took off the necklace that had been around her neck.

“Feng Yuncheng.”

Feng Yuncheng was flipping the grilled fish. When he heard this, he subconsciously looked up at Beatrice. “Your Highness, what’s wrong?” Feng Yuncheng saw a pendant necklace in Beatrice’s hand and revealed a confused expression.

“Your Highness, why did you take off the necklace?” Feng Yuncheng had long discovered that Beatrice always wore a pendant necklace. However, the necklace was too long, and the pendant was hidden in Beatrice’s chest, so Feng Yuncheng didn’t know what the pendant was.

This time, Feng Yuncheng finally saw the complete appearance of the pendant.

It was a crystal pendant. There was a string of black words on the pendant, but those words were facing away from Feng Yuncheng, so Feng Yuncheng couldn’t see what those words were.

Beatrice said, “Come closer.”

Feng Yuncheng leaned over obediently.

Beatrice put the necklace around Feng Yuncheng’s neck.

The necklace looked very thick, but the material was very light and it was very cold to the touch. As soon as it touched Feng Yuncheng’s skin, Feng Yuncheng felt a sense of chill.

“What is this, Your Highness?” Feng Yuncheng asked curiously.

Beatrice took a bite of the delicious grilled fish and then explained, “That is the identity card of Iron Thunder Army.”

Feng Yuncheng was stunned.

He quickly grabbed the pendant and looked down. He saw the words written on the crystal—

Commander of the Iron Thunder Army – Beatrice.

Feng Yuncheng heard Beatrice say, “A drop of my blood has been integrated into the identity card, as well as my identity information. All official soldiers of the Iron Thunder Army have identity cards. When soldiers serve, they wear it to the battlefield. If soldiers can retire alive, this identity card will become a symbol of their honor.”

“Retired soldiers usually give their identity cards to their families and... lovers.”

“Feng Yuncheng, I don’t have a ring, but I’ll give you my honor.” After saying that, Beatrice was too embarrassed to see Feng Yuncheng’s reaction. In order to hide her embarrassment, she quickly lowered her head and took another bite of the fish.

After Feng Yuncheng heard the story of this identity token, his nose suddenly tingled, and he felt even more blissful and satisfied.

“Your Highness, I like this gift very much.” Feng Yuncheng lowered his head and kissed the identity card. His pious appearance was like that of a young boy offering his first kiss to his first love.

When Beatrice saw Feng Yuncheng’s actions, her ears actually burned slightly.

Chapter 864: No High Requirements, As Long As She’s a Female

Xiao Shu originally wanted to show off their love, but he didn’t expect Beatrice and Feng Yuncheng to show off their love for each other instead. He laughed as he lamented, “There are three couples among the nine of us.”

Xiao Shu looked at Estelle, Donor, and Kunlun, who was smiling, and asked the three of them, “When will the three of you find girlfriends?”

“Find a girlfriend?” Donor sneered. “No woman in this world is worthy of me.”

Yin Rong’s eyes lit up when she heard this and she subconsciously said, “So you like men?”

Everyone looked at Donor in unison.

Donor’s expression darkened and he said angrily, “What nonsense are you talking about? How can I like men?” Donor looked into the distance and said with a yearning expression, “A woman who is worthy of me must be the most beautiful woman in the world. At least...”

Donor glanced at Yu Huang and at the risk of offending Sheng Xiao, he said shamelessly, “No matter what, she has to be a beauty at Yu Huang’s level.”

Sheng Xiao sneered. “I think you should stay single forever.”

Xiao Shu asked Estelle, “What about you? What kind of wife do you want?”

Estelle wiped the grease from his mouth and said with a smile, “I don’t ask for much. She just needs to be a woman.” After a pause, she added, “But she has to be prettier than Carson’s wife”

Feng Yuncheng chuckled. “Your and Donor’s criteria for choosing a partner are really two extremes.” Estelle was always saying that Carson, who was from the neighboring village, had a beautiful wife, but Feng Yuncheng and the others had never seen Carson’s wife before. They couldn’t help but be curious about Carson’s wife.

“What does Carson’s wife look like? I really hope we can meet her,” Feng Yuncheng asked gossipily.

Everyone thought that Estelle didn’t have a photo of Carson’s wife, but Estelle said, “Wait a moment, I’ll show you.”

Estelle took out an old plastic bag from his pocket. The plastic bag contained Estelle’s Night Elf ID card, his Beast Tamer ID, and a few inch-long photos.

Estelle’s family was poor, so he didn’t have a storage device or ring. This plastic bag was his storage bag.

Everyone moved towards Estelle and realized that there were a total of three photos in his bag. Two of them belonged to his younger siblings.

Estelle told them, “We Night Elves are considered adults when we reach 13 years old. We can apply for Night Elves ID cards at that age. Many Night Elves only have the chance to take photos in town when they apply for ID cards.”

“These are photos of my brother and sister.” Estelle showed them the inch-long photos of them.

Like Estelle, his younger siblings were ugly and dark-skinned, but they seemed like kind people.

Nodding, Feng Yuncheng asked, “Where’s the photo of Carson’s wife?”

Everyone took a closer look and exclaimed, “F*ck, is this Carson’s wife?”

Donor never expected that Carson’s wife was the Light Elf supermodel Bilis!

Bilis was 1.79 meters tall Light Elf. She had a pair of perfect elf ears and a face as beautiful as that of a fairy.

However, because she had committed a serious crime, her wings were cut off and she was thrown into the demonic cave.

“Carson’s wife is Bilis?”

When Estelle realized that Donor actually knew Carson’s wife, he couldn’t help but ask curiously, “You know her?”

Donor nodded and told everyone, “Bilis was once the most famous supermodel and celebrity in Light Sea, but out of ambition, she tried to seduce my old grandfather. My grandmother cut off her wings and threw her into the demonic cave. From then on, her fate was unknown.”

Since they didn’t expect to hear a secret about the royal family, everyone felt very intrigued.

Donor’s grandmother, Princess Grantling, was the Purifying Spirit Master with the highest cultivation of the Purifying Spirit Art in the Light Sea. Bilis was really bold to seduce Grantling’s man.

“I thought that Bilis had died long ago. I didn’t expect her to become Carson’s wife.” The Light Elves looked down on lowly Night Elves the most.

Bilis would probably rather die than marry a Night Elf.

Yin Rong said, "If Princess Grantling knew that Bilis had become Carson's wife, she would definitely be secretly pleased."

Donor nodded. "My grandmother is a Purifying Spirit Master, but her tolerance for her love rival is actually 0. Bilis daring to seduce my grandfather is indeed courting death."

