

She Shocks 961

Chapter 961: Soul-crushing Nail

“The mission is completed. It’s time for you to die.”

When Madam Xuanyuan said this, her smile looked very loving and gentle.

She was like a loving mother gently reminding her child to cover himself with a blanket at night.

After using Liuli Luoluo, he wanted her to die.

However, as the one being used, Liuli Luoluo didn’t show any fear or unwillingness when she heard this.

She even bent down gratefully and held Madam Xuanyuan’s hand piously. Then, she gently pressed her forehead against the back of Madam Xuanyuan’s hand as she said very obediently, “Thank you, Master. It’s my honor to be able to satisfy you.”

Nodding her head, Liuli Luoluo slowly turned around like an obedient robot and walked towards the door of the Patriarch Manor. After going out the door, she turned left and arrived at a courtyard on the left of the residence.

There was a ginkgo tree planted at the edge of the courtyard. As autumn arrived, the leaves on the tree turned golden. The ginkgo tree’s crown grew into the shape of a pine. The short part faced the courtyard, while the long part leaned out of the courtyard and hung high over a steep cliff.

The cliff below was 1,900 meters high. Below the cliff, there was a lake.

Back then, after Yin Mingchong’s scheme had been exposed, he intended to escape from the bottom of this lake.

The Eight Towers Mountain was always foggy in autumn. At night, the fog was even thicker, and the entire peak of the Moon Pointing Mountain was completely enveloped by thick fog. Liuli Luoluo stood under the ginkgo tree as she looked down the cliff. With the light on the mountain, she could only see a dim fog.

The cliff and lake under the thick fog seemed to have disappeared.

As Liuli Luoluo stood under the ginkgo tree, her thin and fragile body looked like it was on the verge of collapse. Without any hesitation, Liuli Luoluo suddenly raised her leg and stood on the railing before jumping down.

Her fragile body fell through the thick fog quickly and continued to fall.

The moment Liuli Luoluo jumped off the cliff, a golden weapon that was like an iron nail suddenly flew out from between her eyebrows.

“Ah!”

When the golden iron nail fell out of her body, she cried out in pain.

No one knew that Liuli Luoluo had been controlled by Madam Xuanyuan since three years ago.

The golden iron nail she struck into her body was called the Mind-controlling Nail.

The Mind-controlling Nail was a cursed spirit artifact. It could be stuck between the eyebrows of a living person and hidden deep in the Spiritual Abode world of a living person. Over time, it could snatch the consciousness of a living person and turn them into an obedient puppet.

Three years ago, after Liuli Xiangsi passed away, Madam Xuanyuan returned to the Liuli Clan to mourn her senior.

That day, after Liuli Luoluo lost her family member, she was extremely bereaved. Madam Xuanyuan took advantage of her sadness to nail the Mind-controlling Nail between her eyebrows.

In the beginning, Liuli Luoluo wasn't completely controlled by Madam Xuanyuan. She could occasionally recover her consciousness for a few minutes. However, she was still weak. In a few days, she was completely turned into an obedient puppet.

During the marriage recruitment event, Xuanyuan Chen defeated all his competitors. He should have successfully won the competition, but he didn't expect Ji Linyuan to appear halfway through. In his despair, Xuanyuan Chen came to question Liuli Luoluo.

In the face of Xuanyuan Chen's doubts and deep feelings, Liuli Luoluo had a few seconds of clarity. However, before she could tell Xuanyuan Chen what had happened to her, she was controlled by Madam Xuanyuan again.

Under Madam Xuanyuan's control, she said many unpleasant words to Xuanyuan Chen.

Those words were enough to trample on a proud man's pride.

As she watched Xuanyuan Chen leave angrily, in that instant, Liuli Luoluo realized that she had lost her beloved and completely accepted her fate. The moment the thought of accepting her fate appeared in her mind, her consciousness was completely suppressed by the Mind-controlling Nail.

From then on, Liuli Luoluo was no longer herself. Her personality slowly changed and she became the model of a good wife and mother in the eyes of men.

She was gentle, virtuous, calm, considerate, and sensible.

She was good in every way, except that she had no thoughts of her own.

No one knew that when she married Ji Linyuan, she was pregnant. Even she didn't know.

Although she and Xuanyuan Chen had only officially dated for two to three months, the two of them had already known each other for more than ten years. From the moment they entered the Divine Realm Academy, they had been classmates. The two of them always participated in the grade assessment mission together. The two of them had long developed an inseparable relationship.

In this world, no woman knew Xuanyuan Chen's character better than Liuli Luoluo.

He was a cultivation maniac.

In his world, other than cultivation, there was only her.

It was precisely because she knew Xuanyuan Chen's character that Liuli Luoluo liked to flirt with him before they confirmed their relationship. Therefore, after confirming their relationship, Liuli Luoluo flirted with Xuanyuan Chen even more openly.

Before they dated, Xuanyuan Chen lusted after Liuli Luoluo, but he would never do anything to her. However, after confirming their relationship, Xuanyuan Chen suddenly became emboldened.

Liuli Luoluo was a huge flirt, and she cultivated the carefree Dao at will. In addition, Xuanyuan Chen was a virile young man. The two of them naturally had sex.

When she married Ji Linyuan, the child in Liuli Luoluo's stomach was less than two months old. She didn't even notice the changes in her body.

After marrying into the Yin Clan, under Madam Xuanyuan's control, Liuli Luoluo schemed to obtain the management rights of the Patriarch's Mansion. After that, she ruthlessly aborted the child, who had just turned three months old, and buried the child under the red elm tree when no one was paying attention.

Back then, the reason Madam Xuanyuan wanted to hold that marriage recruitment event was to choose the best candidates among the men participating in the marriage recruitment competition. Next, she would marry her puppets over one by one and let them get pregnant with holy children. Then, she would secretly hide the holy children and let them grow secretly.

From the beginning, Madam Xuanyuan had her eyes on the Yin Clan's red elm tree.

The red elm tree had the miraculous effect of absorbing the spiritual power of nature. It was the most suitable place on the Holy Spirit Continent to nurture the holy children.

Back then, Madam Xuanyuan was vexed that there were no men from the Yin Clan participating in the marriage competition when Ji Linyuan came.

When Ji Linyuan and the others were on guard against plotting against Madam Xuanyuan, Madam Xuanyuan was plotting against them too.

The scenes of the past three years quickly flashed across Liuli Luoluo's mind.

When she thought about how she had actually lost her child and even helped Madam Xuanyuan raise the holy children, Liuli Luoluo felt so pained that she wanted to die.

She fell faster and faster...

Liuli Luoluo didn't have the slightest desire to live.

She had let her mentor, Xuanyuan Chen, and the entire world down.

She deserved to die.

If she died, she wouldn't have to be a sinner.

“... I’m sorry.”

Liuli Luoluo closed her eyes.

The wind blew away the tears at the corner of her eyes. Like a kite with a broken string, she quickly disappeared under the thick fog.

* *

As Madam Xuanyuan stood under the red elm tree, she looked up at the sky. The blood-red leaves that filled the sky swayed slightly under the autumn wind, as if they were celebrating her arrival.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Madam Xuanyuan’s heart started to race.

It had been ten thousand years!

He had waited for this day for ten thousand years!

The spring awakening holy baby had already completely grown up. He could immediately fuse with the 24 holy children and complete the revival. How could he not be excited?!

Madam Xuanyuan suddenly raised her right hand and struck the thick trunk of the red elm tree.

Boom!

The roots of the red elm tree were split into pieces, and the soil under the tree was also blasted apart, revealing the intertwined roots below.

A rectangular golden cedar coffin was tightly wrapped in those chaotic tree roots.

The tree roots were deeply inserted into the coffin, and the spiritual energy was continuously sent to the spring awakening holy baby through these tree roots.

Seeing the small coffin, Madam Xuanyuan became excited.

Madam Xuanyuan muttered gently to the small coffin, “Child, come here.” Upon hearing Madam Xuanyuan’s call, the tree roots binding the golden coffin automatically peeled off. Without the confinement of the tree roots, the coffin automatically floated up in front of Madam Xuanyuan.

Chapter 962: The Holy Soul Returns, But Where Is the Sacred Body?

Madam Xuanyuan reached out shakily and grabbed the coffin tightly.

“I’ve succeeded!”

Madam Xuanyuan was so excited that her voice was trembling.

She forcefully lifted the lid of the coffin and lowered her eyes to look into the coffin. When she saw the fair and chubby little boy lying in the coffin, Madam Xuanyuan became even more excited. “Spring awakening holy baby, you've finally grown up." Madam Xuanyuan pointed her finger between the fetus' eyebrows and injected a trace of spiritual power into the fetus' body.

Suddenly, the fetus opened its eyes. A pair of green eyes filled with vitality stared at Madam Xuanyuan.

The spring awakening holy baby stared at Madam Xuanyuan for a moment before suddenly crying.

