

She Shocks 901

Chapter 901: Crazy, Crazy (2)

When Sheng Xiao realized that he couldn't withstand the full-strength attack of the Nine-Layered Divine Pagoda alone, he could only helplessly transform into the original body of the Black Qing Sky Dragon. When the Black Qing Sky Dragon appeared, Sheng Xiao's aura became powerful and terrifying.

After he roared and flipped over, his huge body wrapped around the Nine-Layered Divine Pagoda and he used all his strength to throw it.

The Nine-Layered Divine Pagoda fell to the ground and shattered. Beatrice also spat out a mouthful of blood. Sheng Xiao wasn't in any better state. He had returned to his human form and was bleeding from the corner of his mouth. The dragon scale armor on his body was shattered.

Sheng Xiao wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth and stared at Beatrice in surprise as he praised her generously, "Not bad. It's indeed a powerful cultivation technique."

After Beatrice landed on the ground, she was on the verge of collapse. She looked at Sheng Xiao in admiration and said with a smile, "As expected of the number one genius on the continent. Sheng Xiao, you're indeed very strong." When she realized that she might never be able to defeat Sheng Xiao in her life, she couldn't help but feel regretful.

If she had known earlier, she would have beaten Sheng Xiao up a few more times in her childhood.

Sheng Xiao looked at the broken dragon scale armor around his body and said, "You're very impressive to be able to injure me to this extent as a Supreme Master."

The commotion caused by the two of them fighting was too great, so Yu Huang and the others were forced to stop their seclusion.

Feng Yuncheng felt proud of Beatrice when he saw that she could hurt Sheng Xiao so badly as a Supreme Master. However, at the same time, he felt inferior.

The difference in strength between him and Her Highness seemed to be getting greater and greater.

The leopard mother and child were trembling in fear after watching the battle between Sheng Xiao and Beatrice.

There was only one year and two months left until the Kunlun Mystic Realm would close, so they had to hurry up and collect all the bones for Kunlun. When Sheng Xiao saw that everyone had woken up, he said, "After two months, everyone must have improved, so today, we will go see that male Winged Fish again."

"Okay!"

They flew on their swords and spent two days to reach the westernmost part of the continent.

Before they could approach the towering tree where the Winged Fish lived, they heard a sorrowful and despairing bird cry. It sounded like the bird was crying.

“It’s the Winged Fish!” After hearing the Winged Fish’s cry, they immediately guessed its owner’s identity.

Elves could sense the emotions of many creatures. Donor lowered his eyes and said, “It’s in great anguish and suffering. It’s... atoning.”

“Atoning?” Everyone looked at each other.

Xiao Shu sneered and said sarcastically, “Could it be that that fellow suddenly came to its senses and realized that it had bitten its wife to death, so it was overcome with regret?”

“It’s not impossible. In short, we’re almost at our destination, so just be careful.”

“Okay.”

Kunlun wanted to take care of the child, so he carried the child as he waited on the spot. Yu Huang and the others hid their auras as they quietly approached the towering tree.

The tree was very tall, so Yu Huang and the others saw the scene on the tree from afar—

The male Winged Fish was really crying at a highly decomposed corpse!

If the male fish Yu Huang and the others had seen two months ago was a ferocious and psychopathic killer, then the male fish they had seen today was a pitiful creature who had lost its love.

The male fish kept rubbing its head against its spouse’s rotten head. As it rubbed against it, it let out an anguished cry.

Swish!

The male fish let out a shrill cry and suddenly spread the wings on its back before jumping into the sky. Then, it actually retracted its wings and let itself fall to the ground from the sky.

It was actually committing suicide!

But just as it was about to hit the ground, the wings on its back turned into a pair of arms uncontrollably. Those hands pressed hard on the ground and successfully saved the male fish.

Realizing that it couldn’t commit suicide, the male fish immediately got up and deliberately used his arms to hit the towering tree to shatter and break his arms.

However, those arms were extremely sturdy and couldn’t be destroyed.

The male fish tried many methods, but in the end, it realized that it couldn’t escape the control of these arms at all. It felt despair and returned to its nest to wait for death with its spouse’s body in its arms.

However, it had cultivated for ten thousand years. If it wanted to wait for death, how long would it have to wait?!

Chapter 902: Crazy, Crazy (3)

Watching this scene while hiding in the dark, Yu Huang guessed that there was something wrong with the male fish's mental state. "From the looks of it, that pair of arms has completely lost control. Not only did the male fish fail to successfully refine that pair of arms, but that pair of arms even took control of the male fish's consciousness."

Sheng Xiao and the others could feel how powerful the skeleton's devilry was. They personally saw how the male fish lost its consciousness and become a killing machine.

What should they do in the face of such a ferocious beast that could even kill its wife when it lost control?

Xiao Shu said, "In the end, it's the evilness of the Kunlun Divine Master's skeleton that caused this tragedy. Yu Huang, can you purify the spirit of the male Winged Fish?"

Yu Huang shook her head with a serious expression. "It's very difficult. Since it was able to control a super demon beast, its devilry is definitely extraordinarily powerful. If my mentor was here, you would definitely be able to successfully purify its spirit. However, I've successfully purified the head of the Kunlun Divine Master once, so if I'm given enough time, I can also purify the devilry on his arm."

Xiao Shu asked again, "So, as long as we successfully subdue the male Winged Fish, you can purify its spirit?"

"That's true. How can it be so easy to subdue the powerful Winged Fish?"

Hearing this, Feng Yuncheng suddenly recommended himself. He said, "I can transform into Na Ling."

Beatrice subconsciously said, "No! The devilry of the Kunlun Divine Master's arm is too strong. It might not remember Na Ling at all. You're courting death!"

Feng Yuncheng looked at Beatrice and said, "Why was the Kunlun Divine Master eaten by the demon beasts? That's because he used all his remaining spiritual power to form a barrier to protect Senior Na Ling! I don't believe that he, who loves Senior Na Ling so deeply, would forget her."

If there was anyone in this world who could influence the Kunlun Divine Master, it was indeed Na Ling. "I will transform into Senior Na Ling to attract its attention. You guys wait for an opportunity to successfully cut off the wings of the male Winged Fish."

Beatrice still wanted to object, but Yu Huang said, "I think this method is feasible."

Seeing that Beatrice still didn't agree with him, Feng Yuncheng boldly held Beatrice's hand.

Beatrice stared at him blankly but didn't shake his hand off.

For Beatrice, who was afraid of men, allowing Feng Yuncheng to hold her hand was already a huge improvement.

Feng Yuncheng said to Beatrice, "Your Highness, I'm indeed the weakest, but no matter how weak I am, I'm still a man. I want to show off in front of the woman I love. I'm willing to be a subject who admires you, but occasionally, I also want to be a knight who protects you."

Hearing this, Beatrice could no longer bear to stop Feng Yuncheng. "Alright, I'll believe you this time."

With Beatrice's support, Feng Yuncheng was immediately filled with confidence and courage.

He said to everyone, "Close your eyes and imagine what Na Ling looks like."

Hearing this, everyone closed their eyes and silently imagined Senior Na Ling's appearance when she was alive. When they opened their eyes again, they saw a beautiful female merman with long dark blue curly hair standing in front of them. The merman was wearing a dark purple robe and asked with a dignified expression, "Do I look like her?"

Everyone was speechless.

Donor lowered his eyes and muttered, "Damn, Kunlun is so lucky."

He was very envious that Kunlun had such a beautiful wife.

Ugly people already had beautiful wives, but handsome people didn't even have a romantic partner.

Chapter 903: The Punishment She Deserves

When Feng Yuncheng heard Donor's mutter, he knew that his transformation must have been very successful.

"Phew." Feng Yuncheng took a deep breath and mustered his courage. Then, he nodded at Sheng Xiao and the others. "I'll go first. You guys wait for an opportunity to take action."

Sheng Xiao nodded. "Understood."

Feng Yuncheng walked out from behind the thick tree and towards the towering tree where the male Winged Fish lived.