After returning the photo to Estelle, Donor couldn't help but rain on his parade. "I'm afraid it won't be easy for you to find a wife who looks prettier than Bilis."

Estelle snorted. "Are you looking down on me?"

Donor was still thinking about the contract with Estelle. He wanted to please Estelle, so he tried to tempt him. "Estelle, if you agree to be my Back Spirit, I'm willing to persuade the most beautiful girl of the Light Elves to marry you."

Estelle snorted and actually retorted, "Yu Huang said that I will have a bright future. When I have a bright future, not to mention asking the most beautiful girl of your Light Elve Clan to be my wife, even if I want you to be my wife, your Light Elve Clan won't dare to object."

Everyone was speechless.

Donor was so angry that he laughed. "Well then!"

Yu Huang and the others didn't dare to say anything. They only wanted to give Estelle a thumbs up to show their admiration.

Everyone asked Kunlun what kind of wife he wanted. Kunlun thought for a moment and said, "She should be strong, good at fighting and giving birth."

"Tsk! Good for you!"

Everyone chatted and laughed as they continued their journey. After traveling for six days, they finally arrived at the western end of the piece of land. When they arrived here, they could see an incomparably huge tree towering into the western sky.

The trunk of the giant tree was a hundred meters wide. The branches were spread out like an umbrella, and an incomparably huge bird nest was built on the top of the tree.

At this moment, the sun had just risen, and the sun was shining on the huge tree. Two huge but cute Winged Fish were having sex.

They were having a lot of fun. Sometimes, they were intimate in their nests, and sometimes, they flew into the sky together. They even let out horny cries.

When Yu Huang and the others saw this scene, they were a little dumbfounded.

Yu Huang said, "The two of them are quite loving."

However, Xiao Shu said, "You're wrong. That male Winged Fish is absorbing the demonic power of that female Winged Fish. When we saw them three months ago, they were also in this state."

When they heard this, everyone's expressions became solemn.

After spending more than two months, this male Winged Fish had yet to completely absorb the demonic power of the female Winged Fish. It could be seen how powerful the female Winged Fish was.

How terrifyingly powerful was a male Winged Fish that could defeat a female Winged Fish?

Chapter 865: It's All Her Own Fault

After figuring out that the two Winged Fish weren't having sex at all, but were engaged in a prolonged battle of life-or-death, Yu Huang couldn't help but be puzzled. "Logically speaking, since these two Winged Fish could live together for ten thousand years, they should have an extremely good relationship. Why did they suddenly start killing each other?"

Something must have happened.

Hearing Yu Huang's question, Yin Rong explained at this moment, "You're right. I've been on this piece of land for a year. In the beginning, the relationship between these two Winged Fish was indeed very good. According to my secret observation, the two of them seem to be hatching their babies. However, for some reason, three months ago, the male Winged Fish suddenly became beastly and cruelly swallowed their egg babies. For this reason, the female Winged Fish fought with it this time."

"The couple fought very fiercely, causing the tectonic plates to be flooded by seawater. Many of our companions lost their lives because of this, and those who were lucky enough to survive were taken away by the protocol officer."

"That day, they fought for five days and five nights. In the end, the female Winged Fish was defeated and her neck was cruelly bitten by the male Winged Fish. The demonic power in her body was also fading bit by bit."

After listening to Yin Rong, Donor quickly took out his binoculars and observed the situation of the Winged Fish through them. "That's right. That male Winged Fish is biting the neck of the female Winged Fish."

Donor put away his binoculars and turned to look at Xiao Shu and Yin Rong. He asked them, "Do you know why the male Winged Fish suddenly lost control?"

Yin Rong shook her head.

Xiao Shu said thoughtfully, "That male Winged Fish suddenly lost control without any warning. On the day it lost control, Yin Rong and I happened to be training on the mountain behind. When it lost control, I saw with my own eyes that its wings had turned into human arms. It used its ten fingers to personally crush those bird eggs."

Xiao Shu looked at Yu Huang, Sheng Xiao, and the others and guessed, "Logically speaking, Winged Fish shouldn't have human arms. I suspect that the problem lies in its arms."

Yin Rong hurriedly nodded in agreement. "That's right. Only the male Winged Fish's wings became human arms, but the female Winged Fish's wings didn't."

"I wonder what this male Winged Fish encountered." Yin Rong and Xiao Shu still didn't know that the remains of the Kunlun Divine Master had been eaten by the demon beasts. If they knew, they would definitely be able to guess the reason.

Yu Huang suddenly sneered and said sarcastically, "Things that are snatched from others ultimately won't become one's own."

Nodding, Sheng Xiao added, "Kunlun Divine Master cultivated in the Dao of Slaughter, so his remains naturally have powerful energy. After he died, his arms were eaten by this Winged Fish, so it naturally developed boundless resentment. The Winged Fish spent ten thousand years but was unable to completely refine the remains of the Kunlun Divine Master. Instead, it received backlash from the remains, causing its energy to go berserk and lose control of its mind."

"In the end, it only has itself to blame."

Feng Yuncheng and the others nodded in agreement.

"The remains of the Kunlun Divine Master?" Xiao Shu's breathing became heavy when he heard the news.

Staring at the male Winged Fish fighting in the sky, Xiao Shu asked in disbelief, "You're saying that the reason why the male Winged Fish's arms are so powerful is because it obtained the remains of the Kunlun Divine Master?"

"That's right." Sheng Xiao told Xiao Shu and Yin Rong. "We've already found the Kunlun Divine Master's head and leg bones. If we're not wrong, this male Luo fish probably ate the Kunlun Divine Master's arms."

"The remains of the Kunlun Divine Master are actually hidden in this Kunlun Mystic Realm!" Unknowingly, Xiao Shu's breathing became heavy, and his eyes turned red.

Gradually, Xiao Shu lost control of his emotions. Wisps of light red flames began to burn on his body.

After obtaining the remains of the Kunlun Divine Master and successfully refining them, he would be able to break the curse that demon beasts couldn't become Divine Masters!

Ten thousand years ago, in order to obtain the Kunlun Divine Master's inheritance, Xiao Shu had risked his life to enter and exit the Kunlun Mystic Realm several times. Now, when he found out that the remains of the Kunlun Divine Master were actually hidden in the mystic realm, Xiao Shu was overjoyed.

Because he was too excited, he actually lost control for a moment.

Seeing that Xiao Shu had lost control, Sheng Xiao realized that Xiao Shu had become too obsessed. If he didn't make Xiao Shu return to his senses in time, Xiao Shu might lose control completely. Sheng Xiao immediately drew his sword and pointed it at Xiao Shu. "Calm down, Xiao Shu!"

