Chapter 361 Shirley Is Pregnant

Shirley had been busy with her work and did not have much time to look at her phone, much less to pay attention to the entertainment gossip.

Therefore, even if the 'explosive scandal' about her had already gone viral on the Internet, Shirley still did not know anything.

After she finished her work, it was time to get off work.

Shirley stretched herself and leaned her head against the pillow of the office chair. She looked at the ceiling and thought about how to get the Seven-colored Glazed Cup.

She picked up the coffee that Renee had brewed for her and was about to take a sip.

"Ms. Wilson, you can't drink coffee?"

Renee rushed in, snatched the coffee cup from her hand, and said with a serious look, "How can you still drink coffee?"

Shirley was confused. "Why can't I drink coffee?"

"Coffee..."

Renee quickly glanced at Shirley's stomach. Thinking of Shirley's strong personality, Renee knew that Shirley would be too embarrassed to stay, so she said vaguely, "Coffee is not good for your health. Drink milk. I will heat up a glass of milk for you. It is nutritious and good for your health."

"Well..."

Shirley thought about it and agreed. "You are right. My stomach is a little uncomfortable recently. It is good to drink some milk."

"It's normal that you're not feeling well. My mother said that women would feel the same when they first encountered this situation. You'd better stay in bed often. Otherwise, you will feel worse."

"What? I can't even get off the bed?"

The more Shirley heard, the more confused she became.

With the help of the weak light from her phone, Shirley was surprised to find that Braden's desk was full of famous anime figurines.

There were Iron Men, Pokemon, Captain America, and the like.

Shirley thought, it's so funny! Does he have a split personality? He usually looks cold, but I didn't think that he would love anime figurines.

Shirley held the delicate and palm-sized Pokemon and looked at it again and again.

She couldn't help but laugh when she imagined Braden sitting in front of the desk and fiddling with the figurine with a cold face.

Shirley also liked anime figurines. When she was a child, other than fiddling with some bottles and jars in the laboratory, she liked to watch some inspiring or funny comics.

The anime figurines she liked were almost the same as what Braden liked.

Shirley felt very emotional. They had divorced for so many years, and only now did she realize that she had a common hobby with her ex-husband Apart from the anime figurines, Shirley found that inside the huge glass cabinet were not rare treasures but Lego toys. There was a large Eiffel Tower, heavy ships, Transformers, motorcycles, and so on.

Shirley thought, I didn't expect that he also likes block buildings. Moreover. He even managed to build such a difficult spaceship!

Shirley discovered another hobby in common with him, which was that they were both passionate about putting together Lego building blocks.

She looked at the Lego spaceship in Braden's cabinet with shock. It was more than 3 feet wide and was made from 9,999 large and small blocks. No one would have the patience to put them together if he or she didn't like Lego.

Moreover, this spaceship was limited in quantity. There were only

Chapter 363 Braden Teases Shirley

What Shirley didn't know was that the glass cabinet was made of special material. It couldn't reflect light from the front but from the side.

Coincidentally, Braden was standing on the side. As long as he looked down, he could see Shirley under the bed.

When Braden found that the one lying under the bed wasn't someone else but Shirley, his tiredness was gone, and he was suddenly excited.

Unconsciously, he smiled.

Braden thought, if I guessed it right, she should be here to steal Seven-colored Glazed Cup. She's so bold.

Braden raised his eyebrows and decided to tease Shirley Braden sat down on the sofa with his long legs crossed, looking elegant and noble.

He held his forehead with his long fingers, shook his head, and put on a pitiful look. "Grandfather, there are many things you don't know. I have tried to chase her back. But you don't understand Shirley. She is not as gentle and obedient as you think. In private, she is just a tigress. She often bullies me, and my heart is broken."

Shirley was stunned.

She thought, did he chase me?

Howard took it seriously. Then he asked seriously, "Can she bully you?"

Braden nodded. His deep eyes were slightly red. He said pitifully, "You were all deceived by her. In private, she hit me and scolded me whenever she wanted to. She splashed red wine or coffee on me. However, I was magnanimous and didn't want to damage her good reputation in your hearts, so I chose to bear it alone."

"What? She even splashed you with red wine and coffee? I don't buy it."

Chapter 364 Alina's Gift

Shirley wondered, who made the call? What's the surprise?