Just as he was about to walk out of the forest, Beatrice suddenly shouted in a low voice, "Feng Yuncheng!"

Feng Yuncheng stopped in his tracks and turned to look at Beatrice. "Your Highness."

Beatrice's eyes flickered, and she looked a little diffident. She held the safety buckle on her sword and squeezed it a few times before saying, "You have to survive!"

"I will."

After Feng Yuncheng received Beatrice's concern, he felt as if his body was filled with endless strength.

He arrived at the edge of the forest and didn't hide his aura or tracks at all as he walked towards the towering tree.

The male Winged Fish was immersed in the sorrow of killing his beloved wife and didn't notice Feng Yuncheng approaching. When Feng Yuncheng approached and was only a hundred to two hundred meters away from the towering tree, the male Winged Fish finally smelled an unfamiliar aura approaching.

The male Winged Fish thought that the fearless demon beasts on the continent were here to cause trouble. It turned around and bared its teeth as it roared angrily at Feng Yuncheng in an attempt to scare him away with a dignified roar.

However, when he turned around and saw Feng Yuncheng's face clearly, his beast eyes instantly shrank into two extremely thin black dots, as small as the wick of a black pencil.

"Hiss!" The male Winged Fish subconsciously raised the feathers on its back and bristled.

Birds would only flare up when they were greatly agitated.

Clearly, he had recognized the identity of the ancient merman Feng Yuncheng had transformed into and was afraid of the ancient merman's strength. That was why he instantly became agitated.

'Na Ling' narrowed her eyes and instantly flew to a position parallel to the top of the towering tree. She floated elegantly in the void as she looked at the male fish with a dignified expression. Her rosy lips were pursed tightly and she didn't speak.

The male Winged Fish was already trembling in fear.

Even tens of thousands of years later, he couldn't forget the appearance of the ancient merman.

More than ten thousand years ago, they had personally seen the Kunlun Divine Master sink a jade statue to the bottom of the deep sea. There was no merfolk in the sea of the Kunlun Mystic Realm. Therefore, this was the first time they had seen a demon beast with a human upper body but a tail. The sea beasts were curious, so they swam to the deep sea to take a look at the merfolk statue.

After a few more years, the murderous man suddenly came to the Kunlun Mystic Realm covered in blood with a seriously injured ancient merman in his arms.

The Kunlun Divine Master hugged his beloved wife's body at the bottom of the sea for two years. Two years later, the ancient merman finally died, and the Kunlun Divine Master also lost all his energy for a mysterious reason. Without the divine might of the Divine Master and on the verge of death, he was like a delicious piece of meat in the deep sea.

A group of hungry sea rabbits was the first to attack the body of the Kunlun Divine Master. They ate the internal organs and ribs of the Kunlun Divine Master. When the couple saw that the sea rabbits had eaten the Kunlun Divine Master without any side effects, the greedy couple snatched the remaining body parts of the Kunlun Divine Master from the mouth of the sea rabbits.

Winged Fish could swim in the water, walk on land, and fly in the sky. The two of them brought the body of the Kunlun Divine Master to the land. Just as they bit off the pair of arms of the Kunlun Divine Master, they encountered the Nine-tailed Snake Demon, the Giant Iron Beast, and a Black Shark Bird.

They fought, but no one won.

In the end, the Winged Fish couple obtained the arms of the Kunlun Divine Master. The Giant Iron Beast obtained the head of the Kunlun Divine Master, the Nine-tailed Snake Demon obtained the right leg of the Kunlun Divine Master, and the Black Shark Bird obtained the left leg of the Kunlun Divine Master.

The couple found a secret cave and planned to refine the arms of the Kunlun Divine Master. However, during the refinement process, the female Winged Fish suddenly went berserk and lost control. She even wanted to eat the male Winged Fish. In order to save its beloved wife, the male Winged Fish could only break one of its beloved wife's wings and refine the arm personally.

From the day it refined the arms of the Kunlun Divine Master, the male Winged Fish was constantly tortured and devoured by the Divine Master's corpse's devilry. It struggled against the possessed remains of the two Divine Master arms for more than ten thousand years, but in the end, it still failed.

That day, the male Winged Fish's consciousness became completely controlled by the devilry of the Divine Master's corpse. It lost control and cruelly crushed the egg he hatched with its beloved wife. It even killed its beloved wife in the cruelest way and sucked dry all the demonic power in its body.

When it regained consciousness, the male Winged Fish looked at the child in the bird's nest who had the body of a Winged Fish but had been crushed into meat paste by its claws. Its heart ached. When it saw its wife's corpse that had long rotted, the male Winged Fish went crazy.

These days, it kept seeking death, but those arms would always stop the male Winged Fish at the last moment.

The male Winged Fish knew that this was the punishment given to it by the Kunlun Divine Master.

If it had known that this pair of arms would cause it to kill its wife and child and become a complete killing machine, it would never have touched it!

The reason the male Winged Fish was in so much anguish was because of the pair of arms behind him. Now, when the male Winged Fish saw the ancient merman that the owner of the arms loved the most back then, he had mixed feelings.

Na Ling looked so sacred and dignified while floating quietly in the sky. She made people subconsciously want to kneel and worship her.

As 'Na Ling' stared at the male Winged Fish coldly, her rosy lips curled up into a mocking smile.

"You, who stole Kunlun's arm, are indeed very strong. Look, you even mercilessly killed your wife and child. You're really the strongest hero in the world."

Feng Yuncheng, who had transformed into Na Ling, could speak the language of that era without any communication barriers.

As for the male Winged Fish, it had eaten the arm of the Kunlun Divine Master, so under its influence, it could understand the language Na Ling was speaking.

Hearing this, the male Winged Fish couldn't help but let out a sad cry.

Feng Yuncheng actually understood what the male Winged Fish meant. It was actually begging Feng Yuncheng to take away the Kunlun Divine Master's arm.

While Feng Yuncheng was surprised, he also felt that it was ironic.

How could the remains of a Divine Master be taken away just like that?!

“You dared to steal the remains of a Divine Master, so you have to pay the price. Killing your wife and son is the punishment you deserve.”

‘Na Ling’ pretended to be unwilling to help and that she was angry at the male Winged Fish for stealing the arm of the Kunlun Divine Master.

Chapter 904: Untitled

When the male Winged Fish heard Na Ling’s words, it felt even more despair.

Swish!

It was repenting for its mistake and asking ‘Na Ling’ to help it cut off these arms. It said that it wanted relief and only wanted to accompany its wife. It also told Feng Yuncheng how loving it and its wife used to be.

Feng Yuncheng was somewhat moved.

After the male Winged Fish finished speaking, Feng Yuncheng revealed an appropriate amount of disdain as he said, “Now that you’ve suffered, you’ve finally realized your mistake.”

Feng Yuncheng’s charm technique had already reached an indistinguishable level. The male Winged Fish really thought that Feng Yuncheng was the ancient merman Na Luo. In front of the ancient merman, its cultivation level was nothing impressive.

Therefore, as soon as the male Winged Fish recognized Na Ling, it gave up on fighting her.

Now, it only wanted to be freed from its pain and anguish.

The male Winged Fish wasn’t stupid. When it saw Na Ling take the initiative to look for it, it knew that she was here to help the Kunlun Divine Master retrieve his Divine Master Skeleton. However, Na Ling hated the male Winged Fish too much. Now that the male Winged Fish was controlled by the devilry of the remains, she wished the male Winged Fish could suffer even more.

Under such circumstances, how could Na Ling be willing to fulfill the male Winged Fish’s wish?

The male Winged Fish understood the situation, so it laid down obediently and called out in reverence and flattery.

It was saying: “My Lord, I have already suffered the punishment I deserve for my mistake. I hope you can free me. If you are willing to help me take away these arms, I am willing to provide you with information about other demon beasts that have harmed Lord Kunlun.” The male Winged Fish was very cunning. It guessed that ‘Na Ling’ was seeking revenge against all the demon beasts that had harmed the Kunlun Divine Master back then, so it decided to take the initiative to provide useful information.