As Xiao Shu stared at Sheng Xiao with bloodshot eyes, a sinister smile appeared on his lips. "Get lost. Don't get in my way!"

Xiao Shu suddenly transformed into a Fire Unicorn and bit Sheng Xiao's shoulder mercilessly. Then, he slammed his head and sent Sheng Xiao flying.

“Xiao Shu! No!” Yin Rong was frightened by this shocking scene.

When Feng Yuncheng saw the Fire Unicorn in the void, his head suddenly hurt. Then, he saw a strange scene—

In a primitive forest, he turned around and saw a Fire Unicorn burning with flames!

But where had he seen this scene before?

Feng Yuncheng had never had any memories related to it.

“Brother Xiao!” Yu Huang saw that Sheng Xiao was bitten by Xiao Shu and immediately caught him.

The two of them staggered to the ground. Sheng Xiao stabbed the Dragon Sword into the ground and left a deep sword mark on the ground. Then, he retreated more than ten meters before stabilizing himself with Yu Huang.

It wasn't that Sheng Xiao couldn't defeat him. He just didn't expect Xiao Shu to lose control completely.

He looked at Yu Huang comfortingly and said, “Xiao Shu has just regained his memories. Once he loses control, it will be very difficult for him to regain his rationality. We have to stop him.”

Xiao Shu was Sheng Xiao's junior. They were of the same age and had fought together many times, so they had a deep relationship.

Even though Sheng Xiao didn't talk about their friendship often, he acknowledged Xiao Shu as his good friend.

Whether Xiao Shu was the Lord of the Ten Thousand Demons or not, Sheng Xiao wouldn't give up on him as long as he didn't commit a heinous crime.

Sheng Xiao roared, “Donor, Estelle, let's subdue Xiao Shu together!”

“Okay!”

Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang flew towards Xiao Shu again and surrounded him with Donor and the others. At this time, Xiao Shu had completely transformed into a Fire Unicorn. He floated in the air and looked down at Sheng Xiao and the others.

At that moment, in Xiao Shu's eyes, Sheng Xiao and the others weren't his good friends. They were just a group of humans who were obstructing him.

Xiao Shu snorted. “Mere humans dare to compete with me?!”

Xiao Shu stomped his feet and flames burned on his body. Wherever his scarlet eyes looked, endless flames ignited.

Seeing this, Yu Huang suddenly closed her eyes and shouted with a sorrowful expression, “Tears of Samsara!”

A crystal clear tear gathered above Yu Huang's head and teleported towards Xiao Shu. The Tear of Samsara exploded above Xiao Shu's head in countless mists. Xiao Shu was enveloped by the mists and the entire unicorn was frozen.

Yu Huang roared, "Now!" The Tear of Samsara could only stop the Fire Unicorn for three seconds at most. Whether they could successfully subdue Xiao Shu depended on their speed.

Sheng Xiao and Donor raised the spiritual swords in their hands and flew forward. They planned to use force to suppress Xiao Shu.

At that moment, Yin Rong suddenly shouted, "Don't hurt him!" Yin Rong stood in front of Sheng Xiao and the others and extended her arms to stop them from attacking Xiao Shu.

Sheng Xiao and Donor didn't want to hurt Yin Rong, so they forcefully swerved to the side. The sword energy brushed past Yin Rong and landed on the ground, creating deep pits.

After Yin Rong's obstruction, Sheng Xiao and the others missed the best opportunity to subdue Xiao Shu.

Sheng Xiao stared at Yin Rong gloomily. "You're too willful."

Yin Rong said with tears in her eyes, "Let me try. If I can't successfully awaken his rationality, then I'll allow you to use any means to subdue him."

Sheng Xiao shook his head and didn't say anything else. He returned to Yu Huang's side with his sword. After Donor looked at Xiao Shu, who was in a dangerous state, he sighed and said to Yin Rong, "I'll leave it to you."

At this moment, the Tear of Samsara's still effects on the Fire Unicorn had already disappeared.

The Fire Unicorn opened its scarlet beast eyes and stared coldly at Yin Rong while berating angrily, "What, even you want to stop me?"

Clearly, the Fire Unicorn still recognized Yin Rong. It was just that its obsession with obtaining the remains of the Kunlun Divine Master was so deep that it had actually forgotten about its feelings for Yin Rong.

Chapter 866: I Will Never Leave You

Yin Rong opened her arms, and a translucent horn gradually appeared on her forehead.

After her cultivation level broke through to the Supreme Master Realm, Yin Rong was able to partially fuse with her beast form, and the horn on her forehead was the result of her fusing with the beast form, the Three-Eyed Unicorn.

Yin Rong walked towards Xiao Shu firmly step by step. As she looked straight into those cold and heartless scarlet beast eyes, she felt fear.

She was so afraid that her legs were trembling.

But she still walked towards Xiao Shu without hesitation.

When Xiao Shu saw Yin Rong getting closer and closer to him, he felt angered. "Stop, human!"

Yin Rong didn't stop.

Not only did she not stop, but she also quickened her pace.

Just as Yin Rong was about to approach the Fire Unicorn, the Fire Unicorn suddenly raised its front hooves and kicked Yin Rong's chest.

Not only did Yin Rong not escape, but she even only hugged the Fire Unicorn's front hooves.

The Fire Unicorn stomped Yin Rong to the ground. After Yin Rong was pressed down by the Fire Unicorn, she suddenly spat out a mouthful of blood. However, she didn't resist or moan. She only tried her best to raise her head and gently pressed her horn against the Fire Unicorn's front hooves and knees.

Then, Yin Rong closed her eyes and slowly transferred her spiritual power into the Fire Unicorn's body.

The gentle and calm spiritual energy that belonged to the Three-Eyed Unicorn surged into the Fire Unicorn's blood vessels one after another. The violent aura in the Fire Unicorn's body was gradually suppressed.

Yin Rong transferred all her spiritual power to Xiao Shu without hesitation. Sensing that the force of the hoof on her chest was gradually weakening, Yin Rong said in a low voice, "I said that I would never leave you. Xiao Shu, no matter what happens, I will always be with you..."

Yin Rong was a gentle girl, but being gentle didn't mean she was weak.

She was gentle, but she was also tough.

She was a girl who kept her word. She had promised that she would never abandon Xiao Shu, so she had to do it.

—I will never leave you.

When the Fire Unicorn heard this, he gradually calmed down and stared blankly at the girl under him. In an instant, Yin Rong and Goldfeather's faces appeared in his vision.