As soon as the baby cried, the other 23 holy children sensed the existence of the spring awakening holy baby and opened their eyes at the same time. Then, they let out earth-shattering cries in unison.

"Waah!"

"Waah!"

"The holy children are alive!" Sheng Lingfeng and the others were rushing to the Eight Towers Mountain with the 23 small coffins. Just as they arrived at the entrance of the Eight Towers Mountain, they heard earth-shattering cries coming from the coffins.

The cries were very sharp, piercing through the clouds and spreading throughout the entire Holy Spirit Continent.

At this moment, everyone on the continent heard the ear-piercing cries.

The commoners couldn't help but cover their ears and kneel on the ground while roaring in pain. Because the Beast Tamers had spiritual power, although they could withstand the power of the fetus' cries, they still frowned in discomfort. At the same time, they felt their minds become disoriented.

Sheng Lingfeng and the others were also disoriented for a moment.

When he came back to his senses, Xiao Shu said with a pale face, "It's too late." Xiao Shu looked up at Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao. He lamented in despair, "Holy Spirit Goldfeather succeeded when the spring awakening holy baby was born. We have no way out."

Hearing Xiao Shu's words, Sheng Lingfeng and the others revealed terrified expressions.

"Hahaha!"

Madam Xuanyuan laughed maniacally. Her laughter echoed throughout the entire mountain range of the Eight Towers Mountain, making Sheng Lingfeng and the others feel despair.

Madam Xuanyuan suddenly threw the fetus in her hand into the deep sky. The cloak and coat on her body fluttered without any wind, and the black hair on her back swayed with the clothes. A powerful and divine aura spread out from her body and quickly spread to the Divine Realm Continent.

An ethereal and divine call sounded from the top of the Eight Towers Mountain

"24 holy children, listen up. Gather quickly and submit to me!"

Hearing this, the 23 small coffins in Sheng Lingfeng's interspatial ring suddenly trembled crazily.

Sheng Lingfeng had already placed his seal on the interspatial ring. However, the seal actually lost its effect at this moment.

The 23 small coffins all flew out of Sheng Lingfeng's interspatial ring. They lined up in the sky above the Eight Towers Mountain and kept spinning around the coffin. As they spun, they frantically absorbed the spiritual power of the Holy Spirit Continent.

Spiritual power floated on the continent. It was originally without a trace, colorless, invisible, and tasteless. But at this moment, summoned by the 24 holy children, all the spiritual power gathered together and condensed into pure white snow that quickly floated past from every direction of the Holy Spirit Continent before entering the coffins of the 23 holy children.

Seeing the white snow, Sheng Lingfeng couldn't help but think of the heavy snow that filled the sky on the day the Grand State Master died.

This snow was the providence and spiritual power of the Holy Spirit Continent.

As Ji Linyuan and the others stared at the pure white snow in a daze, they thought of the scene when the Grand State Master died three years ago. Dongfang Xiagui clenched his fists and roared with red eyes, "That's something the Grand State Master risked his life to snatch back for the Holy Spirit Continent!"

That's right. The thing that the Grand State Master had risked his life to snatch back was taken back by Madam Xuanyuan.

Who would be willing to accept this?

Sheng Lingfeng suddenly roared, "Kill him! Even if we risk our lives, we can't let him successfully revive!"

"That's right, kill him!"

Upon hearing Sheng Lingfeng's order, the group of experts behind them flew into the sky without hesitation and attacked the 24 holy children in the sky.

But that was 24 holy children, the 24 solar terms of the Holy Spirit Continent.

The 24 solar terms and the Holy Spirit Continent would exist forever. As long as the continent existed, the 24 holy children would never be destroyed.

Therefore, even if more than a hundred Grand Master experts joined forces, they were unable to cause any damage to the 24 holy children.

At this moment, Madam Xuanyuan appeared on the coffin of the spring awakening holy baby. As she stared at the Beast Tamers trapped outside the spiritual energy circle by the 24 holy children, she revealed an arrogant and disdainful smile. "What a group of idiots. I told you guys long ago that you are just Holy Spirits created by me. I am the master of this world!"

"You will never be able to defeat your Creator!"

The corners of Madam Xuanyuan's lips curled up as she formed hand seals with both hands and shouted in a low voice, "Holy children, return to your position. Quickly merge!" Hearing the order, the 23 holy children rushed towards the spring awakening holy baby at the same time, and the spring awakening holy baby floated out of the coffin.

Under the despairing and terrified gazes of Sheng Lingfeng and the others, the 24 holy children quickly fused into one. After they fused into one, they turned into dazzling golden light.

That was the Divine Master's Divine Light.

Splash!

Light shot into the entire Holy Spirit Continent, completely lighting up the dark night.

After the night sky suddenly turned into a dazzling golden color, all the Holy Spirits raised their heads and looked up at the dazzling night sky.

At this moment, they felt fear from the depths of their souls.

They suddenly realized that the apocalypse had really arrived.

On the Eight Towers Mountain, the golden light dissipated and turned into an adult man in an ancient robe with a long hairpin.

The man was surrounded by a layer of golden light. Sheng Lingfeng and the others couldn't see his face clearly.

However, the terrifying pressure released by that man made them unable to raise his head.

Madam Xuanyuan pressed her left hand on the long-robed man's shoulder and struck out with her right hand in the direction of the Divine Realm Continent's Saint Tomb. A wisp of faint golden light followed the wind from his palm and spread to the Saint Tomb. Madam Xuanyuan roared domineeringly and proudly, "Saint Soul, return. Saint Body, come quickly!"

Sheng Lingfeng and the others looked in the direction of the Saint Tomb in confusion and said in shock, "His Saint Body is hidden in the Saint Tomb?"

Yu Huang, Sheng Xiao, and Xiao Shu were shocked.

The bones of the late Prime Masters of the Divine Realm Continent were buried in the Saint Tomb. Why was the Saint Body of the heavens hidden in the Saint Tomb?

Sheng Lingfeng quickly thought of the reason and scolded angrily, "It's Xuanyuan Shen! That bastard Xuanyuan Shen must have used a technique to hide the Saint Body of the heavens in the Xuanyuan Clan's Saint Tomb!"

Seeing Sheng Lingfeng and the others' vexed and despairing reactions, Madam Xuanyuan revealed a confident smile.

"A bunch of idiots!"

Chapter 963: Yu Huang's Moment of Glory

No one had guessed that he hid the Saint Body in the Saint Tomb.

As long as he took out his Saint Body and fused his Saint Soul with it, he could successfully revive.

At the thought that he was about to get rid of Xuanyuan Nuonuo's disgusting female body and regain control of the Holy Spirit Continent, Holy Spirit Goldfeather felt a little smug. Because of Holy Spirit Goldfeather's excitement, the expression on Madam Xuanyuan's charming face gradually became sinister.

Holy Spirit Goldfeather waited for a long time, but the Saint Body didn't appear. Holy Spirit Goldfeather couldn't help but frown in confusion.

Huh?

Where was the Saint Body?

The holy body of Holy Spirit Goldfeather had been hidden in the Xuanyuan Clan's Saint Tomb for more than a hundred years.

The last time the Saint Tomb opened, he had even personally gone to the Saint Tomb to check on the situation of the Saint Body. It was also that time that he sensed a fluctuation of the power of the Divine Master and followed that fluctuation to find the Yin Clan's Saint Tomb and Yu Huang, who possessed the power of the Divine Master.

Holy Spirit Goldfeather had been lurking in the Holy Spirit Continent for ten thousand years. In these ten thousand years, he had met a few Beast Tamers who had comprehended the power of the Divine Master, but the youngest of them was Yin Mingjue.

Yin Mingjue had accidentally comprehended the power of the Divine Master when he was more than a hundred years old. Prime Master Fu Tian, Elven King Moldo, and the others had only comprehended the power of the Divine Master when they were more than two hundred years old.

Therefore, when he discovered that Yu Huang was only 20 years old, he was truly shocked.

He realized that if he allowed Yu Huang to continue growing, she would definitely become the biggest stumbling block on his revival path. At that time, he had the thought of killing her, but his energy was weak, and there was another powerful spiritual power hidden in Yu Huang's Spiritual Abode world (Lin Jiansheng). He didn't dare to act rashly, so he secretly pulled Yu Huang into his space and threatened her.

However, he had underestimated Yu Huang's intelligence.

That little girl actually saw through his identity at a glance and he was insulted by her...

The last time the Saint Tomb opened, his Saint Body was still lying in the Xuanyuan Clan's Saint Tomb. Therefore, even after seeing that his Saint Body had not returned even after a long time, Holy Spirit Goldfeather didn't realize the seriousness of the problem. He only thought that the Saint Body didn't sense his summon because he was too far away.

Holy Spirit Goldfeather suppressed his excitement and struck the Saint Tomb again as he roared, "Saint Body, quickly return to your position!"