Feng Yuncheng and the others were indeed eager to know the whereabouts of the Kunlun Divine Master’s left leg bone. Hearing this, Feng Yuncheng nodded and said, “Speak.”

The male Winged Fish told him about the appearances of the other demon beasts that had eaten the body of the Kunlun Divine Master. Feng Yuncheng and the others had already fought the Nine-tailed Snake Demon and the Giant Iron Beast. Only when they saw that the information provided by the male Winged Fish matched the demon beasts they had seen did they confirm that it wasn't lying.

"I can see that your attitude is quite repentant. In that case, I'll free you from your pain."

The male Winged Fish was overjoyed.

Feng Yuncheng raised his right hand and gestured for them to take action.

Seeing that, Sheng Xiao and the others, who were lying in ambush, immediately flew up and tied up the Winged Fish.

When the male Winged Fish saw Sheng Xiao and the others suddenly appear, a hint of confusion and vigilance flashed across its eyes. Feng Yuncheng noticed the male Winged Fish's reaction and lied, "These are Kunlun's most capable personal disciples. They came with me to avenge their mentor. If you lie down obediently, they will only take your wings and leave. If you dare to resist..."

'Na Ling' smiled mockingly as she swung her tail and Sheng Xiao's seven 'disciples' turned into ferocious beast forms of different forms. They summoned their weapons at the same time.

Yu Huang held the Aofeng Bow in her hand and stepped on the Divine Feather Phoenix. As the Purifying Evil Phoenix Flame burned under her feet, she looked majestic and imposing. Sheng Xiao turned into the Black Qing Sky Dragon. As his huge body coiled in the air, it gave off a sense of pressure.

The Fire Unicorn and the Three-Eyed Unicorn stood side by side. One released the domineering and majestic aura of the Lord of All Demons, while the other gave off an unfathomable feeling even though her spiritual power was gentle.

Donor and Estelle, who had formed the Back Spirit contract, stood side by side. When the black wings intertwined with the white wings, it almost overshadowed the light in the sky.

The Winged Fish's gaze swept past this group of young people. In the end, its gaze landed on Beatrice, who looked very similar to 'Na Ling' and had a sinister and unfathomable aura. As it stared at the dark blue nine-horned pagoda in Beatrice's hand, it actually felt a sense of fear.

As expected of the disciples of the Kunlun Master. All of them were indeed mighty and extraordinary.

The male Winged Fish really believed Feng Yuncheng's words. It let out a cry of resignation, raised the wings on its back, and roared, "Swish ~ ~ ~"

Come!

'Na Ling' roared, "Move!"

Sheng Xiao curled his tail immediately and wrapped it tightly around the male Winged Fish's body. The male Winged Fish wanted to resist, but when he heard Na Ling shout, "If you want to regain your freedom, don't move!" He didn't dare to move anymore.

After Sheng Xiao restrained the male Winged Fish's huge body, Yu Huang held the Aofeng Longbow in her hand and shot through the wings with an arrow, connecting them together. There were no feathers on the male Winged Fish's wings, but they were filled with sharp fish bones.

Donor used his spiritual power to press the wings tightly together. Seeing this, Estelle raised the scythe in his hand and swooped down from the sky.

Estelle waved his scythe. Just as the sharp scythe touched the root of the wing, the male Winged Fish's gaze suddenly became fierce. It began to struggle violently, and the wings on its back instantly turned into a pair of purple human arms.

After the arm was pierced by a long arrow, countless resentment energy was released from the wound. Immediately, wild shrieks and howls sounded.

It was the cry of a Divine Master!

Seeing this, Yu Huang roared, "Suppress it!"

Donor gritted his teeth and said, "I can't suppress it anymore!"

Seeing this, Beatrice said, "Let me do it!"

Beatrice mobilized all the spiritual power in her body and enlarged the Nine-Layered Divine Pagoda to its strongest state. The Divine Pagoda transformed into a hundred-meter-tall pagoda that descended from the sky with endless pressure and mercilessly smashed towards the male Winged Fish.

Sensing the danger, the arm attacked at the same time and actually raised the Nine-Layered Divine Pagoda.

However, in order to deal with the Nine-Layered Divine Pagoda, those arms couldn't spare any extra strength to deal with Yu Huang and the others.

Seeing this, Yu Huang immediately summoned her Psychic Sphere and chanted the Purifying Spirit Incantation in a low voice. When the pure psychic energy surged towards the pair of arms, the black resentment power around the arms immediately let out whimpers.

However, the resentment in the arm had to focus on resisting the suppression of the Nine-Layered Divine Pagoda. Once it changed its target, Beatrice's Nine-Layered Divine Pagoda would severely injure it. At that time, Sheng Xiao and the others would be able to work together to cut off the male Winged Fish's arm.

The resentment power in the Divine Master's arm wanted to torture the male Winged Fish and make it suffer!

Therefore, Yu Huang could only purify it bit by bit.

The majestic psychic power of a Level 5 Purifying Spirit Master surged into the ball of resentment energy and disintegrated it bit by bit. Everyone noticed that the resentment energy around the arms seemed to have become dimmer and weaker. Seeing that, Sheng Xiao suddenly let go of the Winged Fish and turned into human form to attack the arms with all his might.

"One Sword Slashes the Nine Heavens!"

Chapter 905: Kunlun, Hug Me

Nine powerful spiritual energies attacked the pair of arms from all directions. Coupled with the power contained in Beatrice's Nine-Layered Divine Pagoda, the pair of arms quickly showed signs of fatigue. Hearing the wailing sound become softer and softer, Donor transferred all his energy to Estelle without hesitation.

After receiving Donor's energy enhancement, the wings on Estelle's back suddenly enlarged by half. He raised the Demon Scythe and roared as he charged at the male fish again—

“Demon's Death!”

Boom!

The sharp scythe pierced through the dense resentment and cut horizontally. The pair of arms fell from the back of the male Winged Fish.

“Ah!”

The male Winged Fish let out a heart-wrenching wail.

Wings were the most important part of the Winged Fish's body. After its wings were cut off, the male fish was in so much pain that its consciousness became blurry. As it laid in the bird's nest, it kept howling.

As soon as the pair of arms landed on the ground, the flesh and blood on them instantly rotted away and the pair of arms turned into white bones.

After Yu Huang landed beside the arm bone, she said to Sheng Xiao and the others, “Keep watch. I'll purify its spirit!”

“Okay.”

After successfully cutting off the male Winged Fish's arms, Feng Yuncheng could no longer hold on. His body swayed and he returned to his original form before falling into Beatrice's arms.

Beatrice, who had been observing Feng Yuncheng's situation, hurriedly reached out and hugged his shoulder when she saw him collapse. After Beatrice sat on the ground and placed Feng Yuncheng's head on her thigh, she patted Feng Yuncheng's shoulder and said, “Rest for a while.”

Feng Yuncheng realized that his head was resting on Beatrice's lap. He knew very well how much Beatrice hated intimate interaction with men, so he got up to change his position. However, when he got up, he deliberately pretended that he couldn't get up.

Feng Yuncheng snorted and said considerately, “Your Highness, please put me on the ground to rest.”

How could Beatrice bear to push Feng Yuncheng away?

She pressed his head down and said domineeringly, “Shut up and rest!”

Feng Yuncheng chuckled to himself and fell asleep with a smile.

When the male Winged Fish noticed that 'Na Ling' had actually transformed into a two-legged monster, it realized that it had been tricked.

But so what?

Now that its wings had been cut off and the other party had many people, the male Winged Fish had become a sheep that was waiting to be slaughtered.

It could only glare at them helplessly.

Yu Huang spent a day before she finally completely purified the resentment in the arm's bone. She handed the bone to Kunlun, and the skeleton automatically fused with Kunlun's arm.