The cold-looking Prime Master Goldfeather, who was holding a spirit sword, held a huge Monster Core that was still throbbing in her hand. She mocked him, "How can a lowly beast be worthy of the love of a Prime Master? Fire Unicorn, you're just my plaything."

At that moment, the Fire Unicorn felt the pain of ten thousand arrows piercing its heart.

That day, the Fire Unicorn suddenly lost its love for the entire world and all humans.

He swore that he would never believe in love again, let alone women's sweet nothings.

But...

When the Fire Unicorn felt the gentle spiritual power slowly flowing in his body, saw the blood on Yin Rong's lips, and heard her low murmurs, the Fire Unicorn suddenly heard something beating in its chest again.

Bang!

Bang!

Bang!

He realized that he had actually grown a brand new Monster Core!

“Roar!” The Fire Unicorn roared and hurriedly moved its front hooves away from Yin Rong’s chest. It instantly turned back into Xiao Shu.

Xiao Shu hurriedly bent down and hugged the injured Yin Rong. After he wiped Yin Rong’s tears and blood with tears in his eyes, he held Yin Rong’s face carefully and lowered his head to say, “Rong’er, I’m sorry, I’m sorry. I don’t want those things anymore. I don’t want any of them.”

Whether he became a god or not wasn’t important anymore.

He only wanted to accompany Yin Rong. That was enough.

Seeing that Xiao Shu had finally regained his senses, Yin Rong pressed her palm against Xiao Shu’s cheek and said with heartache, “Don’t blame yourself or feel sad. As long as you can accompany me, I’ll be satisfied.”

“Alright, I promise you. I promise you everything.”

Sheng Xiao heaved a sigh of relief when he saw that Yin Rong had really awakened Xiao Shu. He walked over and patted Xiao Shu’s shoulder hard as he said in a low voice, “Don’t let Yin Rong down.”

Xiao Shu hurriedly nodded. “I won’t.”

Xiao Shu still remembered the damage he had done to Sheng Xiao when he lost control. He smiled in embarrassment and said to Sheng Xiao, “I’m sorry that I lost control and hurt you. When we return to the Holy Spirit Continent, you can choose any treasure in my treasure vault. Take it as my compensation to you.”

Sheng Xiao raised his eyebrows and joked, “It’s my honor to get the treasure of the Lord of All Demons.”

The news of the revival of the Lord of All Demons, the Fire Unicorn, had already spread before they entered the Kunlun Mystic Realm. After personally witnessing Xiao Shu transform into the Fire Unicorn, Donor and the others had vaguely guessed Xiao Shu’s true identity.

Hearing Sheng Xiao’s words, they were certain that Xiao Shu was the Lord of All Demons.

After a short period of shock, Donor, Feng Yuncheng, and the others silently took in this shocking truth.

Xiao Shu also realized that his companions knew the truth.

For a moment, he didn’t know how to face them, especially Feng Yuncheng, who had suffered, picked feces, and planted vegetables with him.

Feng Yuncheng saw that Xiao Shu was avoiding his gaze and was filled with guilt. He suddenly asked, “Back then, when we accidentally provoked the Wind Fire Elephant in the primitive forest and were hunted by it, I saw a Fire Unicorn. Was that unicorn you?”

The strange thing was that Feng Yuncheng couldn’t remember this detail back then. However, after seeing Xiao Shu transform into a Fire Unicorn today, he suddenly regained his memories of that day.

Xiao Shu nodded. "That's right, it was me." As Xiao Shu looked at everyone, he felt ashamed.

Xiao Shu said, "I'm sorry, everyone, from hiding it from you guys."

Donor chuckled and said, "Your identity is so special. You can only survive by hiding your identity. We understand." Donor walked towards Xiao Shu and extended his right hand as he said, "If you can stay the same guy, then I, Donor, will always acknowledge you as my friend."

Feng Yuncheng and the others also extended their right hands towards Xiao Shu.

Xiao Shu stared at the right hands that were reaching out to him and actually burst into tears. He held each hand tightly and said with tears in his eyes, "I won't let everyone down!"

Yin Rong heaved a sigh of relief when she saw that everyone was willing to accept Xiao Shu's identity.

"Everyone, stop being so emotional. Let's think about how to resolve the crisis in front of us!" Yu Huang looked up at the sky and muttered, "That male Winged Fish has already discovered our existence!"

Hearing this, Donor and the others immediately turned around and looked up at the sky. As expected, they realized that the male Winged Fish was staring at them with a sinister and bloodthirsty gaze.

In the next second, they suddenly saw the male Winged Fish let go of the female Winged Fish's neck. Immediately after, the wings on its back turned into arms.

The male Winged Fish mercilessly inserted its arm into the female Winged Fish's abdomen and actually forcefully pulled out its spouse's Monster Core.

"Hiss!" The female Winged Fish let out a shrill cry as her body fell to the ground in a straight line, stirring up a wave of dust.

Everyone used their arms to block the dust. When they looked up again, they saw the female Winged Fish's dead eyes.

The female Winged Fish was dead!

Its demonic power had already been sucked dry by the male Winged Fish! Its Monster Core had also been snatched away by the male Winged Fish.

Everyone looked up in shock and saw the male Winged Fish cruelly eating its spouse's Monster Core!

Sheng Xiao immediately shouted, "Run!"

The male Winged Fish was powerful to begin with. Now, he had eaten the Monster Core of a female Winged Fish that had been cultivating for more than ten thousand years. His current strength was too terrifying. Sheng Xiao and the others couldn't defeat him.

Even Sheng Xiao, who was a Grand Master, could only run.

Hearing Sheng Xiao's shout, everyone fled.

Since they were too slow, Sheng Xiao turned into the Black Qing Sky Dragon and swept everyone away before rushing towards the eastern piece of land.

The male Winged Fish let out a few strange cries. Everyone saw its wings flap a few times, then the seawater a thousand miles away rolled up a huge wave ten thousand meters high and slapped towards the continent.

Yu Huang immediately flew up and summoned Xuan Yu to release the Purifying Evil Phoenix Flame in the sky. The flames that filled the sky descended and quickly drained all the water in their surroundings.

Xuan Yu released almost a third of its energy body before it burned away the first wave. Before Yu Huang could catch her breath, the male Winged Fish launched a second wave of attacks.

Xuan Yu continued to resist.

But immediately after, the male Winged Fish launched a third wave of attacks.

In next to no time, Xuan Yu's spiritual power was exhausted, and it transformed into a ball of red light that entered Yu Huang's body.

At that moment, Sheng Xiao, Donor, Xiao Shu, and the others flew up. They released their spiritual power at the same time and formed a protective shield to resist the impact of the monstrous waves.