His voice spread throughout the entire Divine Realm Continent, and his spiritual power instantly reached the Xuanyuan Clan's Saint Tomb.

However, even after a few minutes, the Holy Body still didn't return.

Seeing this, Holy Spirit Goldfeather's heart sank, and Madam Xuanyuan's expression became sinister.

"Why isn't the Holy Body... returning?" Holy Spirit Goldfeather suddenly had a bad guess.

Could it be that something had happened to the Saint Body?

Sheng Lingfeng and the others noticed that the Saint Body had yet to appear. When they realized that Holy Spirit Goldfeather's expression had suddenly become ugly, they also revealed shocked expressions.

Why didn't the Saint Body of Holy Spirit Goldfeather listen to his summons?

Holy Spirit Goldfeather summoned the Xuanyuan Clan's Saint Tomb again and roared angrily, "Saint Body, quickly submit!"

This time, a powerful energy fluctuation finally came from the Saint Tomb.

Holy Spirit Goldfeather thought that his Saint Body had finally arrived and was overjoyed.

However, before joy could appear on his face, he saw the person's face clearly.

When he saw the person, his smile instantly froze.

The person who came was an old man in a black cotton shirt and black handmade cloth shoes. The old man's hair was white, and his eyes were narrowed. There was a black trash bag in the old man's hand. The trash bag was very ordinary. It was the kind of plastic bag used by supermarkets.

"Dean Di!" Sheng Lingfeng and the others were stunned when they saw the old man. Then, they guessed a possibility and couldn't help but reveal ecstatic expressions.

Di Ruofeng suddenly turned to Yu Huang and said, "You're so young, but you're already able to set up a trap to trick Holy Spirit Goldfeather into taking out the spring awakening holy baby. As expected of my capable grand-disciple!" Di Ruofeng gave Yu Huang a thumbs up. Ignoring the stunned expressions of Sheng Xiao, Ji Linyuan, and the others, he turned around and looked at Holy Spirit Goldfeather. He couldn't help but laugh. "Do you think that you beat Yu Huang at her own game by marrying Liuli Luoluo into the Yin Clan? Yu Huang deliberately handed the management of the Patriarch's Mansion to Liuli Luoluo, to beat you at your own game as well."

Madam Xuanyuan's eyes instantly widened when she heard this. She looked at Yu Huang with a cold gaze and asked her, "When did you find out?"

Yu Huang said with a cold expression, "Three years ago, when the alliance attacked the Dark Night Ghost Sect, I accidentally discovered that the vice sect master of the Dark Night Ghost Sect, Museido, had made Yin Rong's sister, Yin Qing, into a Soul Puppet. On the day Yin Qing was buried, I returned to the Yin Clan and saw Liuli Luoluo, who had changed greatly."

Yu Huang took a few steps forward and stood beside Di Ruofeng. She met Holy Spirit Goldfeather's gaze, which was filled with hatred and killing intent, and said fearlessly, "At that time, I was wondering how a person's personality could change so much. After combining the matter of Yin Qing being made into a Soul Puppet with the huge change in Liuli Luoluo's personality, I guessed that she was being controlled by someone."

Yu Huang's right hand grabbed the air, and a complete record of Spirit Tools appeared in her hand. She said, "A dead person can be made into a Soul Puppet, and so can a living person. I flipped through the complete record of Spirit Tools and found a cursed Spirit Tool called the Mind-controlling Nail."

Yu Huang shook the book in her hand and said with a faint smile, "By inserting a Mind-controlling Nail between the eyebrows of a living person, one can control the consciousness of a living person in a short period of time and nurture a living person into an obedient living puppet."

Upon hearing the word 'Mind-controlling Nail', Holy Spirit Goldfeather looked at Yu Huang with a mixed expression. "You realized my purpose at that time?"

"No." Shaking her head, Yu Huang said, "At that time, I only felt that you were suspicious, but I didn't realize that you were the heavens. However, at that time, I had already guessed that you and Liuli Luoluo must be plotting something. I discovered that after Liuli Luoluo married into the Yin Clan, she was always sizing up the Yin Clan's red elm tree. I guessed that she wanted to get close to the red elm tree, so I deliberately entrusted Eldest Senior Brother to give her the Patriarch's Estate's entry and exit token."

Holy Spirit Goldfeather's expression instantly became sinister.

Yu Huang could sense how angry Holy Spirit Goldfeather was, but she still felt that this wasn't enough, so she said, "If you know that someone is up to no good, but you can't guess what that person wants to do, then at this time, luring that person into a trap is the best way. Don't you think so, Holy Spirit Goldfeather?"

Holy Spirit Goldfeather took a deep breath as he glared at Yu Huang sinisterly, but he couldn't help but ask curiously, "Then when did you discover the truth?"

"A few days ago," Yu Huang said. "When I found out from Eldest Senior Brother that you were most likely the heavens and found out the truth of the 24 holy children from Xiao Shu, I guessed that the spring awakening holy baby was most likely hidden under the red elm tree of the Yin Clan."

Hearing this, Holy Spirit Goldfeather said, "But when you found out that Vivian was pregnant, you looked so sad."

Clearly, Holy Spirit Goldfeather had secretly sent people to observe their every move. He knew that Yu Huang was very sad when she went to see Vivian.

Chapter 964: Yu Huang: Have You Ever Heard of the Saying Extreme Joy Begets Sorrow?

Yu Huang knew that their every move was under Madam Xuanyuan's surveillance.

She expected that the scene of her hugging Sheng Xiao and revealing her pain and sorrow had also reached Madam Xuanyuan's ears.

Only then would Madam Xuanyuan believe that Yu Huang and the others really believed that the child in Vivian's stomach was the spring awakening holy baby.

Yu Huang pursed her rosy lips and said, "I admit that when I found out that Vivian was the only pregnant woman in the Divine Moon Empire and discovered that the child in her stomach indeed had strange abilities, I indeed doubted my previous guess."

Hearing this, Holy Spirit Goldfeather asked again, "What changed your mind?"

"It's you." Yu Huang's gaze was filled with mockery as she looked at Holy Spirit Goldfeather with a sneer and said, "After thinking about it, I still don't believe that the despicable and cunning you would place the spring awakening holy baby in the stomach of a commoner woman. Although you want to take revenge on me, compared to taking revenge on me, you want to be reborn even more."

A proud expression appeared on Yu Huang's face as she said firmly, "I thought that since Holy Spirit Goldfeather had been looking forward to revival for ten thousand years, you definitely wouldn't allow anything to jeopardize the revival. Therefore, I believed that the spring awakening holy baby was hidden under the red elm tree of the Yin Clan, and the child in Vivian's stomach was just a ruse."

"Heh!" After hearing the whole story, Holy Spirit Goldfeather laughed in anger.

He had to admit that he had really been played by this little girl.

He thought that he was setting up a trap, but little did he know that Yu Huang had also set up her trap.

"You knew that Vivian was a smokescreen, so why didn't you directly expose my plan and destroy my spring awakening holy baby as soon as possible?" Holy Spirit Goldfeather was puzzled again. He said, "If you destroy the spring awakening holy baby, my plan will fail."

This was a good question.

Yu Huang had already expected Holy Spirit Goldfeather to raise this question.

Yu Huang's rosy lips curled up into an evil smile as she said, "Have you ever heard of the phrase 'extreme joy begets sorrow'?"

Holy Spirit Goldfeather was stunned and felt extremely uneasy.

Yu Huang's smile was faint as she said calmly, "Only those who have reached the peak will feel the most pain at their downfall." With that said, Yu Huang tilted her head and said to Di Ruofeng, "Grand Master, take out the thing in your hand and show it to Holy Spirit Goldfeather."

"Okay!" Di Ruofeng opened the plastic bag in his hand with a smile and poured out the contents.

It was a pile of broken white bones.

After Di Ruofeng used his spiritual power to lift those things and sent them to Holy Spirit Goldfeather, he reminded, "Holy Spirit Goldfeather, I've brought you the Saint Body you wanted."

As Holy Spirit Goldfeather stared at the pile of white bones, he felt as if he had been struck by lightning.

"Di Ruofeng, you actually dared to dig up my Saint Tomb and destroy my skeleton!"

Back then, Holy Spirit Goldfeather had fled into the Holy Spirit Continent with heavy injuries and was on the verge of death. In the end, he died in a forest. In order not to let anyone discover the location of his Saint Body, he had specially set up a Divine Master restriction before he died. Ten thousand years later, he ordered Xuanyuan Shen to secretly transfer his Saint Body to the Xuanyuan Clan's Saint Tomb.

As long as he successfully retrieved the luck and providence of the continent and fused with his Saint Body, he could successfully revive.

Even if his strength couldn't recover to the Divine Master Realm, his cultivation level wouldn't be lower than that of a Prime Emperor.