As soon as Kunlun's arm fused with the bone, Kunlun's shoulder and arm twisted. Kunlun let out a pained roar. After a while, Kunlun's baboon arm turned into a human arm under everyone's watch.

At this moment, the male Winged Fish also recovered from the pain. When it saw the sudden appearance of Kunlun, it screamed, as if it had gone crazy. It carried its wife's corpse and jumped down from the towering tree before running towards the sea.

It was afraid that if it was too slow, it would be killed by Kunlun.

Seeing the male Winged Fish run away, Donor sneered. "What a coward."

Seeing that Feng Yuncheng's face had already regained its color, Yu Huang said, "This place is a little far from the Black Shark Bird section. Let's first collect the skeletons eaten by the sea rabbits, then go to the Black Shark Bird section to collect the last leg bone."

"Okay."

...

From the male Winged Fish, they had already learned the appearance of those sea rabbits who took the leg bone.

According to the male Winged Fish, there was a gap on both ears of those sea rabbits. Because they were too weak and couldn't provide combat strength for their race, their Patriarch marked them as 'disabled'.

As disabled creatures, they had no right to eat the spoils of war at all. They could only occasionally eat scraps.

Therefore, they were all very thin and scrawny. When they saw the dying Kunlun Divine Master, they boldly ate him.

"As disabled sea rabbits, they couldn't grow up at all. Now, the disabled sea rabbits that have become extremely powerful in the isolated sea are most likely the sea rabbits that secretly ate the Kunlun Divine Master ten thousand years ago." Sheng Xiao looked at Beatrice and said, "Beatrice, use your sound waves to tell all the sea beasts to help us find the whereabouts of the disabled sea rabbits."

"No problem."

They temporarily stayed in the Northwest Continent. As they took care of the child and cultivated, they collected information about the whereabouts of the sea rabbits.

As for the leopard mother who followed them, because she had eaten her fill and rested well, her milk was also extremely good. Not only did she raise Na Ling into a chubby baby, but she also raised her own child into a strong and plump leopard. And after months of interaction, the leopard mother had already treated Yu Huang and the others as her providers.

In fact, when Yu Huang and the others approached it, it would even take the initiative to lie on the ground and let them stroke its stomach.

It treated itself as a pet leopard.

Its baby was very familiar with Yu Huang and the others. When Yu Huang and the others were eating meat, it would squat by Yu Huang's feet and chew on bones. After eating the bones, it would even roll around Yu Huang's shoes and wheedle.

However, after more than two months, they still hadn't gathered the whereabouts of the sea rabbits. Those sea rabbits seemed to have disappeared into thin air.

Sheng Xiao analyzed the situation. "After the news of the ancient merman's revival spread, the sea rabbits must have guessed that they would suffer revenge, so they hid."

"I thought so too." Yu Huang was a little worried and said, "If sea rabbits want to hide, I'm afraid it won't be easy to find them."

"There's no hurry." Sheng Xiao said, "They will come out to hunt when they're hungry."

During this period of time, Na Ling's growth speed was extremely fast. In just two months, she had grown to the height of a five to six-year-old child. She could even speak. The first thing she said was, "Hug me, Kunlun."

This was the first time they had heard Na Ling speak, so everyone was stunned.

Sheng Xiao asked Beatrice, "Do merfolk children learn to speak at two months old?"

Beatrice was also puzzled and said, "How is that possible? I'm considered talented, but I only learned how to speak after ten months." Beatrice stared at the chubby Na Ling and said, "Besides, we merfolk reach adulthood at the age of 13. Usually, when we're two months old, we're only as tall as a human that is one or two years old."

No matter what, Na Ling had grown too quickly.

"Could it be because of the leopard's milk?" Yu Huang looked at the leopard mother thoughtfully and suspected that the leopard mother's milk was too nutritious.

"That might not be the case," Xiao Shu said. "Although leopard's milk is nutritious, it won't have such a magical effect. This might be related to the fact that Na Ling is an ancient merman." As the Lord of All Demon, Xiao Shu knew the situation of various demon beasts better than them.

Since he said that there was nothing special about the leopard mother's milk, it was probably because of Na Ling herself.

Chapter 906: Unexpected Gain

Yu Huang stared at Na Ling and said thoughtfully, "In that case, perhaps Na Ling can completely grow up before we leave the Kunlun Mystic Realm."

Na Ling, who had slowly grown up, became less and less interested in milk and showed a strong interest in adult food. Yu Huang and the others would only cook a meal every few days, and every time Yu Huang and the others stewed meat, Na Ling would sit on a stone stool and stare at the delicious meat curiously with her round purple eyes.

On this day, when Yu Huang was practicing archery, she happened to see a few colorful birds flying across the sky.

She suddenly wanted to eat roasted birds.

Yu Huang loosened her grip and the sharp arrow shot into the sky, hitting three small demon beast birds.

She carried the little birds back to the camp and threw them to Estelle. "Let's eat roasted birds tonight."

"I'm the best at killing birds." Estelle carried the demon beasts to the beach to wash them.

Yin Rong was best at roasting meat. When she roasted meat, Na Ling squatted obediently at the side and watched. Perhaps it was because the meat was too delicious, or perhaps it was because Na Ling was too hungry, but in short, she was drooling.

Yin Rong thought about how Na Ling had grown up and should be able to eat some meat, so she tore off one of the demon beast's wings and gave it to Na Ling.

Kunlun saw this scene and hurriedly shouted, "Wait!"

Yin Rong was startled. She thought that Kunlun would blame her for giving Na Ling meat.

However, Kunlun reached out and took the wing as he said, "It's too hot. Don't burn Na Ling." With that, he gently blew on the wing. Only after confirming that the temperature was fine did he give the wing to Na Ling.

The meat was clearly roasted by Yin Rong and given to her by her, but Na Ling only thanked Kunlun with a smile. "Thank you, Kunlun."

Kunlun patted Na Ling's head before continuing to do other things. For some reason, in this life, Kunlun wasn't obsessed with cultivation, but with planting vegetables and food. He cultivated a few pieces of land on the continent and planted many wild vegetables and rice.

It was very likely that he would transform the former small killing world into a food plantation.

After Kunlun left, Na Ling opened her mouth and bit the wing. Then, Yin Rong heard the sound of bird bones being chewed by her.

Yin Rong suddenly felt her bones ache when she heard that unnerving sound.

After eating the small wings, Na Ling opened her mouth and revealed a mouthful of small white teeth as she smiled sweetly at Yin Rong and said, "Sister Rong Rong, I want to eat more."

Yin Rong was instantly overjoyed. "I'll give you another leg."

* *

Another two months passed, but Yu Huang and the others still hadn't found the whereabouts of the sea rabbits.

Na Ling, who had grown up being doted on by everyone, had already grown into a young girl.

The 13 to 14-year-old Na Ling was already very pretty. Her purple eyes appeared charming and seductive when she looked at people. Even as a woman, when Yu Huang occasionally met Na Ling's gaze, she had the feeling that Na Ling liked her.

But Na Ling was still very chubby.

As a girl, she could have worn Yin Rong and Yu Huang's dresses. However, the chubby her wasn't their size at all, so she wore the T-shirt Kunlun had made for her all day long.

She was a beautiful chubby girl.

As a chubby girl, Na Ling also had a big appetite. How much could she eat? Even after drinking a carton of milk every day, she could still finish a ten-pound demon beast alone. Even so, she was often hungry in the middle of the night and secretly went into the sea to find shells to eat.

When Na Ling sneaked into the sea for the umpteenth time, she was discovered by Kunlun.

Kunlun was worried that she would be bullied by the sea beasts, so he forbade her from going into the sea again. Na Ling, who was unable to go into the sea to find shells to eat, often woke up in the middle of the night from hunger and stared at the leopard mother and its baby in a daze.

When Sheng Xiao noticed Na Ling looking at the leopard mother with a hungry gaze one night, he smiled. The next day, he convinced Kunlun to allow Na Ling to enter the sea. Of course, they also equipped Na Ling with emergency survival equipment. If Na Ling was in danger, they could find her as long as she fired the signal gun.