"Swish!" Seeing that they were still resisting, the male Winged Fish smiled evilly and its wings turned into arms again.

It flew to the waves and stirred the seawater with both hands. The seawater turned into countless sharp blades that attacked the protective shield.

Crack—

The protective shield held on bitterly for more than half an hour. Accompanied by the sound of cracking, it completely collapsed.

Without the protection of the protective shield, the sea waves that towered the sky immediately pushed Yu Huang and the others in different directions. The huge impact instantly pushed Yu Huang into the underwater world.

After Yu Huang fell into the sea, she saw countless sea rabbits approaching to attack her.

Her scalp went numb.

Chapter 867: Untitled

The densely packed sea rabbits skipped towards Yu Huang and jumped more than ten meters high.

A second ago, they were still a hundred meters away from Yu Huang. In the blink of an eye, they appeared in front of her.

"Squeak!" The sea rabbit's ears twitched, and an ear-piercing sound wave came from their bodies. This was the first time Yu Huang had heard the sea rabbit's sound wave, and she immediately felt dizzy.

"Squeak squeak!"

“Squeak squeak!”

The sound waves of the sea rabbits became louder and louder. Yu Huang could vaguely see countless transparent water waves spitting out from the tentacles in their mouths. Those water waves floated towards Yu Huang and isolated her.

When those water ripples heard the sound waves of the sea rabbits, they would continuously tremble. When they trembled, Yu Huang suddenly realized that the blood in her body was also trembling.

She had a bad feeling.

Yu Huang hurriedly summoned the Xuan Yu Sword. Just as she used the sword to cut off a portion of the water ripples, another wave of water ripples surged towards her.

There were at least a hundred sea rabbits surrounding Yu Huang, and every sea rabbit had countless water ripples hidden in its tentacles.

It was impossible for Yu Huang to completely cut off these water ripples.

But she would never give up.

Yu Huang used the Xuan Yu Sword to continuously cut the water waves until all the spiritual power in her body was exhausted and she couldn't even hold the Xuan Yu Sword anymore. Only then did she grit her teeth unwillingly.

When the sea rabbits saw that Yu Huang had finally exhausted her power and revealed signs of fatigue, they immediately swarmed forward and opened their tentacles to eat Yu Huang.

At this moment, Yu Huang suddenly opened her eyes. With the mentality that she would die with them even if she had to self-destruct her beast heart, she extended her hand towards her chest.

At this moment, a gorgeous and beautiful blue fishtail quickly slapped the seawater, and a sexy and graceful body quickly swam towards Yu Huang from the distance.

It was a sexy and beautiful adult merman.

The merman's black curly hair was as smooth as seaweed and swayed continuously with her movements. The merman quickly appeared behind the sea rabbits. When she saw Yu Huang surrounded by the sea rabbits, she was enraged. “Yu Huang, hold on!”

Beatrice swung her fishtail angrily, and a gorgeous blue energy attacked the sea rabbits. When the sea rabbits saw the merman, they immediately revealed terrified expressions.

“Squeak squeak!” They seemed to be conveying an important message to each other. They didn't dare to fight Beatrice and swam straight into the deep sea.

Beatrice hurriedly swam to Yu Huang's side, held her waist, and brought her to the surface.

When they reached the beach, Beatrice quietly swam above the surface of the sea while Yu Huang sat on Beatrice's back and panted. As Yu Huang stared at the gorgeous blue fishtail in the water, she said to Beatrice, “Thank you, Beatrice.”

Yu Huang and the others' spiritual power was almost exhausted. It was difficult for them to move at all in the deep sea.

However, Beatrice was different. She was a merman, so she was like a duck to water when she fell into the sea. Beatrice told Yu Huang, "You're welcome. Sit tight. We have to find the others as soon as possible!"

"Okay."

Beatrice carried Yu Huang as she swam in the isolated sea and let out a special sound wave towards the depths of the sea, as if she was calling out to her friends.

Yu Huang was surprised and asked her, "You know how to send sound waves?"

Beatrice nodded and told her, "Merfolk belong to an intelligent underwater race. We can understand all the languages of intelligent life in the sea."

Nodding her head, Yu Huang thought of the strange reaction of the sea rabbits when they faced Beatrice. She asked, "Did you understand what those sea rabbits were saying?"

Beatrice suddenly stopped. She raised her head above the water with a frown and said, "They said something very important. After everyone gathers, I'll tell you guys in detail."

"... Okay."

"I was asking the intelligent creatures in the sea about the whereabouts of the others." With that, Beatrice buried her head in the sea and listened carefully to the sound waves in the sea.

After a moment, she raised her head and said, "There's a person three kilometers southeast. Let's go see who it is!"

"Okay!"

Yu Huang subconsciously hugged Beatrice's waist. After Beatrice swung her tail, she and Yu Huang appeared a hundred meters away.

The two of them quickly arrived three kilometers away. They saw a dark-skinned elf lying in the water. He looked like he had lost consciousness.

"It's Estelle!" Yu Huang got off Beatrice's back and dived into the sea to drag Estelle out of the sea.

As soon as Estelle reached the surface, he opened his mouth and breathed hard.

"You're fine?" Yu Huang was both happy and surprised to see Estelle wake up on his own.

As Estelle laid on Beatrice's back, he explained, "We Night Elves are very good at swimming."

Beatrice said, "Are all the elves of the Light Sea good at swimming?"

Estelle shook his head and said, "Every year, during the Sacrifice Festival, the Light Elves can enter the Light Sea to bathe, but us Night Elves can't."

Estelle wiped the seawater off his face and said self-deprecatingly, “We Night Elves don’t even have the right to enter the city, let alone enter the Light Sea to bathe.”

Yu Huang asked in confusion, “Then why are Night Elves good at swimming?”

This time, Estelle was silent for a long time before saying in a low voice, “If a Night Elf makes a mistake, they will be thrown into the demonic cave. However, Night Elves who are good at swimming have a chance of swimming out of the demonic cave alive, so the Night Elves of our village learned to swim the moment they were born.”

Upon hearing the truth, Beatrice and Yu Huang fell silent.

They couldn’t imagine how poor and miserable the lives of the Night Elves were.

Yu Huang patted Estelle’s shoulder hard and pointed at the three suns above her head. “You have to believe that you will become the hope of the Night Elves. Under your lead, one day, the Night Elves will be able to bathe in the golden water of the Light Sea with the Light Elves.”

“The children of the Black Night Elves will be able to go to a formal school and befriend the Light Elve students!”

Estelle stared at Yu Huang in a daze as he asked with a sad expression, “Do you really think I can do it?”