She was under the bed and could not hear clearly.

But it was certain that she had to stay for a while longer.

She cursed quietly and was worried that she would be struck there for the whole night.

Shirley pounded on the ground and was about to go crazy!

About ten minutes later, Alina knocked on the door of Braden's bedroom.

"Are you here so quickly?"

Braden opened the door and was surprised to see Alina.

"Of course!"

Alina smiled brightly and directly went for Braden. She put her arms around his neck and looked up at him.

"Actually, I had been downstairs when I called you. I thought you must be here and indeed found you.

We

know each other very well and deserve to be good friends!"

Braden had been used to getting close to Alina and didn't feel anything wrong with it.

Alina hugged him as he rubbed her delicate hair with his large hand and teased, "You came to me in the middle of the night and even did your hair. Just tell me what you aim at this time?"

Alina's face turned slightly red as she deliberately said aloud, "What are you talking about? I'm a natural beauty. To be honest, you're fascinated by me, aren't you?"

"Oh, you discovered it. Yes, I've fallen head over heels in love with you!"

Braden crossed his arms and joked.

Chapter 365 Be Humiliated

When it came to marriage, Alina didn't mean it. She wanted to test Braden's thoughts. She did not expect him to take it seriously.

Braden actually thought that this proposal was not bad.

For Alina, it was like suddenly getting a man that she had been in love with for a long time. It was like a dream.

"If you are willing to marry me, the Gilmore family will be handed over to you in the future. I am only responsible for taking good care of you. Anyway, I know nothing about business. If the Gilmore family is handed over to you, I can rest assured."

Alina was already thinking about the beautiful married life between her and Braden. She held Braden's arm and looked up at the bright crystal chandelier. Her voice was excited. "When we get married, we can buy a villa in the western district. The decoration and layout will be according to our wishes. You like anime and building blocks. Then we can reserve a room for you. I will buy you the rarest garage kits and most difficult building blocks in the world...

“We can set our home as a fairyland. Anyway, you can rest assured. I’m totally different from your ex-wife. I will make our life colorful. I will not be like your ex-wife. She’s cold and dull, lame and rigid. That’s why you get tired of the marriage.”

In the past, when Braden had not divorced Shirley, many people often joked about his boring marriage.

Alina could tell that Braden was really tired of marriage at that time. He was tired of his dignified and virtuous wife.

Shirley wasn't afraid at all and made an "OK" gesture. "Go ahead. I'll wait."

"You..."

Alina did not know what to do. She pulled Braden and complained, "Braden, look at her. She's so arrogant. She did something disgraceful and didn't even apologize. How can there be such a shameless woman in this world? You cannot let her off!"

Braden nodded. His handsome face was very serious. "You are right. This kind of shameless person must be punished. So, you can go home first. I will teach her a lesson."

"Ah?"

Alina did not expect that things would turn out this way.

She made a fuss to punish Shirley severely, but Braden sent her away first, which made her feel a little angry.

She was not a busy body.

“You also know that she is my ex-wife. She sneaked into my bedroom mostly because she still had feelings for me. She wanted to use a special way to get me back...”

Braden looked at Shirley, and he revealed with a smile, “It is also our private matter. The two of us will solve this. So you can go now.”

“What?”

Alina’s expression could not help but become a little awkward.

Braden’s words were like a loud slap in her face, making her feel ashamed. She looked especially ridiculous.

She took a deep breath and quickly adjusted her mood. She patted Braden on the shoulder and said with a smile, “Are you serious? You just said we were friends. But now you actually want to drive me out!

Braden didn't know that Shirley liked to pile up building blocks, nor did he know that the woman was an expert in piling up building blocks.

He had intended to use this game that she was not good at to dampen her spirit.

As a result... her performance made him look at her with increased respect.

He saw that Shirley had skillfully pieced together a few building blocks of different shapes and forms.

Her speed, flexible finger movements, and quick-witted brain were not something that ordinary people could have.

“I didn’t expect you to be an expert”

Braden sighed with emotion.

It would take at least an hour for ordinary people to piece together these shapes, but it only took Shirley less than five minutes.

The degree of perfection was almost on par with his.

Shirley did not even look at the manual, and she piled up a few building blocks quickly. Then she revealed a sly and charming smile. “Your eyes are useless. Normally, you can’t see the essence.”