At the same time, he also asked Beatrice to deliberately spread the news that Na Ling was the daughter of the Kunlun Divine Master.

He believed that after knowing the little merman's true identity, no one would dare to hurt Na Ling.

Just like that, Na Ling went to the sea every night to find food.

This morning, Yu Huang and the others suddenly realized that Na Ling had disappeared. When Kunlun searched the vicinity but still didn't find any traces of Na Ling, he panicked. "Could Na Ling have been captured by a demon beast?!" Kunlun's imagination couldn't help but run wild.

Yu Huang shook her head and said, "I don't think so." Ever since they killed the male Winged Fish, the nearby demon beasts had to take a detour when they saw them. How could they dare to provoke them?

“Then could it be that she was eaten by a sea beast?” Kunlun panicked even more when he thought about how Na Ling liked to sneak into the sea. Perhaps she was eaten by a hungry sea beast.

“That’s even more impossible,” Beatrice said. “The sea beasts all think that Na Ling is the daughter of the Kunlun Divine Master. Who would dare to eat her?”

Kunlun was relieved.

Before long, they suddenly heard Na Ling’s cry. “Kunlun, Yu Huang, come and take a look. I caught a little rabbit!”

Her voice came from the beach.

Everyone quickly ran to the beach and saw Na Ling bringing back an extremely huge sea rabbit with her bare hands!

The sea rabbit was even larger than the sea rabbits Yu Huang and the others had seen before. It looked like it weighed more than a thousand pounds. Na Ling forcefully dragged it towards the coast.

It was difficult to imagine how Na Ling killed this sea rabbit and dragged it ashore.

When Na Ling noticed that her friends were all here, she flaunted proudly, “Isn’t this rabbit big? Sister Rong Rong, such a big rabbit is enough to last us several meals, right? If we can’t finish it, we can make... oh, cured rabbit meat!”

Na Ling liked eating sea rabbits the most.

Although this creature looked ugly and terrifying, its meat was fresh and delicious.

Yin Rong smiled and said, “Yes, it’s enough for you to eat for two months.”

Everyone arrived beside Na Ling and sized her up. Seeing that Na Ling wasn’t injured, they were relieved. Xiao Shu and Estelle said, “Na Ling, we’ll help you drag it.”

“Thank you!”

Na Ling let go of the sea rabbit’s ears.

Xiao Shu was about to pull the sea rabbit’s ear when he noticed a bowl-sized gap.

Xiao Shu froze. “Wait!” Xiao Shu stopped Estelle.

Estelle looked at him quizzically. “What’s wrong?”

“Check the ear in your hand.”

Hearing this, Estelle let go and realized that there was also a bowl-sized gap on the rabbit ear in his hand.

The two of them looked at each other in shock.

Xiao Shu quickly turned around and shouted at Sheng Xiao and the others, “Na Ling seems to have caught a disabled sea rabbit!”

Hearing this, everyone rushed over immediately.

Seeing that there was really a gap in the sea rabbit's ear, they were surprised and overjoyed.

Sheng Xiao rolled up his sleeves and said, "Cut it open and see if there are any Divine Master bones in its body."

"Okay."

Chapter 907: End of the Pack

Sheng Xiao cut it open and searched carefully. Soon, they found a rib that was different from the sea rabbit's bone.

The sea rabbit's bones were grayish-white, but the rib emitted a faint glow.

Yin Rong said in shock, "It really has Divine Master ribs!"

"Yes." After Sheng Xiao used his spiritual power to take out the broken bone from the sea rabbit's body, he handed the rib to Kunlun. "Feel it and see if it's what you want."

As soon as Kunlun held the rib, it felt a certain rib in its body ache, and the rib in its palm trembled slightly. Kunlun endured the pain and nodded. "Yes."

"Really." Yu Huang immediately turned around and asked Na Ling, "Na Ling, where did you meet them?"

At this moment, Na Ling also realized that this sea rabbit was somewhat extraordinary. She didn't dare to lie and hurriedly pointed at the sea. "In a canyon cave very, very far away, there are many sea rabbits inside!" Na Ling continued, "I blocked the entrance of the cave and planned to eat this one before catching the rest!"

At such a young age, Na Ling already knew that she had to store food, and those unlucky sea rabbits became Na Ling's reserve food.

Sheng Xiao asked curiously, "You blocked the entrance of the cave? What did you block it with?" These sea rabbits had refined the skeleton fragments of the Kunlun Divine Master. They were considered powerhouses among sea rabbits. How could Na Ling stop them at such a young age?

Sheng Xiao was suspicious and curious.

Na Ling actually said, "I moved a mountain peak at the bottom of the sea over and blocked the entrance."

Everyone was speechless.

She moved a mountain??

Staring at Na Ling, who was only about 1.6 meters tall, no one could believe that she could move a mountain on her own.

In order to verify it, Sheng Xiao suggested that Na Ling bring them to look for the sea rabbits. Na Ling was fine with it, but she rubbed her stomach and pursed her lips as she said, "I'm still hungry. Sister Rong Rong, can you grill me a few pounds of tenderloin?"

The tenderloin of sea rabbits was Na Ling's favorite part. There was no fatty meat, so the taste was very fresh and tender.

Everyone knew how much of a troublemaker Na Ling was when she was hungry, so no one dared to starve her. They worked together to cut the meat, start a fire, and cook. Soon, Yin Rong finished frying a large pot of pork. Na Ling ate ten pieces alone, while the remaining nine pieces were shared among them.

After eating and drinking her fill, Na Ling brought them to find the sea rabbits.

When Na Ling said that it was 'very, very far', she wasn't joking. It was really very far away.

How far away was it?

In any case, Yu Huang and the others used their spiritual power to swim in the sea for three days and nights, but they didn't reach the Sea Rabbit Cave. When they asked Na Ling how long it would take for them to arrive, Na Ling's answer was always, "It's just ahead. We'll be there soon." Na Ling had been saying this an hour after they entered the sea.

Yu Huang calculated according to the speed and direction of their march and discovered that they had already swam to the southernmost Iceland Continent from the Northwest Continent of the Kunlun Mystic Realm.

This was also the smallest continent in the Kunlun Mystic Realm and it had the worst environment.

When they arrived at this sea area, the surface of the sea was filled with a thick layer of ice. As Yu Huang and the others swam in the seawater, they could clearly feel how cold the temperature in the seawater was. They had no choice but to use a protective shield to resist the ice.

It would take them three days to reach the Sea Rabbit Cave. Na Ling only needed one night to run back and forth.

From this, it could be seen how shocking Na Ling's speed in the water was.

Na Ling suddenly stopped and shouted happily, "We're here. It's right there!"

Finally, they arrived at their destination.

Everyone looked in the direction Na Ling was pointing at and discovered that there was a cylindrical iceberg hidden in the sea in front of them. That mountain was extremely high. It grew from the depths of the sea and reached the surface.

Because the bottom of the sea was too dark, they couldn't see where the bottom of the mountain was.

As far as they could see, the mountain was covered in glaciers. Na Ling pointed at the middle of the mountain and said, "There's a big hole there. Look, that's the mountain peak I used to block the entrance!"

Everyone looked at the middle of the mountain and indeed saw a mountain peak that had been broken by brute force.

The mountain peak was about three to four hundred meters tall. The top of the mountain peak was stuffed into the exit of the Sea Rabbit Cave by Na Ling, blocking the cave tightly.

“Is that the mountain peak you broke?” Sheng Xiao asked thoughtfully.

Na Ling nodded and wagged her tail as she said, “After I swung my tail, that mountain fell.”

Hearing this, everyone felt a lingering sense of fear.

They wondered how terrifying Na Ling’s true strength was.

Xiao Shu suddenly smiled evilly as he pressed Na Ling’s shoulder and said, “Na Ling, let’s open the entrance together later. When the sea rabbits run out, help us catch them!”

Na Ling frowned and couldn’t help but say, “But there are too many of them. I can’t catch all of them.”