However, Di Ruofeng, this old fart, actually boldly dug up his grave and stole the spiritual power in the Saint Body's skeleton. He even destroyed the Saint Body's skeleton. How could Holy Spirit Goldfeather be willing to accept this?!

Hearing the furious roar of Holy Spirit Goldfeather, Di Ruofeng revealed an unfathomable smile. He suddenly said, "Do you know that three years ago, the Grand State Master guessed that your Saint Body was hidden in the Saint Tomb of the Xuanyuan Clan? Even though the Grand State Master died, he left a way for us to survive."

Hearing this, Holy Spirit Goldfeather was even more exasperated. "Mo Xiao!"

Holy Spirit Goldfeather gritted his teeth and cursed, "Damn fox, not only did he ruin my plans, but he also forced me to a dead end! I really regret not killing him directly back then!" If he had known that that damn fox would ruin his revival plan, he wouldn't have saved him when he met the dying little fox in the abyss.

If he could turn back time, Holy Spirit Goldfeather would definitely return to the day he met Mo Xiao.

He swore that he would hack the young Mo Xiao so badly that even his mother wouldn't recognize him!

Holy Spirit Goldfeather was on the verge of a meltdown.

At this moment, Yu Huang said, "Holy Spirit Goldfeather, you spent a lot of effort to successfully fuse with the Saint Soul, but in the end, you discovered that your Saint Body was destroyed. Don't you feel very angry and desperate?" Yu Huang's gaze was cold as she sneered and said, "If you feel anger and despair, serves you right, because the seniors who were killed by you in the past have all experienced the pain you're feeling now."

Be it the Elven King, Moldo, Prime Master Fu Tian, her father, or even the Grand State Master Mo Xiao, all of them had felt endless despair before they died.

"Little slut!" Holy Spirit Goldfeather could no longer tolerate Yu Huang's provocation. He waved his right hand and launched a powerful spiritual energy attack on Yu Huang.

"Hmph!" Di Ruofeng and Sheng Lingfeng stood up at the same time and stood in front of Yu Huang before easily resolving Holy Spirit Goldfeather's spiritual attack.

At that moment, Sheng Xiao quickly pulled Yu Huang behind him and hid her tightly.

Madam Xuanyuan looked at them angrily.

Since there was no hope for him to revive, there was no need for this world to exist!

“Today, I will completely destroy you and this world!”

Holy Spirit Goldfeather suddenly took a step forward, and his body fused with the robed Holy Soul.

Boom!

The two fused into one, and the cultivation level of Holy Spirit Goldfeather rose in a straight line. In that instant, boundless spiritual energy fluctuations erupted from Madam Xuanyuan’s body.

Soon, the golden spiritual energy circle on Madam Xuanyuan’s head changed from three to four or five!

Every spiritual energy circle emitted a dazzling light.

Only Beast Tamers who had reached the peak of the Prime Master Realm would their spiritual energy circle emit dazzling light. Unexpectedly, after Madam Xuanyuan fused with the Holy Soul, she broke through from the early-stage Supreme Master Realm to the peak of the Prime Master Realm.

Beast Tamers at the peak of the Prime Master Realm were usually called Prime Emperors.

In the entire Holy Spirit Continent, only Dino of the Merman Clan had the cultivation of a peak Prime Master.

“Go to hell!”

Madam Xuanyuan opened her bright red lips, and the corners of her lips were torn apart. Her mouth enlarged infinitely, and instantly turned into a pitch-black hole that was like an abyss. A powerful magnetic force surged towards Yu Huang and the others. Yu Huang immediately felt her body begin to lose control, as if she was about to be sucked away.

Chapter 965: Merman Divine Sword Awakens

Sheng Lingfeng and Di Ruofeng, the two Prime Masters, stood in front of everyone. The two of them held hands immediately and gathered their spiritual power together to resist the pull of this powerful magnetic force.

At that moment, an angry male voice came from below—

“Holy Spirit Goldfeather, don’t even think about destroying this world!”

As soon as he finished speaking, a gorgeous colorful light rushed into the deep sky and stood between Sheng Lingfeng and Holy Spirit Goldfeather.

It was a majestic merman figure.

The merman had waist-length golden hair and was wearing a bare chest robe, revealing his muscular chest.

Just like Holy Spirit Goldfeather, there were five spiritual rings emitting dazzling light on the merman’s head.

“Prime Emperor Dino!”

Seeing that Prime Emperor Dino had arrived in time, Sheng Lingfeng and the others heaved a sigh of relief.

With the help of Dino, who was also a Prime Emperor, it would probably be very difficult for Holy Spirit Goldfeather to destroy the world.

Dino held the silver Merman Divine Sword in his hand. He was like a tall door god, blocking all the disasters and attacks for Yu Huang and the other juniors.

“Holy Spirit Goldfeather, you’re the creator of the Holy Spirit Continent, but that doesn’t mean you’re in charge of this world.” Dino pointed at the continent below him and said, “Just like a mother and a son. A mother bestows life on a child, but it doesn’t mean that the child belongs to her!”

“Ouch!”

Holy Spirit Goldfeather stared at Dino proudly and disdainfully as he said with a sneer, “Do you think you’re my match just because we’re both Prime Emperors? Don’t forget that even if I die, I’m still the ruler of this world! As long as this world isn’t destroyed, my soul will never dissipate!”

Holy Spirit Goldfeather suddenly smiled at Xiao Shu, who was standing beside Yu Huang and the others. He said with a faint smile, “Don’t you think so, my little unicorn?”

Yu Huang and the others looked at Xiao Shu.

“Xiao Shu, is what he said true?”

Xiao Shu nodded with a pale face and said, “The Holy Spirit Continent belongs to the Holy Spirit Divine Master. As long as the Holy Spirit on the continent doesn’t die, he will exist forever. He can transform into wind, rain, sea, or rain. In short, it’s impossible for us to completely erase him from this world.”

This was the connection between the Creator and the small world.

Yu Huang frowned slightly when she heard this. Kunlun’s face flashed across her mind.

If the Creator had an eternal relationship with the small world he created, since the Kunlun Mystic Realm was still there, why had the Kunlun Divine Master died?

The Kunlun Divine Master had indeed died back then. Even his soul had disappeared. The living Kunlun was only the reincarnation of the Kunlun Divine Master.

In that case, why could the soul of Holy Spirit Goldfeather coexist with the Holy Spirit Continent forever?

“Your soul will never disperse?” Dino snorted. “Nonsense! I don’t believe that we can’t completely get rid of you!” Dino suddenly turned around and shouted at Sheng Lingfeng, Ji Linyuan, and the others, “All Beast Tamers, listen to my orders. Let’s fight the enemy together!”

Hearing this, Sheng Lingfeng and Di Ruofeng immediately placed their hands on Dino’s shoulders and transferred the spiritual power in their bodies to Dino’s body.

Ji Linyuan, Dietrich, and Yu Huang did the same.

At the same time, the Sheng Clan, the Mo Clan, the Caro Clan, and the many Grand Master professors of the Divine Realm Academy also followed suit...

All the experts of the cultivation families living near the Divine Moon Empire, regardless of age, and all the Beast Tamers who had reached the Supreme Master Realm, rushed to the capital immediately.

On this day, tens of millions of Beast Tamers gathered in the airspace of Jingdu. They reached out and placed their hands on the shoulders of the Beast Tamer in front of them, sending their spiritual power out without reservation.

At the same time, Lin Jiansheng flew out of the thick fog at the foot of the mountain with a woman in his arms.

The unconscious woman lying in his arms was none other than Liuli Luoluo, who had jumped off the cliff to commit suicide.

Lin Jiansheng placed Liuli Luoluo in the courtyard in front of the Patriarch's Mansion. Then, he flew up and floated beside Prime Emperor Dino. He stomped the Purifying Spirit Scepter in his hand and used his pure psychic power to purify Holy Spirit Goldfeather's soul.

After Prime Emperor Dino received the help of tens of thousands of Beast Tamers, the spiritual energy circle above his head released more and more dazzling golden light.

Prime Master Goldfeather stared at these stubborn people in front of him with a sinister gaze. His body quickly shot into the clouds and flew into the deep sky before turning into an endless black abyss that enveloped the Divine Moon Empire.

The ten thousand Beast Tamers led by Dino and the others looked extremely petite as they stood under the black abyss' mouth.

"The wrath of the Creator!"

An deafening cry suddenly sounded from the abyssal mouth and the cry spread throughout the entire Divine Realm Continent. As the cry spread, endless powerful magnetic force erupted from the abyssal mouth again. The magnetic force wrapped around Dino and the others in an attempt to pull them into the abyssal mouth.

Seeing this scene, Dino guessed how the Jade Illusion Continent had disappeared.

The Jade Illusion Continent was small and didn't even have a cultivation family. The entire Jade Illusion Continent was the world of independent cultivators.

The Beast Tamers of the Jade Illusion Continent were like loose sand.

Therefore, when the calamity arrived, they couldn't unite and fight the enemy together.