“Of course.” Yu Huang lifted the strand of hair on Estelle’s forehead. She stared into Estelle’s deep eyes and said firmly, “Believe me, as long as you stay determined, you can change the future of the Light Sea.”

Estelle turned his head and secretly wiped the tears from his eyes. Then, he turned around and smiled brightly at Yu Huang as he said, “You’re a prophet. I believe you.”

“Trust me.”

When Beatrice heard their conversation, she smiled and led them in another direction.

Chapter 868: Na Luo’s Mother

Then, they saved Feng Yuncheng, Kunlun, Donor, Yin Rong, and Xiao Shu, who were scattered in different directions in the sea.

But they didn’t find Sheng Xiao.

“Where is Sheng Xiao?” Everyone looked at Beatrice.

Beatrice’s expression was a little serious and she looked at Yu Huang hesitantly. However, Yu Huang’s expression was calm and she said, “They all said that they never saw Sheng Xiao.”

Donor and the others’ expressions changed drastically.

“They didn’t see him?” Donor looked at Yu Huang carefully, but didn’t dare to say what he was thinking. He was afraid of seeing Yu Huang’s heartbroken expression.

Kunlun was a fool, so he said frankly, "If they didn't see Sheng Xiao, could Sheng Xiao have been eaten by a sea rabbit?"

Hearing this, Donor and the others glared at Kunlun. Only when Kunlun was glared at by them did he realize that he had said something stupid.

Kunlun looked at Yu Huang worriedly and comforted her. "Perhaps Sheng Xiao just drifted away from us."

However, not only was Yu Huang not heartbroken, but she even turned around to comfort everyone. "Don't let your imagination run wild. Sheng Xiao and I are connected by a marriage line. As long as the marriage line doesn't lose its luster, Sheng Xiao's life isn't in danger."

Yu Huang lowered her eyes and glanced at the marriage line on her ring finger. When she saw the marriage line flickering with a lustrous red light, she felt at ease. "He's still alive. His life isn't in danger."

Everyone heaved a sigh of relief.

"That's good."

When Yu Huang saw that Beatrice was already exhausted, she guessed that she wouldn't be able to carry everyone, so she said, "Everyone, find a stop to rest first. Beatrice needs to rest too."

Feng Yuncheng's heart ached for Beatrice, so he hurriedly said, "Let's go ashore."

"Okay."

Beatrice carried everyone as she silently swam towards the shore of the Northwest Continent. They hid in the sea and observed for a while. After confirming that the male Winged Fish wasn't nearby and that there were no signs of anger, they went ashore.

After the seawater washed over the continent, it looked desolate again.

The small trees were all broken by the seawater, and only the towering ancient tree and the weeds were lucky enough to survive. The few of them stepped on the wet ground and walked towards a towering tree. Then, they climbed onto the branches and sat down.

After sitting down, Yu Huang took out eight self-heating pots from her storage device. She distributed one to everyone and said, "This is all I have. Eat it."

When everyone saw the pot, they all revealed hungry expressions.

They silently cooked the self-heating pots. Even after finishing the food, they couldn't bear to throw away the box.

As Donor stared at the self-heating pot in his hand that he had eaten clean, he sighed and said, "I was especially picky in the past. I didn't eat meat, vegetables and fruits that weren't, or drink unpurified holy water... but now?"

Donor picked up the remaining rice in the bowl with his fingers and threw it into his mouth. As he chewed it carefully, he lamented, "The gutter oil is so f*cking delicious!"

“Hahaha!” Everyone was amused by Donor’s actions.

After everyone laughed for a while, Yu Huang saw that Beatrice’s face had regained its color and she looked quite energetic, so she asked, “What were those sea rabbits talking about at the bottom of the sea?”

Upon hearing this, Donor and the others also turned to stare at Beatrice and asked in surprise, “Sea rabbits can speak? Why didn’t we hear them?”

Yu Huang explained for Beatrice, “Sea rabbits can’t speak, but they can emit sound waves through the flapping of their ears. Beatrice is a merman, so she can understand the language of marine creatures.”

Everyone was enlightened. “I see.”

Feng Yuncheng asked Beatrice, “Your Highness, what did those sea rabbits say?”

Beatrice frowned and put on a serious expression as she said, “Previously, Yu Huang was surrounded by sea rabbits. When I went to save her, those sea rabbits saw me and revealed frightened gazes. They even felt fearful of me.”

“They thought I didn’t understand their language, so they communicated with sound waves in front of me. I heard them saying...”

Everyone looked up and waited for Beatrice to reveal the information.

“Say what?” Yu Huang asked.

Beatrice said, “Ancient merman! Master’s ancient merman has actually revived! Master has indeed revived. Let’s run!” After a pause, Beatrice added, “These are their words.”

Yu Huang’s eyes flickered when she heard this. “Ancient merman...” Yu Huang raised her head thoughtfully. When she met Feng Yuncheng’s gaze, she was suddenly stunned.

Feng Yuncheng said to her, “You think it’s related to her too?” Everyone was curious about who this ‘her’ was.

Yu Huang nodded and said, “What about you? Do you think so too?”

Feng Yuncheng also nodded.

Xiao Shu couldn’t stand their inexplicable discussion, so he asked, “Who are you guys talking about?”

On the other hand, Yin Rong said thoughtfully, “Are you talking about Na Luo?”

Hearing the name Na Luo, Donor and the others fell silent.

Na Luo.

That strange-looking ancient merman, Na Luo, who had sneaked into the Divine Realm Academy to be friends with them but secretly cooperated with Su Xuanye to control the Blood Peacock Organization together?

Na Luo, who had wiped out the merfolk race all by herself?

Xiao Shu was puzzled. "What has this got to do with Na Luo?"

Yin Rong and the others didn't understand what those sea rabbits' words had to do with Na Luo.

Yu Huang told them, "Na Luo is an ancient merman, but do you know what an ancient merman is?"

Everyone shook their heads.

Yu Huang explained, "Only a Divine Master's beast form merman can be called an ancient merman. For example, if Yuncheng reaches the Divine Master cultivation level in the future, his beast form Bewitching Butterfly will be respectfully called an ancient Bewitching Butterfly."

"When Yuncheng becomes a Divine Master, his beast form can also transform into a human and have the ability to cultivate. Na Luo's mother was once an ancient merman."

"Na Luo once told me that her mother and her mother's host had experienced a catastrophic battle. In that battle, countless experts died. Her mother's host also died, and her mother used all her strength to tear open a spatial rift and throw her into it. Only then was she lucky enough to escape."

With that said, Yu Huang looked at Beatrice and stared at her as she said, "Earlier, you said that when those sea rabbits saw you, they called you an ancient merman and thought that you and your host had revived."