“How many are there?” Sheng Xiao asked.

Na Ling said, “More than thirty!”

Everyone exchanged looks. In the end, Sheng Xiao asked Na Ling, “How many can you catch?”

Na Ling said, “About ten.”

The word ‘about’ was very ambiguous.

Sheng Xiao touched his nose and felt a sense of inferiority. “Alright, catch ten. We’ll catch the rest.”

“Okay.”

Sheng Xiao turned into the Black Qing Sky Dragon and wrapped the peak of the mountain with his thick and long tail. Then, he pulled the mountain out of the cave with his tail.

Seeing the entrance of the cave suddenly open, the sea rabbits all swam deeper into the cave in fear to find the most hidden place to hide.

A few days ago, when they saw that the little merman had easily captured one of their companions and blocked the exit of the cave with a mountain, they realized that hiding in the cave was the stupidest thing!

Catching rabbits in a cave was like catching a whole nest!

If they had known earlier, they would have hidden separately and escaped on their own.

Unfortunately, it was too late to regret it.

Seeing that the sea rabbits were hiding in the cave and refused to come out, Xiao Shu chuckled and said regretfully, “These rabbits are quite cunning. They knew that we would be waiting for them at the entrance of the cave.” He rolled up his sleeves and said, “Since the little darlings refuse to come out, let’s go in and catch them!”

Yu Huang smiled and said, "Brother Xiao, you'll be the last to enter. Remember to block the entrance."

Everyone gave Yu Huang a thumbs up.

In terms of ruthlessness, Yu Huang was unrivaled.

Sheng Xiao held back his laughter and nodded. "Okay."

Chapter 908: The Outrageous Sheng Xiao

Na Ling brought her other companions into the cave first. Sheng Xiao picked up the mountain peak and was the last to enter the cave. After entering the cave, he really blocked the entrance.

This time, the 30 sea rabbits became prey for them to capture.

Seeing the sea rabbits, Na Ling suddenly turned into a dark purple light and rushed towards a sea rabbit at the speed of a meteorite hitting the planet. Before everyone could see Na Ling's figure clearly, they heard a sea rabbit cry in pain—

"Chirp chirp!"

Upon hearing the cry, everyone looked in the direction of the sea rabbit and saw Na Ling grabbing the ear of a sea rabbit with both hands and biting the artery on its neck.

She bit the rabbit without letting go.

Na Ling only let go after confirming that the rabbit's artery had been bitten apart.

As soon as she let go, a stream of dark red blood spurted out of the sea rabbit's neck.

The sea rabbit struggled for a while before dying.

After killing one sea rabbit, Na Ling mercilessly abandoned it and rushed towards another sea rabbit like a rocket. She was extremely fast and arrived beside another sea rabbit in the blink of an eye. Before the sea rabbit could see Na Ling's position clearly, its neck was bitten by Na Ling's sharp teeth.

Everyone was stunned.

"This..." Yin Rong frowned in discomfort and turned to look elsewhere.

Xiao Shu stroked his chin and said with intrigue, "As expected of ancient merfolk. Even without cultivation techniques and demonic power, they are still the absolute overlords of the sea." Xiao Shu's smile deepened as he said meaningfully, "I love this type of sea creature. I wonder how lively things will be if I bring Na Ling to the Holy Spirit Continent."

Sheng Xiao immediately looked at Xiao Shu warningly.

Xiao Shu hurriedly spread his arms and said, "I was just thinking about it." After regaining his memories, Xiao Shu always had many strange and terrifying thoughts.

Sheng Xiao snorted. "You better be."

At this moment, Beatrice smiled and said, "It's said that before the ancient merfolk awakened their intelligence, they were already tyrants in the sea. Therefore, if the Beast Tamers at that time could awaken their mermaid beast form, they would be natural battle-type Beast Tamers."

"How impressive."

"Alright, let's do it!"

Those sea rabbits weren't weak to begin with. However, when they saw Kunlun, Beatrice, and the little merman, Na Ling, they automatically treated them as family. When they thought of the terrifying past of the Kunlun Divine Master ruling this world ten thousand years ago, the sea rabbits were terrified.

They were desperate to escape, so how could they dare to take the initiative to counterattack?

This was a psychological battle, and the sea rabbits, who had lost their confidence right from the start, had no chance of winning at all.

Soon, the sea rabbits were successfully captured by them.

When the group arrived at the Iceland Continent, they found more than two hundred bones in the body of the sea rabbit. After Kunlun absorbed all those bones, he almost returned to his original appearance. However, only his legs still looked like those of a baboon.

The reason why he didn't absorb the right leg was that he was worried that with legs of different lengths, it would be inconvenient for him to walk.

At this moment, there were only seven to eight months left until the Kunlun Mystic Realm training ended.

Sheng Xiao and the others planned to set off for the Black Shark Bird section immediately to help Kunlun collect the last left leg skeleton. However, on the day they set off, Feng Yuncheng welcomed his Supreme Master tribulation.

This tribulation came very suddenly.

According to Feng Yuncheng's cultivation speed, he would have to cultivate bitterly for at least another three to four years before he could break through to the Supreme Master Realm. Perhaps it was because he had the Divine Master rib fragment, but Feng Yuncheng actually broke through without warning.

For some reason, Feng Yuncheng sat on the ground and waited for a long time, but his Supreme Master Tribulation didn't come.

When Feng Yuncheng released his spiritual energy, he saw that he had three spiritual energy rings, which meant that he had already stepped into the Supreme Master Realm. He couldn't help but feel puzzled. "Why didn't I experience tribulation lightning?"

Looking at the calm and clear sky, Yu Huang suddenly said, "Ten thousand years ago, Senior Kunlun took the initiative to give up his Divine Master position and cut off the connection between the Kunlun Mystic Realm and the three thousand worlds. Strictly speaking, the Kunlun Mystic Realm does not belong to the three thousand worlds. It's normal that there is no tribulation lightning here."

Hearing this, Xiao Shu subconsciously retorted Yu Huang's point of view. He said eloquently, "The heavens is the strongest existence in the world. Shouldn't it be an omniscient existence? Even if this is the Kunlun Mystic Realm, there should be tribulation lightning."

In the eyes of demon beasts, the heavens was simply a holy existence that couldn't be defied.

Even the frivolous Xiao Shu was filled with fear and respect when he mentioned the heavens.

Yu Huang seemed to want to say something, but Sheng Xiao shook his head.

He looked at Xiao Shu as he said calmly, "The world is a broad term. It refers to everything. It can mean the earth, the universe, or the galaxy. The world is so big that it can't be estimated. The heavens is only the strongest energy existence in the three thousand worlds."

Xiao Shu was still a little indignant when he heard this. Yin Rong, Donor, and the others revealed thoughtful expressions.

Sheng Xiao suddenly asked, "Does everyone still remember the world called Earth that we went to in order to find Estelle?"

Donor and the others hurriedly nodded.

Sheng Xiao looked at Estelle and said, "You've lived in that world for decades. Tell me, are there immortal cultivators there? Is the heavens in that world?"

Estelle shook his head. "Although there are many unexplainable mysterious phenomena in that world and there are many myths and legends circulating, that world isn't controlled by the heavens like the Holy Spirit Continent is. From this, it can be seen that the heavens isn't the master of the world. It is only the strongest existence in the three thousand worlds."

"That's right. Therefore, it makes sense that the Kunlun Mystic Realm, which has severed its connection with the three thousand worlds, doesn't have tribulation lightning."

After hearing Sheng Xiao's analysis, Xiao Shu still found it unbelievable. He felt that his worldview had been shattered and he needed to reconstruct it. However, no matter what, Feng Yuncheng was still envied by everyone for being able to avoid the lightning tribulation.

Donor patted Feng Yuncheng's shoulder and said enviously, "Bastard, you're quite lucky."

Feng Yuncheng smiled and was a little smug as he said, "Hey, this is nothing. Perhaps it's because I have a good character."