Therefore, the Jade Illusion Continent disappeared.

It was devoured by Holy Spirit Goldfeather.

Dino angrily threw his fishtail and shouted in a hoarse voice, "All Masters are enraged, kill God!"

If God could rule this world, then he would kill this God!

The Holy Spirit Continent had never been someone's Holy Spirit Continent. It was the Holy Spirit Continent of all living beings!

When Dino realized this, he suddenly realized that all the pores on his body had opened. Many golden lights surged towards him. Those lights passed through his hand and onto his Merman Divine Sword.

The silver-white Merman Divine Sword was instantly filled with golden runes.

Seeing this, Dino was extremely shocked.

The Merman Divine Sword had awakened!

It was said that this Merman Divine Sword was used by the merman wife of a Divine Master in ancient times. Later, for some reason, it spread to the Holy Spirit Continent and was picked up by the merman race. Later, it was passed down to Dino.

According to the research and analysis of the merman ancestors, this Merman Divine Sword was personally forged by that Divine Master as a weapon for his beloved wife. A portion of the Divine Master's divine power was hidden in the Merman Divine Sword.

However, no one in the merman race had successfully awakened the divine power in the Merman Divine Sword.

However, with the help of thousands of Beast Tamers, Dino actually accidentally awakened the divine power of the Merman Divine Sword!

At this moment, Holy Spirit Goldfeather also felt the appearance of that powerful divine power.

As soon as he sensed the aura of that divine power, Holy Spirit Goldfeather felt flustered.

This was...

It was the aura of Kunlun!

How... how was this possible?!

The fiend Kunlun had died long ago. He had even taken the initiative to cut off contact with the three thousand worlds. How could Kunlun's aura appear on the Holy Spirit Continent?

A pair of dark eyes appeared in the black abyss mouth. Those eyes stared at the Merman Divine Sword in Dino's hand.

Holy Spirit Goldfeather asked in bewilderment, "Is that... the Merman Divine Sword?"

Why would the Merman Divine Sword that Kunlun had forged for his woman appear in the Holy Spirit Continent?

Could it be...

Holy Spirit Goldfeather couldn't help but think of the merman called Na Luo.

Back then, when Holy Spirit Goldfeather was weak, he hid in Mo Xiao's body.

Because Mo Xiao cultivated at lightning speed, his soul power also quickly recovered. Eight hundred years ago, as soon as Holy Spirit Goldfeather recovered his spiritual power, he sensed Kunlun's bloodline power. He followed that power and found Na Luo, who was hiding in the crack of the Divine Sea's deep sea.

Chapter 966: There Is No Central Pagoda in the Kunlun Mystic Realm

Na Luo looked very similar to Kunlun's wife, Na Ling. He recognized Na Luo at a glance.

He knew that the little merman was most likely Kunlun's daughter.

In the ancient era, a group of Divine Master powerhouses had appeared. The Slaughter Divine Master, Kunlun, was one of the top powerhouses. He came from an ordinary background, but he wasn't inferior to the Nine-Tailed Fox, the Divine Phoenix, and the Sky Dragon Divine Master.

In front of Kunlun, Holy Spirit Goldfeather was just a lackey.

Holy Spirit Goldfeather was afraid that the little merman called Na Luo would obstruct his revival, so he deliberately sent the fake news that mermen could comprehend the power of the Divine Master after eating the heart of an ancient merman.

At that time, the merfolk and the elves fought frequently. In order to win, the merfolk did everything they could. They really brought a large number of experts to the Divine Sea to surround and kill the woman called Na Luo.

However, what Holy Spirit Goldfeather didn't notice was that the Merman Divine Sword that Kunlun had personally forged had also spread to the Holy Spirit Continent with Na Luo.

Even in ancient times, the Merman Divine Sword was a lethal weapon.

Kunlun mainly cultivated the Dao of Slaughter, and his beast form wife, Na Ling, was a murderous and ferocious demon beast.

Na Ling's beloved weapon was this Merman Divine Sword.

From this, it could be seen how destructive the Merman Divine Sword was.

Therefore, when he saw that Dino had actually successfully awakened the divine power of the Merman Divine Sword, Holy Spirit Goldfeather finally felt a trace of fear.

Seeing that the power of the Merman Divine Sword was about to be gathered, Holy Spirit Goldfeather decided to strike first. His hands stirred the abyssal mouth.

24 children emitting a destructive aura quickly flew out of the abyssal mouth. They held hands as they sang and danced in the black fog—

“Spring will arrive, rain will arrive, and spring awakening will arrive. Spring will arrive... with 24 children. They will hold hands and circle around. After circling around, they will be full...”

The children recited a creepy nursery rhyme that no one had ever heard before.

As they chanted, the children's bodies grew larger and larger, and the abyssal mouth in the sky became larger and larger.

Soon, those children grew into the appearance of adults.

They suddenly stopped and lowered their heads. Then, they opened their empty white eyes and muttered to the Beast Tamers below, "I've grown up. I can't eat my fill. After devouring all the luck..." They suddenly held hands and rushed towards Dino as they chanted in a sinister voice, "We'll eat babies!"

They opened their scarlet mouths to bite Dino, Yu Huang, and the others.

Dino attacked again. "Rage of all masters, kill God!"

A powerful golden light that was enough to pierce through the darkness suddenly erupted from the Merman Divine Sword that had condensed ten thousand Beast Tamers.

"Ah!"

The golden light quickly shot towards the greedy phantoms.

The 24 of them covered their eyes at the same time and wailed.

They cried out for a while before their bodies were torn into countless pieces by the golden light of the Merman Divine Sword.

Seeing this, Dino suddenly shook off Sheng Lingfeng and the others' shoulders and flew towards the black abyssal mouth in the sky with a sword in one hand.

After the golden sword stabbed into the huge mouth, it was as if it had pierced into an endless fog.

However, when the Merman Divine Sword stabbed into the fog, a shrill scream suddenly sounded. "Ah!!"

The black room suddenly disappeared.

Madam Xuanyuan's body fell rapidly from the sky towards the Moon Pointing Mountain.

Just as Madam Xuanyuan was about to land, a man in a long robe ran out of Madam Xuanyuan's body and ran out of the Eight Towers Mountain in the blink of an eye.

"Holy Spirit Goldfeather has escaped!"

Holy Spirit Goldfeather ran towards the extreme north.

Lin Jiansheng quickly closed his eyes and silently chanted the Spirit Purification Incantation.

However—

Through his psychic tentacles, he realized that his psychic power was unable to harm Holy Spirit Goldfeather's soul.

Xiao Shu noticed that Lin Jiansheng was frowning. He guessed that Lin Jiansheng's psychic power wouldn't be able to hurt Holy Spirit Goldfeather, so he told Lin Jiansheng, "God Ling Xiao, psychic power, and spiritual power are all energy that belongs to the Holy Spirit Continent. Your energy was given to you by him. Your psychic power can't hurt him at all."

Upon hearing this, Lin Jiansheng felt defeated.

Dino held the Merman Divine Sword as he led a group of Beast Tamers in the direction where Holy Spirit Goldfeather was escaping.

However, Holy Spirit Goldfeather was the ruler of this world. If he wanted to escape, no one would notice him at all.

When Dino and the others reached the border between the Divine Realm Continent and the north of the Blazing Realm Continent, they discovered that Holy Spirit Goldfeather had disappeared.

"Where is he hiding?"

This place wasn't far from the abyss.

Dino looked at Xiao Shu and frowned. "Could it be that they entered the abyss?"

Xiao Shu thought of a bottomless abyss rift in the Abyssal Origin Forest, but couldn't make up his mind.

Perhaps he was hiding in the abyss rift.

At this moment, Yu Huang suddenly shook her head and said, "No, he went to the north."

When Sheng Xiao looked at Yu Huang, he guessed her thoughts and widened his eyes as he said in shock, "You mean, he hid in the Central Pagoda?!"

Upon hearing the name 'Central Pagoda', Dino and the others revealed enlightened expressions.

"That's right. There's no safer place than the Central Pagoda."

Xiao Shu nodded and said, "The Central Pagoda is the hub connecting every small world to the Great World. The Central Pagoda is indeed his best hiding place."

"The Central Pagoda is unpredictable. What can we do to find him?" Gold Ingot, who had just rushed over from the Divine Realm Academy to support Dino and the others, frowned and said, "Moreover, even if we can find his hiding place in the Central Pagoda, it will be very difficult for us to completely get rid of him."

They could finally tell that Holy Spirit Goldfeather was indeed very resilient.

Sheng Lingfeng said in a low voice, "We've already fought it out with him. Even if he hides in the Central Pagoda, we have to capture him! Even if he can't be completely destroyed by us, we have to capture him and chop him into pieces!"

"We can't destroy him, but we can think of a way to imprison him. There must be a way to stop him from continuing to do evil!"

"That's right!" Everyone supported Sheng Lingfeng's decision.