"What's the name of the world we're in?" Yu Huang asked them.

Beatrice said in a low voice, "Kunlun Mystic Realm."

"Then who is the Divine Master who appeared in this world?" Who could it only be?

Beatrice understood what Yu Huang meant. She said in shock, "You're saying that the Kunlun Divine Master's beast form is that ancient merman, Na Luo's mother?!"

Chapter 869: No Pains, No Gains

"When the sea rabbits saw me as a merman, they mistook me for that ancient merman. They thought that I had revived and that the Kunlun Divine Master had also revived, so they were in a hurry to escape?"

Yu Huang nodded and replied, "That's right."

She turned to look at the vast sea in the distance and made a bold guess. "If I'm not wrong, the place where the ancient merman died is in this isolated sea."

Thinking of the invisible but majestic special energy in the isolated sea and the power of the Divine Master that appeared on the surface of the sea that night, Yu Huang suppressed the shock in her heart and said, "It's very likely that the Kunlun Divine Master's burial ground is also in this sea."

Everyone was stunned.

"Is that... possible?"

Yu Huang smiled faintly and said, "We'll know after we catch a few sea rabbits and interrogate them."

Yu Huang turned her head to look towards the west of the continent and said, "With our current strength, we can't defeat that male Winged Fish at all. Why don't we take this opportunity to take a trip to the bottom of the sea? Perhaps we can gain something else."

At this point, Yu Huang looked at Beatrice meaningfully.

Beatrice noticed Yu Huang's gaze and her heart raced. "What are you thinking about?"

Yu Huang smiled mysteriously and said, "There must be some treasures where the ancient merman died. You're a merman and can be considered a relative of the ancient merman. Perhaps there will be opportunities for you there."

Beatrice's heart raced.

The few of them were all people of action, so they took action immediately. After resting for a while, they plunged into the sea and worked together to capture six to seven sea rabbits.

Everyone tied up the sea rabbits and threw them ashore.

Yu Huang said, "Let's interrogate them separately. If they dare to lie... Heh."

Beatrice sent a sound wave to convey Yu Huang's meaning to them.

After the sea rabbits understood what Beatrice meant, they all became obedient. Then, Beatrice interrogated them one by one.

As a major general of the Divine Moon Empire, Beatrice was very good at interrogating prisoners, so interrogating these sea rabbits was easy for her.

Under Beatrice's interrogation, these sea rabbits didn't dare to lie. They told her the truth.

After Beatrice confirmed that they weren't lying, she sorted out the information they had conveyed before telling her companions the truth—

"They said that there's an incomparably huge stone tablet in the deep sea. Under the stone tablet, there's the tombstone of an ancient merman. The person who made the stone tablet was the true master of this world."

"They also said that after the master erected the tablet for that ancient merman, he died beside the tablet. They also said..."

Beatrice frowned slightly and said with some pity, "After the master died, a few demon beasts ate his head and limbs, while the sea rabbits ate the other parts..."

Yu Huang was stunned and said sympathetically, "So, after the Kunlun Divine Master died, his corpse was dismembered?"

"... Yes."

Yu Huang, Donor, and the others had once seen the divine appearance of the Kunlun Divine Master in Mo Jing's hallucination. How mighty was he?

When they thought about how such a powerful figure had actually been eaten by the demon beasts after his death, they couldn't help but lament the tragic ending of the hero.

Donor suddenly asked Beatrice, "So, the ancient merman's burial ground is in the deep sea?"

"Yes." Beatrice nodded.

Donor looked at Yu Huang again and said, "We have no way to go to the deep sea. There's an energy isolation barrier there."

Yu Huang looked at Kunlun. "Kunlun, do you have a way?"

Kunlun had yet to recover from hearing about his tragic ending in his previous life. When he suddenly heard Yu Huang's question, Kunlun immediately shook his head in confusion and said, "I don't know."

At this moment, Beatrice continued, "That group of sea rabbits also said that in the Kunlun Mystic Realm, no demon beasts are able to cross the isolated sea, except for one type of demon beast."

Yu Huang suddenly said, "A demon beast that has obtained the remains of the Kunlun Divine Master, or a demon beast with the bloodline of such a demon beast flowing in its body."

For example, those Black Shark Birds.

Their ancestors must have eaten Kunlun's body before, so they, who had thin bloodline energy in their bodies, could fly across the isolated sea and head to other continents.

Back then, Kunlun had awakened his divine sense under Yu Huang's influence. It represented that the reincarnation of the Kunlun Divine Master had begun to awaken. Therefore, when Kunlun awakened his divine sense, the energy of the Black Shark Birds was naturally weakened.

Therefore, the Black Shark Birds could no longer pass through the isolated sea.

The ancestors of the sea rabbits could freely enter and exit the isolated sea because they had eaten the bones of the Kunlun Divine Master.

Beatrice nodded at Yu Huang. "That's right. Demon beasts with the remains of the Kunlun Divine Master and their descendants can travel freely in the Kunlun Mystic Realm."

Hearing this, everyone looked at Kunlun.

Kunlun also knew what they were thinking.

Kunlun said, "I have the skull of the Kunlun Divine Master, so I can move freely through the isolated sea." Kunlun suddenly said to Yu Huang, "Yu Huang, give me that rib."

Yu Huang took out the wooden box and handed it to Kunlun.

After Kunlun opened the wooden box and took out the rib, he hesitated for a moment before breaking it.

"Kunlun!" Everyone was shocked. "What are you doing?!"

Kunlun smiled at them and quickly broke the rib into eight pieces.

Kunlun stared at the shattered ribs in his palm and said, "Everyone experienced these hardships to help me collect bones. If giving up one of my ribs can help everyone enter and exit the isolated sea freely and search for new opportunities, then I'm willing to give it up."

"The human body has a total of 206 bones, but I'm willing to be a person with only 205 bones. I feel very honored to place my ribs in your bodies."

At this point, Kunlun looked at Xiao Shu deeply and said, "You're a demon beast, but you're also our friend."

Kunlun solemnly placed the first shattered rib in Xiao Shu's palm and said, "Although Kunlun Divine Master mainly cultivates the Dao of Slaughter, he isn't a person who likes to kill. He is a person who values friendship. From the moment you decided to choose to be with your lover and friend and give up on becoming a Divine Master, you moved me."

"Therefore, I've decided to give you a Divine Master bone." Kunlun smiled at Xiao Shu and said, "You're worth it."