These words angered Donor and the others so much that they wanted to hit him.

At that moment, Sheng Xiao said calmly, "Don't forget that someone who has never suffered the lightning tribulation is here."

Everyone glared at Sheng Xiao.

Yu Huang, who was almost killed by the lightning tribulation last time, rolled her eyes at Sheng Xiao and scolded angrily, "Shut your mouth!"

When Sheng Xiao saw that his wife was angry, he immediately kept his mouth shut.

Chapter 909: The Greatest Secret

After Feng Yuncheng successfully stepped into the Supreme Master Realm, he felt a little smug. He couldn't help but run to Beatrice to show off.

He said, "Your Highness, I'll show you my beast form!" After Feng Yuncheng closed his eyes, a colorful bewitching butterfly appeared on his upper body.

After breaking through to the Supreme Master Realm, Feng Yuncheng's Bewitching Butterfly also evolved. After its wings were completely spread, its diameter was about thirty meters.

When it flapped its wings, many sparkling light spots would fall from its wings. The scene looked very beautiful.

Beatrice subconsciously reached out to catch the light spots.

The moment her skin touched the light spots, many distant and unfamiliar scenes appeared in her mind—

First, Beatrice saw a rippling sea.

She raised her head slightly and saw a few young mermaid babies sitting on the reef opposite her. Their tails hung in the dark blue seawater. As they gently slapped the water, they could create waves.

Jessica sat on the highest reef as she held a storybook in her hand and muttered softly, "...She saw the prince calling the bride's name in his sleep. He only had her in his heart. The little mermaid kissed the prince's forehead again and threw the knife into the sea with a trembling hand before jumping into the sea herself. At dawn, people couldn't find the little mermaid. A white foam was floating on the waves beside the boat."

This happened in Beatrice's childhood.

At that time, one of Beatrice's favorite things was to sit on the reef with her merfolk friends and listen to stories on a summer evening.

Next, the scene changed. Beatrice saw the underwater palace again. Then, she saw her beautiful mother and handsome father dancing in the palace.

The scene continued to change.

This time, Beatrice saw her brother, Mo Yelou, and Mo Yuelou. At that time, her brother had yet to inherit the throne of the Divine Moon Empire and marry his fiancée.

On the night of the Sacrifice Festival, her eldest brother drove her and her second brother to his future father-in-law's house in a yellow sports car. They secretly broke the surveillance cameras and climbed in from outside the courtyard wall. Then, they hid in the courtyard to meet her sister-in-law.

She, who was the youngest, was forced by her brother to read a love letter to her sister-in-law.

Next, Beatrice saw many more scenes, and these were all happy moments that she had experienced.

At the thought of those happy memories, Beatrice couldn't help but smile gently.

Feng Yuncheng was stunned when he saw the smile on Beatrice's face. Even after knowing Beatrice for so long, Feng Yuncheng rarely saw such a carefree smile on her face.

Her smile was really beautiful.

"Your Highness, why are you smiling?"

Beatrice blinked and immediately adjusted her expression. She pointed at the small light spots under the wings of the Bewitching Butterfly and asked curiously, "What are those?"

Feng Yuncheng said, "They are my beast form instincts."

"Your beast form instinct?" Beatrice was surprised. "What is that?"

Feng Yuncheng explained patiently, "Only a small number of Beast Tamers have instinctive power in their beast forms. For example, Yu Huang's Divine Feather Phoenix can release the Purifying Evil Phoenix Flame, and the Purifying Evil Phoenix Flame is her beast form instinct."

"I see." Beatrice asked again, "What's the use of such a thing?"

Feng Yuncheng explained, "Although the Bewitching Butterfly is a flying butterfly beast form, no one in the Holy Spirit Continent has awakened this beast form yet. I once saw its general information in the Myriad Book Pavilion. According to it, the Bewitching Butterfly has two beast forms. One is the illusion technique, which is the charm technique you saw. The other is the Divine Butterfly Light."

Beatrice looked at the light spots. "So these light spots we can see are called the Divine Butterfly Light."

"That's right." Feng Yuncheng grabbed a handful of white Divine Butterfly Light and placed it in Beatrice's palm as he said with a smile, "The white Divine Butterfly Light can arouse the happiest memories in people's hearts and make them feel happy. Did you see a scene that made you happy just now?"

"I did see it. How magical."

At this moment, Yu Huang suddenly looked at Feng Yuncheng and asked, "Other than the white Divine Butterfly Light, can you create any other Divine Butterfly Light?"

Beatrice looked surprised and said, "How is that possible? The Bewitching Butterfly only has these two beast forms."

The others also looked at Yu Huang in surprise. They were curious as to why Yu Huang would ask such a question.

When Feng Yuncheng heard Yu Huang's question, his smile suddenly froze.

Noticing Feng Yuncheng's reaction, Beatrice was stunned. "Could it be that you can really create other Divine Butterfly Lights?"

Feng Yuncheng's gaze flickered. After a long while, he looked at Yu Huang and nodded hesitantly. "I can indeed create other Divine Butterfly Lights."

"As expected." Yu Huang walked to Beatrice's side and reached out to grab a handful of white light spots.

The moment she grabbed the white light spot, Yu Huang also saw those beautiful scenes in the depths of her memories.

After she came back to her senses and let go of the white light spots, she pondered over it and said, "I guess that your Divine Butterfly Light can not only arouse the kind side of a person's heart, but also draw out the dark side of a person's heart, right?"

Feng Yuncheng's jaw dropped slightly as he subconsciously said, "How did you know?" This was Feng Yuncheng's biggest secret.

According to the records, the Bewitching Butterfly could only have two instincts, the illusion technique and the Divine Butterfly Light. However, Feng Yuncheng accidentally discovered that he could actually release another color of the Divine Butterfly Light.

The ability contained in the Divine Butterfly Light made Feng Yuncheng feel afraid.

Feng Yuncheng didn't dare to create that kind of Divine Butterfly Light.

Only Feng Yuncheng knew this secret. Even his parents didn't know, so how did Yu Huang know?

When Yu Huang saw Feng Yuncheng's reaction, she knew that she had really guessed correctly. Yu Huang told Feng Yuncheng, "I was bluffing you just now."

However, Feng Yuncheng didn't believe Yu Huang's words at all. He said firmly, "Even if you're bluffing me, it's because you have doubts. When did you start suspecting me?"

What was even more terrifying was that even Feng Yuncheng himself didn't know.

Sheng Xiao and the others were also curious. They didn't notice anything wrong with Feng Yuncheng. How did Yu Huang know?

Donor couldn't help but ask, "Yu Huang, when did you realize that something was wrong?"

Seeing that everyone was very curious, Yu Huang explained, "Back then, when the Grand State Master recruited Xiao Shu and Feng Yuncheng into the Holy Spirit Academy as cleaners, I thought that he simply cherished talent. However, when I discovered that Xiao Shu was the Lord of All Demons, I suspected that the Grand State Master's actions back then weren't coincidental, but deliberate."

"At that time, I thought that you might not be as simple as you seem. I've always been curious about your true strength, so when you took the initiative to use the illusion technique to deal with those demon beasts, I never opposed you."

Feng Yuncheng couldn't help but feel shocked. "So you suspected me long ago." He couldn't help but ask, "You knew that I was hiding something from you, but you still dared to keep me by your side. You still... trusted me so much."

Yu Huang smirked and she said frankly, "Everyone has their own secrets. Even I have secrets that I can't reveal to you guys. However, just because a person has a secret doesn't mean that he has ulterior motives."

Yu Huang glanced at Xiao Shu and told Feng Yuncheng, "Just like how we can accept Xiao Shu's identity as the Lord of All Demons, we can also accept your uniqueness. You really don't want to tell us your biggest secret?"

Feng Yuncheng looked like he was about to cry.

Then, he actually cried.

Seeing Feng Yuncheng cry, Beatrice was at a loss. "Feng Yuncheng, why are you crying? Don't cry."