Carasso said, "I'll go back and mobilize the elven Beast Tamer warriors to go to the Central Pagoda to participate in the God Slaying War!"

Dietrich nodded and said, "I can also persuade the Beast Clan to participate in the God Slaying War." After all, this concerned the survival of the entire Holy Spirit Continent. If the operation failed, everyone would die.

At this time, working together and uniting was the only way.

Dongfang Xiagui and the others returned. They planned to persuade the Beast Tamers of the Ice Domain Continent and the Blazing Realm Continent to participate in the battle.

After everyone left, Xiao Shu walked to Sheng Lingfeng and said, "Prime Master Lingfeng, our demon beast race also wants to participate in this battle."

Sheng Lingfeng looked at him, but didn't rashly express his stance.

Knowing what Sheng Lingfeng was worried about, Xiao Shu laughed and said, "Holy Spirit Goldfeather is the enemy of the entire Holy Spirit Continent. Although the demon beast race is enemies with the four races, this doesn't stop us from joining forces to fight the common enemy."

The enemy of an enemy was a friend.

The Jade Illusion Continent had disappeared, so the cultivation world had lost a portion of its experts. With the abilities of the four races alone, it was indeed difficult to defeat Holy Spirit Goldfeather.

With the help of the Demon Beast Clan, their combat strength was indeed stronger.

"Then let's form an alliance."

"Sure."

Xiao Shu was about to leave.

Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao suddenly walked towards him.

Xiao Shu thought that the two of them were going to say goodbye to him, but he heard Yu Huang say, "Xiao Shu, Brother Xiao, I suddenly thought of something."

Xiao Shu looked at Yu Huang in confusion. "What?"

Yu Huang frowned and said, "Did you notice that there's no Central Pagoda in the Kunlun Mystic Realm?"

Xiao Shu froze.

That's right, the Kunlun Mystic Realm used to belong to the three thousand worlds. Why wasn't there a Central Pagoda inside?

Sheng Xiao was enlightened when he heard Yu Huang's hint.

Sheng Xiao said, "Because Kunlun Divine Master took the initiative to cut off the connection between the Kunlun Mystic Realm and the three thousand worlds in order to avoid that person's pursuit. So..."

Sheng Xiao's heart raced." The Central Pagoda is the hub between every world and the Divine Master and the three thousand worlds! "

Xiao Shu widened his eyes in shock.

Xiao Shu wouldn't have thought of this if Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao had not mentioned it.

Hearing their words, Xiao Shu was enlightened.

"If..." Xiao Shu couldn't help but lick his dry lips as he made a crazy and bold suggestion." If we push down the Central Pagoda, what will happen? "

Chapter 967: The Central Pagoda Is the Origin of Cultivation

Push down the Central Pagoda.

If these words were to spread, who wouldn't point at Xiao Shu's nose and call him a lunatic?

What was the Central Pagoda?

That was the only bridge between the Holy Spirit Continent and the three thousand worlds. If the Central Pagoda fell, the Holy Spirit Continent would become a small world that no one cared about. Powerful Beast Tamers couldn't go to the Upper World to further their studies, and Beast Tamers who traveled the Upper World to further their studies couldn't return home.

In short, this was a suggestion that no one would agree with.

However, Yu Huang, Sheng Xiao, and the others were also lunatics.

Madmen and lunatics sympathized with each other.

"As expected of my good friend." Yu Huang clenched her fists and patted Xiao Shu's chest.

Xiao Shu rubbed his numb chest and looked up at Sheng Xiao as he said, "Can't you control your wife? Does she not know how strong she is?" Then, he looked at Yu Huang resentfully, as if he was weak and pitiful and Yu Huang was a bully.

Sheng Xiao looked at Yu Huang dotingly, but also looked helpless as he said, "She has always been the boss, while I'm her underling."

He was referring to family status.

However, Xiao Shu revealed a roguish smile as he glanced at Sheng Xiao's muscular body ambiguously and said in disbelief, "So, you're the one who gets pressed down every time!"

Sheng Xiao was stunned.

Yu Huang kicked Xiao Shu's calf. Xiao Shu hurriedly jumped back, waved at them, and ran. After running far away, he shouted, "Help me take good care of Rong'er!"

"Hooligan!" Yu Huang stopped smiling and looked back at Sheng Xiao. She saw Sheng Lingfeng walking towards them with Ji Linyuan, Gold Ingot, and the others. "What were you guys talking about?"

They lowered their voices and Sheng Lingfeng and the others were also talking to the other experts just now, so they didn't pay attention.

They disdained to eavesdrop.

Sheng Xiao looked in the direction of the far north and said, "We have a plan."

"Oh really?" Gold Ingot was somewhat shocked.

As Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang's former homeroom teacher, Gold Ingot knew them well. He chewed on peanuts as he asked them, "What plan? The plan to defeat Holy Spirit Goldfeather?" Gold Ingot sounded unhappy when he mentioned Holy Spirit Goldfeather's surname.

He felt uncomfortable when he thought about how he had the same surname as Holy Spirit Goldfeather.

"Yes." Nodding her head, Yu Huang said lightly, "We plan to destroy the Central Pagoda."

"Pfft!" Gold Ingot spat out a mouthful of peanuts.

Sheng Lingfeng, Ji Linyuan, and the others also revealed shocked expressions.

Ji Linyuan suspected that he had misheard her, so he asked hesitantly, "Destroy what?"

Sheng Xiao said word by word, "Central Pagoda."

Everyone was speechless.

"Crazy." Gold Ingot shook his head and scolded, "Have you guys gone crazy? Is the Central Pagoda something we can destroy? If we destroy the Central Pagoda, we won't be able to go to the Great World in the future. Those seniors who are still traveling in the Great World won't be able to return to the Holy Spirit Continent."

"Destroying the Central Pagoda means completely severing our connection with the three thousand worlds!"

Sheng Lingfeng agreed with Gold Ingot very much. He said, "The Central Pagoda can't be destroyed."

At the side, Ji Linyuan nodded in agreement. "Indeed, there is a Central Pagoda in every world in the three thousand worlds. So far, no world has dared to destroy the Central Pagoda."

Hearing this, Yu Huang looked up at Ji Linyuan and suddenly asked, "Why is everyone filled with pious faith in the Central Pagoda and firmly believe that the Central Pagoda can't be destroyed?"

Sheng Lingfeng and the others were stunned by Yu Huang's question.

The few of them looked at each other. For a moment, they couldn't answer this question.

Yu Huang sneered and said, "The moment every child is born and their intelligence is awakened, they will be taught by their elders and parents that the Central Pagoda is sacred and indestructible. I want to know who said that the Central Pagoda is sacred and indestructible?"

Sheng Lingfeng and the others couldn't answer.

Sheng Xiao also looked puzzled.

“Father, Eldest Senior Brother, Teacher, do you know who built the Central Pagoda? And how it was built?”

Sheng Lingfeng and the others remained silent.

Because they didn’t know the truth.

After a long silence, Sheng Lingfeng said hesitantly, “How long has the Central Pagoda existed is a mystery. In any case, ten thousand years ago, when the demon beast race ruled the world, the Central Pagoda already existed.”

“Is that so?” Yu Huang crossed her arms and looked at the extreme north where the Central Pagoda existed as she said, “The combat strength of demon beasts was very powerful. At that time, they massacred the four races and did all sorts of evil deeds, but no demon beast took the initiative to attack the Central Pagoda. Don’t you think it’s strange?”

Sheng Lingfeng finally understood what Yu Huang was hinting at.

He glanced at Sheng Xiao and Yu Huang. Then, he lowered his eyes and said in a bewildered tone, “You think that the Central Pagoda is the cultivation source of a Divine Master?”

Hearing Sheng Lingfeng’s words, Ji Linyuan, Gold Ingot, and the others were shocked.

Yu Huang smiled and remained silent.

Sheng Xiao nodded. “That’s right. We suspect that the Central Pagoda is the source of a Divine Master’s cultivation.”

The Kunlun Divine Master had severed his connection with the three thousand worlds back then. Coincidentally, the Central Pagoda didn’t exist in the Kunlun Mystic Realm. This gave Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao inspiration.

Sheng Xiao told Sheng Lingfeng, “Father, every time I comprehend the power of the Divine Master, I will be pulled into a chaotic world by a mysterious force. At first, there was nothing in that world. There was no Holy Spirit, plants, soil, or water source. But there was a Central Pagoda there.”

Then, Sheng Xiao lowered his head and asked Yu Huang, “I think your situation is similar to mine.”

“That’s right.” Yu Huang told them, “The Central Pagoda towers into the clouds, but I can only enter the first level of the pagoda. I think that perhaps the day I successfully open the doors of all the pagodas will be the day I break through to the Divine Master Realm. Brother Xiao, what about you?”

Sheng Xiao said, “I can only enter the first level of the tower, like you.”