After refining this Divine Master bone fragment, Xiao Shu would be able to possess a little bit of Divine Master power. Xiao Shu stared at the light Divine Master bone in his palm. What he had never dared to dream of in ten thousand years was actually lying in his palm.

After he decided to give up on becoming a Divine Master, he obtained a chance to become a Divine Master.

Chapter 870: Untitled

Xiao Shu raised his head and stared at Yin Rong, Kunlun, and all his friends who had conveyed their kindness to him.

His eyes turned red.

"Thank you, thank you." Xiao Shu held the bone tightly. When he lowered his head, tears fell onto his fists.

Kunlun handed the second rib fragment to Donor, the third rib to Feng Yuncheng, the fourth rib to Beatrice, and the fifth rib to Yin Rong.

He handed the sixth rib to Estelle.

When Estelle held the rib fragment, his fingertips were trembling. For a lowly Night Elf, this was something he didn't even dare to dream of possessing.

Estelle looked at Kunlun with tears in his eyes as he said in a choked voice, "Thank you, Kunlun. Thank you."

Seeing that Estelle was crying, Kunlun told Estelle, "Although you're a lowly Night Elf, when you have this Divine Master skeleton, you've become an extraordinary person that even the Light Elves have to look up to."

“I hope you can become successful in the future.” Kunlun slapped Estelle’s thin shoulder heavily. Estelle staggered a few steps before he stabilized himself.

He raised the rib fragment in his hand and gave Kunlun a bright smile. “I will, Kunlun!”

Kunlun still had two rib fragments left.

He held them as he walked to Yu Huang.

After Kunlun handed the two rib fragments to Yu Huang, he said to her, “I want to thank you. You gave me a new life. Help me give the other skeleton to Sheng Xiao when you meet him.”

Yu Huang didn’t stand on ceremony with Kunlun. She accepted the rib fragments and said, “We will do our best to collect all the bones for you. I will help you become a human again.”

Kunlun nodded vigorously. After he pulled up his sleeve and stared at the crossed battle-ax symbol on his arm, he couldn’t help but say expectantly, “I think I still owe someone a promise. I look forward to the day I become a human again.”

Yu Huang said, “Let’s completely refine and absorb this rib fragment as soon as possible. Then, we’ll set off for the deep sea to search for the ancient merman’s tomb.”

“Okay!”

They worked together to set up an invisible barrier around them. After hiding their existence, they hid behind the invisible barrier and refined the Divine Master rib fragment.

After a rib was divided into eight pieces, everyone only obtained a very short piece. However, even such a small bone fragment would take a long time to be completely refined and absorbed.

There was still a portion of the Kunlun Divine Master’s resentment in the rib fragment. If they wanted to successfully refine this bone fragment, they had to remove the remaining resentment in the fragment.

Everyone placed the eight soul fragments side by side on the ground and let Yu Huang purify them.

After a person was tortured to death, the resentment produced by his skull and limbs was the strongest. Among them, the skull was where the resentment gathered.

Therefore, compared to the skull, the resentment contained in Kunlun Divine Master’s rib was relatively small.

However, this was only relative.

After all, it was the remains of a Divine Master. Even if it was just a rib, the resentment value contained in it wasn’t inferior to the amount of resentment produced by the death of a Grand Master Beast Tamer.

Therefore, Yu Huang spent a full week to completely remove the resentment energy in the ribs.

After the resentment in the ribs was completely removed, Yu Huang also fell into a temporary coma because of mental exhaustion. Fortunately, Donor had Holy Water of Light with him. When he saw that Yu Huang’s soul power was exhausted, he immediately fed her a small mouthful of Holy Water of Light.

After resting for half a day, Yu Huang’s mental strength recovered substantially.

When Yu Huang woke up, everyone took away their piece of bone.

Kunlun was in charge of guarding, while Yu Huang and the others sat cross-legged in a circle and silently absorbed the rib fragments.

As soon as Yu Huang's spiritual power touched the rib fragment, a dazzling golden light quickly erupted from the fragment.

That was the power of the Divine Master.

Yu Huang slowly wrapped her spiritual power around the rib fragments before beginning to absorb the power of the Divine Master.

Perhaps it was because Yu Huang had already comprehended the power of the Divine Master with her talent, but the process of her absorption was very smooth.

After Yu Huang absorbed all the power of the Divine Master, the rib fragment turned into a ball of white light and floated towards Yu Huang's abdomen.

It stuck to the bottom of Yu Huang's left rib and embedded itself into her body inch by inch.

When the rib fragment approached Yu Huang's rib to fuse with her rib, Yu Huang's body immediately felt a strong sense of rejection.

The two different forces collided and fused in Yu Huang's body. The pain was comparable to the pain of Yu Huang's bones reconstructing when she cultivated the Beast Taming Art to refine the heart blood.

Yu Huang, who had successfully refined Sheng Xiao and Mo Xiao's heart blood, had already learned how to endure the pain.

Therefore, she relied on her powerful willpower to successfully fuse with that rib.

After successfully fusing with the rib fragment, Yu Huang could clearly sense that the bones in her body had become even sturdier and harder. There seemed to be an additional domineering power in her bone marrow.

Yu Huang slowly opened her eyes and saw Yin Rong, Donor, and the others revealing pained expressions. Xiao Shu was in so much pain that he revealed his true form. Yu Huang knew that they were also experiencing the pain of their muscles and bones recombining.

Seeing that Yu Huang had already woken up, Kunlun silently walked to Yu Huang's side and sat down. He lowered his voice and asked, "Did it go smoothly?"

Yu Huang lifted her T-shirt and lowered her eyes to scan the upper left side of her waist. When she saw a faint golden birthmark there, she pursed her lips and smiled before nodding at Kunlun.

Seeing this, Kunlun was overjoyed. "That's good."

Yu Huang glanced at her ring finger again. She was relieved to see that the light on the marriage line was still on.

Yu Huang and Kunlun waited for another week. Donor and Xiao Shu were the first to successfully fuse the rib fragments.

When he woke up, Donor reached out and summoned his Light Sword. The golden sword was covered in a layer of magical golden light.

This light was dazzling, domineering, and filled with a holy aura.

Donor smiled in satisfaction and raised his eyebrows at Yu Huang and the others. "My Light Sword is evolving. If I'm lucky, it's very likely to evolve into the Angel Sword."

Yu Huang didn't know much about the Elve Clan. When she heard this, she asked, "The Light Sword can evolve into the Angel Sword?"

"What a joke." Donor laughed at Yu Huang's ignorance and told Yu Huang, "Among the Light Elves of the Light Sea, only the Elven King Moldo's Light Sword has evolved. He was also the only genius of the Light Elves who had awakened the power of the Divine Master."