Beatrice reached out to wipe Feng Yuncheng's tears, but he turned his head to the side in embarrassment and refused to let Beatrice touch him.

Helpless, Beatrice could only look at Yu Huang for help.

Yu Huang was also helpless. She said, "The Black Shark Bird plate is too far away from here. Taking an aircraft is the most convenient and fastest way. Let's prepare the aircraft first. Yuncheng, come and meet up with us later."

Feng Yuncheng nodded. He was afraid that if he spoke, they would hear his choked voice.

Chapter 910: Divine Butterfly Light

When they left, Sheng Xiao deliberately slowed down. When Yu Huang caught up, he asked her, "What do you think his hidden ability is?"

Yu Huang sighed and shook her head. "Since it was hidden by him, it's definitely an ability deemed as unacceptable by society."

"That's true."

When they arrived at the border between the ice and the sea, Yu Huang suddenly asked, "Who has an aircraft?"

Everyone tacitly looked at Donor.

The Light Sea was rich in gold and spirit stones. As the only son of the Elven King, it was impossible for Donor not to have an aircraft on him.

Donor couldn't help but roll his eyes as he said angrily, "What a bunch of stingy people. Don't you guys have any?" As he spoke, he looked at Sheng Xiao and Beatrice.

Beatrice shook her head. "I don't. My assets were all donated for military research and development projects."

Donor looked at Sheng Xiao again and said, "Beatrice cares about the country and the people, so it's understandable that she doesn't have an aircraft. As the young master of the Sheng family, don't you have one?"

Sheng Xiao said, "I really don't."

Donor could only accept his fate.

He released his favorite aircraft. It was a gilded aircraft. The aircraft's design was very flashy and gorgeous, very similar to Donor's personal style.

Donor said, "This is a coming-of-age gift from my mother. I cherish it very much." He gently caressed the body of the aircraft, then turned to Estelle and said, "Estelle, I'll allow you to board the aircraft with me first."

As Donor's Back Spirit, Estelle had that privilege.

Estelle felt awkward, but he followed Donor into the aircraft first. Then, Sheng Xiao and the others boarded the aircraft.

After sitting in the aircraft for more than ten minutes, Donor found Feng Yuncheng through the surveillance camera outside the aircraft.

"Yuncheng is here."

Hearing this, everyone looked at the surveillance camera of the aircraft. Sure enough, they saw Feng Yuncheng walking towards the aircraft against the snowstorm.

The moment they entered the room, Feng Yuncheng said, "Next, I've decided to show everyone my other ability..."

With that said, Feng Yuncheng circulated the spiritual power in his body, and a pair of gorgeous butterfly wings appeared behind him. At the same time, Yu Huang discovered that Feng Yuncheng's pupils had actually turned into a blood-red color.

Splash!

The wings on Feng Yuncheng's back flapped elegantly. His body rose into the sky, and countless red light spots floated down from his wings.

Looking at those light spots, everyone revealed surprised expressions.

"It's red!" said Beatrice.

Estelle and Donor sat at the front. The red light landed on them first.

As soon as the light spot landed on Estelle's head, Estelle seemed to have been possessed. He suddenly summoned the Demon Scythe, raised it, and attacked Donor.

As he attacked Donor, Estelle cursed, "To think that I treated you as the person closest to me and trusted you with my life. But what about you? How could you kill my entire clan?!"

At this moment, Donor also summoned the Angel Sword. He looked at Estelle emotionlessly and sneered. "Shut up! You're a lowly Night Elf to begin with. I treated you as a brother and a good friend, but how did you treat me in return?! Xueya is my cousin. She's only 18 years old. How can you... how could you rape her?!"

"My father is right. You Night Elves are a group of despicable and immoral beasts! All these years, I've really been blind to raise poisonous snakes by my side!"

The two of them argued for a while before waving their weapons at each other.

Their moves were fierce and deadly. Seeing that the two of them were about to hurt each other, Sheng Xiao decided to stop a tragedy from happening.

At this moment, the wings on Feng Yuncheng's back suddenly stopped flapping.

When he stopped, the blood-colored light spots that filled the sky suddenly disappeared, and Donor and Estelle regained their senses.

The two of them looked at the wounds on each other's bodies and then down at the weapons in their hands. Then, they suddenly let go and threw down their weapons before quickly retreating.

Clang—

The weapons hit the luxurious floor with a crisp clang.

The two of them explained at the same time—

"I didn't hurt your cousin Xueya!"

"My father was the one who sent troops to kill your clansmen!"

After saying that, both of them were stunned.

They looked at each other, then at their friends and the environment they were in before realizing that they had been bewitched by Feng Yuncheng.

After the close call, the two of them sat on the stool weakly and broke out in cold sweat.

At this moment, Feng Yuncheng had already returned to normal. He stood at the front of the seat and faced Yu Huang and the others. Seeing that Yu Huang and the others were silent, Feng Yuncheng didn't dare to speak.

"So..." Yu Huang asked hoarsely, "The red Divine Butterfly Light is another beast form instinct of yours?"

Feng Yuncheng nodded hesitantly. "Yes."

Sheng Xiao asked, "Your ability is... to create illusions?"

Feng Yuncheng shook his head. "More than that."

Xiao Shu was very interested in Feng Yuncheng's ability. He asked curiously, "What reaction can it create?"

Xiao Shu was a troublemaker, so he wanted to personally experience the wonders of Feng Yuncheng's ability and see if it was really that invincible.

Feng Yuncheng's gaze drifted until it landed on Beatrice. Only then did he calm down.

He said, "The red Divine Butterfly Light can create different illusions for different people and stimulate their killing intent. This illusion is rarely ever seen through by others. It will only stop when I call for it to stop. Otherwise, only death can end it."

Everyone's expressions instantly became serious. Even Xiao Shu put away his frivolous expression.

"Is it really that terrifying?" Yin Rong questioned.

Feng Yuncheng smiled bitterly and said, "I hope that I don't have this ability more than anyone else does. After all, this isn't a good thing.

Think about it, if there was someone beside you who could create an illusion of slaughter at any time and stimulate the killing intent in your heart that you even don't understand, would you be at ease?"

Feng Yuncheng knew too well how terrifying this ability was, so he had always been careful to hide this secret. He would never use it unless he was in a desperate situation.

Beast Tamers with his abilities could be considered fiendish cultivators.

Feng Yuncheng had seen how cold and heartless the Holy Spirit Continent's attitude towards fiendish cultivators was. Even a kind and cute little girl like Anna was ambushed by Xuanyuan Shen and the others. People like him wouldn't have a better ending.

Donor and Estelle had just experienced Feng Yuncheng's killing illusion, so they knew too well how dangerous it was.

At this moment, they still felt a lingering sense of fear.

Therefore, seeing that Yin Rong and the others were still questioning Feng Yuncheng's ability, Donor couldn't help but say, "I can confirm that Yuncheng isn't exaggerating at all."

Estelle hurriedly nodded and said, "That's right. Even if everything that happened seemed so ridiculous and unreasonable, in the illusion, we couldn't sense the unreasonableness of the situation at all. When we were trapped in the illusion, I was enraged and after my killing intent was aroused, I felt like I couldn't calm down unless I really killed Donor."

Nodding, Donor echoed, "That's indeed the case."

Sheng Xiao pointed out, "You know Estelle's character very well. Didn't you notice anything strange about the illusion?"

Donor shook his head with a serious expression as he said, "No. In the illusion, it's as if we were possessed. We couldn't think rationally at all. We believed whatever we saw."

Estelle also said, "It was really like that. In the illusion world, our rationality was suppressed, but our negative emotions were infinitely magnified. It was simply... too terrifying."

Estelle still felt angry when he recalled the scene of blood flowing like a river and corpses piled up in the illusory world.

Staring at the cold sweat on Estelle and Donor's faces and seeing that their hands and feet were still trembling, Yu Huang and the others could imagine how terrifying Feng Yuncheng's ability was.

This was really a natural killing instinct!