Sheng Lingfeng and the others had not comprehended the power of the Divine Master, so they naturally didn’t know that such a strange phenomenon existed in the Divine Master power’s small world.

After knowing that Yu Huang, Sheng Xiao, and the others had a Central Pagoda in their small world, Sheng Lingfeng gradually agreed with their guess. “If the Central Pagoda is really the origin of a Divine Master’s ability, then destroying the Central Pagoda might be the only way to completely destroy Holy Spirit Goldfeather.”

“But.” Gold Ingot said with a frown, “If the Central Pagoda is destroyed, our children won’t be able to reach the Great World.”

Chapter 968: Wanting to Die

Gold Ingot looked at Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao with pity as he said, “The spiritual power of a world is very limited. The reason few top-notch powerhouses appear in the Holy Spirit Continent is that the spiritual power of our world is limited. The spiritual power of the Great World is more abundant. Yu Huang and the others can only achieve the ultimate breakthrough if they go to the Great World.”

Everyone knew what he meant by ‘ultimate breakthrough’.

“That’s right.” Ji Linyuan completely agreed with Gold Ingot’s opinion. He told Yu Huang and the others, “I’m from the Great World. Grand Master Gold Ingot and Prime Master Lingfeng have also gone to the Great World to travel. You can’t imagine how rich the resources of the Great World are.”

“The two of you are extremely talented children. You guys are so young, but you can already achieve such extraordinary achievements in the Holy Spirit Continent. If we send you to the Great World, you will definitely be able to create more miracles. Staying in the Holy Spirit Continent is a waste of your talent.”

“That’s right.” Sheng Lingfeng sighed. “We can stay in the Holy Spirit Continent and wait for death, but you guys can’t. Destroying the path to the Great World is ruining the future of you young people.”

They wanted to completely kill Holy Spirit Goldfeather, but they were unwilling to ruin the future of Yu Huang and the other outstanding youths.

Yu Huang and Sheng Xiao felt conflicted and heavy-hearted when they heard that.

The Great World was filled with temptation for them. They all wanted to go take a look. However, Holy Spirit Goldfeather was a scourge and had to be eliminated.

Gold Ingot couldn’t help but lament, “If only there was a way to destroy the Central Pagoda but still send you guys to the Great World.”

“Madam Xuanyuan is still breathing!”

Suddenly, Lin Jiansheng’s roar attracted Yu Huang and the others’ attention.

Yu Huang and the others hurriedly flew to the Eight Towers Mountain and landed in front of the Patriarch’s residence. They saw Lin Jiansheng supporting Madam Xuanyuan and asking Grand Master Ye Qing’an to treat her.

With Ye Qing’an’s help, Madam Xuanyuan slowly opened her eyes.

She stared at Sheng Lingfeng and the others for a moment before asking in shock, “Where am I? Why are you all here?”

Madam Xuanyuan pushed Lin Jiansheng and Ye Qing’an away and wanted to stand up.

However, her body was seriously injured, so she couldn't stand up on her own.

Seeing this, Yu Huang reached out to help her.

Madam Xuanyuan stood up shakily and was instantly dumbfounded when she realized that she was actually standing on the Moon Pointing Mountain. "I..." Madam Xuanyuan looked at Sheng Lingfeng in confusion and asked in shock, "Prime Master Lingfeng, why am I here? I..."

She thought of something and her expression instantly became resentful. She bit her lip as she asked hatefully, "Where's Xuanyuan Shen? Where's that bastard Xuanyuan Shen?"

Seeing Madam Xuanyuan's reaction, Sheng Lingfeng looked up and asked Ye Qing'an, "What's wrong with her?"

Ye Qing'an frowned and shook his head as he said, "Her body was possessed by Holy Spirit Goldfeather. Her memories are still on the day Xuanyuan Shen died."

Hearing Ye Qing'an's explanation, Madam Xuanyuan was silent for a full two minutes. She didn't have the courage to ask what had happened in the past three years.

"Holy Spirit Goldfeather..." Madam Xuanyuan vaguely remembered that before she lost consciousness, she had seen the soul of a man in an ancient robe float out of Xuanyuan Shen's body and enter her body!

Coupled with Ye Qing'an's words, Madam Xuanyuan guessed the man's identity.

When she realized that her body had been occupied by that man for three years, Madam Xuanyuan's face turned pale from fear. She took a step forward and held Sheng Lingfeng's arm as she shouted anxiously, "What has he done? What has he done with my identity in the past three years?!"

Sheng Lingfeng didn't know how to explain everything to Madam Xuanyuan. He sighed and said, "You'll know when you return to the Xuanyuan Clan to take a look."

Madam Xuanyuan was stunned.

At this moment, Ji Linyuan told Madam Xuanyuan, "First, he killed your senior sister, Liuli Xiangsi, then controlled the upper echelons of the Liuli Clan and became the Liuli Clan's Patriarch. Then, he married off 24 female disciples of the Liuli Clan and planned to use the children in their stomachs to nurture the holy children to achieve his revival. This afternoon, he ordered Xuanyuan Ming to gather all the experts in the Xuanyuan Clan and the Liuli Clan above the Supreme Master cultivation level. Then..."

"Then... what happened?" Madam Xuanyuan had already guessed a terrifying possibility.

Ji Linyuan closed his eyes and sighed. "He used your body to kill all the experts of the two clans and snatched their spiritual power."

Hearing this, Madam Xuanyuan plopped down on the ground.

"I destroyed the Xuanyuan Clan and the Liuli Clan?" Madam Xuanyuan extended her trembling hands. As she looked at her fair and slender hands with bloodshot eyes, she shouted, "I killed them! I actually killed all of them!"

She burst into tears.

Thinking of something, Madam Xuanyuan suddenly looked up at Ji Linyuan and asked anxiously, "Where's Ming'er? Is Ming'er still alive?"

Facing Madam Xuanyuan's question, Sheng Lingfeng and the others remained silent.

Seeing this, Madam Xuanyuan understood.

Ming'er was also gone.

Madam Xuanyuan refused to accept this sad truth. She shook her head as she denied it over and over again. "This is impossible, impossible!"

"Ming'er is only at the late-stage Master Realm. Didn't you say that the heavens only killed Supreme Master experts? Ming'er is only a Master. How could he die?!"

Sheng Lingfeng said, "You were controlled by Holy Spirit Goldfeather for three years. Last year... Ming'er broke through to the Supreme Master Realm."

Madam Xuanyuan's eyes widened and she froze.

"Ah!"

"I actually killed my child with my own hands!"

Madam Xuanyuan suddenly staggered to her feet and ran to the left like a lunatic. Without hesitation, she jumped down from the spot where Liuli Luoluo had jumped off the cliff.

Sheng Lingfeng and the others didn't save her.

Even if she didn't kill Xuanyuan Ming or the experts of the Xuanyuan Clan and the Liuli Clan, they died because of her.

Her hands were stained with the blood of all the experts of the two races and her biological son. She didn't want to live anymore.

To a person who wanted to die, saving her was useless anyway.

When Yu Huang heard Madam Xuanyuan's cries when she fell off the cliff, she slowly closed her eyes and sighed silently.

At this moment, there was another person sitting in the courtyard by the cliff.

It was Liuli Luoluo.

She should have died after jumping off the cliff earlier, but she was saved by Lin Jiansheng, who was lying in ambush under the thick fog.

Liuli Luoluo had been sitting under the ginkgo tree in the courtyard, so she saw Madam Xuanyuan jump down from there.

Madam Xuanyuan cried the entire time as she fell.

It was only when she could no longer hear Madam Xuanyuan's shout that Liuli Luoluo stood up while gripping the ginkgo tree.

Just like Madam Xuanyuan, Liuli Luoluo also felt deeply guilty and wanted to die.

Chapter 969: Don't Say Bye, Just Say See You Later (1)

She got up and walked to the railing by the cliff. Just as she was about to step on the railing, she suddenly heard Sheng Xiao's voice. "You still owe him an apology. Are you planning to die just like that?"

Liuli Luoluo retracted her leg.

She turned around and looked at Sheng Xiao.

She had loved Sheng Xiao for a few years. Every time she saw him, she would be overjoyed and her heart would race. But now, when she looked at Sheng Xiao, she was very calm. When she thought of Xuanyuan Chen, her heart would race uncontrollably and she would feel a dull aching sensation.

Liuli Luoluo knew who Sheng Xiao was talking about. She said, "All the Xuanyuan Clan experts above the Supreme Master level are dead." As a member of the Xuanyuan Clan, Xuanyuan Chen was naturally one of the experts.

"No." Sheng Xiao said, "The Holy Spirit Academy is holding a graduation assessment. Xuanyuan Chen is still in the abyss."

He was still alive!

Liuli Luoluo's eyes lit up.

However, Liuli Luoluo felt ashamed when she thought of what she had done to Xuanyuan Chen. She replied hoarsely, "He hates me. Even if I apologize, he won't forgive me."