This guy had a smart mind, but he could not see through the hearts of people at all.

In his eyes, Amelie was “gentle, kind, and not scheming”, and Alina was called “generous and frank”. But she was the bad woman who liked to make a fuss. What could she expect him to find?

Braden also sat down and joined Shirley.

His fingers were very beautiful, especially under the illumination of the crystal chandelier. They were slender, with distinct joints, making people involuntarily want to hold them.

Shirley was focused, but her eyes fell on his good-looking hand involuntarily, and her speed naturally slowed

Chapter 368 The Aroma Of The Soul

The next day...

When Shirley woke up, it was already late in the morning.

She lay on the soft bed. The fragrance coming from the bedding was very soothing and special. It was the unique smell of Braden.

It was said that when a person loved another person to the extreme, he would smell the unique fragrance of that person. This fragrance wasn't from perfume or something else but from the fragrance of that person's soul.

Perhaps deep in her mind, Braden was still extremely important to her, so she could still smell his unique scent.

"Damn it!"

When she opened her eyes, she found herself still lying on Braden's bed. She suddenly woke up and bounced up like a spring.

She was the only one in the large room. Braden should have left already.

"Shit, how come I fell asleep?"

Shirley pounded her head, annoyed that she was so weak-willed. She hadn't even finished the building blocks when she fell asleep on Braden's bed.

It was easy to imagine how Braden would mock and humiliate her.

Not only did she fail to get Seven-colored Glazed Cup, but she even gave Braden a chance to mock her. She had really suffered a great loss.

She shook her head, quickly put on her clothes, and got out of bed.

Then, she saw that the Spaceship X3 was placed in the glass cabinet window, intact. She was so shocked that her eyes almost fell out.

Chapter 369 Men Are Bastards

Shirley took Seven-colored Glazed Cup and left the Stewart's home with mixed feelings.

She called Rocco and hoped to settle the matter of the Wilson's house as soon as possible.

The two agreed to meet at a scenic health resort.

Rocco smoked a cigar and sat next to a young woman in her early twenties.

"You're so capable. I didn't expect you to get such a peerless treasure that so many people fought to get so quickly. You are worthy of being my best friend. You have the ability and courage!"

Shirley put Seven-colored Glazed Cup into an exquisite box and kept it firmly in her arms. She smiled and said, "It's just an antique. There are many replacements. It won't prolong your life. Is it worth so many people fighting for it?"

Rocco smiled and did not speak. His eyes behind the lens were staring at the box in Shirley's arms, emitting a cunning light.

It was the young woman sitting next to Rocco who laughed disdainfully at Shirley. "You really don't know its value. It's much more valuable than the elixir of life. It can treat all kinds of intractable diseases. It can also help you repel evil spirits and avoid disaster!

"Legend has it that if it is used to hold soup or wine every day, it can refresh the mind and prolong life. Back then, the Stewart family competed against Crimson Pawnshop for it to save Mr. Braden's life. The Stewart family almost..."

"Shut up!"

Rocco fiercely glared at the young woman as Shirley listened attentively.

The young woman immediately lowered her head, not daring to speak anymore.

Chapter 370 Make Up the Story

Shirley stood in front of the floor-to-ceiling window and adjusted her angle like a special agent. She looked at him attentively and seriously.

Everyone had a habit of prying into others' life, let alone the target was Braden.

Braden, who was on camera, sat upright in front of his desk. He concentrated on reviewing the contract in his hand. His profile was so perfect that it was like a model in a newspaper. It made people fall for him.

"Good, you pretend to be so serious. I don't believe that you don't yawn or pick your nose in private."

The woman stood in front of the floor-to-ceiling window waiting for a good show, hoping to catch a glimpse of Braden's vulgar self.

Not long after, Braden received a phone call. Then, he slowly got up and walked to the floor-to-ceiling window with a cup of coffee in his hand.

"Damn it!"

Just like a thief, Shirley moved away with a guilty conscience.

This guy was narcissistic. He always guessed that she still had feelings for him. If he found out that she was peeking at him with a telescope, she would definitely be misunderstood.

Guessing that he should have moved away, Shirley poked her head out again and carefully searched for his figure.

"Hey, where is he? Why did he disappear so quickly?"

Shirley picked up the telescope, and then bent down to locate the man's position.