Sheng Xiao suddenly asked, "Do you know how dangerous the Kunlun Mystic Realm is?"

Liuli Luoluo didn't understand why Sheng Xiao suddenly mentioned the Kunlun Mystic Realm. She hesitated for a moment before saying, "I heard that the demon beasts in the Kunlun Mystic Realm move in groups. It's an extremely dangerous environment."

Sheng Xiao nodded. "Even I almost died a few times."

Liuli Luoluo was puzzled. "What are you trying to say?"

Sheng Xiao told her, "I heard from Dean Di that when he received a distress signal and ran to the Kunlun Mystic Realm to find Xuanyuan Chen, one of Xuanyuan Chen's legs had been bitten off by a demon beast. Dean Di found Xuanyuan Chen in a pile of demon beast feces. When he found him, he was holding the graduation badge of the Divine Realm Academy."

After a pause, Sheng Xiao glanced at Liuli Luoluo and said, "It's your graduation badge." The graduation badge of the Divine Realm Academy was the most precious thing to every graduate of the Divine Realm Academy. They would only give the badge to the person they loved the most.

Liuli Luoluo gave her badge to Xuanyuan Chen.

Xuanyuan Chen's badge was hidden in Liuli Luoluo's agate necklace. She always wore it.

"He's a cultivation maniac, but you're his motivation to live on." With that, Sheng Xiao turned around and left.

He had said so much. If Liuli Luoluo still wanted to die, Sheng Xiao wouldn't stop her.

He couldn't be bothered to save someone who wanted to die.

Sheng Xiao had just walked to Yu Huang's side when he heard Liuli Luoluo's footsteps.

Sheng Xiao tilted his head and looked at her. He thought that Liuli Luoluo had something to say to her. However, Liuli Luoluo walked past him and walked to Ji Linyuan.

Ji Linyuan looked at his 'wife' with an awkward expression.

"Mr. Linyuan," Liuli Luoluo called out politely.

Seeing that Liuli Luoluo finally stopped calling him Brother Linyuan in that coquettish voice, Ji Linyuan heaved a sigh of relief.

Liuli Luoluo pulled out the ring on her ring finger and handed it to Ji Linyuan. Then, she raised her head and said sincerely, "I've seen many men in the world with my former mentor, but you're a rare gentleman. In the past three years, I've caused you a lot of trouble. I'm deeply sorry."

Ji Linyuan was already old, so how could he let a young lady take the initiative to apologize to him?

Ji Linyuan hurriedly replied, "Miss Luoluo, you're a good girl. You only did those things because you were controlled by someone else. What you've done in the past three years wasn't what you wanted. We won't blame you."

Hearing this, Liuli Luoluo smiled sincerely.

"Let's get a divorce. After the commotion passes, if we survive, we'll go to the marriage management office to officially get a divorce. Now, I want to see the person I'm most worried about." Liuli Luoluo stuffed the ring into Ji Linyuan's palm.

Before she left, she suddenly blinked at Ji Linyuan and said, "Mr. Linyuan, I wish you the best of luck in finding your first love!"

Ji Linyuan was speechless.

Liuli Luoluo walked down the mountain alone.

From now on, she would be the backbone of all the weak disciples of the Liuli Clan.

As Yu Huang stared at Liuli Luoluo's back, she couldn't help but mock Sheng Xiao, "I didn't expect you to be so concerned about her."

Chapter 970: Don't Say Bye, Just Say See You Later (2)

Sheng Xiao couldn't guess what Yu Huang was thinking when she said that.

He was worried that Yu Huang would be jealous.

After Sheng Xiao looked down at Yu Huang and saw her mirthful look, he was stunned and couldn't help but ask, "Aren't you angry?"

Yu Huang bent her index finger and touched Sheng Xiao's forehead as she said, "I'm proud of you."

Why should she be angry?

Her man was so outstanding. How could she bear to be angry?

After Liuli Luoluo left, Gold Ingot, Di Ruofeng, and the others bid farewell one after another. They planned to return to the Divine Realm Academy. Before they left, Di Ruofeng said to Sheng Lingfeng, "Yufu City and the Divine Realm Academy are the safest places on the Holy Spirit Continent. Prime Master Lingfeng, I hope you can lift the restriction on Yufu City and protect these young children on the continent. Only then can we go to the final battle in peace."

Sheng Lingfeng and Di Ruofeng had the same thought. He said, "I have the same thought. In addition, the underground refuge in the Divine Realm Continent has already been built. I will get the leaders of the various countries to organize the young children and youths in their territory and send them to the refuge."

For the past three years, Sheng Lingfeng had not been idle.

Under his supervision, the various countries on the continent temporarily stopped fighting and jointly sent troops to build underground shelters. Because of the limited time, the underground shelters were not built on a large scale. The underground shelters on every continent could only protect a million civilians at most.

Other than children, only the most precious scientific and technological talents of the various countries and the supreme rulers had the right to enter the refuge.

Other than this group of people, the lives of the other civilians and Beast Tamers could only be left to fate.

Before the calamity arrived, Sheng Lingfeng could only protect a portion of people.

In the final battle, it was inevitable that there would be sacrifices.

Sheng Lingfeng was busy and needed Sheng Xiao's help with many things, so he left with Sheng Xiao.

Sheng Lingfeng was going to the Alliance Headquarters to take charge of the situation while Sheng Xiao was going back to Yufu City to prepare for the migration.

Yu Huang gazed at the silent Eight Towers Mountain. When she thought about how the First Elder and the other Beast Tamers had been devoured by Holy Spirit Goldfeather, a strong sense of hatred arose in her heart.

She clenched her fists and gritted her teeth. She would destroy Holy Spirit Goldfeather no matter what!

Yufu City was going to become a wartime child protection center, so the Sheng Clan residents living in the city could only move out first.

If the battle ended and they were still alive, they would move back.

These clansmen had lived in Yufu City for their entire lives. Now that they were asked to move out of their homes and hand them over to others, they couldn't help but feel sad and reluctant.

On the way back to the city, Sheng Xiao was tense.

He knew that it definitely wasn't easy to organize the migration of the clansmen. He was even prepared to be insulted and attacked by the clansmen. However, when he rushed back to Yufu City, he saw a scene that moved him—

All the Sheng Clan members, be it men, women, old, or young, had packed their precious things. They dragged their suitcases and stood in line in the square outside the city wall. Their children stood on the city wall and cried as they said goodbye to them.

"See you after the war, Dad and Mom!"

"Grandpa, Grandma, see you again after the war!"

"Grandpa, Grandma, see you again after the war!"

They didn't say goodbye, only that they would see them again after the war.

"See you again" was a phrase filled with hope and anticipation.

The clansmen who were queuing up for the ship to take them away couldn't help but secretly wipe their tears when they heard the children say goodbye.

Staying in Yufu City was the safest for them. However, for the future of the continent and to let more children survive, they could only endure the pain of being separated from their children and grandchildren and leave their homes with their families and clansmen to live in the temporary migration area.

Sheng Xiao's eyes teared up when he saw this.

At that moment, someone suddenly saw Sheng Xiao.

"Young Master Sheng!"

When the friendly clansmen saw Sheng Xiao, they raised their hands at him.

Sheng Xiao put away the Dragon Sword and pursed his lips as he walked through the crowded square towards the city wall.

Sheng Xiao was the son of the Patriarch. He was handsome and upright. He was also the number one genius on the continent, so he was the most popular celebrity in Yufu City and was liked and loved by all the people.

In the past, when Sheng Xiao returned to the city, although the residents would smile and greet him, they didn't dare to touch him.

But today, when Sheng Xiao walked into the crowd, an old granny held his arm.

As Sheng Xiao stared at the old lady's white hair, he shouted in a low voice, "Granny Luo." He recognized the old lady. She was the best embroidery master in the city. Every piece she made could be sold for tens of thousands.

Everyone in the city called her Granny Luo.

The old lady held back her tears as she asked him, "Young Master, will we die? Can we still come back?"

Upon hearing the old lady's question, the other clansmen fell silent.

As Sheng Xiao looked at the old lady, he suddenly thought of Mr. Chen, whom they met at the car shop when they went to investigate the Jade Illusion Continent a few days ago.

That night, Mr. Zhang asked them the same question.

—Will we die?

How did Yu Huang answer him that night?

"When the calamity descends, the Beast Tamers and soldiers will definitely be the people at the forefront. Even if you guys die, we will die before you guys." Sheng Xiao gave the same answer as Yu Huang.

The old lady was stunned when she heard Sheng Xiao's answer. Then, she hugged him tightly.

"Young Master, you have to return to Yufu City with us!"

"That's right, Young Master. You must survive!"

They trapped Sheng Xiao in a tight circle and made him swear to come back alive.

As Sheng Xiao looked up at the young children on the city wall, he thought—

He didn't dare not to return to Yufu City.
